7 questions and it's proper cross-examination as to the 8 accuracy of the transcript.

9 THE COURT: I'll have to have more

10 verification about the tape recording. I just don't 11 think because they happen to have a tape recording of 12 some parts of the hearing that makes it an accurate 13 reproduction of what occurred that could be used in 14 evidence or cross-examination of witnesses.

15 I think you have to call the person who made 16 the tape recording to verify what it is.

17 MR. WEHNER: Judge, I just have to have a good

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
18 faith basis. That's the question on cross-examination.
19 THE COURT: You can ask the question you want,
20 but I don't know if playing the tape as evidence to
2 listen to the tape, and then presume that the tape

2 recording is correct over the transcript. I don't know
2 how you make that leap, that if the tape recording
2 doesn't reflect something that occurred that is 2 reflected in the transcript, then the transcript is

1858

1 wrong without some verification that the tape recording
2 is accurate and complete.

3 MR. WEHNER: Well, would the letter from the 4 Independent Counsel stating what the tape recording is 5 give Your Honor some confidence?

6 THE COURT: I'm not questioning it's a tape
7 recording of some parts of the hearing process. I don't 8 know if it's all of it. If it's turned on and off at 9 times. I have no idea. But for those reasons I'm not 10 going to have the tape recording used as evidence of 11 what the testimony was or was not at the hearing without 12 some authentication and verification of the accuracy of 13 the tape, regardless of whether it was produced by the 14 Independent Counsel or by some other person who was 15 there who took it, without some testimony of the people

16 that took it that it's accurate and complete and covers
17 the areas that were testified to by Miss Dean, covers
18 the hearing that she testified at.

19 MR. WEHNER: I would ask that the original
20 tape be sealed and made part of the record.
2 THE COURT: I think that can be done. I don't

2 have any concern about that. I don't see without 2 something more about the tape that it can be used for 2 evidentiary purposes.
2 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, that's like telling

1859

1 me that I have to go interview the FBI agents to verify
Page 1050

2 that they took a 302.
3 THE COURT: That's very different. That's a
4 very different concept. I think the tape recording -5 all we know is that somebody in the hearing room at 6 times turned on a tape recorder during her hearing.
7 MR. WEHNER: Judge, we know that the 8 Independent Counsel said that that was a tape recording
9 of the hearing.
10 THE COURT: That's not what they're saying to
11 me.
12 MR. WEHNER: I'll bring the letter into the 13 Court.
14 THE COURT: I accept their proffer as given so 15 far that it's not a complete tape recording of the 16 hearing.
17 All right. That's the ruling.
18 Do you want other matters of this witness now
19 or -
20 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir. Could we seal the 2 tape?
2 THE COURT: You can make the tape as an
2 exhibit, mark it as an Exhibit for this hearing just so
2 it's preserved for the record.
2 MR. WEHNER: I'd like to know if I could have 1860

1 a stipulation from the Independent Counsel that the 2 passages reflected in the transcript of Miss Dean being
3 told to raise her right hand and being put under oath
4 does not appear on the tape recording.
5 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, I'd have to listen
6 to the tape again.
7 THE COURT: If we keep it as an Exhibit we can
8 see whether that's true or not.
9 MR. WEHNER: I note for the record, today I
10 asked that the original tape be brought, and I have been 11 given two tape recordings. I do not know which, if 12 either, is the appropriate tape recording but --
13 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, we provided two 14 cassettes. Apparently they each contain some portion of 15 the original tape recording and I really resent
16 Mr. Wehner's insinuations that somehow there's something
17 wrong with the tape recordings.
18 MR. WEHNER: There's nothing wrong with the 19 tape. I don't say that there's anything wrong with the 20 tape recording. I think there's something wrong with 2 the transcript. I'll stipulate that the tapes are

2 accurate.
2 THE COURT: That's not the issue before me
2 right now. I've already ruled on the tapes.
2 MR. WEHNER: I certainly didn't mean to infer

1 that they monkeyed with the tape. If Miss Sweeney got
2 that impression/ I really didn't mean to infer that.
3 I mark these for identification as Dean
4 Exhibit 60 and Dean Exhibit 59 and they're Sanyo
5 mini-tapes.
6 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Dean's Exhibits 59 and 60
7 marked for identification.
8 (Defendant's Exhibit 59 and 60
9 marked for Identification)

10 BY MR. WEHNER:
11 Q Are you aware that the proceedings in front of the 12 sub-committee or the Committee were tape recorded?
13 A No, I was not.
14 Q Are there provisions for tape recording those
15 proceedings?
16 A No. By the Committee?
17 Q By anyone who is present at the Committee.
18 A The hearings are open to the public, so any member
19 of the public can come in and tape record it. There
20 were no rules prohibiting it.
21 Q Was there any rule providing for the tape recording
22 of the testimony?
23 A By the Committee? The Committee did not tape
24 record hearings.
25 Q Did anybody on the staff tape record hearings?

1862

1 A Not for my knowledge.
2 Q Were they on television?
3 A I don't believe so, but I can't --I don't
4 remember.
5 Q Does the Committee keep an archive of whatever may 6 have been recorded on television?
7 A That I do not know.
8 Q You were a staff director, weren't you?
9 A Right.

10 Q Was there an archive when you were a staff
11 director?
12 A I don't believe our hearings would be routinely
13 carried on C-Span.
14 Q That wasn't the question. Did you keep an archive
15 of the taped hearings when you were staff director? Is 16 there an archive of tape recordings?
17 MS. SWEENEY: Objection, Your Honor.
18 THE COURT: I don't think he testified that he 19 had tape recordings at the hearing.
20 BY MR. WEHNER:
21 Q Was there an archive when you were staff director
22 of tape recordings?
23 A The Committee did not have tapes of its hearings.
24 If the hearings were televised they would have been the

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 property of C-Span.

1 Q Were there any records kept by the Committee of
2 tape recordings or television recording of the hearings?

3 A Not to my knowledge.

4 Q So you know of no archive, no place where tape
5 recordings or tv recordings can be found, is that
6 correct?

7 A By the Committee.

8 Q And you include the staff on the Committee because 9 you were staff director, is that right?

10 A That's right.

11 Q Do you know of any staffers who made tape
12 recordings of the hearing particularly involving

13 Miss Dean?

14 A Not to my knowledge.

15 Q So you have no knowledge of any tape recordings
16 being made of Miss Dean's testimony, is that correct?

17 A That's correct.

18 Q When the testimony is transcribed how is it
19 transcribed?

20 A The Committee has a reporting service and the court
2 reporter furnishes preliminary copies to the Committee.
2 They are sent to the witnesses for routine corrections.
2 Those corrections are then sent to the printer and the
2 printed record is prepared by the General Printing
2 Office. GPO.

1 Q Do you keep the preliminary drafts in files at the
2 Committee?

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
3 A I'm not sure whether the Committee keeps them or 4 the court reporting service keeps them.

5 Q Is the court reporting service similar to the one

6 that's used in this courtroom?

7 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, is this discovery or

8 is this cross-examination on the issues that are before

9 the Court?

10 THE COURT; I'll allow him a little more
11 leeway in developing about this record of the transcript
12 that's been offered as evidence in the case as to its 13 admissibility.

14 Go ahead.

15 A Could you repeat the question?

16 Q Is it the similar type of transcript that is being 17 kept in this courtroom today by the court reporter?

18 A We had a court reporter who performed similar 19 functions to the court reporter performing. He or she 20 would take down testimony and transcribe it and send
2 written copies back to the Committee.

2 Q And did you receive the written copies in this case
2 of Miss Dean's testimony?

2 A I don't recall receiving them. It was a matter of 2 routine I generally would.

1865

1 Q Did you review them as to whether they were

2 accurate visavis what you heard at the hearings since

3 you personally attended?

4 A My general practice was to simply send copies to 5 the witnesses and ask them for corrections.

6 Q So you didn't review it.

7 A I did not have a general practice of reviewing for 8 accuracy, that's correct.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
9 Q And of course you don't have a specific

10 recollection today of Miss Dean being put under oath, do
11 you?

12 A That's correct.

13 Q As a matter of fact, it's common for witnesses to 14 be called in front of the Committee that are Government
15 employees and not be put under oath, isn't it?

16 A Not in connection with a nomination hearing.

17 Q In connection with other hearings, with oversight
18 responsibilities?

19 A Typically witnesses who are not sworn in in 20 connection with other hearings, other than nomination
2 hearings.

2 Q And you're responsible to -- you were responsible
2 for Senator Proxmire at the time this nomination was 2 pending, were you not?

2 A That's right.

1 Q And Senator Proxmire did not want to see this

2 nomination confirmed, isn't that correct?

3 A No, that's not correct.

4 Q And Senator Proxmire, in fact, did everything he

5 could to prevent this nominee from being confirmed,

6 isn't that right?

7 A Senator Proxmire had doubts about the nominee and 8 was trying to get the facts.

9 Q Senator Proxmire had on occasion requested that Mod
10 Rehab units be sent to the State of Wisconsin, isn't
11 that correct?

12 MS. SWEENEY: Objection, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. Is your objection to 14 relevance?

15 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: What's the relevance?

17 MR. WEHNER: It's impeaching his credibility
18 as to his direct testimony, Your Honor, showing bias or 19 prejudice against Miss Dean, the defendant, against whom 20 he is testifying, and it is showing his bias and 2 prejudice against her, which is clearly permissible

2 cross-examination.

2 THE COURT: The bias and prejudice in this
2 particular witness I don't know. Are you talking about
2 Senator Proxmire's bias and prejudice?

1 MR. WEHNER: He just testified he worked for

2 Senator Proxmire.

3 THE COURT: I'm going to sustain it as to this

4 witness at least. The objection is not relevant as to

5 Senator Proxmire's bias and prejudice.

6 BY MR. WEHNER:

7 Q It's true, is it not, that you sent Bart Naylor,

8 one of your subordinates, to try to dig up negative

9 facts about Miss Dean, isn't that correct?

10 MS. SWEENEY: Objection, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: I'll allow that. I think that

12 goes to his bias and prejudice.

13 A We received negative allegations about Miss Dean
14 from HUD employees and I asked Bart Naylor to check out 15 the -- to try to verify those allegations one way or the 16 other.

17 Q And isn't it true that you sent him to the lobby of 18 the HUD building to pass out flyers saying that if 19 anybody had negative information about Miss Dean they 20 should call the Committee?

2 A No, that's not true.

2 Q Isn't it true that he did that?

2 A I have no knowledge that he did.

2 Q Isn't it true that Miss Dean's attorney at that 2 time, Mr. Terry Linzner, contacted you and asked you to

1 look into at what Mr. Naylor was doing and you refused
2 to do that?

3 A I have no recollection of that.

4 Q You have no recollection receiving letters on behalf
5 of Miss Dean asking you to please stop the abuse of your 6 staff?

7 A I have a recollection of a letter from Mr. Linzner
8 sometime in November complaining about Mr. Naylor and

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
9 complaining about the fact that the Committee had not 10 held a meeting to approve or vote on Miss Dean's
11 nomination.
12 Q And you never bothered to respond to the letter?
13 A That's correct.
14 Q You simply ignored it, is that correct?
15 A That's correct.
16 Q Bart Naylor has recently been fired from the 17 Committee, has he not?
18 A No.
19 Q He no longer works for the Committee?
20 A That's correct.
2 Q In fact, you were successful in keeping Miss Dean
2 from being nominated for her position, isn't that
2 correct?
2 THE COURT: Not nominated, confirmed.
2 BY MR. WEHNER:

1 Q Being confirmed for her position, isn't that true?
2 A No.
3 Q Isn't it true that Senator Proxmire at one time
4 said that he had nailed her to the cross?
5 A I'm not aware of any such statement by Senator
6 Proxmire.
7 Q You're aware that he testified to that in front of 8 the Lantos Committee?
9 A No, I'm not aware of it.
10 Q And you were the staff director for his Committee?
1 A Could I have the date of that testimony?
1 MR. WEHNER: If Your Honor will give me a
1 minute I want to find that exact reference.
1 THE COURT: What I want to do is take a
1 break. I have two people waiting in my office for a
1 meeting I was to hold at lunch at twelve o'clock. I'll 1 take a short witness and be back. We'll be back at 1 1:20.

AFTERNOON SESSION

2 (1:40 p.m.)
3 (Defendant present, Jury out.)
4 THE COURT: All right, let's see where we were. You've 5 been questioning the witness. If we can get him back, we can
6 continue.
7 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir. We've been questioning
8 Mr. McLean.
9 THE COURT: All right.
10 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, to complete the record with 11 regard to the tape recording, I'd like to introduce for the 12 purpose of this limited hearing what I've marked as Dean Exhibit
13 186, and I've already shown it to Independent Counsel, which is 14 the letter that accompanied the tape recordings when they were 15 produced to me.
16 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 186 was

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
17 marked for identification.)
18 MR. WEHNER: I'd note that they reflect the following 19 in the third paragraph: "Similarly, although it is not directly
20 relevant to the present narrow case, I thought you would want a 21 recording of your client's testimony before the Senate Banking 22 Committee on August 6, 1987. A copy of the audiotape is 23 enclosed." And that's the original that's been made a part of 24 the record.
25 THE COURT: All right, what exhibit number is that?

1871

THE CLERK: 186.

2 THE COURT: All right, that's from Jo Ann Harris,
3 Associate Independent Counsel. All right.
4 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor?
THE COURT: Yes.
6 MS. SWEENEY: For the sake, just so that the record may 7 also be clear, the first time that Mr. Wehner raised any question
8 with me about the tape or the source of the tape was yesterday
9 afternoon, after we adjourned, and at that time, I told him that 10 it was a bootlegged tape, that I would bring it today, and that I
11 understood that it wasn't complete.
12 THE COURT: All right, accepting that representation.
13 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, for the record, I'd renew my 14 request that you allow this witness, who was present at the 15 hearing, to review the transcript, visual transcript and the tape
16 recording as produced by Ms. Harris to determine whether the 17 transcript is an accurate reflection of the testimony.
18 THE COURT: No. All right, I've overruled that, and 19 I'm not changing the ruling I made before lunch.
20 MR. WEHNER: Yes, Your Honor.
21 THE COURT: It's denied. All right.
22 MR. WEHNER: Yes, Your Honor.
23 THE COURT: All right.
24 MR. WEHNER: I didn't have the letter before lunch.
25 THE COURT: I understand.

1 MR. WEHNER: I just wanted to complete the record.
2 THE COURT: All right.
3 KENNETH MC LEAN, GOVERNMENT'S WITNESS, PREVIOUSLY SWORN
4 CROSS EXAMINATION (Cont'd.)
5 BY MR. WEHNER:
6 Q. Sir, I'm going to show you what purports to be Part 3 of the 7 hearings before the Employment and Housing Subcommittee of the 8 Committee on Government Operations, House of Representatives, and 9 on page 753 of that volume, I'd ask you to read for the record
10 what Mr. Proxmire said in lines 5 and 6 and 7.
11 A. "Mr. Proxmire: That's about as obvious as it can be. I 12 think you are 100 percent correct. I think you nailed her to the 13 cross. That is not a very good analogy, is it?"
14 "Mr. Schumer: --"
15 Q. Just what Mr. Proxmire said, thank you, sir.
16 So it is true that Senator Proxmire said that you,
17 regarding to the House committee -- subcommittee, had nailed 18 Ms. Dean to the cross, - isn't that correct?
19 A. In those hearings conducted in 1989.
20 Q. Now directing your attention back to the time when you were
2 staff director and Ms. Dean's nomination was pending, I asked you
2 a few questions regarding whether or not you had been -- whether

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

2 or not Senator Proxmire had personally attempted to keep Ms. Dean
2 from being confirmed. Do you recall that?
2 A. I recall your questions, yes.

1 Q. And I believe you stated that you had no such knowledge;
2 isn't that correct?

A. That's correct.

4 Q. Let me show you -- well, I'm going to ask you isn't it true
5 that Senator Armstrong, Senator Cranston, Senator Hecht, Senator
6 Shelby, Senator Worth, Senator Dixon, Senator Chaffee, Senator
7 Gam, Senator Heinz, and Senator Sasser, as well as Senator
8 D'Amato and Senator Dodd requested that Senator Proxmire confirm 9 Ms. Dean in the post to which she had been nominated?

10 A. I recall receiving a letter later on that year signed by a 11 number of senators. I'm not sure that's the absolute correct
12 list, but there was such a letter asking that the committee hold 13 a meeting to consider the nomination of Ms. Dean.

14 Q. And what -- and Senator Proxmire refused to do that, did he 15 not?

16 A. He declined to hold such a meeting.

17 Q. And it's still your testimony that he did not personally;
18 want to see this nomination denied? Is that your testimony?

19 A. He had -- I think my testimony was he had doubts about the 20 nomination.

2 Q. Are you familiar with the number of times Senator Tom
2 Proxmire had requested that mod rehab units be sent to the State
2 of Wisconsin?

2 A. No, I'm not.

2 Q. You had no knowledge of that at all in terms of your

1874

1 position as staff director?

2 A. No. It would be fairly routine for Senator Proxmire to 3 write letters on behalf of constituents concerning applications
4 for HUD funds, but I have --

5 Q. As a matter of fact, it was widely known that senators did
6 that, wasn't it?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. Widely known that that's a political process, isn't that
9 correct?

10 A. I'm not sure what you mean by a political process.

11 Q. Well, you're a politician, so I'll apply your definition to 12 "political." what's your definition of "political"?

13 A. Members of Congress would routinely support requests for 14 funding on behalf of their constituents.

15 Q. And that's political, is it not?

16 A. I beg your pardon?

17 Q. That is political, is it not? ;

18 A. That is exercising the job of being a member of Congress, as 19 most members see it.

20 Q. That's political, is it not?

2 A. If you choose to define it that way, I will accept that

2 definition.

2 Q. Did you ever hear Senator Proxmire say that the nominee had 2 a nice figure?

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 A. No, I don't recall that.

1875

1 Q. Do you ever remember him making that comment?
2 MS. SWEENEY: Objection, Your Honor.
3 THE COURT: All right, I'll sustain it. Let's get to 4 matters that are relevant to here.
MR. WEHNER: This is relevant to the cross -
THE COURT: This is not relevant to the examination of this witness.
8 MR. WEHNER: Very well, Your Honor. I have nothing
9 further, Your Honor.
10 THE COURT: All right. She may have some redirect for
11 you.
12 THE WITNESS: Oh.
13 THE COURT: That is, Ms. Sweeney may.
14 REDIRECT EXAMINATION
15 BY MS. SWEENEY:
16 Q. Mr. McLean, I'm going to show you a document that's been 17 marked as Government's Exhibit 212A for identification purposes
18 THE CLERK: Government's Exhibit 212A marked for 19 identification.
20 (Government's Exhibit No. 212A was
21 marked for identification.)
22 THE WITNESS: All right.
23 BY MS. SWEENEY:
24 Q. And I ask if you recognize that document?
25 A. This appears to be the original transcript of the hearing as

1 submitted by Ace Federal Reporters on the nomination hearing.
2 Q. And I'd ask you to focus your attention on the first page of 3 that document and then also to leaf through it and to see if you
4 can tell which copy this was, whether this was the copy that you
5 indicated would have been circulated to the witness?
6 THE COURT: What number is this?
7 THE CLERK: 212A.
8 THE COURT: 212A?
9 THE WITNESS: This appears to be the original
10 transcript that was circulated to the witnesses.
11 BY MS. SWEENEY:
12 Q. And does the cover sheet indicate to which witness this 13 particular copy was circulated?
14 A. Yes, it does. It was indicated it was circulated to 15 Ms. Dean.
16 Q. Mr. McLean, I show you a document that's previously been 17 marked Government's Exhibit 212B for identification. I ask if 18 you recognize that document?
19 THE CLERK: 212B marked for identification.
20 (Government's Exhibit No. 212B was
21 marked for identification.)
22 THE WITNESS: This appears to be another copy of the 23 original transcript prepared by the reporting service and 24 forwarded to the committee by Rachel Jacobson, the assistant
25 chief clerk.

1 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, at this time, the government
2 offers Government's Exhibits 212A and 212B into evidence.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

3 MR. WEHNER: We object because of the restriction Your 4 Honor has placed upon our ability to cross-examine the witness
5 regarding the accuracy of the transcripts.
6 THE COURT: All right. They were offered, you said,
7 what, under Rule 803?
8 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, we're offering the official
9 transcript under 902(5) and 803(8). In addition, Your Honor,
10 I've now handed the witness the transcript that was circulated to 11 Ms. Dean and returned by her, as well as the certified copy that 12 was sent to the committee by the court reporter.
13 THE COURT: All right. Let me just -
14 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, the government is offering 15 these in light of Mr. Wehner's challenge to the official
16 transcript.
17 THE COURT: I understand. All right, I'm going to :
18 overrule the objection of the defendant on the basis he's given 19 as to the admissibility of the original transcript as well as the 20 circulated and changed transcript that have been lodged now with 21 the Court. It appears to the Court that under the rules cited by 22 counsel for the Independent Counsel, that they are admissible as 23 official public documents or otherwise identified.
24 The fact that the defendant has not been allowed cross
25 examination by use of the, quote, bootlegged tape, unquote, I

1 don't think prohibits their admissibility in any fashion as
2 official government records.
3 All right, I'll admit then the exhibits.
4 (Government Exhibit Nos. 212A and 212B
5 were received in evidence.)
6 THE COURT: Do you have any other questions of this
7 witness?
8 MS. SWEENEY: No, Your Honor.
9 THE COURT: Okay. You can step down. Thank you, sir.
10 THE WITNESS: Thank you.
11 (Witness excused.)
12 THE COURT: Let me ask counsel for the government,
13 since the tape has been made an issue, you referred to it as a 14 bootlegged tape, and the letter referred to it as a tape -- the 15 Independent Counsel, Ms. Harris, had produced it as a tape
16 recording of your client's testimony before the committee. I
17 think for the record there should be some clarification exactly
18 what they're talking about.
19 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, the tape was provided to us
20 by an individual named Tom Casey, who at that time was serving in 21 the Office of Legislative Affairs at HUD and apparently in that 22 role accompanied Ms. Dean to the hearing.
23 THE COURT: All right. So it was not provided by a
24 staffer on the Senate committee?
25 MS. SWEENEY: No, Your Honor, it was not.

1 THE COURT: The Senate Banking Committee or anyone
2 connected with the Senate Banking Committee?
3 MS. SWEENEY: No, Your Honor.
4 THE COURT: All right. Can I see the transcript, the 5 official transcript, please? 212, is that the official
6 transcript?
7 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor.
8 THE COURT: All right. That's in committee reprint

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
9 form from the U.S. Government Printing Office, 1987, Government's 10 Exhibit 212, concerning the nomination of Deborah Gore Dean of 11 Maryland to be assistant secretary of Housing and Urban
12 Development.
13 I just want to review the opening remarks and then what 14 the committee is looking into. It indicates the witness was 15 sworn in the opening remarks. I note that that's been challenged
16 by the defendant as not being shown on the tape recording.
17 All right, Senator Proxmire has indicated in the 18 opening statements, his opening statement -- and then there are 19 opening statements by other senators that were put into the 20 record, obviously were not there, but just submitted them for the 21 record that I have not reviewed --in his opening statement,
22 there is concerns of the committee. He's concerned about a
23 number of questionable appointments at HUD in recent years.
24 There's been much concern expressed about the 25 nomination to fill this particular HUD position, reviewed

1 allegations against other individuals who had been at HUD, and 2 then indicated that there are other episodes still to be
3 revealed, scandalous episodes, and that the confirmation
4 responsibilities must be taken seriously by the committee.
5 He talks about the serious nature of the particular
6 position that's involved, and they need a highly qualified
7 candidate, the highest quality of public servant. And there are 8 statements in, by senators supporting Ms. Dean as well, and 9 Ms. Dean's statement.
10 All right. So the committee's area of inquiry is,
11 obviously, as to, according to the statement of the chairman,
12 Senator Proxmire, was to the confirmation for the nomination of 13 Deborah Gore Dean as assistant secretary for Community Planning
14 and Development, Department of Housing and Urban Development, 15 that there was a concern about the appointment, concern about the 16 status of others who had been at HUD under the present
17 administration, a reference to the work that HUD does and this 18 particular assistant secretary would do, following the rules and 19 procedures of HUD in accordance with the Congressional mandates, 20 reference to the type of candidate that should be appointed, and 21 reference to prior alleged scandals in the recent past at HUD.
22 The questions asked concerned a general question
23 concerning the awarding of funds to the Mod Rehab Program and 24 more specific questions pointed out as to the Baltimore Uplift
25 One as testified to by the staff director and counsel to the

1 committee as important questions concerning the candidate's
2 fitness for the position that was being examined within the 3 purview of that committee's authority, and as to the oversight
4 HUD programs that come under the committee's jurisdiction as 5 well.
6 It seems to the Court that the questions asked in light
7 of the case law that we've reviewed, I've already gone through a
8 couple of times, that the issue of materiality is a question of 9 law to be decided by the Court and that the questions asked 10 specifically went to the area that the committee was charged with 11 investigating, that is, the nominee's qualities for the post to 12 which she was nominated and the oversight of HUD programs, when 13 they had received information apparently that would reflect upon 14 those, her ability to or qualities to hold the job and the 15 programs that the committee oversaw.
16 Both of the areas went into by counsel for the

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
17 government indicate to the Court that the testimony certainly;was 18 capable of influencing the committee on the issues before it, and 19 as it's material to their inquiry as to her qualities for service
20 as the assistant secretary or as to their oversight responsi21 bilities to the HUD programs, and the testimony, it seems to the 22 Court, establishes along with the transcript itself that the 23 government has made a reasonable showing of potential effects
24 that this testimony could have a tendency to influence or 25 certainly was capable of influencing a decision of the committee

1 in considering the witness1 qualifications and fitness for the
2 position and handling of the programs under her authority at HUD.
3 whether or not the committee finally acted on the 4 answers given to those questions or not I don't think is of 5 import. It's obvious to the Court that these questions did fall
6 within the purview of the committee's jurisdiction and were, can 7 be considered to have a tendency to influence the decision-making
8 process with which they were concerned.
9 So I will find that the government has established
10 materiality of these alleged false declarations from the 11 testimony of the witness and from the transcript that's been
12 admitted.
13 All right, who's your next witness at this point?
14 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, there are two or three brief
15 matters that would be appropriate to have before the jury through 16 Mr. McLean, unless Mr. Wehner is willing to stipulate that there
17 was a quorum of the committee present at the time the testimony
18 was given and that the committee was authorized to administer the 19 oath. The transcript itself reflects that the oath was 20 administered, and that would be the third element that's before
21 the jury.
22 THE COURT: That there was a quorum present on the day
23 in question -
24 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor.
25 THE COURT: -
that Ms. Dean testified and that - 1883

1 MS. SWEENEY: The committee was authorized pursuant to
2 statute and rule to administer the oath.
3 THE COURT: All right.
4 MS. SWEENEY: As I said, Your Honor, the government
5 will not call a witness if Mr. Wehner is willing to stipulate to 6 those, to those particular matters.
7 THE COURT: All right. Well, I've already ruled you
8 established that the questions were material, the subject matter
9 was within the jurisdiction of the Congressional committee, and 10 that this, I take it there's no objection this was a duly author11
ized committee of the United States Congress, and that falls 12 within the purview of the statute as a department of the 13 government.
14 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor.
15 THE COURT: Mr. Wehner, do you want this gentleman to 16 come back and talk about a quorum being present and that they 17 were legally authorized to give oaths at this hearing? That's 18 not conceding an oath was given. Or would you like him to 19 testify?
20 MR. WEHNER: If Mr. McLean would be advised that he may 21 be recalled in the defendant's case, I would agree to that
22 stipulation.

23 THE COURT: He may be recalled, I don't know. I could 24 advise him he could be subject to being called. I don't know
25 if -

1 MR. WEHNER: Pardon me, Your Honor?
2 THE COURT: I don't know where he lives or where he -
3 is he here in town? I don't know whether you can subpoena him or 4 not.
5 MR. WEHNER: well, that's why I want to -- that's why
6 we'd like him to be advised as to that. Then I'm willing to 7 stipulate as long as I know I can find him, but if I'm not going 8 to be able to subpoena him, I will not stipulate.
9 THE COURT: well, I don't know if -- that's neither
10 here nor there about his testimony.
11 Do you have any control over this witness?
12 MS. SWEENEY: No, Your Honor. I do not.
13 THE COURT: All right. well, I'm not going to bind him
14 to return without a subpoena on him, and if you want to call him, 15 then you can call him. we'll have him testify to a quorum and 16 that they had the capacity to give an oath, and if the defendant
17 wants him, they can subpoena him.
18 MR. WEHNER: Can I have one minute to talk to 19 Mr. McLean?
20 THE COURT: Sure.
21 MR. WEHNER: I may be able to resolve it that way.
22 THE COURT: Ali right.
23 who's your next witness?
24 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, I'll read a couple stipulations
25 into the record and then Thomas Demery.

1 THE COURT: We ought to try to finish him today if we 2 can.
3 Yes, sir?
4 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, Claire Sylvia, who is an
5 attorney on the Senate legal staff representing Mr. McLean, has 6 acknowledged to me that she would accept a subpoena if issued by 7 the defense, which is acceptable to me. She has reserved any 8 motions to quash, et cetera.
9 THE COURT: All right.
10 MR. WEHNER: That's all I was concerned about, Judge.
11 THE COURT: All right, that's fine. Okay. Well, then 12 we'll stipulate to the fact that -- and you can put it in the 13 record at this time if you'd like, Ms. Sweeney -that 14 a quorum
15 was present and that the committee is authorized to issue oaths.
16 Is that what you want?
16 MS. SWEENEY: To administer the oath, yes.
17 THE COURT: Pardon me?
18 MS. SWEENEY: Yes.
19 THE COURT: All right. why don't you just say that for 20 the record so we have it on the record -2
MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor.
2 THE COURT: -- with no objection.
2 MS. SWEENEY: At this time, the government wishes to 2 put on the record that there has been a stipulation between the 2 defense and the government that a quorum was present of the 1886

1 Senate Banking Committee on August 6, 1987, at the time that 2 Ms. Dean testified and appeared before the committee and that the 3 Senate Banking Committee was duly authorized to administer the 4 oath.
5 MR. WEHNER: We agree to that stipulation, Your Honor.
6 THE COURT: All right. If Ms. Dean agrees- to it,
7 that's fine, then.
8 All right, we can bring the jury in. We'll go ahead
9 with some other stipulations you had and then Mr. Demery, as I
10 understand it.
11 MR. O'NEILL: Stipulations and Mr. Demery.
12 THE COURT: What?
13 MR. O'NEILL: Stipulations and Mr. Demery.
14 THE COURT: Right.
15 MR. O'NEILL: I'm sorry, Judge.
16 THE COURT: Either one -- I don't know how you want to 17 do it.
18 MR. O'NEILL: I thought you said stipulations to 19 Mr. Demery.
20 THE COURT: Oh, no, no. Stipulations and Mr. Demery.
21 MR. O'NEILL: Sorry, Judge.
22 (Jury in.)
23 THE COURT: All right, Ladies and Gentlemen, time to go
24 back to work. We've finished our work over lunch here, so now
25 we're ready to go back to work again.

1 The government will proceed with their next evidence.
2 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Your Honor. At this time, before
3 the government calls another witness, the government would read
4 three separate stipulations to the jury.
5 The first one, stipulations or agreements between the 6 two sides: "It is hereby stipulated and agreed by and between 7 the United States and the defendant that if Ronald L. Reynolds
8 was called to testify, he would testify that from 1980 to 1989,
9 he was a driver for the HUD motor pool. During that period of 10 time, he drove Deborah Gore Dean to lunch on several occasions
11 when she said that she was meeting John Mitchell for lunch."
12 The second stipulation: "It is hereby stipulated and 13 agreed by and between the United States and the defendant that if 14 called to testify, Norman Larsen would testify that in 1987, he 15 was employed at the Georgetown Club. On November 30, 1987, a 16 party was held for Deborah Gore Dean at the Georgetown Club.
17 Subsequent to that party, John Mitchell, the former attorney .
18 general, came to the Georgetown Club and paid for the party by 19 check. Government's Exhibit 238 is a true and accurate copy of 20 that check. Government's Exhibit 238A is a true and accurate
21 copy of the account summary for the same month as Government's
22 Exhibit 238."
23 And at this time, Judge, I'd publish the check and the 24 summary, with the Court's permission.
25 THE COURT: All right.

1 MR. WEHNER: We've agreed to the stipulations, Your
2 Honor, and have no objection to the publication.
3 THE COURT: All right, thank you.
4 MR. O'NEILL: And while we do that, the third
5 stipulation would be, "If called to testify, David Gitlitz would 6 testify that he and Philip Winn once met with Deborah Gore Dean
7 and her mother regarding the desire to develop the Gore

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
8 family-owned property of Marwood."
9 MR. WEHNER: We agree to that stipulation, Your Honor.
10 THE COURT: All right, thank you.
11 MR. O'NEILL: At this time, Your Honor, the government
12 would call Thomas Demery.
13 THE COURT: All right, thank you.
14 THOMAS T. DEMERY, GOVERNMENT'S WITNESS, SWORN
15 DIRECT EXAMINATION
16 BY MR. O'NEILL:
17 Q. Mr. Demery, I will be asking you a series of questions. I'd 18 ask you to speak in a loud voice and clearly so everyone can hear
19 you on this jury.
20 will you please state your name for the record,
2 spelling your last name for the court reporter?
2 A. Thomas T. Demery, D-e-m-e-r-y.
2 Q. Mr. Demery, what, if anything, has been your primary
2 occupation throughout your adult life?
2 A. Real estate development and finance.

1 Q. How long have you been in the real estate field?
2 A. Approximately 22 years.
3 Q. Did there come a point in time when you first went to the 4 United States Department of Housing and Urban Development as an 5 employee?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. When did that occur?
8 A. I was a HUD contractor from 1981 to 1986. Then in 1986, I
9 became assistant secretary for housing/federal housing

10 commissioner until 1989.
11 Q. Now you stated in 1981, you became a HUD contractor. What 12 would be the duties or responsibilities of a HUD contractor?
13 what did you do?
14 A. My duties were to advise the Office of Multi-Family Housing
15 in Washington, D.C., on matters pertaining to the collection of 16 delinquent multi-family debt in the States of Michigan and Ohio.
17 Q. How long did you remain in that position?
18 A. Until my nomination was announced by the White House in 19 August of 1986.
20 Q. And what was that nomination for?
21 A. The office of assistant secretary for housing/federal 22 housing commissioner.
23 Q. And how did you become the assistant secretary for 24 housing/FHA commissioner?
25 A. I had approached the Office of Presidential Personnel. I

1890

1 had worked hard to receive that nomination once the position
2 became vacant, and that task began a couple years before I got 3 the call.
4 Q. And did there come a point in time when you received that
5 nomination?

A. Yes.
7 Q. Can you describe for the Ladies and Gentlemen of the Jury
8 what happens after you're nominated?
9 A. In my case, I was nominated in August. I moved to 10 Washington, D.C. I was a, I think the appropriate title was a 11 consultant of some sort pending my confirmation hearings. Once

12 my hearings were held and I was confirmed by the United States
13 Senate, I was sworn in.

14 Q. When were you sworn in?

15 A. October 21, 1986.

16 Q. As the assistant secretary for housing/FHA commissioner,
17 what, if anything, are your duties and responsibilities?

18 A. My duties were to head the Office of Housing for HUD, and 19 that office handled all matters pertaining to the Federal Housing
20 Administration and federal housing programs, including the 2 section 8 program.

2 Q. Now, Mr. Deraery, did there come a point in time when you
2 pled guilty to two felony charges?

2 A. Yes.

2 Q. When did you enter those pleas?

1 A. June 17 of this year.

2 Q. What did you plead guilty to?

3 A. Accepting a gratuity and obstructing the grand jury.

4 Q. And what was involved in that, sir?

5 A. The gratuity charge involved accepting favorable terms and 6 administration of a second mortgage on my home, and the 7 obstructing the grand jury charge dealt with producing a false
8 receipt in response to a subpoena.

9 Q. Okay. What did that false receipt involve? What was, what

10 was that around? Let me withdraw that; that doesn't make any 11 sense.

12 The false receipt, what does that involve?

13 A. It was a receipt acknowledging receipt of payment for the 14 use of a condominium in Vail, Colorado.

15 Q. Who owned that Colorado condominium?

16 A. Phil Winn.

17 Q. Now did you enter into a plea agreement with the United • 18 States government?

19 A. Yes, I did.

20 Q. What, if anything, is your understanding as to what that
2 agreement requires you to do?

2 A. To cooperate and give truthful testimony.

2 Q. Have you been sentenced as of today?

2 A. No.

2 Q. Do you have a sentencing date?

1892

A. No.

2 Q. Mr. Demery, let's return to the time when you became the 3 assistant secretary for housing/FHA commissioner. At the time
4 you accepted that position, were you aware of the Moderate
5 Rehabilitation Program?

6 A. I had been briefed on all the programs of, of housing. That 7 was one, yes.

8 Q. And when did you first have any actual hands-on experience
9 with the Mod Rehab Program?

10 A. Hands-on experience I would say was in late October/early

11 November.

12 Q. And can you describe for the Ladies and Gentlemen of the 13 Jury what, if anything, was that hands-on experience? How did
14 you become involved in the Mod Rehab Program?

15 A. I had a conversation with Ms. Dean, I believe it was in her 16 office, where there were approximately nine PHAs that were to 17 receive funding. She gave me the nine PHAs that were to receive 18 funding, and I then initiated the funding process.

19 Q. At that time, based on your experience, how was the Mod
20 Rehab Program being administered?

21 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, he's testified his first
22 experience was in October 1986.

23 THE COURT: To the extent of his knowledge, he can say
24 if he knows.

25 THE WITNESS: Could you repeat the question?

1893

BY MR. O'NEILL:

2 Q. Sure. Using His Honor's wording, to the extent of your 3 knowledge, how was the mod rehab being administered at that time,
4 the program?

5 A. It was a program that was administered on a discretionary
6 basis, and I was told what to fund.

7 Q. And who told you what to fund?

8 A. Ms. Dean.

9 Q. At that time, what was the defendant's position at HUD?

10 A. She was executive assistant to the secretary.

11 Q. And when you first arrived at HUD as a contract consultant, 12 who was the secretary of HUD?

13 A. Samuel Pierce.

14 Q. Did you have any dealings with him during the period of time
15 that you were a contract consultant?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Now you stated there came a time when you became the 18 assistant secretary for housing. Can you describe your dealings
19 with Samuel Pierce thereafter? How often did they occur?

20 A. The regular staff meeting was a weekly event, which occurred 21 generally Tuesday mornings, and whenever there was testimony that 22 had, the secretary had to give for, during budget hearings or any 23 special hearings, generally there was a lot of activity preparing 24 for those hearings, and on occasion, as issues would arise, I
25 would meet with and consult with the secretary.

1 Q. How often would you meet with him? would you say it's
2 daily? weekly? monthly? How would you describe it?

3 A. Putting aside the regular weekly meetings and the, the 4 annual budget process, I'd say three times a month on an average.

5 Q. Mr. Demery, again based on your experience, how would you
6 describe his management style?

7 A. The management style for HUD was detached. He left --it
8 was --he did not get involved to any significant degree.

9 Q. Now previously you've mentioned, you testified as to certain

10 projects or allocations that were made in late October of 1986.

11 Can you describe what occurred in relation to these projects in

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

12 the funding process?

13 A. The PHAs which were selected for funding letters were 14 secured, letters were secured from the files that were held by 15 Susan Zagame's staff. The funding paperwork was then initiated
16 and executed by the appropriate people, including myself.

17 Q. who made the decision on what projects to fund or what 18 allocations to make?

19 A. Initially Deborah.

20 Q. Okay. And how did that come about?

2 A. As I said, I would visit with her in her office, or

2 subsequent to that, early November or late -- excuse me, late
2 October/early November meeting, on occasions she came down into 2 my office and would give me some direction.

2 Q. Directing your attention to the fall of 1986, how often did

1 you sign funding documents for the Mod Rehab Program?

2 A. I signed approximately a dozen documents.

3 Q. And can you describe -- well, let me ask you this: was the 4 funding, was the procedure or process by which you funded them
5 similar each time?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Can you describe that for the Ladies and Gentlemen of the 8 Jury?

9 A. The PHAs which were selected for funding was given to me

10 either verbally or in writing after meeting with and consulting
11 with Ms. Dean, and I would then contact the appropriate offices
12 within my office for production of paperwork and --

13 Q. Did there come a point in time that you objected to the way
14 the Mod Rehab Program was being run?

15 A. In December of 1986, I had wanted some clarification from 16 Ms. Dean as to what the procedure, how the procedure was to work.

17 In January of 1987, I attempted to initiate some mod rehab
18 fundings independent of discussions with Ms. Dean. My deputy for 19 multi-family housing, who is part of the signature chain for 20 these, for the paperwork to go through, refused to sign off
2 without -- refused to sign off.

2 Q. why did he refuse to sign off?

2 A. He refused to sign off because he was, he told me that he
2 was not able to sign off unless Ms. Dean told him it was okay.

2 That then prompted me to request a meeting with Secretary Pierce,

1896

1 which occurred a few days following that event.

2 Q. Now we'll get to that meeting with Sam Pierce in a, in a
3 moment. During this time period of approximately December of 4 1986, based on your experience, what was Secretary Pierce's
5 involvement in the Mod Rehab Program?

6 A. He had no direct involvement with me.

7 Q. I would direct your attention to the time frame between 8 Christmas and New Year's of 1986, and did there come a point in 9 time when you attended a meeting along with Secretary Pierce at 10 which the Mod Rehab Program was discussed?

11 A. Yes. It was a, I believe it was a budget meeting, and he at 12 that meeting asked a question of, I'm not sure to whom it was

13 specifically directed, but he asked the question --

14 MR. WEHNER: Objection. Hearsay.

15 THE COURT: All right.

16 MR. O'NEILL: I'll withdraw it, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: All right, withdrawn.

18 BY MR. O'NEILL:

19 Q. Now, Mr. Demery, did there come a point in time you had this 20 meeting with Secretary Pierce?

2 A. Yes.

2 Q. And where was that held?

2 A. In his office.

2 Q. Who was present at that?

2 A. Secretary Pierce, Ms. Dean, and myself.

1897

1 Q. And was a discussion held at that time?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Without telling us what that discussion was, what, if 4 anything, occurred thereafter?

5 A. The discussion was exclusively directed towards the Mod

6 Rehab Program.

7 Q. Now you cannot get into the discussion, again, because it

8 would be hearsay. What, if anything, happened as a result of 9 this meeting?

10 A. As a result of the meeting, a new procedure was established

11 whereby Ms. Dean, myself, and either the under secretary of HUD

12 or the general counsel of HUD would form a mod rehab selection

13 committee to make future mod rehab selections.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

14 Q. Did there come a point in time when that committee did start
15 acting on mod rehab allocation processes?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. When did that occur?

18 A. The first meeting was early March of 1987.

19 Q. When was the next meeting?

20 A. Early April 1987.

2 Q. Did there come a point in time when to your knowledge the

2 defendant, Deborah Gore Dean, left the Department of Housing and 2 Urban Development?

2 A. Yes.

2 Q. And when was that?

1898

1 A. July of 1987.

2 Q. How many such committee meetings occurred from January of 3 1987, when you told us it started, to the time that she left the 4 Department of Housing and Urban Development?

5 A. Two.

6 Q. Can you describe for the Ladies and Gentlemen of the Jury
7 what, if anything, occurred at these two funding meetings? How 8 did they come about? What transpired in the meetings?

9 A. Generally, Ms. Dean and I would meet and review PHA requests
10 that had come to her attention, to my attention. We would 11 discuss, we would discuss them. We would generally come to a 12 consensus.

13 We would either then schedule a more formal meeting -
14 this would be more of an informal session. The formal session
15 would be scheduled following the informal session, or the formal 16 session would have been scheduled and she and I would have met
17 shortly before the scheduled meeting.

18 Q. Mr. Demery, at this time, I would show you a document
19 previously marked as Government's Exhibit 161 for identification
20 purposes. I believe there has been a stipulation.

2 So at this time, if it's not in evidence, Your Honor,

2 I'd move it into evidence.

2 MR. WEHNER: No objection, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: All right, 161 will be admitted.

2 BY MR. O'NEILL:

1 Q. Mr. Demery, I'd ask you to look at this and describe it for
2 the jury, please, if you would?

3 A. This is a copy of a memorandum I would prepare following the 4 formal funding meeting that would -- it was addressed to my 5 staff, my two deputy assistant secretaries that would be 6 responsible for generating the paperwork; the committee members,
7 Ms. Dean and Mr. Dorsy, were copied; and basically it would
8 memorialize the decisions made at that meeting.

9 Q. If I may, I would direct your attention to two notations.

10 First, there is one for Metro Dade, and can you see what the 11 notations next to Metro Dade are?

12 A. Yes. Under the column that would be the number of units, 13 there is, there are three separate line notations: "153 one
14 bedrooms, 200 -- excuse me, 48 two bedrooms, and 2 zero

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

15 bedrooms."

16 Q. What is the total of that, by the way?

17 A. 203.

18 Q. At that time, did you know where those 203 units were going?

19 A. They were going to Metro Dade.

20 Q. Have you ever heard of an individual by the name of Claude

2 A. No.

2 Q. How about Jim Mitchell?

2 A. Jim Mitchell?

2 Q. Not a HUD employee Jim Mitchell.

1 A. Oh, no.

2 Q. I'd also ask you to look two notations down from that, and
3 does it show an allocation for Prince George's County?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And how many units went to Prince George's County?

6 A. 88.

7 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, at this time, I'd ask to 8 publish this to the jury.

9 THE COURT: All right.

15 MR. WEHNER: No objection.

16 THE COURT: What's the number again?

17 MR. O'NEILL: 164, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: 164 is admitted.

19 THE CLERK: That's already been admitted.

24 A. This is referred to as a rapid reply letter. It is

25 requesting the issuance of a HUD Form 185, which is the funding

1 document for mod rehab.

2 Q. And how many units are being funded on that?

3 A. 1,710.

6 A. Yes It --

19 THE CLERK: Yes.

20 MR. O'NEILL: Thanks, Gloria.

21 Q-Mr. Demery, I'd ask you what is that document?

22 A. This is the Form 185.

23 Q. And the jury has heard information about a Form 185. Can 24 you just briefly say what that is?

25 A. The 185 form is the form which was sent then to the regions

1 for processing and funding.

2 Q. Mr. Demery, at this time, I show you Government's Exhibit

5 A. I was sworn in on the 21st of October, 1986.

6 Q. Was this document prepared pursuant to a committee meeting?

7 A. No.

8 Q. How is this, how did this funding come about?

9 A. Ms. Dean requested that funding occur for nine PHAS.

14 was?
15 A. No.
16 Q. Have you ever heard the name Nicholas Bazan?
17 A. No.
18 Q. Are you familiar with an individual by the name of Lou

8 Q. Mr. Demery, since it's already in evidence, would you just

10 A. This is the 185. This is part of the -- this is one of the 11 185 forms that was as a consequence of the rapid reply memo.

12 Q. That we just looked at?

13 A. Yes.

2 CROSS EXAMINATION

3 BY MR. WEHNER:

4 Q. Mr. Demery, my name is Steve Wehner. I represent Ms. Dean.

5 Mr. Demery, you during your tenure at HUD were a
6 relatively ambitious individual at HUD, were you not?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And you aspired to take Samuel Piercel's position; isn't that
9 correct?

10 A. No.

11 Q. You had no intention during any of your career at HUD to 12 become secretary at HUD?

13 A. Yes, I did, but I misunderstood your question if that's what 14 you meant. I didn't intend to replace him.

15 Q. You didn't intend to replace him.

16 A. Right.

17 Q. You intended to take his job after he left?

18 A. I, I attempted to be named secretary in the next
19 administration.

20 Q. And you attempted to become secretary of HUD by enlisting
2 the support of many people; isn't that correct?

2 A. Yes.

2 Q. And you had enlisted the support, did you not, of Craig
2 Fuller, Bob Teeter, Lou Kitchin, Boyden Grey, Fred Fielding, Rick
2 Shelby?

1911

1 A. Some of those people, not all of them. Those were all
2 people that were, whose support was needed, but I didn't speak to 3 all of them.
4 Q. And you wanted these individuals to support you?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. Did you speak to Mr. Kitchin about that support?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. And he agreed to support you, did he not?
9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And is it not true that that was as a direct result of the 11 mod rehab units that you funded for him when you were in the 12 position, the presidentially appointed position of federal 13 housing commissioner?
14 A. You'd have to ask Mr. Kitchin. I don't know.
15 Q. Don't you think that had a lot to do with his support for 16 you for the position? wouldn't that make sense?
17 A. It wasn't discussed. :
18 Q. You did fund mod rehab projects for Mr. Kitchin; isn't that
19 correct?
20 A. I funded mod rehab requests, yes.
21 Q. For Mr. Kitchin, isn't that correct he was involved in mod
22 rehab projects that you funded? Isn't that right?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. Now you have also -- you were not only an ambitious person, 25 but you also during your tenure at HUD tried to get Ms. Dean and

1 Secretary Pierce into serious trouble, didn't you?
2 A. I don't know what you're referring to.
3 Q. Do you recall if there was an occasion when there was an 4 inspector general's investigation?
5 A. There were several, yes.
6 Q. Do you recall one that dealt with the mod rehab problems at
7 HUD?
8 A. Yes, I do.
9 Q. One that was called, the name was something like Tom Demery

10 Mod Rehab or something like that, had your name on the title?
11 A. Yes.
12 Q. Do you recall having meetings with the inspector general
13 during that investigation in which you told them they were going 14 down the wrong track?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. And that they should be looking at Pierce and Dean?
17 A. I don't recall mentioning Secretary Pierce's name.
18 Q. You don't recall mentioning Secretary Pierce's name.
19 Isn't it a fact that you lied to Secretary Pierce about 20 where mod rehab units were going in your meetings with him?
21 A. I'm, I don't know what you're talking about.
22 Q. Isn't it true, sir, that you were, that you knew that Joseph
23 Strauss, a former HUD employee, was consulting on some mod rehab
24 programs, and you intentionally concealed that from Deborah Dean
25 and Sam Pierce?

1 A. In January of 1987, Mr. -- prior to January of 1987,
2 Mr. Strauss had contacted me on behalf of some PHAs in Puerto
3 Rico. When I was asked who was behind the requests for Puerto
4 Rico, I gave the names of Mr. Holtzman, Mr. Waldman, and I don't,
5 I think perhaps --
6 Q. Mr. Carmen?
7 A. Mr. Carmen, yes. I did not mention Mr. Strauss.
8 Q. And the reason you didn't mention Mr. Strauss, isn't it
9 true, is that because you knew that the secretary did not want

10 units going to a project that was associated with Joe Strauss;
11 isn't that right?

12 A. I don't -- no, that isn't right.

13 Q. When --

14 A. I know that Ms. Dean and Mr. Strauss had difficulties with 15 each other.

16 Q. Oh.

17 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right, I'll sustain the objection to 19 the, I don't know if you'd call it a comment, but to the noise by 20 counsel.

21 MR. WEHNER: It was kind of a comment and a combination
22 noise of disbelief, Judge.

23 MR. O'NEILL: Objection once again, Judge.

24 THE COURT: I'll sustain that and strike the comments
25 of counsel. It has no bearing on the case.

BY MR. WEHNER:

2 Q. So you did not tell the secretary or Ms. Dean -- now wait a
3 minute now. Why didn't you tell the secretary that Joe Strauss
4 was behind it if Ms. Dean was against it?

5 A. The secretary knew that Joe Strauss was involved with those
6 projects.

7 Q. Did you tell him?

8 A. No, I did not.

9 Q. You lied to him when he first

10 you, sir? Isn't it true that he
11 projects, and you gave three name
12 name?

13 A. I gave an incomplete answer,

14 Q. And you didn't give Joe Stra

15 A. I gave an incomplete answer.

16 Q. To the secretary of HUD, correct?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. And he later found out who those units were going to, isn't 19 it correct, sir, when Ms. Dean came to him and said they were 20 going for Joe Strauss, and he came back and checked; isn't that
21 correct?

22 A. No, that's not correct. He knew at that meeting. He 23 already knew.

24 Q. He knew when you were lying to him you were lying to him?

25 A. He knew I was giving an incomplete answer.

1 Q. He knew you were giving an incomplete answer when you were
2 talking to him?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. Is that your testimony, that he knew you were giving him an 5 incomplete answer?

6 A. Yes, that's my testimony, because immediately upon finishing
7 my answer, he said, "That's not all. Those aren't the only
8 people."

9 Q. You were concealing that Joe Strauss was involved in that 10 project to try to get it funded, weren't you?

11 A. I was -- I gave an incomplete answer because of the enmity
12 that existed between Joe Strauss and Deborah Dean and my 13 uncertainty as to what exactly was going on. That was the whole
14 point of the meeting, Mr. Wehner.

15 Q. And you gave that incomplete answer to Secretary Pierce?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. Okay. Now you have testified -- you testified publicly on 18 television, as a matter of fact, regarding certain of the 19 inspector general allegations at HUD; isn't that right?

20 A. Yes.

2 Q. And those were on C-Span, were they not?

2 A. Yes, they were.

2 Q. And were you put under oath --

2 A. Yes, I was.

2 Q. -- during those hearings?

1 A. Yes, I was.

2 Q. And did you swear to tell the truth?

3 A. Yes, I did.

4 Q. And did you tell the truth?

5 A. Yes, I did.

6 Q. You told the utter and complete truth in front of those --

7 on those hearings?

8 A. Yes, I did.

9 Q. Okay. You haven't been --

10 perjury, did you?

11 A. No, I did not.

you didn't plead guilty to 12 Q. Okay. Is that because you've never committed perjury?

13 A. Of course.
14 Q. Okay. And you told the truth in front of the Lantos
15 committee in the same fashion as you're telling the truth today,
16 correct?
17 A. Correct.
18 Q. I mean, you've been put under oath today, correct?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. And you had the same obligation you have today as when you
2 were in front of the Lantos committee? You recognize that?
2 A. Yes, I do. I know a lot more than I did before the Lantos
2 committee. I've had an opportunity to look at documents and 2 spend a lot more time on issues than I did when I testified in 2 front of Chairman Lantos.

1 Q. Okay. So you may have made some mistakes in front of the 2 Lantos committee, but they certainly wouldn't have been 3 intentional; is that what you're saying?
4 A. Yes.
5 MR. WEHNER: Okay. No intentional perjury, no lies,
6 just mistakes, okay.
7 Well, I would, with permission of the Court, I'd like
8 to play a portion of the testimony to the witness.
9 THE COURT: why don't you come up to the bench, and 10 we'll see what it covers.
11 (Bench conference on the record.)
12 THE COURT: what area do you want to use for 13 impeachment purposes?
14 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I intend to play one, two - 15 five pages of the testimony, which is his introductory statement 16 after the inspector general's report was issued, in which he 17 basically, there are a number of -- there are a lot of 18 inconsistent statements in there, but the main reason I want to 19 play it is because he is attempting in there to shift the blame
20 for any problems to Secretary Pierce and Ms. Dean, and No. 2, 2 that there are statements in there that are inconsistent with 2 other statements he has given and statements in which he, in my
2 judgment, he perjures himself in front of the Lantos committee,
2 and he's just testified that he was truthful in front of the 2 Lantos committee.

1 THE COURT: Are you aware of this?
2 MR. O'NEILL: I'm aware of his testimony, Your Honor.
3 THE COURT: what this goes to?
4 MR. O'NEILL: If you want to hear from the government,
5 the government can divine no legal basis for doing such. It's 6 not proper cross examination. You must ask him, direct him to 7 something and say, "Is that what you said?"
8 MR. WEHNER: I'll do that, Judge, but I think I'm 9 entitled to do that in the most effective way possible, which is 10 using a videotape of him.
11 THE COURT: well, I think you do have to ask specific 12 questions and get specific responses from him. I don't know how 13 you can arrange the video to play specific responses you think in 14 here go to a precise question you've asked him, he denies it, and 15 he testified X or he said X. To put his whole report on in 16 video -
17 MR. WEHNER: Not the whole report, just four pages.
18 THE COURT: Four pages on video, unless it goes to 19 specific issues, I mean, you did ask him, I think, already didn't 20 he try to put the blame over on somebody else, and here he does

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

2 say, "I say that because the inspector general has a statement
2 from the secretary's executive assistant, who stated that for 42
2 of the 59 months covered by the report period, that she
2 functioned as the focal point of the Moderate Rehabilitation
2 Program. Yet there is barely a mention made of that focal point

1919

1 in the 700-page report which bears my name."
2 And he denies he ever talked to HUD officials about
3 moderate rehab programs.
4 MR. WEHNER: well, that's a good example, Judge. I
5 mean, he denies talking to HUD officials, and that's just not the 6 case. He talked to Joe Strauss, for example, which is already
7 established, and he says that he didn't talk to any former HUD
8 officials, and that's one of 30 maybe, not that I intend to go
9 through them all, but that's a good example, and that he lied to 10 Sam Pierce or gave an incomplete answer to Sam Pierce about Joe 11 Strauss.
12 THE COURT: well, I only see a couple of those things 13 so far that get into specific issues that would reflect his 14 testimony today.
15 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor -
16 THE COURT: If you can pick out a couple lines on the 17 television where he says that, as opposed to just reading what he 18 said, that's all right, but I don't want to play the four pages,
19 because it gets into a lot of extraneous things.
20 MR. WEHNER: I can pick out a couple and play those.
2 THE COURT: why don't you do that. That's fine.
2 MR. WEHNER: Yes.
2 THE COURT: will this work on here? what do you have
2 to do? Do you have to set a machine up or something?
2 MR. WEHNER: No, sir, it's all set, but I would go to 1920

1 the direct place. So if we could break?
2 THE COURT: I'll take a break and let you get to the 3 couple places you want.
4 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Judge.
5 THE COURT: All right.
6 (End of bench conference.)
7 THE COURT: All right, we're going to take a short
8 afternoon break, Ladies and Gentlemen, so we can set up a machine
9 here to work and give you your afternoon break as well at the 10 same time. So remember the admonition of the Court.
1 we'll take about a 10-minute recess. Remember the 1 admonition to not talk about the case with anyone or among

All right, ten minutes.

1 (Recess, 3:00 p.m. to 3:25 p.m.)
2 THE COURT: All right.
3 Have you got those two segments picked out?
4 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir, and I understand that I
5 can cut it off quickly with the remote. I've been 6 instructed.
7 (Jury present)
8 THE COURT: All right, we're ready to resume
9 the cross-examination.

10 BY MR. WEHNER:
11 Q Mr. Demery, I would like to show you what I've 12 marked as Dean Exhibit 190.
13 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Dean's Exhibit 190 marked
14 for identification.
15 (Defendant's Exhibit 190 marked for
16 Identification)
17 BY MR. WEHNER:
18 Q Which purports to be a memo that was written from 19 you to Secretary Pierce. I ask you if you recognize it?
20 A Yes, I do.
2 Q And that memo is written in response to the 2 Inspector General's report on Mod Rehab, was it not?
2 A No, it was written in response to a memo that the
2 Inspector General wrote, dated October 24, 1988.
2 Q Do you recall telling Secretary Pierce that, "Each

1 funding action with regard to the moderate
2 rehabilitation program occurred as a result of specific 3 written or verbal communications with PHA's, elected and
4 public officials, and regional or area HUD personnel?"
5 A Are you reading from my letter?
6 Q Yes, I am.
7 A May I?
8 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.
9 THE COURT: All right, I think - the 10 objection is the use of the memo. It's not in evidence
11 but I'll overrule the objection and let him ask him
12 whether he recalls saying that.
13 BY MR. WEHNER:
14 Q Do you recall saying that to the Secretary?
15 A Yes, I wrote that.
16 Q Now, the Government showed you Government Exhibit
17 198 which had been introduced into evidence which is a 18 memorandum or a letter to Secretary Samuel Pierce from 19 Alvin D. Moore dealing with Section Eight Mod Rehab
20 units in Metro-Dade County, Florida. Do you recall that
2 memo?
2 I should call it a letter. Do you recall that
2 letter?

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

2 A Not offhand, no.

2 Q Do you recall ever having seen that before?

1923

1 A It's possible. Metro-Dade sent a lot in. I don't

2 recall that particular one.

3 Q Would you -- do you recognize your handwriting in

4 the upper righthand corner of that exhibit? The word

5 funded?

6 A Oh, I -- it could be my handwriting.

7 Q Well, it does appear to be your writing, does it

8 not?

9 A It's close to it, yeah.

10 Q Now, I'm going to show you what I've marked for 11 identification as Dean Exhibit 189?

12 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Dean Exhibit 189 marked for
13 identification.

14 (Defendant's Exhibit 189 marked
15 for Identification)

16 BY MR. WEHNER:

17 Q Which is another copy of that memo. I'm sorry,
18 that letter. And it has few more items written on it
19 than Government Exhibit 198, including some numbers down
20 in the lower righthand corner. Now, those numbers are 2 in your handwriting, are they not?

2 A No, they're not.

2 Q Those are not your handwriting?

2 A No, it's not.

2 Q Who was your Executive Assistant?

1924

1 A At what time?

2 Q February 13th, 1987.

3 A I believe it was Nancy Murray.

4 Q Now, you testified concerning Lou Kitchin and your 5 knowledge of Lou Kitchin in the direct examination by 6 Independent Counsel. You had a practice, did you not,
7 of keeping a personal walletsized phone directory of 8 people that were important to you?

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
9 A I had a practice of keeping a small card that had 10 frequently dialed numbers on it, yes.
11 Q And Mr. Kitchin's name and number were on there,
12 were they not?
13 A I - I don't recall.
14 Q I show you what I've marked for identification as
15 Dean Exhibit 191?
16 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Dean Exhibit 191 marked for
17 identification.
18 (Defendant's Exhibit 191 marked
19 for Identification)
20 BY MR. WEHNER:
21 Q And ask you if that refreshes your recollection as 22 to whether you kept Lou Kitchin's telephone number in 23 that index card, as you recall it?
24 A I assume that's his number? That number doesn't -25
Q You can't assume anything.

1925

1 A It says Lou with a 404 phone number and if you're 2 telling me that's Lou Kitchin's phone number then -
3 Q What I'm asking you, does this refresh your 4 recollection that you kept that information on your 5 list?
6 A I generally made a practice of including complete
7 initials. That one is just notated Lou. If that's Lou
8 Kitchin's phone number, then, yeah, it was on my list.
9 Q What was the purpose of keeping that list?
10 A Frequently -- mainly convenience. Numbers that 11 were frequently used. I could keep it in my wallet
12 without having to carry around my phone directory.
13 Q So you were frequently in contact with Mr. Kitchin,
14 is that correct?
15 A I was in contact with Mr. Kitchin in '88, yeah.
16 Q And I believe you testified that you first met him
17 when?
18 A My first recollection in meeting him was outside of 19 the Secretary's suite. I was entering it as he and 20 Miss Dean were leaving it, and to my recollection that's
2 when - she introduced me to him at that time.
2 Q When do you recall that being?
2 A In the spring of '87.
2 Q And your recollection is it could not have been
2 before the spring of '87?

1 A That's the first time I remember meeting him. When
2 I arrived in Washington, you know, a parade of people
3 went through my office to introduce themselves. I -
4 it's possible he was part of the parade.
5 Q And you could have met him as early as, say,
6 January of '77?
7 A '87?
8 Q I'm sorry, '87.
9 A It's possible.
10 Q You could have met him as early as October or 11 November of '86?
12 A I don't remember meeting him until the spring of 13 '87.
14 Q But it's possible you met him earlier.
15 A I have no recollection of meeting him earlier.
16 Q You testified on direct examination, sir, that 17 when - almost immediately after you got to HUD you
18 received a list of Mod Rehab projects to be funded. Do

19 you remember that?

20 A Yes.

2 Q And you said that was approximately three days
2 after you arrived at HUD you got this list, and you
2 asked what it was and you said that Miss Dean told you
2 that these were to be funded. Is that essentially your
2 testimony?

1 A Essentially, yes.

2 Q Now, you haven't always said that about that list,
3 have you? In fact, you've given different testimony
4 about that list in the past?

5 A I'm unfamiliar with what you're referring.

6 Q Well, you previously testified that you hadn't
7 committed any perjury in May or when you testified in 8 front of the Committee on Banking, Finance and Urban 9 Affairs of the House of Representatives and there you
10 were asked by the chairman of that Committee, Chairman
11 Gonzalez, page 59, the third, fourth, eighth line from 12 the bottom, "Chairman Gonzalez: Do you recall any 13 particular emphasis on the -
14 Mr. Demery: No, I recall three days after 15 getting to HUD being given a list of non-fund, non-PHA
16 requests which I was told the Secretary" -that's 17 Secretary Pierce, is it not?

18 A Yes.

19 Q "Wanted funding." That's not Miss Dean wanted the 20 funding, that's the Secretary wanted them funded, is 2 that correct? Is that your testimony in front of the 2 Committee?

2 A Yes.

2 Q "I asked what is this list, and she
2 said - "

1928

1 "Chairman Gonzalez: with respect to the
2 moderate rehab."

3 "Mr. Demery: Yes."

4 "Chairman Gonzalez: You were informed this
5 was what the Secretary wanted?"

6 •Mr. Demery: Right

7 A Yes.

8 Q "Chairman Gonzalez: was this by virtue of, say, an 9 interoffice memo, or what was the source of your 10 information that this was the Secretary's desire?"

11 "Mr. Demery: well, I got a letter, a note
12 from his Executive Assistant that said please let me
13 know whether action is taken on these requests as it's 14 very important, and I asked her -I called her about it

15 and said -"

16 "Chairman Gonzalez: That was Miss Dean."

17 "Mr. Demery: Yes. I asked her what did this 18 mean and she explained that the Secretary, it was a 19 brand new fiscal year, and the Secretary had some 20 funding decisions he wanted me to implement, so I did."
2 Do you recall giving that testimony under oath
2 to Chairman Gonzalez?

2 A Yes, I do.

2 Q Now, this is one of several times that you had
2 occasion to testify in Congress, isn't that correct?

1929

1 A Yes.
2 Q And did you testify on one occasion -
3 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.
4 THE COURT: I'm not sure what -I haven't
5 heard the question yet. Go ahead.
6 BY MR. WEHNER:
7 Q Did you testify on one occasion that, "None of the 8 former HUD officials ever talked to me about moderate
9 rehab?"
10 A I have to see the transcript. I don't -11
MR. WEHNER: It's marked May 8th, 1989.
12 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, I still object to the 13 manner in which it's being presented.
14 THE COURT: I'd like to speed this along a 15 little bit. Why don't you come up?
16 (Bench conference)
17 THE COURT: You're sort of asking the question
18 from the transcript. I think you could ask him is it
19 true that all the funding decisions, whatever it says
20 there -
2 MR. WEHNER: I can do it that way, Judge.
2 THE COURT: And see whether he says yes or no.
2 MR. WEHNER: I can do it that way. No
2 problem.
2 MR. O'NEILL: That will be fine.

1930

1 THE COURT: It will be quicker that way.
2 MR. WEHNER: No problem.
3 (Bench conference concluded)
4 BY MR. WEHNER:
5 Q Did former HUD officials come and see you and talk
6 to you about Mod Rehab units?
7 A Yes.
8 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission, I'll
9 play the tape.
10 MR. O'NEILL: I would like to know at what
11 point, Judge, what -12
THE COURT: Do you want to just lay a little
13 bit of foundation as to when and where this occurred
14 before you play it?
15 BY MR. WEHNER:
16 Q You testified on May 8th, 1999 as a former HUD
17 Assistant Secretary for Housing, accompanied by Jerris
18 Leonard, counsel. Do you recall that?
19 A It wasn't 1999.
20 MR. WEHNER: 1989.
2 THE COURT: All right. I'll allow it to be
2 played.
2 (Portion of videotape played)
2 A It was difficult for me to understand what I was 2 saying up there. Can I read what was played? The 1931

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
1 fidelity, especially at the beginning, was not very

2 clear.

3 Q Sure. The portion that was played is page 53

4 beginning with the words "I have" and ending with the

5 word "rehab."

6 A Okay. That's a correct statement.

7 Q I understand. Now, did you testify on another

8 occasion -- well, I'll ask you the question in a

9 different way. Did you meet with developers regarding 10 the allocation of Mod Rehab units when you were at HUD?

11 A I met with developers concerning all programs of 12 HUD. I assume Mod Rehab was part of it, yes, as a 13 general practice.

14 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission.

15 (Portion of videotape played)

16 THE COURT: All right, I'll allow him to ask
17 the question. That doesn't go directly to developers.

18 MR. WEHNER: I'll withdraw that, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: All right.

20 BY MR. WEHNER:

21 Q Mr. Demery, of the several times that you testified
22 up on Capitol Hill you were asked many questions as to 23 whether or not you had met with consultants or 24 developers, isn't that correct?

25 A I was asked those questions, yes.

1932

1 Q And you responded to those questions, correct?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Okay. To the best of your knowledge did you tell
4 the truth when you responded to those questions?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Did you testify when you were up there that you
7 were contacted by Mr. Louis Kitchin concerning Mod Rehab
8 developments?

9 A I don't recall the testimony.

10 Q Okay.

11 A I mean there were pages and pages of testimony.

12 Q Absolutely. I'm going to show what you I've marked
13 for identification as Dean exhibit 192?

14 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Dean Exhibit 192 marked for
15 identification.

16 (Defendant's Exhibit 192 marked

17 for Identification)
18 BY MR. WEHNER:
19 Q And ask if that refreshes your recollection as to 20 when you would have first met Mr. Lou Kitchin?
2 A There's no date on it.
2 That's not where the date belongs
2 Q It does not refresh your recollection as to when
2 you first met Mr. Kitchin?
2 A It's undated.

1933

1 Q Isn't it true, sir, that you first met him when he
2 came by your office and called your office for an
3 appointment in January of 1987?
4 A I have an appointment calendar. If he's on my 5 appointment calendar, then that's when I met him. I do
6 not recall meeting him at that time.
7 Q Isn't it true that he came by to see you and that 8 you met him before then?
9 A I have no idea.
10 Q Okay.
11 A If I had an appointment with him, then I met him.
12 If he stopped by and I wasn't there then - I don't 13 know.
14 Q I'll show you what I've marked for identification
15 as Dean exhibit 193?
16 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Dean exhibit 193 marked for
17 identification.
18 (Defendant's Exhibit 193 marked
19 for Identification)
20 BY MR. WEHNER:
2 Q And ask you if that appears to be your book
2 calendar?
2 A Yes, it does.
2 Q And looking at Thursday, January 29th, I ask you if 2 that refreshes your recollection as to whether you had

1934

1 met Lou Kitchin at least much earlier than the spring of 2 1987?
3 A Yes, he had a courtesy call appointment at 11
4 o'clock on that date.
5 Q So you clearly had met him prior to the spring,
6 isn't that correct? And January is not the spring.
7 A I must have, yes. I don't recall that meeting.
8 And I think my testimony was the first time I recall
9 meeting him was outside of the Secretary's office suite.
10 Q In April.
11 A In the spring. I don't know if it was March or 12 April.
13 Q Well, you would agree, would you not, that your 14 memory is now refreshed that you met him prior to the 15 spring of 1987, would you not?
16 A I will - yes, I will agree he had an appointment
17 with me at the end of January. I don't recall meeting
18 him then.
19 Q Okay.
20 A I don't recall.
21 Q Okay. And yet you recall meeting him in April, or 22 the spring?
23 A I can tell you where I remember first meeting him.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
24 That was outside the Secretary's suite. As to the date
25 I don't -- I'm not -- I cannot recall with precision

1935

1 what month it was.
2 Q Okay. So you're sure where you met him.
3 A And I recall --
4 Q But you're not sure when?
5 A That's correct, and I recall Ms. Dean introducing
6 me to Mr. Kitchin.
7 Q Outside the Secretary's suite, correct?
8 A I was going in. She was coming out -- they were 9 coming out. Right by the corridor, yes.

10 Q Okay. Now, you were asked by the Committee on 11 several occasions about the selection of units in the 12 Mod Rehab project, and do you recall being asked, "Do
13 you think the ones that were selected, the PHA's that 14 were selected in your judgment were always the best,
15 given the number of units available, which were very 16 competitive?"

17 A What was your question?
18 Q Do you recall being asked that question.
19 A Generally, yes.
20 Q And do you recall giving the answer, "yes?"
2 A Yes.
2 Q Do you recall the question, "They were always the 2 best ones. Then I don't know why you want to bring in 2 Debbie and the Secretary in terms of saying that if they
2 were always the best and the buck does stop with you

1936

1 since you were head of the selection Committee," do you
2 recall being asked that?
3 A No, I don't.
4 MR. O'NEILL: Once again, Your Honor, I'm 5 going to object to the manner in which the questions are 6 being asked.
7 THE COURT: All right, I'll allow it at this
8 time, just for clarity.
9 BY MR. WEHNER:
10 Q Do you recall being asked that question?
11 A Yes.
12 MR. WEHNER: I have nothing further, Your
13 Honor.
14 THE COURT: Redirect?
15 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Your Honor.
16 REDIRECT EXAMINATION
17 BY MR. O'NEILL:
18 Q Mr. Demery, you were asked questions on 19 cross-examination by Mr. Wehner concerning getting that 20 list approximately three days after you began as the
2 Assistant Secretary for Housing-FHA Commissioner. Do
2 you recall those questions?
2 A Yes.
2 Q From whom did you get that list?
2 A Miss Dean.

1937

1 Q Did you have any conversations with the Secretary

2 about that list?

3 A No.

4 Q Now, you were asked questions on cross-examination

5 about the committee. And I believe from your earlier

6 testimony, correct me if I'm wrong, you said the

7 committee met twice from January, 1987 until the time

8 the defendant Deborah Gore Dean left the Department of 9 Housing and Urban Development?

10 A Yes.

11 Q How did that committee operate in terms of 12 selecting which projects to be funded?

13 A Basically it was a consensus between Miss Dean and 14 I and prior to the meeting of the committee and when the 15 committee convened I presented to third committee member
16 the consensus that Miss Dean and I had reached.

17 Q How did you and Miss Dean reach a consensus? What 18 procedure did you go through to gain that consensus?

19 A The deliberative process consisted of verifying
20 requests on file from the PHA, as well as any additional 2 considerations that we were aware of at the time such as

2 Congressional interest or local interest, as well as any
2 contacts on behalf of the PHA requests. Any support
2 from whatever source.

2 Q Mr. Demery, I'll show you a document that's 1938

1 formerly been marked as Government's exhibit 208 for
2 identification. It's not in evidence, so I'd ask you
3 not to read it out loud.

4 A I'm sorry, what?

5 Q I would just ask you to review that, please, if you
6 would. Do not read it out loud and don't make any 7 reference to it. It's not in evidence.

8 THE DEPUTY CLERK: What exhibit was that, Mr.
9 O'Neill?

10 MR. O'NEILL: 208.

11 THE DEPUTY CLERK: 208?

12 Government's Exhibit 208 marked for
13 identification.

14 (Government's Exhibit 208 marked
15 for Identification)

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

16 BY MR. O'NEILL:

17 Q Now, I would also show you Government's Exhibit 209
18 for identification?

19 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Government's Exhibit 209
20 marked for identification.

2 (Government's Exhibit 209 marked
2 for Identification)

2 BY MR. O'NEILL:

2 Q And I'd ask you again, do not refer to it out loud
2 because it is not in evidence.

1939

1 Mr. Demery, do you recall the specific
2 allocation of 203 units to a project in Dade County,
3 Florida in the spring of 1987?

4 A I recall 203 units being allocated to Dade County,
5 yes.

6 Q Did you know who the developers were in that
7 project?

8 A No.

9 Q Did you know who the consultant was on that
10 project?

11 A No.

12 Q Did you push for that project?

13 A Excuse me, at the time Ms. Dean and I were 14 reviewing the funding applications from the PHA. As I
15 said, as a part of the process each would let the other 16 know any contacts that were made. It's very possible at 17 that time I was told, I just don't remember.

18 Q Did you have anything to do with the funding of 19 that project?

20 A In an official capacity, yes.

2 Q How about in an unofficial capacity?

2 A Well, I presented it to the committee, but I was
2 not the initial contact on behalf of the PHA.

2 Q Who was, if you know?

2 A It was brought to my attention by Miss Dean.

1940

1 MR. O'NEILL: I have no further questions.

2 Thank you.

3 MR. WEHNER: One question, Judge?

4 THE COURT: All right.

5 RE-CROSS EXAMINATION

6 BY MR. WEHNER:

7 Q You were informed, were you not, sir, that 8 Secretary Pierce spoke through Miss Dean for purposes of 9 the Mod Rehab program?

10 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor. It's
11 hearsay earlier, it's hearsay now.

12 THE COURT: All right. I'll sustain it.

13 BY MR. WEHNER:

14 Q Your understanding was that Miss Dean spoke for 15 Secretary Pierce on the Mod Rehab program, isn't that

16 correct?

17 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.

18 MR. WEHNER: Judge, that's not hearsay.

19 THE COURT: Thank you for telling me.

20 MR. WEHNER: Sorry, Judge. It's been a long
2 three weeks.

2 THE COURT: I'll overrule the objection. You

2 can answer

2 BY MR. WEHNER:

2 Q You had an understanding, did you not, that

1941

1 Miss Dean spoke for the Secretary on Mod Rehab, isn't

2 that correct?

3 THE WITNESS: Is it okay to answer it now?

4 THE COURT: Yes.

5 Yes

6 MR. WEHNER: Nothing further.

7 THE COURT: Do you have any further redirect?

8 MR. O'NEILL: No, Your Honor, thank you.

9 THE COURT: Thank you, sir. You may step

10 down.

11 Your next witness?

12 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, at this time the 13 Government would move into evidence a number of 14 documents and I will read a stipulation.

15 Judge, if we can approach for a second?

16 (Bench conference)

17 THE COURT: Yes.

18 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, that probably just about

19 finishes us. We have one witness which might be a

20 summary document witness who will introduce the summary

2 document chart that we spoke of at the beginning of the

2 trial. Steve figures there might be some objections

2 there. We can talk about that. That would about finish

2 it. We have to put some documents in evidence which

2 haven't - we haven't addressed that fact yet. That's a

1942

1 question of putting it on the record, so we figured we'd
2 bring it to your attention.

3 MR. WEHNER: Judge, if the summary witness is

4 based upon the testimony of the trial I will not object

5 to the summaries because there's no witness. I would

6 only object to the summary charts if they misrepresent

7 what was said. I doubt that that's going to be the

8 case.

9 MR. O'NEILL: we'll try to give them to Steve

10 tomorrow. The summary document charts would be only

11 those documents that were admitted into evidence during

12 the trial, so we don't think there will be any necessity

13 of calling the witness, but we're prepared to do so if 14 need be.

15 THE COURT: We've got a half a day tomorrow.

16 MR. O'NEILL: Right. We would expect fully to 17 rest tomorrow.

18 THE COURT: I'm just trying to plan it for the 19 jury then. There are some documents now you want to put 20 in?

2 MR. O'NEILL: It might be easier to do it

2 tomorrow.

2 THE COURT: Well, we'll need sometime after we

2 rest for motions. We'll get the jury in here. Do you

t want to put the documents in before the jury, with a

1943

1 summary witness, before you rest? I can bring them in

2 here for an hour.

3 MR. O'NEILL: It should be done, for the

4 record, I guess but whether it needs to be done in front

5 of the jury - it wouldn't be referred to until probably

6 closing argument.

7 THE COURT: I can explain to them later it was

8 outside their presence just for the matter of expedition

9 but they are evidence like any other evidence. They

10 will just not see it because it's just a matter of 11 expedition to get it done when they're not here.

12 MR. WEHNER: I do not object to proceeding in 13 that fashion either with those exhibits or with the 14 proposed chart.

15 MS. SWEENEY: It's actually charts.

16 MR. WEHNER: Plural.

17 THE COURT: And then we can take up the 18 documents and Giglio motions and judgment of acquittal

19 motions.

20 MR. O'NEILL: That's right.

2 THE COURT: And you'll be ready to go

2 tomorrow.

2 MR. WEHNER: I would prefer to have the

2 weekend, Judge, because I want to give you a written

2 brief on some issues. I would really prefer to do that

1 Monday.

2 THE COURT: Then you would have some witnesses

3 that are available starting next week.

4 MR. WEHNER: Yes, I think our case will

5 probably take three days, four days, tops.

6 THE COURT: we have a holiday the following

7 weekend, so we lose an extra day there.

8 MR. O'NEILL: And you're off Friday.

9 THE COURT: On this case. So we'll have to 10 finish the following week sometime, and maybe rebuttal.
11 Well, let me do this. If you don't want - I
12 don't blame you for wanting to make sure that you're 13 ready for the motions for judgment of acquittal. Maybe 14 what we'll do is have the jury come in. We'll look at 15 those documents and have the jury come in at ten o'clock 16 and have the documents come in in front of the jury and 17 the charts, whatever you want and then I'll explain to 18 the jury that they've got the rest of the day and they 19 can come in on until Monday afternoon. So we can take 20 up these matters Monday morning.

2 MR. WEHNER: Would Your Honor intend for us to

2 be ready to put on our first witness Tuesday morning?

2 THE COURT: I was thinking Monday afternoon.

2 MR. WEHNER: Okay. I was thinking about when 2 you wanted to do the rule 29. If you give me the

1945

1 weekend to work on the 29. You would have that argument

2 Monday afternoon.

3 THE COURT: Monday morning. We'll finish with

4 evidence here. Then they'll rest formally tomorrow and

5 I'll recess the rest of the day tomorrow and it will be

6 fairly early and you'll have all weekend to prepare

7 motions for judgment of acquittal and be ready for that

8 at 9:30 Monday morning. We'll do that for a couple of 9 hours and I'll try to make an immediate ruling.

10 MS. SWEENEY: If you're going to do something 11 in writing is it possible that we would be able to get 12 it on Sunday?

13 MR. WEHNER: Yes, but I have no idea what time
14 on Sunday you'll get it. I mean I can't help you with 15 that, Paula. I'm sorry, I'll do the best I can.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
16 MS. SWEENEY: I was just asking as a way of 17 moving this along.
18 MR. WEHNER: I got something from you at 10:30
19 last night.
20 MR. O'NEILL: That was not from me, for the 2 record, I was sleeping.

2 MR. WEHNER: I'll do the best I can.
2 MS. SWEENEY: I appreciate it.
2 THE COURT: All right. we'll do that. I'll
2 tell the jury. Thank you.

1946

1 (Bench conference concluded)
2 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, let me tell

3 you where we are in the progress of the case. I've just 4 had a conference with counsel about it. Tomorrow is a
5 short day because I have another matter I must take up
6 in another case. Tomorrow the Government expects to 7 introduce documents and charts concerning the 8 allegations in this case which will be summaries of 9 various matters that have occurred already in the 10 testimony and I believe that we can get that done

11 tomorrow morning in good time and you'll be out tomorrow
12 afternoon, as I previously announced.
13 We're going to start late Monday and the 14 reason is I expect the Government, unless they review
15 tonight and think otherwise, to announce that they rest
16 their case in chief tomorrow. That is, their primary
17 case will be completed. The case is moving more swiftly
18 than we anticipated.
19 After the Government finishes its case in 20 chief then the defendant has an opportunity, but no
2 obligation, to put on any evidence, has an opportunity
2 to do so, and the defendant has announced he intends to
2 put on some evidence in the case. So that the defendant
2 will be given her chance beginning Monday to put in 2 evidence in the case and once that's concluded the 1947

1 Government has a limited circumstance to put some 2 rebuttal evidence in. I don't think the case will
3 finish next week totally but probably will the week
4 thereafter. That would be the week of the 11th of 5 October, the 11th being a holiday, Columbus Day, so

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
6 sometime in the week of the 11th of October, and by the

7 15th I would hope that we may complete the testimonial

8 phase of the case, the evidentiary phase of the case,

9 and may have completed the case and submitted the case

10 to the jury for deliberation purposes.

11 what we're going to do now is recess and have 12 the documents in tomorrow morning and then you'll be 13 given the day off. I'll have you come in late Monday
14 because once the Government rests I have to take up
15 legal matters with counsel for a while before we begin
16 the defendant's case. So you're going to come in Monday
17 after lunch. You'll get credit for the day but you'll 18 come in after lunch on Monday.
19 Tomorrow morning you should be out by 11,
20 11:30 and Monday you will start at 1:30, start at 1:30
2 in the afternoon Monday. If you come here at 9:30

2 you're going to have a long wait. 1:30 Monday
2 afternoon.

2 All right, you're going to get a recess
2 overnight. We have the same admonitions always. You

1948

1 don't read, watch or listen about anything in this case,

2 don't talk to anybody about it during the break. We

3 start tomorrow morning at 9:30. It's a short day

4 tomorrow, make your plans, and also you will have a

5 shorter day Monday beginning Monday afternoon.

6 As I said, I expect the evidentiary phase will

7 be completed maybe by the end of next week and then it

8 will be before you for deliberations.

9 All right. Thank you.

10 (Jury dismissed)

11 THE COURT: All right. We'll see you all 12 tomorrow morning then after you get a chance to look at 13 these documents.

14 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Your Honor.

1 PROCEEDING S
2 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Criminal number 92-181,
3 United States of America versus Deborah Gore Dean. We
4 have Robert O'Neill and Paula Sweeney for the 5 Government. Stephen Wehner for the defendant.
6 THE COURT: All right. Good morning, counsel.
7 MR. O'NEILL: Good morning, Your Honor.
8 MR. WEHNER: Good morning, Your Honor.
9 THE COURT: Have we got those exhibits ready
10 to go?
11 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Your Honor. We would read 12 a number of them into the record once the jury is 13 present.
14 Mr. Wehner and Miss Sweeney and myself have 15 been speaking about a number of things. There will be 16 one stipulation, Your Honor.
17 We found the reporter for the Senate hearing
18 and he was able to locate his tapes and there will be a 19 stipulation that Miss Dean was sworn at that time. He 20 did have copies of the cassette tapes that he kept.
2 THE COURT: Of -
2 MR. O'NEILL: Of the hearing, of her being
2 sworn
2 THE COURT: Tape recorded statements?
2 MR. O'NEILL: Yes.

1 THE COURT: Different tapes from what we had
2 the other day.
3 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, he had his official tape
4 recordings that he went through and there was the oath,
5 and I can represent for the Court that he did play those
6 in front of me, and Senator Proxmire put the defendant
7 under oath, but the stipulation is just that an oath was 8 administered and the like. So that was taken care of.
9 We've also shown to Mr. Wehner this morning a 10 number of charts. Let me just take them in a different

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
11 order. There's one, if I may send a copy up to the 12 Court, it's entitled MRP project figures and it will be 13 black and white, Your Honor. All the charts will be 14 black and white since Your Honor expressed some 15 discomfort with color in the original charts. The only 16 difference that we come with Mr. Wehner is a project
17 line call the date of funding allocation by 18 headquarters, it's the fourth column, Your Honor, and 19 those dates were as to the rapid replies, and Mr. Wehner
20 has requested that we use the date of the 185. Did I
2 say - it was the rapid replies, and we'll use the 2 185's. So we will change those dates to reflect the 2 dates of the 185's.
2 And we still have the summary documents of the 2 charts that Mr. Wehner has looked to and I don't know -

1954

1 and I'll just file a copy of our motion to the Court on
2 that. It just details summary documents, Your Honor.
3 That's the original, I guess.
4 THE COURT; I've gone through these for the 5 motion to admit these summary documents as to 1006.
6 I'll just ask as to one of the latter ones. The Kitchin
7 projects, the next to the last is January 15, '87
8 through March 30th, '87. I just don't recall testimony
9 about Schoenberger asking Dean to do things. That draws
10 a blank.
11 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, that's based on a 12 document, Government exhibit 196, that I believe has 13 been stipulated to by the defense.
14 THE COURT: And 198A as well?
15 MS. SWEENEY: I believe that's the case. Your 16 Honor, if -17
THE COURT: I guess I didn't read through
18 those documents.
19 MS. SWEENEY: If there are documents - the 20 point of the charts is to refer only to documents that 2 are in evidence in and of themselves. If there are 2 documents that are not in evidence or don't come in this
2 morning through the additional stipulations they will be
2 blacked out of the charts, Your Honor.
2 THE COURT: All right, 196, 198A.

1 THE DEPUTY CLERK: That has been admitted. I
2 thought you were asking me was 196 been admitted.
3 THE COURT: Has it been admitted?
4 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Yes, it has.
5 THE COURT: What about 198A?
6 THE DEPUTY CLERK: 198A also has been
7 admitted.
8 THE COURT: I just don't recall it.
9 All right. Has counsel for the defendant had 10 a chance to look at these exhibits as well as the 11 summary charts?
12 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, we've had plenty to 13 of time to look at the exhibits and reflect on them, so 14 that's not a problem with us. In terms of the ones that 15 are on the charts, we've had time to look at the charts
16 visavis the exhibits. We just got the charts this 17 morning. We've been going through them.
18 I'm informed by the Independent Counsel that

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
19 they desire to use the charts to go to the jury. And 20 that the jury would take them back with them when they 21 deliberate.
22 So the first objection we have is that we do
23 not believe that it is appropriate for those to go to 24 the jury because they draw – argumentative conclusions
25 within the documents themselves and are more properly

1956

1 used for argument as opposed to be used during jury
2 deliberations, and I'll point the Court to the first few
3 examples of that that we've seen. These aren't
4 numbered. This one is entitled Necho Allen exception
5 rents. It starts with September 13th, 1984.

6 THE COURT: All right.

7 MR. WEHNER: At the bottom of that chart it

8 says, reflecting on February 28th, Dean asked for HUD

9 Philadelphia request and the draft denial. That's based 10 on, I believe, Government Exhibit 109A and frankly,
11 Judge, I think it's fair for the Government to argue

12 that that occurred based on that exhibit but it's not

13 fair to conclude that that's what occurred, and I think
14 if Your Honor would look specifically at that exhibit
15 their conclusion is based upon a little note that's in 16 the upper lefthand corner, it says return to Deb Dean
17 for her request to Jim Hamernick for this action
18 February 28th. Well, to say that that means Dean asked
19 for HUD Philadelphia request and the draft denial,
20 overstates entirely what the evidence is, and that's a
21 conclusion based on what the evidence says.
22 Now, this type of conclusion is through the 23 entire set of exhibits. And I think it goes beyond a
24 summary chart as provided for under 1006.
25 If you look at, for example, the second Necho

1957

1 Allen page which is March 1st, March 15th, it says

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 Rosenthal paid Sankin $10,000. Government Exhibit 111.

3 Dean schedules lunch with Sankin, Government Exhibit

4 5D. Putting those two items directly together with

5 Sankin's name in caps and Dean's name in caps is not a

6 fair summary. It's clearly fair argument, Judge, that

7 since they happened on the same day, they must be

8 related, look at how closely these things tie together.

9 The circumstantial evidence is that she must have known,
10 but for the jury to see this in a highlighted fashion in 11 the jury room takes - really takes a transcript of the 12 prosecutors' closing with them, and it's not evidence.
13 The evidence is Government Exhibits 111 and 5D, and 14 that's subject to my interpretation as well.

15 So I think it draws conclusions and it's 16 argumentative. And I don't mean to go through all of 17 these individually, Judge, but I'll go through a few 18 more to show you how these objections go through the 19 entire chart.

20 If you look at South Florida One, on the 21 September 18th entry, it says Dean called Funding
22 Control Office with changes to Zagame's Mod Rehab list.
23 Cancels most units for Washington, D. C , that has 24 absolutely no relevance to this case, Judge, that units
25 were canceled for Washington, D. C. It may have 1958

1 relevance that units were canceled but it's an unfair
2 summary of that process to say that they were canceled
3 for Washington, D. C. to this jury. That's argument
4 that somehow they should be, I guess, prejudiced against 5 Miss Dean because certain projects in Washington, D. C.
6 weren't funded. And I think that's really a transparent
7 attempt to get that highlighted to the jury and I find 8 that highly objectionable, to highlight that type of 9 evidence that I think even the Independent Counsel would

10 agree is of marginal, at best, relevance.

11 Arama, July 5th.

12 THE COURT: Yes.

13 MR. WEHNER: It states Dean promises Nunn at 14 Mitchell's business address that Arama will get units.

15 That's an arguable interpretation of that letter, Judge,

16 the word promise. My interpretation of that letter is

17 that, and I will argue this to the jury, it's no secret,

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
18 that that funding decision had long been made prior to 19 that and Your Honor will, I think, remember testimony to 20 that effect and that Miss Dean was in the Executive
2 Secretariat at the time, when she could not have in
2 influenced the process if she would have wanted to. I
2 recognize Your Honor doesn't have to accept that but 2 these are jury arguments and this is what the 2 Independent Counsel wants to use them for.

1959

1 so I think it's a summary of their arguments
2 that may be permissible in terms of using it for their
3 closing, but to send this back to the jury simply gives
4 the jury again their interpretation of the evidence time
5 and time again through the use of the charts and I think
6 the case - I just got the memo this morning and I'm not 7 objecting to it but the case law that they cite appears
8 to me, without having looked at the specific cases, to 9 limit the use of the summary charts to summaries of the 10 evidence, not argumentative summaries of the evidence,
11 and I think there's a clear difference because you're 12 talking here about true summaries of documents and 13 you're talking about their interpretation of what the 14 evidence shows as to a particular document or as to a 15 particular conversation. And they are clearly entitled 16 to argue that to the jury.
17 I do not believe they are clearly entitled
18 under any set of circumstances to have their argument
19 back in the jury room with them. If that were the case,
20 I think I would be entitled to put a counter-chart back
2 to the jury summarizing from my position what the

2 Government's evidence shows, listing all the other
2 events that interrelate here, with my conclusion.
2 For example, under Arama, July 5th, they say
2 Dean promises Nunn. I would put Dean, no responsibility

1960

1 for Mod Rehab, at Executive Secretariat. Reports to
2 Nunn at Mitchell's office that over one month ago Mod
3 Rehab units were funded for that project. Now, I think

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
4 that's as fair a summary and Mr. O'Neill won't agree,
5 I'm sure, but I could put that same type of summary on a
6 chart like this and it would be supported by the
7 evidence.
8 So my initial objection is that the charts
9 should not be submitted to the jury during their

10 deliberations.
11 I have secondary objections, Your Honor, to 12 certain of the events that are described as to their use
13 in closing argument, but I frankly -- with all due 14 respect, I think those are less compelling than my 15 arguments as to why they should not go to the jury and I
16 am not prepared to go through a comparison of exhibits
17 visavis dates, et cetera, right now, to determine what I
18 might object to, to Mr. O'Neill using in his closing. I
19 just haven't had time to do that kind of analysis.
20 If Your Honor rules that they are not going to 2 go to the jury, obviously my objections are going to be
2 much fewer because I think clearly they are entitled to 2 argue fair inferences from the evidence which these
2 charts may reflect. But I don't think they're entitled
2 to have their closings in the jury room.

1 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.
2 Has the Government had a chance to look at
3 these in the light of these possible objections -4
MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor.
5 THE COURT: - being argumentative or 6 conclusory?
7 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, every effort was 8 made to keep the descriptions as neutral as possible.
9 For example, our reference to all of the calendar
10 entries merely uses the term scheduled to meet, unless 11 we have a receipt confirming that the actual luncheon
12 took place or a thank you letter saying thanks for 13 having lunch with me on June 7th, that type of thing.
14 As to the individual entries that Mr. Wehner
15 has pointed to, on the July 5th date, the term used in 16 the letter is assure, "let me assure you that all 17 necessary paperwork for the units will be transmitted by 18 the end of this week." we would have no difficulty with 19 changing promises to assure or even to tell, but we 20 really did attempt to make very very neutral
21 descriptions of the documents actually in evidence and 22 to quote them or paraphrase them in a shorter fashion
23 where that was possible.
24 Your Honor, we believe that this - the 25 decision on this matter as to whether or not these can

1962

1 be used in evidence under Rule 1006 in this jurisdiction
2 is controlled by United States versus Lemire.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
3 THE COURT: All right. Judge Johnson's case.

4 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, and similar arguments were

5 made in that case to the ones that Mr. Wehner has made

6 this morning and the Court of Appeals found that the

7 type of concerns that he's been addressing could be

8 appropriately addressed by means of a limiting in

9 instruction, and the particular limiting instruction in 10 that case that was given to the jury is quoted at 11 footnote 32 in the Lemire case, and in that case, Your 12 Honor, the Court recognized three types of protections, 13 the limiting instruction, voir dire of the witness, in 14 this case it would be Special Agent Batts who could 15 testify to the preparation of the charts, and 16 cross-examination of Special Agent Batts as to how they 17 were put together, and those were the three protections
18 that the Lemire Court recognized as applicable to the 19 defendant's concerns.

20 THE COURT: They do raise some concerns as to 2 the action words, the verbs that appear, assure,

2 promises or arranges, and the juxtaposition of when
2 things happened and if there are other explanations that 2 are really available from the evidence as well. This is
2 an interpretation as opposed to factual evidence. I

1963

1 don't know something - for instance, in the Arama July
2 5th letter, indicates that these units were previously
3 funded.

4 MS. SWEENEY: No, Your Honor, there's no
5 indication of that.

6 Your Honor, may I hand up Exhibit 27?

7 THE COURT: All right.

8 "Paperwork for the units will be accomplished
9 by the end of week."

10 MS. SWEENEY: Another exhibit on that 11 particular project is the actual funding document which 12 is dated July 16, 1984.

13 THE COURT: well, what I'll do is as follows.

14 I'll go through these myself and I have to take the time
15 today and look at some of these exhibits. I think that 16 the Government tried -- in essence, that under the 17 decision in this Circuit under rule 1006 the charts
18 summarizing complex evidence have been allowed to be 19 admitted into evidence. The charts themselves will go
20 to the jury room if they are a fair summary for the jury
2 to help organize and evaluate complex or voluminous
2 evidence.

2 MS. SWEENEY: And, Your Honor, that's been 2 applied in many of the cases cited in our brief where

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 the charts have been used to present the evidence in a

1964

1 chronological fashion and to help the jury organize
2 evidence that's come in in a fragmentary way and where 3 it would be very difficult for them otherwise to put the 4 exhibits together.

5 THE COURT: It was done in the Tarantino case
6 and some others I've tried as well, and approved by this 7 Circuit, although there we made sure that there was 8 phraseology used in the chart as to -- and that case
9 involved cash flow matters, various bank deposits and 10 laundering of drug money.

11 As long as they are neutral, I think, even 12 though the underlying evidence is before the jury as 13 well, it still can be -- aid the jury to comprehend the 14 case with the charts and put them together with the 15 evidence that was admitted.

16 I do think the danger is that the charts
17 become the only evidence in the case and the jury just 18 follows down the charts without going to the underlying 19 evidence and making sure that the charts adequately
20 represent the evidence and they're not distracted by the 2 charts in reviewing the entire case that's been put 2 before them.
2 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, that's why the
2 limiting instruction that's quoted at footnote 32 is 2 important.

1965

1 If there are particular entries that
2 Mr. Wehner would like to call to the Government's 3 attention or the Court would like to call to the

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
4 Government's attention in terms of language we certainly

5 could take another look and see if there is language

6 that can be worked out.

7 THE COURT: All right.

8 what I'll do, as I said, I will go through

9 these myself and have the defendant go through these if 10 he wishes and point out other areas beyond what he's 11 already pointed out, that he thinks raises concerns and,
12 we can then modify the charts because I don't think the 13 jury has to have them before them at this time. We 14 could let the jury see them Monday afternoon before the 15 defendant begins her case, if that's what you wish to 16 do.

17 MS. SWEENEY: Thank you, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: But I will make a basic ruling, I 19 believe, in this case that the multiple exhibits, the 20 multiple dates, the multiple projects and complex
2 scenarios of going through HUD with these applications

2 and the rehab funding chronology with the various
2 players that have been introduced to the jury, all the 2 witnesses, that a summary chart will not be
2 inappropriate. It merely depends upon the nature of the 1966

1 chart, what the jury would be allowed to take to the

2 jury room. And I recognize the potential prejudice to 3 the defendant.

4 I certainly would be concerned about having

5 the juxtaposition of these various dates and times and

6 meetings but I'm not sure that's not fair, if the 7 meetings actually did occur or the meetings were

8 actually scheduled. That's what the facts showed.

9 All right. I will then have you, Mr. Wehner,

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
10 look this over today and we'll take it up on Monday
11 morning as to changes to be made in the chart or you can 12 talk to counsel over the weekend, and if it's on the 13 computer apparently changes can be made rather rapidly
14 so the jury can see them, or I'll just leave it
15 especially for the Government to introduce that chart
16 before the Government actually closes its case.
17 MR. WEHNER: Just to put the Independent
18 Counsel and Your Honor on some kind of notice, if the 19 charts are admitted to the jury room what I would intend
20 to do would be to use the charts as well in my closing,
2 make my interpretation of certain events on the same

2 charts and turn them essentially into counter-charts and
2 ask that those be submitted to the jury as well.
2 THE COURT: I can take it up, whatever you
2 submit to go to the jury. You certainly can use it for 1967

1 argument if it's relevant to the case. As to whether or
2 not the interpretations go to the jury is another
3 matter. It's just to have facts set forth in these 4 charts, nothing else. That's what I think the language,
5 promises, et cetera, can be changed and some of the 6 juxtapositions.
7 MR. WEHNER: Yes, that may be that I may not 8 be entitled to do that based upon the final analysis of 9 the charts.
10 THE COURT: That's fine. I think you can 11 attack the charts.
12 MR. WEHNER: And we may put in -- we may 13 simply, if they ultimately end up being neutral charts
14 on our defense, we may just put in counter-charts of the 15 evidence.
16 I'm trying to, given Your Honor's initial 17 ruling on the admissibility to the jury, I'm just trying 18 to alert everybody that I was -- I don't have any 19 discovery of counter-charts, but we may do that.
20 THE COURT: Let me just ask, have you got some
2 exhibits that have been agreed to?
2 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Judge, there's a number of 2 documents that just for one reason or another didn't get
2 in evidence yet. Some were handwriting stipulations.
2 Some were other types of stipulations, specifically

1968

1 financial documents, and some are self-authenticating
2 HUD documents. There's a list here that I have, there's 3 approximately 35 documents.
4 THE COURT: And they're coming in by
5 stipulation or by witness?
6 MR. O'NEILL: Various things, Your Honor, not 7 by witnesses, stipulations. There are a number of 8 handwriting stipulations that we entered into earlier
9 and those documents need to go in. There were some that

10 were earlier stipulations of financial records, things

1 like that, a lot of checks which were -- evidence was 1 talked about, but at that point in time there was no

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

1 entering it in, and then there's some 1 self-authenticating HUD documents that we'll move in.
1 So there's one row, and then some others.

1 We would offer to put them into evidence and then
2 publish them briefly and go through that.
3 THE COURT: All right, that's fine.
4 MR. O'NEILL: Then the government would be resting.
5 THE COURT: Are there objections to these exhibits, do
6 you know, that have not been resolved?
7 MR. WEHNER: I doubt it.
8 THE COURT: Let's have the jury in, and we'll begin
9 that process and get them in this morning.
10 MR. WEHNER: Yes. I doubt if we have any, but we'll 11 look at them one by one.
12 MR. O'NEILL: I'll hand them to Steve one by one.
13 THE COURT: well, the presenter makes it rather rapid.
14 That works out well. I had our courtroom clerk in yesterday to 15 watch that process. The court does not have one of those 16 machines, but she was impressed by its use to speed up
17 documentary-type cases, either civil or criminal.
18 All right, we're ready to go.
19 THE DEPUTY MARSHAL: Yes, Your Honor.
20 THE COURT: Is this the U.S. Attorney's machine, or is
2 this the FBI's?
2 MR. O'NEILL: Justice.
2 THE COURT: Justice? Is this the one I had at the last
2 trial?
2 MR. O'NEILL: No.

1970

1 THE COURT: I just wanted to see how many were
2 available. We have some more big trials coming up.
3 (Jury in.)
4 THE COURT: All right, Ladies and Gentlemen, good
5 morning. I'm glad you're ready to go.
6 I just discussed with counsel where we are, and we're 7 going to proceed with documents today. The government is going 8 to introduce documents. There will not be any live witnesses, as 9 I had mentioned yesterday. we'll have various documents the 10 government wants to introduce in evidence either through 11 stipulation or through the rules of evidence that permit a 12 document to be introduced without a witness identifying it
13 because it's what we call self-authenticating, that is, an 14 official government record.
15 After that, today -- and that will take an hour or so,
16 I suspect, a little bit more, maybe an hour and a half --we will 17 be in recess until Monday afternoon. There's one other group of 18 documents we are still reviewing that have to be considered, and 19 we'll probably not have those available for you until Monday

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

20 afternoon.

2 So we're still basically on track where we were
2 yesterday. All right, we'll have the government begin this
2 morning then their document introduction.

2 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, at this time, I would read a
2 stipulation to the jury.

1971

1 THE COURT: All right.

2 MR. O'NEILL: "It is hereby stipulated and agreed by 3 and between the United States and the defendant that:
4 "1. The Committee on Banking, Housing and Urban
5 Affairs of the United States Senate, the Senate Banking
6 Committee, is a body duly authorized by law to administer oaths;
7 "2. On August 6, 1987, the Senate Banking Committee
8 had a quorum present at the hearing on the nomination and 9 confirmation of Deborah Gore Dean to be assistant secretary of 10 Community, Planning and Development;
11 "3. On August 6, 1987, the defendant, Deborah Gore
12 Dean, took an oath to testify truly before the Senate Banking
13 Committee."

14 THE COURT: All right. That's stipulated to by counsel
15 and the defendant.

16 MR. WEHNER: That's correct, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: All right, thank you.

18 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor -

19 THE COURT: Let me just mention one thing, Ladies and 20 Gentlemen of the Jury. You've been hearing the word
21 "stipulation" a lot, and it was mentioned it's an agreed
22 statement of facts. A stipulation may be one of a couple of 23 things.

24 A stipulation is a fact, is an agreed statement of fact
25 between counsel and the defendant, and you are to regard the 1972

1 stipulated facts as undisputed evidence, and then a stipulation
2 is an agreement. It also can be a stipulation of testimony, that 3 is, an agreed statement between counsel and the defendant of 4 testimony a witness would have given if the witness had been in 5 court, and again, if there's stipulated testimony, it's 6 considered as undisputed evidence in the case as to what the 7 witness would have testified.

8 A stipulation should be treated like evidence in the 9 case, except they are undisputed evidence. They are facts that 10 have been established by the stipulation or testimony that's been 11 established by the stipulation.

12 All right.

13 MR. O'NEILL: Thank you, Your Honor. At this time, 14 Your Honor, the government would move into evidence Government's 15 Exhibit 28, pursuant to a handwriting stipulation.

16 THE COURT: All right, Government 28 will be admitted.
17 (Government's Exhibit No. 28 was
18 received in evidence.)

19 MR. O'NEILL: I would ask to publish it to the jury,
20 Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right, it may be published.

22 MR. O'NEILL: At this time, Your Honor, I move into 23 evidence Government's Exhibit 3IB, pursuant to a
24 self-authenticated document.

25 THE COURT: All right. 28 was admitted for the 1973

1 handwriting beside the document itself; am I correct?
2 MR. O'NEILL Yes, Your Honor.
3 THE COURT: All right. That's a signature of 4 Ms. Dean's?
5 MR. O'NEILL Yes, Your Honor.
6 THE COURT: All right.
7 MR. O'NEILL It's a handwriting stipulation.
8 THE COURT: All right. What's the next number, please?
9 MR. O'NEILL 3IB, Your Honor.
10 THE COURT: All right, that HUD document will be
11 admitted.
12 (Government's Exhibit No. 3IB was
13 received in evidence.)
14 MR. O'NEILL : Next, Your Honor, the government would 15 offer Government's Exhibit 49 pursuant to a stipulation.
16 THE COURT: All right, 49 by a stipulation will be
17 admitted. -"
18 (Government's Exhibit No. 49 was
19 received in evidence.)
20 MR. O'NEILL : Your Honor, the government would offer
2 Government's] Sxhibit ! 51 pursuant to a stipulation.
2 THE COURT: All right, 51 by a stipulation will be
2 admitted, with no objections.
2 (Government's Exhibit No. 51 was
2 received in evidence.)

1974

1 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, the government would offer
2 Government's Exhibit 54A pursuant to a stipulation.
3 THE COURT: All right, Government 54A by stipulation
4 will be admitted, no objections.
5 (Government's Exhibit No. 54A was
6 received in evidence.)
7 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, the government would offer
8 Government's Exhibit 54B pursuant to stipulation.
9 THE COURT: All right, Government 54B will be admitted
10 by stipulation with no objection.
11 (Government's Exhibit No. 54B was
12 received in evidence.)
13 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, pursuant to stipulation
14 again, the government would offer Government's Exhibit 54C.
15 THE COURT: All right, Government's 54C is admitted by
16 stipulation, no objection.
17 (Government's Exhibit No. 54C was
18 received in evidence.)
19 MR. O'NEILL: Pursuant to stipulation, the government
20 would offer into evidence Government's Exhibit 83.
2 THE COURT: All right, Government 83 will be admitted
2 by stipulation, no objection.
2 (Government's Exhibit No. 83 was
2 received in evidence.)
2 MR. O'NEILL: Again, pursuant to stipulation, Your

1975

1 Honor, the government would offer into evidence Government's
2 Exhibit 87.
3 THE COURT: All right. No objection, by stipulation,
4 87 will be admitted.
5 (Government's Exhibit No. 87 was
6 received in evidence.)
7 MR. O'NEILL At this time, Your Honor, the government
8 would offer into evidence Government's Exhibit 94 pursuant to

9 stipulation.

10 THE COURT: All right, Government's 94 will be admitted

11 by stipulation without objection.

12 (Government's Exhibit No. 94 was

13 received in evidence.)

14 MR. O'NEILL : I need to slow down a little here, Judge.

15 THE COURT: All right. You didn't get 87 up on the 16 screen yet.

17 MR. O'NEILL : At this time, Your Honor, the government

18 would introduce into < evidence Government's Exhibit 96 pursuant to

19 stipulation.

20 THE COURT: All right, Government's Exhibit 96 pursuant

21 to stipulation is admitted without objection.

22 (Government's Exhibit No. 96 was

23 received in evidence.)

24 MR. O'NEILL : At this time, Your Honor, the government

25 would introduce into < svidence Government's Exhibit 97 pursuant to

1976

2 THE COURT: All right, Government 97 will be admitted

5 received in evidence.)

6 MR. O'NEILL: At this time, Your Honor, the government

7 would introduce into evidence Government's Exhibit 98 pursuant to

8 stipulation.

9 THE COURT: All right, Government 98 is admitted

10 without objection by stipulation.

11 (Government's Exhibit No. 98 was

12 received in evidence.)

2 Your Honor, the government would introduce Government's Exhibit

2 99C.

2 THE COURT: All right, Government's 99C is admitted by

2 stipulation without objection.

1 (Government's Exhibit No. 99C was

2 received in evidence.)

3 MR. O'NEILL: At this time, Your Honor, the government

4 would introduce Government's Exhibit 106, a self-authenticated

HUD document.

6 THE COURT: All right, the Court will admit 106 -

7 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.

8 THE COURT: -

without objection pursuant to 9 stipulation. It's a HUD document.

10 (Government's Exhibit No. 106 was

11 received in evidence.)

12 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, at this time, the government

13 would introduce Government's Exhibit No. 106A as a self14

authenticated HUD document.

15 THE COURT: All right, 106A will be admitted as a

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

2 self-authenticated HUD document.
2 THE COURT: All right, 109 will be admitted, a
2 self-authenticated HUD document, with no objection.

authenticated HUD document.
4 THE COURT: All right, 109A will be admitted with no
5 objection, a self-authenticated document.
6 (Government's Exhibit No. 109A was
7 received in evidence.)
8 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, at this time, the government
9 would move into evidence Government's Exhibit 119 pursuant to a
10 handwriting stipulation.
11 THE COURT: This is by stipulation on 119?
12 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, sir.
13 THE COURT: All right, 119 will be admitted by-

21 would introduce into evidence Government's Exhibit 157 as a
22 self-authenticated HUD document.
23 THE COURT: All right, 157, a self-authenticated HUD
24 document, will be admitted with no objection.
25

1 (Government's Exhibit No. 157 was
2 received in evidence.)

3 MR. O'NEILL: At this time, Your Honor, the government
4 will introduce into evidence Government's Exhibit 158 as a self-authenticated HUD document.

6 THE COURT: All right, Exhibit 158, a self authenticated document, is admitted, no objection.

8 (Government's Exhibit No. 158 was
9 received in evidence.)

10 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, at this time, the government
11 would introduce Government's Exhibit 172 pursuant to stipulation.

12 THE COURT: All right then?

13 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Your Honor, with one slight 14 revision.

15 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, just so the record is clear, there
16 was something on there that has nothing to do with the case.

17 THE COURT: All right, you can delete that.

18 All right, 172 is admitted, would be admitted by-
19 stipulation, no objection.

20 (Government's Exhibit No. 172 was
2 received in evidence.)

2 MR. O'NEILL: At this time, Your Honor, the government
2 would introduce into evidence Government's Exhibit 181 pursuant
2 to a handwriting stipulation.

2 THE COURT: All right, Government 181 is admitted by a

1981

1 stipulation, no objection.

2 (Government's Exhibit No. 181 was
3 received in evidence.)

4 MR. O'NEILL: At this time, Your Honor, the government
5 will introduce into evidence Government's Exhibit 182, as a
6 self-authenticated HUD document.

7 THE COURT: All right. Then Government 182, a
8 self-authenticated HUD document, will be admitted, no objection.

9 (Government's Exhibit No. 182 was
10 received in evidence.)

11 MR. WEHNER: Judge, the record reflects we've asked 12 that the second two pages of that exhibit be replaced with 13 xeroxes that are more readable for the jury.

14 MR. O'NEILL: That's correct, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: That's fine, thank you. They'll be 16 replaced.

17 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, at this time, pursuant to;a
18 handwritten stipulation as well as self-authenticated document,
19 the government would move into evidence Government's Exhibit 185.

20 THE COURT: All right, Government's 185 is admitted
2 without objection as stipulated to.

2 (Government's Exhibit No. 185 was
2 received in evidence.)

2 MR. O'NEILL: At this time, Your Honor, the government
2 would move into evidence Government's Exhibit 189 pursuant to a

1982

1 handwriting stipulation.

2 THE COURT: 189 is a stipulated handwriting exhibit,

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
3 it's admitted then without objection.
4 (Government's Exhibit No. 189 was
5 received in evidence.)
6 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, at this time, the government
7 would move into evidence Government's Exhibit 199 pursuant to
8 stipulation.
9 THE COURT: All right, Government's 199 is admitted
10 pursuant to stipulation, no objection.
11 (Government's Exhibit No. 199 was
12 received in evidence.)
13 MR. O'NEILL: Once again, Your Honor, pursuant to 14 stipulation, the government would introduce into evidence
15 Government's Exhibit 200.
16 THE COURT: 200 is admitted pursuant to stipulation, no
17 objection.
18 (Government's Exhibit No. 200 was
19 received in evidence.)
20 MR. O'NEILL: At this time, Your Honor, the government
21 would introduce into evidence Government's Exhibit 204 as a
22 self-authenticated HUD document.
23 THE COURT: All right. 204 will be admitted as a
24 self-authenticated document, no objection.
25

1983

1 (Government's Exhibit No. 204 was
2 received in evidence.)
3 MR. O'NEILL : At this time, Your Honor, the government
4 would introduce into evidence Government's Exhibit 208A pursuant 5 to stipulation.
6 THE COURT: All right, Government 208A pursuant to 7 stipulation will be admitted, no objection.
8 (Government's Exhibit No. 208A was
9 received in evidence.)
10 MR. O'NEILL : At this time, Your Honor, the government
11 would introduce into evidence Government's Exhibit 210 pursuant 12 to a stipulation.
13 THE COURT: All right, Government 210 will be admitted
14 pursuant to stipulation, no objection.
15 (Government's Exhibit No. 210 was
16 received in evidence.)
17 MR. O'NEILL : At this time, Your Honor, the government
18 would introduce into evidence pursuant to stipulation
19 Government's Exhibit 246.
20 THE COURT: All right, Government's 246 pursuant to
2 stipulation will be admitted.
2 (Government's Exhibit No. 246 was
2 received in evidence.)
2 MR. O'NEILL : At this time, Your Honor, the government
2 would introduce into evidence Government's Exhibit 212 as a

1 public document.
2 MR. WEHNER: May we approach?
3 THE COURT: Sure.
4 (Bench conference on the record.)
5 THE COURT: Let's see 212. For the record, that's the 6 hearing for the Committee on Banking, et al., August 6, '87, with 7 the testimony of Deborah Gore Dean materials. All right.
8 MR. WEHNER: I don't object, Judge, to the 9 admissibility of the document except insofar as to reserve my 10 objections to redactions before it's sent out with the jury.
11 MR. O'NEILL: Okay. Since Steve raised that now, 12 Judge, we were planning to read a couple of the provisions of the 13 subject of this. Do you want to know what they are now so

14 that -

15 THE COURT: There are some areas that you wanted to 16 redact?

17 MR. O'NEILL: No, no. We were going to publish it to 18 the jury just by reading.

19 THE COURT: You mean the title?

20 MR. O'NEILL: No, the, the parts that are relevant to
2 this case.

2 THE COURT: Oh, I see. You wanted to read her
2 testimony as to the perjury charges?

2 MR. WEHNER: Judge, I don't know what they are going to 2 read, but I'm going to argue that the passages before and after

1985

1 are relevant to the perjury counts, and if they are going to read
2 portions of it in, I would probably ask that other portions be 3 read it.

4 And I, frankly, am not sure it's necessary to do that 5 today. I mean, Mr. O'Neill is clearly, or Ms. Sweeney is clearly
6 entitled to put that on the screen in closing argument. I mean,
7 it says what it says. It's admitted except for redactions. I'm 8 not sure it's necessary to get into what --to read it to the 9 jury at this point.

10 THE COURT: I think they have a right to read to the 11 jury after they put the document in evidence the principal areas
12 of her testimony they've alleged are perjurious, and I think if 13 you wish, I can --if you want to point out the additional 14 phrases before or after you think that are relevant, I can have 15 them read the whole paragraph or whatever you want at this time.

16 MR. WEHNER: Sure.

17 THE COURT: Are you going to read these marked ones?

18 MR. O'NEILL: No.

19 MS. SWEENEY: We have actually a copy that's been 20 marked, Your Honor, and if Mr. Wehner would like to look at this
2 and mark some additional -2

THE COURT: He can expand a little bit if he wants to.

2 I know there is one talking about which HUD program, et cetera.

2 I'll admit that in open court, 212.

2 (End of bench conference.)

1 THE COURT: All right, 212 would be admitted as
2 discussed as a public document.

3 (Government's Exhibit No. 212 was
4 received in evidence.)

5 THE COURT: All right, Ladies and Gentlemen, the 212 is 6 a hearing before the Senate Banking Committee on the nomination
7 of Deborah Gore Dean to be assistant secretary on August 6, 1987.
8 It's a very thick document, so you'll have an opportunity to read
9 it during deliberations. You won't get to read it all now on the 10 screen. There will be some parts the government in a minute will 11 point out to you as relevant to their case.

0 12 Ladies and Gentlemen, all the documents that have been 13 introduced in the trial in this case or will be introduced in the 14 future in the trial of this case as evidence you'll get to read
15 carefully, as opposed to just seeing it for a while on the screen
16 during deliberations. They'll all be available to you.

17 All right, we're ready to proceed then? Thank you.

18 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor. Referring to page 52 of 19 the hearing, starting with the chairman:

20 "THE CHAIRMAN: Now, Ms. Dean, we have received a

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 number of complaints that in 1987, this year, there has been no
2 notification of funds availability at regional offices.
2 "This is troublesome, because this notification is

2 important to promote applications so that all worthy candidates have a chance to reply and so that HUD has the chance and the 1987

1 time to rank the applicants.
2 "Instead, it is suggested that informal solicitations
3 and unawarded applications from the past are guarded by you, that 4 you personally go through the selections, excluding reviews by 5 the appropriate staff experts.
6 "Furthermore, it is suggested that developers have
7 personally come to you asking for awards. As you know, the 8 proper procedure is for the HUD Washington office to deal with 9 housing authorities and for them to deal with developers.
10 "In some cases, the housing authorities have
11 subsequently alerted HUD that these funds aren't even needed.
12 "How do you respond to that?
13 "MS. DEAN: Senator, have you switched programs? Are 14 you still on the secretary's discretionary fund?
15 "THE CHAIRMAN: I'm sorry, will you - you're speaking
16 clearly but, I think, a little too fast for my slow mind, so will
17 you -
18 "MS. DEAN: I've always thought you talked too fast for 19 me.
20 "MS. DEAN: Have you switched programs, or are you
21 still referring to the secretary's discretionary fund? Because 22 we don't put out notices to the field for funding applications in 23 that program.
24 "THE CHAIRMAN: Mod rehab.
25 "MS. DEAN: Okay. Would you repeat your question,

1988

1 please?
2 "THE CHAIRMAN: well, all right. I'll go slower, too.
3 we received a number of complaints that in 1987, this year, there
4 has been no notification of funds availability to regional 5 offices. This is troublesome because this notification is
6 important to promote applications so that all worthy candidates
7 have a chance to apply and that HUD has the chance and the time
8 to rank the applicants.
9 "Instead, it is suggested that informal solicitations
10 and unawarded applications from the past are guarded by you and 11 that you personally go through the selections, excluding review
12 by the appropriate staff experts.
13 "Furthermore, it is suggested that developers have
14 personally come to you asking for awards.
15 "Now as you know, the proper procedure is for the HUD
16 Washington office to deal with the housing authorities and for 17 them to deal with developers.
18 "MS. DEAN: well, to my knowledge, we do not put out a 19 notice of funding availability on the Mod Rehab Program."

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

20 THE COURT: You skipped a few lines, I think,
2 Ms. Sweeney, just inadvertently, at least the ones on the screen
2 It has another few lines. After "developer," it goes to "In some 2 cases." Am I right now?
2 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor. I indicated to
2 Mr. Wehner that I was not going to read those couple of lines,

1989

1 but I'd be more than happy to.
2 MR. WEHNER: That's fine.
3 MS. SWEENEY: Okay. Do you want us to read them?
4 MR. WEHNER: Sure.
5 MS. SWEENEY: Fine, okay.
6 "In some cases, the housing authorities have
7 subsequently alerted HUD that these funds aren't even needed.
8 "How do you respond to that?"
9 "MS. DEAN: well, to my knowledge, we do not put out a 10 notice of funding availability on the Mod Rehab Program. I have 11 never seen us do one since I've been at HUD.
12 "The program instead works that the field offices
13 receive applications from public housing authorities. They are 14 rated and ranked, sent to the regional administrator, who forward
15 them to the assistant secretary for housing, federal housing
16 commissioner.
17 "The assistant secretary for housing puts together the 18 applications and, with the deputy assistant secretary for 19 multi-family housing, comes to some conclusion as to where they 20 believe these funds could best be used.
21 "Once again, they bring it to a panel of people, which 22 is the under secretary, the executive assistant to the secretary,
23 and the federal housing commissioner. That panel goes solely on 24 information provided by the assistant secretary for housing. He 25 gives us the information, and the three of us make

1990

1 recommendations to the secretary, who is the person who approves
2 those units.
3 "I have never given or approved or pushed or coerced
4 anyone to help any developer. Those funds go directly to the 5 public housing authority.
6 "As a matter of fact, I have regular meetings with 7 public housing authorities where I tell them that they should be
8 dealing directly with developers. A lot of times, public housing
9 authorities send developers to HUD, and they meet with people all 10 over the building. It's a tremendous waste of time, and I let 11 them know that, because those funds go to the public housing
12 authorities."
13 Referring to page 56 of the transcript:
14 "THE CHAIRMAN: Now, Ms. Dean, can you tell us about 15 your involvement in the deployment of Section 8? That's the 16 moderate rehabilitation funds for a project known as Baltimore
17 Uplift One. According to the Washington Post in a story dated 18 October 1984, there was an abuse of some $17 million. According 19 to HUD staffers in Baltimore, these funds came from the 20 secretary's discretionary fund, and since you worked closely to 2 the secretary at that time, what can you tell us about that
2 problem?
2 "MS. DEAN: Senator, could you give me the date again?
2 "THE CHAIRMAN: Yes. The date is October 1984.
2 "MS. DEAN: I was executive assistant to the secretary

1 at that time. I've never heard of Baltimore Uplift One. It was 2 a Moderate Rehabilitation Project?
3 "THE CHAIRMAN: What's that?
4 "MS. DEAN: You said it was in the Mod Rehab Program?
5 "THE CHAIRMAN: Mod, Section 8, moderate
6 rehabilitation. That's right.
7 "MS. DEAN: There are two explanations why I would not
8 know it. I might not know the name, or those funding decisions
9 were made prior to my appointment in June and the funds were not 10 released from the department until October.
11 "But I've never heard of Baltimore Uplift One. As a
12 matter of fact, no moderate rehabilitation units that I know of,
13 unless they were sent directly by the secretary, have ever gone
14 to my home state of Maryland, simply for that reason -- that I
15 sat on the panel."
16 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, that concludes the 17 presentation of the government's case. »
18 THE COURT: All right. With the exception of the 19 additional documents discussed this morning, then the government,
20 Ladies and Gentlemen, is resting their case in chief, as I
21 explained the other day. So we're going to recess for the day in 22 this case for you all. There are going to be legal matters for 23 us to take up, and then Monday afternoon, we should be prepared
24 to go forward.
25 So we'll have you back here at 1:30 on Monday, please.

1992

1 It's a nice recess for you, but you've been very attentive and 2 deserve a break anyway. So we'll see you back here at 1:30 in 3 the afternoon Monday. Remember that time.
4 Remember also now it's a long recess, so if there
5 happens to be any publicity about this case, if it's in the 6 newspapers or television or radio, if someone tries to mention it
7 to you at home because they've read about it or something, please
8 don't read, listen, or watch anything about this case. Don't 9 talk among yourselves going home or, if you see each other this 10 weekend, talk about the case in any fashion or on the way out
11 today.
12 It's very important that you listen to the admonition
13 not to do so, because as I've explained to you many times, you
14 have to determine this case on only what you hear in this 15 courtroom that's admitted into evidence, and on no other basis 16 except my instructions do you make your final determination in 17 this case.
18 Have a very pleasant weekend, and we'll see you back
19 here on Monday at 1:30 in the afternoon. All right, you're free
20 to go. Thank you.
21 (Jury out.)
22 THE COURT: All right, counsel, what's the schedule on 23 Monday morning? I'll get you in here Monday morning so we can 24 take care of these arguments and these documents as well.
25 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, there was one matter I mentioned

1993

1 with Mr. Wehner this morning. Obviously, he's under time
2 constraints filing a written Rule 29 motion. We, of course,
3 would like to respond in writing to his Rule 29 motion.
4 As he was saying yesterday and again as we spoke this

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
5 morning, it will be very difficult for him to get something
6 before probably Monday morning. I would have no problem with 7 arguing orally Monday morning, and then we had thought if you
8 want to proceed with the witnesses and we could file something,
9 say, Tuesday morning, then you could have it. Whatever the
10 Court -
11 obviously, that was between us, as opposed to whatever
12 Your Honor wants to do.
13 THE COURT: Just reserve on the ruling until we get the 14 written material in? It depends somewhat on what I think of the 15 case on Monday morning after I hear argument, but I'm not opposed 16 to doing that.
17 MR. O'NEILL: We would then need time to respond in 18 writing.
19 THE COURT: But I would like to be able to move forward
20 with the case.
21 well, I think he should get his work done when he can
22 get it done, and then Monday morning, we'll hold the arguments,
23 and if you wish to submit something in writing, I can see about 24 reserving any argument for a while and see if we can go ahead.
25 If there are certain areas I want to rule on, I may go ahead and rule on them. Let me just see how we look Monday morning.

1 MR. WEHNER: Judge, it may help Mr. O'Neill, my
2 writing, I think --my writing will be limited to the conspiracy
3 counts, and I will be only arguing the perjury counts -
4 THE COURT: Orally?
5 MR. WEHNER: -
6 orally.
7 THE COURT: All right.
8 MR. WEHNER: And I don't think I have any case law up
9 my sleeve that the whole world is not well aware of.
10 THE COURT: All right.
11 MR. WEHNER: But I'm not going to be filing anything on 12 the perjury counts, frankly, because I just don't have the time
13 to get to it and do the job I want to, but it will be on those 14 conspiracy counts.
15 MR. O'NEILL: would you be able to do it by noon
16 Sunday, or do you think that would be -
17 MR. WEHNER: I tell you what: I know that I will have 18 a draft ready sometime Sunday afternoon, and if you don't hold me
19 to the draft, I'll be glad to fax you a draft or get you a draft
20 as soon as I do that. I don't have any problem with that.
21 THE COURT: If you still need a little more time, we 22 can take it up Monday. we can hear it orally. If you want to 23 put something in writing, I can hold off.
24 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, we would ask that the tape -
25 we would like to play the tape recording of the testimony.
MR. O'NEILL: Okay. So we have to get that.

1 MR. WEHNER: So we would ask Independent Counsel to
2 produce that official tape recording. We would intend to play
3 that in our defense case.
4 MR. O'NEILL: Okay. Judge, just so the record is
5 clear, we can get that, but the court reporter has it.
6 THE COURT: You don't have it?
7 MR. O'NEILL: No. We did not keep custody of it.
8 THE COURT: Do you know if it's true and accurate? I
9 mean, he can certify it's a true and accurate copy of what went 10 on?
11 MR. O'NEILL: Yes. He has it, for the record, Judge,

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

12 and we do have a copy --we can get that from him. He took it
13 with him this morning as he left the courthouse. That shouldn't 14 be a problem.

15 THE COURT: I see, all right.

16 MS. SWEENEY: For the record, Your Honor, it is the 17 court reporter's copy of the tape. It's the court reporter's
18 original copy of the tape recording.

19 THE COURT: well, if you can all stipulate that it's 20 true and accurate, that's fine. Otherwise, you may have to get 21 him in here and have him say it's accurate and that it reflects
22 the transcript.

23 MR. O'NEILL: That should be no problem, Judge.

24 MR. WEHNER: Absolutely.

25 MR. O'NEILL: It's his copy.

1996

1 MR. WEHNER: If the Independent Counsel is willing to
2 stipulate it's true and accurate, I will, because I'm sure it is.

3 THE COURT: You might want to listen to it to make sure
4 over the intervening years something hasn't deteriorated the tape
5 and you can't hear things or something. I have no idea what's 6 happened over the last several years with it.

7 MR. WEHNER: That's true. I've had very little success
8 in arguing that a court reporter's transcript doesn't accurately
9 reflect what was said in a hearing, although I've tried on 10 occasion.

11 MS. SWEENEY: Why am I not surprised?

12 THE COURT: There have been some judges that wish they 13 could change the transcript as well.

14 All right. well, we'll see you all 9:30 Monday
15 morning.

16 MR. O'NEILL: Thank you, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: And we'll be ready to go at that time.

18 You'll have a witness or so on Monday afternoon, you think?

19 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir, I will.

20 THE COURT: Or exhibits or whatever you want to 2 introduce?

2 MR. WEHNER: I have told Mr. O'Neill where we are on
2 our witnesses, and I think that with the exception of Ms. Dean's
2 testimony, we would probably be limited to six, seven witnesses,
2 in that range, most of which I anticipate the cross is going to

1997

1 be brief, and the direct may be brief as well.

2 The way this case has been tried has surprised me a
3 little bit, because we're going to be introducing a lot of 4 exhibits, but I think that those exhibits have come in through
5 the case-in-chief testimony, the government's case-in-chief
6 testimony, or will come in over no objection, because at least 99
7 percent of them came out of the Office of Independent Counsel's
8 documents, and Your Honor's rulings on hearsay issues will be 9 consistent, I'm sure, in terms of documents, like Mitchell
10 documents, for example, were found out in Marti Mitchell's
11 place -

12 THE COURT: I see.

13 MR. WEHNER: -

like things of that nature we'll be 14 introducing.

15 I don't know if Mr. O'Neill will object, but I would 16 anticipate there won't be much legal argument as to their 17 admissibility, because Your Honor has already considered most of 18 those arguments.

19 THE COURT: Ms. Dean is going to take the stand at this 20 time you anticipate anyway?

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir. And I think her direct will
2 probably be four to five hours total, which may be a whole day.
2 I've told Mr. O'Neill she is not going to be the first witness,
2 nor is she going to be the last witness.
2 THE COURT: All right.

1998

1 MR. WEHNER: Best guess, she'd start Wednesday.
2 THE COURT: All right, fine.
3 THE DEFENDANT: I feel like a race horse.
9
THE COURT: All right, we'll be ready to go then at 9:30 on Monday morning with the arguments and with the witnesses as necessary on Monday afternoon.
MR. WEHNER: I'm sorry, Judge, did I say best guess
Wednesday? Best guess is actually Tuesday, I'm sorry.
THE COURT: All right.
10 MR. WEHNER: Best guess is probably Tuesday afternoon.
11
12
13
THE COURT: All right. Then we'll see you Monday.

PROCEEDING S

2 (Defendant present, Jury out.)
3 THE CLERK: Criminal No. 92-181, United States of
4 America v. Deborah Gore Dean. We have Robert O'Neill and Paula
5 Sweeney for the government, Stephen Wehner for Ms. Dean.
6 THE COURT: All right, good morning, counsel.
7 MR. WEHNER: Good morning.
8 THE COURT: I appreciate all the briefing that I've 9 just received and had a chance to review this morning.
10 I'd like to talk to counsel and the defendant at the 11 bench about an unrelated matter for a minute, unrelated to these 12 motions.
13 (Bench conference on the record.)
14 THE COURT: Just for the record, in case somebody says
15 something, my law clerk wandered in Ms. Dean's shop unknowingly
16 over the weekend with her mother when she was just visiting, who 17 is not from here in town, and ran into Ms. Dean in her shop, not 18 knowing it was Ms. Dean's shop, but I think that's all that 19 happened. All right?
20 MR. O'NEILL: Thanks, Judge.
21 THE COURT: All right.
22 (End of bench conference.)
23 THE COURT: All right, we've had filed with the 24 Court -- did you file the originals yet, Mr. Wehner?
25 MR. WEHNER: No, sir. I can give you another copy.

2002

1 THE COURT: Okay. We have had copies delivered to
Page 1126

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 chambers, and the original will be filed with the Court -
3 MR. WEHNER: I can hand the original up now, Your
4 Honor.
5 THE COURT: All right. Of the defendant's motions for 6 judgment of acquittal as to all counts of the indictment, but 7 focusing primarily on, essentially on the conspiracy counts. The 8 government has taken an opportunity, I'm not sure when all of 9 this was done, but the government also put together an opposition
10 to the motion for judgment of acquittal as well, and the original
11 of that can be filed with the Court.
12 I'd like to hear from the defendant on this at this 13 time and then from the government.
14 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor. Just so the record
15 is clear as to the timing, I fax'd early yesterday morning,
16 Saturday morning, a draft of our brief to the Independent
17 Counsel. It was basically complete except for the trial tran- -
18 it was complete except for the transcript notations, which we 19 added yesterday, but the law was there, so that may have allowed 20 them to get a leg up on where we were.
2 MS. SWEENEY: Excuse me, Your Honor, just for the 2 record, I believe Mr. Wehner said Saturday. I think he means
2 Sunday.
2 MR. WEHNER: I said yesterday.
2 THE COURT: Early Sunday morning? All right.

2003

1 MR. WEHNER: Didn't I say yesterday?
2 THE COURT: That's all right. I think you said
3 Saturday and then yesterday. It doesn't matter.
4 MR. WEHNER: It was yesterday.
5 THE COURT: You all got it done and that's fine.
6 MR. WEHNER: Yeah, it was yesterday.
7 THE COURT: All right.
8 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I'd like to make a couple of 9 brief statements with regard to the overall conspiracy counts,
10 because I think that our argument is outlined in the brief fairly 11 well in terms of the basic proposition that we have talked about 12 throughout this trial, that inference upon inference upon
13 inference cannot equal a conspiracy, that social accommodations
14 with one another cannot equal an a conspiracy, association by 15 itself is not enough to establish a conspiracy. That line of 16 cases, I think, is fairly well established in terms of the 17 criminal law.
18 Now counter to that, of course, is the fact that, as I
19 agree with the Independent Counsel, circumstantial evidence is as 20 significant or as important or as admissible or as meaningful as 2 direct evidence is. I think that's true except in a case when 2 you have direct evidence from the government's own witnesses and
2 where the direct evidence is contrary to the circumstantial
2 evidence, I believe that taking the evidence in the light most 2 favorable to the government does not allow you to ignore the 2004

1 direct evidence, because it is the government's own witnesses who
2 have testified, as we have established in, as we have established
3 through both direct and cross examination.
4 And I'll give you a good example of that, Judge, and 5 although Ms. Sweeney or whoever wrote the government's brief
6 takes the position that we only move to dismiss the first couple 7 of conspiracies, we move to dismiss each and every count of the 8 indictment.
9 I'll give you an example of the Kitchin matter in terms

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
10 of the gratuities. One of the reasons that that count should be 11 dismissed is because there's no evidence that it falls within the 12 statute of limitations, and we filed a motion to dismiss that 13 count pretrial in front of Judge Gesell, I believe, and of 14 course, ruling on that was reserved.
15 But if Your Honor looks at that check, you'll see that 16 it was dated over five years before the initial indictment, not 17 the superseding indictment, but the initial indictment was 18 returned, and then, of course, the superseding indictment falls
19 far out of that loop. But I point that out to your Court. So
20 you need to go back to the date of the initial indictment.
2 In terms of the perjury charges, it's an extremely
2 fact-bound argument, Judge, but the key to the argument on the 2 perjury charges is that Senator Proxmire limited his question to
2 the year 1987. Now that is directly out of the transcript. So
2 all of the testimony with regard to the process through which mod

2005

1 rehab funds were distributed or allocated through December 31,
2 1986, are by definition irrelevant to Ms. Dean's responses
3 concerning year 1987. He didn't say, he didn't say "fiscal 4 year." He said "in 1987."
5 And if you look at her responses to that testimony
6 compared to the testimony that was elicited from the witness
7 stand for 1987, there is an extreme parseness -sparseness,
I
8 should say, although parseness might be a good word, too --of 9 testimony from which you could, taken in the light most favorable
10 to the government, rationally conclude that Ms. Dean committed 11 perjury..
12 Because, for example, Barksdale, Janet Hale, all the 13 federal housing commissioners prior to January 1987 testified in 14 a manner that taken in the light most favorable to the 15 government, the mod rehab units were distributed inconsistently
16 with the testimony of Ms. Dean before that committee. But if you
17 look at the testimony of Mr. Demery, who was the appropriate
18 housing commissioner at the appropriate period of time, he did 19 not testify, in my judgment, to anything that's inconsistent with 20 Ms. Dean's testimony in response to Proxmire's question.
2 And as Your Honor knows, you have to look, especially 2 in a perjury case, extremely closely at the verbatim question and
2 the verbatim answer, because technicalities are enough.
2 I'd also point Your Honor to the issue on the perjury
2 points that Senator Proxmire never even asked a question, that

2006

1 what he said was, "How do you respond to this?" after an
2 extremely lengthy colloquy that he was -it wasn't a colloquy,
3 soliloquy -- that he repeated twice because there was 4 misunderstanding apparently as reflected in the transcript on the 5 part of Ms. Dean.
6 And I, frankly, have not come up with a good way to 7 articulate that, the argument to the Court, but it strikes me
8 that if someone says to you, "How do you respond to this?" that 9 is an entirely different matter than saying, "Ms. Dean, how are 10 mod rehab units awarded?"
11 One calls for an extremely specific answer; the other 12 one calls for, in my judgment, for a broad generality of what she 13 believed that day at that time.
14 And I am not sure that a question that says, "How do 15 you respond to that?" can be perjurious by definition, because 16 she responded like that, just grammatically. She could have 17 said, "I can't respond," she could have said, "I can respond," or

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

18 she could have given the response she gave. I don't know that 19 any response she gave can by definition be perjurious in response
20 to a question, "How do you respond to that?"
2 The problem with regard to the conspiracy counts
2 overall, Your Honor, is this, and it's a classic -I'll save
2 that for later. The basis for the argument is really the 2 Zeialer case out of the D.C. Circuit. As Your Honor knows,
2 it's a recent case concerning this precise issue, and like most

2007

1 cases today, it arises out of a drug transaction, and it talks
2 about whether there is sufficient evidence attaching Ms. Zeigler
3 to constructive possession of cocaine, and the Court of Appeals
4 there goes through and repeats the standards to be applied by the 5 Court, and it's especially appropriate to this case, I believe,
6 because the Court basically holds there that at Rule 29 time,
7 there is an issue to be determined by the Court, and a defendant
8 is entitled to have those issues presented prior to presenting 9 her defense, even if she's going to take the stand and her
10 testimony is going to be considered by the jury.
11 Now Ms. Dean is going to be testifying in this case. I
12 don't know how she's going to come across to the jury. I hope 13 and believe and predict she is going to come across credibly, and 14 she is going to deny the criminal allegations found in the 15 indictment.
16 For this purpose, however, I don't think it is fair or 17 proper at Rule 29 time for the Court to take a string and a line
18 of innocent characterizations of relationships where there is no
19 direct or, frankly, timely circumstantial evidence of the corrupt
20 intent or a corrupt intent or a willful joining of a criminal
2 conspiracy on the part of Ms. Dean.
2 If she willfully joined the conspiracy, Judge, the 2 government's evidence doesn't prove it. If she willfully joined
2 a conspiracy with John Mitchell, the evidence doesn't prove it.
2 At the light most favorable to the government, it proves that

2008

1 John Mitchell and Jack Brennan and others were out doing business
2 deals to create income maybe, maybe based upon their
3 relationship, their stated relationship, the apparent
4 relationship, the known relationship, the informed relationship,
5 the circumstantially proved relationship between Ms. Dean and the 6 other charged co-conspirators.
7 The criminal intent circumstantially in this case is 8 actually direct evidence against the other co-conspirators, but 9 none of it runs as to Ms. Dean, because you can't show the 10 willful connection.
11 when a Rick Shelby testifies that he intentionally kept 12 facts from Ms. Dean about his business dealings with John 13 Mitchell, when a Mr. Martinez, although he's proffered by the 14 government to say that there's going to be a co-conspirator
15 statement coming in that Ms. Dean was the father -- the daughter
16 of John Mitchell and that doesn't occur and Martinez instead 17 testifies that he doesn't know Ms. Dean from Adams, when you have 18 the links between the conspirators and Ms. Dean so attenuated
19 that not one of them can testify as to her knowing and willful
20 involvement in a conspiracy, then I do not believe that the 2 circumstantial evidence of the co-conspirators' guilt and
2 criminal intent can be properly calculated to be properly used
2 against Ms. Dean.
2 And I think that's one of the problems -
I'm sorry,
2 Judge.

2009

1 THE COURT: That's all right, go ahead. I was just
2 reviewing in my mind the evidence as to each of the three counts
3 of the conspiracy and the argument, what can be inferred from her
4 conferences and meetings or sending correspondence.
5 For instance, in the first count, Mr. Mitchell and, I
6 believe, Mr. Shelby, there's correspondence to Mr. Mitchell
7 indicating the release of the units for presumably his client, if 8 you look at his notes and her notes, but what else would you have 9 the government do to try to show some linkage between the two 10 from what an inference could be made that she was helping 11 Mr. Mitchell because of her fondness for him, regardless if she 12 made any money or not from it, and that she was helping in 13 contravention of the policy of the agency as to, I guess in the 14 words of the statute, as to impede the normal workings of the 15 agency?
16 The conspiracy charge is such a broad charge that's 17 been approved by the courts, the 371 charge. I was doing some 18 reviewing over the weekend now, and it's broad enough, it says,
19 in accordance with the Supreme Court, in its terms to include any 20 conspiracy for a purpose of impairing -- I'm sorry, impairing,
2 obstructing, or defeating the lawful function of any department
2 of the government.
2 what kind of inferences are available to take -- just
2 take the Mitchell scenario, for instance, and the evidence there.
2 And I'm not sure I accept your argument the Sixth Circuit rule

1 applies here, that if there are differing inferences that can be
2 made, then it must fall.
3 MR. WEHNER: I understand.
4 THE COURT: I think the Treadwell case probably
5 controls here. Or Judge Revercomb had issued a written opinion,
6 the most recent one, I think, on 371, U.S. v. Recognition
7 Equipment, at 725 F.Supp. 587. I don't know if it's the most
8 recent one, but it's one where he talked about the Rule 29
9 standard vis-a-vis the conspiracy counts that involved corruption 10 in the post office, where he granted judgment of acquittal to the 11 defendants in that count, as again, your similar argument you
12 have here, but we don't get into the same language the Sixth
13 Circuit followed, although he did cite an old rule that says if a 14 reasonable mind must be in balance as between guilt and 15 innocence, a verdict of guilt cannot be sustained.
16 But let me go back to the facts with the first count,
17 in the Mitchell-Shelby conspiracy that's alleged. As I
18 understand it, your argument is that Mitchell and Shelby may have 19 been in a conspiracy, but there's no evidence you can infer that 20 Ms. Dean ever joined in their conspiracy and acted intentionally
2 to further its purposes.
2 MR. WEHNER: I won't concede that Mitchell and Shelby
2 were involved in a criminal conspiracy.
2 THE COURT: All right.
2 MR. WEHNER: They were clearly in a business

2011

1 relationship. I will not concede that that was a criminal
2 conspiracy, because I know nothing that prohibits John Mitchell

3 and Rick Shelby and Jack Brennan doing what they did. I know of 4 no statute.
5 I know it looks, it smells, and it may be morally
6 repugnant, but I don't know where you get a statute that says
7 that kind of conduct is illegal, nor would that kind of conduct
8 fall within a conspiracy to defraud the United States. I mean, I 9 don't know that they have any duty as citizens to not do that, to 10 take advantage of the system.
11 I'm not sure, Judge. I won't concede that was a 12 criminal conspiracy. I'll concede that it smelled. I will not 13 concede it's a criminal conspiracy.
14 THE COURT: well, then if it involves an influence upon 15 a public official in her duties she is to carry out through 16 either familial circumstances or monetary circumstances, as 17 alleged in Mr. Kitchin's case, does it make it enough at that 18 point -
19 MR. WEHNER: I don't think it does, Judge.
20 THE COURT: --to change the business arrangement to a
2 conspiracy to defraud the government of her best services?
2 MR. WEHNER: The reason I don't think it does is 2 because I think you have to look at it from two, from two
2 perspectives. One is if, if there is no criminal conspiracy
2 among Mitchell, et al., there is no criminal conspiracy for

2012

1 Ms. Dean to join, regardless of how much it smells.
2 But secondly, if you look at what has been proven that 3 connects Ms. -- that allegedly connects Ms. Dean to the 4 conspiracy, they are less than innocent. I mean, I recognize the 5 line of cases talking about that overt acts can be as simple as 6 walking across the street and in something like that, they don't 7 have to be necessarily criminal, but if you look at the acts that 8 they charge, the evidence they have that connects Ms. Dean to the 9 conspiracy, it is no different than what a public official could,
10 would, and does legally with respect to these programs.
11 In other words, the letter, for example, that goes from 12 Ms. Dean to John Mitchell, that funding decision had already been 13 made, according to the testimony. Maurice Barksdale, the 14 government's witness, said, "I never talked to her about it."
15 And she writes a letter after, as Mr. Barksdale
16 testified, the decisions were out of his office and public
17 knowledge, within hours. Everybody knew it, according to 18 Mr. Barksdale.
19 Now I don't think it's enough to connect Deborah Gore
20 Dean to a criminal conspiracy with John Mitchell and Rick Shelby
2 because she wrote a letter that stated what had already occurred
2 out of HUD that was general public knowledge.
2 The government makes this deal about, quote, internal
2 government documents. I don't know what an internal government
2 document is, but it doesn't appear in any criminal statute that

2013

1 I've been able to find. There are secret documents, there are 2 non-secret documents. Internal government documents is almost,
3 what's the word, an oxymoron.
4 The only statute that deals with government documents
5 is FOIA, and under FOIA, all of these documents are discoverable.
6 If Your Honor looks at the statute, there's no exception that 7 covers these documents. And I don't know what negative inference
8 you can get from an internal government document. I'm not sure
9 what that means from a criminal law perspective.
10 And I don't think it's fair to permit the government to 11 take words that are criminal in nature and use them to describe 12 innocent acts and therefore make them criminal.

13 The other evidence -
what is the other evidence that 14 links Ms. Dean to that conspiracy? I don't know of any.
15 with regard -- I don't want to leave anything out, Your 16 Honor, although I'll be very brief on these issues.
17 THE COURT: All right.
18 MR. WEHNER: With regard to the, with regard to the -
19 I will adopt my perjury count statements for my false statement
20 arguments, if the Court will allow.
2 with regard to the perjury count dealing with the, or 2 Ms. Dean states that no units were sent to Maryland unless they
2 were sent directly by the secretary, Sam Pierce didn't appear,
2 Judge. There is no evidence from which you can infer the
2 negative, that Sam Pierce didn't send them to Maryland.

2014

1 Now you can clearly infer from the evidence that
2 Ms. Dean had something to do with them going to Maryland, but 3 that's not what she said up in front of the Senate. What she 4 said was they were sent directly by the, by the secretary.
5 Now that can't mean that Sam Pierce, without anybody
6 else's knowledge at HUD, sent them to Maryland. That can't - as
7 Your Honor knows from seeing the case, it just doesn't never work
8 that way. Sam Pierce sending them directly to Maryland involves 9 a number of people, so it doesn't mean that he just did it one
10 day.
11 Any fair inference from that is that Sam Pierce, by 12 directly sending them to Maryland, was aware of Ms. Dean's 13 Maryland residency and that he did it notwithstanding the fact
14 that she was from Maryland or notwithstanding what she disclosed
15 to him, in other words, a disclosure of whatever conflict of 16 interest occurred.
17 It's absurd to think that Ms. Dean would testify that,
18 as the government would have you believe, that no units were ever 19 sent to Maryland. I mean, that's simply, frankly, that's an 20 idiotic answer. Of course, units went to Maryland. They went to 2 most every state, but the phrase "unless directly sent by the 2 secretary" clearly modifies that, in my judgment, to suggest that
2 Sam Pierce directed that they be sent there, notwithstanding Ms.
2 Dean's political interest in Maryland or her relationships to
2 Maryland.

2015

1 Finally, with regard to the perjury count involving
2 Baltimore Uplift One -3
THE COURT: That's where she said she has never heard
4 of it?
5 MR. WEHNER: Yes. My recollection, Judge -- and I've 6 been through these transcripts, but not on every issue - is that
7 there was one witness that testified that they had mentioned this 8 to Ms. Dean. I don't know of any circumstantial evidence that 9 connects Ms. Dean to Baltimore --to knowledge about it.
10 THE COURT: Didn't the Golec woman -11
MR. WEHNER: That's the one. I think that's the 12 witness I remember that she testified that she mentioned it to.
13 THE COURT: well, there was other testimony by another
14 witness that she was concerned about Golec's involvement in that 15 project because of her boyfriend's interest in it.
16 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir, but that is, leads exactly into 17 my argument, which is there is a distinct lack of proof as to 18 whether they were talking about Patriots or Baltimore Uplift, and 19 if you look at the transcripts and you look at the questions and

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

20 the answers, I believe that the government would have you believe
2 that they have shown that they were one and the same to Ms. Dean;
2 therefore, she knew about both.
2 And it is true, in fact, that they are related,
2 according to the government's evidence. It is not at all clear
2 that Ms. Dean was aware of the nomenclature "Baltimore Uplift,"

2016

1 and if you will look at the transcript, it is equally clear that 2 Ms. Dean actually asks for clarification of what that project is,
3 asks if it's a mod rehab, and responds that she never heard of
4 it.
5 Now that's an entirely different kettle of fish, pardon
6 me, Judge, than saying, "I don't know of any Mod Rehab Project in 7 Baltimore," or, "I don't know of anything that involved public
8 housing in Baltimore," or, "I don't know about money that was 9 sent to Baltimore."
10 Having -- she was clearly even on the transcript trying 11 to search her recollection, in my mind, argued inferentially from 12 the transcript, as to Baltimore Uplift, those two words. Maybe 13 "One" was in there, I don't remember. But that's a very specific 14 name for a very specific project.
15 And I don't believe that the senator, frankly, knew 16 exactly what he was asking about, either, because he was 17 referring to a newspaper article that mentioned Baltimore Uplift, 18 and there is clearly some confusion on his part as to whether 19 it's a Mod Rehab Program or a public housing program or what is 20 it, and without further specific identification, I don't know
2 that a, that a rational trier of fact could conclude based on the 2 direct evidence that Ms. Dean knew those precise terms,
2 "Baltimore Uplift One."
2 And finally, the last -- this transcript is probably on
2 file, but I don't have it yet, Your Honor.

2017

1 THE COURT: All right.
2 MR. WEHNER: The only witness that testified to funding
3 practices during 1987 was Thomas Demery, and I believe, I recall
4 his testimony to the effect that there was a committee in place
5 and that, in fact, the committee, notwithstanding input of 6 Ms. Dean, was making the funding decisions.
7 with regard to the "solely" statement by Ms. Dean, the 8 evidence, I believe, taken in the light most favorable to the 9 government, shows that Mr. Demery was providing all of the 10 information about the mod rehab allocations with the exception of 11 political input, because that's what the federal housing
12 commissioner's job was. All of them, in fact, testified, 13 including Mr. Demery, as to what the process was in terms of 14 getting the letters in from the PHAs, et cetera, et cetera.
15 And given the testimony on direct about the various 16 political influences that were at play in the allocation of mod
17 rehab units, I think it is totally unreasonable to expect that 18 Ms. Dean could have intended to mislead the very body that was 19 participating in the political influence. And these senators 20 were trying to get mod rehab units sent to their states, and to
2 say that "solely" means no political influence was involved
2 strikes me as just bizarre.
2 She could -- and it does not go to whether she did
2 mislead them, Judge; it goes to whether she intended to mislead
2 them, which is an element of the statute. I understand the law

2018

1 that suggests that you don't have to factually mislead, but I'm
2 not arguing that you have to factually mislead. I'm saying how 3 could she have intended to mislead them when she knew, in fact,
4 that they knew that political influence was involved?
5 And I made this argument to the Court briefly when we
6 were talking about co-conspirator statements: If I am under oath
7 on the witness stand and say to the Court and the jury, "The 8 lights are off," and they're on, that's not perjury. You know
9 it's not perjury, the jury knows it's not perjury, and everybody
10 in the courtroom knows it's not perjury. Maybe I lost my sight,
11 but that's not perjury.
12 And I think evidence that the light is on, Judge, 13 clearly shows, would go to the intent of the witness as to 14 whether they were going to commit perjury or not, whether they 15 intended to commit perjury, and it's that type of perjury count
16 that the government has alleged.
17 It's not appropriate to look at the perjury counts
18 simply in the entire --in the brief context of the question and 19 answer, as Your Honor knows, and the transcript, the entire 20 transcript makes clear that while I will admit that clearly her
2 responses are material, that there was no intent to deceive any
2 of the people that were sitting there because of the context in 2 which the answers were given.
2 THE COURT: All right, thank you.
2 If the government please, Ms. Sweeney?

2019

1 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor.
2 THE COURT: Ms. Sweeney, let me ask you a fundamental
3 question about the conspiracy counts. You agree that there's 4 certainly an inference, if not direct evidence, I think there's 5 direct evidence from which you could conclude that these mod
6 rehabilitation funds were considered to be totally discretionary
7 and that there was an opinion from the legal office to that
8 effect?
9 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, there, there was a great deal
10 of testimony about that legal opinion, and many of the witnesses
11 indicated their understanding that the funds were discretionary.
12 However, those same witnesses indicated that even though the 13 funds were discretionary, they were still subject to two 14 particular types of rules and regulations, the first one being 15 that projects could not be awarded on a project-specific basis.
16 And as Your Honor may recall, Sherrill Nettles-Hawkins,
17 Ms. Dean's personal secretary, indicated that Ms. Dean herself
18 told her that the projects were not supposed to be project
19 specific and therefore the letters were to be designed to remove 20 any specific project names and asked her to pass that information
2 along to the consultants and developers that were seeking
2 Ms. Dean's assistance.
2 The second type of rule and regulation that the
2 decisions were subject to were the standards of conduct, the HUD
2 standards of conduct, and those are the standards that prohibited

2020

1 a HUD employee from making a decision where there was personal
2 gain, family gain, a decision outside normal official channels.
3 And as Your Honor will recall, the witnesses almost 4 uniformly testified that those standards apply to discretionary
5 decisions. Those witnesses included Susan Zagame, David White.
6 Mr. White testified and through him the government put on a

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
7 letter that was sent to Ms. Dean very early in her tenure
8 indicating that she should take care not to take action in 9 matters where there was a friendship involved.
10 So, Your Honor, not only were those rules applicable, 11 but Ms. Dean was well on notice that they governed these 12 decisions.
13 THE COURT: The government, I believe -
I don't
14 believe there's any evidence that any of the projects that 15 received funds through these consultants, in quotes, that 16 opportuned themselves of Ms. Dean were other than qualified
17 projects; that is, they were all qualified projects, they met all
18 the regulations and rules of HUD to receive these monies.
19 MS. SWEENEY: I believe Your Honor is referring to the 20 testimony by PHA employees from Metro Dade. Pat Sharifi, who was 2 in charge of the reviewing the applications, testified that a
2 very, very minimal and cursory review was applied by the PHA
2 simply looking at the paperwork when the project came in to see
2 if it met very minimal standards.
2 THE COURT: I just meant I don't think there's any

2021

1 contrary evidence that any of the projects were not in accordance
2 with HUD regulations -
3 MS. SWEENEY: No, Your Honor -
4 THE COURT: -
for the minimum standards that the 5 projects had to meet before they could be considered.
6 I mean, there's no evidence that there was some 7 reaching out and taking on projects and having them approved that 8 were not in accordance with HUD regulations.
9 MS. SWEENEY: No, Your Honor, although the evidence, we 10 believe, does show that specific projects were selected, in 11 effect, by HUD headquarters.
12 THE COURT: well, I understand that. There were 13 various projects either in the pipelines or you may have some 14 evidence you infer they had to go find a project to get put into 15 the pipeline but that the projects once filed were in accordance 16 with whatever the rules were to qualify projects for HUD mod
17 rehab funding.
18 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor. It is our view that a 19 government official, though, may not pick and choose among 20 qualified projects based on personal gain.
2 THE COURT: All right, that's what I was getting to.
2 Then the argument of the 371 conspiracy is that you
2 don't have to show some financial loss to the government, you
2 know, but I guess it's your argument that that statute was
2 designed to protect the integrity of the agency's operations.

2022

1 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor.
2 THE COURT: I'm just trying to get from there where if
3 you have discretionary funding, if you have qualified projects,
4 and then you have a selection process that comes through
5 political routes, as opposed to through the agency route, and all
6 that's, that's established at this point for my consideration of 7 the Rule 29 level, does that add up to evidence of a conspiracy
8 to defraud the United States?
9 I'm contrasting that to if you take an example, assume 10 for a minute a senator calls the secretary's office at HUD of the 11 same party and requests mod rehab units to his particular locale
12 and eventually these mod rehab units are granted, and it's

13 evident that the secretary wanted to satisfy the senator's
14 request because he's a leading senator in the same party and may 15 have control over the budget.—Does that make it an illegal
16 conspiracy at that point?

17 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, we have not charged any of 18 those types of transactions in this case, and we -

19 THE COURT: But is that akin to what happened here?

20 MS. SWEENEY: No, Your Honor. We do not believe that 21 it is. And we disagree with Mr. Wehner's characterization of the 22 decisions in this case as political. We believe that they were 23 not political, but rather, that they were motivated by personal 24 and family gain and not by political considerations. And, Your 25 Honor, I believe that that is, in fact, a very important distinction.

2023

2 THE COURT: well, there weren't a lot of Democrats that
3 got these awards, if it wasn't political.

4 MS. SWEENEY: well, Your Honor, in the case of -

5 THE COURT: Not a lot of democratic consultants, I
6 guess, that were capable of getting these awards, as opposed to 7 Republican consultants.

8 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, many of the consultants and 9 developers involved in this case did happen to be, did happen to 10 be Republican. The case I can think of that is the exception to 11 that is the Patriots project, where there is no testimony
12 whatsoever about the, Mr. Lomenick's particular party
13 affiliation, but at the time that that award was made, Baltimore
14 was a democratic city.

15 So, Your Honor, I believe that the evidence, while it
16 is, it is a coincidence perhaps or, perhaps a telling coincidence
17 that the beneficiaries were Republicans, we do not believe that 18 that was the motivating factor, but rather, it was the personal 19 interests, the personal financial and family interests that 20 motivated Ms. Dean's decisions.

21 Another consultant whose party affiliation was not
22 addressed was that of Andrew Sankin. There again, Your Honor,
23 the evidence shows that Ms. Dean was motivated by Mr. Sankin's
24 services that were being provided to her family and not by any 25 sort of party affiliation.

2024

1 THE COURT: where do we get to her intent that I can
2 infer to join in these conspiracies, three different
3 conspiracies, and to defraud the government or impede the 4 operations of the agency illegally? I'm a little concerned about 5 the requisite intent.

6 If you take the first conspiracy, her relationship with 7 Mr. Mitchell, what is it the government has shown that she knew
8 about this relationship with Mr. Shelby and that he would make 9 these hundreds of thousands of dollars from actions that arguably
10 she could influence for him?

11 MS. SWEENEY: well, Your Honor, the first count 12 involving Mr. Mitchell does not only deal with Mr. Shelby, but 13 rather with the projects that involved Nunn and Martinez as well.

14 THE COURT: Right, Mr. Nunn, too.

15 MS. SWEENEY: And the evidence establishes that as 16 early as 1983, Ms. Dean was aware of Mr. Mitchell's interest in 17 projects involving Nunn and Martinez and even prior to Arama
18 began to furnish to Mr. Mitchell information from HUD that was of 19 interest to Nunn and Martinez.

20 The evidence also shows that Ms. Dean had worked with

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

2 Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Brennan at Global Research International and 2 was familiar with their business prior to even coming to HUD.
2 Thereafter, Your Honor, on the Arama project, the
2 letter dated July 5, 1984, establishes that Ms. Dean had a
2 conversation with General Mitchell about the funding and in that

2025

1 conversation apparently assured him that the funds were going to
2 be provided to that particular project. This was at a time when
3 the evidence shows that Ms. Dean was well aware of Mr. Mitchell's
4 personal dire financial circumstances.

5 In addition, Your Honor, Mr. Brennan, following his 6 contacts with Dean on the second Nunn project, the South Florida
7 project, testified that he called and thanked Dean for her
8 assistance. We believe that all of this evidence is more than 9 sufficient to show that Ms. Dean had knowledge as to what these 10 individuals were doing.

11 THE COURT: But would the theory the government
12 proposes in these conspiracy counts make a criminal conspiracy
13 out of anyone who knows someone in a government agency that 14 grants funding to various projects, who takes that person to 15 lunch and asks questions about various projects, and then is 16 eventually successful in obtaining approval of a particular
17 project without more? I mean, is that, if you meet a government
18 official and you talk to him about a project and then you
19 eventually get the project, can you infer from that there was 20 something wrong in that meeting?

2 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, the "more" here is that all
2 of these individuals were providing something to the defendant or 2 to her family. In the case of Mr. -

2 THE COURT: I think it's -- I thought in your brief it
2 was that you don't need any particular advantage shown to the

2026

1 conspirator in this type of charge.

2 MS. SWEENEY: Well, Your Honor, that is, that is argued
3 in the brief as well, but here in fact, the evidence also does 4 indicate, Your Honor, that there was this, this personal and 5 family benefit aspect to each of the conspiracies.

6 THE COURT: But what I'm concerned about is the breadth
7 of the statute, the way it's been interpreted trying to be used
8 is that it seems to me that many people in Washington could not 9 do business -

I don't know if that's good or bad - but could

10 not do business without running afoul of this statute. If people
11 talk over projects they're interested in with government decision
12 makers in an effort to convince them that their side is correct, 13 it seems to me the argument could be made therefore that they 14 have deprived the government of its loyal services of their 15 servant by having influence brought to bear upon the decision.
16 I don't think the statute is that broad.

17 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, we believe that in denying 18 the Rule 29, the Court need not go that far. In this case, it's 19 not -- take, for example, Count 2 involving Mr. Sankin. The 20 evidence is quite strong that at the very time that he is
2 approaching the defendant on a number of these projects, he's
2 simultaneously meeting with her at HUD, discussing the Stanley
2 Arms, discussing the closing on her co-op.

2 And he himself testified that he recognized the 2 relationship between the benefits he was providing her family and

2027

1 the benefits that she was providing him as a HUD consultant. So,
2 Your Honor -
3 THE COURT: There was some testimony he received fees
4 for that work at Stanley Arms, 6 percent of the rents, as I
5 recall.
6 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, he testified that he received
7 the management fee, but as to the hardship rent provision, he 8 testified as to the market value of that and as to the amount of 9 time and effort involved and said when he asked the defendant for 10 payment for that additional service, he did not dare press it for 11 fear that it would harm his ability to secure HUD benefits.
12 THE COURT: He thought he had a disagreement with her
13 over what he should get paid for that or not.
14 I mean, the issue really is for the Court, it seems to 15 me, is as to sufficiency of the evidence under the Rule 29
16 formula we apply in this circuit, which, I think, is a little 17 different than the Sixth Circuit the defendant cited, although as 18 Judge Revercomb says, you should take a hard look at the 19 evidence, and you view it in the light most favorable to the 20 government. He says this Court is obligated to take a hard look
2 at the evidence and accord the government the benefit of only
2 legitimate inferences and not engage in any fanciful speculations
2 or bizarre reconstruction of the evidence.
2 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, we believe that the, as we
2 note in our brief, that the factual circumstances here are far

2028

1 stronger than the facts presented in the Treadwell case.
2 THE COURT: well, Treadwell. I recall there were 3 allegations of personal benefit going to her, as I recall that 4 case, a substantial size.
5 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor. And in this case, we 6 also -
7 THE COURT: I'm talking about cars and lots of money
8 and things, as opposed to here we have the one $4,000 check with 9 Kitchin. With Mr. Mitchell, the allegation is he was broke, so
10 she wanted to get him money, but then also he paid for her
11 birthday party.
12 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, the Mitchell birthday party
13 check and the Christmas gift check have been introduced as 14 evidence of the kind of typical family sharing of financial 15 benefit, and, Your Honor, we believe that that is why benefiting 16 family members as well as one's self has been held to be 17 cognizable under 371.
18 THE COURT: I recognize there is another HUD case from 19 another circuit on that.
20 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor. And then there's the 2 Tham case from the Ninth Circuit.
2 THE COURT: Right.
2 MS. SWEENEY: Gallup and Conover.
2 THE COURT: Gallup is another one.
2 But the inference still has to be made through some

2029

1 evidence that there was a conspiracy between herself and
2 Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Shelby to influence the decision-making
3 process improperly at HUD as to these discretionary funds.
4 Let's look to the first count, as to the first awards,
5 or the second group with Shelby, and then we can go to the Nunn
6 groups, but throughout that, you have some meetings and lunches
7 and her forwarding correspondence in the Nunn case about an award

8 has been made and the units will be definitely funded, and then
9 your evidence as to the close relationship between Mr. Mitchell
10 and herself, where she considered him her surrogate father, and 11 from that there's to be an inference drawn that she had agreed
12 with him to enter into a conspiracy to defraud the United States
13 for his profit, which she wanted.

14 Is that what you're saying basically?

15 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor. In that, in that 16 particular circumstance, the evidence shows that Mr. Shelby first 17 contacted Mr. Mitchell and then contacted the defendant and that 18 over the -- at the same time that this project was going forward
19 and Mr. Shelby was working on it, that he met on several 20 occasions with Ms. Dean, on several occasions with Mr. Mitchell,
2 and on a couple of occasions with them at the same time,
2 including one luncheon on a day prior to a letter where he
2 forwards Ms. Dean material on what he calls the Miami mod rehab.
2 As was the case in the Nunn matters, Mr. Mitchell is 2 getting a fee from Mr. Shelby but doesn't appear in any of the 2030

1 documents. His role is concealed from anybody -
from everybody,
2 including the individual who ultimately is paying his fee, that
3 being Mr. Fine.
4 I did want to note, Your Honor, that you may notice
5 that some of the transcript cites remain blank in the brief and 6 that we will be completing them and submitting them to Your Honor
7 perhaps later today.

8 THE COURT: That's no problem. I understand the rush
9 you've been in, and I appreciate the work that's already been 10 done.

1 Let me go to the perjury counts for a minute then.
1 Mr. Wehner included those in his argument, although not in the 1 written form. As I recall, he's got three issues he raised at 1 least or maybe four, the four counts, but one was the year '87
1 was only referred to in part of this panel answer.

1 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, while we disagree that the 1 answers -- that the answer was limited to the year 1987, we
1 recognize that the question does use the term "1987," without
1 limiting it by calendar year or fiscal year.

20
2
2

2031

1 MS. SWEENEY: In any event, even if the Court
2 were to find that Mr. Wehner was correct in arguing that 3 the answer was similarly limited, there is more than 4 sufficient evidence about Miss Dean's role in two 5 particular projects that occurred not only within fiscal

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

6 year '87 but also within calendar year '87, that being

7 the Metro-Dade project for 203 units to Claude Dorsey

8 and Jim Mitchell in which Mr. Kitchin was the 9 consultant, and the Eastern Avenue projects for 88 units

10 to Prince Georges County involve Mr. Shelby and 11 Mr. Sankin and the Altman Brothers.

12 The testimony by the developers and the 13 consultants, particularly the consultants in those 14 cases, including Jack Jennings, Mr. Kitchin's employee,
15 indicated that Miss Dean played a rather significant
16 role in the funding of those two particular awards.
17 And therefore, Your Honor, while we disagree
18 that the answer was limited to calendar year or fiscal 19 year '87, we believe that even if the Court were to find 20 that that was correct, that that perjury count -- that 21 there's more than sufficient evidence on the perjury
22 count.

23 One other topic that Mr. Wehner mentioned was 24 the Baltimore Uplift One perjury and, Your Honor, on 25 that perjury count we rely on the testimony of not one

2032

1 but rather three witnesses.

2 Miss Golec's testimony is the fullest on that

3 particular matter and she indicates that she -- she

4 indicated that Baltimore Uplift One was a project that

5 the Secretary's office had had an interest in and had

6 had -- had seen press clippings in the Secretary's press

7 clipping circulation about that particular project.

8 That subsequent to that time Miss Dean assigned her the 9 task of going to a Baltimore Uplift meeting and asked

10 her to accompany Bob Tuttle, the non-white House Bob
11 Tuttle, to that particular meeting.

12 Silvio DeBartolomeis also testified that he 13 had discussed Baltimore Uplift with Miss Dean, and 14 Sherrill Nettles-Hawkins indicated that Bob Tuttle, the 15 non-white House Bob Tuttle, had contacted Miss Dean on a 16 number of occasions, and similarly Miss Dean had placed

17 calls to him.
18 So, Your Honor, we believe that the testimony
19 of all three of those witnesses supports the perjury and 20 concealment counts based on Baltimore Uplift One.
2 THE COURT: All right.
2 To go back for a minute to the first perjury
2 count and the scheme to falsify, conceal and cover up,
2 the Secretary did indicate -- the Senator did indicate,
2 "We received a number of complaints that, in 1987, this

2033

1 year, there have been no notification of funds
2 availability to the regional offices." And then he goes
3 on and instead asked about the application process and 4 she answered concerning the panel of people which were 5 the Undersecretary, the Assistant to the Secretary and 6 the Federal Housing Commissioner. "That panel goes
7 solely on information provided by the Assistant
8 Secretary for Housing." He also argued that solely, as 9 related, didn't cover political input because everyone
10 knew there was political input.
11 MS. SWEENEY: Again, Your Honor, this is not a 12 case about a Senator supporting the 203-unit award to 13 Metro-Dade or a Senator supporting the 88-unit award to 14 Prince Georges County, but rather this is a case about 15 Miss Dean steering those awards, supporting those 16 awards, among others, based on the consultants and the 17 developers who were behind those particular awards.
18 So we disagree with -- we just think
19 Mr. Wehner's argument about Senators is completely
20 irrelevant. That's not the question that Senator
2 Proxmire put. He was asking about developers

2 backdoor PHA's. He wasn't asking about HDD's
2 response to Congressional support.
2 THE COURT: All right.
2 I think the final one was the response about

2034

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
1 sending units to the home State of Maryland, and she
2 didn't do that because she was from there, but she
3 answered, "Unless and of course they were sent directly
4 by the Secretary, if they would have gone to my home
5 state of Maryland," and that -- there's no evidence
6 that -- about the Secretary sending them or not that 7 would make this a perjurious statement.

8 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, the tenor of that

9 rather gratuitous comment by Miss Dean indicating to the 10 members of the panel that while she sat on the panel no
11 units had ever gone to the State of Maryland, and in 12 fact suggesting that she recused herself, runs contrary
13 to the fact that we know she did participate in 14 decisions involving Patriots, decisions involving 15 Foxglenn and decisions involving Eastern Avenue, all of 16 which were in the State of Maryland, and, in fact, a 17 number of individuals including both Mr. Shelby and 18 Mr. Sankin indicated that the defendant had told them
19 she was particularly interested in the State of Maryland
20 and that she had political ambitions in that particular
2 jurisdiction.

2 THE COURT: All right. If you look carefully
2 at the perjury counts she indicated once the Secretary
2 sent them she didn't partake in them. You can have
2 other implications in that answer.

2035

1 The first one refers to the year 1987, it says
2 in the year 1987, again looking at it as perjury, you
3 can consider precisely the question and the answer. Let 4 me ask you with respect to the question that was asked
5 where he concludes, how do you respond to this, which is 6 not a proper type, I guess that's obvious, of question

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
7 to be based on perjury. It was a broad question as

8 opposed to did you do X,Y & Z, and how do you respond to 9 these general allegations.

10 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, I'm not sure that I 11 completely follow Mr. Wehner's point. Miss Dean, as he 12 candidly stated, then did go on to provide an answer.
13 The Government has introduced the transcript that she 14 subsequently had an opportunity to review and mark up*
15 So even if there were some suggestion that she was 16 startled by the question or a difficulty with the 17 question at the time that it was propounded, even after 18 the fact, Your Honor, she had an opportunity to review
19 that testimony and to make appropriate - whatever
20 changes she deemed appropriate.
2 But, Your Honor, I guess I'm not aware of any

2 legal mazes supporting the idea that how do you respond
2 is not an appropriate question.
2 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.
2 Does the defendant want to respond briefly?

2036

1 MS. SWEENEY: Thank you.

2 MR. WEHNER: Briefly, Judge.

3 I point out to the Court that the flow of 4 benefits alleged by the Government, by the Independent
5 Counsel from Ms. Dean and her family to Mr. Sankin and 6 Mr. Mitchell, the benefits went the other way, Judge,
7 and I think the fairest inference and the only inference
8 that can be drawn from her testimony is that Miss Dean

9 gave Mr. Sankin a position as opposed to benefits
10 running from Mr. Sankin to Miss Dean and that John 11 Mitchell got a roof over his head from Miss Dean's 12 family. I don't think the Government can have it both 13 ways. To argue that benefits going from Miss Dean, 14 feelings from Miss Dean going to Mr. Mitchell, are 15 illustrative of her corrupt nature because he was

16 involved in the Mod Rehab business and at the same time
17 argue that the benefits that he gave to her or for her
18 family were some kind of reward for that effort.

19 Secondly, Judge, the testimony from Mr. Sankin
20 is singular in nature in that it very precisely shows
2 out the failure of the Independent Counsel's case and
2 it's especially singular in what Miss Sweeney said.
2 Because when she argued that his reluctance and as to
2 why he was reluctant to send Miss Dean this supposed
2 bill for services, there's not one ounce of evidence

2037

1 that that was anywhere except swirling around in that
2 man's head. That can't as a matter of law be attributed
3 to Miss Dean. Maybe he was troubled, I doubt it, but 4 I'll grant you that. Maybe he was. Maybe he thought it
5 would hurt his relationship.

6 But, Judge, this is what happens when you mix
7 politics in a criminal law. And what has happened in 8 this case is that the Independent Counsel decided that

9 Miss Dean had committed a crime and then attempted to 10 put the evidence together to prove it, as opposed to 11 determining a crime had been committed and then setting
12 out to see who did it, because the real criminals in 13 this case, if there are criminals in this case, have 14 walked.

15 But I won't argue my subsequent arguments to
16 the Court.

17 THE COURT: All right.

18 Well, I had one other question I wanted to 19 address and I forgot, Miss Sweeney, there was an 20 argument made on the statute of limitations bearing on
2 the Lou Kitchin check. That was over five years ago.

2 And Judge Gesell preserved on that. I do not recall
2 that. Was that still held open?

2 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, I have not reviewed
2 Judge Gesell's ruling in quite sometime. In response

2039

1 THE COURT: Have you got the exhibit there
2 we've introduced?

3 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor, I believe it's 4 dated the 29th.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
5 THE COURT: All right. That's Government's
6 Exhibit 203.
7 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, let me hand up -8
it's stipulated to. It's actually dated April 20th.
9 MR. WEHNER: we'll stipulate to that, Your
10 Honor.
11 THE COURT: You can look at it again. It's 12 certainly not a two and I don't see a nine on there. In 13 the back the negotiation, at least with the bank stamp
14 on it is May 5th.
15 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.
16 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor, and the bank
17 records indicate that I misspoke, that the deposit is on 18 May 6th. It's Government's Exhibits 203A and 203B which 19 I'm handing up to the Court.
20 THE COURT: It was deposited, I think, on the 2 5th but was credited on the 6th, according to the 2 deposit slip, and your argument is you can go on the 2 statute from that time as opposed to the date of writing
2 the check.
2 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor.

2040

1 THE COURT: All right.
2 Let me go through this. I'm going to issue
3 rulings at this time, on the rule 29 motions.
4 As I said, I'll be guided by the law in this
5 Circuit. I think it's United States versus Treadwell, 6 760 Fed. 2d at 333, and there's a consideration of the 7 types of evidence the Court can consider in considering 8 the rule 29 motion that "no legal distinction may be 9 drawn between direct and circumstantial evidence."
10 Judge Revercomb, in the Recognition Equipment case cited
11 previously, indicated that in considering a 29 motion,
12 this Court must view the evidence in the light most 13 favorable to the Government, giving full play to the 14 right of the trier of fact to determine credibility,
15 weigh the evidence and draw justifiable inferences of 16 fact. A reasonable mind might fairly conclude guilt
17 beyond a reasonable doubt. Citing Treadwell that I just 18 referred to.
19 Additionally he stated, "Although the evidence
20 must be viewed in the light most favorable to the 2 Government the Court is obligated to take a hard look at

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 the evidence and according the benefit of all legitimate
2 inferences," citing United States versus Singleton at 2 702 Fed. 2d 1163, a 1983 case. "Moreover, the Court is 2 not required to view the evidence through a

2041

1 dirty window pane and assume that evidence which
2 otherwise can be explained as equally innocent must be
3 evidence of guilt." This is clearly not the standard
4 rule 29, which is citing Judge Revercomb's
5 opinion. "And, rather, in order to find legitimate
6 non-speculative inference of guilt the Government must 7 articulate a rational basis on the evidence upon which 8 that inference can arise."
9 while the Court has substantial concerns on 10 some of the evidence in this case and its proper import
11 and recognizes the political realities that surround
12 particularly the Department of Housing and Urban 13 Development since its inception, the Court is going to 14 deny the motions for judgment of acquittal to the 15 conspiracy counts for the following reasons.

16 The main argument by the defendant is 17 basically as follows, as I perceive it in his well 18 drafted motion for judgment of acquittal, that the 19 defendant knowingly and intentionally joined a
20 conspiracy to defraud the United States, and that there
21 are equally probable explanations for her conduct which,
22 as I judge the evidence at this stage, even giving the 23 inference to the Government still would not lead to 24 evidence that we can conclude beyond a reasonable doubt 25 that one could find guilt at this stage of the case. In 2042

1 other words, the defendant could rest at this stage of
2 the case and put no evidence on and argue as he has done

3 that the evidence has equal probabilities of guilt or 4 innocence in either side. Therefore, there could not be 5 a reasonable doubt standard met.

6 Looking at the evidence of intent in proof of 7 these conspiracies that Miss Dean would have joined in,
8 according to the Government, and have partaken in to

9 defraud the Government of her loyal services, first 10 under section 371 as charged, the Government has to 11 prove that two or more persons formed an agreement to 12 commit an offense to defraud the United States. That 13 the defendant knowingly participated in the conspiracy
14 in an attempt to commit at least one of the offenses
15 charged to defraud the United States and that at least 16 one overt act was committed in furtherance of the common 17 scheme. That's reliance upon Treadwell. Simply to 18 deprive the United States of its lawful Governmental
19 functions is enough in relation to 371, that's Glasser
20 versus United States, 315 U.S. 60.
2 As I said, the statute and language in the

2 statute, interpreted very broadly, prohibits a
2 conspiracy to defraud the United States "in any manner
2 or for any purpose. There's no requirement that
2 conspiracy to defraud constitutes a conspiracy to commit

2043

a 1 any acts that would be otherwise unlawful." That's

2 United States versus Winkle, 587 Fed. 2d 705,708, a
3 Fifth Circuit case, a '78 case.
4 As I indicated earlier, the Supreme Court had 5 said years ago that 371 "is broad enough in its terms to 6 include any conspiracy for the purpose of impairing,
7 obstructing or defeating the lawful function of any 8 department of Government." The case of Hass versus 9 Henkel, 216 U.S. 462. And they need not have any loss
10 to the Government, monetary loss to the Government, so 11 long as the conspiracy interferes or obstructs the 12 Government's normal function, and that's cited in re
13 Sealed case, 676 Fed. 2d 793, a D.C. Circuit '82 case.
14 It has not been raised by the defendant, I
15 guess, but to forestall any second-guessing the Court
16 also considered whether Me Nally versus United States,
17 483 U.S. 350, an '87 mail fraud decision, somehow
18 limited the scope of 371, and the Supreme Court
19 specifically distinguished between the mail fraud
20 statute and 371, at 358 note eight.
2 Additionally that has been followed by other

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 case law now. There is a recent case on Lexis, United
2 States versus Curran, United States District Court,
2 Eastern District of Pennsylvania, April 20, 1993. It
2 came out of the U.S. Attorney's Office of Philadelphia.

a 1 Judge Van Antwerpen ruled, this is not a Fed. Supp.

3 case, so it's cited in 1993 westlaw 137459, that a

4 conspiracy to defraud the United States must allege

5 deprivation of money and property is true in the mail

6 fraud statute essentially as opposed to the intangible

7 right of the citizenry to good Government. Me Nally's

8 narrow definition of defraud does not extend to the 9 conspiracy charge to defraud funds under 371 but does

10 not require the agreement to defraud the Government of 11 money or property. And held that the statute at issue,
12 371, "endorsed the use of 371 against schemes directed 13 at the deprivation of tangible rights to Governmental
14 integrity.

15 On that background on the 371 we have to 16 consider each of the counts alleged against Miss Dean.

17 As the Court had indicated while it has some 18 skepticism, frankly, of the nature of the charges in 19 that it does believe that essentially political 20 arrangements are made, on conduct that -- that resulted
21 in conduct which as counsel for the defendant has said
22 may smell, may stink were his words, and it is quite 23 unfortunate in the Court's view and inappropriate. The 24 issue is whether there is sufficient evidence for the 25 jury to consider whether or not there was an illegal
26 conspiracy in violation of 371.

2045

1 Count one covered three projects, the Arama

2 project, that is Marbilt Development in Florida,

3 involving Mr. Martinez who employed Mr. Nunn as a
4 political consultant or as a, quote, housing consultant
5 when he had had difficulty securing approval from the 6 regional office of his – and field offices of his 7 projects that were time bound. He needed something
8 decided.

9 There is evidence that documents were

10 exchanged and information given to Miss Dean from 11 Mr. Mitchell and letters between Mr. Martinez and 12 Mr. Nunn, and Mr. Nunn's testimony bearing contracts to 13 Mr. Mitchell to share the fees in this business, after 14 an unsuccessful attempt to develop a cellular phone
15 business, and that Mr. Mitchell made substantial funds
16 when the projects accrued.
17 The Government had shown evidence of delivery
18 of correspondence to Mr. Nunn at Mr. Mitchell's business
19 address, notifying that the units would be definitely 20 funded, although there's argument made that that was
2 public knowledge, and that there are documents forwarded

2 to the Authority for the funding process. And 2 substantial payments eventually to Mr. Mitchell.
2 The second part of the first count is the
2 South Florida One project in Dade County, again

2046

involving Mr. Nunn and Mr. Martinez, specifically identifying a project by the number of units.

3

Mr. Brennan becomes involved. Miss Dean helps forward
4

correspondence regarding the project and the request

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
5 which is forwarded to the funding office at Miss Dean's

6 request to fund this project can be inferred from the

7 evidence.

8 And again there are meetings with Mr. Mitchell

9 and Miss Dean as may be expected in the relationship,
10 but they're also in the timeframe of this award
11 eventually, as well as Mr. Nunn and Mr. Mitchell meeting
12 together and Mr. Mitchell receiving the fees to his 13 business. And there's direct communications between 14 Mr. Nunn and Miss Dean about the projects allegedly.
15 Part three of that is the Park Towers project
16 which involved Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Shelby and Martin
17 Fine. And Mr. Feinberg arranged for Mr. Shelby to be 18 involved. And again there's allegations of Shelby and 19 Mitchell meeting and discussions eventually of 20 Mr. Feinberg and Mr. Fine working out a fee for the Park
2

Towers units if they can be awarded.
2

The meetings occurred obviously between Mr.
2 Shelby and Miss Dean, the meetings were scheduled. It's inferred that they met, Miss Dean, Mr. Shelby and 2
2

Mr. Mitchell. Mr. Shelby sent information to Miss Dean

2047

1 about the project and the rapid replies were issued for

2 the units to be sent to Dade and those documents

3 forwarded to Mr. Shelby and forwarded to his employer.

4 Eventually again there were payments made and

5 again correspondence occurring – occurred regarding

6 further lunches with Mr. Shelby and Miss Dean, regarding

7 further problems in the project, and eventually after

8 the continued meetings there was a waiver which concerns

9 Park Towers, the continued meetings with Mr. Shelby and 10 Miss Dean and some with Mr. Mitchell and eventually,
11 according to the Government, Shelby's organization of 12 Miss Dean's campaign for appointment to be Assistant
13 Secretary. with various correspondence as to Mr. Shelby
14 thanking Miss Dean for her work in the past year, et 15 cetera. And the payments made by the contractors for 16 the services rendered by Mr. Shelby and Mr. Mitchell.
17 The issue really is as to those factors
18 allowing inference that Miss Dean corruptly joined in 19 this group of consultants who are representing these 20 developers to get their particular projects funded at 2 higher levels of HUD as opposed to going through the

2 cumbersome, apparently time consuming, according to
2 Martinez, years, in consideration of applications in the 2 normal process, once these funds were understood to be
2 discretionary through the Secretary.

2048

1 The Court's concluded, although it says it has
2 some concerns, but has concluded at least for now that
3 given the Government legitimate inferences that it's 4 entitled to a rule 29 from the evidence before it where 5 there's obvious meetings, favors such as lunches and 6 dinners and an association between Miss Dean and the 7 consultant, in this case, Mr. Shelby, the relationship
8 with Mr. Mitchell, the evidence how she thought of him
9 and treated him, that there can be inferred on the 371
10 statute sufficient evidence that there was an 11 arrangement where she would receive at least intangible
12 benefits from the relationship and the favoritism,
13 although I'm not sure even under the statute you have to 14 show it, though I think the Government has shown it,
15 through helping her surrogate father and her friend
16 Mr. Shelby.
17 Certainly as to Mr. Shelby it can't be 18 disputed that she realized he was making money from 19 these projects that she was directing. The evidence
20 shows, I think in the light most favorable to the 21 Government, the awards of these units to the respective 22 Housing Authority were framed in such a way they would

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
23 of necessity have to go to a particular developer that 24 these consultants were representing. Later on there
25 were some units that did not -- some units did not make

2049

1 it to the developer that the parties had wished.
2 Count two, conspiracy based on the same
3 offense as count one, the 371. In this case it's 4 Mr. Shelby again and Mr. Sankin and the Gore family
5 allegedly being tangentially beneficiaries of services
6 rendered by Mr. Sankin.
7 This involved first the rents at the Necho
8 Allen Hotel project, the firm of Mr. Rosenthal, I
9 believe, from which Mr. Sankin received $10,000.
10 Mr. Sankin being a young non-practicing lawyer
11 interested in getting into HUD work, introduced through 12 others to Miss Dean.
13 This involved a project that had not been 14 approved at the local office and request for 15 consideration of rent exceptions that had been turned
16 down.
17 Miss Dean had meetings and lunches with 18 Mr. Sankin. Her schedule indicates he spent a 19 considerable amount of time in looking at the family
20 apartment project. And then there's evidence that 21 Mr. Rosenthal had some confirmation that there would be 22 an exception to the rents that Mr. Sankin told him would 23 be granted after he had met with Miss Dean.
24 Miss Dean intervened as to the denial and it
25 continued to be issued at the local level of the home

2050

1 office and she authorized an autopen on the approval of
2 exception rents, according to the Government's evidence
3 at least, which went forward and Mr. Rosenthal thanked 4 Miss Dean for her services in obtaining that exception.
5 The Regent Street project. Mr. Rosenthal had 6 again retained Mr. Sankin. Mr. Sankin and Miss Dean
7 meet, arranged for lunch with Mr. Rosenthal. And 8 Miss Dean again inquires about assisting on the Regent
9 Street project at HUD and although again I'm taking into

10 account as I suggested to counsel for the Government, I
11 think all these projects probably qualify for Mod Rehab
12 funding, and the funding was to be looked upon as 13 discretionary, at least that's the Government's 14 evidence, still there's evidence in the Regent Street as 15 well as these others that Miss Dean interceded again in 16 the Regent Street project, dealt with Mr. Rosenthal 17 directly, and there was issued rapid reply for some of 18 the Regent Street projects -- Regent Street -- rehab
19 units for Philadelphia, Pennsylvania went to Regent
20 Street.

2 That subsequently there were meetings with
2 Mr. Sankin and Miss Dean again and eventually that
2 matter was resolved, although there were some fee
2 disputes with Mr. Sankin.
2 The next one is the Alameda Towers project

2051

0 1 which involved Mr. Broussard as well as Mr. Sankin. And
2 again Miss Dean met with the individual involved,
3 Mr. Sankin, and that was for the -- Mr. Rubi's project.
4 Again, the fees were paid in that case to Mr. Sankin.
5 The allegation of the Government is that
6 through all these Mr. Sankin was managing the Stanley
7 Arms for her family. There's an argument that the 8 charges originally, the Government argued, were below
9 market rate and Judge Gesell issued an order to explain
10 what that means in the context of Sankin's management
11 services and I think the argument is on the increased
12 value that he got from the family through the increased
13 rent exception which he was not finally fully paid
14 beyond the six percent rent although he got six percent
15 of the increased rent, but it does show a relationship
16 between the two that's mutually beneficial.
17 Finally, there was the Foxglenn Apartment
18 project in P.G. County, Maryland with Mr. Sankin and 19 Shelby, it was the Altman Brothers, and the Eastern 20 Avenue project, which again was Mr. Sankin and Shelby
21 for the Altraan Brothers.
22 Foxglenn, again there were meetings involved
23 with Mr. Shelby and Miss Dean and Mr. Shelby had a 24 lucrative consulting contract and also there were 25 substantial meetings, according to the calendars at

2052

1 least, between Mr. Sankin and Miss Dean, as well as
Page 1153

2 Mr. Shelby in the same timeframe.

3 Mr. Sankin's notes indicate he discussed Mod

4 Rehab and that eventually payments were made in

5 substantial sums because the project eventually was

6 approved.

7 It also involved eventually Mr. Sankin giving

8 $3000 to a senate campaign for the Republican Senator in

9 Maryland, close to the time that Miss Dean listed lunch

10 with Miss Chavez on her calendar, Miss Chavez's

11 reception on her calendar.

12 Eventually again Mr. Shelby had supported

13 Miss Dean for the Assistant Secretary position, as I

14 mentioned earlier, and Mr. Shelby again wrote thank you

15 notes to Miss Dean for her help in the last few years.

16 There's also allegations of business gifts

17 being bought for Miss Dean by Mr. Sankin.

18 Finally, the Eastern Avenue project in which

19 again there are similar meetings, although some of these 20 overlap, in the same timeframe. This is back in '87.

2 There are similar meetings.

2 Although at this time Mr. Demery and Mr. Dorsy

2 are involved and they do approve this meeting for P.G.

2 County for 88 units. Again, meetings with Mr. Shelby

2 and Mr. Sankin, and the units eventually are approved.

2053

1 And, again, the same factors the Court

2 considered in count one as for the relationship between

3 the parties, Mr. Sankin entertaining and contributing

4 monies to the Maryland Senatorial candidate on the

5 Republican side, the purchase of gifts, and the doing of

6 services and the relationship with Shelby, entertaining

7 her as well, providing support for her in her Assistant

8 Secretary's position as well as her desire to curry

9 favor with the Republican side on her own aspects of 10 running for office in the future can lead the Court to 11 conclude that the Government has sufficient evidence
12 to proceed on count two and, again, reviewing the case
13 law in section 371 where the Courts have found there's 14 no requirement that the conspiracy to defraud
15 constitutes a conspiracy of acts that would otherwise be 16 unlawful.
17 It seems to me the evidence is sufficient in 18 the inference in favor of the Government that there's 19 conspiracy for the purpose of impairing the lawful 20 function of the Department of Housing and Urban
2 Development and in the awarding of these projects even

2 though it did not incur any monetary loss to the 2 Government. These projects were otherwise acceptable
2 projects.
2 The final count, count three, the conspiracy,

2054

1 again, this is the Lou Kitchin group. It goes through

2 1986, Heritage Village. And Mr. Kitchin's meetings with

3 Mr. Dean -- Miss Dean, I'm sorry. And Mr. Kitchin's

4 being briefed on the requirements of HUD as to units.

5 Miss Dean sent Demery a Mod Rehab list of 6 particular units for particular PHA's, including one for

7 Atlanta, Georgia. Again, Mr. Kitchin is supporting

8 Miss Dean for her position as Assistant Secretary. She

9 communicates to Mr. Kitchin about his client Plateau
10 Mortgage, and then there's evidence she asked Mr. Demery

11 to look into some other projects, one in Woodcrest,
12 California, again a Kitchin client potentially,
13 involving Miss Dean. There's also Springwood-Cutlerwood
14 in Florida involving Mr. Dorsy and Mr. Mitchell.
15 Without going through all the meetings again,
16 there's no question Mr. Dean -- Miss Dean and 17 Mr. Kitchin met a substantial number of times and

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
18 generated correspondence, inquiries to Miss Dean on his

19 behalf.

20 Mr. Kitchin was paid substantial sums or his 21 partner was.

22 And that there came a time when -- in April of 23 1987 Mr. Kitchin loaned, according to this check, to 24 Miss Dean $4000. At the time he was doing business with 25 her, and according to his partner was advised he should

2055

1 not do this. And that 4000 remains in some part at 2 least unpaid.

3 That, again, the efforts of Mr. Kitchin were

4 successful in securing these properties in general, and

5 it involved Miss Dean's action at HUD in getting some

6 approvals, including the Woodcrest, California matter in

7 which she took an interest in making sure it would be

8 approved.

9 Again, for the reasons stated in the first two 10 counts I believe that the Government has shown
11 sufficient information and it would be concluded, giving 12 inference to the Government of these facts that have 13 been shown, that Miss Dean agreed with Mr. Kitchin in 14 exchange for his support and favoritism in supporting 15 her for her Assistant Secretary's position, and the 16 $4000 loan and the gratuities such as the dinners and 17 lunches, that could be seen to deprive the United States
18 of its lawful -- her loyalty and interfere with the 19 lawful Government functions under 371.

20 Count four, for the record, the defendant
2 actually said in his written motion he's moving to

2 dismiss all counts, so he didn't argue as to count four
2 except as to the recitation of the barring of the date.
2 That's an illegal gratuity. I believe the Government
2 has shown that their indictment was filed prior to the 2056

1 negotiation of the check and therefore the statute would
Page 1156

2 not bar the operation of the illegal gratuity attending
3 to that action, and that there's sufficient evidence
4 that she received this and cashed the check made out to 5 her at the time she was doing business at her employment
6 at HUD, that Mr. Kitchin was doing business with HUD,
7 which she was involved in.

8 counts five and six have been -- five has been

9 dismissed. well, it's been redone. It's now count five 10 and six are the perjury scheme to falsify.
11 Count five is the statement that "the panel
12 goes solely on information provided by the Assistant 13 Secretary of Housing." This was on April 6, 1987, after 14 being sworn and before a quorum of the United States
15 Senate Banking Committee that was duly authorized to 16 investigate the qualifications of Miss Dean to be 17 Assistant Secretary and to review HUD's programs,
18 particularly Mod Rehab programs being administered and 19 her role in that program, and she answered the question
20 that did begin with, "we received a number of complaints
2 in 1987 this year," and then the question went ahead and

2 Deborah Dean was asked how do you respond to that.
2 well, it was not a question, I think, a lawyer would ask
2 that he was trying to frame for a prosecutor in a
2 perjury case. Actually it was one that a Senator asked

2057

1 who was interested in political matters. But the answer
2 by Miss Dean indicates the program does not work through 3 publication of notices and she indicated that -- she 4 said "the way it works, the field offices receive 5 applications from the Public Housing Authorities. They 6 are rated and ranked and sent to the regional 7 administrator who forwarded them to the Assistant

8 Secretary for Housing, Federal Housing Commissioner.

9 The Assistant Secretary for Housing puts
10 together the applications and, with the Assistant
11 Secretary for Multi-Family Housing, comes to some 12 conclusion as to where they believe the funds could best
13 be used.
14 Once again, they bring it to a panel of 15 people, which is the Undersecretary, the Executive
16 Assistant to the Secretary and the Federal Housing
17 Commissioner. That panel goes solely on information
18 provided by the Assistant Secretary for Housing. He 19 gives us the information and the three of us make 20 recommendations to the Secretary, who is the person who
2 approves those units."

2 The Government has alleged in count seven that 2 that was part of a scheme to falsify or conceal, and 2 cover-up, by this testimony as the reality of what was
2 occurring. And that she had knowingly and willfully

2058

1 testified contrary to material matters which she knew to
2 be untrue and as to this scheme covered up and did so
3 and to cover up her true role in how the fundings were 4 actually made.

5 I do think the Government in the perjury
6 counts has to be exactly precise and I do think the 7 question was a rather openended question which she 8 answered the way she did.

9 I believe that as to 1987, the testimony has 10 been there was a panel established, there's been some 11 testimony by one individual who was involved in the 12 panel, but there was testimony by Mr. Demery that he was 13 quite concerned about how the assignments were being 14 made and he insisted upon input and he did have input 15 into the process and they did meet and discuss these 16 matters.
17 There's no question that the information was 18 solely not from, at least from the Government's evidence
19 given these inferences now in their favor, was solely 20 not from the Assistant Secretary for Housing and that he
2 gives the information and they make recommendations to

2 the Secretary which indicates that based on only that
2 information, the argument is, well, everyone knew this
2 was political. That's Miss Dean's answer. Whether or 2 not it misled the Senators or she intended to mislead

2059

1 the Senators is a matter of argument. I don't think
2 it's perjurious enough for the Court to rule on at the 3 Rule 29 motion stage.
4 So I'm going to deny the motion to dismiss
5 under rule 29 counts -- I guess now counts five and six,
6 perjury and the scheme to falsify or cover up on the 7 grounds that although it may be limited to 1987
8 strictly, in her answer there's information in that 9 answer that -- for the Court which indicates in favor of 10 the Government at this time that she meant to conceal
11 and falsify her answer as to how the process went 12 forward and what information she relied upon and the 13 input of this information to this panel.
14 As to counts seven and eight, it's perjury
15 before the Banking Committee, count seven, which is 16 Miss Dean responded as follows: Senator Proxmire
17 stated, "Furthermore, it is suggested that developers
18 personally come to you asking for awards. Now, as you
19 know, the proper procedure is for the HUD Washington
20 office to deal with housing authorities and for them to
2 deal with the developers," and she responded to that

2 statement, it's not the other statement but in the same
2 type context, Miss Dean stated in part, "I have never
2 given or approved or pushed or coerced anyone to help
2 any developer. Those funds go directly to the Public

2060

1 Housing Authority.
2 As a matter of fact, I have regular meetings

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

3 with the public housing authorities where I tell them
4 that they should be dealing directly with developers. A
5 lot of times, public housing authorities send developers
6 to HUD. And they meet with people all over the 7 building. It's a tremendous waste of time, and I let 8 them know that because those funds go directly to the 9 public housing authorities."

10 And count eight charges the same thing in the 11 context of a scheme to falsify or cover up.
12 Again, it appears to the Court there's 13 sufficient evidence to go to the jury on that count on 14 the basis of the testimony that was given at that 15 hearing and the testimony here at trial, as to the 16 meetings with the developers and the input they may have 17 had into the process directly or indirectly.
18 The next counts I believe are nine and ten,
19 perjury and the scheme again to falsify or cover up on 20 the response to the question asked by the Chairman
2 regarding an alleged $17,00,000 scandal reported by the

2 Washington Post, on a HUD funded project called
2 Baltimore Uplift One.
2 The argument has been there's some confusion
2 about the language and what was used. Count nine

2061

1 indicates that the Chairman asked about the project
2 known as Baltimore Uplift One, about the Washington Post
3 story and then she said, "Senator, could you give me the 4 date again?" He said, "Yes. The date is October,
5 19 8 4."
6 Miss Dean: "I was Executive Assistant to the 7 Secretary at that time. I've never heard of Baltimore
8 Uplift One. It was a moderate rehabilitation project?"
9 The Chairman: "What's that?"
10 Miss Dean: "You said it was in the Mod Rehab
11 program?"
12 The Chairman: "Mod, Section Eight, moderate
13 rehabilitation. That's right."
14 She gives two explanations why she may have 15 known it but at the end she said she never heard of 16 Baltimore Uplift One, and there's an indication that 17 name was used. There may have been names that would 18 have been used and she could have been confused with 19 other projects. There was testimony that that name was 20 used and she was familiar with it although she's 21 testifying sometime later after this had arisen.
22 The same with the identical count, and I think
23 there's sufficient evidence to go to the jury.

24 The final counts are 11 and 12, the perjury
25 counts, as to projects awarded in her home State of 2062

(\ 1 Maryland. She made the following statement. "I believe,
2 as a matter of fact, no moderate rehabilitation units
3 that I know of, unless they were sent directly by the 4 Secretary, have ever gone to my home State of Maryland,
5 simply for that reason, that I sat on the panel."
6 Again, there's testimony she was aware of and 7 did have involvement with projects in the State of 8 Maryland although not as to perhaps requesting the final
9 awards be made to those projects, had some involvement
10 with, and input into the funding process. Although her 11 testimony is limited by her statement unless they're 12 sent directly by the Secretary and, again, the reason,
13 that I sat on the panel.
14 Again, we're talking about the '87 timeframe
15 that may limit that question somewhat in its 16 implication, but at this point it seems to the Court the 17 Government has produced evidence from witnesses who 18 indicated she was involved in Maryland projects and knew 19 that and that the caveat unless sent directly by the 20 Secretary does not seem to me mean that she cannot be
2 charged as she has in these counts with the evidence
2 before this Court at this stage of the case.
2 I'm going to deny the motion to those counts
2 as well, both 11 and 12, and find that sufficient
2 evidence exists to go to the jury for those counts.

2063

1 All right, those will be the reasons for the 2 Court denying the motions for judgment of acquittal at 3 this stage of the case, recognizing they can be renewed
4 at the conclusion of the case.
5 All right. We had motions to quash filed.
6 MR. WEHNER: I'm sorry, Your Honor?
7 THE COURT: We had motions to quash by the 8 Senate. Are they coming in this afternoon for 9 consideration or not?
10 MR. WEHNER: I don't know, Judge. I have not 11 talked to Claire Sylvia since the motions were filed. I
12 got them on Friday.
13 THE COURT: Are the subpoenas due to be 14 returned today? Are they to come in today to testify?
15 MR. WEHNER: No, Wednesday.
16 THE COURT: Wednesday. They will want to come
17 in at sometime to consider those.
18 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I'll be glad to 19 contact them at this time.
20 THE COURT: well, I think we should do it
2 tomorrow.
2 MR. WEHNER: Tomorrow morning?
2 THE COURT: And so we're clear as to where
2 we're going in the case.
2 what do you have for this afternoon? Also the 2064

1 chart we'll talk about. what do you have for this

2 afternoon?

3 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I believe I have

4 three witnesses that are ready to testify this

5 afternoon, not including Miss Dean.

6 THE COURT: Have you had a chance, I know

7 you've been very busy both sides with these motions,

8 have you had a chance to look at the chart that was

9 revised this morning?

10 MR. WEHNER: No, sir.

11 THE COURT: All right. I'll indicate to 12 Independent Counsel, I will withhold ruling on the chart
13 until counsel for Miss Dean have a chance to go through 14 it. I've reviewed it only very briefly this morning
15 when I was supplied it and I appreciate counsel redoing
16 the chart again, but I will leave the case open for that 17 purpose and have the Government rest in all other 18 respects unless there's some other documents they have 19 not finished putting in and then announce to the jury
20 we're going to proceed with the defendant's case this
2 afternoon. But as far as the Government's case is

2 concerned, the chart still remains to be put in.
2 They're not waiving their rights to put that chart in by
2 starting the defendant's case. The defendant simply 2 hasn't had a chance to review it yet a second time.

2065

1 I still have some concerns about the chart, to

2 be candid with counsel, even in a brief review of it

3 this morning, and it may be best used for argument, but

4 I'll hear counsel about it.

5 All right, I'll take a recess now. I'm not

6 going to do anything further at this time. It's 12:30.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
7 we have to be back at 1:30 for the jury.

8 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, could I approach the 9 bench for two minutes on the issue of the witnesses this

10 afternoon?

11 THE COURT: Yes. Do you want counsel here?

12 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir, I didn't want to do

13 this in open Court.

14 (Bench conference)

15 MR. WEHNER: One of the witnesses we're

16 calling this afternoon is Janet Whitman, and

17 Miss Whitman who basically will testify that she was a

18 real estate agent, that Lou Kitchin was interested in

19 buying the Watergate condominium, et cetera, et cetera,

20 and the Independent Counsel is aware of that testimony.

2 The reason I want to make a motion in limine

2 regarding her cross-examination at this point is because

2 I understand that she made a statement to the grand jury

2 that at some point Miss Dean dabbled or experimented or

2 did something with cocaine and I would like to make sure

2066

(i 1 that there's no reference to that. I'd like to make
2 sure that nothing of that comes out on cross.

3 THE COURT: I think that's fair. I don't see

4 how this would be relevant to the issues before the

5 jury.

6 MR. O'NEILL: That's no problem, Judge. We're

7 not going to elicit the -in the grand jury I think she

8 was specifically asked about that. So she answered. We 9 will not ask anything about that.

10 THE COURT: All right.

11 MR. WEHNER: The other two witnesses, just so

12 you know, are Bruce Clinton and Withington,

13 Miss Withington.

14 THE COURT: Does anybody have any Fifth

15 Amendment problems that you can recall, now or later?

16 MR. WEHNER: I do. Miss Dean. • No, sir.

17 At this point Mr. O'Neill has agreed that

18 Secretary Pierce is unavailable for the purposes of the

19 hearsay rule, so I don't intend to try to subpoena him

20 and take up everybody's time.

2 MR. O'NEILL: There doesn't seem to be any

2 need to have Pierce come down here and invoke the Fifth.

2 I would think everybody here would be quite surprised if

2 he didn't.

2 THE COURT: well, I won't say anything. I'll bite my tongue on those motions as to where he was,

but -- all right.

Good afternoon.
Good afternoon.
I'm glad you all got here now. Ladies and 2069

1 Gentlemen, as you'll recall when we broke last Friday, the 2 government announced it intended to rest its case in chief. We
3 had a couple of matters to consider, legal issues we've taken up
4 and resolved, and the government has some charts it's proposed
5 that I'm still in the process of having reviewed. But excluding 6 that, the government has completed their case in chief and has 7 rested at this time.
8 As I mentioned to you on Friday, the defendant has an 9 opportunity but no burden absolutely under the presumptions of 10 innocence to produce evidence, and the defendant has announced
11 she intends to call certain witnesses and produce certain
12 evidence in this case. We're now turning towards the defendant's 13 side of the case, and what that means is defendant - counsel for

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR. WEHNER:

7 Q. Ms. Withington, do you know Deborah Gore Dean?
8 A. No.
9 Q. Have you ever met her?

10 A. No.
11 Q. Directing your attention to the time period 1986 and 1987,
12 what was your profession at the time?
13 A. I was a real estate broker.
14 Q. And how long had you been a real estate broker in the 15 District of Columbia?
16 A. Since 1980.
17 Q. Did you have occasion on, during that time period in '86 and 18 '87 to meet a person by the name of Gordon Dean?
19 A. Yes.

20 Q. would you please explain to the jury what occurred and how

21 you came to meet him?
22 A. I met Gordon, I think, back in 1983, when I sold him the 23 apartment that he lived in at 700 New Hampshire Avenue, and then 24 subsequently, he, I rented it for him when he moved out of the 25 area, and then I, he listed it for me for sale, with me for sale.

2071

1 Q. That address is the Watergate Complex, is it not?
2 A. Yes, it's the Watergate South Cooperative.
3 Q. Okay. Directing your attention to the name of Louis
4 Kitchin, did you have occasion to hear that name before?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. And how did you come to hear that name?
7 A. During the time that I had the listing, Gordon called me and 8 said that his sister had someone, a friend or acquaintance
9 interested in purchasing the apartment. As a matter of fact, he

10 said that he was going to buy it.

11 And at that time, I said we needed a contract, and he 12 said that I should talk with Janet Whitman, who is another real 13 estate agent, who would be acting as the selling agent.
14 Q. Was the condominium ultimately sold?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. I should say was the apartment ultimately sold?
17 A. It was ultimately sold.
18 Q. But it was not purchased by Mr. Kitchin; isn't that correct?
19 A. Correct.
20 MR. WEHNER: Nothing further, Your Honor.
2 THE COURT: All right.

2 CROSS EXAMINATION

2 BY MR. O'NEILL:

2 Q. Ms. Withington, did you ever meet Louis Kitchin?

2 A. No.

1 Q. Ms. Withington, to your knowledge, am I correct that 2 Mr. Kitchin never entered into a contract to buy Gordon Dean's
3 apartment?
4 A. Not to my knowledge.
5 MR. O'NEILL: Thank you, ma'am.
6 MR. WEHNER: Thank you very much, ma'am.
7 THE COURT: Nothing else? All right, thank you. I
8 appreciate it.
9 (Witness excused.)
10 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, may I walk out and get our 11 next witness?
12 THE COURT: Certainly.
13 MR. WEHNER: Thank you. May I use your side door,
14 Judge? It would save me a few minutes.
15 THE COURT: Yes. You've got to hold it open, or it
16 will lock on you.
17 MR. WEHNER: Yes.

19 DIRECT EXAMINATION
20 BY MR. WEHNER:
2 Q. Your name is Janet Whitman?
2 A. Yes. Yes.
2 Q. Do you know an individual by the name of Susan Withington?
2 A. I know of her, and I've spoken to her on the phone many
2 times. I've never actually met her.

2073

1 Q. Directing your attention to the time period of 1986 and
2 1987, did you have occasion to represent an individual with 3 relationship to the purchase of a condominium, Unit 1412 at the 4 Watergate Complex?
5 A. Yes, I did.
6 Q. Who was that person that you represented?
7 A. Mr. Lou Kitchin.
8 Q. As a result of your representation to Mr. Kitchin, did you
9 have conversations with Ms. Withington?

10 A. Yes, I did.
11 Q. And why did you have conversations with her?
12 A. She was the listing agent of Unit 1412. Is that the number
13 you gave me, 14- -- what was the number you just said?
14 Anyway, she was the listing agent of the apartment that

Dean Exhibit 208 marked for identification.
(Defendant's Exhibit No. 208 was
marked for identification.)

2 Q. And ask you if you recognize this document?

2 A. Yes, I do.

2 Q. What is it?

2 A. These are my notes that I made to myself about that time

1 that I showed Mr. Kitchin the apartment, and it is Unit 1412 at

2 the Watergate, Susan Withington being the listing broker. I have 3 made notations here of her phone number. I was probably having a
4 conversation with her as I jotted down the list price, what she 5 thought it might sell for, the fact that it was going to be 6 advertised in tomorrow's paper and that my client should 7 therefore hurry up and make an offer.

8 Q. Did you have --

9 A. These are my notes.

10 Q. Did you have conversations with Mr. Kitchin prior to that 11 date?

12 A. Yes. I met him -- Deborah introduced me to him. I showed 13 him 10 or more apartments at the Watergate and, I believe, at a 14 building in the southwest area, also, prior to the Watergate. He 15 liked the Watergate. He decided on this unit and wanted to 16 proceed and make an offer.

17 Q. Let me show you what I've marked for identification as Dean
18 Exhibit 209.

19 THE CLERK: Dean Exhibit 209 marked for identification.

20 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 209 was

2 marked for identification.)

2 BY MR. WEHNER:

2 Q. I ask if you recognize this document?

2 A. These are also notes to myself. This is a list of things to 2 do on the Friday after the Thursday that I had shown Mr. Kitchin a the apartment.

2 Q. Yes?

3 A. And right there for myself to do in the morning is to talk
4 to Lou Kitchin and Deborah regarding the apartment, and I have
5 written down the name Gordon, and that is the, who is the owner
6 of the apartment, Gordon Dean, being Deborah's brother. And I
7 also have Susan Withington's name to call next.

8 Q. Let me show you what I've marked for identification as Dean
9 Exhibit 210 and ask you if you recognize that?

10 THE CLERK: Dean Exhibit 210 marked for identification.

11 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 210 was
12 marked for identification.)

13 THE WITNESS: These are also notes to myself. This is 14 my plan to pick up Lou Kitchin and Deborah at 3:00 on Thursday to 15 show him the 10 apartments that I had lined up, and I was to pick 16 them up at 3:00 on Thursday at HUD.

17 BY MR. WEHNER:

18 Q. Okay. Did, in fact, that appointment take place?

19 A. Yes. I did, in fact, pick up Deborah and Mr. Kitchin. We 20 got in my car. We went to the building in the southwest area.
21 He didn't like that building very much.

22 We then proceeded on to the Watergate, and I showed him
23 about maybe eight or nine apartments there, one of which was the 24 one he decided that he liked and wanted to make an offer on.

25 Q. And was that the one owned by Ms. Dean's brother?

1 A. Yes, it was.

2 Q. Did you proceed from there to have drinks or cocktails?

3 A. Yes. That Thursday, after we looked at the apartments, it
4 was, you know, approaching maybe five or six o'clock, we went to 5 The Guards, and the three of us had cocktails: Deborah,
6 Mr. Kitchin, and myself.

7 Q. Directing your attention to, subsequent to that time period
8 when you had the cocktails at The Guards, did Mr. Kitchin
9 continue to express an interest in purchasing the condominium?

10 A. Yes, he did. He returned to Atlanta, and we spoke on the 11 phone quite a few times. He asked me to send him a contract of 12 purchase, which I did.

13 At the Watergate, there's a specific contract. It has 14 to be a Watergate contract. And I remember Fed Ex-ing it to him
15 in Atlanta, a blank one, maybe somewhat filled in, and talking to 16 him on the telephone long distance, encouraging him to go ahead
17 and fill it out and sign it and send it back to me so I could 18 present it for him.

19 Q. Did you ever, in fact, receive that contract back from him?

20 A. No, I never did, nor did I receive a deposit check from him.

2 Q. Let me show you what's been marked for identification as

2 Dean Exhibits 213 and 214 and ask you if you can identify those?

5 is the fact that he's coming back to Washington, and this was to 25 Ms. Dean was to have in relationship to the condominium purchased

1 by Mr. Kitchin?
2 A. She was going to decorate it for him. Deborah has always

7 CROSS EXAMINATION
8 BY MR. O'NEILL:
9 Q. Ms. Whitman, good morning -- good afternoon. Tell the jury

10 how long you've been friends with Ms. Dean.
11 A. Since 1967, the fall of 1967.
12 Q. And would you say she's one of your closest friends?
13 A. She has been during my lifetime.
14 Q. Okay. Now, Ms. Whitman, when did you first meet Lou
15 Kitchin?
16 A. I met him on that Thursday at 3:00 at HUD, when I picked he 17 and Deborah up to show him apartments.
18 Q. And that was in early 1987?
19 A. Yes, I believe January.
20 Q. And is it fair to say you met him on approximately five to 2 ten occasions during the calendar year 1987?

2 A. That is very fair, yes.
2 Q. And on each of those occasions, is it fair to say that you
2 met him at The Guards restaurant?
2 A. Yes, not --

2081

1 Q. Other than the one time that you went and looked at the
2 apartments?
3 A. I believe I showed him apartments twice.
4 Q. Okay. And what was that other time you showed him
5 apartments?
6 A. I'm not sure. It was subsequent to that first time.
7 Q. Do you have any notes suggesting when that might be?
8 A. No.

9 Q. Now on this first time you did show him the apartments, am I

10 correct that was in January of 1987?

11 A. I believe so.

12 Q. And am I also correct that you picked him up at HUD?

13 A. Yes, I'm sure of that.

14 Q. And he was with Deborah Dean at that time?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay. Did you go into HUD, or did they come out?

17 A. I might have called from the lobby, because I was sort of 18 just illegally parked in a circular driveway, and it was easier
19 to just call up and have them come down. I believe that's what 20 happened.

2 Q. Now, Ms. Whitman, you showed Mr. Kitchin several apartments;

2 is that correct?

2 A. Yes.

2 Q. And one of those apartments was owned by Gordon Dean?

2 A. Correct.

2082

1 Q. And you've testified that Mr. Kitchin was interested in that
2 apartment?

3 A. Very much so.

4 Q. Now you testified at one point you even sent him a contract.

5 A. Yes, I did.

6 Q. And do you have a copy of that contract, ma'am?

7 A. I do not, but I do have in my notes the fact that I picked 8 it up from Susan Withington. She left it for me at the 9 Watergate. As I noted to you earlier, it had to be a Watergate

10 contract.

11 Q. And did you note in your notes as to whether you ever took 12 that contract and sent it down to Louis Kitchin?

13 A. I remember sending it to him via Federal Express, I
14 remember, or some other overnight carrier, and I remember after 15 he had it talking to him on the phone about it and going through
16 it.

17 Q. Now, Ms. Whitman, do you remember talking to people at the 18 Office of Independent Counsel on February 5 of this year?

19 A. Yes, I do.

20 Q. And was I one of those people that were there?

2 A. Yes, you were.

2 Q. I'd show you a memorandum, and I'll mark it as Government's

2 Exhibit 510 --

2 MS. SWEENEY: 513.

2 MR. O'NEILL: I'm informed it's 513, Your Honor.

14 Q. Now, Ms. Whitman, I'd ask you as to your testimony, did you

15 send a contract to -

16 A. I remember sending him a contract.

17 Q. Okay.

18 A. I don't know who wrote what you just showed me, but it

19 wasn't me.

20 Q. Well, did you remember sending him a contract in February of 21 this year?

22 A. Say that again?

23 Q. Did you remember sending a contract to Lou Kitchin when you

24 were asked about that in February of this year?

25 A. Did I remember? I don't know what I said that day.

2084

1 Q. Well, you'd agree that your memory would be better in

2 February than it would be now as to events that happened before?

3 A. My memory is probably better now. The more time goes on,

4 the more I think about it, the more I can remember.

5 Q. So you've had time to think about this?

6 A. Um-hum.

7 Q. And you're represented by counsel today, right, ma'am?

8 A. Um-hum.

9 Q. Why are you represented by counsel?

10 A. I don't know what to say to that.

11 Q. Well, I'm asking you.

12 A. I thought it was the thing to do.

13 Q. Are you paying for it?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And how much are you paying?

16 MR. WEHNER: Objection, Judge.

17 THE COURT: All right, I'll sustain it. It's not

18 relevant.

19 THE WITNESS: Initially when I was --

20 BY MR. O'NEILL:

2 Q. Excuse me, ma'am. And is that your testimony, that you're 2 paying for counsel?

2 A. Yes, I am paying for my own counsel, with my own money which
2 I have earned.

2 Q. And what are you doing right now, ma'am?

A. I sell real estate.

2 Q. Okay. Are you very good at your job?

3 A. I'm pretty good.

4 I also have a salaried position as an office manager

5 for a real estate company, which doesn't pay much, but I also

6 sell on the side, and I've been pretty lucky and had some sales.

7 Q. Now you do not have a copy of the contract that you sent

8 Mr. Kitchin; is that correct?

9 A. No, I do not, but it was a standard Watergate contract.

10 Q. Now you stated that Mr. Kitchin was going to have Ms. Dean

11 furnish her apartment.

12 A. Yes, that's correct.

13 Q. And did you hear them talk about money to do that?

14 A. No, I did not.

15 Q. Did you ever hear of them talk about any loans or anything

16 like that?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Now Mr. Kitchin never bought that apartment; is that 19 correct, Ms. Whitman?

20 A. Not that I know of. He did not buy it through me. I, in 21 fact, don't know if he ever bought it or not.

22 Q. Have you ever seen Mr. Kitchin after those events in 1987?

23 A. No, I have not.

24 Q. Did you ever see him with Ms. Dean after that?

25 A. I really don't think so, no.

2086

1 Q. Now as to the apartment, did you ever see an executed sales

2 contract?

3 A. No, I never saw an executed sales contract.

4 Q. And did you ever receive a commission for it?

5 A. Never received a commission for it.

6 Q. If it had sold through Mr. Kitchin, would you have received
7 a sales commission?

8 A. If he had bought it through me as his agent, I would have

9 received a sales commission. He could have bought it without me,

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
10 and because it's a co-op, it's not published, he could have

5 A. Yes, I do.
6 THE COURT: Could I get his name for the record?
7 MR. WEHNER: Yes, Your Honor. Bruce Clinton,
8 C-1-i-n-t-o-n.
9 THE COURT: Thank you.

10 THE WITNESS: "E" is the middle initial, Your Honor.
11 THE COURT: Thank you.
12 BY MR. WEHNER:
13 Q. Mr. Clinton, you have had in your career dealings with HUD;
14 is that correct?
15 A. Yes, I have.
16 Q. Would you please describe to the jury your dealings with 17 HUD, when they began and generally what they consisted of?
18 A. My companies began its dealings with HUD in roughly 1973 or 19 1974, and I was interested in some projects that were in default
20 in the western suburbs of Chicago, and that evolved into an
2 appointment of our companies as managing agents for two very

2 large, very troubled projects in Chicago totaling about 2,000
2 units.
2 The first transaction was not related to the second.
2 It's just that we started with them in '73 or '74.

1 Q. would you describe what occurred with those projects over
2 time up until the present, please, sir?

3 A. It's a long story. Beginning in October of 1975, my 4 companies, as I said, were appointed managing agents of these two 5 large, high-rise structures in the city. Both of them were in 6 just deplorable condition, and we took on the management
7 responsibility.

8 In 1981, we acquired one of the two projects, a project
9 called Regents Park, and subject to what's called a provisional
10 workout agreement with HUD, we agreed to invest virtually 100
11 percent of our resources, both financial and, and human, in the 12 rehabilitation of this very unusual project. It's right on the 13 south side of the city, and it's right on the edge of the 14 University of Chicago.

15 And from '81 to about the fourth quarter of 1985, we 16 undertook to fulfill our commitments under the provisional
17 workout agreement.

18 Q. During that time period, were you in contact with the local 19 Chicago HUD office?

20 A. Very extensively.

2 Q. And what was your understanding as to the way, as to your
2 relationship with them at that time?

2 A. Well, I suspect in this forum I can't really do it justice,
2 but I would say probably in all fairness, in the entire United
2 States, the most highly visible adversary relationship with HUD

1 of any ongoing real estate company probably was ours. We have

(i

2 had massive battles, substantial litigation.

I don't know if you want me to go into this much

4 detail, but in December of 1992, just last December 20, I was the

5 subject of a "60 Minutes" -- a 15-minute segment of "60 Minutes."

6 All of the Chicago newspapers covered the matter in front-page

7 stories and extensive articles. A number of other television

8 stations and networks have covered the thing. The Wall Street

9 Journal covered it.

10 I'm not sure that's responsive to your question,

11 counsel, but my own judgment would be that there probably

12 wouldn't be any more high-profile adversarial relationship in 13 that troubled agency's history than mine.

14 Q. Okay. Directing your attention to the time period 1983 and 15 1984, was your relationship with HUD troubled at that time?

16 A. 1983, I'm sorry, would you ask --

17 Q. Well, let's take it '83 to '87 is probably a fairer

18 question.

19 A. '83 to '87, was it troubled? In the extreme, yes.

20 Q. Directing your attention to that same time period, did you have occasion to meet Deborah Gore Dean?

2 A. Yes, I did.

2 Q. And how did you have occasion to meet Ms. Dean?

2 A. It's --

2 Q. Well, let's stop for a second. What was your understanding

2090

1 before you met her as to who she was?

2 A. Before I met her, I had only heard of her by reputation very 3 peripherally. I didn't even have a clear understanding of who
4 she was. I knew she was some official. I mean, I knew the name;
5 it's a well known name, but I really didn't know much about her
6 at all up until the time I first met her.

7 Q. Okay. When approximately do you recall meeting her?

8 A. I'm going to say I think it was about 1986, maybe '87,
9 probably, yeah, right around '86-'87 period.

10 Q. Okay. And for purposes of the trial, we deal in best
11 recollections, so please don't guess. Just give us your best 12 recollection. And your best recollection is it was in 1986 or 13 1987?

14 A. Yes. I would say more likely '87 but -

15 Q. Okay. How did you meet Ms. Dean?

16 A. I'm a little uncomfortable trying to express the answer out
17 of context. If you could visualize a prolonged period of 18 intensive community and political and, and media attention
19 focused on this project -- if I may explain first of all, what 20 happened was we cut a deal with HUD that said that HUD would,
2 would -- we would take over this project, we would buy the
2 troubled project, we would fix it up, and we would overcome
2 community resistance to the project, and if we were successful
2 and only if we were successful, HUD was obligated to restructure
2 the mortgage.

2091

1 So to be clear with you, we acquired title, but the
2 restructuring of the mortgage, the restructuring of the long-term
3 financial obligations on the project was discretionary as to HUD.
4 The problem was the only deal they would cut was you had to put 5 all your money in and five years of your human resources in on 6 the front end, and then HUD at the end of the day, if they liked
7 what you did, would say, "well, okay, you did a good job. Here's 8 a restructured mortgage."
9 So with that, with that background, what took place was 10 we did our undertakings, and by, by an order stipulated in 11 federal court in Chicago, we did an exemplary job. It was 12 really, not to be too self-serving, but it was a spectacular
13 result. It really was very successful.
14 So we wound up with the project completely
15 reconstituted and really a very, very good operating project. We 16 then approached HUD in, I think, December of 1985 or 1986 and 17 asked them to fulfill their commitments. Beginning in 1985 and 18 until high noon of April Fool's Day this year, we struggled with 19 HUD through one administration after another to try to get them
20 to consummate their transaction.
2 In that context, understandably at the outset, it was 2 really just a dispute between a private sector firm -- I've got a
2 group of small companies, and we aren't exactly, I guess the 2 Washington term is movers and shakers. We weren't anything like
2 that. So we, we were basically trying to go about the process of 2092

1 getting them to fulfill their commitments.
2 And as this thing went along and as more and more
3 people became aware of the problems and it picked up more
4 community support, I'm talking about grass roots support, more
5 and more people in the political process became involved.
6 As a result of that, in about 1987 roughly, I was asked
7 to attend a meeting in the office of Congressman Henry Hyde, who 8 was a prominent Republican member of Congress from Illinois, and 9 through an intermediary friend -- I didn't know Congressman Hyde
10 that well at all, but through an intermediary friend, I attended 11 this meeting. Representing the Secretary of Housing as his 12 executive assistant was Deborah Gore Dean, and that was the first 13 time I met her.
14 Q. And did you take part in a meeting with Ms. Dean?
15 A. I did. There was a meeting at that time.
16 Q. Okay. What is -- give us your understanding of what 17 occurred at the meeting based on your attendance there.
18 A. Well, Ms. Dean showed up late and expressed right off the 19 bat that she was appearing in behalf of the Secretary of Housing, 20 Mr. Pierce. She listened carefully, took notes. At the end of 2 the meeting, she said, "I will take this matter back, and I will
2 conduct an investigation of the matter, and I will be in touch
2 with your counsel and let him know if anything can be done or if
2 anything will be done, and if so, what."
2 If I may say parenthetically, when I left that meeting,

2093

1 you can imagine I made it my business to find out every single
2 thing I could about who Deborah Dean was and what her background
3 was and what role she played and how the decision-making process
4 flowed in HUD, because it seemed to me that at that moment in

5 time, our destiny rested in the hands of this little lady that 6 walked in the room.

7 Q. Did you come to an understanding of what Ms. Dean's role was 8 at HUD?

9 A. Oh, yes, very much so.

10 Q. And what was that understanding?

11 A. Ms. Dean was, in the parlance of organization, Ms. Dean was 12 a staff person. She was an administrative assistant to the 13 president --to the secretary. She had a capacity to develop an 14 opinion, to advise the secretary, to recommend her point of view,
15 but I was absolutely positive that she was at no time in a
16 position of discretionary authority in terms of the disposition
17 of our matter; that is, she could not -- she couldn't say yes or 18 no. What she could do would be to advise the secretary. And she 19 spoke for him. She would do investigations for him of things,
20 and then she would advise him.

2 And my understanding, candidly, was that she had a very

2 forceful, very sometimes exasperating style, and she stepped on a
2 lot of toes.

2 So my, in all honesty, my view was if we could win over

2 Ms. Dean, if we could win her over to our side of the issue, we

2094

1 were well on the way to getting the damn thing finished, and
2 that's what I wanted to do.

3 Q. Based on your conversations and your experience at that 4 time, did you form an opinion as to her honesty, character, and 5 integrity?

6 A. Counsel, my reason for being here today, I am not under 7 subpoena; I came here today voluntarily, because I wanted to say
8 in this courtroom that at no time, in any way, under any 9 circumstances did Ms. Dean in any way even cut a corner, to the 10 best of our knowledge, and, and our dealings with her extended I
11 don't know how many months in all, but absolutely positively I
12 want to say to you that she -- and our experience wasn't 13 necessarily always pleasant, wasn't accessible. You couldn't 14 reach her by phone. I mean, it was a kind of a helter-skelter
15 thing.

16 But in terms of the fundamental integrity of the way in 17 which she went about the thing, at all times, every position that 18 she took -- and if you folks live in this area, you know, as they 19 say, don't watch what they say; watch what they do. The nature, 20 the way in which she behaved was absolutely inconsistent with 2 someone who was dealing for her own account, the kinds of 2 comments that she would make, the kinds of decisions that she
2 made.

2 I don't want to go on too much, but let me just say

2 that in our situation, we had a firm deal, and we expected the 2095

1 government to live up to the deal that they made with us, and
2 when Ms. Dean got into the thing and got involved, at the end of 3 the day, she insisted on still a better deal, and my position was 4 hell, no. A deal is a deal. You should do what you agreed to.

5 And her position was that in the interests of fairness and the 6 interests of trying to protect the department's interests, she 7 wanted a little bit better deal. We ultimately agreed.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
8 But I can only say emphatically that in every single 9 respect, she seemed to be motivated by the things that she

10 thought were best for the program or, in the alternative, for

11 Secretary Pierce.

12 MR. WEHNER: I have nothing further, Your Honor.

13 CROSS EXAMINATION

14 BY MR. O'NEILL:

15 Q. Mr. Clinton, is it fair to say you're not a very big fan of

16 HUD?

17 A. Definitely.

18 Q. And is it fair to say you're not a very big fan of Tom

19 Demery?

20 A. That is also true.

2 Q. Okay. Now your dealings on Regents Park at first were
2 principally with Tom Demery; is that correct?

2 A. No, sir.

2 Q. Okay, excuse me. Let me go to the 1987 time frame.

2 A. Then you would be right. I had a brief period of time when

2096

1 I was dealing with Mr. Demery.

2 Q. And is it fair to say that at that time, his title was
3 Assistant Secretary for Housing?

4 A. Yes, sir. FHA commissioner, right.

5 Q. And you found him pretty much hard to move on this issue.

6 He seemed to be predisposed against you. Would that be a fair
7 assessment in your opinion?

8 A. No, sir.

9 Q. Okay. Did you find that his assessment of what the value of 10 the property was differed quite substantially with your own?

11 A. I don't want to be troublesome to you, counsel --

12 Q. No, that's fine.

13 A. Let me answer you this way: Our perception of Mr. Demery --

14 and I don't know Mr. Demery well. As you say, I don't have a

15 particularly high regard for him, but my perception of Mr. Demery

16 is exactly the distinction I was trying to draw earlier.

17 Mr. Demery always had two or three agendas floating at 18 any one time. He just didn't have a clear understanding of where

19 he was. We had heard parenthetically that Mr. Demery's interest

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

20 was to take Regents Park from us by declining to consummate the 2 deal that had been made, to take Regents Park from us and turn it

2 over to a man with whom he had done business before he became
2 assistant secretary.

2 That kind of distinction at no time ever occurred with

2 Ms. Dean. That was the point I'm trying to make.

2097

1 Q. Let's get to that. You keep talking about a deal that had
2 originally been made.

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. Was that made with a former FHA commissioner at HUD at the 5 very beginning?

6 A. You know, I don't know the answer to that. It was made, it
7 was made with a competent authority at HUD, and that's what the 8 federal district court found in Chicago, so -

9 Q. Let me see if this refreshes your recollection. Was the 10 previous FHA commissioner that made the original deal Philip 11 Winn?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Okay.

14 A. No. Can I just clarify this? Because I think I know what
15 you -16

Q. Go right ahead.

17 A. Philip Winn at one of the transition points of this whole
18 process had some dealings on it, but as I recall, Mr. Winn never 19 actually even entered into a firm decision on it.

20 Q. When you say he had some dealings, was that in his private
2 capacity, or was it in his capacity at HUD?

2 A. I'm talking in response to your question only in his
2 capacity at HUD. After he left HUD, he became a consultant, and 2 I was, I was tangentially involved with him then. He was really
2 a consultant of the University of Chicago.

2098

1 Q. Okay. Later on, a community group with the University of
2 Chicago -- and does the name Jonathan, I think it's Kleinbard --

3 A. Kleinbard, yes. He's vice president of the university.

4 Q. Did they hire Philip Winn as a consultant?

5 A. Yes, they did.

6 Q. Now, Mr. Clinton, there was an appraisal issue as to the 7 value of the property, was there not?

8 A. There were roughly a dozen appraisals.

9 Q. Okay. Let's talk about 1987. Is it fair to say at that

10 time, you had submitted an appraisal issue that the property was 11 worth approximately $19 million?

12 A. I honestly don't remember, but I'm sure you're probably 13 right if it says that.

14 Q. And further to refresh your recollection, Tom Demery said
15 that the property was worth $33 million, and that's what you'd 16 have to pay HUD, and that was one of the big trouble spots?

17 A. I know nothing about what Mr. Demery testified to, but I
18 want to tell you emphatically that was not the case. Mr. Demery
19 took the position that A, in the first instance, he didn't know
20 what it was worth. In the second instance, the 19 million
2 sounded fine.

2 Then when he was, when he was striving to become
2 confirmed as assistant secretary, his position was he didn't want
2 to take any position on value or dispose of the matter until 2 after his confirmation. After his confirmation, sir, he took the

2099

1 position that, in fact, the value was irrelevant to the way he
2 intended to administer the program, and the value, as he put it,
3 floated. All he wanted to do was to get a structure of a deal.
4 So I'm not being argumentative, believe me. All I'm 5 trying to say is Mr. Demery never took any honest-to-goodness
6 factual position. It was always just sort of evolving around
7 some other point.
8 Q. So you had trouble dealing with Tom Demery on this issue?
9 A. Anybody who wasn't in a certain click had trouble dealing
10 with Mr. Demery.
11 Q. And you didn't have any problems with Ms. Dean on this 12 issue?
13 A. I had plenty of problems with Ms. Dean. This is not a love
14 feast with Ms. Dean. All I say about Ms. Dean was her clear
15 motivation, her way of conducting her business was altogether
16 different than sort of a rat pack of guys that were involved in 17 HUD at that time.
18 Q. It's your testimony, I gather, that Tom Demery had a hidden
19 interest in Regents Park going to someone else?
20 A. That was what I heard. I'm not saying that that's factual.
2 I'm saying that that was the rumour in Chicago at that time.
2 Q. And you felt that to be true by your dealings with him?
2 A. In all honestly, I probably did, yes, although I don't have 2 any facts to that.
2 Q. And, Mr. Clinton, you find it rather abhorrent that a

2100

(i
1 government official would have a hidden interest, don't you?
2 A. You know, it sounds altruistic. I suppose all of us have a
3 hidden interest. I think that what I find difficult is the 4 extent to which so many people at that particular time in history
5 were subrogating or, or putting in an inferior position the 6 legitimate interests of a community or of the programs or of the 7 National Housing Act in pursuit of their own private agendas, and 8 I thought Mr. Demery was. I never thought Ms. Dean was.
9 Q. Okay. So for Regents Park, you found it distasteful that 10 Tom Demery, who should have been looking out for the community,
11 was actually looking out for someone he favored; is that true?
12 A. I felt, I felt Mr. Demery, for whatever reason, was not 13 willing to go ahead and, and consummate the transaction that had 14 been agreed to by a prior administration. I heard that one of 15 the explanations -- there were two explanations that were 16 offered, if you want me to say, counsel.
17 One was that he had another major developer in Chicago
18 that he wanted to hand the deal to, and the second possibility
19 was that he was upset because Senator Dixon, who was very 20 interested in our case, had inquired of him -- he was a member of 2 the House -- I'm sorry, of the Senate Banking Committee, I think
(Rectangle comment Administrator

2 it is, the committee that confirms the Assistant Secretary for 2 Housing -- inquired of Mr. Demery prior to his confirmation, and 2 word reached me through the University of Chicago, as a matter of 2 fact, that Mr. Demery took the position that I attempted to 1 impede his confirmation or inject myself into his confirmation.

2 In fact, I wouldn't have had the capacity to if I wanted to.
3 So those were the two explanations that were offered
4 generally and widely. It's been written in the press and on 5 television, everything. Those were the explanations that were 6 given as to Mr. Demery's resistance to consummating the 7 transaction.

8 Q. Are you finished, sir?

9 A. I'm sorry. Yes, sir.

10 Q. Now let me ask my question again: Was it because you felt
11 Tom Demery had a hidden interest that you felt you couldn't deal
12 with him? And did you find that distasteful?

13 A. I felt that was one possibility.

14 Q. Is there something wrong with a government official having a 15 hidden interest when dealing with the private citizens?

16 A. If it interferes with their competent and, and honorable
17 discharge of their responsibilities, you bet I do.

18 Q. Thank you, sir.

19 A. Not at all.

9 primarily in that regard in terms of scheduling. It strikes
10 me -- and I discussed this with Mr. O'Neill -
11 that we'll
12 probably be finished with this case on Wednesday, and if we can 13 have a charge conference Thursday and close Tuesday, that's 14 acceptable to both sides.
15 THE COURT: Sure, okay. Yes, because Friday I'm tied 16 up in this FBI case all day, so Thursday would be the best way to 17 do it. If it works out time-wise, that's fine.
18 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, in terms of instructions then,
19 obviously, not to put any time frame, but what would be, what 20 would you like? I know you'd like it as soon as possible.
21 THE COURT: All I want is any particular substantive 22 ones you have.
23 MR. O'NEILL: Okay.
24 THE COURT: I'll give standard, everyday ones, and I
25 can give you a pretty good example of those, but if you have any particular ways you want to express the conspiracy and perjury

2104

1 instructions, I have a copy of the ones used in George by
2 independent counsel recently which go to perjury and the same
3 kind of coverup charges, as well as the conspiracies I've given
4 and other people have given in that area, but you can supply the 5 particular ones you want. You don't need the general impeachment
6 or whatever.
7 MR. O'NEILL: Okay.
8 THE COURT: I'll have that printed up and give them to 9 you all to look at.
10 (End of bench conference.)
11 THE COURT: All right. Ladies and Gentlemen, the 12 schedule is such we got through these witnesses in an hour
13 instead of two hours. We all thought it would take a lot longer
14 today. So we're going to have to let you go for this evening.
15 We would have had you come in in a different time frame if I had 16 known that, but things went a lot faster on both sides than we 17 anticipated.
18 Your afternoon snack has already been ordered, and we 19 have to pay for it, so you're welcome to stay around for it if 20 you want, or you can leave without waiting for it. If you leave
21 and there are any cookies left, we'll take care of them. You
22 don't have to worry about that.

23 We're going to let you go then. Tomorrow there will be 24 testimony of witnesses and on Wednesday, and perhaps we may be,
25 we just talked over time frame, concluding the witnesses this

1 week and then arguments to the jury and my instructions to you
2 next week. Next week is a holiday week. Monday the 14th is 3 Columbus Day, which will be an official holiday --or the 12th,
4 whatever that day is. The 11th is Monday, would be a holiday.
5 So we'd probably come back on the 12th then for, if
6 we're as advanced as we think we are, for closing arguments,
7 instructions, and beginning deliberations. That's subject to 8 modification, depending on how long the witnesses take for the 9 rest of this week. But in any event, I think we can safely say
10 by sometime next week, the case will be to you for a deliberation
11 stage, either Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday next week if you're 12 looking at your schedule for getting back to your normal lives.
13 All right, we'll take a recess now. Again, it's a 14 Monday night football with the Redskins, so you may watch it, but

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
15 just try to get a little rest so you'll be here tomorrow.
16 We expect a full day tomorrow. I am going to start a 17 half-an-hour late tomorrow, because I have some other matters to 18 take up, so it will be 10:00. So if you do stay up until one 19 watching the game, you don't have to get here until ten in the 20 morning, all right? Not 9:30, but 10:00 tomorrow morning. So
2 we'll see you tomorrow morning at 10:00 a.m. please.

2 Remember the admonitions again. There may be something
2 in the paper, on the news, radio, television, or in the newspaper
2 about it, and I don't want you to listen, to watch, or read
2 anything about this case. If there are any articles about it, be

2106

1 very careful. Don't let anyone talk to you about it or show you
2 those articles or talk among yourselves on the way out tonight.
3 we'll see you back tomorrow morning at 10:00 in the 4 morning. Tomorrow afternoon, we'll sit until about 4:30. I have 5 another matter at 4:30, so you'll be out by 4:30 in the 6 afternoon. It will be a regular day wednesday. We'll see about 7 Thursday, all right? We will not be sitting this Friday, not 8 this Friday at all, this Friday. All right.
9 (Jury out.)
10 THE COURT: All right, we'll take up tomorrow morning
11 at 9:30 the motions to quash the witnesses and the charts and 12 diagrams that have been offered by the government, and then we'll 13 go ahead with the witnesses starting tomorrow and into wednesday, 14 see where you are then as to the charge conference on Thursday or 15 if we're still finishing witnesses. All right.

1 PROCEEDING S
2 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Criminal number 92-181,
3 United States of America versus Deborah Gore Dean. We
4 have Robert O'Neill and Paula Sweeney for the
5 Government. Stephen Wehner for Miss Dean.
6 THE COURT: Good morning.
7 MR. WEHNER: Good morning, Your Honor.
8 THE COURT: we've got motions to quash I want
9 to take up this morning and then also the charts if 10 they're ready to be considered.
11 Are counsel here for the motions to quash.
12 MS. SYLVIA: Yes, Your Honor.
13 THE COURT: Good morning. For the record
14 you're -
15 MS. SYLVIA: Good morning, I'm Claire Sylvia
Page 1190

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
16 from the Office of Senate Legal Counsel and I'm 17 representing former Senator Proxmire, Bart Naylor and 18 Lory Brenneman.
19 THE COURT: All right. You filed a motion to 20 quash, in part, a subpoena for the Clerk and the motions
21 to quash the testimony of Mr. Proxmire and Mr. Naylor.
22 Is one of Mr. Proxmire's objections was,
23 besides it not being material, is that he does not 24 remember anything?
25 MS. SYLVIA: That's right.

2111

1 THE COURT: Does he have some illness or is he
2 such a busy person he doesn't remember what he did?
3 MS. SYLVIA: No. He's 77 years old. This all
4 took place six years ago and he just doesn't have a very
5 clear memory of what took place at the time. He can 6 certainly come in and say that.
7 We invited the defendant's counsel and the 8 defendant to come interview him, which they did, and 9 they asked him about his memory of the events and he 10 recounted that he didn't recall, that he had tried to 11 read the transcript and see if he could remember the 12 events, and he still didn't remember. So he could 13 testify based on having read that but not having a
14 direct recollection.
15 THE COURT: So he couldn't testify as to any 16 misrepresentations or not Miss Dean may have made to him
17 and how that would have affected the process of the 18 Committee.
19 MS. SYLVIA: He can testify to, as a general
20 matter, whether that kind of question might be important
21 to the Committee. He can testify based on a direct 22 recollection of the actual events but all of that will 23 go to the question of materiality which the Court's 24 already ruled upon.
25 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Naylor, the 2112

1 objection is on what basis? There's no relevant
2 testimony he could give?
3 MS. SYLVIA: Right, the objection would be
4 similar to that made on behalf of former Senator
5 Proxmire, that Mr. Naylor, who was the investigator for 6 the Committee at the time, could only testify about the 7 materiality of the questions. He helped investigate and 8 prepare the questions, but all that would go to the 9 issue of whether the questions were material to the 10 Committee, and the Court's already ruled on that.
11 Beyond that, Mr. Naylor doesn't have any 12 testimony that would be relevant to the issues in the 13 case.

14 THE COURT: There was some cross-examination
15 of an issue of materiality as to Mr. Naylor's actions in 16 this matter, political motivations. His recruiting
17 witnesses against Miss Dean, et cetera.

18 MS. SYLVIA: That's right, but the defense
19 counsel had an opportunity to cross-examine Ken Me Lean, 20 who was the staff director at the time, about that. We
2 don't think bias of the Committee members or the people

2 who work for them is an issue that can be inquired
2 into. It's not relevant to the issue of materiality.
2 And we cited a couple of cases to that effects, Cross
2 and Icardi in the motion to quash Senator Proxmire's

2113

1 subpoena, but nevertheless the defendant's counsel did
2 have a chance to ask those questions and didn't indicate
3 that he needed to ask further questions of Mr. Naylor
4 during that hearing.

5 THE COURT: All right.
6 And finally, the -- all right. The clerk of 7 the Committee, Brenneman, seeks to quash documents that
8 were subpoenaed, either in general all HUD type
9 documents or particular ones they say are communications
10 relating to the inquiry between the Committee members
11 and staff members on the ground, they're what, they're 12 privileged?

13 MS. SYLVIA: That's right, they're internal 14 communications between members and their staff which are 15 privileged under the Speech and Debate Clause, but we 16 have provided the defendant and her counsel access to 17 all the documents from the nomination hearing and from 18 the files on the defendant from the HUD Mod Rehab

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
19 investigation, other than internal notes and memoranda.
20 THE COURT: All right.
2 MS. SYLVIA: All the documents that relate to 2 her specifically.
2 THE COURT: And that Speech and Debate Clause,
2 the authority you cited for that – is there one federal
2 rules decision case?

2114

1 MS. SYLVIA: It was a case out of the District
2 Court of Maine. That's about the specific proposition
3 about internal communications, but the other cases cited
4 there would also support the proposition that anything
5 that the members do in their legislative capacity which 6 is related to consideration of legislation or other
7 matters such as nominations which are under the 8 jurisdiction of the Senate will be protected under the 9 clause, but the Committee hasn't chosen to assert the 10 privilege with respect to all of the documents, just the 11 internal communications.
12 THE COURT: All right. Okay.
13 Thank you, Miss Sylvia.
14 All right, Mr. Wehner. Good morning.
15 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor. Good
16 morning.
17 Your Honor, the premise of the motion to quash
18 is wrong. The Supreme Court held in United States v
19 Brewster, "The political activities including 20 constituent service, newsletters, speech outside of 2 Congress and the lobbying of executive agencies is not
2 covered by the clause." That's specific language out of 2 the United States Supreme Court.
2 There is no Speech and Debate Clause issue
2 raised by the issuance of these subpoenas.

2115

1 The testimony expected to be elicited from
2 Mr. Proxmire is directly relevant to Miss Dean's intent
3 when she was answering the questions. It is not
4 relevant to materiality. It may be additionally 5 relevant to materiality, but we don't subpoena him on

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
6 that issue. Your Honor has already ruled on 7 materiality. You could have found it material based
8 on -9

THE COURT: Explain to me how her intent was 10 tied into what Senator Proxmire heard?

11 MR. WEHNER: No, sir, it's not tied into what 12 Senator Proxmire heard. The evidence regarding intent
13 is by definition circumstantial. It's circumstantial
14 for the Government and it's circumstantial for the 15 defense.

16 From the defense perspective the central
17 premise of Senator Proxmire's -- of Senator Proxmire's
18 statements and Senator Proxmire's attitude and what 19 Senator Proxmire knew at the time goes directly to 20 whether Miss Dean intended to mislead or intended to
2 testify falsely in front of the Committee.
2 The reason it goes to that, Judge, is because
2 none of this occurred in a vacuum, none of this occurred
2 in a vacuum. This was not a situation in which a
2 witness was called up there that was -- had not been

2116

1 involved in controversy previously, that was not well

2 known to the Committee, that had not been investigated,

3 put upon, harassed, taken unpopular positions, denied

4 Congressional requests, accepted Congressional requests,

5 overruled requests that the Department backed down on

6 fair housing legislation, worked around certain

7 Senators, made certain Senators angry, so angry that

8 they were happy that they had nailed her to the cross,

9 which is a matter of record. And that evidence goes to 10 show circumstantially that Miss Dean would not have 11 intended to mislead the very Senator who was out to get 12 her. That makes no sense, Judge.

13 Secondly, if Miss Dean testifies, which I
14 anticipate that she will, what she meant by the 15 responses to her questions -- by the responses to his 16 questions, because of his knowledge and her prior 17 dealings with him, that is directly corroborative of her
18 testimony.

19 Now, I hate to go back to the same analogy,
20 it's kind of the lights on analogy.

2 THE COURT: If Senator Proxmire had one

2 understanding, what about all the other members of the 2 committee who had to vote and pass on this candidate as 2 to her qualifications and fitness for office in the

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 management of HUD programs? wouldn't you have to call

2117

1 each member in under your theory to show what her intent

2 was, the circumstantial theory again?

3 MR. WEHNER: No. I couldn't do that, I don't

4 think.

5 Number one, I couldn't do that because Senator

6 Proxmire kept this from coming to a vote and prevented

7 it from even being voted on, and the issue as to alleged

8 perjury was investigated and dropped by the General

9 Accounting Office based on her testimony.

10 But, number two, this is not a disinterested
11 questioner, Judge. This is someone with a motive and a 12 bias and a reason to do what he was doing, and I submit 13 to you it's very different from the type of set-up that 14 you would normally see in a perjury case where the 15 prosecutor is asking questions in the grand jury, or a 16 Judge is supervising the questions. This was a
17 political circus.

18 And the testimony -- if Proxmire actually gets 19 on the witness stand under oath and says he doesn't
20 remember, which I take some -- I'm a little bit
2 incredulous that he would actually do that. We've had

2 witnesses here talking about events that are ten years
2 ago that are fairly fresh in their minds apparently.
2 And during our interview with Senator Proxmire frankly,
2 Judge, he was hostile, but as an officer of the Court I

2118

1 can represent to the Judge I don't know what he's going

2 to say when he gets on the witness stand.

3 He said at that point that he didn't remember

4 much and referred us to his -- to his recorded questions

5 and Miss Dean's answers and his testimony in front of 6 the Lantos Committee.

7 And if Your Honor will recall, he was one of 8 the individuals who basically congratulated the Lantos

9 Committee for uncovering all this scandal of HUD.

10 I'm afraid I've lost track of Your Honor's

11 question.

12 THE COURT: well, we were focusing on this
13 intent issue as to its relevance in Mr. Proxmire's
14 testimony, and other members of the Committee, and you
15 indicated he had prohibited it from coming to a vote, so
16 they couldn't vote on her qualifications. But let me
17 move on a bit beyond Senator Proxmire to Bart Naylor as 18 to, again, his relevance of his bias or prejudice
19 against Miss Dean while he was working for the 20 Committee, as material or relevant to her answers that
2 she gave to questions asked by Senator Proxmire.

2 MR. WEHNER: I don't think his bias against
2 Miss Dean or the bias -- let me be absolutely clear on
2 this, Judge, or the bias against Senator Proxmire
2 against Miss Dean or the bias of Bart Naylor against

2119

1 Miss Dean is the basis for calling them. They have a
2 bias, but that's not the basis. The basis is that the 3 circumstantial evidence surrounding the time, the exact
4 time that these statements were made, is such that 5 Miss Dean was under such tremendous pressure, that she
6 had been investigated so far, the actions of Bart
7 Naylor -- that Bart Naylor undertook, the action that 8 Senator Proxmire undertook, that she would have had to 9 have been crazy to intentionally commit perjury in front

10 of that Committee.

11 Now, Judge, this is not bias. It's not 12 materiality. It's circumstantial evidence of her intent

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
13 on the precise day she answered the questions.
14 THE COURT: All right.
15 Let me go to the final witness, Lory Brenneman
16 as Clerk, who indicates that he produced certain records
17 for you that were relevant to Miss Dean's subpoena,
18 excluding staff notes and communications between members
19 of Congress and the staff related to two inquiries that 20 were conducted during that timeframe, and not produced
2 any and all documents spanning the entire nine-year

2 timeframe but did produce documents related to
2 Miss Dean.
2 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I agree that the
2 language in the subpoena with regard to all documents

2120

1 for that nine-year period is overbroad and I withdraw
2 that request. The internal Committee documents relating
3 conversations between staff and the Committee as those
4 relate to Miss Dean's nomination and the hearing
5 process, again, are directly relevant and corroborative
6 of what I intend -- expect Miss Dean's testimony to be 7 as to the circumstances surrounding that hearing.

8 Now, Judge, there are very few people that can 9 testify independently about what was going on at that 10 time and place. Secretary Pierce is unavailable, as 11 stipulated to by the Independent Counsel. The other
12 Senators of that Committee would be similarly postured
13 with motions to quash if we had issued subpoenas, which 14 we considered, to all the members of the Committee but 15 we thought that might be a little much, frankly.
16 Senator Proxmire and Bart Naylor were the two
17 main players and the two with the most information
18 corroborative of Miss Dean's testimony as to the 19 circumstances of her testimony. And I think that goes 20 back to something Your Honor raised earlier, wouldn't we
2 have to call all the Senators? I suppose at some point,

2 yes, but you would eventually say it's cumulative and
2 that there was no reason to go any further.
2 But to suggest that the testimony is only to
2 show some bias on the part of Senator Proxmire and Bart

2121

1 Naylor, that's not the purpose of the testimony, Judge,
2 and you can't avoid, frankly, in my judgment, the 3 compelling legal argument of the nature of the 4 circumstantial evidence as to intent in terms of the 5 perjury and the misleading Congress charges.
6 There is no direct evidence of intent. By 7 their very nature there can't be because you can't go
8 into a person's head, and the Independent Counsel is 9 going to rely on circumstantial evidence for that count,

10 and so are we, to corroborate Miss Dean, and they're 11 going to rely on it to try to destroy Miss Dean in terms
12 of credibility.

13 THE COURT: what did you have as the cites to 14 the original case, Brewster, Senator Brewster case
15 claiming executive documents, et cetera are not 16 privileged?

17 MR. WEHNER: United States versus Brewster,
18 408 U.S. at 512. In terms of the lobbying activities,
19 Gravel, G-r-a-v-e-l, 408 U.S. at 625, and Johnson, 383
20 U.S. at 172.

21 THE COURT: All right.

22 Miss Sylvia, do you want to respond briefly as 23 to these arguments as to the circumstantial evidence
24 that may be garnered from either the records of the 25 Committee or from the testimony of the witnesses

2122

1 indicating Miss Dean's intent by indicating what they
2 had done regarding Miss Dean's situation and the 3 investigations they made and the knowledge that she had 4 of what they knew about her already that she would not
5 have tried to lie before the Committee since she knew
6 they knew the answers already? I take it that's a
7 simplistic way of saying that.

8 MS. SYLVIA: I'm not sure I understand what
9 the defense would be other than maybe she didn't mislead
10 the Committee, which is not a defense. I don't know
11 that the argument that -I mean Senator Proxmire

12 doesn't know what her intent was. I don't know if the 13 defense is that she was - I'm not sure I understand it,
14 that she was so confused by the Committee's
15 investigation or concerned that -16

THE COURT: I may be -- I can't speak for the 17 defendant, but I understood his argument to be that she 18 understood what the Committee already knew about her and 19 knew that if she misinformed the Committee they would 20 know it and that therefore she was more likely to not
2 intentionally try to misinform the Committee in response
2 to the Senator's questions because she knew the extent
2 of the investigation they had done and the cooperation
2 he had with the people at HUD who were trying to get
2 her.

2123

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
1 MS. SYLVIA: To me that sounds very much like

2 the argument made at the beginning of the materiality

3 issue, which is that she could not have misled the

4 Committee, which is not a defense to a charges of

5 perjury. whether the Committee actually relied on it or

6 not is not relevant. We cited several cases to that

7 fact, I think Paxson and Hansen. So whether now it has

8 a different label on it, whether it's called

9 circumstantial evidence or intent I think it's still the 10 same argument, that the Committee couldn't have been 11 misled by what she said, and that's not, as far as I'm 12 aware of, a defense to perjury.

13 THE COURT: The argument counsel used to me
14 before was that if we have a witness here who says the 15 lights are off and we can all see they're not off, that 16 there cannot be any intent to mislead.

17 MS. SYLVIA: I think that's all materiality
18 argument again. The question is whether the Committee
19 was actually misled by those -- the argument that the 20 light was on and they already knew the answer, and I
2 don't think that's a defense.

2 I also think that the same would be true about
2 Senator Proxmire's lack of memory. If he was hostile
2 during the interview he may have been provoked, but he
2 didn't recall any more about the actual events.

2124

1 The suggestion that he put an end to the -2 killed the nomination isn't actually accurate. The 3 nomination went back at the end of the session of 4 Congress and was never resubmitted. So I don't think
5 that -6

THE COURT: It was never taken up for vote by
7 the Committee.

8 MS. SYLVIA: It was never taken up by vote.
9 Ken Me Lean testified that it continued to be 10 investigated and then died at the end of the session.
11 It was never resubmitted.

12 The comments about the Lantos hearing, which 13 took place in 1989, and Senator Proxmire's testimony
14 about what that Committee investigated, that doesn't 15 indicate in any way what he knew at the time of the 16 nomination hearing.

17 with respect to the documents, the cases cited
18 by the defendant's counsel, Gravel and Brewster, the

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
19 subpoena doesn't ask for documents of communications
20 between the Executive Branch or political matters
21 outside the Speech and Debate Clause privilege. It asks
22 for documents from the investigation of the HUD Mod
23 Rehab investigation, which is legislative activity
24 protected by the clause, and also asks for all documents
25 related to HUD which it has now indicated is overbroad,

2125

1 but it doesn't ask for the kind of documents that
2 Brewster and Gravel say are not protected, and the 3 subpoena has never been narrowed to some class or 4 category of documents that would be outside the 5 privilege. So I'm not sure what those cases would 6 establish other than that he might choose to ask for a
7 more narrow set of documents.

8 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

9 All right. I've reviewed the Brewster case,

10 where Senator Brewster is charged with bribes and 11 other allegations, that was dismissed and reversed by 12 the Supreme Court concerning his activities involving 13 whether speech and debate activities are separate from 14 that, they may be related to speech and debate but still 15 are subject to indictment, which they held that it was,
16 and the Johnson case which we already looked at. He did 17 talk about political activities versus legislative 18 activities, the issue about the House being in session,
19 et cetera.

20 As to each of these motions to quash the 21 testimony of Senator William Proxmire and the motion of 22 Bart Naylor to quash the defendant subpoenaing him as an 23 investigator for the Committee, plus there's been 24 allegations of his bias or prejudice, although the 25 argument has been made that there is circumstantial

2126

1 evidence that would show that Miss Dean did not intend

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 to mislead the Committee by her answers because she knew

3 that they knew, and the attitudes that she knew they

4 held against her because of her work at HUD, and the 5 political vendetta that I believe it's been postulated

6 that existed between Senator Proxmire and the

7 Administration, particularly with HUD and Miss Dean,

8 because of her work at HUD. And that circumstantially

9 would show her intent could not have been to mislead

10 Senator Proxmire and, I guess by that, the other

11 Senators on the Committee at the time.

12 To the extent that whether or not this

13 testimony would be material and favorable to the 14 defendant as evidence in her case, there's obviously not

15 required any actual reliance upon the statement, that's

16 United States versus Hansen at 772 Fed. 2d 940, a 1985

17 case, followed by Poindexter and later cases, and again

18 as to the issue of motivation, because I think this all

19 lies behind the argument of counsel about circumstantial

20 evidence as to intent, United States versus Icardi which

2 was cited as an earlier Fed. Supp. case, 140 Fed. Supp.

2 388. That was a case, a 1956 case in this Court by

2 Judge Keech who relied upon an old Fed. 2d case, 170

2 Fed. 2d 173, that the Congressman engaged in legitimate

2 legislative inquiry. I reviewed this issue at the time

2127

1 we discussed the materiality. I don't see the basis

2 offered by the defendant to subpoena Mr. Naylor or Mr.

3 Proxmire as witnesses despite the political animosities

4 in the evident remarks of Senator Proxmire in the record

5 in the Lantos hearings showing his bias and prejudice

6 against the defendant. He recognized the political

7 realities that existed at that time, still held that it

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
8 can be argued that – beyond circumstantial evidence

9 showing that she would not lie to the Committee because 10 of these factors, that she was aware of, it seems to me
11 the testimony that they would produce would be actually 12 related to their motivation and then to argue from that 13 that she would not lie because she knew they were out to 14 get her and it would be foolish to do so, I don't think 15 answers the question. It evades the question.
16 She's free to testify herself and have others
17 testify regarding evidence that would be material and 18 relevant to her actions of intent, what she intended by 19 her answers, but as to Senator Proxmire providing 20 evidence material or favorable to the defense I do not
2 see how that can be possible from the premises that have

2 been suggested to the Court, the materiality having been 2 decided by the Court, and motive and bias not being an
2 issue for the jury to consider.
2 I'm going to quash the subpoenas as to both

2128

1 the witnesses.

2 As to the motion of Lory Brenneman, the Clerk

3 of the Court, the defendant has candidly reported to the

4 Court that the request for all documents otherwise in

5 the control of the Committee for a nine-year period is

6 too broad a category to be adequately answered and that

7 certain documents have been made available, documents

8 relating to the defendant compiled during the course of 9 its investigation, and can be reviewed by the defendant

10 except the staff notes and internal communications of 11 members regarding these inquiries that were conducted by 12 the Committee.

13 There is a Committee hearing of 1987, again in 14 1989. 1987 would seem to be the one relevant
15 principally to this case.

16 The Senate has represented that they have a 17 privilege to these documents, they cited one case from 18 the State Court of Maine.

19 It is evident to me in any event that the 20 Committee records relating to internal notes between the 2 members or between members and staff as to the

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 investigation of the defendant about matters which the
2 Committee questioned the* defendant, the nomination
2 hearing which is the subject now of the perjury
2 indictment, would be protected by the Speech and Debate

2129

1 Clause. Certainly internal communications that
2 reference the ongoing Committee's legitimate legislative
3 activity, not only factfinding, but as to the areas
4 within their jurisdiction that were created for 5 investigation and vote upon the qualifications of a
6 candidate that's been nominated for a sub-Cabinet
7 position, and under the Constitution may do so, as well
8 as to investigate HUD which was under their 9 jurisdiction, as shown in this case. And I think that 10 relates to matters that concern legislation or proposed 11 legislation involving HUD and therefore I believe that 12 those records at least from the showing that has been 13 made to me that they would be entitled to a privilege
14 that they can assert as falling within the spheres of 15 legitimate legislative activity, being communiques
16 between the members themselves or between the members
17 and their staffs involved in this protected legislative 18 activity.
19 I am surprised there was not more authority
20 involving communiques between staff and their members
2 involving legislative matters but that one case in Maine

2 but we have not had the luxury of researching it
2 further. I'm accepting that at this time.
2 I've read through Brewster and that really
2 involved different matters and different issues about

2130

1 political type materials circulated, et cetera, speeches
2 outside the House floor as opposed to legislative
3 hearings.

4 All right. I'll grant the motion to quash as 5 well as any further document production from the Senate
6 Banking Committee.

7 All right. Thank you, Miss Sylvia.

8 Are there matters on these charts that we're

9 ready to talk about?

10 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 Let me ask the Government a question with the 13 charts.

14 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Now, what I'm referring to are the 16 summary charts -- on the summary charts that were 17 attached to the Government's motion summarizing the 18 trial exhibits under rule 1006, I had a concern with 19 them that I didn't articulate yesterday and I finally 20 believe I'm going to articulate my concern this morning,
2 and that was what I think has happened, and you correct

2 me if I'm wrong, you repeat as to each of the projects
2 the various telephone conversations or meetings that
2 Miss Dean may have had with the co-conspirators which 2 are alleged to have been involved with her and that is 2131

1 for Arama you say Nunn met Dean and had dinner about
2 this or Mitchell met Dean, and then you go to the next
3 project, South Florida, Nunn met Dean. But it would be 4 the same time that she met him for the allocations in 5 the first project. And that goes all the way through.
6 And some of these acts that you proved may have happened
7 or scheduled to happen you may have on your chart
8 several times repeated as to each one.

9 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, the meetings and
Page 1204

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
10 telephone calls may appear -- some of the same ones may 11 appear in Arama and South Florida to the extent that -- 12 THE COURT: Or Regent Street. According to my 13 recollection I went through -- I kept thinking I don't 14 remember all of these meetings and I went back and 15 checked and I think you repeated several of these 16 meetings several times or the allegation that her idea
17 was to get support from the Assistant Secretary and you
18 have the allegation of a specific award for one 19 project. You repeat the same conduct over again for 20 each of the projects.
21 MS. SWEENEY: If it is within the time period,
22 Your Honor, that that particular project was going on.
23 We would have no way to attribute a particular meeting
24 to a particular project. If Miss Dean met with 25 Mr. Mitchell or Mr. Brennan during the time period that

2132

1 both Arama and South Florida were pending, one or both
2 projects could have been discussed at that meeting.

3 THE COURT: I agree with that. I just -- it
4 seems to me to put an emphasis on these meetings of --
5 and repeating them, repeating the allegations as to 6 support for her confirmation, or whatever allegations
7 there were against her over and over again that would 8 not occur if you didn't do it this way before the jury.

9 The jury would normally have whatever the original
10 documents are that would show the meeting occurred one
11 time and the argument could be made that she talked 12 about all or some of the matters there. At least they 13 infer that because actions happened thereafter this 14 particular meeting to move that project or various 15 projects forward.
16 It seems to me a cumulative effect in 17 repeating these for each of the projects. It just 18 concerns the Court as to the fairness of that approach,
19 and what I'm going to do at this time with these charts,
20 and I think an awful lot of work has gone into them and 21 I think there are a lot of dates and there are a lot of

2 meetings and it's hard to keep it straight at this
2 hearing, but what I'm going to do at this time is I'm 2 going to allow them to be used in closing argument but
2 not admit them under 1006 because I think the way

2133

1 they're put together by repeating these meetings and
2 repeating some of these statements each time unfairly
3 emphasizes evidence before the jury of these matters.
4 I think it's a good argument to make and you
5 can use the chart in the argument; she met here, did
6 this, she met here and did this, but when you put it in 7 as evidence against the jury where it's five times she 8 met at lunch with Shelby and you repeat it five times in 9 the same timeframe, it seems to me – when I read this,
10 for instance, I thought there were a lot more meetings
11 than I remembered, I thought I missed some of this 12 evidence, you know, 20 or 30 more meetings than I recall
13 hearing testimony about and I went back and compared it
14 and that didn't occur.
15 So I'm going to deny the motion to admit these 16 charts as relevant at least as evidence summarizing the 17 complex amount of testimony and the documents in 18 evidence under Rule 1006. I recognize that can be 19 done. But I think that there could be undue prejudice
20 the way they have been drafted and so I'm going to not
2 allow them.

2 I have allowed rule 1006 charts to be used in
2 many cases and I think they're a good thing for the 2 Government to prove their case, but in this instance I
2 think the way they're drafted, it has an unfair

2134

1 connotation.
2 They can be used in closing argument and
3 counsel can argue on them as well on either side, as you
4 wish.

5 I take it the MRP project figures have been
Page 1206

6 agreed to at this time and the date of funding

7 allocations?

8 MR. WEHNER: The dates have, Judge. The

9 objection to the numbers is that I don't think there's 10 evidence in the record as to the numbers.

11 THE COURT: You mean the total numbers of 12 payments, the value of these projects or something?

13 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir, it's just not supported
14 by the evidence. I don't recall any evidence of the PHA
15 half payments to June of 1993 or the HUD estimated total
16 half payments for the 15-year period. I don't recall
17 any testimony to that effect at all.

18 THE COURT: There is not a stipulation as to 19 what these were?

20 MR. WEHNER: No, sir.

21 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, the purpose of that

22 chart was to eliminate the need to bring in the 23 underlying people. The rapid replies and 185's which 24 were in evidence indicate what HUD obligated itself to 25 pay over the term of the 15 years and that's all been

2135

1 put on the record. These are the exact underlying

2 figures.

3 THE COURT: The 185's in evidence set forth

4 Arama project number, units funded. It wouldn't set

5 forth the payments to June. It might set forth -- set

6 forth the total payments?

7 MR. O'NEILL: That's correct. Since it was in

8 approximately 1984 it wouldn't be able to say how much

9 they expended to date, but, for instance, the 185 signed
10 by Maurice Barksdale is in evidence as Government's 11 Exhibit 31 and it states that the contract authority 12 would be 1.8 million and some amount and that the 13 budgetary authority is $28,042,500, and what that is is 14 a compilation of actual expenditures by HUD to date and 15 over the course of a 15-year period.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

16 THE COURT: Is there a -- so each of the 185's
17 has in it the budgetary authority of what would be 18 expended so that the -- we would know the June figures,
19 but the new 15-year figures would be accurate based upon 20 the exhibits.

2 MR. O'NEILL: No, Your Honor, maybe -- can you

2 repeat your question?

2 THE COURT: You've got PHA payments to June,
2 '93. What do we have that shows -- that's evidence?

2 MR. O'NEILL: No, there is none. The purpose

2136

1 of this was as a summary document to forgo the need of

2 getting PHA directors in the various cities to say we

3 have gone through our documents and to date it's the 4 X-amount.

5 THE COURT: Mr. Wehner wasn't agreeing with

6 this.

7 MR. O'NEILL: That's news to me, Your Honor.

8 MR. WEHNER: Let me be clear about this,

9 Judge. I don't think -- I don't have any problem with 10 the stipulation to the amount in terms of -- I'm not 11 trying to sandbag the OIC here. I don't think the 12 testimony is relevant or admissible anyway in terms of 13 these figures. Now, I don't know if the figures are 14 correct or incorrect and I'm not going to force
15 Mr. O'Neill to try to reopen his case and bring ten 16 people down here and testify to these figures.
17 That's not the point of this, Bob.
18 The point of this is that Your Honor has 19 already at rule 29 time said that there was no loss
20 because all of these projects were essentially well
2 qualified projects or were qualified, based on the

2 Government's evidence. This tends to infer a figure
2 that is prejudicial to Miss Dean because it shows huge
2 amounts of money being paid to the public housing
2 authorities and huge amounts through the 15th year being

2137

1 paid to the housing authorities that has absolutely no

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 relevance to what she is charged with. This is not a
3 case where she's charged with defrauding the Government
4 of these monies.
5 THE COURT: So the objection is not really to 6 the document per se as now drafted. The objection is to 7 whether - I meant to say the contents of the money or 8 the amounts set forth here, but the objection is it's 9 not relevant to any issue in the case.
10 MR. WEHNER: Correct. A, it's not relevant,
11 and, B, it's overly prejudicial because with that 12 evidence on that chart Mr. O'Neill will be able to argue
13 this is what Miss cost the Government. I don't think 14 that's fair argument, Your Honor.
15 THE COURT: Let me hear from him. That's a 16 different objection than originally.
17 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.
18 MR. O'NEILL: That is a different objection,
19 Your Honor. The purpose of the chart was not so much to 20 establish the monies because that's already in
2 evidence. It was to establish and put in a position
2 where there would be no defense argument that these
2 contracts are not still ongoing, that they expire
2 whenever the 15 years for each particular one expires.
2 So that they're ongoing at this time.

2138

1 MR. WEHNER: I don't intend to argue that,
2 Judge. I hadn't thought of that.
3 MR. O'NEILL: well, if there will be a
4 stipulation to that on the record, Your Honor, we could 5 withdraw that chart.
6 THE COURT: well, I suggest you talk about 7 that during the break then because it may be easier to 8 stipulate that there would be no argument -
9 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, Mr. Wehner said he would 10 so stipulate.
11 THE COURT: All right. There would be no
12 argument made and this would be a stipulation by the 13 defense. There would be a stipulation that these 14 contracts were awarded and monies were paid and they're 15 still ongoing under obligations being paid by the 16 Government.
17 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, may I be heard just 18 briefly on Your Honor's objection to the other chart?
19 THE COURT: Sure.
20 MS. SWEENEY: Is Your Honor - does Your
2 Honor's ruling include the charts where the problem that 2 you've identified is not present? For example, the 2 Kitchin chart and the Alameda Towers chart?
2 THE COURT: I haven't gone through those
2 again. As I said, each one to identify where the -

2139

1 you're talking about the Alameda Towers?

2 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor. The problem

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
3 that you've identified occurs where the same consultants

4 appear on more than one project and, Your Honor, I had

5 one other thought as to how that problem could be

6 addressed or at least minimized. The Arama and South

7 Florida charts could be combined and the Eastern Avenue

8 and Foxglenn projects charts could be combined, thereby

9 showing the meetings with Sankin and the meetings with 10 Shelby, thereby avoiding some of the repetition that 11 Your Honor has pointed out.

12 So I was wondering if the Court would permit
13 us the opportunity to try to address the problem that 14 you've identified?

15 THE COURT: well, the Alameda charts do repeat
16 some of the meetings. Do you think you can combine
17 those or combine all three? Eastern is '87, so that 18 goes into a different timeframe.

19 MS. SWEENEY: Eastern Avenue and Foxglenn
20 involve Shelby and Sankin. Those could be combined.
2 Arama and South Florida involve Martinez and -- they

2 involve the same players. Where they involve the same
2 players the two charts could be combined.
2 we feel very strongly that under Lemire and
2 under the Williams case that these charts could be very

2140

1 helpful to the jury and that's the reason why I do offer

2 to try to address the Court's concern.

3 THE COURT: I would note, for instance, again

4 I haven't gone through these again, but Alameda Towers

5 has a March 12, '86 scheduled meeting with Sankin and

6 then in Foxglenn we have the March 12th, I think '86

7 they referred to, I believe -- that's the overlap that I

8 was talking about. I don't know how we cure that.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
9 MS. SWEENEY: well, certainly combining the 10 charts by players would greatly minimize it and may in 11 fact cure it, but there may be one or two meetings that

12 would still --
13 THE COURT: well, if you can work your
14 computer for awhile I'll take another look at them.
15 MS. SWEENEY: Thank you, Your Honor.
16 THE COURT: All right.
17 All right, do we have your next witness

18 available?
19 MR. WEHNER: Yes, Your Honor, we have two 20 witnesses and then Miss Dean. We have James Baugh who 21 was head of Public Housing and Indian affairs at the

22 appropriate time when uplift was being dealt with at 23 HUD, and we have Mr. Holmes, who is a character witness,
24 and then we have Miss Dean, and I really expect that her
25 direct testimony will not be finished today. I think

2141

1 it's going to be rather arduous .
2 THE COURT: All right. we'll take about a
3 five-minute break so people can get ready and then we'll
4 come back with Mr. Holmes.

8 B-a-u-g-h, and the basis for it, it's basically a surprise. If I

10 can come back so they can be prepared. He was on the witness
11 list, so that's clear, but it is true that I did not tell

13 this morning.
14 THE COURT: Is he that serious a witness or not?
15 MR. O'NEILL: well, I don't -I said to Steve if he
16 was strictly opinion, Judge, there'd be absolutely no problem,

13 MR. WEHNER: Ms. Dean calls Mr. Baugh -- Dr. Baugh.
14 Excuse me.
15 DR. JAMES BAUGH, DEFENDANT'S WITNESS, SWORN
16 DIRECT EXAMINATION
17 BY MR. WEHNER:
18 Q. Dr. Baugh, you know Deborah Gore Dean, do you not?
19 A. Yes, I do.
20 Q. Would you briefly state for the record your employment
2 history as it relates to the Office of Housing and Urban
2 Development -- Department of Housing and Urban Development,
2 excuse me?
2 A. I joined HUD in, I think it's November, November 1, 1981.
2 At that particular time, I was a political appointee as an executive assistant. About two years later, I became the deputy assistant secretary for Public and Indian Housing, and then shortly after that, I became the general deputy assistant secretary for Public and Indian Housing, and during my last two 5 years, I was the acting assistant secretary for Public and Indian

10/93

2145

3

6 Housing. My tenure there was approximately seven-and-a-half
7 years.

8 Q. You began in what year, approximately '81, did you say?

9 A. '81.

10 Q. And then you continued there through?

11 A. '89.

12 Q. The middle of '89?

w

13 A. February of '89.

14 Q. Directing your attention to your relationship with Ms. Dean, 15 she worked at HUD during that same time period, did she not?

I 16 A. Yes, she did.

? 17 Q. And you were at HUD when she arrived, and you were at HUD
18 when she left?

i 19 A. Yes, I was.

PENGAD CC

20 Q. Correct?

2 And did you work with her on occasion on projects at
2 HUD?

2 A. Yes, I did.

2 Q. Directing your attention to what has been commonly referred
2 to in front of the jury as Uplift, are you familiar with programs

2146

1 that deal with that concept, Uplift?

2 A. Well, in the sense that, that everything that I did at HUD
3 was, the results were supposed to be uplift, simply because the,
4 our clients were low-income people who needing housing. I am
5 not, I'm not familiar with a project called Uplift. I am
6 familiar with a concept of uplift and self-sufficiency and 7 self-help and those kinds of things.

8 Q. Were those programs a, were those programs an area under 9 your control?

10 A. Yes. The --we had a program, at one time there were, it
11 was called the Minority Youth Initiative Program for 21 cities,

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
12 and this program was directed primarily at the high unemployment
13 rate of particularly young black males living in public housing, 14 and these programs were, were really designed to, to give some of 15 those individuals training so that they could acquire certain 16 kind of skills to work on some of the projects and some of the 17 developments under the control of the housing authorities.
18 Q. Directing your attention to the City of Baltimore, did you
19 have occasion to do that type of programming in Baltimore?
20 A. Yes, I believe we did.
21 Q. And directing your attention to a person by the name of 22 Marion Pines, did you have occasion to discuss that program with 23 her?
24 A. Yes, I did.
25 Q. I want to show you what I've marked for identification as

2147

Dean Exhibit 552.
2 THE CLERK: Dean Exhibit 552 marked for identification

4 marked for identification.)
5 BY MR. WEHNER:
6 Q. And ask you to take a look at that and see if you recognize
7 it.
8 Have you had the opportunity to examine that?
9 A. Yes, I have.
10 Q. And what is it?
11 A. This is a memorandum that's dated -- or letter, I should 12 say, that's dated February 21, 1986, and it's a letter from me to 13 Marion Pines, who is the commissioner of the Neighborhood
14 Progress Administration in Baltimore.
15 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, at this time, I'll move the
16 admission of Dean Exhibit 552.
17 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.
18 THE COURT: All right. Being no objection, 552 is
19 admitted.
20 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 552 was
21 received in evidence.)
22 MR. WEHNER: At this time, I'm going to put this on the 23 screen, Your Honor. Excuse me.
24 Your Honor, I think maybe members of the jury are 25 having difficulty seeing it.

1 THE COURT: Yes, I think you may have to -2
MR. WEHNER: I could have it read, or I could pass it
3 around.
4 THE COURT: All right, why don't you have it read

6 MR. WEHNER: With the permission of the Court and the 7 permission of Mr. O'Neill, I won't have the whole thing read.
8 MR. O'NEILL: whatever you'd like.
9 MR. WEHNER: Thank you.
10 THE COURT: All right.
11 BY MR. WEHNER:
12 Q. Would you read the first two paragraphs of the letter,

14 A. Yeah.
15 "Dear Ms. Pines: This is in response to your February 16 6 letter proposing various specific procedures to be used in 17 developing units for public housing project MD 2-77 (Baltimore).

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

20 Department of Labor. We also would require, as is our normal

2 regional office submits its recommendations regarding the
2 proposal."
2 Q. Now did that document deal with what you've called uplift as 2 it pertains to the Baltimore office?

10/93

1 A. I can't from this document tell that it, that it deals with Uplift, with a specific project called Uplift.

3 Q. Right.

4 A. I can't tell from this document.

5 Q. Right. Does it deal with what you have termed your specific 6 uplift, your general uplift programs?

7 A. Yeah. In the generic sense, in terms of the uplift effort,
8 it, it addresses that.

9 Q. I'm going to show you what I've marked for identification as

10 Dean Exhibit 551.

2 Q. "Dean discussed this with Stan Campbell"?

2150

1 A. Right.

2 Q. Do you know who the Dean is who is referred to in that, in

3 that note?

4 A. I don't absolutely know who the Dean was, but I would assume 5 based on my experiences at HUD that this Dean is Dean Reger, who 6 was the acting area manager of the Baltimore office.

7 Q. Now did Dean Reger work for you?

8 A. No, he did not.

9 Q. He worked in another section of HUD?

10 A. He worked in the field office, Baltimore field office.

11 Q. Specifically regarding Baltimore and specifically regarding 12 everything you know and consider to be about uplift, did you ever
13 have occasion to hear, know, think, or suspect that Ms. Dean knew 14 about something called Baltimore Uplift?

15 A. To the best of my recollection, I would say no.

16 MR. WEHNER: I have nothing further, Your Honor.

17 THE DEFENDANT: No, no.

18 THE COURT: All right. You may cross-examine, sir.

2 A. Good morning.

2 Q. Mr. Baugh, am I correct that you spent approximately 2 seven-and-a-half years at HUD?

2 A. Approximately.

1 Q. And you had various jobs, getting promoted along the way?

2 A. Yeah, in the same area.

3 Q. Right. You were always in Public and Indian Housing?

4 A. That's right.

5 Q. Now just so the Ladies and Gentlemen of the Jury are aware,
6 Public and Indian Housing does not affect the Mod Rehab Program;
7 is that correct?

8 A. Well, it did at one particular time. Let me just tell you
9 how it evolved.

10 Q. Sure, please do.

11 A. When I first started at HUD, we were organized entirely
12 differently than we were when I left.

13 Q. And let me interrupt. That would be 1981, November?

14 A. 1981, right. In 1981, we were organized where there was an 15 assistant secretary, and he was also --or the person was also 16 the FHA, or federal housing commissioner. Reporting to that 17 individual was, was deputy assistant secretaries, one deputy 18 assistant secretary for Single Family, for Multi-Family, for 19 Public and Indian Housing, and also I think there was a deputy 20 assistant secretary for, for Programs and Budget, or something
2 likes that, as I recall.

2 At that time, the responsibility of public housing was

2 to deal with the conventional public housing, that is, the 3,500
2 or so housing authorities across the country, to regulate those.
2 We also had responsibility for what we called the assistant

1 housing area, which was the Section 8 existing certificates, as 2 well as the Section 8 Modern Rehab Program.

3 Q. And at a certain point, you no longer had responsibility for 4 mod rehab; is that correct, sir?

5 A. That's right.

6 Q. Do you recall off the top of your head when that was?

7 A. I believe it was sometime in late '83 and/or early '84.

8 Q. And that's the best of your recollection at this time?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay. Now I believe you testified on direct examination
11 that you're not familiar with a specific project that was ever

CO

12 called Uplift.

13 A. That's right.

14 Q. Okay. So let me go further: Are you familiar with a 15 specific project known as Baltimore Uplift One?

16 A. No, I'm not.

17 Q. And are you aware at this time that that at one point

18 involved moderate rehabilitation funding?

19 A. I am as a result of looking at some documents this morning.

20 Q. Okay. But as of today, you do not know anything about

2 Baltimore Uplift One?

2 A. No, I have no memory of that.

2 MR. O'NEILL: Thank you, sir.

2 THE COURT: Any redirect?

2 MR. WEHNER: No, sir. No, sir.

THE COURT: Thank you, Dr. Baugh.

8 THOMAS HOLMES, DEFENDANT'S WITNESS, SWORN

9 DIRECT EXAMINATION

10 BY MR. WEHNER:

11 Q. Good morning, Mr. Holmes.

12 A. Good morning.

13 Q. You know Deborah Gore Dean, do you not?

14 A. Yes, I do.

15 Q. Would you describe for the jury, please, your background in 16 housing?

17 A. Yes. I've been a licensed real estate broker for the last 18 20 years, specializing in urban center affordable housing. And I

I 19 met Ms. Dean during the time I was president of the National

3:

i 20 Association of Real Estate Brokers.

2 And the National Association of Real Estate Brokers is

2 the oldest and largest minority trade association in existence

2 today, specializing in prevails (sic) of affordable housing for

2 urban center residents, born in 1947 out of necessity because

2 blacks, African Americans and other minorities could not join the|

1 major trade associations, and it wasn't until the early '60s that
2 African Americans were admitted to some of the mainstream trade
3 associations.

4 So our plight still prevails with affordable housing.

5 while many of the real estate members now hold dual membership,
6 our goals and objectives from the urban centers are still quite 7 different from other trade associations, because the citizens' of 8 our urban centers problems and concerns are far unique from the 9 problems and concerns of suburbia.

10 And I had the wonderful opportunity early on to meet

11 Ms. Dean upon taking the reins of presidency and having the
CO

i 12 opportunity to introduce her to much of the history of our 13 plight, much of the history of the real estate industry, and 14 particularly the urban centers of our nation.

15 Ms. Dean at the time was unaware that it was HUD who

16 was one of the major, the major advocates, if you will, of the 17 restrictions and one of the proponents, if you will, of white
18 flight, in a real sense. In the early '50s --as recently as the 19 early '50s, HUD maintained restrictions suggesting that they 20 would not insure a mortgage if it was not in a homogeneous area,
2 which means that a black could not secure a HUD mortgage in an
2 all-white area, and a white could not secure a mortgage in a
2 black, predominantly black area. That in and of itself caused
2 much of the demise of the urban centers of our nation and caused
2 much of the advancement into the suburban communities that we are

1 still suffering and paying for today.

2 THE COURT: All right, let's answer the question more

3 directly next time, if we could. Go ahead.

4 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.

5 Q. Mr. Holmes, when did you first meet Ms. Dean?

6 A. In 1984.

7 Q. And how did you come to meet her?

8 A. I came to meet her as a result of some problems that existed
9 in Philadelphia with the burning of the, the MOVE family. As I

10 mentioned, as president of the association, we have always been 11 concerned about prevails of housing for urban centers, and that i 12 was such a tragedy, and I just thought that was something that 13 HUD would be interested in and they ought to be interested in.

CO

14 Q. And did you meet her as a result of your efforts in that 15 regard?

16 A. That is precisely correct.

17 Q. Okay. And that was your first meeting with her?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. Subsequent to that meeting, did you have further meetings
20 with her?

2 A. Yes.

2 Q. And could you describe generally what those meetings
2 concerned?

2 A. Generally those meetings would be concerned with access to 2 the HUD system for our primary objectives, and that was democracy

2156

1 in housing for our members to make sure that we had equal access
2 to the HUD programs that was designed for the urban center

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
3 residents and to particularly advance the needs of our membership
4 and serve in that particular community.
5 Q. During your dealings with HUD, did you have the opportunity
6 to observe Ms. Dean in the presence of or in dealings with
7 Secretary Pierce?
8 A. I did.
9 Q. And would you please describe your understanding of what 10 their relationship was?
11 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.
12 MR. WEHNER: Judge, we've had -13
THE COURT: why don't you come up.
14 MR. WEHNER: Excuse me, Your Honor.
15 (Bench conference on the record.)
16 THE COURT: Your objection?
17 MR. O'NEILL: This is an opinion witness, as we've been 18 told, and under 608, we go to reputation for truthfulness in the 19 community, and that's it.
20 THE COURT: And that's the purpose of calling the
2 witness?
2 MR. O'NEILL: I thought so.
2 THE COURT: what is he going to talk about?
2 MR. WEHNER: well, what I intend to ask him is to put 2 on direct testimony to rebut the government's evidence that

2157

1 Ms. Dean somehow was running the Department of Housing and Urban
2 Development and was, quote, the right-hand person of Samuel
3 Pierce, and that testimony has come in time and time again in the 4 government's case in chief in terms of what the witnesses
5 understanding were as to what her role was.
6 THE COURT: I think the objection was he wasn't
7 proffered for that originally.
8 MR. WEHNER: They've been laughing at something this 9 morning, Judge, and I don't know what.
10 THE COURT: One of the jurors borrowed gum or something
11 from another juror and apparently ate all the gum, and another
9
12 juror is upset about it, and they've been complaining back and 13 forth about it.
14 All right.
15 MR. WEHNER: I think he had the occasion to observe
16 Ms. Dean and the secretary on several occasion.
17 THE COURT: I'll overrule the objection. I think it's 18 within the purview or conduct of HUD, and I think it's fair. All
19 right.
20 (End of bench conference)
2 THE COURT: All right, let's get back into the case
2 again, please. All right, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Jury,
2 we're going to get back into the witness1 testimony at this time.
2 I've overruled the objection.
2 BY MR. WEHNER:

2158

1 Q. Sir, you had occasion to observe Ms. Dean and Secretary
2 Pierce on occasions?
3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. And based on your observations, what was your understanding
5 of their relationship?

6 A. My understanding of their relationship was that Ms. Dean had 7 the highest regard for Secretary Pierce, and he certainly 8 entrusted much toward her.

9 Q. Did you meet people who knew Ms. Dean during your tenure as 10 president of that organization?

11 A. Did I meet people that knew her? Yes, I did.

12 Q. And did you become familiar with Ms. Dean's reputation in 13 the community for truthfulness and character?

14 A. Yes, I did.

15 Q. What was that reputation?

16 A. The reputation was, very simply, that it was sort of a new 17 day at HUD, with, at the highest level, with an individual really 18 caring about the needs of, of our membership and our 19 constituency. Heretofore, we had not enjoyed that at HUD or in 20 other agencies for that matter, but particularly HUD, since 90
2 percent of our members' business was in relation to HUD and

2 providing decent, affordable housing for members in urban
2 centers, and that was refreshing, a new for me.

2 THE COURT: I think the question was as to her
2 reputation for truthfulness and her character in the community.

2159

1 THE WITNESS: well, Your Honor, her character was
2 impeccable, her concern was genuine, and that in and of itself
3 was , was comfortable for us. She always had time to listen to 4 the problems of the urban centers, which was often time quite 5 unique from problems of suburbia.

6 MR. WEHNER: Nothing further, Your Honor.

E. NJ 07002 - LASERBOND-A10/93

7 THE COURT: Any questions?

8 CROSS EXAMINATION

BY MR. O'NEILL:

10 Q. Good morning, Mr. Holmes.

11 A. Good morning, sir.

12 Q. Sir, as you stated, you have a favorable

13 MS. Dean; is that correct?

14 A. Yes, absolutely.

15 Q. And you also have a favorable opinion of 16 is that true?

17 A. Exactly.

opinion of

Secretary Pierce,-

18 Q. In fact, at a NAREB, or National Association of Real Estate
S 19 Brokers, convention in Miami, you gave Mr. Pierce an award on 20 behalf of the organization?

2 A. That was not at a convention in Miami.

2 Q. Okay.

2 A. That was at a conference in Miami.

Q. Excuse me, conference.

2 A. Exactly.

2160

1 Q. And Mr. Art Teele received one as well. He's a prominent
2 lawyer in Miami?

3 A. He received an award, but not because of his prominence as a
4 lawyer in Miami. He was the president of a National Business
5 League.

6 Q. I just meant to -- so there's no misunderstanding, he also 7 received an award?

8 A. That is precisely correct.

9 Q. And is it true that you've referred to Secretary Pierce as 10 one of the, the great public figures in our time?

11 A. That is correct.

12 MR. O'NEILL: Okay. Thank you, sir.

13 MR. WEHNER: I have nothing further.

14 THE COURT: Nothing else? All right, thank you,

15 Mr. Holmes. You're free to go, sir.

16 (Witness excused.)

17 THE COURT: Do you want to take a short break before

18 your next witness?

2

i

§ 19 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: Ladies and Gentlemen, we'll take a short
2 recess, make it ten minutes, and we'll be back to go on with the 2 next witness. Remember the admonition of the Court, please,

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 about not talking about this case among yourselves or with anyone
2 else. All right, we'll be back in ten minutes.
2 (Jury out.)

2161

1 THE COURT: All right, a ten-minute recess.
2 (Recess from 11:07 a.m. to 11:20 a.m.)
3 MR. WEHNER: If Your Honor will give me a second, I'll 4 get Ms. Dean.
5 THE COURT: All right. For the record, I had my clerk
6 of court admonish the jury to conduct themselves appropriately
7 during the hearings in this case that were distracted this 8 morning by an incident between a couple of them, and I'll take 9 any further steps necessary if I see them not paying attention as 10 they should in the future.
11 All right, you can bring them in.
12 THE DEPUTY MARSHAL: Yes, Your Honor.
13 (Jury in.)
14 THE COURT: All right, we're ready to go. Call your 15 witness, please.
16 MR. WEHNER: Ms. Dean.
17 THE COURT: All right.
18 DEBORAH GORE DEAN, DEFENDANT'S WITNESS, SWORN
19 DIRECT EXAMINATION
20 BY MR. WEHNER:
21 Q. Ms. Dean, you have sat through almost a month of testimony, 22 and I recognize that this is going to be arduous and long, but 23 we'll take our time, and if you don't understand any of my 24 questions, please let me know, and if you want to explain, please 25 explain.

2162

1 A. All right.
2 Q. Would you please describe for the jury how you became 3 interested in public service?
4 A. Well, my family has always been in government and in 5 politics, I guess. I have, well, we have two sides of the 6 family, one side of Democrats and the other side Republicans, and 7 the Democrats are from Tennessee, as I'm sure you know, and the 8 Republicans are from Maryland. And my aunt was in public service
9 and my, of course, cousins.
10 My grandfather was always in public service, wasn't -
11 he never ran a successful campaign. He always wanted to. He 12 never got elected to anything. He kept running. But he was 13 appointed to a lot of things, and he did a very, very admirable
14 job.
15 He was head of -
16 back in the Eisenhower Administra-
17 tion, they used to have loyalty boards, something that we would 18 never think of today, but they used to have those back then, when 19 there was a Communist threat or whatever, and my grandfather was 20 the head of the loyalty boards back then and did an outstanding 21 job of basically getting rid of them by clearing Ralph Bunche and 22 a few other people who were condemned unfairly.
23 And my father, of course, who I'm extremely proud of,
24 was, public service was his life.
25 Q. Excuse me for one second. There's been a lot of testimony in the trial regarding your relationship with John Mitchell.

2163

A. Yes.

2 Q. Now John Mitchell is not your father; is that correct?

3 A. No, he's not.

4 Q. Would you describe for the jury who your real father is and 5 your recollections of him?

6 A. Yes, of course. My father's name was Gordon Dean, and he 7 was a very, very intelligent man, and he started his career in,
8 going through law school, worked his way through college and law
9 school, and when he got to, to law school, the war had started,
10 and there weren't a lot of people to teach law school, so they 11 asked him if he would leave school and become a teacher. So 12 there were times when he was actually one or two years older than 13 his students. And he taught at the University of Southern 14 California Law School, and he taught at the University of North
15 Carolina Law School.

16 And then he went from there to the Justice Department,
17 and he became at the same age that I became executive assistant 18 to Secretary Pierce, he was executive assistant to then the 19 attorney general, Homer Cummings.

20 And my father very much wanted a promotion, and he 21 didn't get it, either. I didn't get mine, and he didn't get his.
22 He wanted to, to go to the criminal division and be a head of 23 that, but someone else got the job, and he had made an enemy of 24 Hoover at the FBI, and Hoover kept, well, remembering all the 25 time. Everytime my father turned around, Hoover had done

2164

1 something to him, and basically Hoover got him out of the agency.
2 And he went into naval intelligence and then out of 3 naval intelligence. He was called back to Washington, and he was 4 asked to go with Robert Jackson, who was then, I believe,
5 solicitor general of the United States, he was asked to go to 6 represent the United States at the Nuremberg trials, and my 7 father was one of the prosecutors at the Nuremberg trials, where 8 we put the Nazis on, in, on trial for the abuses in the Nuremberg
9 trials.

10 My father went there, and he had very grueling years
11 there, but when he came back, he and Robert Jackson won the Medal
12 of Freedom, which is the highest civilian medal in this country.
13 I'm extremely proud of him, and I've always tried to emulate him
14 as best as I could in my life, because it's a lot to live up to,
15 but I'm very proud of him.

16 Then he went -- I haven't finished. After the 17 Nuremberg trials, he went to head up the Atomic Energy
18 Commission, and that was when we were first, the United States
19 was building the atomic bomb and then the hydrogen bomb. He got 20 in right after the atomic bomb, produced the first nuclear 21 submarine, the first nuclear cars and airplanes. But of course
22 that never went anywhere.

23 After that, he went into the private sector. That was 24 after marrying my mother. But he never liked it. He went to 25 Lehman Brothers as a banker, but that just wasn't my father. I think he would have been better as a farmer than to be in Wall

2165

2 Street. He really loved the government.

3 And then he was killed in an airplane accident when I
4 was young, and that's it.
5 Q. How old were you when your father was killed in the airplane
6 accident?

A. Close to four.

8 Q. Your mother never remarried; is that correct?

9 A. That's correct.

10 Q. But she is alive today?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. How old is she?

13 A. She's in her mid-70s.

14 I'm going to get some water. Not to look like some 15 people who drank a lot of water up here, but . . .

16 Sorry, Steve, go ahead. Sorry.

17 Q. Your mother is in her mid-70s; is that correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Directing your attention specifically to your experience in 20 public service, what was the first public service job and at what 21 age were you when you first worked for a public entity?

22 A. Oh, well, I was, it was in high school. There was, actually 23 it's a, there was a group that just started called Environmental 24 Action. I don't know if you've ever heard of that, but they 25 started the April 22 Environmental Action Day that everybody

2166

1 still has, and it was sort of a, it was really actually a bunch
2 of hippies, I guess, that were real activists in the environment.
3 And I used to go down there every night, I guess I was in 11th
4 grade, 10th or 11th grade, and I would run the mimeograph machine
5 and put up posters all over.
6 We had Earth Day. That's what it was called, April 22,
7 Earth Day. We started that in high school.
8 I worked for a bunch of things that I don't remember 9 right now, but then the first job I had in the government, of 10 course, was with the Department of Energy.

11 Q. Approximately how old were you when you started with the 12 Department of Energy?

13 A. 25, 26.

14 Q. And how did you get your job at the Department of Energy?

15 A. John Mitchell got me my job there. He called a friend of 16 his who had worked with him in the Nixon Administration and said
17 that, that I would be interested in working in the government and 18 would he give me a shot at being an assistant in his office.

19 Q. And who was that that he called?

20 A. Robert Odle.

21 Q. And what was Mr. Odle's position?

22 A. He was the assistant secretary for Congressional
2 Intergovernmental and Public Affairs.

23 Q. At what agency?

24 A. The Department of Energy.

2167

1 Q. Did you go to work for Mr. Odle?

2 A. Well, I didn't work for Mr. Odle. He had me very down on

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
3 the totem pole, but I did work under that office, yes.
4 Q. What was your position?
5 A. I worked in the Office of Public Affairs, and I had several 6 different jobs there, and we had several different people coming
7 and going.
8 And then I worked in the Office of Congressional 9 Affairs, and then I went to work for the Office of the Secretary.

10 Q. Of the Department of Energy?
11 A. Yes. He was a very nice man.
12 Q. And who was that?
13 A. His name was James Edwards.
14 Q. Now what were your responsibilities and duties in that
15 position?
16 A. Which one, the one in the secretary's office?
17 Q. Correct.
18 A. Well, it was sort of a project that I had been assigned to,
19 and basically the Department of Energy at that time was, was very 20 large, because they had gone off into a lot of different areas.
2 It was nuclear, solar, wind-powered, you name it.
2 And the department had a very large budget, and part of 2 that budget was a lot of travel. People were just going
2 everywhere. And they seemed to be going to Puerto Rico a lot and 2 Hawaii a lot. There were a lot of conferences that were places

2168

1 that it looked to the secretary that there might be a little
2 vacations going on here, and he asked me would I please come in 3 and take a look at all of the travel department-wide, all of the 4 field offices and everything, and I was just in a, in a sea of 5 printouts for weeks trying to come up with a report on whether we 6 were overexpending our travel dollars.
7 Q. How long did you stay at the Department of Energy?
8 A. Steve, I honestly don't know. I think it was about two 9 years.

10 Q. And how old were you then when you left the Department of 11 Energy?
12 A. 28, 27-28.
13 Q. You went directly from the Department of Energy to HUD; is
14 that correct?
15 A. Yes, as a direct result of the project I was working on.
16 Q. Okay. Would you describe how you got from the Department of 17 Energy to HUD, please?
18 A. Well, as I said, I was working on this project on whether we 19 were wasting money traveling, and this is a fortuitous
20 circumstance that happened, but that day in my office, I had been
2 looking at this Joint Energy-HUD conference that was being held
2 in Vail, Colorado, and I remember thinking to myself, now why do
2 people from Energy and HUD have to go to Vail, Colorado? That
2 didn't make any sense. It was about insulation or something.
2 And that looked pretty much like that was pretty much of a scam.

2169

1 So I had brought that to the attention of the people
2 that were looking at it and said, "Maybe we should look into this
3 one or not do it," and it was canceled.
4 And that evening, before anyone knew it was canceled, I

5 was having dinner with some friends, one of whom worked at the 6 Department of Housing and Urban Development, and right in the 7 middle of dinner, like my worst nightmare, she tells me she had 8 just bought a brand new pair of skis because of this trip she was 9 going on to Vail, Colorado, and I thought to myself, oh, no, you
10 know, I didn't want to tell her, but at the same time, I knew I
11 had to, so I said, "well, I don't think -- if that's the one
12 that's being paid for by the Department of Energy, you'd better
13 return the skis, because I don't think you're going."
14 And about two days later, I got a phone call from Lance 15 Wilson, who was then executive assistant to the secretary, who 16 apparently was also going on this trip and was not very happy
17 with me, and I said, "well, I work for the secretary of Energy; I 18 don't work for the secretary of HUD, and I'm sure that if the 19 secretary of HUD knew that this was going on, he wouldn't like 20 .it, either." That sort of ended the conversation.
21 And then when I finally met him one time in a social 22 circumstance, he said to me, "I admired what you did, and if you
23 would ever like to come to work at HUD, we'd like to have you."
24 And so when Secretary Edwards decided to retire and a
25 new secretary was coming in, I called up Mr. Wilson and asked him for an interview.

2170

2 Q. You subsequently interviewed with Mr. Wilson?

3 A. Yes, I did, about five times.

4 Q. Had you met Secretary Pierce at that point?

5 A. No.

6 Q. But Secretary Pierce was the secretary of HUD at that time,-
7 is that correct?

8 A. Absolutely, yes.

9 Q. And he was secretary at HUD during your entire tenure at 10 HUD, correct?

11 A. Yes, he was.

12 Q. Did you -- when did you have the first occasion to meet
13 Secretary Pierce?

14 A. Well, he has a staff meeting on Tuesday mornings, and it was 15 huge, all the assistant secretaries all the way around the 16 building, around this big table, and the secretary, you know,
17 would come in and go, you know, basically person by person in the 18 same order every week and about what the important issues that 19 were in front of the department at that time, and then around the 20 room in chairs sat the special assistants to the secretary, and 21 there were a lot of them as well, and any support staff that were 22 needed to talk about any particular issue.

23 And my first time there, because I had been hired as a
24 special assistant to the secretary, even though I hadn't met him,
25 I was allowed to sit in on that meeting, and so I guess the first

2171

1 time I met him was when he announced that he had a new special
2 assistant, even though I'd actually never shook hands with him.
3 It wasn't actually until several months, maybe a month,
4 two months, three months after I, I was there, I'd been going to 5 the staff meetings, so I kind of knew him, he didn't know me, and 6 then I was, of course, exec, sec, director of the executive
7 secretariat. That's the job that Mr. Wilson had given me.

8 Q. Directing your attention to your first job, that of being 9 exec-

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

what was the title?

10 A. It was the director of the executive secretariat, which 11 means head of the mailroom, in essence.

12 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission, I will show
13 what I've now marked as Dean Exhibit 556.

14 THE COURT:

All right.
Dean's Exhibit 556 marked for

(Defendant's Exhibit No. 556 was
marked for identification.)

Can I move this to the front?

Yes, I think you ought to try to work that

It will be easier to see.

2 THE WITNESS: It's over to the right.

2 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, could the witness come down
2 from the stand?

2172

1 THE COURT: Certainly, sure.

2 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.

3 Q. Ms. Dean, with the use of the chart, would you point out to 4 the jury what your position was when you first went to HUD?

5 A. Right here, okay. It was right here. I was technically a 6 special assistant, but it was really director of the executive
7 secretariat.

8 Q. And what were your duties as director of the executive
9 secretariat?

10 A. Well, all the departmental rules and regulations would come 11 up to that office, and we would reroute them plus all the 12 secretary's mail. So a letter would come in, it would say, "Dear 13 Secretary Pierce, I am concerned about Chad Brown Apartments," at 14 which point Chad Brown Apartments would come under either the 15 Office of Public Housing or the Office of Housing. We would send 16 a slip downstairs that said, "Please prepare an answer for
17 Secretary Pierce."

18 But we would also send a copy of that letter, depending 19 on who had sent it, to the executive assistant and the special
20 assistant who was in charge of that area plus any relevant
21 offices that we thought would have interest in Chad Brown
22 Apartments. If it was about a UDAG, it would be completely
23 different. It would go to a different special assistant, a 24 different assistant secretary. A copy would always, usually go
25 to the executive assistant.

1 But there was everyday mail, and then there was 2 Congressional mail, and then there was a list of people who the

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
3 secretary prepared that were people that he knew and he wanted
4 their letters directly to him, and then, of course, things came 5 personal and confidential, and they went directly to the 6 secretary.

7 Q. What authority did you have when you were executive
8 assistant?

A. You mean executive secretariat?

10 Q. I'm sorry, executive secretariat.

11 A. Well, the only -- well, I had none. I had the people in my 12 office. There were, it grew and shrunk during different times,
13 but the people who worked -- and it was a large office; I mean,
14 there were people --

15 Q. Approximately how many people was it?

16 A. 15 to 25 at any time.

17 And there were, of course, people that were there
18 through lots of different secretaries, and one person would be,
19 handle -- well, actually I reorganized it when I was there to do
20 this, but at the end, one person always handled community
21 planning and development, and one person always handled housing.
22 That way, they became familiar with the subject areas
23 so they could be more help to the secretary in making certain 24 that he got things in time. Otherwise, it could take days for 25 him to know that a letter was in the department, and that's sort

2174

1 of pointless.

2 Q. How long did you stay in the position of executive
3 secretariat?

4 A. About a year and, a little more than a year and a half.

5 Maybe a year and ten months, something like that.

6 Q. Let's talk about that year-and-a-half or year-and-ten-month
7 period, and would you tell us, please, who occupied the executive
8 assistant to the secretary and the under secretary's position?

9 A. Well, when I went to HUD, Don Hovde was the under secretary,

10 and he had an executive assistant, also, and then Phil Abrams was 11 under secretary while I was there. Executive assistant there was 12 Lance Wilson, who was my boss, and then there was Secretary
13 Pierce, of course.

14 Q. During your tenure as, in the executive secretariat, did you
15 become aware of a program called mod rehab?

16 A. Yes. Can I sit down now?

17 Q. Sure.

18 A. I only had one experience with mod rehab, and it was really,
19 it was really an eerie, sort of weird experience about it,
20 because Lance Wilson was not in town. He was off on travel. And 21 I remember it because I, I wrote Lance's speeches, also. He was 22 off doing some function.

23 And a letter had come in to Secretary Pierce regarding 24 a, a moderate rehabilitation program, somebody requesting funds, 25 and I had a habit of basically tacking a small note onto all of 2175

1 Secretary Pierce's letters that went in directly to him telling
2 him what the letter was about. It would say, "This letter is

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
3 from, you know, Joe Smith and he wants X." Because sometimes the 4 letters would be very, very lengthy, and he only had so much time
5 every day to devote to correspondence. So I would try to make it
6 faster for him. And basically it was, you know, a lot of times
7 it was concur and non-concur, do this and do that.

8 well, one time he wrote me back a note and said, "Talk

9 to Maurice Barksdale about this, and tell him that it's okay to 10 go ahead and do this project."

11 So I went downstairs, and I asked Mr. Barksdale if I 12 could have a meeting with him, and he said sure. He was an 13 extremely nice man, as you could tell from when he testified.

14 And he was the deputy assistant secretary for Multi-Family
15 Housing then. He went the assistant secretary.

16 And I went in his office and I --

17 Q. Would you point out where on the chart he was?

18 A. Under Housing, which I think is second in, and then down
19 one, down another to Multi-Family.

20 Q. He was in this position?

2 A. He was there, yes, at that time.

2 Q. And at the time you had that conversation, were you still
2 here at the executive secretariat position?

2 A. Yes.

2 So I went down, and I showed him the note that 2176

1 Secretary Pierce had given me, and he just sort of looked at me,
2 like, what are you doing down here? And it was obviously, it
3 was, this was out of the link, out of the loop. And he asked me,
4 "Are you sure?"

5 And I said, "Sure." And I showed him the note, and it
6 had the secretary's handwriting on it.

7 And he said, "Did you talk to Lance about this?"

8 And I said, "No, he's out of town."

9 He said, "All right," he goes, "I'll take care of it."

10 And then he handed me back the note and said, "You take this with 11 you."

12 And I remember thinking that was odd. It was like 13 there was some secret somewhere, and I didn't understand it. And 14 that was really the only thing I heard about mod rehab for 15 another year or so.

16 Q. So that occurred at the time you're at the executive 17 secretariat; is that correct?

18 A. Right.

19 Q. Okay. The time that you received that message from 20 Secretary Pierce, had you met him before that in terms of, I'm 21 talking in terms of having a conversation?

22 A. Yes. At that particular point, we had met. We met because 23 he called me into his office basically to ball me out about 24 something that I had done, and I meant it by the best of 25 circumstances, but it's always difficult to meet your boss the 2177

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
1 first time because he's mad at you. That always sets you off on 2 sort of the wrong foot. And I think Lance was out that day as 3 well, or else he probably would have, he would have spoken to 4 Lance.
5 But we had started to get a lot of letters in, I mean,
6 we literally would get in bags and bags full of, of mail every 7 day, thousands and thousands of letters, and the department was 8 not prepared and not well-structured enough to really answer the 9 volume of mail that Secretary Pierce himself received, which I
10 thought was probably an indication of how well we were doing, for 11 instance, in the, well, the Washington, D.C. field office or in 12 the Detroit field office. I mean, if we weren't answering the 13 secretary's mail, what were we doing by the time we got down, you
14 know, to the field offices? And that was rather disconcerting.
15 So I decided to sort of take letters myself and start
16 to read them and investigate them, sort of like casework. Now he 17 had not asked me to do this, and I obviously did not go about it
18 the right way, because what I did was I, one time I got this 19 letter, and I don't remember the specifics of it, but this is 20 close enough, and it was basically a letter from a family that 21 said, "Our house is being foreclosed on, and can you -- and we're 22 getting some money in, and if HUD will just not foreclose on our (Rectangle comment Administrator
12/13/2005 10:19:30 AM

23 house, we'll be able to take care of it, and we'll be able to 24 straighten it out, and we've tried to explain this to the HUD
25 field office, and they said there's nothing they can do because

(Rectangle comment Administrator
12/13/2005 10:19:34 AM

1 it's on some computer printout."
2 well, I thought to myself a computer printout can be
3 changed. You just cross it off, and you can get the money, take 4 care of it. So it doesn't seem right.
5 So I called downstairs, and I, you know, looked in the 6 phone book and found the person who I thought was basically in 7 charge of this, and I called down and, in essence, said, "Why are 8 we foreclosing on 4551 Upton Street?"
9 And the man said, "well, what are you talking about?"
10 He was very upset with me.
11 And I said, "well, I was just wondering. I'm trying to 12 answer a letter for the secretary, and I was wondering if you 13 could get some information from the field office or whatever to 14 explain what the situation on this particular project is." And 15 of course, I did this three times a day.
16 Needless to say, I created a little bit of a problem
17 down there in this office, because they didn't want to, they 18 didn't want to have to do all that research for me to answer
19 three letters, and it got complaints -- the complaints went up
20 the line, and I guess the assistant secretary basically asked the 2 secretary, "what in the world is your special assistant doing?"
(Rectangle comment Administrator
12/13/2005 10:19:40 AM
blank)
2 She's creating havoc, down here in our office."
2 So the secretary called me in, and he said, "What are
2 you doing?"
2 And I said to him, I said, "You should come back and 2179

1 look at how much mail you get, and you should see what these
2 letters say, because they're very compelling."
3 And I knew why he'd called me in, so I brought some 4 with me. And I showed them to him, and he said, "You're 5 absolutely right." And he goes, "This is what I want my 6 assistants to do more of."
7 And I remember I really liked him. I mean, I really
8 liked him from that second, because I knew that all those people
9 who had given me so much trouble down there and were acting like 10 it was such an imposition to do something for somebody didn't 11 represent him.
12 And I just got along with him from that second. I
13 mean, nothing he could ever say or do from then on would ever
14 change my opinion, because his gut reaction to what I was doing
15 at that moment was so great, and he was so supportive.
16 And he said, "You know, you're doing the right thing.
17 Go back and do more. And every day, I want you to bring me five 18 letters." And he goes, "Don't open them. Just bring me the 19 envelopes. I want to see what's inside. I'll answer them
20 myself."
21 And we did that for a while. And he'd write them out
22 longhand, and I'd type them up for him, get them out. It was a 23 good thing to know what was going on, because he was far removed 24 from the problems that people had.
25 Q. Did there come a time when you made a transition from being

2180

1 a special assistant in the executive secretariat to another
2 position?
3 A. Well, yes. I got to know the secretary pretty well after 4 that, because he would give me assignments and ask me to sit on 5 certain task forces and things, which was nice. And while I
6 worked for him, I ran into somebody who basically had a company
7 that could give us some advertising space if we needed it on 8 buses and billboards and things like that, and I knew this person
9 fairly well, and I went to the secretary and I said, "You know,
10 this is a great opportunity if we want to do something with it."
11 And the secretary said, "Yes. As a matter of fact, I 12 would like to do more outreach on the discrimination hotline on 13 fair housing." And so he said, "Why don't you do this and take 14 it on as an extra job?"
15 Now that's how I got to know him well so that I could 16 then make a promotion. I just didn't leapfrog from his mail. We 17 did have a major campaign that went between there, and we 18 traveled around the country, and I got to know him well and doing
19 the fair housing campaign.
20 So when Lance left and he decided to go back to New 21 York and had gotten a, a big promotion in his career, he went to 22 run, I can't remember what it was, he went to run something very 23 big in New York, and the secretary asked me would I, was I
24 looking for a promotion, and I said yes.
25 Q. At that time, how long had you been at HUD?

(Rectangle comment Administrator
12/13/2005 10:19:48 AM
blank)

1 A. Two, about two years.
2 Q. Okay. Now based on your two-year experience at HUD, could

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

3 you please describe for the jury categories of employees at HUD?
4 A. Yeah, well, the mission of HUD is very diverse. There -
5 at one point, you have a department that is foreclosing on a 6 single home, and on the other hand, it is one of the largest 7 financial institutions in the country, because -- and it's, it's 8 extraordinarily complicated.
9 So you have people who are big money people, and they 10 run the Government National Mortgage Association, and they have 11 oversight for Fannie Mae, and they are literally looking at 12 insuring and co-insuring billions and billions of dollars and 13 trying to get money into infrastructure around the country, and 14 they're off in one aspect.
15 Then you've got people whose lives are basically 16 dedicated to housing programs and helping people and getting 17 those out. And then you've got those people. Sometimes those 18 can be political people, and sometimes they can be career people.
19 It's just where your motivation lies.
20 And then there are people who are there for their own
21 agenda and are, they're just basically putting HUD on their (Rectangle comment Administrator
12/13/2005 10:19:52 AM
blank)
22 resume to move on and do things when they, when they leave. And 23 then we have people who, I don't know, they're just people who,
24 they're not mission oriented, and they're not intellectually
25 oriented. They're just sort of there. And a lot of the 2182

1 lower-level political appointees fall into that category, just
2 taking up space.
3 Q. Now during that two-year period, you had the opportunity to 4 meet Secretary Pierce and then come to know him better?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. At that initial period, what did you observe about his 7 management style?
8 A. Well, this, this idea that he's a hands-off manager is just 9 not true at all. He was, he was extremely well-versed in the 10 department and what the department ought to be doing, and he was 11 also under personal constraints because of the budgetary crunch
12 that HUD was under. It was difficult for him personally.
13 So I would say that, you know, where he -- it's hard 14 for me -- I mean, he gave specific assignments to people, and he 15 ran the department, and he ran the whole thing. He did not get 16 into specific issues. If someone said, "Sir, we're having a 17 problem with the 312 program," he would say, "Well, get whoever 18 you need and fix it and let me know when it's done." He would 19 not tell you how to fix the 312 program.
20 Does that answer the question?
21 Q. Yes. And did that -
22 your observation of him continue
23 throughout your tenure at HUD?
24 A. Yes. Well, of course. I saw him more and more.
25 Q. But did your observations of his management style change?
26 A. No, no.

1 Q. Okay. Now sometime in 1985, I believe you said you went 2 from the executive secretariat to the executive assistant; is
3 that correct?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. Describe how you got that promotion. I believe you've 6 already testified that Mr. Wilson resigned and went to New York.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

7 A. Right. Well, I had spoken to Lance, and Lance was very much
8 in favor of -- I didn't know the secretary's views on it, but 9 Lance was very much in favor of Al Moran, who was our Chicago
10 regional administrator, coming in to take that job, and so I
11 think we all just assumed that Al Moran was going to take that 12 job.
13 And I wanted to be the deputy under secretary for 14 intergovernmental affairs, so I made an appointment to go see the 15 secretary to ask him for that job, because that woman was also 16 leaving. She was being promoted to a different job.
17 And I went in, and he said that he thought that I could 18 have that job if, if I wanted it, that I could handle it. That's 19 the job basically that dealt with mayors of cities. That's the 20 job I wanted to do. I wanted to deal with mayors and then take 21 their problems and route it to the appropriate assistant
22 secretary and resolve that matter.
23 And I was really, really anxious to have that job. I
24 thought that would be a terrific job. And I went and interviewed
25 for it, and he asked me while I was in there would I consider

2184

1 being his executive assistant, and I was really quite shocked,
2 and I told him I didn't think I was right for it and that I
3 thought that Al Moran really was a good candidate and a terrific
4 guy and that he seemed to me to be more appropriate for that job.

5 And Secretary Pierce said that he had thought about it,
6 and he wanted an energetic person who could, could work for him
7 and do what he wanted, and he wanted me.
8 And I said okay, and I was very delighted.
9 Q. Now when you became executive assistant to Secretary Pierce,

10 what was your authority, your legal authority?
11 A. Well, there was no legal authority attached to any assistant 12 job to anybody. I mean, no executive assistant has legal 13 authority.
14 Q. Were you a presidential appointee?
15 A. No, a secretarial appointee.
16 Q. So you worked at the will and pleasure of the secretary?
17 A. Um-hum.
18 Q. Using the chart that you've previously introduced, would you
19 tell us who the other presidential appointees were at HUD besides
20 Secretary Pierce, of course?
21 A. Sure. The big boxes down on the bottom, those are all
22 presidential appointees.
23 Q. Legislation/Congressional Relations?
24 A. Is an assistant secretary.
25 Q. And that is appointed by the secretary?

(Rectangle comment Administrator
12/13/2005 10:19:57 AM
blank)
2185

1 A. Absolutely.
2 Q. Housing?
3 A. Of course, yes, assistant secretary.
4 Q. Ginnie Mae?

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

- 5 A. The Government National Mortgage Association, yes.
6 Q. Public and Indian Housing?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. Housing and Public Development Research?
9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Community Planning and Development?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. Is anyone below that line a presidential appointee?

(Rectangle comment Administrator
12/13/2005 10:20:00 AM
blank)

15 A. No.

16 Q. Above the line, who is a presidential appointee?

17 A. The under secretary is a presidential appointee, the general

18 counsel is a presidential appointee, the inspector general is 19 appointed by the President, and the secretary, of course.

20 Q. Now in practical terms, that means that those people can be

21 fired by the President of the United States, is that correct, or 22 hired by the President of the United States?

23 A. They're hired and fired by the President of the United 24 States, and the secretary, frankly, can't even fire them.

25 Q. Okay.

2186

1 A. He can certainly make life difficult, but he cannot fire
2 them.

3 Q. And you were not a presidential appointee?

4 A. Frankly, Steve, I had a hard time getting through the White
5 House just for the job I had. They didn't want to clear me to 6 have the job I had.

7 Q. But you were not a presidential appointee?

8 A. No, I was not.

9 Q. Now at the beginning of the time in 1985, when you became 10 executive assistant, until the time you left HUD in, what,
11 January of '88 -12

A. Um-hum.

13 Q. -- you had occasion to deal with various political issues;
14 is that correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. I'd ask you to describe generally from the period of 1985
17 through 1988 who would come to see you, what they would come to 18 see you for, and your recollections generally as to the 19 individuals that you had to talk to because of the nature of your
20 position.

21 A. well, frankly, the political side of the office of the 22 secretary really was, that's what I did. I mean, that was -and 23 the reason, of course, was because the secretary did not want to 24 have to get in between the flying bullets of two different 25 political people wanting the same, wanting something, and so he

2187

1 basically would ask me to have the preliminary meeting either
2 with the person's staff or with them, find out what the issue
3 was, find out as much as I could about what was going to happen,
4 and then allow him to make his decisions in peace, and then he 5 would decide how he wanted to deal with whatever political 6 ramifications that had, but he didn't want to have to get in the 7 middle of some of the people that came in and out of HUD, whether 8 it was senators and consultants or whatever.

9 Q. What types of political issues were brought to you?

10 A. Anything that - well, let's put it this way: If something

11 went wrong, it didn't take long before all the involved people
12 were standing in my office, trying to figure out how they were 13 going to tell the secretary what had gone wrong, and that's,
14 that's sort of what I remember.

15 They would call you on the phone, let's say, the Public
16 Affairs Office called and said, "The Wall Street Journal just 17 called, blah, blah, blah," and within five minutes, I wouldn't 18 even have to pick up the phone, within five minutes, all the 19 appropriate people would be standing in the hallway outside the 20 secretary's office, all figuring out how they were going to 21 explain to him what they had just done or how something had 22 happened, and that, that's how it happened more times than 23 anything else.

24 There were also times when, say, the white House, never 25 a great understander of HUD programs, would make some comment to

2188

1 a senator like, "You can have that," about some HUD program, and 2 we would have to then, you know, set up a team to go over and
3 explain to the white House that no, we don't fund things that
4 way, or that's not the way it works.

5 Those things went through my office. The secretary
6 always had me handle those things.

7 Q. Did you deal with senators on occasion?

8 A. Oh, yes.

9 Q. And what types of requests would you receive from senators?

10 A. well, they wanted public housing built, public housing torn 11 down, public housing renovated. Then they wanted mod rehab.

12 They wanted UDAGs. They wanted 202s.

13 They want -- I mean, if there was a program and it
14 could be built or not built in their state, depending on their 15 particular leanings on it, they would call, and they were not 16 reticent about calling. And the same goes with congressmen and 17 governors, mayors.

18 Q. From the Congress specifically, who do you remember being in 19 contact with you during that, during that appropriate time
20 period, '85 to '88?
2 A. Oh, well, I mean, hundreds of them, literally hundreds of

2 congressmen and senators, but I would say out of 100 members of
2 the Senate, I didn't talk to 20 of them, I mean, at some point.
2 Now I didn't always talk to them directly. Sometimes I
2 talked to their staff person, you know, their executive

2189

1 assistant, whatever they call it, legislative aide, whatever. A
2 lot of times, I would talk to them, because they would only want
3 to talk to the secretary. A lot of senators were more than happy
4 to lean on me, and I would say I talked to the fair majority of
5 them.

6 Q. That's your recollection of telephone conversations. What 7 about where did the mail from various political interests come?

8 A. It came through the exec. sec. for the most part, or if it
9 was marked personal and confidential, it went directly to the 10 secretary.

11 Q. Okay. What dealings did you have in terms of responding to 12 the political influences that came into the secretary's office by 13 mail specifically?

14 A. There was --we had a list of senators that, of course, the 15 members of the Banking Committee, and the same would go with the 16 House, the exact same deal with the House and the Senate, they 17 were on our committees, and we always got their mail. I always 18 got a copy of whatever requests they had in.

19 Plus there were a number of senators and congressmen
20 who had known the secretary for many years and who he knew many 21 years, and they were on the list as well. I mean, if Charles
22 Rangle wanted, you know, something in the department and wrote
23 the secretary a letter, Secretary Pierce would get the letter.
24 It did not go someplace else for a response.

25 Q. Did you on occasion hear from Senator D'Amato?

2190

1 A. Well, yeah.

2 Q. Do you recall?

3 A. Senator D'Amato was not a snob, so he would talk to whomever
4 he could talk to to push whatever he was pushing at that time,
5 and he had, well, New York State, I mean, obviously, they have an 6 enormous amount of housing and an enormous amount of urban 7 development, so he was, he was very involved. And plus, he was 8 on the Banking Committee.

9 Q. Did you talk to him frequently?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Personally?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And generally, what would the conversations concern?

14 A. They would concern whatever group that wanted to come into 15 Washington to express their concerns. I mean, he would call a 16 lot about that. He was very interested in the elderly and 17 handicapped not-for-profit sponsor program. He was interested in 18 mod rehab. He was interested in UDAGs. He was, he was 19 interested in just about any housing program that we had.

20 And of course, Senator D'Amato knew Secretary Pierce

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

21 very well, and that was a, something that -- I mean, that's 22 something else I've never talked about, but Al D'Amato is,
23 obviously, going to push every project in New York. He's going 24 to push some more than others. So he would run all of the 25 projects into the department from every housing authority in New

2191

1 York State. Then there would be ones that he would push by
2 calling me, but if he really, really wanted something, he would
3 call the secretary.

4 So there was always that -- and Secretary Pierce would 5 always say -- I'd say, "well, we had phone calls from so-and-so,
6 so-and-so, so-and-so." Secretary Pierce always knew that if 7 certain people wanted something, they would call him themselves.
8 Q. Senator Heinz from Pennsylvania, did you have conversations
9 with Senator Heinz's office?

10 A. He mostly spoke to the secretary directly, but Secretary 11 Pierce and I did go to Senator Heinz's office on a number of 12 occasions.

13 Q. And generally what did those conversations entail?

14 A. Well, the conversations that we were having with him were 15 always about the fair housing amendments or the testing program
16 that we were trying to get through Congress, and there were 17 certain new HUD programs we wanted, housing vouchers and things
18 like that, public housing modernization, funds that we were 19 having a hard time in the Banking Committee with.

20 We went up there and talked to Senator Heinz about that 21 on occasion, and Senator Heinz would always have a list of things
22 he would like to talk to us about as well. And so sometimes -

I

23 mean, I remember at one time it was very funny, because we 24 started the meeting out, and Senator Heinz started with his list, 25 and the secretary said, "You know, I think you ought to hear what

1 it is I want before you tell me how much it's going to cost."

2 So it was -- so he gave us basically his list of what
3 he wanted for his support on those initiatives that we had.

4 Q. And these requests from people like Senator D'Amato and 5 Senator Heinz, they were for funds, weren't they, dollars for 6 their states?

7 A. Well, yes. Of course, yes.

8 Q. Whether they were called UDAGs or mod rehabs or 202s?

9 A. It was all money.

10 Q. It was all to get money into their area, correct?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. Senator Graham?

13 A. From Florida?

14 Q. Yes.

15 A. Yes, and from Texas, both.

16 Q. Generally requests for funds for their districts?

17 A. Yes. Senator Graham from Florida was much more interested
18 in the elderly and handicapped programs, the 202s. I believe 19 that he did make some entrees into the department about mod
20 rehab, but never to me. I think he was working with Mr. Demery.
21 I think he contacted Mr. Demery, which would have been 22 appropriate at that time when he was senator.

23 Q. Senator Hawkins from Florida?

24 A. I spoke to Senator Hawkins many times.

25 Q. Regarding?

2193

1 A. Money for Florida. 202s. 202s and mod rehab and UDAGs.
2 Senator Gramm from Texas, that was mostly UDAGs.
3 Q. What is a UDAG?
4 A. It's an urban development action grant.
5 Q. What is that?
6 A. Well, it no longer exists, but it was a great program. The 7 government would basically put a, would bridge the gap of a
8 business that was going to go into an urban area where the 9 business would not normally go. It was very widely criticized by 10 President Reagan and David Stockman, because they said, "well,

11 what is the government doing giving loans to Marriott Hotels?"
12 well, Marriott Hotel was going to build a hotel where 13 Marriott Hotel was not going to build a hotel for at least 14 another 15 or 20 years if they got that bridge financing to make 15 it profitable. So, for instance, the Inner Harbor of Baltimore,
16 that was all done with UDAGs.
17 So the hotel goes in. The hotel hires people to build 18 the hotel, hires people to work in the hotel. And so for a small 19 amount of federal investment, they brought in private leveraging 20 into areas that they would not have normally gone until the 21 economic climate had changed in those areas. It was a great
22 program.
23 Q. Directing your attention to the, the House side of Congress,
24 do you have recollections of dealings with various Congress
25 people with regards to funding to their districts?

2194

1 A. Certainly.
2 Q. And who do you recall?
3 A. Oh, well, I mean, members of the Banking Committee were,
4 were very vocal. I mean, on the House side more than - 5 Q. Excuse me, Ms. Dean. You mentioned the Banking Committee in 6 the Senate and the Banking Committee in the House. What was 7 their positions, Banking Committees' respective positions
8 vis-a-vis in regards to HUD?
9 A. Well, they pass all of our regulations, and they pass all of 10 our law, and if you have a new program that you want to go
11 through -- and the only thing that we were able to get through 12 when we were there that was, we got initiatives through that 13 didn't need Congressional concurrence, but other than that, the 14 only two laws we passed, of course, were the fair housing testing
15 program and the fair housing amendments.
16 And in order to get any new law passed, these two 17 committees have got to write it, they have to introduce it, they 18 have to vote for it, and they have to push it on the, on the 19 floor of the House and Senate, and that was hard to do.
20 But now in the Senate, people sit on the Banking
21 Committee, because the Banking Committee is a real big deal in 22 the Senate. It's all about savings and loans. It's about Wall 23 Street. They have NASA, for some reason, that -- and they have
24 HUD.
25 In the House, it's very different. The congressmen who 2195

1 sit on the Banking Committee in the House sit there because HUD
2 usually is so important to their district. So you get, like, for 3 instance, Barney Frank from Boston, his district has a lot of 4 public housing in it, so he wants to sit on that committee,
5 because that's good for his district, and the same goes for a lot
6 of the congressmen on it. They have more of a parochial interest
7 in housing on the House side than they do on the Senate.
8 Q. Of the members of the House Banking Committee, who called 9 you regarding getting funds to their districts generally? Not 10 specific conversations at this point.
11 A. Well, Congressman Frank called on some projects up in Boston
12 called the Granite, and Mary Rose Oakar asked me on several 13 occasions to meet with people on Cleveland, and Congressman
14 Gonzalez, of course, was extremely interested in his area in 15 Texas.
16 And on the Republican side, I think, I can't remember
17 his name, there was a young congressman from Texas who was 18 calling a great deal about things. Stu McKinney, a wonderful man
19 who's no longer with us, was the minority head of the House
20 Banking Committee, and he was from Bridgeport, Connecticut, and 21 Bridgeport, Connecticut, was, of course, had a lot of HUD work up
22 there, and that's why he sat on the committee, and he called a
23 great deal.
24 And of course, the Appropriations Committee in the 25 House is the same thing. I mean, there's a whole different group

2196

1 of people, and they give you all your money. So they'd make
2 calls, also.
3 And I know that Congressman Boland, who was the head of 4 that particular Appropriations Committee at that time, was a
5 constant caller to Secretary Pierce.
6 Q. Okay. Would you describe what contacts you would receive 7 generally from the white House with regards to HUD funding during 8 the same time period, '85 to '88?
9 A. Well, the white House many times represented senators and 10 congressmen. I mean, a senator or congressman would go over, and 11 I, I don't know why they were there, but I assume that the white
12 House was working on something with them, and they would turn
13 around and say, "well, there's something at HUD that we want."
14 And then we would get a phone call from the appropriate
15 office at the white House, which was usually the Office of 16 Cabinet Affairs, and we would get a phone call that said, "The 17 President just met with so-and-so, and this was mentioned, and 18 please get us back a report on whether or not it's possible to do
19 this." Or they would just call and say, "We're very 20 interested -- whatever that term is -- we're very interested in 21 seeing that Waterbury, Connecticut, is, is funded in this round,"
22 or whatever.
23 Many times, their interest would be heightened when it
24 got toward election times, and during election times, they would 25 call over and give you a list of states, and you were to do

2197

1 whatever you could with whatever discretionary monies you had in
2 those states.
3 Q. And was that inclusive of mod rehab?
4 A. Oh, yeah.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

5 Q. On occasion? Just generally?

6 A. Yes, there were several discretionary programs at HUD.

7 Q. What were the discretionary programs at HUD that you would 8 receive calls on from senators, congressmen, and the White House?

9 A. Well, mod rehab was discretionary, and so was the thing in

10 CPD, Community Planning and Development, under the block grant
11 program. There was a secretary's discretionary fund.

12 Q. CPD?

13 A. All the way to the right, yeah, and then down there.

14 Q. Okay. And this was a presidential appointment who had 15 discretionary funds available?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. What other -- mod rehab?

18 A. Mod rehab were the only two discretionary programs. And 19 then there were secretary reserves in some of the programs, but 20 I'm not really very sure what they were, because I don't remember 21 Secretary Pierce ever making any use of those.

22 And then, of course, there was the UDAG program, which 23 did have a lot of political input, but the political input was 24 inappropriate in some instances, because you really couldn't help
25 a UDAG. It had all these criteria. It went into a computer, and

2198

1 the computer spit out the list.

2 The only discretion was where you draw the line on the
3 list, and that, of course, if you draw a line below the project
4 that the white House was interested in, I guess you could say
5 that was a pretty discretionary line, and if you draw the line
6 above something, that's using your discretion as well. So it had 7 a discretionary aspect to that, but that was at the level of 8 funding.

9 And then, of course, there was HODAG, and the same
10 thing was with housing development action grants.

11 MR. WEHNER: With Your Honor's permission, that's an 12 appropriate place in the testimony to break.

13 THE COURT: All right, thank you.

14 We'll recess now, Ladies and Gentlemen, for lunch.

15 We'll take our luncheon until 1:30. Remember the admonitions of 16 the Court about not talking about the case at all among 17 yourselves or with anybody else during the break. Be back at 18 1:30. We're going to be sitting just shortly after about 4:00,
19 4:15 today.

20 (Jury out.)

2 THE COURT: All right, 1:30.

2 (Recess from 12:20 p.m. to 1:30 p.m.)

2199

1 AFTERNOON SESSION 1:40 P.M.

2 THE COURT: Will you bring the jury in,

3 please?

4 THE DEPUTY MARSHAL: Yes, Your Honor.

5 (Jury present)

6 THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen.

7 We're ready to resume after lunch and we'll continue
8 with the testimony of Miss Dean at this time.

9 BY MR. WEHNER:

10 Q Miss Dean, you were testifying before the lunch
11 break about your recollections from '85 through '88
12 concerning various political influences that were 13 channelled through the Secretary of HUD *s office.
14 Directing your attention back to that
15 testimony, you testified about Congressional input, you
16 testified about white House input. The third would be 17 private individuals' input in terms of political 18 influences.
19 would you describe generally what occurred
20 -from '85 through '88 with regard to private individuals'
2 input into the Secretary's office?

2 A well, of course that would vary a lot with the
2 background of the private individual. There were people
2 who were very political. They worked in campaigns or 2 they had worked at the white House or they had been in

2200

1 Congress and then they are now private individuals but
2 they, I guess you say, they carry a political portfolio
3 with them.

4 And then there would be people who were very
5 well known in the industry. A particularly large
6 developer, a particularly famous developer.
7 There would be people who had been Executive
8 Branch employees, former Assistant Secretarys, former 9 Undersecretarys.
10 And then there were prominent attorneys, law
11 firms, that had clients that were in the industry and 12 they were particularly well known for that and, of 13 course, some of the partners in the law firm perhaps may 14 have been in the white House or may have been in 15 Congress.
16 So people moved from one area to another, and 17 I guess if you were out of the political mainstream at 18 the moment and you were a private individual you would 19 still carry your political credentials.
20 Q Now, directing your attention to those three types
2 of individuals, the private, Congress, the white House,

2 what was your role with regard to Secretary Pierce as
2 his Executive Assistant in terms of those three groups?
2 A well, I think that -- the Secretary was very busy
2 and he -- his attention had to remain focused and I

2201

1 would say that perhaps there was as many as 20 to 40
2 phone calls a day that you could say were political and 3 he would have spent his entire day doing that if he had 4 taken all those phone calls. So he didn't.
5 And he took phone calls from the people that
6 he particularly wanted to and then a lot of times there
7 would be like a telephone message to him saying
8 Secretary, Senator so and so called, or whatever, and he
9 would have his Secretary call back and say tell Senator

10 Armstrong or tell Senator Chaffee that my Executive 11 Assistant will return his call, and then Senator Chaffee 12 or Armstrong, whoever, could decide whether or not he 13 wanted to talk to me or whether he wanted one of his 14 aides to talk to me.
15 But, in essence, the Secretary would not want 16 to take that phone call himself and he would ask me to 17 basically find out what it's about before I talk to the 18 person myself.
19 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor, to some 20 of the hearsay. So I don't continue to have to be 21 objecting --
22 THE COURT: I think we should be careful on 23 the hearsay concerns. I'll overrule at this time

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
24 because I think she was talking about the procedures
25 that she went through without particular testimony as to

2202

1 what someone else actually said.
2 All right, go on.
3 BY MR. WEHNER:
4 Q Miss Dean, what did you undertake to do - I'll ask
5 it another way. I'm going to show you what I've marked
6 for identification as a series of exhibits and I'll 7 start with Dean Exhibit 527.
8 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Dean Exhibit 527 marked for
9 identification.
10 (Defendant's Exhibit 527 marked
11 for Identification)
12 BY MR. WEHNER:
13 Q And just ask you -14
MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, at this time I'd move
15 the admission of Dean Exhibits 528, '29, '30, 164, 392,
16 393, 532, 553, and 534.
17 THE COURT: I believe there's a stipulation?
18 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, just so the numbers
19 are clear, I wasn't following Mr. Wehner on each number,
20 as to 528 the Government has no objection.
2 THE COURT: All right, 528 is admitted.
2 (Defendant's Exhibit 528 received
2 into Evidence)
2 MR. O'NEILL: 529 no objection.
2 THE COURT: Admitted.

2203

1 (Defendant's Exhibit 529 received
2 into Evidence)
3 MR. O'NEILL: 530, no objection.
4 THE COURT: Admitted.
5 (Defendant's Exhibit 530 received
6 into Evidence)
7 MR. O'NEILL: 164, no objection.
8 THE COURT: Admitted.
9 (Defendant's Exhibit 164 received
10 into Evidence)
11 MR. O'NEILL: 392, no objection.
12 THE COURT: Admitted.
13 (Defendant's Exhibit 392 received
14 into Evidence)
15 MR. O'NEILL: 393, no objection.
16 THE COURT: Admitted.
17 (Defendant's Exhibit 393 received
18 into Evidence)
19 MR. O'NEILL: 352, which is a two-page
20 document, no objection.
2 THE COURT: Is that 532 or 352?
2 MR. O'NEILL: 532.
2 THE COURT: 532 is admitted.
2 (Defendant's Exhibit 532 received
2 into Evidence)

1 MR. O'NEILL: And 533, which is an eight-page
2 document, no objection t .

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
3 THE COURT: Will you check the number on that
4 again?
5 MR. O'NEILL: 533, Your Honor.
6 THE COURT: All right, I had it 523.
7 MR. WEHNER: 533.
8 THE COURT: All right, 533. That will be
9 admitted.

10 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.
11 THE COURT: 533.
12 (Defendant's Exhibit 533 received
13 into Evidence)
14 MR. O'NEILL: And as to 534, Your Honor, no
15 objection •
16 THE COURT: All right, all those will be
17 admitted then and published, if you wish.
18 MR. WEHNER: I believe I included 527 on that 19 list Your Honor, did I not?
20 THE COURT: No.
2 MR. O'NEILL: No objection.
2 THE COURT: All right. Additionally 527 is
2 admitted.
2 (Defendant's Exhibits 534 and 527
2 received into Evidence)

2205

1 BY MR. WEHNER:
2 Q Miss Dean, I'm going to put on the overhead –
3 THE COURT: You're going to have to move the 4 chart.
5 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir,
6 BY MR. WEHNER:
7 Q Dean Exhibit 527. Can you see it from up there?
8 A Oh, yes, very clear.
9 Q Now, with respect to your relationship with 10 Secretary Pierce, would you describe for the members of 11 the jury what Exhibit 527 reflects?
12 A All right. Well, it -- we communicated a lot by 13 note. I didn't write him back handwritten notes, of 14 course. I was required to type them and have them –
15 but he wrote me handwritten notes when he would go
16 through his papers and I would -- it's only a guess, all
17 of my papers were kept at HUD and put away, but when all 18 this scandal broke the press went through them and they 19 separated notes from documents. So I don't know what 20 this was attached to and so I can't really attach a
2 specific to it. I mean I'd have just loads of these,
2 but my -- what it says to me and of course I got it, I
2 know what it means, it says Debbie Dean, so I would
2 assume that this was written to me when I was in the 2 Exec Sec because he referred to me as Debbie or Deborah

2206

1 when I became his Executive Assistant.
2 so basically whatever was in the letter he

3 wanted me to answer it appropriately, to get -- come to

4 some conclusion and then to write up whatever the 5 response was.

6 It might have been someone having a hard time

7 getting something out of the Department or it could have

8 been anything, but whatever it was, he wanted it

9 resolved and then to write up a letter that gave the 10 fact that it had been taken care of for his signature.

11 Q Was this typical of the type of relationship you
12 had with the Secretary when you were in the Executive 13 Secretariat?

14 A Yes.

15 Q I direct your attention to 628 and ask you to 16 describe that exhibit in relationship to your 17 relationship to Secretary Pierce.

18 A Yes. Now, this would have been a very good example
19 of something that he would have gotten in the mail to 20 himself personally. It wouldn't have come through the 2 regular mail. It would have gone to him and he then had

2 to send it to someone himself. In other words, the Exec
2 Sec was out of this. It would come personal,
2 confidential, and apparently somebody was asking if they
2 could have a fellowship and he does not know whether or

2207

1 not there is money in our budget to do that and he wants
2 me to find out whether or not we have fellowship money
3 in the Department, whether there's money left in that 4 account, and if this person would be a good person for 5 it, and then get back to him.

6 Q The exhibit reflects "If you can I would like to do
7 so." what did you understand that sentence to mean when 8 coming from the Secretary?

9 A Well, I do know that it certainly would -- it
10 doesn't mean do this. It means look into it and if 11 everything squares away, then do it. For instance, if 12 we had the money and we had the fellowship, that wasn't 13 enough. He would have also wanted me to look into the 14 person and make certain that they were right for the 15 fellowship. Then he would have liked to have done it.
16 It wasn't just do it.

17 Q Did you do the same for Exhibit 529?

18 A He wanted me to look at whatever was attached to 19 this and find out -- and to do a briefing for him, but 20 that's what this means. It means brief me on this and 2 then I'll make a decision.

2 Q Dean Exhibit 393?

2 A Well, this is to his Assistant Secretary Starr. It
2 says "Have have Exec Sec prepare a response to this
2 letter indicating that we will give him careful

2208

1 consideration. Also arrange for me to see him on March
2 17th. Tell Debbie I want to talk to her." Okay. In 3 essence he's going to have a meeting with somebody at 4 four o'clock on March 17th. He is going to draft a
5 letter because obviously the person wants something and 6 so he's saying I'll give it careful consideration and 7 then he's telling Starr to have me look into it and 8 basically prepare to brief him on it before the meeting
9 on the 17th.

10 Q Now, to the best you can recall/ about how many of 11 these types of memos did you receive between 1983 and 12 1987?

13 A Oh, hundreds. I would get maybe two or three, four 14 a day.

15 Q Handwritten from the Secretary.

16 A Yes.

17 Q Now, would you on occasion report back to the 18 Secretary on various items that he had signed to you?

19 A On every item.

20 Q I'm going to put on the overhead Dean Exhibit 532.

2 Can you -

2 A No, I can't. It says staff meeting. Well, we
2 did - I did prepare a memorandum for him every Monday
2 night as to - every Monday night I did a memorandum for 2 him about issues that would be coming up to him that

2209

1 next Tuesday morning so the -- in essence what - and 2 the reason that he had me do this was because he would
3 have this principal staff meeting. It was only
4 scheduled for an hour, hour and a half and two hours,
5 and yet every issue in the Department was going to come
6 up in that hour and a half, and a lot of times some of 7 the Assistant Secretaries would bring up an issue before
8 he was - before he read anything on it. So this was 9 what he would ask me to do for him so would he know what
10 the issue was, and when he would come in on Tuesday
11 morning he either wanted some papers for me or wanted to 12 talk to the Assistant Secretary before the meeting or to 13 return a phone call, whatever it was, so that he could 14 make a decision on that Tuesday morning.

15 Q Now, were there occasions when the moderate
16 rehabilitation program was discussed at those morning
17 meetings?

18 A I can honestly say that I do not remember one time
19 it ever was. I may be wrong. Nothing sticks out.

20 Except in -I mean - you mean -- I'm sorry, Mr.

2 Wehner. I think -

2 Q We're talking generalities now.

2 A Budget-wise or something we might say OMB called
2 over this morning because of moderate rehabilitation.
2 That may very well come up. I don't remember anybody's

2210

1 name or a particular project or anything like that ever

2 coming up.

3 Q Now, in terms of the hundreds of memos that you
4 reviewed, that you saw from the Secretary, between 1984
5 and 1987, some portion of those instructions and some 6 portion of the information you received would deal with 7 the Mod Rehab program, correct?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And did you on occasion receive specific requests
10 from Secretary Pierce with regard to Mod Rehab?

11 A What do you mean requests?

12 Q Did you receive information from him regarding Mod
13 Rehab.

14 A Yes.

15 Q What type of information generally would you
16 receive from the Secretary regarding Mod Rehab?
17 A Well, it would really depend. I mean if it was -- 18 I mean rarely did he mention to me specific projects but 19 when he did it was normally someone has called me about 20 this project or somebody wants to know if we can get 21 their project funded, and he would ask me to get back to

22 him to find out exactly where we were or if there was a
23 letter that came in that he said I'd like to do this one 24 it would go in -- I had a Mod Rehab file that was his,
25 things that he had written about Mod Rehab, number one,

2211

1 and that was behind my desk. And then there were lots
2 of white House OMB sort of things on Mod Rehab and those
3 would also go into that file, and then there were a lot
4 of policy stuff on Mod Rehab and that would basically be 5 for discussion.

6 In other words, do we send out Mod Rehab funds
7 on this date versus this date. That would be, come in 8 and see me about that.

9 Q I'm going to show you what I've marked for 10 identification as Dean Exhibits 423, 424, 425, and 426
11 and ask you to look at those briefly?

12 A Yeah, I've seen it. I've seen this before.

13 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, at this time I'd move
14 the admission of these documents.

15 THE COURT: That is 423, '24, '25 and '26.

16 MR. WEHNER: Correct, Your Honor.

17 MR. O'NEILL: No objection.

18 THE COURT: All right, no objection. Then
19 423, '4, '5 and '6 are admitted.

20 (Defendant's Exhibits 423, 424,
21 425 & 426 received into
22 Evidence)
23 BY MR. WEHNER:
24 Q Miss Dean, I'm going to put on the screen Dean
25 exhibit 423 and because it's a little difficult to see

2212

1 very well, could you read it, please, at the same time I

2 put it on the screen?

3 A Sure. It's dated August 30, 1984 and it says

4 to "Debbie, I talked to Barksdale about this. He is to 5 get 203 units for this project by the first part of 6 October. The balance, 100 units, will be supplied by

7 City of St. Louis. Over. Follow up with Barksdale on

8 this. SRP."

9 Q Now, Dean exhibit 423 is in fact a handwritten memo

10 that you received from the Secretary, is that correct?

11 A Correct.

12 Q What program does that deal with?

13 A Mod Rehab.

14 Q Do you have a recollection as to what specific Mod
15 Rehab program this dealt with?

16 A Well, it's attached so I saw it. It's Project
17 Dignity.

18 Q And was that a project, and I'll put on the screen
19 Dean Exhibit 424. Can you read that?

20 A "Project Dignity is a proposal" --

2 Q Just the first paragraph, please.

2 A Do you want me to read it out loud?

2 Q Yes, please.

2 A "Project Dignity is a proposal to improve the 2 quality of life for the elderly in America by providing

2213

1 optional living arrangements" - I'm afraid I can't.

2 Q Integrating medical -

3 A "Integrating medical and social care while greatly
4 reducing the cost of care per person."

5 Q And that was a proposal for Mod Rehab funds for 6 that purpose, is that correct?
7 A Yes. Apparently the City of St. Louis was also 8 going to put in money as well.
9 Q Now, it's true, is it not, that that -- the Mod
10 Rehab units for that proposal had the support of various 11 private individuals, isn't that correct?
12 A Yes.
13 Q And I'll put on the screen Dean exhibit 425.
14 A Yes.
15 Q And would you please read that out loud?
16 A You have to get it a -- I'm afraid I have -- I
17 can't really see it. Okay.
18 Q How is that?
19 A Okay. This is a letter to Tom Evans who was a
20 former Congressman and now a partner in a law firm, a
2 well respected law firm in Washington, and it
2 says, "Dear Tommy, we are expecting to send" -it's
2 from me, "we are expecting to send out our Moderate
2 Rehabilitation units for FY-85 sometime near October
2 20th, 1984. Please make sure that all the proper 2214

1 requests and applications for the 203 units going to
2 Project Dignity are in the Office of Multi-family
3 Housing, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban 4 Development by that date so I can process the papers
5 quickly.
6 Thank you for dropping in the other day. It
7 is always a pleasure to see you, and I'll be speaking to 8 you against sometime near the Hodag rounds. With best
9 wishes. Sincerely, Deborah." He apparently had Hodag
10 applications in at the same time that he was discussing
11 this.
12 Q Now, Secretary Pierce's note to you which was 13 Government Exhibit or Dean Exhibit 423, the second page,
14 reflects the note "follow up with Barksdale on this."
15 This was at a time in about 1984, October of 1984.
16 A Yes.
17 Q What was your position at that time and what was 18 Mr. Barksdale's position at that time? If you could 19 point that out on the chart for the jury, please?
20 A Mr. Barksdale was in charge of everything down
2 here, and I was up here.

2 Q Now, did you -- how did you approach Mr. Barksdale
2 based upon the note to you from the Secretary?

2 A well, the Secretary had already spoken to
2 Mr. Barksdale. So he's already called him and told him

2215

1 that he thinks that this is a good project and that he
2 would like to fund it, if it's fundable, and then it's
3 Maurice's job to make certain that that Project Dignity
4 is fundable, that it's a good project. If it's not a
5 good project he's supposed to get back to the Secretary
6 real quick so the Secretary doesn't say to Mr. Evans,
7 yes, we'll get it for you, if it's not appropriate.
8 So that was Mr. Barksdale had to follow

9 through on that right away and Mr. Barksdale would have 10 called me and said I think that we have a problem with 11 Project Dignity. It doesn't fit the bill or whatever.
12 But if there had not been a problem then I would have 13 just expected to get a phone call from Mr. Barksdale
14 when all the papers were in or if there was a problem,
15 and if there's a problem I would have gotten to 16 Mr. Evans and said we haven't got your application or we 17 haven't done something or there's a problem with the 18 City of St. Louis. whatever.
19 The idea was the Secretary made a decision.
20 It's now our job to work it out and then when it was
2 done I would have told the Secretary, by the way,

2 Project Dignity was funded. would you like me to write
2 a letter to Mr. Evans.
2 Q And based upon that instruction you would have
2 written a letter to Mr. Evans?

2216

1 A Yes.
2 Q would you return to the stand, please?
3 A Thank you.

4 Q Now, Mr. Evans was a private individual?

5 A Yes, he had been a former Congressman and he was

6 now an attorney with a prominent law firm.

7 Q Now, what was your understanding during the time

8 that you were asked about it regarding what was

9 appropriate in terms of dealing with private individuals

10 such as Mr. Hannan?

11 A Mr. Evans?

12 Q I'm sorry, Mr. Evans from the law firm of O'Connor
13 & Hannan.

14 A Well, Mr. Evans has every right to come in and 15 lobby for everything he wants to, and he did, and he has 16 a reputation, a good reputation for having good clients
17 and he knows a lot about housing. So he would have 18 been - he would have known a good project from a bad
19 project and more than likely if he wanted to get more
20 than one done he wouldn't bring in a bad one. So
2 usually there's some people if -- you know, if they

2 bring in a project it's usually a good one, and

2 Mr. Evans was one of those people.

2 Q Regarding the law and meeting with private
2 individuals with regard to Mod Rehab specifically, did

2217

1 you have an understanding as to what the policy at HUD
2 was regarding your -and
3 other persons at HUD meeting

3 with these private individuals to discuss Mod Rehab?

4 A Well, you basically had to unless you had a reason
5 not to.

6 Q Was there any -7

A I mean it was legal for them to lobby HUD, and 8 HUD's a Government agency. You had to see anyone who 9 made an appointment with you unless you had a specific 10 reason not to.

11 Q Did you become familiar with the use of the term
12 consultants for Mod Rehab units?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And did you become familiar generally, again during 15 the time period, with any written opinions that dealt
16 with the use of consultant in terms of Mod
17 Rehabilitation funds?

18 A Yes, you - this actually - Secretary Pierce and I
19 had a long discussion about this a relatively short time
20 after I became Executive Assistant and he had already
2 looked into this matter because of something else and I
2 don't know what that is, but he understood it, and -

2 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: I'll sustain that unless she can
2 give some basis for it.

2218

1 BY MR. WEHNER:

2 Q Based upon that conversation with Secretary Pierce
3 what did you understand the Secretary of HUD's policy to 4 be?

5 A All right, and based on what he told me.

6 Q Correct.

7 A I also at his request checked it out again with the 8 General Counsel, and basically HUD does not control the 9 money that goes to consultants. It comes out of the 10 profit of the developer. And, therefore, because we 11 call it certifiable and if HUD certifies the cost of 12 something, then we control it. If it is not cost
13 certifiable by HUD we can't touch it, and consultants'
14 fees came out of the developers' profit, and profit is 15 not cost certifiable. So, therefore, there was nothing
16 we could -there was nothing that we could or should

17 have done about it.

18 Q Was the profit a - based on your four years at 19 HUD, why was there profit built into the Mod Rehab
2 0 program?

2 A Well, of course the profit was built into it so
2 that people would build low income housing. If there
2 was no profit, people wouldn't built it so we -2
Congress put in a profit incentive so that good
2 developers go into low income housing.

2219

1 Q And with respect to the Moderate Rehabilitation

2 program, why was profit built into that?

3 A To build more housing for low and mod income

4 people.

5 Q To rehabilitate more houses?

6 A Well, first you want people to build it and when it

7 falls into deterioration after a certain number of years

8 we want them to be able to fix it up or to find other

9 places and fix them up from scratch, yes.

10 And, Mr. wehner, I can add one more thing.

11 There isn't any way for anyone to know whether or not 12 when Mr. Evans came in on Project Dignity, whether he 13 was paid for that or not. That would not have been - I
14 mean we don't know. He could very well have been acting
15 as a consultant, but he could very well have been acting 16 as a citizen. He may very well have known this group in 17 St. Louis from his political connections. It would be

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

18 impossible to know.

19 Q Oh, sure, he could have been a volunteer working

20 on --

2 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor, as to the 2 leading question.

2 THE COURT: All right, I'll sustain the

2 objection.

2 BY MR. WEHNER:

2220

1 Q Miss Dean, I'll show you what's been marked for

2 identification as Dean Exhibits 417, 418, 419, 420, 421

3 and 422.

4 And Your Honor, at this time I'd move the 5 admission of those exhibits.

6 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: All right. Will you go through

8 the numbers again for the record, please?

9 MR. WEHNER: 417, 418, 419, 420, 421 and 422.

10 THE COURT: All right. Those will be

11 admitted.

12 (Defendant's Exhibit 417, 418,

13 419, 420, 421 & 422 received into

14 Evidence)

15 BY MR. WEHNER:

16 Q Do you recognize those, Miss Dean?

17 A I recognize the first one. It's my handwriting.

18 These don't relate to this. Those are separate.

19 Q I'm going to put on the screen Dean Exhibit 418.

20 It's been introduced, and it's a letter to Mr.

21 John Phalen, vice-president of the Bank of Boston from

22 you regarding the distribution of moderate

23 rehabilitation units.

24 Can you read that?

25 A Yes.

2221

1 Q Did you have a conversation with Secretary Pierce

2 about the distribution of those Mod Rehab units to 3 Boston?

4 A I don't think so. I think that I got a telephone

5 message from him and I think a -- I think there were

6 instructions written on that. I've seen it recently. I

7 believe it was -- he called the Secretary and the

8 Secretary spoke with him briefly and then I believe

9 asked me to respond, to which I'm now doing. He asked

10 me to respond.

11 Q During the conversation did the Secretary give you

12 instructions in terms of the specific Mod Rehab request?

13 A Well, there were apparently no units left that year

14 and, so, you know, to send to Barksdale the request,

15 which is what I did. I would have called

16 Maurice Barksdale and I would have said there is an

17 application in from -- and I would have given him the 18 location of where it was, because obviously this man is

19 from the Bank of Boston and the Bank of Boston doesn't

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
20 get Mod Rehab units. He's not a housing authority. So
21 whatever housing authority it was he was calling about I
22 would have given that to Maurice and Maurice would then 23 have checked it out to make certain that it was good and 24 would have considered it and put it on his list for 25 consideration at the beginning of the next fiscal year.

2222

1 Q I'm going to put on the screen Exhibit 417 in 2 relationship to that project. Could you describe what
3 this note reflects?
4 A I'm asking the person who is the Exec Sec at that
5 point to please write a letter for my signature, saying
6 that there were no units left this year but that we 7 would keep them in mind for next year and that I had 8 spoken to Assistant Secretary Barksdale about it, and 9 then I would have made certain that that letter that I
10 sent to I think it was Mr. Phalen was his name?
11 Q Yes.
12 A I would have made certain that the letter I sent to 13 Mr. Phalen was also copied downstairs to 14 Maurice Barksdale so that he would know that I sent the 15 letter.
16 Q Now, exhibit 417 which is dated August 31st of 1984
17 and exhibit 425 which is dated October 9th, 1984 -18
A I'm sorry?
19 Q October 9th, 1984.
20 A And the first one was?
2 Q August 31st, 1984. At that time what was your
2 position?
2 A This is in 1985?
2 Q This is in 1984, October 9th 1984.
2 A I was Executive Assistant.

2223

1 Q And August 31st, 1984?

2 A I was Executive Assistant.

3 Q At this time I'm going to Dean Exhibit 420 and ask

4 you if you recall dealing with a specific Mod Rehab

5 request for Senator Strom Thurmond?

6 A Yes, but actually although Mr. Kinghorn worked for 7 Mr. Thurmond what I remember more was that it was the 8 Housing Authority came in. It was the head of the South

9 Carolina Housing Authority who I believe his name was

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
10 Ballou, came up to Washington for a, you know, basically 11 we need more money meeting, and the aide from the 12 Senator's office came with him to the meeting. So I'm 13 basically getting back to the Senator's aide as to the 14 result of the meeting.
15 Q It was a meeting set up by Senator Thurmond's
16 office?
17 A I don't remember.
18 Q Directing your attention to Dean Exhibit 422 and 19 ask you if that reflects that Mr. Ballou was in fact the 20 individual that you met with?
2 A Yes, I remember Mr. Ballou very well.

2 A And it says, "That I've given all the information
2 that he gave to me to Maurice Barksdale and that he'll
2 be making funding decisions throughout the year and 2 we'll do whatever we can possibly do to get you the help

2224

1 that you need."
2 Q Miss Dean, whose decisions were these in 1984 to 3 fund Mod Rehab projects?
4 A In 1984 when Mr. Barksdale was there Mr. Barksdale
5 had a selection committee in his office and he made the 6 decisions for all Mod Rehab.
7 Q What input went to Mr. Barksdale from – as 8 reflected in the exhibits from the Secretary's office?
9 A Well, if Secretary Pierce had an interest and 10 frankly if someone had made a very convincing case to me
11 I could have also spoken to him on my own, but I would 12 say it was on my own. I would have gone down and said
13 this has come to my attention, and asked him to consider 14 it, and certainly he would have considered it if 15 Secretary Pierce had asked.
16 Q And did that practice continue through 1984?
17 A It continued until Mr. Barksdale left.
18 Q And did you continue to have the type of 19 interaction with the moderate rehabilitation process
20 that you described to this point through 1984?
2 A Yes, we did have several, I would say, bad things
2 that happened in the Mod Rehab program while Maurice was 2 Assistant Secretary, nothing to do with him, but just 2 several things that happened that were particularly –
2 they required the Secretary's attention I guess is a

2225

1 good way to say it, and through that I worked with 2 Mr. Barksdale also.
3 There were several instances that I can 4 remember that were particularly – particularly 5 worrisome.
6 MR. WEHNER: At this point I'd like to 7 introduce Dean Exhibits 409, 410, 411, 412, 413, and 8 414.
9 MR. O'NEILL: No objection.
10 THE COURT: All right. They will be
11 admitted.
12 (Defendant's Exhibits 409 through
13 414 received into Evidence)
14 BY MR. WEHNER:

15 Q And I direct your attention to the screen again.
16 This appears to be a confidential memo to Maurice
17 Barksdale. Would you read that to the jury and explain
18 what that concerns?
19 It says to Maurice Barksdale on top? It says we 20 had to let George down on another project that he wanted
2 badly. So we've decided to try and console him with the 2 Travelodge Redevelopment, 50 units. Please see the 2 attached."
2 Q What did that concern?
2 A It concerned -- well, George is George Voinovich

2226

1 who was then Mayor of Cleveland, and that would have
2 been an instance where the Secretary would have made a
3 commitment to the Mayor of Cleveland.

4 Q And when you're saying we had to let George down on 5 another project he wanted badly, what does that mean?

6 A It means that he either had a UDAG or a 202 or a
7 Mod Rehab or some other thing that he felt that was very 8 important for Cleveland and that we just could not get 9 to or could not fund in some way and that he had, you
10 know, really gone to bat for it and we had to turn him
11 down. And so he sent a letter to the Secretary and I
12 believe there were a number of projects and the 13 Secretary looked at them and decided to fund that one 14 because -- I remember this one. It also had 15 Congressional support as well.

16 Q I direct your attention to Dean Exhibit 410 which
17 is a letter to you from a group called the Detroit
18 Shoreway Community Development Organization.

19 A Well, I think that the one that was funded was 20 Travelodge, which is above it. That was the second
2 project.

2 Q And that is the same project that is reflected on
2 409?

2 A The number one project is where it says Travelodge.

2 Q Right.

2227

1 A And then on the next page it says Travelodge Number
2 One and Number Two. So apparently Mr. Voinovich had two 3 projects that he was asking to be looked at and he
4 describes them and I see it says Travelodge
5 Redevelopment on Number One. Detroit Shoreway was a
6 different one.

7 Q I'm sorry, this unit one request was Travelodge
8 Redevelopment?

9 A Right.

10 Q And that was the one that was funded?

11 A Right, 50 efficiencies.

12 Q That was as a result, was it not, of a direct
13 request from the City of Cleveland to Sam Pierce?

14 A Yes.

15 Q That described the project?

16 A Right. And Travelodge is a hotel chain and I
17 remember it was to take an old motel, I think it was,
18 and to turn it into housing for -I think it was a

19 shelter. I think it was some form of a shelter.

20 Q And this was a specific request that HUD funded.

2 A Yes, I remember that Mary Rose Oakar, who was the 2 Congresswoman from that area, also called me and she
2 called me and asked if -I think there were some nuns

2 that were redoing the Travelodge and she asked me if I

2 would meet with the nuns, plus Mayor Voinovich wrote

2228

1 directly to the Secretary. In essence, I met with the

2 nuns and then told the Secretary and he had the letter

3 and he decided to fund it.

4 Q Now, Miss Dean, I'm going to put on the screen next

5 Dean Exhibit 414. It would be almost impossible for you

6 to read it. As a matter of fact, it is impossible to 7 read.

8 I'm going to read portions of it to the jury,

9 Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: All right. It's in evidence.

11 MR. WEHNER: It is in evidence.

12 THE COURT: Yes.

13 BY MR. WEHNER:

14 Q It's a letter addressed to Sister Loretta Schulte,
15 Transitional Housing, Inc., Travelodge

16 Redevelopment. "Dear Sister Schulte: This is in

17 response to your letter of December seven, 1984

18 concerning the use of Section Eight Moderate

19 Rehabilitation units by the Cuyohaga County Metropolitan

20 Housing Authority." I'm going to skip the next

2 paragraph. The third paragraph begins, "The Section

2 Eight Moderate Rehabilitation Program is administered by

2 local and State Public Housing Authorities. HUD

2 provides Section Eight Moderate Rehabilitation funds to

2 PHA's which, in turn, advertise the availability of the 2229

1 to the general public and competitively select the units

2 to be rehabilitated under the program. In the present

3 case, HUD has already signed a rapid reply for Moderate

4 Rehabilitation units for the CMHA, completing the first

5 step of, and HUD's participation in the allocation

6 process. Federal regulations prohibit HUD from making

7 project specific allocations. Therefore, HUD has no

8 direct role in providing Moderate Rehabilitation funds

9 to specific projects. As indicated above, however,

10 because the CMHA makes final funding decisions on a

11 competitive basis, your high quality proposal should

12 fare well visavis other applications pending before the 13 CMHA," which is the Housing Authority.

14 Now, the second -- the second and third

15 paragraph of that letter reflects that you cannot make

16 project specific allocations, does it not?

17 A Right, and they had written -- they had come in and

18 then Mayor Voinovich had spoken to the Secretary about

19 it and we had agreed to send 50 units to the Housing

20 Authority. Then the Sisters wrote me a letter, I guess

2 after they must have gone to the Housing Authority.

2 And the Housing Authority may not have wanted to fund
2 them, number one. They may have had another project
2 they wanted to do. So they wrote me back a note which
2 said, by the way, when you send them would you please

2230

1 send them project specific and so I had to write them
2 back and say no, we can't do that.
3 Naturally I think the assumption would have 4 been that if Mayor Voinovich had written a letter and 5 had made that his number one project, that that would
6 have been the number one project of the Cuyohaga
7 Metropolitan Housing Authority. I don't know why he 8 would have written it if it wasn't, but apparently there
9 must have been some miscommunication.

10 MR. O'NEILL: I move to strike, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: AS to the hearsay part of that
12 answer?

13 MR. O'NEILL: Yes.

14 THE COURT: I'll strike the answer as it goes
15 to what other people have said who are not here or 16 available to testify.

17 BY MR. WEHNER:

18 Q Limit it to your understanding of what was 19 occurring at the time, and I will refer you back to Dean
20 Exhibit 411 which is the request, on the screen, from 2 Mayor Voinovich to Sam Pierce for the funding. You then

2 write a letter back to the Sisters that you cannot do
2 project specific funding.

2 A Right, because that's correct.

2 Q would you explain your understanding of the 2231

1 discrepancy between the decision made by HUD to fund
2 that project and your letter to the Sister reflecting
3 the policy of not making specific allocations?
4 A All right. The funds must go to the Public Housing
5 Authority and the Public Housing Authorities really
6 should be like on a dotted line to this chart, all three 7 to four thousand of them, because their fees that they 8 get to pay their salaries and everything comes from a
9 portion of the dollars that go to the Housing

10 Authority. And so they in essence are clients of HUD
11 and the rules that were in effect basically say that 12 those people, the Housing Authority, must select the 13 project, and that's right, and so although we would very 14 much have liked maybe perhaps the Travelodge to get the 15 units, that really isn't for us to say. It's for the 16 Housing Authority to say.

17 Now, the housing authorities of course work
18 very closely with the Mayor, so many times, of course,
19 the Mayor would write in a letter or the Governor or 20 whoever would write in a letter in support of what it is

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
21 that the Housing Authority would like to do.
22 However, if the Housing Authority doesn't want 23 these 50 units to go to this Travelodge nothing in the 24 world that I could do could make it go to Travelodge.
25 THE COURT: Could I see 409 on the screen

2232

1 again, the Secretary's note?
2 MR. WEHNER: 409, Your Honor?
3 THE COURT: I believe that's the Secretary's
4 note. This is Miss Dean's note.
5 MR. WEHNER: Note to Maurice Barksdale, Your
6 Honor. The letter to the Secretary is 411.
7 THE COURT: what I was trying to get to is the 8 note 409 which talked about 50 units which was the 9 number of the Travelodge.

10 THE WITNESS: Right.
11 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.
12 THE COURT: But that they went to the Public
13 Housing Authority, you're saying, in Cleveland, not 14 directly to the people who wanted the award?
15 THE WITNESS: Right. You see -- and also the 16 bedroom mix. So 50 efficiency units would have gone to 17 Cuyohaga Metropolitan Housing Authority which is the 18 Housing Authority of Cleveland and it would have in 19 essence matched the Travelodge Redevelopment. There's 20 no mystery about that.
2 But if the Cuyohaga Metropolitan Housing
2 Authority which has the on-line responsibility of what
2 to do with HUD money when they get it did not want to do
2 Travelodge, they didn't have to. They could have used
2 those 50 efficiency units anywhere they wanted, any way

2233

1 they wanted to. Once the money gets to them, it's
2 theirs.
3 THE COURT: And Hunter Bourne received a copy
4 of that letter?
5 THE WITNESS: Hunter Bourne I believe at that
6 time was the Executive Assistant to Mr. Barksdale.
7 THE COURT: Thank you.
8 BY MR. WEHNER:
9 Q Miss Dean, what happened if the Public Housing

10 Authorities said we're not going to send the units to 11 Travelodge, what happened to the money?
12 A They would still use the money. I can't imagine
13 that any Housing Authority would ever turn back the 14 money, but they would find 50 efficiency units that they 15 could use or they could write back to the regional 16 administrator and ask about the 50 efficiencies, what 17 they were worth, and they would write back, and maybe 50
18 efficiencies is worth a million dollars. They would 19 write back and say we have a million dollars in budget
20 authority. We don't want it the way you gave it to us,

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 50 efficiencies. We'd rather have 22 bedrooms. And 2 then the regional administrator simply changes the 2 paperwork and gives it back to them in the way that they
2 want to use it.
2 Q Now, were there occasions where the Public Housing

2234

1 Authority would not use the dollars that were assigned
2 to them?
3 A Yes.
4 Q For Mod Rehab.
5 A Yes, I can think of one -I can think of two times
6 that I heard of money coming back.
7 Q What was the first time you recall hearing of money
8 coming back?
9 A There was a project in Taylor, Michigan and the 10 Mayor was very upset that we had funded -- that the 11 Department had given more money to -I can't remember
12 the name of the project at the time but it was Taylor,
13 Michigan and he was upset because he doesn't want - in 14 essence, he didn't want any more poor people in Taylor,
15 Michigan is what happened. So -16
MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor, and move
17 to strike all of this.
18 THE COURT: I'll strike that again unless 19 there's some other basis that you can put in that he 20 didn't want any more poor people.
2 BY MR. WEHNER:
2 Q What was your understanding, Miss Dean, of why
2 units were returned?
2 A Well, I understood it. He did not want it in -
2 Q Now, your understanding -

2235

1 A He wrote letters to that effect. It wasn't a
2 secret.
3 Q The money was returned to HUD?
4 A No.
5 Q What happened to the money?
6 A The money wasn't returned actually. We insisted
7 that it stay in that case. He wanted to return it. And 8 there was a case I believe in Moline, Illinois, where I
9 believe HUD recaptured some units that were not used and 10 I don't know what the circumstances were.
11 Q Directing your attention to Puerto Rico about which 12 there's been some testimony on direct -I'm sorry,
13 testimony in the Government's case. Do you recall an 14 incident when Secretary Pierce recaptured money from 15 Puerto Rico?
16 A Yes. And -- well, shortly after I became Executive 17 Assistant there was -a lot of times people didn't call
18 and say I'd like to set up a meeting. They would just 19 talk to my Secretary and put it on my calendar, and one
20 time there was this man, his name was Dick Richards, and 2 I knew who he was because he had -I never met him but

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 I knew who he was. He had been the head of the 2 Republican National Committee, and so he was a name, of 2 course, that I heard of. And Mr. Richards came to see
2 me and told me that -

2236

1 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.
2 THE COURT: All right. I'll sustain it.
3 BY MR. WEHNER:
4 Q Based upon your conversation with Mr. Richards,
5 what was your understanding as to what was occurring in 6 terms of -
7 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.
8 THE COURT: I'll sustain it that way. You can 9 ask did she have a conversation.
10 BY MR. WEHNER:
11 Q Did you get an understanding at that time as to 12 what the situation was with regard to Moderate
13 Rehabilitation funding decisions?
14 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.
15 THE COURT: She can answer yes or no, without 16 explaining.
17 Q With regard -- could I reask the question, Your
18 Honor?
19 THE COURT: Sure.
20 Q Miss Dean, did you have a conversation with 2 Mr. Richards?
2 A Yes, I did.
2 Q Based upon that conversation with Mr. Richards did
2 you have an understanding as to the situation that
2 existed in Puerto Rico with regard to Mod Rehab units?

1 MR. O'NEILL
2 objection, Your Honor
3 THE COURT:
4 have an understanding
5 BY MR. WEHNER • •

: Just for the record, the same

I'll let her answer it if she did
or not.

6 Q Did you have an understanding?
7 A Could I say what I learned?
8 THE COURT: Just say whether you had an 9 understanding or not.

10 BY MR. WEHNER ••
11 Q Did you have an understanding?
12 A Yes, I had an understanding.
13 Q What was the understanding?
14 A I had -
15 THE COURT: wait, wait.
16 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.
17 THE COURT: I assume the objection is 18 hearsay. If you want to give me some other way to do
19 it.

20 MR. WEHNER: Could we come up to the bench,
2 Your Honor?
2 THE COURT: Sure.
2 MR. WEHNER: Thank you.
2 (Bench conference)
2 THE COURT: He didn't object earlier to the 2238

1 other questions that were asked similarly, but that
2 doesn't mean there wasn't an objection. She's going to 3 talk to what this other fellow told her who is not here
4 and I recognize there's been in the Government's case
5 testimony about Puerto Rico and there's been some 6 testimony on cross with some witnesses about recapturing
7 units in Puerto Rico that were recaptured to another
8 project.
9 MR. WEHNER: I think my response to 10 Mr. O'Neill's objection was that I objected in the 11 Government case to the use of the word understanding in 12 an effort to get out of the hearsay prohibition and I

13 was consistently overruled by the Court and what I
14 recall precisely is the same circumstances with regard 15 to conversations and then understandings that were 16 reached as a result of conversations.
17 THE COURT: I think that may have involved the 18 conspiracy matters.
19 MR. WEHNER: Not in terms of the 20 understanding, Judge.
2 THE COURT: I'll stay with what I just ruled,
2 even if it's inconsistent with your memory earlier.
2 MR. O'NEILL: I don't want to make too big of 2 a deal. I'm not objecting, as the Court has already 2 noted, but more and more hearsay is coming in deeper and

2239

1 deeper and I will have to start objecting.
2 THE COURT: well, you can ask her did you take
3 some action or did you recommend some action to the 4 Secretary based upon your discussions with Mr. Richards.
5 MR. WEHNER: I will, Judge.
6 THE COURT: Did there come a time you met
7 someone who knew something about this.
8 MR. WEHNER: I will.
9 THE COURT: All right.
10 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.
11 (Bench conference concluded)
12 BY MR. WEHNER:
13 Q You had a conversation with Mr. Richards, is that
14 correct?
15 A Yes, sir.
16 Q Did you subsequently say something to someone else
17 regarding that conversation?
18 A Yes, I repeated to Secretary Pierce what 19 Mr. Richards had told me.
20 Q What did you say to Secretary Pierce?
2 A I told Secretary Pierce that Mr. Richards had come

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 to see me and had told me that he -- that there was a -2
he had heard Joseph Strauss say -and
Joseph Strauss
2 had been a Special Assistant to the Secretary, that he
2 could get Mod Rehab units for people for a thousand to

1 $1500 a unit, and that he had gotten 600 units in Puerto
2 Rico.

3 Q Did you have a conversation with the Secretary
4 regarding Mr. Richards' statement to you?

5 A Yes. I called Maurice Barksdale first.

6 Q And what did you say to Mr. Barksdale?

7 A I said is this true, and Maurice said, yes, and

8 I'll be right up and -9

MR. O'NEILL: Objection once again, Your
10 Honor, and I move to strike.

11 THE COURT: I'll sustain that as to the 12 response of Mr. Barksdale.

13 MR. WEHNER: Judge, could we approach?

14 THE COURT: All right.

15 (Bench conference)

16 THE COURT: Yes.

17 MR. WEHNER: Judge, the co-conspirator

18 exception goes to the same -19

THE COURT: was Barksdale named as a 20 co-conspirator? I thought of that but I didn't think
2 that he was.

2 MR. O'NEILL: No, not by the Government.

2 MR. WEHNER: Based on his testimony you don't

2 think he was a co-conspirator under your theory of the

2 case?

1 Judge, he testified that he distributed the
2 Mod Rehab units on the same basis that the Government
3 alleges Miss Dean distributed the Mod Rehab units.

4 THE COURT: He wasn't claimed to be part of

5 this conspiracy as far as I know.

6 MR. O'NEILL: The Government specified

7 specific people in the indictment.

8 MR. WEHNER: Known and unknown.

9 MR. O'NEILL: Those were the only people we

10 elicited co-conspirator statements from. Mr. Barksdale
11 was not one.

12 THE COURT: I'm going to sustain the 13 objection. You can go around it by asking after you

14 talked to Barksdale, did you take some action.

15 MR. WEHNER: Right.

16 (Bench conference concluded)

17 BY MR. WEHNER:

18 Q What did you do, Miss Dean, after you talked to

19 Mr. Barksdale?

20 A I went directly to Secretary Pierce.

2 Q And did you tell Mr. -- Secretary Pierce what Mr.

2 Barksdale said to you and did you tell him what

2 Mr. Richards had said to you?

2 A Yes, I did.

2 Q And what did you tell Secretary Pierce?

2242

1 A I told him what Mr. Richards had said and I told
2 him that this seemed very bad and that Mr. Barksdale had 3 informed me that 600 units was one-tenth of the 4 national -- the number we had nationally for the whole
5 country and that I didn't understand how 600 units had 6 gotten to Puerto Rico.
7 Q And based on the Secretary's response to that, what 8 did you do?
9 A Canceled the units.
10 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, at this time I'll
11 move into evidence Dean Exhibit 868.
12 THE COURT: 868?
13 THE WITNESS: Your Honor, I'm a little
14 confused about what I can say or can't say.
15 THE COURT: You have to wait for a question
16 right now. Your counsel will talk to you at the break
17 about hearsay matters.
18 THE WITNESS: May I amend just one thing I
19 said before? Secretary Pierce canceled the units. I
20 did not cancel the units. He canceled the units.
2 THE COURT: All right.
2 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, if there's no
2 objection I believe to Dean Exhibit 868 which is three,
2 four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten, 11, 12, 13,
2 14, 15 pages.

1 THE COURT: 868, no objection. It will be
2 admitted.
3 MR. O'NEILL: That's correct, Your Honor.
4 THE COURT: All right. 15 pages.
5 (Defendant's Exhibit 868 received
6 into Evidence)

7 BY MR. WEHNER:
8 Q Now, Miss Dean, as a result of the cancellation of 9 the 610 units to Puerto Rico by Secretary Pierce what
10 happened?
11 A Well, it got very complicated. Secretary Pierce
12 informed me that this indeed looked very bad and to call
13 Maurice Barksdale and tell Maurice Barksdale to cancel
14 the units.
15 Q Did you call Maurice Barksdale?
16 A Yes, I did.
17 Q Did you tell him to cancel the units?
18 A Yes, I did, and he canceled the units, but then the 19 people who were behind, I guess you could say, these 20 units, descended upon Secretary Pierce and myself with 2 great force.
2 Q Without talking about what was said, who came to
2 see you about the decision to recall the units?
2 A Joseph Strauss came to see me and --
2 Q Slower. Who was Joseph Strauss?

2244

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

1 A He was a former Special Assistant to Secretary
2 Pierce and he had gone out and become a consultant.
3 Q Who else came to see you?
4 A One of Mr. Strauss' partners, Robert Gould, and 5 former Interior Secretary James Watt.
6 Q All three of those individuals came to see you.
7 A At different times. Mr. Gould and Mr. Watt came to 8 one meeting. Mr. Strauss came to, I believe it was two 9 or three meetings.
10 Q Now, to your personal knowledge who came to see
11 Secretary Pierce?
12 A Secretary Watt, but he also called him several 13 times at home and very late at night and it was a very 14 unusual -- he was putting a lot of pressure on Secretary
15 Pierce and then it eventually culminated in his coming
16 in to see him.
17 Q Let's talk about your meeting with the three 18 individuals you mentioned.
19 A Yes.
20 Q Mr. Strauss.
2 A Yes, I met with Mr. Strauss several times. Each -2
Q what did you say to Mr. Strauss?
2 A I told Mr. Strauss that I thought that he had put 2 the Secretary in a terrible position and that he should
2 have -- he should have made certain that the Secretary

2245

1 understood or that Mr. Wilson understood or whomever Mr.

2 Strauss had spoken to, to get those units, Mr.

3 Barksdale, whomever, that the Secretary needed to have

4 known that ten percent of the entire national allocation

5 was going to one place because he certainly did not know

6 that when I spoke to him.

7 Q Without saying what Mr. Strauss said to you, would

8 you characterize his demeanor?

9 A Mad as heck. Mad, very angry. And with each
10 successive meeting he became angrier and he finally came 11 in and slapped a lawsuit down on the desk around five 12 o'clock in the afternoon and the lawsuit had Secretary
13 Pierce's name all throughout it and that was supposed to 14 be some threat.

15 Q Did Mr. Watt, former Secretary of the Interior, 16 come to see you?

17 A Yes, but I think he shortly realized that that was 18 a waste of time. It was a very short meeting.

19 Q Did you talk to Mr. Watt?

20 A Yes, I did.

2 Q What did you say to him?

2 A I told him that I thought that 600 units in Puerto
2 Rico was putting the Secretary in a very difficult
2 situation. It just didn't appear to be appropriate and 2 that Mr. Strauss earning all this money for what, just

2246

1 made the secretary look very bad. It looked like he was
2 doing something for one of his former assistants.

3 Q That was Mr. Strauss.

4 A Yes.

5 Q Now, without telling us what Secretary Watt said to 6 you what was his reaction to what you were saying?

7 A It was very vocal and he was contained but he 8 speaks very tartly and he certainly lets you know that 9 he is not pleased with what was going on.

10 Q Now, Mr. Gould, who was a partner of -11

A Mr. Strauss.

12 Q Mr. Strauss. Did he come to see you?

13 A He was in the meeting with Mr. Watt.

14 Q And what was his reaction to what you were saying
15 to him?

16 A I frankly never took my eyes off Mr. Watt. He

17 Just -18

Q After you had these meetings with Mr. Watt,

19 Mr. Gould and Mr. Strauss, were the units sent back to 20 Puerto Rico?

2 A They never left Puerto Rico. They - what happened
2 was, and perhaps it should have been thought out better,
2 but when we canceled them at the time there was a
2 recapture policy that had just been instituted by the 2 Office of Management and Budget at the White House which

2247

1 meant we couldn't bring them back and reuse them. We

2 had - they had to go back to the Treasury. So all

3 those millions of dollars would have just gone back to

4 the Treasury and this certainly would not have been what

5 would have been good for anybody.

6 So what we did was -- and I was unaware of the 7 recapture policy and Mr. Barksdale hadn't thought of it,

8 and that was sort of a mess, but when we called the 9 regional administrator, Mr. Monticicillo, he knew and he 10 knew very well that that meant the money would have to

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

11 be returned and he did not want to do that.
12 And so we then had 600 units sitting in Puerto
13 Rico and we had to -- they were in the area office.
14 They had not been in the housing authorities. They had 15 just been in the area office. 610 Mod Rehab units.
16 Q Before we get into what happened with those Mod
17 Rehab units, you testified that there was a meeting
18 between Mr. Watt and Mr. Pierce.
19 A Yes.
20 Q Were you present at that meeting?
2 A Yes, I was.

2 Q Without saying what Mr. Watt said or what
2 Mr. Pierce said, would you tell the jury what you said,
2 if anything, during that meeting?
2 A Nothing.

2248

1 Q Did you listen to their conversation?
2 A Yes.
3 Q As a result of their conversation were you given
4 instructions by Secretary Pierce?
5 A Yes, I was.
6 Q And did you act on those instructions?
7 A Yes.
8 Q What acts did you take upon those instructions?
9 A Well, the first thing that I did was to go back and 10 review all the correspondence between HUD and the 11 Housing Authority and it had not been structured well.

12 One might even say according to the regulations.
13 when the letter had gone out originally giving 14 Puerto Rico the units it was either project specific or 15 it certainly made it look as though HUD knew where that 16 money was going.
17 So I wrote a letter to Puerto Rico saying you
18 must competitively select the projects. So we're going 19 to leave the 610 units there. And this letter was for 20 Secretary Pierce, he sent the letter, but I drafted it
2 with Maurice Barksdale for him and it basically said you
2 must advertise. You must go out and competitively
2 select. And Mr. Watt understood, leaving that meeting,
2 that his project or at least part of it, not to exceed
2 two to 300 units, would have to competitively win this 2249

1 selection or he would not be funded. Then there were
2 the remaining 310 or his was 310, the remaining 300,
3 however it was split up, the remaining 300 then had to 4 be used. So Secretary Pierce asked me to find or to 5 tell as many people as I could that the units were there
6 so somebody would go down there and use them, because at 7 the end of a certain amount of time they would die.
8 They only have a short shelf life, so to speak, if not 9 used.
10 Q When you say they would die what do you mean?
11 A They would basically become non-existent and the 12 money goes back to the Treasury Department. You have to

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
13 be under ACC, I believe, in two years of when the money
14 goes down.
15 Q What does ACC mean?
16 A It's Annual Contributions Contract or it's AHAP. I
17 can't remember. The owner has got to sign the contract
18 with the Housing Authority within two years of the money
19 leaving HUD going to the area office.
20 Q In terms that I can understand, what happens to the 2 funds if the funds are not used at this point in time
2 for the rehabilitation of Mod Rehabilitation -of 2 houses?
2 A Nothing. Nothing. The funds are returned to the 2 Treasury as though they never existed.

2250

1 Q And they are not used for any kind of
2 rehabilitation.

3 A And people don't get houses, that's right.

4 Q You testified what you did as a result of 5 instructions was to find developers.

6 A I made a lot of phone calls trying to get someone
7 interested in going to Puerto Rico and getting a
8 building or buildings that could competitively compete
9 for these units.

10 Q Who did you talk to?

11 A Well, as I said, this occurred right after I became 12 Executive Assistant and I didn't know anybody and so I
13 called Lance Wilson, who was the former Executive
14 Assistant, and I said, Lance, can you give me some names
15 of people to call and he gave me some names and I also 16 called the regional administrator in New York and I told 17 him to do the same thing, to start making phone calls,
18 find someone to go down there and develop these units or 19 to use the units. Find a developer who could use the
20 units.

2 Q Ultimately was a developer located that could use

2 the units?

2 A I'm sorry?

2 Q Ultimately was a developer located that could use
2 the units?

2251

1 A I think there were two or three people working on
2 it at the same time but - there was - ultimately it
3 did go to, I assume that man that testified here,
4 Mr. Rubi.
5 Q Now, did you have any conversations with respect to 6 the developer that was going to receive those Mod Rehab
7 units other than what you discussed?
8 A I never talked to any developer about - I never 9 spoke to a developer. I spoke to Mr. Monticciollo and 10 asked him to call people and I also called the people
11 that Lance Wilson had given me and told them that there
12 were 300 units in Puerto Rico and that someone should go
13 down there and use them quick.
14 Q With the exception of Mr. Gould, Mr. Strauss and 15 Mr. Watt, do you recall having discussions with other
16 private individuals with regard to that funding?
17 A Many. I quickly appreciated the value of 300 Mod
18 Rehab units sitting anywhere. There just was -there
19 was a throng of people that were interested in the units
20 and I remember one particular meeting that was very 21 egregious on that particular project.
22 Many people came in who were sort of 23 representing Mr. Strauss without Mr. Strauss really
24 being there. He was trying to get those units back.
25 And one person that came in was his attorney and another

2252

1 man who -- and they basically sat down and said that
2 they were not representing Mr. Strauss but they had the
3 perfect development in Puerto Rico and it was just 300
4 units and did I by any chance know how that might be
5 able to work out and I said, well, there are 300 units
6 down there. You must competitively be selected. I felt
7 like I kept saying that over and over again. You must -8
I can't earmark them and give them to you. You have to 9 go down and have a developer and the developer has to go
10 to the Housing Authority and the Housing Authority has 11 to select it.
12 And this one man turned to me and he told me
13 that he had done -I
14 get so mad when I think of this.
15 He turned to me and told me he had done a favor for my 16 family and that I owed him those units.
17 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.
18 THE COURT: All right. I'll sustain the 19 objection and strike the testimony as hearsay, what he 20 claimed to have said to her.
21 A I told him that if he wanted to make a case like 22 that he should make it directly to the Secretary. That 23 I never want to speak to him again.
24 Q Did you ever speak to that individual again?
25 A I -- yeah, I stopped being mad after awhile but I
26 certainly did have a conversation with Mr. DeBartolomeis

2253

1 who had put him up to it and I accused Mr. DeBartolomeis
2 basically of setting this man up to come about these 3 units, units which he was really trying to get back for 4 Mr. Joe Strauss, and Mr. DeBartolomeis admitted that 5 yes, he had done that.
6 Q Let's talk about Mr. DeBartolomeis for a minute.

7 where was he at this point? what's his position?

8 A He was the Deputy Assistant Secretary for 9 Multi-family Housing.

10 Q And where would that be on the chart?

11 A Down under general -- to the left, Multi-Family.

12 And he had replaced Mr. Barksdale and Mr. Barksdale
13 moved up.

14 Q And Mr. Barksdale moved to where?

15 A To the big box that says Housing.

16 Q Now, did you have conversations with

17 Mr. DeBartolomeis regarding the Puerto Rico projects?

18 A Not after this incident. I certainly had

19 discussions with him about Puerto Rico and we had had 20 discussions about how a former Special Assistant to the 2 Secretary could have ended up in this position and I had
2 basically, you know, chastised him for not making
2 certain that the Secretary knew the position that he had 2 been placed in when that decision had originally been
2 made.

2254

1 Q what did Mr. DeBartolomeis reply when you chastised
2 him?

3 A I don't remember. He just mumbled somebody about 4 Joe is a good guy or something. I mean Silvio did not
5 have a great deal of -- I don't know how to answer. He 6 didn't really say anything that -- other than he thought
7 that it was a rotten deal that Joe Strauss had gotten 8 units taken away from him.

9 Q At that point what were Mr. DeBartolomeis'

10 responsibilities visavis the Mod Rehab program?

11 A Well, Mr. Barksdale was in essence in charge of all 12 of housing and then -- but that's a very big 13 responsibility. That's billions of dollars. And there
14 are lots of programs. And so the Deputy Assistant 15 Secretary for Multi-Family Housing is supposed to 16 basically run those projects underneath him with,
17 Mr. Barksdale's guidance, and so Silvio had the 18 day-to-day responsibility for the office that did the 19 regulations and the rules and the paperwork and 20 responding to the letters. Basically he was supposed to
2 run the program with Mr. Barksdale's guidance.

2 Q When Mr. Barksdale was promoted, did you continue
2 to deal with him on matters relating to interests of the 2 Secretary and his Department?

2 A Yes, yes.

2255

1 Q How would you characterize your relationship with
2 Mr. Barksdale?

3 A With Mr. Barksdale?

4 Q Yes.

5 A I have the highest admiration for him. I like him
6 very much.

7 Q Did you have a working relationship with

8 Mr. Barksdale?

9 A Yes. May I -- Maurice was the Assistant

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
20 to the secretary. So I would sort of, you know, maintain the,
21 the steady keel in the office as much as I could without having 22 to go to him.
23 But I would always usually run things by him, because 24 he pretty much wanted to know what was going on about everything.
25 Q. What time did you usually arrive at work in the morning?

2258

1 A. It changed. There were so many --it really changed. My
2 schedule was really difficult. I mean, I could go to Capitol
3 Hill in the morning, or I could work at home for a while or --I
4 never really had a set schedule. I couldn't really say.
5 If I was on my way into the office without any stops or 6 whatever, I'd probably get there about 9:15, something like that.
7 Q. How late did you usually stay in the evenings in 1985?
8 A. I would say the average would be about maybe nine or ten,
9 sometimes later, but that was really my own preference. I

10 preferred to work at night, when there wasn't anybody else
11 around. I just liked that better. Easier to get things done.
12 Q. Directing your attention to Ms. Shirley M. Wiseman, did
13 there come a time when she assumed a role at HUD?
14 A. Yes. When Maurice Barksdale returned home, then Ms. Wiseman
15 became the acting federal housing commissioner.
16 Q. That is here --
17 A. Yes.

18 Q. --is that correct?
19 A. I believe that she was general deputy at that time. She had 20 been a head of Single-Family Housing, and then I believe she was 21 promoted to general deputy and then acting federal housing

22 commissioner.
23 Q. When Ms. Wiseman became -- first of all, would you describe
24 the difference between acting and nonacting housing
25 commissioners?

2259

1 A. All right. Well, of course the federal housing commissioner
2 has been appointed by the President, picked by the President and 3 sent up to the Hill and confirmed, and the FBI has done their 4 background check, and they are credentialed basically, and they 5 come, and it is a very, very difficult job to get. It's a very
6 important job, and a lot of people would like to have it around
7 the country. So --

8 Q. What's the difference between the housing commissioner and 9 an acting housing commissioner?

10 A. Well, the acting federal housing commissioner is the person
11 who is under the commissioner when he leaves, and then they 12 become acting, because they're the next in line, but they're 13 waiting for the President to really pick the person who's going 14 to run the office.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
15 Q. And in some instances, is that the person, the acting
16 becomes the housing commissioner and sometimes not?
17 A. Sometimes, sure, yeah.
18 Q. And sometimes not?
19 A. Yeah.
20 Q. Now Ms. Wiseman, do you recall when approximately she became 21 acting housing director?
22 A. I believe that Mr. Barksdale left in January or February of 23 '85, so she would have taken over immediately after that.
24 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I've marked for identification
25 Dean Exhibit 871, and I'll move its introduction at this time.

2260

1 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.
2 THE COURT: All right, no objection, 871 will be
3 admitted.
4 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 871 was
5 received in evidence.)

BY MR. WEHNER:

7 Q. Ms. Dean, I'm going to show you a personal and confidential
8 note to Shirley Wiseman from Deborah Dean --

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. -- and ask you to please read that to the jury.
11 A. It says, "February 1, 1985. Personal and confidential."
12 And then that's underlined. So it would only go directly to her.
13 It says, "Note to Shirley Wiseman from Deborah Dean: Please
14 provide me with a report on the disposition of all mod rehab
15 funds for fiscal year 1985 by close of business Monday,
16 February 4, 1985. This office will concur on all funding
17 decisions regarding mod rehab funds not previously approved by 18 both Maurice and myself until a new federal housing commissioner 19 is named. I will be in touch with you Tuesday after reviewing 20 the report. Thank you."

2 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, what is your understanding of what led up and

2 the reasons why that memo was sent to Shirley Wiseman shortly
2 after she became federal housing -- acting federal housing
2 commissioner?

2 A. I was directed to send the memorandum to Ms. Wiseman by 2261

1 Secretary Pierce, because he had gotten a telephone call from
2 someone and had an interest in funding a moderate rehabilitation
3 project at some locality, and he called down to Ms. Wiseman to 4 give --to tell her of his interest and have her check it out,
5 and she informed him that there were no more fiscal year 1985
6 monies left, which would be a little surprising in February of 7 1985.

8 And apparently what - well, what happened was that

9 when Mr. Barksdale was leaving, he funded the rest of what the 10 available monies were before he left, and this took Secretary
11 Pierce by -

he was shocked that this had occurred, and he said
12 that from now on, until there was a new housing commissioner, he

13 wanted to make certain that whomever was in this office didn't go 14 on a spending spree without his knowing it and knowing what they 15 were doing, and he wanted to know where these particular units
16 had gone for the fiscal year '85.

17 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, at this time, the government
18 would move to strike the entire statement as to what Mr. Pierce
19 said.

20 THE COURT: That's as to Secretary Pierce's statements?

21 MR. O'NEILL: As to Secretary Pierce, that's correct.

22 THE COURT: Okay, I'm going to deny that. Overruled.

23 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.

24 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, subsequent to that memo, were Secretary

25 Pierce's instructions followed?

2262

1 A. I don't, I don't quite understand.

2 Q. Did Ms. Wiseman follow the direction in your memo?

3 A. Yes. There was very little money left, but for the projects
4 that she wanted to have funded, she would always come and discuss 5 them with me, tell me what it was she was going to do. I would 6 discuss it with the secretary, and then she could go ahead.

7 Q. Now did there come a time in Ms. Wiseman's tenure as acting
8 secretary when she refused to fund a particular project?

9 A. Yes. She refused to fund Durham Hosiery Mill.

10 Q. Now without telling us what Ms. Wiseman said to you, would 11 you tell us what the status of Durham Hosiery Mill funding was at 12 the time she became acting housing commissioner?

13 A. Well, the -- Durham Hosiery Mill was not a moderate
14 rehabilitation project. It was a substantial rehabilitation
15 project, which is more subsidy. And it was originally funded
16 back in 1982 with sub rehab monies, and the, President Reagan
17 made a commitment to a congressman on an airplane --

18 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor. Hearsay.

19 THE COURT: All right.

20 MR. WEHNER: I don't think that it's hearsay as to what 21 her understanding as executive assistant was.

22 THE COURT: I'll allow it in not for the truth of the 23 matter, but as to indicate her understanding why she took certain 24 actions. Overruled. Go ahead.

25 THE WITNESS: well, the -- 2263

1 BY MR. WEHNER:

2 Q. You understood -- did you -- excuse me, may I ask another
3 question, Your Honor?

4 THE COURT: All right.

5 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.

6 Q. Did you have an understanding as to why Durham Hosiery Mill
7 was initially funded?

8 A. No. Not why it was initially funded, no. It was just, it
9 had been funded, and then the funding was taken away, and that 10 money was used in New Jersey.

11 And there had been some discussions with the under 12 secretary, and I know that Mr. Barksdale had also, I believe 13 Mr. Barksdale went down to Durham, North Carolina, and had met
14 with them.

15 Q. What was your understanding as to why the funds were removed

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

16 from Durham Hosiery Mill and moved, I believe you said, to New 17 Jersey?
18 A. New Jersey.
19 The money was, it was at the end of the fiscal year,
20 and there was only so much money left. There was some money that 21 had not got to Durham yet, and the President made a commitment
22 that the department could not afford. So we then had to cancel a 23 project that HUD wanted to do and do one that the President
24 wanted to do.
25 Q. So the Durham Hosiery Mill funding was pulled back, or it was not sent?

2264

2 A. It was canceled. And then the next fiscal year, there was 3 no substantial rehabilitation program, so there was no way to 4 reinstate them as of the next fiscal year.
5 Q. Did it become a part of the moderate rehabilitation process
6 for that next year?
7 A. No, it did not. Later.
8 Q. As of February 1, 1985, when Ms. Wiseman became housing
9 commissioner, what was the status of the Durham Hosiery Mill
10 project?
11 A. Well, they were meeting with her and trying to discuss the 12 different kinds of programs that they may be able to sort of mix 13 and match and put together to try to get to the same amount of 14 money that sub rehab would have gotten them to, but there was no
15 longer a programming -
mod rehab was not enough to do Durham
16 Hosiery Mill. The numbers wouldn't work. So it had to be mod
17 rehab and something else, so it was mod rehab and HODAG.
18 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, is this a personal knowledge?
19 THE COURT: Did you know this yourself? Did you study
20 the program?
21 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.
22 THE COURT: All right.
23 BY MR. WEHNER:
24 Q. Did you have a conversation with Ms. Wiseman concerning the 25 funding of a mod rehab, of mod rehab funds going to Durham

2265

1 Hosiery Mill?

2 A. Well, we had many conversations, because there was another
3 part of it. It was a HODAG as well.
4 Q. Without telling us what Ms. Wiseman said to you, would you
5 tell us what you said to Ms. Wiseman in summary during the 6 conversation regarding Durham Hosiery Mill?
7 A. I told Ms. Wiseman that I had met with Mr. Allen, who I
8 believe was the owner of Durham Hosiery Mill, as well as the 9 under secretary, as well as the secretary, and that the secretary

10 was aware that these people had been promised and then reneged
11 on, and he felt that we should do whatever we could to reinstate
12 the funds for Durham Hosiery Mill, because it didn't seem fair
13 that these people had put out a lot of money and a lot of effort
14 and, thinking that their money was coming, and to have it then 15 given away by someone else.

16 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, what is physically the Durham Hosiery Mill?
17 Is it a building? What is it?
18 A. It's a building that has apartments in it.

19 Q. And is it a specific building?

20 A. I've never seen it, so I don't -- I assume it is one
2 building, yes, an old hosiery mill in Durham.

2 Q. It is one --to your knowledge, is it one building?

2 A. To my knowledge, it is one building.

2 Q. And as I understand it, the program was to rehabilitate this
2 building?

2266

1 A. Yes. It was to basically create housing out of what was an

2 old, vacant building, old, vacant hosiery mill.

3 Q. In your discussions with Ms. Wiseman, did she display

4 reluctance to use moderate rehabilitation funds for that

5 building?

6 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Yes, I think she can discuss her attitude.

8 She can say what her attitude was towards it, without saying what

9 she said.

10 THE WITNESS: well, not --

11 THE COURT: You can answer.

12 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. Not at first, but

13 increasingly she became more and more concerned with the amount
14 of waivers that would have to be granted to the project in order
15 for it to use multiple subsidies.

16 BY MR. WEHNER:

17 Q. Did you understand that Ms. Wiseman made a decision not to 18 fund the program?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Did that occur as a result of the conversation you had with
2 Ms. Wiseman?

2 A. Secretary Pierce told me that Ms. Wiseman was not going to 2 fund it.

2 Q. Did you have a conversation with Ms. Wiseman?

2 A. Yes.

2267

1 Q. And what did you say to Ms. Wiseman?

2 A. I told her that she should fund the project, because

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
3 Secretary Pierce wanted her to fund the project.
4 Q. And without saying what she said back to you, did you also 5 continue to talk to her about the program?
6 A. I spoke to her again and told her that she should fund it,
7 because Secretary Pierce wanted it funded.
8 Q. And what did she do?
9 A. Nothing.

10 Q. Did she fund it?
11 A. No.
12 Q. Did there come a time when you became aware that Secretary
13 Pierce talked to Ms. Wiseman directly?
14 A. He informed me that he had --
15 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.
16 THE COURT: Well, why don't you come up to the bench on 17 that for a minute. We'll just straighten that up.
18 (Bench conference on the record.)
19 THE COURT: Is it the government's position that he's 20 not a conspirator in all of this?
21 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, we have no position. We don't 22 know. If he was a conspirator, arguably he'd be indicted.
23 The position that the government has, Judge, is he is 24 unavailable, as I told Steve, and I stipulated to that. That's 25 no problem. That's why all his documents are coming into

2268

1 evidence even if they have not been business records in another
2 case.
3 But the problem is if we're going to elicit every oral
4 statement that he ever made, you know, legally, I just can't do
5 that.
6 MR. WEHNER: Judge, these documents that I'm putting in 7 are admissible under any reasonable business records exception to 8 the hearsay rule, and I don't think Mr. O'Neill is really cutting
9 me a break in terms of the documents.
10 THE COURT: All right.
11 MR. WEHNER: But No. 2, we have established by a 12 preponderance that if the government's theory as to the 13 conspiracy is correct, that Pierce is a member of it, and I think 14 that the co-conspirator statements in that regard is what,
15 Mr. O'Neill, what's good for you is what's good for me. It's a 16 two-way street.
17 MR. O'NEILL: If Your Honor is -
18 THE COURT: Wait a minute.
19 MR. O'NEILL: Sorry, Your Honor.
20 THE COURT: I'll make the finding you can admit them as 2 a co-conspirator statement. It seems to me the evidence
2 introduced in the government's case in chief as well as the 2 defendant's evidence implicates Mr. Pierce at least to the extent
2 there's been testimony he specifically directed projects with 2 individuals, to have these projects funded. Whether or not that 2269

1 was illegal or not, I don't know, but I think it puts him in the 2 same category as the other individuals who have been named, like
3 Ms. Dean and Mr. Demery and the others. So I will allow it.
4 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, based on that, I'll withdraw my 5 objection then based on your ruling.
6 THE COURT: All right.
7 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, as an unrelated matter, I
8 would -I'm concerned about this first juror in the back row.

9 THE COURT: No. 7, Ms. Proctor?

10 MR. WEHNER: No. 7.

11 MR. WEHNER: I think her demeanor is reflecting that 12 she is not giving the proper consideration to the testimony, not 13 just our testimony -14

THE COURT: Proctor her name is.

15 MR. WEHNER: Ms. Proctor. But the testimony generally.

16 I am not moving to strike her at this time, but I would 17 like to alert the parties and the Court that I'm watching her
18 closely.

19 THE COURT: All right. I'm aware of her conduct in the 20 last couple of days, and we'll continue to see how she does. She 21 was one of the reasons I had the clerk of the court speak to the 22 jury, one of the principal reasons, this morning. I don't think 23 she took the reprimand well.

24 MR. WEHNER: Oh.

25 THE COURT: All right.

2270

1 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Judge.

2 (End of bench conference.)

3 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, for the record, the government
4 withdraws its objection.

5 THE COURT: All right.

6 MR. WEHNER: Thank you.

7 Q. Ms. Dean, what did Secretary Pierce say to you, as precisely
8 as you can recall, with regard to his conversation with 9 Ms. Wiseman?

10 A. I really don't remember his exact words. I just came to 11 know that he had spoken with her and that she was not going to 12 sign the papers, and then he gave me instructions.

13 Q. What instructions did Secretary Pierce give you?

14 A. He told me that, that if -- Shirley was -- Ms. Wiseman was 15 not going to be there for very long anyway. I mean, she had 16 already gotten another job and was leaving. So he said, "Wait
17 until she leaves, and then I want you to make absolutely certain 18 this project is legal. Legally make certain that there's no
19 problem asking someone to sign this, and when the next person
20 comes in, I want you to have it taken care of."

21 Q. I'm going to show you what I've marked for identification as 22 Dean Exhibits 557 and 558 and ask you if you recognize those?

23 (Defendant's Exhibit Nos. 557 and 558

24 were marked for identification.)

25 THE WITNESS: Yes.

2271

BY MR. WEHNER:

2 Q. What are they?

3 A. Well, they, one is a rapid reply letter that actually gives
4 mod rehab to Durham, although this is way later in the process.
5 This is very long time in the future.

6 And this is an okay for Autopen on the rapid reply by
7 me.

8 Q. And was, in fact, Durham Hosiery Mill ultimately funded?

9 A. Yes, it was.

10 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, at this time, I'll move the 11 admission of Dean Exhibits 557 and 558.

12 MR. O'NEILL: No objection.

13 THE COURT: All right, 557 and 558 will be admitted.
14 (Defendant's Exhibit Nos. 557 and 558
15 were received in evidence.)
16 BY MR. WEHNER:

17 Q. Ms. Dean, how long was Ms. Wiseman in the position of acting
18 housing commissioner?
19 A. I, I don't recall. Around six months would be my, my best
20 guess.
21 Q. And who took her place after --
22 A. Janet Hale.
23 Q. Ms. Hale then became acting housing commissioner?
24 A. She became acting general and then general deputy and then 25 acting federal housing commissioner.

2272

1 Q. Did Ms. wiseman leave the department?
2 A. Yes, she did. She went to be president of the National 3 Association of Home Builders.
4 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, with the Court's permission,
5 that's a break point.
6 THE COURT: That's good for you?
7 MR. WEHNER: Without getting into the tenure of the 8 next federal housing commissioner.
9 THE COURT: All right. All right, Ladies and 10 Gentlemen, counsel has indicated that that's a good breaking 11 point in a time frame of the questioning. We're going to have to 12 continue tomorrow.
13 Tomorrow will be 9:45. I've got a matter in the 14 morning that will take about 30 or 40 minutes in another case, so 15 9:45 tomorrow. We'll be sitting in a full day tomorrow.
16 I expect we'll complete the testimonial phase of this
17 case Thursday, if not tomorrow, maybe Thursday, and again, we'll 18 be preparing arguments and going to the jury -- they'll be 19 preparing arguments over the weekend and going to the jury
20 probably for closing arguments Tuesday or Wednesday of next week, 21 Monday being a holiday. It depends on some business we have to 22 do, the lawyers and the Court have to do, and getting 23 instructions ready and all, so we need some time to do that, too.
24 But I believe the case will be submitted to you sometime in the 25 middle part of next week.

2273

1 All right, we'll take a recess at this time for the 2 evening hour. Remember the overnight recess about not reading,
3 watching, or listening or anything about this case in the media
4 or talking about it among yourselves or with anyone else on the 5 way home tonight or until tomorrow.
6 We'll see you back here at 9:45 a.m., please, in the 7 morning, all right? Thank you.
8 (Jury out.)
9 THE COURT: All right, we'll stand in recess until 9:45
10 in this case tomorrow morning.
11 (Recess from 4:00 p.m. to 9:45 a.m., October 6, 1993.)

1 PROCEEDING S
2 (Defendant present, Jury out.)
3 THE CLERK: Criminal No. 92-181, United States of
4 America v. Deborah Gore Dean. We have Robert O'Neill and Paula
5 Sweeney for the government, Stephen Wehner for Ms. Dean.
6 THE COURT: All right. Good morning, counsel.
7 MR. O'NEILL: Good morning, Your Honor.
8 MR. WEHNER: Good morning, Your Honor.
9 THE COURT: A couple of matters. One, we have an 10 observer from the Administrative Office to my left, who is in the 11 computer field, observing the use of computers here in the 12 courtroom. Two, Mr. Kevin White, No. 5, is not here. He's 13 already 22 minutes late.
14 Ms. Lisa Proctor left a message, Juror No. 7, on the 15 court's telephone system last night indicating that she would not 16 be here until after 10:00 and that Mr. White would not be here
17 until after 11:00. I'm going to have her in. I don't know what 18 she knows and why they're talking or what they're doing together, 19 if it involves this case. Otherwise, it's not our concern. But 20 we need to know what happened to Mr. White, I'm not anxious to 21 wait another hour for him, and find out Ms. Proctor's involvement
22 in this matter.
23 She is the one whom counsel raised a question about 24 yesterday. My observations of her over the last few weeks has 25 not been without concern as to her attitude and conduct.

2278

1 All right, bring Ms. Proctor in, please.
2 THE DEPUTY MARSHAL: Yes, Your Honor.
3 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, before the jury is brought
4 in, the government had one matter we wished to raise.
5 THE COURT: All right. wait a second.
6 THE DEPUTY MARSHAL: Yes, Your Honor.
7 THE COURT: Sure, Ms. Sweeney.
8 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, we'd like to make a motion to 9 exclude the statements of Sam Pierce.
10 THE COURT: Okay.
11 MS. SWEENEY: We anticipate that the defendant is going
12 to seek to elicit additional statements today, and we believe 13 that they're not admissible under 801(d)(2). 801(d)(2) only 14 permits statements against the party's interest.
15 THE COURT: All right.
16 MS. SWEENEY: And in this case, Ms. Dean seeks to admit 17 them as exculpatory, Your Honor. We've cited case law to that 18 effect.
19 THE COURT: That may be a point. I hadn't thought 20 about the exculpatory nature. I'm not sure about the 21 co-conspirator exception not applying, but the exculpatory I 22 hadn't considered before when we let them in.
23 I'll have Ms. Proctor brought in now.
24 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, the party in question is the 25 other party in this case. The other party is the Office of 2279

1 Independent Counsel.
2 (Juror Proctor in.)

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

3 THE COURT: All right. Good morning, Ms. Proctor.
4 JUROR PROCTOR: Good morning.
5 THE COURT: We've gotten a message on the telephone
6 recording system, I think this morning, was picked up that you're 7 going to be late, but you've made it, but that Mr. White couldn't 8 get in?
9 JUROR PROCTOR: Kevin White. He's going to be about
10 10:30 or 11:00.
11 THE COURT: What happened, do you know?
12 JUROR PROCTOR: He had some family problems yesterday.
13 He's taking care of them this morning.
14 THE COURT: Is it 10:30 or 11:00? It makes some 15 difference in our timing as to what we're going to do about 16 starting the trial and whether we should wait for him or not.
17 JUROR PROCTOR: Well, he said he's definitely coming
18 in, and he said it would be between 10:30 and 11:00.
19 THE COURT: He didn't call us and give us any direct 20 information about this, and it concerns me as to when we can
2 count on him being here with the witnesses we have ready to go,
2 continue.
2 JUROR PROCTOR: Because if it helps any, I saw him this
2 morning, and he was running around and asked me to call for him.
2 THE COURT: Pardon me?

1 JUROR PROCTOR: He was doing a lot of running around,
2 you know, trying to take care of that, and then he was going to
3 go home, change, and he asked me to call in for him.
4 THE COURT: All right. Well, I'll talk to counsel and 5 see what we're going to do about waiting any longer.
6 JUROR PROCTOR: Okay.
7 THE COURT: Thank you.
8 (Juror Proctor out.)
9 THE COURT: All right, I'll wait until 10:30 and see if 10 Mr. White shows up.
11 All right, Mr. Wehner, what was your remark again as to 12 Mr. Pierce's statements, one, that they're 801(d)(2)(E)'s 13 requirement that a statement may be offered against a party, and 14 you're saying these are statements against the interests of the 15 prosecutors, the government?
16 MR. WEHNER: Yeah. And I looked at their case of 17 United States v. Kapp. in 1986, Your Honor, which happened to 18 be out of the Third Circuit, and, and the Kapp case is not even 19 followed in the Third Circuit, Your Honor, with regards to the 20 trial practice of the district court up there.
2 I mean, the fact is that the rule specifically provides
2 and the statutes and the case law specifically provide that the 2 co-conspirator exception to the hearsay rule is a two-way street
2 and that the Federal Rules of Evidence apply equally to the 2 Independent Counsel as they do to the defendant.

2281

1 The parties in this case are the United States v.
2 Ms. Dean. Both individuals are parties -- both entities are 3 parties. To the extent that the co-conspirator exception is not
4 usable by the defense, it runs contrary to the Court's ruling
5 during the government's case in chief. It's been expressly
6 withdrawn on the record by the Office of the Independent Counsel
7 yesterday as part of their objection.
8 And if Your Honor wants to discuss it in an
9 intellectual fashion, we can, because they are not being offered
10 actually for the truth of what Mr. Pierce said, but only for the 11 fact that the statement was made. So there's an intellectual 12 argument to be made.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

13 THE COURT: That they're not hearsay, you're saying.
14 MR. WEHNER: That they're not hearsay by definition,
15 under the common law definitions of hearsay.
16 But I really don't know that the common law definitions
17 of hearsay are -18
THE COURT: well, it's not common law. The rules of 19 evidence say what hearsay is or isn't, and the definition of 20 hearsay takes care of it.
2 MR. WEHNER: Correct. Not offered for the truth of the 2 matter asserted is the basic difference.
2 The other point, Your Honor, is -- and I'd like a
2 second to look at the rules.
2 THE COURT: All right.

2282

1 MR. WEHNER: After that objection was withdrawn
2 yesterday, I didn't expect it to be raised again, and the first
3 notice I had, of course, was when it was brought to Your Honor's
4 attention.
5 THE COURT: well, I understand the government's
6 concern, because what they're facing is, we see it all the time
7 in criminal trials, and this is a little bit different than the 8 standard trial, but a defendant gets on the stand and wants to 9 say everything about an absent codefendant, what he did and said,
10 et cetera, and all the statements that an absent codefendant made 11 to exculpate themselves, and there's no way to cross-examine that 12 other codefendant, and it leaves a lot of self-serving testimony
13 without being able to be crossed.
14 MR. WEHNER: I think that's true, Judge -15
THE COURT: But I want to take a look at the 16 government's memorandum for a minute.
17 MR. WEHNER: At the same time, I think you have to 18 recognize that the unavailability of Mr. Pierce is a function of 19 the Independent Counsel's, not a function of Ms. Dean.
20 THE COURT: well, it's a function of his exercise of
2 his rights not to testify.
2 MR. WEHNER: well, I'm sure if the Independent Counsel
2 would offer him immunity, he'd be glad to get on the stand and 2 exculpate Ms. Dean. And of course, we don't have any right to 2 immunize a witness. Under the case law, we can't move the Court

2283

1 to do that.
2 Independent Counsel has been investigating him for as
3 long as they've been investigating Ms. Dean. They could seal
4 their evidence and offer him a grant of immunity, like attempts
5 were made to do in the Oliver North prosecutions. It's not easy
6 to do that, but clearly you can satisfy the burden if you try.
7 THE COURT: Let me look at the government's memo. I
8 was just reviewing the notes under the rule.
9 All right, then we'll take a recess until 10:30 to see
10 if Mr. White is going to show up here or not and make a decision
11 of whether we strike him and put in an alternate juror and not 12 waste any more time.
13 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, for the record, I believe we 14 would object to any move to strike Mr. White. We would prefer to 15 wait.
16 THE COURT: Mr. White you would?
17 MR. O'NEILL: So would the government, Your Honor. The 18 government would likewise prefer to wait.
19 THE COURT: All right.
20 (Recess from 10:15 a.m. to 11:25 a.m.)
2 THE COURT: All right, two matters: One is the motion
2 to exclude the statements of Pierce, and Mr. Whites' continued

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

2 absence. He's not here yet. It's almost 11:30. I'm inclined to 2 strike him. We haven't heard from him directly. We've heard
2 through another juror that he can't come. I think he had an 2284

1 obligation to let the Court know where he is. But I'll rule on 2 this other motion first and then see if he's here after that
3 before I make a final decision, and I'll hear from counsel first.
4 The government's motion to exclude as inadmissible
5 hearsay the statements of Samuel R. Pierce, Jr., based upon their 6 assertions that they should not be admitted under 801(d)(2) and 7 (d) (2) (E), because one, they aren't offered against a party, and 8 second, because there is not sufficient evidence to demonstrate 9 Pierce is a member of any of the conspiracies defendant Dean is 10 charged with in this case, as to the latter, I'm not quite sure 11 that that's accurate based upon my discussions yesterday with 12 counsel.
13 As to the first, I think that's a concern, and I'll 14 hear again if Mr. Wehner wants to discuss that anymore. I do
15 have the Kapp opinion that he indicates the Third Circuit,
16 where it's from, doesn't follow, but it reads that way.
17 Shepardizing it does not indicate it's been cited for that 18 proposition, although for other propositions, and it does rely 19 upon a Ninth Circuit case, but there they ruled that there's no
20 authority for the proposition the prosecution is a party against 2 whom such evidence can be offered.
2 That is buttressed by other case decisions in 2 discussions of the operation of the rule, and the first one we
2 got ahold of was Bourjaily v. United States, a well known
2 conspiracy case, but in any event, Bourjaily said before a 2285

1 statement can be admitted under this subsection, there must be
2 evidence both that there was a conspiracy involving the declarant
3 and the nonoffering party and the statement was made during, in 4 the course of, and as furtherance of the conspiracy. That's 5 483 U.S. 175, a 1987 case.
6 Here it's evident there's no evidence offered that the 7 nonoffering party, the government, was in a conspiracy with 8 Mr. Pierce.
9 Mr. Wehner, do you have anything else on that?
10 MR. WEHNER: Yeah, Judge, because it's an interesting
11 question when it's the United States of America versus a
§ 12 defendant.
13 THE COURT: This was an office of the United States of 14 America.
15 MR. WEHNER: Right. And I'm not totally familiar with 16 that case, so if I foul up, I'm sure Your Honor will let me know, 17 but it strikes me that the authority for the proposition as to 18 what is a party is found in the rule. It says "a party." It
19 doesn't say "an individual party"; it says "a party."
20 And frankly, I think the Third Circuit decision is 2 bizarre in that it states there's no authority to suggest that
2 the United States can be a party.
2 THE COURT: well, I think this goes a little more
2 fundamental than that in the way I read the rule and the case I
2 cited, Bourjaily. and that was that they ruled that there not

2286

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

1 only was a conspiracy, but the conspiracy had involved the 2 declarant, that would be Mr. Pierce, and the nonoffering party,
3 which would be, I take it by that language, the government.
4 Let me read the rule again.

5 MR. WEHNER: That sounds logical that they would have 6 said that.

7 THE COURT: All right. 801(d)(2)(E) is admission by a
8 co-conspirator, and it reads, "Admission by a party-opponent." A
9 statement is offered against a party and is a statement by a
10 co-conspirator of the party "during the course and in furtherance 11 of the conspiracy."

12 So to offer it against a party, you'd have to offer it
13 against the United States, but it would have to be a statement of 14 the co-conspirator of the party during the course and in 15 furtherance of the conspiracy, and I think the way that 16 Bourriaily reads, it seems to me that the nonoffering party --
17 in this case, it would be offered against the government -- would 18 have to be part of the conspiracy, and I don't think because 19 Secretary Pierce is a cabinet officer, that ties in necessarily 20 that means the government is part of the conspiracy even if he
2 was found to be part of the conspiracies Ms. Dean is charged 2 with.

2 I'm going to sustain the objection made at this time to 2 exclude as inadmissible hearsay statements of Samuel R. Pierce if 2 they are offered as hearsay statements under the 801(d)(2)

formula. That doesn't mean that they can't be otherwise admissible if there are non-hearsay reasons they could be admitted, but as to open-ended admission and discussion by Ms. Dean of everything Mr. Pierce said to her in the context of these operations, I think they could not be admitted under the 801(d)(2)(E) exception, which means you have to tailor her responses and the questions to be asked carefully or at the bench, discussing any other reasons those statements may be admitted that he may have made to her.

1 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I don't have any

2 problem with tailoring to avoid the hearsay objection,

3 but I would respectfully request that Your Honor

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

4 reconsider your ruling based upon the plain reading of 5 801 (d) (2), which as Your Honor points out, says, "A
6 statement by a co-conspirator during the course and in 7 furtherance of the conspiracy." I don't concede for the 8 purpose of this argument that Miss Dean has been shown 9 by the Office of Independent Counsel to be a member of 10 any criminal conspiracy but Your Honor had essentially 11 ruled that a preponderance of the evidence existed to 12 show that Miss Dean was a member of a conspiracy
13 involving known and unknown individuals named in the 14 indictment.
15 We have presented evidence to the Court based 16 upon that premise that there was, from a preponderance
17 of the evidence, shown to be a conspiracy and that 18 statements made during the course of and in further of 19 that conspiracy would be admissible. I don't believe 20 that you can read 801 (d) (2) literally or with the full
21 logical meaning of 801 (d) (2) to suggest that that rule

2 is limited to evidence by the prosecution in a criminal
2 case to exclude co-conspirator statements under a
2 preponderance of the evidence standard because 801 (d)
2 (2), the first sentence, states, "A statement is offered

2289

1 against a party," to hold that the party in a case such
2 as this is not the Independent Counsel, frankly, Judge,
3 it's absurd.
4 And I think the Third Circuit is clearly off
5 base, and has been recognized, although Your Honor has 6 so aptly pointed out, nobody has ever decided that 7 proposition before because it just doesn't make any 8 sense.
9 I recognize Your Honor's ruling and I respect
10 it and I will attempt to abide by it.
11 I would also like to point out to the Court
12 that I will be arguing that the statements are otherwise
13 admissible pursuant to 801 (d) (2) D and I -- which 14 provides, "That a statement by the party's agent or 15 servant concerning a matter within the scope of the 16 agency or employment," and I would anticipate that Your 17 Honor would make the same ruling based upon your prior 18 ruling today because I believe that the statements of 19 Secretary Pierce are also admissible under that 20 sub-section. I believe they are admissible under 801
21 (d) (2) (c), "A statement by a person authorized by the 22 party to make a statement concerning a subject," and the 23 United States Government and the president of the United 24 States clearly authorized Secretary Pierce to make

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
25 statements regarding how HUD operated.

2290

1 As to 801 (d) (2) (b) and 801 (d) (2) (a), I
2 do not believe that in a situation where the United
3 States by the Office of Independent Counsel is solely 4 responsible for the unavailability of a witness and they
5 have stipulated to that, not that they're solely 6 responsible, I don't want to say that, but they've 7 stipulated to unavailability, that the Court can 8 appropriately rule that the statements in furtherance of 9 the conspiracy by a co-conspirator during the course of 10 the conspiracy are inadmissible under 801 (d) (2).

11 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to rule
12 the -- I'll overrule your point. I'm going to deny at 13 this point admitting those other theories that you've 14 just advanced. I think they all fall, subject to the 15 statement situation. As I said, they're non-hearsay as 16 opposed to the exception to the hearsay that has been 17 offered. I'll consider those as they come up at the 18 time.

19 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: All right.

21 We don't have Mr. White. It's 20 minutes of 22 12, 22 minutes before 12. I'm interested in moving this 23 case today.

24 MR. O'NEILL: At this point, Your Honor, the 25 Government would request that you fill the slot with an 2291

1 alternate.

2 For the record, we were of the other opinion
3 at 10:20 or 10:15. Though it is now almost an hour and 4 a half later he has not communicated with the Court and 5 the problem will be if it's of a de minimis nature Your
6 Honor would not want him sitting because he's disrupted
7 the scheduling of the Court because of something
8 unimportant. If it's something of importance, a severe 9 family situation, then you would be concerned if he

10 could possibly listen to the evidence and devote his 11 full attention to what's going on in Court and I think 12 in either way he would be useless to the Court at this 13 time and I would request on behalf of the Government he 14 should be replaced.

15 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I'm not sure if we 16 differ with the request, but I think under the 17 circumstances of his absence I would request a further 18 voir dire of juror number seven to determine what any 19 additional conversations she's had or what that 20 situation is.

21 THE COURT: All right.

22 Will you get Miss Proctor, please?

23 All right, Miss Proctor, can you give us any 24 further information about Mr. White's problems and what 25 happened, because we're getting now to 20 of 12 and 2292

1 we've been here since quarter of ten ready to go at 2 trial and we're losing -3
JUROR PROCTOR: Can I go and call his house?
4 That's what I wanted to do but I wasn't sure if you had
5 started or not. I want to call his house.
6 THE COURT: Do you have any sense of what the 7 problem is, whether it's a serious family problem and he 8 might be distracted when he gets here, that he's worried
9 about situations at home?
10 JUROR PROCTOR: well, from what he's told me
11 the problem is pretty much taken care of and he just had 12 to do the last -- take his sister somewhere and then he 13 was supposed to go home, get dressed and come here.
14 THE COURT: All right. we'll call his home
15 and see what information we can get and if we can't find 16 him we're going to have to go ahead with the case.
17 Do counsel want to inquire of Miss Proctor?
18 MR. O'NEILL: No, Your Honor.
19 MR. WEHNER: I would just briefly, Your
20 Honor.
2 Have you become friends with the gentleman?
2 JUROR PROCTOR: Yes.
2 MR. WEHNER: And have you talked about the
2 case with him?
2 JUROR PROCTOR: No.

2293

1 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, I-2
THE COURT: All right, I'll sustain the
3 objection. They were just talking about what happened
4 and not anything else.
5 MR. WEHNER: Do you live in the same
6 neighborhood?
7 JUROR PROCTOR: No.
8 MR. WEHNER: what caused him to ask you to 9 call?
10 JUROR PROCTOR: I had saw him at nine o'clock
11 this morning. He was in some kind of trouble where he.
12 needed to borrow some money.
13 MR. WEHNER: Borrow some money.
14 JUROR PROCTOR: Yes, and that's when I saw him
15 and I told him he needed to call and he asked me if I
16 could call for him because he was running around.
17 MR. WEHNER: Do you know what he was going to 18 borrow the money for?
19 JUROR PROCTOR: No.
20 MR. WEHNER: Did you loan him the money?
2 JUROR PROCTOR: Yes.
2 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.
2 All right, we'll try to reach him in a few
2 minutes and I'll come back by 12 o'clock and see if
2 we're going to proceed with the jury and substitute for

1 Mr. white at that time.

2 We stand in recess.

3 (Recess, 11:40 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.)

4 THE COURT: All right. It's 12 o'clock. We

5 have not heard from Mr. White. A call was made to his

6 home. His grandmother indicated she wasn't sure where

7 he was. She thought he was coming here but didn't

8 know.

9 Is there any other comment by counsel of the 10 defendant upon the retention of Mr. White or not? My 11 intentions are to strike him based upon Miss Proctor's

12 statements as well as the fact he hasn't appeared or 13 personally called in and kept us waiting and losing an 14 entire morning of testimony which would delay the case
15 probably through part of next week.

16 I'm more bothered by the fact he didn't call
17 and report in than anything else as well as Miss

18 Proctor's statement he had some kind of trouble and had 19 to borrow money from her. I don't know where his 20 attention would be in this case in case there's some 21 serious personal difficulties.

22 Any comment, counsel?

23 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, could we approach
24 briefly?

25 THE COURT: Sure.

2295

1 MR. WEHNER: Thank you.

2 (Bench conference)

3 THE COURT: Miss Dean can come. That's fine.

4 MR. WEHNER: Judge, we don't have -- we do not

5 object to the striking of that juror. Here's a problem

6 I have. I move that the Court also strike at the same

7 time juror number seven based upon her conduct yesterday

8 which was observed by all the parties and which were

9 raised last night, yesterday afternoon, with the Court
10 regarding what I will characterize as hysterical
11 giggling at an inappropriate point in the trial
12 yesterday when there was nothing in the courtroom that 13 was amusing. Clearly it was something in her own head
14 or in the head of other jurors, from my observations.
15 Secondly, I move to strike her because I am 16 very suspicious about one juror borrowing money from 17 another juror when the person from whom the money was 18 borrowed states that they don't know what they borrowed
19 the money for.
20 I think there is more to this story than we
2 have been able to determine at this point but I think

2 clearly that there is a debt owed by juror number five
2 to juror number seven. That is a relationship that in 2 my judgment could tend to move the jury from a jury of 2 12 to a jury of 11 because of the admission that money

2296

1 has changed hands and apparently some debt has been

2 created. So I would ask that both jurors be struck and

3 be replaced with alternates.

4 MR. O'NEILL: I just see no basis at this

5 time, Judge, for juror number seven. I believe the 6 laughter yesterday – the only time I remember was when

7 Mr. Holmes was testifying and I think I was laughing at 8 some points during that myself, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: well, I was bothered by

10 Miss Proctor in the past, she would make audible
11 comments, I'm not sure I could understand, but make 12 audible comments at the time when witnesses were making
13 statements and seemed to react with juror number two 14 during testimony and responses that were given.
15 Originally I thought it was harmless but as 16 time went on it concerned me and that's the reason why I 17 had my Deputy Clerk direct comments to them all, not to 18 anybody in particular, about proper decorum in the 19 courtroom after this laughter had taken place.

20 I understood from watching there was somebody
2 passing gum back and forth and somebody taking the gum.

2 That involved Mr. White, as a matter of fact.
2 MR. O'NEILL: Has there been any change since
2 you -
2 THE COURT: Change in the sense she's not been 2297

1 talking. She sat like a chastised little girl
2 yesterday, that's a sexist statement, but yesterday did
3 not look at anyone, including the witness or the 4 documents or the Court. She simply looked down
5 yesterday all afternoon. I will continue to watch her.
6 I'll deny it at this time. I'm not sure
7 because of the fact that Mr. White is gone -I'll deny
8 it at this time. She might get upset because Mr. White
9 is out. If it reflects her conduct or her attitude is 10 non-appropriate, then she may have improper influences
11 bothering her about this case in some sense, I will take 12 it up again about retaining her on the jury.
13 MR. WEHNER: Judge, I think it's - we 14 strenuously object to you leaving her on the jury at 15 this point based upon your observed conduct yesterday,
16 plus the relationship that's obviously developed between 17 two jurors. We have four alternates, Your Honor. This 18 case is almost over. I do not know what's going on with 19 her, but I do not think that based upon my observation
20 she should not be continued to be assumed to be a fair
2 juror for Miss Dean.
2 THE COURT: I'll leave her in for now and, as
2 I said, I'll take it up again if necessary and we can
2 talk about it some more.
2 I'm going to bring the jury in and seat

2298

1 alternate number one which is Stacey Peters, and recess
2 for lunch.
3 MR. WEHNER: Judge, we have one brief witness
4 that we can work in before lunch, Gordon Dean, and 5 Mr. O'Neill has indicated that I could call him out of 6 order.
7 THE COURT: All right. Let's do that. I'll

8 be happy to.

9 MR. WEHNER: Thank you.

10 (Bench conference concluded)

11 THE COURT: All right, will you bring in the 12 jurors, please?

13 (Jury present)

14 THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen.

15 Thank for your patience.

16 As you realize, Mr. White, juror number five,
17 is not present and the indications were that he would 18 have been here between 10:30 and 11. We've been unable 19 to ascertain his whereabouts through telephone calls and 20 we have no information when he's going to be able to get
2 here.

2 It's the concern of the Court that whatever
2 his emergency was it would distract him if he would
2 eventually get here and it would continue to bother
2 him.

2299

1 Additionally, we've lost an entire morning of

2 trial with the multiple people here, you all, and the

3 Court staff and with the Court's calendar we've been put

4 over now probably another day for this case. For those

5 reasons I'm going to replace Mr. White at this time. We

6 can no longer wait. We've not heard from him directly

7 about his absence.

8 Miss Stacey Peters, alternate juror number

9 one, will move to become juror number five and Mr. White
10 will be released from further jury service and 11 instructed not to discuss this case with anyone until 12 this case is completed.

13 We will attempt to communicate that to 14 Mr. White. He's not to talk to anyone about this 15 case, other juror members or anyone else.

16 All right, ladies and gentlemen, we're going
17 to proceed with a short witness before lunch and then
18 we'll take our luncheon recess. We're going to break
19 into the testimony of Miss Dean to take up this other
20 witness, so we can go ahead and take him up and get him
2 finished quickly.

2 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.
2 Miss Dean calls her brother Gordon.
2 (GORDON DEAN, WITNESS FOR DEFENDANT, SWORN)

2300

1 BY MR. WEHNER:

2 Q Your name, sir, is Gordon Dean?

3 A That's correct.

4 Q And you're miss Deborah Gore Dean's brother?

5 A That's right.

6 Q At one point you resided at the Watergate complex,

7 is that correct?

8 A That is correct.

9 Q Did you own an apartment or a condominium there?

10 A Yes, I owned an apartment there, apartment 1412.

11 Q Did you have occasion to put that apartment on the 12 market?

13 A Yes, I did. After living in the apartment for 14 approximately a year I rented it out for a couple of 15 years and then in the fall of 1986 I listed the 16 apartment for sale.

17 Q What was the name of the real estate agent you
18 listed it with?

19 A I listed it with Susan Withington who was at that 20 time Withington Real Estate.

2 Q Did there come a time where you heard the name

2 Lou Kitchin in relationship to the listing of the
2 apartment for sale?

2 A Yes. I was living in New York City at this time
2 during the fall of '86 and the winter of 1987 and I had 2301

1 conversations with my sister and she described to me

2 that she was starting a new job or career that would

3 involve her doing interior decoration, antiques --

4 MR. O'NEILL: I object to all of these asides,

5 Your Honor. It's really improper.

6 THE COURT: Just answer the question.

7 Go ahead.

8 BY MR. WEHNER:

9 Q Directing your attention to Mr. Kitchin, did you
10 come to know that he was interested in the apartment?

11 A Yes.

12 Q How did you come to know that?

13 A I came to know that through conversations I had 14 with my sister and subsequently direct conversations

15 that I had with Mr. Lou Kitchin and conversations I had 16 with my sister and with my real estate agent,
17 Susan Withington.

18 Q Based upon these conversations did you have an 19 understanding as to whether Mr. Kitchin was interested
20 in purchasing the apartment?

21 A Yes. In my direct conversations with him he seemed 22 to be interested. We didn't get down to the point where 23 he absolutely said he would buy it at a certain price,
24 but we had gotten to serious enough conversations that 25 we were talking about price.

2302

1 We started the whole negotiating process that

2 you do when you're selling something and he got serious

3 enough about it that I put him directly in touch with

4 Susan Withington, my broker, and they were having

5 discussions and this went on for some period of time.

6 There was some kind of hang-up relating to the 7 fact that he wanted to buy the apartment in his

8 company's name as opposed to his individual name and so

9 there was apparently a provision by the co-op board of 10 the building that they wanted whoever was going to buy
11 an apartment there to be an individual, not a company.
12 And so that went back and forth, and I
13 instructed Susan Withington to try and work with the 14 board to see if there's any way that they could get 15 around this rule, if there's any way that he could buy
16 it in the company name and we had conversations with him
17 about this and this went on for some period of months.
18 Q Did Mr. Kitchin ever purchase the apartment?
19 A No, he did not.
20 Q Did you ultimately sell the apartment?
2 A Yes, I did.

2 Q Through Miss Withington?
2 A Yes.
2 Q Directing your attention to your relationship with
2 your sister Deborah Gore Dean, did there come an 2303

1 occasion when you had a discussion with her concerning
2 her interest in the antique and decorating business?
3 A Well, specifically when she talked about the job
4 that she wanted to move into and the area she wanted to 5 get into, she told me that she was thinking about 6 starting her --

7 MR. O'NEILL: Objection again, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: I'll sustain the objection.

9 MR. WEHNER: Sorry, Your Honor.
10 BY MR. WEHNER:
11 Q Did you have a conversation with your sister about
12 that?
13 A I did.
14 Q Approximately when was that?
15 A That was probably January of 1987, approximately
16 January of '87.
17 Q Okay. Without repeating what Miss Dean said to you
18 during that conversation, what was your understanding
19 subsequent to that as to what business interest she had?
20 A My understanding subsequent to that is that she
2 would be in the business of decorating apartments and

2 buying antiques for apartments and working with 2 individuals who wanted to get -- you know, lobbyists or

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 Congressmen or appointees to the Executive Branch coming
2 to Washington, assist them in locating apartments and 2304

1 decorating apartments.

2 In fact, I will never forget the name,, she

3 was going to call it Designing Women and I remember that

4 of course because of the tv show. It sticks in my

5 head. And so she was, I guess, contemplating doing that

6 with some other people. And so that was a name that

7 still sticks in my head today.

8 Q Your sister is no longer employed at HUD, of 9 course. Do you know what business she's in today?

10 A Yes, she has a business similar to what I've 11 described, an antiques business called the Proud
12 American, and has had for some number of years.

13 MR. WEHNER: No further questions, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: All right.

15 MR. O'NEILL: One second, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Certainly.

17 CROSS-EXAMINATION

18 BY MR. O'NEILL:

19 Q Mr. Dean, do you recall testifying before a federal 20 grand jury approximately a year ago?

2 A Yes, I do.

2 Q And at that time you were asked a number of
2 questions about your previous addresses.

2 A Yes, I was.

2 Q And do you recall at that time weren't even 2305

1 familiar with the number of your apartment at the
2 Watergate?

3 A Yes, I do.

4 Q Now, Mr. Dean, you eventually sold this apartment,
5 is that correct?

6 A That's correct.

7 Q And it was sold to someone other than Lou Kitchin?

8 A That's correct.

9 Q These conversations that you had with your sister

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
10 in January, 1987, do you know how she was employed at 11 that time?
12 A In addition to her work at HUD?
13 Q No, was she employed?
14 A She was employed at HUD at that time.
15 Q Was she a fulltime employee of HUD in January, 16 1987?
17 A Yes, she was.
18 Q During that period of time do you know whether she 19 was arriving at work at approximately nine a.m. and 20 leaving at ten p.m. on a daily basis?
2 A No, I could not testify to that.
2 MR. O'NEILL: Nothing further.
2 Thank you, Your Honor.
2 MR. WEHNER: Nothing further.
2 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Dean. You can step

2306

1 down.

2 All right, ladies and gentlemen. we'll take

3 our lunch now. we had such a long morning. we'll take

4 our luncheon break and try to get back here at an early

5 hour to hopefully get started with the case again.

6 Don't be concerned about the makeup or the 7 change of the jury now. It's obviously a business

8 decision that I had to make for the Court and I just

9 couldn't tolerate any longer delay. That's why we have 10 alternates.

11 So we'll proceed on the same admonitions as 12 always. You don't talk about this case among yourselves
13 or anyone else, or allow anyone to talk about it in any 14 fashion.

15 we'll be back from lunch at 1:30 and we'll 16 proceed with testimony at that time for the rest of the 17 afternoon.

18 All right. You're released for lunch.

19 (Jury dismissed).

20 THE COURT: will you be spending the rest of 2 the day on direct?

2 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir. I told Mr. O'Neill
2 that there are two and possibly three additional 2 witnesses, brief, with the exception of one, if that
2 individual testifies, which is Mr. Dorsey. There may be

2307

1 more extensive cross-examination.
2 THE COURT: So we'll not finish the testimony
3 until probably Tuesday, Monday being a holiday. I just 4 wanted to inform the jury.
5 Do you anticipate rebuttal testimony?
6 MR. O'NEILL: It's difficult - at this time,
7 Your Honor, no. I guess it really depends on when we 8 get to the issues at hand.
9 THE COURT: we'll have to have the charge
10 conference next week.
1 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Your Honor. If there would
1 be rebuttal, it would be very short.
1 THE COURT: All right, 1:30.

AFTERNOON SESSION
2 (Defendant present, Jury out.)
3 THE COURT: Okay, if we're ready to go, you can bring 4 the jury in.
5 (Jury in.)
6 THE COURT: All right, Ladies and Gentlemen, we're
7 about ready to go again. Ms. Dean can resume the stand. We'll 8 continue with the direct testimony of Ms. Dean this afternoon.
9 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.
10 Good afternoon.
11 THE JURORS: Good afternoon.
12 DEBORAH GORE DEAN, DEFENDANT'S WITNESS, RESUMED
13 DIRECT EXAMINATION (Cont'd.)
14 BY MR. WEHNER:
15 Q. Ms. Dean, when you were testifying yesterday, I believe that 16 we had basically stopped during a transition period between 17 housing commissioners, that being from Ms. Wiseman to Ms. Hale.
18 Before we get back into that chronology, there are a couple other
19 areas that I'd like to ask you about.
20 We talked yesterday about your communications with 21 Secretary Pierce, and a previous witness has described the 22 proximity of your office to the secretary's. Would you describe 23 from your own view the office layout, what your proximity was to 24 Secretary Pierce, and how often or how regularly you generally
25 saw him in the time period in question?

2309

1 A. All right. The physical structure of my office was that it
2 basically was made out of a hallway. They sort of enclosed a
3 hallway, and it sort of created sort of a, like a C shape, and 4 walls were put in.
5 So Secretary Pierce had a rather large office, you
6 know, that had windows, of course, and everything looking out,
7 and then immediately to, it would have been his right, looking 8 toward his front door, to the side of his desk was a door, and 9 that door would lead into my office, which was, it's a nice-sized 10 office but, you know, it was, there were no windows. It had a 11 lot of doors and a lot of wall, but no windows.
12 And there was a door behind me that went into the under 13 secretary's executive assistant's office, and there was a door in 14 front of me that went out into this sort of hallway that went to 15 the front door of the secretary's suite.
16 So it was a waiting area outside my office, and there
17 was a very large waiting area outside the secretary's office.
18 And then he had several secretaries in that waiting area for him, 19 and then there was a receptionist right as you walked through the 20 front two doors.
21 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, with the Court's permission,
22 can Ms. Dean sketch that layout?
23 THE COURT: Sure.
24 THE WITNESS: Okay. I'll try to give as much detail as 25 I can here. The building curved, you know, it's a curving

2310

1 building, so everything sort of is on the, like that. And then
2 like that.
3 And Secretary Pierce's office would have been like
4 this. And then he had a secretary who sat here and a secretary
5 who sat here. There was a couch here for people to wait and a
6 chair and a chair. And then this went on through to a dining 7 room that was his dining room and a kitchen, and then the 8 secretary's conference room, that was a very -- that's where he 9 had the big, principal staff meetings and all that.
10 And then there was a, I think there was a, a glass wall
11 that had curtains on it. I know you couldn't see through, but I
12 don't remember there being a, a concrete wall there.
13 He came into the office of the secretary right here,
14 and then there was a small couch here, and there was a
15 receptionist here. Then my office would have been back here.
16 There's the door. And Sherrill Nettles, Nettles-Hawkins sat
17 here.
18 Then there was a door here that went to the under 19 secretary's executive assistant, and actually, this exact
20 configuration is mirrored just the opposite for the under 21 secretary. So he had the same setup as the secretary minus the 22 dining room.
23 And the secretary had a door here. His desk was here,
24 and there was a doorway here that led him into a private area for 25 himself that had a shower and whatever, and then into the under

2311

1 secretary's room. So he could go to see the under secretary and
2 back through without going all the way around the building to the 3 other side. And he could come in, open the door, and say
4 something to me if I was in there, and I, obviously, could not 5 open the door into his office, but he could certainly open the 6 door to my office anytime and say something.
7 And I could go into the executive assistant to the 8 under secretary's office. But 99 percent of the time, if I had

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
9 an appointment with him, I went this way out around this way, sat
10 on the couch, and waited for my appointment.
11 MR. WEHNER: Thank you.
12 Your Honor, with the Court's permission, I'm going to 13 mark that as Dean Exhibit 561 and move it into evidence.
14 THE COURT: 5- -
15 MR. WEHNER: 561.
16 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.
17 THE COURT: All right. 561, the diagram of the 18 secretary's suite, will be admitted into evidence.
19 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 561 was
20 received in evidence.)
21 BY MR. WEHNER:
22 Q. Ms. Dean, during the time period from 1985, actually 1984
23 through 1987, did the secretary come into your office through the 24 door unobserved, as far as you know, by other people?
25 A. Oh, yes. Many times after hours, if he was there, he would

2312

1 come in through that door.
2 Q. And would you have conversations at that time?
3 A. Of course.
4 Q. Okay. Would you quantify -- I know it's a four-year period,
5 but would you quantify as best you could the term "many"?
6 A. How many conversations when he came through the private 7 door?
8 Q. How many times he came through the private door in that 9 three-and-a-half-year period.

10 A. Thirty times maybe.

11 Q. Okay.

12 A. A lot of times, he'd just open up the door and tell me

13 something and close the door, also.

14 Q. You had a telephone in your office?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. The secretary had a telephone in his office?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. How did you reach the secretary on the telephone when you

19 needed to talk to him?

20 A. I always contacted him through his secretary, although I did

21 have a line directly to him. Because I wouldn't know if he was 22 busy, I wouldn't have used it. So I would always go through his 23 private secretary.

24 But he called me on that line often.

25 Q. The line went in both directions?

2313

A. Yes. He called me on that line often.

2 Q. But he didn't -- so he didn't have any compunction about
3 interrupting you?

4 A. Of course not, no.

5 Q. Okay. You also testified that you communicated by memo.

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Now directing your attention to the communication by memo
8 and your attention to the Tuesday staff meetings --

9 A. Right.

10 Q. -- did you prepare memos with regard to the Tuesday staff
11 meetings?

12 A. Yes. I, I prepared memoranda to the secretary basically 13 three different times during a week, for instance. One would be 14 for the Tuesday staff meeting, which would be, as we went through 15 yesterday, all the things that would probably come up during that 16 staff meeting or if he had asked --he might have asked me to 17 remind him, you know, say, "Don't forget to tell me that I want 18 to tell Dr. Cook something" or Dr. Baugh something.
19 And I'd say, "All right." And I'd put that in a folder
20 which I would keep on my desk that said PSM, I think it was 21 principal staff meeting, and then I would use whatever was in 22 that folder Monday evening, and Monday evening I would sit down
23 and write out what that was Tuesday, so he would have it on his 24 desk Tuesday morning.

25 Then I wrote him memoranda which were matters requiring

2314

1 your attention, which were basically things that were in my
2 office that needed to get into his office so that he could make a
3 decision, and those were -- or -- and a lot of times in principal
4 staff meetings, there will be a term that says "I have packages,"
5 and that's because everything that came up to the secretary came 6 in a package, and it would say "Secretary's Correspondence" or 7 "Secretary's Decision," some such package, and all the background
8 from where it had come in the department was in that package.
9 That package was things you need to sign off on.

10 They've been reviewed by your staff, and it's time to sit down
11 and go over them and move them along.

12 Q. Ms. Dean, I'm going to show you what have been marked for 13 identification as Dean Exhibits 545, 535, and 538, and ask if you 14 recognize those as being memoranda that you prepared for the 15 principal staff meetings?

16 A. Yes.

17 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, with the Court's permission,
18 I'll move those into evidence.

19 MR. O'NEILL: No objection.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

20 THE COURT: All right. If there's no objection,
2 they'll be admitted. Would you say the numbers again, please?
2 MR. WEHNER: 535.
2 THE COURT: All right.
2 MR. WEHNER: 538, and 545.
2 THE COURT: All right.

2315

1 (Defendant's Exhibit Nos. 535, 538, and
2 545 were received in evidence.)
3 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, again with the Court's
4 permission, I'm going to publish one of these.
5 THE COURT: Certainly.
6 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.
7 Q. Ms. Dean, we'll see if we can make this readable today.
8 A. All right.
9 Q. Could you read that aloud? Can you read it from there?

10 A. Yes. Memorandum to Secretary Pierce from Deborah Gore Dean, 11 Executive Assistant to the Secretary, and the subject is the 12 principal staff meeting for Tuesday, July 8, 1986, and then:
13 "Don Keuch -- who at that time was the deputy assistant 14 secretary for Management and Administration -- "Don Keuch is 15 prepared to make a presentation about the future needs of the HUD
16 computer system and the proposed $500 million ADP contract." And 17 that was regarding that we were going to computerize all of the 18 FHA records in the department, and needless to say, it was a huge 19 contract, and there were many complications regarding it. So he 20 was going to give a presentation on that.

21 Then, let's see, "Fair housing amendments. Hearings in 22 the House have been rescheduled for July 17. Attached is a 23 letter to Senator Thurmond, asking for similar (through his 24 staff) hearings in the Senate. We need to request them first.
25 "C. Correspondence. There are no overdue letters, but 2316

1 annual reports to Congress are really leaving the department
2 late. The executive secretariat is supposed to track reports and 3 report to you when they're late. I have a feeling they are not
4 performing this function.
5 "D. Desegregation Task Force. The task force appears
6 to be doing nothing. They haven't had meetings or provided any 7 leadership to the field task forces. None of the task forces in 8 the regions, for example, have conducted the expected analyses of 9 past PHA occupancy patterns and Title VII and PHA monitoring
10 efforts. They can't do anything without these analyses. This 11 subject will emerge again in Congress. It will be difficult to 12 testify as to our accomplishments in the year."
13 And that was, that was something that the secretary was 14 particularly interested in. Obviously, you can tell it's a 15 public housing desegregation task force, and the problem was that 16 we had to get the PHAs to tell us building by building what their 17 occupancy was by race, as opposed to project by project, because 18 some projects have more than one building in it, and the data
19 would come back that the public housing authority was integrated,
20 but in many cases, it wasn't, and it would be an all, you know,
21 Hispanic building, an all-black building, or an all-white
22 building, and there was no way for us to track it.

23 So we had to go back and break down the project by 24 building code, and that had taken us two to three years just to 25 get permission to ask that question. So that was an important

2317

1 task, and that's something he was very interested in. It seems
2 very particular, but it was something that he wanted to know.
3 And then, "FHEO," which is Fair Equal Housing
4 Opportunity. "Staff is low in the field. Bill Wynn -- who was 5 running the office at the time -- says he was not given the 6 authority to lift the hiring freeze in the field area, though
7 other assistant secretaries were given permission by Assistant
8 Secretary Tardy. As a result, 5 percent of all openly Title VIII
9 cases have been open over 90 days - which is contrary to the 10 law, which is why I'm pointing that out - a backlog we'll never
11 make up. The hiring freeze is now over, and the field office
12 should move quickly to replace FHEO staff before the fair housing
13 groups begin complaining about our excessive delays."
14 And then the last one is, "FHA study. John has 15 scheduled a meeting for Thursday," John being John Knapp, who was 16 our general counsel who was doing the FHA study.
17 Q. Directing your attention back to E, I believe you said the 18 second sentence said 5 percent. In fact, it says 53 percent?
19 A. I'm sorry, 53 percent of all Title VIII cases have now been 20 open over 40 days."
2 Q. Now this memorandum reflects several different items that 2 you're reporting back to the secretary regarding?
2 A. Well, those were actually principal staff meeting, so
2 basically what I was giving him were some things of interest that
2 he had so that when the assistant secretary for FHEO was there

2318

1 and the assistant secretary for Administration, if that hiring
2 freeze was to be lifted to get those people out in the staff,
3 then he knew at that moment he could turn and say to Assistant
4 Secretary Tardy, "Lift the hiring freeze," if that's what he 5 wanted to do, because everybody would be in the room together.
6 So it was a good opportunity for him to make the 7 decisions that he needed. So most of them were reminding and 8 catching up on those areas.
9 Q. You also mentioned that you would on occasion report to him
10 on specific items that were of interest; is that correct?
11 A. Yes. Well, I always tried to write memoranda to the 12 secretary if it was something he asked me to look into.
13 Q. I'm going to show you what I've marked for identification as 14 Dean Exhibit 501 and ask you if you recognize that?
15 A. Yes. This is one that's matters requiring your attention.
16 Q. Who wrote that?
17 A. I did.
18 Q. And was that kept in the regular course of business?
19 A. Absolutely.
20 Q. Was it in the regular course of business for you to prepare
2 and keep those type of memos?

2 A. Yes. I wrote him one on a regular basis.
2 Q. And was that particular one written on or about the date it
2 reflects?

2 A. Yes. It would have been -- well, it would have been written

2319

1 the night before by me and typed and delivered to him that day.

2 MR. WEHNER: I move the admission of that exhibit into
3 evidence.

4 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right. No objection, the exhibit is
6 admitted.

7 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 501 was
8 received in evidence.)

9 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission, I would like
10 to publish this and have Ms. Dean read it.

11 THE COURT: 501?

12 MR. WEHNER: It's Exhibit No. 501, Your Honor. I'm 13 sorry, Judge, my eyes are, I think, giving out on me.

14 Q. Ms. Dean, I'm not sure you're going to be able to read this 15 from the monitor.

16 A. Is it possible -- is there another copy of it maybe that -

17 Q. That's what I was looking for. I didn't see one. If you 18 could step down, with the Court's permission, and read from the 19 monitor?

20 A. Is that it?

2 Q. Or right here is fine.

2 A. Oh, that's terrific. All right. To Secretary Pierce -
2 well, also, the notes on the side are -- oftentimes on these 2 memos, there will be notes written on the side, and that is 2 because the, the ones with the principal staff meeting, he took

2320

1 those, and he used them, and he wrote his notes on them and then
2 he kept them. I never got them back.

3 But matters requiring your attention I often got back

4 with a note that said, "See me." So what I would do is I would 5 then take the memorandum with me back into his office, and he had 6 a copy, and I would then write whatever decisions he was making
7 along the sides. So if he would make a comment or a decision,
8 that would be my note on, on that. So these are my notes to his 9 decisions. All right.

10 "Dave Maxwell. Mr. Maxwell is still very-11 interested --" Mr. Maxwell was the head of the Federal National 12 Mortgage Association, and HUD has oversight responsibility for 13 Fannie Mae.

14 "Dave Maxwell. Mr. Maxwell is still very interested in 15 meeting with you. His office called to say that he is free
16 anytime on Wednesday, December 17, or anytime up until 4:00 p.m.
17 on Thursday, December 18. He wants to discuss the future of FNMA
18 and give you his position on REMICS --" Real Estate Mortgage 19 Investment Conduits, as I remember. "Mike Dorsey returns on 20 Thursday morning and has been very busy on this issue."

2 Mr. Dorsey was general counsel. "He met with OMB and the U.S.
2 League of Savings Institutions, FNMA, and MBA," the Mortgage
2 Bankers Association. "Everyone says to let FNMA go on REMICS
2 except OMB, which wants a leverage to privatize, and the U.S.
2 League of Savings Institutions, which feels that smaller

2321

1 institutions will not be able to compete fairly against FNMA."

2 And the note from the secretary says, "After the 1st,"

3 which means he'll meet with David Maxwell after the first of the next month.

5 Q. Without reading the remainder of that paragraph, would you
6 go to paragraph 3 --

7 A. Happily.

8 Q. -- and read paragraph 3, so we don't take all afternoon
9 reading?

10 A. Okay. All right, just on paragraph 2, those mark-offs there
11 about Secretary Bowen, that would have meant that the secretary
12 had already taken care of that. No need to discuss it with me,
13 he's already dealt with it himself.

14 All right, "Senator Grassley (Iowa) would very much
15 like to speak with you as soon as possible. He would like to ask
16 you for $500,000 from your discretionary fund (special projects)
17 to undertake a rehabilitation project in Des Moines. Iowa has 18 exhausted its rental rehabilitation money. If you are inclined 19 to do this, $300,000 seems to be sufficient. That would double 20 their rental rehab money. He wants to call you when you'll be in 21 or asks that you call him."

22 And the secretary's decision was to send $225,000.

23 Q. I'm going to direct you to page 2 of that memo, at the 24 bottom, and ask you to tell me what the last entry is.

25 A. Well, obviously, we did discuss mod rehab.

2322

1 Q. Do you have a specific recollection of that- conversation?

2 A. Yes. Senator Grassley was also interested in -- or the 3 secretary brought up sending Senator Grassley mod rehab as well.
4 The senator had spoken to the secretary about visiting Iowa
5 during the reelection campaign, his reelection campaign, and the 6 secretary wanted to know if there were any mod rehab units
7 available to also send to Senator Grassley.

8 Q. And was that your note to yourself to follow up on that 9 issue, or how did that note come to be written?

10 A. Well, the secretary obviously told me to do something, and 11 it regarded mod rehab, so I was not to forget the mod rehab
12 issue. At the time, I would have remembered it very clearly.

13 Q. Would you read No. 7?

14 A. "Bob Tuttle wants to discuss the under secretary position.
15 New names are appearing. Senator Heinz has a new candidate. His 16 resume is attached."

17 Q. Do you know who Bob Tuttle was?

18 A. He was the head of Presidential Personnel at the White
19 House.

20 Q. Thank you. would you return to the stand?

2 Now, Ms. Dean, directing your attention to other duties
2 that you were assigned --to which you were assigned by the 2 secretary, were you assigned duties that dealt with
2 communications with the White House?

2 A. Yes. The, every department under the Reagan Administration

2323

1 had what they call a white House liaison, and that was the person
2 who was in charge of all the presidential hiring in the Schedule
3 Cs, which is the political hiring of people back and forth.

4 And then the Office of Cabinet Affairs decided they
5 also wanted a white House liaison, and they used to call them
6 chiefs of staff. So every department had to have a chief of 7 staff that then sort of mirrored the White House setup. So the

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

8 President had a chief of staff, the secretary was supposed to 9 have a chief of staff, and they asked us to appoint someone who 10 did that, and Secretary Pierce appointed me to do that, but we 11 never used that title, because it was a little bit too much.
12 Q. Ms. Dean, did you have occasion to communicate with the 13 white House in terms of moderate rehabilitation allocations from 14 time to time?
15 A. Yes.
16 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission, I'll move
17 into evidence Dean Exhibit 161.
18 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.
19 THE COURT: All right. No objection, 161 is admitted.
20 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 161 was
2 received in evidence.)
2 MR. WEHNER: And I will publish it to the jury.
2 THE COURT: All right.
2 BY MR. WEHNER:
2 Q. would you please describe, without getting into specific

2324

1 conversations, your understanding of what led up to the writing
2 of this memo?
3 A. The white House would have requested from us any and all 4 information that we had regarding fundings that were going out of 5 the department at this time.
6 Q. was there significance to that particular time?
7 A. Do you have the year?
8 Q. I believe the date was September 18, 1986.
9 A. Well, yes, of course. The September 18, 1986, was right

10 before the '86 elections, and that was the year that the 11 Republicans lost the Senate, and there was a, a very active 12 campaign by the President to campaign in different states for the 13 senators who were up for reelection that were Republicans, and he 14 traveled extensively during that time and would often ask all of 15 the departments basically what monies are going out.
16 And we were also, of course, directed to send monies to 17 certain states during that time period as well. And these are 18 basically which things do you plan to be announcing at the end of 19 your fiscal year? And perhaps the President would like to 20 announce it himself, as opposed to your sending it out.
2 Q. would you read the first paragraph, please, aloud?

2 A. Yeah. "Per your request, please find listed below all
2 initial selections for Section 202, moderate rehabilitation
2 allocations, and UDAG selections for the above-referenced states.
2 The UDAG selections will be publicly announced on September 26,

2325

1 1986. The section 202 selections will be publicly announced by
2 September 29, 1986. There is no formal announcement planned for 3 the moderate rehabilitation allocations. However, these 4 announcements can be made earlier if you so choose in specific 5 instances."
6 Q. And would you read the next paragraph, one sentence, please?
7 A. "The Department of Housing and Urban Development has 8 committed the following amounts to be used in the states of:"

9 Q. And then the memo goes on to list states and amounts, does
10 it not?
11 A. Yes. And if I may elaborate a little on the first 12 paragraph, where it says that the announcements can be made
13 earlier if you choose in specific instances, on that particular 14 one, I recall very specifically what had happened was that the 15 white House had asked us to make certain commitments in the 16 Moderate Rehabilitation Program at that time in that year.
17 However, we did not have letters in from the public housing
18 authorities requesting that number of units, and so they couldn't 19 announce it until we had all the paperwork in to do it, and so 20 they had, they had to wait on some of those.
21 So in other words, the ones that they knew about they 22 couldn't announce, because everything wasn't in the pipeline yet.
23 Q. Ms. Dean, I'd like to back up from that September '86 period
24 of time back to the period of time, approximately the 25 September-October range of the fall of 1983 and ask you if you

2326

1 recall who the assistant secretary of housing/federal housing
2 commissioner was?
3 A. In September of '86?
4 Q. '83. We're backing up three years.
5 A. Philip Abrams.
6 Q. Do you know a person by the name of Janet who worked for 7 Mr. Abrams ?
8 A. Well, Janet Hale was the deputy assistant secretary for 9 Policy and Budget --

10 Q. Okay.
11 A. -- under Mr. Abrams's office.
12 Q. I'm going to show you three documents, marked Dean Exhibit
13 857, 864, and 865, and with regard to 857, I ask you without 14 reading the document, do you recognize the handwriting?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. Okay, whose handwriting is it in?
17 A. That's Mr. Abrams's handwriting.
18 Q. Do you have knowledge from your experience at HUD as to how 19 records are kept?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. Okay. And how was this record kept?
22 A. This particular record, this particular piece of paper right
23 here was in the office of the deputy assistant secretary for 24 Policy and Budget, where it was sent, and was kept in those 25 records until the Independent Counsel subpoenaed it, and then

2327

1 this, of course, has been microfiched from the Independent
2 Counsel.
3 Q. Okay. Was -- based on what you see in the memo, was it
4 written in the regular course of business?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. And was it in the regular course of business to write such a
7 memo?
8 A. Yes. Mr. Abrams often communicated by notes such as this.
9 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission, I'll move the

10 introduction of Dean Exhibit 857.
11 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.
12 THE COURT: All right, let me see it.
13 MR. WEHNER: Could we approach, Your Honor?
14 THE COURT: Yes.
15 (Bench conference on the record.)
16 THE COURT: Okay. The objection is this is not hers?
17 MR. O'NEILL: It's not hers. She can't say whether it
18 was kept in the regular course of business. She doesn't know 19 whether it was made in the regular course of business. Not in 20 the wildest dreams can that be a business record.
2 MR. WEHNER: She just testified those were the facts.

2 She was the executive assistant.
2 MR. O'NEILL: She was not the executive assistant in 2 September of 1983, nor did she testify to that.
2 MR. WEHNER: She's also, Judge, testified as to how the 2328

1 document arrived in her possession in terms of what her
2 understanding is, No. 1. No. 2, she's been able to identify the 3 handwriting, which she's permitted to do specifically under 4 federal rules, and she's identified all the parties.
5 THE COURT: who did she say this was directed to?
6 MR. WEHNER: Janet.
7 THE COURT: Janet?
8 MR. WEHNER: Janet Hale.
9 THE COURT: who worked in the Housing?
10 MR. WEHNER: worked for Abrams.
11 THE COURT: Yes.
12 MR. WEHNER: But significantly, Judge, the significant
13 part of the admissibility is really it's in Abrams's handwriting, 14 and he was in that position, and you see the significance of what 15 he says.
16 THE COURT: I can't read his handwriting, I'm sorry.
17 MR. WEHNER: My reading of it is, "Current regs require
18 dollars to PHA for NOFA required for Puerto Rico deal. Knapp
19 opinion says no different than Section 8 housing dollars to 20 specific projects, as we have done for past two years."
2 Your Honor remembers the Knapp opinion was an opinion
2 testified to by Maurice Barksdale that the funds were totally 2 discretionary, that the funding for mod rehab was totally
2 discretionary. This is Abrams, arguably, referring to the same
2 opinion and confirming the policy of HUD vis-a-vis how the 2329

1 programs operated. And Your Honor pointed out yesterday that it
2 wasn't clear whether it was a legal or illegal process, but it's
3 certainly from records at HUD that they were making
4 project-specific allocations based upon a legal opinion.
5 THE COURT: Ms. Dean says she can't identify this under 6 the rules as an official business record? It wasn't directed to her?
8 MR. O'NEILL: How could she say it was made in the 9 official course of business? Philip Abrams is the person to 10 call, Judge.
11 THE COURT: I'm going to sustain the objection. I
12 think he's right. You've got to call somebody with personal 13 knowledge of that or the custodian of HUD who had that record.
14 You might be able to do that, the custodian of HUD who produced

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
15 that originally to Independent Counsel, maybe you could call him
16 and say it was found in the records of HUD.
17 MR. WEHNER: Who was it produced to originally by 18 Independent Counsel?
19 MR. O'NEILL: You can call somebody from the 20 Independent Counsel. It won't get it in.
21 THE COURT: You'd have to have somebody, I said, from
22 HUD.
23 MR. O'NEILL: Oh, from HUD, right, to produce it.
24 MR. WEHNER: That's my question. Who produced it?
25 MR. O'NEILL: I guess you'd have to get somebody from a

2330

1 HUD records section to say that's an official record.
2 MR. WEHNER: who did?
3 MR. O'NEILL: I have no idea right now.
4 THE COURT: Because the number on it is 100 and
5 whatever number. I can't read the numbers.
6 MR. O'NEILL: The Bates stamp.
7 THE COURT: The Bates stamp is 1,506,534.
8 MR. WEHNER: One of the bases for the admissibility for 9 all of those Mitchell notes was questionable at best,
10 identification of handwriting.
11 THE COURT: well, it was the handwriting plus the 12 tracing, keeping of the notes in the course of his business by 13 his partner and then through his daughter, through the FBI, who 14 picked them up. If you want to call some people from HUD to 15 identify this or somebody in his office who worked for Abrams, I 16 mean, you could probably get it in.
17 MR. WEHNER: why is my testimony from Ms. Dean, who was 18 employed there at the time, any less compelling than the 19 testimony regarding Mitchell documents?
20 THE COURT: well, I think it hasn't been identified by
2 her as knowing what Mr. Abrams did or did not in keeping these 2 records or how it was kept in the HUD records. I think it is a
2 HUD record, but I think the government has made an objection.
2 You have to call Abrams or call someone else in his office or 2 some custodian who can identify them.

2331

1 MR. WEHNER: we'll do that, Judge. But I think that
2 the record is clear that Ms. Dean did testify that it was kept in 3 the regular course of business, and it was in the regular course
4 of business to keep this kind of document.
5 THE COURT: I don't know where she had that knowledge
6 based on the document that went to Ms. Hale from Mr. Abrams, not 7 to her.
8 MR. WEHNER: Judge, a business record custodian rarely,
9 if ever, knows --

10 THE COURT: I understand, gets the document directly.
11 But she's not the custodian of the records. That's why I said 12 you can call somebody from HUD. I'll sustain the objection at 13 this time.
14 (End of bench conference.)
15 BY MR. WEHNER:
16 Q. Ms. Dean, would you look at Dean Exhibit 864?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. And without reading the document, could you describe the 19 document? without reading it aloud, I should say. You're 20 clearly entitled to read the document.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
21 A. Yeah. It is a letter from the --
22 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor
23 THE WITNESS: It is a letter.
24 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.
25 THE COURT: You can say it's a letter, that's all, but

2332

1 I don't know what the next question is.
2 THE WITNESS: It is a letter.

BY MR. WEHNER:

4 Q. It is a letter. To whom is the letter addressed?
5 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor. It's not in 6 evidence yet.
7 THE COURT: I understand. I'll let him identify as to 8 whom it's addressed and who it's from. Go ahead.

BY MR. WEHNER:

10 Q. To whom is it addressed?
11 A. To Mr. Philip Abrams, General Deputy Assistant Secretary.
12 Q. And from whom was it sent, according to the record?
13 MR. O'NEILL: For the record, Judge, I'll continue to 14 object when referring to the document.
15 THE COURT: I'll just let her identify it. Go ahead.
16 THE WITNESS: Mr. John Ritchie, who is the executive 17 director of the Virginia Housing Development Authority.
18 THE COURT: Okay.
19 BY MR. WEHNER:
20 Q. From looking at the document itself, can you determine 21 whether that record was kept in the regular course of business of 22 HUD activities?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. And how do you know that?
25 A. Because it's an application from the housing authority to 2333

HUD.

2 Q. And do you know if the letter itself was written or can you
3 tell from the face as to whether it was written at or about the 4 time that it was prepared?
5 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor. That's pure
6 speculation.
7 THE COURT: All right. Bring it up to me, and let me
8 look at it and see what it's about. Would you bring it up?
9 MR. WEHNER: Sure, Judge.
10 THE COURT: Counsel, come up, please.
11 (Bench conference on the record.)
12 THE COURT: And the objection again is just that she 13 can't identify this as a record kept in the normal course of 14 business at HUD?
15 MR. O'NEILL: Correct, Judge.
16 THE COURT: So he's going to have to bring in all of 17 these people? We'll be here an extra week.
18 MR. WEHNER: It's going to be a lot longer than that,
19 Judge. Judge, these documents are from the HUD files. They're 20 authentic, and they're business records, and I want the record to

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
21 reflect that we have not objected and have not required
22 Mr. O'Neill to pull in custodian after custodian after custodian
23 for business records.
24 THE COURT: I understand. I just want to know where 25 we're going.

1 MR. O'NEILL: Can I state something for the record,
2 Your Honor? As you know, weeks before trial, we turned over all
3 our documents and we had a hearing. At that time, Mr. Wehner
4 stipulated to the authenticity of all the documents. Later he 5 reneged on most of them. Then we came back to trial, and he 6 again stipulated to them.
7 In the meantime, we had self-authenticated each and 8 every document we intended to use, and we brought them forth
9 under legal theories, Judge.
10 I've let in, if you'll look at the defense exhibits so
11 far tendered on the defense case, there's ones from PHAs around 12 the country that I had no objection to. But if we're going to 13 start doing every handwritten note matter, first of all, I've 14 never seen this one yet, because it wasn't turned in to me, so I
15 don't know what's in this one.
16 The previous one was a handwritten document. I don't
17 know what that --it referred to Puerto Rico. It didn't say 610
18 units to go to Puerto Rico. Lots of units have been going to 19 Puerto Rico.
20 THE COURT: This one, just for the record, I'll note
21 has some handwritten notes on it for funding for various years
22 and holding for other years, et cetera.
23 I'm going to sustain the objection. I'm afraid you'll 24 have to call in either Ritchie or someone in Abrams' office who 25 can identify this handwriting.

2335

1 MR. WEHNER: That's what we're going to do, Judge.
2 This case is going to go weeks.
3 THE COURT: I understand, but their objection is well
4 taken. I don't think you can put in documents that she didn't 5 handle or see or do something else and there's other people's 6 handwriting, and want to know what they say and what they mean
7 and theorize what the notes are.
8 MR. WEHNER: You know, Judge, do you object to it if 9 the handwriting is out? I mean, where is the two-way street we 10 kept hearing from you about?
11 THE COURT: That's not part of the debate.
12 MR. O'NEILL: Let's stop playing games here.
13 with the handwriting out, I would have no objection,
14 but let me just state, Judge, for the record, this isn't even a
15 HUD document.
16 THE COURT: I understand.
17 MR. O'NEILL: Okay. We did not put in documents from 18 assorted PHAs, because we didn't get stipulations. They refused
19 to stipulate as to the local PHAs.
20 THE COURT: This is from a PHA.
2 MR. WEHNER: If you look back in the record and look
2 and see how those documents came in, Bob, you look in the record.
2 MR. O'NEILL: You will see no local PHAs.
2 THE COURT: You can all, if you want to put it in 2 without the handwriting if he agrees, fine. If not, you can just call the appropriate custodian.

2336

2 MR. O'NEILL: Absolutely. Without the handwriting is 3 fine.

4 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, just for the record, I mean,
5 the document is from 1983. It's before Ms. Dean is even 6 executive assistant. I mean, we're going to be all week if we're 7 putting in -8

MR. WEHNER: It's going to be a long three weeks.

9 THE COURT: Well, that's a different objection. You're 10 making an objection about relevancy to the matter?

11 MR. WEHNER: Let's talk about relevancy for a minute, 12 Judge. This is addressed to Phil Abrams, a presidential 13 appointee, requesting specific mod rehab units that was 14 ultimately directed by him to go to that specific unit. It says
15 Jefferson Park Apartments, 378. It doesn't get any more relevant 16 than that.

17 THE COURT: It's from the housing authority, right?

18 MR. WEHNER: To Mr. Abrams. And he funded it, and the 19 evidence is going to be that it was for his business partner.
20 Now it doesn't get -- their theory of the case is you can't do
21 specific projects. It doesn't get any more relevant than this.

22 THE COURT: I think the idea is if he wants to 23 stipulate to the document without the handwriting, I don't know
24 what you're going to be able to prove about the funding without 25 the handwriting, whatever evidence you have that they were

1 actually funded or not. But it seems to me you need to get
2 Abrams or somebody else in here to talk about it.

3 MR. WEHNER: Abrams will take the fifth. He's been 4 notified he's a target, just like every other witness we'd like
5 to call.

6 We'll find a way to get it in, Judge. It's going to 7 take a long time.

8 THE COURT: Is Mr. Ritchie around?

9 MR. WEHNER: Judge, I don't know. I didn't anticipate 10 a lot of hearsay objections. The documents came out of the 11 Independent Counsel's own files that were clearly HUD business
12 records.

13 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, we seem to make a difference
14 between discovery, and we seem to hear the same things over.

15 THE COURT: If you want to stipulate to letting it in 16 without the handwriting, that's one thing. If you don't -

17 MR. O'NEILL: For the record, I'll stipulate to it
18 without the handwriting.

19 THE COURT: All right.

20 (End of bench conference.)

2 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, with the Court's permission,
2 I'll move the admission of Dean Exhibit 864 as described, and I
2 will not publish it to the jury.

2 THE COURT: All right.

2 MR. O'NEILL: No objection to that, Your Honor.

2338

1 THE COURT: I appreciate that. It will be let out,
2 it's 864 will be admitted as redacted.

(Defendant's Exhibit No. 864 was

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
4 received in evidence.)
5 BY MR. WEHNER:
6 Q. Ms. Dean, would you please read the first paragraph of that 7 letter aloud as well as the second project name?
8 A. Yes. "Please accept this as our application for Section 8
9 moderate rehabilitation funds in the amount of $4,056,824. These

10 funds will be assigned to 800 two-bedroom units as follows:"
11 Then the second project is "Jefferson Park Apartments, Midlothian
12 Turnpike, Richmond, Virginia. Number of units, 378. Contract
13 authority, $1,902,580."
14 Q. Ms. Dean, I'll show you what I've marked as Dean Exhibit 865
15 and ask if you can identify that, please?
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. What is it?
18 A. It is a note from Mary Burke, who was the executive
19 assistant to Philip Abrams, then the assistant secretary to Ross
20 Kumagai, who was the head of the Funding Control Division.
2 Q. And who was -- Mr. Kumagai was head of the Funding Control

2 Division?
2 A. Right. He did the, he basically wrote the check.
2 Q. In whose handwriting is the note?
2 A. In Mary Burke's.

1 Q. Are you familiar with her handwriting?
2 A. Yes, I am.
3 Q. And how are you familiar with her handwriting?
4 A. I've, I worked with Mary, and I've -- she sent me notes, and 5 I read them, and I got to know her handwriting, and I've seen
6 plenty of things written by her.
7 Q. When you say "plenty," about how many would you mean?
8 A. Fifty.
9 Q. Do you know if documents such as those are kept by HUD in 10 the regular course of business?

11 A. Yes. They would have been kept in Mr. Kumagai's office as 12 his record of who informed him to fund something.

13 Q. And was it a regular course of business for that document to 14 be prepared?

15 A. Yes. Mr. Kumagai kept anything that came into his office

16 regarding a project.

17 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, with the Court's permission,

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
18 I'll move the admissibility of Dean Exhibit 865.

19 MR. O'NEILL: Same continuing objection.

20 THE COURT: Same objection? All right, I'm going to

2 sustain the objection at this time. Counsel can look it over

2 later again perhaps.

2 MR. WEHNER: Can we approach, Judge?

2 THE COURT: All right.

2 (Bench conference on the record.)

2340

1 THE COURT: All right, 865 is a handwritten note on
2 Housing stationery from, it looks like, Mary Burke, "hand carry"
3 on it, all in handwriting, to Ross Kumagai: "Please -- I can't 4 read the next word, something -- the attached -- something -- two
5 mod rehab request." And she wrote down specific projects, "207
6 Jacksonville, 378 Virginia. Thanks." "Phase I" on the bottom.
7 Dated 10-7, no year.

8 MR. WEHNER: I'd ask Your Honor to reconsider the 9 objection based on the sufficiency of Ms. Dean's testimony as to,
10 A, the business records exception to the hearsay rule, and B, as 11 to the identification of the handwriting in the document.

12 THE COURT: The issue really is, it seems to me,
13 putting these records in from someone who worked in the agency,
14 who you say could be qualified as a custodian of records for the 15 agency basically because she communicated with this person, she 16 recognizes her handwriting and understands that records of this 17 type are kept in Mr. Kumagai's office.

18 I mean, it seems to me you don't have to call, you're 19 saying, anyone who's a recognized custodian of records who said
20 they served the records and produced this as the type of record
2 they keep in the normal course of business or anyone who authored
2 the record. You can put it in through your witness, that's your 2 position, because she recognizes the handwriting and says this is 2 the type of record she believes is kept in the normal course of
2 business?

1 MR. WEHNER: No, sir. My position is that when you
2 have a document that is produced, that appears, that purports to 3 be a HUD document on its face, that the witness, regardless of 4 whether it's the defendant or another witness, can testify that 5 it was in the regular course of business, it is the type of 6 document to be generated, and it was in the regular course of 7 business for this type of record to be maintained, then you have 8 satisfied the premise for admissibility. And you additionally 9 have the witness testifying that she recognizes the handwriting.
10 There's no other basis on which to exclude it except 11 relevance. There's no question about its authenticity, and the

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
12 counsel hasn't raised an issue as to whether it's a real
13 document. The issue becomes one of relevance.
14 THE COURT: well, the issue for me is whether it's the 15 right witness that's identifying these records.
16 MR. WEHNER: Judge, there is no custodian of records
17 that I know of that's ever testified that is limited to having 18 personally seen the document before. Custodians come in and 19 testify all the time, bank custodians, that these records are 20 kept in the regular and ordinary course of business. They don't 21 know a thing about them, probably have never seen them before.
22 THE COURT: I agree with that, but I think you have to 23 have someone to identify them in that kind of position, who says
24 they went to So-and-so's office and pulled out these records.
25 I'm just looking at the, under 28 U.S.C. 1732. If any

2342

1 business has kept in the regular course of business --or 2 government agency -- kept or recorded any memorandum, writing -3 which this would be -- of any occurrence or event, and in the 4 regular course of business has caused the same to be recorded,
5 photocopied. That's what this is.
6 I don't think that's going to apply. I tell you what 7 I'm going to do. At this time, I'll stay with the ruling. I'll 8 look at it again as time goes on. I'm not convinced that these 9 are still identified as business records appropriately by her
10 identification of them alone. But I'll look at them at the end
11 of the night over recess and come back to them.
12 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.
13 (End of bench conference.)
14 BY MR. WEHNER:
15 Q. Ms. Dean, do you recall testimony from witnesses from the 16 Independent Counsel regarding a project in Santa Clara?
17 A. Yes. I believe Ms. Hastings testified that that was one of 18 the one or two times she could recommend my having involvement in 19 a mod rehab project.
20 Q. I'm going to show you what I've marked, I'm going to show
2 you what I've marked for identification as Dean Exhibit 559, and 2 I will move its admission into evidence at this time.
2 MR. O'NEILL: No objection.
2 THE COURT: All right, 559 will be admitted.

2343

(Defendant's Exhibit No. 559 was
2 received in evidence.)
3 MR. WEHNER: with the Court's permission, I will
4 exhibit this to the jury.
5 THE COURT: All right.
6 BY MR. WEHNER:
7 Q. Ms. Dean, would you just come down and read the first
8 paragraph of that, please, if you can? That's a hard one.
9 A. It's from Community Housing Developers to Secretary Pierce.
10 "Dear Mr. Secretary:
11 "The opportunity for hundreds of battered women and 12 their children to overcome the trauma of domestic violence and 13 begin a new life as productive members of our society rests in 14 your hands. The ability of our organization to implement a very 15 unique and desperately needed program hinges on 19 Section 8 mod
16 rehab certificates."
17 MR. WEHNER: would you retake the stand, please?
18 Your Honor, at this time, I'll move the admission of
19 Dean Exhibit 560.
20 MR. O'NEILL: No objection to 560, Your Honor.
21 THE COURT: 560 received.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

22 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 560 was
23 received in evidence.)
24 MR. WEHNER: 394.
25 MR. O'NEILL: 394, no objection.

2344

1 THE COURT: 560 and 394 are admitted.
2 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 394 was
3 received in evidence.)
4 MR. WEHNER: 395.
5 MR. O'NEILL: No objection to 395.
6 THE COURT: 395 will be admitted.
7 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 395 was
8 received in evidence.)
9 MR. WEHNER: And 396.
10 MR. O'NEILL: No objection to 396.
11 THE COURT: 396 will be admitted.
12 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 396 was
13 received in evidence.)
14 BY MR. WEHNER
15 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, do you recall discussing this particular 16 request with Secretary Pierce?
17 A. He sent me a note about the project.
18 MR. WEHNER: I will exhibit to the jury Dean Exhibit
19 394.
20 THE COURT: All right.
2 BY MR. WEHNER *
2 Q. Is that in Secretary Pierce's handwriting?
2 A. Yes.
2 Q. And would you read it, please?
2 A. "To: Debbie. Look into this and draft a response. If we

2345

1 can, let's help her, but we certainly cannot help her on an
2 annual basis ad infinitum. S.R.P., Jr."
3 Q. Did you have an understanding of what Secretary Pierce meant
4 by "ad infinitum"?
5 A. Well --
6 Q. Did that mean he couldn't help forever?
7 A. Well, I think it was we would like to help her this one
8 time, but it shouldn't be a regular program of the department,
9 but naturally helping her this one time meant 15 years of help,
10 because the help went on for 15 years.
11 Q. Now was subsequently a letter sent regarding this project?
12 A. Yes.
13 MR. WEHNER: And I will exhibit Dean Exhibit 396, Your
14 Honor.
15 THE COURT: All right, 396.
16 BY MR. WEHNER:
17 Q. And, Ms. Dean, I'd ask you to read that, please.
18 A. To Ms. Amy Schiff: "Thank you for your letter regarding 19 W.A.T.C.H. and the need for moderate rehabilitation assistance in 20 Santa Clara County. The department is unable to declare that an
2 individual project can or should be funded. Instead, we provide
2 the local housing authority with the assistance, and they choose
2 the recipient projects. I have authorized -- and I can't see it,
2 is it, other way --20 units of moderate rehabilitation to be
2 sent to the Santa Clara housing authority. However, I cannot 2346

1 guarantee that the W.A.T.C.H. program will receive the 2 assistance.
3 "Good luck with your project and God bless. Very 4 sincerely yours, Samuel R. Pierce, Jr."
5 Q. Now did Secretary Pierce direct that this Mod Rehab Program
6 be funded?
7 A. If it was a good program and if the Office of Housing had 8 looked --if the area office had looked into it and if it went 9 back to him that it could be done, then yes, but only under those 10 conditions.

11 Q. Now the letter from Secretary Pierce, your Exhibit No. 396,
12 reflects the department is unable to declare that an individual
13 project can or should be funded, does it not?
14 A. Yes, it does.
15 Q. And yet these units were sent to that housing authority in 16 the exact same number that they had requested.
17 A. That's correct.
18 Q. Was that a common occurrence during your tenure at HUD?
19 A. Absolutely.
20 Q. And why was that a common occurrence?
21 A. Well, Secretary Pierce obviously believed that what they

2 were doing was a good effort, and he would have liked to have
2 seen them funded, but he couldn't fund them directly. He could
2 only fund the housing authority.
2 So he provided the housing authority with the means to 2347

1 help them if they wanted to.
2 Q. Now --
3 A. That was all he could do.
4 Q. why would Secretary Pierce not send them 15 units? why
5 would he send them, if you know, why would HUD send them the 6 precise amount of units to the housing authority that was 7 requested in the project?
8 A. well, the letter to, to the secretary requested 19 units,
9 and he sent 20 units, so it didn't exactly match up, but

10 certainly the housing authority had the money to fund the project
11 if the project was what the housing authority wanted to do. They 12 had the money to do it.
13 Did I miss, did I miss your question?
14 Q. No. Now did you or, to your knowledge, Secretary Pierce
15 ever call a local housing authority and direct them, direct the 16 local housing office to do any project?
17 A. Secretary Pierce never did.
18 Q. Did you?
19 A. I never did.
20 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, I believe we finished your testimony
21 yesterday with some discussions regarding the leaving of 22 Ms. Wiseman and the arrival of Ms. Hale.
23 A. Correct.
24 Q. Picking up in that period of time, which I believe you
25 testified to was in 19-, what, 1985? Correct me if it was late

•84-1985.

2 A. I just cannot recall at this moment.

3 Q. Okay.

4 A. See, Mr. Demery came in October of '86. Mr. DeBartolomeis,
5 I believe, was March or April of '86, so -- and Ms. Hale was 6 there for at least, I would say, six months, so I'd say mid-'85.

7 MR. WEHNER: Okay. With the Court's permission, I'm
8 going to exhibit Dean Exhibit 63, previously identified.

9 THE COURT: All right, fine.

10 THE WITNESS: I was right, May of '85.

11 BY MR. WEHNER:

12 Q. Good guess.

13 Directing your attention to the chart, that reflects,
14 does it not, funding decisions made during that period of time
15 with regard to the Mod Rehab Program?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. Is that correct?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. The first one on the list is Durham, North Carolina, and is 20 that the Durham Hosiery Mill?

21 A. That is the Durham Hosiery Mill.

22 Q. We've heard a lot of testimony about the Durham Hosiery
23 Mill, and I believe you testified yesterday that Ms. Wiseman had 24 refused to fund that project; is that correct?

25 A. I don't know that for a fact. I know that it was not funded

2349

1 during her tenure.

2 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, I object to the leading nature.

3 THE COURT: All right, try not to lead.

4 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.

5 Q. Did you have occasion to have discussions with Ms. Hale
6 regarding the funding of the Durham Hosiery Mill project?

7 A. I would say that I discussed --

8 Q. Yes or no, please?

9 A. Yes, I did.

10 Q. Okay. And directing your attention to those discussions,
11 would you please tell us what you said to Ms. Hale?

12 A. Well, I had at least 50 conversations with Ms. Hale
13 regarding the Durham Hosiery Mill.

14 Q. Without going into each one specifically, would you please
15 chronologically describe the conversations you had with her by 16 telling the jury what you said to Ms. Hale?

17 A. Well, most of the conversations were actually Ms. Hale
18 talking to me, and I responded to her.

19 Q. What did you say when you responded to her?

20 A. "Is it legal?" "What's the problem?" "Can you expand on 21 that?" "Do you have any further information on that?" "What's

2 the problem?" "What's the problem?" "Is it legal?"

2 Q. And what was she saying to you?

2 A. She was -- actually, almost every conversation was about the 2 staff in her office and their opposition to the project, and my

2350

1 responses to her were trying to get to her specific problems with
2 the project, which she seemed at times unable to communicate.
3 There was just a, a general unease on her part about this project
4 and the fact that it had to take one or two different ways of 5 funding it for it to go forward. She was uneasy about that.
6 Q. What did, what was her position with regards to funding that
7 project?
8 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.
9 THE COURT: As to Ms. Hale's position? I'll allow it
10 in in explaining the actions of this witness. Go ahead.
11 THE WITNESS: Ms. Hale's position was that she, in 12 essence, did not want to have an individual opinion on it. She 13 wanted to support her career staff. However, she could never 14 identify the career staff that had the problem, and she couldn't 15 identify what the particular problem was, and it just sort of 16 went around and around.
17 And I kept saying to her, "Janet, is there anything 18 wrong or illegal or confusing to you about this?"
19 And she just kept saying, "I don't want to do it,
20 Debbie. I don't want to do it, Debbie,"
21 And I just kept getting a lot of that.
22 So then we had discussions with other members of staffs
23 in the department. We talked to general counsel on legality
24 issues, and we talked to the Office of Community Planning and 25 Development, because there was going to be a HODAG attached to 2351

1 it, and then that was not able to be funded, because it didn't
2 meet the criteria. So -- or it met, competed and didn't get
3 selected I think is what happened.
4 And then there was a UDAG, and the UDAG had to be 5 coupled with the moderate rehabilitation in order for there to be 6 enough funds for the project to work.
7 So there were multiple staff discussions. Then there
8 were a lot of one-on-one discussions between Ms. Hale and I. And 9 she was quite uncomfortable about it, but -- and as she stated,
10 she did ask repeatedly to see the secretary.
11 Q. Now directing your attention to approximately three years
12 earlier, I believe you testified yesterday that the Durham
13 Hosiery Mill had been funded at one point in 1982; is that
14 correct?
15 A. They had been promised funding. They had been told that 16 they would be funded.
17 Q. I believe you also testified concerning information you 18 received that caused it, that commitment not to be made -- not to 19 be met. Is that correct?
20 A. No. I saw a memorandum to Secretary Pierce from George
21 Hipps, who was then running the Office of Multi-Family Housing, 22 informing the secretary that he had received a phone call from 23 the white House telling them to transfer these funds so that the 24 white House could make this announcement. So I saw that document
25 from the secretary's files, and so that's why I knew what had 2352

1 happened.
2 MR. WEHNER: with the Court's permission, I'm going to 3 approach the witness and show her what I've marked as Dean

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
4 Exhibit 562, and ask if you can recognize that document?
5 THE WITNESS: Oh, yes. That's the memorandum from 6 George Hipps.
7 BY MR. WEHNER:
8 Q. And who is it written to?
9 A. Secretary Pierce.

10 Q. And who is it written from?
11 A. George Hipps.
12 Q. And whose handwriting appears at the bottom?
13 A. Secretary Pierce.
14 Q. And when did you see that document previous -- when did you
15 see that document for the first time?
16 A. I don't remember. I believe the first time that I saw this 17 document was when I was allowed by the general counsel of HUD to 18 go through Secretary Pierce's files before testimony in front of 19 Lantos.
20 Q. Okay. Is this the same, a copy of the same document you saw
2 then?

2 A. Yes.
2 Q. Whose handwriting appears at the bottom?
2 A. Secretary Pierce.
2 Q. And do you recognize his handwriting?

2353

A. Yes. And he also had discussed this with me.
2 Q. Do you recognize his handwriting?
3 A. Yes, I do.
4 Q. How many times have you seen Secretary Pierce's handwriting?
5 A. Thousands of times.
6 Q. And how many times have you seen Secretary Pierce write in 7 his own handwriting?
8 A. Thousands of times.
9 Q. And you're absolutely certain that's his handwriting?
10 A. Absolutely positive.
11 Q. All right. What words appear in his handwriting?
12 A. "Noted. S.R.P., Jr."
13 Q. Did you have a discussion with Secretary Pierce that 14 reflected the contents of this memo?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. And when you had the discussion with Secretary Pierce that 17 reflected the contents of this memo, was it on or about September 18 17, 1982? Was it before that, or was it after that?
19 A. No, it was in 1984.
20 Q. And did your conversation with Secretary Pierce reflect the 21 contents of the memo?
22 A. Yes. I don't -- he did not mention the George Hipps part.
23 He just told me he had been told by Housing that someone had 24 gotten a phone call. I don't think he recalled it was from 25 George Hipps.

2354

1 Q. All right. And does the memo that you're seeing here, Dean
2 Exhibit 562, reflect the same contents that Secretary Pierce
3 discussed with you in 1984?

4 A. Yes, and -
but he elaborated more on it.
5 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I'll move into admission -
6 into evidence Dean Exhibit 562.
7 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, short voir dire, please?
8 THE COURT: Sure.
9 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION
10 BY MR. O'NEILL:
11 Q. Ms. Dean, I'd ask you to look at this memo. Does that 12 refresh your recollection as to whether it's substantial
13 rehabilitation?
14 MR. WEHNER: I'm sorry, Bob, I didn't hear the 15 question.
16 MR. O'NEILL: Substantial rehabilitation.
17 THE WITNESS: That's what I said yesterday. It had 18 originally been a substantial rehabilitation project.
19 BY MR. O'NEILL:
20 Q. And that is a different project than mod rehabilitation?
2 A. Yes.
2 MR. O'NEILL: Nothing further, thank you.
2 END OF VOID DIRE EXAMINATION
2 MR. WEHNER: You're objecting?
2 MR. O'NEILL: I would object on relevance grounds, Your 2355

Honor.

2 THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to overrule that. It goes
3 to the testimony yesterday about it. It's admitted.
4 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 562 was
5 received in evidence.)
6 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission, I'm going to 7 publish Dean Exhibit No. 562.
8 Q. Ms. Dean, I'd ask you to read that to the jury, please.
9 A. I knew you were going to do that.
10 "I have just taken an urgent telephone call from 11 Annelise Anderson, in Mr. Abrams' absence, advising the 12 department that the President, who is en route to New Jersey, has 13 agreed to fund with Section 8 new construction funds a 125-unit 14 proposal in Ewing, New Jersey. He intends to state upon his 15 disembarking from the plane that he is pleased to announce that 16 HUD has advised it has agreed to provide 125 units of Section 8
17 assistance for an elderly project to be located at Park Place.
18 "Mrs. Anderson asked that I advise you of this 19 immediately. George O. Hipps, Jr., Associate General Deputy,
20 Assistant Secretary for Housing."
21 "Noted, S.R.P., Jr."
22 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, what relationship does that memorandum have 23 to Durham Hosiery Mill?
24 A. Well, the secretary felt that the -
25 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.

2356

1 THE COURT: Okay.
2 MR. WEHNER: May I rephrase the question, Your Honor?
3 THE COURT: All right.
4 BY MR. WEHNER:
5 Q. Without describing what Secretary Pierce told you, Ms. Dean,
6 what relationship did this memo have to the Durham Hosiery Mill
7 project?
8 A. This memorandum took away the money that had been promised

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
9 to the City of Durham for the Durham Hosiery Mill and gave it to 10 Park Place in Ewing, New Jersey.

11 Q. Why or if or did that have any effect on HUD's decision to 12 attempt to fund Durham Hosiery Mill with mod rehab funds?

13 A. Moderate rehabilitation and whatever other program would be 14 appropriate to make up for the amount of money that would have 15 been the amount of money for substantial rehabilitation, which is 16 what they needed.

17 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, you had a conversation with Secretary Pierce
18 with regard to using moderate rehabilitation funds for the Durham
19 Hosiery Mill project, did you not?

20 A. Yes, I did.

21 Q. And as a result of those discussions, did you have a 22 conversation with Janet Hale?

23 A. Yes, I did.

24 Q. And would you please tell the jury what you said to Ms. Hale
25 as a result of your discussion with Secretary Pierce?

2357

A. I told Ms. Hale that she should ensure in her own mind and 2 in the mind of the people that worked for her that what she was
3 being asked to do was perfectly legal, that there were no
4 problems with it, and once that she was assured of that, she 5 should proceed and keep the department's promise to Durham to 6 provide the money that we had promised in 1982.

7 Q. Did she keep the department's promise?

8 A. Yes, she did.

9 Q. Would you describe what you said to Ms. Hale and the 10 circumstances under which that occurred?

11 A. Ms. Hale was in my office. She attempted to meet with the 12 secretary. I believe they had spoken on the phone or whatever.
13 And it was coming down time for her to sign both some waivers and 14 the funding documents.

15 The UDAG was, it was going to be obvious that Durham
16 was going to be funded in that UDAG round or had shortly already 17 been funded or was shortly to be funded, I don't recall, but the 18 UDAG was in place, and it was time for the moderate
19 rehabilitation units to go.

20 However, there were waivers that were required that she 21 had to sign. And she was uncomfortable with having to fund it
22 and sign the waivers.

23 And I just asked her, you know, repeatedly, "What is 24 your problem with it?"

25 And she just kept saying, "I really don't like it, and 2358

1 Mrs. Wiseman doesn't like it, and the staff doesn't like it, and
2 therefore I just don't want to do it."

3 But I had already on numerous, numerous occasions told
4 Secretary Pierce how much she didn't want to do it, and Secretary
5 Pierce said, "If it is legal to do it, it is the right thing. I
6 have made the decision, and I expect her to carry it out."

7 Q. Did she ultimately sign the funding document?

8 A. No, she did not.

9 Q. And did you have --

10 A. She signed the waivers.
11 Q. Did you have a conversation with her concerning, a final 12 conversation with her concerning signing the funding document?

13 A. Yes, I did.
14 Q. What did you say to her?
15 A. I told her that I understood why she was very upset, and 16 quite frankly, she was crying at this time. She was very 17 personally upset. And she was upset that the secretary hadn't

18 returned her phone call or to meet with him, and she was upset
19 because she didn't want to do this project.
20 And I, my heart went out to her, and I said, "All
21 right," I said, "I will ask the secretary to sign the document
22 himself. I mean, if he wants to fund the project, there's no
23 reason why he can't fund it himself. He can legally do that.
24 And -- but would you sign -- are you agreeable that the secretary
25 funds it and it's obvious to the world that it's not your

2359

1 decision, Janet, it is Secretary Pierce's decision, do you have a
2 problem with the waivers?"
3 And she said, "No." She said, "If Secretary Pierce
4 will sign the decision himself to fund it, I will sign the 5 waivers.

6 And I said, "All right."

7 And I talked to Secretary Pierce about it, and he said
8 once again --
9 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: All right.
11 MR. O'NEILL: I hate to keep objecting, but this is 12 continuing.
13 THE COURT: That's fine. That's all hearsay. Just go
14 ahead and say what you did after you talked to him.
15 BY MR. WEHNER:
16 Q. Did you have a conversation with Secretary Pierce?
17 A. Yes, I did.
18 Q. And subsequent to that, did you have a conversation with 19 anyone else?
20 A. No. It was done after that.
21 Q. Subsequent to that conversation, did you undertake to do
22 anything?
23 A. Oh, I had his signature Autopenned on the rapid reply so
24 that it would be his decision and not hers.
25 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission, I'll show

Ms. Dean Dean Exhibit 563.
2 THE WITNESS: All right.
3 MR. WEHNER: I'll move it into evidence at this time
4 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.
5 THE COURT: All right, 563 is admitted. Go ahead.

6 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 563 was
7 received in evidence.)
8 THE WITNESS: It normally says assistant secretary
9 but --

10 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission, I'd like to 11 publish this.
12 THE COURT: Sure.
13 BY MR. WEHNER:
14 Q. Ms. Dean, what is this?
15 A. That is a rapid reply letter.
16 Q. Okay. And to which project does it relate?
17 A. Durham Hosiery Mill.
18 Q. That's the first one on this list?
19 A. That's correct.
20 Q. And moving to the bottom, what does this document do as a
21 practical matter? What does it do?
22 A. The rapid reply is -- no one has yet to explain this 23 correctly. The rapid reply is the decision of the Office of 24 Housing to fund a public housing authority. This then goes to 25 the Office of Management and Administration, which does a 185,

2361

1 which releases the money. Actually, Housing doesn't actually
2 control money; the Office of Management and Administration
3 controls money, but Housing is telling them to go ahead and send 4 the money.
5 Q. Whose signatures appear on this document?
6 A. Hunter Bourne, III; Janet Hale; and Samuel R. Pierce, Jr.
7 Q. Now based on your familiarity with various handwritings, how 8 did those signatures get on that document?
9 A. Hunter Bourne would have signed his name.

10 Q. Personally?

1 A. Yes. He would not have had an Autopen.
1 Janet Hale could have had this Autopened, or she could
1 have signed it herself, I don't know, although she did prepare
1 this document and brought it up to me in this form.
1 And then I spoke to Secretary Pierce, and then I had
1 the machine that writes his name write it along that line.

1 THE COURT: we'll take a break.
2 MR. WEHNER: Sure, Your Honor, that's fine.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

3 THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen.
4 We're going to take our afternoon recess at this time,
5 15 minutes, and we'll be back in to continue the
6 testimony.
7 Remember the admonition about not discussing
8 the case. See you back in 15 minutes.
9 (Jury dismissed)

10 THE COURT: All right.
11 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, how late would you
12 like us to go this evening?
13 THE COURT: 4:30, quarter of five.
14 MR. WEHNER: Quarter of five.
15 (Recess, 3:05 p.m. to 3:30 to p.m.)
16 THE COURT: Let me suggest this. I'd like to 17 go forward as much we can with the testimony and I'll 18 take up later the issue of the documents, the business
19 records exception. I did a quick look over the break
20 and it gave me opportunity to find my favorite case
21 which is entitled Thomas V Hogan, which I've always 22 loved, which is at 308 Fed. 2d 355. A Fourth Circuit
23 case. I may have been reading the rule, and I may have 24 been listening to Mr. O'Neill's eloquence, a little 25 strictly from my review of the foundation requirements

2364

1 THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen,
2 we're ready to resume with the afternoon's testimony.
3 we'll sit for another hour or so and then recess for the 4 evening.
5 BY MR. WEHNER:
6 Q Okay, Miss Dean, directing your attention to the 7 practice of HUD on occasion to recall units that had 8 been sent out to the field previously.
9 A Yes.

10 Q would you please describe any occasions you recall
11 in addition to the ones you described yesterday which I
12 believe was Puerto Rico you were talking about? Puerto 13 Rico, excuse me. Any additional times you recall that 14 HUD recalled units that had previously been sent out.
15 A It seems to me that I remember that there were 16 three occasions but right now I can only remember two.
17 If the other one comes to me -- I just remember two at 18 the moment. One was the Puerto Rico units we talked 19 about yesterday, the 600 that were split and 20 readvertised. And another one was in -- from the -- in 21 the Virginia Housing Development Authority.
22 Q And what makes you recall -- do you recall a
23 specific event that led to that recall?
24 A Yes, I do.
25 Q Without describing what was in the event, what was 2365

1 the event? what did you see?

2 A The event that I can recall that started it was an

3 article in the Washington Post.

4 Q As a result of that article in the Washington Post

5 what did you do?

6 A I called Philip Abrams, who was then

7 Undersecretary, and Maurice Barksdale, who was then the

8 Assistant Secretary, and I asked them to please come

9 upstairs and meet with Secretary Pierce.

10 Q Did that occur?

11 A Yes, it did.

12 Q Did you attend the meeting?

13 A I met with Mr. Abrams first.

14 Q During your first meeting with Mr. Abrams, what did
15 you say to him?

16 A I asked him if it was at all possible that it was 17 true that he had actually funded his former partner for 18 378 units in Richmond.

19 Q Did he respond to that?

20 A Yes. He said that he didn't care whether or not
2 this man, his name was Larry Green, received the units

2 or not and that he felt that he was in an awkward
2 position because Larry Green was a good developer and he
2 had been in this business for a long time and he didn't
2 see how he could exclude him.

2366

1 But the issue of course that was -arisen at

2 this point was that the units had gone down project
3 specific. They had gone down for the name of the 4 apartment building. So it wasn't exactly like - he 5 wasn't just excluding Mr. Green. He was including 6 Mr. Green. And I asked him if -- was he aware that 7 the - more than likely the Secretary would call them
8 back.

9 Q Now, Miss Dean, you previously read into the record
10 Dean Exhibit 864 which listed -- and this has been 11 introduced, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: All right.

13 Q -funding

for Jefferson Park Apartments,
14 Midlothian Turnpike, Richmond, Virginia, 378 units,
15 $1,902,580.

16 A Yes, those were the units.

17 Q Those were the same units?

18 A Yes, Jefferson Park Apartments as opposed to going
Page 1330

19 to the Housing Authority.
20 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission I'm
2 going to publish that as agreed.
2 THE COURT: All right.
2 BY MR. WEHNER:
2 Q Now, Miss Dean, this is the same letter that you
2 read into the record previously, portions of it?

2367

1 A This is the application coining in. Not the money
2 going out.
3 Q To whom is it addressed?
4 A To Philip Abrams.
5 Q And who signed the letter?
6 A John Ritchie, who was the Executive Director of the 7 Housing Authority.
8 Q I believe you testified that subsequent to your 9 conversations with Mr. Abrams you had a conversation

10 with Mr. Barksdale?
11 A Secretary Pierce had a conversation with
12 Mr. Barksdale.
13 Q Did you have a conversation with Mr. Barksdale?
14 A No, I did not.
15 Q Did you report to Secretary Pierce the results of 16 your conversation with Mr. Abrams?
17 A Yes, I did.
18 Q What did you say to the Secretary?
19 A I told the Secretary that Mr. Abrams did not care
20 if the units were brought back, if he felt it looked to
2 the Secretary to have been an improper decision.
2 Q Did the Secretary respond to that?
2 A The Secretary brought back the units.
2 Q And HUD subsequently recalled those units from 2 Richmond, is that correct?

2368

1 A Yes, they did.
2 Q When you talked to Mr. Abrams, did you express an
3 opinion as to what he was doing?
4 A I -- yes, I did.
5 MR. O'NEILL: Objection as to opinions, Your
6 Honor.
7 THE COURT: All right, I'll allow an answer
8 what she told him.
9 A I told him that I -- I thought that it was -- that

10 it did not look appropriate that he was aware of where 11 the units were going to go when he made the decision, 12 that he had to have known who was eventually going to 13 get them in all likelihood. There wasn't a guarantee,
14 but in all likelihood he had to have known, and that I
15 thought did not look right for the Secretary. It looked 16 as though the Secretary had made an improper decision.
17 MR. WEHNER: May I have a second, Your Honor?
18 THE COURT: All right.
19 BY MR. WEHNER:
20 Q Miss Dean, I'm going to show you what's been marked
2 for identification as Dean Exhibit 564 which purports to

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 be the funding decision for Durham Hosiery Mill and ask
2 you if you recognize it as being that?
2 A Yes, I do.
2 Q And it consists of four pages, is that correct?

2369

1 A Well, this is the 185.

2 Q Attached is?

3 A Well, attached are -- the 185 actually -- it's a
4 form that always stays the same but every time you fund
5 something the numbers and the categories change, so they 6 have to re-send the entire form every single time.

7 Q To whom is that memo directed?

8 A To Clifford G. Brown, Regional Administrator.

9 Q And from whom does it originate?

10 A It originates from Shirley McVay Wiseman signed by 11 Janet Hale, but Janet Hale was in the position then and 12 Miss Wiseman was gone. This must have been typed up
13 earlier and she just went ahead and signed this version.
14 Q Was it in the regular course of business of HUD to 15 generate those funding decisions?

16 A Yes.

17 Q And was that document generated in the regular 18 course of business?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And from your knowledge, was that generated at or
2 about the time that that event, that being the funding,

2 occurred?

2 A I would say yes, because it would have been stamped
2 after it was signed. That was the way it was done. It
2 was stamped the day it was signed.

2370

1 Q Thank you.

2 A Mr. Wehner?

3 Q Yes, ma'am.

4 A There is one thing I did leave out about the 5 conversation with Mr. Abrams that I should also say.

6 Q With regard to what you said to him?

7 A Yes. The Washington Post article indicated, I

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
8 believe, that Mr. Abrams still had ties with Mr. Green
9 and that was a large part of the consideration in 10 bringing it back. It wasn't -- there seemed to have 11 still been, at least in the article, a business

12 relationship between the two and that was one of the 13 reasons that we discussed it.

14 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor, and move
15 to strike the entire answer as hearsay.

16 MR. WEHNER: No objection, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: All right.

18 MR. WEHNER: I'll rephrase the question again.

19 THE COURT: All right. Strike that as to any 20 business ties.

2 BY MR. WEHNER:

2 Q Would you summarize what you said to Mr. Abrams
2 with regard to the same subject?

2 A I asked him if what was in the newspaper was 2 correct. And that did he not agree that this looked

2371

1 improper and he said he didn't care whether Mr. Green
2 received the units or not. He was in a difficult
3 position because he didn't feel that he could exclude
4 Mr. Green from HUD programs and he assured me that there
5 was no business relationship between the two of them
6 anymore.

7 Q Okay. Directing your attention to the Richmond,
8 Virginia 375 units.

9 A Yes.

10 Q Was that ultimately funded?

11 A Yes, the Housing Authority sued the Department for 12 reinstatement of those units and the Department
13 eventually settled with the Housing Authority and 14 reinstated 375 units.

15 Q The Housing Authority sued the Department?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Is the Housing Authority under the jurisdiction or 18 control of the Department of Housing and Urban
19 Development?

20 A It is an agent of the Department because it
21 receives its income from the fees that come from 22 administering HUD programs.

23 Q How does it receive income in terms of Mod Rehab?

24 A I believe that the fee is four or five percent of 25 the -- of each rental income, the rental income. So

2372

1 if -- if, for instance, an apartment rent is $375 per
2 month they would receive four to five percent of that as 3 their fee, and with each program it's different.
4 Certificates have a higher percentage than vouchers.
5 Mod Rehab has a different percentage. Whatever is 6 agreed to between the Housing Authorities and the 7 Department. And it depends on how complicated it is to 8 administer the program. The fee structure changes for 9 each program.

10 Q How long did Miss Hale remain the Acting Housing
11 Commissioner?

12 A Well, I know that the dates on that chart are the 13 dates that were provided by the Independent -- I mean
14 the Inspector General in his report, so she would have 15 been there from May to December. Or December would have 16 been the last funding round, perhaps. She might have 17 been there a little bit longer into next year, but my 18 memory is about several months, six, seven, eight 19 months. She received a promotion and moved to the 20 Department of Transportation.

2 Q Directing your attention to the Philadelphia,
2 Pennsylvania, 12 units.

2 A Yes.

2 Q Do you recall how those units came to be assigned
2 to Philadelphia?

2373

1 A Well, I know that those 12 units are 12 of the 26
2 units that went to the Regent Street project and 12
3 units were all that were left. I know they were 4 requested by both Senator Heinz and Senator Specter. I
5 know I had met with Mr. Rosenthal myself. I know about 6 Regent Street and I know that it was also being actively 7 pursued by Mr. DeBartolomeis.

8 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission I'm
9 going to publish Government's Exhibit 125. In an effort
10 to keep paper down, I'll try not to duplicate.

11 BY MR. WEHNER:

12 Q Miss Dean, do you recognize this document?

13 A It looks like -- it's a 185 dated September 12.

14 Q Is it for the 12 units to Philadelphia?

15 A Yes.

16 Q The last paragraph or next to the last paragraph,
17 I'm sorry.

18 A Are you asking me -- what are you asking me?

19 Q Is this the funding for the Regent Street project?

20 A It is funding for the Philadelphia Housing
21 Authority for 12 units that eventually went to the 22 Regent Street project.

23 Q Now, you testified that you had a conversation with 24 Mr. Rosenthal concerning that project.

25 A Yes, I had.

1 Q What other factors went into the decision as far
2 as -- you know, not your decision, but the decision to 3 send the units to HUD, to Philadelphia?

4 A Well, Senator Heinz usually had standing requests
5 in -for

Mod rehabilitation and he had, I believe,
6 written a specific letter on these 12 units or he had 7 written a letter for the whole 26 units that were 8 required to do the project. I'm not sure which one.
9 And one Senator wrote just for these 12.

10 And this was a real toss up. They weren't
11 going to Regent Street because there certainly wasn't a 12 guarantee that we could send the remaining necessary to 13 do that project. So they were going to Philadelphia
14 Housing Authority and it was really up to the Housing
15 Authority to see if they wanted to wait to see if we 16 could do the second half of the funding.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

17 I frankly remember I was not optimistic that 18 this was going to come to fruition.
19 Q Now, who signed off on the funding document?
20 A Mr. DeBartolomeis, for Janet Hale.
21 Q Directing[^] your attention to the next entry on the 22 list, that being Massachusetts EOCD.
23 A Yes.
24 Q What does EOCD stand for, if you recall?
25 A It would make more sense if it was OECD, but it

2375

1 should be economic -it might be Economic Opportunity
2 and Community Development or Office of Economic, you
3 know and Community Development. CD. is Community
4 Development.
5 Q With regard to the funding of those 12 units, the 6 Massachusetts EOCD, do you recall having a conversation
7 with Janet Hale regarding the funding of those units?
8 A Yes, I do.
9 Q And what did Miss Hale say to you and what did you
10 say to her?
11 A She informed me that we had ten units left that 12 could be sent and did - would it be all right with the 13 Secretary if she sent them to Boston so that, in 14 essence, the Housing Authority would have -- this is my 15 recollection, is that the Housing Authority would have 16 some way of knowing that more funds would be coming the 17 next year to complete a project that she was interested
18 in having funded. And I told her that I would run it by 19 the Secretary and the Secretary said -- oh, I'm not 20 allowed to do that.
2 Q Did you have a conversation with the Secretary?
2 A Yes.
2 Q What did you say to the Secretary?
2 A I told him that Janet wanted to send ten units to 2 Boston, Massachusetts for a project that she wanted to 2376

1 have reserved for Senator Brook.
2 Q And did the Secretary respond?
3 A He said that she was the Acting Federal Housing
4 Commissioner and let her do what she thought was best.
5 Q Miss Dean, I'm going to show you what I've marked
6 for identification as Dean Exhibit 566 and ask if you
7 recognize that?
8 A Yes.
9 Q What is it?
10 A It's the 185 to John Mongan, the Regional 11 Administrator from - I don't know who signed that. I 12 don't know whose signature that is. Someone signed for 13 Janet Hale but I don't know who that is.
14 Q And is it for those nine units that is reflected on 15 the Massachusetts EOCD?
16 A Yes, it's Stew Davis' handwriting. Yes, it is,
17 it's for the same project.
18 Q And is it similar to the 185 you discussed
19 previously?
20 A Yes.
2 Q In terms of being kept in the regular course of 2 business, et cetera?
2 A Yes.

2 THE COURT: Is it nine or ten units?

2 THE WITNESS: Ten units is what she discussed

2377

1 with me. Nine units is what she sent in the 185.

2 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, the document reflects

3 nine units.

4 THE COURT: All right.

5 BY MR. WEHNER:

6 Q With regard to the next item, two items down

7 actually, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, 13 units, do you

8 recall whether that was for the Regent Street project

9 that was discussed previously?

10 A I know that it eventually went to finish the 11 completion of Regent Street.

12 Q And do you recall why that was funded?

13 A I'm going to assume it was funded to complete the 14 26 units that they requested.

15 Q Without assuming. Do you recall what caused those 16 to be funded?

17 A I would have no specific recollection of discussing

18 it but it's just so obvious that that's what that has to 19 be that I'm going to say I probably mentioned it to her

20 and had her put it on the list for consideration.

21 Q For the same reasons that the previous 12 units to 22 Regent Street were listed for consideration?

23 A They would have finished the request from the two

24 Senators for the 26 units and they would have been made

25 available to the Housing Authority and if they chose to 2378

1 hold the 12 and hopefully maybe get 13 in the next

2 fiscal year, because these were all different dates,

3 this wasn't on the same day. The fiscal year was in

4 between those two. Then that was their option if they

5 wanted to fund Regent Street, and they did.

6 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission I'll

7 publish Government's Exhibit 130 to the jury.

8 THE COURT: All right.

9 BY MR. WEHNER:

10 Q This is the 185 which reflects the funding decision

11 to send the 13 units, is that correct?

12 A That's correct, signed by Janet Hale.

13 Q Now, Miss Dean, who made the decision to send Mod

14 Rehab units in response to Senatorial requests?

15 A In this case or in general?

16 Q Well, let's talk in general.

17 A Well, it really depended on who the Housing

18 Commissioner or the Acting Housing Commissioner was at

19 the time. When Mr. Barksdale was the Housing

20 Commissioner he made the decisions. Although he did

21 have some input from the Secretary and we funneled

22 Congressional and political input to him and there were

23 times of course when he would have also been instructed

24 to fund certain projects, but for the most part he

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
25 formulated the list and was in charge of putting it

2379

1 together and he was not under a requirement to discuss
2 the list with Secretary Pierce.
3 when he left and the Secretary instituted the 4 policy of I want to see these things before they go out,
5 it of course changed because Ms. Wiseman and Miss Hale
6 and after her Mr. DeBartolomeis were not Assistant
7 Secretaries and they had not been confirmed by the 8 Senate or, you know, appointed by the President, and the 9 Secretary just did not have the -- he did not feel they 10 had the ability to command that sort of authority and he 11 wanted to oversee their actions.
12 And so at that point then it ranged on how he 13 felt about them individually. Miss Hale was held in 14 very high regard by Secretary Pierce and so, in essence,
15 if she had made a decision, that decision probably would 16 have stood unless there was some information that had 17 gotten to him through me or through another source that 18 would have made him doubt a certain decision. But she 19 was given more latitude and more authority than 20 people -- other people.
2 Q With regard to the 12 and 13 units on Regent

2 Street, which was signed off on by Janet Hale --
2 A Yes.
2 Q Do you have a specific recollection as to how that
2 decision was made?

2380

1 A Well, I know that Miss Hale did come up and discuss 2 with me before she --she was going to send out any Mod
3 Rehabilitation units and I would discuss her decisions
4 with Secretary Pierce. Secretary Pierce did not really
5 have any follow-up questions for her on her list.
6 However, I know that I met with Mr. Rosenthal
7 and I know I received many letters from him and I know I
8 would have sent those down to her and it was more than 9 likely the fact that I had letters written to me that 10 ended up on the list.
11 I don't know if she met with him. I don't

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

12 know that. I know I did.

13 Q I think you testified that Miss Hale had discretion
14 of a broader nature.

15 A Yes.

16 Q Okay. Directing your attention to the Chicago,
17 Illinois Housing Authority, the 200 units for the 18 Housing Authority.

19 A Yes.

20 Q Do you recall who the developer was on that
21 project?

22 A Not off the top of my head. I know that -I
23 know

24 that I have prepared that information for you. I just 25 can't remember right now.

26 Q Do you recall who the consultant was on that 2381

1 project?

2 A No, no. Miss Hale never discussed consultants in 3 the meetings that she had with me.

4 Q Do you recall the name Michael Karam?

5 A I know who Michael Karam is. He's a former HUD
6 employee.

7 Q Do you recall that he was close to Janet Hale?

8 A Michael Karam was close to a lot of people at HUD
9 and I did not know in particular of his closeness to 10 Miss Hale, no.

11 Q Do you know -- do you know how Janet Hale got 12 promoted to her position at HUD?

13 A No, I do not. I know now after reading the -- you
14 know, the Independent Counsel's reports I know, but I
15 didn't know then.

16 Q Are you aware now that Michael Karam was the 17 consultant with regard to the Chicago Housing Authority,
18 200 units?

19 A Yes, and that is something that should have been 20 told to Secretary Pierce and I did not know it to tell
21 him, and he would have wanted to know that.

22 Q At the time that this decision was made did you
23 know Michael Karam was the consultant for this project?

24 A No, I did not.

25 Q To your knowledge did Secretary Pierce know?

1 A He did not.

2 Q To your knowledge did Janet Hale know?

3 A Now, from her testimony she said she spoke with 4 him. I assume she did know.

5 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, with the Court's
6 permission, I'll show Miss Dean, Dean Exhibit 568 and 7 ask you if that is the funding decision for those 200
8 units to the Chicago Housing Authority?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And it's a memorandum to Judith Brachman, Acting
11 Regional Administrator, Regional Housing Commissioner?

12 A Yes.

13 Q From Janet Hale?

14 A Yes.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
15 Q And it was kept in the regular course of business?
16 A Yes.
17 Q And it was in the regular course of business to 18 make this document?
19 A Yes,
20 Q And it was dated at or about the time that that
2 event occurred?
2 A Correct.
2 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I'll move the

2 admission of Dean Exhibits 566, 564 and 568.
2 THE COURT: Any objection?

1 MR. O'NEILL: No, Your Honor.
2 THE COURT: All right. 564, 566 and 568 will
3 be admitted as funding decisions.
4 (Defendant's Exhibits 564, 566 &
5 568 received into Evidence)
6 BY MR. WEHNER:
7 Q Miss Dean, I'm going to show you Dean Exhibit 568
8 and ask you if this reflects the funding decision made 9 for Chicago for 200 units that you just testified about?

10 A Yes, it does. That actually sends the money to the 11 field.
12 Q Miss Dean, I'll show you Dean Exhibit 566 and ask
13 you if that reflects the funding authority for the nine
14 units to Massachusetts?
15 A Yes.
16 Q Sending the money to the field?
17 A Yes.
18 Q I'll now show you Dean Exhibit 564 and ask you if 19 that is the funding document that reflects funding for 20 Durham Hosiery Mill?
2 A It's the funding for the Housing Authority in 2 Durham, North Carolina.
2 Q Which related to the Durham Hosiery Mill --
2 A Yes.
2 Q -- fiasco for lack of a better word?

2384

1 A Well, it wasn't a fiasco. It -- it was just a
2 project that never seemed to go away, but it ended up
3 being a good project.
4 Q Now, Miss Dean, directing your attention to the 5 150-unit figure on the chart for Lowell, Massachusetts.
6 A Yes.

7 Q Do you recall that Janet Hale worked for Senator Ed

8 Brook?

9 A Yes, I knew that.

10 Q I'm going to show you what has been marked for 11 identification as Dean Exhibit 569 and ask if you 12 recognize that as the funding document for 150 units to 13 Lowell, Massachusetts?

14 A Yes, it is.

15 MR. WEHNER: I'll move the admission of Dean
16 Exhibit 569.

17 MR. O'NEILL: No objection.

18 THE COURT: All right, 569 will be admitted.

19 (Defendant's Exhibit 569 received
20 into Evidence)

2 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission, I'll

2 display it on the screen.

2 THE COURT: All right.

2 BY MR. WEHNER:.

2 Q Now, Miss Dean, do you recall at the time being 2385

1 aware that these units were being sent to Massachusetts
2 as a result of -- partially as a result of lobbying by 3 Senator Brook?

4 A Yes, Miss Hale did tell me that.

5 Q And did you have a discussion concerning that with
6 the Secretary?

7 A Yes, I did inform the Secretary of that. But I did
8 not know that Senator Brook was a consultant at the 9 time. It was sort of awkward. She told me that he had 10 called her. I did not understand at that time that he 11 was being paid to call her. I just did not know that at 12 that time but I did mention to Secretary Pierce that 13 Senator Brook had called Janet Hale.

14 Q And did he respond to that?

15 A He said that was fine.

16 Q Now, directing your attention to the next line on 17 that list which is, I believe, Bayamon, Puerto Rico?

18 A Yes.

19 Q I show you what I've marked for identification as 20 Dean Exhibit 570 and ask you if that is the funding
2 document for that allocation?

2 A Yes, it is.

2 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, at this time I'll
2 move the admission of Dean Exhibit 570.

2 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.

2386

1 THE COURT: All right. 570 is admitted.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 (Defendant's Exhibit 570 received

3 into Evidence)

4 BY MR. WEHNER:

5 Q Miss Dean, do you recall getting specific

6 instructions from the Secretary regarding this project?

7 A No.

8 Q what information do you recall having regarding

9 this project when it was funded?

10 A May I ask you -- could you have any more
11 information on this one, because I think Bayamon might 12 have been funded more than once.

13 Q I'm going to show you two documents which I will 14 mark as Dean Exhibits 571 and 572 and I ask you if it
15 refreshes your recollection as to those units?

16 A Yes. Well -- yes, it refreshes my recollection of 17 some of the things I knew. I knew a little more also.

18 Q would you please tell the jury what you recall you
19 knew at the time regarding the funding?

20 A well, I know that Bayamon, Puerto Rico at one point
2 was represented by a -- by Fred Bush and I'm not certain

2 that this is the same project, but I believe that he was
2 a consultant on a Bayamon, Puerto Rico project.

2 MR. O'NEILL: Objection to any speculation,
2 Your Honor.

2387

1 THE COURT: All right, I'll let her testify to
2 her best recollection.

3 Is that your best recollection?

4 THE WITNESS: Yes.

5 THE COURT: All right.

6 A And there was also interest from the Office of the 7 Vice-President in funding for Bayamon, Puerto Rico. I
8 believe the Vice-President actually went there and -- at 9 one point, and I know that the City of Puerto Rico spoke 10 with the Secretary or wrote the Secretary a letter
11 regarding it and that somehow Jacob Javitz was involved.

12 Q Now, directing your attention to Dean Exhibit 571,
13 I ask you if you recognize that as a letter written to 14 Samuel R. Pierce from -- apparently from Jacob Javitz?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And I show you Dean Exhibit 572 which purports to 17 be a letter to Samuel Pierce from Mayor Ramon Luis 18 Rivera.

19 A Yes.

20 Q Mayor of Bayamon?

2 A Right.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

2 Q With a face carbon copy to you?

2 A Yes, and my handwriting on the top.

2 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, at this time I would

2 move the admission of Dean Exhibits 571 and 572.

1 THE COURT: 571, is that the copy that

2 Miss Dean received?

3 MR. WEHNER: No, sir, it is a copy - I'll

4 hand it up to the Court, with the Court's permission.

5 THE COURT: Is that the copy that had her

6 handwriting on it?

7 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir. That's 532.

8 MR. O'NEILL: I object on the grounds I've 9 objected to all along.

10 THE COURT: why don't we look at it?

11 (Bench conference).

12 THE COURT: All right, 571 is a letter on 13 Jacob Javitz's stationery to Sam Pierce of HUD. The 14 Bates stamp on it is August 7th. The other stamp I

15 can't read on that corner. Did she identify that?

16 MR. WEHNER: She identified it as being what

17 it purported to be, Judge, but that's all.

18 THE COURT: Up here on the top -19

MR. WEHNER: That's not her.

20 THE COURT: A handwritten note of somebody,

21 that says issued 11-20-85.

22 MR. WEHNER: No, she didn't identify that at 23 all, that handwriting.

24 THE COURT: 572 then purports to be a letter

25 from the Mayor of Bayamon, Puerto Rico with a copy to 2389

1 Miss Dean requesting funding of 180 units for the city

2 with Miss Dean identifying her handwriting on the top

3 righthand side. Okay. All right.

4 And, again, these are documents supplied by

5 the Independent Counsel that obtained them from HUD, as

6 I understand it, but, again, the objection is as to the 7 business records exception.

8 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, can I see them?

9 MR. WEHNER: Yes, see if they have your stamps

10 on them.

11 THE COURT: They do have Bates stamps on them.

12 MS. SWEENEY: I'm not sure, Your Honor. I've 13 never seen that before and I don't know about the other

14 one. That's not our Bates stamp.

15 THE COURT: where did she get these?

16 MR. WEHNER: If they didn't come from the 17 Independent Counsel discovery and I don't know for sure

18 that they did, they would have come from the files that

19 she had with her when she left HUD, that she

20 subsequently produced to the Independent Counsel

2 pursuant to a subpoena.

2 THE COURT: Ask her if she identifies the

2 stamp on there. Does that say HUD on it? I can't say

2 whether it says HUD or not. Again, I'm going to hold

2 these.

1 MR. WEHNER: Okay.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

2 THE COURT: Ask her some more about 571.
3 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.
4 (Bench conference concluded)
5 BY MR. WEHNER:
6 Q Miss Dean, with regard to 571, do you know where 7 this document came from? In other words, how it got to
8 you?
9 A Yes, it -- this document came out of the files of 10 Tom Casey which were made available to us from the 11 Independent Counsel.
12 Q With regard to the time and date stamped in the 13 lower -- about halfway down actually, lefthand side of 14 the document, do you know what that says or what date
15 stamp that is?
16 A Yes.
17 Q what does it say?
18 A It says that it was received in this particular
19 office on August 7th at nine o'clock a.m., 1985.
20 Q Does it say where the particular office is?
2 A You can't see it. It's up above, but the Xerox
2 is -- it's lost it. It says received on the bottom.
2 Q Do you recognize where it says received the type
2 typescript of the stamp?
2 A This is a Departmental Bates stamp and each office has a different top and, frankly, you can sort of make out what it is, but I don't want to --

3 Q It appears to you to be a Departmental Bates stamp?
4 A It is a Departmental Bates stamp.
5 THE COURT: All right.
6 A Date stamp. Not a Bates stamp.
7 MR. WEHNER: Date stamp, excuse me.
8 BY MR . WEHNER:
9 Q Directing your attention again to Dean Exhibit
10 572. Do you remember receiving a copy of this letter?
11 A Yes, because I then referred it to Tom Casey
12 downstairs.
13 Q And that's in your handwriting, the upper righthand
14 corner?
15 A Yes, not the date. That appears to be Sherrill's
16 handwriting, but the top, Tom Casey, that would have 17 gone to him.
18 THE COURT: All right. I'll hold that for 19 now.
20 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.
2 BY MR . WEHNER:
2 Q Miss Dean, with respect to the 131 units for Mod
2 Rehab in the City of Miami Beach, Florida, 131 units.
2 A Yes.
2 Q I'll show you what's been marked for identification

2392

1 as Dean Exhibit 573 and ask if you recognize this as the
2 funding document relating -3
A Yes, it is.
4 MR. WEHNER: with the Court's permission, I'll
5 move the admission of Dean Exhibit 573.
6 MR. O'NEILL: No objection.
7 THE COURT: All right, it's for Miami Beach,
8 Florida?

9 All right. It will be admitted.
10 (Defendant's Exhibit 573 received
11 into Evidence)
12 BY MR. WEHNER:
13 Q Miss Dean -14
A Yes.
15 Q Do you recall what you knew at the time this 16 decision was made -
17 A Yes.
18 Q - to fund these units?
19 A I do. It was made in connection with the next 20 project down the line for Metro-Dade, Florida, and you
2 can see it's 131 added to 266 is 397, and it was part of
2 the 400 units that were given to Senator Paula Hawkins
2 as per her designation of where she wanted them to go.
2 Q Now, to whom did Paula -- who was Paula Hawkins?
2 A She was the Senator from the State of Florida.

2393

1 Q How many terms did she serve?
2 A I do not know.
3 Q Was she running for reelection at that time?
4 A Yes, she was. No, I'm sorry. I believe she ran in 5 '86. She would have run in '86 and this is December,
6 80 -- what's the date on that?
7 Q The date appears to be November 20, 1985.
8 A Yes. Senators have been known to start running a
9 good year ahead of when their election is, but I think

10 she was -- she knew she was in trouble, I think, at this 11 time and she was requesting help.
12 Q Now, did you have conversations with her office
13 with regard to this funding?
14 A I believe I spoke to her after she had spoken to 15 Secretary Pierce and I also spoke to someone in her
16 office but I don't remember who it was.
17 Q After you spoke to her did you report back to
18 Secretary Pierce?
19 A I believe Secretary Pierce had asked her to call me
20 and so I didn't really need to report back to him until 2 the time came to actually -- until the time came when
2 they sent over their requests or they gave them to me by
2 phone of where they wanted the units to go.
2 Q And did you report that to Secretary Pierce?
2 A Yes, I did.

2394

1 Q And if you recall, what did he say to you?
2 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor, for all
3 the same reasons.
4 THE COURT: All right, I'll sustain it.
5 BY MR. WEHNER:
6 Q As a result of your discussion with Secretary
7 Pierce, what did you do?
8 A well, this was part of the decisions that were 9 approved that Janet Hale had brought forward and so he

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
10 was aware of that -- those particular fundings, and 11 approved her list.
12 Q Now, directing your attention to North Dakota, 100
13 units to North Dakota, I show you what I've marked for 14 identification as Dean Exhibit 574 and ask you if you
15 recognize it as the funding decision for those units?
16 A Yes, for 100 units to Bismarck, North Dakota, and 17 Fargo, Fargo and Bismarck, Fargo, Mandan and Bismarck.
18 Q Spell Mandan?
19 A M-a-n-d-a-n.
20 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission, I'll
2 move the introduction of Dean Exhibit 574.
2 MR. O'NEILL: I haven't seen it, Judge.
2 THE COURT: Is it all right?
2 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Judge, I'm sorry.
2 THE COURT: All right. 574 is admitted. It's 2395

1 a funding document.
2 (Defendant's Exhibit 574 received
3 into Evidence)
4 BY MR. WEHNER:

5 Q This is the funding document for the 100 units?
6 A Yes, it is.
7 Q North Dakota?
8 A Yes.
9 Q Do you recall the name of the consultant or 10 consultants on this project?

11 A No.
12 Q Do you recall anything concerning why it was 13 funded? Anything stick in your mind as to what you knew
14 at the time as to why these were funded?
15 A I didn't know anything about Bismarck , North
16 Dakota, other than the fact that it was on Miss Hale's
17 list. At that time.
18 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, with the Court's
19 permission, I've finished that chart.
20 THE COURT: All right. You don't need to go
2 to that last one on the bottom, the 24 units.

2 MR. WEHNER: No, sir, I'm trying to pick and
2 choose so I don't need to go through every one of them.

2 THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen,
2 we'll go ahead and recess for the evening rather than 2396

1 start on the next chart, and be ready to go tomorrow
2 morning. We'll make it at 9:30 tomorrow morning.
3 Please recall the admonitions of the Court
4 about not talking about the case or reading or listening
5 or watching anything about it if it's carried in the 6 media.
7 I think we'll have a full day tomorrow and
Page 1345

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
8 then Friday I have another case I have to hear. We 9 won't be sitting Friday, and Monday is a holiday, so

10 you've got a four-day weekend. We'll be back on 11 Tuesday. You'll probably get testimony on Tuesday.
12 We hope to finish it Tuesday and then prepare
13 the final instructions and have argument for you
14 Thursday, but we'll have to wait and see how we're doing
15 in the testimony.
16 So tomorrow is a full day, and after that then 17 there will be - you'll have your long weekend. All
18 right?
19 So, remember the admonition overnight.
20 We'll see you back at 9:30 in the morning,
2 please.
2 (Jury dismissed)
2 THE COURT: You probably have got another
2 couple of hours?
2 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir. And I frankly I need

2397

1 to decide this evening with Miss Dean whether we shorten
2 it up or whether we keep on slogging through it. I'm
3 not sure what we want to do.
4 THE COURT: Maybe you'll put the fundings in
5 as a group or -6
MR. WEHNER: Yes, I understand that, Your
7 Honor. It's a decision we have to make.
8 The other time consuming thing -
9 THE DEFENDANT: Do you think we could be more
10 organized?
11 MR. WEHNER: - is play the tape of her
12 confirmation hearing which the Independent Counsel has 13 supplied. I'm not sure how long that is.
14 MR. O'NEILL: I don't know.
15 THE DEFENDANT: An hour, an hour and 15
16 minutes, an hour and a half or something.
17 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, were you going to 18 hear the hearsay now or -
19 THE COURT: Tomorrow morning. I just want to 20 read a couple of cases. The ones I read in the short
21 break indicated that the testimony by other qualified
22 witness, which is Miss Dean's category, the issue may 23 still be foundational on some of the authentication of 24 some of the documents. As I said before, I may have 25 read it a little strictly, Miss Dean's ability to

\ / 1 identify these documents, but I'll hear it tomorrow.
2 All right.
3 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.
4 (Proceedings recessed at 4:30 p.m. to resume October 7,
5 1993 at 9:30 a.m.)

1 PROCEEDINGS
2 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Criminal number 92-181,
3 United States of America versus Deborah Gore Dean. We
4 have Robert O'Neill and Paula Sweeney for the
5 Government. Stephen Wehner for Miss Dean.
6 THE COURT: All right. Are we ready to 7 proceed this morning?
8 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.
9 THE COURT: Okay. Do you want to take a look

10 at these business record problems we discussed yesterday
11 any further?
12 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, if I may, I'm not so sure
13 it's necessarily a business record problem. The thing
14 is if we had seen them earlier we could have looked at a 15 lot of these.
16 One of the problems is, for instance,
17 Sam Pierce's signature. We've heard about the autopen.
18 To the naked eye you cannot tell the difference.
19 There's no way, especially on these photocopy documents.
20 HUD has a lot of background documents which 2 will show whether the autopen was utilized or not.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 If we, pursuant to rule 16, had been given
2 those documents earlier we could have looked through
2 them like we did with the other documents, checked out
2 which ones were autopen, which ones weren't. Absent

2403

1 that, Judge, it's hard to make these determinations on
2 split seconds as the witnesses testify.

3 So I -

4 THE COURT: I see. You had not been provided
5 any of these document previously?

6 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, we were. We were
7 provided with 150,000 documents.

8 MR. WEHNER: How many?

9 MR. O'NEILL: 150,000, 20 boxes worth. And so

10 it's difficult then -- we can't go through 100,000
11 documents, Judge, and see which ones are authentic HUD
12 documents, which ones aren't, and determine. So that's 13 a problem there.
14 Most of these documents that we've seen,
15 there's been no objection to. But the handwritten 16 notations that are undated, or one of the ones yesterday
17 had a month and a date but not a year, it's very 18 difficult just to stipulate to those, Judge.
19 THE COURT: I understand. All right. What 20 I'm going to do so Mr. wehner and the defendant can go
2 through her testimony if she wishes on this thing, I'd

2 like to have brought up to me the documents that were 2 not introduced yesterday but were offered, were not
2 accepted for evidence but were offered. My notes are 2 559, 60, I'm not sure, 394, 395 and 346. 71, 72.

2404

1 You'll have to check the record here to make
2 sure I'm accurate which ones were not admitted.
3 All right. The clerk's notes are as follows:
4 857, 864, also 865 - wait a second.
5 I misread this, I'm sorry. 857 I didn't
6 receive, 855 I didn't receive. Then the next one I
7 think is 571, 572. That's all I show that were marked.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

8 I thought there were more.

9 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor -

10 THE COURT: Let me see those documents.

11 MR. WEHNER: Can I respond briefly to Mr.

12 O'Neill, Your Honor?

13 THE COURT: All right.

14 MR. WEHNER: With regard to the discovery

15 issue, I can't honestly say that Mr. O'Neill is 16 incorrect that they received a tremendous amount of 17 documents. I can say that 99 percent of those documents

18 that they received came from their files initially and

19 were the result of Miss Dean and myself and others

20 culling through the approximate 500,000 documents that

2 they produced in discovery, if the Court recalls,

2 claiming that they were not relevant or material to this

2 case. And that no Brady information existed, that

2 information material to the defense did not exist.

2 And it's hard for me to fathom, Judge, how,

2405

1 for example, you can take one exhibit, for example, like

2 the Mitchell note which appears to reflect a

3 conversation with Lance Wilson about units, that that's

4 not material to our defense.

5 But I just point out -- we've done the best we

6 can do in terms of getting through this.

7 THE COURT: All right. Let me ask you, there

8 are a couple of documents with Secretary Pierce's

9 initials on them. My notes - now I didn't realize they

10 were admitted. The Clerk's notes reflect they were

11 admitted. The ones we've got now that were not admitted

12 yesterday, Dean 857 is a handwritten note, a copy of a

13 handwritten note of 8-16 to Janet from Philip Abrams,

14 apparently concerning some civic project for rehab, but

15 I'm not sure what Miss Dean was attempting to identify

16 through this. It related to Puerto Rican development.

17 There's a note here about the Puerto Rican deal. I

18 don't know how that's tied in exactly.

19 865 was a 10-7 hand carried written note to 20 Ross Kumagai regarding the funding to Jacksonville. We

2 have other documents admitted relevant to that. That's

2 phase one, again on HUD stationery.

2 871 is a letter to Mr. Pierce from Mr. Javitz

2 with a date stamp on it of August 7, '85, nine-oh

2 something a.m. She couldn't read the particular office

2406

1 that received that, but it was received. Directed to

2 the secretary.

3 she identified the type of documents they

4 would keep in the ordinary course of business that was

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
5 generated outside the course of business.

6 572 also was regarding Bayamon, the Bayamon

7 project in Puerto Rico from the Mayor. Miss Dean had a

8 copy of it and had written a note on it.

9 I'm going to do the following with these

10 documents. It seems to me that despite the Government's 11 concern to authenticate these and further track them
12 down, that both sides have multiple documents to go
13 through and produced multiple documents in response to 14 discovery requests, that Miss Dean is an otherwise
15 qualified person under the rule, the rule that a
16 custodian is a qualified person, as the Executive
17 Assistant to the Secretary of HUD to identify documents
18 that are being kept in the ordinary course of business
19 or created in the ordinary course of business, even 20 though it's not within her direct purview or office but 2 she can recognize these documents and what they mean as

2 to ordinary business documents.

2 It stretches the rule a little bit where there
2 seem to be handwritten notations that have a particular
2 project described, although it seems to be relevant, I'm

2407

1 referring to 857, as to actions taken by Philip Abrams
2 as an Assistant Secretary for Housing, Federal Housing
3 Commissioner on projects in Puerto Rico involving 4 specific projects. That's what the issue is about, some 5 of them.

6 Miss Dean was allegedly directing funding
7 awards that happened to go to favorite developers in 8 exchange for promises if she had further political 9 ambitions or favors to friends, but not any direct

10 benefit to her.

11 It is reflected that this is an award that was 12 made in Puerto Rico with others' involvement, not just 13 Miss Dean's, as to what the practice was at HUD in these 14 type of awards.

15 I think she's identified 857. Even though
16 it's a handwritten note, it's sufficient. I'm going to 17 admit 857.

18 865 I'm going to admit as the Mary Banks to 19 Kumagai note that she testified to. Mr. Kumagai had 20 these in his records in the normal course of business
2 and created in the normal course of business directions
2 on funding the project that was at issue in this case
2 and it refers to the project specifically and there's no
2 question about the document and what it means. I'll 2 admit that.

2408

1 571 is the letter received from Javitz as to
2 the Puerto Rican development, thanking the Secretary,
3 Hunter Cushing, Laurence Goldberger and Janet Hale for 4 their assistance with the project. I'm going to admit
5 this once again from the Secretary's office. I think
6 it's relevant to the issue of Miss Dean's involvement in 7 that situation or not. It has a date stamp as being
8 received in the Secretary's office to authenticate it.
9 And the final one is a letter from the Puerto

10 Rican Mayor that Miss Dean received a copy and made 11 notations on. Again that would be admitted to show what 12 actions she took on the development with the request
13 that she acted on, at least supported by the evidence as 14 to her involvement. There's a note that she had written 15 back to Mr. Casey and it's directed to Mr. Casey as 16 reported, and it's in her handwriting.
17 So with those I have no objection and I'll 18 admit them.
19 (Defendant's Exhibits 857, 865, 871
20 & 572 received into Evidence)
21 THE COURT: All right. Have you made a
22 decision how you're going to approach the rest of the 23 day with Miss Dean?
24 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir. With the Court's
25 permission, in advance, I'd like to release

2409

1 Mr. Schoenberger and Mr. walker. They had been
2 subpoenaed by me late yesterday evening because they
3 were the individuals who had certified the Government's
4 records as coming from HUD and I'd like to thank them
5 for coming and release them from their subpoena at this 6 point.
7 THE COURT: All right. They're free to go.
8 MR. WEHNER: Thank you very much.
9 THE COURT: Are they from HUD?

10 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir, they are the 11 individuals who signed off on the, what would you call
12 it?
13 MR. O'NEILL: Self-authenticating documents.
14 MR. WEHNER: Self-authenticating documents,
15 and we were prepared to put them on to do the same thing
16 with regard to these documents.
17 Yes, Your Honor, we are ready. What we're 18 going to try to do is, I think, we'll go through the 19 whole day with Miss Dean. We're going to try to speed
20 it up by using the video presenter less and not viewing
21 so many documents to the jury because I think it's 22 basically doubling the time of my direct examination.
2 I've told Mr. O'Neill and Miss Sweeney that
2 next week there is a possibility that we will call one
2 more witness with regard to the Baltimore Uplift matter

2410

1 that I've yet to identify. I'll conduct that interview
2 tomorrow. I've told them that I'll call their office
3 this weekend and leave a message on their answering
4 machine as to who that might be.
5 We may also call Carolyn Jordan, based upon
6 Your Honor quashing of the subpoena to Mr. Proxmire.
7 Carolyn Jordan was an attorney for Senator Cranston who
8 served on that Committee and is familiar with the same
9 areas that Senator Proxmire was familiar with and I've 10 given that name to the Independent Counsel.

11 We also may call, but it's less likely, we'll 12 call Nelson Deckelbaum with regard to character
13 testimony, and then the last witness that we'll also be 14 interviewing tomorrow will be Michael Dorsey who was 15 a -- I think he was General Counsel at HUD for the 16 relevant time period.
17 I don't anticipate those would be lengthy 18 witnesses at all, Judge, so I think we'll finish Tuesday
19 with our case.
20 THE COURT: Miss Dean needs time on
2 cross-examination. That would be Tuesday, I assume.
2 MR. O'NEILL: I don't believe it will be a
2 full day, Judge.
2 THE COURT: All right. I'll tell the jury
2 we'll try to finish up the testimony in the case Tuesday

2411

1 if we can, at the latest wednesday. If you have any
2 instructions ready by tomorrow I'd appreciate receiving
3 them so I can begin to look at any proposals that you
4 have over the weekend. If not, I want to get them early
5 next week, but if you have any in draft form that I can
6 look at it would help us over the weekend in advance.
7 Otherwise it would be kind of compacted to get them in 8 the middle of the week.
9 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, I believe that we

10 can get them in tomorrow afternoon.
11 THE COURT: Thank you.
12 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, could we approach for 13 a minute?
14 THE COURT: Yes.
15 (Bench conference)
16 MR. WEHNER: Regarding -- with regard to juror
17 number seven. Miss Dean observed this yesterday and I
18 simply want to put it on the record, that juror number
19 two gave juror number three some kind of pill and juror
20 number two asked juror number seven for a glass of 2 water. Juror seven handed number two the water. Juror
2 number two handed it to three and three took a pill.
2 And apparently juror number seven found this whole thing
2 rather amusing. That's just observation.
2 Secondly, I observed juror number seven, I

2412

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
1 believe, asleep during part of the testimony yesterday.
2 So I'd renew my motion to strike her.
3 MR. O'NEILL: I would like to state the 4 Government's position on this. I watched number seven
5 since Your Honor had said something and I feel number
6 seven has done nothing - I viewed nothing about any 7 pills or passing of water. Not that I think that's a
8 big problem. I have seen nothing by seven that I
9 haven't seen from one, two, three, four, all the way
10 through, so I have seen nothing since Your Honor
11 excoriated the entire jury.
12 THE COURT: As I said, I have been watching
13 seven off and on during the trial because I had some 14 concerns. I thought she was rather animated and she 15 obviously likes to be in charge and does pass out
16 water. She asks the marshal for water all the time and 17 passing cups of water down the road. In a long trial,
18 that's not too unusual.
19 I don't know about the pill. I didn't notice
20 that. I don't know that's a real problem either. I did
2 notice she was asleep. I noticed she looked up a few
2 times. I will inform them that they'd better conduct
2 themselves in another fashion. I'll continue to watch
2 them.
2 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.

2413

1 (Bench conference concluded)
2 THE COURT: All right, will you bring the jury
3 in, please?
4 (Jury present)
5 THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen,
6 good morning, and thank you for coming in promptly and 7 getting ready to go. We're ready to proceed at this
8 time in the continuation of the testimony of Miss Dean.
9 Miss Dean?
10 (DEBORAH GORE DEAN, THE DEFENDANT, RESUMED THE STAND)
11 THE COURT: All right, we're ready to go.
12 MR. WEHNER: Good morning.
13 THE JURORS: Good morning.

14 DIRECT EXAMINATION (CONTINUED)

15 BY MR. WEHNER:
16 Q Good morning, Miss Dean.

17 A Good morning.

18 Q We had talked yesterday briefly about the use of 19 the Secretary's autopen.

20 A Yes.

2 Q Could you tell us, please, generally for the time
2 period, what your responsibility was with regard to the 2 autopen, what the rules were, how you used it, and when
2 you used it?

2 A Okay. The autopen was a very large machine, about

2414

1 twice as big as this particular area here. It had a

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 huge wheel that went around with different things on it

3 and you'd put the wheel on and line the paper up in a

4 certain place and the autopen would move a pen in such a

5 way that it would sign Samuel R. Pierce, Jr.

6 And I believe that the Assistant Secretary for 7 Bousing had one and so did the Assistant Secretary for

8 Community Planning and Development and the 9 Undersecretary had one. And the Executive Secretariat,

10 that I was the original director of, we had the machine

11 in that office.

12 So the Secretary would authorize things for 13 autopen which doesn't sound like it makes a lot of sense
14 because you could just sign your own signature a lot

15 easier, but there are a lot of times where there would 16 be five or six documents, or a letter that would go out
17 to every mayor. He would authorize all of those for the 18 autopen to him and they would come back and the machine
19 would be used for that, and the Executive Assistant to 20 the Secretary also could authorize things for autopen,
21 and when I was the director of the Executive Secretariat
22 I had to okay each of those. So somebody couldn't just 23 come into the office and say Lance Wilson says to 24 autopen this. I'd have to look at it and make certain
25 that I was convinced that it had come out of Lance's

2415

1 office correctly.

2 And that system stayed in effect when I became 3 Executive Assistant. So I would often authorize things
4 for autopen and then the Executive Secretary person
5 would look at it as well. So you would usually see two 6 sets of initials. And the things that were autopenned
7 could have been anything, rules and regulations,
8 letters, memoranda, social notes, almost anything.
9 The Secretary did not use his desk normally

10 when we had meetings. He would work at it and it was 11 piled really high with papers and things all the time.
12 So there wasn't really a good clear working area. He 13 was just one of those kind of people that had a very 14 full, full desk.

15 And so he used to move and sit in a chair that 16 was a very low chair and then you would sit on the couch 17 or a chair around sort of a coffee table and that's

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
18 where I would have 99 percent of all of his meetings in 19 his office would be right there, and it was very 20 difficult to sign his name where he was sitting in that
2 chair. He'd have to, like, move over and go like that 2 or he'd have to sign it around his knee and it would
2 just sort of run down the page and it would not look
2 right.
2 So many times if I took in, as I said,

2416

1 packages, he would read it and say okay and he would
2 hand it back to me and then I would then have that 3 signed with his official signature, mostly for 4 cosmetics, cosmetic purposes, so that his signature
5 would look right.
6 And we changed the wheel, I believe, four
7 times while I was there because it would run out and it
8 would start to, like, get a bump in it or something.
9 I remember one year, let's say, Samuel R.

10 Pierce and the A would have a star in it just sort of 11 moved over and it looked really silly. So we had to 12 have a new one made and so we had four different ones
13 made while I was there.
14 Q How were the wheels made?
15 A You know, I don't know. There's a company that did 16 it and the Secretary signed something originally when he 17 came in and they would just take that original and 18 remake the wheel every time. He didn't have to do
19 anything each time we made a new wheel.
20 Q Now, from your observations of -- during that
2 period of time, if you look at a document can you tell,

2 you individually tell, whether it's been autopenned or
2 whether it's the Secretary's original signature?
2 A Usually, yes.
2 Q What about on xeroxes? Can you tell the 2417

1 difference?
2 A Usually, yes.
3 Q How can you tell the difference?
4 A Of course that star in the middle of the A is 5 really unusual and that went on for a year before we got 6 that corrected, so all of those are autopenned. Usually 7 those that go in a straight line are autopenned because 8 the Secretary had a very free flowing hand and if he 9 normally signed something himself it was on his knee

10 where he would sign it or he'd have to lean over and 11 sign it on this coffee table, and he was a very large
12 man and his weight would go behind the signature, and it
13 usually would go up or down. Very rarely it looked like 14 the autopen. The autopen looked better than his 15 signature.
16 Q Did you ever personally write his signature?
17 A No, no.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

18 Q So, as far as you know, the only way documents got 19 signed was either through the autopen or him personally
20 signing it?

2 A And we also - we had an autopen that said Samuel
2 R. Pierce, Jr. We also had an autopen that said Sam.
2 And if the person was a very close friend. For 2 instance, he might call me if he was away on a trip and
2 say send a letter to Senator Rockefeller who he knew

2418

1 very well. And he would say - I of course would know
2 to sign it Sam. I wouldn't sign it Samuel R. Pierce
3 because then he'd know the Secretary hadn't sent the
4 letter.
5 So he would dictate the letter to me or to his 6 Secretary Starr. Normally he would just tell me what he 7 wanted. I would compose it and then we would autopen it
8 Sam and get it out.

9 Q Were there any other wheels to his signatures other
10 than Samuel R. Pierce, Jr., and Sam?

11 A At one time we had I believe it was either a Sam
12 Pierce or a Samuel Pierce and we never used it because 13 he never signed his name that way. So it was 14 destroyed.

15 THE COURT: Was there one for his initials?

16 THE WITNESS: No.

17 BY MR. WEHNER:

18 Q Miss Dean, we spent sometime yesterday talking
19 about Regent Street in Philadelphia.

20 A Yes.

2 Q I'm going to show you what I've marked for
2 identification as Dean Exhibit 247 which purports to be
2 a letter to Samuel R. Pierce, Jr. from Arlen Specter.

2 A Yes.

2 Q Dated April 22nd, 1985.

2419

1 A Yes.

2 Q Can you identify that document as being what I
3 described it as?

4 A It's a letter from Arlen Specter to Secretary
5 Pierce dated April 22nd, 1985, and it was received on 6 April 26th at 9:13 a.m., 1985.

7 Q Does it purport to discuss Regent Street?

8 A It discusses Regent Street and 26 units of Section
9 Eight under the Mod rehabilitation program.

10 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission, I'll
11 move into evidence Dean Exhibit 247.

12 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor, based 13 on your ruling. However, the Government would reserve
14 its previous objections.

15 THE COURT: All right, I'll overrule the
16 objection and allow the document to be submitted.

17 (Defendant's Exhibit 247 received
18 into Evidence)

19 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission, I'm 20 going to publish that to the jury.

21 THE COURT: All right.

2 2 BY MR. WEHNER:

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
23 Q Miss Dean, could you please read the first
24 paragraph?
25 A "I am writing on behalf of and at the request of a

2420

1 constituent firm, Pennrose Properties of Philadelphia,
2 Pennsylvania. The information contained herein is based
3 upon materials provided me by my constituent."
4 Q would you read the first sentence of the next
5 paragraph?
6 A "I understand that the Regent Street project, a
7 joint venture of the Philadelphia Housing Development
8 Corporation and Tri-Rose Associates is in need of 9 securing an additional 26 units of Section Eight under

10 the moderate rehabilitation program for the proposals to 11 come to fruition."

12 Q And would you read the last two sentences of the 13 letter?

14 A "This appears to be a worthwhile request, so I urge 15 that you give it your full consideration. Thank you for 16 your time and consideration of this important matter.
17 My best, Arlen Specter."

18 Q Arlen Specter was one of the Senators from 19 Pennsylvania at that time, was he not?

20 A Yes, and he was a friend of Secretary Pierce's.

2 Q And he was also from Philadelphia, isn't that
2 correct?

2 A He was from Pennsylvania. I don't know where he's 2 from.

2 Q Now, are these the units, the same units that are 2421

1 reflected on the chart as being -- partially reflected
2 on the chart as being 13 units to Philadelphia,
3 Pennsylvania?

4 A My assumption is, and -5

Q Your best recollection, please.

6 A I don't have a specific recollection of these but,
7 as I said yesterday, I think you'd have to - 1 mean
8 obviously that's what it is. It's obviously 12 or 13 is 9 the 25 that made up the 26. I now know this, so I'm - 10 but I just don't have any specify recollection of 11 discussing it at the time.

12 Q Miss Dean, we discussed yesterday Senator Hawkins
13 with regard to some Florida units.

14 A Yes.

15 Q I'm going to show you what purports to be a letter
16 to Honorable Paula Hawkins from Deborah Gore Dean dated 17 November 8th, 1985, regarding moderate rehabilitation
18 units.

19 A Yes.

20 Q Is that what I described it as being?

2 A It's about Section 202 and Mod Rehab, yes.

2 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission, I'll
2 move into evidence Dean Exhibit 877.

2 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: All right, 877 is admitted.

2422

1 (Defendant's Exhibit 877 received
2 into Evidence)
3 BY MR. WEHNER:

4 Q Miss Dean, would you please read the second
5 paragraph of that letter aloud, to the extent you can?
6 A "On another unrelated matter I will be calling your 7 office shortly to announce a considerable number of 8 moderate rehabilitation units going to Dade County. I
9 will of course call your office before HUD makes any

10 announcements."

11 Q Thank you.

12 Now, had you had discussions with Senator
13 Hawkins with regard to moderate rehabilitation units to 14 Dade County, Florida?

15 A Yes, I spoke to her one time about the 202 project
16 and the moderate rehabilitation, and I spoke to 17 Secretary Pierce and she had spoken to him about it, and 18 I spoke to the white House about it, and they spoke to 19 me about it.

20 Q Okay, Miss Dean, I'm going to show you what I've 2 marked for identification as Dean Exhibit 71 which

2 purports to be a memo handwritten by you to Janet Hale
2 dated 11-20, 1985 from D, Deborah.

2 A Yes.

2 Q Is that what I described it as being?

2423

1 A Yes, it is.

2 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, with the Court's
3 permission, I move into evidence Dean Exhibit 71.

4 THE COURT: 71?

5 MR. WEHNER: Yes, Your Honor.

6 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, could I have a quick
7 voir dire on this?

8 THE COURT: Sure.

9 BY MR. O'NEILL:

10 Q Miss Dean, do you recall whether this was as to the 11 202 program or the Mod Rehab program?

12 A It was regarding both.

13 MR. O'NEILL: Nothing further.

14 At this time I would have no objection.

15 THE COURT: All right. I'll allow it. 71 to

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

16 be admitted.

17 MR. WEHNER: Yes, Your Honor.

18 (Defendant's Exhibit 71

19 received into Evidence)

20 BY MR. WEHNER:

2 Q Janet Hale was Federal Housing Commissioner at that

2 time?

2 A Yes.

2 Q Would you please read that aloud?

2 A It says "Per my discussion with Senator Hawkins

2424

1 today, the final papers will be signed by BUD before

2 Friday. Let's review the file today, if possible.

3 T.C.," who was Tom Casey, her Executive Assistant, "can

4 handle if you wish."

5 Q Now, when you referred to final papers, what final

6 papers are you referring to in that handwritten memo?

7 A I wanted to expand a little bit on what I said to

8 Mr. O'Neill. I don't believe the 202 ever was funded

9 but we had to get an answer back to the sponsor. It may 10 have been funded and then the funds would have been

11 going out. whichever the resolution of that was. And 12 also the final moderate rehabilitation monies had

13 already been announced, but the monies had to then be

14 sent through the system. Sometimes there's a long delay

15 and sometimes it's a short time, but there must have

16 been a delay at this point, given the date of the note.

17 Q Now, Miss Dean, we had had some discussions

18 yesterday with regard to private individuals who visited

19 you with regard to certain projects.

20 A Yes.

2 Q And we also discussed that briefly the day before.

2 During your tenure at HUD at the relevant time

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 periods, '83 to '87, did you become familiar with a
2 legal opinion that gave advice on whether or not
2 consultants were appropriately used in the moderate

2425

1 rehabilitation program?
2 A I knew from discussing with the General Counsel's
3 office and from discussions with Secretary Pierce
4 that - because he told me he had looked into it, and 5 that I knew that the use of consultants were legal and 6 that it came out of the developers' profit and that
7 therefore was not a HUD cost certifiable - you know,
8 entity. We could not do anything with it and so
9 therefore we couldn't regulate it or oversee it.

10 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, with the Court's
11 permission - I'm sorry, I'm getting ahead of myself,
12 Judge.

13 THE COURT: All right.

14 BY MR. WEHNER:

15 Q Let me show you what I've marked for identification
16 as Dean Exhibit 517 and ask you if you've seen that 17 document - if you saw that document during your tenure
18 at HUD?

19 A No, I did not. I saw this document after I left
20 HUD.

2 Q Does this purport to be a memorandum for David
2 White, Assistant General Counsel, from Betty Park,
2 Acting Assistant General Counsel?

2 A Yes, this memorandum, however, it is from one HUD
2 employee to another but this memorandum was out - every

2426

1 person in Washington who had any dealings with HUD got a
2 copy of this memo within days.

3 Q Does it purport to regard the subject consultant
4 agreement Section Eight Mod Rehab?

5 A Yes, it does, and it's signed by the person who 6 wrote it.

7 Q And that is Betty Park?

8 A Yes.

9 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission, I
10 move the introduction of Dean Exhibit 517.

11 MR. O'NEILL: What is the date on that?

12 MR. WEHNER: There is no date that I can see.

13 THE COURT: It's undated?

14 MR. WEHNER: I have no date on my copy, Judge.

15 MR. O'NEILL: My only objection would be as to 16 the date, since Miss Dean is no longer at HUD.

17 THE COURT: Let me see the relevance of it.

18 All right, I'm not going to admit it on the 19 timeframe then unless you can identify it with some 20 earlier document.

2 MR. WEHNER: All right, Your Honor.

2 BY MR. WEHNER:

2 Q Miss Dean, were you familiar with the policy at HUD
2 with regard to the use of consultants during the time
2 you were there?

2427

1 A Yes, when the situation of the Puerto Rico Mod
2 Rehab units came up, that was the time when Secretary
3 Pierce was very interested to see if that was a way in 4 which we could cancel these units. It was obviously
5 going to be a problem that people who had been involved
6 in HUD were going to be making considerable sums of 7 money once they left. And the Secretary did not like
8 this and he wanted to have it reviewed and so he had it
9 reviewed himself and told me that he had it reviewed and

10 what he had found out and he asked me to look into it
11 again.

12 Q Does the document I showed you reflect the 13 information that you were aware of and received during 14 your tenure at HUD?

15 A That memorializes a longstanding policy within the 16 Department.

17 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I renew my motion to 18 admit 517.

19 THE COURT: On the basis that that is the same 20 as the policy that she testified to that was in
2 existence when she was there?

2 MR. WEHNER: As well as a memorialization of 2 the policy, Your Honor, yes.

2 THE COURT: All right, I'll admit it.

2 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.

2428

1 THE COURT: Without further identification.
2 (Defendant's Exhibit 517 received
3 into Evidence)

4 BY MR. WEHNER:

5 Q Miss Dean, could you come down off the stand and 6 just read the entire memo, or with the Court's
7 permission, could she read from the original?

8 A "This responds to your request of January 6, 1988 to 9 George Weidenfeller for our opinion regarding the 10 acceptability of the attached contingent fee consultant
11 agreement between Robert E. Rohlwing, Incorporated and 12 Atlman Properties, Limited.

13 HUD does not regulate the amount or terms of 14 contracts between a prospective Section Eight property
15 owner and his consultant. HUD also does not recognize 16 the cost of a consultant in its determination of subsidy
17 amount for a moderate rehabilitation project. The 18 Section Eight moderate rehabilitation program is 19 designed so as to preclude the necessity for examining 20 relationships of this type. Since HUD's only financial 2 exposure is the Section Eight rent subsidy, its 2 regulation at Section 882.408 by both generalized upper 2 limits based upon Mod Rehab fair market rents and
2 project specific cost analysis provides adequate
2 protection against abuse.

2429

1 Subsequent to the aforementioned upper limit
2 rents based upon Mod Rehab fair market rents, the 3 initial contract rent is established for each project
4 pursuant to the provisions of Section 882.408 (c) (2).
5 The initial contract rent is equal to the base rent plus
6 the monthly cost of the rehabilitation loan. The base
7 rent is either the current rent charged for the unit or 8 the estimated monthly cost of owning, managing and 9 maintaining the rehabilitated unit. The rehabilitation

10 loan may include only the actual cost of the 11 rehabilitation and temporary tenant relocation. Section 12 882.506 (c) requires that the owner certify as to the 13 temporary relocation costs, actual rehabilitation costs,
14 and the rehabilitation loan interest rate and term.
15 As can be seen, consultant fees are not
16 recognizable costs for establishing the contract rents.
17 Consequently, provided that the consultant fee is not 18 included in costs which are used to calculate the 19 contract rent, the owner is free to enter any agreement
20 that he desires with his consultant."

2 Q Miss Dean, you have testified about certain of the 2 Housing Commissioners and their relationship to
2 Secretary Pierce.
2 A Yes.
2 Q And was it the practice of the Department to 2430

1 distribute regulations to the field offices with regard
2 to certain programs?
3 A Of course, every -- annually.
4 Q And was it the habit of the Department for the 5 Housing Commissioners to send documents or instructions
6 to the field office with regard to Mod Rehab?
7 A Yes, the Housing Commissioner every year would send 8 out whatever regulations and requirements were to be in 9 effect that year for how the program was going to be run

10 everytime Congress allotted us our fiscal year money for 11 that year. But those regulations didn't go to Secretary
12 Pierce. They just went to the field.
13 Q I show you documents I've marked for identification
14 as Dean Exhibit 67, Dean Exhibit 876, 881, 91 and 858
15 and ask you if you could identify those by referring to 16 them by exhibit number?
17 A Dean Exhibit 91 is from Maurice Barksdale, dated 18 March 1st, 1984. Fiscal year 1984 Section Eight Mod
19 Rehab funds. And it's the memo to the field on how the 20 program is to work in 1984.
21 MR. WEHNER: with the Court's permission, I'll
22 move the introduction of Dean exhibit 91.
23 MR. O'NEILL: No objection.
24 THE COURT: All right, 91 is admitted.
25 (Defendant's Exhibit 91 received

2431

1 into Evidence)
2 A Dean Exhibit 858 dated, September 21st, and this
3 would have been -- been September 21st, '84 because it's 4 for the fiscal year '85 which was to begin October 1st,
5 but how this fiscal year '85 Mod Rehabs were to be
6 sent. But this is the carbon copy. The concurrence
7 copy. And you can see that it's been concurred on by 8 every person all the way up the line to -- Miss Hastings
9 is here. The people below her. Mr. Hammernick who was 10 above Miss Hastings, and Mr. DeBartolomeis, the Office
11 of General Counsel, another Office of General Counsel, 12 and about another four to five people, all of whom 13 initialed here as it's going out.
14 MR. WEHNER: I move the admission of Dean
15 Exhibit 858.
16 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.
17 THE COURT: 858 will be admitted.
18 (Defendant's Exhibit 858 received
19 into Evidence)
20 A Dean Exhibit 876 is an original for 1986. This one 21 is signed by Janet Hale, dated November 12, 1985. She 22 was a little late getting this one out. And it
23 describes how the Mod Rehab program is to work in fiscal
24 year 1986, and Dean Exhibit 67 -25
MR. WEHNER: I move the admission of Dean

2432

1 Exhibit 876, Your Honor.
2 MR. O'NEILL: No objection.
3 THE COURT: All right, 876 is admitted.
4 (Defendant's Exhibit 876 received
5 into Evidence)
6 A Dean Exhibit 67 is a -- it says note, but it's a
7 memo, an unofficial memorandum, I guess we'd say, from 8 Bob Kenison to Louise Kleffner, who worked for Miss
9 Hastings, who would have drafted the '86 memo, basically

10 saying that he agrees with the memo, but then he puts a 11 caveat on the bottom of that. It says - would you like 12 me to read it?
13 Q Not yet.
14 I move the admission of Dean Exhibit 67.
15 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.
16 THE COURT: All right, no objection, 67 is
17 admitted.
18 (Defendant's Exhibit 67 received
19 into Evidence)
20 A But at the end here -- is it all right to read
21 that?
22 Q You may read that.
23 A It says, "My concurrence in this document should be 24 viewed in that context," I'm sorry. "I believe that the 25 ranking provisions of 882.501 must be followed and my 2433

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
1 concurrence in this document should be viewed in that
2 context. As a related matter, we recommend that there
3 be a good record of the deliberative process in 4 selecting applications." And I have seen this memo for 5 every year previous to this also. He wrote this memo
6 every year saying they should have a deliberative
7 process in the selection of Mod Rehab funds every year.
8 Q And 8 81?
9 A 881 is a memorandum from me to Janet Bale regarding 10 the moderate rehabilitation regulations.

11 MR. WEHNER: I'll move the admission of Dean
12 Exhibit 881.
13 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.
14 THE COURT: All right. Admitted.
15 (Defendant's Exhibit 881 received
16 into Evidence)
17 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission,
18 I'll exhibit Dean Exhibit 858 briefly.
19 BY MR. WEHNER:
20 Q Miss Dean, would you please read the first sentence
21 of paragraph number one?
22 A "As in fiscal year 1984, decisions on allocations of 23 units to PHA's will be made in headquarters."
24 Q Does that instruction appear in the other memoranda
25 that was sent to the field with regard to allocations of 2434

1 units?
2 A Yes.
3 Q Now, Miss Dean, I'm going to show you very 4 quickly -- take a quick look at Dean Exhibit 881.
5 A Yes.
6 Q Just so you can refresh your recollection as to 7 what it concerns. It's a three-page memoranda.
8 A Yes, I remember it very well.
9 Q would you describe to the jury the circumstances

10 under which this memoranda was written?
11 A Yes, there was an audit done of the rents that the 12 Mod Rehab program was using and I believe it was in 13 Buffalo, New York, and the Inspector General had done an 14 audit finding, basically that said that the rents for 15 the Mod Rehab program were getting abused. They were 16 too high. And he asked Miss Hale and Mr. DeBartolomeis
17 at that time to please set up a task force to find out
18 whether or not the rents in these programs were correct
19 or not.
20 And at that time there was a flurry of other
2 interested people who I had been getting some phone
2 calls from that were saying that they also thought that
2 there was a problem in this area and that the new
2 co-insurance program that was being set up was being put 2 in tandem with Mod Rehab, Government insurance on the 2435

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

1 loans, and that this was pushing the rents up.
2 And I remember very well going down to the 3 library and picking up the co-insurance handbook and the 4 Mod Rehab handbook and realizing that they were totally 5 different. And there was obviously room in there for 6 there to be some misunderstanding.
7 The field offices had different handbooks that 8 told them do different things in calculating rents and 9 of course that made no sense.

10 So I thought it was a pretty serious problem
11 and so I sat down and wrote out what - where I thought
12 the problem was and with the handbooks being different,
13 and the fact that I thought there could be some problems
14 with this and I sent it to Miss Hale and 15 Mr. DeBartolomeis who was then head of Multi-family
16 Housing and I also sent a copy to the General Counsel's
17 office, but I never got anything back. I never heard
18 anything back about it.
19 And later on of course it became a major
20 problem.
21 Q Miss Dean, there has been testimony concerning
22 various lunches that you attended, dinners, et cetera,
23 and I'd like to direct your attention just generally to 24 the time period that you were at HUD and would you
25 describe, please, the policy under which you operated

2436

1 regarding reimbursement for your lunches and dinners
2 from the Government, during the appropriate time period?
3 A Well, you cannot be reimbursed for lunches or 4 dinners by the Government.
5 Q Now, did you on occasion have a business related -
6 a BUD related dinner?
7 A Oh, yes, many times.
8 Q And did you on occasion pay for those dinners?
9 A Yes.

10 Q And pursuant to the policy, did you get reimbursed
11 for that?
12 A No, it has to come out of your salary.
13 Q Would you tell the jury what -- a few examples of 14 the dinners or lunches you paid for, who they were with,
15 over the appropriate time period?
16 A Well, I remember that there was an occasion when 17 the Appropriations Committee at the House had taken away
18 the staffers for the Office of the Secretary which meant
19 that we would have had to rif people in the office,
20 which was a big office, and we had public affairs,
21 Congressional affairs. It was just not in his immediate 22 office but I think we would have lost, I believe it was 23 12 or 16 people, something like that. And they did that 24 to show the Secretary how serious they were about his 25 hiring people in the field to work on public housing

2437

1 monitoring.

2 And the House had given the Department a large

3 amount of money to hire new people to work in the field

4 of public housing, in the field, and the Department had

5 been very slow hiring new people in the field.

6 And Congressman Boland, to get Secretary

7 Pierce*s attention, took away the people from Secretary

8 Pierce*s office so that he would understand that he was

9 serious and to hire the people, and of course Secretary

10 Pierce did not know at that time that we were falling

11 behind hiring the people in Public and Indian Housing.

12 And so I called up the staff director for the 13 Appropriations Committee, a Mr. Mallow, and I remember I

14 took Mr. Mallow to lunch and Mr. Mallow -- and I

15 remember it was a long lunch because Mr. Mallow spent

16 quite a lot of time telling me everything that we

17 thought we were doing wrong and what it would take to 18 fix this situation and I went back and I had a

19 conversation with Secretary Pierce and I reported to him

20 what these -- and there was a staff director of some

21 prominence. He was an older man and was -- had been

22 there for awhile and he spoke for the Congressman in 23 many respects.

24 So I went back and reported to the Secretary

25 what he had said and the Secretary said, well, he's 2438

1 absolutely right. why aren't we hiring these people?

2 And he called up Mr. Dorsey who was then the head of

3 Public and Indian Housing and said why aren't you hiring

4 people and it was so of course a red tape issue where

5 they had to put ads out and there were forms that had to

6 be printed. It was actually senseless Government red

7 tape of why this had not been done. And the Secretary

8 said get it done and get it done fast.

9 And he wrote Congressman Boland back a

10 letter. He said you are right, sir, we did this wrong

11 and we are fixing it.

12 And I remember at that point then also having 13 to report back to Mr. Mallow and Mr. Mallow asked if we

14 could have dinner and I remember I had dinner with 15 Mr. Mallow and it was -- I remember I thought it was 16 rather expensive and I paid because I was -- we were

17 actually asking him to reinstate the positions at HUD,
18 and so I paid.
19 And then I remember a time when Secretary
20 Pierce was interested in a longtime Government employee
2 being able to be, I don't know if it was an exception
2 appointment, but it had to be approved by OPM and I
2 remember calling up the Office of Personnel Management
2 and saying I'd like to come over and meet with you on
2 this subject with a Mr. Dutcher, and Mr. Dutcher said

2439

1 well, why don't we have lunch?
2 Once again I'm the one with my hand out, I'm 3 asking him for something. So I had to pay for lunch and 4 I know that when we were lobbying for the National
5 Association of Realtors, to try to break them down on 6 the fair housing amendments, I had to take the general
7 counsel of the National Association of Realtors to lunch
8 and he wanted pepper steak at the Jockey Club. I
9 remember that very well. So Mr. North from the National

10 Association of Realtors had lunch twice at the Jockey
11 Club and I know I paid both times because once again I
12 was asking him to move his position and not the other
13 way around.
14 And I know that we had a National Association
15 of Realtors-HUD task force on the testing guidelines and 16 that was - and that was the whole task force and in 17 essence I think Mr. Weigand, who was the president of 18 the realtors at the time, paid for the realtors and I
19 didn't feel - this was a very expensive restaurant.
20 This was Maison Blanche. I remember the restaurant.
2 And I did not think that the HUD employees who were on 2 the task force should have to pay for this very
2 expensive dinner, so I paid for it, and so I paid for
2 the HUD employees and Mr. Weigand paid for the realtor
2 employees.

2440

1 I mean there was a lot of this. It was very
2 expensive.
3 Q Does HUD have any kind of taxpayer allocation to 4 fund this type of lobbying activity for the Secretary or 5 the Executive or anybody in the Secretary's office?
6 A Well, the Secretary has an entertainment fund for 7 foreign dignitaries. If he wanted, for instance, to 8 have a mayor for lunch there is a small amount of money
9 where he can send out and get food and come in and do

10 the lunch but it was only for his use and it was a very 11 small fund.
12 I think sometimes when you go to a foreign
13 country they give you something and you give them
14 something when you get off a plane. That's what that 15 fund was used for, but there's nothing like that for any 16 other HUD employee and I certainly made a very nice

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
17 salary and I was more than happy to do it. I considered
18 it part of the job, and I made a nice salary.
19 Q what was the Secretary's relationship with 20 Janet Hale when she was Federal Housing Commissioner?
2 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, I believe we went over
2 all of this yesterday at considerable length.
2 MR. WEHNER: It's a transition question.
2 THE COURT: All right, let's move ahead.
2 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.

2441

1 A The Secretary had a lot of respect for Miss Hale.
2 Q who succeeded Miss Hale?
3 A Mr. DeBartolomeis.
4 Q And when did he succeed Miss Hale?
5 A In -
6 Q Approximately?
7 A I believe that -- I believe it was the early part
8 of 19 86.
9 Q Did he then become responsible for the day-to-day
10 administration of the moderate rehabilitation program?
11 A Yes.
12 MR. WEHNER: with the Court's permission, I'm
13 going to put on the stand Dean Exhibit 62.
14 THE COURT: All right.
15 BY MR . WEHNER:.
16 Q At the time Mr. DeBartolomeis became Federal 17 Housing Commissioner who was Susan Zagame?
18 A I can't see that. I'm sorry, once it gets to 19 Colorado I can't see any more.
20 MR. WEHNER: I'm not sure we're going to be
2 able to solve this.
2 A Okay, fine. That's great.
2 Q who was Miss Zagame?
2 A Miss Zagame was originally a Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Office for Fair Housing and Equal

2442

1 Opportunity and at this point in time she had moved to 2 the Office of Policy and Budget. That had been the 3 office that Janet Hale had had under Phil Abrams,
4 Maurice Barksdale, and then Janet Hale moved up.
5 Susan Zagame moved into that job.
6 Q Okay. Directing your attention to the chart, does
7 that reflect funding decisions made on or about May 8 22nd, 1986?
9 A Yes, those were the decisions that were signed on 10 May 22nd, 1986.
11 Q Do you recall testifying yesterday about 12 James Watt?
13 A Yes.
14 Q Okay. Directing your attention to the second
15 project on that list.
16 A Also the decisions were made before May 22nd.
17 That's the day that they were signed.
18 Q Okay. why don't you describe what led up to those 19 funding decisions, please? Generally.
20 A well, there were - there was some input from the 2 Secretary. I can look there and see input from the 2 Secretary. There was input from Mr. DeBartolomeis and
Page 1370

2 there was – I can see one Senator – I think there are
2 two Senators, a Congressman, three Senators and one or 2 two Federal -former Federal Housing Commissioners.

2443

1 Q Directing your attention though to the method by
2 which the selections were made in terms of the 3 difference between Miss Hale and Mr. DeBartolomeis, was 4 there any difference?
5 A Yes.
6 Q what was it?
7 A Well, there was no difference actually at this
8 point. It wasn't really until after this funding round
9 that there – problems began to occur, but the Secretary
10 did not have the respect for Mr. DeBartolomeis that he 11 had for Miss Hale and the Secretary had more of an 12 interest in keeping an eye on Mr. DeBartolomeis than he 13 did on Miss Hale. So Miss Hale was rather autonomous.
14 Mr. DeBartolomeis was not in that category. He was 15 asked basically to report more on what he was doing.
16 Q Mr. DeBartolomeis, was he an Acting Housing
17 Commissioner?
18 A Yes.
19 Q Or was he the Presidential appointed Housing
20 Commissioner?
21 A He was an Acting – he was Acting Housing
22 Commissioner and he had actually lobbied to become the 23 General Deputy, and that I think is where the beginning
24 of the problems started because Secretary Pierce had 25 started to get phone calls and a letter or two saying

2444

1 why not appoint Silvio to be General Deputy as opposed
2 to him just Acting, and I remember that the Secretary
3 was not pleased with that because he was lobbying
4 outside the agency for a position inside the agency
5 where he already was, and if the Secretary wanted to 6 appoint him for a position, he would have done it.
7 Q Directing your attention to the Springfield,
8 Massachusetts allocation, the first one on the list for
9 100 units.

10 A Yes.
11 Q Do you recall who the consultant was that was

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
12 lobbying for those units?
13 A No. Not off the top of my head.
14 Q Do you recall an individual testifying about - 15 testifying about an individual previously by the name of 16 Joseph Strauss?
17 A Yes.
18 Q And does that refresh your recollection as to who 19 the developer was?
20 A I did not know Joseph Strauss was involved in that
2 project until the Inspector General's report came out

2 many years later. I mean if Mr. -- After the Puerto
2 Rico problem Secretary Pierce made it very clear to me
2 that he did not want Mr. Strauss involved in any project
2 that had to do with discretionary funding. That was 2445

1 very clear.
2 Q Was that - why?
3 A Well, Mr. Strauss had overreacted to Secretary
4 Pierce's good judgment in bringing back those units and 5 readvertising them and he had then sued the Secretary or 6 attempted to sue the Secretary and the suit of the 7 Secretary claimed that the Secretary had made this award
8 to Mr. Strauss project specific which of course would 9 not have been within the regulations. I mean it was 10 somewhat fractious - it was a silly lawsuit, but it
11 certainly did anger the Secretary, and the Secretary was 12 angered that someone who had been a Special Assistant to 13 him would have put him in the position of having 14 appeared to have made a decision that was not
15 appropriate.
16 THE COURT: We need to take a break.
17 MR. WEHNER: Yes, Your Honor.
18 THE COURT: All right, we'll take our morning
19 recess at this time, ladies and gentlemen. We'll make 20 it a little under 15 minutes and we'll be back for our
2 next section before lunch.
2 Remember the admonition to not talk about the
2 case.
2 Thank you.
2 All right.

2446

1 (Recess from 11:10 a.m. to 11:37 a.m.)
2 THE COURT: All right, we had a little longer break
3 than I anticipated with some other matters in chambers. We're 4 ready to go now.
5 MR. WEHNER: Judge, what time would you like me to 6 break?
THE COURT: 12:15 or so.
8 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.
9 THE COURT: whatever is good for you.
10 (Jury in.)
11 THE COURT: All right, we're ready to resume.
12 BY MR. WEHNER:
13 Q. Ms. Dean, you testified yesterday that you had not been 14 aware in 1985 as to the amount of money various consultants may 15 have been making as a result of the Moderate Rehabilitation
16 Program. Do you recall that testimony?

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

17 A. Well, I, I mean, I knew that some people -I knew Joe
18 Strauss was making money as a consultant. I mean, I don't 19 remember who I knew or didn't know were consultants.
20 Q. Well, why don't you recall as best you can and tell us when 21 you first learned that, that these people were making
22 considerable amounts of money.
23 A. Well, see, that's my problem is who are "these people"?
24 Q. Any people.
25 A. I learned that Joe Strauss had said that he could sell those

2447

1 units when that Puerto Rico issue came up, and I don't remember
2 anybody being connected with Durham Hosiery Mill, and I, I know
3 that Janet Hale had mentioned Ed Brooke to me, and I remember
4 that I did not know whether or not he represented them or he was,
5 or he was interceding for them as a politician. I just didn't
6 know.
7 So at that point, I did not know about Senator Brooke,
8 for instance, but I learned later that Senator Brooke was 9 attorney/consultant.
10 Q. Directing your attention to the time of May 22, 1986, at 11 that point, were you aware that significant amounts of money were 12 being paid to private individuals?
13 A. No. I mean, I knew that there were people who were being 14 paid, but I did not know how much they were being paid. I mean, 15 I never discussed with anybody how much they were paid for 16 anything or if they were being paid.
17 And sometimes it's very confusing. I don't know if a
18 lawyer brings in a client, is he charging a lawyerly fee for so
19 much an hour, or is he charging by -- I just don't know. I
20 wouldn't have a clue as to how people do that or how they arrange
21 it or work it out.
22 Q. Did you have discussions at HUD regarding what you should 23 find out or what you should know or what the state of your 24 knowledge should be -
25 A. Yes.

2448

1 Q. -- regarding how people were being paid?
2 A. Yes. I talked to -- Lance Wilson before he left told me
3 that it would be very inappropriate to ever have a discussion
4 with anybody about how much money they were being paid to 5 represent someone or to represent an issue in front of the 6 department, that that was, that I just should never ask that 7 question, and that made sense to me.

8 But also when we were talking -- when I was talking to 9 Secretary Pierce throughout the Puerto Rico situation, which went 10 on for a while, he also said that it was something we should 11 never address. We should never -- that should not come into our 12 thinking, because we were the government, and how much somebody

13 was being paid or wasn't being paid or whatever should not enter
14 into our decision-making process, and so we should never enter 15 into those conversations, and he didn't enter into those 16 conversations, and he made that very clear that he never did
17 that.

18 Q. With regard to Springfield, Massachusetts, in the award of 19 May 22, 1986, were you aware at that point that former Senator Ed
20 Brooke was receiving funds in relationship to the Springfield,
21 Massachusetts project?
22 A. No.
23 Q. Did you ever become aware of that?
24 A. I'm sorry, I thought you had said before we broke that that 25 was Mr. Strauss.

1 Q. Oh, I'm sorry, I apologize. I've got Mr. Brooke in
2 Massachusetts.
3 A. Sorry.
4 Q. Sorry, Mr. Strauss.
5 A. No, I did not know that until the inspector general's report
7 came out.
8 Q. Okay. Now did you know at the time the allocation was made
9 that any consultant was involved with the project?
10 A. With Springfield, Massachusetts?

11 Q. Yes.
12 A. No. I mean, if, if I had known that Joseph Strauss was 13 involved with Springfield, Massachusetts, I would have told that 14 to Secretary Pierce immediately because of his former instruction
15 that he did not want discretionary monies to go anywhere near 16 Joseph Strauss. So that would have been something I would have 17 wanted to know, and it would have been something that Secretary
18 Pierce would have wanted to know.
19 But I was not told of that, and I don't believe
20 Secretary Pierce knows that. As a matter of fact, Springfield,
21 Massachusetts, is the hometown of Congressman Boland.
22 Q. Yes.
23 A. And I do not, I would not be surprised if there were some 24 communication from Congressman Boland as well about that.
25 Normally things did not go to Springfield, Massachusetts, without 26 his intervention of some kind.

2450

1 Q. You're not sure?
2 A. I'm not sure at all, no. I don't remember.
3 Q. Directing your attention to the second project of the list,
4 which is the Maryland DCA 312 units, do you recall yesterday
5 discussing a series of meetings that took place between former 6 Secretary of the Interior James Watt, you, Mr. Strauss, and the
7 secretary?
8 A. No, Mr. Strauss was not at that meeting.
9 Q. Okay. I did not mean to suggest he was at the meeting --

10 A. Sorry.
11 Q. -- but that there were discussions involving those 12 individuals.
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. Okay. Directing your attention to those discussions and the 15 312-unit designation to Baltimore --

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

16 A. Maryland DCA.

17 Q. I'm sorry, Maryland DCA.

18 A. Right.

19 Q. At the time of that allocation, were you aware of James 20 Watt's involvement in that allocation?

21 A. Yes. I was in Secretary Pierce's office when he received a 22 phone call from James Watt regarding Maryland units, 312 units in 23 Maryland.

24 Q. And what did you overhear the secretary say during the 25 telephone conversation?

2451

1 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: All right, I'll sustain the objection.

3 BY MR. WEHNER:

4 Q. As a result of your hearing that telephone conversation,
5 what did you understand Secretary Watt's involvement to be in the
6 312 units?

7 A. I understood that he was a consultant on that project.

8 Q. Directing your attention to Dean Exhibit 580, I ask you if 9 this purports to be a letter from James G. Watt to Samuel R.

10 Pierce, signed by James G. Watt, regarding 312 units?

11 A. Yes.

12 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I'll move the admission of
13 Dean Exhibit 580.

14 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: All right, 580 is admitted.

16 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 580 was
17 received in evidence.)

18 BY MR. WEHNER:

19 Q. Ms. Dean, would you please read that letter?

20 A. "Dear Sam:

21 "Thanks. You are a man of your word. Silvio has 22 carried out the necessary paperwork to give the County of 23 Baltimore 312 units of Section 8 mod rehab units. This is as we 24 discussed and will make an excellent project for all concerned.
25 "Leilani and I have made our move. The whole scene is 2452

1 marvelous. We look forward to the time you and Barbara can visit
2 us in our new home in Jackson Hole.

3 "Sincerely yours, James Watt."

4 Q. Ms. Dean, are those the same 312 units that were sent to 5 Baltimore DCA with the funding documents reflecting the funding
6 on May 22, 1986?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. What was your understanding as to the relationship between 9 the pull-back of the Puerto Rican 300 units and these 300 units

10 to Baltimore?

11 A. Secretary Watt had pushed Secretary Pierce very hard about 12 the Puerto Rico project, and he had made things very difficult, 13 and he was continuing to pressure and pressure the secretary, and 14 at the end of the meeting on Puerto Rico, he said, "Well, maybe 15 I'll call you back some day, and you can make it up to me."

16 And a year-and-a-half later, he called, and I happened
17 to be in the office with Secretary Pierce when he called, and the 18 secretary said, "The son-of-a-bitch called back." And he

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
19 couldn't believe, he couldn't believe that kind of pressure was 20 being placed on him, and he thought it was inappropriate.
21 Q. Those units were ultimately funded?
22 A. Yeah.
23 Q. Ms. Dean, with respect to the 30 units next on the list to 24 Philadelphia, Pennsylvania?
25 A. Philadelphia, Beaver County, Pittsburgh, Allegheny were all

2453

1 sent as a request from Senator Heinz, and I think I said
2 yesterday that Secretary Pierce and I had met with Senator Heinz
3 about some legislation that was up in front of the Banking
4 Committee on the fair housing amendments, and at that time,
5 Senator Heinz had requested -- there are not a lot there, 45, 60,
6 it's roughly 100 units.
7 And then through the regional office, we identified
8 which, where they should go in the State of Pennsylvania, and the 9 regional office worked with Senator Heinz's office and more than 10 likely also Senator Specter's office and decided on the four PHAS
11 that the regional office felt could best handle the units. So 12 those were the four localities they went to.
13 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, with the Court's permission,
14 I'll move the introduction of Dean Exhibits 585, 584, 582, and 15 581, which are funding documents for those four projects.
16 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.
17 THE COURT: All right. I thought that 584 had been 18 previously admitted.
19 MR. WEHNER: Judge, it probably had been with respect
20 to another funding.
2 THE COURT: Yes.
2 MR. WEHNER: And I have a duplicate for the funding, so
2 I think you're probably correct. This was a, includes
2 Philadelphia Housing Authority as well as Roanoke Redevelopment
2 Housing Authority, so it may have been admitted under Roanoke.

2454

1 THE COURT: All right. No objection, 584, 582, and 581
2 will be admitted. 585, I believe, has been previously
admitted -
I'm sorry, 585 will be admitted. 584, I think, had 4 been previously admitted. They'll be admitted. All right, those 5 were all admitted.
6 (Defendant's Exhibit Nos. 581, 582, and
7 585 were received in evidence.)
8 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I'll also move the admission
9 of the funding document, Dean Exhibit 588. It's dated May 22,
10 1986.
11 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.
12 THE COURT: All right, 588 will be admitted.
13 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 588 was
14 received in evidence.)
15 BY MR. WEHNER:
16 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, we'll come back to the Prince George's County
17 project.
18 A. You skipped over Roanoke and D.C.
19 Q. Do you have any recollection of the Roanoke and D.C.
20 fundings?
2 A. I have no recollection of anything from the office of the 2 secretary's standpoint on Roanoke, so that came up from
2 Mr. DeBartolomeis.
2 Q. And concerning the District of Columbia?
2 A. Charlene Drew-Jarvis had asked to see the secretary, and he asked me to meet with her, and she had discussed an allocation

2455

2 for the District of Columbia for I believe it was 200, but the 3 Washington, D.C. field office had use for 185, so 185 went.

4 Q. Now back to Prince George's County, Maryland. Do you have a
5 recollection regarding the Georgia RFA funding for 50 units?

6 A. I don't have any independent recollection of it. That had
7 to have come from Mr. DeBartolomeis, also. I remember the ones
8 that came from the office of the secretary.

9 Q. Okay, with regard to Shreveport, Louisiana, do you have any 10 specific recollection as to your knowledge of when that was 11 funded?

12 A. Both Shreveport and Lake Charles were done, I believe,
13 Shreveport, I remember Shreveport was Congressman Henson Moore,
14 and Lake Charles, Louisiana, both of them had come up from, I
15 remember, the director of New Orleans' office, and his name was 16 Richard Franco was the director, and I remember him, because we 17 had done a fair housing campaign in New Orleans, and I had gotten 18 to know him well because of that, and he had sent those up.
19 But we had also received phone calls from Congressman
20 Moore on Shreveport, and Lake Charles might have been either
21 Congressman Breaux or Congressman Moore, but I definitely know
22 there was a congressional interest in Lake Charles. I just don't 23 remember which of those two it was.

24 Q. Let me show you what I've marked for identification as Dean
25 Exhibit 590, which purports to be a letter to Honorable Samuel R.

2456

1 Pierce from Bennett Johnston regarding 150 land units from the
2 Shreveport Landmark Rehabilitation Project, Inc. Do you
3 recognize this document?

4 A. Um-hum. Yes, Senator Bennett Johnston is a senator from 5 Louisiana, and he would have written in support of the project.

6 Q. And did he - was a carbon copy of that letter sent to you?

7 A. And it was sent to me and Richard Franco, yes.

8 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission, I'll move
9 into evidence Dean Exhibit 589, which is the funding document for 10 Shreveport and Lake Charles, and also Dean Exhibit 590, which is 11 the letter I've just described.

12 MR. O'NEILL: I haven't seen 590, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right.

14 MR. WEHNER: Pardon me.

15 THE WITNESS: I believe I also spoke to Senator
16 Johnston about that, also.

17 MR. O'NEILL: Again, Your Honor, based on your earlier
18 rulings, I have no objection.

19 THE COURT: All right, we'll admit it then. It's 589
20 and 590?

21 MR. WEHNER: 589 was the funding document, Your Honor,
22 and 590 was the funding letter from Senator Johnston to Secretary
23 Pierce.

24 (Defendant's Exhibit Nos. 589 and 590
25 were received in evidence.)

2457

BY MR. WEHNER:

2 Q. Ms. Dean, would you read, if you can

3 A. No.

4 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, with the Court's permission,

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

5 can I read the first paragraph?

6 THE COURT: All right, go ahead. It's in evidence.

7 MR. WEHNER: "Dear Mr. Secretary:

8 "I am writing in follow-up to the letter of January 22,

9 1986, addressed to the general deputy assistant secretary for

10 Housing, which I signed along with Representative Buddy Roemer

11 and Senator Russell Long, concerning the application submitted by

12 the Shreveport Housing Authority for 150 Section 8 moderate

13 rehabilitation units for the Shreveport Landmark Rehabilitation

14 Project, Inc."

15 That's the first paragraph. With the Court's

16 permission, I'll just read the last sentence: "With thanks for

17 your attention to this request, I am sincerely, J. Bennett

18 Johnston, United States Senator."

19 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, with regard to Lake Charles, Louisiana, do

20 you have any specific recollections of what you knew at that time

21 regarding that funding application?

22 A. Well, not after my recollection was so bad on Shreveport. I

23 think maybe Lake Charles was for Henson Moore. I definitely

24 remember Henson Moore being a part of one of those fundings. I

25 just don't remember which one.

2458

1 Q. With regard to Omaha, Nebraska, 120 units, do you have a
2 recollection that Senator David Carnes was involved in that 3 allocation?

4 A. No, I don't think that Senator Carnes was involved at this

5 point. My memory is that this Omaha, Nebraska 120 units,

6 although it might have been supported by Senator Carnes, and I

7 don't know about that, but my recollection of that 120 units is

8 that Dubois Gilliam, who was an employee of the department, had

9 spoken to the secretary about Omaha, Nebraska, and about them

10 receiving units. I remember Mr. Gilliam told me he had spoken to 11 the secretary.

12 Q. Directing your attention to Ogden, do you have a 13 recollection of a consultant by the name of Judith Siegal being

14 involved in that project?

15 A. No, because Judith Siegal was Mr. Strauss' partner, and I

16 would have -- that would have stood out, once again, if I had had 17 any knowledge of their involvement.

18 Q. And again, I'm talking about your knowledge at the time of 19 the funding.

20 A. At the time of the funding, absolutely not.

21 Q. With regard to 84 units to Salt Lake City, Utah, do you have

22 a recollection of a developer by the name of Cook and a

23 Mr. Joseph Queenan being involved in that project?

24 A. No, I did not at that time, and I do not know who 25 Mr. Queenan was at this time, and it wasn't mentioned to me, and

2459

1 I did not mention it to the secretary.

2 Q. With regard to Colorado Housing Finance Agency and the 3 Clayfield Apartments for 79 units, did you know at the time that

4 Mr. Queenan was involved in that project?

5 A. No, I did not.

6 Q. Let me show you what I've marked for identification as Dean

7 Exhibit 595. It purports to be a letter to Mr. Silvio

8 DeBartolomeis from David W. Herlinger, Executive Director of the 9 Colorado Housing Authority.

10 A. Yes.
11 Q. Have you seen that letter before?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. Okay. And under what circumstances did you see it?
14 A. I gave it to you.
15 Q. No, no, under what circumstances did you first see it?
16 A. I saw this when the Independent Counsel gave us documents to 17 look at to prepare for this case.
18 Q. Are you familiar with the way that letters of this type are 19 kept at the Office of Housing and Urban Development?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. Okay. Ms. Dean, with respect to San Diego, California, 150
22 units, are you familiar that Mr. Tim Coyle was involved in that
23 project?
24 A. No, I'm not, and I wasn't at the time.
25 Q. Do you know who Tim Coyle is or was?

2460

1 A. Yes. He, Mr. Coyle was a HUD employee working at HUD at the
2 time, and, and I don't believe that he has any involvement in 3 this project. I mean, I don't think he owns it. I don't want to 4 leave an impression of that. I was not aware that he had any 5 interest in it then and --
6 Q. Was he from San Diego?
7 A. I believe so, yes.
8 Q. With respect to the Reno, Nevada funding for 100 units, did 9 you have knowledge at the time as to if any consultants were

10 involved in that project?
11 A. I'm a little confused between Reno and Clark County, Nevada.
12 Consultants, no. I mean, I knew who the developers were of one
13 of those projects.
14 Q. Let me show you what I've marked for identification as Dean
15 Exhibit 597 -- it's also a government exhibit -- and ask you if 16 this refreshes your recollection regarding your knowledge of the 17 events surrounding the Clark County project?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. And what is now your recollection?
20 A. The Clark County, Nevada project was a project for Philip 21 Abrams. He was a former federal housing commissioner and former 22 under secretary of HUD. He wrote me a letter telling me that 23 Clark County -- well, it's, let me see exactly what he told me.
24 He must have called me, also, because this is a follow-up to the 25 phone conversation, and basically he's letting me know that they

2461

1 have an application in for more than what they need, but what
2 they need is 160 units. He breaks it down in the bedroom
3 configuration, and that's it. Of course, there is also an 4 application from the housing authority and everything else.
5 And there was also, there was a lot of Congressional 6 phone calls from, on both Reno and Clark County. I know that 7 Senator Hecht called on one, and Senator Laxalt called on the 8 other. I just don't remember which one called on which project,
9 but I know they both spoke to Secretary Pierce personally.
10 Q. Let me show you what I've marked for identification as Dean
11 Exhibit 598, which purports to be a letter to D. Dean from T.C.
12 with regard to Senator Hecht, and ask if you recognize that?

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

13 A. Yes. This was a note that was written to me during a 14 Congressional hearing, I believe, when the secretary was 15 testifying, and that's why it's written so large. I mean, that's 16 my, that's my memory is that it was written -- these letters were 17 real big so that it could be put in front of me and I would see
18 it.

19 I believe that -20

MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, at this time, I'll move its 21 introduction into evidence. It's Dean Exhibit 598.

22 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, on the same grounds.

23 THE COURT: Do you have a date or anything like that 24 when this occurred?

25 MR. WEHNER: October 15, Your Honor. There is no date

2462

1 apparent on the face of the document, no date written on the face
2 of the document.

3 THE COURT: Ms. Dean, do you have a recollection when 4 that would have been?

5 THE WITNESS: Absolutely not, no. It was certainly not
6 unusual for Senator Hecht to request moderate rehabilitation
7 units, and it certainly was not unusual for Senator Laxalt to 8 request moderate rehabilitation units. They did it more than 9 once. So this may or may not relate to this funding. It
10 probably doesn't because of the date.

11 BY MR. WEHNER:

12 Q. It does, however, relate to mod rehab units generally?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Requested by Senator Hecht?

15 A. And Senator Hecht called either regarding Reno or Clark
16 County, and Senator Laxalt called on the other one. And then 17 there were some Congressional calls as well on Clark County.
18 Mr. Abrams was always very certain that whenever he had 19 a project in front of the department, that all the Congressional 20 people called in support of it as well.

21 THE COURT: Do you know who the note is from?

22 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry?

23 THE COURT: Do you know who the note is from?

24 THE WITNESS: "T.C." is, I assume, Tom Casey. It's his 25 handwriting. Tom Casey.

2463

1 THE COURT: And he was with the federal housing
2 commissioner's office?

THE WITNESS: Yes. He was the executive assistant to 4 Janet Hale, and -- now this may have been before this, so that's 5 possible. I think after Janet Hale left, Mr. Casey remained in 6 that office, but there wasn't a federal housing commissioner.
7 But he remained there awaiting a federal housing commissioner.
8 At that time, we were trying to get one confirmed and into the 9 department as quickly as possible.

10 THE COURT: All right, I'll admit it based upon my 11 earlier ruling.

12 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 598 was
13 received in evidence.)

14 BY MR. WEHNER:

15 Q. Ms. Dean, would you read this to the jury, please?

16 A. "D. Dean: Senator Hecht will likely raise a matter
17 involving a request for MR" -- mod rehab. "This request was made
18 late in September and without any groundwork having been laid.
19 Constituent was advised to package a pros -- p-r-o-s. Talk to

2 Q I direct your attention to Dean Exhibit 602 and ask

2466

1 you to -- which purports to be a letter dated April
2 23rd, 1985 with a letter to Secretary Pierce from 3 Herbert E. Ellingwood and ask you if you recognize that?
4 A Well, I've seen it before, yes, but I never saw it
5 at the time.

6 Q Okay. When did you -- and how did you see it for 7 the first time?

8 A It was produced by the Independent Counsel in 9 discovery.

10 Q Is it a letter to Secretary Pierce?

11 A Yes, it is.

12 Q And what does it relate to?

13 A It relates to an enclosed letter.

14 Q I'm going to show you what I've marked for 15 identification as 603 and ask you if that is the letter
16 that it relates to, I'm sorry, that relates to 602?

17 A Well, it appears to, yes. I mean it's stamped in 18 subsequent numbers and the dates are relatively -- and 19 it's to Mr. Ellingwood, yes, so I would say it does 20 relate, yes.

2 Q And how are those marked received?

2 A The cover note was received into the Executive
2 Secretariat April 24th, 11:50 a.m., 1985.

2 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I'll move Dean
2 Exhibits 602 and 603.

2467

1 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, for the reasons
2 previously stated, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: All right, with the reasons of 4 course given earlier I will admit 602 and 603.

5 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Defendant's Exhibits 602,
6 603 marked for identification and received in evidence.

7 (Defendant's Exhibits 602 and 603
8 marked for Identification and
9 received into Evidence)

10 BY MR. WEHNER:
11 Q Miss Dean who was Herbert E. Ellingwood?

12 A I don't know.

13 Q Directing your attention to -- I'll try to 14 pronounce this correctly, the County of Clackamas?

15 A Yes, Clackamas.

16 Q Clackamas? Are you aware of any consultants being 17 involved in that funding?

18 A No, both Clackamas and Longview, Washington, the 19 last project on the list, were as a result of telephone
20 conversations with the Regional Administrator in Region
2 10. They had been -- they'd been sent in from Region
2 10.

2 Q And did you have those conversations with the 2 Regional Administrator?

2 A Yes, I did.

2468

1 Q What did you say to the regional administrator?

2 First of all, do you remember the name of the regional

3 administrator?

4 A His name is William Nishimura.

5 Q Can you spell that?

6 A N-i-s-h-i-m-u-r-a.

7 Q And what did you say to Mr. Nishimura during the 8 telephone conversations?

9 A Well, this particular time I believe I spoke with 10 each of the Regional Administrators, and had asked them

11 were there projects in their specific regions that they 12 were particularly supporting. We were – we wanted
13 their input into the funding rounds at this particular 14 point in history. And I spoke to Mr. Nishimura, and 15 Mr. Nishimura had those two projects and we were 16 interested at that time, Secretary Pierce wanted a more
17 national scope. He wanted some to go down to Louisiana, 18 out to Oregon, as opposed to being concentrated in 19 certain areas.

20 THE COURT: When you say those two projects,
2 for the record, will you identify them please?

2 THE WITNESS: Clackamas County, Oregon and 2 Longview, Washington.

2 BY MR. WEHNER:

2 Q Now, Miss Dean, you testified concerning a May 2469

1 22nd, 1986 funding decision, and Mr. DeBartolomeis was

2 Acting Housing Commissioner at that time?

3 A Yes, he was.

4 Q Would you describe your relationship to

5 Mr. DeBartolomeis at that time and Secretary Pierce's

6 relationship to Mr. DeBartolomeis at that time?

7 A You mean a personal relationship?

8 Q Professional relationship.

9 A Yes. I did not have a personal relationship with 10 Mr. DeBartolomeis at this time. He was the Deputy -- he 11 had been head of Multi-family Housing and was now the 12 General Deputy Assistant Secretary, Acting Federal 13 Housing Commissioner, and I was the Executive Assistant,
14 and Secretary Pierce was the Secretary.

15 Q What were your respective roles in the May 22nd,
16 '86 funding?

17 A I'm sorry. Well, Mr. DeBartolomeis was in charge
18 of running the program and making certain that these 19 were good projects and that they met all the criteria, 20 et cetera, et cetera, and he was in charge of bringing
2 forth recommendations and checking out any preferences

2 that Secretary Pierce might have, and making certain
2 that they were all right to go forward. So that was his
2 role, and my role which was why I remember actually more
2 the Congressional input, was because that was really

2470

1 more -- I sort of fielded a lot of those phone calls and

2 letters, and so that's what I remember more than

3 anything else.

4 I'm certain that another person might remember

5 more about the Housing Authority or more about the 6 needs. I remember more about the other input that came

7 in through the Secretary or through outside sources, and

8 the Secretary's role at this particular time was what

9 does Silvio's list look like, has everything that I
10 asked to be taken care of been taken care of and checked
11 out.

12 What do you know or understand about any of 13 these projects in specific. Do you have any information
14 that I should know about any of these fundings, and if 15 there's nothing of significance or nothing, then it's 16 all right to move ahead and have them funded.

17 I remember that on May 22nd there was also 18 some sort of a moratorium on spending that was lifted on 19 May 22nd and that's why the units went out, all went out

20 at that time.

2 Q I believe previously admitted into evidence was

2 Dean Exhibit 597 which was a letter dated 5-10-86 from 2 Mr. Philip Abrams.

2 A Yes.

2 Q Do you recall that letter?

2471

1 A Yes, I do.

2 Q Did you have a discussion concerning that letter
3 with Secretary Pierce?

4 A Yes.

5 Q What did you say to Secretary Pierce?

6 A I told him that I had received a phone call from 7 Mr. Abrams and that I had received a note from 8 Mr. Abrams regarding Clark County, Nevada, and 9 Mr. Abrams was requesting 160 units, and Secretary
10 Pierce said that he thought that that was an appropriate 11 request and that it was all right to fund it, if the 12 project checked out from Silvio's office.

13 Q Now, this lists approximately 25 different cities
14 for funding. Did you consider other projects at that 15 point in May of 1986?

16 A Yes, Mr. DeBartolomeis had other projects that he 17 wanted to fund that - but the decision was made to fund
18 this certain amount of money at that time. We were 19 expecting a new Federal Housing Commissioner shortly and 20 Secretary Pierce didn't want to commit any more than 21 this amount of money before the new Federal Housing
22 Commissioner arrived.

23 Q Now, who were these decisions made in consultation
24 with?

25 A Mr. DeBartolomeis?

2472

1 Q With anyone.

2 A Well, Mr. DeBartolomeis had a list -- he had
3 projects that he thought were appropriate to be funded
4 and there were also ones that came down from the office
5 of the Secretary like the Maryland one and the ones from 6 Senator Heinz and the District of Columbia and the two 7 in Louisiana and Nebraska. And Clark County. There's 8 not - I don't want to deny that there wasn't some 9 participation from the office of the Secretary. Those

10 had gone to Mr. DeBartolomeis from the office of the 11 Secretary and those were to have been checked out and 12 reviewed by him.

13 Now, of course the region had already checked
14 out the ones for Senator Heinz, and Mr. Nishimura had 15 already done the ones for Clackamas and Longview, but 16 the other ones, he was supposed to make certain they 17 were good PHA's and how the PHA's had been rated or 18 ranked, whatever. To make certain that these were not 19 going to the wrong place, that they would do a good job
20 if they got the money.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 Q Now, did you have any reason to believe during your 2 consultations regarding these projects, during your
2 involvement with those projects, that any of them were
2 inappropriate or unlawful or otherwise improper awards?
2 A No, that was Mr. DeBartolomeis' position. That was 2473

1 his role to make certain that those projects that -- you
2 know, the sign-off to be funded were appropriate, good
3 projects. That was his job.

4 Q And do you have any reason to believe that 5 Secretary Pierce knew that any of these were bad or 6 unlawful or not appropriate projects?

7 A Absolutely he thought that every one of them was 8 absolutely on line. He wouldn't have funded them if he 9 had thought anything else.

10 Q Now, directing your attention to the time period
11 after May 22nd, 1986. Did you learn, come to learn 12 anything about consultants' roles in the funding of 13 those projects afterwards, that you did not know at the 14 time they were funded?

15 A Yes.
16 Q Would you describe what you learned and how you
17 learned it? Without talking about what someone may have 18 said to you. Just your understanding what you learned.

19 A That's hard.

20 Q Yes.
2 A Secretary Pierce received information that several 2 projects that had been funded in this round had 2 connections to the Winn group, to Phil Winn in some 2 way. And we didn't know which ones, but that there was 2 some connection and because -- 2474

1 Q Who was Philip Winn?
2 A Philip Winn was the former Federal Housing
Page 1386

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
3 Commissioner who had gone back to Colorado, I believe,
4 to run for Governor, and he testified here. That's the 5 older man, thin. That's Mr. Winn.
6 Q Okay.
7 A And -
8 Q Continue.
9 A He went back and went back into his business which 10 was real estate, and Mr. Abrams was Mr. Winn's partner, 11 and when Mr. Abrams sent in a letter for the 160 and 12 knew that Secretary Pierce would know this was from 13 Mr. Abrams for Mr. Abrams or Mr. Winn not to have also 14 informed the secretary that they had other projects in 15 was not right, that was wrong. And when Secretary
16 Pierce got information that the Winn group might have 17 been involved in other projects without informing him,
18 he was not happy about that, and he was not happy that I
19 didn't know it.
20 Q Did you have a discussion with him about his
2 unhappiness with that state of affairs?
2 A Yes, he was actually much more unhappy with 2 Mr. DeBartolomeis because there really -I really
2 couldn't check into everything that Mr. DeBartolomeis
2 brought up to the office. So we obviously -- Mr. -

2475

1 Secretary Pierce at that time basically told me that he
2 felt he could no longer trust Mr. DeBartolomeis because 3 Mr. DeBartolomeis' ties to Mr. Winn and Mr. Abrams were 4 too strong, and I just couldn't trust him, and from now
5 on keep an eye on everything that Mr. DeBartolomeis does
6 and --

7 Q After that event occurred, what was your under-
8 standing of what you were supposed to do, specifically
9 with regards to Mod Rehab and Mr. DeBartolomeis?
10 A Secretary Pierce said that what he thought should 11 happen would be that there should be a committee of 12 people and that he would like certain people to sit on 13 this committee. And he thought that the Undersecretary
14 should be on the committee and that the Executive

15 Assistant, whoever was the Executive Assistant, should
Page 1387

16 be on the committee, and the Federal Housing

17 Commissioner.

18 well, we didn't have an Undersecretary. If 19 there was no Undersecretary then he thought maybe the 20 general counsel but at that particular time we were in
2 flux on a general counsel as well and I was a little
2 confused as to who I was supposed to set this committee
2 up with because we didn't have people in the building at 2 the time, but I knew that's what he wanted to do.
2 He wanted to have a committee of people to 2476

1 review the decisions by the Federal Housing

2 Commissioners because now he had had several instances

3 of the Housing Commissioners doing things that he did

4 not know about before they did them and he was getting

5 very concerned about people's motivations and it was

6 becoming very apparent that -- you see, this idea that

7 the Commissioners were supposed to bring these things

8 up, disclose everything, and then get an okay from the 9 secretary was really an honor system and if they didn't

10 honor it, if they didn't tell you what they knew or

11 they, you know, they could fund things without telling

12 you. They had the ability to do that.

13 That's the way the signature authority

14 worked. They didn't require the Secretary's signature.

15 It just required their doing it, and there was a trust
16 policy, and the Secretary was getting less and less
17 feeling that he could trust them.

18 So he wanted to set up this committee but, as

19 I said, the people were moving in and out and we were 20 waiting for a Federal Housing Commissioner and we were
2 hoping that there would not -- we would not have to

2 spend any more money in this program until an Assistant
2 Secretary had been named and confirmed by the Senate and

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 the Secretary had a chance to tell him exactly the way
2 he wanted him to run the program.

2477

1 Q One of the projects that we did not spend very much
2 time discussing was the Foxglenn project in Prince
3 Georges County, Maryland.

4 A Right.

5 Q And I'd like to direct your attention specifically
6 to that project.

7 I'm going to show you what I've marked for
8 identification as Dean Exhibits 263, 266, 269, 268, 272,
9 and 270.

10 Now, by only referring to the documents to the 11 extent you need to, to refresh your recollection, would 12 you describe to the jury what occurred with regard to 13 the Foxglenn project?

14 A I don't understand your question.

15 Q How it came to be funded.

16 A Apparently -- I know what most of these are. All
17 right. Well, apparently the Housing Authority,
18 Department of Housing and Community Development for 19 Prince Georges County dealt directly with someone in HUD
20 Central and someone at HUD apparently told the Housing
2 Authority that they wanted the Housing Authority to work

2 with Altman Properties and to work specifically on the 2 Foxglenn Apartments.

2 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, I don't mind some
2 hearsay but this is --

2478

1 THE COURT: All right. I'll sustain the
2 objection the way that answer has been given and strike
3 it because it's all theory about what someone may have
4 said.

5 BY MR. WEHNER:

6 Q Miss Dean, I'm going to direct your attention --

7 A I'm sorry.

8 Q We'll go through it slowly.

9 Miss Dean, I'm going to direct your attention

10 to Dean Exhibit 263 and ask if you can identify that?
11 A Yes, it is a letter that the Independent Counsel
12 produced to us and it is a letter from Israel Roizman,
13 Vice-President of Altman Realty, to Andrew Sankin,
14 regarding Foxglenn Apartments.
15 Q Okay. Directing your attention to Dean Exhibit
16 266, what is that?
17 A It is a letter from Major Riddick, Jr., Executive 18 Director of the Housing Authority, to Richard Manuel, 19 Director of Housing Development Division of HUD in the 20 Washington, D. C. Area Office.
2 Q And what is the date of that letter?
2 A May 19, 1986.
2 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission, I'll
2 move the introduction of Dean Exhibit 266.
2 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.

2479

1 THE COURT: Approach.
2 (Bench conference)
3 THE COURT: Can I see that letter, please?
4 Okay. And the objection is that this is not a HUD
5 document.
6 MR. O'NEILL: well, for one thing. For 7 another, it's not signed. I assume maybe there's a
8 signed copy. I don't know. I would have to check that 9 out.
10 MR. WEHNER: It was signed and dispatched.
11 MR. O'NEILL: It's printed signed and 12 dispatched, just for the record.
13 MR. WEHNER: That's true.
14 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, I don't want to be 15 in a position to object to hearsay.
16 THE COURT: I understand.
17 MR. O'NEILL: But there are innumerable 18 hearsay statements coming in orally and then getting 19 into the document. I don't want to get up all the time.
20 If Your Honor wants to note the Government's -2
THE COURT: I understand. This is a letter
2 from apparently, she said, the Executive Director of
2 P.G. County Housing Authority to HUD Washington Office
2 saying that the local Housing Authority approved the
2 developer, contingent apparently on getting housing

2480

1 assistance from HUD. You want to put this in as a HUD
2 record?
3 MR. WEHNER: Yes, it's the only basis I have
4 to put it in on, at this point, through this witness.
5 THE COURT: well, if he's objecting, I'll
6 sustain it. This is a little different than the other
7 one. This is from another person outside talking about 8 other matters, not in the normal course of business
9 inside the HUD offices.
10 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir, I can't get that from 11 this witness, thank you.
12 (Bench conference concluded)
13 THE COURT: All right.
14 BY MR. WEHNER:.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

15 Q Miss Dean, I direct your attention to Dean Exhibit
16 269 which purports to be a memo on HUD – United States
17 Department of Housing and Urban Development, Office of 18 Housing, from Silvio J. DeBartolomeis, General Deputy 19 Assistant Secretary for Housing, Federal Housing
20 Commissioner, dated July 28, 1986. Do you recognize the 2 handwriting?
2 A Yes.
2 Q Are you aware as to what it refers?
2 A Yes.
2 Q To what does it refer? what project did it refer

2481

1 to?
2 A It refers to a request being made by the Regional
3 Administrator regarding Foxglenn.
4 MR. WERNER: I'll move the admission of Dean
5 Exhibit 269, Your Honor.
6 MR. O'NEILL: Just one quick voir dire, Your
7 Honor.
8 THE COURT: Yes.
9 BY MR. O'NEILL:
10 Q Miss Dean, does that relate to the funding of the 11 Mod Rehab or subsequent waiver?
12 A I believe it is subsequent funding.
13 Q For a waiver or for a particular amount of units?
14 A The one that's attached to it says that it is for 15 subsequent funding.
16 MR. O'NEILL: Nothing further, Your Honor. No
17 objection.
18 THE COURT: All right. 269 is admitted. 266
19 was not admitted.
20 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Defendant's Exhibit 269
21 marked for identification and received in evidence.
22 (Defendant's Exhibit 269 marked for
23 Identification and received into
24 Evidence)
25 BY MR. WEHNER:

2482

1 Q Miss Dean, your testimony was that this refers to
2 the Foxglenn funding?
3 A Yes.
4 Q Okay. would you read it?
5 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, that's what the voir
6 dire was about.
7 MR. WEHNER: And she testified it was the
8 funding.
9 MR. O'NEILL: Subsequent funding.
10 THE COURT: All right. The answer was 11 subsequent funding. I'll allow it.
12 MR. WEHNER: Very well, Your Honor, subsequent 13 funding.
14 A Yes.
15 Q would you read this, please?
16 THE COURT: It's not on the screen. The 17 screen is not on.
18 MR. WEHNER: Sorry, Judge.
19 BY MR. WEHNER:
20 Q Let's make sure the jurors have them.
2 A I'm sorry. It's to Larry Goldberger, who was the 2 head of the division over – that oversaw the Mod Rehab
Page 1391

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 office that Miss Hastings, who testified, that she
2 runs. He's the head of that. Over that. So it's Larry
2 Goldberger. "This appears to be a most unusual case.

2483

1 I'm not sure if we would normally grant such a request.
2 However, in order to prevent an assignment I believe it
3 would be appropriate for me to" --
4 Q Is that me or us?
5 A It's very hard for me to see, "for us to,"
6 something, "the requested amendment. Please review and 7 fund, if appropriate. Thanks, Silvio," and then there's 8 a courtesy copy to Pam Patenaude, and then Maddy, which 9 is Maddy Bastings and Louise Kleffner, "Please review

10 and advise me ASAP," and then I don't know whose writing
11 that is below.

12 Q Now, Miss Dean what document was attached to this?

13 A It was a memorandum from the Regional 14 Administrator, Ken Finlayson, to Mr. DeBartolomeis.

15 Q And what did it request?

16 A Well, it basically said that the money that had 17 gone for the Foxglenn project or to the Public Housing
18 Authority basically fell short of what they needed to do
19 Foxglenn. There's a lot of bureaucratise in this memo,
20 but what it breaks down to is you need to send another
2 $200,000 if you want Foxglenn done.

2 Q And is that Dean Exhibit 272?

2 A Yes.

2 Q Which is a memorandum to Silvio J. DeBartolomeis
2 dated July 22nd, 1986 from Kenneth J. Finlayson,

2484

1 Regional Administrator?

2 A Yes.

3 MR. WEHNER: I move the admission of Dean
4 Exhibit 272.

5 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Defendant's 272 is admitted.

7 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Defendant's 272 marked for
8 identification and received in evidence.

9 (Defendant's Exhibit 272 marked
10 for Identification and received
11 into Evidence)

12 BY MR. WEHNER:

13 Q And ignoring the bureaucratise, would you just 14 quickly summarize what that says?

15 A I really would have to look at it. I just looked 16 at it briefly and I -- I read it before, but I would 17 really want to be careful.

18 Q Sure. I'll bring it up.

19 A Well, it says the subject -- it really -- can I
20 just read it quickly because I think it -2

Q Yes.

2 A I'm sorry, I don't want to try to redo what it
2 says. It says, "Subject project was funded in May, 1985
2 for 172 one-bedroom units." When it says subject
2 project it means the project that the memo is about

2485

1 which is Maryland Three Nine K, and then it goes on.
2 So you know that that's the project they're referring to 3 and now that 172 units are Foxglenn, so that's -- "The 4 Prince Georges County Housing Authority's top rated
5 proposal is for the rehabilitation of a failed insured
6 project known as Kennedy Woods. The mortgage for 7 Kennedy Woods was endorsed in the fall of 1983 and was 8 scheduled for final endorsement in January, 1984."
9 And the rest basically is sort of a cover of 10 what it is he's really trying to say, which is that 11 Kennedy Woods becomes Foxglenn, but that creates

12 problems because you're not allowed to put Moderate
13 rehabilitation units on a project that has already 14 received HUD subsidy within a year.
15 The next paragraph. "HUD has been sent an 16 assignment request," which means for HUD to take over 17 the project, "which is being held in abeyance by 18 informal agreement with the mortgagee pending the 19 outcome of a proposed sale of the project to a third
20 party," and the third party is the Altman Brothers.
2 "That third party is the principal behind the
2 Authority's top ranked moderate rehabilitation
2 proposal." Foxglenn. "Unfortunately, their proposal is 2 for 58 one bedroom, 73 two bedrooms and 41 three bedroom
2 units. This bedroom distribution requires $211,032 in

2486

1 additional contract authority. We are recommending that
2 you make these additional program funds available so
3 that the proposal can be approved."
4 So what Mr. Finlayson is saying, in essence,
5 if you intended Foxglenn to be done you didn't send us
6 the right amount of money, and then Mr. DeBartolomeis is 7 saying to Mr. Goldberger, oh, this isn't about Mod
8 Rehab. This is really about an assignment. But it's 9 not. And Mr. Goldberger later writes back to 10 Mr. DeBartolomeis and I think sees through that.
11 Q I'm going to show you what purports to be a note to 12 Silvio DeBartolomeis from Larry Goldberger dated, I
13 believe, August 1, 1986 and ask if that is the response
14 you just referred to?
15 A Yes.
16 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, with the Court's
17 permission, I move the admission of Dean Exhibit 268.
18 MR. O'NEILL: No objection.
19 THE COURT: All right, Goldberger memo 268 is
20 admitted.
2 (Defendant's Exhibit 268 received
2 into Evidence)
2 BY MR. WEHNER:
2 Q Now, without reading that, if you can, can you tell
2 us what it says, in summary?

2487

1 A In essence Mr. Goldberger writes back and says that
Page 1393

2 you have a problem because Kennedy Woods is a section
3 221-D-4 project. Another category of project. And 4 therefore you can't put Mod Rehab on this project
5 because it had subsidy within a year. Unless you can
6 give a waiver. And Mr. DeBartolomeis would have to sign
7 that waiver.

8 And he then points out in the last

9 paragraph, "It is noted that since the Mod Rehab funds
10 were reserved in fiscal year '86 this is not an 11 amendment request. This is a request for new units."
12 And then he says that he doesn't think that 13 Mr. DeBartolomeis should do it because it would set a 14 precedent and he didn't believe that it was appropriate.
15 Q Now, Miss Dean, finally with regard to the Foxglenn
16 project, I'm going to show you Dean Exhibit 270 which 17 purports to be a letter to I. Margaret White, Manager, 18 United States Department of Housing and Urban 19 Development, dated December 29, 1987 from Linda G.
20 Given, Director, Department of Housing and Community
2 Development, and ask you if that letter concerns the

2 Foxglenn project?

2 A Yes, it does.

2 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I move the admission
2 of Dean Exhibit 270.

2488

1 MR. O'NEILL: Although not on a letterhead,
2 Your Honor, the Government has no objection.
3 THE COURT: All right. It's not identified as 4 a HUD letter?

5 MR. WEHNER: It's written to Miss I. Margaret 6 White, Manager, United States Department of Housing and 7 Urban Development, Washington, D. C. Field Office, 451
8 7th Street, Southwest, Washington, D. C. and it's signed
9 off - it is printed off on, not signed, by Linda G.
10 Given, Director, Department of Housing and Community
11 Development.

12 THE COURT: Who is Miss Given?

13 THE WITNESS: She's the Director of the 14 Housing Authority, apparently.

15 MR. WEHNER: Who is Miss White?

16 THE WITNESS: She was the manager of the 17 Washington, D. C. Area office.

18 THE COURT: All right, I'll overrule the 19 objection. It's admitted.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
20 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Defendant's Exhibit 270
21 marked for identification and received in evidence.
22 (Defendant's Exhibit 270 marked for
23 Identification and received into
24 Evidence)
25 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, so it's clear, I said no

2489

1 objection.

2 THE COURT: I'm sorry. It's admitted.

3 BY MR. WEHNER:

4 Q Miss Dean, this letter states in paragraph one,

5 two, three, four, five, "In the spring of 1986 the HUD

6 Central office approached the Housing Authority and

7 recommended that we work with Altman Properties to

8 rehabilitate Foxglenn. Moderate rehabilitation funding

9 would be provided by HUD expressly for this property and

10 we would issue housing revenue bonds for a HUD

11 co-insured mortgage. Altman Properties was represented

12 to us verbally and on a HUD previous participation

13 certification as experienced in this type of venture."

14 Miss Dean, were you the representative from

15 the HUD Central Office who approached the Housing

16 Authority and recommended that they work with Altman

17 Properties to rehabilitate Foxglenn?

18 A Absolutely not.

19 Q Another paragraph on page two of the letter

20 reads, "On June 16th, 1986 Mr. Riddick wrote Miss White

2 affirming that Foxglenn was our first priority project

2 for Mod Rehab and requesting additional monies. On

2 September 2nd, 1986 Mr. Riddick addressed the same

2 request to Silvio J. DeBartolomeis, General Deputy

2 Assistant Secretary for Federal Housing Commission."

2490

1 It goes on to state that that request was

2 approved by Miss white in a letter dated September 26,

3 1986. The last sentence of that letter says, "Clearly

4 at the outset of this project it was understood that HUD

5 Central wanted this project to proceed expeditiously and

6 we were pleased to comply."

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
7 were you the individual from HUD Central
8 that wanted this project to proceed expeditiously?
9 A Absolutely not.
10 Q And you were not the individual reflected with 11 regard to the additional $200,000 request for funding,
12 is that correct?
13 A No, I didn't know about it until I looked through 14 the Independent Counsel's papers.
15 Q And who was that individual?
16 A It -
Mr. DeBartolomeis.
17 MR. WEHNER: with the Court's permission, I
18 will display Dean Exhibit 61.
19 THE COURT: All right.
20 BY MR. WEHNER:
2 Q Now, Miss Dean, with respect to the 94 units funded
2 on or about September 5th, 1986, do you recall Rick
2 Davis being involved in that request?
2 A Yes, Mr. Davis worked at the White House and he did
2 call me about Waterbury, Connecticut.

2491

1 Q Did you report that to Secretary Pierce?
2 A Yes, I did.
3 Q Was the project subsequently funded?
4 A Yes.
5 Q Directing your attention to the Columbia, South
6 Carolina, do you recall receiving information on that 7 request from Congressman Quillan?
8 A Yes, and Congressman Quillan -I'm trying -- I
9 know he spoke to me and I know he spoke to other people
10 but I don't know if he spoke to the Secretary or not.
11 Q Did you report that to the Secretary?
12 A Absolutely.
13 Q Do you have any knowledge of the Northwestern
14 Housing Authority funding in terms of -
15 A Do you know what State that's in?
16 Q North Carolina.
17 A No, I don't -I don't have any recollection. I do
18 know that this particular round of funding was -- had a 19 lot of input from Regional Administrators, and so that 20 very easily could have been at the request of the 21 Regional Administrator.
22 Q You don't recall any consultant or politician
23 particularly being involved in that?
24 A Not at this time.
25 Q What about the Jefferson Community Development in 2492

1 Kentucky?
2 A Jefferson County, Kentucky?
3 Q Yes.
4 A No, I don't.
5 Q Elizabethtown, Tennessee?
6 A No, I don't.
7 Q Morristown, Tennessee?
8 A No.
9 Q And again, these are your recollections at the time

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
10 regarding involvement of any political influence or 11 consultant, and by that I don't mean to be perjorative,
12 I just mean these were requests from the Regional 13 Administrator is your best recollection?
14 A That is my best recollection, the -- yes, that's my 15 best recollection.
16 Q Directing your attention to Shreveport, Louisiana,
17 75 units. Do you recall that Senator Bennett Johnston
18 was involved in supporting that request?
19 A Not specifically, but I'm not surprised.
20 Q I show you what I've marked for identification as
2 Dean Exhibit 610 and ask you if you can identify that?
2 A It's the -- well, actually this is the same letter
2 that you showed me before.
2 Q Okay. And it's been introduced into evidence.
2 What is it?

2493

1 A Oh, I understand -- I now understand it. This
2 letter is for 150 units, and 75 units went to Shreveport
3 in this round and I believe the other chart had 4 Shreveport for 75 as well. So they must have been split
5 funded. Some funded earlier and some funded later.
6 Q That was a total of 150 units based upon Senator
7 Johnston's request?
8 A Yes. That makes sense now.
9 Q With regard to the City of Baton Rouge, the 10 Parish -- excuse me, the Parish of East Baton Rouge,

11 Louisiana, 150 units, do you recall that there was a
12 Senate race involving a John Breaux at or about the time
13 that was funded in September, 1986?
14 A I do remember that there were requests for Baton
15 Rouge, Louisiana for soon-to-be Senator Breaux, yes.
16 Q I'm going to show you what I've marked for 17 identification as Dean Exhibit 611 which purports to be 18 a handwritten note on United States Department of 19 Housing and Urban Development stationery entitled in 20 printed letters Deborah G. Dean, Executive Assistant to 21 the Secretary, which purports to be a note dealing with 22 Louisiana, Baton Rouge, 150 units, is that correct?
23 Baton Rouge, excuse me.
24 A Yes, those are my notes of a meeting that I was 25 having at the time with Jay Stone.

2494

1 Q Who is Jay Stone?
2 A He -- well, he at one time worked for, I believe,
3 Congressman Breaux or he might have worked for -- I
4 can't remember. Whoever it was. Somebody in Louisiana.
5 Q One of the Congressional delegations from 6 Louisiana?
7 A And I think he also went onto do political
8 consulting work because he was very involved in politics
9 in the South in certain raises. He ran -- I know he 10 worked for Treen. Congressman Treen, that's who he 11 worked for.
12 Q From Louisiana?

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
13 A Yes, I think he ran his Senate campaign or his 14 something campaign.
15 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I move the admission
16 of Dean Exhibit 611.
17 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.
18 THE COURT: All right, 611 is admitted.
19 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Defendant's 611 marked for
20 identification and received in evidence.
21 (Defendant's Exhibit 611 marked for
22 Identification and received into
23 Evidence)
24 BY MR. WEHNER:
25 Q Miss Dean, based upon your handwritten notes of this

2495

1 conversation can you describe what you said in the
2 conversation?
3 A Governor Treen, he was running for Governor, I
4 remember now. It says, "Louisiana, Jay Stone, Baton
5 Rouge, Section Eight, 150 units, Mod Rehab," then it has 6 project number under it which means that some of it had 7 to have already been funded or else it wouldn't have a
8 project number. I don't think. That's an unusual
9 thing. I'm not exactly sure what that means. It does

10 say City of Baton Rouge, and then below it is another
11 project which was a hundred unit motel in Tulane Avenue,
12 New Orleans, elderly and handicapped, and there was some 13 legal problem with it because those are my notes to 14 refer it to Michael Dorsey. And it's a turnkey, which 15 is a public housing project. So there must have been a 16 legal problem with it at some point. So I'm just 17 referring it to him.
18 Q Do you have any recollection as to where or on what 19 basis the units were sent to Baton Rouge?
20 A Well, I believe it has something to do with -
2 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.
2 A No, I really don't. It has something to do with 2 the meeting with Jay Stone. I can't even remember who
2 Jay Stone was working for at that point.
2 Q Did you report that conversation to the Secretary?

2496

1 A Yes.

2 Q With regard to the Oklahoma Housing Finance Agency,

3 do you recall any consultants or political pressure

4 being put on the Office of the Secretary to fund those

5 units?

6 A No.

7 Q With regard to the Missouri 200 units, do you

8 recall the name of a consultant by the name of 9 Dan Hughes?

10 A I know who Dan Hughes is.

11 Q Who was he?

12 A He was a former HUD employee who was the Deputy 13 Undersecretary for the Field Coordination. That's the 14 job that Tim Coyle later was in, but I did not know Dan
15 was involved in that Missouri project at that time. I 16 know that he was involved with a later project when 17 Mr. Demery was Assistant Secretary and that was the only 18 time I ever knew of Mr. Hughes' involvement. So I did 19 not know that then.

20 Q Directing your attention to the Housing Authority
2 of St. Louis, are you aware of political pressures being

2 brought in the office of the Secretary for those 139
2 units?

2 A Not that I can recall.

2 Q Do you recall a consultant by the name of Sandy

2497

1 Sanders?

2 A Yes, Sandy Sanders was another former HUD employee
3 who was the General Deputy Assistant Secretary for 4 Housing, and once again I would not have known Sandy 5 Sanders' involvement in those -in that project.

6 Q Do you know David Barrett?

7 A Yes, I know David Barrett.

8 Q You would not have known his involvement at that 9 time, correct?

10 A In what?

11 Q In that project.

12 MR. O'NEILL: I object to the leading
13 questions.

14 THE COURT: Yes. Thank you.

15 BY MR. WEHNER:

16 Q Davis county, Utah, directing your attention to 100
17 units to Davis County, Utah. Were you aware at the time
18 that a consultant by the name of Queenan was involved in 19 that project?

20 A No.

2 Q Did you subsequently become aware of that?

2 A I had -- yes, it was Mr. Queenan who was involved
2 in the 20 -- the May 22nd projects that the Secretary
2 knew were involved with Mr. Winn somehow. So I then
2 knew who Mr. Queenan was. I did not know who he was 2498

1 previous to this.

2 Q Directing your attention to Aurora, Colorado

3 Housing Authority, do you recall the name Rick Price?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Who was Rick Price?

6 A Another former HUD employee.

7 Q And do you recall talking to Mr. Price about that

8 project?

9 A I know that Mr. Price did put a call into my 10 office. I don't remember talking to him. I know that

11 he did put a call through because I didn't know who he

12 was when he called, because he had left HUD before I

13 came to HUD.

14 Q I'm going to show you what I've marked for
15 identification as Dean Exhibit 617 which purports to be
16 a letter to you written on Security Pacific Mortgage
17 stationery from Rick Price, Assistant Vice-President,
18 Production Loan Officer, Multi-family Lending. Do you
19 recall receiving that letter?

20 A Well, it says, "Thank you for consideration during 21 the May 22nd funding round." This is the September 5th

22 funding round.

23 Q Do you recall receiving the letter from Rick Price?

24 A No, no, but I'm sure I did. I believe it came out
25 of my files.

2499

1 Q Does that refresh your recollection as to who
2 Rick Price was?

3 A No. I remember him calling my office. I remember
4 not knowing who he was and then subsequently knowing
5 that he was a former HUD employee.

6 Q Directing your attention to the Housing Authority
7 of the County of Riverside, California, do you recall
8 any white House involvement in that funding request?

9 A I remember that the - that I was asked to meet
10 with the developers, the actual developers on that 11 project who were a young couple named Horn, and -12

Q I'm sorry, named what?

13 A Horn.

14 Q H-o-r-n?

15 A Yes, and I can't remember if it was brother and 16 sister or husband and wife. I don't remember. But they 17 were - and someone had placed them on my calendar. It
18 was either the White House or the Undersecretary, and I
19 don't remember which one.

20 Q And did you meet with them?

2 A Yes, I did.

2 Q And did you report that to the Secretary?

2 A I'm certain I would have told him that when this -2 when we went through this list that I had actually met
2 with the people who were represented on this list, yes.

2500

1 Q Directing your attention to the Housing Authority

2 of Garden Grove, California, September 5th, 1986. Do

3 you know who Robert K. Dornan is?

4 A Yes, he's a Congressman from Garden Grove,

5 California.

6 Q Let me show you what I've marked for identification

7 and it's Dean Exhibit 620 and ask you if that purports

8 to be a letter on Congress of the United States

9 stationery, Robert K. Dornan, California, written to 10 Samuel R. Fierce and signed Bob, Robert K. Dornan. Is 11 that with respect to the Garden Grove?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Does it reflect a received stamp in the Secretary's
14 office?

15 A It went to the Executive Secretary as opposed to
16 the Secretary.

17 Q Does it reflect a received stamp?

18 A Yes.

19 Q And what date?

20 A October 25th at 12:56, 1985.

2 MR. WEHNER: At this point I'll move into

2 evidence Dean Exhibit 620.

2 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, the Government would
2 object on relevance grounds.

2 THE COURT: All right. Bring it up to me, 2501

1 please.
2 (Bench conference)
3 THE COURT: Okay. This is not a project at 4 issue, is that what you're saying?
5 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Judge, that is what I'm 6 saying.
7 MR. WEHNER: It's not a project at issue,
8 Judge.
9 It's admissible on two grounds. One, it is

10 relevant because it shows the continuous political input
11 into the entire moderate rehabilitation process at BUD
12 directly to the Secretary as well as to Miss Dean as 13 well as to the undersecretaries.
14 Number two, even more importantly, it's 15 relevant and admissible pursuant to rule 404 (b) because 16 it shows the common practice of the Department of HUD in 17 terms of funding moderate rehabilitation units based on 18 political decision making. It's clearly a common scheme 19 and plan to do that. The evidence is overwhelming as to 20 that.
21 MR. O'NEILL: I think nine-tenths of what's 22 gone on from the Government's perspective is 23 non-relevant, Judge. Obviously Mr. Wehner is trying to 24 set up a defense, which I understand what he's doing,
25 but I think some of this is getting a little far afield,

2502

1 so I just wanted to note that for the record.
2 THE COURT: All right, I'm admit this, but I
3 agree with the Government. I think you have to keep it
4 in line with the -- as to the evidence as it affects her
5 directly. We've got evidence of these other awards that 6 she's accused of having arranged for, that her
7 intangible benefits were politically directed, that she
8 had senators order the awards or the White House order
9 awards, Mr. Pierce order the awards, that's one thing.

10 But evidence of lots of other awards politically, I
11 think is a little too far afield.
12 MR. WEHNER: My response to Mr. O'Neill's
13 argument if we go further into this, if we do, is that 14 her testimony is that she's discussing each of these 15 political influences with the Secretary and this is 16 directly corroborative of those discussions. In fact,
17 there are letters directed to the Secretary back from 18 members of the Congress.
19 THE COURT: I'll let this one in.
20 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.
2 (Bench conference concluded)
2 THE COURT: 620 will be admitted over
2 objection.
2 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Defendant's Exhibit 620
2 marked for identification and received in evidence.

2503

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

4 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, at this time I'll
5 move the admission of Dean Exhibit 619, 618, 616, 615,
6 614, 613, 612, 609, 608, 607 and 606. I believe there's 7 no objection.
8 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.
9 THE COURT: All right.

10 will you list those?
11 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Defendant's Exhibits 608,
12 609, 612, '13, '14, '15 and '16, '18 and '19 marked for 13 identification and received in evidence.
14 (Defendant's Exhibits 607 through
15 609, 612 through 616 and 618 & 619
16 marked for Identification and
17 received in Evidence)
18 BY MR. WEHNER:
19 Q Miss Dean , with respect to Reno, Nevada, do you
20 recall Senator Laxalt being involved in the request or 21 political pressures for moderate rehabilitation units?
22 A I know that one of the Senators from Nevada was 23 involved.
24 Q I direct your attention to Dean Exhibit 621 which

25 purports to be a letter dated June 16, 1986 from

1 Secretary Pierce to Paul Laxalt.
2 A Yes.
3 Q Does that reflect being received in the office of
4 HUD?
5 A Yes, in the Exec Sec on June 18.
6 Q I also show you what's been marked for
7 identification as Dean Exhibit 622 which purports to be
8 a handwritten note dated 8-5-86 to Deborah Dean, signed
9 off on by, "Thanks, Starr.
10 A Yes, that was attached to that.
11 Q And who is Starr?
12 A Starr was Secretary Pierce's confidential
13 assistant.
14 Q And is this a note to you from her?
15 A Yes.
16 Q Concerning the letter from Senator Laxalt?
17 A Yes.
18 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, at this time I'll
19 move the admission of Dean Exhibits 621 and 622.
20 THE COURT: Can I look at those a minute?
21 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, I have to object.
22 THE COURT: All right. Thanks. They will be 23 admitted, 621 and 622.
24 THE DEPUTY CLERK: 621 and 622 marked for
25 identification and received in evidence.

5 Q Exhibit 621, is that the request from Senator
6 Laxalt for funding 225 units?
7 A Yes, it is.
8 Q And the note from -
9 A From Starr?
10 Q From Starr to Deborah Dean, is that in Starr's
11 handwriting?
12 A Yes, it is.
13 Q Would you read it quickly, please?
14 A "Per our conversation, please prepare response for 15 Secretary's signature, stating that we will try to help,
16 and let the Secretary know just what can be done for 17 Senator Laxalt. Thanks, Starr."
18 MR. O'NEILL: I renew my objection, Your
19 Honor. It's dated approximately 45 days later.
20 THE COURT: Did the witness testify to those 21 related documents or not?
22 MR. WEHNER: Yes, Judge, and it's actually
23 June, July, actually about 50 days later. One is dated 24 June 16, 1986. The other is dated 8-5-86. That's 25 not -

2506

1 THE COURT: I'll -- it's admitted.

2 BY MR. WEHNER:

3 Q Regarding Lane County, Oregon, Yamhill County,

4 Oregon, Washington County, Oregon, Salem, Oregon, were

5 you aware then or are you aware now that any consultants

6 were involved in those projects?

7 A No, I don't believe so. All of them were from the

8 Regional Administrator.

9 Q Is that also true for the Housing Authority of 10 Vancouver?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And Pierce County Housing Authority of Washington?

13 A Yes. And Thurston County, Washington.

14 Q And Thurston County, Washington?

15 A Yes

16 Q Now, Miss Dean, at this point in the selection
17 process for Mod rehabilitation units, had the 18 relationship in terms of the respective roles that you
19 played and the Secretary played and Mr. DeBartolomeis
20 played, changed?

2 A Yes, they did.

2 Q what occurred?

2 A Well, Mr. DeBartolomeis had a group of fundings
2 that he wanted to see funded in September when it became
2 apparent that we would not have a Federal Housing

2507

1 Commissioner by the time of the end of the fiscal year,
2 that there was going to have to be some more fundings
3 done for this program. And he had a list of projects
4 that he wanted to fund, and Secretary Pierce believed
5 that the best way to do this would be to do it with 6 the -- through the Regional Administrators, and so he
7 had me place a conference call through Mr. Coyle's
8 office to the Regional Administrators.

9 Q who is Mr. Coyle?

10 A He was the Deputy Undersecretary for Field
11 Coordination. He's the person that all the Regional 12 Administrators reported to, to report to the Secretary.
13 And Mr. Coyle set up a conference call, and all ten
14 Regional Administrators were on the line at the same
15 time and basically were asked what projects were they 16 aware of that they were in particular support of. And 17 so a list was derived that way, plus there were some 18 that -- I spoke earlier of, that there were some 19 interaction of the Office of the Secretary involving,
20 and there were some that Mr. DeBartolomeis had, but
2 Mr. DeBartolomeis was very unhappy because he said that

2 he had made some commitments and that he needed to 2 fulfill those commitments and a disagreement ensued
2 between Mr. DeBartolomeis and the Secretary but the 2 disagreement was actually through me.

2508

1 Secretary Pierce did not want to talk to 2 Mr. DeBartolomeis about this problem directly because

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

3 Mr. DeBartolomeis had been putting a great deal of 4 pressure on the Secretary, requests for meetings and
5 letters to the Secretary, et cetera, from other Senators
6 and things, pushing Mr. DeBartolomeis to become the 7 Federal Housing Commissioner. He wanted that job, that 8 promotion, and the Secretary did not want him to have 9 that promotion and he also did not want to have any 10 in-depth conversations with Mr. DeBartolomeis on why he 11 was not going to get the promotion.

12 And so Mr. DeBartolomeis went on strike. He 13 just would not sign the documents when they had been

14 done and --

15 Q which funding round is this for, are you referring

16 to?

17 A This is for September 5th. He eventually did sign
18 them. But it was -- I think Miss Zagame and he both 19 testified to a meeting that the three of us had in my 20 office and I had spoken to Mr. DeBartolomeis several
2 times before that meeting. I had spoken to Secretary
2 Pierce and repeated everything Mr. DeBartolomeis said
2 and what his concerns were, which were that he wanted
2 the job, and that he had made commitments and he wanted
2 to discuss those commitments with the Secretary, and the 2509

1 Secretary did not want to discuss specific projects with
2 Mr. DeBartolomeis.

3 So the Secretary told me to instruct

4 Mr. DeBartolomeis that he was an Acting Federal Housing
5 Commissioner, that he was not his choice for the job,
6 and that he was not going to get the job and that he 7 should do his role, play his role, make certain these 8 projects are good projects, sign the documents, check
9 them out. Make certain of all the rules and 10 regulations. But that in this particular funding round
11 with a couple of exceptions of projects I believe that 12 he had on there, and I don't remember which are which, I
13 know he had some input, but he was to, in essence, carry 14 out the function of that office and wait for a Federal 15 Housing Commissioner to be appointed for any future
16 discussions.

17 Q And subsequently was --subsequently a different

18 Federal Housing Commissioner was appointed, is that
19 correct?

20 A Yes.

2 Q Much later?
2 A Yes.
2 Q Who was that?
2 A Tom Demery.
2 Q Now, additional funding took place under 2510

1 Mr. DeBartolomeis' rein as Acting Federal Housing
2 Commissioner, is that correct?
3 A That is correct. Very shortly -- actually the -4
4 the subject of these commitments that Mr. DeBartolomeis
5 had made didn't go away. And he me with me shortly
6 again after the meeting that he and Susan Zagame came to 7 and he came upstairs and he went through these 8 commitments and who he had made them to and I told him
9 that I just didn't see any way in the world that the 10 Secretary was going to fund these.
11 Q What did you say to him and what did he say to you
12 during those meetings?
13 MR. O'NEILL: That's patently improper, Your 14 Honor, to ask that kind of a question.
15 MR. WEHNER: Why?
16 MR. O'NEILL: What Silvio said -
17 THE COURT: Come up here.
18 Ladies and gentlemen, we'll let you go for 19 your three o'clock recess. Remember the admonition not 20 to talk about the case, please.
2 (Bench conference)
2 THE COURT: Isn't he a co-conspirator?
2 MR. O'NEILL: No, sir.
2 THE COURT: I thought he had pled to
2 something.

2511

1 MR. O'NEILL: He did plead, absolutely. If
2 they want to admit that he's a co-conspirator I have no
3 problem, Judge.
4 THE COURT: He's not a co-conspirator as to 5 this conspiracy, as to her awards? It was with someone
6 else that he had a conspiracy?
7 MR. O'NEILL: He was under indictment when the 8 indictment was returned so he was never ever considered
9 to be a witness in this case at that time. Just to give

10 Your Honor the background. Now, subsequently he did 11 plead guilty and he pled guilty, so the Court knows, to 12 conspiring with Deborah Dean.
13 THE COURT: Yes, that's what I thought.
14 MR. O'NEILL: Okay.
15 THE COURT: How is he not a co-conspirator
16 here? I'm lost.
17 MS. SWEENEY: Not on these particular
18 conspiracies, Your Honor.
19 MR. O'NEILL: Are we taking judicial notice of 20 the fact that there's a conspiracy and that both are 21 members?
22 THE COURT: I don't know. If he pled guilty
23 to conspiracy with Deborah Dean to impede the proper
24 functions of the Government, I don't know where we're

1 (Recess from 2:58 p.m. to 3:33 p.m.)

2 THE COURT: Are you ready? We're ready for the jury.

3 (Jury in.)

4 THE COURT: All right, we'll go ahead and continue for 5 the rest of the afternoon, please.

6 BY MR. WEHNER:

7 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, did you have -- you've described for us,
8 pardon me, the process in which you participated regarding the 9 September 5, 1986 funding round --

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. -- for moderate rehabilitation units.

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And I believe when we broke off your testimony, you were 14 talking about your conversations with Mr. Silvio DeBartolomeis
15 regarding his activities at the time.

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. Based upon the Judge's ruling, would you please tell 18 the jury what Mr. DeBartolomeis said to you and what you said to 19 him during those meetings subsequent to the funding round?

20 A. Well, Mr. DeBartolomeis, as I said, was very concerned about 21 these commitments that he had made -- that's the term that he had 22 made, he used with me -- and he very much wanted to discuss with 23 Secretary Pierce these particular projects in person, and he met
24 with me in my office, and I told him that Secretary Pierce did 25 not want to discuss with him specific projects, and he, in 2515

1 essence, said that he would not participate any longer in any
2 function unless three projects could be funded.

3 And there were three specific commitments that he said
4 that he had made. And I remember that he used the term, "I have 5 to have this." Those were his exact words, "I have to have 6 this."

7 And I went back to Secretary Pierce. I didn't even 8 know how to go back and tell Secretary Pierce this. This was, I
9 just never had anyone say anything like that. And I went back
10 and I told Secretary Pierce what he had said, and Secretary
11 Pierce, it was a mixture of anger and exasperation, and he, he 12 said to me, "Do you have any idea who these, why he wants these 13 three projects, or who they're for or anything?"

14 And I said no, but that I had a pretty good guess.

15 And Secretary Pierce said, "Yeah, I guess I know who 16 they're for, too." And he said, "Well, Silvio will not be in the 17 department long. When the new assistant secretary comes, he'll 18 have to leave." And he said, "If the projects are okay and 19 they're worthy and they could be funded under normal course of 20 business, go ahead and let them go."

2 And then they were subsequently funded in the next
2 round.

2 Q. And when did the next round take place?

2 A. Well, actually we did not believe that there was going to be
2 another round until there was an assistant secretary. We were 2516

1 really -- we had Mr. Demery almost in the building. He had
2 already been nominated by the President. His FBI investigation
3 was ongoing. We expected him to be confirmed before the end of 4 the fiscal year.

5 So we were waiting and waiting, and if we had had to 6 wait until September 30 at 5:30 to send them out, we would have 7 done that so as not to get into this same situation again with
8 Mr. DeBartolomeis.

9 And then on September 12, on a Friday, midmorning,
10 Mr. Kliman, who was the head of the Budget Office, came in -11 called me, I believe, on the telephone and said that there was 12 something he had to discuss with the secretary right away, and I
13 said all right, and I found the secretary was available.

14 Mr. Kliman came in and told us that he had just 15 received a phone call from the Office of Management and Budget
16 and that they were going to basically rescind all monies in 17 certain categories that had not been spent by that evening.

18 Q. What does that mean?

19 A. That means that they were going to take it back and not use
20 it. They were going to return the money to the treasury.

21 Q. And how did that affect the status of the amount of money
22 left for moderate rehabilitation on that day? What did it mean
23 in terms of funding?

24 A. It would have ended it. There would have been zero. And we 25 had been holding off and holding off spending the money, waiting

2517

1 for a federal housing commissioner, and now we were going to lose
2 it.

3 So the secretary said, "Call Silvio DeBartolomeis on 4 the telephone, and set up -- and start to fund. Get the money-
5 out of the building now, fast."

6 And I called -

7 Q. How did that avoid, if it did, a rescision?

8 A. Well, the rescision was going to take effect Monday morning,
9 so if we could get it out Friday night, OMB would have not known
10 when it went out. They just would have known it went out
11 sometime before they asked for the money back.

12 Q. Okay. And on -- and how did you - how does one go about,

13 when you were at HUD, getting money, as you say, out of the 14 building? What is the document that means OMB can't rescind the 15 funding?

16 A. I'm not sure. I know that it has to be technically 17 committed, and if that commitment is a 185 or a rapid reply, I
18 don't know. If it goes into some computer system, I don't know.
19 But it somehow had to get from the Office of Housing to the 20 Office of Management Administration. I do know that.

2 Q. Based on that information, what did you do?

2 A. I called Mr. DeBartolomeis' office and was told that
2 Mr. DeBartolomeis had left for the day, and he lived in Rehoboth
2 Beach, and it was Friday afternoon, and I assumed he had just 2 taken off early.

2518

1 But it was now, I would say, between twelve and one or
2 twelve and two in the afternoon, and I knew that I couldn't wait
3 for him to get all the way to Rehoboth Beach, call him and tell
4 him to come all the way back, because that would have meant that 5 the people who had to actually do the funding documents
6 downstairs in Funding Control would have had to stay in the 7 department until two or three in the morning to get -- if we 8 started at five or six in the evening.

9 But if we started earlier, they would have some chance
10 to get home before midnight, and as a result, I believe most of 11 them were there past midnight, quite a few people, trying to get 12 this money out.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

13 Q. what did you do in terms of the, within the department
14 itself after you discovered that Mr. DeBartolomeis was not 15 available?
16 A. well, I went back and told the secretary that, that 17 Mr. DeBartolomeis had, was not available and that -- and he said,
18 "well, who is here?"
19 And I said, "well, Ms. Zagame is here, and your special 20 assistant for Housing, Ms. Morgan, is here," and Hunter Cushing,
21 I believe, was there, and who was the deputy assistant secretary
22 for Multi-Family Housing now? Mr. Casey had moved up to 23 legislation, I believe. Maybe he was still down in Housing, I
24 don't remember, but he was around.
25 And they had undertaken a project down in Housing of

2519

1 taking all the application letters from the public housing
2 authorities and putting them in these large, black binders, and 3 so I asked that the large, black binders be brought up from 4 Mr. Casey's office, where they were kept, to my office, and then
5 I had sort of a circular, round table, and basically just anybody
6 who was available, free, not attached to doing something else at 7 that moment I brought in and started saying, "Go through the 8 black books and find any application that is alive, that we can 9 use, that is -- let's get the money out, move it out."
10 And that is the meeting that Ms. Zagame testified to 11 that there was a clipboard and she was taking down numbers as 12 fast as she could.
13 Q. Let me show you what has been marked for identification as

14 Dean Exhibit 125.

15 THE CLERK:

Defendant's Exhibit No. 125 marked for

It's previously been used.
It has been marked.
But it has not been introduced.
Okay.

2 Q. And ask you if you recognize that document?

2 A. That is the - well, I can't recognize it, no. I know what 2 it is, because Ms. Zagame said what it was. It's the list that

2 she took down in the office.

2520

1 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, we've previously had this
2 identified, and I would move its admission at this time.

3 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: All right, it's admitted.

5 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 125 was
6 received in evidence.)

7 THE COURT: That was not a government exhibit that was
8 admitted?

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
9 MR. O'NEILL: No, Your Honor, not that one.

10 THE COURT: That was on a different list?

11 MR. O'NEILL: It's a little variation of the same list.

12 THE COURT: Oh, all right. 125 is admitted.

13 THE CLERK: Defendant's 125 received in evidence.

14 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission, I'll publish

15 the first page of that.

16 THE COURT: All right.

17 BY MR. WEHNER:

18 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, is this the list you testified in 19 Ms. Zagame's handwriting that she was writing down?

20 A. Yes.

2 Q. Can you kind of describe to your best recollection who was

2 in the meeting and what everybody was doing as this list was

2 being prepared?

2 A. I don't remember it all that well. I remember Ms. Zagame

2 helping me basically pull applications from around the country,

2521

1 because I remember at the end of this exercise, we actually took
2 a map of the United States and began to mark in the states and 3 how many units had gone to the states, because there were so many 4 going out in this particular -- I wanted to make certain that 5 they were going all the way around the country.
6 So she was helping me do that, and she was writing down
7 this list, and other people were doing other things. They were 8 attempting to find applications that were still valid. That's 9 all I --

10 Q. Okay. Now Mr. DeBartolomeis was not present during the 11 meeting?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Okay. Did he have any input into the decisions that were 14 made on that Friday?

15 A. The three projects that he had said he had committed to were

16 funded during this, this meeting here, as per the secretary's

17 approval.

18 Q. Okay. Do you recall which three projects those were?

19 A. Yes. There were two in Puerto Rico and one in Trenton, New

20 Jersey.

21 Q. Okay. Now this was a Friday when this activity was 22 occurring?

23 A. It was Friday evening, late Friday afternoon and Friday

24 evening.

25 Q. What happened Friday night in terms of getting the money

2522

1 committed to getting money out?

2 A. Well, once this list -- that's why actually we were hurrying
3 so fast, because the people who actually have to prepare the 4 documents were waiting downstairs for them, and it was a little
5 burdensome to ask all of these people to stay to do all this work
6 because we didn't realize that this recession was coming in.
7 So I was working as fast as I could so that they would 8 not be too inconvenienced downstairs, although it ended up that 9 they were terribly inconvenienced, because there was a lot of 10 work to preparing the documents.

11 But -I missed the question, I'm sorry.

12 Q. I'm sorry, it's been a long week and a long day. What was 13 occurring downstairs? What had to occur downstairs to get the 14 funds out? What did they have to do?

15 A. Well, the application had to be reviewed. Budget and

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
16 contract authority had to be determined for that area. The fair
17 market rent in Alaska is different than the fair market rent in 18 Washington, D.C. And so contract and budget authorities have got 19 to be put into a computer, and that has to come out. If there
20 are different bedroom mixes, then you have to have the fair
2 market rent for a one bedroom, a two bedroom, a three bedroom.
2 All that has to be calculated.
2 Tapes are actually run on, like, an adding machine that
2 get attached. They have to make certain that the housing
2 authority is administering the program.

1 All this is things that normally would have been done
2 with days of preparation by the deputy assistant secretary for 3 Multi-Family Housing. There just wasn't time to do all that, so
4 it fell upon the people in Funding Control to do the best that 5 they could to make certain that, that this had been done.
6 So they're checking out housing authorities, they're
7 checking out to make certain that the monies are correct.
8 They're actually preparing the papers, et cetera, et cetera, all
9 the things that go into it, and it's a complicated process.

10 Q. Now Mr. Kumagai was the funding control officer?

11 A. Yes, he was the head of that office, and he stayed that 12 evening with his staff.

13 Q. Okay. And Ms. Zagame had been present in the meeting; is 14 that correct?

15 A. Ms. Zagame was there taking the list down to give to 16 Mr. Kumagai, who worked for her.

17 Q. Let me show you what I've marked as Dean Exhibit 897.

18 THE CLERK: Defendant's Exhibit 897 marked for
19 identification.

20 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 897 was
21 marked for identification.)

22 MR. WEHNER: And 898.

23 THE CLERK: 898 marked for identification.

24 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 898 was

25 marked for identification.)

2524

BY MR. WEHNER:

2 Q. 897 purports to be a note to Russ Kumagai from Susan Zagame,
3 dated September 12, 1986, which is a list of Section 8 moderate
4 rehabilitation units for which HUD Form 185 should be prepared.

5 A. Yes. This was, this was attached to her handwritten list to 6 Mr. Kumagai.

7 Q. Dean Exhibit 125, previously admitted?

8 A. Yes.

9 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, at this time, I'll move the

10 admission of Dean Exhibit 897.

11 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor. Those two are 12 already admitted under the government, so no problem.

13 THE COURT: All right, I'll admit them as a Dean
14 exhibit as well, 897.

15 THE CLERK: Defendant's 897 marked and received in
16 evidence.

17 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 897 was
18 received in evidence.)

19 BY MR. WEHNER:

20 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, after this was sent downstairs and that work
21 that you described was being done, was a document produced as a
22 result of the machinations that occurred downstairs?

23 A. Yes. Once --

24 Q. And what was that document?

25 A. Once those decisions went down to Mr. Kumagai's office and

2525

1 his staff did what they did Friday night, those funds then were
2 technically spent. So when OMB called Monday morning, "what do
3 you have left in the mod rehab account?"

4 "Oh, hardly anything."

5 And so that was technically done. But also, the 185s

6 and whatever had to be prepared, those that had not been done

7 yet, to send the money actually out into the field. The 8 emergency situation was over, and now we had a couple of days to 9 actually get all the work done.

10 So Monday morning, a computer printout was prepared of 11 the decisions that had been made and the monies and numbers of 12 units that had been committed Friday night, and Ms. Zagame

13 brought it to my office on Monday for me to review it with the

14 secretary.

15 Q. I'm going to show you what has previously been identified as 16 Dean Exhibit 124 and ask you if that is a computer printout that 17 was brought to you?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Or a copy of the computer printout that was brought to you?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And does it have your handwritten changes on that computer

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

22 printout?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And is the last page of that exhibit a memorandum for the 25 file from you, I'm sorry, recording an instruction that you left

2526

1 with the Funding Control Division --

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. -- as a result of your review of the list?

4 A. Yes.

5 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I would move the admission of

6 Dean Exhibit 124.

MR. O'NEILL: I haven't seen it.

8 No objection, Judge.

9 THE COURT: All right.

10 MR. O'NEILL: These are government exhibits as well

11 THE COURT: All right, 124 will be admitted for 12 defendant.

13 THE CLERK: Defendant's 124 received in evidence.

14 (Government's Exhibit No. 124 was

15 received in evidence.)

16 BY MR. WEHNER:

17 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, this is -- I'm going to put the first page of 18 this on the video presenter, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: All right.

20 BY MR. WEHNER:

21 Q. These funding decisions for mod rehab had been made the 22 Friday before. You are now getting a list backup, computer list,

23 correct?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. You're making changes to it?

2527

1 A. Well, these were the changes that were made after my
2 discussion with the secretary.

3 Q. How did you come to make the changes exactly?

4 A. Well, as I said before, we actually took a small map of the 5 United States and actually marked on it the states and the number
6 of units that were going to those states, and some of the states
7 we colored in that the White House had called about wanting 8 monies to go to those states, because this was that, what we've 9 talked about before, this is that, that 1986 election cycle.

10 And we also had the problem of the fact that units had 11 been committed by the white House and to the white House for 12 which we did not on September 12 have applications. This became 13 a major problem, because the money had to go out that Friday, and 14 yet we had already committed to certain people that monies would 15 be coming to them before November.

16 And so this was a decision Secretary Pierce had to 17 make: Do you go ahead and send out all the rest of that money
18 for that year so we don't take a chance of losing any, or do you
19 want to try to hold onto some of it to fill the commitments we 20 made to the white House and to other people and fight OMB on it?
21 And he said, "No, I don't want to lose a single unit.
22 Send them all out, and we'll take care of the ones that we don't 23 have the proper paperwork for when we get our new fiscal year
24 money," which would come October 1, two weeks later.
25 So he separated the list down in two. And then there

2528

1 was one project, well, this Puerto Rico Housing Finance
2 Corporation was one, and there was another project that he
3 believed should be funded in this round, and as a result, I
4 then -- because he didn't make all these specific changes. He 5 just wanted to fund one other project, which I believe is on the 6 next page.

7 And as a result of putting those two projects in -- no,
8 I think it's -- well, there's Altoona Housing Authority. I
9 believe it's, yes, it's the City of Tulsa is what I remembered.
10 That particular project he decided should go now, as opposed to 11 in October, and I don't know why. I don't really have any 12 recollection about it at all except that it should go now instead 13 of then.

14 And as a result of having to put that many units in, I
15 had to go around to other places and lower the number of units
16 going to other housing authorities to make up the number that was 17 added, and that's what all the rest of the changes are.

18 Q. Now did you take that list to the mod rehab -I'm sorry, to 19 Ross Kumagai?

20 A. No. I probably gave it to -I don't remember giving

21 anything to Ross Kumagai directly.

22 Q. Did you attempt to?

23 A. No. I probably gave it to Ms. Zagame and had Ms. Zagame
24 send it to Mr. Kumagai.

25 Q. And the document that was previously on this screen was the 2529

1 one that accompanied this, what's now on the screen?

2 A. No, it wouldn't have accompanied this.

3 Q. Were these additional changes?

4 A. No. They actually, I don't know if -- hold on. I can tell

5 you.

6 More than -- either they reflect the changes on that

7 list, or they are additional changes, because there just wasn't

8 enough money to get all of that out. I know that at one point 9

I don't, I know that I called down there and I said, "No more

10 changes. My word on it," because they had all worked so hard.

11 And I just said, "No more changes."

12 I think there were some problems with having enough

13 money.

14 Q. Now were those the final changes you made to the list?

15 A. I think that telephone call reflects the final changes.

16 Q. That were made to the list from the secretary's office?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. Now was Mr. DeBartolomeis back in town by that time?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. Did you have any conversations with Mr. DeBartolomeis

21 about what was funded?

22 A. I believe that I, I did talk to him about the fact that he

23 wasn't in the office on a Friday and that we had to go ahead, and 24 I explained to him, you know, "I'm sorry that you weren't here,

25 but you probably should have been here."

2530

1 But there wasn't a substantive discussion about whether

2 or not he should sign or not sign the documents. That never came

3 up.

4 Q. Did you subsequently learn that projects were, any project

5 was funded that was not as a result of the list that had been

6 approved by the office of the secretary?

7 A. Well, when the documents that we received from the 8 Independent Counsel came in and we then also, I mean, trying to

9 get as much information about what happened as I could before

10 testifying, I also made some FOIA requests to the department, and

11 I got all the 185s, the funding documents that went out, and I

12 started to match the 185s that went with the list that was

13 approved to go downstairs, and there was obviously a glaring

14 mistake. There was a project there that was not on the list that 15 had come down from the secretary's office.

16 Q. Which project was that?

17 A. I believe it's in Oklahoma. I don't, I don't remember.

18 Sorry.

19 Q. That's okay.

20 A. Sorry, but I know there is an extra 185 in that group that 21 wasn't, that should not have been there.

22 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, did that complete the funding round for

23 September, or were there further fundings subsequent to that rush

24 job on September 12 through the 16th?

25 A. There might have been one or two other things that went out

2531

1 if there was extra money after all the calculations were done. I
2 really don't know.
3 I know that we then funded in October the rest of the 4 list that had been approved on September 12, and that was funded,
5 I believe I sent Mr. Demery, who was now in the building and had 6 now been confirmed, and I sent Mr. Demery the remaining list of,
7 of ones that now had letters, et cetera, et cetera, that had
8 already been approved, and then there were a couple of other ones
9 that were just problem ones that had been hanging around.
10 For the most part, the ones that were already 11 authorized, the letters were then in, I sent down to Mr. Demery
12 and told Mr. Demery that this was the remainder of the decisions
13 that had been made on September 12 and that they should go out
14 before the election, and I believe that the 185s were 15 announced -- decisions were announced and 185s went out on 16 November 3.
17 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, that's a convenient breaking
18 point for the testimony, with the Court's permission.
19 THE COURT: All right, we'll break now a little early
20 tonight. Ladies and Gentlemen, I spoke to you earlier this week,
2 and I'll remind you again we have a long weekend for you all. I
2 have to take up another case that's going to take me all of 2 tomorrow/ and its time has come. I just cannot continue that 2 other case any longer. So I'll take that up tomorrow, and we'll
2 not be sitting in this case.

2532

1 Monday is a holiday, so you have a four-day weekend,
2 Columbus Day. So we'll be back on Tuesday then at 9:30 in the 3 morning. I think we'll complete the evidence phase of this case
4 hopefully by Wednesday, and again, we'll probably complete the 5 case to the jury for sometime Thursday or Friday to begin
6 deliberations. I thought last week we'd be through the case a 7 little earlier than that, but I'm not sure now we will be.
8 I'm going to ask you to please be careful over the long
9 weekend about discussing this case or reading or watching or 10 listening to anything about this case if it's carried in the 11 media. Remember my admonition at all times. Don't talk about it
12 with each other going home or at any other time.
13 We're going to have you back here then on Tuesday at 14 9:30 a.m., all right?
15 Could I see Ms. Chisolm for a second before she leaves?
16 All right, the others may be use excused.
17 (Jurors out.)
18 (Bench conference on the record with Juror Chisolm.)
19 THE COURT: Thanks, Ms. Chisolm.
20 I don't want to embarrass you in any way, but you've 21 seemed to have trouble staying awake in the last day or two. Is 22 there some concern, work at night or weather?
23 JUROR CHISOLM: Nothing other than I teach an aerobics
24 class.
25 THE COURT: At night, you mean?

2533

JUROR CHISOLM: Um-hum.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Would you like to get relieved at 3 this point or not? You're an alternate. The trial is about a
4 week from concluding. We have two other alternates. It's up to 5 you. But I obviously want jurors who can -6

JUROR CHISOLM: No.
7 THE COURT: -- stay alert and follow the case.
8 THE WITNESS: Okay.
9 THE COURT: All right? Do you still want to stay on 10 the case?
11 JUROR CHISOLM: Yeah.
12 THE COURT: Okay. Come back Tuesday.
13 (End of bench conference, Juror Chisolm out.)
14 THE COURT: How much longer do you think you're going
15 to be with Ms. Dean?
16 I've asked counsel how much longer with
17 Ms. Dean.
18 MR. WEHNER: I'll finish Ms. Dean on Tuesday, I will.
19 THE COURT: I'm sure you'll finish Tuesday, but Tuesday
20 morning?
21 MR. WEHNER: I think Tuesday by noon.
22 THE COURT: All right. I think you should.
23 MR. WEHNER: Yes.
24 THE COURT: And then we'll see about those other 25 witnesses or not on Tuesday or Wednesday. This is going to take

2534

1 until then probably.
2 MR. WEHNER: Yes.
3 THE COURT: All right. We'll see you back here then on 4 Tuesday at 9:30. If instructions are ready tomorrow afternoon,
5 I'd appreciate the draft of your suggested ones so we can work on 6 them over the weekend. Be back then Tuesday at 9:30.
7 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, could I have custody of the 8 defense exhibits over the four-day holiday?
9 THE CLERK: These are all in evidence, Your Honor.
10 THE COURT: That's all right.
11 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.
12 THE COURT: We stand in recess.
13 (Recess from 4:07 p.m. to 9:30 a.m., October 12, 1993.)

PROCEEDING S

2 (In chambers, Defendant present,

3 Jury out.)

4 THE COURT: All right, I'll put this on the record.

5 Good morning. United States v. Deborah Gore Dean, 92-181, on 6 October 12.

7 This morning I called counsel in chambers just because

8 it would be easier to talk about it. We received information

9 this morning from the jury lounge and then confirmed it ourselves

10 again that Juror No. 12, William George, 60 years of age, had a

11 massive heart attack on Friday, was admitted to G.W. Hospital,

12 where he's in the coronary intensive care unit. He's still

13 there, so he will not be available for the rest of the trial, and

14 I'm going to have to replace him with Alternate No. 2, Carolyn

15 Newman, a 32-year-old lady who's been here through the trial,

16 obviously.

17 I don't have any other words. I don't know if the 18 other jurors know this or not. He or somebody in his family had

19 called the jury lounge, and then as I said, we just double20 checked to make sure that was accurate. So we've got no

21 alternative except to replace him at this time. That's why we

22 have alternates.

23 what I will do is replace him and move Ms. Newman into 24 seat 12. Then I'm going to take the two other alternates and

25 move them up to sit in the jury box in seats 13 and 14 so they don't have to sit in the front.

2538

2 I don't know what that does to the dynamics of the 3 jury. They've all gotten to know each other fairly well, very

4 talkative and all. We've had the same sort of problem as

5 Mr. White. He was unavailable for other reasons, apparently.

6 So we'll have to replace him. There's no indication

7 that we could wait for a day or so and he'd be back, with that

8 kind of a problem.

9 On planning, Ms. Dean will be on the rest of the 10 morning, you think, Mr. Wehner?

11 MR. WEHNER: Or the rest of the day, Judge.

12 THE COURT: On direct?

13 MR. WEHNER: It's arduous, Judge. We're moving as fast
14 as we can.
15 THE COURT: I'm just worrying about the timing and 16 working with the jury. This will back up another day, which will 17 probably get us into next week. All right.
18 All right, are you ready to go? Okay. All right.
19 MR. WEHNER: Ready to keep on going.
20 (Open court, Jury out.)
21 THE CLERK: Criminal No. 92-181, United States of
22 America v. Deborah Gore Dean. We have Robert O'Neill and Paula
23 Sweeney for the government, Stephen Wehner for Ms. Dean.
24 THE COURT: All right, we're going to bring in the jury
25 and explain to them the situation and then proceed with the examination of Ms. Dean on direct.

2539

2 MR. WEHNER: Yes, Your Honor.
3 (Jury in.)
4 THE COURT: All right, good morning.
5 THE JURORS: Good morning.
6 THE COURT: Ladies and Gentlemen, you'll notice Juror
7 No. 12, Mr. George, is not here. Tragically, over the weekend,
8 he had a heart attack, and he is in George Washington Memorial
9 Hospital, in the coronary care unit, and is obviously not going
10 to be available to attend the rest of the trial. He's recovering
11 all right, but he's going to be there for some time at G.W.
12 coronary care unit over at George Washington Medical Center. So
13 we have to replace Mr. George, unfortunately, and I feel badly
14 about that, I'm sure we all do, and we wish him the best.
15 That will mean Alternate No. 2, Ms. Newman, will move
16 over to the No. 12 slot, please. Again, that's why we have 17 alternates, why they're very important in the case.
18 Alternates 3 and 4, Ms. Lea and Ms. Chisolm, you might 19 be more comfortable, you could move up now to those other seats,
20 and you'll be more comfortable sitting up there. Alternate No. 3
21 should sit in the seat in the first row and then Ms. Chisolm up
22 in the second row as Alternate No. 4. And that will make it a
23 little easier for everybody.
24 All right, Ladies and Gentlemen, that's unfortunate.
25 That's one of the things that occurs in a long trial. As I said,

2540

1 we wish Mr. George a speedy recovery.
2 As you'll recall when we left off on Thursday, Ms. Dean
3 was testifying in direct. She's going to continue that testimony
4 today. We'll see if we can complete her testimony today.
5 I had thought we might finish the case for your 6 deliberations later this week. It may happen, or it may go into 7 early next week, we aren't sure yet. It depends how we're going 8 today and tomorrow and the next day. So I'm glad you all got 9 back otherwise safely and soundly for the rest of you all.
10 All right, we'll proceed now again with the testimony
11 of Ms. Dean at this time, please.
12 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.
13 Good morning.
14 THE JURORS: Good morning.
15 DEBORAH GORE DEAN, DEFENDANT'S WITNESS, RESUMED
16 DIRECT EXAMINATION (Cont'd.)
17 BY MR. WEHNER:
18 Q. Ms. Dean, I'd like to direct your attention to the time

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

19 period when Thomas Demery became federal housing commissioner.

20 Do you remember approximately when that was?

21 A. Yes. He, he arrived at the HUD building, I believe, in 22 August or September and worked as a, an expert to the department
23 until his confirmation, and he was confirmed in October.

24 Q. What year?

25 A. It was late October 1986.

2541

1 Q. Okay. who had just left the federal housing commissioner
2 post at that time?

3 A. Well, Mr. DeBartolomeis was then the acting federal housing
4 commissioner, and he stayed on as general deputy until sometime
5 in December.

6 Q. At what point in that late 1986, late 1986 time period did
7 Mr. Demery assume the role of federal housing commissioner with 8 responsibility for the Moderate Rehabilitation Program?

9 A. In, well, he became the federal housing commissioner and 10 therefore was in charge of all the rules and regulations in late 11 October, but he did not have a meeting with Secretary Pierce
12 regarding the Mod Rehab Program until sometime in January.

13 Q. Okay. Directing your, your attention to the time period of 14 October 1986, did you have occasion to meet with Mr. Demery
15 regarding the Mod Rehab Program?

16 A. Yes. I met with Mr. Demery before he became assistant
17 secretary and several times right after he became assistant 18 secretary. I remember I had a meeting with, with he and 19 Mr. Goldberger, who ran the office, and Mr. DeBartolomeis and 20 myself, and I don't know whether or not Mr. Dorsey was there, but 21 I remember we had a long talk about the fact that it seemed that 22 Mr. DeBartolomeis had, that office was not running well and that 23 Mr. Demery needed to take a look at revamping the Mod Rehab
24 Program.

25 Q. Did you have any discussion - did you talk about any 2542

1 committee function vis-a-vis the Mod Rehab Program at that time?

2 A. Yes. I talked to both Mr. -- I told Mr. Demery when he was 3 interviewing for the position that there was going to be this
4 committee that he would sit on and, in essence, chair, and I
5 talked to him about it several times, I think, in October, and I
6 know that I spoke to Mr. Dorsey about it, because Mr. Dorsey, who 7 was moving to general counsel's position, would also be sitting
8 on the committee, and I spoke to him about it.

9 Q. Directing your attention to October of 1986, then did there
10 come a time when mod rehab decisions were made?

11 A. No, the decisions for October were made in September, but we 12 just, we didn't have the, all the applications in, and they 13 couldn't be made then, and we ran out of -

well, I think I told
14 you before Secretary Pierce decided that instead of losing units, 15 he would send out everything he could by the end of that fiscal 16 year, and if we didn't have the actual application in for a 17 commitment that we had made, we'd have to wait and send it during 18 the next fiscal year in October.

19 So no decisions were made in October; they were made in 20 September.

21 Q. Directing your attention to October 22 of 1986, I'm going to 22 show you what I've marked for identification as Dean Exhibit 781, 23 which purports to be handwritten notes of a meeting in your 24 handwriting. Is that what that is?

25 A. Yes. Those are notes of a meeting that I had with Secretary

2543

Pierce.

2 Q. And do they relate in part to the Moderate Rehabilitation
3 Program?

4 A. Yes, and they're dated October 22, 1986, and the Item No. 4
5 is the Moderate Rehabilitation Program and the HODAG Program, and 6 my notes say, "Before apportionment," which meant that the 7 secretary had decided to go ahead and send out the money before
8 OMB had given us our apportionment for that year.

9 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I'll move the admission of
10 Dean Exhibit 781.

11 THE COURT: No. 781?

12 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, legally I'd have to object.

13 THE COURT: All right. Why don't you come up on that 14 and we'll look at it.

15 (Bench conference on the record.)

16 THE COURT: She could testify to her recollection, I
17 guess, about the meeting or something and it's refreshing, but I
18 don't see how else this comes in, unless it's past recollection
19 recorded.

20 MR. WEHNER: That's exactly what it is.

21 THE COURT: She didn't indicate she didn't have any 22 memory of it. I don't think it qualifies.

23 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I can establish that it comes 24 in as a prior recollection recorded. I did not anticipate an 25 objection to that, so -

1 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, based -- and I don't want to be 2 objecting to all of these.

3 THE COURT: That's all right.

4 MR. O'NEILL: But based on what you were ruling the 5 last few days of trial, lots of this was coming in even though
6 the government feels it's hearsay.

7 THE COURT: I understand.

8 MR. O'NEILL: Was that the only notation you really 9 wanted to get in?

10 MR. WEHNER: Yeah.

11 THE COURT: There's nothing else in here at all, it
12 seems to me, to affect the case.

13 MR. O'NEILL: It's on the record.

14 MR. WEHNER: It establishes she discussed mod rehab
15 with Pierce. That's why we want it in.

16 THE COURT: If you can lay a foundation for it, I'll 17 consider it, but otherwise, she can recall.

18 MR. WEHNER: Okay.

19 (End of bench conference.)

20 BY MR. WEHNER:

21 Q. Ms. Dean, was it your habit to take notes during meetings
22 with Secretary Pierce?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And on occasion, did you write these notes in your own
25 handwriting?

2545

A. Yes.

2 Q. Do you recall taking notes on October 22, 1986?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And do you have a specific recollection today as to what was 5 discussed or what was written on October 22, 1986?

A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. Directing your attention to the handwritten memo,
8 would that assist you in recalling precisely what was said during 9 that meeting?

10 A. I remember the secretary was leaving for Paris and taking a
11 trip to Iowa, and there was a letter of recommendation he wanted
12 me to write for somebody, and there were funding decisions that 13 had to be made. I remember it very well. I remember the meeting
14 very well.

15 Q. Okay. What was Mr. Demery's position as of October 22, 16 1986?

17 A. He was either just being sworn in or had just been sworn in,
18 and I don't know what date in October. It was late October.

19 Q. Directing your attention to Dean Exhibit 783, which purports
20 to be a list of projects, do you recognize that?

21 A. Yes, I do.

22 Q. What is it?

23 A. Can I say one thing before? That list that you have on the 24 board there, that isn't the list that I gave Mr. Demery for 25 October. I just wanted to point that out. The list that I gave

2546

1 Mr. Demery, which I think the government had as an exhibit, right
2 after Moline, Illinois, said Texas, 44 units, and it ended up
3 somehow that Lansing, Michigan, got 44 units instead of Texas.
4 So I just wanted to point out that that chart doesn't represent
5 the list that the secretary approved.

6 This is a list that was made in my office on January 9,
7 1987, of moderate rehabilitation projects. Mr. Demery had come
8 to my office on January 9 and wanted to discuss funding mod
9 rehab.

10 Q. Was it in the regular course of business for you to create 11 such documents?

12 A. It was the regular course of business for Mr. Demery to 13 create and for me to help him create this document. This was - 14 these were notes that he took and that I added two things to 15 during that meeting.

16 Q. And was it in the regular course of business, was this 17 document made in the regular course of business?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And do you recall when it was made?

20 A. Yes. It was made on January 9, 1987.

21 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I'd move the admission of Dean
22 Exhibit 783.

23 MR. O'NEILL: No objection.

24 THE COURT: All right, 783 will be admitted.

25

2547

1 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 783 was
2 received in evidence.)

BY MR. WEHNER:

4 Q. Ms. Dean, with regard to the time period October '86 through
5 January '87, would you please describe the activities as you
6 recall them vis-a-vis the Mod Rehab Program?

7 A. Well, the decisions that had been made in September were 8 given to Mr. Demery as things fell into place. A letter from a 9 housing authority that we were missing or whatever had come in 10 either downstairs and someone had let me know or whatever, and I
11 kept sort of a running list, and I know that the government
12 entered it as an exhibit, and it looks like it's all different

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
13 kinds of handwriting, and that's because it was written on 14 different days as things would come in.
15 And then I put a note on the bottom that said "T.D., 16 let me know when these are done. I need to call OMB. Very 17 important." And the reason was because it was being done before
18 the apportionment and I needed -19
Q. What was apportionment?
20 A. Well, OMB, when Congress gives you money, the Office of 2 Management and Budget then tells you where you can spend that
2 money, even though Congress has already told you where to spend
2 the money. OMB then gets it and decides that they're going to 2 tell you their spin on where you spend the money.
2 But you are allowed to spend, I believe it's up to 10

2548

1 percent of your yearly apportionment between when the fiscal year
2 starts and when OMB hands you your numbers. So it was decided to 3 go ahead and send out 10 percent of the moderate rehabilitation
4 units for fiscal year 1987 before the November 4 or 6th election,
5 whichever it was, and that was -- that represented this list,
6 with the exception of Lansing, Michigan, which wasn't on the 7 list.

8 Q. So these projects that were funded between October of 1986
9 and January of 1987 were actually determined, the fundings were 10 determined when?

11 A. In September.

12 Q. Okay. Did you have occasion to meet with Mr. Demery and 13 Secretary Pierce regarding the Mod Rehab Program?

14 A. No. Mr. Demery came to see me on January 9 and told me that 15 he wanted to fund some moderate rehabilitation units, and he 16 subsequently from that --do you want me to tell you about that?
17 I mean, is that --

18 Q. Just tell us what you said to Mr. Demery during that 19 conversation.

20 A. I said that you can't fund moderate rehabilitation units
21 without having a committee meeting. You need to talk to the 22 secretary. And he said that he didn't have to talk to the 23 secretary and that he had the statutory authority and that he was 24 going to send them out anyway.
25 And I said, "You can't do that." I was really shocked.

2549

1 I said, "You just can't do that, Tom."
2 And he said that he had gotten outside legal opinion
3 that said that the Moderate Rehabilitation Program came under the 4 federal housing commissioner, not under the secretary, and I
5 nervously laughed at that point. I don't know anyone who gets an 6 outside legal opinion on how to run a government agency.
7 And I said to him, "where in the world would you have 8 gotten an opinion like that?"
9 And he said, "well, never mind," and, "I'm going to go
10 ahead and fund these."
11 And we got into a rather heated discussion about the 12 fact that he needed to talk to the secretary.
13 Q. Did you -14

A. And he said to me, "well, the secretary doesn't need to know 15 anything about this." He goes, "You just tell me what you want

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
16 to fund, and I'll fund what I want to fund."
17 And I said, "Tom, you do not understand how this 18 works." And I said, "You just cannot do that."
19 And he said, "well," he said, "I was always under the 20 impression that you were making these decisions."
21 And I said, "No, Tom. That is not how this works." I
22 said, "You must talk with the secretary."
23 And he started to make this list, and the first couple
24 of ones on this list are things that had been given to him
25 earlier in the year before, in 1986.

2550

1 Q. When you say "the list," are you referring to
2 A. This, this list that you gave me here.
3 Q. 783? 9

A. Yes.

5 MR. WEHNER: with the Court's permission, I'm going to 6 publish this to the jury at this time.
7 THE COURT: All right.
8 BY MR. WEHNER:
9 Q. Ms. Dean, if you need to, you can step down from the stand
10 and look at your monitor. I don't know how easy this is going to 11 be to see as you refer to it.
12 A. Well, the Massachusetts Housing Finance Agency, the 13 Tennessee Housing Development Authority, and the State of New 14 Jersey are on that list that you had up, and those had already 15 been given to Mr. Demery as decisions that had been made before,
16 and he had those written on this list.
17 And then he had these projects that were written, and 18 when we got -- and I kept saying to him, "You're going to have to 19 go to the secretary and explain why you want to fund these 20 projects." And he kept arguing with me and going on.
2 And we got to Richmond Housing Authority, and I said

2 that I knew who was, that I knew what this was, the Richmond
2 Housing Authority, and I said, "Are you doing this for Lynda
2 Murphy?" Because I had heard that Lynda Murphy represented --
2 and Lynda Murphy is a friend of mine. And I said, "Are you doing

2551

1 this for Lynda Murphy? Because," I said, "I wouldn't -
I can't
2 vote for this." And I said, "You're really, this is going to be
3 a problem."
4 And he said, "No, I'm not. It has nothing to do with
5 Lynda Murphy."
6 And I said, "well," I said, "it's funny, because that 7 just happens to match what I know she's looking for."
8 He said, "No, it has nothing to do with Lynda Murphy.
9 I'm doing it for somebody else."
10 I said, "well, I still think you're going to need
11 to --"
12 He goes, "what if we just cut it in half and make it
13 100 units?" That was my handwriting, "100 units." I was nodding
14 my head, going along and trying to figure out where this 15 conversation was going to end.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

16 Then he went to Chicago, Chicago, Chicago. But he 17 wouldn't give me any information about what they were for or how 18 they had gotten to him or anything. He just, just kept on going.
19 And then at the end, this is my handwriting here,
20 "Housing Authority of Tulsa, Oklahoma City, and D.C.," because 2 those were still three projects that we did not have units for at 2 that time back in October, when the funding went out. We'd used
2 up all the units we had under the apportionment, and these were
2 three things that the secretary had agreed that he would fund.
2 And so this is my handwriting, adding that to the bottom of the list. And then he had these two at the bottom of the list.

2552

2 But at the end, we just still had some left, and I told
3 him that it had to go to the secretary, that there just wasn't
4 any way around this, at which point he became, I would say not 5 violent, but very close to it, and he was a very big man, and he
6 leaned across my desk, and he leaned on the desk, and he said,
7 "If you don't let me send these out today, you will never get 8 your job that you're looking for. You'll never get through the 9 Senate. I have connections. I have friends. I'll kill you," is 10 what he said.
11 And I said, "Tom," I said, "I think you've lost it.
12 You've just, you're not making any sense."
13 At which point, the -- Sherrill, my secretary, came in 14 and she said, "Deborah, Secretary Pierce is on the telephone,"
15 and he was traveling, I believe, at that time, and I remember she 16 turned to Mr. Demery and said, "You should step outside while Ms.
17 Dean talks to the secretary."
18 And I said, "No, stay here."
19 And I picked up the telephone, and I said, "Secretary
20 Pierce, I'm having an unbelievable conversation with Mr. Demery," 21 and I said, "Mr. Demery would like to send out some moderate
22 rehabilitation units." And I was trying to be as calm as I
23 could, because frankly, the man had scared me to death. And I
24 said, "He would like to send out moderate rehabilitation units,
25 and he would like to send them out today."

2553

1 And the secretary was, like, "Is he crazy?"
2 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.
3 THE COURT: All right, I'll sustain the objection as to 4 what the secretary said. Go ahead.
5 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry.
6 The secretary was, was very surprised that this
7 conversation was occurring.
8 MR. O'NEILL: Objection again, Your Honor.
9 THE COURT: All right, go ahead and say what you did.
10 THE WITNESS: He gave me instructions, and I got 11 through the meeting with Mr. Demery, and I told Mr. Demery that 12 the secretary -- actually, I'm sorry, the secretary got on the 13 phone with Mr. Demery and, in essence, told him to do nothing -14
MR. O'NEILL: Objection again, Your Honor.
15 THE COURT: I've got to sustain that. Say what you did
16 and what you understood, but not what he said to someone else.
17 THE WITNESS: All right. Mr. Demery took the phone,
18 spoke with Mr. Pierce, and then my understanding was that 19 Mr. Demery understood he was to do nothing.
20 And then I was back on the telephone, and I was given 21 instructions, and as a result of those instructions, I called the 22 office of the assistant secretary for Management and 23 Administration, who is the person who actually runs the bank that

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
24 sends the money out, that does the forms and sends it to the 25 field. This was a Friday afternoon. I told her, "Under no

2554

1 circumstances are any funding documents to leave the Department
2 of Housing today until you hear directly from Secretary Pierce."
3 That way he could not send them out of the building.
4 And then I called Mr. Cushing, who was the deputy
5 assistant secretary for Multi-Family Housing, and I told 6 Mr. Cushing that he was not to sign any rapid reply letters, and 7 he told me that he had already signed them, that Mr. Demery had 8 been to his office with, I believe it was five rapid replies and 9 ordered him to sign them.

10 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, with the Court's permission, I
11 believe without objection, I'll move the admission of Dean
12 Exhibit 782.

13 MR. O'NEILL: That's fine.

14 THE COURT: All right. No objection, 782 is admitted.

15 MR. O'NEILL: No objection.

16 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 782 was
17 received in evidence.)

18 MR. WEHNER: If I could publish the first page of that?

19 THE COURT: All right.

20 BY MR. WEHNER:

21 Q. Ms. Dean, you testified that you had a conversation with 22 Mr. Cushing?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And your understanding regarding that as a result of that 25 conversation is that he had already signed?

2555

1 A. He told me that Mr. Detnery had been in his office and had
2 ordered him to sign rapid replies.

3 Q. Dean Exhibit, the first page of Dean Exhibit 782, is that
4 one of the rapid replies?

5 A. You'll have to pull it down so I can see where it's going.

6 Yes. There were three, three different sets of units

7 going to Puerto Rico, and there was one for Holyoke,

8 Massachusetts, and I don't remember what the other one was.

9 Q. Now this reflects it was signed on January 9, 1987, correct?

10 A. By Mr. Cushing, yes.

11 Q. And this is the same date you recall the meeting that you
12 just described taking place with Mr. Demery?

13 A. Yes. Mr. Cushing told me he had already signed the rapid 14 replies, and I told him that he wasn't to worry, because I had 15 called Assistant Secretary Tardy and told her not to send any 16 money out, but that Mr. Cushing should not do anything in regards
17 to funding moderate rehabilitation units until he heard directly 18 from the secretary.

19 Q. Do you know if the secretary held a meeting with Mr. Demery
20 subsequent to that date?

21 A. Yes. There was a, there was a flurry of activity. I had 22 been directed also to talk to the general counsel and to find out
23 what the legal line of authority was for the Moderate
24 Rehabilitation Program and to find out if there had ever been a 25 delegation of authority -- that is when the secretary delegates

2556

1 his own authority over all of the, the HUD programs to someone
2 else -- and found out that there was no delegation of authority
3 over the Moderate Rehabilitation Program, and I had drafted a 4 memo, a small part of an overall memo to the secretary regarding 5 the fact that there was, his legal position.
6 And he had also asked me to make certain that Michael
7 Dorsey, who was the general counsel, was on stand-by on February
8 13 -I
9 mean, January 13, which would have been the Tuesday, and 10 the secretary was not going to be in on that Monday. So he 11 scheduled a meeting for Mr. Demery and he to discuss the moderate 12 rehabilitation program and Mr. Demery's views on it and 13 Mr. Demery's actions on January 9 for January 13. So I prepared 14 a memorandum for the secretary on that.
15 Meanwhile, Mr. Demery had suspended Mr. Cushing for not 16 obeying his direct orders, because he attempted again to fund the 17 Holyoke project even after this, and Mr. Cushing refused to sign,
18 saying that he had been given orders -18
19 MR. O'NEILL: Objection again, Your Honor.
20 Everything's hearsay.
21 THE COURT: All right. You can say what happened but 22 not what these people are telling you.
23 THE WITNESS: All right. Mr. Cushing did not sign the 24 rapid reply, even though Mr. Demery had ordered him, and 25 Mr. Demery then attempted to suspend Mr. Cushing from his position. Secretary Pierce revoked the suspension. Then the 2557

1 meeting on January 13 occurred between Mr. Demery and Secretary
2 Pierce.
3 BY MR. WEHNER:
4 Q. Were you present at the meeting between Mr. Demery and
5 Secretary Pierce?
6 A. No, I was not. However, because of where the phone lines
7 were and that door that I talked about between Secretary Pierce's 8 office and my office, I certainly heard a great deal of the 9 meeting, and I could often hear Secretary Pierce, and he could 10 often hear me, so I heard parts of the meeting unintentionally,
11 but I was not there except at the very tail end. And Secretary
12 Pierce opened the door and told me that he -
13 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.
14 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry.
15 THE COURT: All right, I'll sustain it.
16 BY MR. WEHNER:
17 Q. What was your understanding of the result of that 18 conversation with the secretary?
19 A. My understanding was that the secretary was going to allow 20 Mr. Demery to fund what I understood to be the five rapid replies 21 that Mr. Cushing had signed. It turned out that apparently they 22 must have discussed more projects than that, because there was a,
23 then a January 13, in essence, funding round, but I was not a
24 part of it.
25 I only thought the secretary was telling me that it was 2558

1 all right to fund those 5, but apparently 13 or 14 were funded,
2 and they would have included the list that went down, that list
3 of Selma and Chicago and Chicago. And my understanding was that
4 Mr. Demery had told Secretary Pierce -5
5 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.
6 THE COURT: Yes, I'll sustain it.
7 THE WITNESS: My understanding from Secretary Pierce
8 was that the units in Puerto Rico were for Gerald Carmen and that

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
9 the secretary thought that that was all right. And I said that I
10 did not understand why Gerald Carmen, who knew Secretary Pierce
11 very well, would be in touch with Mr. Demery, who had only been 12 there for a couple of months, and if Mr. Carmen was really 13 supporting these projects, why didn't Mr. Carmen call Secretary
14 Pierce himself?
15 And the secretary just said, "I made a decision --"
16 MR. O'NEILL: Once again, Your Honor, all we're doing
17 is getting into hearsay.
18 THE COURT: Can't we get into just what you're doing,
19 please?
20 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry.
21 THE COURT: Thank you.
22 THE WITNESS: I was told that -- no, the fundings went
23 ahead.
24 BY MR. WEHNER:
25 Q. Did you have an understanding as to whether those fundings

2559

1 were based on a consultancy arrangement with Joseph Strauss?
2 A. I came to find that out several days later. I happened to 3 have been in a meeting with Jerris Leonard, who was the attorney
4 from Mr. Strauss, and Mr. -- on a completely different subject
5 that was, had nothing to do with HUD, and he was explaining to me
6 about the legal authority of the assistant secretary, and this
7 wrong legal opinion came right out of his mouth. So it didn't 8 take long to figure out who had given Mr. Demery this legal

9 opinion.

10 And he was telling me about this new company that he 11 had just set up for Mr. Strauss, and one of the members of the 12 company was Mr. Carmen's son. And so I went back and reported
13 that to the secretary, that, in fact, I believed that those units
14 had been for Joseph Strauss.

15 Q. Did you become aware that Secretary Pierce ever discussed
16 that with Mr. Demery?

17 A. I don't believe so. I know he discussed it with Mr. Carmen.

18 Q. Ms. Dean, do you remember approximately when this series of 19 events took place with Mr. Demery?

20 A. Which series?

2 Q. That you just described.

2 A. That, that, the meeting with Secretary Pierce occurred on
2 January 13.

2 Q. Of 1987?

2 A. Yes.

2560

1 Q. Okay. Directing your attention back to the October 24,
2 1986, I believe you testified that certain of those decisions had 3 been made previously.

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. I'd like to go briefly through a couple of these projects
6 that were funded on October 26, 1986.

7 A. Actually, there's one on there that was not made, a decision
8 was not made in September, and that is Des Moines, Iowa. That 9 was made in fiscal year '87, and that was because Secretary

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

10 Pierce was traveling to Iowa and wanted to announce that he was 11 giving 50 units to Des Moines. So that one was not made in 12 September.
13 That's the only one that I can see that's not accurate.
14 Q. Directing your attention to Atlanta, Georgia, do you recall
15 someone by the name of Mack Mattingly?
16 A. Yes. There was a letter, I don't remember who it was from,
17 but the secretary had a note attached to it that said Mack
18 Mattingly, and that's all it said was Mack Mattingly, and he sent 19 it to me, and it was a moderate rehabilitation request, and I put 20 it in the folder behind my desk.
21 Q. What did you do as a result of receiving that note?
22 A. I put 200 units for Atlanta on the list in September.
23 Q. And who was Mack Mattingly?
24 A. He was the senator from Georgia.
25 Q. And was he in a Senate race at that point?

2561

1 A. I believe he lost. It was very, very close. And I remember
2 that the President was in Atlanta campaigning for Mr. Mattingly
3 right as these units were going out.
4 Q. Jacksonville, Florida, do you recall that Paula Hawkins was 5 a senator from that state?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. And do you recall whether she was in a Senate race at that
8 point?
9 A. Oh, yes.

10 Q. And do you recall why those units were funded to 11 Jacksonville, Florida?
12 A. Not right now, no.
13 Q. Directing your attention to Santa Clara, California, I
14 believe we discussed that previously.
15 A. Yes. That was the, the one that the secretary had written
16 the note, "I'd like to help this lady but not ad infinitum."
17 That was the one that Ms. Hastings recalled that I had a direct 18 involvement in that she testified about.
19 Q. Directing your attention to the next chart, which is 20 January 21, 1987, through February 27, 1987, could you tell us
21 what occurred between the decisions that were made --or that 22 were finalized in October and January of 1987 with regard to your 23 communication with Thomas Demery on the moderate rehabilitation
24 funding?
25 A. I didn't have any communication. He had come to an 2562

1 agreement with Secretary Pierce. He funded those units, and I
2 was, I was, I knew that Holyoke, Vega Baja, Humacao, Ceiba, and I
3 think there was supposed to be another one -- oh, there were 4 three in Puerto Rico -- those four, and then I knew that 5 Secretary Pierce had already okayed Tulsa and Oklahoma.
6 Trenton, New Jersey, was another Joseph Strauss
7 project. Selma, Alabama, I don't have any recollection of. Fort
8 Lauderdale and Chicago and Richmond, Virginia, I eventually came 9 to learn had been done for someone named Sandy Sanders, but I did
10 not know they were funded at the time.
11 Q. You had no involvement in those funding decisions whatsoever

12 that you recall?

13 A. Well, I reminded Mr. Detnery on January 9 the secretary had 14 made a commitment to Tulsa and Oklahoma City and Washington, 15 D.C., so he was aware of that. Other than that, I had nothing to 16 do with any of them, no.

17 Q. Now from the time period of January of 1987 through March of 18 1987, what was your involvement in the moderate rehabilitation
19 process at that time?

20 A. I can't recall having anything. If the secretary had an 21 interest in a project -- and I really, unless you put the chart
22 up there, I won't remember, because I don't remember what was 23 funded in March. I can remember one.

24 Q. I'm not up to the March round yet.

25 A. Then nothing. I had nothing to do with it, because we now

2563

1 had an assistant secretary, so I didn't really have much of a
2 role unless there was going to be a meeting.

3 Q. Okay. Directing your attention to April of 1987, did you
4 have occasion to be involved in those fundings?

5 A. Yes. There was a funding committee meeting between 6 Mr. Demery, Mr. Dorsey, and I, and these projects were discussed.
7 Although Washington, D.C., had already been approved, it might 8 have just been -- I don't know if that was discussed in that 9 meeting, because it had already been approved. So it might have 10 just been sent out at that time.

11 I don't remember anything about Birmingham, Alabama. I
12 remember the Dade County, Florida. There were two Dade County
13 Florida's, and I remember the only thing that I really sort of 14 added to the meeting was asking why we funded Dade County twice.
15 In other words, one was for 200 and one was for 212.

16 Q. Yes?

17 A. And I said, "Why didn't we fund 412? Why did you fund Dade
18 County 200 and Dade County 212?" And I asked Mr. Demery to add 19 them up so it didn't appear as though we were telling Dade County
20 what to fund.

2 Although I do know that one of those Dade County's was 2 placed on the list by the office of the secretary, the one for 2 212.

2 Q. I'm sorry, the one for 212?

2 A. Yes. There was a, there was a request for 212 - well, see,

2564

1 I asked them to add it so it said 412. But the, there was 212,
2 there was a request for 212 from Dade County, and there had been 3 a phone call to Secretary Pierce, and he had placed it on the 4 list for consideration by the committee. He didn't say to fund
5 it. I remember this is one he did not say, "I want this done."
6 He just said, "Place it on the list."

7 Q. Do you recall the 200 units to Arlington, Virginia?

8 A. Yes. That was some -- I remember that there was a sit-in at 9 HUD from some tenants from the Lee Apartments, I'm almost 10 certain, and they met with Mr. Demery or Mr. Schoenberger, I
11 don't remember, his deputy, and I know that Mr. Demery had worked 12 out some arrangement to fund Arlington County, and he had taken 13 that directly to the secretary, and the secretary had agreed to 14 fund that. So being on the list was sort of perfunctory for this 15 one.

16 Q. Do you recall that that particular project had the support
17 of Senator Warner, Senator Tribble, and Mr. Wolfe?

18 A. No. I just remember it had already been approved by the

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

19 time it got to me.

20 Q. I'll show you a document that I will mark as an exhibit and 21 see if that refreshes your recollection as to Congressional 22 support.

23 A. Well, I would say it definitely had support from Senator
24 Tribble, Senator Warner, and Congressman Wolfe.

25 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I'd mark that for 2565 identification as Dean Exhibit 0628

THE COURT: what number?

MR. WEHNER: 0628.

THE COURT: 628?

MR. WEHNER: Yes.

6 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 628 was
7 marked for identification.)

8 BY MR. WEHNER:

9 Q. Ms. Dean, what was your position as of April of 1987?

10 A. I was the executive assistant to the secretary.

11 Q. Okay.

12 A. And on this committee, I was, you know, supposed to be

13 putting forth any Congressional interests that had come to the 14 attention of the secretary or the office of the secretary and 15 supposed to be representing Secretary Pierce's interests, if he

16 had one, in the meeting.

17 Q. Ms. Dean, I'm going to show you what I've marked for 18 identification as Dean Exhibit 785, which purports to be the 19 official job description of the executive assistant to the 20 secretary. Just look at it briefly, and let me know if that's 21 what it is.

22 A. I've never seen this before.

23 Q. Would you look at it, please?

24 A. Yes. It's actually a very good description of the job.

25 Q. And is it the job description for the executive assistant to 2566

1 the secretary at the time you were executive assistant?

2 A. Yes.

3 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, at this time, I'd like to move
4 it in as Dean Exhibit 785.

5 MR. O'NEILL Judge, may we approach for one second?

12 MR. WEHNER: It would have been drafted much

14 THE COURT: I'll let it in subject to identifying it
15 further.
16 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.
17 (End of bench conference.)
18 THE COURT: All right, 785 will be admitted as 19 discussed.

21 received in evidence.)
22 BY MR. WEHNER:
23 Q. Ms. Dean, in April 1987, do you have any further 24 recollection of discussions you would have had with Mr. Demery or 25 with Secretary Pierce up through the fundings of those projects?

2568

1 A. Well, Arlington County, Texas, I know had, that this actual,
2 the real Mr. Carmen had actually come into the department in late
3 January and discussed Arlington County, Texas, with the 4 secretary, and the secretary did not mention it to me.
5 Mr. Demery called me and told me that he had had a discussion
6 with Secretary Pierce regarding Arlington County, Texas.
7 Q. And what did Mr. Demery say to you about Arlington County,
8 Texas?
9 MR. O'NEILL: Objection on hearsay and relevance
10 grounds, Your Honor.
11 THE COURT: All right, I'll sustain it. Go ahead.
12 BY MR. WEHNER:
13 Q. Did you reach an understanding as to whether, why Arlington,
14 Texas was going to be funded as a result of your conversation
15 with Mr. Demery?
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. What was that understanding?
18 A. That Secretary Pierce had approved it to be funded.
19 Q. Ms. Dean, I'm going to show you what I've marked for 20 identification as Dean Exhibit 629 and ask -- which purports to
2 be a memo dated March 4, 1987, for you from Thomas Demery,
2 subject: moderate rehabilitation funding decisions.
2 Is that, in fact, what that is?
2 A. Yes. He memorialized the decisions that were made in the 2 committee meetings in a memo and sent them to Mr. Dorsey and to 2569

1 me after the meeting was over.
2 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, at this time, I'll move the
3 admission of Dean Exhibit 629.
4 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.
5 THE COURT: All right, 629 will be admitted.
6 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 629 was
received in evidence.)
8 THE WITNESS: You know, that's -- the only thing I
9 don't understand is that here it says -- oh, okay. Never mind.
10 I understand it. Apparently the decisions that were made are on 11 this memo.
12 The actual units that went out at that time are 13 different than what's on there, because here the 198 units for 14 the District of Columbia are on the list, as is Sumter, South
15 Carolina, but for some reason, they don't show up on that list,
16 and I don't know if they show up later or not, but -- oh, yes,
17 there they are. I see them except for Sumter.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

18 BY MR. WEHNER:

19 Q. Ms. Dean, would you read the first paragraph for the record,
20 please, of that memo?

2 A. "This will confirm our funding decisions resulting from our
2 moderate rehabilitation selection meeting of Monday, March 2,
2 1987. The committee resolved to fund the following PHA
2 requests:"

2 Q. And would you read the last four lines of that, please?

2570

1 A. Well, I'm not -- what's on the monitor ends at "Total Units
2 Funded." Is that --

3 Q. I'm sorry. I'm sorry, yes, the last four lines.

4 A. "Requests considered but not funded: Charleston, South
5 Carolina, 304; Montgomery, Alabama, 200; Houston, Texas (Holiday
6 Inn), 197."

7 Q. Now who were the members of the committee that is referred 8 to in this memo?

9 A. Myself, Mr. Dorsey, and Mr. Demery.

10 Q. And when was the committee established?

11 A. Well, this committee was established on January 13 in the 12 meeting between Mr. Demery and Secretary Pierce.

13 Q. So for --

14 A. I mean, Secretary Pierce had always wanted to do the 15 committee, and he had talked about it earlier.

16 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: All right, I'll sustain that objection. Go
18 ahead.

19 THE WITNESS: This committee was set up on January 13.

20 BY MR. WEHNER:

2 Q. 1987?

2 A. 1987.

2 Q. Now who brought information to the committee meeting?

2 A. I'm looking to see if anyone brought anything that --
2 Tennessee Housing Development Agency would, it came from 2571

1 Mr. Demery, but the Tennessee Housing Development Agency was a --
2 that was 40 units that needed to make an earlier request work.

3 D.C. government had already been approved, as I said, and the 212
4 from the Metro Dade application had come down from the office of 5 the secretary to Mr. Demery. Then he put it all together and 6 brought it up to us, which is how it was supposed to work.

7 Q. Do you recall the committee meeting that was held on or 8 about that date?

9 A. Really the only thing I remember was adding that 212 and the 10 200. For some reason, that, you know, it says, "Per D. Dean."
11 But that's all I remember. That and I remember the 212. That's 12 all I remember.

13 Q. And do you recall if Mr. Dorsey was present at the meeting?

14 A. Yes, he was there.

15 Q. And Mr. Demery?

16 A. Yes, he was there.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
17 Actually now that I think about it, I also remember
18 that Kinston, North Carolina, I remember that we had gotten a 19 letter from the governor of North Carolina. I remember that 20 looking at it.
2 Q. Now subsequent to April of 1987, your position was still

2 executive assistant to the secretary, correct?

2 A. Yes.

2 Q. Between April 1987 and May of 1987, what discussions do
2 you -- before the next funding decisions, what discussions do you

2572

1 recall having regarding the Mod Rehab Program?

2 A. Well, I didn't have any discussions until it was time to do
3 the next round, and Mr. Demery came up to my office and wanted to 4 discuss the projects that he was bringing forth to the meeting, I
5 believe it was the following day.

6 Q. Did that meeting take place?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay. And who was present during the meeting?

9 A. Mr. Demery and myself.

10 Q. Anyone else?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Okay.

13 A. I mean, in the pre-meeting.

14 Q. Yes.

15 A. Mr. Demery came to see me, and I believe he told me he was 16 also going to see Mr. Dorsey. I don't remember. I don't 17 understand why we were having the meeting.

18 Q. Okay.

19 A. He came up. He wanted to talk about it. And I said,

20 "okay."

2 Q. Directing your attention to the actual meeting when these

2 funding decisions were made, did that meeting take place?

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

2 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay. And who was present at that meeting?

2 A. Mr. Dorsey, Mr. Demery, and myself.

2573

1 Q. And this was the day following the day Mr. Demery came up to 2 see you?

3 A. That is correct.

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. Meanwhile, I'd had a meeting with Secretary Pierce.

6 Q. Did you reach an understanding with Mr. Demery during the 7 pre-meeting as to which projects he wanted funded and why?

8 A. He didn't discuss every one. He went down the list, and I
9 wrote the list out as he was reading it to me, and I guess he was

10 trying to see if there was going to be any discussion during the 11 meeting. I mean, I think he wanted to sort of basically grease
12 the meeting before the meeting.

13 So I wrote them down very hurriedly on a piece of paper
14 and asked him some questions. He gave me some information, and I
15 took that information to the secretary, and I then attended the 16 meeting, I believe it was the following day.

17 Q. Did you have a discussion with Secretary Pierce regarding 18 what was on the list?

19 A. I had a discussion with him about -- I gave him the list,
20 but there were four projects that I wanted to discuss with him
2 before they were funded.

2 Q. And did you discuss those with him?

2 A. Yes, I did.

2 Q. Which four were they?

2 A. Prince George's County; the Dade County, Florida, for 203;

2574

1 there is one for wisconsin for, no, not 8, Brown County,
2 wisconsin, for 75; and one was for the Michigan State Housing
3 Development Authority, which eventually was not funded but was on 4 the list that Mr. Demery gave me.

5 Q. Did you discuss those with Secretary Pierce?

6 A. Yes. Mr., Mr. Demery had -- I wrote down the list, and I
7 know that it's a government exhibit that they, I believe they 8 have the list, and when we got to the ones where I had a problem
9 or I felt I needed to talk to Secretary Pierce, I put a square

10 around them to remind myself which ones they were, and so I •-

11 and I had problems with those four.

12 MR. WEHNER: with the Court's permission, I would like

13 to publish to the jury Government's Exhibit 202.

14 THE COURT: 202, is that right?

15 MR. WEHNER: Yes, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Has it been previously admitted?

17 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Your Honor.

18 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.

19 THE COURT: All right, go ahead.

20 BY MR. WEHNER:

2 Q. Ms. Dean, is this the list to which you've been referring?

2 A. Yes.

2 Q. Now this list was written by you --

2 A. Yes.

2 Q. -- as a result of a meeting with Mr. Demery?

2575

1 A. Yes. He was reading them to me. He had a piece of paper in 2 his hand, and he had some PHA letters, and he was reading the 3 list to me.

4 Q. And you testified that you put a square around those for 5 what purpose?

6 A. To discuss them with Secretary Pierce in detail.

7 Q. Okay. Why did you put a square around "Metro Dade, 203
8 units"?

9 A. Because Mr. Demery told me that Lou Kitchin was supporting

10 that particular application and --

11 Q. Did you relate that to Secretary Pierce?

12 A. Yes, I did. I was very concerned.

13 Q. Why?

14 A. Because I was in the process of decorating Mr. Kitchin's
15 apartment, and I didn't think I ought to be making a decision on 16 something that he was supporting.

17 Q. And did you reach an understanding with the secretary as to 18 whether that project should be funded?

19 A. He said that I should not --

20 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: All right, I'll sustain it.

2 BY MR. WEHNER:

2 Q. What was your understanding based on your conversation with
2 the secretary?

2 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.

2576

1 THE COURT: All right, I'll sustain it. I think you're 2 going to have to approach it a different way.

3 BY MR. WEHNER:

4 Q. Did you reach an understanding with the secretary regarding 5 the funding of the Metro Dade project?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. What was that understanding?

8 A. My understanding was that I was not to say a word about it
9 during the meeting, not to vote on it.

10 Q. Directing your attention to P.G. County, is that your square
11 around "P.G. County"?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. What was your concern about P.G. County?

14 A. Well, Mr. Rick Shelby had come to see me several weeks or a 15 month or so before this project, and he had -- I had known that 16 he was involved in projects before, but he had never actively 17 asked me to help him, and he came and said, "I would like your 18 help in getting these 88 units for Prince George's County."

19 And Mr. Shelby was a friend of mine, and I had never 20 had someone who I knew personally ask me for something like that
2 before, and I remember telling him that I couldn't, I couldn't do

2 anything except take it to the secretary.

2 I had taken it to the secretary, and the secretary -- I
2 mean, I told him, I said, "Someone who I consider to be a
2 personal friend, not a HUD friend, has come to me and asked me to

2577

1 help him, and I felt very awkward about it."

2 He asked me who Mr. Shelby was, and I went through a
3 long history of Mr. Shelby and who he was and everything else,
4 and he said, "well, if the project makes it --"

5 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Judge. And I'm just put in 6 the same position of objecting to everything.

7 THE COURT: I understand. Let's just go ahead with 8 your own testimony, not what other people said to you.

9 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. I'm sorry.

10 I said to the secretary that I was uneasy about it, and 11 I was, I didn't do anything else about it. I didn't put it -- I
12 didn't send it downstairs, I didn't do anything with it. It came 13 up from Mr. Demery, and I felt I had to raise it again with
14 Secretary Pierce.

15 That and the fact that it was also in Prince George's
16 County, which was in my home state of Maryland, and I always made
17 it a matter of policy to discuss with Secretary Pierce anytime
18 anything happened that was of a discretionary nature in Maryland,
19 because I didn't feel that it ought to look like I was doing
20 anything for my own home state, which was the same reason that I
21 squared "MSHDA," because Michigan State Housing was Mr. Demery's 22 home state, and I thought that Secretary Pierce ought to be aware

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

23 that Mr. Demery was going to fund his own home state.
24 And I was given a different instruction on Prince
25 George's County, and I was -- and my impression of what was said

2578

1 to me was that just because I knew someone who was working on a
2 project, I couldn't not consider the project, and that as far as
3 the secretary was concerned, 88 units going to Prince George's
4 County was perfectly fine, legitimate. I had brought my concern
5 to him, he understood it, he didn't think there was anything
6 wrong with it, and I should proceed with having that one on the 7 list.

8 BY MR. WEHNER:

9 Q. You also squared "Wisconsin"?

10 A. Yeah. Michigan was the same thing. He felt that -
I'm

11 sorry, my impression was that it was all right to leave Michigan 12 on the list, that Mr. Demery couldn't just never send money to 13 Michigan, because he was from Michigan, that my concerns about 14 this were a little more than Secretary Pierce thought were 15 necessary.

16 And "Wisconsin" I squared because Mr. Demery told me
17 that he had gotten a phone call from Senator Proxmire, that 18 Senator Proxmire had talked about it directly, and Senator
19 Proxmire and Secretary Pierce were not on the best of terms, and 20 I felt this was something that the secretary needed to know, that 21 Mr. Demery was communicating with Mr. Proxmire personally and 22 that also he was going to fund a project for Secretary Proxmire.
23 So those were the four that I squared.

24 Q. You relayed all this information to the secretary?

25 A. Yes, I did.

2579

1 Q. You received instruction from the secretary as to how to
2 proceed?

3 A. How I was to proceed in that meeting, yes.

4 Q. And did you follow those instructions?

5 A. To the letter.

6 Q. Now was there a subsequent meeting between you, Mr. Dorsey,
7 and Mr. Demery?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Did you attend and participate in the meeting?

10 A. Yes, I did.

11 Q. Do you recall whether Mr. Dorsey raised questions regarding 12 Metro Dade?

13 A. Yes. We had funded, as I said, in the earlier round 412
14 units for Metro Dade, and now there was another 350 on the, the 15 next funding round, and Mr. Dorsey asked Mr. Demery if we weren't 16 sending too many units to Metro Dade, and Mr. Demery said that 17 no, he felt Metro Dade was in serious need of housing, which it
18 is, and that there was nothing unusual about this number of units
19 going down to that area. Mr. Dorsey said, "Fine."

20 Mr. Demery attempted to engage me in conversation about 21 Dade County, Florida, and I said, "Unh-unh. I'm not talking."
22 And I said, I said, "I have a reason not to vote on this."

23 Q. Did Mr. Demery and Mr. Dorsey agree to fund the projects,
24 the four that you had mentioned to Secretary Pierce?

25 A. Yes. And there was a lively discussion on Houston as well,

2580

1 205 in Houston. Mr. Demery voted against that; Mr. Dorsey and I
2 voted for it. The, both, both Metro Dades were Mr. Dorsey and 3 Mr. Demery, with my abstaining, although I didn't say I was 4 abstaining. I just didn't say anything.
5 Prince George's County, I believe that there was 6 actually some mention of Mr. Shelby during that, and I told
7 everyone that I had spoken to the secretary about it and that it
8 was up to them to vote for it, but that I had, I had at least 9 said my piece about it to Secretary Pierce, that I thought he 10 felt okay to go ahead and move on with that one.
11 And there was no discussion about Wisconsin, because it
12 didn't bother Secretary Pierce it was on the list, so there was 13 no discussion about it. And there was some discussion about 14 Sackets Harbor, New York, and Spring Valley, New York, because 15 they were -
and maybe the Puerto Rico ones as well. I think 16 those were requests from Senator D'Amato. And I don't remember
17 anything else about the rest of them.
18 Q. With respect to the Texas project, are you familiar with the 19 name of Mosbacher?
20 A. Yes. Mr. Mosbacher was the head of the President's
2 Committee on Private Sector Initiatives. Secretary Pierce was a
2 member of that committee as well, and there was a project that
2 the Private Sector Initiatives --it was some Ronald Reagan
2 special program, Private Sector Initiatives. It came out of that
2 committee, and they asked would we please consider the, the 205

1 units for something that was being done by this Private Sector
2 Initiatives group.
3 Q. Did Mr. Mosbacher write a letter to you in support of that
4 project?
5 A. Yes, he did.
6 Q. I show you what purports to be that letter marked as Dean
7 Exhibit 630 and ask you if that is the letter?
8 A. Yes.

9 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, with the Court's permission,
10 I'll move into evidence Dean Exhibit 630.
11 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.
12 THE COURT: All right, then 630 is admitted.
13 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 630 was
14 received in evidence.)
15 THE WITNESS: We had attempted to fund that through 16 different, other programs, but it didn't work. I think we were 17 trying to do vouchers or certificates, and that had not worked,
18 and eventually it ended up the only program that worked was 19 moderate rehabilitation, but Mr. Demery didn't want to do that.
20 THE COURT: Are you going to a different chart now?
2 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.
2 THE COURT: All right. We're going to take a morning
2 break, all right?
2 MR*. WEHNER: Yes, sir.
2 THE COURT: All right. Ladies and Gentlemen, we'll take a short morning recess at this time, 15 minutes, please.

Remember the admonition of the Court about not talking about the case at all among yourselves or with anyone else during the

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
break. Be back in 15 minutes.

Thank you, Judge.

2583

1 (Recess, 11:08 a.m. to 11:27 a.m.)
2 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, there's one matter
3 before the jury comes in.
4 Your Honor, I have marked for identification
5 as Dean Exhibit 631 which are basically before and after 6 photographs of the Regent Street project.
7 Mr. O'Neill -
8 THE COURT: Let me see them.
9 MR. WEHNER: -- has indicated to me he would
10 object to showing those to the jury.
11 THE COURT: This is the restoration in 12 Philadelphia to Mr. Rosenthal? All right. The 13 objection being not relevant?
14 MR. O'NEILL: Relevance, Your Honor.
15 THE COURT: What's the relevance?
16 MR. WEHNER: The relevance is, Judge, it shows
17 what the money is being spent for.
18 THE COURT: Is there any allegation the money
19 was not spent appropriately once it was funded? There's 20 an allegation that the funding was inappropriate, the
2 awards of the funding, but not that projects themselves
2 were inappropriate type projects. If there's some
2 suggestion before the jury that these funds somehow
2 disappeared into somebody's pocket I could understand
2 showing that the projects were completed and well done.

2584

1 He testified that he already received an award
2 for rehabbing this historic building.
3 I'll sustain the objection at this time as to 4 not being relevant. All right.

5 MR. WEHNER: Judge, could I revisit that for 6 one second?
7 THE COURT: Sure.
8 MR. WEHNER: The reason it's relevant is 9 because I think even after five or six weeks of this
10 trial I don't know that there's a good understandable
11 explanation of what results when a Mod Rehab project is 12 funded and I think showing what the funds are used for 13 in a pictorial sense helps the jury understand what the 14 program was all about and I don't think it matters as to 15 whether the Government's theory frankly is that the 16 funds were misused or not misused.
17 THE COURT: So you are offering it to try to 18 show - not about a theory about misuse of the funds,
19 you're just offering an example of what Mod Rehab does.
20 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir, and I don't intend to
2 argue that Regent Street because it won an award there
2 was nothing wrong with the funding. I just want them to
2 see what happens to the dollars after these funding
2 decisions are made and I think it shows that - it shows
2 to an extent the reality of the program. It's at least

2585

1 some kind of -- it is at least compelling evidence that
2 the dollars weren't wasted and even though that's not an
3 allegation in the indictment I think based upon the 4 testimony that has been elicited from the immunized
5 consultants, et cetera, there must be some question in 6 the jury's mind as to where the money went and whether 7 it was properly used ultimately.
8 I don't find that actual pictures of the 9 before and after use of the money certainly is not

10 overly prejudicial to the Government's case.
11 THE COURT: All right.
12 Mr. O'Neill?
13 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Your Honor. The only 14 relevance it could have is to show that the money was 15 not being wasted, that is not an allegation in the 16 indictment, nor has it been a topic in the Government's 17 case and, therefore, it's not relevant testimony.
18 THE COURT: what about just explaining what 19 the program does and what it is in a practical sense so
20 they could actually envision what it does? I mean
2 actually results in rehabbing old buildings.
2 MR. O'NEILL: I think that's been done, Your
2 Honor, and nothing precludes the defendant from doing
2 that, or any defense witness. Obviously the defense
2 picked the one project that received awards and is a

2586

1 very, very top flight example of moderate rehabilitation
2 use and the Government feels --

3 THE COURT: The only concern I have is to make
Page 1446

4 sure the jury understands that the allegation does not
5 involve an inappropriate embezzlement or misuse of the 6 funds actually awarded as opposed to the awarding
7 process. And that they understand that there's no
8 allegation in this case at least that these funds once

9 allocated were misspent or misused and we're really
10 looking at the process as opposed to the final 11 expenditures.

12 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, isn't that what jury
13 instructions are for?

14 THE COURT: All right. I'll sustain the 15 objection as I did before. I still don't see the 16 relevancy of it and if there are any concerns of the 17 jury's perception of what happened we will take care of 18 that at the appropriate time in the instructions to the 19 jury as to what's involved.

20 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, if we remove the
2 reference to Regent Street and just use an example of a

2 moderate rehabilitation program, I'd move its admission
2 on that basis.

2 THE COURT: Again it's just an example of what
2 Mod Rehabilitation is.

2587

1 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir, not – without any
2 testimony tying it to a specific project in this
3 indictment or anyplace else.

4 THE COURT: The same objection?

5 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Your Honor, that's why it
6 won the award because of the way it looks.

7 THE COURT: Well, there's nothing wrong with 8 showing a good example of what this can do, whether it's

9 in this case or another instance of another kind of an
Page 1447

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
10 award of another Mod Rehab project not related to the 11 defendant, trying to explain to the jury. I think that 12 the concept of showing moderate rehabilitation, of how 13 it actually works, is not a bad one for the jury.
14 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, if I may, are you
15 saying not even tied into any project in this
16 indictment?
17 THE COURT: That's what he said.
18 MR. O'NEILL: Then I have no objection.
19 THE COURT: He would offer it simply as an 20 example of a moderate rehabilitation award when the 2 monies are spent.

2 MR. O'NEILL: I have no objection to it.
2 THE COURT: All right, I'll admit it on this
2 basis, Regent Street being removed, and no testimony
2 about it being part of this process.

2588

1 MR. WEHNER: It's been removed. Your Honor.
2 THE COURT: All right.
3 what number is that?
4 MR. WEHNER: 631.
5 (Defendant's Exhibit
6 631 received into Evidence)
7 (Jury present)
8 THE COURT: All right, ready to proceed.
9 BY MR. WEHNER:
10 Q Miss Dean, directing your attention to May of 1987,
11 you had finished reviewing those projects that were 12 funded on or about that time.
13 A Yes.
14 Q Subsequent or after May of 1987 what was your 15 involvement in the Mod Rehabilitation funding process?
16 A Secretary Pierce asked me one time whether or not
17 we had any Moderate Rehabilitation units available
18 because I remember writing him in early June that we 19 had - that 150 units were coming back to the 20 Department, and that he had asked me about Mod Rehab.
2 I remember that was -- but I don't remember
2 the specifics of it, and that would have been the last I
2 had anything to do with the program at all.
2 Q Directing your attention to a chart labeled August,
2 1987, do you have any recollection of involvement in the 2589

1 funding of those projects?
2 A No, I was no longer - I left my position on I
3 believe it was July 3rd of '87, so these things occurred
4 after I left.
5 Q The day you left the department -- I'm sorry, the 6 day you left your position as Executive Assistant --
7 A Yes.
8 Q - what was the status of the Moderate
9 Rehabilitation Program as you understood on the day you

10 left your position as Executive Assistant?
11 A The committee was still in effect and it was 12 Mr. Demery, Mr. Dorsey and when I left, the

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
13 Undersecretary, Mr. Covitz, became a member of the 14 committee and I did meet with Mr. Covitz and discussed
15 with him about the committee and what it did and what --
16 because he was basically taking my role in the committee
17 of the political input, and so I did meet with him and 18 discussed what his functions on the committee would be.
19 Q Miss Dean, do you know an individual by the name of 20 Aristedes Martinez?

2 A I know he testified here but I've never met him
2 before.
2 Q Do you know an individual by the name of Louie
2 Nunn?
2 A Yes, I've met Governor Nunn.

2590

1 Q And prior to this trial how many times had you met
2 Governor Nunn? Approximately?
3 A Well, I know that Governor Nunn testified that he
4 had met me at Lance Wilson's farewell reception, but I
5 don't remember that, and the first time I can remember
6 meeting Governor Nunn to sort of know that that face
7 went with that name was after I had left HUD and we had 8 lunch at the Four Seasons Hotel and I was having a
9 discussion with him about the Bush campaign.
10 Q Do you remember speaking to Governor Nunn on the 11 telephone during your tenure at HUD?
12 A Yes.
13 Q What do you remember saying to Governor Nunn during 14 that time period?
15 A I had called Governor Nunn one time when John was 16 in England, John Mitchell was in England, about the 17 problems I was having with my confirmation hearings and 18 there - and to seek his advice, and it was one of those 19 things where I had a short conversation with 20 John Mitchell on the telephone. He said call Louie Nunn
2 and find out if there's anything that he knows or
2 anything that he can do to help you, and so I did, and I
2 talked to him and I - then I knew that Governor Nunn
2 had an interest in Ms. Wiseman's career at HUD when she 2 was advancing to General Deputy Assistant Secretary and 2591

1 I don't remember if he called me directly or if he
2 passed some message to me through someone else but I
3 remember definitely hearing from him about Ms. Wiseman
4 and her advancement.
5 Q Are those the only conversations you had with 6 Governor Louie Nunn when you were at HUD that you can 7 recall?
8 A Yes.
9 Q When did you first meet John Mitchell?
10 A Oh, well, it was after the Watergate hearings in 11 front of the Senate. I remember that because I remember
12 watching him testify and saying to myself oh, that man's 13 behind it all. I mean he's the one. He's the bad guy.
14 I remember that when I then met him I was so taken back
15 by the kind of person he was versus his public tough guy
16 stonewall sort of attitude. So it would have been -17 and it was obviously before his trial. It was between

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
18 those two times, and I don't know what those years
19 were. I believe I was just beginning college.
20 Q would that have been the early seventies?
2 A Yes, early seventies.
2 Q would you please describe John Mitchell's
2 relationship to your family, including your mother, from 2 your perspective?
2 A well, he and my mother were very good friends. I

2592

1 remember the -I remember that I was with them the 2 night that they met and I had -it had been a long time
3 since I saw my mother sort of act like that. I mean she 4 was acting more like a woman than someone who had been a
5 widow for many many years, and she was twirling her
6 necklace and I remember thinking to myself -
7 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, is this Mod Rehab?
8 A I'm sorry.
9 THE COURT: All right, I'll overrule the
10 objection.
11 MR. WEHNER: Judge, I move to strike.
12 THE COURT: All right. I'll strike the 13 comment by counsel.
14 Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, listen to 15 the testimony and don't worry about counsel's comments.
16 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, could we approach?
17 THE COURT: Sure.
18 (Bench conference)
19 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, that statement by 20 Mr. O'Neill is particularly out of line, given the
2 testimony that this jury has heard on direct with regard
2 to the relationship between Miss Dean and John Mitchell
2 and her family and I would ask that you admonish the 2 Government to restrain his impulses.
2 MR. O'NEILL: I have sat through three days of 2593

1 hearsay upon hearsay, of leading a witness through
2 completely irrelevant nonsense and I finally have said
3 something. Mr. wehner and his client throughout the 4 Government's case would laugh and guffaw at various 5 statements made by witnesses. I have not engaged in 6 this. when I hear about her mother curling her hair -
7 THE COURT: She said her necklace.
8 MR. O'NEILL: - like a school kid, this is 9 absurd, Judge, it has nothing to do with this case and 10 if they want to get on with it, after four days the 11 patience of the Government is wearing a bit thin.
12 THE COURT: well, the impatience of the 13 Government should not be exhibited by comments that 14 provoke laughter from the jury at a time when the 15 defendant is testifying about a principal unindicted
16 co-conspirator in the case and her relationship with him
17 which I think is relevant, and the Government is relying 18 on the testimony of the person closest to her mother as 19 the tie as to why she took certain actions that you
20 allege shows a conspiracy exists although we have no
2 direct evidence.
2 I agree that much of the other evidence that
2 we've been hearing is hearsay and I've given the
Page 1450

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 defendant a lot of scope and latitude because of the 2 nature of the charges in this case, which to the Court's

2594

1 mind, as I said before, present some difficulty and I
2 have given the defendant the benefit of my concerns but
3 I don't think on either side it's appropriate.
4 I didn't notice the defendant's counsel going
5 unremonstrated against by the Court when he would make 6 comments about particular things. So I would think on 7 both sides the admonition stays, but I do think the kind
8 of comment when she's testifying about a crucial
9 allegation in the case, I think her mother's response to 10 this man and what she believed the relationship was and 11 what her motivation would be is very important. So
12 restrain yourselves, and if you want to object come up
13 and object and I'll hear it.
14 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, the Government will
15 abide obviously by your rulings. I don't have too much 16 choice even if I disagreed with you since you are the 17 Judge.
18 However, the Government will notify the Court
19 that I will start objecting on legal bases such as 20 leading and non-relevant matters.
2 THE COURT: That's fine. I don't mind.

2 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.
2 (Bench conference concluded)
2 THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen,
2 once again we'll ignore inappropriate comments of 2595

1 counsel. We're here to try this case and we'll have no
2 bons mots tossed at each other. All right.
3 MR. WEHNER: Thank you.
4 BY MR. WEHNER:
5 Q Miss Dean, would you please describe to the jury
6 what you perceived your mother's relationship to 7 John Mitchell to be?
8 A Well, they were both older. My mother of course
9 had already been married and had her children.

10 Mr. Mitchell had been married twice before and he had 11 already had his children. It wasn't as though they were 12 going to start a new life together. They were good 13 friends and she was very kind to him during a very very 14 hard time in his life and she knew him, I would say, far
15 better than my brother and I did. We were off at school
16 or doing other things. We didn't know him as well
17 and -- but he acted as a very close friend of my mother
18 and advisor when she needed them.
19 He advised my brother and I about school and 20 whether we should go on to law school or what to do, and
2 he acted as a -- as a mentor, I would say, to both my
2 brother and I.
2 And he oftentimes at my mother's request
2 advised her on family matters or anything that required
2 an intelligent mind that might have come up in our

2596

1 lives.

2 Q Do you know if Mr. Mitchell was in a business when 3 he -- during the time that he had a relationship with 4 your mother?

5 A I don't remember when Global Research International
6 started. I just have no recollection of that at all,
7 but at one point of course I knew that he did go into
8 business and he had this company called Global Research
9 International.

10 Q Did you work for that organization for a period of
11 time?

12 A Yes, I did, for about two months, two months, two 13 and a half months.

14 Q What did you do?

15 A I only went for -- I only did one thing for them.
16 They were having a party or wanted to have a party for 17 the new Ambassador to Saudi Arabia and my job completely
18 entailed arranging this particular function and getting 19 the guest lists and the RSVP's and the room and the 20 food, and that's all I did for them.

2 Q From the early seventies to the time you went to

2 work for Global Research what was your relationship with
2 Mr. Mitchell?

2 A I really didn't know him that well, but I liked him
2 and I -- I felt terribly sorry for him and what was 2597

1 going on in his life and I tried to be kind to him and
2 he was very kind to me.

3 Q Directing your attention to the time period you
4 worked at Global Research, did you ever meet Governor
5 Louis Nunn during that time period?

6 A No.

7 Q To your knowledge, did he ever call that office?

8 A No. But they had a receptionist. I really 9 wouldn't - I just worked on that party, but I never 10 heard his name before that.

11 Q From 1972 through 1988, were you aware of any 12 business dealings between Governor Nunn and
13 Mr. Mitchell?

14 A Well, I knew that at one point Governor Nunn was 15 sharing Mr. Mitchell's office but I didn't - I didn't 16 know anything about the cellular phones that they were 17 talking about, I didn't know anything about that. I
18 didn't know why he was sharing his office or -19

Q Based on your experience with Mr. Mitchell did you 20 have a sense or did you have an impression as to whether
2 his business was successful or unsuccessful?

2 A I had the distinct impression that it was very
2 unsuccessful.

2 Q Why did you have that opinion?

2 A Because he didn't have any money. He was - it was 2598

1 always very tight for him.

2 Q Do you know an individual by the name of 3 Jack Brennan?

4 A Yes.

5 Q How do you know him?

6 A Colonel Brennan was working in the office of Global
7 Research when I worked there for the two or two and a
8 half months doing this party and I was sort of supposed 9 to, you know, report to him on how this function was

10 going and I knew that he used to work at - he used to 11 work for President Nixon but I never had a very good 12 understanding of - if Mr. Brennan worked for John, with 13 John, I never really understood exactly how it worked.
14 John would say one thing. My mother would say something 15 else. Mr. Brennan would say something else. So I was 16 never really clear on exactly what the relationship was.
17 Q Directing your attention to the time period when
18 you were in the offices of Global Research, do you 19 recall what Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Brennan were working on 20 at that time?

2 A Yes, they had a -- they worked for Hess &
2 Eisenhardt Armored Cars and they had some deal with this
2 armored car company to sell armored cars around the
2 world and I remember they also -- I think they ventured
2 into a travel agency or something like that, but the 2599

1 armored cars is what they seemed to have been working on
2 when I was there because that was the interest in the 3 Ambassador to Saudi Arabia. That he wanted armored cars
4 to be sold to the Middle East.

5 Q I believe you previously testified with regards to 6 your getting an appointment to the Department of Energy?

7 A Yes.

8 Q You testified that Mr. Mitchell had aided you in 9 getting that job?

10 A Yes, he did. He contacted Mr. Odle of the 11 Department of Energy and he had also made other 12 contacts. I know I interviewed at the White House and I
13 interviewed at the Department of Energy and I decided to 14 go to the Department of Energy.

15 Q And who was Mr. Odle?

16 A He was the Assistant Secretary at Energy and he had 17 had some position in the Nixon Administration and that's 18 how he knew Mr. Mitchell, but I don't know what that 19 was.

20 Q You previously described how you came to move to
2 HUD.

2 A Yes.

2 Q From the Department of Energy. Did you have any
2 discussion with John Mitchell at that time regarding
2 your move from the Department of Energy to HUD?

2600

1 A Yes, I did, and he did not want me to move to HUD.

2 He wanted me to move to the white House.

3 Q what was his understanding -- what was your
4 understanding from this conversation with Mr. Mitchell
5 as to why he did not want you to move to HUD?

6 MR. O'NEILL: Objection. Hearsay.

7 THE COURT: It's overruled. It's relevant to 8 the underlying allegations of conspiracy with
9 Mr. Mitchell.

10 A He just felt that I had -- that my career would 11 move better if I worked at the white House than if I
12 worked at HUD, but I wanted to work at HUD, and so I
13 did. I went and took that job instead.

14 Q Did Mr. Mitchell assist you in getting the job at 15 HUD?

16 A No.

17 Q Over the time period that you worked at HUD, did
18 you come to an understanding of who also worked for HUD
19 who knew John Mitchell?

20 A well, I knew that -I knew Secretary Pierce knew
2 John Mitchell.

2 Q How did you know that?

2 A well, I -- well, I knew that Secretary Pierce had
2 been the general counsel at the -- he worked for the man
2 who was Secretary of State, I can't remember which 2601

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
1 department -- Labor I think it was, the general counsel
2 at Labor, and when John had been Attorney General, and I
3 remember one time he -- Secretary Pierce told me a funny
4 story, and so I knew that he knew Mr. Mitchell. And one
5 time John and I had gone to a reception we both had been
6 invited to, the Home Builders' Association reception,
7 and we walked in behind Secretary Pierce, and Secretary
8 Pierce turned around and say oh, hi, John, how are you,
9 and they shook hands. So I knew they knew each other.

10 Q Do you know if Mr. Mitchell had a relationship with 11 Lance Wilson?

12 A I know that John knew Lance. Lance didn't tell me
13 that when I first worked at HUD that he knew John but 14 later as I got to know Lance better, Lance told me that 15 he had been with Mudge, Rose, Guthrie & Alexander, a law
16 firm in New York, and that was the law firm that John 17 had been a partner in and that they knew each other, not 18 from there but I -- I think I remember Lance saying that 19 he had come down to Washington to talk with Mr. Mitchell 20 about municipal bonds or something along that line and 21 had met him that way, and then -- there were other -- do
22 you want me to go through who I think he knew?

23 THE COURT: Not who you think he knew, people
24 you know he knew.

25 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. I know that he knew

2602

1 the Undersecretary when I first started working there,
2 Don Hovde, and I believe that he knew the then Assistant
3 Secretary for Public and Indian housing, Mr. Lindquist,
4 because Mr. Lindquist had run the Rockefeller real
5 estate holdings in New York and John had done some 6 municipal bond work for them as a lawyer from his firm
7 and -8

Q How about the name Clifford Brown?

9 A Yes, the Regional Administrator in Region Four,
10 Clifford Brown knew John and so did Ray Harris who took 11 his place as Regional Administrator, they both knew John 12 well from the Nixon Administration.

13 Q And Mr. Raymond Harris?

14 A He took Mr. Brown's place and I knew he knew John 15 well because I remember him telling me some stories with 16 regard to John.

17 Q With regard to the Federal Housing Commissioner,
18 directing your attention to Maurice Barksdale, did
19 John Mitchell ever tell you that he knew Mr. Barksdale?

20 A No.

2 Q Did you ever come to an understanding that he knew
2 Mr. Barksdale?

2 A No.

2 Q Did Mr. DeBartolomeis?

2 A I introduced Mr. Mitchell to Mr. DeBartolomeis at a

2603

1 reception that was held at the home of Henry Berliner to
2 retire the campaign debt of Tom Evans who had been a
3 Congressman from Delaware, and Mr. DeBartolomeis had 4 been from Delaware, lived in Delaware, and so he was at 5 the reception and John was there and I was there and I
6 introduced them.

7 Q Do you recall approximately when that was?

8 A I would say I went to HUD in November of '82, so I
9 would say it would have either been very late in '82
10 or '83.
11 Q Did you have occasion to know of any dealings that 12 Mr. Mitchell had with Mr. DeBartolomeis while you were 13 at HUD?
14 A Well, I believe, and I -
15 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.
16 THE COURT: All right, I'll sustain the
17 objection.
18 BY MR. WEHNER:
19 Q If you have a best recollection, please give it,
20 and if you don't -2
A It seems to me I remember one time John calling me
2 when I was in the Executive Secretariat and asking me a
2 question that I didn't know the answer to and I referred
2 him to Silvio. But I don't remember what the question
2 was.

2604

1 MR. WEHNER: Could I please see Government
2 Exhibit 12?
3 BY MR. WEHNER:
4 Q Miss Dean, I'm going to show you Government's
5 Exhibit 12 and ask you if you've seen that letter
6 before?
7 A Yes, I have.
8 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission, I
9 would like to publish that again to the jury.

10 THE COURT: All right.
11 BY MR. WEHNER:
12 Q Miss Dean, if you could, stepping down from the 13 stand if you need to, would you read that letter,
14 please?
15 A It's to Mr. Mitchell, John Mitchell, at 2828
16 Pennsylvania Avenue, and it says, "Dear friend: You
17 will find enclosed a recommendation from the Atlanta
18 office concerning the Miami housing matter.
19 My name appears in the first paragraph of the 20 memorandum so I guess there is no need for secrecy
2 concerning my involvement.
2 I know that you will use this only for
2 verification that payment was recommended from the 2 Atlanta Regional Office and I believe that you will find
2 adequate explanation of the alleged fraudulent

2605

1 documents.
2 This is certainly a justifiable cause and the 3 damages resulting from the conduct and behavior from HUD
4 is much greater than represented in the amount for which 5 payment is requested. Be sure that no one obtains a
6 copy of this memorandum because my client
7 enlists" -"
8 insists that he would not want to create
8 difficulty for any person furnishing him the information
9 even though it appears to be nothing that one could not

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
10 obtain by public record" -" from any public record.
11 Thanks.
12 Your friend, Louie.
13 See you soon. My client has suffered and 14 continues to suffer as the direct result of HUD. Five 15 million could be received in" -- I can't read that. In 16 the something?
17 Q In the Courts?
18 A "In the Courts," "in the Courts."
19 Q Miss Dean, that letter is dated March 31st, 1983?
20 A Yes.
2 Q Now, there is an attachment to that letter, is that
2 correct?
2 A Yes, there is.
2 Q And what is the date on that?
2 A January 27, 1983, and it's to James Hammernick to 2606

1 the attention of Sharon Mizell from James Mills,
2 Director of Office of Regional Housing, and it's 3 regarding the three 202 projects that Marbilt, that was 4 Mr. Martinez's company -- apparently there was a problem
5 with the Jacksonville office and Mr. Martinez felt that 6 something -- that he had a right to sue or whatever.
7 Anyway, this is a memorandum regarding those three 202
8 projects, and recommending that Marbilt, Incorporated be 9 paid or settled with.
10 Q Who is the memorandum from?
11 A It's from James Mills, Director of Office of 12 Regional Housing, and it says 4W, which means Region
13 Four, maybe it's 4H, is that -14
Q who is it for?
15 A It's for James Hammernick, who is the Director of 16 Multi-family Housing, which is the top career person
17 under the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Multi-family
18 Housing.
19 Q Now, Miss Dean, did you have any understanding on 20 March -in the spring of 1983 as to how Mr. Nunn
2 received that memorandum that's attached to Government
2 exhibit 12?
2 A well, I think -- yes, it was rather obvious that he
2 had received it from the Atlanta Regional Office which
2 had sent it to Headquarters.

2607

1 MR. WEHNER: May I have Government's Exhibit
2 17, please?
3 BY MR. WEHNER:
4 Q Did you have a conversation with Mr. Mitchell at 5 that time, at or about that time, the spring of 1983?
6 A Yes, I did.
7 Q With regards to --
8 A To this.
9 Q This project?
10 A Yes, I did, about -- yes, about the problems
11 Marbilt was having in Jacksonville.
12 Q What did he say to you and what did you say to him?
13 A Well, he told me that Louie Nunn had a client and

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
14 that his client was having problems in the Jacksonville
15 office and he assigned the blame to, to a woman who 16 works in the Jacksonville office. And that she was 17 holding up the project or making life difficult for 18 Mr. Martinez or whatever. And he asked me would I 19 please check into it and see if -- what was going to 20 happen, and that Mr. Nunn was -- this was Mr. Nunn's
2 client and that, you know, Mr. Nunn was getting the 2 runaround, and could I please look into it, and so I
2 did. I called Mr. Hipps, George Hipps, who at that time
2 was in Multi-family Housing.
2 Q And did you have a conversation with Mr. Hipps?

2608

1 A Yes, Mr. Hipps came to my office in the Executive
2 Secretariat. I gave him this, the letter, to 3 Mr. Mitchell and the attached memo, in part because I
4 wanted him to know that there was an internal HUD
5 memorandum that had gotten in someone's hands before it
6 had probably gotten to Headquarters, and he gave me --
7 basically he gave me the information about this
8 project. He said that nothing could be done for it,
9 that they had looked into it and that it was --that 10 Mr. Martinez did not have a claim.
11 Q Based on that conversation with Mr. Hipps, did you
12 correspond with Mr. Mitchell?
13 A Yes, I wrote him back a letter.
14 MR. WEHNER: I'll publish for the jury
15 Government Exhibit 17.
16 THE COURT: All right.
17 BY MR. WEHNER:
18 Q would you read that, please, Miss Dean?
19 A It says -- it's to John Mitchell at his home
20 address and it says, "Dear Dad, Here are two memoranda
2 to add to the one supplied by your friend in Florida. I
2 think they explain the story rather well. You can see
2 from the George Hipps memo that the Department tried as 2 best it could to be lenient. Stronger actions might
2 have seemed appropriate to others.

2609

1 One piece of news that might be helpful to
2 Mr. Martinez -- apparently, the Regional Office was quite
3 upset by Headquarters' last response to them saying no.
4 Mr. Martinez has someone fighting in his corner down
5 there. If he appeals again they might prove useful.
6 As you know, I stand behind the decision of 7 the career people in Headquarters. Intervening in a

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
8 situation like this would be like jogging through

9 quicksand. I think it's time that we say adios. This 10 information is now a matter of public record and you may 11 feel free to copy it and share it, if you wish.

12 Love, Deborah."

13 And attached to it were two documents that 14 Mr. Hipps had given me to send to Mr. Mitchell.
15 Q Miss Dean, I'm going to show you the first document

16 the Government reflects was attached to Government's 17 Exhibit 17, a memorandum dated October 7, 1983. Was 18 this memo one of the ones that was attached?

19 A I can't see it clearly.

20 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, can she step down to 2 the monitor?

2 THE COURT: Sure.

2 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.

2 A Yes, that would be one of them, I believe. Because 2 that's saying no.

2610

1 Q I'll next put on the screen the second attachment
2 to that letter.

3 A No, that's -- that did not come from me. I've seen
4 that before among the documents and I don't know what 5 that is.

6 Q Have you ever seen that memo before?

7 A I saw it when the Independent Counsel was reviewing 8 their case, you know, exhibits, and I believe I said at 9 that time I did not believe that had been attached to it
10 since I had never seen that before.

11 Q Do you have a recollection today as to what was 12 attached to that letter?

13 A There was a memo from Mr. Hipps which is referenced 14 in my letter and then there is another memorandum with 15 regard to the project.

16 Q Do you have a recollection today as to what that 17 memorandum showed?

18 A It showed why Mr. Hipps believed that they didn't 19 have a case, and Mr. Hipps provided it to me to provide 20 to him to say that they don't have a case.

2 Q Miss Dean, what was your understanding at that time
2 regarding a relationship between Mr. Mitchell and
2 Mr. Nunn?

2 A Well, I mean the way Mr. Mitchell put it to me was 2 that he was interceding on behalf of Mr. Nunn because

2611

1 Mr. Nunn couldn't get a response from the Department.

2 MR. WEHNER: Government's Exhibit 16, please?

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

3 BY MR. WEHNER:

4 Q Miss Dean, I'm going to publish, with the Court's
5 permission, Government's Exhibit 16?

6 THE COURT: All right.

7 BY MR. WEHNER:

8 Q What is that?

9 A It is a note from Mr. DeBartolomeis who was then

10 Special Assistant to the Secretary, to me, re: Marbilt, 11 and then I jotted to John N. Mitchell, "for your 12 information, love D." I sent on to him what was 13 attached to this note.

14 Q I'll publish Government's Exhibit 18 beside that.

15 Can you describe again -- would you tell us what the 16 relationship is between Government's 16 and 18?

17 A Well, the Government Exhibit has the Daddy, FYI
18 note to what the note on the right was attached to.

19 They have the wrong note on the wrong exhibit. What was 20 below that note is what was attached to the original
21 note. I don't know what was attached to the Daddy, FYI,
22 but what's below it was attached to the note that you
23 showed first.

24 Q So the second page of Government Exhibit 18 was in 25 reality in your recollection attached to Government

2612

1 Exhibit 16, is that correct?

2 A Yes, that's what I believe.

3 MR. WEHNER: Could I have 17?

4 BY MR. WEHNER:

5 Q Miss Dean, after Government Exhibit 17 was sent to 6 Mr. Mitchell, did he contact you regarding the issue?

7 A No.

8 Q Did you do anything at that point or ever, to 9 attempt to change the decision as was reflected in the 10 letter you wrote to Mr. Mitchell?

11 A No, I -- frankly, I -- when Mr. Hipps came up and 12 explained to me, this note is almost verbatim of what 13 Mr. Hipps said to me. At this point I didn't even 14 understand what the issues were. I was very new to the 15 Department and learning a lot about the programs and I
16 just took what Mr. Hipps said and basically wrote it out
17 and signed my name to it.

18 Q Miss Dean, I'm going to show you again Government
19 Exhibit 18 and ask you if you recognize the handwriting
20 in the upper righthand corner of that Exhibit?

21 A Yes, I do.

22 Q Whose is it?

23 A It's Lance Wilson's handwriting, who was then
24 Executive Assistant to the Secretary.

25 Q Did Mr. Wilson ever discuss this Marbilt issue with

1 you?

2 A No, but I did receive this from Mr. DeBartolomeis

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

3 and I then passed it on to Mr. Mitchell and this is a
4 different decision than the one Mr. Hipps described to 5 me. Apparently Mr. Abrams, that's his signature at the 6 bottom, who is the Federal Housing Commissioner or 7 Undersecretary at this point, reversed the decision and 8 Mr. Wilson sent, through Silvio, to me a copy of the 9 reversal of that decision and I then sent it on to
10 Mr. Mitchell.

11 THE COURT: Should we break for lunch?

12 MR. WEHNER: Yes, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right.

14 Ladies and gentlemen, we'll take our luncheon
15 recess at this time. We'll go to 1:30. Remember the 16 admonitions of the Court during luncheon recess, don't 17 talk about the case among yourselves or anyone else,
18 don't let anybody speak about it in your presence. Be 19 back at 1:30 from lunch, please.

20 (Jury dismissed)

2 THE COURT: All right, 1:30.

AFTERNOON SESSION

2 (1:40 p.m.)

3 (Defendant present, Jury out.)

4 THE COURT: Are you ready to go?

5 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: I'm going to have to retire today at -- a
7 nice word -- retire from this hearing at 4:20, approximately. I
8 have a 5:00 meeting I have to attend out of the courthouse, a 9 committee meeting. So 4:20, all right?

10 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 (Jury in.)

13 THE COURT: All right, we're ready to resume with the 14 afternoon session, Ladies and Gentlemen, with the continuation of 15 testimony of Ms. Dean at this time.

16 Thank you, Mr. Wehner.

17 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.

18 Good afternoon.

19 THE JURY: Good afternoon.

21 DIRECT EXAMINATION (Cont'd.)

22 BY MR. WEHNER:

23 Q. Ms. Dean, we were talking about the Arama project when we

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
24 broke. Do you recall generally that testimony?
25 A. Do you know, I don't remember the last question. I'm sorry

2615

1 Q. We were dealing generally with the Arama project, and
2 keeping the Arama project in mind -
3 A. I think we were talking about Marbilt.
4 THE COURT: Yes, you were talking about Marbilt.
5 MR. WEHNER: I'm sorry, Your Honor. That's correct.
6 Q. Keeping the Marbilt project in mind, excuse me, did you ever
7 attempt to influence any HUD decision with regard to Marbilt?
8 A. No. I -- the only conversation I had was with Mr. Hipps,
9 and he gave me the information, that was no, and that's what I
10 passed on, and the decision was reversed later, but without 11 any -- I didn't know it was going to be reversed, and I didn't 12 have anything to do with it.
13 Q. You have testified concerning your relationship with John 14 Mitchell.
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. When was the very first time that you learned that 17 Mr. Mitchell was being paid for consulting work he was doing in 18 relationship to HUD?
19 A. The -- I learned about it the day that the HUD Inspector 20 General report came out on the Mod Rehab Program after -
well,
2 it was in 1989, I believe. And it was a, a big report, a long
2 report. Everybody had been waiting for it to come out.
2 And it was basically an investigation of developers'
2 ties to a charity that Mr. Demery had been sponsoring and whether
2 or not that had any influence on decisions that were made, and it

1 was of great interest. And I remember calling the Inspector
2 General's office, to the man who was running the report -- who
3 wrote the report, the head of the investigations unit, his name
4 was Al Cain, and I called him, and I said, "How do I get a copy
5 of the report?"
6 And I remember it was, sixty-some dollars was the fee
7 to get it, and I remember sending Marti Mitchell at that time
8 down with it, a check to pick up the report, and the report came 9 back, and I opened it up, and about the second or third page, it
10 said -11
MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.
12 THE COURT: I'll sustain it.
13 I think the question was what did she learn of any 14 payments to Mr. Mitchell.
15 THE WITNESS: I learned about it when I opened up the 16 report.
17 THE COURT: All right.
18 BY MR. WEHNER:
19 Q. Did you read the report?
20 A. I, around the second or third page of the report, as I
2 remember, there was a listing of consultants who had earned fees
2 in the Mod Rehab Program and had said John Mitchell -2
MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.
2 THE COURT: I'll sustain the objection to the report
2 unless you have some other grounds to offer it. She can testify that's how she learned of it.

2617

2 THE WITNESS: That's how I learned about it, and it had
3 an amount of money.

4 BY MR. WEHNER:

5 Q. Okay. After you learned -- was that the first time you knew 6 that John Mitchell was receiving dollars based on consulting with
7 HUD?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. This was in May -- or, I'm sorry, April of 1989?

10 A. Yes, the day the report came out.

11 Q. Was John Mitchell alive, or had he passed away by then?

12 A. He had died the previous November.

13 Q. Did you place any telephone calls after you heard that in 14 the report -- after you discovered that information?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Who did you call?

17 A. I called Al Cain.

18 Q. What did you say to Mr. Cain?

19 A. I told him that I considered him to have been a friend and I
20 couldn't believe that he wouldn't have told me about this before 21 now and that I knew it wasn't true, that John would never have 22 done that, and that he better be prepared, because I was really
23 mad, and I wanted to see that check, and if there had been a 24 check written to John Mitchell, Al better have a copy of it, and 25 I was coming down there, and if I found out that he was, in any

2618

1 way had misinterpreted or had misrepresented John's actions, I
2 was going to have a press conference and I was going to scream
3 and yell and carry on.

4 And Al said, Al told me that he -

5 THE COURT: I'll sustain the objection. Don't get into 6 what he said.

BY MR. WEHNER:

8 Q. Did you have any further conversation with anyone else other
9 than Mr. Cain shortly after you discovered that information?

10 A. Yes. I called Jack Brennan and told Jack Brennan that I
11 wanted him to come to my office with all of John's papers so that 12 I could prove that John hadn't done any business with HUD and 13 hadn't gotten any money.

14 Q. Did you learn during that conversation that Mitchell had 15 received money?

16 A. Yes. He told me that -

17 MR. O'NEILL: Objection once again, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right.

19 BY MR. WEHNER:

20 Q. Based on your conversation with Mr. Brennan, did you reach
2 an understanding then as to what Mr. Mitchell's role was in the 2 mod rehabilitation process?

2 MR. O'NEILL: It's hearsay, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Yes, it is still hearsay. I think she can

2 say what actions she took and what she learned of things.

2619

BY MR. WEHNER:

2 Q. Did you speak to Mr. Shelby at that point?

3 A. No. I understood from Mr. Brennan that Mr. Shelby might be 4 involved, and I have never spoken to Mr. Shelby since that day,

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

5 and I didn't call him. I didn't understand how it could have 6 happened.
7 Q. When did you find out that Mr. Mitchell, the amount of money
8 that Mr. Mitchell made?
9 MR. O'NEILL: Objection. Asked and answered, Your
10 Honor.
11 MR. WEHNER: It hasn't been asked and answered, Judge.
12 THE COURT: The amount of money, you're talking about 13 apart from whatever she said she learned earlier?
14 MR. WEHNER: No, the initial question was when she 15 initially learned that John Mitchell had made money.
16 THE COURT: This is how much money?
17 MR. WEHNER: This is how much.
18 THE COURT: All right, go ahead.
19 Go ahead. The question was when did you find out how 20 much money Mr. Mitchell had made?
21 THE WITNESS: The -- the day or two before the, before
22 the Independent Counsel issued an indictment, they had me come 23 down to the office, and they read to me what was going to be in 24 the indictment, and that was the first time I understood the 25 extent to which Mr. Mitchell had been involved.

2620

BY MR. WEHNER:
2 Q. Ms. Dean, I'm going to publish on the screen Government's
3 Exhibit 28, with the Court's permission.
4 THE COURT: Sure.
BY MR. WEHNER:
6 Q. Would you please tell the jury how you came to write this
7 letter?
8 A. Yes. Shortly after Mr. Wilson had left and I became 9 executive assistant, Mr. Mitchell, John, called me on the 10 telephone and told me that Mr. Nunn had a project that had been 11 funded, and there was some problem with a, an option on the 12 property, that the developer had to know whether and when the 13 funds were coming, along that line, and he asked me would I
14 please check into it and see what I could find out, and I called,
15 I believe, Maurice Barksdale, and he said to me that -
16 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.
17 THE COURT: Don't get into what he talked about.
18 THE WITNESS: Sorry, sorry.
19 THE COURT: Just say what you did after you spoke with 20 him.
21 THE WITNESS: After I spoke with Mr. Barksdale, I, in 22 essence, wrote down what Mr. Barksdale said to me and sent it to 23 Governor Nunn, which is what I'd been asked to do.
24 BY MR. WEHNER:
25 Q. At the point when this letter was written, which was July 5

2621

1 of 1984, what was your understanding of what John Mitchell's role
2 was in relationship to the Arama partnership?
3 A. I didn't think he had a role. I thought he was just placing
4 the phone call for Governor Nunn, because I didn't know Governor
5 Nunn, and he knew that I would make a phone call, find out what
6 it was that Governor Nunn needed, and basically just help him
7 out.
8 I just didn't see anything --it wasn't --it did not
9 seem important to me. It just seemed, I was just passing

10 information on to him that he had asked for.
11 Q. When you spoke to Mr. Barksdale, did he display any 12 reluctance providing you the information?
13 A. No, he knew all about it. He said, in essence, what was in 14 the letter, and that it was done, it had already been done, and 15 it would be, you know, coming out of the department in a few 16 days.
17 Q. Now what was your position as of July 5, 1984?
18 A. I was the executive assistant to the secretary.
19 Q. How long had you been executive assistant to the secretary?
20 A. Oh, about ten days officially.
21 Q. And what was your understanding at that point as of July 10,

(Rectangle comment Administrator

blank)

2 1984, as to the, how the Moderate Rehabilitation Program worked?
2 A. Well, I don't have much of an understanding at all about how 2 it worked. The -- I had that one, that one time I told you about
2 that I had gone down to his office when I was executive

2622

1 secretariat and had passed that note on to him from the secretary
2 about a project, and the next time I heard about the Moderate
3 Rehabilitation Program was when the problem erupted with Puerto 4 Rico, and I didn't have any interaction with it one way or the 5 other. I just was basically new on the job, and I didn't know a
6 lot about it.
7 Q. Did you know in July of 1984, July 5 of 1984 that John
8 Mitchell was receiving money due to Arama?
9 A. Of course not. No.

10 Q. What would you have done if you would have known that?
11 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.
12 THE COURT: Yes, I'll sustain that. It's speculation.
13 BY MR. WEHNER:
14 Q. Do you recall today the date on which the Arama project was 15 funded?
16 A. I believe the rapid reply was about a week or ten days after 17 that. I remember that Mr. Barksdale brought it to me, and I
18 don't know when the 185 would have gone out. Soon after that, I
19 would assume, but I don't know.
20 Q. You testified previously that you were familiar with an 21 individual by the name of Jack Brennan.
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. Do you have a recollection of meeting with Mr. Brennan on 24 Friday, June 6, 1986?
25 A. I know that I had a meeting with, with Mr. Brennan.

2623

1 Q. I'm going to show you Government's Exhibit 7 and ask you if
2 you did, in fact, have a meeting with Mr. Brennan?
3 A. Yes, at 1:30 on Friday, June 6.
4 Q. Would you please describe what you said to Mr. Brennan and
5 what Mr. Brennan said to you during that meeting?
6 MR. O'NEILL: The question is improper, Your Honor.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

7 THE COURT: All right.
8 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, could we approach on that?
9 THE COURT: Sure.
10 (Bench conference on the record.)
11 THE COURT: Okay.
12 MR. WEHNER: Judge, he's an unindicted co-conspirator.
13 THE COURT: Brennan is?
14 MR. WEHNER: Yes.
15 MR. O'NEILL: That's right.
16 THE COURT: In this area?
17 MR. WEHNER: Yes.
18 THE COURT: The question was what they talked about at 19 this time this meeting was alleged by the government to have been 20 part of the conspiracy accomplished at this time?
21 MR. O'NEILL: well, was this the meeting in which they 22 discussed the -I don't know.
23 MR. WEHNER: Yes. It's the only meeting they ever had.
24 THE COURT: Okay.
25 MR. O'NEILL: well, there are a couple entries where

1 they have meetings.
2 MS. SWEENEY: They have had more than one meeting.
3 MR. WEHNER: Is that -
MR. O'NEILL: Yes, there is. There are several notations.
6 MR. WEHNER: This is the specific meeting in which the 7 project was discussed.
8 MR. O'NEILL: That's fine. I withdraw the objection.
9 THE COURT: Okay.
10 (End of bench conference.)
11 MR. O'NEILL: Just for the record, Your Honor, I'll 12 withdraw the objection.
13 THE COURT: All right.
14 BY MR. WEHNER:
15 Q. would you please tell us what you said to Mr. Brennan and 16 what Mr. Brennan said to you during that meeting?
17 A. well, it was a very short meeting, and Mr. Brennan came in 18 and gave me some documents and said that he was there to deliver
19 these documents and that Louie Nunn was interested in a project
20 in Metro Dade, Metro Dade, and he also told me that there was a 21 problem with some other consultants who were trying to get their 22 client away from them, and I remember that he used the name
23 Russell Cartwright.
24 And I remember not understanding why he was telling me
25 this and saying, well, that we were, we were inundated with 2625

1 requests from Metro Dade, that it just seemed that every person
2 was in Metro Dade trying to do a Mod Rehab Project, and that I
3 certainly didn't know if it would be successful or not, sort of 4 gave him the standard line of, you know, make certain that you're 5 No. 1 in the housing authority pipeline, make certain that you
6 have Congressional, you know, that kind of thing.
7 It didn't seem that he really was interested in that.
8 It was more that he was just delivering me these documents.
9 And I don't think the meeting lasted ten minutes, and 10 he basically sort of said he was on his way down to see his son,
11 and he, that was it. It was just very, very short.
12 And he handed me the documents, and one was a letter
13 from a housing authority, and, and one was a letter to him from, 14 from, I can't remember if it was Mr. Martinez or Mr. Nunn, but he 15 gave them to me. I - he didn't ask me to -

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

he asked me, he
16 said, "Anything you can do," that sort of thing, "Anything you 17 can do."
18 And I didn't feel that there was any need to discuss
19 that with Secretary Pierce, because I didn't see why Secretary
20 Pierce would be interested in this, and I, there wasn't anything
21 that I particularly wanted to do for Mr. Brennan, so there was no
22 need for me to bring it up with Secretary Pierce, and so I put it
23 in my "out" box, and I wrote "Send to Housing" on it, which was 24 my way of sending it downstairs to the appropriate office.
25 Q. Ms. Dean, I'm going to show you what I've marked for 2626 identification as Dean Exhibit 626 and Dean Exhibit 627 and ask

2 if you can identify those, please?
3 A. Yes. The attached letter here is the one from Metro Dade
4 Housing Authority, from Mr. Adams, Mel Adams, and my handwriting
5 on the top right-hand side says "Send to Housing."
6 And then Mrs. Hawkins, my secretary, has written a note
7 down to another secretary in Housing that says, "Deborah asked me
8 to forward this to Housing. Please send it to the appropriate
9 office. Thanks."
10 And he also gave me this letter, which is from 11 Mr. Martinez to Governor Nunn. This would have been 12 inappropriate to send, so it just went in the "out" box, and I
13 assume that Mrs. Hawkins then filed it along with a copy of this,
14 because these came out of my files.
15 Q. Do you recognize the attachment to 626 and 627 as being the 16 documents that Mr. Brennan delivered to you?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. And do you recognize 626, the first page, as being a Xeroxed
19 copy of the note that Mrs. Nettles-Hawkins sent?
20 A. Yes. That's her handwriting, and it's signed by her.
21 MR. WEHNER: I move the admission of Dean Exhibits 626
22 and 627.
23 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor. They're 24 already government exhibits as well.
25 THE COURT: All right, 626 and 627 are admitted.

2627

(Defendant's Exhibit Nos. 626 and 627
were received in evidence.).

BY MR. WEHNER:

4 Q. Ms. Dean, what was your understanding of Jack Brennan's
5 relationship with John Mitchell at that time?
6 A. Well, as I said before, I really, I did not know if they
7 were partners, if there was a salary. I just, I did not know.
8 I never saw them work on anything together. I just didn't know.
9 And he never mentioned Mr. Mitchell during the meeting,

10 and I just, I did not know what Mr. Brennan was doing there. So

11 I -- and I didn't have any particular interest in it, and I

12 didn't, he didn't ask me to take it to Secretary Pierce or

13 anything else.

14 So I just sent it through the system, which is where I

15 thought it ought to go.

16 Q. Did you ever discuss that project with John Mitchell?

17 A. Never.

18 Q. Did you ever discuss that project with Governor Nunn?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Did you ever discuss that project with Sam Pierce?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Did you ever try to influence that project in any way?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Who was the federal housing commissioner at that time?

25 A. Which time?

2628

1 Q. As of 1986, June of 1986.

2 A. Mr. DeBartolomeis.

3 Q. How long had he been federal housing commissioner?

4 A. I never have gotten this. You've asked me that a couple
5 times. I never have gotten that right. I think it was the 6 beginning of 1986, January-February.

7 Q. Ms. Dean, directing your attention to January of 1985, did
8 you have occasion to meet with Andrew Sankin and John Rosenthal?

9 A. I don't know.

10 Q. Let me show you what has been previously identified as 11 Exhibit 107 and ask you if that refreshes your recollection as to 12 whether you met on that date?

13 A. Yes. January 19, 1985.

14 Q. Who else was at that meeting?

15 A. Mr. Rosenthal, Mr. Sankin, myself, Mr. Cushing, Mr. Hammer-
16 nick, and I don't know if Tim O'Neill from Senator Heinz's office
17 was there or not. He's listed, but he's listed up here. I don't 18 know what that means. Mr. O'Neill visited often, so it wouldn't 19 stick out in my mind.

20 MR. WEHNER: Excuse me a minute, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right.

22 BY MR. WEHNER:

23 Q. What was your understanding of the purpose of the meeting
24 with Mr. Sankin on the 19th and others on the 19th?

25 A. This was regarding the Necho Allen Hotel, and Mr. Rosenthal

2629

1 was the developer of the Necho --or owner or potential owner of
2 the Necho Allen Hotel, and they needed exception rents for the 3 hotel.

4 Q. What are exception rents?

5 A. Well, the, the statute gives you a ceiling of rents that you
6 can go to, which is 120 percent of the fair market rent. An 7 exception rent is if you were allowed to go a little higher than 8 that for unusual costs, and there are rules on what those unusual 9 costs can be.

10 Q. And if exception rents are granted, what does that mean?

11 A. It means they get higher rents than 120 percent of the fair
12 market rent.

13 Q. Why would you get, why would -- if you know, why would any 14 project get 120 percent of the fair market rents?

15 A. Well, the fair market rent is a rent that is set in a 16 statistical area, and that is exactly what it is. It's the fair
17 market rent for a one-bedroom or two-bedroom or a three-bedroom
18 unit or an efficiency, and the statute for the Moderate
19 Rehabilitation Program says that your rents can be 120 percent of 20 the fair market rent, so that you can pay for the additional 21 rehabilitation that is required in order to fix up the units for 22 people to live in.

23 So Congress gives the authority for an extra 20 percent 24 above what is the fair rent so that that money can be used to 25 rehabilitate the units.

2630

1 Q. Let me show you what's been previously identified as
2 Government's Exhibit 106, and I'd ask you if that reflects the 3 initial decision that was made with regard to the exception
4 rents?

5 A. Request for exception rents, this is an initial response
6 from Silvio DeBartolomeis for Ken Finlayson, drafted by Louise
7 Kleffner, turning down the exception rents for Necho Allen Hotel.

8 Q. And the date of that is what?

9 A. 12-31-84.

10 Q. So that's before your meeting on January 19 of 1985,
11 correct?

12 A. Correct. But there is more to that memorandum. I mean, I
13 remember that -

yes, this is attached to this. These notes were 14 attached to this memorandum.

15 Q. Okay.

16 A. And the notes reflect that this memorandum says, see, this 17 is Mr. Hammernick, who's the head of the office, and 18 Mr. Hammernick is saying, "Silvio said he talked to Region III
19 and to NAR -

which is No Appropriate Response -- this request.

20 John Hammernick."

2 So Mr. DeBartolomeis had turned down the turn-down on
2 December 31, '84.

2 Q. You have to explain that in simpler terms, please.

2 A. Well, obviously, the region had made a request for exception
2 rents.

2631

1 Q. The region was in support of exception rents?
2 A. I don't know, because it's, this is the response back. So I
3 don't know. If there -I believe that there is a memorandum
4 that is in support of it, and the, I mean, the government did
5 provide that to us, and I have seen it, and it's a memo from 6 Mr. Finlayson to Mr. DeBartolomeis saying, "We support it," and 7 that was a month or so before this.
8 And then this came out, saying no. And then 9 Mr. DeBartolomeis and Mr. Cushing and Marv Hillman and 10 Mr. Hammernick are all basically saying, "No, this is not the 11 decision we're going to make, so do not follow --do not send 12 this memo." In other words, the decision had been made before
13 they had met with me on January 19.
14 Q. Okay. which decision had been made?
15 A. well, the decision had been made certainly to, to not turn
16 it down. I can't tell from this whether a decision had been made 17 to actually give them exception rents, but I can tell from this 18 that certainly a decision had been made not to turn them down.
19 Q. who made the decision to approve the exception rents?
20 A. well, the meeting with Mr. Rosenthal was very technical, and 2 Mr. Hammernick had asked Mr. Rosenthal for more information
2 regarding the --he had to go back and find other units in the 2 area that had rents at the same level that he wanted to charge
2 for the Necho Allen Hotel, and he gave him, in essence, homework
2 to do in order to come back and prove his case.

2632

1 And these notes also reflect that he, they were asking
2 for a 10 percent increase, and I suggested that they go for a 5
3 percent increase. I certainly couldn't have done that without 4 Mr. Hammernick telling me that 5 percent was appropriate.
5 So there was a lot of back-and-forth. I remember that 6 it was a, a rather lengthy meeting. There were a lot of 7 questions and answers that went on, and at some point,
8 Mr. Hammernick would have come up with the decision that it was 9 appropriate and all right to give exception rents and at what 10 level to give them.
11 And then I at that point would have taken it to 12 Secretary Pierce and said, "Here is a case that we've been 13 working on. These people came in to see me. This is the story.
14 Mr. Hammernick says that this is whatever the rents ought to be.
15 Mr. Finlayson has sent in a memorandum saying that he is in 16 support of it. Do you, you know, do you have any input on it?"
17 And he's, like, "No, it's fine. If it's legal and the 18 staff supports it, go ahead."
19 But technically, it would not have been done without 20 Mr. Hammernick.
21 Q. Let me show you what's been marked and admitted into 22 evidence as Government's Exhibit 110A.
23 A. Yes. It is the memorandum back to Mr. Finlayson from 24 Secretary Pierce, and it says, in essence, it says, "Based on 25 your recommendation, in order to allow the project to move

2633

1 forward, you may give exception rents," and he waives the Section
2 882.408(b) in order to do that, and it's courtesy copied to 3 Shirley Wiseman.
4 Q. Now there's an attachment to that; is there not?
5 A. Right, yes.
6 MR. WEHNER: with the Court's permission, I'm going to 7 publish that on the monitor.
8 THE COURT: All right.

9 BY MR. WEHNER:

10 Q. Now is this attachment a draft, Ms. Dean?

11 A. Yes. If you'll bring it down a bit, yes, it's, "Based upon 12 your recotnmendation --" it's the exact language of the 13 memorandum, and that was drafted by Mr. Hammernick's office so 14 that we would know what to write in the memorandum. And then I
15 append the secretary's signature to it.

16 And then that's my secretary's handwriting, "Per 17 Deborah Dean," and the date. And then the initials underneath
18 are the executive secretariat, saying that it was then all right
19 for the machine to be used to Autopen it.

20 Q. And that is a draft that appears in final form in 110A; is
2 that correct?

2 A. It's the same, yes.

2 Q. It shows a carbon copy on that, the final version, to 2 Shirley Wiseman. Did you discuss it with Shirley Wiseman?

2 A. I don't have a specific recollection of discussing it with 2634

1 Shirley Wiseman, but she would have been copied on anything that
2 went to the secretary or from the secretary that had to do with 3 housing, and then Mr. Cushing, who was the secretary's special
4 assistant for housing, part of his job assignment was to keep her
5 informed of anything that was going on in the office of secretary
6 having to do with her area and what was going on and everything
7 else.

8 And she certainly would have been invited to any 9 meeting or had any input that she wished, and that's why she's 10 courtesy copied. But I don't have an independent recollection of 11 discussing it with her, no.

12 Q. Let me show you what's been marked for identification as 13 Dean Exhibit 787. It purports to be a letter written to you
14 regarding Necho Allen, dated January 24, 1985, from A. J.
15 Pacenta, Mayor of the City of Pottsville.

16 A. Right.

17 Q. Is that a letter that the mayor of that city sent in support
18 of those exception rents?

19 A. Just looking at it really quickly, I don't see, I don't see 20 a reference to exception rents, but it certainly is, he says,
21 "It's the key to our downtown development plan, and we really 22 want to do it."

23 And he obviously was invited to the meeting that was 24 held on the 19th and couldn't make it due to the inability to get 25 landing clearance at National Airport, and so he's writing a

2635

1 letter saying, "Please, we're in support of it." And the Necho
2 Allen Hotel was in Pottsville.

MR. WEHNER: Move for admission of Dean Exhibit 787.

4 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, I'd object for the same reasons we 5 couldn't get it in.

6 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

7 MR. O'NEILL: I'd have to object to this.

8 THE COURT: Let me see it, please.

9 (Bench conference on the record.)

10 THE COURT: Okay. It's not a normal business document?

11 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, we tried to get a stipulation to 12 put it into evidence, because we need somebody from the City of 13 Pottsville. We couldn't get that stipulation, so we took it out
14 of our inventory.

15 THE COURT: I see. Okay. She identified this as she 16 received this down at HUD?

17 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.

18 THE COURT: I'll overrule the objection. I'll let it

19 in.

20 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, can I note my objection for the 21 record on that one?

22 THE COURT: Sure.

23 MR. O'NEILL: Just for the record, it's a letter that 24 has nothing to do with Ms. Dean other than being mailed to her.

25 THE COURT: It's a letter to her about the Necho Allen

2636

1 project, which was one of the projects involved in the case?

2 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, this is the problem: That was one
3 of our exhibits, but when the defense doesn't stipulate to it, we 4 cannot put it into evidence. Now the defense is seeking to 5 introduce it into evidence -

6 THE COURT: Can't she identify it as something she
7 received?

8 MR. O'NEILL: I guess she could. Whether she could say -
9 it's made in the regular course of business, I doubt it. Well,
10 she could say it, but -

11 MR. WEHNER: Judge, I mean, the government could have 12 subpoenaed anybody they wanted to to identify this document.

13 MR. O'NEILL: Correct.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 MR. WEHNER: And you didn't.

16 MR. O'NEILL: As could you.

17 And there's no other way to get it into evidence.

18 THE COURT: I understand the arguments of counsel. I'm 19 letting in.

20 MR. O'NEILL: Okay, Judge. Thanks

2 (End of bench conference.)

2 THE COURT: It's admitted, 787.

2 received in evidence.)

1 Q. Ms. Dean, would you read the first paragraph of that letter,
2 please?

3 A. "On January 17, 1986, we were asked to attend a meeting at 4 your offices to support the rehabilitation of the Necho Allen.
5 As you know, my staff and I were unable to attend this meeting
6 due to the inability to get landing clearance at National 7 Airport. We understand from Mr. Rosenthal that you indicated a 8 willingness to be of assistance to us in bringing this important
9 project to fruition."

10 Q. Would you look again at the date? I believe you said, "On 11 January 17, 1986." I think it actually reads "1985."

12 A. Oh, I'm sorry, 1985.

13 Q. Ms. Dean, Mr. Rosenthal was not only involved in the Necho
14 Allen project; he was also involved in the Regent Street Project, 15 was he not?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. When is the first time you remember hearing of Mr. Rosenthal
18 in connection with the Regent Street project?

19 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor. We've gone over 20 the Regent Street project at great length.

21 THE COURT: Have you already gone into this?

22 MR. WEHNER: No, sir. Only as a project that was 23 funded on the charts. I don't think we went over it in great 24 detail vis-a-vis Ms. Dean's dealings with Mr. Rosenthal and 25 Mr. Sankin.

2638

1 THE COURT: All right, I'll allow it. Go ahead.
2 BY MR. WEHNER:
3 Q. When is the first time you recall hearing of Mr. Rosenthal
4 in association with the Regent Street project?
5 A. I believe after the Necho Allen Hotel was completed or had 6 closed, I -- Mr. Rosenthal called and asked, said he was in town
7 and would I have lunch with him while he was in Washington, and I
8 said that I would.
9 And the first time that I -- although I had spoken to 10 him several times on the phone, I believe that the first time I
11 heard of Regent Street was at this lunch.
12 Q. To your knowledge, was that luncheon appointment set up by 13 Andrew Sankin?
14 A. No.
15 Q. Did Andrew Sankin attend the luncheon?
16 A. I don't remember Andrew Sankin being there. I remember 17 having a conversation with Mr. Rosenthal. But he might have been 18 there. It was in 1985.
19 So, I mean, I can't say for certain. I don't remember
20 him being there.
21 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission, I'm going to 22 publish Government's Exhibit 115.
23 THE COURT: 115?
24 MR. WEHNER: Yes.
25 THE COURT: All right.

2639

BY MR. WEHNER:
2 Q. Ms. Dean, is this letter addressed to you?
3 A. This is the letter from Mr. Sankin. I didn't see the top of 4 the letter. Is that the one that --
5 Q. I'll pull it down, sorry.
6 A. Yeah, this is -- yes. I know this was introduced as a
7 government exhibit, but I never got this letter, and I had never 8 seen it before.
9 Q. You'd never seen it before when?

10 A. I never saw it before it was introduced as a government
11 exhibit, and it's not in my files.
12 Q. Now I'm going to hand you the exhibit and ask you if it
13 appears to have been made on original stationery?
14 A. Yeah. Yes.
15 Q. And is there a signature?
16 A. No. This letter was never sent, and it was never received.
17 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.
18 THE COURT: All right.
19 MR. O'NEILL: How would she know that?
20 THE COURT: She can testify it was never received.
21 THE WITNESS: It was never received by me.
22 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, at this time, I'd like the 23 jury to pass this among themselves.

24 THE COURT: All right, you can publish it to the jury.
25 That means, Ladies and Gentlemen, you can look at the 2640

1 document, the original document.

2 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: All right, let's go forward.

4 BY MR. WEHNER:

5 Q. Ms. Dean, do you recall having lunch with John Rosenthal on 6 May 10, 1985? I'll show you what has been previously introduced
7 as your calendar page, Government's Exhibit 5G on that date.

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Did you, in fact, have lunch with Mr. Rosenthal on that

10 date?

11 A. Yes, and he brought up the subject of Regent Street.

12 Q. Okay. Would you, without telling what Mr. Rosenthal said to 13 you, would you tell us, please, what you said to Mr. Rosenthal
14 during that luncheon conversation regarding Regent Street?

15 A. That I didn't believe there were any more -- I believe that 16 he had broached the subject of mod rehab or additional funding,
17 and I said I didn't think there would be any possibility of that 18 happening in 1985 from what I knew of the funding situation, that 19 maybe he ought to consider alternate, alternative ways of doing
20 the project.

21 It was 26 units, but it was actually an 80-unit
22 project, and it was a, it was a Philadelphia Housing Authority,
23 and it was a scattered site development. They wanted to do more 24 than what he had the units for. So in order to do all that they 25 wanted to do, he needed to have 26 additional units to complete

2641

1 the whole package, the whole area.

2 And I just told him I didn't, I didn't see how that was
3 going to happen, but I told him, you know, once again this spiel
4 about you first on the waiting list, get Congressional support,
5 make certain that the housing authority wants to do your project,
6 et cetera, you know, same general, you know, advice that you give 7 everyone that, that broaches you on the subject, and that he 8 ought to look into seeing if there was any sort of alternative
9 programs he might be able to use to do the same, same job.

10 Q. I'm going to show you what has been previously introduced as 11 Government's Exhibit 119 and ask you to take a quick look at that 12 before I request permission to publish it. It might be hard for 13 you to read on the screen.

14 A. Yes. This is a memorandum to me from Hunter Cushing, where 15 I tell him to prepare a response back to a letter that 16 Mr. Rosenthal had sent me about using Section 8 existing 17 certificates, as opposed to moderate rehabilitation.

18 Q. Who was Hunter Cushing?

19 A. Special assistant to the secretary for Housing.

20 Q. Would you read the first paragraph of that memo, please?

2 A. "Per your request, I have reviewed the letter from Pennrose
2 Properties concerning the use of Section 8 existing certificates
2 on a project specific basis in conjunction with moderate
2 rehabilitation funds."

2 Q. Did Mr. Cushing analyze this for you?

2642

1 A. Yes, he did, and said it wasn't possible to do.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

2 Q. Would you read the conclusion, please?

3 A. "While legally permissible to use Section 8 existing units
4 on a site specific basis, this precedent-setting action is not 5 advisable."

6 But I think that it was also not legally correct. I
7 think that was not permissible at that time.

8 Q. Did you continue to discuss Regent Street with Mr. Rosen-
9 thai?

10 A. Yes. It seems to me that he wrote me several letters.

11 Q. And did you respond to those letters?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Did Mr. Rosenthal ever succeed in getting Congressional 14 support for the Regent Street project?

15 A. Yes. I believe you've introduced letters from Senator Heinz
16 and Senator Specter on this project.

17 Q. And did Mr. Rosenthal ultimately receive the units?

18 A. Well, I'm going to assume so. I never knew that he did
19 until recently, but yes, I suppose he did. I mean, I know, I
20 have, I know it's been completed. The project was completed.

2 Q. Ms. Dean, directing your attention to Eastern Avenue, when

2 did you learn of Mr. Andrew Sankin's involvement in a project
2 called Eastern Avenue?

2 A. I believe that either I read it in the Inspector General's 2 report that came out in April of '89 or I read it in the 2643

1 newspaper. I don't remember which one came first.

2 Q. Okay. And when did you learn of Richard Shelby's interest
3 in Eastern Avenue?

4 A. Well, as I said this morning, that was the 88 units in 5 Prince George's County, and he came to my office and asked me
6 would I please help him secure the units for that project, and I
7 went and I told the secretary about it at that time, and I raised
8 it with him again when it came up from Mr. Demery on that list.

9 Q. Let me show you what I've marked for identification as Dean
10 Exhibits 255, -56, and -59. I ask you if you recognize these,
11 and would you describe each of them, please, without reading
12 them?

13 A. This is the application from the housing authority.

14 Q. With regard to what project?

15 A. Well, it's Prince George's County, Maryland, 88 units.

16 Q. Okay.

17 A. In Seat Pleasant, Maryland.

18 This is a, this is a memorandum -- okay, sorry. This 19 comes first.

20 Q. Which number?

2 A. Dean Exhibit 256 is a note from Mr. Cushing saying that,
2 wondering if there's a kind of funding for Eastern Avenue that's
2 not mod rehab, it's loan management set-aside, and then there
2 is -- which is another program -- and a memo from the person that
2 this memo is to back to Mr. Cushing discussing possible loan

1 management set-aside funds for the Eastern Avenue Apartments.

2 Q. For those three documents, is it in the regular course of 3 business for HUD to keep those documents?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And are those documents kept in the regular course of 6 business of HUD?

A. Yes.

8 Q. And do they appear to have been generated on or about the 9 date reflected on the document?

10 A. Yes, yes, and yes.

11 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I move the admission of Dean

12 Exhibits 256, 255, and 259.

13 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Let me see it then.

15 (Bench conference on the record.)

16 THE COURT: Okay. The objection is that?

17 MR. O'NEILL: She can say yes all she wants to to a

18 business record foundation, Your Honor, but does it appear to be 19 generated at or about that time, it's not a business record of 20 HUD. One, for the record, is a handwritten note, it appears,

21 from Hunter Cushing, I believe his signature is at the bottom.

22 It's on his letterhead.

23 THE COURT: Dated 10-16-86.

24 MR. O'NEILL: How would she know that's HUD business

25 records?

2645

MR. WEHNER: wait. The reason she knows it's a
2 business record is because it says on the upper left-hand corner

3 "United States Department of Housing and Urban Development."

4 THE COURT: Let me just go through these, please. The 5 other is October 23, 1986, 255. It's a formal typewritten thing

6 to Cushing from Finch, Deputy Director to the Office of Multi7

Family Housing.

8 And the third one is a letter to Mr. Demery as 9 Commissioner of Federal Housing Authority from the Director of 10 Department of Housing and Community Development, Prince George's

11 County.

12 I'll overrule the objection. I think they're all

13 identified and made in the course of business and received in 14 HUD. They are similar to other ones we have had.

15 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, it might save time, if you would

16 overrule them on those bases all along, I won't bother objecting.

17 THE COURT: I don't know each time what you're talking

18 about if you just say, "Objection." I haven't seen the exhibits.

19 I don't know what else you are objecting to or the basis each

20 time, whether it's the same basis or not.

21 MR. O'NEILL: The Department of Housing and Community

22 Development is not part of HUD.

23 THE COURT: Right, I understand that.

24 MR. O'NEILL: Okay.

25 THE COURT: But it's being received.

2646

1 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.

2 (End of bench conference.)

3 THE COURT: All right, 255, 256, and 259 are admitted.

4 (Defendant's Exhibits 255, 256, and 259

5 were received in evidence.)

6 BY MR. WEHNER:

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
7 Q. Ms. Dean, I'm going to -- as opposed to publishing these,
8 I'm going to just set these in front of you, and would you please 9 explain from the exhibits what they mean with regard to the 10 Eastern Avenue project?
11 A. Mr. Cushing, who was then the deputy assistant secretary for 12 Multi-Family Housing, is concerned that someone apparently has 13 brought him the information that there are two projects that are 14 about to be assigned or have been assigned to HUD. That means 15 that they have defaulted on their mortgage and HUD is going to 16 have to start running the project itself, which is something that 17 we do attempt to avoid as much as possible.
18 One of the projects is Eastern Avenue, and the other 19 one is Benning Heights Apartments. And he would like to know if,
20 basically if somebody buys these, can we approve the assignment
2 by giving them loan management set-aside, which is a kind of 2 additional money onto the rent we already pay, and it's basically
2 to manage the loan, loan management, and it's a set-aside amount
2 of money, so it's called loan management set-aside. And he wants
2 a status report and an analysis.

2647

1 And then coming back from his staff is an analysis that
2 they fit the criteria for two different kinds of programs,
3 flexible subsidy and Section 8 loan management set-aside.
4 And then it goes on to discuss that there are problems
5 with doing both those kinds of things with these projects. There
6 are problems with the projects. And it says that no matter if 7 someone buys it or whether HUD takes it over or whatever, more
8 than likely given the problems with the, these two particular
9 projects, that HUD will have to increase the amount of Section 8
10 monies that are going to the, to the projects to fix them up.
11 There apparently are vacancy problems with both of these
12 projects.
13 And this is the, this is a letter from the director of 14 the Department of Housing and Community Development in Landover,
15 Maryland, to Mr. Demery requesting 88 units of moderate
16 rehabilitation for Seat Pleasant, Maryland, which is the 17 application that came in on Eastern Avenue Apartments, and it has 18 a courtesy copy to Israel Roizman.
19 Q. Do you know who Mr. Roizman is?
20 A. Yes, I do. Mr. Roizman is a consultant and a, he was a
21 personal friend of Mr. Demery's. I don't know what he has to do
22 with this project. But he was also one of the larger fundraisers
23 for Mr. Demery's charity and a subject of part of the I.G.

25 Q. Directing your attention to the dates of those memos -

2648

A. Yes.
2 Q. -- would you have spoken to Mr. Shelby regarding Eastern
3 Avenue before those memos were written, or those documents were 4 written, I should say, or afterwards?
5 A. I would definitely have spoken to him before the letter came 6 in from the housing authority, because the letter from the 7 housing authority came in two days after the funding meeting,

8 where it was decided to fund it. And my educated guess would be 9 that when -10

Q. Not a guess, just your best recollection, please.

11 A. I don't have a recollection, but -12

Q. Okay. Do you recall that Eastern Avenue was finally funded
13 on April 7?

14 A. Well, I know that as a result of reading, I know that 88
15 units went to Seat -- went to Prince George's County, and I know
16 from reading the I.G. report that it did not go to Eastern Avenue
17 Apartments. They were not the successful applicant.

18 Q. Did you ever attempt or take any steps to encourage or 19 direct or help the State of Maryland to choose the Eastern Avenue
20 project?

21 A. Oh, no, no. I was in that funding meeting. I had a meeting
22 with Mr. Shelby. I spoke to Secretary Pierce about Mr. Shelby's
23 relationship with, with me twice, and that is the extent of it,
24 and I don't know anything about any of the rest of this.

25 Q. What about with the housing authority?

2649

1 A. I've never -- I do not know Ms. Given, who is the director.

2 I've never spoken to her. I've never met her.

3 Q. Did you ever have a discussion with Mr. Shelby as to why
4 that project was not ultimately funded?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Ms. Dean, with regard to any of the projects you've 7 discussed, did you take any action to cause them to be funded?

8 A. I don't know, which projects are you talking about?

9 Q. The projects that we've discussed today.

10 A. Necho Allen? Well, I did get the recommendation from the 11 staff, and I did discuss it with Secretary Pierce.

12 On Regent Street, I did meet with Mr. Rosenthal, and --

13 although I never knew that the units actually ended up going to 14 Regent Street, I, I did meet with him and tell him how to go
15 about the process, and I did discuss my meetings with Mr. Rosen-
16 thal with Secretary Pierce. I mean, I discussed any meeting I 17 ever had with anybody like that with Secretary Pierce if it was 18 going to end up on a list.

19 South Florida I, I didn't do anything on South

20 Florida I at all. Arama, I didn't do anything to have it funded.

21 I just sent that note.

22 Am I missing any?

23 Q. Those are the ones we discussed.

24 Now directing your attention to the Alameda Towers

25 project, you testified last week, I believe, that approximately 600 units had been sent to Puerto Rico.

2 A. Right.

3 Q. And that is the Alameda Towers project, connected with the 4 Alameda Towers project?

5 A. Well, half of it ended up being the Alameda Towers project,
6 and I didn't do anything to help fund that one, either.

7 Q. Let me show you what's been marked for identification as 8 Dean Exhibit 624 and ask you if that is the funding document for 9 the Puerto Rico Housing Finance Corporation?

10 A. Yes. This was the original funding of the 610 units that 11 went to Puerto Rico.

12 Q. In January of 1984?

13 A. In June --

14 Q. I'm sorry.

15 A. -- of 1984.

16 MR. WEHNER: June of 1984, thank you.

17 Your Honor, I move the admission of Dean Exhibit 624.

18 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: All right, 624 is admitted.

20 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 624 was

21 received in evidence.)

22 BY MR. WEHNER:

23 Q. Ms. Dean, where did you get this document?

24 A. I made a FOIA request from HUD, Freedom of Information Act

25 request from HUD.

2651

1 Q. And was it produced to you?

2 A. Yes. I Freedom of Information Act all the rapid replies and 3 the 185s from HUD years ago.

4 Q. Were you the executive assistant when that 185 was signed?

5 A. I'd been appointed to the position in -- yes. I was 6 technically not able to call myself executive assistant until the 7 white House had cleared me for the position, and that didn't 8 happen until the 24th of June, but I believe it was the 4th or 9 the 6th of June that Mr. Wilson was no longer there and I was 10 sitting in the office.

11 Q. Were you aware of that project at the time it was funded?

12 A. No. As a matter of fact, I'm very surprised, because as I
13 said, I learned of the Puerto Rico project, the 610 units going 14 down by Mr. Richards coming in to see me, to tell me that he had 15 problems with it, and I had no idea that this actually had been 16 funded after I was there already in that office.

17 But these things take a while, so certainly the 18 decision was made before I became executive assistant.

19 Q. Ms. Dean, I'm going to show you what I've marked for 20 identification as Dean Exhibits 519 and 623, 519 being written 21 purportedly to a Mr. Pietrantonio and 623 being written to 22 Mr. Eugenio Prado.

23 A. Urn-hum.

24 Q. Now are those identical letters except for the addressee?

25 A. And the signature.

2652

1 Q. And how did the signature -- what is the signature on Dean

2 Exhibit 519?

A. And the date.

4 Q. What is the date and the signature on Dean Exhibit 519?

5 A. This is the, this is the Autopen for the secretary, and this
6 is the secretary's signature. And if you remember the other day, 7 I told you it bumped and it sort of made a star in the middle of

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
8 the "a." That's how I can tell that's an Autopen.
9 Q. Which one was the Autopen signature?
10 A. This one.

11 Q. Which number?

12 A. Dean Exhibit 519.

13 Q. And which one was the personal Samuel R. Pierce signature?

14 A. Dean Exhibit 623.

15 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission, I'll move for 16 the admission of Dean Exhibits 519 and 623.

17 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right, 519 and 623 are admitted.

19 (Defendant's Exhibit Nos. 519 and 623

20 were received in evidence.)

2 BY MR. WEHNER:

2 Q. Ms. Dean, I'm going to put Dean Exhibit 519 on. And which

2 signature is this?

2 A. That's the Autopen.

2 Q. And how can you tell that's the Autopen?

1 A. Because of the star in the middle of the "a." There was a
2 skip in the machine, and it pushed the "S" into the "a," and it
3 made that sort of star shape.

4 Q. Do I have a pencil resting on the star --

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. -- for purposes of the record?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And 623?

9 A. That is his signature.

10 Q. With no star?

11 A. That's correct. And that one was dated the day before,
12 which is why I knew it was all right to Autopen the one the day
13 after since it's the identical letter.

14 I believe I discussed that letter earlier. It was the 15 one that I drafted for the secretary that said they had to 16 advertise the 610 units competitively.

17 Q. Now this is an original signature of Secretary Pierce?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. Would you read the first sentence of the second paragraph,
20 please?

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
21 A. "As you know, HUD does not allocate Section 8 moderate
22 rehabilitation funds on a project specific basis. HUD honored
23 your request for 610 units and 284 units of Section 8 moderate
24 rehabilitation funds because of the demonstrated need for 25 additional safe and decent affordable housing in Puerto Rico.

2654

1 Your letters dated September 16, 1983, and May 8, 1984, indicated
2 your endorsement and selection of the --" Mr. Wehner, you're --
3 Q. Excuse me.
4 A. "... and selection of the specific properties identified
5 therein. Because of those requests of September 16, 1983, and 6 May 8, 1984, we subsequently allocated 894 units to you."
7 MR. WEHNER: I'm sorry, Your Honor, I didn't realize 8 you were still looking at that.
9 THE COURT: That's all right.

10 All right, thank you.
11 THE WITNESS: And I stated before this was at a time
12 when there was a proposed lawsuit, and we were, you know,
13 attempting to tell Puerto Rico they had to go by the rules and 14 regulations.
15 BY MR. WEHNER:
16 Q. Okay. I believe we've covered fairly specifically before
17 the situation with units in Puerto Rico.
18 A. Yes, I think so.
19 Q. Okay. Now directing your attention to Mr. Sankin again --
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. -- would you tell us please what you said to Mr. Sankin with

2 regard to units in Puerto Rico?
2 A. Well, I -- the only conversation that I can remember having
2 with Andrew Sankin about mod rehab at all was that I did not want
2 to, I did not encourage him to become a consultant, because I

2655

1 didn't know what he knew about anything to consult with somebody
2 about, and I thought that he should get a job working for 3 somebody who was a consultant, and maybe in a couple of years
4 he'd know something that he could actually consult about.
5 But I didn't understand -- I tried to explain to him
6 you just don't walk in the door and become a consultant. So I
7 was, I did not encourage him.
8 He seemed to be aware of the situation in Puerto Rico,
9 and I believe I had a brief conversation with him about it, but 10 it certainly wasn't in any way -I
11 did not tell him, "You should 12 do something in Puerto Rico." I said, "You should get a job
13 working for somebody."
14 I did, however, have conversations with other people
15 about Puerto Rico.
16 Q. who did you talk to regarding Puerto Rico?
17 A. well, I talked -- well, when the secretary first decided 18 that we should not allow the 300 units that were not going to be 19 used to be taken back to the treasury, I called Lance Wilson, my 20 predecessor, because I really didn't know anybody in the 21 business, and I asked him for some names. He suggested that I 22 call Mr. Monticciolo, which of course, was the appropriate thing

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
22 to do, and I hadn't thought to do that, and I called 23 Mr. Monticciolo, who was our regional administrator, and I said,
24 "We need to encourage people to work with the housing
25 authorities, work in Puerto Rico, find somebody to use these 300

2656

units."

2 And there were some legal problems that had to be
3 worked out about separating the 600 units and sending them
4 from -splitting
5 off whether they went to San Juan or a
6 different housing authority. Mr. Monticciolo had some things he 7 had to work out with Ms. Hale, who was then the assistant
8 secretary, et cetera.
9 And I spoke to a lot of people about the fact that 10 there were these units down there and that if they could find a 11 project that would be good and use the units, that they should do
12 it.
13 Q. why did you speak to a lot of people about the units in
14 Puerto Rico?
15 MR. O'NEILL: Objection. Asked and answered.
16 THE COURT: I'll allow it again. Go ahead.
17 THE WITNESS: Because Secretary Pierce did not want 18 those units to be taken back and made of no use. We wanted to 19 get the, we wanted to get people into housing, and we were not 20 allowed to bring the units back from Puerto Rico. It had to be 21 done there. So I was trying to encourage people to, to find
22 buildings that would be suitable and find a housing authority
23 that could work within the 300 limit.
24 BY MR. WEHNER:
25 Q. Let me show you what's previously been introduced as Government's Exhibit 5L and ask you if that reflects a meeting with Tom Broussard?

2657

2 A. Yes, on Thursday, October 3 of 1985. And I definitely
3 remember telling Mr. Broussard about these units in Puerto Rico.
4 Q. Do you recall how you came to have lunch with Mr. Broussard?
5 A. Yes. It wasn't about the Puerto Rico units. He was a
6 friend of my predecessor, Mr. Wilson, and I know that Mr. Wilson
7 had asked me to be nice to Mr. Broussard if he ever called or if 8 he ever wanted to meet with me, to please do it, and I said all
9 right.
10 It was sort of a "get acquainted" meeting, like,
11 "Hello, I'm Deborah Dean."
12 "I'm Mr. Broussard."
13 And at that time, he said that -- I think he did a lot
14 of work with elderly and handicapped housing. He was a 15 consultant for that.
16 And I told him about the units in Puerto Rico and that 17 we were looking for someone to develop them.
18 Q. Did -
19 was Mr. Broussard one of the individuals that you had 20 mentioned to Mr. Sankin as someone he might work for?
21 A. I don't think so, but I don't -- I don't think I knew
22 Mr. Broussard to mention it to Mr. Sankin at that time. I know
23 that I did give him the name of Richard Shelby, I do know I did 24 that, and a couple of other people, but I, I can't remember who 25 they were at the time.
26 THE COURT: Is this the same area or a different area?

MR. WEHNER: Pardon me?

THE COURT: Is this the same area or a different area?

3 MR. WEHNER: Same area, but I can, it's fine to break
4 now if Your Honor chooses.

5 THE COURT: All right. Let's take an afternoon break,
6 Ladies and Gentlemen. We're going to be recessing this 7 afternoon, Ladies and Gentlemen, about 4:20 because of other
8 matters, so we'll take a break now for about 15 minutes and then 9 be back until 4:20, and then we're going to have to recess for 10 the evening.

11 Remember the admonition during the break, please.

12 Don't discuss the case among yourselves or with anyone else,
13 please.

14 (Jury out.)

15 THE COURT: All right, take 15 minutes.

1 (Recess 3:08 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.)

2 THE COURT: Are we ready? Any preliminary
3 matters, or are we ready to go?

4 MR. WEHNER: There's one, Your Honor. An
5 evidentiary matter.

6 Your Honor, there are four handwritten notes
7 that I had identified and authenticated by Mr. Sankin
8 during his cross-examination and I would intend to move
9 those into evidence now. Mr. O'Neill has indicated an

10 objection to that. They are marked as Dean Exhibits
11 315 - I'm sorry, Judge, 314, 315, 317 and 127.

12 THE COURT: What kind of notes are these?

13 MR. WEHNER: They're handwritten notes, Judge,
14 of Mr. Sankin's dealings with Puerto Rico and the Puerto 15 Rican project, and they are corroborative of two 16 aspects. One is the information that Miss Dean says she 17 provided to Mr. Sankin in terms of what his thoughts
18 were in terms of responding to her discussion, and 19 secondly, it is corroborative of the defense theory
20 regarding Mr. Sankin's dealings with Mr. DeBartolomeis
2 with specific reference to Dean Exhibit 127. It has a
2 reference to Silvio, Dean, Gustafson, Tom Broussard and
2 150 units.

2 THE COURT: Are those from himself or his
2 files or are they letters to somebody?

2660

1 MR. WEHNER: Judge, I'll hand them up to the
2 Court.
3 THE COURT: I'm looking at my notes of the 4 examination of Mr. Sankin. You identified 127.
5 MR. WEHNER: They are notes -- his own
6 personal notes I guess would be the way to describe
7 them.
8 THE COURT: You had all these identified by
9 him?
10 MR. WEHNER: That's my recollection, Your
11 Honor.
12 THE COURT: I see 127 in my notes. I don't 13 see the others discussed by him. I see some other 14 numbers. Maybe they were under some other notes. Do
15 you have them identified?
16 THE DEPUTY CLERK: I only have 127 as being
17 identified on September the 23rd.
18 THE COURT: Right. I have 128, 129, 130,
19 131.
20 The objection, Mr. O'Neill, was that these are 2 not identified or --
2 MR. O'NEILL: Hearsay, Judge.
2 THE COURT: Do you have any recollection that
2 these were identified?
2 MR. O'NEILL: No, Your Honor, I truthfully

2661

1 don't know one way or the other.
2 THE COURT: All right. I have 127 he
3 definitely discussed here in his testimony. I don't see
4 the three identified. I see 127 identified, what it
5 says, but then he said it wasn't reflective of a
6 discussion he had with DeBartolomeis. I'll sustain the 7 objection at this time. I don't see any grounds for 8 offering them. I don't see them identified except as to 9 the first one by Mr. Sankin that he said it's his 10 notes. Just because he identified them, that doesn't 11 make them admissible. It was used to impeach him
12 basically.
13 MR. WEHNER: Judge, the reason it's 14 admissible -- I was only referring of course to 15 Mr. Sankin for authentication purposes. The reason it's 16 admissible is because it's a prior inconsistent
17 statement by a witness in his own handwriting.
18 THE COURT: well, I think they can be used to 19 impeach him, but I don't think it makes them
20 admissible. I'll sustain the objection.
21 MR. WEHNER: Very well, Your Honor. That was 22 the one issue.
23 I guess there's one other one.
24 Your Honor, I have retrieved the cover page to 25 the job description for Executive Assistant to the 2662

1 Secretary and I've shown it to Mr. O'Neill and I believe
2 he agrees that with that conditional acceptance it can
3 be --
4 believe he withdraws his objection. I represent
5 to the Court that --
6 THE COURT: All right, what is shown to the 7 Court is a cover page of a position description on the 8 Office of the Secretary, of the Executive Assistant to

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
8 the Secretary, Deborah Dean's name filled in, and signed
9 apparently by Mr. Pierce. And it's Agency position
10 number 99333-2 and then attached to that the Executive 11 Assistant to the Secretary's job description. All 12 right. with no other objection to it that will be
13 admitted.
14 That was, Gloria, what exhibit number?
15 THE DEPUTY CLERK: I think it's 785.
16 THE COURT: Yes, 785.
17 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Okay.
18 (Defendant's Exhibit 785 received
19 into Evidence)
20 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission,
2 could we substitute the one the Court just reviewed?
2 THE COURT: All right.
2 All right. You can bring the jury in.
2 (Jury present)
2 THE COURT: All right. we'll resume with the

2663

1 testimony at this time, please.
2 BY MR. WEHNER:
3 Q Now, Miss Dean, with regard to Alameda Towers, I
4 want to show you what I've marked for identification as 5 Dean Exhibit 862 and 625, Exhibit 862 purporting to be a
6 letter on United States Senate stationery written to 7 Maurice L. Barksdale with regard to Alameda Towers and 8 signed by Paul Tribble, T-r-i-b-l-e, as well as Dean
9 Exhibit 625, which is - which appears to be a response
10 to Senator Tribble to his letter of October 5th.
11 A Yes.
12 Q And ask you if those are what I've - what they 13 purport to be?
14 A Yes.
15 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I move the admission
16 of Dean Exhibits 862 and 625.
17 MR. O'NEILL: No objection to the HUD
18 document, Your Honor, but an objection to the Senatorial
19 one.
20 THE COURT: Right, the Senator's letter. All
2 right. I'll allow them. Go ahead.
2 (Defendant's Exhibits 862 and 625
2 received into Evidence)
2 BY MR. WEHNER:
2 Q Now, Miss Dean, was Alameda Towers funded?

1 A Yes.
2 Q when?
3 A In 1984.
4 Q Did you have anything to do with the funding?
5 A No.
6 Q What was your position at the time?
7 A I was a Special Assistant to the Secretary,
8 awaiting to be given permission to then take the title
9 of Executive Assistant to the Secretary, but I was 10 sitting in the Office of the Executive Assistant to the 11 Secretary.
12 Q what interest did you have in seeing that this 13 Alameda Towers project was awarded?
14 A well, I mean I wanted to see anyone use the 300
15 units so that they wouldn't be recaptured and I wanted
16 what Secretary Pierce wanted and what he told me to do,

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
17 find someone to use them.
18 MR. WEHNER: Dean Exhibit 862, with the 19 Court's permission, I'm going to exhibit that to the 20 jury.
2 THE COURT: All right.
2 BY MR. WEHNER:
2 Q Miss Dean, would you read that, please?
2 A "Dear Maurice: Eduardo Lopez-Ballori, Alameda
2 Associates recently contacted me regarding an 2665

1 application for Alameda Towers in Puerto Rico which is
2 being considered at the Department of Housing and Urban
3 Development for rehab units.
4 I would appreciate your giving this applicant
5 every appropriate and fair consideration.
6 Please advise me when a decision has been
7 made.
8 Paul Tribble."
9 Q Who is Paul Tribble?
10 A He's a Senator from Virginia.
11 Q Do you know why the Senator from Virginia was 12 writing with regard to an allocation of Mod Rehab units
13 to Puerto Rico?
14 A Not specifically, but this sort of thing was not 15 unusual.
16 Q I direct your attention to Dean Exhibit 625 and 17 without reading it, reading it totally, what does the 18 letter reflect?
19 A The last paragraph -I think from - I read it
20 earlier and it basically says there are no -I believe
2 it's this year funds, but it says "it might be of 2 interest to Mr. Lopez-Ballori to know that during fiscal
2 year 1984 HUD did provide moderate rehabilitation funds
2 for approximately 610 units to Puerto Rico Housing
2 Finance Corporation. We suggest that Mr. Lopez-Ballori

2666

1 contact the Housing Finance Corporation to learn more
2 about the availability of these funds," and Mr. Ballori
3 was eventually Mr. Cleofe Rubi's, I think that's the man
4 who was here, Mr. Rubi's partner, and Alameda was 5 successful.
6 Q Now, at the bottom of this exhibit are one, two,
7 three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten boxes?
8 A Right.

9 Q Do those boxes have any significance?

10 A Yes, those are the concurrence chain for the letter
11 and I believe it starts out with Bell, then Shean,
12 Hastings, Hammernick, DeBartolomeis, and then it goes 13 right on around but I can't see it on the screen, HCB is 14 Hunter Bourne, SM is Stephen May, who was the Assistant
15 Secretary for Legislation. Shirley Wiseman is the SW
16 there. DK, I don't know who that is.

17 Q In the regular course of business, are these 18 signature blocks initialed prior to the letter being 19 sent?

20 A Well, the person who writes the letter sends it to
2 their boss who sends it to their boss who sends it to

2 their boss and as it goes up the chain they sign their 2 initials and they put the date that they reviewed the 2 letter for its accuracy.

2 Q Is it fair to say that each individual who has 2667

1 initialed this saw the letter before handing it to the
2 Secretary?

3 A I believe that was signed by the Assistant
4 Secretary.

5 Q Sorry. Signed by the Assistant Secretary.

6 A Yes, that's the custom, that's the policy,
7 procedure.

8 Q Now, Miss Dean, you previously -- you testified
9 over the last four or five days with regard to your

10 duties as Executive Assistant to Secretary Pierce.

11 A Yes.

12 Q And I'm going to show you what I've marked and 13 what's been admitted into evidence as Dean Exhibit 785
14 and ask you if you recognize that as the job description
15 for Executive Assistant?

16 A This is what you showed me earlier and I reviewed
17 it per your instructions and said that it was an 18 accurate reflection of what the position entailed.

19 MR. WEHNER: with the Court's permission, I'm 20 going to exhibit this.

2 THE COURT: All right.

2 BY MR. WEHNER:

2 Q Miss Dean, would you read down to where I have the 2 pencil? I'll just put a check mark.

2 A Stop there? "The incumbent of this position reports

2668

1 directly to the Secretary of Housing and Urban

2 Development, who has responsibility for directing a

3 great variety and number of nationwide housing and

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

4 community development programs. With this wide scope of 5 responsibility, it is impossible for the Secretary to 6 give individual attention and time to all matters which 7 deserve his personal attention. It is incumbent upon
8 this personal assistant to undertake on his behalf a

9 great variety of responsible assignments, frequently
10 crossing functional and organizational lines, dealing 11 with issues and program concerns throughout the 12 Department."

13 Q Would you read paragraph three, please?

14 A "As requested by the Secretary, or acting upon his 15 or her own judgment, assembles and digests all available
16 information on various issues relating to HUD policies
17 or specific actions on matters within his or her
18 purview. Makes presentations to the Secretary, together
19 with the views and reactions of interested Departmental 20 staff, and his or her own evaluations and 2 recommendations."

2 Q And that is under duties and responsibilities, is
2 it not?

2 A Yes.

2 Q Would you read paragraph number eight, please?

2669

1 A "Serves as the Secretary's personal representative
2 and spokesperson in meetings within and outside the 3 Department, as in, with the White House staff, members
4 of Congress, Federal, State and local officials, public
5 and private interest groups, et cetera. In this 6 capacity, presents the Secretary's personal views and 7 serves as the Department's advocate of its programs
8 policies, et cetera. As requested, provides staff

9 support to the Secretary on special committees at which 10 he or she is a member, as in the Domestic Council and

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

11 the Economic Policy Group, et cetera."
12 Q Number ten?
13 A Can you bring it down?
14 Q Sorry.
15 A "Review incoming and outgoing correspondence for the 16 Secretary relating to policy issues of particular
17 interest to the Secretary; discusses substantive content
18 on behalf of the Secretary with appropriate HUD
19 officials and may authorize affixing the Secretary's
20 signature to such correspondence. Conduct or prepares
2 interagency and other outgoing correspondence for the

2 Secretary with responsibility for assuring timely
2 response to incoming inquiries and correspondence
2 regarding such matters."

2 Q And, finally, under supervision and guidance.

2670

1 A "The incumbent reports directly to the Secretary who
2 provides broad policy guidance. The incumbent is 3 expected to act independently with little supervision.
4 Performance is evaluated in term of results achieved."

5 Q Thank you.

6 Now, Miss Dean, was this your job description
7 at the time you became Executive Assistant to
8 Secretary Pierce?

9 A I'd say that's a little broad, but it - it
10 accurately reflects, I think, what the Executive 11 Assistant to the Secretary was supposed to be.

12 Q And throughout all of the projects that we've 13 discussed, all the matters we've discussed over the past
14 four days, did you act consistently with that 15 description?

16 A I believe I acted a little less independently
17 than - than that says, because it was a discretionary
18 program and those were his decisions to make, and so I
19 did not act independently but I think that I attempted
20 to use my judgment as best I could and to report to him.

2 Q You have mentioned on several occasions in your
2 testimony an individual by the name of Lance Wilson.

2 A Yes.

2 Q Is Mr. Wilson present in the Court?

2 A Yes, he is.

2671

1 Q Would you point him out to the members of the jury?

2 A He's in the second row in the back with his hand
3 up.

4 Q Miss Dean, there's been testimony regarding a
5 payment of a bill for a birthday party.

6 A Yes.

7 Q Directing your attention to that, would you please
8 tell us, as accurately as you can recall, how that came 9 about?

10 A Yes. Some friends of mine at the Department got 11 together, and I don't know the whole -- the whole group,
12 but I know that there were two individuals in particular
13 who got together and decided that I had been going
14 through my confirmation hearings and Senator Proxmire
15 was being very rough with me and that I was going

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
16 through a bad time and they wanted to cheer me up.
17 So they put together a surprise birthday party
18 for me and they invited a lot of people in the industry
19 and around town and friends and -- it was a very 20 eclectic group of people, I remember. Actually a very 21 fun party. It was a good group of people.
22 And I was -- I got to the place where the 23 party was held and surprise, you know, and there were 24 all manner of different kinds of people there, including
25 some people who I guess you might term consultants.

2672

1 There were political people there and ex-HUD officials
2 and all sorts of people, plus people that I had worked
3 with privately and before HUD, and family members and 4 all sorts of different things.
5 The next thing that I heard about the party
6 was a telephone call that I received from -- I believe
7 the first phone call I received was from Mr. Mitchell
8 and he told me that the -- that Senator Proxmire's
9 investigator had arrived at the club where the party was 10 held with a subpoena and wanted the bill and the guest 11 list and that in order to stop any problem with this he 12 had taken a check over and paid for the birthday party.
13 And that my mother was then going to reimburse him for
14 that.
15 And I remember at the time asking him a lot of 16 questions about, well, who was going to pay for the 17 party and what is -- and he said you don't want to know,
18 and he said it's not your fault, you didn't know about 19 it. But heaven only knows what they could make of it.
20 And your mother and I have just decided to put an end to 21 it right here. And then I only was able to pick up bits

2 and pieces of it from Abbie Wiest, who was a friend of 2 mine who had helped put the party together, and another
2 friend of mine who was out of the Department,
2 Linda Murphy, who had helped put the party together, but 2673

1 they -- they felt that in their own best interests it
2 was best not to tell me too much, and they didn't.
3 And it was just -- that's really all I know

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
4 about it. It was a surprise party. And I don't know
5 why it was of interest to Senator Proxmire and I don't
6 understand what could have been wrong with it but I know
7 that my mother and Mr. Mitchell decided not to put me in 8 that sort of spotlight and to try and fix it. And 9 that's how that came about. They never intended to have 10 a very expensive party for me. I know that.
11 Q Now, Miss Dean, you testified it was a surprise
12 party.
13 A Yes.
14 Q Explain what your - at that point in time what a 15 surprise party meant in terms of your position as 16 Executive Assistant?
17 A Well, I mean it was a surprise party in that I did
18 not know I was going to have a birthday party and I did
19 not know where it was going to be. However, at the same
20 time, somebody had thrown me a surprise birthday party
2 every year for three or four years so I wasn't
2 hysterically surprised that I had a surprise party, but
2 I didn't know I was going to have a party either.
2 So -I knew I had one the year before and I
2 had one the year before that.

2674

1 Q And you characterize all of them as surprise
2 parties?
3 A Well, you try to.
4 Q Now, Miss Dean, you testified to your relationship
5 with John Mitchell.
6 A Yes.
7 Q Do you recall when Mr. Mitchell passed away?
8 A Yes, he passed away November 7th, I believe, of 9 1988.
10 Q And did you receive any funds, dollars, or anything
11 of value from his estate?
12 A No. His daughter inherited his estate and to the 13 best of my knowledge there was no estate to inherit.
14 Q Did you have occasion to fund any expenses arising
15 out of his death?
16 A Yes, I paid for his funeral. My mother and I paid
17 for his funeral.
18 Q Do you recall approximately how much that was?
19 A No, I don't but I do remember that it was all the 20 money that -it was more money than my mother had in 2 the bank, it was more money than I had in the bank, and
2 I did take some money from the Stanley Arms Apartment
2 account and transferred that to myself to help pay for
2 the funeral expenses. It was expensive.
2 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, could we break for 2675

1 the afternoon at this point?
2 THE COURT: Let me see counsel at the bench
3 for a minute, please.
4 (Bench conference)
5 THE COURT: What's left?
6 MR. WEHNER: One other project.
7 THE COURT: That's to play the tape?
8 MR. WEHNER: Well, there's one other, Park
9 Towers I need to do, Park Towers project. We'll do that

10 and play the tape and that's it.
11 THE COURT: So you'd finish that in the 12 morning. The tape * sabout an hour and 15 minutes?
13 MR. WEHNER: If Mr. O'Neill trusts me I'll 14 take the tape home tonight and try to cut it back,
15 because I don't have a copy of it. He's got the 16 original •
17 MR. O'NEILL : It's our tape. Well, it's not
18 even our tape ___
19 THE COURT: I understand. It came from the 20 Court reporter that was there at the hearings. But I'm
2 a little leery that you can make a copy of it and play a
2 copy.
2 MR. O'NEILL : We didn't want to make a copy
2 for the reason that if we screwed it up then -
2 MS. SWEENEY : It's an old tape.

2676

1 MR. WEHNER: Could you sit with me for ten
2 minutes and maybe I can cut it back?
3 MR. O'NEILL: I don't think that will work.
4 Somebody told me it's a hour, maybe an hour and a half.
5 I don't think so. You'd have to listen to the whole
6 thing. Can you listen to it here?
7 Under completeness, if Steve cuts out half we
8 might want that played anyway.
9 MR. WEHNER: I'll agree to play the whole
10 thing, if it applies. I mean I've never heard it.
11 MR. O'NEILL: Just so Your Honor knows, I
12 heard the first five minutes for the swearing in, just 13 to check that part out, and that was quite audible but 14 it is a -15
15 THE COURT: You'd better listen to the whole
16 thing instead of getting in the middle of it and playing 17 it and finding out whether there's problems. Maybe you
18 can sit here this evening.
19 MR. O'NEILL: You can have it. We have no
20 objection to that.
2 MR. WEHNER: Can I have it?
2 MR. O'NEILL: Oh, sure, we have no objection.
2 THE COURT: Then it's on his shoulders.
2 MR. O'NEILL: That's right, that's right.
2 THE COURT: All right.

2677

1 MR. WEHNER: And then there's one witness,
2 Michael Dorsey, J. Michael Dorsey.
3 THE COURT: The General Counsel.
4 MR. WEHNER: And he was a participant in the,
5 I believe, April 7th funding in which the Florida Park
6 Towers project was funded in. He's a brief witness.
7 THE COURT: And that will be it.
8 MR. WEHNER: I think so, Judge. We've been 9 trying to get Carolyn Jordan. I mentioned it to the 10 Court before. But the Senate doesn't want her to 11 testify. Even though she doesn't work there anymore

12 they're trying to convince her not to testify. She 13 doesn't really want to testify and I am in no position

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
14 to call her as a nonfriendly witness. I'm trying to 15 convince her that she should testify.
16 THE COURT: Is your cross as a matter of fact
17 a day, or not that much? I realize we've gone four 18 days. I don't want to limit you.
19 MR. O'NEILL: I understand. It's definitely a
20 half a day. I don't like to cross forever, but there
2 are obviously a lot of things that were covered. I
2 would hope if Steve finishes at lunchtime that I
2 wouldn't go long, into the next day at most.
2 THE COURT: Wednesday, and then maybe we've
2 got Thursday with Mr. Dorsey and then any rebuttal

2678

1 people.

2 MR. O'NEILL: Perhaps, on reputation.

3 THE COURT: So maybe then depending on the 4 schedule we could look at instructions on Friday,

5 perhaps, and go to the jury Monday? Depending where we

6 are in the case at that time. At least you have a

7 weekend to get ready for the closing arguments, Monday

8 for the closing arguments. The instructions I will look

9 at today. I got them in Friday. I asked for a disc.

10 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor, I think the 11 disc is here and I'll bring it into chambers.

12 The other thing I said to your Clerk, Your 13 Honor, is that we cleaned up a few typos, and so I have 14 another printed-out copy that I'll give to Mr. Wehner
15 and also to Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Tomorrow morning, Gloria?

17 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Nothing.

18 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Then we'll be 19 back tomorrow morning at 9:30 and we'll try to finish up
20 Miss Dean tomorrow then.

2 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Judge.

2 (Bench conference concluded)

2 THE COURT: All right. Ladies and gentlemen,
2 I was reviewing timing with counsel on the witnesses
2 that remain and where we are. I think we'll finish the 2679

1 testimonial, that is the evidentiary side of this case
 2 by the end of the week and will probably present the 3 case to you for decisional purposes after you have the 4 closing arguments and my instructions on the law that
 5 you'll follow in your deliberations early Monday, it
 6 could be Tuesday, depending on when I get my work done.
 7 We may not be sitting in this case for testimony
 8 purposes on Friday.
 9 All right. Have a good evening. we'll see
 10 you back tomorrow morning at 9:30. I have nothing else

1 scheduled early in the morning, so we'll be ready to go
 1 then.
 1 Remember the admonition about not talking
 1 about the case or reading or watching or listening to it
 1 in the media, please
 1 (Jury dismissed)
 1 THE COURT: All right, 9:30

1 PROCEEDING S
2 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Criminal Number 92-181,
3 United States of America versus Deborah Gore Dean. We
4 have Robert O'Neill and Paula Sweeney for the
5 Government. Stephen Wehner for Miss Dean.
6 THE COURT: All right. Good morning,
7 counsel. All the jurors showed up today. I think we're
8 ready to go. Miss Dean is ready?
9 MR. WEHNER: Yes, Your Honor. She is in the 10 ladies room.
11 THE COURT: Do you want to do the tape
12 recording first or later?
13 MR. WEHNER: I think we'll do it later, Judge,
14 with the Court's permission.
15 There's one other matter I'd like to bring to 16 the Court's attention and I don't think it's necessary
17 to bring this in front of the jury. It's just a waste
18 of time to bring it in front of the jury. It would be 19 to move in several exhibits that have been discussed and 20 identified and not moved into evidence and if the Court
2 wants to do that at sometime convenient to the Court as 2 opposed to having the jury present, I don't object to
2 that.
2 THE COURT: All right. we'll take it up at
2 recess.

2684

1 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir. Other than that, I

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 listened to the tape last night. It's incredibly

3 audible for an old tape recording. It really is.

4 Better than any tape I've ever heard. I think we can

5 make it out very well just on that little clock radio.

6 THE COURT: All right. If we're ready to go,

7 Miss Dean?

8 MR. WEHNER: Can we approach real quick?

9 THE COURT: Yes.

10 (Bench conference)

11 MR. WEHNER: Miss Dean just told me she 12 wasn't feeling well.

13 THE COURT: All right. I'll be watching her.

14 Ask for a break and I'll give you a break.

15 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.

16 (Bench conference concluded)

17 (Jury present)

18 THE COURT: All right. Good morning, ladies

19 and gentlemen. We're ready to resume today. Thank you

20 for getting here promptly I'm glad you all are here

2 today. We're going to resume with the direct testimony

2 of Miss Dean. We expect she'll finish the direct today

2 and be subject to cross today as well. Whether we'll

2 finish that or not, we'll see. All right.

2 MR. WEHNER: Good morning.

2685

1 THE JURORS: Good morning.

2 (DEBORAH GORE DEAN, THE DEFENDANT, RESUMED THE STAND)

3 DIRECT EXAMINATION

4 BY MR. WEHNER:

5 Q Miss Dean, I'd like to direct your attention to the 6 Park Towers project?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Do you recall testimony regarding that project

9 during the Government's case?

10 A Yes.

11 Q If you recall, that project was a Metro-Dade funded
12 project for the Metro-Dade Public Housing Authority?

13 A Yes.

14 Q would you describe to the jury, please, when you
15 first became aware of that project specifically?

16 A I don't really have any recollection of that 17 project specifically.

18 Q Okay. Do you have any recollection at all of 19 discussing that project with Richard Shelby?

20 A I might have but I just don't remember. I know
2 that it was back in 1985 and I know that he testified

2 that he believed that he spoke with me about it, but I
2 just don't recollect him talking to me about it.

2 Q Directing your attention to an individual by the 2 name of Andrew Sankin, do you have a recollection of 2686

1 discussing that project with Andrew Sankin?

2 A Mr. Sankin didn't have anything to do with that

3 project.

4 Q Did you discuss that with him though?

5 A No.

6 Q Directing your attention to the first time you met

7 Mr. Shelby in the presence of Mr. Mitchell.

8 A well, I met Mr. Shelby previously one time. I had

9 spoken to him on the phone years before when I was at 10 the Department of Energy. I had to call him about

11 something and I remembered he worked at the Republican

12 National Committee, and so I knew who he was because I 13 had a very pleasant conversation with him on the 14 telephone. And met him, I believe, with 15 Mr. DeBartolomeis, and after he had met with

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
16 Mr. DeBartolomeis I sort of ran into him and someone
17 said this is Rick Shelby and I said oh, yes, you
18 wouldn't remember, but I spoke with you many years ago
19 on the telephone, and I'm Deborah Dean.
20 And he mentioned that he knew John Mitchell
2 and I said that's terrific, and he asked me how John

2 was. And I said that John was fine. And he said I'd
2 really love to see John sometime. And I said, well,
2 why don't we have lunch. And the lunch with Mr.
2 Mitchell and Mr. Shelby was my idea. I put it together

2687

1 for the reason that Mr. Mitchell didn't see a lot of 2 people at that point. He was -- very much kept to 3 himself and very quiet, so I was always trying to sort
4 of get him out and engage him and introduce him to
5 people.

6 I know that Mr. Wynn testified that I had 7 lunch with him and Mr. Mitchell, and I was doing the 8 same thing. I thought Mr. Wynn was Mr. Mitchell's age

9 and they would get along and they could talk politics or 10 whatever, and it would bring John out a little.
11 Q Directing your attention to that lunch in 12 particular, what was your impression of the relationship
13 between Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Shelby at the lunch?
14 A It seemed to me that they hadn't seen each other in 15 a long time and they were -- they talked politics the 16 whole time. And who is running the campaign. Who is 17 going to be at the RNC, that sort of stuff. And I
18 basically sort of concentrated on my food because I
19 really didn't know who they were talking about. But 20 they seemed to have a good time.
2 Q Did you later find out that they in fact had a
2 relationship?
2 A I found out from the Independent Counsel, yes.
2 Q And is that the first time you discovered that
2 there was a business relationship between Mr. Shelby and

2688

1 Mr. Mitchell?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Now, do you recall a time Mr. Shelby in fact came
4 to you to discuss the Moderate Rehabilitation program?

5 A Yes, that was many years later, years later.

6 Q Let's date the Mitchell conversation that was in •
7 the Mitchell luncheon, was that in '85, '86?

8 A I believe so, yes, it was - yes.

9 Q Many years later would be approximately when Mr.
10 Shelby came to see you?

11 A Late 1986 or 1987.

12 Q And between those two dates do you recall any 13 conversations with Mr. Shelby regarding the Moderate
14 Rehabilitation program?

15 A I knew that he was working on Mod Rehab projects.

16 I knew that -- I mean I would have lunch with him on a 17 regular basis when we became friends and he was one of 18 my closest friends, and we had lunch all the time, and 19 he was always asking me questions, you know, can you do
20 this, can you do that sort of thing, and is it legal if
2 someone has this kind of - and he would basically ask
2 me a lot of questions and so I tried to answer them as 2 best I could, and help him out as much as I could
2 because he was a nice man and he had honest questions
2 and I knew the answers.

2689

1 So, you know, I knew he was involved and I

2 knew he had questions. So I knew he was working on

3 things. I just don't recall him having a specific

4 conversation with me until he came to my office and

5 asked me about the 88 units for Prince Georges County

6 and specifically asked for my help.

7 Q Okay. Prior to that conversation, did he ask for

8 your help with regard to any Moderate Rehabilitation

9 projects?

10 A No, because I was very taken back when he came and 11 asked me about the 88 units in Prince Georges County. I 12 really thought he had overstepped the bounds of our 13 friendship. I thought that was not a - I felt 14 personally imposed upon when he did that.

15 Q And what do you recall that he said to you during 16 the meeting in '87?

17 A He said that he had a client and he wanted these 88
18 units, and they were in Prince Georges County and could 19 I help him get them and I said no. I said I will -- I
20 said -- actually I just -- I couldn't believe he asked

2 me. I really thought it was imposing on a friendship to 2 do that, and I said, well, the only thing that I can do,
2 I can't help you and I can't even -- I couldn't vote on 2 your project if it came up because this is
2 inappropriate. It doesn't feel right.

2690

1 I said the only thing I can do is take it to
2 Secretary Pierce and I'll let him decide, and he said
3 all right, I understand that. And I think he felt
4 awkward that he had asked. He realized that I did not
5 receive that request well. And I think -- he never 6 approached the subject again.
7 Q Was that the only conversation you recall having 8 with Mr. Shelby in which a specific Mod Rehab project
9 was discussed?
10 A Yes.
11 Q As a result of that conversation did you talk to
12 the Secretary?
13 A Yes, I did. I spoke to him that day or the day 14 after.
15 Q What did you say to him?
16 A Well, I told him how really awkward I felt that 17 somebody had done that and, you know, his reaction was,
18 well, welcome to the real world. It happens to me all 19 the time. And people will -- people will impose on your 20 friendship, they do it all the time, and you just have
2 to, you know, come to me when it happens and tell me.
2 Q I want to show you what has been admitted into
2 Evidence as Government's Exhibit 84B and ask you if you
2 recognize that?
2 A I recognize the last two pages and I have seen --

2691

1 I've seen this as a Government's Exhibit. I don't
2 remember if I saw it or not before that. It doesn't --
3 I know it's addressed to me and I'm certain I got it,
4 and where it says file up in the corner, that's my 5 handwriting, so I must have got it. But I don't 6 remember this. I don't know why I would have page four 7 of a letter to somebody else. That doesn't make sense.
8 But the last two things I've seen before.
9 Q Do you recall receiving information from Mr. Shelby
10 attached to that note?
11 A No. I mean -- he sent me things on a regular 12 basis. I know that the attached -- this right here I 13 sent to him. So it couldn't be attached to this. He 14 wouldn't have sent me what I sent to him, I mean --
15 so -- I know I sent this to him.
16 Q That's one of the attachments to 84B.
17 A Right, it says that it's coming from him to me, but 18 I sent this to him, so -- and it was as a result of a
19 question that he had asked me about tenant eligibility
20 on a project that he was working on, but I don't know
21 which one, and I had just done a briefing on tenant 22 eligibility for -- can't -- put together a package,
23 and that was notes that I had from that package and I

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
24 said, well -- as a matter of fact, I just did a little 25 talk on that subject, I'll send you my notes, and those

2692

1 are my notes from the talk. So I sent them to him.
2 MR. WEHNER: with the Court's permission, I'd
3 like to exhibit this to the jury, these two pages.
4 THE COURT; All right.
5 BY MR. WEHNER:
6 Q These are the notes of what you recall that you
7 just described sending to Mr. Shelby?
8 A There was more to it than these. They had been 9 hand marked out, and this one basic -looks like the 10 basics of a Mod Rehab program which would have been the 11 beginning of the talk and then it got to tenant
12 eligibility in public housing, and there were notes
13 where I had marked through certain things and written on 14 certain things, and those went with this.
15 It was -- and I remember what his question
16 was. His question was that there was a problem with 17 relocating tenants and - you see, this is the beginning 18 of the talk and then it goes on. There are several -19
there are many more pages to this than these two.
20 Now, it doesn't makes any sense that Mr.
2 Shelby would be sending me the basics of the Mod Rehab
2 program.
2 Q I'll show you what I've marked for Identification
2 as Dean Exhibit 278 and ask if you can identify that?
2 A I know what it is, yes.

2696

1 Q Now, Miss Dean, did you ever have any conversations
2 with Mr. Shelby regarding the Park Towers project?
3 A I don't recall. It could very well have been. I
4 just don't recall having any specific conversations. I
5 don't recall the name Park Towers, for instance.
6 Q All right.
7 A He may have asked me a question about something to 8 do with it. I just don't remember him ever saying 9 anything about Park Towers, or I have a project, is 10 there anything you can do to help me about, that never 11 occurred, but he may have said to me I'm working on a 12 project in wherever. I just don't recall.
13 Q I direct your attention to the Stanley Arms.
14 A Yes.
15 Q Was that an apartment building that your family
16 owned?
17 A Yes.
18 Q How long had they owned it?
19 A well, my grandfather bought several apartment
20 buildings right after the war and the Stanley Arms was
2 one of them and we had -- the rest of them went to a -
2 an organization called Sarah's Circle that rehabilitated
2 them and used them in Washington but the Stanley Arms
2 for some reason didn't go as a part of that package and 2 we kept the Stanley Arms.

2693

1 Q What is it?

2 A This was provided for me, files of the Metro-Dade
3 Housing Authority files to -- subsequent to a subpoena
4 from the Independent Counsel and the Independent Counsel
5 provided it to us under discovery.

6 Q Without saying what -without reading the document

7 what is it?

8 A It is a 185 going to -it's a -- well, it's a

9 185.1.

10 Q It's a memo -11

A Actually -- I'm sorry, it's a 185 and it's a memo
12 that attaches to the 285 going from Mr. Demery to Mr.
13 Harris and it's funding some units, and then there's 14 Miss Sharifi's notes on the bottom. She testified that 15 this was her note on the bottom.

16 Q Miss Sharifi's notes. So 278 is a memorandum for 17 Raymond Harris, Regional Administrator, Regional Housing
18 Commissioner from Thomas Demery, Assistant Federal 19 Housing Commissioner, correct?

20 A Yes.

2 Q And it relates to 412 units being funded to 2 Metro-Date, correct?

2 A Yes.

2 Q What is 277?

2 A This is a rapid reply letter that was signed by 2694

1 Janet Hale on November 26, 1985 for 266 units to
2 Metro-Dade •

3 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission,
4 I'll move the introduction of 278 and 277.

5 MR. O'NEILL : Judge, no objection to 277.

6 Objection to 17 8.

7 THE COURT: All right. Let me see 278 for a
8 minute, I' m not sure I understood it.

9 277 is admitted.

10 (Defendant's Exhibit 277
11 received into Evidence)

12 (Bench conference)

13 MR. WEHNER: I think this is a different
14 funding. That' s '87.

15 MR. O'NEILL: Yes.

16 MR. WEHNER: This is '85.

17 THE COURT: Is this in evidence?

18 MR. O'NEILL: That's in evidence, Your Honor.

19 That's one that Miss Sharifi identified.

20 THE COURT: Oh, she identified this. The
2 objection to this one is what?

2 MR. O'NEILL: As to the handwriting, Judge.

2 THE COURT: Oh, this handwriting.

2 MR. O'NEILL: Yes.

2 MR. WEHNER: I'll be glad to delete the

1 handwriting.

2 MR. O'NEILL: That will be fine.

3 THE COURT: I'll admit 278 with the 4 redaction.

5 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, do you want to say that

6 for the record?

7 THE COURT: Yes, just say that for the
8 record, so there's no confusion. Thank you.

9 (Bench conference concluded)

10 (Defendant's Exhibit 278

11 received into Evidence)

12 BY MR. WEHNER:

13 Q Miss Dean, I'd like to draw your attention to 14 Government Exhibit 204, and is that Miss Sharifi's
15 handwriting?

16 A Well, I don't know Miss Sharifi, so I don't know.

17 I know that she identified that and I believe that -

I

18 mean one of them was done by Miss Sharifi and one was 19 done by Mr. Calabrese, according to the Government, you
20 know -

2 MR. WEHNER: I think the record should
2 reflect that the 204 was written by Miss Sharifi.

2 A Then that was Mr. Calabrese, all right.

2 THE COURT: All right.

2 BY MR. WEHNER:

2697

1 Q Directing your attention to Mr. Andrew Sankin, do
2 you recall when he started doing any work for you or 3 your family visavis the Stanley Arms Hotel?

4 A Yes, the same conversation originally that when Mr.
5 Sankin came and said I would like to work in a Moderate
6 Rehabilitation program, be a consultant, and I said you
7 don't know enough to be a consultant, but here, you
8 should go get a job, work for these people.

9 The same day he said I need to work. I'm just 10 out of school. whatever. And my grandfather had passed
11 away recently and my uncle, who was running the family
12 affairs, developed cancer and was very, very ill and 13 there was no one to run the Stanley Arms and I couldn't 14 do it because I didn't feel that I should be in - 15 helping my family run a business that was very similar 16 to what I did in the Government.

17 So I told Mr. Sankin - I said, actually we're 18 looking for someone to run this apartment building
19 and - my family, and since that is what your father
20 does and you're working for your father doing that, if
2 you want to do it we'll hire you out to do it. That's
2 the best I can do for you. I can't help you be a
2 consultant at HUD but I will see if I can get you this
2 job with my family.

2 And then I think Mr. Sankin spoke to my mother

2698

1 and started to collect the rents, buy heating oil, that
2 sort of thing.

3 Q What did the job entail?

4 A Collecting rents, and buying the heating oil, and
5 making certain that the elevators were inspected.

6 Basic -just

the basics of an apartment building

7 maintenance operation, which is what his father did.

8 They had a company that did that and he was working for 9 his father doing it.

10 Q Was he paid for the work that was being done?

11 A Yes.

12 Q At the beginning -13

A It was a standard fee.

14 Q At the beginning what was his fee arrangement?

15 A It was a percentage of the rental income, but I
16 don't remember what it was. He said it was, I think,
17 four percent, so I assume that that's probably correct.

18 Q Did there come a time when that increased?

19 A Yes, he received an increase after the - after he 20 had done the rent increase with the District, we
2 increased the percentage because we were now - the
2 building was running in the red because it was being run
2 by the trust department of a bank and they were charging
2 a lot, and so it was losing money, and just actually by 2 getting it out of the trust department of the bank and

2699

1 running it ourselves would actually sort of move it into

2 just losing a little bit of money as opposed to losing a

3 lot of money.

4 And so my family wanted to do that and then he

5 did do a good job during this rent increase, and so then

6 I think that my mother increased his percentage of what

7 he was getting from the rents.

8 Q Regarding the rent increase, were you familiar with 9 what he did in order to obtain the dispensation of the 10 city to raise the rent?

11 A It's a hardship rent increase, and actually I think

12 I talked to him maybe two times about it, but mostly he 13 dealt with my mother and he said that he had spoken with 14 Mr. Mitchell, so maybe he spoke with Mr. Mitchell to 15 deal with my mother. I really - I don't know. But I
16 only met with him a couple of times about it and that 17 was because he was unable to get an answer from my 18 mother or a decision from my mother, and so he would ask
19 me to intercede with my family to make a decision.

20 Q How long did the relationship between the Stanley
2 Arms property and Mr. Sankin continue?

2 A Until we finally were able to sell the building.

2 Q Do you remember approximately when that was?

2 A I believe it was about a year and a half ago.

2 Q When did the relationship begin?

2700

1 A It would have been late '84, early '85.
2 Q So your relationship with Mr. Sankin would have
3 been from late '84, early '85 until 1991?
4 A Well, his relationship with the Stanley Arms, which
5 was really a relationship with my mother.
6 Q Taking that entire time period from the time you
7 first met Mr. Sankin through late 1991, how many 8 conversations do you recall having with him with regard
9 to the Moderate Rehabilitation program?

10 A Well, I remember discussing with him that I didn't 11 think he could be a consultant and I remember discussing 12 with him that I never wanted to discuss Mod Rehab with 13 him and I know he kept trying to discuss it with me and 14 I kept saying Andrew, stop. I don't want to hear it.
15 And he tried to slip things in, but I can't remember
16 what they were, but he'd always say something like I met 17 Rick Shelby. I don't want to hear about it, Andrew. If 18 you go get a job with someone, go get a job. I don't 19 want to hear about it.
20 And I never discussed any of the projects that
2 he testified that he made money from in this trial.
2 I never discussed those with him, with the exception of 2 Alameda Towers where he asked me what was the story with
2 the units in Puerto Rico, and I told him what was going
2 on and told him that I didn't think he was capable of

2701

1 being involved actively.
2 Q And those were the efforts you were making to find
3 a developer for those units?
4 A In Puerto Rico, yes.
5 Q Did you become aware that Mr. Sankin was discussing 6 the Moderate Rehabilitation program with others in the 7 Department?
8 A I know it now because I've been able to go through 9 his notes and other people's notes. I know that he was 10 actively involved with other people in the Department,

11 but I didn't know it at the time.
12 Q How many lunches do you think that you had in that 13 time period with Mr. Sankin?
14 A I think maybe I've had lunch with Andrew Sankin in 15 five or six years, maybe two or three times.
16 Q And what five or six years would that be?
17 A Up until-- I mean I remember I had lunch with him
18 about two years ago when he wanted some advice on 19 getting a job. He had been out of school and - I
20 remember having lunch with him then. I believe that I
21 remember having lunch with him one time when I was 22 working at HUD, but I don't remember if I was in the 23 Executive Secretariat or Executive Assistant, and he may 24 or may not have been at that lunch that I had with Mr.
25 Rosenthal, I don't remember, and I don't want to say he

2702

1 wasn't there, because I don't remember. So I'd say two
2 or three times in -
3 Q And over what time period?
4 A From when I met him in 1983 until today.
5 Q What about dinners or breakfasts?
6 A I've never had breakfast with Mr. Sankin. I know
7 that. Dinners, I -- when he was dating a young woman
8 who was an architect and I was dating an architect, he 9 asked me several times would I please, you know, have 10 the architect give her advice on where she should look
11 for a job or whatever, and I know that the four of us
12 had dinner several times, and I know that when Andrew
13 was dating Janice Golec I believe the two of them
14 would -- we might meet after work or something like that 15 and have a few beers or a cheeseburger or something, and 16 I just -- I can't quantify it because I just -- they 17 never stuck in my mind.
18 I remember one time running into him on 19 Christmas Eve, having dinner with Miss Joyce and her 20 family, right before midnight Mass, and I know I was
2 there with another group of people and I think -- and I
2 know that he has been to my apartment for dinner on one
2 or two occasions and sometimes he would just sort of 2 drop by.
2 I mean it's -- if you were having dinner you

2703

1 sort of fed him. He did that a lot. He dropped by a
2 lot
3 Q You had a social relationship with him, correct?
4 A Well, I -- I mean he's not my age and I wouldn't
5 consider him to be sort of a friend-friend, but I did
6 sort of try to look out for him and try to give him
7 advice when I could.
8 If he dropped over it was usually because he
9 had some problem. He had problems with, as we discussed
10 before, when he and his girlfriend were dating and they 11 thought they might be having a baby and they spent a lot
12 of time in my living room, I remember.
13 So I would say that I had a sort of like a big 14 sister maybe relationship with him.
15 Q Do you recall testimony from Mr. Sankin that on one
16 occasion he gave you an expensive bottle of wine?
17 A Yes.
18 Q Do you recall that occurring?
19 A I know -I remember him giving me a bottle of 20 port. I certainly -if it didn't have a price tag on
2 it, I certainly wouldn't have known that it was an
2 expensive bottle of port, and it did not have a price
2 tag on it, and I don't know why anyone would spend that
2 kind of money on a bottle of port. I know I wouldn't do
2 that. And I don't remember him saying it was special.

2704

1 He just came to dinner and -- or dropped by and had
2 dinner or whatever, and I remember him bringing a bottle
3 of port with him.
4 Q Did he ever give you a Christmas present that
5 appeared to be from Georgetown Leather?
6 A No.
7 Q What about a cup and saucer?
8 A Yes, he gave me a cup and saucer for Christmas
9 right after he -- the incident with Miss Joyce and 10 himself, and he said that -- and I told him -I
11 said,
12 oh, thank you, Andy, you know. And it was a cup and 13 saucer. I didn't know what to do with it. I said oh,
14 thank you, Andy. And I put it away. I didn't realize 15 that it was a very nice cup and saucer until I saw the 16 Government's receipt. I just -it
17 just looked like a
18 cup and saucer.
19 Q Do you recall there was testimony that -earlier
20 in the trial regarding exception rents and the level at 21 which exception rents had to be approved at the Housing
22 and Urban Development?
23 A I remember that he said that he came to see me on 24 the Necho Allen Hotel because it was a Secretarial
25 decision to make exception rents, and that's why he came 26 to me. But that's not true.
(Rectangle comment Administrator

blank)
27 Q Based on your understanding of the way HUD operated

2705

1 when you were Executive Assistant, at what level were
2 exception rents approved or disapproved?
3 A They certainly can be approved by the Secretary.
4 In this case they were approved by the Secretary, but 5 they can also be approved by the Assistant Secretary for 6 Housing. You don't have to go to the Secretary for 7 exception rents.
8 Q Do you know an individual -- know of an individual
9 by the name of Linda Chavez?
10 A I know who Miss Chavez is and I met with her
11 several times when she was at the Civil Rights
12 Commission.
13 Q Who was she?
14 A She was a member of the Civil Rights Commission and 15 she later ran for Senate in the State of Maryland.
16 Q Did you financially support her?

17 A I most certainly didn't.

18 Q Did you request that others financially support
19 her?

20 A I didn't believe in Miss Chavez's candidacy and I
2 didn't get along with Miss Chavez when she was at the

2 Civil Rights Commission and I didn't support her in any
2 way.

2 Q Specifically, did you request that Mr. Sankin make
2 a donation to her campaign?

2706

1 A I most certainly didn't. There is an entry, on a

2 follow-up to your question, there is an entry in my

3 calendar that says Chavez reception, but there are lots

4 of receptions that are entered on my calendars that I

5 didn't attend, and I didn't attend that reception for

6 her.

7 Q Miss Dean, directing your attention to May 16th of 8 1987.

9 MR. WEHNER: I'm sorry, Judge, I was looking
10 for a specific entry and I couldn't find it and I

11 realize that I was looking at April instead of May.

12 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead.

13 BY MR. WEHNER:

14 Q Directing your attention to May 16, 1987.

15 A Yes.

16 Q There's an entry in that calendar, Catholic U
17 commencement, Kelly Joyce.

18 A Yes.

19 Q Who was Kelly Joyce?

20 A That was Mr. Sankin's lady friend at the time. I
2 believe that they actually were engaged. So I think

2 that Miss Joyce was his fiancée at that time and she had
2 sent me and a man that I was dating at the time who was 2 an architect, an invitation to her graduation from

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 architecture school, and so Mrs. Hawkins wrote into this

2707

1 calendar that I had been invited to it. I didn't
2 attend.
3 Q Did you attend the commencement?
4 A No, I did not.
5 Q Where were you on that day?
6 A I was at the Preakness at Pimlico.
7 Q And was Mr. Sankin anywhere near you on that day,
8 as far as you know?
9 A No, I didn't see Mr. Sankin on May 16th.
10 Q And was he still dating Kelly Joyce at that point,
11 to your knowledge?
12 A I don't know. But I assume so.
13 Q Who else was at the Preakness with you?
14 A My Aunt Louise was there and Mr. Franco was there
15 who was the person who had had the -- a lunch. He 16 had -- he has it every year the day of the Preakness
17 and, you know, I don't remember everybody that was there
18 but -- I didn't know a lot of people who were there. I
19 think that there were a lot of politicians, and I do
20 remember there being some attorneys there, one of them
2 being Mr. Sankin's attorney but -- I can't remember his
2 name right now, frankly. And I know him because he had
2 been one of Mr. Mitchell's attorneys. That's how I knew
2 him. I just can't remember his name right now. Plato
2 Cacheris, that's his name. Plato Cacheris. He came 2708

1 by the table and said hello.
2 Q Miss Dean, directing your attention to the 3 Government's Exhibits reflecting your calendars, I'm
4 going to set them all up here so I don't have to go back
5 and forth.
6 Can you describe, please, how your calendars
7 were kept when you were Executive Assistant at HUD, just 8 briefly?
9 A Yes, these blue calendars for '86 and '85 --

10 Q Would you identify them by number, please?
11 A I'm sorry, Government's Exhibit Five and 12 Government's Exhibit Six. They were a gift to me by 13 the -- it's one or more of the Special Assistants that 14 were in the office and so I kept it on my desk to be,
15 you know -- so they would think that I used it, but I
16 didn't use this very often.
17 However, Mrs. Hawkins kept this calendar which 18 is Government's Exhibit Seven and this was on her desk
19 and she did a very good job. I mean this actually 20 reflects the time and who I met with and who came in and
2 who went out and she would erase people if they didn't
2 show up for the meeting or the meeting was canceled.
2 So these are actually very accurate
2 calendars. So the calendar for 1986 is accurate, is 2 very accurate.

2709

1 This is not my calendar. That's -- this is

2 not mine.

3 Q Sorry.

4 A And these are copies of -- these are xeroxed copies

5 of entries of calendars, so just -- but these two were

6 on my desk and I don't know where the other calendars

7 are that Mrs. Hawkins kept. They're just not -- they

8 just didn't come back with my papers. They would have

9 been with this one, but not everything that I left at 10 HUD came back to me when we went to get my papers. They 11 were not complete.

12 And these were on my desk and they 13 basically -- they somewhat reflect meetings and -- but 14 there's a lot of things in here -- things that are 15 canceled aren't in here. Things that I was just 16 thinking about maybe doing. Someone called and said,
17 you know, could you come to New Orleans on the so and 18 so, I'd write in New Orleans. Whether I went there or 19 not I'd really have to check the travel vouchers.
20 I've just always maintained that these were
2 very inaccurate, the ones that were on my desk, and

2 Mrs. Hawkins* calendars were accurate, very accurate.

2 Q Miss Dean, I'm going to show you what I've marked
2 for identification as Dean Exhibits 30 and 31.

2 MR. WEHNER: Excuse me, Your Honor.

2710

1 BY MR. WEHNER:

2 Q I'll show you what I've marked for identification
3 as Dean Exhibits 30 and 31.

4 A Yes.

5 Q And ask you if you can identify those?

6 A Yes, those are HUD expediter lists. They're an 7 abbreviated telephone book so that you can reach
8 basically people at home and it has your home phone
9 number and your work phone number and your office and 10 your title, and these were given to the Secretary and 11 the Assistant Secretaries basically so that if there was 12 an emergency you could get somebody at home if you

13 needed to.
14 Q What is the date of Dean Exhibit 31?
15 A October of 1987.
16 Q And what is the date of Dean Exhibit 30?
17 A June, 1988.
18 MR. WEHNER: I move the admission of Dean
19 Exhibits 30 and 31, Your Honor.
20 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.
2 THE COURT: Pardon me?
2 MR. O'NEILL: Objection.
2 THE COURT: All right, come up.
2 (Bench conference)
2 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

2711

1 MR. O'NEILL: I don't see the relevance,
2 Judge. I asked Steve and he did give me a proffer
3 saying that Jack Brennan had said or -that it was a
4 yellow book, that wasn't shown to anybody on 5 cross-examination to identify whether or not that was 6 the book. I don't know what an expediter list has to do
7 with this case.
8 THE COURT: Brennan was given a copy of a
9 yellow telephone book.
10 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, it's actually
11 Mr. Gauvry and not Mr. Brennan who testified about it,
12 but he identified it as the large book that contains all 13 the federal employees, not as a HUD book.
14 THE COURT: Yes.
15 MR. WEHNER: I don't believe that's what he 16 testified to. Maybe you're right, Paula. It's in the 17 transcript.
18 THE COURT: There is -
19 MR. WEHNER: I don't remember a large yellow
20 book that contains - I don't know if there's such a 21 book.
22 MS. SWEENEY: They have them in reference
23 libraries and they're available to the public to be 24 purchased.
25 THE COURT: Is that what he testified to?

2712

1 MS. SWEENEY: I'm really not sure.
2 THE COURT: Did he testify before Brennan or 3 after Brennan?
4 MS. SWEENEY: He testified after -- well, I
5 don't know.
6 MR. O'NEILL: He was after Brennan.
7 MS. SWEENEY: He described it as some kind of 8 federal employees phonebook.
9 THE COURT: I think it was close enough to the 10 time. My recollection is that he talked about a HUD
11 phonebook. He talked before a general telephone book.
12 What stuck to my mind was there was a suggestion
13 implicit in the testimony that he had gotten it through 14 Deborah and sort of brought the information out, as to 15 their relationship. Otherwise it was just irrelevant.
16 If that's true, it's not relevant, but if it's not the 17 right one -- let me look at his testimony for a minute.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

18 MR. WEHNER: I don't have his testimony here
19 today.

20 MR. O'NEILL: Nor I.

2 THE COURT: Could I see when he testified,
2 please?

2 THE DEPUTY CLERK: I have it being marked on
2 September 16th, I have Barksdale.

2 MR. WEHNER: I had marked it to identify it,

2713

1 but as to what they were -2

THE DEPUTY CLERK: They were marked at
3 Barksdale.

4 THE COURT: He said that the yellow 1988
5 expediter list or telephone book, 1987. He identified
6 what that was. You don't have the witness I'm talking
7 about. You're looking for who?

8 MS. SWEENEY: It's Gauvry, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Gauvry.

10 Do you have the days of the witnesses'
11 testimony separately listed?

12 THE DEPUTY CLERK: No.

13 THE COURT: I thought you did.

14 MS. SWEENEY: It was relatively early in the 15 trial, Your Honor. It was the first couple of days.

16 THE COURT: Here it is.

17 MR. O'NEILL: We got you, Judge.

18 THE COURT: I didn't make a note of what he 19 said about the telephone book. Here it is. Redirect.
20 Conversation with Deborah Gore Dean and yellow telephone
2 book, she was number two at HUD. That's all my notes
2 reflect. I don't know what that means. I'll overrule
2 the objection. I think it's close enough.

2 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, I'd like the record to
2 know for both of these she's no longer employed at HUD

2714

1 as an Executive Assistant.

2 THE COURT: This one, June of '88?

3 MR. O'NEILL: Right.

4 THE COURT: when did she leave?

5 MR. O'NEILL: She left in July of '87.

6 MR. WEHNER: That's exactly the point.

7 MR. O'NEILL: I guess are you trying to say,
8 Steve, that that's a lie? They didn't have the book?

9 THE COURT: It's a statement of what he saw
10 because he said -- he tied it directly to Miss Dean and 11 said he saw an old book with the telephone numbers from 12 HUD and he said he saw her listed as Executive
13 Secretary.

14 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, I will withdraw my
15 objection.

16 THE COURT: I have to take a break shortly
17 before 11 for about -- I'll just have an early morning
18 recess. I have another matter, about five minutes, in 19 chambers.

20 MR. WEHNER: Five minutes from now.

2 THE COURT: I'll take a break at ten of 11.

2 (Bench conference concluded)

2 THE COURT: All right, 30 and 31 are admitted,

2 MR. O'NEILL: For the record, Judge, the
2 Government is withdrawing its objection.

2715

1 THE COURT: Thank you.
2 (Defendant's Exhibits 30 and 31
3 received into Evidence)
4 BY MR. WEHNER:
5 Q Miss Dean, I'm going to show you what I've marked
6 for identification as Dean Exhibit 397 and ask you if
7 you recognize this?
8 A Yes, it came from my files at HUD.
9 Q Okay. And it is a memo to Larry Goldberger from
10 you?
11 A Yes, it is.
12 Q In your handwriting?
13 A Yes, it is.
14 Q And Exhibit 398 is a letter from the City of 15 Louisville?
16 A Yes.
17 Q To Secretary Pierce?
18 A Yes.
19 Q And is that -- did that letter come to you?
20 A They sent me a copy because I'm asking him to
2 prepare a response -- or it might have come to the 2 Secretary and he gave it to me for a response. It came
2 to me or the Secretary. It could have either come to me
2 or the Secretary. I'm not sure.
2 Q And does it relate to a project in which Louie B.

2716

1 Nunn had an interest?

2 A Yes, it says that he was a partner.

3 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission, Your

4 Honor, I'll move the admission of Dean Exhibits 397 and 5 398.

6 MR. O'NEILL: Objection on relevance grounds,

7 Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Let me see it.

9 (Bench conference)

10 THE COURT: what project did this go to? It's 11 not a project?

12 MR. O'NEILL: No, Judge.

13 MR. WEHNER: It goes only, Judge, to dealings
14 between Miss Dean and Louie Nunn. Its relevancy shows 15 that she treated Louie Nunn consistently, regardless of

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
16 the Government's theory as to their co-conspirator
17 relationship. She'll testify that this was handled in a
18 routine fashion, simply appropriate office policy,
19 notwithstanding the fact that he apparently had an 20 interest.

2 THE COURT: This is not a project that was a

2 part of any of the conspiracies.

2 MR. WEHNER: Absolutely not.

2 THE COURT: All right, I'll overrule the
2 objection. I think it goes to her theory of defense.

2717

1 (Bench conference concluded)

2 THE COURT: 397 and 398 are admitted.

3 (Defendant's Exhibits 397 and 398

4 received into Evidence)

5 BY MR. WEHNER:

6 Q Miss Dean, I'm going to publish the first page of 7 398 on the viewer. It's a lengthy document, so I'm just

8 going to do the first page. would you tell us,

9 please -- just summarize for us what the letter
10 concerns, what it is asking for?

11 A Well, it's a letter to the Secretary and it says
12 that it's regarding a housing development action grant,
13 which is the HODAG, and that it's for Park View Plaza
14 and that the partners are Mr. Simpson and Louie Nunn and 15 it's asking us for -- they're appealing the decision. I 16 guess it was ranked -- it was not ranked high enough to 17 be awarded the funds, so they're appealing the ranking,
18 and they're asking that the Department look at it again,
19 basically give it more points, and fund it.

20 Q Now, it reflects in the top that it is a limited
2 partnership between Edward Simpson and Louis B. Nunn,

2 correct?

2 A Correct.

2 Q What does that mean to you?

2 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.

2718

1 THE COURT: I'll sustain that. She can
2 identify the name if she knows it, but as to the legal
3 relationship -4

BY MR. WEHNER:

5 Q Is that the same Louie Nunn who testified here?

6 A Yes, it is.

7 Q I'm turning to 397 and I ask you to read it to the 8 jury?

9 A It says "Larry Goldberger," he was the head of the 10 office that did the rankings and the ratings on the 11 HODAG's, that's why it was addressed to him. It 12 says, "Larry Goldberger. Please provide me with an 13 appropriate response to the Mayor. Deborah."

14 Q And you wrote that note?

15 A Yes, I did.

16 Q To Mr. Goldberger?

17 A Yes.

18 Q How did you come to write the note?

19 A I received the letter, and I don't know how I
20 received that letter, but it needed an appropriate
2 response and the person to write the response was the 2 person who had done the ratings and the rankings.

2 Q Do you know how he responded?

2 A No.

2 Q Did you make any suggestion verbally or other than 2719

1 in this memo as to how he should respond?

2 A No, Mr. Goldberger understands from that note that
3 he is to write back a letter -4

MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Judge, to what

5 Mr. Goldberger understands.

6 THE COURT: All right, I'll sustain it.

7 A There's no telling Mr. Goldberger to do anything
8 but provide an appropriate response. Whatever

9 Mr. Goldberger thinks the appropriate response is.

10 MR. WEHNER: Can we approach?

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 (Bench conference)

13 THE COURT: Do you have a lot of these to 14 mark? Shall we mark them over the recess?

15 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, Mr. Wehner showed me
16 these yesterday. The reason I'm objecting is because we 17 never saw these before. The thing, Judge, is this is 18 discovery. I know we've suspended the federal rules of 19 evidence for a few days, which is okay.

20 THE COURT: we didn't, but that's all right.

2 MR. O'NEILL: In a criminal procedure it also
2 would be a little much to bear.

2 THE COURT: That's the purview of the Court.

2 MR. O'NEILL: I'm saying it with a smile,
2 Judge, just so the record is clear.

2720

1 MR. WEHNER: That's true, Judge, I did not
2 show these to Mr. O'Neill until yesterday. I have no
3 excuses for not showing it to Mr. O'Neill except that I
4 didn't have them until shortly before then and their 5 relevance did not become apparent until there were some

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
6 lunches that allegedly occurred during the time that
7 Miss Dean was on sick leave.
8 THE COURT: Does that show that here?
9 MR. WEHNER: She was on sick leave for certain
10 relevant periods of time.
11 THE COURT: And you didn't have these leave
12 records of hers ahead of time to turn them over?
13 MR. WEHNER: Judge, I didn't. I didn't. I
14 don't know where they were. Whether they were in 15 Miss Dean's possession, I – frankly I assume they were,
16 but I didn't get them until yesterday.
17 THE COURT: How does this show what days she 18 was on sick leave?
19 MR. WEHNER: It shows the sick leave used
20 year-to-date. I saw it when I looked at it before.
21 THE COURT: I could see it giving a summary of 22 the month when there was sick leave but I didn't know
23 they listed the particular days that sick leave was 24 actually taken.
25 MR. WEHNER: Now that I'm looking at this –

2721

1 THE COURT: why don't you show it to her and
2 see if it refreshes her recollection?
3 MR. WEHNER: I can do that. As I look at it
4 now, I think it's a comparison for the three consecutive 5 time periods that shows the sick leave taken, and the 6 amount taken increases within a two-week period is how 7 it comes out. Is that a fair characterization?
8 MR. O'NEILL: I don't know.
9 MR. WEHNER: But the specific days aren't
10 there. You have to look at the hours taken and look at 11 the period of time.
12 THE COURT: The first one doesn't show any 13 sick leave. The second one doesn't show any sick
14 leave. It shows annual leave charged to Miss Dean. It
15 shows some annual leave. The last one shows -- three of 16 three of Exhibit 108 show 40 hours of sick leave which 17 would be a week of the two weeks that she was working,
18 at the time she was out sick, which is between August
19 16th and August 28th. She had some annual leave there, 20 too.
21 I think what I'll let you do is this, I think
22 if you want to ask her did there come a time, and use it
23 to refresh her recollection, in August, or whenever it
24 was, in September of '86 she became ill. She can say
25 yes, and then you can show her a date Mr. Sankin had

2722

1 lunch with her, show her that's the same date, and she
2 couldn't have done it.
3 I'll sustain the objection on the basis it
4 wasn't produced properly.
5 (Bench conference concluded)

6 BY MR. WEHNER:

7 Q Miss Dean, do you recall having hepatitis at any

8 time in your life?

9 A I had meningitis.

10 Q Meningitis, I'm sorry. Do you recall when that

11 was?

12 A Yes. In August of 1986.

13 Q And how were you employed at that time?

14 A I was the Executive Assistant to the Secretary.

15 Q And did you go to work during that period?

16 A No, I was out for the entire month of August.

17 Q Of 1986?

18 A I think it was like from the 3rd of August to the 19 3rd of September. My 1986 calendars actually show that,

20 that I was out. Mrs. Hawkins' calendar.

2 Q Looking at your calendars, can you tell us which

2 days you were in the office and which days you weren't?

2 A Yes. I remember this very well. August 4th is

2 when I got sick, and she runs a line all the way through

2 to -- through August 22nd, through August 29th.

2723

1 September 1st was a holiday. I was on leave on

2 September 2nd. And I believe I was back at work by

3 September 3rd.

4 Q I direct your attention to Government Exhibit 111.

5 Did you have lunch with Andrew Sankin during that time

6 period, Miss Dean?

7 A No.

8 Q Did you go to any restaurants for lunch during that

9 time period?

10 A I mean maybe toward the end when I was feeling a

11 little better I might have gone out and gotten something

12 to eat, but I don't remember -- I didn't have any

13 business lunches or anything like that, no. I know

14 there are lunches reflected in here with Mr. Shelby and 15 with others, but they're all canceled. And Lou Kitchin.

16 Q You've testified regarding your relationships with 17 various individuals with regards to the Mod Rehab
18 program.

19 A Yes.

20 Q I'd like to ask you other than what you told us
2 about, did other people come to you and ask for projects

2 to be funded with regard to the Mod Rehab program?

2 A All the time, a lot of people.

2 Q And how did you respond to those people that came
2 to you?

2724

1 A Well, I -- from the experience of the Puerto Rico
2 events, I -- I told everyone, I said you need to be
3 either picked by the Housing Authority and be number
4 one, if they have a pipeline, or you need to make 5 certain that you can compete, and if you compete, that 6 you win. But that nobody can guarantee that if these 7 units go to the Housing Authority, you're going to get
8 them. And so you basically have to have your ducks in a
9 row at the Housing Authority. You have to have a good

10 project.

11 If people got -- if people were very, very 12 technically oriented you could go into some more detail
13 about how to make your project more competitive.

14 Then I would always suggest that it was good
15 to have political support from their Senators or 16 Congressmen, because I knew that helped, and that it
17 shouldn't have had any subsidy on it within a year of 18 applying for the program. And that was about it.
19 And I told them that they're -- if they came 20 in in 1987 I basically would say there was a committee
2 that was going to sit down. If it was before that I
2 would say you need to talk to the Federal Housing
2 Commissioner. You need to talk to -- you know, I'll
2 take it to the Secretary. You know, I'll let him know
2 that you were in. I'll tell him that I met with you, et 2725

1 cetera, et cetera.

2 And you don't ever make anybody any promises.

3 And basically that's what I would say. And thank you

4 very much for coming in.

5 Q Other than Mr. Shelby, who you testified concerning

6 his specific requests to you, did anyone else that was

7 close to you or your family, and I say Mr. Shelby in

8 terms of a social relationship and that's all, that was

9 close to you or your family come and request moderate
10 rehabilitation units specifically?

11 A Yes.

12 Q Who was that?

13 A Well, there was a time that my cousin Jamie Gore
14 asked me - said that he had been approached by some 15 people and that they wanted to hire him to represent 16 them at the Department to get Mod Rehab units and I just 17 looked and I went no way. I said, please, I said this 18 is very, very inappropriate and there's no way that you
19 can do this. And he said, well, they offered me a lot 20 of money. And I said you can't do this. I said this is
2 the kind of thing that people go to jail over. And I

2 said do not get involved and I said please don't involve
2 me.

2 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, could we have a timeframe
2 for this conversation?

2726

1 THE COURT: All right.

2 A It was in 1986, I believe. It was '86. It may

3 have been early '87, but it was '86 or '87. And he said

4 that he didn't understand that I was that involved in

5 the process, and he was sorry and he apologized for

6 having brought up the conversation and he never did it

7 again.

8 And then there was a time that I suppose

9 Mr. Sankin must have had a conversation with either my 10 mother or someone else in my family because my mother
11 called and said wouldn't the Stanley Arms be a perfect
12 Mod Rehab project? And I went, Mother, no, it would 13 not. And you don't do that sort of thing. And I said
14 if you want to sell the building, sell the building, but 15 you cannot do HUD programs and be related to somebody
16 who is the Executive Assistant to the Secretary.
17 And that's two times I can remember people
18 very close to me and I would have - every once in 19 awhile I would have people like Mr. Sankin who would

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
20 hear something and think that all they had to do was
2 just, you know, step in and all of a sudden they could

2 become a consultant, and I'd have to say no, this should
2 be a very technical job being a consultant and I don't
2 think you're right for it or ready for it and certainly
2 I cannot help you.

3 THE WITNESS: Yes.

4 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.

5 THE COURT: All right. Are you going to do the tape
6 now or later?

7 MR. WEHNER: We're going to do it right after lunch,
8 Judge. It's 1 hour and 20 minutes.

9 THE COURT: Keep us awake right after lunch. All

10 right.

11 (Jury in.)

12 THE COURT: All right, we're ready to go until 13 lunchtime now. We'll resume with the late morning session.

14 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.

15 Q. Ms. Dean, I'm going to put on the screen Government's 16 Exhibit 11V, which is a credit card receipt from Andrew Sankin
17 saying "Dinner with assistant secretary of HUD, mod rehab," dated 18 May 16, 1987. Did that take place?

19 A. Well, Mr. Sankin testified that he remembered he had dinner
20 with Mr. DeBartolomeis that night.

21 Q. Well, I'm asking you if you had dinner with Mr. Sankin.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

22 A. No, I did not. No.

23 Q. 11L, "Lunch with D. Dean from HUD, discussed mod rehab.

24 August 17, 1986." Did that occur?

25 A. Not. He did not have lunch with me on that day, no. I was home sick.

2 Q. "May 16, 1987, Lunch with D. Dean, assistant secretary at 3 HUD, discussed mod rehab." Dated May 16, 1987?

4 A. No, I did not have lunch with him that day, nor did I see
5 him that day.

6 THE COURT: Is that a day you testified you were away?

7 THE WITNESS: That was the day I was, yes, at Pimlico.

8 BY MR. WEHNER:

9 Q. Was that also the day of his girlfriend's graduation --

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. --to which you'd been invited?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And both of those events are in your calendar?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Ms. Dean, I'm going to show you what's been marked for 16 identification as Dean Exhibit 631 and ask you if that is a
17 reflection of a typical moderate rehabilitation project before 18 and after?

19 A. It would be typical of a moderate rehabilitation program
20 that was a scattered site, or smaller development. You can also 21 do a high-rise. But on a small, scattered site, individual 22 townhome type of, of rehab, yes, that would be typical.

23 THE COURT: All right. You said 631?

24 MR. WEHNER: 631, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: All right.

1 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission, I'm going to
2 publish this to the jury.

3 THE COURT: All right, 631 will be admitted.

4 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.

5 Q. Ms. Dean, directing your attention to an individual by the 6 name of Louis Kitchin --

A. Yes.

Q. --do you know who that is?

9 A. Yes, I do.

10 Q. When did you first meet Mr. Kitchin?

11 A. I met him in the end of June of 1986.

12 Q. How did you come to meet him?

13 A. He called my office and said that -- and introduced himself
14 to Sherrill Nettles, who then became Sherrill Nettles-Hawkins,
15 and said that he was the southeastern regional political person
16 for the Reagan-Bush campaign and he would like to have a meeting
17 with me. She relayed that to me.

18 I said all right, and I agreed to meet him for a drink
19 after work at the Four Seasons Hotel in Georgetown.

20 Q. Okay. Prior to that date, had you ever heard of
2 Mr. Kitchin?

2 A. No.

2 Q. Had you ever met him prior to that date?

2 A. No.

2 Q. Why did you agree to meet with him?

2731

1 A. Well, because he was the southeast regional director of the 2 Reagan-Bush campaign. I would have -- if I had not met with him
3 and he had asked me to meet with him, I would have more than 4 likely gotten a phone call from someone who would have directed
5 me to meet with him.

6 Q. Did you go to the Four Seasons to have a drink with
7 Mr. Kitchin?

8 A. Yes, I did.

9 Q. To the best that you can recall, what did you say to 10 Mr. Kitchin, and what did he say to you?

11 A. The -- he, he said that he had heard from Ms. Wiseman, who 12 was then the federal housing commissioner, who was, either, she 13 was still there and leaving or had just left, and I don't 14 remember which, that there was some animosity between me and 15 Mr. Kitchin, and I said, "Mr. Kitchin, I don't know who you are.
16 I've never heard of you. So I don't have any animosity towards
17 you."

18 And he said, "well, I understand that you're very upset
19 with me because I supported Shirley Wiseman for the position of 20 federal housing commissioner, and you were supporting Lance
21 Wilson."

22 And I said, "Mr. Kitchin, you could not have this more 23 wrong. I said I've never heard your name before today," and I
24 said, "Mr. Wilson wasn't my candidate. Mr. Wilson was Secretary
25 Pierce's candidate, and Ms. Wiseman was not." And I said, "I

2732

1 don't have any animosity toward Ms. Wiseman, much less towards
2 you." And I said, "This is all basically, you know, in your
3 imagination or someone else's imagination, and I'm terribly sorry
4 that you have even heard of such a thing."

5 But I remember saying to him, "I don't know who you
6 are. I've never heard your name before." I remember using those 7 words.

8 Q. How long did this initial meeting or session last?

9 A. About --we started --at that point, we started talking 10 about politics and about campaigns and things at that point, and 11 he was, he was very funny. He was a very funny, engaging man, 12 and we had a nice conversation until it was time for his plane to 13 leave, and about, I would say, 45 minutes before his plane was to 14 leave, he said, "I have to catch a plane."

15 And I said, "well, actually," I said, "I need to get my 16 car of the garage, because I drove here. I'll drive you on to 17 National Airport."

18 And so I drove him to the airport, and that was it.

19 Q. Okay. When is the next time you recall seeing Mr. Kitchin?

20 A. He would drop by whenever he was in Washington. He would,
21 sometimes he would make an appointment, sometimes he wouldn't.
22 Sometimes he'd -- if his plane left at 8:00 or whatever, he'd 23 come by the office around 6:00 or 6:30 and say, you know, "Can 24 you go have a drink with me before I leave?" or whatever.

25 I don't specifically recall dates. Sometimes he would 2733

1 have an appointment, sometimes he wouldn't.

2 But he was very, at that time, he was interested in, in 3 getting a different position or into moving into the, into the 4 then to be Bush campaign, and he was talking between, you know,
5 George Bush and Mr. Dole and a few other people and deciding what

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

6 he was going to do, and it was really quite fascinating for me to 7 hear him talk about all these machinations that were going on in 8 the political world, and so I enjoyed those conversations.

9 Q. Directing your attention to the time period when, from when 10 you first met him in late June of 1986 up to January of 1987,
11 would you describe during that period of time what conversations
12 you had with him?

13 A. They were, they were all political in nature, I believe. I
14 know that, that he sent me a couple of things that either he was 15 working on or that were political things that he was involved in 16 and basically said, "I'm having a hard time getting a response.
17 Can you do something with this?"

18 And I don't remember what the dates of those are, so ,
19 I'm having a hard time answering the question. And -- but 20 whenever he sent me something, I basically sent it through the
2 system, but I did ask that it be expedited and then get an answer
2 back to him on whatever it was.

2 But for the most part, we basically talked politics and 2 talked about his life and his family and what he was doing and
2 where he was -- what he was working on in the campaign.

2734

1 I remember one time he was invited up to Kennebunkport,
2 Maine, to meet with the then Vice President Bush, and it was 3 really a fascinating conversation to hear what he was like, what
4 they talked about. Those were circles I was not a part of, and I
5 found them fascinating.

6 Q. Did there come a time when you had a conversation with him
7 about his desire to get an apartment in Washington?

8 A. Yes. He said that he was going to Washington more and more
9 because of the campaign and that he wanted to buy an apartment
10 here in town, and he was very specific about what he wanted, 11 because he wanted an apartment that would be an office, except 12 that he would have a room where he could also stay there, but he 13 didn't want people to know that he was staying in the apartment,
14 so it had to look like an office, but there just was one room
15 that was a bedroom.

16 So he had a very specific idea of what he wanted, and 17 it was someplace that he could meet with people or have people
18 over for a drink, I guess, or have a meeting, but that he could 19 also stay there and save on the hotel bills.

20 Q. What business was he in at that time?

2 A. I don't know. I mean, he had, he was doing all sorts of 2 things. People that run political campaigns, they're in and out
2 of all different sorts of businesses. You never really -- I
2 mean, they're four months on a campaign, and then they do
2 something else for another six. So they're always interceding on 2735

1 a deal, or they're working with foreign investors on a project.
2 I really don't know. It's very difficult to tell what political 3 people do for a living.

4 Q. Did you have occasion to introduce him to anyone in terms of 5 locating a condominium or an apartment?

6 A. Yes. Well, I told him that I was thinking about having,
7 starting a business and that I had sort of, was sort of doing
8 this on the side, also, for some other friends of mine. And I
9 used to enjoy going to auctions on the weekends and antiquing and 10 things like that, and I was thinking about trying to get some 11 other women together and people -- I had some friends that were 12 decorators, and they did this or tried to do it full time, but 13 they weren't making enough money at it. And then I had a friend 14 of mine that did framing, but she couldn't make enough money to 15 do it full time, either.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
16 And I thought, well, you know, if you could put some of 17 these people together and people could work at it two hours or 18 three hours or on the weekend or whatever and you all sort of 19 pool whatever money you make and you sort of have this company, 20 and I thought it would be cute to call it Designing Women, but
2 then Mrs. Hawkins told me that there was a television show coming
2 out called "Designing Women" and that wouldn't work. So the name
2 didn't last long.
2 And I probably didn't have enough time to devote too
2 much attention to it. But I did enjoy going to auctions and 2736

1 buying things and helping friends decorate and things like that.
2 So I told him about this idea, and frankly, that is
3 when he was saying he was looking for an apartment. It didn't
4 happen -- I was telling him the idea first. Then he said, "well,
5 actually I'm looking for an apartment."

6 And I said, "well, I'll help you do it if you want."
7 And he said that that would be terrific. And so I
8 introduced him to Janet Whitman, who testified here. And I know
9 that I showed him some apartments all over town. I drove him

10 around town and said, you know, "This is apartments in southwest,
11 and here are some in northwest, and here is the Watergate."
12 And then I thought to myself that this was actually 13 taking up too much time, so I introduced him to Janet Whitman so 14 that she could show him around. And I went one time with the two 15 of them, and then the rest of the time, I think she took him
16 around.
17 Q. I direct your attention to what I've marked as Dean Exhibit
18 576 and ask if you recognize that?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. What is it?
2 A. It's a credit card receipt from a, from The Guards

2 restaurant, and it was a dinner that I had with Mrs. Whitman to 2 discuss with her whether or not she wanted to be a part of this
2 idea that I had, but she couldn't do it, because apparently in 2 Washington, you're not allowed to share a real estate commission.

2737

1 So the idea of putting real estate people together with
2 decorating people, the idea just wasn't going to work, because it
3 was against the law for them to share their, their profits. And 4 she told me that that night.
5 Q. What is the date of that receipt?
6 A. January 14 of '87. And I marked "D.W." on it for Designing
7 Women.
8 MR. WEHNER: Move the admission of Dean Exhibit 576.
9 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: All right, Dean 576 is admitted.
Page 1526

11 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 576 was

12 received in evidence.)

13 BY MR. WEHNER:

14 Q. This is the date of January 14, 1987, Ms. Dean?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And this is the "D.W."?

17 A. Urn-hum.

18 Q. Is that in your handwriting?

19 A. Yes, that's my handwriting.

20 THE COURT: All right.

2 BY MR. WEHNER:

2 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, subsequent to January 17 -- I'm sorry,
2 January 14, 1987, did you have occasion to see Mr. Kitchin
2 regarding the purchase of the apartment?

2 A. Well, I talked to him about it at, at great length. I know

2738

1 that I went with him, I think it was a couple of days after this,
2 I took some time and went with him and Mrs. Whitman to look at 3 apartments specifically, I believe, at the Watergate, because 4 that's where he decided he wanted to live or have an apartment.

5 Q. Did you do this during the day?

6 A. Yes, I did.

7 Q. And was it during --it was not a government holiday?

8 A. No, but I took annual leave.

9 Q. I'll show you what I've marked for identification as Dean

10 Exhibit 633, which is the, your calendar entry for Thursday,
11 January 15.

12 A. Right.

13 Q. Does that reflect that you took personal leave on that day?

14 A. Yes. I also wrote a memo to the secretary telling him that 15 I would be out and asked for permission to do this.

16 MR. WEHNER: I move the admission of Dean Exhibit 633.

17 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right. No objection, 633 is admitted.

19 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 633 was
20 received in evidence.)

21 BY MR. WEHNER:

22 Q. Now what do you recall doing with Mr. Kitchin on that date?

23 A. Went to the Watergate and, I believe, looked at a series of 24 different-sized apartments.

25 Q. Did your brother have an apartment at the Watergate at that 2739

time?

2 A. Yes. He had decided on an apartment that was in the same
3 building where I thought my brother had an apartment. I didn't
4 realize he still had an apartment there at this time.
5 And then there were some questions about whether or not
6 Mr. Kitchin had to own it in his own name or in his company name.
7 He wanted to own it in his company name for, I assume, tax
8 reasons. And I called my brother or was in a conversation with 9 my brother, and I said to him, "Do you know anything about the 10 rules of the watergate and if there's any way to get around it or 11 whatever?"
12 And he said, "well, did you show him my apartment?"
13 That was the first time I realized that my brother, who 14 had moved, still had the apartment. I didn't know that. I said,
15 "No."
16 He said, "well --" and I remember there was some 17 conversation about, "well, I'll give him a better deal if he 18 likes mine."
19 So I know that at that point, Mr. Kitchin went back and 20 saw the apartment. I don't remember if we had seen it when we 21 looked at the others, because I wouldn't have recognized my 22 brother's apartment without the furniture in it. I wouldn't have 23 remembered, you know, the number or anything. And all the 24 apartments were vacant except for one that we looked at that was 25 highly decorated.

2740

1 And at that point, my brother said, "well, I really
2 want to sell my apartment, so I'd be more than happy to reduce 3 the price."
4 So I mentioned that to Mr. Kitchin, and he thought that 5 was terrific. And then I know my brother talked to Mr. Kitchin,
6 and my brother's real estate agent talked to Mr. Kitchin. I
7 talked to Mr. Kitchin.
8 Q. And did, did the, was a contract, to your knowledge, ever
9 signed and executed for the purchase of the condominium,
10 apartment?
11 A. Not that I know of, no.
12 Q. Do you know if your brother ultimately sold the apartment?
13 A. Yes. He has since sold it, yes.
14 Q. But he did not sell it to Mr. Kitchin; is that correct?
15 A. No, he didn't.
16 Q. Okay. Now when is the first time that you recall having a 17 discussion with Mr. Kitchin with respect to you being paid for 18 decorating his apartment?
19 A. well, when he first, when he first said that he wanted to,
20 to have me help him, I said, "well --" he said, "How much do you
2 think it would cost to do the entire apartment?"
2 And I said, "well, if you put most of your money into
2 making it look like an office sort of thing and you don't care
2 what your bedroom furniture looks like, we can get that very
2 inexpensively. Then you could probably do the entire apartment

2741

1 for about between 10- and $15,000."
2 And I remember him making some joke, "well, do you

3 think you can do it for 10?"

4 And I said, "well, we'll get as far as we can get. You
5 obviously won't need a lot there if you're going to be using it
6 for business."

7 So there was a discussion about desk and couch, and I
8 remember there was, he wanted to take the closet that when you
9 walked in, there was a closet there that you opened up, and he 10 wanted to turn that into a dry bar, you know, so he could make 11 drinks for people that came over, because he didn't need a 12 closet, because there was a closet in the bedroom. So there was 13 some remodeling that was going to happen, and we discussed that.
14 I remember that the kitchen was an unusual, was a very 15 bright color, and he didn't like that. He wanted to have that 16 redone.

17 But mostly, it was, it was to buy whatever furniture we 18 could to look good as an office but not have it be very 19 expensive.

20 And he said, "well, how much do you think that --" and 21 we said 10- to 15,000.

22 And then I said, "And I would like to sort of get 23 started, see if I can do this business, and I'll do the entire 24 thing for you for $2,000." That would be my fee for helping him
25 find the apartment, get the furniture, put it in, supervise the

1 construction of the closet, and redo the kitchen.

2 Q. And what was his response to that?

3 A. He thought that was a very good deal.

4 Q. And did he agree?

5 A. Yes. He thought that was fine. And he gave me assignments
6 to do, and I did them. He wanted a couch right away, and I went 7 and located one for him, and he wanted pictures for the walls,
8 and I went and did that, and that was it. And that's it.

9 Q. When you say you found these things, did you -- what do you

10 mean, you found them?

11 A. well, I went and located a couch that I thought was 12 appropriate and called him and told him, "I found you a good
13 couch, and this is how much it's going to cost."

14 And he kept saying, "Okay, okay, I'll get you the 15 money, I'll get you the money for it," but at the same time, he 16 didn't sign the contract for the apartment, so he didn't really 17 want to put the money down to put the furniture yet, either.

18 So there were a couple of months in there where it was 19 very ambiguous. Then he decided, "It's a go. I'm going to do 20 it." And then we had a further discussion about when he was
2 going to be able to give me the money to buy the things for him

2 that he wanted in his apartment.

2 Q. Okay. Did there ultimately come a time when he, in fact,
2 gave you funds for that purpose?

2 A. Yeah. I talked to him in early April, and I told him, I

2743

1 said, "You know, I have already bought four prints," and I said,
2 "I can't afford to be spending my money buying things for you."

3 And he said, "well, just buy the things and send me the 4 receipts, and I'll send you back a check."

5 And I said, "well, what am I supposed to buy it with?"

6 That seemed to me to be an unworkable situation, because he was

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
7 in Atlanta, and if I wrote a check for something, by the time I
8 sent him the receipt and he sent me back a check for it, so I
9 said, "well, do you think it's possible just to have a small

10 amount of money that I can draw from in order to buy this

11 furniture for your apartment?"

12 And he said, "That seems reasonable." And he said,

13 "How much would you like?"

14 I can't, I don't remember what I said. I said, you

15 know, "Just a couple of thousand dollars would be fine." And he

16 ultimately sent me a check for $4,000.

17 Q. And do you recall receiving the check?

18 A. Yes. I received the check by mail.

19 Q. And you deposited it?

20 A. I did deposit it, yes.

2 Q. Okay. Now do you recall approximately when you received the 2 check?

2 A. No.

2 Q. Directing your --

2 A. No, I don't have any independent recollection of -- no, I

2744

1 mean, I know I -- he sent it to me, and he sent it to me at HUD,
2 because I remember looking at it, and I remember where I was
3 standing when I looked at it, so --

4 Q. Where were you standing when you saw the check?

5 A. I was standing outside on the 9th floor. I was visiting
6 Abbie Wiest, and either I had just gotten the envelope -- and I
7 really don't remember if it had come to me and I had opened it up
8 when I just left her office or it came in an envelope that had 9 come to her for some reason and she gave it to me. That was my

10 original memory, but she doesn't remember that, so now I'm 11 confused.

12 But I remember that I got it. I remember opening up

13 the envelope and looking at it.

14 Q. When you received -- subsequent to that date when you

15 received the check, did you discover Mr. Kitchin was not going to 16 buy an apartment?

17 A. Before he gave me the check?

18 Q. No, after, subsequent.

19 A. Oh, after. Well, at a certain point, in June of that year,
20 he had, he and I had plans to have dinner, I think, and he came
2 to my office a couple of hours early, and I said, "well, I can't

2 leave right now, because I have to pick up my car, and I've
2 already made arrangements to do that."
2 And he said, "well, I'll come with you to pick up your 2 car."

2745

1 I said, "well, it's out in Rockville, but if you want
2 to, come along."
3 And so he came with me. And I remember Hunter Cushing
4 had agreed to give me a ride out there after work. So
5 Mr. Kitchin got in the car with us, and we went out, picked up my 6 car. And we were driving down Wisconsin Avenue, and I was 7 discussing with him basically where -
8 what I had bought and what
9 we were doing and the fact that my brother was getting antsy
10 about, you know, had he signed a contract.
11 And I was like, you know, "You are so slow about this.
12 Are you going to do it, or are you not going to do it or 13 whatever?"
14 And he said, "Deborah, I talked to my wife about it,
15 and she's decided that we really don't need to buy an apartment
16 in Washington. Maybe we'll do it next year."
17 And I remember exactly where the car was when he said
18 that. It was, we were driving down Wisconsin Avenue, and it's 19 just where Tenley Circle, the Tenley Theatres are, we were right
20 there. And I pulled the car over to the side lane, and I said,
21 "I can't believe this." I mean, I was pretty upset with him,
22 because he had yanked me all over Washington, D.C., and I had 23 done all this work for him, and now he's telling me that he had 24 finally discussed it with his wife and that she had decided that 25 he wasn't going to do it this year.
26 And I pulled the car over, and I said, "well," I said,

2746

1 "I'm going to give you the money back that you gave me."
2 And he said, "Oh, no, no, no. You worked for it. I
3 feel real badly."
4 And I said, "well, I certainly --we never agreed to 5 $4,000. I mean, $2,000 was going to be my fee, and I really
6 haven't finished the apartment. The work I was going to do
7 wasn't done. I'm going to give you back the money."
8 Then there was a discussion about the things I had 9 already bought for him, and I remember I was really mad at him,
10 because I was going to say, "well, what are you going to do with 11 the stuff I've already bought?" Because we'd had many 12 discussions about his wife being, redoing their house, and he 13 told me about -I
14 mean, "what are you going to do, take the 15 stuff back and hope that your wife has a place to hang it?" And 16 I was not very pleased about this.
17 And so I pulled the car over, and I wrote him a check
18 back, and I said, "And I'm going to put interest in it, too."
19 And he said, "Deborah, please don't. You know, I 20 really feel badly about this."
21 I said, "well, I feel badly about it, too, but," I
22 said, "there's no apartment, so therefore I have no way to, you
23 know, say that I earned the money. I haven't earned it. That 24 wasn't the agreement."
25 And I wrote him back a check for $4,250.
26 Q. Ms. Dean, I'm going to show you what I've marked for

2747

1 identification as Dean Exhibit 788, which is a June 15 calendar.

2 Does it reflect a pickup of a car and a meeting with Lou Kitchin?

3 A. Yes. I was supposed to pick up my car at five, and I was

4 supposed to have dinner with Mr. Kitchin at seven, but as I said,

5 he arrived early.

6 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission, I move the

7 introduction of Dean Exhibit 788.

8 MR. O'NEILL: No objection.

9 THE COURT: All right, it's admitted, 788.

10 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 788 was

11 received in evidence.)

12 BY MR. WEHNER:

13 Q. Ms. Dean, I'm going to show you what I've marked for

14 identification as Dean Exhibit 575, which consists of a series of 15 check stubs, and ask you if you recognize 575 generally?

16 A. Yes, my check register. It's the kind that has the stub on 17 the top.

18 Q. Directing your attention directly to Check Stub No. 160,

19 does that purport to reflect the issuance of a check to Lou

20 Kitchin in the amount of $4,250?

21 A. Yes. And this was some figuring that we had done -- this

22 relates to this particular check as well, but $4,250, Lou

23 Kitchin.

24 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission, I move the

25 introduction of Dean Exhibit 575.

2748

1 MR. O'NEILL: No objection.

2 THE COURT: All right, Dean 575 will be admitted.

3 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 575 was

received in evidence.)

5 THE WITNESS: And there's the check to the auto place.

6 BY MR. WEHNER:

Q. That is Check No. --

8 A. 159.

9 Q. Made payable to the Auto Salon for $155?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Check 160?

12 A. Lou Kitchin.

13 Q. What are the handwritten figures in the upper left-hand --

14 I'm sorry, are the figures in the upper left-hand corner in your

15 handwriting?

16 A. Yes, they are.

17 Q. Do you recall today if those figures have any relationship

18 to the $4,250?

19 A. Yes. I had bought four prints for Mr. Kitchin's apartment,

20 and they were $130 apiece, and that meant that I had spent $520,

21 and he had asked me to please figure out how much money I had

22 spent to that point.

23 But I was so mad at him, I didn't even deduct them. I

24 just, I was not in a good mood at this particular time. I said I

25 would address it with him later, we would talk about them later, and he could discuss with his wife whether or not she wanted the 2 prints.

2749

3 Q. Now did Mr. Kitchin take that check with him?

4 A. Yes, he did.

5 Q. Check 161 reflects a check made payable to cash in the 6 amount of $50?

A. Yes.

8 Q. Does that have any relationship to Mr. Kitchin?

9 A. No, not that I know of. I don't remember that check.

10 Q. Ms. Dean, Exhibit 575 does not reflect a balance of $4,250
11 in your account at that time, does it?

12 A. No. I didn't have 4,250 in my account when I wrote the 13 check to Mr. Kitchin, but I wanted to give him a check right
14 away, because -- and I had $4,250 later, and I told him, "Give me
15 a day or two to get the money and put it in the bank. I don't 16 have 4,250, but take this check."

17 Q. And did he, in fact, cash this check?

18 A. No, he's never cashed the check, but I did give him some 19 cash, because he wouldn't cash the check.

20 Q. Did you ever have a discussion -- well, what discussions did
21 you have with him after that date regarding cashing the check?

22 A. Well, things got a little testy, because I kept calling him
23 and saying, "Please cash the check."

24 And he'd say, "Deborah, I owe you money. Deborah, you 25 worked so hard," and he wouldn't cash the check.

2750

1 And I kept saying, "Mr. Kitchin, please." I said, "I'm
2 asking you to please cash this check. I want -- I don't want
3 there to be anything outstanding between us."

4 And he just didn't cash the check, and he didn't cash
5 the check. And finally one time when he was in town, I decided
6 to take a different tack, because frankly, I couldn't figure out
7 why he wasn't cashing the check. I didn't understand why he 8 wouldn't cash the check. I didn't know if he was being really 9 nice about it or if he was being really difficult. I just didn't 10 understand. I decided to take a different tack with him.

11 So one time when he was in Washington and we were going
12 to have dinner, we had dinner at Morton's, and it was in the fall
13 of '87, I took with me cash to the dinner, and I said, "well,
14 Mr. Kitchin," I said, you know -- actually I called him Lou. I 15 said, "Lou, I realize that, you know, you're not going to cash
16 this check."

17 And he goes, "No, I think I owe you that money."

18 I said, "well, I'll tell you what." I said, "From now 19 on, I think I'm just going to give you whatever cash I have 20 available until that check is, is no longer in existence."

21 And he said, "well, at least I want those prints."

22 And I said, "No, I think we should just not do this at 23 all."

24 And at that particular point, I gave him $500. And 25 then I gave him another $500. But that is all I remember that I

2751

1 gave him.

2 And I did not see him after that. He started, he
3 started basically coming to Washington, but I did not see him.

4 And as -I

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
did talk to him several times on the phone, and I
5 kept saying, "When are you going to -- when are you coming back
6 to Washington? I want to see you," et cetera.
7 And he'd say, "Oh, I'll call you, I'll call you," but
8 he didn't.
9 Q. And your best recollection is that you paid him how much in 10 cash?
11 A. Well, my recollection is that I paid him a little more than 12 a thousand, but I can remember paying him two things of $500, so 13 I'll just leave it at that. I believe it was 1,250, but I can 14 remember two $500 payments.
15 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, that's an appropriate place to 16 break for lunch.
17 THE COURT: All right. All right, Ladies and 18 Gentlemen, we'll take a little early lunch today, and we'll be 19 back. This afternoon's schedule -- and I forgot to tell you
20 yesterday, and I sent a message out to counsel after we broke
21 when I remembered.
22 This afternoon at 3:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m., the Court has 23 a special meeting of all the judges to consider a new program of 24 handling our civil cases -- it's called the Civil Justice Reform
25 Act -- matters, and we have a long meeting in that, and I have to attend that. So we cannot sit after 3:00 in this case this 2 afternoon. So you're going to get out early this afternoon in

2752

3 the case.
4 So we'll definitely be back tomorrow finishing up
5 testimony, and we'll see about also on Friday. I've just 6 canceled some hearings I've had on Friday to try to get this case
7 to go ahead and see if we can get done at least with the 8 testimony by Friday.
9 So with that admonition --or scheduling note to you,
10 we'll go ahead for lunch, and then we'll come back after lunch,
11 we'll come back at 1:15 so we can get some time in this afternoon
12 before I have to take a break at three, and then you'll be off
13 until tomorrow morning, all right?
14 So we'll see you back at 1:15 this afternoon. Please
15 remember the admonitions again about not talking with anybody
16 about this case among yourselves or with anyone else about 17 anything to do with this case.
18 We'll see you back, please, at 1:15. Thank you
19 (Jury out.)
20 THE COURT: Do you have some exhibits you want to look
21 at, or do you want to do that after lunch?
22 MR. WEHNER: Yes, that's fine. After lunch is fine.
23 THE COURT: I don't know when you need to use them.
24 MR. WEHNER: Pardon me, Your Honor?
25 THE COURT: I don't know when you wanted to use them particularly.

MR. WEHNER: I did not want to use them until closing argument, Judge. That's why I was real flexible in terms of time.

THE COURT: All right. 1:15 then.

2 (1:28 p.m.)

3 (Defendant present, Jury out.)

4 THE COURT: All right, are we ready to resume? Are you
5 going to go to the tape now or in a few minutes or what?

6 MR. WEHNER: A few minutes, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: All right.

8 MR. WEHNER: I want to finish up with the Kitchin
9 matter, and then I'm going to have some introductory testimony
10 regarding the hearing, the Proxmire hearing.

11 (Jury in.)

12 THE COURT: All right, Ladies and Gentlemen, we're
13 ready to resume with the afternoon session. As you recognize,
14 this is a shorter session because of other commitments the Court
15 has, but we'll continue now with Ms. Dean's testimony.

17 DIRECT EXAMINATION (Cont'd.)

18 BY MR. WEHNER:

19 Q. Ms. Dean, I'm going to show you what I've marked for 20 identification as Dean Exhibit 523, which purports to be a memo
21 dated January 15, 1987, requesting annual leave for you, directed
22 to Secretary Pierce.

23 A. Yes. This was to let him know that I would be out of the 24 office that day and ask him if that was all right with him.

25 Q. And did he approve that request?

2755

A. Yes.

MR. WEHNER: I move the admission of Dean Exhibit 523.

3 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: All right, 523 is admitted.

5 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 523 was
6 received in evidence.)

BY MR. WEHNER:

8 Q. Okay. Ms. Dean, with regard to your relationship with 9 Mr. Kitchin and the furnishing of his apartment, would you
10 describe to me, please, who he talked to about the legality of 11 having an outside business while you were employed at HUD and 12 whether you were aware that there were others at HUD that were 13 similarly situated?

14 A. Well, yes, there were - a
15 lot of people had outside
16 employment. It's not unusual at all.

16 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor, as to "It's not 17 unusual at all."

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

18 THE WITNESS: Oh, sorry.

19 THE COURT: All right, I'll sustain it. You can talk
20 about people had employment. Go ahead.

21 BY MR. WEHNER:

22 Q. And what type did they have?

23 A. Okay. Well, Assistant Secretary Tardy, who was the head of 24 Office of Management and Administration, had an antique business, 25 also, and she imported antiques from England. She would go over

2756

1 there on her vacation, and she'd buy antiques and bring them back
2 and sell them.

3 And under secretary for Field Coordination, Mr. Walker,
4 he did real estate lectures and tapes and things like that,
5 although he didn't quite do it right, because he was not supposed
6 to put HUD on any of his things, and he did, and there was a
7 problem with that. But the legality of his being able to do the 8 lectures and the tapes and everything was perfectly all right.
9 we had several assistant secretaries that published
10 books that they did on their own time, and of course, they 11 received the money for those things. And people wrote articles
12 and were paid for those, and that's perfectly proper. You can do 13 that, as long as you don't do it on government time, it's okay to 14 do it.

15 And let me see, people had interest in stocks and 16 bonds, and that's, you know, outside income, and they work on 17 that in their spare time. You're not supposed to do it while 18 you're in your government office, but people do it on their lunch
19 break or whatever. They read their Wall Street Journal, they 20 call their broker, however they do it.
21 But outside income is perfectly legal as long as it
22 doesn't interfere with anything you do in your government
23 service.

24 Q. Did you have any discussions with Secretary Pierce regarding 25 your interest in the decorating field?

2757

A. Yes. I had one -- I remember a conversation I had with him
2 about that, and --

3 Q. What did you say to him?

4 A. I was telling him about some, a project that I was working
5 on, and we talked about the antique business and that I enjoyed
6 it. He said that he didn't really have any --

7 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: All right, I'll sustain it.

9 BY MR. WEHNER:

10 Q. Just what did you say to Secretary Pierce?

11 A. I just remember having a conversation with him about -- what 12 I remember of the conversation was we were talking about floors, 13 and it was just, it was a personal conversation between him and 14 I, and I was telling him about something that I was working on,
15 and he did not have an interest in that particular --he was not 16 interested in antiques or in decorating, and he just --he was 17 interested in the fact that I was interested in it, but that was 18 all I really remember.

19 Q. What, what business are you in today?

20 A. This is what I do now for a living.

21 Q. And do you have a store?

22 A. I have an antique store in Georgetown.

23 Q. And what is the name of it?

24 A. The Proud American.

25 Q. And how long have you had it --

2758

1 A. Three years.

2 Q. -- approximately?

3 A. Three years, three-and-a-half years, something like that.

4 Q. Ms. Dean, what was the position for which you were nominated

5 after you, after you were, you had been executive assistant?

6 A. Well, there was one position that I wanted that I did not 7 get, and then I was later nominated to be, I wanted to be the 8 assistant secretary for Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity, but 9 the white House did not feel that I would be confirmed for that,

10 because some of my views were a little different than the views
11 of the Department of Justice at that time, and I was -- I could 12 not get clearance for that. I could not get political clearance.
13 I was not on track with the white House at the moment.

14 But a better job came up after that, which was
15 assistant secretary for Community Planning and Development,
16 because it had a lot of programs in it, and there was a lot that 17 I could also do there that I had wanted to do as assistant 18 secretary for Fair Housing. So I was very delighted that 19 Secretary Pierce agreed to nominate me for the job.

20 Q. When did Secretary Pierce agree to nominate you for the 21 position of, would you name the exact title, please?

22 A. Assistant secretary for Community Planning and Development.

23 Q. Okay. When did Secretary Pierce nominate you for that
24 position?

25 A. Well, Secretary Pierce -- well, the President had to nominate me.

2759

2 Q. I'm sorry.

3 A. But Secretary Pierce asked the, the President to nominate me
4 right when Mr. Moran, who was the then assistant secretary,
5 resigned. He did it the same day. Mr. Moran left; he asked the 6 white House to please consider me. And I do not recall exactly
7 when that happened, but I believe it was late '86.

8 Q. Late 1986?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay.

11 A. It would have to have been, because I remember in all of 12 '87, I was undergoing the process to move to that job. So it
13 would have had to have been in '86.

14 Q. When did these conversations take place with Mr. Kitchin
15 with regard to decorating his apartment?

16 A. Late '86 into all through '87, until I left my position and 17 afterwards.

18 Q. Did you have any -- I'm sorry.

19 A. I'm sorry, all through '87, into '88, and late '86.

20 Q. Did you have -- between the time you became -- between the 21 time the secretary forwarded your name to the white House for 22 consideration and the spring of 1987, did you have discussions
23 with Mr. Kitchin regarding what, if any, your position at HUD --
24 how your position at HUD would affect your relationship with him?

25 A. Yes. When we talked about the fact that I might get the 2760

1 apartment for him and decorate it, he understood that I was
2 moving to be an assistant secretary, and as executive assistant
3 to the secretary, I didn't have any line authority, so there
4 wasn't necessarily a problem with his talking to me or anything
5 else, because there wasn't anything I could do for him.
6 However, as assistant secretary for Community Planning
7 and Development, it's a different story. He couldn't have had 8 any relationship whatsoever in that office. I would have had to 9 recuse myself from anything that he did.

10 And I told him, I said, "You know, are you certain that 11 you want to do this? Because, you know, should you ever have any 12 sort of business dealings at all with that office, I would, I
13 would have to recuse myself, and it would be awkward."
14 And he told me that he had no intention of ever doing
15 anything in Community Planning and Development and he didn't see 16 it would be a problem, and given those assurances, I didn't think 17 it would be a problem.

18 Q. Was the Mod Rehab Program under Community Planning and 19 Development ?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Okay. Where was that?

22 A. That's under Housing.

23 Q. Okay. And is that a separate assistant secretary for 24 Housing?

25 A. Yes. That was Mr. Demery.

2761

1 Q. Also known as the federal housing commissioner?

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. Okay. Now at the time you were talking to Mr. Kitchin about 4 the apartment, what did you know about his dealings in terms of 5 the Mod Rehab Program?

6 A. Nothing. I never discussed his having anything to do with 7 mod rehab with him ever. I mean, he never said to me, "I'm 8 involved in this." He never said anything.

9 The --we had discussions about politics, and we had

10 discussions about HUD monies going in the South, where he was 11 working. I mean, we had those discussions, but never a 12 discussion about, "I'm interested in doing something myself. I 13 have some personal interest." Never had a conversation like that 14 with him ever.

15 Q. Never?

16 A. Never.

17 Q. Not to this day?

18 A. Never.

19 MR. O'NEILL: I didn't hear the answer, Your Honor.

20 MR. WEHNER: Never.

2 MR. O'NEILL: Thank you.

2 THE COURT: All right, I'll sustain the objection to
2 counsel's remarks, once again, on the government's side. It was

2 an unnecessary comment.
2 MR. O'NEILL: I apologize.

2762

THE COURT: The case is not here to be made fun of but to be tried. I don't like that conduct.

3 BY MR. WEHNER:

4 Q. Ms. Dean, were the funds you received from Mr. Kitchin a
5 gratuity?

6 A. No. I worked for the money. When the apartment didn't come
7 to fruition, I wanted him to have the money back so that there
8 wouldn't be anything that was between Mr. Kitchin and I at that 9 point. I believe that I earned part of that money, but I still,
10 without a, without a physical apartment, I didn't want that to be 11 hanging out there. So I wanted him to get the money back.

12 Q. Was it a bribe?

13 A. Of course not, no. I wouldn't - it's beyond me. I would

14 not -- it is not about me, whether I would take a bribe. I 15 wouldn't have done that to my family, I wouldn't do it to 16 Secretary Pierce, I wouldn't do it to the Department of Housing
17 and Urban Development, and I certainly do not have it in me to 18 take a bribe or a gratuity from anybody. No amount of money is 19 worth this.

20 And I tried to explain that to the Independent Counsel,
21 and they wouldn't listen to me.

22 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor. Self-serving
23 statements again.

24 THE COURT: All right, I'll sustain the objection.

25 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry.

2763

BY MR. WEHNER:

2 Q. It wasn't a bribe and it wasn't a gratuity -

3 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor. She's not charged
4 with bribery.

5 THE COURT: Overruled. It's part of the understanding,
6 I think, of the type of case it is. Go ahead. Go ahead.

7 MR. WEHNER: I also think that's a misreading of the 8 indictment, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: That's why I overruled it. Go ahead.

10 BY MR. WEHNER:

11 Q. At the time you received those funds, did you believe that 12 it was a mistake to have taken them?

13 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: I'll sustain the objection.

15 BY MR. WEHNER:

16 Q. What did you think when you took those funds?

17 MR. O'NEILL: Objection again, Your Honor.

18 MR. WEHNER: Oh, Judge.

19 THE COURT: wait, wait, wait. We aren't going to have 20 in open court on each side debates here. You can come to the 21 bench if you want to have an objection heard.
22 (Bench conference on the record.)

23 THE COURT: what kind of question is what did she 24 think? I mean -

25 MR. WEHNER: Judge, it goes to her intent in terms of 2764

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

1 what she was thinking with regard to receipt of the payment.
2 It's a very direct question that goes directly to her state of 3 mind at the time.
4 The government has to prove that she had a corrupt
5 intent. I can ask her and rephrase it and say, "what was your 6 intent?" "what would you think?" was my maybe colloquial way of 7 asking the question.
8 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, he's done it already for hours the 9 appropriate way by asking what she did, what the money was for,
10 what the basis of it is. what she thinks is totally irrelevant
11 and inadmissible.
12 THE COURT: How about in a murder case, where you say,
13 "Did you shoot somebody? Did you intend to kill him when you
14 shot him?" You can ask that, can't you?
15 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, sir, Your Honor. In all honesty, 16 you absolutely could.
17 THE COURT: It would be appropriate. I'll allow the 18 question as to her intent.
19 (End of bench conference.)
20 THE COURT: All right, you can rephrase the question.
2 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.
2 Q. At the time you received the funds, Ms. Dean, what did you
2 intend?
2 A. I intended to decorate, to get an apartment for Mr. Kitchin,
2 to buy him furniture, to put it in the apartment, and to have 2765

1 nothing else to do with Mr. Kitchin other than that, and to do my 2 job. And I looked at those two things as mutually exclusive of 3 one another.
4 Q. There obviously came a time when you realized Mr. Kitchin
5 had not cashed the check.
6 A. Yes. And I didn't understand why he didn't cash the check,
7 and I couldn't get an answer from him, and so I asked him on 8 several occasions to please cash the check, and he didn't cash
9 the check.
10 So I started giving him money so that eventually the 11 debt would be retired however way I had to get him to accept it.
12 I couldn't write him a check, because obviously he didn't cash
13 checks. So every time I saw him, I would give him money, and he 14 would take it. And therefore, I thought, okay, if this is how I 15 have to do it, this is how I have to do it, but he'll get his 16 money back.
17 Q. Did there come a time when you stopped attempting to try to 18 pay him back?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. why?
21 A. when the HUD I.G. report came out and Mr. Kitchin's name was 22 mentioned on there as someone who had been doing work in the Mod 23 Rehab Program, I went to my - a lawyer, and I said, "I had a 24 business dealing with this man, and I still owe him some money."
25 And my lawyer said, "Do not have any contact with 2766

Mr. Kitchin whatsoever."
2 And I said, "Can't I call him and make certain that 3 this is straightened out? Because I don't want there to be an 4 appearance of impropriety."
5 And he said, "No. Do not have any contact with 6 Mr. Kitchin. Don't do anything."
7 And I took that advice.

8 Q. And have you had any contact with Mr. Kitchin since that 9 date?

10 A. He called me about, I mean, a year ago, year-and-a-half ago,
11 and he was in Washington, and he wanted to meet me for a drink or 12 dinner, I can't remember which -- I think we had dinner. And I
13 had dinner with Mr. Kitchin.

14 Q. Did you have any conversation with him about the funds at 15 that time?

16 A. No, I didn't, because frankly, it was in the middle of when 17 he was up here, and they had grand juries and FBI agents and 18 everything else. And frankly, I thought Mr. Kitchin, I didn't 19 know where he was coming from or what he was doing, but I was 20 afraid that he was being a little self-serving, and I just sat
21 there basically with my mouth closed. He was very nice and 22 cordial, didn't get into any conversations, but I didn't know
23 what to think.

24 Actually, I believe I spoke to you about that. You
25 were my attorney at the time, and you said, "Do not have any

2767

1 conversation with Mr. Kitchin," and I didn't.

2 Q. Did you intercede with Mr. Kitchin on behalf of any projects
3 in Atlanta?

4 A. No, I did not.

5 Q. With regard to projects known as Springwood or Cutlerwood,
6 did you do anything to cause those projects to be funded for
7 Mr. Kitchin?

8 A. I did not. And I told Secretary Pierce exactly what the 9 problem was that I had with it and that I couldn't do anything
10 about it, didn't want to talk about it. I explained it to him.
11 I did not know before then, around then, after then what 12 Mr. Kitchin's interest was in those projects.

13 Actually, he told the HUD I.G. he had never received 14 money from mod rehab. I still to this day don't know - well, I

15 guess we saw checks, but I didn't know if it was a political 16 interest when Mr. Demery told me about it or if he was a
17 consultant or an owner. Mr. Demery told me he was involved. I
18 told Secretary Pierce.

19 I did not talk about Metro Dade. I had nothing to do 20 with the funding of those projects, and I didn't know what his
2 interest was.

2 Q. Directing your attention to the position that Secretary
2 Pierce recommended you to the white House for, that was assistant
2 secretary for Community Planning and Development?

2 A. Yes.

2768

1 Q. Would you briefly describe the process by which you, after
2 Secretary Pierce sent your name to the white House, what happened
3 after that?

4 A. Well, he doesn't send your name to the white House. He -
5 basically the white House picks who the assistant secretaries
6 are, the President does that through his Office of Personnel, and 7 they have a, you know, a list of people that they would like to 8 see put into, you know, nice jobs in the government, and if you
9 would like, if you were in the agency and you'd like to be 10 promoted, certainly your boss asking them to consider you is 11 paramount to whether or not that works.

12 And Secretary Pierce did ask Mr. Tuttle at the white
13 House to interview me, and I - and Mr. Tuttle told me that I was 14 a candidate but that there were other people and that that 15 decision would be made by the white House.

16 Q. As a part of the process, was there some kind of background
17 check?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay. When did the background check begin?

20 A. I don't remember. I know the President makes a decision,
2 but he doesn't officially nominate you until the FBI has 2 investigated you totally, and then if you get a clean bill of 2 health back to the white House, then the President officially
2 nominates you.

2 But you basically know that, that you are his choice,

1 I'd say, maybe six months before, and then the FBI takes a long
2 time, they interview everybody, they look into everything, and
3 then the President nominates you if the lawyer for the white
4 House says that the FBI check was okay.

5 Q. Were you nominated by the President? And I use the word
6 "nominate" officially.

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay. And approximately when was that?

9 A. I don't remember. I was nominated twice, and I don't

10 remember the dates.

11 Q. Can you give us a year for the first time, please?

12 A. 1987 and 1987.

13 Q. Both in 1987?

14 A. One might have been 19- -- yeah, they were both in 1987. I
15 think maybe one was January of '88. I don't --

16 Q. I direct your attention to what has already been introduced 17 into evidence, which is your nomination hearing before the 18 Committee on Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs, United States
19 Senate.

20 A. Yes.

2 Q. And that took place on August 6, 1987?

2 A. Yes.

2 Q. Were you nominated by the President prior to that?

2 A. Yes, yes.

2 Q. Okay. Do you recall how long prior to that?

2770

1 A. I would have to say it would have been in the spring/early
2 summer.

3 Q. And after the nomination was made, what is the next step in 4 the process of being, of being confirmed or being officially
5 named to the post?

6 A. Well, the Senate Banking Committee, which is the Banking
7 Committee that I was in front of for the confirmation hearings,
8 has the right to review all of your documents, all of your 9 papers, your financial transactions. They can investigate you
10 themselves if they want to. They -- all the senators review you.
11 Usually you go around and meet the senators if you
12 don't know them. You have courtesy visits to the senators and 13 things like that, and they ask you a lot of questions. You have 14 interviews with staff, and they ask you questions to see if you
15 are fit for the job.

16 And then a hearing is scheduled by the chairman of the,
17 of the committee, and when the hearing is scheduled, then you go 18 up there, and very much like this, you sit there, and the 19 senators then ask you questions.

20 Q. Who was chairman of the committee in front of which you had 2 to appear?

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

2 A. Senator William Proxmire.
2 Q. And who did - were there investigators working for that
2 committee that were investigating you?
2 A. Yes.

2771

1 Q. Do you remember any of their names?
2 A. Yes. There was, they actually had an on-staff investigator
3 whose name was Bart Naylor, and he was very active on my 4 nomination. Senator Proxmire did not want me to be nominated.
5 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor. Move to strike.
6 Speculation.
7 THE WITNESS: It's not speculation.
8 MR. WEHNER: It's hardly speculation.
9 THE COURT: All right, overruled. Go ahead.
10 THE WITNESS: I was nominated over his objection by the 11 white House.
12 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, move to strike. Once again,
13 not responsive to any question and pure speculation.
14 THE COURT: Overruled.
15 BY MR. WEHNER:
16 Q. What was your understanding of why Senator Proxmire opposed
17 your nomination?
18 A. Well, Senator Proxmire and Secretary Pierce had had some 19 disagreements over some issues, and Senator Proxmire's staff and 20 I had some disagreements over some issues, and they included
21 REMICS, the Real Estate Mortgage Investment Conduits, which is a
22 large funding of mortgage-backed securities, and Senator Proxmire
23 had one position on, on who should be able to sell these large
24 financial tools, and Secretary Pierce had a very different view,
25 and Senator Proxmire was pushing very hard for Secretary Pierce

2772

1 to go with his viewpoint, and Secretary Pierce, having been, in
2 essence, a Wall Street tax attorney for years, understood the 3 issue very well and disagreed fervently with Senator Proxmire on 4 this, and as a result, there was a problem there.
5 Then Senator Proxmire very much wanted a young man by 6 the name of Mr. Danny Wall to be head of the Federal Home Loan
7 Bank Board, and Secretary Pierce had been actively supporting 8 another candidate to be head of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, 9 and there was a little bit of, "Well, if you're not nice to my 10 person, I'm not going to be nice to your person."
11 And I had had some disagreements -- Secretary Pierce
12 and Senator Proxmire had disagreed over the fair housing
13 amendments and the fair housing initiatives program, which was a 14 testing program. I came to -I
15 had a very strong disagreement
16 with his staff on the testing provisions. He did not feel that 17 this was something that should go forward; I felt very strongly
18 that it should go forward.
19 I remember one time being in Chicago, addressing a fair
20 housing conference, and Senator Proxmire's staff were there in 21 the back of the room, and I didn't understand why they felt that 22 involved. They were extremely involved.
23 They had -- we had very, very difficult hearings on 24 whether or not the government should pay for testers in 25 discrimination cases. We, of course, felt they should. They, of course, felt that it wouldn't get through the Senate if we didn't 2773

1 push it, and we had some very, very big disagreements about that.

2 And Senator Proxmire thought that I was too young for

3 the position, and he thought that I didn't have the right

4 educational background, and he had a host of other, you know,

5 smaller problems that he had.

6 But the big problems were the big problems. I mean, we

7 knew what the big problems were, and the little problems were

8 what we used to get, to not discuss the big problems.

9 Q. Did you have a -

he ultimately, however, scheduled a

10 hearing for your nomination; is that correct?

11 A. Yes, he scheduled one for August 6.

12 Q. Did -- how did you prepare for that hearing?

13 A. Well, I had several meetings with the career staff of the 14 Office of Community Planning and Development and prepared to 15 answer questions on the programs under CPD, and so I got myself

16 very organized and got a lot of briefing books and read up on all

17 the programs that came under the Office of Community Planning and

18 Development and made certain that I could answer those questions

19 to prove that I had a good working knowledge of that office so

20 that I would be, so I could move ahead.

2 And we did have, I think, a meeting the night before

2 the hearing, the night before the hearing, where I asked several

2 people to get together in a room and ask me questions, ask me

2 hard questions so I'd be prepared. I'd never testified in front

2 of anybody before, so I wasn't used to this, and so I wanted

2774

1 people to ask me hard questions.

2 But it didn't work out very well, and they, after about

3 a half an hour, 45 minutes -- and they weren't asking me very

4 hard questions, and they didn't seem to be very relevant to me.

5 So after that, I said, "I think I'll just study in my office, and

6 thank you all for showing up, but I think I'll just work on it."

7 So I sat down and wrote out what was to be my opening

8 statement in front of the committee.

9 Q. Did anyone accompany you to the hearing when you appeared to 10 testify?

11 A. I don't remember. I was so nervous, I don't remember if 12 someone was in the car or not.

13 Q. Okay. When I said "accompany," I mean was anybody sitting

14 with you at the hearing, really.

15 A. Oh, I'm sorry, when I testified. Behind me were the deputy

16 assistant secretaries for Community Planning and Development. It

17 was Mr. Stokvis, who was the general deputy assistant secretary;

18 DuBois Gilliam; Nancy Silvers,- and Janice Golec.

19 Q. Were they present through your entire testimony?

20 A. Yes. It was a short hearing.

2 MR. WEHNER: with the Court's permission, I'll

2 distribute transcripts of the hearing to the jury, which are

2 copies that have been furnished to Independent Counsel and played

2 to the tape.

2 THE COURT: Has counsel seen the transcripts?

2775

1 MR. O'NEILL: No, Your Honor. I'm sure they're fine,

2 Judge.

3 THE COURT: All right. Ladies and Gentlemen, the

4 transcripts will be distributed to you. We're talking about

5 transcripts of a hearing that occurred in August before the

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
6 Senate Banking Committee that are referenced to the latter part 7 of the indictment, the counts involving the perjury and supplying 8 improper or incorrect information to the Senate Banking
9 Committee.
10 The transcripts are not evidence in the case. The 11 evidence is what the tape recording is that's going to be played 12 as to what was actually said. The transcripts are meant as an 13 aid to help you to follow here. And so it's your recollection as 14 to what the tape recording says that counts, not what the 15 transcript says, but I'll allow you as an aid to follow the tape
16 recording.
17 MR. WEHNER: with the Court's permission, I'll furnish 18 one for Ms. Dean so she can follow it. I've furnished one to the 19 Court.
20 (Tapes played.)
21 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, there are two more tapes.
22 They're about 20 minutes each.
23 THE COURT: All right. we'd better break then, because 24 I have my meeting I have to go to.
25 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir. I can collect the transcripts,

2776

Your Honor.
2 THE COURT: All right.
3 All right, Ladies and Gentlemen, we'll make it 9:30 in 4 the morning then. we should have a regular day tomorrow. So
5 we'll be proceeding on tomorrow with the testimony.
6 Remember the admonitions again overnight, please, about 7 not reading, watching, or listening to anything in this case in 8 the media or talking about it with each other, with anyone else,
9 or letting anyone talk about it in your presence whatsoever.
10 Have a good evening, and be back tomorrow at 9:30, all
11 right?
12 (Jury out.)
13 THE COURT: Let me see counsel at the bench, please.
14 (Bench conference on the record.)
15 THE COURT: Mr. O'Neill, let me ask you if that had 16 been a black defendant on the stand with a white jury, would you
17 be making the same kind of smart comments you've been making with 18 a white defendant and a black jury?
19 MR. O'NEILL: Do you think I'm making those racially?
20 THE COURT: No, what I'm impugning is that you're 21 making these comments with a white defendant and a black jury
22 which you wouldn't be doing with a black defendant and a white
23 jury, and I resent that. I think it may be a basis eventually 24 for the bench to take a look at this case.
25 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, if I may, I understand what 2777

1 your concerns are. That happened numerous times in the
2 government's case, numerous times, and the record will reflect
3 that. It happened one time now after the question was asked and 4 answered, asked and answered.
5 THE COURT: This is the third time I recall you doing
6 this, and I've warned you before, all right?
7 MR. O'NEILL: Second time, Judge. I don't want to -8
THE COURT: Second or third.
9 MR. O'NEILL: I don't want to quibble. All right.
10 (Recess from 2:45 p.m., to 9:30 a.m., October 14, 1993.)

10 THE COURT: All right.

11 MR. WEHNER: First of all, I'd like to recall 12 the Court's attention to the 404 (b) issue that was 13 raised pretrial with regard to the introduction of 14 evidence by the Independent Counsel and I simply want to 15 raise that now because the rule specifically provides 16 that if sufficient notice and sufficient information is 17 not given pretrial upon request, that that information
18 is not available for impeachment or rebuttal or for 19 cross-examination purposes, and I simply wanted to bring 20 that to the Court's attention because I do not want
21 Mr. O'Neill to attempt to get into any of those areas on 22 his cross-examination. If he does, I think an objection
23 would be properly sustained. I just want to bring that 24 to the Court's attention in advance of the

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 cross-examination beginning.

2781

1 THE COURT: will you refresh my recollection
2 as to what areas you're talking about?
3 MR. WEHNER: Judge, they supplied a list of 4 all eight subject areas. Exhibit D to my motion of -
5 to my memoranda of September 1st, 1993, it's a copy of 6 the Independent Counsel's letter and I can hand that up
7 to the Court if that would be helpful.
8 THE COURT: You're talking September 8th, did
9 you say? At least I received one on September 8th.
10 Deborah Gore Dean's memorandum of law in support of 11 exclusive evidence, but that goes to Marwood.
12 MR. WEHNER: This is the September 1st
13 memorandum of law to prevent the introduction of 14 evidence under rule 404 (b).
15 THE COURT: All right. I've got it.
16 MR. WEHNER: And exhibit D.
17 THE COURT: The letter you're talking about 18 that -- of Miss Sweeney of August 30th.
19 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.
20 THE COURT: All right. Now I recall this.
21 MR. WEHNER: Yes. And the only reason -- we 22 have been through it before, Judge. The only reason I
23 bring it to your attention is because -
24 THE COURT: well, my notes reflect the last 25 four, five to eight were 404 (b). The first four really

2782

1 went to the charges directly. well, there's one. wait
2 a second. Perhaps one part of item number three may 3 have involved some 404 (b). I'm not sure though.
4 MR. WEHNER: Judge, I don't have any problem
5 with your ruling that it's not 404 (b) and therefore the 6 questions are proper on other grounds. All I want -
7 all I would ask the Court to do is to rule that if it is 8 404 (b), and there's not another ground for it to be 9 used, that the Court follow the rule which provides in 10 the notes, "the amendment requires the prosecution to 11 provide notice, regardless of how it intends to use the 12 extrinsic act evidence at trial, i.e. during its case in 13 chief or impeachment or for possible rebuttal." And I
14 just alert the Court to that, that if they attempt to 15 use 404 (b) evidence, that it is not anymore properly

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
16 used on cross or for impeachment than it would be 17 otherwise, according to the rules.
18 THE COURT: All right.
19 MR. WEHNER: Secondly, Your Honor, I've had a 20 discussion with Mr. O'Neill this morning in the 2 interests of trying to save sometime and what I intend

2 to do with Miss Dean on the stand is to read her the 2 Exhibit numbers of Exhibits that I intend to introduce.
2 She has already examined those and she will give the 2 standard testimony we've elicited in terms of the 2783

1 regular course of business, et cetera, regarding those
2 in toto. I will not move their admission at that time.
3 Mr. O'Neill has agreed that we will then argue
4 about those if there's any argument and not in front of 5 the jury on an individual basis and that if further 6 authentication or identification or et cetera is 7 required for individual documents then he would not
8 object if I recall Miss Dean for that limited purpose.
9 MR. O'NEILL: That's correct, Your Honor.
10 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.
11 Have you marked this tape you're playing? Are 12 those marked as evidence?
13 MR. WEHNER: No, sir, I will do that. I will 14 mark them 790 to 794.
15 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, on that point, if I may 16 interrupt one second, you yesterday mentioned to the 17 jury the standard line that the transcripts are not
18 evidence.
19 THE COURT: Unless it's stipulated to.
20 MR. O'NEILL: well, the transcript is in
2 evidence in this case. It's the official -
2 THE COURT: I thought it was a transcript
2 Mr. Wehner had done from listening to the tapes as 2 opposed to a certified copy.
2 MR. O'NEILL: But it's really a copy in 2784

1 evidence.
2 MS. SWEENEY: We had thought the same thing
3 because we hadn't seen it.
4 MR. WEHNER: That is not true. Now, it isn't, 5 Bob.
6 MR. O'NEILL: No, Judge, he did give it to me
7 and we never looked for it because I took his word for 8 it. It's official.
9 THE COURT: I misunderstood. That's why I
10 asked you earlier did you see this transcript? Was it
11 all right for the jury to see it? I had an idea that 12 was prepared by the defense on its own.
13 well, I'll tell the jury then, I'll reinstruct
14 them about the standard transcript.
15 MR. WEHNER: Actually, Judge, there are a few
16 things that are in error on the transcript.
17 THE COURT: There are. I noticed that. I
18 marked them in the one I had. Five or six things I 19 noticed so far. I don't think they're crucial. We 20 haven't gotten to some of those areas yet, but I have

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

2 marked those off.
2 All right. I'll inform the jury, and I
2 appreciate your bringing it up. I was not aware it was 2 the same transcript.
2 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, can we approach for a

2785

1 second?
2 THE COURT: Yes.
3 (Bench conference)
4 MS. SWEENEY: It's exhibit 212A, it's been
5 admitted as Government's Exhibit 212A.
6 THE COURT: It's a little different than what
7 he has in the sense that 212A is the actual publication
8 of the hearing from the Senate, what I'm looking at now,
9 the copy I have in my hand.
10 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, that might be either 212 or 11 212A. We've admitted three different versions, Your 12 Honor, into evidence, the published version, the 13 official version, the official transcript, and then the 14 version that Ms. Dean was permitted to correct and 15 return to the Committee. Each of those has been 16 introduced into evidence as a separate exhibit.
17 THE COURT: well, the version I'm reading is 18 the Committee hearing record which has exhibits and 19 other things in it which I assume are not in the 20 transcript they're looking at now.
2 MS. SWEENEY: I believe that they are. I
2 believe that Mr. Wehner has passed out copies of the 2 document that Your Honor has.
2 THE COURT: Is that right?
2 MR. WEHNER: No, that's not correct.

2786

1 MS. SWEENEY: Okay.
2 MR. WEHNER: And it was furnished to you in
3 advance and what is in it is a transcript of the words
4 that were spoken.
5 THE COURT: Not of the exhibits.
6 MR. WEHNER: With the exhibits deleted because 7 I didn't want to get into that. These are the words,
8 questions and answers. The letters aren't in there.
9 The resumes aren't in there. It's not there. Now, if 10 it is and, it's not, it's inadvertent. I mean we copied
11 the words that were stated because I didn't want to get 12 into that discussion.
13 THE COURT: I'll explain it to the jury.
14 Yes, sir.
15 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, just briefly. Yesterday
16 you put something on the record. I apologized for my 17 remark before the jury and it was an unfortunate 18 remark. However, I didn't understand what you said at 19 the end and I just want to put that on the record.
20 There was no intention, and I don't think the record
2 supports anything that we ever played race here. It's
2 an all black jury, but we exercised no peremptory
2 challenges on any white people.
2 THE COURT: I didn't say you did. I think the 2 import of the actions - as I said, I think if it had

2787

1 been a well known prominent black person as the
2 defendant in this case, as a good prosecutor, and you
3 are a very good one, and you've been very careful not to 4 show any disrespect --
5 MR. O'NEILL: I understand.
6 THE COURT: I was a little concerned with this
7 jury. All right.
8 (Bench conference concluded)
9 THE COURT: Okay.

10 THE DEPUTY MARSHAL: Yes, Your Honor.
11 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, if it would help the 12 Court, I can give you a copy of the actual xerox.
13 THE COURT: That's okay.
14 (Jury present)
15 THE COURT: All right. Good morning, ladies
16 and gentlemen. We're ready to go. Thank you for 17 waiting a few minutes.
18 As you recall, yesterday we were about halfway 19 through the -- listening to the tape recording of the 20 hearing before the Committee on Banking, Housing and
2 Urban Affairs of the United States Senate on August 6,
2 1987 out of which some of the charges against Miss Dean
2 have arisen.
2 I had instructed you at the beginning of this
2 process in listening to those tape recordings, that the

1 transcripts are not the evidence, it was the tape
2 recordings that are the evidence in the case. The 3 Government has pointed out to me, correctly, that the 4 Government introduced copies of these hearing
5 transcripts in various forms in their case and they're 6 in the area of exhibits 212, 212A, that should be the 7 same as the transcripts you have before you, although 8 the full hearing will have some other exhibits and 9 letters, et cetera, in it, the full hearing documents.
10 But the transcripts that we're focusing on now, and I
11 told you transcript are normally not considered the 12 evidence, what you hear in the tape recordings are the

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
13 evidence and you may have heard a difference in a word
14 or two from the transcript and the tapes, the tape
15 recording will be evidence in the case but also the 16 transcripts having been admitted in evidence are also 17 evidence in the case. So you can consider transcripts
18 as well and they will be available to review during

19 deliberations.
20 Normally the rule as I gave it to you
2 yesterday, that the transcripts is not the evidence,

2 it's the tape recordings, but in this instance it's the 2 transcript before you and you can consider them as well
2 as the tape recording.
2 All right, we're going to go forward, I

2789

1 believe, to continue with the testimony that was given
2 at the banking hearing by the way of the tape recording
3 and we'll finish listening to that this morning.

4 (DEBORAH GORE DEAN, THE DEFENDANT, RESUMED THE STAND)

5 MR. WEHNER: With the Court's permission, I
6 believe we left off at page 50, approximately ten lines
7 down.

8 THE COURT: All right. Are you all at page 50

9 at this time?

10 All right.

11 (Tape of confirmation hearing resumed, and 12 played to the end)

13 THE COURT: All right, we can pick up the 14 transcripts unless you want to go back to them for 15 awhile?

16 MR. WEHNER: I'll move the admission of Dean
17 Exhibits 790 through 794, which are the tape recordings
18 just played for the jury.

19 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: All right, 790 to 794 are admitted
2 of the August 6, 1987 hearing before the Committee on

2 Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs.
2 (Defendant's Exhibits 790 through
2 794 received into Evidence)
2 MR. WEHNER: And I also move a copy of the 2790

1 transcript which was handed up to the jury as Exhibit

2 794.

3 MR. O'NEILL: I have no objection.

4 THE COURT: All right, we already have a

5 couple of copies, but I'll let this one go in since the 6 jury has reviewed it. All right, 794, a copy of the 7 transcript that was actually used by the jury of the 8 tapes that were played, is admitted.

10 BY MR. WEHNER:

11 Q Miss Dean, I'm going to show you what I've marked

12 for identification as Dean Exhibit 943 and I know I've 13 had you review these previously. Would you state
14 generally what they are?

15 A They're all letters from the United States Senate
16 and the House of Representatives making requests of the 17 Department for Mod Rehabilitation units.

18 Q And were these letters kept in HUD's files as a 19 part of the regular course of business?

20 A Yes, they were.

2 Q And from whence did you get those documents?

2 A From the Independent Counsel.

2 Q Was it in the regular course of business for the 2 Department of Housing and Urban Development to keep 2 these records in their files?

1 A Yes, sir.

2 Q Miss Dean, I'm going to show you what I've marked
3 for identification as Dean Exhibit 13.

4 A Yes.

5 Q Which we have previously discussed. Is that a
6 memorandum for David White from Betty Park?

7 A Yes.

8 Q With the subject being consulting agreements and 9 Section Eight Mod Rehab?

10 A Yes, it's the memorandum that memorializes that 11 consulting fees are legal.

12 Q You previously read a portion of this to the jury, 13 did you not?

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

14 A Yes, I did.
15 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, at this time I move
16 the admission of Dean Exhibit 13.
17 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.
18 THE COURT: All right. 13 will be admitted.
19 Defendant's 13.
20 (Defendant's Exhibit 13 received
21 into Evidence)
22 BY MR. WEHNER:
23 Q Okay. Miss Dean, I'm going to show you – I'm not 24 going to have you look at each of these pieces of paper
25 since you've already looked at them this morning, but

2792

1 I'm just going to hand you, and I just want the record
2 to reflect that you have previously reviewed the 3 following exhibits?
4 A Yes, I have.
5 Q I need to read them to you first.
6 A All right.
7 Q I know you reviewed them all but I will ask you if 8 for the exhibits I'm going to identify was it in the 9 regular course of business for HUD to keep these

10 documents and were they in fact kept in the regular 11 course of business and were they in fact generated on or 12 about the time that they reflect. Exhibits three, four,
13 five, six --
14 THE DEPUTY CLERK: wait a minute, you're going 15 too fast.
16 MR. WEHNER: Sorry. Three, four, five, six,

2 THE COURT: wait a second.
3 MR. WEHNER : Sorry, Your Honor.
4 THE COURT: 574 you said?
5 MR. WEHNER : Yes, sir, 563 through 574
6 inclusive.
7 THE COURT: Okay.
8 MR. WEHNER : 247, 877, 71, 517, 67 , 876, 881,

18 626 with the Court 's permission, I believe that the 19 remainder have been offered and admitted or offered and 20 refused.
2 THE COURT: All right, we'll hold those until
2 we have a chance to go through them.
2 BY MR. WEHNER:
2 Q Miss Dean, I'm going to show you what I 've marked
2 for identification as Dean Exhibit 344 and ask you if

2794

1 you can identify that?
2 A Do you want me to answer the first question? Yes,
3 those were kept in the normal course of business, and 4 yes, I can identify this.
5 Q What is it?
6 A It's the HUD I.G. report on the Mod Rehabilitation
7 program.
8 Q And the date?
9 A April 17, 1989.
10 Q Miss Dean, I'm going to show you what has 11 previously been identified as Dean Exhibit 190 and ask 12 if you recognize this as being a memorandum for 13 Secretary Pierce from Thomas Demery?
14 A Yes.
15 Q With the subject being Inspector General's 16 memorandum dated October 24th, 1988?
17 A Yes.
18 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I move the admission
19 of Dean Exhibit 109.
20 THE WITNESS: 190.
2 MR. WEHNER: I'm sorry, 190.
2 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.
2 THE COURT: All right, 190, the report, will
2 be admitted.
2 (Defendant's Exhibit 190 received

2795

1 into Evidence)
2 BY MR. WEHNER:
3 Q Miss Dean, with regards to this memorandum, what is 4 your understanding as to the circumstances under which 5 it was written?
6 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.
7 THE COURT: All right. what's the basis she
8 has for giving the circumstances of her understanding?

9 MR. WEHNER: It's a preliminary question, Your 10 Honor, I'll rephrase it.

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 BY MR. WEHNER:

13 Q Do you understand, Miss Dean, what the purpose of 14 this memo was, from your review of it?

15 A Yes, sir.

16 Q what was the purpose of the memo?

17 A The Inspector General had requested that Secretary
18 Pierce remove Mr. Demery from the administration of the 19 Moderate Rehabilitation Program and to replace him with 20 someone else because of the preliminary findings of 2 their report, and Mr. Demery responded back in a

2 confidential memorandum to Secretary Pierce, laying out
2 his defense to the Inspector General's allegations and
2 enclosing several documents and memoranda that explained
2 funding decisions that had been made while he was the 2796

1 Assistant Secretary for FHA, Housing.

2 MR. WEHNER: I want to publish the first page

3 of this to the jury if I may, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: All right.

5 BY MR. WEHNER:

6 Q Miss Dean, could you read on the first page

7 following the colon which follows the word facts,

8 f-a-c-t-s, could you read that paragraph aloud, please?

9 A Yes, okay. well, I should read the allegation so

10 that -- to put it in context?

11 Q I'm sorry, begin with -- I didn't have that 12 proper. "The first allegation."

13 A "The first allegation. The Assistant Secretary for 14 Housing personally controlled the Moderate
15 Rehabilitation Program allocation process." The first 16 paragraph. "Facts. This allegation shows concealment of

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
17 known facts by the Inspector General. As you will 18 recall, in January, 1987 you directed me to chair a Mod
19 Rehab Selection Committee comprised of your Executive 20 Assistant, Deborah Dean, and the Undersecretary, J.
2 Michael Dorsey, Acting. The committee reviewed PHA

2 letter requests for funding considerations and made
2 their selections. Mr. Adams," who was the Inspector
2 General, "is well aware of this process. For him to 2 allege that I personally controlled the MRP allocation

2797

1 process is a misstatement. In all cases each funding
2 action occurred as a result of a specific written or
3 verbal communications with PHA's, elected public
4 officials, the Regional or area HUD personnel. It was 5 my job to coordinate the various requests and present
6 them to the Selection Committee. The Committee, not Tom
7 Demery, decided and approved the allocation of Mod Rehab
8 units."
9 Q Miss Dean, this memo was written on November 7th of 10 1988?

11 A Yes.

12 Q When did you testify in front of the Senate
13 Committee?

14 A On August the 6th, 1987.

15 Q Now, you were asked questions concerning the 16 Moderate Rehabilitation process by Senator Proxmire and 17 the process by which those decisions were made. Did you 18 understand his questions to be limited to a particular
19 time period?

20 A Yes, gratefully.

2 Q What was that time period?

2 A Senator Proxmire asked me about 1987, then comma,
2 this year, and then he went on with his question. So
2 the question was then limited to the action on the 2 Moderate Rehabilitation Program since the January

2798

1 meeting that Mr. Demery had with Mr. Pierce.

2 Q Now, is this memorandum/ that paragraph of the 3 memorandum, consistent with your recollection of the 4 situation with regard to Mod Rehab in 1987?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And is that in fact how the Moderate Rehabilitation
Page 1557

7 process operated in 1987?

8 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor, it's

9 continuing leading.

10 THE COURT: All right. I'll sustain the 11 objection as to leading.

12 BY MR. WEHNER:

13 Q How did the Moderate Rehabilitation process work in 14 1987?

15 A Well, for the entire year I can't answer but I did
16 testify that the January meeting, that there were 17 projects funded, of which I did not know about, but that 18 Mr. Demery and Mr. Pierce had agreed upon. And then the 19 March and April funding rounds were the Selection
20 Committee of Mr. Dorsey and myself and Mr. Demery, and 2 Mr. Demery would bring a list to the committee. We

2 would discuss them and vote on them with certain
2 exceptions, to which I testified about, in those two
2 meetings, and to the best of my knowledge, that 2 continued through 1987 but I was only present for those 2799

1 two meetings.

2 Q Miss Dean, you identified Dean Exhibit 943 as being
3 a stack of letters that had been written by Senators
4 with regard to Mod Rehab.

5 A Yes.

6 Q How often did Senators call you or write to you or 7 did you become aware of senatorial requests for Moderate
8 Rehabilitation units?

9 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor, asked and 10 answered.

11 THE COURT: I'll allow it one more time. Go
12 ahead.

13 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 A Specifically on Moderate Rehabilitation, maybe 20
15 to 30 phone calls a year specifically on Moderate
16 Rehabilitation, but then there were phone calls on the 17 other numerous, you know, projects in the Department.
18 So we - although I received a lot of telephone calls
19 from senators and their staffs or Congressmen and their 20 staffs, specifically on Mod Rehab maybe 30 a year.
2 Maybe a few more but -

2 Q To your knowledge, did Senator William Proxmire
2 ever request consideration with regard to the Moderate
2 Rehabilitation program?

2 A He requested consideration from Assistant Secretary

2800

1 Demery. He did not call Secretary Pierce or myself -
2 he did not call Secretary Pierce, that I know of. He 3 certainly did not talk to me but I do know that he did

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
4 meet with Mr. Demery because Mr. Demery told me so.
5 Q Miss Dean, I'm going to show you what I've marked
6 for identification as Dean Exhibits 124, 899, 896, and

7 94.

8 MR. WEHNER: For the record, 124, 899, 896,
9 and 94.

10 Q And I ask you if these were kept in the regular 11 course of business at HUD?

12 A Dean Exhibit 94, yes. Dean Exhibit 896, yes. Dean
13 Exhibit 899 - 898, 124, and this last page should not 14 be attached to this. These are separate.

15 Q And 795, which I renumbered the last page.

16 A Yes.

17 Q Was it in the regular course of business at HUD to 18 keep those documents?

19 A Yes, sir.

20 Q Were they kept in the regular course of business?

2 A Yes, sir.

2 Q And to your knowledge do they appear to have been
2 generated at or about the time reflected?

2 A Yes, sir.

2 Q Miss Dean, with specific regard to the project

2801

1 called Baltimore Uplift One.

2 A Yes.

3 Q Do you recall when you first heard the name

4 Baltimore Uplift One?

5 A When Senator Proxmire asked me the question, had I
6 ever heard of Baltimore Uplift One, and I never heard of 7 Baltimore Uplift One when he asked me the question.

8 Q Do you know today what Baltimore Uplift One is?

9 A Well, the Independent Counsel provided

10 approximately 6000 documents on Baltimore Uplift One and 11 I read through them and it, to me, from what I've been 12 able to read and talk to Dr. Baugh, who was the head of 13 the office who ran that program, it is a public housing
14 tenant training program that at one point in HUD history
15 received some Mod Rehabilitation assistance and some 16 Section Eight certificate assistance back in 1982 and 17 1983. I believe the certificates that Mr. DeBartolomeis
18 testified to that he had sent were in 1983 and I believe 19 the moderate rehabilitation units that went into it were 20 in 1982.

21 Q Where were you in 1982?

22 A I was in the Executive Secretariat.

23 Q Today, as you sit here, have you seen anything that 24 refreshes your recollection that you knew of or were 25 aware of Baltimore Uplift One when you were asked that

2802

1 question by Senator Proxmire?

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 A No, and I -- nothing that I saw reflected anything

3 that would have reminded me of it. I've never heard of 4 it to this dayf when I look at it I know what it is once
5 I read it, but I still don't have any recollection or 6 memory of anyone ever saying the words Baltimore Uplift
7 One to me. I just had never heard of it and it
8 certainly wasn't a Moderate Rehabilitation program. It

9 wasn't -- it looks as though there were some Moderate
10 Rehabilitation monies put into a large training program
11 and a lot of other different kinds of monies as well,
12 but it's certainly not something that I would refer to 13 as a Mod Rehab project. It is a program that came under 14 the Office of Public Housing, not Mod Rehab.
15 I did see that there was a person named Dean
16 Reger and so Dean was on there, a couple of pieces of 17 paper, but those were out of the Philadelphia Regional 18 Office, and Mr. Reger is the Deputy Regional 19 Administrator there. That Dean refers to him, not me.
20 So I -- I don't know what connection I would have had to 2 it and I did not hear of it then and did not know what

2 it was when he asked me.
2 Q Do you know an individual by the name of Bob
2 Tuttle?
2 A Yes, I know both Mr. Tuttlles.

2803

1 Q which one or either did you ever meet at HUD when

2 you were employed there as Special Assistant?

3 A I met both of them when I was at HUD.

4 Q Did you ever have a discussion regarding the 5 Baltimore project with Mr. Tuttle?

6 A No, not a discussion. Mr. Tuttle, who is not white

7 House Mr. Tuttle but the other Mr. Tuttle, came in to 8 see me one time and I believe it was regarding a project

9 in Washington, D. C , not Baltimore. But he mentioned
10 at some point that he was working with Janice Golec or 11 had been working with her for awhile on something he had 12 done in the past in Baltimore but he didn't say anything
13 about what it was and I just remember saying, well,
14 Janice is the best Special Assistant we have. If you're 15 working with her, I don't know what else to tell you to 16 do. She's great, so - and he had said something to the 17 effect that he had lost a lot of money in this project
18 he had been working on in Baltimore, but I'm not even 19 certain to this day that what he was working on had 20 anything to do with Baltimore Uplift One.
2 I know I met with Bob Tuttle and he said he

2 was working with Janice on something.
2 THE COURT: we'll take our morning recess now,
2 is that all right with you?
2 MR. WEHNER: Yes.

2804

1 THE COURT: we'll take a short morning recess,
2 ladies and gentlemen, for about 15 minutes. We'll be
3 back after that. Remember the admonitions of the Court,
4 please, don't talk about the case.
5 we'll take a break.
6 (Jury dismissed)
7 THE COURT: I made my calendar clear for 8 tomorrow so we can clear up everything that we want to 9 take care of.
10 MR. O'NEILL: So we'll be in Court all day
11 tomorrow, Judge?
12 THE COURT: Until 3:15 or four o'clock. We're 13 swearing in a new U.S. Attorney. So we have to get up
14 there. So we'll sit tomorrow, if you have anybody
15 available to try to finish up the testimony if we can 16 tomorrow at least.
17 MR. WEHNER: I'm going to be about 15 minutes.
18 THE COURT: You'll finish by lunch time.
19 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.
20 MR. O'NEILL: I assume the cross will be long.
21 MR. WEHNER: You think you'll go into
22 tomorrow.
23 MR. O'NEILL: Perhaps.
24 MR. WEHNER: I'll have my witnesses ready for 25 tomorrow, and they'll be short.

THE COURT: Okay. we'll see whether we have anything left, or we'll get ready for closing arguments and instructions over the weekend.

2 THE COURT: All right. Would you bring the jury in,
3 please?
4 THE DEPUTY MARSHAL: Yes, Your Honor.
5 (Jury in.)
6 THE COURT: All right, Ladies and Gentlemen, we're
7 ready to proceed with the late morning session.
8 BY MR. WEHNER:
9 Q. Ms. Dean, just to make sure the record is, is clear, I'm 10 going to show you Dean Exhibit 625. You testified about this 11 yesterday.

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. That was kept in the regular course of HUD business?

14 A. Yes, it was.

15 Q. Was it the regular course of HUD business to prepare that 16 document?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And it was prepared at or about the time reflected on the 19 document?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Ms. Dean, after your confirmation hearing that the jury just 22 heard from the tape recordings, what happened with regard to the 23 confirmation process?

24 A. Well, if you'll remember, there was a, at one point
25 yesterday in the proceedings, the senator asked me about motor

2807

1 pool records and whether or not I could get back to the committee
2 with more information on motor pool records.
3 Well, the Senate adjourned that --he scheduled my 4 hearing for the last day of the Senate being in session, so when 5 he then asked me to give more information back to the committee,

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
6 the committee was -- the Senate, in essence, ended, and my 7 nomination automatically was sent back to the White House as a
8 nomination that had not been acted upon by the Senate, which 9 meant that I then had to be renominated by the President.
10 So the entire process started all over again, and I was 11 renominated by the President over the very strong objections of 12 Senator Proxmire, once again, in the fall. And the Senate then,
13 well, Senator Proxmire would not allow it to come up for a vote.
14 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.
15 THE COURT: All right.
16 THE WITNESS: It did not come up for a vote.
17 THE COURT: I'll sustain it. Just say it did not come
18 up for a vote.
19 THE WITNESS: It did not come up for a vote.
20 And there were many other members of the committee who
2 signed a letter to Senator Proxmire, I think it was 12 or 13
2 other senators on the committee that said to please bring this up
2 for a vote, but he was not swayed by that.
2 And at the end of the Christmas season, the Senate then
2 again adjourned, and my nomination was automatically sent back

2808

1 again as not having been acted on by the Senate.
2 And in January of 1988, I met with Mr. Tuttle from the 3 White House and Secretary Pierce, and they told me that the, the 4 President hardly ever nominated anyone for a third time and that
5 it was very clear that I was never going to be able to come up
6 for a vote in the committee, even though I had the votes to be 7 confirmed, and I was not then resubmitted again for that
8 position.
9 Q. Now as a part of your effort to become confirmed, I believe 10 you testified yesterday that you provided information to the 11 White House Office of Personnel and the General Counsel's Office.
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. Did you provide them with the answers to various questions?
14 A. Yes, I did.
15 Q. And what I've showed you is marked as Dean Exhibit 789, the 16 memo dated February 12, 1987, for Peter J. Wallison, Counsel to 17 the President, from you?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. Is that the memo that you sent at that time?
20 A. Yes. Yes.
2 MR. WEHNER: I move the admission of Dean Exhibit 789.
2 MR. O'NEILL: No objection, Your Honor.
2 THE COURT: All right. Being no objection, it's
2 admitted, 789.

2809

1 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 789 was
2 received in evidence.)
3 BY MR. WEHNER:
4 Q. Ms. Dean -- and I'm going to review page 26 of that on the 5 monitor. With regard to Question 25, from reading your response, 6 do you have a recollection as to what the question was?
7 A. I'm afraid I can't see which number goes with the --
8 Q. I'm sorry. I'll try to get it.
9 A. Okay. These are all questions from the White House counsel

10 on anything that might be said negative about you, and so you try 11 to be as honest as you can for the White House as to what might

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

12 be said about you and --

13 Q. would you read paragraph 25, please?

14 A. It says, "My family's business until 1978 included three 15 restaurants with which I was associated. An unfair attack on my 16 qualifications might center on these ventures. The restaurants
17 include the Jockey Club, the Sea Catch Restaurant, and The 18 Guards. The restaurant business is not seen by many as the 19 proper background for a presidential appointment."

20 Q. And 26?

2 A. "Persons who might take steps, overtly or covertly, to

2 attack my appointment fall into two groups." It's all one big
2 blur to me. I'm sorry.

2 "First group: Current or past Department of Housing

2 and Urban Development employees which have been disciplined by me

2810

1 in my current position or relieved of their duties. Comments by 2 them would be to the effect that I was unfair, unsympathetic, or 3 vindictive. These people might include Leonard Burchman, Deputy 4 Assistant Secretary, Office of Public Affairs; Jack Stokvis, 5 General Deputy Assistant Secretary, Office of Planning and 6 Development; Judith Brachman, Assistant Secretary Designate,
7 Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity; Bronwyn Morgan,
8 Office of the Secretary; Bernice Williams, Assistant of the 9 Secretary for Business Relations, Office of Small and 10 Disadvantaged Business Utilization.

11 "The second group: Outside political consultants or 12 former employees or Housing consultants. These individuals feel 13 that I have not been generous with discretionary money or feel 14 that because of political connections, they should receive 15 additional consideration. These people might include: Larry 16 Simmons, former Federal Housing Commissioner; R. Carter Sanders,
17 private law practice; Michael Karem, consultant and former HUD
18 employee; Joseph Strauss, consultant and former HUD employee,
19 Shirley Wiseman, consultant/developer and former HUD employee.

20 "All actions taken, which included some referenced

2 above, were discussed and concurred on by Secretary Samuel R.
2 Pierce, Jr."

2 Q. And directing your attention to the last paragraph you
2 read, "All actions taken, which included some referenced above,
2 were discussed and concurred on by Secretary Samuel R.

2811

Pierce, Jr.," -

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. -

and relating back to your testimony regarding units being 4 sent to Maryland, would you explain to the jury what you
5 understood the question to be and what you understood your answer
6 to be when you were asked about mod rehab units being sent to the 7 State of Maryland?

8 A. Well, I meant what, exactly what I had testified here, which 9 is that I never felt comfortable with discretionary monies going 10 to my home state if I sat on the panel and voted for them, the 11 same way I didn't feel comfortable about Mr. Demery sending units
12 to Michigan or Secretary Pierce sending units to New York. I 13 just thought that it, it looked as though you were trying to take 14 care of your own state, and really we represented all 50 states, 15 and so I thought that it was inappropriate unless it was

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
16 addressed at a higher level.
17 So whenever there was a request on any discretionary
18 money that had to do with Maryland, I always made certain that I
19 took it to the highest ethical person and the highest authority
20 person that I knew, both of those people being Secretary Pierce,
21 and Secretary Pierce would have to make that call.
22 It was not something that I felt comfortable doing;
23 even recommending it to him I felt uncomfortable. I wanted him
24 to be able to look into it on his own, without my recommendation.
25 Q. And when did you write this memo?

1 A. February 12, 1987. There was a subsequent memo also to
2 this, and under people who might block my nomination, I also
3 added Senator Proxmire after the hearing, because I
4 Q. Ms. Dean, did you receive copies of letters that were sent
5 to Senator Proxmire in support of your nomination?
6 A. Yes, I did.
7 Q. And who did you receive copies of those letters from?
8 A. The Mortgage Bankers Association sent a letter to Secretary
9 Pierce, and the National Association of Realtors and the National 10 Association of Real Estate Brokers and the community development
11 organizations.
12 There were a lot of organizations that wrote letters in 13 support of my nomination, but I think the two that -- the one
14 that was, I think should have been the most effective was the one
15 from the American Federation of Government Employees, because I 16 was the only Republican presidential nominee that had ever been 17 supported by the union that represented government employees, and 18 I also received a letter in support from the local HUD union
19 headquarters, where they had sent a letter to Senator Proxmire
20 saying that I was a very fair individual who had stopped a lot of 21 strife in the department and to please allow my nomination to go
22 forward.
23 And I know the man that was the head of the, of AFGE
24 worked in South Carolina, and he flew all the way up to 25 Washington to meet with Senator Proxmire, as did Dr. Ralph

2813

1 Abernathy on my behalf.
2 Q. Let me show you what I've marked for identification as Dean
3 Exhibits 195, 196, 197, 201, 202, 203, 200, 199, 207, 194, 204,
4 and 198 and ask you if these are copies of letters that you
5 received supporting your nomination that were received by Senator
6 Proxmire's committee?
7 A. Yes. This is the one from Dr. Abernathy; federal government
8 employees; the local -- the Housing Local No. 476; one from the 9 Realtors, National Association of Counties; the Home Builders;
10 the National Council for Urban Economic Development; the Mortgage
11 Bankers; Congressman Mervyn Dymally; Strom Thurmond; and as I
12 said before, the National Association of Real Estate Brokers,
13 which was Mr. Holmes, who testified here.
14 Q. Ms. Dean, in terms of the process with regard to the Senate
15 committee, would you tell us your understanding of why your 16 nomination was not approved?
17 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.
18 THE COURT: Yes, I'll sustain that the way it's asked.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

19 BY MR. WEHNER:

20 Q. Ms. Dean, did you receive information regarding --do you
21 have an understanding as to why your nomination was not voted 22 upon?

23 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: I'll sustain it. You have to come to the 25 bench and tell me the relevancy.

2814

1 MR. WEHNER: I will, Your Honor, on the objection as to 2 relevancy.

3 (Bench conference on the record.)

4 THE COURT: what is relevant about her understanding
5 why she didn't get nominated?

6 MR. WEHNER: well, the testimony I would intend to 7 elicit, Judge, would be that she perceived and knew at the time
8 she answered these questions by Senator Proxmire and as evidenced 9 by his obvious tone on the tape recordings and by the questions
10 of the other members of the committee that he was extremely 11 hostile to her nomination and that she was being extremely 12 careful in terms of her responses, in terms of her responses to 13 the questions, and it goes back to what I described to Your Honor 14 before in terms of relevance as far as her intent when she 15 testified in front of the committee.

16 THE COURT: I think she can certainly answer a properly
17 phrased question about when she was answering, did she perceive
18 that she was under oath and that she had to be careful, a better
19 phrased question. I think you can bring something out, 20 obviously, that she was trying to be very careful because she 21 really wanted to get the nomination and she knew the 22 investigators had been out after her and everything else, but you
23 can phrase a question and bring that out, as opposed to just what 24 her general understanding is.

25 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir. Thank you.

2815

(End of bench conference.)

BY MR. WEHNER:

3 Q. Ms. Dean --

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. -- when you were answering the questions posed to you by 6 Senator Proxmire --

A. Yes.

8 Q. -- what was your state of mind?

9 A. well, I was extremely nervous. I'd been investigated and 10 charged with all sorts of -- I mean, the more malicious things
11 did not even come out. I'd been accused of everything from being 12 Secretary Pierce's mistress to stealing money, to making people
13 pay me to get their jobs, just all sorts of horrible things. I
14 didn't know what was going to be said.

15 I was nervous, and I was scared, and I was prepared to 16 discuss community development programs in great detail and got 17 asked about none of them, and I felt like I had stepped on a land
18 mine. I felt like I was in some sort of a battle, and all I knew 19 how to do was just, you know, hold my head up and do the best I
20 could, not -- you know, just do the best I could and take 21 whatever came and hope that fairness would win out, but it
22 didn't.

23 Q. Did you, in fact, do the best you could?

24 A. Of course. I did the best I could.

25 Q. And did you answer the questions as truthfully as you knew how?

2816

2 A. Yes, yes. Well, I mean, needless to say, if I had not
3 answered the questions truthfully, they would have killed my 4 nomination immediately. I knew that if I made any mistakes at 5 all, that that would be a reason for them to fight me to be 6 renominated, and they couldn't find anything, and the President
7 did renominate me.

8 MR. WEHNER: Nothing further at this time, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right. Do you want to start, or do you

10 want to break?

11 MR. O'NEILL: Whatever the Court deems appropriate.

12 THE COURT: Why don't we go ahead for a few minutes

13 then if you don't mind.

14 MR. O'NEILL: Okay.
[DEAN CROSS BEGINS]

15 CROSS EXAMINATION

16 BY MR. O'NEILL:

17 Q. Ms. Dean, I believe on direct examination, you talked to the 18 jury about June 15, 1987. Do you recall that date?

19 A. No. June 15? I'm sorry.

20 Q. Let me refresh your recollection. That is the date upon 21 which you had a discussion with Mr. Kitchin about not buying your 22 brother's apartment.

23 A. The day we picked up the car and came back, yes.

24 Q. Now you had a very good recollection of that day; is that

25 correct?

2817

1 A. I have a very good recollection of the drive in the car
2 back, yes.
3 Q. Tell us again what happened.
4 A. Mr. Kitchin and I had plans for later that evening, and 5 Mr. Cushing was going to drive me to pick up my car that was up
6 Wisconsin Avenue toward Rockville, and it's in -- I know exactly
7 the building it was in, the Air Rights Building.
8 And I picked the car up, and Mr. Cushing went along his 9 way, and Mr. Kitchin got into my car, and we were driving down
10 Wisconsin Avenue, and we were talking about his apartment and 11 what we were going to do with it, or basically I started the 12 conversation, and Mr. Kitchin turned to me and said that he had 13 spoken to his wife, "I don't think we're going to do it now;
14 we're going to do it next year."
15 And I remember exactly where we were. I don't know the 16 cross street, but it was right where the Tenley movie theatres
17 were. And I pulled the car over to the side of the sidewalk, and 18 I took my checkbook out and wrote him a check at that time.
19 Q. Now he had already given you the $4,000 check; is that
20 correct?
2 A. Yes. I had spoken to him about giving me some money to put 2 aside in early April, and there is a calendar entry for that, and 2 I don't know if it's April 1 or April 3, but I know that it was,
2 I know that I had the discussion with him at a hotel on 16th
2 Street. I don't remember exactly what they're called. It's one

2818

1 of the -- the Jefferson, the Jefferson Hotel. And it's in my
2 calendar.
3 So the 1st or 3rd of June -I mean April. And then he
4 sent me a check by mail late in April or early May.
5 Q. And the check that's in evidence is dated April 29, 1987?
6 A. I have no idea. I really don't know.
7 Q. Now I believe you testified on direct examination that you
8 were quite upset when Mr. Kitchin told you he would not be buying 9 the apartment?
10 A. Well, yes. I mean, he had put a lot of people out, and a 11 lot of people had done a lot of work.
12 Q. By "a lot of people," would you be referring to Janet 13 Whitman, Gordon, your brother?
14 A. Well, I think Gordon had sort of mentally moved on by this 15 point, and we were then discussing whether or not if he didn't 16 get Gordon's apartment, he was going to get another one in the 17 Watergate, but I think he had put Ms. Whitman out, and I think he 18 had put Mrs. Withington out, and he certainly had put my brother
19 out in the first part of the year, and he certainly put me out.
20 I mean, I did a lot of work for him.
2 Q. What were you referring to when you said Gordon mentally
2 moved on?
2 A. Well, I think that -I know that they had a lot of
2 conversations in February or March, and then at some point, I
2 know Mrs. Withington decided to keep showing the apartment to 2819

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
1 other people because Mr. Kitchin hadn't returned a signed
2 contract, and so I think my brother was, "well, he either buys or 3 doesn't buy it, I don't much care, but if I get another contract,
4 I'm going to take it."

5 And at that point, Mr. Kitchin said, "well, even if we
6 don't get Gordon's apartment, I'll get another one at the 7 Watergate."

8 Q. After you had this conversation with Mr. Kitchin, did you
9 tell Ms. Whitman that the, Mr. Kitchin would not be buying the

10 apartment?

11 A. Well, I assume I did. I don't recollect having a

12 conversation with her, but I assume I did.

13 Q. And how about, did you have a conversation with 14 Ms. Withington about --

15 A. No, I've never met or spoken to her.

16 Q. And how about Gordon? Did you tell Gordon that Kitchin was 17 not buying the apartment?

18 A. You know, I don't remember having a conversation with

19 Gordon, either, because he might have already moved on and

20 already decided to sell his apartment to someone else at that

21 point. I really don't know. I don't have a recollection of

22 that. I just have a recollection of being very displeased with

23 Mr. Kitchin at that day.

24 Q. And that would be June 15 of '87?

25 A. It was the day that I picked up the car and was driving back down Wisconsin Avenue.

2820

2 Q. Ms. Dean -- if I may approach the witness, Your Honor?

3 THE COURT: Go ahead.

4 BY MR. O'NEILL:

5 Q. Just so the record is clear, does that refresh your 6 recollection that it was, in fact, June 15 of 1987 --

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. -- when you had the conversation with Lou Kitchin?

9 A. That's correct. I remember this very well.

10 Q. Now during your direction, you talked about picking out a 11 couch.

12 A. Yes, from Colonial Furniture, in Arlington.

13 Q. After this conversation with Mr. Kitchin, did you contact
14 the company and tell them you would not be buying that couch?

15 A. No. I'd just gone to look at different couches and price
16 them. I didn't -- I didn't have an order on it or anything like
17 that.

18 Q. Now you also testified on direct examination that you had 19 bought four prints for the apartment.

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. What did you do with those prints?

22 A. I sold them in my antique store.

23 Q. And you had the antique store at that time?

24 A. No, I did not.

25 Q. So what did you do with the prints? Did you hold them for a

2821

1 period of time until you --

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. When did you get the antique store?

4 A. Let me see. You know, I don't know. This is 1993, and I've 5 been where I am now for two years, and I was where I was before
6 for a little over a year. So 1990, 1989-1990.

7 I'm sorry, I didn't know you were going to ask me that,

8 so I didn't go back and look at stuff. I'm sorry.

9 Q. Was it after you left HUD?

10 A. Oh, yes. It was after I left HUD and after I had already 11 been at other business and other work, and then when the HUD
12 I.G. report came out and there was a lot of press activity and a
13 lot of Congressional hearings and whatever, I just sort of, I
14 just sort of went into myself, and I knew that, that Secretary
15 Pierce was going to be investigated and that I was going to be 16 investigated, and I just stopped really doing anything.

17 And then at some point, I decided I can't live like 18 this. I have to make a living. I have to work. And so I was 19 already selling my furniture, because I had to pay for lawyers to 20 go to meetings with, you know, Congressional investigators and 21 independent counsels, and so I figured, well, I'd might as well
22 sell my furniture myself as opposed to giving it to an auction
23 house and getting less money. So I opened up an antique store to 24 sell my own stuff.

25 Q. Are you finished with your answer?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, going back to discussions, did there come a
3 point in time when you told Ms. Whitman that Lou Kitchin was not

4 buying the apartment?

5 A. I told you I don't remember having a specific recollection
6 of having that conversation with her.

7 Q. Do you have any general recollection?

8 A. No. I have to assume that she knew at some point, but I
9 don't remember any specific conversation with her.

10 Q. You testified on direct examination that you were quite 11 upset about it. What, if anything, did you do immediately after 12 Mr. Kitchin told you?

13 A. I pulled the car over. I told him that I thought that this 14 was bad news. I was a little peeved with him. I wrote him a 15 check. I told him at that time, I think I had maybe a little 16 close to $2,000 in the bank. I did not have the entire $4,000,
17 and I wrote him out a check for $4,250.

18 I also figured out on the check stub how much the 19 prints had cost and told him that, and he kept insisting that he 20 owed me the fee that we had agreed upon. But I said that I
21 didn't think that, if there wasn't an apartment, that that was 22 right, and I wanted him to have all his money back.
23 And he said, "well, let's talk about it. Let's talk
24 about it."

25 I said, "No, take the money. I never want to talk

2823

1 about this again."

2 I was peeved with him, because I thought he basically-
3 had been jerking me around.

4 Q. Ms. Dean, how many times did you go with Mr. Kitchin to see
5 your brother's apartment?

6 A. Twice, I believe.

7 Q. And do you recall the specific dates?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Do you recall approximately when that was?

10 A. I know that I did go to look at apartments on that January
11 date that I took annual leave with Ms. Whitman, and I do not 12 remember if we looked at my brother's apartment then or not. I
13 just don't recall.

14 But I know that one time, I went just with Mr. Kitchin
15 and looked at the apartment, because we walked around and talked 16 about what he wanted to do with the color of the kitchen and 17 changing the closet into a bar and what he wanted to spend on 18 certain amounts of furniture and artwork and things like that.

19 Q. Do you recall when that was?

20 A. Well, it would have to be after the January time that I --
21 but I don't have a specific recollection, but I would assume it
22 had to be after we looked at the other apartments, because he 23 then decided upon the one that my brother had, because my brother
24 was going to reduce the price.

25 Q. Now once he decided on that apartment, did there come a

2824

1 number of times when he went back to that apartment, to your
2 knowledge, Mr. Kitchin?

3 A. I have no idea. I don't know why he would go back without

4 me or without Mrs. Whitman.

5 Q. Okay. Now you said the apartment, he was going to do
6 several things to it; is that correct?

7 A. He wanted me to do several things to it.

8 Q. Okay. And you were going to act as the designer for him for 9 that apartment?

10 A. Yes. Well, it doesn't really require a lot of design work.

11 It required buying furniture.

12 Q. And Gordon was familiar with this,- is that correct?

13 A. I think so, yes.

14 Q. Now to your knowledge, did Mr. Kitchin and your brother,
15 Gordon Dean, converse about the apartment?

16 A. Yes. I know that they did.

17 Q. And when were they speaking; do you know?

18 A. I know that my brother called me several times. It would 19 have, of course, had to have been after Mr. Kitchin had decided 20 upon the apartment, so it had to be after the January 15 go-
21 around, so we can use that as a time frame, and before my brother
22 decided to sell it or to show it to other people and got a 23 contract on it. So I would say it would have to be sort of the 24 winter/spring of 1987.

25 Q. Did Gordon --

2825

A. I know that he called me several times and was not satisfied
2 with my answers as to Mr. Kitchin's intentions. He'd say, like,
3 "When is he going to sign the contract?"

4 And I would say, "I don't know."

5 So he'd say, "Can I call him?" My brother can be like
6 that.

7 I said, "Sure, call him."

8 I gave him his telephone number. I believe my brother
9 remembers talking to him once or twice or three times. I think
10 he remembers twice is what he said to me.

11 Q. When would those conversations have been in relation to your 12 receiving this $4,000 check from Mr. Kitchin?

13 A. Well, I'm not sure they had anything to do with one another.

14 Q. Well, did the $4,000 check have to do with decorating his
15 apartment?

16 A. It had to do with decorating an apartment at the Watergate.

17 Q. Oh, not --

18 A. Whether it was my brother's -- well, if he ended up not 19 getting my brother's, because my brother didn't want to wait for 20 as long as Mr. Kitchin took, then we would have had to do it to 21 another apartment.

22 Q. But at that period of time, Lou Kitchin is looking at your 23 brother's apartment; is that correct?

24 A. He was looking at my brother's apartment in January and 25 February, I know, because there was a lot of activity when my 2826

1 brother first reduced the price for him, and I don't know when my
2 brother talked to him or when Mr. Kitchin talked to my brother,
3 but I know that my brother did get his phone number from me, and 4 he did have several conversations with him.

5 And I also know at a certain point my brother got very 6 sort of fed up with Mr. Kitchin, and I know that he and 7 Mrs. Withington made an effort to then show it to other people as

10 MR. O'NEILL: Thank you, Your Honor.
11 THE COURT: Mr. O'Neill.
12 DEBORAH GORE DEAN, DEFENDANT'S WITNESS, RESUMED
13 CROSS EXAMINATION (Cont'd.)
14 BY MR. O'NEILL:
15 Q. Ms. Dean, isn't it a fact that yesterday you testified to 16 this jury that Mr. Kitchin was going to be, to pay you to 17 decorate Gordon's apartment?
18 A. At one point, yes.
19 Q. Okay. And you were very specific about it. There was going 20 to be a dry bar instead of a closet?
21 A. Right.
22 Q. And the color of the kitchen was a very bright color that 23 Mr. Kitchin did not like?
24 A. That's correct.
25 Q. Now is it also fair to say, Ms. Dean, that yesterday when 2829

1 you testified to this jury, you had a very specific recollection
2 of the conversation on June 15, 1987, in which you discussed with 3 Mr. Kitchin the fact that he was no longer interested in buying
4 Gordon's apartment?
5 A. No. What the -- what I remember saying yesterday was that 6 Mr. Kitchin was no longer interested in getting an apartment that 7 year, that his wife had said maybe next year.
8 Q. Do you recall, Ms. Dean, giving the following statement in 9 your testimony yesterday: "I said, "well, it's out in Rockville,
10 but if you want to, come along.
11 "And so he came with me. And I remember Hunter Cushing
12 had agreed to give me a ride out there after work. So
13 Mr. Kitchin got in the car with us, and we went out, picked up my 14 car. And we were driving down Wisconsin Avenue, and I was 15 discussing with him basically where -- what I had bought and what
16 we were doing and the fact that my brother was getting antsy
17 about, you know, had he signed a contract.
18 "And I was like, you know, "You are so slow about this.
19 Are you going to do it, or are you not going to do it or 20 whatever?"
21 Do you recall giving that testimony yesterday?
22 A. Well, I assume that I did, and I did have those 23 conversations with Mr. Kitchin. Perhaps the conversation about 24 my brother being antsy was earlier, but I think that's basically
25 correct, yes.

2830

1 Q. And that's what you testified to this jury yesterday?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, that was June 15, 1987; isn't that right?
4 A. Yes. But at this point, my brother may have already moved
5 on. I just don't recall.
6 Q. You didn't say that to this jury yesterday, did you, ma'am?
7 A. No. I'm trying to be as accurate as possible. I remember
8 that Mr. Kitchin was going to buy my brother's apartment because 9 he had lowered the price, but at a certain time, my brother
10 decided to do it, to put it back on the market, and Mr. Kitchin's
11 comment to me was, "well, if we don't do your brother's 12 apartment, we'll do one very similar to it."
13 And I do know that we had looked at an apartment that 14 was exactly the same as my brother's but on a different floor,

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
15 and so it wouldn't have made any difference if it was my 16 brother's apartment or another apartment. The same style would 17 have carried on.
18 Q. Did you say that to this jury yesterday, ma'am?
19 A. Well, I tried to. I tried to be as complete as I possibly 20 could.
21 Q. Did you say that to this jury yesterday, ma'am?
22 A. Mr. O'Neill, I think I did, yes.
23 Q. . You did say that in your testimony?
24 A. I believe that I tried to give as complete an answer as I
25 possibly could.

2831

1 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, what was the date of the check that
2 Mr. Kitchin gave you?
3 A. I don't know.
4 Q. Ms. Dean, I'd show you, with the Court's permission,
5 Government's Exhibit 203 and ask you if that refreshes your
6 recollection that the check was dated April 29, 1987?
7 A. Mr. O'Neill, you and I -8
8 Q. Ma'am, my question is does this refresh your recollection as 9 to whether it's dated April 29, 1987?
10 A. No, it doesn't.
11 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, for the record, Government's 12 Exhibit 203 is in evidence and dated April 29, 1987.
13 MR. WEHNER: Objection, Your Honor.
14 THE COURT: All right.
15 MR. WEHNER: Mr. O'Neill well knows there is a dispute
16 as to the date of that check. I believe it's possible to 17 interpret it as April 20, 22nd, or 29th. There's been no
18 testimony as to the date of the check.
19 THE COURT: All right. Can we at least agree it was in 20 April 1987?
21 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.
22 MR. O'NEILL: Can I put all three dates on, Your Honor?
23 THE COURT: All right, sure.
24 BY MR. O'NEILL:
25 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, I believe you testified on direct examination

2832

1 yesterday when asked by Mr. wehner that you went to see the
2 apartment with Mr. Kitchin in January of 1987; is that correct?
3 A. I know that I took annual leave on January 15, I believe. I
4 know we showed it on the screen, and I know it's in my calendars.
5 I took annual leave, and I know I went with Mrs. Whitman and 6 Mr. Kitchin to look at several apartments in the Watergate.
7 I do not remember whether or not my brother's was one
8 of those or if that came later. And I know that I did go to the 9 apartment with Mr. Kitchin, my brother's apartment with him one

10 time in the evening, I remember, and I believe another time.
11 I also know that we saw one exactly like it, and it was 12 either several floors above or below, but it was the exact same 13 apartment and --

14 Q. Was it painted the same color in the kitchen?

15 A. I don't recall.

16 Q. Ms. Dean, let me show you --

17 A. Actually, frankly --

18 Q. Let me show you what's been marked as Government's Exhibit
19 203B.
20 A. I'd like to answer your question.
21 Q. Ms. Dean, you've testified for six days in front of this 22 jury now --

23 THE COURT: All right, you can go ahead and finish your
24 answer.
25 THE WITNESS: Mr. O'Neill, I may be mistaken about

2833

1 which kitchen it was that was a bright yellow or orange color, I
2 remember that. It may have been the one that looked very similar
3 to my brother's apartment. I want to be as honest as I possibly 4 can with you. I don't recall what color my brother's kitchen
5 was. I remember that a kitchen that we discussed, that we looked 6 at was a problem that he wanted changed.

7 BY MR. O'NEILL:

8 Q. I direct your attention to your testimony yesterday and ask 9 you if you told this jury you were confused about the colors of 10 kitchens yesterday?

11 A. "So Mr. Kitchin got in the car with us, and we went out, 12 picked up my car. And we were driving down Wisconsin Avenue, and 13 I was discussing with him basically where -- what I had bought
14 and what we were doing and the fact that my brother was getting 15 antsy about, you know, had he signed a contract.

16 "And I was like, you know, 'You are so slow about this.
17 Are you going to go do it, or are you not going to do it or 18 whatever?'"

19 That's -- what -20

Q. There's an entire document before you, ma'am -21

A. I'm sorry.

22 Q. -constituting

the transcript of your testimony. Why don't 23 you go through it and tell the jury if you see any part in there 24 where you tell him you were confused about the apartments and 25 there was one identical to Gordon's apartment yesterday during

1 the testimony.

2 A. Mr. O'Neill, if I said everything I remember about every 3 detail of every question, we'd be here for the six years it took 4 to do all of this. I did the best I could when you asked me the 5 question and when Mr. Wehner asked me the question.

6 Q. Well, is this not very important, Ms. Dean?

7 A. It's extremely important, but it also happened six years
8 ago.

9 Q. Let me show you Government's Exhibit 203B in evidence and

10 ask you if that refreshes your recollection as to when you

11 deposited the $4,000 check? Let me direct your attention --

12 A. Oh, yes. It was credited to the account on May 6.

13 Q. Okay. Now, Ms. Dean, I'd ask you a question, did you buy a 14 piano on April 17, 1987?

15 A. I don't know, but I know I bought a piano.

16 Q. Let me ask you if this refreshes your recollection as to 17 whether you bought it on April 17, 1987?

18 A. It says I wrote a check for $164 as a down payment on a 19 piano.

20 Q. Do you know what the cost of that piano was?

21 A. $4,500.

22 Q. Did you pay cash for that, ma'am?

23 A. I paid it over time.

24 Q. So you bought it on credit?

25 A. Yes.

2835

1 Q. Ms. Dean, now you testified yesterday to this grand jury
2 that on June 15, 1987 --

3 THE COURT: To the regular jury.

4 MR. O'NEILL: Did I say "grand jury" again, Your Honor?

5 I apologize.

6 Q. On June 15, 1987, your brother was antsy about the 7 apartment, you had a conversation with Lou Kitchin, he said he 8 was no longer going to buy it; is that correct?

9 A. well, it --

10 Q. The answer calls for a yes or no, ma'am.

11 A. It may not be correct.

12 Q. Okay.

13 A. I know that I was antsy. I know my brother had been antsy.

14 I don't know if he was actually antsy on June 15.

15 Q. Let me, let me ask the question --

16 A. And if I did say that, I was mistaken, and I'm sorry.

17 Q. Did you tell the jury this morning that you were mistaken
18 about that?

19 A. I didn't realize I'd made a mistake.

20 Q. Now on May 6, 1987, the $4,000 was credited to your account;
2 is that correct?

2 A. Yes.

2 Q. On either April 20, April 22, or April 29, right around
2 there, you received a check for $4,000 from Mr. Kitchin; is that
2 correct?

1 A. I do not remember receiving the check, except that I
2 received it by mail.

3 Q. And you bought a piano on April 17, 1987, for approximately 4 $4,500, and you bought it on credit?

5 A. I put $164 down on a piano that I was going to pay so much

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

6 for every single month until it was paid for.

7 Q. Was that $4,500?

8 A. That's what the contract says, that eventually $4,500 would 9 be paid.

10 Q. And sometime in January of 1987, you went to, with Lou
11 Kitchin to see various apartments at the Watergate; is that
12 correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, there is one date missing out of this whole
15 sequence. Isn't it a fact Gordon Dean's apartment was sold on 16 April 20, 1987?

17 A. I don't know, but it doesn't surprise me.

18 Q. Let me show you a contract. Was Gordon Dean's apartment
19 sold on April 20, 1987?

20 A. Well, this is dated October 5. It says that there's a
2 contract on April 20.

2 Q. And what date does your brother sign this?

2 A. On April 24.

2 Q. So is this a contract for sale for Gordon's apartment dated
2 April 20, 1987?

2837

A. I don't know if it's a contract for sale or if it's a
2 contract to be negotiated to have a sale later. I just don't
3 know. I've never seen any of these before.

4 Q. Let me show you a settlement statement about the closing of 5 the apartment, and is that in early June of 1987?

6 A. June 10.

7 Q. Five days before your conversation with Lou Kitchin,
8 correct?

9 A. That's correct.

10 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, you never mentioned in your six days of 11 testimony to this jury that Gordon Dean's apartment was sold at 12 or around the time you received this $4,000 check?

13 A. That's because I didn't know it.

14 Q. And you're testifying to this jury now that you didn't know 15 that your brother had sold this apartment that you were trying to 16 sell to Lou Kitchin?

17 A. I have no idea when my brother's apartment was sold.

18 Q. Now that check that I showed you, Government's Exhibit 203,
19 in the memo entry on the check, it states "Loan," does it not?

20 A. Yes, it does, but it wasn't a loan, Mr. O'Neill.

21 Q. Ms. Dean, there's no outstanding question at this time.

22 Now, Ms. Dean, I'd like to go into another topic. Is 23 it fair to say you've been testifying as a witness in this case
24 for the last several days?

25 A. Yes, sir.

2838

1 Q. And have you been providing truthful testimony to this jury?

2 A. The best I possibly can, of course, yes.

3 Q. And is it fair to say you have provided sworn testimony in 4 various settings in the last several years concerning matters
5 affecting your employment at HUD?

6 A. You'd have to be specific, because I've tried not to do
7 that.
8 Q. Well, have you provided testimony in various settings, such 9 as in your confirmation hearing?

10 A. In my confirmation hearing, yes.
11 Q. Have you testified in grand juries when other people were 12 being investigated?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. Okay. And am I correct that you provided or tried to 15 provide as truthful testimony as possible on those occasions as 16 well?
17 A. Yes. I did the best that I could.
18 Q. Now is it also fair to say you provided certain information
19 to various senators when you were seeking to be confirmed as the 20 assistant secretary for Community Planning and Development?
21 A. For, give me a for instance.
22 Q. Okay. Did you write them letters providing information that 23 they sought about you and your past and your background?
24 A. I can't recall anything except for the letters going to 25 Senator Proxmire.

2839

1 Q. Aside from, or in addition to the letters going to Senator
2 Proxmire, do you recall letters going to Senator Cranston?
3 A. I might have sent Senator Cranston or Senator D'Amato a
4 copy, yes.
5 Q. And did you provide truthful information to those senators
6 when you provided that information to them?
7 A. I can't imagine why I wouldn't have, and I don't recall the 8 letters.
9 Q. Now isn't it true, Ms. Dean, that on occasion as a HUD

10 employee, you would lie to other employees during the course of 11 your performance of your duties?
12 A. No.
13 Q. Okay. Isn't it a fact that you've admitted under oath that 14 you lied to a HUD employee while you were a HUD employee?
15 A. Mr. O'Neill, I don't know what you're talking about. You're 16 going to have to give me --
17 Q. I will, Ms. Dean.
18 A. Thanks.
19 Q. Ms. Dean, do you recall testifying before a federal grand 20 jury in Jackson, Mississippi?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. And would that have been in 1988, do you recall?
23 A. If you say it was in 1988, I believe you.
24 Q. Do you recall stating, "There was some concern on 25 Mr. Gilliam's part that I would reinstate Mr. Sowell even though

2840

1 I told DuBois I wouldn't, but I kind of lied about it. I figured
2 after he was gone, it wouldn't make much difference. I'd just do
3 what I wanted to do"?
4 A. That's correct, I did say that. That's absolutely correct.
5 As you know, Mr. Gilliam had moved a career employee. He had 6 not -- it was not fair. And Mr. Gilliam was moving into my 7 position as executive assistant to the secretary, and I was

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
8 moving down to head the office where this employee was, and I
9 told the employee that I would reinstate him, because what had 10 happened to him wasn't fair.
11 And when Mr. Gilliam said to me that he wanted to 12 extract a promise from me that I would not reinstate this 13 employee, I did not tell Mr. Gilliam the truth. I said, "No, I 14 probably won't," but I knew very well that I was going to,
15 because what Mr. Gilliam had done was wrong, but I wouldn't have 16 done it without talking to Secretary Pierce first.
17 Q. You were good friends with Mr. Gilliam, were you not?
18 A. No, I wasn't. I was -- I knew Mr. Gilliam well, and I never 19 socialized with Mr. Gilliam with the exception of one luncheon or 20 dinner that I had with him that was business related, and it was 21 about whether or not he could remain at HUD given the 22 investigations that were going on about him.
23 I have never met his wife or his children. I've never 24 met his family. He was a very personable person. When we had 25 meetings, they were pleasant, but now, with some maturity I look

2841

1 back on it, were Mr. Gilliam and I friends? No* we weren't
2 friends, but we got along well when he worked at HUD.
3 Q. Ms. Dean, do you recall testifying in that same grand jury,
4 being asked the following question and giving the following
5 answer:
6 "Question: when did you first meet with him, and what
7 was your relationship with him?
8 "Answer: well, I met DuBois, I don't know when I met 9 him. He was at HUD when I came to HUD, and I can't remember the 10 first time that I met him, but I got to know him fairly well when 11 I became executive assistant, because we had a lot of - UDAG is
12 one of our bigger programs, and a great many political phone
13 calls from congressman, senators, governors, whatever, about 14 particular UDAGs, and you'd have to funnel those phone calls
15 through to the office downstairs or get reports from the office
16 on what the status of some of these projects were, and so I
17 became fairly friendly with DuBois. And through the time that I
18 was there, especially toward the latter time, I considered DuBois
19 to be a good friend and spent a lot of time with him."
20 Do you recall being asked that question and giving that
21 answer?
2 A. Yes, I did give that answer, and I am correcting parts of 2 that answer today. I said upon maturity and reflection,
2 Mr. Gilliam and I were not good friends. We were fairly
2 friendly. That part was accurate.

2842

1 Q. When you testified before a grand jury, were you
2 administered an oath at that time?
3 A. I don't believe so, but I would have told the truth. I was 4 attempting to tell the truth, and at that particular time, I had 5 just left HUD, and I considered people that I worked with to be 6 friends, but after you leave HUD and things happen, you realize
7 that maybe you weren't friends. I certainly haven't heard from 8 Mr. Gilliam in years.
9 Q. Ms. Dean, let me show you a document and ask you if that 10 refreshes your recollection as to whether you were sworn before 11 that grand jury?

12 A. Yes, I was sworn in.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

13 Q. Now when you spoke before about providing information to 14 certain senators concerning your confirmation hearing as 15 assistant secretary for Community Planning and Development, do
16 you recall that, that general testimony?
17 A. Not particularly, no.
18 Q. Well, do you recall prior to your confirmation hearing being 19 asked to provide certain information to Senator William Proxmire
20 about that?
21 A. About what?
22 Q. About your hearing, about your background.
23 A. About my background? No.
24 Q. Okay.
25 A. I think there were specific instances or allegations that he asked me to address.

2 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, at this time, with the 3 Court's permission, I would mark this document as Government's 4 Exhibit 517 for identification purposes.
5 THE COURT: All right.
6 BY MR. O'NEILL:
7 Q. I'd ask you to look at this, Ms. Dean. It's not in 8 evidence. Is that a letter that you wrote to Senator William 9 Proxmire prior to your confirmation hearing on August 6, 1987?
10 A. Yes, it is.
11 Q. And in writing that letter to Mr. Proxmire --or Senator
12 Proxmire, Ms. Dean, you were trying to be truthful and provide 13 accurate information to him; is that correct?
14 A. Yes. As always, I did the best I can.
15 Q. Do you recall telling Senator Proxmire in that letter, "At 16 no time have I ever accepted a meal, cocktail, or expense to be 17 paid by anyone but myself or the government when appropriate"?
18 A. Do you mind if I take a look at it.
19 Q. Not at all.
20 A. I want to make certain that -- I haven't looked at this in 21 years
22 well, this is in reference to using the Diners Club
23 card.
24 Q. Does it say that, ma'am?
25 A. well, yes. The entire letter is in reference to the Diners

2844

1 Club card. I mean, it is not a generic statement that I've never 2 accepted a meal or a drink from anyone that I didn't pay for 3 myself or that the government paid for. It is a statement about 4 using the Diners Club card.
5 Q. Do you recall writing -- the question was, "At no time have 6 I ever accepted a meal, cocktail, or expense to be paid by anyone
7 but myself or the government when appropriate."
8 A. In reference to using the Diners Club.
9 Q. Is there any reference in that paragraph to using the Diners

10 Club?
11 A. It's, the entire letter is about the use of the Diners Club
12 card.
13 Q. Okay. So this entire letter refers to that?
14 A. I have not read that letter. If you'd like me to read the 15 letter and answer you more specifically, I would be more than 16 happy to do that.
17 Q. We'll move on, Ms. Dean.
18 Have you ever accepted a meal, cocktail, or expense to 19 be paid by someone other than yourself during your time at the 20 Department of Housing and Urban Development?

2 A. Yes.

2 Q. How about Richard Shelby? Have you ever accepted a meal
2 from Richard Shelby?
2 A. Yes, I've accepted meals from Mr. Shelby, and he's accepted
2 meals from me.

2845

1 Q. How about Andrew Sankin?
2 A. Well, if -- none of your credit cards that you put through,
3 I think, are accurate, but I think at some time did Mr. Sankin
4 ever buy me lunch or did -- and I assume, I'm going to say yes,
5 he probably did, and I know that he certainly allowed me to pay
6 for lunch and dinner on occasion, also.
7 Q. Aside from meals, did Mr. Sankin buy you flowers?
8 A. I don't recall that he did, but if you say that he did or he 9 remembers that he did specifically, I'm not going to argue with 10 that. I know I never asked him to buy me flowers.
11 Q. Let me show you, Ms. Dean, what's been previously marked as 12 Government's Exhibits 518, 519, and 520 and ask you if that 13 refreshes your recollection as to Mr. Sankin buying you flowers?
14 A. This obviously looks -- I can't read what the card says.
15 "Congratulations on a job well done," but I can't make out the 16 rest of it.
17 Q. Would it refresh your recollection to state that it says,
18 "Dear Deborah: Congratulations on a job well done. To a truly
19 dedicated and responsible public servant. Hope to see you soon, 20 Andy," addressed to Deborah Gore Dean, Executive Assistant to the 21 Secretary, No. 1000, U.S. Department of Housing, HUD Building, 22 451 Seventh Street?
23 A. I don't know what it's in reference to, but yes. I mean,
24 the bill is to Andrew Sankin, and it says, "Dear Deborah: My 25 heart was in the right place, but" something something. And

2846

1 then -- and yes, it's addressed to me at my home, and it doesn't
2 have a date on it.
3 And this one is August of '88, but I know you know that
4 I was no longer a government employee then.
5 Q. How about the two that you were a government employee?
6 A. I didn't see dates on them, but I'll look. 5-9-86 and 7 8-6-87. And of course, 8-6-87, I was no longer executive
8 assistant.
9 Q. You were --

10 A. He must have sent flowers on the day of the Congressional 11 hearings.
12 Q. Does that refresh your recollection that Andy Sankin sent 13 you flowers on occasion?
14 A. Yes, it does.
15 Q. Now Rick Shelby, who you mentioned, and you said he's bought 16 you meals and you bought him meals; is that correct?
17 A. That's correct.
18 Q. And you've gone out to meals with Mr. Shelby when

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

19 Mr. Mitchell was in attendance, correct?

20 A. That's correct. I believe I had one lunch with Mr. Shelby
21 and Mr. Mitchell. If there was another one, I don't recall it,

22 but I do remember one. And as I said yesterday, it was my idea.

23 Q. Let me show you a document, Ms. Dean, that's been marked as

24 Government's Exhibit 521 for identification, and does this

25 refresh your recollection as to making arrangements to have lunch

2847

1 with John Mitchell and Richard Shelby?

2 A. Yes. I asked that reservations be made for three people and 3 to call Mr. Shelby and Mr. Mitchell to confirm.

4 Q. Ms. Dean, how about Philip Wynn? Did you accept meals from 5 Mr. Philip Wynn?

6 A. I -- Mr. Wynn took me to lunch. I know we had an early
7 dinner one time when he was in town, and I know that he accepted
8 meals from me as well.

9 Q. I believe you said on direct testimony that it was one meal.

10 A. I believe I didn't testify about it at all.

11 Q. Okay. I stand mistaken. That was Mr. Wynn, correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And you talked about one meal. Do you remember more than 14 one that you paid for?

15 A. You know, I don't recall who paid the time we had the early 16 dinner. It was at the Occidental, and I don't remember which one 17 of us paid for that, but I always tried to keep things as even as 18 possible.

19 Q. Ms. Dean, did he also provide you with tickets to some sort
20 of presidential dinner?

21 A. I know he testified to that, and I don't remember ever going
22 to that with him, but it's possible that he did, but I just do
23 not recall, and I know he said I went with Mr. Mitchell, and it 24 seems to me that would be something that would stand out in my 25 mind, and I don't recall it at all.

2848

1 Q. How about Lance Wilson, Ms. Dean? The jury has heard
2 evidence that you replaced Lance Wilson as executive assistant at 3 HUD. Is that correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And have you testified that Lance Wilson helped you get the 6 job at HUD? Is that true?

7 A. Mr. Wilson is the person who hired me.

8 Q. And was that back in 1981?

9 A. No, that was in November of 1982.

10 Q. Is it fair to say that you and Mr. Wilson were good friends
11 while you both worked at HUD?

12 A. I worked for Mr. Wilson, and I like to think that I did a
13 very good job for him. We became better friends after he -- I
14 mean, it was more of an I-worked-for-him relationship when he was 15 the executive assistant. When he left HUD, I saw more of him on 16 more of a peer relationship, and we became very good friends, and

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

17 we're friends today.

18 Q. And you pointed him out in the courtroom the other day; is 19 that correct?

20 A. Yes.

2 Q. And he's been here on numerous occasions throughout this

2 trial?

2 A. Yes. He is my friend.

2 Q. And after he left HUD, he went into the private sector as a
2 consultant; isn't that true?

2849

1 A. No. He went to the New York City Housing, no, New York City-
2 Housing Partnership or -- I can't remember the name of the 3 organization he went to run, and then he went to work for Paine
4 webber.

5 Q. And he was doing HUD consulting work during that period of 6 time, wasn't he?

7 A. Well, I don't know, Mr. O'Neill. I know that the HUD audit
8 lists Mr. Wilson as a partner with the Wynn Group, but I never 9 knew that, and I don't know that to this day.

10 Q. Do you recall when Mr. Wilson went to Paine Webber, he would 11 come to Washington, D.C., from time to time and take you out for 12 meals?

13 A. Mr. Wilson would take me out for meals, and I would take 14 Mr. Wilson out for meals, and I have seen his expense accounts,
15 and they are very inaccurate.

16 Q. Let's show you some of them. Do you recall having lunch
17 with Mr. Wilson on April 22 of 1986?

18 A. Would you let me see my calendar?

19 Q. Surely. I'll let you have all of them.

20 A. Thanks.

2 Q. Sure.

2 A. 1986?

2 Q. Yes.

2 A. No, I did not.

2 Q. And you can tell that from your calendars?

2850

A. Yes.

2 Q. Let me ask you then if you had lunch with Mr. Wilson on

3 May 15, 1986?

4 A. I will tell you his are very inaccurate. I've seen them

5 before, and they --

6 Q. Are you saying he, too, is lying on his taxes?

7 A. He, too? Did we mention someone else was earlier?

8 Q. Mr. Sankin.

9 A. I think that Mr. Wilson has admitted openly that his expense

10 accounts were not accurate. I know that when the Lantos hearings
11 were going on, he did contact the committee and tell them that a 12 lot of the things that were written off to Deborah Dean were not 13 Deborah Dean expenses.

14 Q. Well, how about that date in front of you?

15 A. Okay. May 15? Yes, I had lunch with Lance. It's written 16 in my calendar.

17 Q. Do you recall whether you spoke about coinsurance at that
18 time?

19 A. Lance and I wouldn't have spoken about -- Lance knew more
20 about HUD programs than I did, and I can't imagine any reason why
21 Lance and I would talk about coinsurance, but I can understand
22 why Lance might write it off to that.

23 Q. Well, Lance wasn't at HUD anymore; isn't that correct?

24 A. No, he was not at HUD anymore.

25 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, do you recall on July 17, 1986, Mr. Wilson

1 hosting a dinner party given by you for a number of different
2 people at Mr. K's Restaurant?

3 A. No, that did not occur.

4 Q. It did not happen?

5 A. It did not happen.

6 Q. And do you have a specific recollection of that?

7 A. Oh, I remember it very well. It had nothing to do with me.

8 I was at the party, I was in attendance, and it was a birthday
9 party. It's right here on my calendar. It was a birthday party

10 for Lynda Murphy. It was thrown by her husband and all of her
11 friends, and Mr. Wilson was there, and Mr. Wilson -- I mean, I 12 was invited, but it was not my party. I didn't have anything to 13 do with the party.

14 Mr. Wilson was enjoying himself, and I think he picked 15 up the check. When maybe he thought better of it the next day,
16 he decided to write it off as though it were something for me,
17 but it wasn't, and he has said that it wasn't.

18 Q. Ms. Dean, do you recall just for the record what Lynda
19 Murphy's husband's name is?

20 A. Jon Boisclair.

21 Q. Ms. Dean, did you have lunch with -- excuse me, dinner with

2 Lance Wilson on December 3, 1986?

2 A. It's not on my calendar, so I can't say whether I did or 2 not, but normally it would be on my calendar if I did.

2 Q. Did you have lunch with Lance Wilson on June 11, 1986?

A. '86?

2 Q. Yes.

3 A. It doesn't have any -- oh, no. I was out of, I was out of 4 town. I was in California on June 11.

5 Q. How about, Ms. Dean, did you have lunch with Lance Wilson on 6 July 24, 1986?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Let me show you -
9 how about 1985? That's ray mistake, I
9 apologize. July 24, 1985.

10 MR. WEHNER: I'm sorry, Mr. O'Neill, what -

11 MR. O'NEILL: July 24, '85.

12 THE WITNESS: July 24?

13 BY MR. O'NEILL:

14 Q. Yes.

15 A. There's nothing in this calendar in anything in July, I'm 16 afraid. All the pages are blank. I mean, if you have one there,
17 I'll look at that.

18 Oh, I'm sorry, I'm sorry, "Lunch with Lance," and it's 19 in my handwriting, so I would have had lunch with Lance.

20 Q. Ms. Dean, how about March 6, 1986?

21 A. Yes, it's on here, at noon, "Lunch with Lance."

22 Q. How about March 15, I believe it's 1986? If I just can look 23 for a second?

24 A. Sure.

25 Q. 1987, I'm sorry. March 16, 1987.

A. March 16?

2 Q. That's correct. Oh, no, I'm sorry, March 15 of 1987.

3 A. Yes, I had, I had dinner with Lance and Leonard Briscoe and 4 DuBois Gilliam at the Four Seasons.

5 Q. Is that the same DuBois Gilliam we spoke about previously?

6 A. Yes, it is.

7 Q. Now is it fair to say without going through a number of 8 other ones, I'll just show them to you, that there's a number of 9 entries in which you've had either lunch or dinner with Lance
10 Wilson?

11 A. Yes. As I said, Lance and I were -- this was a reception
12 for Mr. Wilson in New York that I went to. I think we talked 13 about this, didn't we, that one? And -- yes.

14 Q. And is it your testimony you did not know at this time that 15 he was doing HUD consulting work?

16 A. I don't know to this day that he was doing HUD consulting
17 work, and it seems to me that I would have known.

18 Q. How about Lynda Murphy? You mentioned her name during your 19 direct examination. Do you recall that?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And would you agree that Lynda Murphy was a good friend of 22 yours during the time frame you were employed at HUD?

23 A. Well, I was a closer friend to her husband, but I knew 24 Linda, and I knew her well, and as I'm certain you know, she 25 lives three houses down from me, so I see her often.

2854

1 Q. Is it also fair to say she was working as a consultant on
2 HUD-related matters during the time that you were executive
3 assistant to the secretary of HUD?

4 A. She's an attorney, and I know she does HUD closings, and I
5 know she represented a lot of different people. I never had a
6 conversation with Ms. Murphy about any consulting work that she 7 was doing. Any lawyer work that she did, yes.

8 You have to sort of phrase it for me better. Are you

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
9 saying did I know Lynda Murphy was in the Mod Rehab Program?
10 Q. Yes. Did you know she was acting as a consultant on mod
11 rehab projects?
12 A. I knew that she was interested in a mod rehab project in 13 1987, but I found that out through someone else and not through
14 her.
15 Q. You also know she was interested in a mod rehab project in 16 1986 in Richmond, Virginia?
17 A. No. She represented a person in, that was a developer of 18 that on a wage rate dispute, I believe.
19 Q. Well, during this period of time, you did accept meals and 20 things of value from Ms. Murphy; is that correct?
21 A. I can certainly tell you that it was very equal between 22 Ms. Murphy and her husband and her husband's best friend, which 23 was my boyfriend at the time, and myself. It was absolutely 24 even.
25 Q. Is it fair to say that you traveled with Lynda Murphy and her husband?

2855

A. Yes. We went on vacation -- the four of us went on 3 vacations together.
4 Q. Do you recall taking a trip to Vail, Colorado, in February
5 1986?
6 A. Yes. I didn't go with them. We went later. I think they
7 were out there for a while. We went when she had broken her leg,
8 and she had a brand new baby, and we decided to go out and help
9 bring her back and the baby back. It -- I don't ski, and it was 10 not really all that much fun.
11 Q. Where did you stay when you went out there?
12 A. We stayed in an apartment that she had rented with her 13 husband.
14 Q. Isn't it true --
15 A. It was outside of Vail.
16 Q. Isn't it true it was a condo owned by Mr. Philip Wynn?
17 A. I don't think so.
18 Q. Do you recall while you were out there Lynda Murphy buying 19 drinks at a place called The Saloon Across The Street?
20 A. That would have been impossible. She was in the hospital.
21 Q. Let me show you a document and ask you if that refreshes
22 your recollection?
23 A. Well, I mean, I'm telling you she was in the hospital the 24 entire time I was there, and then I got her out of the hospital
25 and put her on a plane and brought her home. But she had been

2856

1 out there for a week or so before I went out there, before she
2 broke her leg. She could have been in any saloon.
3 Q. With you, ma'am?
4 A. Not with me.

5 Q. Was Jon Boisclair the person then who bought those drinks?
6 A. I don't ever recall a place called The Saloon, nor I can't
7 imagine how I could have been in anything except one restaurant
8 that I remember, and I believe that I paid the bill, and it was 9 one evening that Mr. Boisclair and Mr. Giegengack and I went out,

10 and Linda was with a nurse or a babysitter, and she needed to be

11 alone and get some sleep, and we all went out.

12 I happen to remember that I paid, and if you'd like, I

13 can pull the receipt for you, because -- I don't know I have it.

14 And I don't ever recall a circumstance with a brand new baby and 15 a broken leg where we could have been anyplace else.

16 Q. To your knowledge, did she deduct this as a business

17 expense, are you aware?

18 A. How, Mr. O'Neill?

19 Q. You were aware of Mr. Wilson's, were you not?

20 A. That's because it came up in the Lantos hearings. I don't

2 know Linda's.

2 Q. Did Ms. Murphy testify at the Lantos hearings?

2 A. Not about credit card receipts that I know of.

2 Q. Do you recall going to dinner on July 28, 1986, with

2 Ms. Murphy and a number of other people and HUD business was discussed?

2 A. No. On Monday, July 28 of 1986 was her husband's birthday,

3 and she threw him a party at the 1789, and I remember who was

4 there, and there were no HUD people there. I remember Donna

5 Devarona (phonetic) was there and her husband and Mr. Boisclair and Mr. Giegengack and myself and James Ramstead, who is now a

7 congressman from Minnesota, and his fiancée, and no HUD business

8 was discussed whatsoever.

9 Q. How about John DeFranceaux. Was he not there?

10 A. Mr. DeFranceaux was not there that I can recall.

11 Q. Ms. Dean, do you recall a project named Sommerset?

12 A. Yes, but I don't remember where it was.

13 Q. Do you recall whether they were looking for rent increases?

14 A. You're giving me, I think this is one of her expense

15 vouchers.

16 Q. Look at the next page.

17 A. Oh, I'm sorry.

18 Q. Did Ms. Murphy ask for your assistance on Sommerset?

19 A. Yes. I think this was a project that was owned by 20 Mr. Arthur Wynn, and I did meet with Mr. Arthur Wynn regarding 21 this, but did Ms. Murphy and I have drinks regarding it? No, we 22 did not.

23 Q. Did Ms. Murphy ever send you tickets to a National Housing

24 Conference dinner?

25 A. No. I know I've seen a memo that says, "Here are your tickets," but I don't remember ever recall going to a National Housing Conference dinner so I don't know why she would send the tickets.

2858

4 Q. Do you recall getting a letter from Ms. Murphy addressed to

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

5 Ms. Dean at HUD enclosing tickets?

6 A. No, I do not. I know that did come from my files, so I'm 7 not going to say that never happened. Frankly, a National

8 Housing Conference, I would have had tickets myself.

9 Q. Do you recall Lynda Murphy asking you for a specific number

10 of mod rehab units in Richmond, Virginia?

11 A. No. Ms. Murphy and I never discussed mod rehab.

12 Q. Do you recall receiving a letter from her in which she 13 requested mod rehab units?

14 A. No. The letter that she sent to me did not request mod
15 rehab units. It requested --if you'll let me have it, I'll be 16 very specific.

17 Q. Sure.

18 A. Well, do you have the attachment to this letter, I mean, the 19 letter that came in originally? Because this is a thank you note 20 for the efforts, and if you have the letter that shows what the 21 efforts were, it will show you that it was a wage rate dispute.

22 Q. And whose handwriting is on this, ma'am?

23 A. That looks like Mrs. Sherrill Hawkins'.

24 Q. Your secretary?

25 A. Yes. I may be mistaken. It looks like her handwriting.

2859

1 Q. Did she ask that the project go out project specific on the 2 185?

3 A. If I may see that again?

4 Q. Sure.

5 A. I recall this letter, because it was used in the 6 Congressional hearings very mistakenly. It said, "Therefore, if 7 practical, the units can be sent out project specific," but I'd 8 be willing to bet they didn't.

9 Q. This is one of your closest friends?

10 A. No. This is someone who I knew well through my boyfriend,
11 who was also a very able attorney.

12 Q. Do you recall signing an affidavit stating, "Lynda Murphy
13 and her husband are my closest friends"?

14 A. I remember signing an affidavit in 1987 -- '86 that at the 15 time, they were my closest friends, and at the time, they were my 16 closest friends.

17 Q. But no longer? •3

18 A. Well, when people start arriving with subpoenas, your 19 friends disappear very quickly.

20 Q. And you traveled with Ms. Murphy and her husband during the 21 period that you were executive assistant; is that correct?

22 A. Yes. We -- yes, we did.

23 Q. Aside from Vail, you went to the West Indies with them?

24 A. The West Indies?

25 Q. St. Bart's?

2860

1 A. We went to St. Bart's with them. Lynda's former fiance had 2 a small house there, and we joined them for, I think, three to 3 four days of a longer vacation that they had, and we paid our own

4 way.

5 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, do you recall mentioning on direct
6 examination about the Richmond Housing Authority and Lynda
7 Murphy?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And do you recall saying that Tom Demery was trying to fund

10 that project for Lynda Murphy?

11 A. No, I didn't. I said I asked Mr. Demery whether or not he 12 was doing this for Lynda Murphy. As I said, I found out in 1987
13 that she had an interest in funding this project. And he said

14 no.

15 And then I believe that he mentioned Sandy Sanders.

16 And I did not know at that time whether, that Mr. Sanders and 17 Ms. Murphy had some agreement or whatever, and I told Mr. Demery
18 that I didn't think this was a very good idea, and he took that 19 list with him in to Secretary Pierce, and it came out the way it
20 came out, and I would never have funded a mod rehab project for 21 Lynda Murphy, and Lynda Murphy understood that, and she never 22 asked.

23 Q. Are you saying these units did not go to Richmond from you
24 to Lynda Murphy?

25 A. What units? It says, "Thank you for your efforts for the 2861

1 Church Hill, Richmond, Virginia project," which was a wage rate
2 dispute. "For your information, as stated in the letter from the 3 City of Richmond dated September 12, 1986, the Church Hill
4 project had been selected -- had been selected -- for a moderate
5 rehabilitation section 8 award after advertising by the city.
6 Therefore, if practical, the units can be sent out project
7 specific."

8 But I don't know what units these are referring to,
9 unless they are loan management set aside, which would be extra

10 section 8 on top of something that had already been done.

11 But Ms. Murphy never asked me for moderate
12 rehabilitation. As much as I'm not fond of her right now, she 13 never did it.

14 Q. Ms. Dean, do you recall being asked by Mr. Wehner during 15 direct examination about a number of mod rehab units going to the 16 Pacific Northwest, and it was on your board? Do you recall
17 those?

18 A. Pacific Northwest?

19 Q. Yes, specifically Clackamas County and Longview, Washington.

20 A. Yes.

2 Q. Do you recall stating that you were not aware of any

2 consultants being involved in those two fundings?

2 A. And I'm not to this day.

2 Q. Isn't it a fact, Ms. Dean, that Lynda Murphy was the 2 consultant on those fundings?

2862

1 A. I am shocked if that's true, and I don't believe it. I've
2 certainly never seen that anywhere. And I do know we do have a
3 letter that you provided us from Mr. Nishimura, who was the 4 regional administrator, to me recommending those projects.

5 MR. O'NEILL: One second, Your Honor?

6 THE COURT: Sure.

7 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, I'll go back to that in order to 8 move along.

9 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, this was the same Lynda Murphy who you
10 testified on Tuesday was one of the people who planned your 11 birthday party that John Mitchell paid for?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Now aside from -- let's move away from Lynda Murphy. Are 14 you familiar with the firm Black, Manafort, Stone & Kelly?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Am I correct that this is a lobbying consulting firm?

17 A. It's a political consulting firm, and they do lobbying. I
18 don't know what they do. They are a political consulting firm.
19 They run campaigns, they lobby, they do all sorts of things.

20 Q. Is it fair to say that during the period of time you were
2 executive assistant to the secretary at HUD, several of the 2 individuals from Black, Manafort, Stone & Kelly were involved in 2 mod rehab consulting work?

2 A. Yes.

2 Q. And are you familiar with an individual by the name of Lorry

2863

1 Gay?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Is it true that Mr. Gay took you out for meals and 4 cocktails?

5 A. Yes, and I took Mr. Gay -- well, I don't think I ever ate
6 with Mr. Gay alone. Usually Mr. Davis, who was with the White
7 House and then went with their firm, either accompanied us, and 8 sometimes other people accompanied us, and we were friends. We 9 were social friends.

10 And Mr. Gay did get involved with some mod rehab
11 projects, and every single one of those was, went to the 12 secretary. It had nothing to do with Mr. Gay. Mr. Gay just 13 simply represented much higher-up political people. And he was a 14 former HUD employee as well.

15 Q. Mr. Gay was?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And do you recall whether you had lunch with Mr. Gay on 18 July 9, 1986?

19 A. No, I did not.

20 Q. How about dinner with Mr. --

2 A. I did. I had dinner with Mr. Gay and Mr. Davis.

2 Q. And how about on December 22, 1986?

2 A. Oh, sorry, wrong month.

2 We went to a, an auction, yeah. We went to a, a HUD
2 charity auction. They accompanied me there.

2864

1 Q. That was on December 22?
2 A. Urn-hum, at Fort McNair.
3 Q. Afterwards, did you go to Mr. K's for dinner?
4 A. We might have. I remember having dinner with them there.
5 And if that is the night that we went to Mr. K's, we also went
6 out later, and I paid the rest of the evening.
7 Q. Dinner at that time was $300?
8 A. It very well could have been. Mr. Gay and Mr. Davis do very-9 well for themselves, and they certainly had a lot of drinks, as I

10 remember.
11 Q. Did Mr. Gay ever buy you any presents, such as ladies'
12 gloves?
13 A. No. I saw this in discovery. It says, "Replace gloves to 14 D. Dean," but I don't have any remembrance of that at all. I
15 might have lost a pair of gloves, but I can't remember why. I 16 have absolutely no recollection of that.
17 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, you previously mentioned Rick Davis. He was 18 another member of the firm of Black, Manafort, Stone & Kelly?
19 A. He was originally with the --he was a HUD employee at 20 first. We were asked to hire him. He then moved to the White
2 House, and he was the assistant to Mr. Kingon in Cabinet Affairs,

2 and then he moved to the Black, Manafort, Stone & Kelly firm
2 after that.
2 Q. And how about Russell Cartwright? Did you ever have meals
2 with Russell Cartwright?

2865

1 A. No, I've never eaten with Russell Cartwright.
2 Q. Do you recall going out to dinner with Mr. Cartwright, Abbie
3 Wiest, and yourself on October 22, 1987?
4 A. I've never eaten with Russell Cartwright.
5 Q. You mentioned Russell Cartwright during your direction
6 testimony; is that right?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. And that was over the South Florida I project?
9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And Colonel Jack Brennan?
11 A. Yes.
12 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, did these individuals such as Loury Gay ever
13 ask you for mod rehab units?
14 A. Mr. Gay asked me if I would take his firm's request to 15 Secretary Pierce, and there were, you know, there was a distinct 16 message for the secretary from them.
17 Q. Do you recall him just asking you specifically, not
18 Secretary Pierce?
19 A. Mr. Gay understood very well that asking me was not --I
20 can't give Mr. Gay anything. He understood that. He understood
2 the system very well. He asked me to take a message to Secretary

2 Pierce, which I did.
2 Q. But he wrote to you?
2 A. I'm sure he's written me many times.
2 Q. Let me go back to Clackamas County and Longview, Washington,

2866

1 and I would ask you, Ms. Dean -
2 let me show you a document
3 previously marked as Government's Exhibit 522 for identification.
4 Does this refresh your recollection that Ms. Murphy was the 5 consultant on the Clackamas County and Longview, Washington
6 projects?
7 A. Well, it, you know, it is a letter to me that says, "Sandy
8 asked me to forward these requests to you. Both Sandy and I work
9 for this client." And then there's a whole list of requests, and 10 Clackamas and Longview are both on it.
11 But I'll tell you, I have absolutely no memory of that
12 whatsoever.
13 Q. Now when you say "Sandy," are they referring to R. Carter
14 Sanders?
15 A. I would think so, yes.
16 Q. And is he the individual that was mentioned before as one of 17 the people who might provide negative information to you on your 18 confirmation hearing?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. Now is it fair to say that Ms. Murphy was the consultant on 21 the Clackamas, Longview, and Lane County, Oregon project; the 22 Yamhill County, Oregon project; Washington County, Oregon
23 project; and the Salem, Oregon projects?
24 A. I don't know, Mr. O'Neill. I really don't have any 25 recollection of that whatsoever, and it's one of those things
26 where I think it would stand out in my mind if Lynda Murphy had

2867

1 ever broached the subject with me. And if she sent me that 2 and -- I didn't do anything with it. I do know that. I would 3 not have done that.
4 Q. It wouldn't have been proper for to you do anything like
5 that, would it?
6 A. Unless there was a reason to take it to Secretary Pierce, it
7 was the same situation as with Jack Brennan. I just wouldn't 8 have done anything with it. I received things like that 9 constantly, and unless there was a reason for it to go to 10 Secretary Pierce, I didn't do anything with it except send it
11 through the system.
12 Q. When you say you received things like that constantly, are 13 you referring to correspondence on the Mod Rehab Program from 14 someone who you described as one of your closest friends at the
15 time?
16 A. I don't think that people felt that being a friend of mine
17 kept them from corresponding with me. I didn't like it, but 18 people do use people they know in government, and they also write
19 things down on expense accounts that aren't right, either.
20 But, you know, when an ethical person gets something 21 like that and an ethical person does with it what they're 22 supposed to, there's not a problem, and I do not recall doing
23 anything for Lynda Murphy with regard to this program, and if I
24 had felt that there was some need to do something for 25 Ms. Murphy or that she had some terrific project, it would have

2868

1 gone to Secretary Pierce, with him knowing that she was a friend
2 of mine, because that is the way that I operated.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

3 I know that did not happen.

4 Q. You told Secretary Pierce each and every time that there was 5 a communication made to you that you supported a program,
6 correct?

7 A. No, not every time -8

MR. WEHNER: Objection.

9 THE COURT: She can answer.

10 THE WITNESS: No, I got lots of correspondence that did 11 not go to Secretary Pierce. Only things that required his 12 attention. The rest went through the system.

13 A friend of mine asking me for something at HUD hardly 14 required Secretary Pierce's attention. Senators asking for 15 something required his attention.

16 BY MR. O'NEILL:

17 Q. But not your friends?

18 A. If somebody had something that was going to be put into the 19 system and, I thought, come up to Secretary Pierce and I knew
20 anything about it at all, I told him. There were other times
2 that I simply sent things through the system because I knew he
2 wouldn't have an interest.

2 Secretary Pierce would not have had an interest about
2 Lynda Murphy, who he knew, or R. Carter Sanders, who he also 2 knew.

2869

1 Q. Well, you put up on those charts the other day that those
2 projects were, in fact, funded, correct?

3 A. Yes, sir. And I told you to the best of my recollection
4 exactly why they were funded, and I have never before today known
5 that Lynda Murphy had anything to do with those projects.

6 THE COURT: All right, we're going to take a short
7 break.

8 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right, Ladies and Gentlemen, we're
10 going to take our morning -- our morning. We're going to take
1 our afternoon recess here and be back then at 3:15. So we'll 1 take a little bit longer and let you rest. We'll be back at 1 3:15.

1 Remember the admonitions of the Court now about the 1 case. Do not talk about it in any fashion with anyone during the 1 break. Thank you.

3 THE COURT: All right, we're ready to go
4 again?

5 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. O'Neill.

7 MR. O'NEILL: Thank you, Judge.

8 BY MR. O'NEILL:

9 Q Miss Dean, when we left off we had been speaking
10 about certain expense accounts for certain people.
11 Isn't it your testimony that Miss Murphy falsified
12 certain expense accounts?

13 A well, I know that I did not - it doesn't truly

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

14 reflect what had to do with me.
15 Q Then she falsified them.
16 A Well, I don't - I don't know. I - it does not 17 accurately reflect an expense that should have been to 18 me or having to do with me.
19 Q So they're false.
20 A It's an assumption, but my assumption would be
2 that, yes, people falsify their records.
2 Q Well, I showed you the records and you stated that
2 you were not present at certain of those meals, is that
2 correct?
2 A Yes, that is correct.

2871

1 Q So then they're false.
2 A All right.
3 Q How about Lance Wilson, the same thing?
4 A Yes.
5 Q How about Black, Manifort & Stone, the same thing?
6 A I didn't look at any from Black, Manifort & Stone.
7 I don't remember looking at any.
8 Q The Russell Cartwright entry?
9 A I didn't see it. I didn't allow you to show it to 10 me, I'm sorry.
11 Q Let me show you -
12 A Wedgewood, Wadsworth, Wiest. I don't have any 13 recollection of ever being with Miss Wiest and Mr.
14 Cartwright.
15 Q So this would be false as well, correct?
16 A He may have been with Miss Wiest.
17 Q I believe you just testified he was not with you.
18 A He was not with me.
19 Q So that is false?
20 A All right.
21 Q Now, you understand that to file false statements
22 like that would be illegal, correct, ma'am?
23 A Yes, I believe it is. Yes.
24 Q So each of these individuals has committed a crime?
25 MR. WEHNER: Objection, Judge.

1 THE COURT: I'll sustain it. That's not her
2 judgment. They could be mistaken.
3 MR. O'NEILL: Very well, Judge.
4 BY MR. O'NEILL:
5 Q Miss Dean, I'd like to go back to this Linda Murphy
6 letter to you. Let me mark it for identification
7 purposes as Government's 523. And I'd ask you to look
8 at Government's Exhibit 523.
9 A Yes.
10 Q And isn't it a fact, Miss Murphy is asking you for 11 Mod Rehab units?
12 A It says here that the project that she's interested
13 in had been selected, which would make it previous to 14 this, and -15
Q She's not talking about BUD though, is she?
16 A "Mod Rehabilitation Section Eight award after 17 advertising by the city." I assume - I don't know.
18 Frankly I remember the letter that is attached to this 19 explains this very well and if you don't have the 20 attached letter I will try to find it for you. Maybe we 2 can discuss it after I do that.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

2 Q I'm discussing this letter, ma'am.

2 A Right.

2 Q Does this letter ask for Mod Rehab units from you?

2 A I don't believe so. You see, it says thank you for

1 your efforts. So it's a thank you letter for

2 something. So I don't think it's asking me for

3 anything.

4 Q Does she not ask that you state the units and put

5 them in a project specific 185?

6 A I really don't understand what that refers to. I

7 know it is spelled out in the letter that was attached

8 to that, and that letter was in my files.

9 Q And does the handwriting – whose handwriting is 10 that at the bottom?

11 A That is Mrs. Sherrill Nettles-Hawkins.

12 Q Does that not confirm that Miss Sherrill

13 Nettles-Hawkins spoke with Linda Murphy?

14 A That's what it says, spoke with Linda.

15 Q Does she not also put there 20 units to Richmond,
16 Virginia?

17 A It says 20 units and I don't know, does it say to 18 Richmond? And I have no idea what that refers to. I'm 19 sorry, I just don't know what that refers to.

20 Q This letter is addressed to you, Miss Dean?

2 A Yes, it is.

2 Q And it's entitled Dear Debbie?

2 A Yes, and I do believe that the letter that was
2 attached to that in my files explains it.

2 Q Miss Dean, I'd show you once more Government's 2874

1 Exhibit 522. This is the document you say you haven't

2 seen before today?

3 A No, I said this had come out of my files.

4 Q You don't recall seeing it before?

5 A No, I said that I did not know anything about

6 Miss Murphy representing Clackamas and Longview, but

7 this obviously is addressed to me. It came out of my

8 files. I can see the Bates stamp numbers on it. It

9 says received by the Office of the Secretary. I'm 10 certain that I got it. I'm also certain that I didn't 11 do anything for Linda Murphy.

12 Q You did not do anything for Linda Murphy on these
13 projects?

14 A Mr. O'Neill, I'm not even certain whether it's Miss 15 Murphy or Mr. Sanders. It says, "Sandy asked me to 16 forward these requests to you," I do not know today
17 whether or not Clackamas County or Washington County or 18 anything else that might have been funded eventually for 19 this, whether they represented the people who eventually 20 got those units, I don't know anything about it.

2 All I know is that if I had known anything
2 about Miss Murphy's involvement or if Miss Murphy's
2 involvement had had anything to do with their being
2 funded I would have told you about that when we went
2 through the list.

2875

1 Q You did not mention Miss Murphy's involvement when
2 we went through the list, did you?

3 A Because I didn't know about it.

4 Q And you don't remember getting this letter in May 5 of 1986? Does it bear a received stamp from HUD?

6 A It has my attorney's Bates stamp numbers on it
7 which means I gave it to you, which means I've seen it
8 before. It means it was received. It just doesn't have 9 anything to do with why they were funded.

10 Q So even though Miss Murphy, as you've stated in an 11 affidavit, is one of your closest friends, contacted you
12 on this project, it had nothing to do with the funding
13 of Clackamas County, is that your testimony?

14 A I swear to you that is the case.

15 Q Let's go to Mr. Evans for a second? That was a 16 name you also brought up during direct examination,
17 correct, Miss Dean?

18 A Yes, sir.

19 Q And do you recall stating that there's no way of 20 knowing whether Mr. Evans was a paid consultant or 2 acting as a citizen?

2 A I believe we were talking about Project Dignity?
2 That I would not have known whether he was operating -
2 like I had said, about Senator Brooke, he's a former
2 Congressman. I know that there certainly were examples

2876

1 when he was a paid consultant that I learned later on
2 and I know that he even came to see me. I think that I
3 had told that story, that he had come to see me in my 4 office, one time, he had talked directly to the 5 Secretary. But at the time or something like that it's 6 very hard to know whether someone who is a former 7 Senator or Congressman is representing somebody because 8 they know them politically, if they're interceding for 9 them. If they're being paid as an attorney or they're 10 being paid as a consultant, i just didn't know and I --
11 Q From the time you learned that Joe Strauss was 12 charging approximately $1000 per unit on the Puerto Rico
13 project, you knew that consultants were being paid, did
14 you not?
15 A Yes, I knew consultants were being paid.
16 Q And these individuals that were coming to talk to 17 you about projects, did you believe that they were doing
18 it out of the kindness of their heart?
19 A I believe that what I said and I still say today, I
20 don't know how people arrange for their compensation. I
2 don't know, for instance, if a law firm that comes in

2 with a developer is being paid by the hour, if they're
2 on a year retainer, if they're being paid by the unit.
2 There just wasn't any way for me to know that or for
2 Secretary Pierce to know that or for the other people

2877

1 that people go to see in the Department.
2 Q Well, if they're on a retainer or paid by the hour
3 or] paid by the project they're still getting paid, don't 4 they?
5 A And some people come in and intercede for people
6 who aren't being paid.
7 Q John Mitchell was interceding just out of the 8 kindness of his heart?
9 A That is what I believe.

10 Q And Rick Shelby was not being paid?
11 A I assume that Mr. Shelby was being paid.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

12 Q And Jack Brennan was not being paid?
13 A I don't know what Mr. Brennan could have done that 14 you would pay him for.
15 Q He saw you, didn't he, Ma'am?
16 A He was in my office for five or ten minutes. I
17 wouldn't have paid him for that.
18 Q He came and saw you for five or ten minutes and his 19 project was ultimately funded, is that correct?
20 A The project wasn't funded for anything that
2 Mr. Brennan did. The fact that units went to that State
2 had nothing to do with Mr. Brennan.
2 Q Did it have anything to do with Mr. Mitchell, Jack
2 Brennan's partner?
2 A No.

2878

1 Q How about Louie Nunn?
2 A No.
3 Q Let's go Mr. Evans for a second, Miss Dean.
4 When you said there's no way of knowing whether someone
5 is a paid consultant or acting as a citizen. Mr. Evans
6 you dealt with on several occasions, isn't that true?
7 A I imagine that I did, yes. I'm trying to think of 8 anything that sticks out in particular and I know that 9 he came to see me once that I recall and I told him that 10 he had to speak directly to the Secretary and he did
11 speak directly to the Secretary.
12 Q Were you close to Mr. Evans?
13 A I've had dinner with him on several occasions. He 14 was a very good friend of Mr. Mitchell's. I know he 15 helped me with Mr. Mitchell's funeral arrangements.
16 Q In fact, you had lunch several times with 17 Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Evans?
18 A I don't think so. I don't remember it. I mean if 19 I did and you have it on my calendars I will say that I 20 did. I just don't recall ever having lunch with 2 Mr. Evans and Mr. Mitchell.
2 Q Were you close enough to call him Tommy as opposed
2 to Mr. Evans?
2 A Yes, I was.
2 Q And isn't it true that you invited him to be a

1 sponsor of something called the Young Friends of Red
2 Cross Ball?
3 A I think I asked a lot of people to be sponsors of
4 that.
5 Q And did you have him contact Sherrill
6 Nettles-Hawkins if he was interested?
7 A I'm not going to deny it. I don't remember. It's 8 addressed to Tom Evans and it says please contact
9 Sherrill Nettles.

10 Q That has nothing to do with HUD related business,
11 does it?
12 A No, it was a charity, and Mrs. Nettles agreed to 13 help with it.
14 Q She agreed to do that on her time?
15 A It wasn't imposed on her, no.
16 Q And would this refresh your recollection that on 17 March 8th of 1985 yourself, John Mitchell and Tom Evans

18 had lunch together?

19 A It could have happened but I don't remember. It

20 also could have been canceled. I'm sorry, I don't
2 remember, but it seems that would have stuck out in my 2 mind.

2 Q Now, did Mr. Evans also give you things such as 2 plants? Do you recall getting a plant from Mr. Evans?
2 For your assistance?

2880

1 A For my assistance? No, I don't think I got a plant

2 for my assistance. He probably sent me a plant. He

3 might have sent me flowers.

4 Q well, let me ask you if you -- Mr. Evans is asking

5 you for your assistance on various matters?

6 A It says here that -- this is from Mr. Goodrich to 7 me and it says, "Thank you for calling Hartford,

8 Connecticut HUD on our behalf," and it says, "I have

9 enclosed a small amount of correspondence in this matter
10 for your file. When the file reaches Central, Tom Evans
11 will be in touch directly," and Mr. Evans probably 12 represented either this -- he might have represented the 13 city, or the State of Connecticut. He might have 14 represented Goodrich. I don't have any recollection of 15 this at all.

16 Weguonoc Village does sound familiar. I don't 17 remember what kind of -- I think it was a public housing
18 project. I know that Mr. Evans met directly with 19 Secretary Pierce on this.

20 Q Is that reflected in that memo, ma'am?

2 A Not in this memo, it's recollected in my memory. I

2 didn't have a chance to look at the other one. Did you
2 want me to?

2 Q Please do.

2 A It looks like this might be loan management set

2881

1 aside. It's for additional Section Eight funding. It's 2 not more units. It's more rent increases. It might be
3 a rent increase or it might be an additional flex

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

4 subsidy or rent set aside.

5 Q And who is he writing to, you?

6 A I think that letter is to me.

7 Q Do you recall whether you asked Mr. Cushing to do

8 anything on Wequonoc Village, per a request from 9 Tom Evans?

10 A It says "Hunter Cushing, current status report,

11 Tuesday morning at ten o'clock in my office, Deborah."

12 Q And that is in response to a memo from Tom Evans to

13 you?

14 A Yes, it is.

15 Q I'd like to change our focus to Joseph Strauss,

16 Miss Dean. Am I correct you also mentioned him during 17 your direct testimony?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Did you ever receive any gifts from Joe Strauss?

20 A Yes. When I was out that month he sent me a very,

21 very large balloon and it had a little basket on it and 22 it had a teddy bear in it.

23 Q And the previous year, did he send you flowers for 24 your birthday?

25 A I don't recall. He might have.

2882

1 Q Now, is this the same Joe Strauss that you said was
2 responsible for getting 600 units to Puerto Rico?

3 A Yes. And he and I had worked together in the 4 Office of the Secretary and we had had a falling out

5 over these Puerto Rico units and I think he was

6 attempting to try to smooth our friendship back over

7 again.

8 Q Now, by 1984 you knew Joe Strauss was a paid

9 consultant, is that correct?

10 A When the Puerto Rico thing erupted, and I believe
11 that was the summer or early fall of '84, yes.

12 Q And he was being paid approximately $1000 per unit?

13 A What I had understood from Mr. Richards is that he

14 had said that he could get units from between a thousand

15 and $1500 an unit. I didn't know specifically that that

16 was for Puerto Rico, but that this was a general

17 conversation and he had just gotten 610 units in Puerto

18 Rico, so I assumed of course that he had been paid that

19 much for those units.

20 Q So he stood to gain approximately $600,000 for the 2 Puerto Rican units?

2 A Yes, at least.

2 Q And do you recall testifying that you told

2 Secretary Pierce that that looked very bad, for this to

2 be occurring?

2883

1 A Absolutely.

2 Q And it was bad that consultants were being paid

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

3 this kind of money to bring units to the local PHA's?

4 A Well, what I told Secretary Pierce was that I

5 thought that it looked very bad for a former Special

6 Assistant of his to be making that kind of money off of

7 HUD programs, and he agreed, and we had a conversation

8 about what consultants were paid and he told me about

9 what consultants used to be paid in a substantial

10 rehabilitation program and we had a conversation about

11 it and we had a conversation about what his 12 understanding was about what HUD could do about people
13 getting consulting fees and, yes, we did, we did agree
14 that it looked very bad. It looked bad for - I mean no
15 one likes the idea of selling any sort of influence in a 16 Government program. Of course it looks terrible.

17 Q Isn't it a fact that the 600 units to Puerto Rico
18 represented one-tenth of the national amount of moderate
19 rehabilitation units available that year?

20 A And that's one of the reasons why it looked so very 2 bad.

2 Q And you brought that to Secretary Pierce's
2 attention, is that correct?

2 A Yes, I did, and I remember exactly where we were
2 standing when we had the conversation.

2884

1 Q And is it correct that you testified that Secretary
2 Pierce had no idea that 600 units were going to Puerto
3 Rico because Joe Strauss was involved?

4 A What he said to me was that he had been misled as 5 to how many units there were in the country. He did not 6 know that. He agreed it looked very bad and he felt we 7 should bring them back. I don't ever recall him saying
8 to me whether he knew that Joe Strauss was involved or 9 not.

10 Q Isn't it a fact that Lance Wilson is the one who 11 gave those units to Joe Strauss for Puerto Rico?

12 A I don't know.

13 Q You don't recall that?

14 A I wasn't there to recall it. I was not a party to 15 the funding at all.

16 Q Do you recall telling a special agent of the 17 Federal Bureau of Investigation back in 1987
18 that "shortly before the departure of Lance Wilson from 19 HUD he gave 600 units to Joe Strauss for projects in 20 Puerto Rico?"

2 A No, I mean -I
2 certainly can assume that, that I
2 said that to the agent, yes.

2 Q I'll show you a document and see if that refreshes
2 your recollection as to what you told the agent. It's
2 near the back, if that will help.

2885

1 A It says here "Dean" -- would you like to show me
2 where it is because I don't -- oh, I was on the wrong
3 page. Well/ I mean this is in the FBI agent notes of 4 what was said?
5 Q The question is do you recall saying that?
6 A I'm looking through a lot of this and I think it
7 pretty much encapsulates what I said to the agent and I
8 probably told the agent that it was my understanding
9 that it wasn't Secretary Pierce who had done it and 10 therefore that left Mr. Barksdale and Mr. Wilson.
11 Q I'll ask the question again, Miss Dean. Does this 12 refresh your recollection as to whether you told the FBI
13 agent that "shortly before the departure of Lance Wilson
14 from HUD he gave 600 units to Joe Strauss for projects
15 in Puerto Rico?"
16 A No, it doesn't refresh my recollection, but I don't 17 think that's inconsistent. I think that --
18 Q I don't remember asking you that, Miss Dean.
19 A I'm sorry.
20 Q Is there any mention of Maurice Barksdale?
2 A I don't know.
2 Q Now, is it fair to say that Lance Wilson sent these
2 units to Puerto Rico without the knowledge of Secretary
2 Pierce?
2 A I have absolutely no idea.

2886

1 Q Even though you said you had a conversation with
2 Secretary Pierce where he didn't know they were going
3 there?
4 A And I just told you that Secretary Pierce did not
5 tell me one way or the other whether he knew that 6 Mr. Strauss was involved. He said that he had been 7 misled. I remember that coming out of his mouth. I
8 don't know who misled him. I know I thought it was 9 wrong and he did the right thing. He brought them back.
10 Q Now, this is the same Lance Wilson we're talking
11 about previously who bought you meals, is that correct?
12 A Yes, Lance Wilson is my friend and was my

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

13 predecessor and an advisor.

14 Q And he is the one you told the FBI that sent the 15 600 units to Puerto Rico.

16 A Well, what happens when I give you one answer and 17 you repeat it back to me a different way? I didn't say
18 that. I said that those are notes of an FBI agent and I
19 probably said to him, if that is his shorthand version
20 of it, that I didn't believe it was Secretary Pierce.
2 That didn't leave too many other people for it to have

2 been. And I believe also in that interview I said that
2 Mr. Strauss and Mr. Wilson were close, and they were. I
2 also don't believe I said I approved of that.

2 Q You didn't approve of what, that they were close?

2887

1 A That -- I don't approve of Special Assistants of the

2 Secretary of BUD leaving HUD and cashing in on their

3 former positions, no.

4 Q You became a lobbyist when you left HUD, did you

5 not, ma'am?

6 A I became a lobbyist, yes.

7 Q And a consultant?

8 A No, not a consultant. A consultant as in what? As 9 in Mod Rehab units? No, I did not.

10 Q As we've been speaking, you worked on HUD related

11 matters when you left, did you not?

12 A I worked on an audit finding for a company and I
13 worked on other matters. I did not go out and become a 14 $1000 a unit consultant. No, I did not.

15 Q Miss Dean, Lance Wilson, that is also the same
16 person you claim was helping John Mitchell on these 17 matters that we talked about previously, correct, the 18 Arama project?

19 A I know that subsequent to this indictment I have 20 had a conversation with Mr. Wilson and Mr. Wilson told
2 me that he had been the person working with John.

2 Q Now, you know, Miss Dean, do you not, you've been 2 testifying here long enough, you know the rules against 2 hearsay, do you?

2 MR. WEHNER: Oh, Judge.

2888

1 THE COURT: I'll sustain the objection.
2 MR. WEHNER: Objection.
3 THE COURT: Do you want me to strike the
4 answer?
5 MR. O'NEILL: Like I'm ringing a bell, Judge.
6 THE COURT: All right, I 'll sustain the
7 ob j ection •
8 BY MR. O' NEILL:
9 Q Miss Dean, I'll be asking you a series of 10 questions I'd ask you to respond to them as best you
11 can If you do not understand the question, please let 12 me know. I'll be glad to rephrase it.
13 A All right.
14 Q Joe Strauss, is this the same Joe Strauss you once
15 shared a beach house with?
16 A Yes.
17 Q Let me show you Government's Exhibit 258 in 18 evidence. I'd ask you to look at this document.
19 A Yes.
20 Q And this is a response you received from counsel at
2 HUD , is that correct?
2 A Yes.
2 Q And that was as to whether it would be improper or
2 not to share a beach house with Joe Strauss?
2 A That is correct.

2889

1 Q And that was early on in 1984.
2 A It was 19 – I think we arranged it in '83 and we
3 were all special Assistants then, and Mr. Strauss – no,
4 I think Mr. Strauss had actually left HUD at that point
5 and we were all still very friendly and I didn't have 6 any reason to think that I would have any conflict with 7 Mr. Strauss, and there wasn't a conflict with 8 Mr. Strauss until Mr. Strauss didn't get what he wanted,
9 and then there was a conflict.
10 Q Is it fair to say in Government's 258 that Joe
11 Strauss is no longer at HUD at this time?
12 A Yes, it says a former Special Assistant.
13 Q And isn't that why you requested the opinion?
14 A I guess, yes. I wanted to make certain I didn't do
15 anything wrong.
16 Q From that point, the date of that is February 14th,
17 1984, you were aware of the Standards of Conduct

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
18 applicable to HUD employees, is that correct?
19 A As they relate to sharing a beach house or having a
20 friend that's a former Assistant?
2 Q Let me read it, ma'am, it's a little broader than

2 just a beach house, is it not? Do you recall the 2 memorandum states, "Because Mr. Strauss is contributing
2 no more than his fair share of the rent, his payment
2 does not constitute a prohibited gift or gratuity

2890

1 under," and then it gives the sections, "of the
2 standards of Conduct regulation. However, in addition
3 to specific rules, HUD' s Standards of Conduct regulation
4 also requires HUD employees to avoid any action that 5 might result in, or create the appearance of, giving
6 preferential treatment to any person, losing complete
7 independence or impartiality, or making a Government
8 decision outside official channels." It cites the 9 sections again. "Because Mr. Strauss is a close 10 personal friend it could create the appearance of 11 favoritism or of loss of impartiality for you to take or 12 recommend actions which would benefit Mr. Strauss. You
13 need not avoid any particular type or extent of social 14 contact with Mr. Strauss, but if you are in a position
15 to take or recommend actions which could benefit him or 16 to expedite the consideration of such matters I would 17 advise you to refrain from doing so. If you are not in 18 a position to assist Mr. Strauss or any of your friends
19 who may deal with HUD, your outside social activities
20 will raise no Standards of Conduct issue."
2 A I never did anything to expedite or to benefit

2 Mr. Strauss.
2 Q I don't recall that being the question, Ma'am.
2 A I'm sorry.
2 Q The question was as of 1984 were you familiar with 2891

1 the standards of Conduct applicable to HUD employees?
Page 1606

2 A Yes.

3 Q Now, during your direct examination you mentioned a
4 project by the name of Durham Hosiery Mill. Do you
5 recall that?

6 A Yes.

7 Q In fact, is it fair to say you spent a great deal
8 of time talking about that project during direct
9 examination?

10 A Well, if that's your characterization, that's fine.

11 Q Do you recall testifying that Shirley Wiseman
12 refused to sign the funding documents on Durham Hosiery
13 Mill?

14 A Yes, I believe I said that Secretary Pierce told me
15 that she would not sign them.

16 Q Do you also recall testifying that Secretary Pierce
17 said make sure it's legal and then fund it?

18 A He wanted the site funded and he wanted to make 19 certain that it was legal before it could be funded.

20 Q Is it fair to say that Janet Hale also refused to 21 sign the funding documents for Durham Hosiery?

22 A Well, she didn't refuse to sign them. She did not 23 want to sign them.

24 Q You told us she was crying?

25 A We had a meeting in the office and she started to 2892

1 tear up and she got a blotch on her neck and I knew
2 Janet well enough to know that that was a sign of 3 extreme discomfort for her, and I felt very badly for
4 her.

5 Q Now, am I correct that the Secretary's signature
6 was autopenned to the rapid reply as you stated on
7 direct examination?

8 A Yes, it was.

9 Q Do you also recall testifying on direct examination

10 that you don't remember any consultants involved in 11 Durham Hosiery Mill?

12 A I never talked to any consultants involved in 13 Durham Hosiery Mill. After reading all of your 14 information I know that before I had any involvement
15 with them they had consultants and I think they paid
16 consultants when they closed the project. I since read
17 the complete file. I now know just about everything
18 there is to know about Durham Hosiery Mill, but at the 19 time that Mr. Allen, and I don't know who accompanied 20 him, I remember the fellow, a former Denver Bronco, and 21 he was from Denver and I don't know what his name was,
22 they came to see me. I spoke to Phil Abrams. Phil
23 Abrams had been dealing with it for a while. Al Moran
24 had been dealing with it for a while.

25 Secretary Pierce and I had many conversations

2893

1 about it but at no time did I ever speak to a consultant
2 or was I ever aware that a consultant was involved and I
3 mean I now know that Linda Murphy was one of their

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
4 attorneys but I never knew that at the time, and I know
5 that Lou Kitchin was paid from the Durham Hosiery Mill.
6 I didn't know that at the time. And it was certainly 7 never mentioned to me until I met Mr. Kitchin, and when 8 I met Mr. Kitchin he told me that he had worked on 9 Durham Hosiery Mill. But at that point I had never met
10 him before, and it had already been funded.
11 Q Are you finished. Ma'am?
12 MR. WEHNER: Objection to the comment.
13 THE COURT: All right, let's go ahead.
14 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, I move to strike the 15 entire answer as unresponsive to the question.
16 THE COURT: All right. Overruled. It was 17 responsive to your question that was asked.
18 BY MR. O'NEILL:
19 Q Now, isn't it true that Linda Murphy was a
20 consultant on that project, Miss Dean?
2 A well, I believe that she worked on -I've never
2 seen anything in the files that said that she was paid,
2 but I assume she was, and I do know that she had some
2 involvement with it, after reading your files.
2 Q Now, is it also true as you've stated, Lou Kitchin

2894

1 was a consultant on that project?

2 A Yes, I've seen checks written to Mr. Kitchin that
3 you provided during discovery.

4 Q You mentioned an individual by the name of Allen.

5 Mr. John Allen was the developer of that project, is
6 that true?

7 A He was either the developer or had an interest in 8 it. I think the company developing was Myerson-Allen

9 and so I'm going to assume that he was a developer. I'm 10 going to assume that he was the principal.

11 Q I'm not asking you to assume. Do you recall 12 testifying on direct examination that you met with 13 Mr. Allen on Durham Hosiery Mill?

14 A Yes, I met with Mr. Allen and another individual
15 from Denver on the Durham Hosiery Mill shortly after I
16 became Executive Assistant.

17 Q Is it fair to say that John Allen went to school
18 with your then boyfriend Richard Giegengack?

19 A I remember - I recall Mr. Giegengack being in my 20 office, waiting to pick me up and Mr. Allen coming for a 2 meeting and going back and saying oh, aren't you Richard

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 Giegengack, and he went, yes, and it turned out that 2 Mr. Allen and Mr. Giegengack knew each other. It has 2 nothing to do with Durham Hosiery Mill.
2 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, I move to strike all

2895

1 unresponsive answers after the answer yes.
2 THE COURT: Overruled. It's
3 cross-examination. Go ahead.
4 BY MR. O'NEILL:
5 Q Am I correct, Miss Dean, that you and
6 Mr. Giegengack went out socially with Mr. Allen?
7 A I believe that day -I know that day that
8 Mr. Giegengack was picking me up we gave Mr. Allen a
9 ride to the airport and we stopped off and had a 10 cocktail at the Guards and, on the way, and that was the 11 only time I ever saw Mr. Allen socially.
12 Q Is it also fair to say that Richard Giegengack that 13 we're talking about, your then boyfriend, was best
14 friends with Jon Boisclair, is that true?
15 A That is true and that is how I met Miss Murphy, his 16 wife.
17 Q And Jon Boisclair is married to Linda Murphy?
18 A That is correct.
19 Q Now, during the direct examination you did not
20 mention the fact of this John Allen, Richard Giegengack,
2 Jon Boisclair, Linda Murphy relation on Durham Hosiery
2 Mill, is that true?
2 A Well, that is such a bizarre characterization of 2 it. why would I mention that? Mr. Giegengack has 2 nothing to do with Durham Hosiery Mill. Mr. Boisclair

2896

1 has nothing to do with Durham Hosiery Mill. The fact
2 that Mr. Giegengack and Mr. Allen knew each other ten
3 years before at school has nothing to do with Durham
4 Hosiery Mill.
5 Q You mentioned that Mr. Giegengack and Mr. Boisclair
6 had nothing to do with Durham Hosiery Mill, but 7 Mr. Allen and Miss Murphy did, correct?
8 A Mr. Allen was the principal. Mr. Allen saw me in a 9 meeting with Mr. Myerson, I assume it was Mr. Myerson or 10 whoever was this person from Denver. And then one time
11 he was dropping off some papers. It was late. He was 12 there for a meeting with other HUD people. He came into 13 my office to say hello, ran into Mr. Giegengack, they 14 recognized each other, and we drove him to the airport,
15 but I don't understand what -
16 Q You don't understand that Mr. Allen, the developer,
17 was good friends with Richard Giegengack, your then
18 boyfriend, Linda Murphy is the consultant on this
19 project who is married to Jon Boisclair who you
20 socialized with, you don't see any problem with that?
2 A If - if - no, I don't. I - I don't. I walk
2 through this Courthouse and run into people I know. It
2 doesn't mean they're parties to this case.
2 Q You were the Executive Assistant to the Secretary
2 of HUD, were you not, Ma'am?

2897

1 A Yes, and Secretary Pierce made the decision to fund
2 Durham Hosiery Mill for reasons that had nothing to do
3 with Linda Murphy, Louis Kitchin, Richard Giegengack, my 4 mother, you, or anything else.

5 Q And that's your testimony, is it, Ma'am?

6 A Yes, that is the truth.

7 Q That's for the jury to decide, right, Ma'am?

8 MR. WEHNER: Objection, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right, I'll sustain the remark
10 of the counsel again as being improper.

11 BY MR. O'NEILL:

12 Q Now, let's talk about Mr. Jay Stone. You mentioned
13 him during direct examination, is that correct?

14 A Yes, I did.

15 Q And do you recall testifying you couldn't remember
16 much about Mr. Stone?

17 A I remember that he worked for someone and I
18 remember having trouble deciding who it was that he 19 worked for.

20 Q And you said it might have been some Congressman in
2 Louisiana, does that refresh your recollection?

2 A It was either a Congressman, a Senator or a
2 Governor and I think I mentioned all three and couldn't
2 remember which one it was.

2 Q Isn't it true, Miss Dean, that at that time Mr.

2898

1 Jay Stone was working for his own business in 2 Washington, D. C. and he was associated with Lance
3 Wilson and Paine Webber?

4 A No, not that I know of.

5 Q Let me show you a document and see if that would 6 refresh your recollection as to whether he was 7 associated with Lance Wilson?

8 A Well, this is a document from Paine Webber to 9 Mr. Jay Stone and it doesn't mention my name, I've never 10 seen it before. And it has Lance Wilson's signature on 11 it. It doesn't have Mr. Stone's signature on it and,
12 no, I don't -I

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
know that Jay Stone worked for a member
13 of Congress or a Governor in a campaign and I wouldn't 14 know Jay Stone if he was in this courtroom.
15 I do remember that that is how he came into my 16 office and I don't know any relationship Mr. Stone has 17 with Mr. Wilson.
18 Q Does that show you that he is not working for any 19 Congressmen, he is not working for any Senator, or any 20 Governor from the State of Louisiana?
2 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, could we approach?
2 THE COURT: Sure.
2 (Bench conference)
2 THE COURT: Let me see the document.
2 MR. O'NEILL: Yes.

2899

1 MR. WEHNER: I object to the continued
2 questioning after the witness has answered the question
3 with regard to whether a document refreshes her
4 recollection.
5 THE COURT: I think the witness says this
6 doesn't refresh her recollection. That ends it. You
7 can't keep questioning her about that document.
8 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, can I just put something
9 on the record? I might be a little touchy from 10 yesterday, you did not think that was meant, that 11 comment where I said that's for the jury to decide -
12 did you take that as an improper comment?
13 THE COURT: I did. You can't keep making
14 remarks about -
15 MR. O'NEILL: I'm sorry, Judge.
16 THE COURT: Every time a witness answers a 17 question that you don't like you say, well, that's for 18 the jury to decide. That's a comment,, it's not a 19 question to a witness. It's not an objection made to 20 the Court. What is it otherwise? It's a comment to the 2 jury in general, which you don't do.
2 MR. O'NEILL: I apologize, Judge, but -
2 THE COURT: The thing is not to get into 2 repartee with the witness or -on your own.
2 MR. O'NEILL: with all due respect, Your

2900

1 Honor, that's why I moved to strike her answer several
2 times and you felt and I don't disagree -
3 THE COURT: This is cross-examination. Do you
4 know so and so, and she gives a long explanation, but I
5 don't think comments to the jury -it's not a question
6 of a remark to the Court as an objection to evidence.
7 It doesn't have any business in the courtroom. That's
8 all.
9 MR. O'NEILL: well, I apologize.
10 THE COURT: There's no evidentiary value. It
11 means nothing except to influence the jury about 12 something that's not appropriate, and that's my 13 concern.
14 I just wanted to make it clear yesterday and I
15 don't want to rehash this again because it's over, it's 16 water over the dam, but I'm not sure the record
17 reflected what my concern was adequately and I don't
Page 1611

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
18 want to leave an unfair impression to Independent
19 Counsel. Miss Dean had been answering a question, had 20 raised her voice and spoken very loudly and repeated a
2 couple of times she never meant to do something. That's 2 the general context, that's not totally accurate, but
2 said never, never it very loud several times. The 2 remark of counsel for the prosecution was I'm sorry, I
2 didn't hear you, and holding your hand to your ear which 2901

1 caused the jury to laugh and snicker. I'm not sure that

2 would appear in the record.

3 The prosecutor did not use all its strikes in

4 choosing jury and I have no question that that's a

5 problem with choosing jury at all. My concern was that

6 there was an insensitivity at least and maybe something

7 much more. These remarks are to influence the jury.

8 We're here to give the defendant a fair trial and that's

9 what we're all here to do.

10 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, I haven't addressed
11 this. I've been very quiet but I guess I have to say
12 that I do feel that when we were questioning witnesses
13 and when we were making arguments to the Court
14 Mr. Wehner and Miss Dean were permitted to ridicule us,
15 to heckle us, to make faces at the jury.

16 THE COURT: I didn't notice that. I think
17 that's a twoedged sword and maybe it was raised too
18 long. I think there's a very strong obligation on the 19 prosecutors in terms of conduct. Unfortunately 20 sometimes that doesn't apply to defense lawyers.

21 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I quite frankly don't 22 know of anything in my conduct with one exception at 23 this trial that the Court called me on that could fall
24 into that category and I would like to know right now
25 specifics if we're going to get into that kind of

1 contest because I take -

2 THE COURT: We're not going to go into it
3 anymore. You do have facial expressions.

4 MR. WEHNER: True.

5 THE COURT: It's a little different than 6 making remarks to a jury in the middle of an 7 examination. All right. Let's go on.

8 (Bench conference concluded)

9 THE COURT: All right, I've sustained the
10 objection.

11 MR. O'NEILL: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 BY MR. O'NEILL:

13 Q Miss Dean, you mentioned an individual by the name
14 of Gary Horn during your direct examination. Do you 15 recall that?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Am I correct that Gary Horn was the developer
18 behind the funding request of the Housing Authority of 19 the County of Riverside, California?

20 A I believe so, yes.

2 Q And he communicated with you while you were at HUD
2 about that project?

2 A Yes, a meeting was set up for him. As I said, I
2 don't remember if it was his wife or his sister came in 2 and had a meeting with me and discussed their interest

2903

1 in doing more HUD work.

2 Q Isn't it a fact that the Horns are a father and 3 son?

4 A No, I met with a woman and a man, but I know
5 Mr. Horn, the father, because I worked for him after I
6 left HUD.

7 Q And, in fact, you received payments from him after 8 you worked at HUD, correct? You worked as a consultant
9 for Mr. Horn?

10 A Yes, it was a very small job that I did for him.

11 Q And he paid you approximately $20,000?

12 A No, no, I don't think so. No, this is - no. He 13 did not. I believe it was around $500, $560, and it was 14 simply to write a letter to a Housing Authority about a 15 problem he was having with cost - certifiable costs on 16 a project that he worked for.

17 I know I met with the Housing Authority
18 official for him on a different kind of program than Mod
19 Rehab. He asked me to do some things for him, but I
20 never did do them, and I think 560 some dollars I
2 believe is the one check that I received plus he paid my
2 way out to, to where the Housing Authority was in
2 California. He did pay my airfare and whatever my time
2 was that I was there.

2 Q Miss Dean, I'm going to show you what's been marked

2904

1 as Government's Exhibit 524 for identification and I'd

2 ask you if this doesn't refresh your recollection that

3 Dean & Associates received $20,000?

4 A No, we did not receive $20,000.

5 Q So is it your testimony that Mr. Horn did not pay

6 you $20,000 for you acting as a consultant?

7 A Absolutely not. I represented him with a Housing

8 Authority on a cost certification issue and he had asked

9 me to -- and I had to go out there to do that and he 10 asked me to meet with the Housing Authority because the 11 Housing Authority had some monies that they had not 12 expended and he wanted to see if he could get those, and 13 I went to the Housing Authority for him. I was 14 unsuccessful in doing that.

15 He also asked me if I would meet with 16 Mr. Demery on his behalf, and I was unsuccessful with 17 that as well.

18 So the only thing that I did for him, he would 19 have paid my -- my hourly rate to fly out to California, 20 he would have paid the airline ticket and the hotel, and
2 I think he also gave me additional money for the hours

2 that I spent writing the letter to the Housing Authority
2 on the cost certification issue, but I did not receive
2 $20,000 from him.

2 Q Miss Dean, what was the name of your company when

1 you went out as a lobbyist-consultant?

2 A I said before I wasn't a consultant.

3 Q What was the name of your company?

4 A Dean & Associates.

5 Q Did you have an accountant at any time? Did you
6 utilize any Certified Public Accountants?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Would it be William Batdorf & Company?

9 A He was one of them, yes.

10 MR. WEHNER: Judge, could we approach?

11 THE COURT: Sure.

12 (Bench conference)

13 MR. WEHNER: Her activity after she left HUD
14 except as it relates to specific individuals is not 15 relevant in cross-examination. He's gotten into the 16 individuals she's discussed on direct. I don't think 17 it's relevant for him to go into a question about what 18 Dean & Associates did. The fact is that Dean &
19 Associates until Miss Dean went broke was a relatively 20 successful business and the sums of money Miss Dean
2 generated were significant. And I believe the evidence
2 is overly prejudicial especially given the fact that
2 there's no evidence of any wrongdoing in that period of 2 time. It's not alleged in the indictment anywhere.

2 THE COURT: we're finishing up with Mr. Horn?

1 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Judge.
2 THE COURT: What's the basis of this $20,000?
3 You must have some kind of a check.
4 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, sir, I do. I direct the 5 Court's attention to about the third page. There's a
6 notation at the bottom of that and there's a Certified
7 Public Accountant and there's a notation that she
8 received $20,000.
9 MR. WEHNER: That's not what that says, that 10 says accounts received, 20,000.
11 THE COURT: DDH Trust, that's the Horn trust,
12 I take it.
13 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, sir. She's talking about 14 smaller amounts of checks that she did in fact receive.
15 They are here.
16 THE COURT: There's one here.
17 MR. O'NEILL: Right. There are several
18 smaller denominations.
19 MR. WEHNER: Judge, there's no evidence she 20 ever received $20,000.
2 THE COURT: Well, maybe she was owed 20,000 if
2 the project completed, but that's what we're talking
2 about. Anyway, she's answered the question she didn't
2 get $20,000. Unless you can call a witness to prove
2 that.

2907

1 MR. WEHNER: Are you through with Dean &
2 Associates?
3 MR. O'NEILL: No, the whole purpose to that,
4 Your Honor, is she had on direct make it sound like she
5 didn't know Mr. Horn at all.
6 MR. WEHNER: I don't object to that.
7 THE COURT: All right. Let's do a few more
8 minutes.
9 (Bench conference concluded)
10 THE COURT: All right, we're ready to go
11 forward.
12 MR. O'NEILL: Thank you, Your Honor.
13 BY MR. O'NEILL:
14 Q Now, Miss Dean, you stated that you wrote a check
15 to Lou Kitchin to repay the $4000, is that correct?
16 A Yes.
17 Q And is it fair to say that you do not have a copy
18 of that check?
19 A I gave it to him.
20 Q Now, at the time you made that check or issued that
2 check, I'm sorry, to Mr. Kitchin, you did not have
2 sufficient funds in your account, did you?
2 A No, I did not.
2 Q On direct examination you testified that in a
2 couple of days you would have sufficient funds.

2908

1 A No, I said I told him to wait for a couple of days
2 and that I would call him and we would - I would tell
3 him when I had sufficient funds in the bank.
4 Q But there's no question on the date you issued that
5 check you did not have sufficient funds?
6 A That's absolutely correct because it came as a
7 shock to me that I was going to be writing him the

8 check.

9 Q Now -10

A But I wanted him to have a check. I know it may 11 sound funny to you, Mr. O'Neill, I was trying to do the 12 right thing.

13 Q Are you finished, Ma'am?

14 Do you admit that you gave Kitchin a check -
15 excuse me, I'm sorry. Do you admit that Mr. Kitchin
16 gave you a $4000 check in the spring of 1987?

17 A He gave me a check for $4000 in the spring of 1987.

18 Q Now, you took that check and deposited it in your 19 account, is that correct?

20 A Yes, I did.

2 Q Prior to depositing that in your account, is it
2 fair to say that your account was in the red, that you
2 had a negative cash flow?

2 A I don't think so because the check stub before it
2 had a balance, but I don't know.

2909

1 Q Miss Dean, let me show you what's previously been
2 placed in evidence as Government's Exhibit 203B and I'd
3 ask you to look, and is it not fair to say that when you
4 deposited that $4000 check you had a negative cash flow
5 at that time?

6 A Yes, it is, and that I had a positive cash flow
7 when I requested the check.

8 Q Now, during this period of time were you paying the 9 bank charges for insufficient funds by - in other
10 words, bouncing checks?

11 A Well, I - yes.

12 Q And is it fair to say that happened on a number of 13 occasions during this period of time, the spring of 14 1987?

15 A It has happened on a number of occasions throughout
16 my entire banking career.

17 Q Now, after receiving that $4000 check were you able 18 to write a number of checks because you now had a
19 positive cash flow in your account?

20 A well, I believe that there was a positive cash
2 flow - I mean, when I look at the check stubs it said
2 that there was $1600 in the bank when I wrote the check
2 and I mean of course I kept writing checks.

2 Q Ma'am, are we talking about two different things?

2 A I mean his writing me the check did not enable me

2910

1 to write more checks or less checks. I mean there was
2 $4000 in the bank. Yes, I wrote checks, and my salary
3 kept going in and other money kept going in and money
4 would go out.

5 Q Let me ask it this way, on May 6, 1987 when you
6 deposited the check for $4000 and another sum into the 7 account, right prior to that you had a negative cash
8 flow in your account of $260.57, do you remember that?

9 A I believe you, yes.

10 Q And then once you put in the money you had a -
11 with the deposit you had a positive cash flow and you
12 had $4121.70 in your account, is that right?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And then you wrote a series of checks. Do you
15 recall that?

16 A I assume that - that I would write a series of 17 checks, yes. I'm not sure that they happened the next

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
18 day. If you'll give that to me I'll be more than happy
19 to look at it and -
20 Q I'm just asking you, did you write a series of 2 checks after the $4000 deposit?
2 A Well, I put a deposit in that day. I wrote three
2 checks that day and the same day that my Treasury check
2 came in from the Government.
2 Q You're talking about your payroll check?

2911

1 A Yes, my paycheck, yes.
2 Q That was actually the next day, Miss Dean?
3 A It was automatically deposited.
4 Q Now, is it fair to say that when in this period of 5 time, the spring of 1987, you were applying for and 6 seeking the confirmation as Assistant Secretary for CPD?
7 A Yes, I was going through my FBI clearance.
8 Q And you were having your background investigated by 9 the FBI, isn't that true?

10 A Yes, it is.
11 Q Would you agree that one of the areas that they
12 were investigating was your financial condition?
13 A No, I don't believe so. I believe that they 14 probably look into that as a routine but I don't think 15 it was anything special.
16 MR. O'NEILL: At this time, Your Honor, I
17 would go into some numbers so I don't know if --
18 THE COURT: It will take awhile.
19 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, it will take at least a 20 half hour.
21 THE COURT: why don't we settle up for the day
22 then and come back fresh tomorrow?
23 Ladies and gentlemen, we'll come back tomorrow
24 at our standard time. what we'll do is we'll be sitting
25 to around 3:15 or roughly around three, so no snack.

2912

1 I'm going to let you go, so you don't get your free
2 donuts or whatever you get, and soft drinks.
3 So tomorrow we'll be here at 9:30. we'll sit
4 through until approximately three or 3:15 and then we'll
5 recess for the weekend. I'm still hopeful we can finish
6 up the testimony tomorrow. If not, we'll definitely
7 finish it up Monday and be including the entire case

8 sometime early next week, Tuesday or Wednesday.

9 So remember the overnight admonition, I'm
10 getting tired, the little talk I give you every night.
11 The admonition. You don't talk about this case among 12 yourselves or with anyone else. You don't talk about 13 it, read about it, watch or listen to anything about it
14 in the media.
15 See you tomorrow morning at 9:30. I have 16 nothing else set, so we'll be ready to go.
17 (Jury dismissed)
18 THE COURT: Counsel, I've been looking at the

19 instructions that have been submitted and have worked on 20 a rough draft but they're not complete yet. I haven't
2 had the opportunity to go through them all a second
2 time. I didn't know if anyone had comments on what's
2 been submitted. Perhaps it would be easier rather than 2 to do that is that I will issue a draft for your
2 guidance and then maybe if we not get to them tomorrow,

2913

1 it may have to be on Monday, depending where we are in 2 the testimony in the case, you can still work on your 3 closing arguments without knowing precisely what the 4 instruction are because generally they would cover
5 conspiracy and the other counts. I don't think there's 6 anything particularly remarkable about the 7 instructions. Right now I've added some things from 8 what's been suggested and deleted some things, but I
9 think the elements are basically all there.
10 I take it you'll have some witnesses ready
11 tomorrow.
12 MR. WEHNER: I'm not sure, Judge. I'm not 13 sure timing-wise where Mr. O'Neill is. I'll check and 14 see if I can have my witness ready.
15 THE COURT: I think you'll be finished by 16 lunch.
17 MR. WEHNER: Do you think you'll be finished
18 by lunch?
19 MR. O'NEILL: I hope so. I'm not sure, Judge.
20 THE COURT: Well, have one witness.
2 MR. WEHNER: If I had a witness ready at 1:30,
2 would that be satisfactory to the Court?
2 THE COURT: That's fine.
2 MR. WEHNER: Then I could call him off if at 2 noon we're not sure.

1 THE COURT: Right
2 MR. WEHNER: All right. Thank you, Your
3 Honor.
4 THE COURT: All right. 9:30 tomorrow
5 morning

1 now that are repeated, and I do think that it's, something that 2 the jury would be able to understand, that there wasn't more than 3 one telegram, for example, to the white House in support of 4 Ms. Dean and that sort of thing.
5 So I have prepared copies, Your Honor, of the 6 alternative versions for Mr. Wehner and for the Court. And I
7 have previously addressed the language that Mr. Wehner had raised
8 specific objections about.
9 THE COURT: All right. Well, I'll take a look at them
10 and then hear from counsel for the defendant about them at the 11 time we take a break.
12 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor. If Your Honor is able 13 to look at them during the break, we would like to be able to use
14 them during the remainder of cross.
15 THE COURT: Let me ask you, in looking through these,
16 the theory that you want to use these in cross is that they're 17 evidence in the case at this point, not just a summary to go to 18 the jury?
19 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor, that these charts,
20 within the Lemire case and the Williams case and the other
21 cases cited in our motion, could be admitted as exhibits under 22 Rule 1006 and the case law dealing with summary of already 23 existing evidence.
24 THE COURT: It says, "The contents of voluminous
25 writings . . . which cannot conveniently be examined in court may

2919

1 be presented in the form of a chart, summary, or calculation.
2 The originals or duplicates shall be made available for
3 examination"
4 "The admission of summaries of voluminous books,
5 records, or documents offers the only practicable means of making 6 their contents available to judge and jury." I'm reading the 7 comments.
8 would these be introduced through a summary witness or 9 just on their own strength? All of the exhibits are already in
10 evidence?
11 MS. SWEENEY: All of the exhibits are already in 12 evidence, Your Honor. We could put on a summary witness who 13 would testify as to how they were prepared.
14 THE COURT: I want to read Lend re. That's our case
15 in this circuit that you referred to.
16 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor. And then there's also 17 the Williams case, which is from the Sixth Circuit, but the 18 facts in that particular case and the exhibits in that particular 19 case are quite close to the, to the use that we're proposing to 20 make of the charts here.
21 Then there are a number of other cases cited, but 22 Williams is a very recent Sixth Circuit case.
23 THE COURT: Okay. Let me see if I have a copy of your 24 original motion.
25 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, I have another copy here. It

2920

1 has a few markings on it.
2 THE COURT: I've got it. I'm missing the cite to the 3 Williams case when I read through it. This is your earlier
4 motion to admit these charts in opening statement.
5 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, it's cited at page 2, the 6 bottom of the page, United States v. Williams. 952 F.2d.
7 THE COURT: I must have an earlier edition here in 8 front of me. It's 952 F.2d?

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

9 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor, 1504.
10 THE COURT: Is this entitled Motion in Limine to Permit
11 the Use of Charts?
12 MS. SWEENEY: This one, Your Honor, Government's Motion
13 and Memorandum of Law in Support Thereof to Admit Charts
14 Summarizing Trial Exhibits. This was not our pretrial motion.
15 This was filed actually shortly after -- it's October 1, 1993.
16 THE COURT: All right. Let me look at that over the 17 recess.
18 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor. Did Your Honor need a
19 copy?
20 THE COURT: well, I'll see if the clerk can find my 21 copy. Do you have an extra copy? I don't want to use your only
22 copy.
23 I don't see a copy of that one in front of me anyway.
24 I'll have my clerk make a copy of your copy perhaps.
25 MR. O'NEILL: Could we just have one quick moment to look outside for a second?

THE COURT: Sure.
MR. WEHNER: Does Your Honor wish to hear from the 4 defense on that issue, or do you want to let that go until -
5 THE COURT: Let me look at the case so I can be more
6 informed about discussing it with counsel.
7 MR. WEHNER: Yes.
8 THE COURT: All right, one of the jurors was late this
9 morning, but I think we're here now.
10 THE DEPUTY MARSHAL: Yes, Your Honor.
11 THE COURT: As soon as Mr. O'Neill comes back, we can 12 bring them in.
13 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, for the Court's scheduling
14 purposes, our witness is available at 1:30 if that occurs.
15 THE COURT: All right.
16 All right?
17 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.
18 THE COURT: Okay. Bring the jury in, please.
19 (Jury in.)
20 THE COURT: All right, Ladies and Gentlemen, good
21 morning. We're ready to proceed. Thank you for waiting.
22 Everybody's here, right? All right. One's hiding from view.
23 All right, we're ready to go. We're going to continue
24 with the cross examination of Ms. Dean this morning.
25 Mr. O'Neill?

1 MR. O'NEILL: Thank you, Your Honor.
2 DEBORAH GORE DEAN, DEFENDANT'S WITNESS, RESUMED
3 CROSS EXAMINATION (Cont'd.)
4 BY MR. O'NEILL:
5 Q. Ms. Dean, I would direct your attention to the visual 6 presenter.
7 THE COURT: You're going to have to move that chart.
8 MR. O'NEILL: Yes.
9 Q. And I'd ask you, Ms. Dean, do you recognize that document,

10 which is Government's, for the record, 203B in evidence?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Is it fair to say that's a personal account statement of

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
13 yours for the period of beginning April 10?

14 A. Yes. Yes, April 10.

15 Q. Now I would direct your attention halfway down that 16 document, and am I correct that you see an insufficient funds

17 charge on April 28?

18 A. I'm afraid I just can't see that.

19 Q. Could you move closer to the projector?

20 A. April 28, yes, $17.50.

21 Q. Was that because you issued a check for which you had 22 insufficient funds?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Ms. Dean, is it fair to say that on April 30, you likewise
25 received an insufficient funds charge?

1 A. Yes, and one shortly after that as well, and

2 Q. Would that be on May 1, 1987?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. How about May 4 of 1987?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Now does that statement reflect a deposit on 7 $4,121.70?

8 A. Yes, it does.

9 Q. And does part of that deposit constitute the 10 from Mr. Lou Kitchin?

11 A. Yes, it does.

2923

another, yes.

May 6, 1987, of

$4,000 check

12 Q. Directly preceding that deposit, does it note i that your 13 balance in your bank account is a negative amount of $260.53?

14 A. I assume so. Yes, over to the right, 260.53, yes.

15 Q. Is it fair to say, Ms. Dean, that prior to receiving that 16 check from Mr. Kitchin, you had a negative balance in your 17 checking account?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Thank you. Now as of April 1987, did you own your own
20 apartment?

2 A. Yes.

2 Q. And did you have a mortgage at that time?

2 A. Yes.

2 Q. Is it fair to say that your mortgage payment was late for
2 the month of April 1987?

2924

A. I think it was late more than one month. I think it was late often.

3 Q. Let me show you a document which I'll mark as Government's 4 Exhibit 530 for identification purposes, and I'd ask you to look
5 at this, ma'am, Government's Exhibit 530 for identification.
6 Let me direct your attention, if it will help, to the back page,
7 and I'd ask you was your mortgage payment late for the month of 8 April 1987?

9 A. You'll just have to wait, bear with me for a moment while
10 I -

11 Q. Surely.

12 A. 152. It looks like it was late in January, February, April, 13 and May.

14 Q. And were you assessed late charges on each of those months?

15 A. $49, $42, $42, and $42.

16 Q. Now as of April 1987, Ms. Dean, did you have a government
17 Diners Club card?

18 A. I don't recall if I did in April. I assume I did.

19 Q. Let me show you a document which will be marked as 20 Government's Exhibit 531 for purposes of identification. I'd ask
21 you to look at Government's Exhibit 531 for identification.

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And I'd ask you does that refresh your recollection as to 24 whether you had a Diners Club card as of April 1987?

25 A. Yes, it does.

2925

1 Q. And as of April 15, 1987, did you have a total due of 2 approximately $4,882.87?

3 A. Yes, I did. It shows that I had not been making payments in 4 full, been making partial payments.

5 Q. Now I believe we established yesterday that in April of 6 1987, you bought a piano; is that correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And did you buy that piano on April 17, 1987?

9 A. I don't know.

10 Q. I would like to show you a document that has been marked for 11 identification as Government's Exhibit 532. I'd ask you to look

12 at that, please.

13 A. Yes. April 17, 1987, I ordered a piano, bought a piano.

14 Q. And do you recall paying $4,664 for that piano?

15 A. I don't really know how much it was by the time all the 16 interest charges and things over time were added up.

17 Q. $4,500 of that was bought on credit; is that correct?

18 A. Yes, $4,500 was paid over time.

19 Q. Did you have any outstanding loans as of April 1987,

20 Ms. Dean?

2 A. Again, I don't remember. I might have had a loan from a
2 bank, but I don't remember.

2 Q. Ms. Dean, I would now draw your attention to June of 1987,

2 and is it fair to say that as we've established, that you spoke

2 with Mr. Kitchin on June 15, 1987?

2926

A. That's correct.

2 Q. And on that date, did you give him a check for $4,250,
3 according to your testimony?

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. Ms. Dean, I would show you what has previously been entered
6 into evidence as Defense Exhibit 575, and I'd ask you do you
7 recognize that, ma'am?

8 A. Yes. It's a check stub register from my checking account.

9 Q. Now I would like to go through those check stubs, if I
10 might, with you, and I'd like to begin with Check No. 151. Would 11 you go to that entry on your check stub?

12 A. All right.

13 Q. Have you found that?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Now is it fair to say that the amount of the check that you
16 wrote on Check No. 151 was for $19.50?

17 A. Yes, but it's also dated April 4.

18 Q. Is it also fair to say that you do not reflect a balance at 19 that time on your check stub?

20 A. No, I hardly ever kept a balance, which, I suppose, is why I
21 bounced a few checks. I tried to at some points keep balances.
22 I mean, there are balances in some places in here.

23 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, directing your attention to Check No. 152, is 24 it fair to say that the amount on Check 152 was $134.10?

25 A. Yes, to the grocery store.

2927

1 Q. Is it also to fair to say that there is no balance for that
2 date?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. I now direct your attention to Check No. 153. Is it fair to 5 say that that check was in the amount of $23.09?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And once again, there is no balance reflected?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Is that true?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. I now direct your attention to Check No. 154, and is that 12 dated June 14?

13 A. Well, it says that --it looks as though that was the

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

14 ballance of, it says June 14 on it, but it's not the date of the 15 check. It has a little line to the number on it.

16 Q. And is that check in the amount of $20?

17 A. Yes, it is.

18 Q. And at this point, does it reflect a balance in your

19 checking account?

20 A. It says there's $199.20.

2 Q. I direct your attention now to Check No
2 the amount of $155.99?

2 A. Yes. It's a car payment.

2 Q. Does your balance now become, according

2 $43 .21?

155, and is that in to your check stub,

2928

A. Yes.

2 Q. I now direct your attention to Check No. 156, and is it fair
3 to say that that check is in the amount of $32.95?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Is it fair to say that your balance now becomes $10.26?

6 A. Um-hum.

7 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, do you know whether you received a deposit at 8 that time of approximately $1,780 into your account?

9 A. It looks from my habits, there's a line drawn to June 18, it
10 looks as though that is my check that should clear my account on 11 June 18. See, sometimes I figure ahead.

12 Q. The next check would then be 157; is that fair to say?

13 A. No, it's $22.

14 Q. Check No. 157?

15 A. Oh, I'm sorry, Check No. 157 to Sherrill Hawkins for $22.

16 Q. And that brings your balance down, because you've made a
17 deposit, to $1,768; is that fair to say?

18 A. Well, I don't know. You see, I think that the 1,780 that's 19 the deposit is actually a check that's going to go into the bank.

20 I'm not sure that the, I don't think that that was what the 21 deposit was.

22 Q. But is that what's reflected on the stub?

23 A. what's reflected on the stub is there's a check that's going
24 to go into the bank on June 18.

25 Q. I would read since it's in evidence what's on this stub.

2929

1 June 18, 10.26; 1,780; then a total of 1790; 22; then 1,768
2 balance forward; is that correct?

3 A. Mr. O'Neill, since you have my bank records, maybe if we 4 could look at that and see whether or not on June 18 there was 5 1,780? I know my own system, and my system was to go ahead and 6 add in what I knew was going to be put into the bank by my, my 7 paycheck being automatically deposited, and then I would go ahead
8 and write checks, and sometimes those checks went in before the 9 government check went in, and that's why there were some 10 insufficient funds charges.

11 Q. Let me ask the question again. According to your own notes,
12 there's a balance after Check 157 is written of $1,768?

13 A. The actual, real-life balance in the bank, I don't know. I

14 know that my figuring is this is how much money I would have to 15 spend this month.

16 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, with the Court's permission, I'll 17 just put it on the visual presenter.

18 THE COURT: All right, sure.

19 BY MR. O'NEILL:

20 Q. Ms. Dean, I direct your attention to the line on the stub
2 that says Balance Forward. Please tell the jury, what does it
2 say?

2 A. It says that I will have $1,768 that I can spend after that
2 check goes in on June 18.

2 Q. The balance, according to that check, is $1,768 after you've

2930

1 written Check 157; is that fair to say, ma'am?

2 A. Maybe we can compromise and say that the bottom number on 3 here is 1,768 and I continued to write checks.

4 Q. Now on Check 158, you write it in the amount of $200?

5 A. Yes.

Q. Is that correct?

A. To Very Special Arts.

8 Q. And does that bring your balance down to $1,568?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. I would now direct your attention to Check No. 159.

11 A. Right.

12 Q. Is that a check in the amount of $155?

13 A. Yes, to the Auto Salon.

14 Q. And that brings your balance down to $1,430?

15 A. $1,413.

16 Q. 13, I'm sorry.

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Now you mentioned the Auto Salon, and that check was written 19 on June 15, according to your check stubs; is that correct?

20 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. And you've testified to this jury that you went to the Auto

2 Salon on June 15 with Mr. Cushing and Mr. Kitchin.

2 A. That's correct.

2 Q. Now the next check you write, according to that stub, is

2 Check No. 160.

2931

A. Correct.

2 Q. And that is to Lou Kitchin for $4,250?

3 A. That's right.

4 Q. Now you do not have $4,250 in your account at that time; is
5 that fair to say?

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. You then write out Check 161, and that is for $50; is that
8 correct?

9 A. That's correct.

10 Q. And that takes your balance down, according to your records,
11 to $1,363.

12 A. That's correct.

13 Q. And that is $50 less than the balance in Check 159?

14 A. I did not deduct the $4,250 from what was in the bank.

15 Q. Now I believe you testified on direct examination that you
16 told Mr. Kitchin to hold that for a couple of days and you would 17 then have the money to pay him. Is that fair to say?

18 A. Yeah. I told him that I did not have that much money in the 19 bank and I would talk to him in the next week.

20 Q. Did you not tell this jury on direct examination that you
21 would pay him the money, because you'd have it in the next couple 22 of days?

23 A. I don't know exactly what I said. I know that I told him I
24 didn't have the money in the bank, I would talk to him in the 25 next couple of days, and I wanted him to hold the check until I

2932

1 could put $4,250 in the bank.

2 Q. Is it fair to say, Ms. Dean, that Check No. 162, according
3 to your records, was written on June 18?

4 A. It doesn't have any record here.

5 Q. Okay. It was in the amount of $100.89; is that correct?

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. And that brought down your balance to $1,262?

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. You then wrote Check 163?

10 A. Yes, for $80 to Jerry Roman.

11 Q. And what does that reflect your balance to be?

12 A. $1,182.

13 Q. Check 164, what is the amount of that check?

14 A. $92.22.

15 Q. And what does that make your balance?

16 A. $1,090.

17 Q. How about Check 165?

18 A. $50. That leaves $1,040.

19 Q. Keep going just a little longer, please.

20 much is that made out for?

2 A. $26, and it leaves a balance of $1,014.

Check No. 166, how

Then there's a

2 check for $25, leaves a balance for $989. Then there's a check
2 for $15 -

2 Q. Wait one second, Ms. Dean. I'm still on 167.

2 A. I was trying to help you.

Q. 167, is it fair to say, is for $25?

A. Yes.

Q. Leaving a balance of $989?

A. $989.

Q. Check No. 168 is for $15?

A. $15, yes.

Q. Leaving a balance of $974, is that correct?

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. Check No. 169?

10 A. 169, $50, Piano, so that must have been the piano payment

11 Q. Were you paying $50 periodically?

12 A. It says Piano.

13 Q. How about Check 170, Ms. Dean? Is that for $55?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Does that bring your --

16 A. $869.

17 Q. Now is it fair to say that --

18 A. Don't you want to keep going until there's more money in 19 there to cover the check for Mr. Kitchin?

20 Q. Surely, let's keep going.

21 A. The next check is for --

22 Q. Hold on, Ms. Dean. I'll ask you the questions. Check

23 No. 171?

24 A. $17.12 to the hardware store.

25 Q. And that goes to $852?

2934

A. Yes.

2 Q. And Check 172?

3 A. .It's for $155.40 to Bloomingdale's. It leaves a balance of 4 696.

5 Q. Now 173, is that a check for $135.45?

6 A. Yes, and that's also to Bloomingdale's.

7 Q. Does that give you a balance of $560?

8 A. Yes, it does.

9 Q. Now you void Check 174; is that correct?

10 A. Yes. That's actually the, the check where I ended up using

11 the Diners Club card by mistake, because -- or, I mean, I

12 didn't -- I used the Diners Club card, which was a mistake that

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
13 was talked about in the hearings, because Bloomingdale's wouldn't 14 allow me to write three checks in one day.
15 Q. Now right after you void that check, you make a deposit of 16 $1,780. Are you aware of that?
17 A. Yes. It shows a deposit will be going in on July 2.
18 Q. Would that bring your balance to $2,340?
19 A. Yes, it does.
20 Q. How about Check 175, Ms. Dean?
21 A. Is a check for a party that was given, so it's $683.24.
22 Q. And that brings your balance to $1,656.75?
23 A. Correct.
24 Q. How about Check 176?
25 A. Yes, it's for flowers for that same party. It was $86.80,

2935

1 and it left a balance of $1,570.
2 Q. Now we go to Check No. 177.
3 A. Which was the food for the party, and that was $704.96.
4 Q. That brings your balance down to $865?
5 A. Yes. I think this was actually Sherrill's wedding
6 reception. Yes.

8 815
9 Q.
10 A.
11 Q.
12 A.
13 Q-
14 A.
15 Q.
16 A.

And the next one is $50, and that brings it down to Check No. 179?

Yes.
Is that a check for $400?
For $400 for cash.

And does that bring your balance down to $415?

Yes, it does.

Now do we go to --

To the dry cleaner for $28. And it looks like I took out

17 $50 in cash as well, which brought it down to $337.
18 Q. Check No. 181?
19 A. Is to Garfinckel's for $144.90.
20 Q. 96 cents, just for the record?
2 A. Well, mine says 90 cents here.
2 Q-Okay.
2 A. 144.90, and it brings the balance down to 192. It's
2 actually what I'm wearing today.

2 Q. Check 182, Ms. Dean?

1 A. 182 is to my doctor for $85, and that brings the amount down
2 to $107.

3 Q. And then there's a deposit of $4,100?

4 A. $4,100. So there's a balance of $4,207.

5 Q. Now is that where you wanted to go to?

6 A. Well, no, you can go all the way through.

7 Q. You wanted to keep going. So is this where you wanted to go
8 to?

9 A. Well, no, I mean, they're in the month of June and July, I

10 received a very large check. It was either late June or early
11 July.

12 Q. Is this the check you're referring to?

13 A. No, it's not.

14 Q. Okay. I don't know if it's even referred to in this book.

15 I have never, I never went through it to see if it was.

16 Q. You did ask --

17 A. But I know I received my retirement money from HUD.

18 Q. Ms. Dean, did you ask me to keep going on these checks?

19 A. Well, yes. I know that at some point in here, there should 20 be a substantial amount of money. There's $4,200, $3,800,

2 $4,265 --

2 Q. Are you talking about balances?

2 A. -- $4,357.

2 THE COURT: Ms. Dean, let's get a question.

2 THE WITNESS: Yes, these are balances.

2937

BY MR. O'NEILL:

2 Q. I asked you, ma'am, is that good enough? Do you want me to
3 keep going?

4 A. Well, if you'll accept that there were large balances in 5 this account at some point, yes.

6 Q. Did you pay Mr. Kitchin back during that point?

7 A. I attempted to pay Mr. Kitchin back, yes. He could have 8 cashed the check is what I'm trying to say.

9 Q. Ms. Dean, let me show you what I've marked as Government's 10 Exhibit 533 for identification purposes. Ms. Dean, I direct your 11 attention to Government's Exhibit 533 for identification.

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And is that a bank statement for your checking account for 14 the time frame June of 1987?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And does it encompass the period June 15, 1987, when you

17 gave Mr. Kitchin a check for $4,250?

18 A. Yes, it does.

19 Q. Is it fair to say that the bank charged you an insufficient

20 funds charge on June 11 of that month?

21 A. June 11, June 12, June 16.

22 Q. Ma'am, the question was were you charged an insufficient

23 funds charge on June 11, 1987?

24 A. Yes, I was.

25 Q. And were you charged one on June 12, 1987?

2938

A. Yes.

Q. June 16, 1987?

A. There were two on that date.

Q. Were you charged one on June 29, 1987?

A. Yes.

Q. Were you charged four of them on June 30, 1987?

A. Yes.

8 Q. And were you charged five of them on July 1, 1987?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, do you recall applying for a loan shortly
11 after you allegedly gave Mr. Kitchin $4,250 -- excuse me again, a
12 $4,250 check?

13 A. A loan from where? I applied for several loans while I was 14 at HUD, and I don't remember -- I mean, I applied at banks, and I
15 applied at the HUD Federal Credit Union.

16 Q. Do you recall applying for a loan the day after you gave 17 Mr. Kitchin a check for $4,250?

18 A. No, but --

19 Q. At this time, Ms. Dean, I'd show you what's previously been 20 marked as Government's Exhibit 534 for identification purposes,
21 and I'd ask you did you apply for a loan for $10,000 the day
22 after you gave Mr. Kitchin allegedly the check for $4,250?

23 A. Yes. Well, on 6-16-87, yes, you're right. I did.

24 Q. And did you list two other outstanding obligations at that 25 time, two other loans?

2939

1 A. Yes. I had a personal loan to National Security & Trust
2 Bank for $3,000, and I had a $4,500 loan left with the HUD
3 Federal Credit Union.
4 Q. Of the $3,000 loan, did it have an unpaid balance of $3,000?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. And the one that you said had an unpaid balance of 4,500, is 7 it fair to say that one was for $5,000 originally?
8 A. Yes, um-hum.
9 Q. I'd like to go back, Ms. Dean, for one second to your bank

10 statement, which is Government's Exhibit 533, and I'd ask you to 11 refer to that, tell this jury whether at any time during that 12 bank statement, which covers June 10 to the first day of July,
13 whether you ever had sufficient funds in that account for a
14 $4,250 check?
15 A. No, I did not.
16 Q. We've established on June 16, to be precise, 1987, you
17 applied for a $10,000 loan; is that correct?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. And on that application, you listed a $5,000 loan; is that 20 fair to say?
2 A. Yes.

2 Q. And a $3,000 loan, is that fair to say?
2 A. Yes, with, that had an outstanding balance of 3,000 and an
2 outstanding balance of 4,500, yes.
2 Q. Now as to your Diners Club, do you have any recollection at 2940

1 this time what the balance, the outstanding balance was in June
2 of 1987?
3 A. No.
4 Q. Ms. Dean, I will show you what's previously been marked as 5 Government's Exhibit 535 for identification purposes, and I'd ask 6 you if this refreshes your recollection as to what the 7 outstanding balance for the Diners Club bill was in the June
8 statement of 1987?
9 A. $5,313.90. But you have to remember there's a lot of HUD

10 charges that HUD pays back on these, also.
11 Q. You had a number of problems with your Diners Club at HUD,
12 didn't you, ma'am?
13 A. I don't think so, no.
14 Q. Did they threaten to take it away from you?
15 A. No.
16 Q. Is it your testimony they never threatened to cancel your 17 Diners Club while you were at HUD?
18 A. No, I don't ever recall anything like that.
19 Q. Is it you don't recall or it did not happen?
20 A. I don't recall anything like that.
2 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, in June of 1987, were you required to file a

2 statement for completion by presidential nominees in relation to
2 your confirmation hearing?
2 A. Yes.
2 Q. And do you recall filling out such a form?

2941

A. Yes.

2 Q. Ms. Dean, I will show you what's previously been marked as
3 Government's Exhibit 536 for purposes of identification, and is 4 this the form we were just referring to?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Ms. Dean, do you recall a section of that form where it asks
7 about potential conflicts of interest and whether any financial 8 arrangements or deferred compensation agreements or other
9 continuing deals with business associates, clients, or customers
10 will be affected by policies which you will influence in the 11 position to which you have been nominated? Do you recall that 12 question being asked on that form?

13 A. Could you let me look at it, please?

14 Q. Yes. I'd direct your attention to Question No. 1 and then 15 Question No. 2.

16 A. Okay. Would you like me to read it for the jury?

17 Q. Surely.

18 A. "Describe any financial arrangements or deferred
19 compensation agreements or other continuing dealings with 20 business associates, clients, or customers who will be affected
21 by policies which you will influence in the position to which you
22 have been nominated."

23 And I wrote, "No such financial arrangements or 24 deferred compensation agreements exist."

25 Q. Okay. As to No. 1, is it your testimony you didn't feel

2942

1 that Lou Kitchin and that $4,250 payment fit into that?

2 A. No, I did not, or I would have put it down.

3 Q. Let's see No. 2. Could you read that to the jury, please?

4 A. "List any investments, obligations, liabilities, or other
5 relationships which might involve potential conflicts of interest
6 with the position to which you have been nominated."

7 "To my knowledge, no investments, obligations,
8 liabilities, or other relationships exist which might involve
9 potential conflicts of interest."

10 Q. And you did not believe that the $4,250 payment to Lou
11 Kitchin fit into that?

12 A. No. Mr. Kitchin had assured me that he had no dealings with 13 the Office of Community Planning and Development and would have 14 no dealings with them, and so I didn't consider it to be a 15 conflict of interest.

16 Q. And this was dated, do you recall this was dated --do you
17 recall when you filled out this form?

18 A. It says June 26.

19 Q. June 26, 1987?

20 A. Yes.

2 Q. Now were you also required to complete a financial

2 disclosure form at this time, ma'am?

2 A. Yes, I was.

2 Q. And you, in fact, filled out a financial disclosure form?

2 A. I filled out more than one. I filled out one, and the 2943

1 Senate Banking Committee sent it back and said that I hadn't done
2 it correctly, and so they instructed me on how to do it a second
3 time.

4 Q. At this time, Ms. Dean, I would show you what's previously
5 been marked as Government's Exhibit 537 for purposes of 6 identification, and I'd ask you if you recognize that, ma'am?

7 A. No, I've never seen this before.

8 Q. Look through the form, ma'am.

9 A. I've never seen the front letter before, I'm sorry.

10 Attached to it is a financial disclosure report, and I
11 would have filled out part of it, and then somebody else who 12 reviewed it filled out the other part of it.

13 Q. I would direct your attention to the part that states
14 whether you had any sources of income during the, this period in 15 excess of $100 in which you made income, and the answer is 16 "None."

17 Did you fill out that part, or did someone else fill 18 that out?

19 A. I don't see where it's filled out.

20 Q. Do you see a box?

2 A. Yes, and it has an X in it, but frankly, it looks as though,

2 it looks like that's part of the form. It doesn't look like
2 anything is filled out on here to me. I mean, that X looks like
2 it's printed in as an example.

2 Q. Let me show you, did you fill out Part 1, Transactions?

2944

1 A. See, that to me, it looks like part of the form.

2 Q. Well, let's look down here. Does this box have an X in it?

3 A. No, it doesn't.

4 Q. Is it fair to say that the Xs are in boxes when the answer
5 is None?

6 A. It could very well be. I did not actually fill out this 7 form. I didn't type it in, so I don't know.

8 Q. Well, then let me go back to my question. Did you complete
9 or did someone else complete Block A on that form?

10 A. I would assume that it was most likely typed in by either
11 the Administrative Office or by Mrs. Hawkins, but of course, they 12 would have gotten the information from me.

13 Q. Well, was that correct at the time it was filled out then?

14 A. I'm going to review it just to make certain.

15 Q. Go right ahead.

16 A. All right. Well, actually if Mr. Kitchin had given me the 17 money and I had completed the job, I would have put this down,
18 but since I gave him the money back, or hadn't --it says this 19 was filled out in March, doesn't it?

20 Q. I would direct your attention to the cover page, Ms. Dean,
2 and ask you if that refreshes your recollection, read through
2 it -

2 A. All right.

2 Q. -

as to whether you had any conversations with Mr. Michael 2 Dorsey of HUD's legal staff?

2945

1 A. Well, it says this form is dated March 5, 1987.
2 Q. And like I said, maybe I can ask the question again. I
3 would direct your attention to the front page of the letter and 4 ask you if that refreshes your recollection as to whether you had 5 a conversation with Michael Dorsey of HUD's legal staff?
6 A. It doesn't say that I did. It says that he has reviewed
7 this form, and he sends this on June 30, after Mr. Kitchin's
8 gotten the money back, and says that it was done in March, that 9 the form was filled out in March, which was before Mr. Kitchin
10 gave me the money.
11 Q. Does it also state that although the form was dated 12 March 15, 1987, Ms. Dean has informed us that there's been no
13 change in the information since then?
14 A. Well, between March and June, Mr. Kitchin had given me the 15 money, and I'd given him the money back, so I don't think I would 16 have changed the answer.
17 Q. Did we not establish a little while ago, Ms. Dean -
and
18 correct me if I'm wrong -- that as of June 30, 1987, you still 19 did not have sufficient funds in your account to, to pay for a 20 check of 4,000?
2 A. Well, that is correct, and, you know, perhaps, perhaps, you
2 know, if I had spoken to an attorney such as yourself, I would
2 have known better. I -- to me, it was, it was not something
2 outstanding, so I did not put it on the form.
2 Q. You owed him $4,250, but it was not outstanding? Is that 2946

1 your testimony?
2 A. Well, frankly, I think you could argue that I didn't owe him
3 $4,250, and we -
Mr. Kitchin insisted that I had made part of 4 that money as a fee, and I had expended money on his behalf,
5 so -
6 Q. The form asks for anything over $100. Did you owe him in 7 excess of $100?
8 A. Yes, I believe I owed him more than $100.
9 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, at this time, I would go into 10 a subject area that we, we spoke about legally this morning.
11 THE COURT: All right, why don't you come up for a
12 minute.
13 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, sir.
14 (Bench conference on the record.)
15 THE COURT: Are you talking about the charts you're 16 talking about?
17 MR. O'NEILL: Yes. Sorry, Judge, I don't know how to 18 ever say that.
19 THE COURT: That's fine. You say it right.
20 what's your position on these?
2 MR. WEHNER: I object to the use of the charts for 2 cross examination, and I ask you to just in your mind compare
2 this chart to the charts that we used during our case.
2 THE COURT: That what?
2 MR. WEHNER: Compare these charts to the charts we used

2947

1 during our case in terms of the list of projects that were
Page 1637

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 funded, with absolutely no characterization in terms of what the 3 evidence meant, things like scheduled meetings, putting words in 4 quotes, the graphics, the highlighting of the name Dean, the 5 highlighting of the co-conspirators.
6 I don't think that's a summary, Judge. It's an -- as I
7 said before when we discussed these charts, it's an argument
8 based on the evidence, and that's certainly one fair
9 interpretation --or one interpretation, but it's not the only 10 interpretation.
11 And summaries are used to summarize, not to argue. And 12 frankly, Judge, I don't think it's proper to use a chart like 13 that that is really argument for purposes of cross examination.
14 THE COURT: All right.
15 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, I disagree with Mr. Wehner's
16 characterization that it's argument, and I do believe that we 17 have made every attempt to use neutral language and to summarize 18 the documents in evidence the same way that the charts that were 19 permitted in Williams were prepared. The, the quotes were used 20 when Mr. Wehner objected to our characterization of the 2 documents, and so the quotes were used in an attempt to avoid the 2 need for characterization and to go back to the basic documents.
2 I know Your Honor has reviewed Lemire. and the 2 footnote 32 talks about the type of instruction that would be
2 given to the jury about this exhibit.

2948

1 THE COURT: I'm going to go back and take a break and
2 look at it a little bit and read some of the background of the 3 cases. I've used summary charts in many cases, and I've 4 introduced them in a couple of cases that have been affirmed that 5 discussed the effect of the charts. These charts I'm a little 6 concerned about. I want to look at a couple of things.
7 MR. WEHNER: Can I make one more comment, Judge?
8 THE COURT: Yes.
9 MR. WEHNER: I think it is clearly within your 10 discretion to admit those charts, there's no question about that,
11 and it's not reversible error if you do, but I don't think it's 12 fair to let the jury see those charts over and over and over and 13 over again.
14 THE COURT: I want to take a look at it, though, and 15 look at the case law again. I've just read Lemire over and am
16 familiar with it, but there's a couple other cases I recall I
17 wanted to look at. So I'll take our morning recess, 15 minutes.
18 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, the jury is still there.
19 THE COURT: I know.
20 MR. O'NEILL: I'm sorry.
2 THE COURT: I won't leave them here long.
2 MS. SWEENEY: He was afraid they weren't going to get
2 their coffee.
2 (End of bench conference.)
2 THE COURT: Ladies and Gentlemen, we're going to take our morning recess. It's about 11:00, so we'll take our 15-minute recess this morning and then be back after that and continue with the testimony. So take 15 minutes. Remember the admonition again about not talking about the case.

(Jury out.)
All right.

2 THE COURT: All right, I've got before the

3 Court the application of the Government to introduce

4 summary charts. We didn't give them a number yet but

5 it's in relation to the Government's earlier memorandum

6 submitted to the Court under date of October 1,

7 summarizing the case law in this area, summary charts

8 may be admitted under Federal Rule 106, "where the 9 contents of voluminous writings, recordings or 10 photographs which cannot conveniently be examined in 11 Court may be presented in the form of a chart, summary

12 or calculation."

13 The ruling case law in this Circuit is United 14 States versus Lemire, it's the first case decided
15 basically in this circuit under the Federal Rule, 720
16 Fed. 2d 1327, a 1983 case, and the only subsequent case
17 really is a case called North American Reporting where 18 Judge June Green had denied the request to allow the 19 defendants summary charts, finding that it was not 20 accurate, et cetera, which was affirmed.

21 The Court's going to be guided by the Lemire
22 language and the analysis in there. The Government has 23 pointed the Court to the Williams case in the Sixth 24 Circuit, 752 Fed. 2d, 1504, where certain charts, three 25 charts, I think, were offered summarizing telephone

2951

1 conversations and wiretaps and surveillance tapes and

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 things like that which were admitted.
3 The Court of Appeals did not analyze the rule
4 or discuss the background of other rules that may – the 5 Court should consider in their decision, the sixth
6 Circuit simply said it was a classic visual aid and 7 would aid the jury.
8 The Lemire language that this Court is
9 considering is as follows – and just for the record,
10 the defendant objected to the admission of these charts
11 as prejudicial basically, more prejudicial than 12 probative in their value and to the structure of the 13 charts, the way they're put together with the 14 highlighting of putting words in quotes, like 15 consultant's fees, other words that appear on these 16 charts.
17 The Court had asked the prosecution at an 18 earlier stage, because of its intent to introduce these 19 in their own case, to revise the charts to take out
20 certain language or structure of repetitive meetings et 21 cetera, used in the original charts and the Government
22 has spent some effort in revising the charts in their 23 present form.
24 The charts are, for the record, five in number
25 and are – at least the ones that are presented to the 2952

1 Court, there may be big ones that are blown up,
2 presented to the Court are normal sized paper charts
3 with dates in boxes on them, calendars and a computer
4 printout graphic with the dates reflecting actions that 5 the Government relies upon to prove its case reflecting
6 all exhibits that were admitted into evidence, as I
7 understand it. I don't think there are any exhibits
8 that have not been admitted into evidence that the 9 charts rely upon.
10 Judge Wald has a rather extensive review of 11 the case law in an analysis of the rule in the Lemire
12 case and since it was a case of first impression the 13 Court under rule 106 disavowed the idea that the 14 defendants advanced that they had to be writings not 15 feasible for direct admission into evidence that were so
16 voluminous and she said no, that's not true, and it can 17 be a summary of documents in evidence.
18 In the Lemire case Judge Johnson, the trial
19 Judge, noted that she wasn't able to permit in-Court
20 examination of the documents, each of the documents by 2 the jury and therefore held the chart – one of the 2 reasons why she allowed the chart in was because there
2 were too many documents to let the jury see them all.
2 It would take too much time, even though they were in
2 evidence.

2953

1 There's no question a summary of evidence put 2 to the jury with proper limiting instructions and 3 subjecting the summary witness to voir dire and

4 cross-examination as to the accuracy and the fairness of 5 the charts has been approved as was in Lemire.
6 Lemire involved a rather complex scheme to 7 defraud Raytheon, which took the Court several pages to 8 summarize the background facts of the case. Basically,
9 the Court of Appeals was to decide whether or not the 10 testimony of such a summary witness and the charts would 11 fairly prejudice the defendant, and she said, "It raised
12 more troubling concerns, heightened by the fact
13 acknowledged by Judge Johnson that the non-expert
14 summary evidence was cumulative," which it would be 15 here, "subject to challenge under Rule 403."
16 Some of the obvious dangers proposed by --
17 posed by the summarization of the evidence as set forth
18 by Judge Wald in balancing whether under 403 it's 19 admissible is the danger that the unfair prejudice the 20 evidence creates outweighs the probative value, would be
2 the jury would treat the additional -- these charts as 2 additional evidence or at least as corroborative of the 2 truth of the underlying testimony, that is, it's a
2 guarantee to whatever was testified to or the exhibits
2 as is accurate and did happen, and may give some more

2954

1 import to the evidence or testimony then would normally
2 be taken.
3 That's where the limiting instruction comes,
4 and actually reading Judge Johnson's limiting
5 instruction as reproduced in footnote 32, I found it a
6 little confusing because she stated, "That the testimony
7 in that case and the prepared summaries and charts have 8 been received for the sole purpose of explaining facts
9 disclosed by the books, records, other documents and 10 testimony; in other words, evidence in the case. They 11 are not, in and of themselves, proof of any facts." And 12 that she should disregard totally the charts because 13 they don't correctly reflect the facts and figures shown 14 by the evidence.
15 My understanding was under the Rule they come 16 in as evidence and are taken by the jury back to the 17 jury room and treated as a summary of the evidence in 18 the case before the jury. That is, they would 19 themselves be considered as a summary of the evidence.
20 The jury would look upon them as evidence.
2 There is a document that says Martinez
2 contacts Nunn at Mitchell's business address. I'm not
2 sure otherwise why we would admit them unless they can
2 look at them as a fair summary of the evidence and treat
2 them as such.

2955

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

1 The use of these charts at this time, not due
2 to the fault of the Government, is a little awkward
3 because they were never introduced originally with a 4 voir dire of the witness who summarized these, to see
5 that they're accurate. I'm not sure that's too much of 6 a problem in this case, but normally the witness who 7 prepared these would get on the stand and be subject to 8 cross-examination as to the accuracy of these 9 documents. The problem, I don't think, is the documents
10 aren't accurate as reflected in the Government's Exhibit
11 but that either the layout of the documents, how they're 12 prepared, these charts with their highlighting of the 13 names and quotes around certain words, putting together
14 these various dates of these lunches that were 15 scheduled, et cetera, with the activities, which is the 16 Government's theory of the case, that one followed the 17 other, is more prejudicial than probative of any value
18 of the jury to help them understand a complex case.
19 That's why we would introduce the charts, to help the 20 jury understand a complex case to follow the evidence.
2 There are three conspiracies in this case.
2 The charts reflect sometimes 30, 32, 38 different
2 actions, sometimes more, depending on which chart that
2 the Government says results in the activity at issue.
2 Judge Wald also focused whether or not besides

2956

1 the accuracy of the charts being important is whether
2 there's a danger imposed by summaries of evidence in 3 that they provide an extra summation for the Government
4 that comes from the witness stand rather than from 5 Counsel's lectern and "the distinction between valid
6 summary testimony and argument is not a bright line.
7 The task of organizing testimony can quickly turn into 8 the marshalling of facts to support a particular
9 position." But a summary involving only routine
10 computations and culling through documents, eliminating 11 confusing, extraneous evidence can be useful,
12 obviously.
13 The Court there approved the use of the charts
14 for a summary of the evidence provided by the agent and 15 found that it did not stray from the evidence already 16 presented and that the Court admitted the evidence based 17 upon the findings it made as to need for it and as to a
18 limiting instruction it gave, and after cross-19 examination had eliminated some of the charts. We've

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
20 had some bit of that here in the sense that the charts
2 have been redone. Counsel has had some opportunities to

2 object to where they felt they were inappropriate, et
2 cetera, but still is objecting to them on the grounds
2 basically of the more probative versus prejudicial
2 effect of the evidence balancing test.

2957

1 The Court is going to do as follows in these
2 matters. It's going to disallow the Government's
3 request to use those as summary evidence. It feels,
4 one, the case is not so complex and convoluted that it
5 cannot be within the jury's comprehension to follow it.
6 Two, that this is cumulative of everything that's in 7 evidence obviously, being a summary chart, but the 8 concern the Court has is the prejudicial effect in the 9 way the charts are drafted as is always a concern of the 10 Court.
11 It does not seem to the Court where the 12 Government has these documents, most, I think all, have 13 been reviewed by the jury as in contrast with the Lemire
14 case where Judge Johnson simply found from her statement
15 that the jury was unable to examine all the documents in 16 evidence, there were so many to have been shown to the 17 jury, that she felt obviously in her trial that it was 18 just impossible for the jury to put all these documents
19 together and follow the evidence in the case without the 20 summary offered by the agents in the case and the
2 charts.
2 In this case these documents have been
2 exhibited and seen by the jury in most part. They've
2 been all gone through, and the number of witnesses
2 testifying, while substantial, is not overly great. The 2958

1 principal witnesses really that you have as to these
2 areas were Mr. - as mentioned in these charts is 3 Mr. Nunn, Mr. Brennan, Mr. Shelby, Miss Dean, who is 4 testifying, and I've gone through two of the charts
5 already, and Mr. Sankin, and Mr. Kitchin. Mr. Demery is 6 mentioned in one area of the charts. And that's all.
7 So it's not as if there's 50 witnesses summarized in 8 these charts.
9 what's really summarized basically on the 10 charts is dates and times of meetings that the 11 Government has -their evidence shows from calendars
12 and from notes and from recollections of individuals
13 occurred. I'm not challenging at all in my ruling the 14 accuracy of the Government's notes, what they have here
15 as to the exhibits that have been admitted, but my basic 16 decision is based upon the fact that, one, the 17 arrangements of the charts and how they're done and laid 18 out and, two, the lack of need of having this kind of 19 chart system visavis the possible prejudice to the 20 defendant, having it done this way.
2 The Court under Rule 106 and under 403 finds
2 that it would have more prejudicial than probative value
2 and it's not needed in this case. I don't see it's that
Page 1643

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 complex a matter at all.
2 The charts can be used in closing argument and 2959

1 in any format, blown-up format, whatever format the
2 Government wishes to use in the closing of these charts
3 is appropriate. They certainly can be used as aids in 4 the closing arguments and posted on the board for the 5 jury to see, but as to use in either cross-examination
6 as evidence in the case, admitting them as summaries of 7 the evidence in the case, assuming the agent will 8 testify that they're accurate and reflect accurately the 9 documents that are referred to, the Court does not deem 10 it's necessary under 106 as being so voluminous the jury
11 would be unable to otherwise understand the case without 12 an aid and presentation in this case because the jury
13 couldn't review the underlying documents, and because of 14 the prejudicial effects, the way the chart is drafted, I
15 still think outweighs any probative value it may have.
16 All right. Will you bring the jury in?
17 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, may I be heard for 18 the record?
19 THE COURT: Sure, I thought you had. I'm
20 sorry.
2 MS. SWEENEY: With all due respect, the

2 Government would have a continuing objection to Your
2 Honor's ruling in this matter. We believe that the 2 charts are permissible to organize what's been a
2 voluminous amount of data in a chronological fashion and

2960

1 by count and by project and that is a use that has been
2 recognized in the case law. So, with all due respect,
3 Your Honor, we wish to note our continuing objection to 4 Your Honor's ruling.
5 THE COURT: All right.
6 (Jury present)
7 THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen,
8 thank you for waiting. We took up some legal matters
9 and we're ready to proceed again with the 10 cross-examining of Miss Dean.

11 BY MR. O'NEILL:

12 Q Miss Dean, is it fair to say you were close to 13 John Mitchell?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Am I correct, that you testified on direct 16 examination that he was like a mentor to you and your 17 brother?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Now, where was he living just prior to his death,
20 Ma'am?

2 A My mother allowed him to use a home that she owned
2 in Georgetown on the corner of 30th and M.

2 Q And that's reflected in your official personnel
2 file that's in evidence?

2 A I believe so, yes, that was the address that was 2961

1 underneath -- yes, 1300 30th Street.

2 Q Just so it's clear, Ma'am, I would approach you
3 with Government's Exhibit 256 in evidence.

4 A Yes.

5 Q Now, is it fair to say that aside from your 6 personal relationship with Mr. Mitchell you also had a
7 business relationship with him?

8 A I worked for his company putting together that 9 reception for two or two and a half months.

10 Q Would you tell the ladies and gentlemen of the jury
11 again what you did when you worked for him at Global 12 Research?

13 A Well, there was a party that he and this man,
14 Mr. Spence, were going to have for the new Ambassador to 15 Saudi Arabia named Mr. Newman, and I put together the 16 guest list of people to invite and I called them and 17 told them about the party and followed up on RSVP's and 18 dealt with the hotel where the party was going to be,
19 and that was basically it. It wasn't a fulltime job. I 20 only went in for a couple of hours every day just to 21 work on this project.

22 Q So it was a parttime job, is that fair to say?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And that was just to arrange a party for 25 Mr. Mitchell?

2962

1 A That, and -I
2 can't remember ever doing anything
2 else besides that.

3 Q Do you recall putting in your resume that you were 4 director of public relations for Global Research,
5 International?

6 A Yes.

7 Q That wasn't exactly truthful, was it, Ma'am?

8 A Well, that was sort of a title that I decided was 9 appropriate for what I was doing, but I would say that 10 you could accuse me of a little puffery there, yes.

11 Q Well, more than a little puffery, is that correct?

12 A Well, there were four people in the office, and 13 director of public relations, if I was having a party
14 and doing that, doesn't seem all that off.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
15 Q Let me ask you, were you the director of public
16 relations?
17 A Well, that was the title that Mr. Mitchell said I
18 could use when I made phone calls for him to the hotel
19 and things like that.
20 Q In this parttime job.
2 A Yes.
2 Q Now, is it fair to say that you worked for both
2 John Mitchell and Jack Brennan at that period of time?
2 A Well, I worked for Global Research, but
2 Mr. Mitchell really didn't give me very much to do.

2963

1 Mr. Brennan was the person that sort of gave me the
2 guest list and told me who to call.

3 Q And in your background checks you listed

4 Mr. Brennan as a supervisor, is that correct?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Is it fair to say that there came a point in time
7 when you entered the Department of Energy?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And as you testified on direct examination, Robert 10 Odle was your supervisor?

11 A Yes, he was.

12 Q Now, am I correct that Mr. Odle and John Mitchell
13 were friends and former colleagues?

14 A I know that they were -- yes, I would say that's 15 true. It was a large age difference but they were 16 friends.

17 Q You stated on direct examination that John Mitchell
18 got you your job at the Department of Energy, is that 19 correct?

20 A Yes.

2 Q Now, is it fair to say there came a point in time

2 when you joined the United States Department of Housing
2 and Urban Development?

2 A Yes, that's correct also.

2 Q Isn't it a fact that John Mitchell assisted you in 2964

1 getting that job?

2 A Absolutely not.
3 Q When you started at HUD who was the Executive
4 Assistant to the Secretary?
5 A Lance Wilson.
6 Q And you're familiar with Mr. Wilson, are you not?
7 A Of course, yes.
8 Q Where did he work prior to joining HUD?
9 A I don't -I know that -I don't -he worked for
10 a -- some sort of an association, I believe. I know he 11 had been at Mudge, Rose, Guthrie, Alexander and 12 Mitchell. I know that he knew Mr. Mitchell that way but 13 Mr. Mitchell did not talk to Mr. Wilson about my getting 14 a job there and I think that there was another position
15 that Lance held as general counsel to American Can or 16 something like that before. I think he left the law
17 firm before, but I could be mistaken. I don't really
18 recall.
19 Q Did he work for the law firm of which Mr. Mitchell
20 was a named partner?
2 A Yes, he did.
2 Q Now, is it fair to say that you began employment at 2 HUD in November of 1982?
2 A That's correct.
2 Q Now, prior to becoming Executive Assistant you were

2965

1 both director of the Executive Secretariat and Special
2 Assistant to the Secretary, is that correct?
3 A Yes, that's correct.
4 Q Now, how would you describe what you did as 5 director of the executive Secretariat?
6 A Well, we handled all the correspondence to the 7 Secretary, and to the Department for the Secretary and 8 anything to do with the President's signature, anything
9 to do with HUD. Plus we handled all of the 10 Congressional filings that had to be made, notices to 11 the Federal Register, regulations that had to be routed
12 through the Department. Anything that required more
13 than one office to sign off on it.
14 We -I'm trying to think if there's anything
15 else. That seems about to cover it. I think we looked 16 at all the publications that went out of the Department
17 for review.
18 And I oversaw the -- other operations of the 19 other Executive Secretariats for the other Assistant
20 Secretaries. And the mailroom operation for the whole
2 Department was sort of supervised by my office and there
2 was some supervision to the correspondence activities in 2 the field in the Regional Offices in the field. Mostly 2 correspondence.
2 Q Miss Dean I show you Government's Exhibit 538 for 2966

1 identification and ask you just to review it. You
2 stated you don't remember everything. If that would
3 help you in refreshing your recollection as to generally
4 what your duties were?
5 A well, I think that was not a particularly good

6 answer. That's not a well formed answer.
7 Q Well, is it fair to say -
8 A It is my answer, but it was not a well formed
9 answer when I gave that answer.
10 Q Is it fair to say when you described your position
11 previously you described it in terms of other than as 12 head of the mailroom?
13 A Yes, I have described -- I mean it is - it was a 14 position that had some policy influence but it also 15 basically ran the mailroom.
16 Q And you were both Special Assistant and Director of 17 the Executive Secretariat, is that correct?
18 A Well, that was the way the title was set up. Yes.
19 It was sort of a silly title.
20 Q Now, while you were Executive Secretariat and 2 Special Assistant to the Secretary you testified that 2 John Mitchell once contacted you about HUD business, is
2 that correct?
2 A Be did contact me about that Marbilt situation.
2 Q Is it fair to say that he requested certain

2967

1 information concerning Marbilt from you?
2 A I don't know if he did or not. I know that he sent 3 me that memorandum that was attached to the letter from 4 Governor Nunn to himself and he -I assume that - my
5 memory is that asked me to look into it to see if he had 6 gotten a fair hearing, and so I talked to the person who 7 was in charge of that, which is Mr. Hipps.
8 Q Now, Miss Dean, you previously testified that 9 John Mitchell knew a lot of people at HUD, is that
10 correct?
11 A Yes, I came to know that people had known him.
12 People that were older in the Department that had worked
13 in more than one Administration, a lot of them came up
14 and said to me, yes, I know John Mitchell.
15 Q But he asked you about information on Marbilt, is 16 that correct?
17 A Yes, he did.
18 Q Well, Miss Dean, let me show you what's been - 19 I'll put it on the visual presenter, and it's been 20 marked in evidence as Government's Exhibit 17. I'd ask
2 you to read that note to the jury, please, if you would?
2 A It's to the Honorable John Mitchell, and to his
2 home address. "Dear Dad, here are two memoranda to add
2 to the one supplied by your friend in Florida. I think
2 they explain the story rather well. You can see from

2968

1 the George Hipps memo that the Department tried as best
2 it could to be lenient. Stronger actions might have
3 seemed appropriate to others.
4 One piece of news that might be helpful to
Page 1648

5 Mr. Martinez - apparently, the Regional Office was quite
6 upset by Headquarters' last response to them, saying
7 no. Mr. Martinez has someone fighting in his corner
8 down there. If he appeals again they might prove

9 useful.

10 As you know, I stand behind the decision of 11 the career people in Headquarters. Intervening in an 12 situation like this would be like jogging through
13 quicksand. I think it's time we say adios.
14 This information is now a matter of public 15 record and you may feel free to copy it and share it, if 16 you wish. Love, Deborah."

17 Q Is it fair to say you supplied him with certain
18 memoranda?

19 A Yes, I gave him two memoranda that Mr. Hipps had 20 given me.

2 Q Now, Miss Dean, I believe you testified on direct

2 examination that you had called George Hipps up to your
2 office to talk to him about this?

2 A I know I called Mr. Hipps and I think that he came
2 up later. I didn't - I don't recall asking him to come

2969

1 upstairs because Mr. Hipps -I wouldn't have asked

2 someone to come up to my office in the position I was in 3 there. He would have come up on his own.

4 Q I'd like to show you Government's exhibit 16 which 5 is already in evidence. And I'd ask you, Miss Dean, if 6 you would, to read that to the jury?

7 A It says, "D. Dean, Re: Marbilt, Silvio," and 8 then, "JNM, FYI, love D."

9 Q Now, Miss Dean, do you recognize the handwriting,
10 D. Dean, Re: Marbilt, Silvio?

11 A Yes, I do.

12 Q And whose handwriting is that?

13 A Silvio's.

14 Q DeBartolomeis?

15 A Yes, sir.

16 Q How about JNM, FYI, love D?

17 A That's my handwriting.

18 Q Who are you writing that note to?

19 A Mr. Mitchell.

20 Q What did you request Silvio DeBartolomeis to give 21 you concerning Marbilt?

22 A I didn't request anything from Mr. DeBartolomeis.

23 Q To your knowledge, how was it that Silvio sent you
24 that letter?

25 A Well, I testified the other day that the letter

2970

1 that came back with Mr. Wilson's handwriting on it, that
2 was a memorandum from Mr. Abrams reversing that original
3 decision, was given to me by Mr. DeBartolomeis, and then
4 I passed it on to Mr. Mitchell.

5 Q At this time then I would show you Government's
6 Exhibit 18 and the attachment to Government Exhibit 18.
7 Is that the memorandum you're talking about?

8 A Yes, that would have been attached to the note that 9 you showed me earlier. That is my memo.

10 Q So the note on this one you claim is not the one
11 attached to this memo originally, is that correct?

12 A Yes, sir.

13 Q Now, what does this note say?

14 A It says, "Daddy, FYI."

15 Q And is it on your letterhead?

16 A It's on my notepaper, yes.

17 Q So this is a different communication to 18 John Mitchell?

19 A Yes, I often sent Mr. Mitchell articles that I had 20 written in newspapers, and so there were loads of those.

2 Q And it's your testimony that that's not connected
2 to the memorandum that's attached to it?

2 A No, sir, that is not attached to that. The one
2 that says from Silvio should be attached to that.

2 Q Now, is it fair to say that you sent the 2971

1 information concerning Marbilt to John Mitchell?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Is it also fair to say that he asked you to send 4 him that information?

5 A No, I don't recall that at all. I don't recall
6 having any conversation with Mr. Mitchell about Marbilt
7 after I sent him the original letter that said that I
8 didn't think there was anything that could be done.

9 Q Now, you mentioned in your letter to Mr. Mitchell
10 his client Art Martinez, is that fair to say?

11 A No, I did not. I mentioned Mr. Martinez. I never 12 thought Mr. Mitchell had Mr. Martinez as a client.

13 Q Let me direct your attention back to Government's 14 Exhibit 17. Did you mention Mr. Martinez in that?

15 A As I said, I mentioned Mr. Martinez. I did not 16 mention Mr. Martinez as being a client of Mr. Mitchell
17 because that was not my understanding.

18 Q Was it your understanding that he was a friend?

19 A My understanding was that Mr. Nunn had a client, 20 Mr. Martinez, and that Mr. Nunn was a friend of 21 Mr. Mitchell and that Mr. Mitchell was interceding for 22 Mr. Nunn.

23 Q Isn't it true he was interceding as a consultant?

24 A Mr. O'Neill, I said over and over again that I had 25 no information about that and I don't have any 2972

1 information about that. When Mr. Nunn says my client,
2 and Mr. Nunn is an attorney, I was very well aware of 3 the fact that Mr. Mitchell could not practice law, and I
4 would not have imagined they would have had any other
5 relationship. And that certainly isn't the way
6 Mr. Mitchell put it to me. Mr. Mitchell put it to me

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
7 that he was interceding for a friend, Mr. Nunn.
8 Q Ma'am, do you recall stating that – on direct 9 examination that you didn't meet Mr. Nunn until after 10 you had left HUD?
11 A That is correct.
12 Q well, then, how did Mr. Nunn put it to you that 13 John Mitchell was interceding not in any consultant
14 capacity?
15 MR. WEHNER: Objection, Your Honor, that's a 16 complete misstatement.
17 THE COURT: I'll sustain the objection.
18 BY MR. O'NEILL:
19 Q when did you have this conversation with Mr. Nunn?
20 MR. WEHNER: Objection.
2 THE COURT: I take it that she talked to
2 Mr. Mitchell about that?
2 MR. O'NEILL: If we could have the answer read
2 back?
2 THE COURT: why don't you come up here to make 2973

1 sure we're looking at the right part?

2 (Bench conference)

3 THE COURT: I think you're both right.

4 would you read that, and start a little early

5 before that.

6 THE COURT REPORTER: "Question: Was it your

7 understanding that he was a friend?"

8 "Answer: My understanding was that Mr Nunn

9 had a client, Mr. Martinez, and that Mr. Nunn was a

10 friend of Mr. Mitchell and that Mr. Mitchell was 11 interceding for Mr. Nunn."

12 "Question: Isn't it true he was interceding
13 as a a consultant?"

14 "Answer: Mr. O'Neill, I said over and over 15 again that I had no information about that and I don't 16 have any information about that. When Mr. Nunn said my 17 client, and Mr. Nunn is an attorney, I was very well
18 aware of the fact that Mr. Mitchell could not practice
19 law and I would not have imagined they would have had 20 any other relationship, and that certainly isn't the way
2 Mr. Mitchell put it to me."

2 THE COURT: she did say when Mr. Nunn had a
2 client I think that's in fairness referring – you can

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 ask her that, but she also said earlier before, Mitchell
2 told her.

2974

1 MR. WEHNER: Just so the record reflects it,
2 there's a Government's Exhibit in evidence in which 3 Mr. Nunn refers to Mr. Martinez as his client in 4 correspondence to Mr. Mitchell.
5 THE COURT: I think you can ask her that as 6 opposed to saying didn't you testify he told you, et 7 cetera.
8 MR. O'NEILL: All right.
9 (Bench conference concluded)
10 THE COURT: All right, I think we cleared up
11 the confusion. We can go ahead now.
12 MR. O'NEILL: Thank you, Your Honor.
13 BY MR. O'NEILL:
14 Q Miss Dean, did you say that Mr. Nunn told you that 15 Mr. Martinez was a client?
16 A No. If I could clear that up for you. The
17 letter -
18 Q You'll have plenty of time, Ma'am.
19 A Sorry.
20 Q We'll get to that.
2 Now, you were Executive Assistant to the 2 Secretary, is that true?
2 A Yes, I was Executive Assistant to the Secretary.
2 Q And when you became Executive Assistant to the 2 Secretary you became involved in the Moderate

2975

1 Rehabilitation program, is that correct?
2 A Yes, at the time of the Puerto Rico problem.
3 Q Now, John Mitchell was interested in the Mod Rehab
4 program, isn't that correct?
5 A Not to my knowledge.
6 Q Isn't it a fact, Ma'am, you had discussions with 7 John Mitchell concerning the Mod Rehab program when you
8 became Executive Assistant to the Secretary?
9 A No, I did not.
10 Q Is it fair to say that he asked you specific 11 questions about the Mod Rehab program?
12 A No, he did not.
13 Q Is it also fair to say that Mr. Mitchell asked you
14 for a specific number of units going to Miami?
15 A No, he did not.
16 Q And did he ask you about Arama?
17 A He asked me for Governor Nunn to check on when the 18 units for Arama would be going to Metro-Dade.
19 Q Miss Dean, let me show on the visual presenter
20 Government Exhibit 27. And can you read that out loud
2 to the jury, please?
2 A "Dear Governor Nunn: This will confirm my recent
2 telephone conversation with General Mitchell concerning
2 the Arama Partnership request to HUD for additional Mod
2 Rehab units. The Department is now in the process of 2976

1 completing the papers for the 293 units to the Public
Page 1652

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 Housing Authority in Florida. Let me assure you that
3 all the necessary paperwork for the units will be
4 transmitted by the end of this week and that Arama
5 Partnership will definitely receive those units from 6 HUD. I hope that the additional units will make the 7 partnership a viable venture. Please keep in touch.
8 With best wishes. Very sincerely yours, Deborah Gore
9 Dean."
10 Q Do you know who is the SW, with two slashes on it?
11 A Yes, that would have been Mrs. Hawkins* way of 12 saying that I signed that letter.
13 Q And I now show you Government Exhibit 28. Is it
14 fair to say this is the same letter with your signature
15 on it?
16 A Yes, it is.
17 Q Now, Miss Dean, in this letter is it fair to say 18 that you reference a telephone conversation with 19 General Mitchell?
20 A Yes, Mr. Mitchell called me and asked me to please
2 check into finding out when the units would be going
2 down to the Housing Authority, and I did that.
2 Q Now, do you assure Mr. Mitchell - Mr. Nunn, excuse
2 me, in this letter that they will receive 293 units?
2 Excuse me, let me withdraw that. Do you assure him that

2977

1 all the necessary paperwork will be done and the units
2 will go down to the local Public Housing Authority?
3 A Yes, because that's what Mr. Barksdale told me.
4 Q And you also write that the Arama Partnership will 5 definitely receive those units from HUD?
6 A Yes, I did.
7 Q And is it your testimony that that's what
8 Mr. Barksdale did?
9 A Yes, it, is and he referred to it as Arama. I
10 referred to it as Arama and he referred to it as Arama,
11 and frankly I didn't know enough about the regulation of 12 the Mod Rehab program to know that that was not the 13 proper way to state what it was that Mr. Nunn wanted to 14 hear.
15 Q So this was not the proper way to state it, is that
16 correct?
17 A That's correct.
18 Q Now, when you talk about you'll definitely receive 19 these units from HUD you're saying that information came 20 from Maurice Barksdale.
2 A Yes, it did.
2 Q Now, is it fair to say the rapid reply documents,
2 the first funding documents, had not even been signed as
2 of July 5th, 1984?
2 A Yes, the rapid reply that you've had in this trial

2978

1 was signed later than this. But this was the 2 information Mr. Barksdale gave me and that's what I
3 wrote down and sent to Mr. Nunn.
4 Q This is the same Maurice Barksdale that's testified
5 at this trial, correct, Ma'am?
6 A Yes.
7 Q And is this the same Maurice Barksdale that 8 Secretary Pierce, you stated, had a lot of faith in?
9 A Yes, I think from everything that Secretary Pierce
10 ever told me that he liked Maurice Barksdale very much.
11 Q And he did not oversee Mr. Barksdale's awarding

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
12 units, you testified, isn't that correct?
13 A Mr. Barksdale funded the Moderate Rehabilitation
14 program, to the best of my knowledge, without a lot of 15 interaction from Secretary Pierce. Secretary Pierce did 16 offer him, you know, projects to be considered, and we 17 saw several evidences of that, but for the most part
18 Mr. Barksdale was in charge because I think I told you
19 Secretary Pierce was quite surprised when Mr. Barksdale
20 sent most of the fiscal year '85 money out before he
2 left and so I know Secretary Pierce, if he had -- if he
2 was surprised by that, could not have had a lot of 2 interaction with Mr. Barksdale on the program.
2 Q In this letter do you reference anything that
2 Mr. Barksdale told you?

2979

1 A No, I didn't.
2 Q There's nothing in this letter to indicate that
3 Maurice Barksdale told you that information?
4 A No, there's nothing in the letter that indicates
5 that, no.
6 Q Now, I direct your attention to the next paragraph
7 after the reference to the 293 units. Is it fair to say
8 that you write there, "I hope that the additional units
9 will make the partnership a viable venture. Please keep 10 in touch?"
11 A Yes.
12 Q What partnership are you referring to, Ma'am?
13 A The Arama partnership, I suppose. The Arama
14 partnership.
15 Q Who are you referring to at that time?
16 A I don't know. It was a pleasantry. I didn't mean
17 anything by it.
18 Q Isn't it a fact you meant the association of 19 Governor Louie Nunn and John Mitchell?
20 A No, because I didn't know there was an association
2 between Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Nunn other than -2
Q Miss Dean, were you at a party held at Global
2 Research, a reception in which you invited Silvio
2 DeBartolomeis prior to this time?
2 A No, Global, Research, International never had a

2980

1 party and I never heard of a party that they ever had 2 other than the one I planned for Mr. Newman. That 3 wasn't at Global. And if you would have seen Global
4 Research, International you would realize that wasn't
5 the place to have a party. It was two or three little 6 offices and they never had parties and, no, I never took 7 Mr. DeBartolomeis to a party there.
8 Q Isn't it true that Global Research had a suite of 9 offices with an anteroom in the middle where a secretary
10 worked out of, that adjoined all the intervening
11 suites? Some of them were Global Research's?
12 A No, not at that time. When it was at 2828
13 Pennsylvania it was a hallway that came down, and 14 Mr. - the other man there, I can't remember, Tully's
15 office was here, Mr. Mitchell's office, Mr. Brennan's
16 office. There was a small little office over here where 17 there was a man named Mr. Thibeau. My desk was right
18 out in the middle. And I think there was a parttime
19 receptionist that worked over here that also answered

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
20 their phones, but there was no place to have anything in 2 the center there. It was just the end of a hallway.
2 Q So, Miss Dean, was Silvio DeBartolomeis lying when
2 he said he went to a party with you at Global Research?
2 A Yes, he was.
2 Q Miss Dean, just so the record is clear, at the time

2981

1 you write this letter to Mr. Nunn, do you know that he's
2 the ex-Governor of Kentucky, is that correct?
3 A Yes, I believe Mr. Mitchell told he me that.
4 Q And you had not met him at that time?
5 A No.
6 Q In fact, you did not meet him until after you left
7 HUD?
8 A Well, he said that he might have met me at Lance
9 Wilson's goodbye party, and that might have happened,
10 but I don't recall meeting him there. I don't want to 11 say that -I
12 don't want you to ask me if he was lying.
13 I don't remember meeting Governor Nunn until much later.
13 Q By the way, Miss Dean, on Government's Exhibit 28,
14 that's addressed to Governor Louie Nunn, where do you
15 send that letter?
16 A I send it to Global Research, International.
17 Q And this was in July of 1984?
18 A Yes.
19 Q You had worked there approximately two years
20 previously, is that correct?
21 A Yes.
22 Q So there is no doubt at that time that you knew
23 Global Research was a business of John Mitchell's and 24 Jack Brennan's, is that fair to say?
25 A I knew it was business of Mr. Mitchell. I did not

2982

1 know what Mr. Brennan's exact relationship was to the
2 business.
3 Q Now, how did you send that letter to Mr. Mitchell,
4 Ma'am? Did you drop it off?
5 A No.
6 Q How did you send it, do you recall?
7 A I probably put it in the mail.
8 Q Now, I show you Government's Exhibit 29 which is 9 already in evidence and I believe you heard some 10 testimony about that, and that's a letter from Louie
11 Nunn to Art Martinez dated July 6, 1984, correct?
12 A Yes.
13 Q And in the first paragraph it says, "There has been 14 read to me from my Washington office a letter signed by 15 the Assistant Secretary of HUD. The letter confirms 16 approval of the above named project and the 293 units.
17 Final paperwork will be completed today or no later than 18 Monday." Do you see that?
19 A Yes.
20 Q Isn't it true, Miss Dean, that that July 5th letter
2 that you wrote to John Mitchell was hand delivered to
2 Mr. Mitchell?
2 A No, if you would allow everyone to read the second
2 paragraph of that letter you'd see that there's plenty
2 of information in that letter that did not come from the 2983

1 letter that I sent. I mean Mr. Nunn is assuring that it
2 was going to go down to the Atlanta office within the 3 next three days, that the Atlanta office assures me that 4 it will then be forwarded. That didn't come out of the 5 letter that I sent Mr. Mitchell -I mean Mr. Nunn.

6 Q Miss Dean, let's go back to Exhibit 28 and let me
7 ask you, when you used the phrase let me assure you that
8 all the necessary paperwork for the units will be
9 transmitted by the end of the week, that the Arama
10 partnership will definitely receive these units from
11 HUD -

12 A Yes, and this was on a Thursday. So the end of the 13 week was the next day, which would have been Thursday or 14 Friday, and certainly I couldn't have known that unless 15 Mr. Barksdale had told me that.

16 Q Or unless you were involved in it, correct, Ma'am?

17 A Yes, that's right. If I was involved in it I might 18 have known.

19 Q Now, Miss Dean, in that letter you talk about your 20 assurance of 293 units going to the Arama partnership,
2 is that correct?

2 A Well, yes, yes, it unfortunately is phrased that
2 way.

2 Q And at that time you knew that Governor Louie Nunn
2 had a client, Mr. Martinez, correct?

2984

1 A Yes, I did.

2 Q And you knew that Governor Louie Nunn was an 3 attorney, correct?

4 A That is correct.

5 Q Did you think -- well, let me withdraw that.

6 A I did not know at this time that -- well, I don't 7 know anything about Mr. Louie Nunn's representations of 8 Mr. Martinez other than the Marbilt situation and I know
9 that Mr. Mitchell asked me to check into Arama.

10 Q Now -11

A And I don't know what Arama was or who owned Arama
12 or anything like that.

13 Q Is it fair to say, Ma'am, that you knew at this 14 time John Mitchell was a consultant-lobbyist?

15 A No, no, I never knew that.

16 Q Even though you had worked for Global Research as 17 director of public relations?

18 A When I worked for Global Research no one ever said
19 anything about HUD the whole time I was there. I never 20 heard the word HUD the entire time that I ever was at 2 Global Research.

2 Q Aside from the word HUD, Ma'am, did you know that
2 John Mitchell was a consultant working on projects,
2 selling certain influence for certain customers?

2 A I - no, I never knew anything like that. I knew

2985

1 that he worked on armored cars.

2 Q What was he doing in relation to the armored cars?

3 Wasn't he marketing it around the world to various

4 dignitaries?

5 A I believe so, yes.

6 Q And how was acting as a consultant on behalf of the 7 armored cars?

8 A I wouldn't know. I'm getting a little confused as 9 to what we call consultants these days. I know he had a 10 business arrangement with Hess & Eisenhardt Cars and if 11 he could sell a car he got a percentage of the car deal, 12 a percentage of the money. I don't know if you would 13 call that a consultant. I'd call it a broker.

14 Q While you were working at Global Research were you
15 aware of his other clients?

16 A No.

17 Q Were you aware of a military uniform deal that he
18 was putting together at that time?

19 A I think that came afterward and I know about that 20 only from Mr. Mitchell telling me about it many years
2 later. I don't know when it started or how it happened

2 or anything else.

2 Q Now, Miss Dean, I would show you, and I'll put on
2 the visual presenter, Government's Exhibit 30 and I'd
2 ask you if you recognize this to be the rapid reply

2986

1 document signed by Maurice Barksdale and Janet Hale for 2 293 units to Metro-Dade?

3 A Yes, sir.

4 Q And I would direct your attention to the request of 5 special service letter on the back, do you see that,
6 Ma'am?

7 A Yes, that would have been delivered by a courier.

8 Q And you had that courier deliver that rapid reply
9 document to the Arama partnership at Global Research, is 10 that correct?

11 A Yes, I did.

12 Q You had a HUD messenger deliver that?

13 A We don't have HUD messengers.

14 Q You had a courier then do it?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And did you pay for that out of your own pocket?

17 A No.

18 Q Isn't it true, Ma'am, you had this sent to 19 John Mitchell -- to Louie Nunn at Arama because they 20 requested that it be sent there? You didn't do this on 2 your own, did you?

2 A I know that Maurice Barksdale walked it up to my

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 office and gave to it me and I had it sent over to the 2 office of Mr. Nunn.
2 Q You heard Mr. Barksdale deny any involvement in the Arama project other than signing it?

2 A I heard him say he didn't remember.
3 Q Was he lying?
4 A That he didn't remember? How -
5 Q Yes, was he lying?
6 A That he doesn't remember? I don't - how could I
7 say such a thing?
8 Q You're sure you had no involvement in Arama other
9 than sending this to Global Research, is that correct?
10 A I'm absolutely positive.
11 Q And what was the date on that rapid reply, do you
12 recall?
13 A No, I don't.
14 Q Would it refresh your recollection if I told you -15
I'll wait for the visual presenter. Is it fair to say
16 that it was signed by Maurice Barksdale on July 16, 17 1984 ?
18 A Yes. And I'm also certain that if I had asked
19 Mr. Barksdale to sign a rapid reply for me several days
20 after I became Executive Assistant he would have
2 remembered that.
2 Q And is it also fair to say, Ma'am, that the request
2 for special services is dated July 18, the day before -
2 two days later?
2 A I said I had it sent as - when Mr. Barksdale gave

2988

1 it to me. That's all I know.
2 Q Did Mr. Barksdale tell you to send it to them by 3 special courier?
4 A No, I don't imagine he would have. I just remember
5 him coming up and giving to it me. I don't remember him
6 saying anything like that.
7 Q Why did he give you the rapid reply letter?
8 A Probably because I had asked him about it earlier.
9 Q Now, was Mr. Mitchell interested in this rapid rely
10 document?
11 A Not that I can recall. The only - I only remember 12 him calling me and asking me this information for 13 Governor Nunn and asking me would I write a letter.
14 Otherwise I just would have made the phone call and 15 called him back, but he asked me for a letter, and so I
16 typed something out and obviously I did not use the 17 correct terminology because I wasn't familiar enough
18 with the program to know the correct terminology.
19 Q You keep saying you weren't familiar with the 20 program. Is that based on the fact that you had only
2 been an Executive Assistant for a little under a month?
2 A Yes.
2 Q And prior to that time you had been a Special
2 Assistant to the Secretary, correct?
2 A I had been the Director of the Executive 2989

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

1 Secretariat and Special Assistant with the
2 specializations of Budget and Fair Housing and I didn't
3 have any knowledge of the Mod Rehab program.
4 Q Now, Miss Dean, it's your testimony that
5 John Mitchell never told you that he was being paid as a
6 consultant on the Arama project, is that correct?
7 A He never told me he was being paid by anybody
8 having anything to do with HUD.
9 Q And is it your testimony that you felt he was doing
10 that as a friend of Governor Nunn?
11 A Yes, I -- he put it to me that way. That is 12 exactly the way he put it to me. He said that Governor
13 Nunn was having a hard time getting any response out of 14 HUD and would I please look into it and make certain 15 that he got a fair shake.
16 Q You now know. Ma'am, that -- am I not correct, that 17 Mr. Mitchell was paid as a consultant on the Arama
18 project?
19 A Yes, I now know that.
20 Q You now know, am I not correct, that he was paid
2 $75,000?
2 A Yes, I believe I -- yes, that was in the 1.6. Audit
2 report.
2 Q So is it your testimony that Mr. Mitchell lied to 2 you about his involvement in Arama, saying that he was 2990

1 just acting as a friend of Mr. Nunn?
2 A Yes, he lied.
3 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, that might be a good
4 point to break.
5 THE COURT: All right, fine. Thank you, sir.
6 All right. We're going to take our luncheon
7 recess. We'll be back at 1:30 and ready to go until 8 about three this afternoon and we have to break then for 9 the swearing of the U.S. Attorney. We'll be back at 10 that time. Remember the admonition, don't talk about 1 this case during the recess among yourselves or with 1 anybody else at all. See you back at 1:30.

AFTERNOON SESSION

2 (1:40 p.m.)
3 (Defendant present, Jury out.)
4 THE COURT: I took the liberty of advising counsel
5 through my deputy courtroom clerk of the defendant to release his 6 witness this afternoon. I assume that was not premature.
7 MR. O'NEILL: I don't think so, Your Honor. I believe
8 it will be all day.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
9 THE COURT: Yes, I would think so. All right, that's 10 fine. Ms. Dean was on the stand a long time on direct, so I'm 11 not rushing you.
12 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, before the jury is brought 13 in -
14 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am?
15 MS. SWEENEY: -
I was wondering if we might address
16 the topic of the jury instructions again. Yesterday the Court
17 indicated that it was conceivable that we'd have a draft.
18 THE COURT: I don't know yet. I just talked to my 19 clerk. I just sat at lunch and reviewed them again and made some 20 changes that when I get them back I'll have to look at and see 21 how they look. I will see.
22 MS. SWEENEY: Okay. At this point, Your Honor, we do
23 have some objections to the defendant's jury instructions -
24 THE COURT: All right.
25 MS. SWEENEY: -
that we'll hand up on a preliminary

2992

basis.

2 THE COURT: That's fine. I appreciate that. That's 3 fine, thank you. I'll keep these separate.
4 All right, you can bring the jury in.
5 (Jury in.)
6 THE COURT: All right, Ladies and Gentlemen, we're
7 getting ready to resume now. We'll sit, as I said before, to in 8 the 3:00 range, and I have to recess then for the day.
9 MR. O'NEILL: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 DEBORAH GORE DEAN, DEFENDANT'S WITNESS, RESUMED
11 CROSS EXAMINATION (Cont'd.)
12 BY MR. O'NEILL:
13 Q. Ms. Dean, do you recall testifying just before we broke 14 about not knowing whether Mr. Mitchell was a consultant?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. Let me ask you, do you recall sending a resume and a
17 qualification statement to the White House in September of 1982?
18 And just for the record, it's Government's Exhibit 539 for
19 identification.
20 A. Well, this would have gone from -- this would have been from 21 the White House to Mr. Wilson concerning me.
22 Q. And I'd ask, did you fill out that statement there?
23 A. I believe so, yeah.
24 Q. And do you recall whether you said that Mr. Mitchell was an 25 international consultant?

1 A. An international consultant, yes.
2 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, you stated as of July 5, 1984, you didn't
3 know anything about the Mod Rehab Program; is that correct?
4 A. I didn't know the ins and outs of the program, no.
5 Q. Let me show you what's been entered into evidence as 6 Government's Exhibit 31A, and I'd ask you, if you could, to read
7 the body of this letter to the Ladies and Gentlemen of the Jury.
8 A. Okay. "Dear Mr. --"
9 Q. Well, we can go past the name.
10 A. "Thank you for the August 1, 1984 correspondence on behalf
11 of the Puerto Rico Housing Finance Corporation, Old San Juan
12 Rental Group Corporation and Santurce Rental Group Corporation,

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
13 regarding previously approved units under the Section 8 Moderate
14 Rehabilitation Program.
15 "As you know, HUD does not allocate Section 8 moderate
16 rehabilitation funds on a project specific basis. HUD honored
17 the PRHFC's request for 610 units and 284 units of Section 8
18 moderate rehabilitation funds because of the demonstrated need
19 for additional safe and decent and affordable housing in Puerto 20 Rico. Letters from the Puerto Rico Housing Finance Corporation
2 dated September 16, 1983, and May 8, 1984, indicated their
2 endorsement and selection of the specific properties identified
2 therein. Because of the requests of September 16, 1983, and 2 May 8, 1984, HUD subsequently allocated 894 units to them.
2 "Funds were allocated to our Puerto Rico office based 2994

1 on the applications submitted. The Puerto Rico Housing Finance
2 Corporation has been asked to continue working with the HUD
3 Caribbean office regarding implementation of this funding.
4 "Very sincerely yours, Samuel R. Pierce, Jr."
5 Q. Ms. Dean, is that dated August 15, 1984?
6 A. Yes, it is.
7 Q. Ms. Dean, I'd direct your attention to the bottom left-hand
8 corner of that document.
9 A. Yeah. That is the document that I testified earlier that I

10 drafted with the help of Mr. Barksdale.
11 Q. And you authorized the use of the Autopen on this document?
12 A. The original one was signed by Secretary Pierce the day
13 before. We showed those, I believe, the last day of the direct.
14 One was Autopenned, and one was the next day.
15 Q. Ms. Dean, is it fair to say that as of August '84, you were 16 familiar with the ins and outs of the Mod Rehab Program?
17 A. Well, I was becoming -- certainly what I said when the 18 Puerto Rico thing happened is when I had my first experience with 19 the Mod Rehab Program, and the body of that letter is, as I'm 20 sure you recognize, is one that's in almost every HUD letter that 2 goes out about moderate rehabilitation, and the other parts were

2 in an effort to clean up the problems that arose out of the 2 threat of the lawsuit from Mr. Strauss, and Mr. Barksdale and I
2 sat and drafted that letter in my office.
2 Q. Is there any indication on that letter that Mr. Barksdale

2995

1 had anything to do with that letter?
2 A. There may be on the one that was previous to it. I mean, I
3 just, I just copied the one that had been done for the day
4 before.
5 Q. Ms. Dean, let's talk about Jack Brennan, or Colonel Jack
6 Brennan. Now we've established, I believe, that you knew him
7 before you began working at HUD; is that correct?
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. Now you've stated that you're not quite sure of the 10 relationship between Mr. Mitchell and Jack Brennan, but is it

11 fair to say that they were in business together?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And he was your supervisor while you were at Global; is that
14 correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And you used him as a reference at times?

17 A. I believe I, I used him as my supervisor for that position.

18 I don't think I ever said anyone should call him or anything like 19 that but --

20 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, you have testified, have you not, that Jack
2 Brennan came to see you concerning the South Florida I project?

2 A. Yes.

2 Q. Now at that time, is it fair to say that you knew he was not
2 representing the PHA?

2 A. I didn't think he was representing anybody.

2996

1 Q. Well, you had a conversation with him at that time, did you
2 not, ma'am?

3 A. Yes, I did.

4 Q. And did he ask for a particular number of units to go to a
5 particular location?

6 A. I don't remember a particular number of units. I do
7 remember he said that Governor Nunn had asked him to drop off
8 these documents and that he was working in Metro Dade, and then
9 he went into sort of a -- he went off the subject a little bit

10 and was talking about how he was having problems with another
11 consultant trying to get his client or something along those 12 lines, and I remember the name Russell Cartwright.
13 But then again, at that time, Russell Cartwright might 14 have still been working for Senator Hawkins, and my memory is 15 fuzzy on that, because I didn't consider the conversation to be 16 that important.

17 Mr. Brennan gave me the documents. There was nothing
18 to discuss with Secretary Pierce. I wrote "Send to Housing" and 19 put them in my "out" box.

20 Q. Now you've just testified that Mr. Brennan stated in his
2 conversation something about another consultant; is that correct?

2 A. He said something about some consultant was trying to get
2 the developer away or there was another consultant working with 2 the developer. I'm not certain.

2 Q. Did he mention to you that he was acting as a consultant?

2997

1 A. No, but he said that the person was a client of Mr. Nunn.

2 Q. Did he mention why it was he that was dropping this off to 3 you and not Mr. Nunn?

4 A. No, not -- he might have. I just don't, I don't recall.

5 Q. Did he mention why he came to see you as opposed to someone
6 else in HUD?

7 A. No. I assume it was because he knew me. But I also know
8 that on the letter, the Mr. Martinez letter, it says "October, 9 meet new guy," and I've always assumed that the new guy coming in 10 was Mr. Demery, who was coming in in October, so he might very 11 well have gone to see the new guy in October as well.

12 Q. We'll get to that, Ms. Dean.
13 Now did you ever tell Mr. Brennan that you could not 14 get involved in this because Jack Brennan had been your previous 15 supervisor at Global Research?
16 A. No. I just didn't do anything with it. I just sent it
17 through the system.
18 Q. Did you ever tell him that he needs to speak to Sam Pierce
19 if he wants units to be sent to a PHA?
20 A. He didn't ask me for units. He just dropped the stuff off.
2 And so I just sent it through the system, through the normal

2 system.
2 If it had come back up through the system and I had
2 associated that project with Mr. Nunn or anything else, I would
2 have discussed with the secretary something about it if I had known it.

2998

2 Q. Ms. Dean, at this time, I'll put on the visual presenter a
3 letter dated May 21, 1986, and the second page, I direct your 4 attention to the cc: Colonel Jack Brennan, and then it's 5 misspelled, with enclosure.
6 A. Um-hum.
7 Q. Is that the document that Colonel Brennan brought with him
8 when he came to see you?
9 A. Yes, I assume it was, because I found it in my HUD files. I

10 did not send that down to Housing, though. That was just put 11 into my files. Anything anyone brought me was automatically put 12 into the files, even if it was unimportant.
13 Q. Is this letter from Art Martinez?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. And is this the same Art Martinez that was mentioned on the 16 Arama project in the letters and correspondence between Mr. Nunn
17 and Mr. Mitchell?
18 A. No, the only time that I saw Mr. Martinez's name mentioned 19 was during Marbilt, and I'm not certain I would have associated 20 that several years later when Mr. Brennan was talking to me. I
21 did remember the name Louie Nunn. I don't remember him referring 22 to Mr. Martinez.
23 Q. Is it fair to say in this letter - and I'll direct your 24 attention to the third full paragraph, Is it fair to say that 25 they're requesting 219 units?

2999

1 A. Yes.
2 Q. And do they give the breakdown of the bedrooms, being --
3 A. Yes, they do, um-hum.
4 Q. Is it fair to say 24 efficiencies, 153 one bedrooms, 42 two

5 bedrooms?

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

6 A. Yes, but I don't ever remember reading that letter.

7 Q. You did receive it, though, did you not, ma'am?

8 A. It was one of the things that Mr. Brennan brought by, and as 9 I said, I stuck it in my "out" box.

10 Q. Do you recall the other things that Mr. Brennan brought by?

11 A. It was a letter from the housing authority, and I sent that 12 down to Housing.

13 Q. Now I direct your attention to the final full paragraph.

14 I'd ask you to read that to the jury, if you would, ma'am.

15 A. "As soon as you know that the approval has left Washington,

16 please contact me, for as you know, we must then stay on top of 17 it to make sure it gets to Jacksonville so that Dade HUD may send 18 this application up there."

19 Q. Did Mr. Brennan ask you about giving him the notification as 20 to when the units would be funded?

21 A. No.

2 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, I would show you what's previously been

2 entered as Government's Exhibit 41, and I'd ask you is this the

2 letter from the local housing authority, is this the letter from

2 the local housing authority that Mr. Brennan brought to your office on that date?

3000

A. Yes.

3 Q. I would direct your attention to the handwriting in the 4 upper right-hand corner.

5 A. It says "Sent to Housing," and that's my handwriting.

6 Q. And, Ms. Dean, is this signed by Melvin J. Adams, director

7 of HUD?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. What do they mean, HUD?

10 A. They mean the housing authority in Metro Dade.

11 Q. And is this a routing slip that is now evident before the 12 jury on the visual presenter?

13 A. With the exception of the thing on the top. I don't --

14 that, it seems to me the one that I saw says "Paulette." Can you

15 bring it down a bit?

16 Q. There you go.

17 A. The part where it says "Betty" and that whatever, "SSI,"

18 whatever, I've not seen that before. But the one that's in my

19 files says "Paulette," and then "Deborah asked me to forward this

20 to Housing. Please send to the appropriate housing. Thanks,

21 Sherrill."

22 Q. And that's Sherrill Nettles?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And in this routing slip that was sent to Housing is this

25 letter from Louie -- from Art Martinez to Louie Nunn, dated

1 May 2, 1986, correct?

2 A. No.

3 Q. That was not connected with this routing slip?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Okay. Now is it your testimony this was all separately

6 sent?

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
7 A. Yes. The -- well, I've never seen the upper attachment to 8 that, either.
9 Q. Now, Ms. Dean --

10 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I think there's a 11 mischaracterization of the testimony. I believe the testimony
12 was --

13 THE COURT: I don't think she's testified to anything.

14 I think you mean the government's question.

15 MR. WEHNER: The question mischaracterized prior
16 testimony.

17 THE COURT: Let me hear what you've got.

18 (Bench conference on the record.)

19 THE COURT: what's the problem?

20 MR. WEHNER: I think we're talking about these two

2 exhibits, Judge, and Ms. Dean's testimony was that this
2 exhibit --

2 MR. O'NEILL: That's part of the exhibit, yeah.

2 MR. WEHNER: -- was attached to the routing slip and

2 that this exhibit wasn't. That's my recollection --

3002

1 THE COURT: That's what she said.

2 MR. O'NEILL I think that's what she said, yeah.

3 MR. WEHNER: But your last question said they were both
4 sent

5 MR. O'NEILL I asked whether they were both sent, I
6 believe.

7 MR. WEHNER: Yeah.

8 THE COURT: He asked if they were both sent.

9 MR. O'NEILL And she said no.

10 1 THE COURT: She said no. She said she hadn't seen some 11 cover slip that the government has, but she's essentially saying
12 no.

13 MR. WEHNER: So you were just -14

MR. O'NEILL : I was asking whether wouldn't it be true
15 that both were sent, and she said no.

16 THE COURT: That's fine.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

17 (End of bench conference.)

18 THE COURT: All right, we can go ahead again.

19 MR. O'NEILL : Thank you, Your Honor.

20 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, you mentioned before, "October, meet new 21 guy, 1 on the 1 top of the piece of paper.

22 A. Urn-hum.

23 Q. Do you see that <3n this letter dated May 21, 1986, from 24 Mr. J^rt Martinez?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And do you know whose handwriting that is?

2 A. No, I don't.

3 Q. Now is it fair to say, Ms. Dean, that you knew at that time
4 that Jack Brennan likewise was a consultant?

5 A. No.

6 Q. You did not know that he was a consultant?

7 A. No, I did not.

8 Q. And did you know that Jack Brennan was being paid as a
9 consultant on that project?

10 A. No, I did not.

11 Q. Did he tell you that he was being paid as a consultant on 12 South Florida I?

13 A. No. And when I confronted him later about John's being 14 paid, he didn't tell me then, either.

15 Q. So he lied to you, ma'am?

16 A. He did not tell me.

17 Q. So he deliberately withheld that information from you,

18 ma' am?

19 A. He did not tell me.

20 Q. At this time, Ms. Dean, I'd show you what's in Government's

21 Exhibit 42A and 42A-1 already in evidence, and do you recall
22 seeing 42A, which is a typewritten statement with attached

23 numbers from Susan Zagame to Ross Kumagai dated September 12, 24 1986?

25 A. Yes.

3004

1 Q. And behind it is a computerized form of three pages listing
2 various public housing authorities that were given mod rehab
3 units; is that correct?
4 A. Yes, but I think that, didn't Ms. Zagame testify that the 5 twelfth letter should have been attached to her handwritten notes
6 and that the computer printout -- because the computer printout
7 is dated on September 15?
8 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, you note on Exhibit 42A-1, do you recall
9 seeing these as well?

10 A. Those are her notes. I've seen them, yes.
11 Q. Have you seen her note concerning Metro Dade Public Housing
12 Authority?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. And can you make out what's written on the left-hand side of 15 the page next to "Metro Dade PHA"?
16 A. "Need letter. Metro Dade PHA. 96, 219."
17 Q. Would that be a total of 315 units?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. Now the 219 units are the amount asked for by Jack Brennan
20 on South Florida; is that correct?
2 A. well, as I said, he didn't ask me for anything during that

2 meeting. And 219 would have ended up with the funding of South
2 Florida I, but I did not know that at the time that Ms. Zagame
2 and I and other people were, as I said, pulling applications from 2 books.

1 Now those would have been the applications that were on
2 file downstairs and would have been funded that way. I had no
3 recollection of Mr. Brennan's project at that time.
4 Q. Didn't -- well, we just looked at Ms. Zagame's handwritten 5 notes. Did they not state next to the "Metro Dade" that they 6 needed a letter?
7 A. They may need a letter on the 219 or the 96, I don't know.
8 They maybe need a letter for 315. I have no idea.
9 Q. Now do you recall Ms. Zagame's testimony --

10 A. Yes.
11 Q. -- as to that funding round?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. Do you recall who signed the 185s for South Florida?
14 A. No.
15 Q. I'll put on the visual presenter Government's Exhibit 42E.
16 Can you see that from where you are?
17 A. Yes. James Nistler, for Silvio DeBartolomeis.
18 Q. Did you direct that Mr. Nistler sign this 185?
19 A. I don't remember directing Mr. Nistler to sign anything.
20 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, that 185 was signed in 1986; is that correct?
2 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay. And so by this period of time, you are aware that Joe
Page 1667

2 Strauss was charging approximately $1,000 per unit as a
2 consulting fee; is that fair to say?
2 A. I think by late '86, I was aware that a lot of people were

3006

1 doing that.
2 Q. Did you ever ask Mr. Mitchell or Mr. Brennan whether they
3 were charging consulting fees?
4 A. No, I didn't. I really didn't feel that there was a reason
5 to ask them, because I never got the impression that they were
6 involved.
7 Q. Now while you were at Global Research, did you ever see
8 either Mr. Mitchell or Mr. Brennan do any housing consulting
9 work?
10 A. No, I did not.
11 Q. Is it fair to say neither one had any expertise in housing
12 consulting work?
13 A. Well, I wouldn't think that Mr. Brennan would know anything
14 about housing consulting. Mr. Mitchell, on the other hand, knew 15 a lot about public housing bonds, things like -- I mean, all of 16 the public housing that was built in the '70s and '60s were built
17 as a result of municipal bonds that Mr. Mitchell created, and so 18 he had a, a big knowledge of that, a vast knowledge.
19 But would I say he knew anything about the Mod Rehab
20 Program? No.
2 Q. I'd like to turn your attention to Richard Shelby. Now you
2 heard Mr. Shelby testify in this case; is that correct?
2 A. Yes.
2 Q. Did you hear him say that he first met you in or around June
2 of 1985?

3007

1 A. I don't recall him saying that, but . . .
2 Q. Do you also recall that he testified that he had told a
3 federal agent that he had met you in approximately 19-- --he had 4 known you since approximately 1982?
5 A. Well, I think I -- I don't know what Mr. Shelby said. I
6 don't recall his testimony that precisely, but I do know that I
7 did speak with him on the telephone when I was working at the 8 Department of Energy and I was planning a trip for Secretary
9 Edwards to Oklahoma, which is where he's from, and I spoke to him

10 then, and I then met Mr. Shelby at some point, I believe it was 11 either in Mr. DeBartolomeis' office or in the hallway outside Mr.
12 DeBartolomeis' office or -- but it was in some connection at HUD,
13 and I introduced myself as someone who had spoken to him years
14 before on the telephone.
15 Q. Do you recall telling federal investigators in 1987,
16 Ms. Dean, that you knew Shelby for five years?
17 A. Well, that would be going back to the phone conversation I
18 had with him at the Department of Energy.
19 Q. Well, I believe your testimony on direct examination was 20 that when you met him with Mr. DeBartolomeis, you said, "You
2 would not remember me"; is that correct?

2 A. Yes.
2 Q. So did you know him for five years, or had you just once

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

2 spoken to him on the telephone in 1982?

2 A. I had once spoken to him on the telephone in 1982, had a

1 cordial conversation with him, and probably should not have said
2 that we had been friends. I knew of him. He was very nice to 3 me, but that was the only time I had spoken to him or seen him
4 until I met him at HUD.

5 Q. And you used him as a reference, stating that you had known
6 him for five years in 1987; is that correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, you knew that Rick Shelby was working as a
9 consultant on the Park Towers project, did you not?

10 A. I don't know if Mr. Shelby discussed Park Towers with me
11 specifically. I knew he was working as a consultant, and I knew 12 that he asked me a lot of questions about lots of things, which 13 included the Mod Rehab Program.

14 So did I know he was a consultant on mod rehab? Yes.

15 I don't recall a specific conversation about Park Towers.

16 Q. Ms. Dean, let me put your calendars in front of you in case
17 you need to refer to them.

18 A. Thanks. 1985?

19 Q. Yes. Do you recall having lunch with Mr. Shelby, Ms. Dean,
20 on August 1, 1985?

2 A. Yes, it said that I had lunch with him at 11:45.

2 Q. Do you recall whether Park Towers was discussed on that
2 occasion?

2 A. No, I don't.

2 Q. Ms. Dean, let me show you Government's Exhibit 51 in 3009

1 evidence and ask you if you recall having lunch with Mr. Shelby
2 on August 9, 1985?

3 A. It says lunch with Mr. Shelby on August 9, but if I might 4 just interject, many times if there is a lunch with Mr. Shelby
5 and it's within a week of each other, normally it was because I
6 couldn't make one and we rescheduled for a week later. That's 7 often the case in these blue books that aren't accurate. In the 8 '86 book, I could give you a more specific answer.

9 But usually I had lunch with Mr. Shelby once a month,
10 once every two months. So within a week would be unusual.

11 Q. Ms. Dean, I'd direct your attention to Government's Exhibit
12 5K and ask you if you had lunch with Mr. Shelby on that date?

13 A. The date of that? September 9? It says September 9,
14 "Shelby and Mitchell."

15 And I do remember having lunch with Mr. Shelby and 16 Mr. Mitchell once, but I don't know which time it was.

17 Q. Ms. Dean, I would just like to go back for one moment to the 18 August 9 luncheon.

19 A. All right.

20 Q. That's the one we just referred to about two moments ago.

2 A. Urn-hum.

2 Q. Do you recall that?

2 Now -- that was Government's Exhibit 51 in evidence.

2 A. Yes.

2 Q. And I show you Government's Exhibit 11B in evidence. Is it

3010

1 fair to say that's an American Express receipt in the name of 2 Richard Shelby for August 9, 1985, at the 209-1/2 Restaurant?

3 A. Yes, and it probably indicates he was there, and if he was 4 scheduled to be there with me, I'm sure he probably was there
5 with me. That would then make me doubt more the August 1 one.

6 Q. I'm sorry, Ms. Dean, August 1? Okay. So you do not believe
7 the August 1 one occurred?

8 A. Well, if you have a receipt, then I will be more than happy
9 to, to agree with you. The only thing is that it would not be 10 normal for me to have had lunch with Mr. Shelby that often, that 11 it just didn't usually happen that way.

12 I noticed a lot of my calendars, there'll be two in a 13 one-week period, and it usually means that one was canceled and 14 it was rescheduled for another time.

15 Q. Now you mentioned having lunch with Mr. Shelby and 16 Mr. Mitchell. Do you remember having lunch with them once?

17 A. I remember having lunch with them once. It was shortly
18 after I met Mr. Shelby face-to-face, and as I remember, it was my 19 idea to have the lunch.

20 Q. And your calendar reflects that that was on September 9, 2 1985?

2 A. I know that somewhere in these calendars it, there are two
2 separate lunches. I think you gave me yesterday a note from Inez
2 Sweetney that had a, to please set it up. That would be the one
2 that I would have the most confidence in.

3011

1 Q. Is it fair to say that one is undated, Ms. Dean?

2 A. I don't remember it being undated. I doubt we discussed it,
3 sorry.

4 Q. I will return to that. I'll get that later.

5 Do you recall Mr. Shelby sending you Government's 6 Exhibit 76, dated September 10, 1985?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And could you read that to the Ladies and Gentlemen of the 9 Jury, please?

10 A. It says, "Enclosed please find the information concerning 11 the Section 8 Moderate Rehabilitation Program in Miami and the 12 contract for cable television service for the Marathon housing
13 project in Marathon, Florida. In both cases, I believe the 14 information is self-explanatory, but obviously if you should have 15 any questions, please don't hesitate to call.

16 "As always, thank you for that time and effort which 17 you most --" I can't see what that said.

18 Q. That you must?

19 A. Oh, "that you must necessarily expend on my behalf."

20 Something "your friendship."

2 Q. Could it be, "I appreciate your friendship"?

2 A. "I appreciate your friendship. With kind regards, Rick."

2 Q. Did you make a notation at the bottom of this?

2 A. For Dave Turner to see me re this.

2 Q. Now when Mr. Shelby says, "Enclosed please find the 3012

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

1 information concerning the Section 8 Moderate Rehab Program in
2 Miami," to your knowledge, is he referring to the Park Towers
3 project?

4 A. No, I have no idea what he's referring to. If Mr. Turner,
5 if I gave it to Mr. Turner, it had to do with public housing. He 6 was the special assistant for public housing.

7 Q. Well, he also mentions here the Marathon housing project.

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. So one of those two was given to Dave Turner; is that

10 correct?

11 A. Yes, one or both. I don't have any recollection of what was 12 attached to that.

13 Q. Now do those documents refresh your memory as to whether you
14 discussed Park Towers with Richard Shelby?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Now at this time, you knew that Mr. Shelby was a political 17 consultant, did you not?

18 A. Yes, I did.

19 Q. Do you know whether he was being paid for any HUD consulting
20 work at this time?

2 A. I assume that he was. I don't know it. I never discussed

2 with him, "Are you being paid?" but I assumed that if he was in 2 the HUD building and having meetings with Mr. DeBartolomeis and 2 other people, that he was being paid for those services.

2 Q. And the meetings he was having with Mr. DeBartolomeis and 3013

1 other people included you, ma'am? Is that correct?

2 A. I do not recall having a meeting with Mr. Shelby about 3 anything except a coinsurance briefing that I did once, sending 4 him some things on tenant waiting list eligibility criteria and 5 his coming to see me about the Prince George's 88 units. Other 6 than that, the lunches were social, but he did ask me a lot of 7 questions, and I tried to answer them when I could.

8 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, when you had lunch with Mr. Shelby and 9 Mr. Mitchell, do you remember discussing the Park Towers project?

10 A. Oh, no. That would have, that would -- definitely I would
11 remember that.

12 Q. Is it fair to say that John Mitchell would help you out in 13 different ways over the course of time? You've mentioned
14 previously getting a job at the Department of Energy.

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Would he also provide you with money from time to time, such 17 as gifts and like, Christmastime, things like that?

18 A. Yes, he gave me -- he'd always give me cash at Christmas, a 19 check at Christmas. I gave him a Christmas present, also.

20 Q. Ms. Dean, at this time, I'd show you Government's Exhibits
2 540 and 541 for identification, and I'd ask you whether they
2 reflect that Mr. Mitchell gave you checks in approximately, at 2 around Christmas of 1986 and Christmas of 1987?

2 A. Yes. The Christmas of 1986, this is my Christmas present,
2 and this one is also a Christmas present. He gave me the same

3014

1 amount. He gave me $500 in -

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

oh, I'm sorry, this one says

2 November 26 of '87. This wasn't a Christmas present.

3 December 25 of '86 was a Christmas present.

4 The money on November 26, if I may explain, was to buy

5 a Christmas present for other people for him. I bought his

6 Christmas presents for him.

7 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, to your knowledge, was Mr. Mitchell backing

8 you to be assistant secretary for Community Planning and

9 Development?

10 A. Well, "backing" really isn't a right word. When I ran into

11 trouble with my confirmation and with Senator Proxmire, I went to 12 John for help in how to work my way through the problems, and so

13 I asked his advice, but Mr. Mitchell at that time didn't have a

14 lot of political -- there was nothing that he personally could do

15 to help me.

16 He did, I believe, try to make one phone call to 17 Senator Gam, and Senator Gam had told him that he could not

18 discuss it with him. But he did try to help me and advise me on 19 who to talk to and what to do. It didn't work.

20 Q. Ms. Dean, I'd like to show you Government's Exhibit 542 for

2 purposes of identification. I'd ask you to look through that

2 and, if you would, tell the Ladies and Gentlemen of the Jury

2 whose handwriting that is.

2 A. Well, the first one is Mr. Mitchell's handwriting. The

2 second one is Mr. Mitchell's handwriting. The third one is 3015

1 Mr. Mitchell's handwriting. I believe this one might be

2 Mr. Mitchell's handwriting. That's a little shaky.

3 This one is not. I think you most likely know that.

4 It's written to John from Ann McGlaughlin, who was then the 5 undersecretary of Treasury, I believe.

6 Q. Now you mentioned the letter from an undersecretary. Isn't

7 it true that that's written to John Mitchell?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And it's talking about you being considered for the 10 assistant secretary for Community Planning and Development?

11 A. Can I look at it? I'm afraid I'm not very familiar -- thank

12 you.

13 Yes, apparently she made a phone call to Bob Tuttle and 14 said that he told her I would definitely be considered but there

15 were other candidates.

16 Q. Does that refresh your recollection as to whether John

17 Mitchell was trying to help you out in gaining the assistant

18 secretary position?

19 A. Well, I think that he asked Ms. McGlaughlin to make a 20 telephone call to Bob Tuttle, yes.

2 Q. And I'd ask you --

2 A. I don't want to appear to be saying that he didn't help me

2 in any way he could. I'm sure he did. I just don't know how he

2 could have helped me very much.

2 Q. Well, did he know a number of senators at this time?

1 A. No, the notes you're looking at, those are notes that he

2 took from a phone conversation with me where I told him what I

3 was doing and who had contacted different senators and things

4 like that. I think the only senator that he knew at that time

5 was Senator Gam.

6 Q. Do you recall him listing a number of people who were going 7 to be contacted in your effort to become assistant secretary for 8 Community Planning and Development?

9 A. Yes. As I said, I think these came from a phone
10 conversation with me, except that I see Mike Karem's name, and I
11 would never have talked to Mike Karem about helping me with 12 anything. So that may have been something that he got from 13 somebody else but not from me.

14 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, did there come a point in time when you were 15 required to submit to a background check in order to become the 16 assistant secretary for Community Planning and Development?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And isn't it true that you consented to that background
19 check in order to be nominated for the position?

20 A. You have to, yes.

21 Q. Now did you take umbrage or take offense to the way the 22 investigation went, went on?

23 A. I really did. I was, I was shocked by the actions of the 24 FBI.

25 Q. And you didn't like the way the FBI did the investigation;

3017

is that correct?

2 A. I was shocked by some of the things they did.

3 Q. Did you complain to John Mitchell about that?

4 A. Yes, I did.

5 Q. And did he go to the FBI in your behalf?

6 A. He made a telephone call to the director of the Federal 7 Bureau of Investigation, yes.

8 Q. And is it fair to say that John Mitchell was able to get the 9 FBI agents who were doing your background check, to get them

10 investigated?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Let me show you Government's Exhibit 544 for identification.

13 A. I wish he could have.

14 Q. Ms. Dean, let me show you Government's Exhibit No. 544 for 15 identification. And who did Mr. Mitchell contact at the FBI?

16 A. I've never seen this before, so I'm going to read it, with 17 your indulgence, just so that I --

18 Q. Go ahead.

19 A. Well, it doesn't say who he contacted. I mean, I understood
20 that he contacted the person who was the head of the FBI, who at 21 that time was Judd Clark? Is it Clark?

22 Q. Webster?

23 A. Webster.

24 And then he gave to them notes that I had made of 25 things that the FBI had repeated to Secretary Pierce, and there

3018

1 were other things. And then the FBI sent two people to see, to 2 come see me and asked me did I feel that the FBI agent who had
3 done it had done anything strange, and I said I thought that,
4 that they had, that the FBI agent himself was very strange.
5 Every time I saw him, he had a different color hair, which was 6 very odd.

7 And it turned out that he had been the driver for 8 Mr. Webster at one point, and Mr. Webster had gotten rid of him
9 and said, "You go do personnel stuff."

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

10 And then I get him. And I'd meet with him one day, and 11 he'd tell me that he was auditioning for the SWAT team, and then 12 the next time he came in, he wanted something --he was a very 13 odd individual.

14 And there were a lot of allegations that were very 15 strange floating around, and this agent felt that it was in his 16 purview of his job to repeat every crazy thing someone said to 17 every person he interviewed, and I went from being a lesbian to 18 sleeping with everybody in the department, to being everybody's 19 girlfriend and mistress, to extorting money, and I thought this 20 was doing my career a great deal of damage.

2 Q. Is it fair to say, Ms. Dean, that when you didn't like the 2 way the investigation was being conducted, you went to John
2 Mitchell?

2 A. I went to Secretary Pierce. Secretary Pierce met with them.
2 He was shocked by what they said to him. I complained to a

3019

1 person who I considered to be my mentor/father-like person, who
2 had had some dealings as the attorney general with the FBI. He
3 wasn't surprised in the slightest that there are some strange FBI
4 agents out there.

5 And the next thing I know, he turned over the notes I
6 had given him of the meeting that they had had with Secretary
7 Pierce, and they came and interviewed me. But I don't think
8 Mr. Mitchell attempted to do anything to the FBI agent himself.
9 Q. Is it fair to say, Ms. Dean, when you didn't like the 10 investigation, you went to John Mitchell?

11 A. I answered your question, yes. Yes.

12 Q. Now speaking of John Mitchell, while you were employed at 13 HUD, would you meet him occasionally for lunch?

14 A. I believe I was still employed at HUD when I had lunch with 15 he and Mr. Wynn, and I know I had lunch with him with Mr. Shelby.
16 I don't believe I ever had lunch with Mr. Mitchell when it was 17 just the two of us and I was at HUD. I really didn't get to know 18 Mr. Mitchell very well until after I left HUD. Then we became 19 very close. We weren't actually that close when I was at HUD.

20 Q. Ms. Dean, when you would meet on those couple occasions that 21 you've stated you had lunch with Mr. Mitchell, when you'd meet
22 him for lunch, how would you get there?

23 A. I'd either drive there -- I might have taken a HUD car there
24 if I was meeting him with somebody else. I might have taken a 25 taxicab, I don't recall. I think that I only had those two lunches.

3020

2 Q. Well, the two lunches would have been with Mr. Shelby and 3 Mr. Wynn?

4 A. Yes. And I have, I have no idea how I got to either one of those.

6 Q. Now you know there's a stipulation in evidence as to the 7 testimony of Ronald Reynolds; is that correct, a HUD driver?

8 A. The HUD driver, yes.

9 Q. And do you recall what that stipulation is?
10 A. That he had driven me to several restaurants in town.
11 Q. Do you recall exactly what it said, by any chance?
12 A. Yes. It said that he would, if he testified, had driven a 13 car or I'd been dropped off at restaurants.
14 Q. Now it would not have been proper to use HUD, a HUD vehicle
15 to have lunch with John Mitchell, would it?
16 A. No, I don't think so. I think you'd be absolutely right.
17 Q. And it would not be proper to use it if you had lunch with 18 John Mitchell and Richard Shelby or Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Wynn; is 19 that correct?
20 A. Yes, I think you'd be correct.
21 Q. Those would be social functions?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. And is it fair to say that a number of HUD employees --
24 well, let me withdraw that. Am I correct that it, is it fair to 25 say that a HUD employee was once disciplined --or admonished is

3021

1 a better word --by you for using the HUD motor pool for personal
2 reasons?
3 A. Yes. He had taken a -- he had gone on a date and taken a 4 HUD car, and I admonished him very seriously for that.
5 Q. Ms. Dean, you have never met Martin Fine, is that correct,
6 prior to the trial today?
7 A. I don't believe so, no. He didn't look familiar to me at 8 all.
9 Q. Do you recall through him a number of exhibits were 10 introduced by the government?

11 A. No, but --
12 Q. Let me just, you might recall that he had a number of 13 memoranda?
14 A. Yes, I've read all of Mr. Fine's memos to himself, yes.
15 Q. Ms. Dean, I'd show you what's been marked as Government's 16 Exhibit 85 for purposes of identification --in evidence, excuse
17 me. Can you read that, please?
18 A. Yes. It says, "At about 4:30 today, Eli Feinberg called me
19 and said that he had a very good telephone conversation with Rick 20 Shelby. Rick said that he had lunch with his friend at HUD and 21 that she indicated that this matter could be dealt with in a 22 favorable manner. She requested certain information about the 23 length of ownership of the property, et cetera.
24 "Eli feels that this will not present a problem, and he 25 feels that it will be satisfactorily concluded."

3022

(Rectangle comment Administrator

1 Q. Ms. Dean, to your knowledge, are you Mr. Shelby's friend at
2 HUD?

3 A. Well, I have no idea. I do know that, excuse me, I do know
4 that that memorandum is dated very closely to a lunch that I had 5 with Mr. Shelby, and so I've always assumed that I could very 6 well be that person, but I may very well not be that person,
7 since I don't know what it's referring to.

8 Q. And in fact, according to Government's Exhibit 7B in 9 evidence, did you have lunch with Mr. Shelby on February 3, 1986?

(Rectangle comment Administrator
12/13/2005 10:29:33 AM
blank)

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And is that the same date as this memorandum?

12 A. Yes, it is. But as I said, I mean, I can make the 13 assumption as well as you can that that is me and that he 14 discussed something about some issue that he thought could be 15 resolved. I have no idea what the issue was.

16 And as I said before, he asked me a lot of questions,
17 excuse me, he asked me a lot of questions about things that he 18 was working on, and I tried to answer them the best I could.

19 Q. But he never mentioned he was a paid consultant on Park
20 Towers?

21 A. I assumed that he was being paid for whatever information he 22 was asking me about or that it was in some way going to help his 23 business, which I assumed he was being paid for, but I will tell
24 you for I think it is now around the fifth time I don't ever
25 recall talking to Mr. Shelby about a project called Park Towers.

3023

1 Q. Ms. Dean, I'd like to show you what's been previously
2 entered into evidence as Government's Exhibit 74. Do you recall
3 seeing this, ma'am?

4 A. Well, it's addressed to me and signed, I assume, by 5 Mr. Shelby. It's from the Keefe Company. I don't see the 6 signature. I assume that it's signed by Mr. Shelby.
7 And I am certain that I did receive it. I'm sure it
8 has a stamp on it and everything that says it was received.

9 Q. Can you read the body of the letter, please?

10 A. "Merely a note to thank you for taking the time from your 11 frenetic schedule to have lunch with me last week. It was 12 wonderful to have an opportunity to get to know you better, and I
13 especially appreciated your advice and counsel relative to 14 certain areas that we should focus our attention on over the 15 course of the next few months." That was in reference to 16 coinsurance; I remember that. "In fact, at your convenience --"

17 Q. Does it say that, ma'am, in the body of the letter?

18 A. No. I remember it -- I mean, I'm now remembering the 19 letter, so I thought I would share with you.

20 Q. Thank you.

2 A. "In fact, at your convenience, I would very much like to

2 take advantage of your kind offer to sit down with certain of 2 your technical people in order to learn more about the 2 coinsurance program. I will be out of town the first few days
2 next week but will give you a call when I return to determine

3024

1 what might be a convenient time.

2 "Again, many thanks for your thoughtful consideration.

3 I look forward to seeing you again in the near future.

4 "With best wishes and kindest regards. Sincerely,

5 Richard D. Shelby."

6 And I said, "Thank you. Hope to see you soon."

7 Q. Now you remember getting this letter from Mr. Shelby?

8 A. Yes. As I could read it, I do recall, yes.

9 Q. Ms. Dean, I'd now show you Government's Exhibit 92 already

10 in evidence, and I'd ask you if you recall getting this letter
11 from Mr. Shelby?

12 A. Isn't that the last thing? Isn't that the same one that we 13 looked at before?

14 Q. No, ma'am.

15 A. "All that time which you have necessarily expended on my 16 behalf"?

17 Q. Are you having trouble reading it? Let me read it to the 18 jury.

19 A. Okay.

20 Q. Dated 12-1. "Dear Debbie: Merely a note (long overdue) to 2 let you know how very much I appreciate all that time and effort

2 which you have necessarily had to expend on my behalf over the
2 course of the past few years. In a relative sense, a simple
2 thank-you seems terribly inconsequential and thus irrelevant, but
2 please accept it as such, with the assurance that I hope to be 3025

1 able to reciprocate in some small way at some future point in
2 time.

3 "I also wanted to thank you again for your

4 thoughtfulness in thinking to include me in your Thanksgiving

5 plans. Needless to say, I was greatly disappointed that a prior 6 commitment made it impossible for me to take advantage of your

7 kind invitation. I hope that you and your family had an eventful

8 holiday.

9 "Again, more thanks for all your help and, even more

10 importantly, for your friendship.

11 "Kind regards, Rick."

12 A. I do remember that letter, yes.

13 Q. Would that have been December of 1986?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. When Mr. Shelby states, "I hope to be able to reciprocate in 16 some small way at some future point in time," do you recall any

17 conversations with him about that?

18 A. No. As I recall -- I mean, this is exactly what I was 19 trying to say, Mr. O'Neill. He did ask me a lot of questions,

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
20 and I did try to answer them as much as I could and make him as 2 technically proficient as possible, and I invited him for
2 Thanksgiving because I thought that might be something
2 Mr. Mitchell would enjoy.
2 Q. Ms. Dean, I'd now show you Government's Exhibit 91. Do you
2 recall this, ma'am?

3026

A. Is this the telegram to the white House?

2 Q. Yes.

3 A. Yes, I recall it.

4 Q. Is this signed by Mr. Shelby along with a number of other
5 people?

6 A. Yeah. It's all of the regional political directors of the 7 Reagan-Bush campaign.

8 Q. Is this the way Mr. Shelby was going to reciprocate and help
9 you?

10 A. I would say that probably he was very helpful. I think he 11 was the person who drafted the telegram and got everyone else to 12 sign it.

13 Q. And he was a political heavyweight?

14 A. I would say he was a political mid-weight.

15 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, during your direct examination, you mentioned
16 an individual by the name of Clifford Brown.

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Do you recall him?

19 A. Yes, I do remember Mr. Brown.

20 Q. And you stated that he was good friends with John Mitchell?

21 A. I didn't say he was a good friend. I said that I knew that 22 Mr. Brown, through a conversation with me, had said that he knew 23 Mr. Mitchell. I had a longer conversation with Mr. Harris, who 24 replaced him, about Mr. Mitchell.

25 Q. And do you recall that Clifford Brown knew John Mitchell for some time?

3027

2 A. He didn't tell me how long he had known Mr. Mitchell. I
3 assume that Mr. Brown was a very political person himself, and I
4 assume that he knew Mr. Mitchell from the Nixon campaign.

5 Q. Well, didn't he tell you that -- well, didn't you testify
6 that they both knew both Mr. Harris and Mr. Brown knew John
7 Mitchell very well from the Nixon Administration?

8 A. I believe I may not have put it in those exact words, but I
9 know how Mr. Harris knew him, and, because we had a long talk

10 about that, but Mr. Brown, I believe, knew him from those days.

11 Q. Does this refresh your recollection as to whether it's those 12 exact words?

13 A. "How about the name Clifford Brown?"

14 "Yes, the regional administrator in Region IV, Clifford 15 Brown knew John and so did Ray Harris, who took his place as 16 regional administrator. They both knew John well from the Nixon
17 Administration."

18 Q. Do you know whether Clifford Brown and Louie Nunn were 19 friends?

20 A. Do I know it now or did I know it then?

- 21 Q. Did you know it at that time?
22 A. No, I did not.
23 Q. Were you and Cliff Brown friends at that time?
24 A. Mr. Brown was very elderly. I had a lot of respect for 25 Mr. Brown. I was very nice to him, but I wouldn't have considered him a friend.

3028

- 2 Q. What was his position at HUD prior to his retirement?
3 A. I believe that he was the regional administrator for Region
4 IV.
5 Q. Did you go to his retirement party?
6 A. Yes, I did. I represented the secretary there.
7 Q. Do you recall that he wrote you a thank-you note?
8 A. Not particularly, no.
9 Q. Do you recall him saying in the note, "I would like for our

10 friendship to continue to ripen and would hope that some of us
11 with mutual interests such as Louie, John, you, and me will have 12 the opportunity to fraternize at some convenient location in the 13 beautiful sunny South"?

14 A. No, I don't remember that at all.

15 Q. Let me show you a document previously marked as Government's 16 Exhibit 543 for purposes of identification, and I'd ask you if 17 that refreshes your recollection as to what he said to you?

18 A. Well, he definitely said that, and he probably assumed that 19 I knew Louie Nunn, if that's Louie Nunn. It may be Louie
20 Kitchin. But I assume it's Louie Nunn, although doesn't he spell 21 his name differently? I think he does. I don't -- this is 22 L-o-u-i-e.

23 I'll go with you and say it's Louie Nunn, and he 24 probably assumed that I knew him. But I don't have many 25 conversations with Mr. Brown, so --

3029

1 Q. And is it your testimony that you did not know Louie Nunn at 2 that time?

3 A. What is the date of that? That's, only so that I can be 4 absolutely certain.

5 April 10 of 1986, unless this meeting at Mr. Wilson's
6 good-bye party was something that I should remember -- and I
7 don't -- I did not meet Governor Nunn to look at his face and 8 know who he was until I had left HUD and had a meeting with him

9 about the Bush campaign.

10 Q. Ms. Dean, isn't it true you knew Governor Louie Nunn since 11 you were a child?

12 A. No, I, I remember once I said that to a reporter, and I
13 misspoke.

14 Q. Is that a reporter who's sitting in the courtroom today?

15 A. Well, I asked him the other day if he was the reporter that 16 I had given an interview to years ago. I knew who Louie Nunn was 17 since when I was a child. I did not know Louie Nunn since I was 18 a child.

19 Q. But did you make that statement to the reporter back then?

20 A. Well, I, I read it in his article, and I'm going to assume 21 that he probably takes good notes, although I certainly have read

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
22 interviews that I've given to other people that weren't actually 23 as accurate as I would have liked them to be.
24 Q. The question is did you tell Mr. Brown of the Louisville
25 newspaper that you knew Mr. Nunn since you were a young child?

3030

1 A. Well, I don't actually remember. I know that I have heard
2 of Louie Nunn, because he was rather famous. There weren't that 3 many governors of the prominence of Mr. Nunn in Kentucky that 4 were Republican. But I had never met Louie Nunn that I can
5 remember until the time that I had lunch with him about the Bush
6 campaign.

7 Q. Do you recall telling Mr. Brown, the same reporter, that 8 Governor Nunn only spoke to you about one project while you were 9 at HUD and it never got approved?

10 A. No, I don't remember saying that, but the only thing I can 11 imagine that would have been would be the HODAG that we talked 12 about the other day.

13 Q. And do you also recall telling him that you and John 14 Mitchell never discussed any HUD business?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Was that true?

17 A. As far as Mr. Mitchell having any interest in a HUD project,
18 no, I don't ever remember discussing anything with John. I did
19 not discuss anything with John, and I don't consider John 20 interceding for Mr. Nunn as discussing HUD business with 21 Mr. Mitchell.

2 And also, there were a lot of other inaccuracies in 2 that article, too. I was very upset. I accused Governor Nunn of 2 lying about the whole thing, that he never paid John Mitchell,
2 because I didn't believe that John Mitchell ever had been paid,

3031

1 and I was in a state of shock about the whole thing, and I gave
2 an impromptu interview I probably shouldn't have done, and I've 3 come to learn a lot of things I didn't know then, and some of 4 them hurt a lot.

5 Q. Ms. Dean, do you recall telling a reporter from the 6 Washingtonian magazine that John Mitchell -7

MR. WEHNER: Judge, could we approach?

8 THE COURT: Sure.

(Bench conference on the record.)

10 THE COURT: Yes, sir?

11 MR. WEHNER: I don't know that a newspaper article
12 gives a good faith basis to ask a witness a question about what 13 she may have said to the press. If Your Honor is going to rule 14 that a newspaper article gives a good faith basis, then we'll let 15 it go.

16 THE COURT: Do you want to use the Washingtonian
17 magazine article?

18 MR. O'NEILL: Excuse me?

19 THE COURT: You want to use a Washingtonian magazine
20 article? Come on, there's got to be some better evidence than 21 that, a gossip magazine. I'll sustain the objection.

22 MR. O'NEILL: For the record, we'd object, Your Honor.

23 MS. SWEENEY: For the record, Your Honor, though, it's 24 an interview that Ms. Dean gave after, post-indictment, so it's

25 not a gossip -

3032

1 THE COURT: Oh, I thought it was an article of
2 Mr. Mitchell.
3 MS. SWEENEY: Oh, no, Your Honor. I thought perhaps 4 Your Honor had misunderstood. It's full of quotes by the 5 defendant.
6 THE COURT: It's an interview she gave?
7 MS. SWEENEY: Yes.
8 THE COURT: I see.
9 MS. SWEENEY: Post-indictment. And my understanding is 10 that she invited the reporter.
11 MR. WEHNER: She what?
12 MS. SWEENEY: Invited the reporter.
13 MR. WEHNER: So what?
14 THE COURT: Okay. Your objection is still you don't 15 think that's a good basis for reading statements of her in quotes
16 that she gave?
17 MR. WEHNER: My objection is that newspaper and 18 magazine articles in terms of quotations are notoriously
19 incorrect and that generally speaking, they are not a proper
20 subject for cross examination of a witness in terms of inferring
21 that somehow that is a prior inconsistent statement on the part
22 of the witness. Statements of FBI agents are one thing,
23 statements in a courtroom or a grand jury heard are something
24 else, but newspaper articles just don't bear the same instant
25 credibility.

3033

THE COURT: I misunderstood when I made the comment
2 earlier, because I thought it was an article by John Mitchell or 3 something that the prosecutor had found from 20 years ago, but if 4 it's an interview she gave recently, I will allow them to use it
5 for cross examination. I'll allow them to use it for cross
6 examination purposes. It's her own interview that she 7 voluntarily gave after she had notice of the charges.
8 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, just so the record is clear, we 9 did not find a case on point. There is a First Circuit case,
10 Pallotta v. United States.
11 THE COURT: Let me see.
12 MR. O'NEILL: The highlighted portions say while it
13 could not be admitted into evidence, it can be used for 14 impeachment. It could be used for impeachment. However, it's 15 not -the 16 facts are very different. It's not a similar 17 instance.
18 MR. WEHNER: It's going to be an interesting redirect.
19 THE COURT: Okay. Just for the record, that's 20 404 F.2d 1035, a 1968 case, I think it is, from the First 21 Circuit, saying certainly what I just ruled, that they could go
22 ahead and use the personal interview of the individual for cross
23 examination purposes.
24 MR. O'NEILL: Okay.
25 (End of bench conference.)
THE COURT: All right, I've overruled the objection.

3034

Go ahead.

BY MR. O'NEILL:

3 Q. Ms. Dean, do you recall telling a reporter for the 4 Washingtonian magazine last October that John Mitchell never 5 contacted you for anything?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Ms. Dean, I'd like to mention the individual by the name of 8 John Rosenthal.

9 A. All right.

10 Q. Do you recall stating during direct examination that you met
11 with Mr. Rosenthal on the Necho Allen project?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And is it fair to say that the meeting was set up by Andrew
14 Sankin?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. As you stated on direct examination, is it correct that 17 Necho Allen received the exception rents?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. I will refer you to Government's Exhibit 108 on the visual 20 presenter, and I'd ask you to read that to the jury, please.

21 A. "Andrew has informed me of the very good news. All of us
22 associated with this very exciting development are grateful for 23 the support you have provided in securing exception rents for 24 this project.

25 "After several attempts to close Necho Allen, the 3035

1 developers, the banks, the city, and the Pottsville Housing
2 Authority have agreed to fix a date for the closing on March 14,
3 1985. The attorneys are finalizing the documents and in 4 preparation for the closing, and Harry Staller at the HUD
5 regional office indicated a willingness to expedite HUD approvals
6 which may be required in order to permit the signing of an 7 agreement to enter into a housing assistant payment contract at 8 that time.

9 "I am leaving for a three-week trip to Indonesia and 10 will be back on March 7, 1985. I would very much appreciate
11 anything that you can do to provide evidence that exception
12 market rents have been granted to the HUD area office so that 13 they may complete the necessary work for the scheduled closing.

14 "I very much appreciate the cooperation that you 15 provided -

you need to put it up a little bit for me -
and

16 pledge that we will do everything possible to ensure that the 17 restoration of this landmark building will spark new life in the 18 redevelopment of the downtown business district.

19 "Sincerely, John B. Rosenthal."

20 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, I'd show you Government's Exhibit 110A, and

2 is this the document that officially granted the exception rent
2 increase to the Necho Allen project?

2 A. Yes, it is.

2 Q. And that signature of Samuel R. Pierce, Jr. -

2 A. Is an Autopen.

1 Q. That means he did not write that; the machine did, correct?
2 A. That's correct.
3 Q. And is it fair to say that at that time, you authorized the 4 use of the Autopen?
5 A. I authorized the use -- that's my signature that says
6 "Autopen." And then it says "Per Deborah Dean" by my secretary
7 and the date and "Okay." And that should be Dave Turner. And 8 above it is the draft that Mr. Hammernick provided.
9 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, in Government's Exhibit 108, I neglected to

(Rectangle comment Administrator

10 ask you one question while it was on the visual presenter. In 11 the first paragraph, Mr. Rosenthal mentions that Andrew has 12 informed me of the very good news. Would that be Andrew Sankin?
13 A. I would assume so, yes.
14 Q. Did you contact Mr. Sankin about granting the exception
15 rents on Necho Allen?
16 A. I don't know if I did or not. There were so many people
17 working on it, he could have found it out from --he knew 18 Mr. Cushing. He knew Mr. Hammernick. Mr. Hammernick worked for 19 Mr. DeBartolomeis. He knew Mr. DeBartolomeis. He could have 20 found it out from any number of people.
21 He could have also found it out from me.
22 Q. Did you know at that time that Mr. Sankin was a paid
23 consultant?
24 A. I assumed that he was being paid for his work, yes.
25 Q. Is it fair to say you also met with Mr. Rosenthal on the 3037

(Rectangle comment Administrator

1 Regent Street project?
2 A. Yes, it is.
3 Q. And as you testified on direct examination, you met with him
4 a couple times on that project; is that correct?
5 A. I remember having lunch with him. I don't believe we ever
6 met past that one time.
7 Q. I direct your attention to Government's Exhibit 116 in 8 evidence and ask you if you could read that, please?
9 A. "Dear Deborah: I very much enjoyed the conversation at 10 lunch on Friday. It was a very pleasant way to spend the 11 afternoon. I am looking forward to doing it again real soon.
12 "Thank you again for your assistance on the Necho
13 Allen.
14 "Sincerely, John Rosenthal."
15 Q. Do you recall receiving that letter from Mr. Rosenthal?
16 A. Yes, I do.
17 Q. And did Mr. Rosenthal also communicate with you about the 18 Regent Street project?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. And I'd ask you to read Government's Exhibit 117?
21 A. "Deborah Gore Dean, Re: Regent Street.
22 "Dear Deborah: The City of Philadelphia has advised me
23 that they are willing to commit Section 8 existing certificates
24 to meet the need for 26 additional mod rehab units for the Regent

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
25 Street project. I would be very interested in knowing whether or

3038

1 not these certificates can be assigned to the project so as to
2 assist in obtaining the necessary financing.

3 "As you know, certificates are usually given to the 4 individual tenants for their benefits and move with the tenant.
5 I have heard of examples, however, where the units have been
6 allocated to a specific project. If this is possible for Regent
7 Street, it may enable us to proceed with a single financing -

I
8 lost it -- for the complete job, as opposed to the necessity of 9 breaking the job into phases, as discussed at our luncheon.

10 "I would very much appreciate your advice in this
11 matter.

12 "Sincerely, Mr. Rosenthal."

13 Q. Is he asking you that - well, when you received this

14 letter, what did you believe he was asking for?

15 A. He was asking for 26 existing housing certificates in lieu
16 of mod rehab, because during the lunch, I had told him I thought 17 that there wasn't a very good likelihood that there would be any 18 moderate rehabilitation funds available. And then I sent, as you 19 know, that to Hunter Cushing and asked him for his advice whether 20 or not that would be wise.

2 Q. When you say you sent it to Hunter Cushing, is that
2 Government's Exhibit 119 that's on the visual presenter at this
2 time?

2 A. Um-hum.

2 Q. And I direct your attention to the handwritten notes on the 3039

1 left. Is that your handwriting?

2 A. Yes. It says, "Please prepare a written response to John 3 using your points. D.," which is also turning him down for the 4 existing certificates.

5 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, I'd like to show you Government's Exhibit
6 120, already placed into evidence, and ask you if you recognize 7 this, ma'am?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And is that a letter from Mr. Rosenthal to you again

10 concerning Regent Street?

11 A. Yes, it is. This one really sticks out, because I remember
12 thinking it was very strange.

13 Q. Can you please read it?

14 A. "It has come to my attention from Mr. Ross Kumagai, fund 15 control -- this is what stuck out as being very odd, how he would 16 know Ross Kumagai -- located on the Seventh Floor of the HUD
17 central office, that there are 30 moderate rehab units which are 18 not committed to any state that may be available to Regent
19 Street. If these units are not committed by September, it is my 20 understanding that they will be recaptured and returned to the 21 Treasury.

22 "As you know, I am in the process of trying to put 23 together a bond issue to complete the rehabilitation of six
24 buildings for low- and moderate-income family occupancy on Regent
25 Street in Philadelphia. Recognizing the importance of this

3040

1 rehabilitation, the city has committed to fund --" I'm going to
2 step down, if that's all right with you.

3 Q. Sure.

4 A. "... has committed to fund $2,900,000 of their community
5 block grant funds to accomplish this rehabilitation. The 6 additional 26 units that we have requested from you on a prior 7 occasion is necessary in order to facilitate the financing of 8 this property.

9 "I would appreciate your advising me as to whether or 10 not there is any possibility that we may procure these units for 11 Regent Street at this time. If we cannot obtain these units, our 12 project will have to be broken up into two phases, as we 13 discussed.

14 "The problem with this approach is that I am not sure
15 that the HUD area office will be responsive to providing 16 insurance under the 221D4 program without being assured that the 17 second phase of this development will, in fact, be accomplished.
18 Insurance under the 221D4 program is necessary in order to obtain 19 the interest rate on the financing that is required in order to 20 support the rehabilitation proposed.

2 "I would very much appreciate hearing from you.

2 "Sincerely, John Rosenthal."

2 Q. Is Mr. Rosenthal asking you about the Regent Street project?

2 A. Yes, he is.

2 Q. And does there come a point in time when you respond to him?

3041

1 A. I believe that there is a letter that goes back to him.

2 Q. I direct your attention to Government's Exhibit 122 and ask
3 you if you'd read that to the jury, please?

4 A. Okay. "Dear John: Please excuse the tardy reply. I was 5 under the impression that we had resolved your question when we 6 last met. I know that on several occasions Andy Sankin has 7 broached the subject of mod rehab units for Pennrose Properties
8 with the department.

9 "Unfortunately, all mod rehab units have been committed

10 for fiscal year 1985. The earliest that any funds could be 11 available would be October 1985. As we discussed earlier,
12 recaptured mod rehab funds must be used for similar same-year
13 applicants or rescinded.

14 "I will be more than happy to discuss your Regent
15 Street project near October 1 (beginning of fiscal year 1986) if 16 you have not already proceeded. Please remember that 17 applications for mod rehab funds far exceed the available monies,
18 and the competition for these units is very intense. I look
19 forward to seeing you again soon.

20 "With best wishes.

21 "Very sincerely yours, Deborah."

22 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, just direct your attention to Government's 23 Exhibit 122. You mention in that letter that, and I'll quote, "I 24 know that on several occasions Andy Sankin has broached the 25 subject of mod rehab units for Pennrose Properties with the 3042

1 department." Is that in the letter?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Did you have conversations with Andy Sankin about Pennrose
4 Properties and the Regent Street project?

5 A. No. Would you like me to explain why that's there?

6 Q. Since you've offered, why don't you.

7 A. Yeah. Mr. Rosenthal had called me, and there was a problem
8 with some sort of a consulting agreement between him and 9 Mr. Sankin, and he asked me was it necessary for him to hire

10 Andrew Sankin in order to get Regent Street done, and I said,

11 "Absolutely not."

12 And he said, "Well, he told me that he's been working 13 on it."

14 And I said, "Well, he has not spoken to me, and I don't 15 know if he's spoken to anyone else."

16 And he said -- and Mr. Rosenthal told me he had spoken
17 to someone else. So I did put in the letter that he had spoken
18 to someone in the department. I did not put in the letter that 19 he had spoken to me, because I did not want that impression out
20 there that he had spoken to me. Otherwise, I would have written
2 in the letter he had spoken to me.

2 Q. So at that time, you were aware through Mr. Rosenthal that
2 Mr. Sankin had a consulting agreement with them?

2 A. I was aware that Mr. Rosenthal did not want a consulting
2 agreement with Mr. Sankin, and Mr. Sankin apparently had used my 3043

1 name in some way, and Mr. Rosenthal was upset, and he called me
2 to ask if it was necessary to hire Andy Sankin, and I said, "Of 3 course not."

4 And as a result, Mr. Rosenthal and I always dealt 5 directly on Regent Street, and I never discussed it with
6 Mr. Sankin.

7 Q. Did Mr. Sankin mention to you -- excuse me, did
8 Mr. Rosenthal mention to you how much Mr. Sankin was going to 9 charge him on Regent Street?

10 A. No, he didn't. He just simply asked whether or not it was a 11 necessity to have Mr. Sankin as a consultant to deal with me, and 12 I told him that that was preposterous.

13 Q. And, Ms. Dean, we're talking about the time frame of July of 14 1985, do you recall?

15 A. I thought that might be -- I don't know if that's '85 or 16 '86.

17 Q. Just so the record is clear, Ms. Dean, it was Government's
18 Exhibit 122.

19 A. July 16 of '85.

20 Q. Does there come a point in time, Ms. Dean, that John
2 Rosenthal writes you back a letter in response to your letter,

2 Government's Exhibit 123 in evidence?

2 A. Well, if mine was dated July 16 and his is dated July 18, I
2 don't know whether he could have gotten my reply and written back

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 to it, but if you'd like me to read it?

3044

1 Q. Go ahead.

2 A. All right. "Dear Deborah: I thank you very much for your 3 letter of -- okay, I'm sorry, he obviously did get it - your

4 letter of July 16, 1985, and very much appreciate your confirming
5 your willingness to consider the very important request towards 6 the end of September of this year. I want to reemphasize the 7 necessity of obtaining these additional 26 units in order to 8 enable us to proceed with this development.

9 "I would appreciate it if you would advise me as to 10 anything that I could do at this time to provide you with 11 evidence of local support for this project so as to facilitate 12 the approval process for our request at the beginning of the next 13 HUD fiscal year.

14 "I do look forward to seeing you in the very near 15 future.

16 "Sincerely, Mr. Rosenthal -
John."

17 Q. Ms. Dean, am I correct that Regent Street did receive the 18 additional 26 units in funding?

19 A. Well, as I've said before, I now know that they did. I know 20 that twelve units and then - went that fiscal year that I just

2 told him he couldn't, that they weren't going to go, and then
2 another thirteen went the next fiscal year, and they went to the 2 Philadelphia Housing Authority, and the Philadelphia Housing
2 Authority gave them to Regent Street.

2 Q. Ms. Dean, I direct your attention to Government's Exhibit

3045

1 124, and do you recognize this as the rapid reply document signed
2 by Janet Hale authorizing twelve units to the Philadelphia
3 Housing Department?

4 A. I'm not sure that is the rapid reply, only because it's not 5 really filled in correctly, but it certainly would be a draft of 6 the rapid reply if it's not the rapid reply.

7 Q. Ms. Dean, I'd show you Government's Exhibit 126 in evidence,
8 and I'd ask you if you could read that, please?

9 A. It says, "To: Deborah Gore Dean, Re: Regent Street.

10 "Dear Deborah: I want to take this opportunity to 11 thank you for your cooperation in assisting Regent Street
12 associates with a very much needed thirteen units under Section 8
13 mod rehab funding." So I guess I did receive a thank-you letter
14 for that. "We are working very diligently with our attorneys,
15 underwriters, and the City of Philadelphia to bring this project
16 to a construction start by the end of November.

17 "I very much hope that I can count upon you to provide 18 the balance of the thirteen units required in order to enable 19 this project to go to closing. I realize that these are 20 difficult times and that these units are not easy to come by, but 21 I promise you that they will be put to good use in servicing the 22 needs of the needy in Philadelphia.

23 "Sincerely, John."

24 Q. And does Government's Exhibit 126 have a number of cc's, or 25 carbon copies?

3046

1 A. Yes, Nolan Atkinson, Kernel Dawkins, Mary Ann Holloway,
 2 Andrew Sankin, and Robert C. Totaro.
 3 Q. Do you recall discussing this matter with Andrew Sankin?
 4 A. No.
 5 Q. Based on the documents submitted by the government at this
 6 trial, is it fair to say that Mr. Rosenthal did receive his units
 7 on Regent Street?
 8 A. Yes.
 9 Q. Now let's turn our attention to Philip Wynn.

10 THE COURT: I think if we're going to a new area, I may 11 call it a day.
 12 MR. O'NEILL: Okay, Judge. That's a good time.
 13 THE COURT: All right. I wanted to finish up the one

14 area.
 15 All right, Ladies and Gentlemen, we're going to do, as 16 I said before, about 3:00, 3:15, we're going to have to call it a 17 day. We have the swearing in of the U.S. Attorney, so we have to 18 go upstairs.
 19 You're going to have the weekend. Again, remember the 20 overnight/weekend recess admonition. Please don't talk about the 2 case among yourselves, with anyone else, or let anyone talk to
 2 you. You don't read, watch, or listen to it on television,
 2 radio, or the newspaper if it's carried.
 2 We're going to be back Monday morning at 9:30, and
 2 we'll finish up, I think, the testimony in the early part of next

3047

1 week and complete the case next week. So have a good, pleasant
 2 weekend. we'll be back at 9:30 on Monday morning, all right?
 3 Thank you.
 4 (Jury out.)
 5 THE COURT: All right.
 6 (Recess from 3:12 p.m. to 9:30 a.m., October 18, 1993.)

1 PROCEEDING S
2 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Criminal number 92-181.
3 United States of America versus Deborah Gore Dean. We
4 have Robert O'Neill and Paula Sweeney for the
5 Government. Stephen Wehner for Miss Dean.
6 THE COURT: Do you want to round them up for
7 me?
8 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Yes, someone went to get
9 them, Your Honor.
10 THE COURT: All right. Good morning,
11 counsel. I came out because I had my clerk inquire if 12 there were some preliminary matters. We're waiting for 13 a juror, alternate number four, I guess it's alternate
14 number two now, who is not here.
15 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, may we approach fora
16 moment?
17 THE COURT: Sure.
18 MR. WEHNER: May Miss Dean be excused to go to 19 the ladies room?
20 THE COURT: Sure.
2 (Bench conference)
2 MR. O'NEILL: Good morning, Judge. Probably
2 it's not a big deal, but in talking with Judge Adams
2 over the weekend he thought it should be on the record.
2 After cross-examining Miss Dean on Durham Hosiery Mill

3051

1 there was a break, and there's been a lot of colloquy
2 amongst us, and it's not like amongst everybody, there's
3 nothing in terms of statements to be used, you know,
4 when a defendant makes an utterance, but after the 5 Durham Hosiery Mills she mentioned -I was sitting with
6 Miss Sweeney and Special Agent Batts at counsel table
7 and she said there's two people you forgot to 8 cross-examine about that and I said, well, who is that,
9 and she said Dave Barrett and the Judge.
10 Frankly, I didn't think anything of it and I
11 still don't, Judge, but in going over -Judge
Adams
12 comes down from Philadelphia on Sundays and we go over
13 the case and we all talk about the case, and that came 14 up and he thought you should be apprised of that. So 15 we're letting you know and -
16 MS. SWEENEY: Actually, Your Honor, she 17 repeated it two or three times. It was a little bit odd
18 and we didn't know what to make of it.
19 THE COURT: Yes, it is. I don't know what 20 she's talking about.
21 MR. WEHNER: I've got to plead ignorance,
22 Judge, and I don't think that means - I think that's 23 meaningless, both from my client's mouth and in terms of 24 the issues in this trial. I just don't know.
25 THE COURT: I don't know what she's talking

3052

1 about except Mr. Barrett is a close friend of mine. If
2 he was intimately involved in the case -
3 MR. WEHNER: His name was mentioned in 4 passing, not as a subsequent player.
5 THE COURT: At least not in this case. All
6 right, thank you for alerting me, whatever it was worth.
7 MR. O'NEILL: That's it, Judge. That was the 8 whole preliminary matter.
9 (Bench conference concluded)
10 THE COURT: We'll make an inquiry as to where 11 this juror is and see how long we're going to wait for 12 her.
13 She got here?
14 THE DEPUTY MARSHAL: Yes.
15 THE COURT: All right.
16 Is everybody ready?
17 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Your Honor.
18 THE COURT: Okay.
19 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.
20 (Jury present)
2 THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen,
2 we're ready to go. Good morning.
2 THE JURORS: Good morning.
2 THE COURT: All right. We'll continue at this
2 time with the cross-examination of Miss Dean.

1 As you recall, she was testifying on Friday

2 when we recessed.

3 All right. Mr. O'Neill?

4 MR. O'NEILL: Thank you, Your Honor.

5 (DEBORAH GORE DEAN, THE DEFENDANT, RESUMED THE STAND)

6 DIRECT EXAMINATION

7 BY MR. O'NEILL:

8 Q Miss Dean, I believe on Friday when you were

9 testifying I asked you about a stipulation from Ronald

10 Reynolds, a HUD driver, and I wasn't able to locate it
11 at that time.

12 A Yes.

13 Q Do you recall testifying on Friday about going to 14 lunch with John Mitchell while employed at HUD?

15 A I said I recalled having lunch with him one time.

16 You have on the calendars that there are two lunches.

17 There may have very well be. I can only recall one.

18 Q Miss Dean, do you recall testifying Friday and 19 being asked the following question and giving the 20 following answer? "Question: Now, speaking of John

2 Mitchell, while you were employed at HUD would you meet

2 him occasionally for lunch? Answer: I believe I was 2 still employed at HUD when I had lunch with him and 2 Mr. Winn, and I know I had lunch with him with 2 Mr. Shelby. I don't believe I ever had lunch with 3054

1 Mr. Mitchell when it was the just two of us. And I was
2 at HUD."
3 A I thought you were talking about Mr. Shelby.
4 A I did have lunch with him and one lunch with 5 Mr. Shelby although the calendar says two lunches with 6 Mr. Shelby. That may be correct. I just remember one.
7 Q Is it fair to say on those occasions you used a HUD
8 driver and a HUD car to take you to lunch with
9 Mr. Mitchell?

10 A I have absolutely no memory at all.
11 Q Do you recall a stipulation entered into if 12 Mr. Reynolds were called to testify he would have stated
13 that he was a driver for the HUD motor pool from 1980 to 14 1989 and during that period of time he drove Deborah 15 Gore Dean to lunch on several occasions when she said
16 she was meeting John Mitchell for lunch?
17 A If I signed that stipulation it should not have 18 been where I told Mr. Reynolds I was having lunch with 19 Mr. Mitchell or with anybody else. I normally would not 20 discuss that with a driver. I know he signed a
2 stipulation where he said he had driven me to
2 restaurants. That's all I recall.
2 Q Miss Dean, let me show you Government's Exhibit 545
2 for identification purposes and I ask if this
2 stipulation does in fact bear your signature?

3055

1 A It -- well, yes, it does, but I don't ever recall
2 having Mr. Reynolds drive me any place where 3 Mr. Mitchell was. I should have been more careful with 4 what I signed Mr. O'Neill. I'm sorry.
5 Q Does it bear Mr. Wehner's signature as well?
6 A Yes, it does.
7 Q And does it bear my signature?
8 A I -- sorry. Yes, and Miss Sweeney as well.

9 Q And Miss Sweeney's signature as well?

10 A Yes.

11 MR. O'NEILL: At this time, Your Honor, I'd 12 like to read this stipulation to the jury.

13 THE COURT: Sure.

14 MR. O'NEILL: "It is hereby stipulated and 15 agreed by and between the United States and the 16 defendant that, one, if Ronald L. Reynolds was called to 17 testify he would testify that from 1980 to 1989 he was a
18 driver for the HUD motor pool. Two, during that period
19 of time he drove Deborah Gore Dean to lunch on several 20 occasions when she said that she was meeting John
2 Mitchell for lunch."

2 Is that what the stipulation says, Miss Dean?

2 A That's what the stipulation says, and that man's
2 testimony also says that he said he was driving me to 2 lunch with Mr. Mitchell and my mother and I never had

3056

1 lunch with Mr. Mitchell and my mother, and it says all
2 sorts of things in there, and you and my lawyer both
3 agreed that that man wasn't quite normal and instead of 4 having him on the stand we agreed to sign a stipulation.

5 Q Ma'am, I'd ask you to look at this stipulation
6 again and tell me what it says.

7 A It says that if Mr. Reynolds would testify he would 8 testify that he had driven me to lunch on several 9 occasions when I said to him I was meeting Mr. Mitchell

10 for lunch, and I don't believe I would have ever had 11 that conversation with this man, nor can I remember any 12 time of how I got to lunch with Mr. Mitchell, and I only 13 recall having lunch with him twice.

14 Q When you signed this, you agreed that that would be 15 his testimony correct, ma'am?

16 A That that would be his testimony, not the truth,
17 just his testimony.

18 Q He's lying?

19 MR. WEHNER: Objection.

20 THE COURT: Just the way it's asked, I'll
2 sustain the objection.

2 BY MR. O'NEILL:

2 Q Was he lying?

2 MR. WEHNER: Objection.

2 THE COURT: I'll sustain the objection.

3057

1 A Mr. O'Neill, I read -

2 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, is there a question?

3 THE COURT: There's no question pending.

4 BY MR. O'NEILL:

5 Q Did Mr. Reynolds drive you to lunch with

6 John Mitchell?

7 A Not that I can recall. I don't recall any place

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

8 Mr. Reynolds drove me.

9 Q You don't recall any place Mr. Reynolds drove you?

10 A Not in specifics. I can - I can recall that 11 Mr. Reynolds was a driver and -

12 Q Let me show you Government's Exhibit 212 already in 13 evidence, Miss Dean, and ask you to look through that

14 and see if that refreshes your recollection as to 15 whether Mr. Reynolds drove you anywhere?

16 A Well, I didn't say that I don't recall that he was

17 a HUD driver, but we had ten HUD drivers and all of them

18 drove me different places. I just don't remember a

19 specific of Mr. Reynolds driving me anywhere, but I will

20 look through it, just as you asked me to, and see if I

2 can find something.

2 Is Ron Mr. Reynolds? I don't see anything

2 here that says Reynolds. It says Ron. Is his name Ron

2 Reynolds?

2 Q Do you know any other driver at the time,

3058

1 Miss Dean, named Ron?

2 A As I said, there were ten drivers and I didn't know

3 all of their names.

4 Q You knew Mr. Reynolds well, didn't you?

5 A I did not know Mr. Reynolds well at all.

6 Q Did you use him a lot as a HUD driver?

7 A No, I didn't. As a matter of fact, I'll look at 8 this and I'll tell you who I did use often.

9 Q Ma'am, I didn't ask you that.

10 A All right.

11 Q Did that refresh your recollection as to using

12 Mr. Reynolds as a driver was the question.

13 A I said before Mr. Reynolds was a driver. All of 14 the drivers drove me different places. Mr. Reynolds was 15 not some special driver and he did not specifically

16 drive me places, nor was he requested in - to be a

17 specific driver for me. I didn't have that sort of 18 authority to have a special driver. I used whoever was

19 available.

20 Q When we recessed on Friday, Miss Dean, I was asking

2 you questions about Philip Winn. Do you recall that?

2 A Well, you were just about - you said Mr. Winn, and

2 then we recessed.

2 Q Is it fair to say you had lunch and dinner with

2 Mr. Winn a number of times?

3059

1 A Yes.

2 Q Do you recall the date -- Miss Dean, do you recall

3 the date December 10th, 1985, meeting with Mr. Winn at 4 Dulles National Airport or International Airport?

5 A I don't recall a specific date. I do remember I

6 did pick him up once at the airport.

7 Q with the Court's permission I would show you

8 Government's Exhibit 5P already in evidence.

9 A It says here to pick him up at Dulles Airport and

10 if that's the day that he came out to our house, I
11 picked him up there and drove him out to our house.

12 Q And did you take him out to Marwood?

13 A Yes, I did.

14 Q what was the purpose of taking him out to your 15 family property?

16 A I asked him as a favor to please come and advise my 17 family of the best way to sell the property.

18 Q Now, you picked him up at Dulles Airport?

19 A I picked him up the day that he went out to 20 Marwood. I don't remember if that's the day, but it says
2 on the calendar that I picked him up, so -

2 Q well, do you recall picking him up at any other
2 time at Dulles Airport?

2 A No, I think I might have picked him up one time at 2 National Airport when he was coming in for an interview

3060

1 at the white House for a position that he wanted.

2 Q That calendar said Dulles, did it not, ma'am?

3 A The one you just showed me?

4 Q Yes.

5 A Yes, it does.

6 Q Is that the day you took him out to Marwood?

7 A I don't remember the day. I remember it was

8 winter, and that says December.

9 Q So is it fair to say that your family was 10 interested in developing their property?

11 A Yes. They still are.

12 Q Now, when you went to your mother's house, how long
13 did Mr. Winn stay there?

14 A Oh, I'd say about two hours, two or three hours.

15 Q Is it fair to say the majority of the afternoon?

16 MR. WEHNER: Objection.

17 THE COURT: It's overruled.

18 A You know, I really don't remember. I'm not even 19 sure if I stayed there the entire time with them. I
20 just don't recall.

2 Q Did you just leave him there, and then return?

2 A Someone else would have taken him back.

2 Q And did you take off the entire afternoon from
2 work?

2 A As I say, I don't remember. I don't recall.

3061

1 Q Do you recall if you took any leave time for that
2 afternoon?
3 A If I was out of the office and I was on personal 4 business, then Mrs. Nettles would have taken care of my 5 leave, yes.
6 Q Mrs. Nettles.
7 A Yes. She did all of my leave and sick leave and 8 annual leave.
9 Q Let me show you a document I've marked as 10 Government's Exhibit 546 for identification and I'd ask
11 you if you took leave on December 10th, 1985 when you
12 went out to Dulles International Airport to meet 13 Mr. Winn and take him to your family property in 14 Maryland.
15 A I have no idea. Can you explain - I can't - I
16 don't even know how to read this.
17 Q The date was December 10th and it was a Tuesday of 18 1985.
19 A How do you make out that that's December 10th
20 besides you're marking on the piece of paper?
21 Q Do you see at the top reflecting when the pay
22 period ends?
23 A Yes, 12-21-85. But, of course, that's for the 24 previous two weeks.
25 Q And would December 10th be in the previous two 3062

1 weeks, Ma'am?
2 A Yes, yes. So if you went 21, 20, 19, 18, 17, 14,
3 13, 12, 11 -- do you have it as a Monday?
4 Q Tuesday.
5 A A Tuesday. Well, this could very well be what this 6 is. I really -I've
7 never seen this form before and it
8 says that I worked eight hours that day.
9 Q So the question is did you take leave on that day?
10 A No, I must -I
11 don't really know. It could very 12 well have been reflected at another time, but I also 13 probably worked eight hours.
14 Q Is it your testimony that you drove out to Dulles
15 Airport, met Mr. Winn at approximately noon, drove to 16 Maryland, and then returned to work and then worked 17 through the evening?
18 A I don't have any specific memory of it at all, I'm 19 sorry. It wouldn't have been uncommon.
20 Q When you went out to dinner with these various 21 people that we've seen in the calendar entries, did you
22 go back to work afterwards, Ma'am?
23 A Not usually, but there were times when I did. I
24 also had an office at home.
25 Q Now, is it fair to say that Philip Winn was dealing 26 directly with you on HUD related matters?
27 A Mr. Winn on three or four occasions sent me notes

3063

1 or information or referred letters to me that were then
2 taken to Secretary Pierce. He never asked me to 3 expedite anything or - that I can recall. He never 4 called me with anything except requests for Mod Rehab
5 and -

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

6 Q Now, he wrote you so you would give it to Secretary

7 Pierce, is that correct?

8 A Yes.

9 Q He knew Secretary Pierce because he worked for him,

10 isn't that true?

11 A That's correct.

12 Q Miss Dean, I'd show you Government's Exhibit 228

13 already in evidence. Can you see that, Ma'am?

14 A Yes, it says -- do you want me to read it?

15 Q Sure.

16 A "Dear Debbie, I'm aware of several projects that

17 require Mod Rehab in some western communities that

18 desperately need low income housing assistance. I hope

19 you will look favorably on their projects consisting of 20 250 to 300" -

2 Q Apartments?

2 A It could be apartments. "When you make your

2 funding decisions. I will" - I'm sorry, "I will" -

2 Q Send you?

2 A "I will send you more details shortly." And I guess

3064

1 that must have been - it looks like fax but it must be

2 thanks with an X. "Phil."

3 Q And did he send you that letter?

4 A I don't actually recall that one but I know that it

5 came out of my files, so I assume he did.

6 Q And he sent that to you so that you could give the 7 information to Sam Pierce, is that correct?

8 A Yes, I don't ever recall any other information

9 coming though.

10 Q Miss Dean I now show you Government's Exhibit 229

11 already in evidence and ask you if this is a letter sent

12 to you by Philip Winn?

13 A Yes, "Please find attached application for Clark

14 County Nevada. This community is in dire need of low

15 income housing. I would be most appreciative if you

16 would accommodate Mr. Cottrell," who was the Executive

17 Director of the Housing Authority, "However, 200 units

18 would be adequate. Sincerely, Phil."

19 Q And did Mr. Winn write that letter to you, Ma'am?

20 A Yes, he did, and I do remember that. I do recall

2 it.

2 Q I'm going to show you Government's exhibit 231 in

2 evidence and ask you did Mr. Winn write you this letter?

2 A "Dear Debbie, there is a tremendous need for Mod

2 Rehab Section Eight in Aurora, Colorado. As you can see 3065

1 from the attached letter, the waiting list for low

2 income families is large and growing. I would

3 appreciate it if you could accommodate this need for 150

4 Mod Rehab units per this April 17th, 1986 letter. Thank

5 for your consideration. Phil Winn."

6 Q By the way, Miss Dean, is there an attachment to 7 this letter?

8 A Yes, it's a letter to Mr. DeBartolomeis dated April

9 17th and it's signed by Edward Biga, Executive Director,

10 I guess, of Aurora Housing Authority.

11 Q And is it on Aurora Housing Authority letterhead?
12 A Yes.
13 Q Miss Dean, I show you Government's Exhibit 235
14 already in evidence and ask you if this is a letter sent 15 to you by Mr. Philip Winn?
16 A "Dear Debbie, enclosed please find the request
17 letters for the housing authority that I recently
18 discussed with you. Unemployment is high. The economy 19 poor. Any assistance that you can provide will be most 20 appreciated. Sincerely, Phil." Wait, can I ask you,
2 what is the date on that? 3-26-87?
2 Q Was that right before the April funding round,
2 Ma'am?
2 A Yes.
2 Q Now, Mr. Winn was a developer from Colorado, is 3066

1 that correct?
2 A Yes.
3 Q Now, is it fair to say that Phil Winn when he
4 testified here said it was common knowledge that you
5 were the person to see if you wanted Mod Rehab units?
6 A I think that a lot of people approached me because 7 they knew that Secretary Pierce wanted people to 8 approach me as opposed to approaching him.
9 Q Now, do you recall your testimony before the Senate
10 in terms of your confirmation hearing stating, "I've 11 never given or approved or pushed or coerced anyone to 12 help any developer. Those funds go directly to the 13 Public Housing Authority.
14 As a matter of fact, I have regular meetings
15 with public housing authorities where I tell them that 16 they should be dealing directly with developers. A lot 17 of times, public housing authorities send developers to 18 HUD. And they meet with people all over the building.
19 It's a tremendous waste of time, and I let them know
20 that, because those funds go to the public housing
2 authorities." Is that your testimony before the Senate?
2 A Yes.
2 Q Was it a waste of time for Philip Winn to meet with
2 you and write letters to you?
2 A Actually I think that's a perfect example of 3067

1 housing authorities sending developers to HUD and the 2 fact is that Mr. Winn as you can obviously see not only
3 contacted me but he contacted Mr. Demery and he
4 contacted Mr. DeBartolomeis, and you saw Mr. Rosenthal's
5 letter where he was talking to Ross Kumagai, a career

6 federal servant in the funding control division.

7 There were people running all over HUD

8 contacting everybody that they could and we were trying

9 to encourage the housing authorities to take back the 10 responsibility for their programs, but they didn't want
11 to do it and they couldn't do it because there were so 12 few units that for the Housing Authority to get on an 13 airplane, come all the way to HUD and lobby for those 14 units was more money than they thought they could make 15 back for the fees they were getting for the small
16 amounts of units that were going out.

17 So a lot of times, instead of coming
18 themselves they would send the developers, and when I
19 did talk to the Housing Authority officials I told them, 20 look, these things are coming to you and you're placing
2 the onus of these developers on us and it would be

2 better if you would work as Mr. Ballou had done in South
2 Carolina with Senator Thurmond's office, make an
2 appointment, come in, try to get the political and the 2 Housing Authority things together as opposed to 3068

1 subjecting all of us to all of these developers running

2 around.

3 Q Of course you told Mr. Winn it was a tremendous

4 waste of time, correct, Ma'am?

5 A I asked Mr. Winn on many occasions to make certain

6 that all of his requests came to the Housing

7 Authorities.

8 Q And of course you told Mr. Rosenthal at your

9 meetings with him on Necho Allen-Regent Street that it

10 was a tremendous waste of time to meet with him?

11 A Well, Necho Allen had been funded years before and 12 it was a completely different thing. That is not 13 something that the Housing Authority, except giving its

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
14 recommendation to the Regional Administrator, would have 15 done, and you know they did.
16 Q How about on Regent Street, did you tell him it was 17 a tremendous waste of time on that project?
18 A It was not a waste of time for him to come in and 19 lobby, no. On that project it was not because it was 20 eventually rather an exception. He did make a very good
2 case for his project. However, I would prefer to hear

2 the case from the Housing Authority, yes, and had he
2 gone to the Bousing Authority, yes, but for 13 units or
2 12 units the Housing Authority was not going to spend
2 three or $400 coming into HUD for a meeting. You saw

3069

1 that they tried to. They were supposed to come in that
2 day and they were snowed in at National Airport. I went
3 ahead with the meeting.

4 Q They were scheduled to come in, they made that 5 effort?

6 A Yes, it was airfare. They could have driven also.

7 Q Are you familiar with an individual by the name of 8 Philip Abrams?

9 A Yes.

10 Q Is it fair to say when he left BUD he became a
11 developer out West?

12 A I think he was with Mr. Winn. My understanding was 13 that the two of them were partners.

14 Q And do you recall mentioning Mr. Abrams on your
15 direct examination?

16 A No, I don't, but I -

17 Q Well, do you recall testifying that while 18 Mr. Abrams was at HUD he funded a project in which his 19 ex-partner was the developer, Mr. Green?

20 A Well, I believe that my testimony was regarding
2 Secretary Pierce's actions when he found that out. Yes.

2 Q And that was because it was a project specific
2 award, is that not true?

2 A No, it was because there was an indication I
2 believe in the Washington Post that Mr. Abrams and 3070

1 Mr. Green still had some business dealings together and
2 that looked very bad and Secretary Pierce then at that
3 particular point, you know, decided to bring the units
4 back.

5 Q Be had them recaptured, is that not true?

6 A He had them recaptured and they were eventually
7 given back as a result of a lawsuit, yes.

8 Q And did Mr. Pierce consider that that made him look
9 bad, that Mr. Abrams was having business dealings with a

10 person --

11 A Well, I think it turned out that Mr. Abrams was no
12 longer in business with the man, but did it look bad and 13 I thought it was the right thing to do, to bring them
14 back.

15 Q Secretary Pierce, to your knowledge, did he harbor
16 any ill will towards Mr. Abrams as a result of that 17 event?

18 A I don't know.

19 Q In fact, quite the opposite, he harbored absolutely
20 no ill will towards him at all, isn't that true?

21 A I can't say that.

22 Q Well, do you remember writing a letter to 23 Mr. Abrams after he left HUD and was in private 24 business, sending him the Secretary's award for 25 excellence?

3071

1 A Yes.

2 Q And do you recall writing him in that letter how 3 both yourself and Secretary Pierce send their love to 4 him?

5 A Well, yes, I know I wrote that letter.

6 Q So it's fair to say that he harbored no ill will
7 towards Mr. Abrams, is that true?

8 A Mr. O'Neill, I really don't want to discuss 9 anything that Secretary Pierce might or might not feel 10 about anybody.

11 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, I ask that that remark be 12 stricken, based on extensive direct examination.

13 THE COURT: Based on her direct examination?

14 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: All right, I'll sustain the 16 objection, and I'll strike the comment about 17 Mr. Pierce's feelings about anybody.

18 BY MR. O'NEILL:

19 Q In that letter, Miss Dean, do you recall informing 20 Mr. Abrams about a number of things that you've done
21 since he's left HUD?

22 A Yes, there were several things that he had asked me
23 to -- he left suddenly and -- because of some problems
24 that had occurred while he was there that directly
25 impacted on him and it was the -- the decision was made

3072

1 that it was better for Mr. Abrams to resign than to go
2 through the investigations that would occur, and he was

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
3 the Undersecretary of the Department and he met with me
4 and asked me if I would fulfill several commitments that 5 he had made and I agreed to do that.
6 Q And is it fair to say that in that letter that you
7 never mentioned that Secretary Pierce was behind these 8 decisions or authorized these decisions?
9 A Well, I would give his staff time to find another

10 job and I would make certain that a project that he was 11 doing with the Hasidic Jewish community in New York was 12 seen through. Those decisions had already been made.
13 There wasn't anything to discuss with Secretary Pierce
14 about the staff. However, I did discuss with Secretary
15 Pierce about the Hasidic Jewish community because it
16 required eventually sending another kind of program
17 funds up to New York to replace ones that had lapsed.
18 Q The question is does your letter state anything
19 about Secretary Pierce authorizing these decisions?
20 A Well, Mr. Abrams was the Undersecretary. He knew
2 who authorized decisions in the Department.
2 Q I'll ask you a third time, Ma'am, does your
2 letter -
2 A I don't recall if it did or not, but Mr. Abrams
2 certainly understood -

3073

1 Q Let me show you Government's Exhibit 547 for
2 identification and I would ask you a question, does your
3 letter state anything about Secretary Pierce authorizing
4 the decisions you're making or talking about in that
5 letter?

6 A No, it doesn't.

7 Q Now, do you recall testifying on your direct 8 examination, Miss Dean, about a funding round in

9 September of 1986 and stating that the Oklahoma project
10 that was ultimately funded was not on the original list?
11 A I know that when I went through your documents and 12 the documents that I found, I could not find anything
13 that came from the Secretary's office that had the 14 Oklahoma funding on it. Miss Zagame's list going 15 downstairs, Mr. Kumagai's list coming back upstairs, the 16 Secretary's changes going back downstairs, I could not 17 find the Oklahoma list -- project on those lists
18 anywhere.

19 Q To your recollection, was it funded or not funded?
20 A Well, there is a 185 for it that was signed, but it

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 certainly – it's just not on any of the lists that went

2 downstairs, upstairs and back downstairs. So I don't
2 know how it was funded.
2 Q Is it true that Mr. Abrams wrote you on that
2 project and requested funding?

3074

1 A He might very well have, but I can assure you I
2 didn't prepare the 185. I prepared the list going
3 downstairs, Miss Zagame told you that, and I sent down
4 the changes to the list and I had them approved by 5 Secretary Pierce, and it wasn't on the list.
6 Q Miss Dean, I show you Government's Exhibit 548 for 7 identification. Did Philip Abrams write you on the 8 Oklahoma project in September of 1986?
9 A Yes, he did.

10 Q Now, Miss Dean, you testified earlier both Mr. Winn
11 and Mr. Abrams were part of something called the Winn
12 Group, is that correct?
13 A Yes, that's what I understood.
14 Q And did Lance Wilson join them at some period of
15 time?
16 A According to the I.G. report he did, but I never 17 knew he did until after I read that.
18 Q And did Silvio DeBartolomeis join them after he 19 left HUD?
20 A You know, I really don't know. I know he went to 2 work for them. I don't know if he was ever a partner in 2 their deals or not. The I.G. audit was very vague on
2 that.
2 Q But he did in fact go to work for them?
2 A Yes.

3075

1 Q Am I correct that this is the same Silvio
2 DeBartolomeis who, according to you, Sam Pierce did not
3 have a lot of respect for?
4 A That is correct.
5 Q Is it fair to say you testified on direct
6 examination that Samuel Pierce was keeping an eye on 7 Silvio DeBartolomeis?

8 A Secretary Pierce kept a very close eye on

9 Mr. DeBartolomeis.

10 Q Is it also fair to say you testified on direct 11 examination that Mr. DeBartolomeis was trying to get the 12 Assistant Secretary position but Mr. Pierce did not want
13 him to have it?

14 A He didn't even want to meet with him about it.

15 Q Is it fair to say that Secretary Pierce wanted
16 Mr. DeBartolomeis out of the Department of Housing and 17 Urban Development, according to your testimony?

18 A There was a certain incident that occurred, as I
19 told you, about two projects in Puerto Rico and a 20 project in Trenton, New Jersey, and I believe that the 2 Secretary had gotten other information on Trenton and

2 was okay to let that one go. He did not want to do the
2 ones for Puerto Rico and eventually said, well, Silvio
2 is not going to be here very long. And that was before
2 Mr. DeBartolomeis had issued his resignation. So from 3076

1 that I gathered that it was not his desire to have
2 Mr. DeBartolomeis there much longer after this incident,
3 and there were others.

4 Q Miss Dean, do you recall writing a letter to Silvio
5 DeBartolomeis's mother saying that Secretary Pierce wants
6 Silvio for the job, and that you know that personally?

7 A Yes, I - you sent me that letter, and that letter
8 was written about four months after I came to the 9 Department and that was back when I think I had met
10 Secretary Pierce all of twice at that point and maybe 11 three times and every bit of information that was in 12 that letter which I think you could fairly characterize
13 as a love letter -

14 Q To his mother?

15 A Well, it was obvious - I mean if you read the 16 letter, I said I thought Silvio could be President, for 17 heaven's sakes. I was an idiot then and, you know, I 18 didn't know Silvio, what Silvio was about. I thought he 19 was terrific. And I didn't know Secretary Pierce and I

20 wrote a dumb letter to his mother telling his mother
2 that he was the greatest thing since Hadacol. That
2 doesn't mean that I was right. And when I said that he
2 wanted him for the job I meant - that was at the time
2 he was going to be Deputy Assistant Secretary for 2 Multi-family Housing and you know that because you can 3077

1 look at the address on the letter and see what my
2 address was then.

3 Q Now, Miss Dean, when you say you didn't know
4 Secretary Pierce very well at that time, is that why you

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
5 wrote at that time that he lacks a backbone?
6 A Yes, I did, and I did not know Secretary Pierce as 7 well, and that man has the strongest backbone to stand
8 up to you people of anyone I've ever known.
9 Q Us people?
10 A Us people, the Independent Counsel, yes.
11 Q Now, Miss Dean, let me ask you about Silvio
12 DeBartolomeis. You said that - what you're talking
13 about during your direct examination about how you
14 characterized Silvio DeBartolomeis is different from 15 that letter in 1980 whatever -- what is the date of the 16 letter?
17 A 1980 - early 1983.
18 Q Late '83, September of 1983?
19 A I think it's early '83.
20 Q Let me show you Government's Exhibit 549 for
2 identification purposes. Can you make out the -2
A I said Memorial weekend. Labor Day weekend, so it
2 would have been September of '80 - at that point I
2 would have met Secretary Pierce more times than that
2 then. Maybe seven or eight times. But all that stuff

3078

1 in that letter came from Silvio. I didn't write a
2 conversation with Secretary Pierce when I was in the 3 Exec Sec about who he wanted for a job or anything else.
4 I was getting all that from Silvio.

5 Q Is it fair to say, Miss Dean, that in July of 1987
6 you were still quite friendly with Mr. DeBartolomeis
7 even though he left HUD?

8 A I tried to be polite with everyone, including 9 Mr. Abrams. Mr. Abrams and I hadn't gotten along all 10 that well but I respected him, and Silvio, when he was 11 in some trouble and not knowing what to do, got very 12 angry with me, then he wasn't angry, then he was angry.
13 But we tried to stay friends, as anybody does who works
14 together, and I spoke to him on occasion maybe once
15 every two or three months from Colorado. He would call
16 to ask how I was doing.
17 Q well, Miss Dean, did there come a point in time
18 where you stayed at his home in Colorado when you went 19 out visiting in July of 1987?
20 A Yes, I went to a wedding that was in Vail, Colorado
2 and I had to stay over the night. I guess I got in late

2 that night or something, and I slept on the couch in his
2 rec room.

2 Q So you were pretty friendly then with
2 Mr. DeBartolomeis, and that's after he's left HUD?

3079

1 A Yes, I dated him and I knew his family well and I
2 stayed with them and they stayed with me. I didn't
3 think staying on his rec room couch was -- was anything
4 odd.

5 Q Now, when you returned from Colorado, Miss Dean, do
6 you recall receiving information from Mr. DeBartolomeis
7 by Airborne Express concerning a Mod Rehab project
8 called Windsor Court?

9 A No.

10 Q Miss Dean, let me show you what has been marked as 11 Government's Exhibit 550 for identification purposes and 12 I'd ask you if this refreshes your recollection of 13 receiving a package from Mr. DeBartolomeis on Windsor
14 Court when you returned from Colorado?

15 A No, I've seen this before. It says he sent me a
16 package and billed the Federal Express bill to Windsor
17 Court. I've never heard of Windsor Court that I know 18 of. I don't know what Windsor Court is. It says he 19 billed it to them.

20 Q So he's lying about that?

2 MR. WEHNER: Objection, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: I'll sustain the objection the way
2 it's asked.

2 BY MR. O'NEILL:

2 Q Was it untrue that he was sending you information

3080

1 on Windsor Court?

2 A I don't know what Windsor Court is. If you have 3 something that you'd like me to look at that refreshes
4 my memory that I ever heard of a Windsor Court I would 5 love to do it.

6 Q Do you recall the testimony of Philip Winn?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Did you recall him saying that you told him you
9 were funding Windsor Court for him?

10 A No, I most certainly don't. Did he say that?

11 Q Now, Miss Dean -

12 THE COURT: Go ahead.

13 BY MR. O'NEILL:

14 Q Is it fair to say that you continued to have 15 involvement with Mod Rehab even though you were no
16 longer the Assistant - excuse me. Let me get back a 17 minute. Is it fair to say that even after you left as 18 Executive Assistant at HUD you still had involvement
19 with Mod Rehab, contrary to your testimony on direct
20 examination?

2 A I can't recall anything, no.

2 Q Miss Dean, I show you what's previously marked as
2 Government's Exhibit 551 for identification purposes and
2 I'd ask you if this refreshes your recollection as to 2 whether you were involved in a Mod Rehab meeting in 3081

1 September of 1987?
2 A No, this is a meeting about the Minority Youth
3 Training Initiative, MYTI. It has nothing to do with 4 Mod Rehab.
5 Rehab. HUD does lots of rehab.
6 Q And was that meeting with Covitz, Demery,
7 Schoenberger, Stokvis, Baugh and Koch, I guess?
8 A Yes, Dr. Cook was the head of Policy Development
9 and Research. Mr. Schoenberger was Mr. Demery's deputy.

10 Mr. Stokvis was the head of Community Planning and 11 Development, and it required all of those offices to get 12 together to do the Minority Youth Training Initiative.
13 Q Now, Miss Dean, you had a personal relationship, as 14 you testified, with Mr. DeBartolomeis while you were at 15 HUD, yes? Correct?
16 A Yes, very early on.
17 Q You also had a business relationship while you were 18 also at HUD? Not outside business. You dealt together
19 on HUD related business?
20 A I don't understand.
21 Q Well, you were employed at HUD the same time he 22 was?
23 A Yes.
24 Q And some funding decisions were made, he'd have to 25 communicate with you, you'd have to communicate with

3082

1 him, is that correct?
2 A On -for
Mod Rehab, or are you talking about -3 what are you referring to exactly?
4 Q Various issues, Mod Rehab, other matters, other
5 housing related matters?
6 A You mean other things that were in housing?
7 Q Yes.
8 A Yes.
9 Q Are you aware that one of the counts that Mr.
10 DeBartolomeis has pled guilty to was conspiring with you
11 to mislead the public and Congress?
12 MR. WEHNER: Objection.
13 THE COURT: Come to the bench, please?
14 (Bench conference)
15 THE COURT: What's the objection?
16 MR. WEHNER: Judge, it's improper to bring 17 out - it's very improper to try to bring out that 18 another individual pled guilty to conspiracy with the 19 defendant that is on trial. That is absolutely 20 improper.
21 MR. O'NEILL: I have never heard of that in my
22 life.
23 THE COURT: Let me see the foundation of 24 this. You're asking whether or not she knows that he 25 pled guilty to a -

3083

1 MR. O'NEILL: Conspiring with her, to mislead
Page 1708

2 Congress and the American people.
3 THE COURT: And it's relevant in her cross
4 saying she didn't or she did business with him or 5 whatever, didn't do business with him?
6 MR. O'NEILL: She denied - during
7 cross-examination he talked about her involvement with 8 that act of changing the memo. She's saying she didn't 9 do anything wrong. It goes right to that.
10 THE COURT: What did he say? I'm sorry.
11 MR. O'NEILL: He testified -remember,
there
12 was a memo, Judge, I believe it's Government's Exhibit
13 220, and it was a memo that he went up to the Hill to 14 give some -- there were some changes made. He said it
15 went to Deborah Dean. She made some changes as well. I
16 think it goes right to the heart as to whether she knew
17 there was something wrong with the way the Mod Rehab
18 program was working, that she had an involvement in it,
19 and she took steps to cover up what actually transpired.
20 MR. WEHNER: Judge, if I could respond briefly
2 to that. I think that's a fair hearing of 2 cross-examination. It's the conclusion that because 2 this other individual pled guilty to conspiring with my
2 client that she somehow must be involved in the 2 conspiracy though. I don't have any problem with him

3084

1 going into the area about the changes in the letters,
2 but the fact that one party being involved in a
3 conspiracy with another is not inculpatory against the 4 person standing trial.
5 THE COURT: The only thing I'm concerned about 6 is there's some kind of improper use of the fact that he 7 pled guilty to conspiracy, meaning she's therefore 8 guilty.
9 MR. O'NEILL: Because she's charged with
10 conspiracy.
11 THE COURT: In a different conspiracy?
12 MR. O'NEILL: I'm trying to think how that 13 concern could be ameliorated.
14 MR. WEHNER: Judge, there is - I don't have a 15 case but I know there is law that holds that that is 16 improper in terms of attempting to get the jury to draw
17 that conclusion. Now, you cannot accept the fact that 18 one person pled guilty to conspiracy with another as 19 inculpatory to the defendant that is on trial.
20 MR. O'NEILL: The question goes, Judge, from
2 the Government's view, as to her basis and knowledge
2 that she's aware of what he did. She has a right, as 2 she's taken every opportunity during cross-examination,
2 to dispute and go on at length as to -2
THE COURT: I just don't want to - an 3085

1 inference made from the fact that he pled guilty to the
2 conspiracy and he named her, and therefore, she's guilty
3 of other conspiracies here. I think it's fair cross
4 where she denies knowledge of the memo and she says she 5 didn't change it, where he says she changed it.
6 what I'll do is this, why don't you go into
7 the memo, whatever you want to go into, I just wouldn't
8 go into the details of this conspiracy. As I understand
Page 1709

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
9 it, it's a different conspiracy than before us.

10 MS. SWEENEY: It is, however, very closely
11 related, Your Honor, to her direct testimony. She has 12 claimed that Congress knew how the program was being 13 run, and here in this particular case she and 14 Mr. DeBartolomeis are getting together to mislead
15 Congress when there's a specific inquiry about an award
16 of a particular case.

17 THE COURT: He can ask her. He can't lay it
18 out -

19 MS. SWEENEY: I didn't want Your Honor to 20 think we were being unfair.

21 THE COURT: No, I think it's very hard to cure
22 even with instructions that someone pled to a different
23 conspiracy where he alleges that she was a part of it.
24 We've got three other conspiracies here. I think you
25 should go into what she did to Congress and leave it at

3086

1 that. He's already admitted on the stand that he pled

2 guilty to conspiracy.

3 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Judge, three different

4 charges.

5 THE COURT: You can say that he admitted to a

6 conspiracy count and leave it at that. That's before

7 the jury.

8 MR. WEHNER: Well, Judge, if he asks that 9 question in conjunction with the bell ringing that's 10 already been done that just increases the prejudice.

11 THE COURT: Didn't he admit that he pled to 12 conspiracy before the jury?

13 MR. WEHNER: Yes, but he didn't plead guilty
14 to a conspiracy with Miss Dean. That's the difference.

15 THE COURT: We'll just go ahead with it and

16 you can question him about the note and the memo to 17 Congress and I think you can ask her didn't 18 Mr. DeBartolomeis admit he pled guilty to fraud in 19 Congress. As to him saying it was her who was a 20 co-conspirator, I'll allow the question.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 (Bench conference concluded)

2 THE COURT: All right, we're going to rephrase
2 the question.

2 MR. O'NEILL: Thank you, Your Honor.

2 BY MR. O'NEILL:

3087

1 Q Miss Dean, are you aware that Mr. DeBartolomeis

2 admitted trying to mislead Congress and the American

3 people?

4 A I didn't actually read his agreement but I believe

5 that's one of the things he pled guilty to.

6 Q And did you assist him in that endeavor?

7 A No.

8 Q Did you make any changes to that memorandum that he

9 spoke about during his examination that went to 10 Congressmen LaFalce and Nowack?

11 A You know, I remember seeing the complete file on 12 those letters when I was going through the discovery
13 process and that was before Mr. DeBartolomeis had pled
14 guilty or indicted or whatever and so I didn't know the 15 significance of it. So I didn't copy it at that time to 16 have it to refresh my memory. And the only thing that I
17 remember was a note on it from me to Mr. Cushing that 18 said please give me a complete briefing on this because 19 I was unaware of it. Now, that is just from going 20 through your files and I did not -- as I say, at that
2 time I did not know the significance of it or I would

2 have copied it and I could give you a very complete
2 answer. I have absolutely no memory of Mr. La Falce's
2 and Mr. Nowack's problems outside of when they had a
2 bunch of representatives that came down from New York

3088

1 and they had a press conference outside the Secretary's

2 office and we couldn't get in and out of our office

3 because they were sort of having a sit-in or something.

4 These General Assembly politicians from New York. And I

5 remember there being a lot of correspondence back and

6 forth from Janet Hale up there. But I certainly would

7 never have told Mr. DeBartolomeis or anybody else to 8 intentionally go lie to Congress. That makes no sense.

9 Q Do you know if anybody else associated with him
10 assisted him in lying to Congress?

11 A If I have no memory of it, how would I know of 12 anyone else?

13 Q Now, Miss Dean, Stanley Arms, where was it located?

14 A It's on 12th Street.

15 Q What's the address?

16 A I don't know.

17 Q Did you ever know the address?

18 A I know how to get there.

19 Q Let me show you, Miss Dean, what's previously been 20 marked as Government's Exhibit 552 for identification
2 purposes and ask you, is this a photo of the Stanley

2 Arms Apartments?

2 A Yes.

2 Q And does that refresh your recollection in any way
2 as to the address of that building?

NEILL:
is it fair to say that you met Andrew Sankin

16 at HUD on several occasions concerning Stanley Arms?
17 A I would say at least twice.
18 Q And you are aware that Bill Morgan was an employee
19 of Andrew Sankin's, is that correct?
20 A Yes.
2 Q And he was working on Stanley Arms as well?
2 A I remember that there was a meeting with Mr. Sankin
2 and Mr. Morgan.
2 Q And did that occur at HUD?
2 A Yes, it did.

3090

1 Q Miss Dean, let me ask you, and I'll give you your
2 calendars in case you need to refresh your recollection,
3 is it fair to say that your calendars reflect a number
4 of meetings with Andrew Sankin?
5 A Yes, they do, but the only calendar that I can rely

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
6 on is 1986, but Andrew Sankin is throughout my calendars

7 and -- yes.

8 Q Let me direct your attention to Government Exhibit

9 Five, specifically to an entry for December 22nd, 1984.

10 And do you recall whether that meeting with Andrew

11 Sankin concerned Stanley Arms?

12 A Are you saying -- you said Exhibit number Five 13 which is a 1985 calendar?

14 Q Yes.

15 A I don't have a meeting on December 22nd.

16 Q '84, at the beginning of the calendar.

17 A No, it says here lunch, Andy Sankin, Rehoboth

18 Beach, and I didn't go, I never attended that.

19 Q How about the meeting on January 29, 1985, would

20 that refer to Stanley Arms?

2 A It says lunch one o'clock, Andy Sankin. And -- it

2 could very well have, I don't recall.

2 Q How about January 31st, 1985, does that refer to

2 Stanley Arms?

2 A Yes, it says Andrew Sankin, Stanley Arms.

3091

1 Q And how long was that meeting for?

2 A Well, it says one o'clock on, and it would have

3 depended on how long the meeting was.

4 Q Is there an arrow covering the rest of the day?

5 A Well, yes, but that's not what that means.

6 Q How about March 15, 1985, would that meeting affect

7 or concern Stanley Arms?

8 A It says lunch with Andy Sankin. You know, as I

9 told you before, I don't recall having lunch with Andy

10 Sankin more than once or twice ever over the whole

11 period of time. So I don't know if I went to this or 12 didn't go. I said before these calendars just aren't

13 worth anything. If it was in 1986 and it said something

14 with Andy Sankin I would tell you it happened, but with 15 these calendars it could happen, it couldn't happen, and 16 I just don't know.

17 Q How about April 22nd, 1985?

18 A It says two o'clock, Andrew Sankin. It just says

19 two o'clock, Andrew Sankin. It doesn't say what it's

20 about.

21 Q How about April 22nd, 1985, would that involve

22 Stanley Arms?

23 A It doesn't say what it's about either. It more

24 than likely as it is Monday, April 22nd and Friday,

25 April 26th, I canceled one and did the other.

3092

1 Q How about August 29, 1985, does that say whether it

2 involves Stanley Arms?

3 A It says 7:30, Andy Sankin. I would guess not. I

4 would assume that was some social thing.

5 Q How about March 12, 1986, that would be

6 Government's Exhibit Seven, was that the book that you

7 say is accurate?

8 A Yes, yes, if it's in this book you have my full

9 endorsement of it. March 12th?

10 Q Of 1986.

11 A It says three o'clock, Andrew Sankin. And it 12 doesn't say what it's about. It could very well have 13 been Stanley Arms.

14 Q How about July 10th, 1986?

15 A July 10th?

16 Q Yes, the same book.

17 A It doesn't have a meeting with Andrew Sankin.

18 Q July 10th doesn't have a meeting?

19 A July 10th says lunch with Liz Pickens, FHA study
20 Group, Undersecretary's conference room, and that's it
2 for the whole day.

2 Q I'll get back to that one, Miss Dean.

2 A All right.

2 Q How about July 23rd, '86 in Government's Exhibit

2 Six as opposed to the other '86 book?

3093

1 A Well, if it's not in this one, I mean -I just -2

you know, as I said before, these books, I used them
3 because they had been gifts from the Special
4 Assistants. They're not correct. This one is correct,
5 and so anything that's in this book I'd be more than 6 happy to say existed.

7 Q Why don't you do me a favor and look at the one
8 that's not correct, plaintiff's exhibit Six, and I
9 direct your attention to July 23rd, 1986?

10 A Okay. It says dinner with Don De Franceaux, and 11 then in red in my handwriting it says Andy Sankin.

12 Q Do you recall whether you had dinner with Andy
13 Sankin on that date?

14 A No, it says I had dinner with Don De Franceaux, but 15 I have penciled in Andy Sankin. I don't know what it

16 means.

17 Q Let me show you Government's Exhibit UK in 18 Evidence. Does that refresh your recollection you had 19 dinner with Andy Sankin on that night and he paid for 20 dinner in the amount of $130?

2 A No, it most certainly does not. As I said before,
2 it says dinner with Don De Franceaux. Do you want me to 2 check on this calendar? Dinner with Don De Franceaux.

2 Q So do you recall on which dates you discussed
2 Stanley Arms and which ones you did not at this time?

3094

1 A I would imagine that if he had an appointment -

2 now, I will say that Mr. Sankin was one of my most

3 canceled appointments. If I was doing something, he'd

4 be the first person that I would cancel. If he made an

5 appointment to come see me it was either about he wanted

6 advice as to where to go to school or he was having some

7 sort of personal problem or he wanted to talk about the

8 Stanley Arms.

9 He did talk to me about the Necho Allen
10 Hotel. So during the Necho Allen Hotel times there may 11 very well be an appointment where he came in with 12 Mr. Rosenthal. I know that he did show Mr. Altman the 13 Stanley Arms, and that's in here. I know that says

14 Stanley Arms. But I did not have meetings with 15 Mr. Sankin regarding Regent Street or anything else that 16 Mr. Sankin worked on with HUD because I was unaware that 17 he had worked on Foxglenn or Eastern Avenue until I read
18 it in the newspaper or the I.G. report.

19 Q Miss Dean, as I asked, do those dates refresh your 20 recollection as to whether you discussed Stanley Arms on 2 those dates?

2 A I thought I answered you.

2 THE COURT: well, let's try it again.

2 A No, it doesn't.

2 Q Thank you. Now, as to Alameda Towers, is it fair

3095

1 to say that you knew Thomas Broussard was a consultant

2 on Alameda Towers?

3 A Yes, I did.

4 Q And did you know he was working with Andrew Sankin?

5 A Yes, I did.

6 Q Is it fair to say that Mr. Broussard testified in 7 this Court that he called you to check on Sankin to find
8 out about him after Sankin had called him?

9 A Yes, but I don't remember that.

10 Q You don't remember it, or it didn't happen?

11 A I don't remember it. I'm certain it did happen.

12 well, not certain. I assume it did happen. It makes 13 sense that it would have happened.

14 Q Now, is it fair to say that you told Mr. Sankin and 15 Mr. Broussard of the units in Puerto Rico?

16 A I don't believe I told Mr. Broussard - no, I did
17 tell Mr. Broussard separately and I did have a
18 discussion with Mr. Sankin but I never had a discussion
19 with the two of them together.

20 Q Now, the units in Puerto Rico were the same ones
2 that were recaptured because Joseph Strauss had made
2 Secretary Pierce look bad, is that correct?

2 A They were recaptured because Secretary Pierce
2 wanted them recaptured.

2 Q Because Joseph Strauss made him look bad by getting

3096

1 600 in Puerto Rico where he would stand to make a lot of

2 money, isn't that correct?

3 A I don't think Secretary Pierce brought them back

4 because it made him look bad. I think he brought them

5 back because it was the right thing to do.

6 Q You don't remember testifying on direct examination

7 that those actions made Secretary Pierce look bad?

8 A It was my understanding that it made him look bad.

9 I told Secretary Pierce that it looked bad. But 10 Secretary Pierce in my estimation brought the units back
11 because it was the right thing to do.

12 Q And Joe Strauss was to have gotten paid $1000 per 13 unit and that was prior to the recapture, correct?

14 A As I told you the other day, and you asked me the 15 same question, I don't know what he was being paid on 16 Puerto Rico. All I know is what Mr. Richards told me he 17 was bragging about, and that was between a thousand and 18 $1500 per unit is what he said he could get.

19 Q Now, is it fair to say that you knew both 20 Mr. Sankin and Mr. Broussard were going to be paid on 2 Alameda Towers as consultants?

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

2 A I assumed that they were going to make some money,
2 yes.
2 Q Well, they're acting as consultants, were they not?
2 A I frankly don't know how they were going to go

3097

1 about doing what they were going to do or how much they

2 would have made.

3 Q Now, both Mr. Broussard and Mr. Sankin kept you up

4 to date on what they were doing on Alameda Towers, is

5 that fair to say?

6 A No, that isn't fair to say. I know that

7 Mr. Broussard attempted to keep me up to date and I kept

8 telling Mr. Broussard not to contact me but to contact

9 Mr. Monticciolo, and Mr. Broussard called me many many 10 times but I didn't return his phone calls. And he did
11 send me this one letter but I did not have in-depth
12 conversations with Mr. Broussard.

13 Q Miss Dean, let me show you Government's Exhibit 137
14 and I ask you if this is a letter from Tom Broussard to 15 Dear Debbie?

16 A Yes, "Dear Debbie, enclosed is a check for a 17 thousand dollars from Andy Gurley at Morgan Stanley for 18 the Fair Housing Committee for Los Angeles. I may be 19 slow but I'm persistent, and then I spoke to Joe
20 Monticciolo regarding Puerto Rico and he is putting you
2 in contact" - or "putting me in contact with a group in

2 old San Juan that is working on units through Joe and 2 D'Amato. I think Andy S. and I would be better with 2 them than Andy's first contact. I'll speak to you when 2 I return from Europe on January 24. Sincerely, Tom."

3098

1 Q And Mr. Broussard wrote that letter to you?

2 A As I said, he kept attempting to keep me up to date

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
3 but I did not want to deal directly with Mr. Broussard

4 and I would have him deal with Joe Monticciolo, just

5 what he says in the letter, that he's been speaking with

6 Joe Monticciolo, who put him in contact with the group

7 in Puerto Rico, which is exactly the way it was supposed

8 to work.

9 Q Let me ask you this, Miss Dean, in that letter does
10 he refer to an Andy S.?

11 A Yes, and I'm sure he's referring to Andy Sankin.

12 Q And does he talk about Andy S's first contact?

13 A Yes.

14 Q Do you know who that was?

15 A I have no idea.

16 Q Now, isn't it true that you were helping both 17 Mr. Broussard and Mr. Sankin to insure that they would 18 receive 150 units for a client, whoever that client
19 might happen to be?

20 A That's absolutely not true.

2 Q Let me show you - let me show you a document

2 that's been marked for - Miss Dean, I would show you

2 Government's exhibit 138 for identification purposes.

2 Is it fair to say that Mr. Broussard and Mr. Sankin went
2 to you and wanted you to tell Mr. Monticciolo that 3099

1 Mr. Rubi would only get 300 units if he worked with
2 Broussard and Sankin?

3 A I'm sure -

4 MR. WEHNER: Judge, could you give Miss Dean a
5 chance to read the entire pages before he asks questions
6 about it?

7 THE COURT: Sure, read the rest.

8 MR. WEHNER: Thank you.

9 A Okay. Would you like me to read it to the jury?

10 THE COURT: No, the question he asked you was 11 about your intercession to Mr. Monticciolo to inform 12 Mr. Rubi about the units.

13 A It doesn't say Mr. Rubi at all. It says that they 14 would have to tell Mr. Monticciolo all sorts of things,
15 they would get General Counsel's approval. That doesn't 16 mean I did it. It's just what they would like me to do
17 and I didn't do it and I didn't fund Mr. Winn's Oklahoma
18 project either.

19 Q Mr. Winn had no Oklahoma project, did he, Ma'am?

20 A You just showed me a letter and said -2

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

1 Q You're talking about Philip Abrams.
2 A Okay, I didn't fund Mr. Abrams' Oklahoma project
2 either.
2 Q Now, they did ask you for your intercession, did
2 they not?

3100

1 A Mr. O'Neill, I don't know anyone who doesn't ask me
2 for my intercession. It doesn't mean it happened.
3 Q I'm asking about Mr. Broussard and Mr. Sankin.
4 A I don't know who this belongs to. It look likes
5 Mr. Broussard's handwriting. I've looked at a lot of 6 documents. I don't even know what it is that you are 7 trying to get me to say. I did not tell Joe Monticciolo
8 to do anything except get those units out, find a 9 developer and don't let those funds be recaptured. That 10 was it.

11 Mr. Broussard and Mr. Sankin were not the only 12 developers that we were talking to. They're not the 13 only people Mr. Monticciolo was talking to. It just 14 didn't happen the way you want it to look.
15 Q Miss Dean, let me ask you a question about these 16 150 units. Isn't it true that Mr. Rubi had Alphonse
17 D'Amato's, the Senator from New York, support for 150
18 units?
19 A How in the world would I know that?
20 Q I'm asking you, Ma'am.
2 A No, as a matter of fact, there were 300 units in 2 Puerto Rico. How this 150 - 150 thing came up I have
2 no knowledge. Anybody who had a 300-unit project could
2 have gotten 300 units. There was no necessity to split
2 into one 150 or no reason not to split it into six units

3101

1 of 50 each. Anybody who came in with a project that
2 could have used those 300 units, whether it was one
3 developer or 15 developers, we were more than happy to 4 work with them as long as those 300 units didn't get
5 recaptured.
6 Q Didn't Andy Sankin and Tom Broussard ask you to 7 guarantee them 150 units and tell Joe Monticciolo that?
8 A Well, I'm certain the note that Mr. Broussard said
9 was his way of trying to get me to do that, but I

10 didn't. It would not have been the right way to do it,
11 and I didn't do it that way.
12 Q Let's talk about Foxglenn, Ma'am.
13 A All right.
14 Q The next project. Did you suggest that Mr. Sankin
15 work with Richard Shelby on that project?
16 A No, I did not.
17 Q Did you suggest that Mr. Sankin work with 18 Rick Shelby as a consultant?
19 A Yes, I told Mr. Sankin that I felt he ought to get 20 a job with somebody that knew what they were doing so
21 that he could learn something about the housing business

22 that he seemed to want to go into.
23 Q And you knew that Mr. Shelby was a consultant and 24 you suggested his name?
25 A I suggested several people's names and, yes, I told

3102

1 you on Friday, I knew Mr. Shelby was being paid for work
2 he did with HUD. I didn't know how much he was being
3 paid, but I knew he was being paid.
4 Q Now, did you know Mr. Sankin and Mr. Shelby were 5 working on the Foxglenn projects?
6 A No, I did not.
7 Q And is it your testimony that neither one of them
8 ever broached the subject of Foxglenn with you?
9 A Now, you know that that is not my testimony. I

10 told you before that Mr. Shelby may very well have 11 discussed Foxglenn with me or he may very well have 12 discussed his interest in a project in Maryland. I just 13 don't ever recall the name Foxglenn. I don't recall the 14 name Park Towers. If Mr. Shelby was working on 15 something, I had lunch with him every two to three 16 weeks, I'm sure he told me he was working on something 17 but he didn't ask for my help. He did ask me a lot of 18 questions. He had never mentioned anything about 19 Foxglenn to me that I can recall.
20 Q When you were having lunch during this period then
2 he wasn't referring – he wasn't asking any questions
2 about Foxglenn that you can recall?
2 A I cannot ever remember Mr. Shelby saying the words
2 Foxglenn or Park Towers. He might have said I'm working
2 on a Mod Rehab project in Maryland. He might have said

3103

1 I'm working on a Mod Rehab project in – or he might
2 have said I'm working on a project or a proposal. He 3 might have asked me questions, but he never asked me for 4 my help to do anything on Mod Rehab until he came to me
5 on the 88 units in Prince Georges County.
6 Q Do you recall Mr. Shelby's testimony that he did
7 ask for your help on the Foxglenn project?
8 A I believe he said he spoke to Mr. DeBartolomeis and 9 he might have spoken to me. That is what I remember him

10 saying. In both instances. Park Towers and Foxglenn.
11 Q As to Foxglenn, do you recall him saying you were 12 his primary contact at HUD on the Foxglenn project?
13 A Mr. O'Neill, I've looked at the papers for Foxglenn
14 and I've been through them and there is no question in 15 my mind who did Foxglenn Apartments and Silvio
16 DeBartolomeis is all over it, and it was a very special
17 deal. You know it was a special deal. You know how it
18 worked and you know that I did not have anything to do
19 with it.
20 Q Miss Dean, I'll ask again, do you recall
2 Rick Shelby testifying on direct examination that you

2 were his primary contact on Foxglenn?
2 A No, I don't recall him saying that. I remember him
2 saying that he thinks he probably spoke to me about it
2 and that he was talking to Mr. DeBartolomeis. That is 3104

1 what I recall.
2 Q And the first time that you recall Rick Shelby ever
3 asking for your assistance on a Mod Rehab project is the 4 Eastern Avenue project, is that your testimony?
5 A Yes, it is, because I remember it very 6 specifically.
7 Q And that was funded in April of 1987?
8 A That's correct.
9 Q And is it also your testimony you did not vote on 10 that because Mr. Shelby had asked for your assistance?
11 A No, that's not what I said. I said that I spoke to 12 Secretary Pierce about it and I told him that I felt -13
13 first of all, I felt very uncomfortable when Mr. Shelby
14 came to me because I felt that that was - that he had 15 stepped over the line of our friendship. I didn't think 16 it was the right thing to do. That he should have done
17 it the way he did all his other projects, let him come
18 up through the pipeline, not start up with the Committee
19 and work down.
20 I just thought that was the wrong thing for
2 him to do and I talked to Secretary Pierce about it then
2 and he just said, well, see if it comes up from Demery,
2 and when it did come up from Demery, I talked to
2 Secretary Pierce about it again.
2 Two things in mind, one was that it was in my 3105

1 own home state of Maryland and Demery had one in
2 Michigan. I thought the Secretary ought to look at both
3 of those before they went out and, two, it was once
4 again I reminded Secretary Fierce that I had a personal
5 friendship with Mr. Shelby and that I was uncomfortable
6 about it and he turned to me and he said two things.
7 One is you can't ever not fund Maryland just because you
8 come from there. That's not fair either. Let it go.
9 And second of all, is if the project's checked out and 10 if it's legal and Mr. Shelby is in this business, just 11 because you know him is no reason that you can't vote on 12 this project.

13 As it out, I didn't have to, but I would have 14 and I could have, according to my boss, who was the 15 highest authority in the Department and the most ethical 16 person I know.
17 Q He was no longer spineless by this time, is that 18 correct, Ma'am?
19 A Mr. O'Neill, that is so unfair. Now, if you want
20 to talk about Secretary Pierce, we'll be here all day.
2 THE COURT: Let's just listen to the questions
2 and answer the questions.
2 BY MR. O'NEILL:
2 Q Now, let's talk about Sam Pierce for a second, Miss

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 Dean. Is it fair to say that you have testified

3106

1 essentially that you were just a messenger for
2 Sam Pierce, he made all the decisions on Mod Rehab
3 funding?
4 A I'm going to be very clear about this. Secretary
5 Pierce did not sit down with every single project and go
6 over every project. Let me see the letter, let me see
7 the numbers, let's me see everything you've got on it.
8 He did not do that. He accepted in 1987 the Committee's 9 votes on it for the most part with any input that I knew

10 of or that I had. He asked me to check out what I
11 could.
12 Before that there were things that he had some 13 interest in and he asked that we check them out and fund
14 them, if possible.
15 And there were other ones that he accepted
16 from the Housing Commissioners or the Acting Housing
17 Commissioners when they came up.
18 You are not going to get me to say that he 19 made every single decision based on all of the knowledge
20 that was out there to be known, because he didn't do
2 that. But, on the other hand, I wasn't running HUD or 2 running the Mod Rehab program either.
2 Now, the truth lies in between where you want
2 it to be and where it is. Okay? I mean the truth is 2 there. You just don't want to hear it.

3107

1 THE COURT: Just answer the questions, all
2 right, please?
3 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry.
4 BY MR. O'NEILL:
5 Q Now, Miss Dean, the jury -- you've mentioned
6 Mr. Pierce on a number of occasions. They've heard
7 nothing about his background. What is Mr. Pierce's
8 background? Let's begin with was he a prominent New 9 York lawyer for a number of years?
10 A Yes, he was a tax attorney.
11 Q And what else do you know about his background
12 before he came to HUD?
13 A Well, I know that he was in the Judge Advocate
14 Corps in the Army. That he went to Cornell University.
15 He was Ail-American. Then he was in New York and he ran 16 for -- he was part of the -- I don't know if it was the 17 Harlem Republicans or the -- but -- he was up there at 18 the same time that I remember as Adam Clayton Powell and 19 he was in the U.S. Attorney's Office up there, and there 20 came a time when Mr. Powell was being investigated and 2 Secretary Pierce didn't want to be a part of that 2 investigation, so he asked to come down and work in
2 Washington instead and he came down to work for a Senate
2 Committee. Or maybe it was house Committee. I don't
2 remember which one. And then he went to the Department

3108

1 of Treasury and he was at the Department of Labor and he
2 ran for Judge in New York and was elected Judge and 3 became Secretary of Housing and Urban Development.
4 Q So he was a very prominent individual before
5 becoming Secretary at HUD?
6 A With many years of Government service, yes.
7 Q And he was nominated by, I guess, President Reagan
8 to become the Secretary of HUD?
9 A Yes.

10 Q And, in fact, he became the Secretary very early on 11 and was Secretary of HUD throughout both terms of 12 President Reagan's presidency?

13 A Yes.

14 Q Now, he was in charge of all HUD employees, is that 15 correct, Miss Dean?

16 A Yes.

17 Q How many employees nationwide did HUD have while
18 you were there?

19 A About 4500 is my recollection. It went up and
20 down.

2 Q Did he also have a very heavy travel schedule?

2 A Yes, he did.

3109

Q. Now is it fair to say that as of late 1986, Mr. Pierce was not even familiar with the Mod Rehab Program?

A. No, that's not correct.

Q. Do you recall Susan Zagame testifying that in late 1986, after Tom Demery had already become assistant secretary for Housing, there was a meeting in which Mr. Pierce asked what the Mod Rehab Program is all about? Do you recall that testimony?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. Were you present at that meeting?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Did that conversation happen?

12 A. Well, it doesn't --it didn't happen the way you're saying it happened. We were having a very technical --

14 MR. O'NEILL: Excuse me. Your Honor, again, I'm not saying anything.

16 MR. WEHNER: Judge --

17 THE COURT: No, I'll sustain the Independent Counsel's objection. He just asked whether the conversation happened. You can say, "Not that way," and then if you want to go into redirect, you can.

21 MR. WEHNER: Very well, Your Honor.

22 THE WITNESS: Excuse me, would it be possible to take a short break?

24 THE COURT: Sure.

25 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

3110

1 THE COURT: It's 11:00. It's time for a break.

2 All right, Ladies and Gentlemen, we'll take a break

3 now. Actually, it's been a little past eleven already. So we'll

4 take our break for 15 minutes and be back.

5 Remember my admonitions again. You don't talk about

6 this case among yourselves or with anyone else during the break.

7 We'll see you back in 15 minutes, please.

8 (Jury out.)

9 THE COURT: Ms. Dean, you can step down.

10 THE WITNESS : Thank you.

11 THE COURT: Do you think you're going to be all morning?

13 MR. O'NEILL : All morning probably, Judge.

14 THE COURT: But not all afternoon?

15 MR. O'NEILL : No.

16 THE COURT: So you can get your witness here then.

17 MR. WEHNER: Yeah. Your Honor, I've got him scheduled to be here, to start < at 1:30.

19 THE COURT: That's fine, all right. All right, we'll take a break then.

21 MR. WEHNER: I think that will work, yeah.

22 (Recess from 11:07 a.m. to 11:35 a.m.)

23 THE COURT: All right, bring the jury out then.

24 THE DEPUTY MARSHAL: Yes, Your Honor.

25 (Jury in.)

3111

1 THE COURT: All right, Ladies and Gentlemen, we're

2 ready to resume at this time for the last part of the morning
3 session.

MR. O'NEILL: Thank you, Your Honor.

Q. Ms. Dean, when we broke, I believe I had asked you questions about a meeting in late 1986 in which Susan Zagame testified that Sam Pierce asked a question as to what the Mod Rehab Program was.

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Is it fair to say that your recollection of what occurred on 10 that date is different than Ms. Zagame's?

11 A. No. May I explain?

12 Q. Why don't you.

13 THE COURT: well -- all right.

14 THE WITNESS: He asked a technical question. It was a 15 budget meeting; it was not a generic meeting, and we were 16 discussing, in essence, fair market rents and how they're 17 established and everything else, and he had a specific question
18 about mod rehab.

19 Q. Do you recall that Ms. Zagame's testimony was that it was a 20 question as to what the Mod Rehab Program was?

21 A. Actually, I remember exactly what he said. He said, "what 22 is this Mod Rehab Program anyway?" It doesn't mean he didn't 23 know what the Mod Rehab Program was. It meant he was asking how 24 the fair market rents were calculated for the Moderate
25 Rehabilitation Program. It's just the way he characterized it.

3112

MR. O'NEILL: Judge, move to strike as unresponsive to
the question.

3 MR. WEHNER: Objection.

4 THE COURT: Overruled.

5 BY MR. O'NEILL:

Q. Ms. Dean, I'll ask the question a second time.

A. All right.

Q. Do you recall Ms. Zagame's testimony that Mr. Pierce asked what is the Mod Rehab Program about?

10 A. I don't remember her using those words, no.

11 Q. Thank you. Now is it fair to say that you had a very 12 important position at HUD as executive assistant to the 13 secretary?

14 A. I would say it was important to some people and unimportant
15 to other people.

16 Q. And is it true you were not only executive assistant but 17 also chief of staff and white House liaison?

18 A. Yes. Those were titles that went with it, just like 19 executive secretariat and special assistant.

20 Q. But those were important titles?

21 A. well, chief of staff was the chief of staff to Cabinet
22 Affairs, and white House liaison was white House liaison to the 23 Personnel Office at the white House. You could read more into 24 those titles than what they were. But chief of staff was Cabinet
25 Affairs, white House liaison was personnel affairs, and executive assistant to the secretary was, I think, considered by some to be sort of a chief of staff, but it was -- I mean, it was a good job. I'm not saying it wasn't a good job. It was a great job.

3113

Q. And when did you become chief of staff?

5 jA. When Donald Regan became chief of staff at the White House.

Q. Now, Ms. Dean, isn't it fair to say that Secretary Pierce

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
relied on you to make decisions on mod rehab funding?

A. He relied on me in the September 1986 funding round to go ahead and get as many units out of the department as possible.

10 In that realm, yes, he did.

11 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, isn't it true by your own testimony in 12 previous proceedings, Mr. Pierce couldn't be making all the 13 individual decisions on discretionary programs, because it would 14 take him 40 hours a day?

15 A. Yes. I mean, he relied on those committees that he had in 16 his discretionary programs so that he could get other people's 17 judgment, and he also thought that the people on the committees
18 would watch over, so he wouldn't have a situation where one
19 particular housing commissioner or one particular assistant 20 secretary was giving out money that he wasn't aware of.

21 Q. Do you remember telling the jury that Mr. Pierce basically
22 operated on an honor system?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And that if everything wasn't disclosed to Mr. Pierce, that 25 things could be funded without him knowing?

3114

A. That's correct.

Q. Now --

A. Not in every case. In the Mod Rehab Program.

Q. Based on what you've stated during your examination here
5 before this Court, is it fair to say that Lance Wilson, Philip Abrams, Maurice Barksdale, Silvio DeBartolomeis, Thomas Demery
all at one time or another violated this honor system of Sam

8 Pierce?

9 A. No, I wouldn't say that was fair.

10 Q. Okay. Let's

11 A. I don't know anything about Lance Wilson's tenure as 12 executive assistant. I don't know anything about the decisions
13 that he made.

14 Q. Well, you testified on direct examination, did you not, that 15 Mr. Wilson sent those 610 units to Puerto Rico for Joe Strauss?

16 A. No, you testified to that. You kept asking me that, and I
17 kept telling you I didn't know.

18 Q. How about Philip Abrams? Did you testify again on direct 19 examination that he sent units to his ex-business partner, Larry

20 Green?

21 A. Yes, he did that, but that was before Secretary Pierce knew 22 that there was a reason to have anyone watching the federal 23 housing commissioners. That happened back in 1983.

24 Q. How about Maurice Barksdale? Did you testify that he gave 25 out all the remaining fiscal year 1985 mod rehab funds without

3115

Secretary Pierce's knowledge?

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

A. Not all of them, but a large part of it, and that is why Secretary Pierce had me send the memo down to Shirley Wiseman saying, "From now on, please make certain that the office of the

i
5 | secretary concurs in funding decisions in the Mod Rehab Program."
i

6 Q. So most of them were given out without Secretary Pierce's knowledge by Maurice Barksdale?

A. Well, let's just say that when Secretary Pierce told me that he had called Ms. Wiseman and Ms. Wiseman had said that there
10 were no units to do something that Secretary Pierce wanted to do,
11 he showed me great surprise. I do not know what happened between 12 Mr. Barksdale and Secretary Pierce. I do know that Mr. Pierce
13 told me that that should not have happened, and he wanted to make 14 certain that that didn't happen again.

15 Q. So based on your conversation with Sam Pierce, is it not 16 correct that he was surprised that all the units had gone out
17 without his knowledge?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. Now you also claim that Mr. DeBartolomeis gave units without 20 Secretary Pierce's knowledge, is that correct, when he was acting
21 assistant secretary for Housing?

22 A. I don't, I don't recall ever saying that -- with the 23 exception of I can't find that Oklahoma project, and I'm going to 24 assume that Mr. DeBartolomeis was the person that had an interest
25 in funding that, I couldn't find that on the list that Secretary

Pierce approved, yes, but all the other things Mr. DeBartolomeis brought up. He just wasn't completely -- if he knew that Mr. Queenan was involved and that Mr. Queenan was involved with the Winn Group, he did not share that with me, and I was

5 | therefore unable to share it with Secretary Pierce.

6 Q. Were you going to say he was not completely honest with Secretary Pierce?

A. No, I wasn't. I said exactly what I said. He didn't share it with me, and therefore, I could not share it with Secretary Pierce.

11 Q. And how about Thomas Demery?

12 A. What about it?

13 Q. Were there times when he was less than totally candid with
14 Secretary Pierce?

15 A. I don't know if Mr. Demery was ever candid with Secretary

16 Pierce.

17 Q. Now do you recall testifying to this jury that the job
18 description of the executive assistant to the secretary entails a 19 wide scope of responsibility, because it is impossible for the 20 secretary to give individual attention and time to all matters
21 which deserve his personal attention?

22 A. That's why he had an executive assistant and an 23 undersecretary and a host of other special assistants, yes.

24 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, as to Lou Kitchin, the jury has heard

25 evidence of a number of meetings that you had with Mr. Kitchin.

3117

A. Yes.

2 Q. I would direct your attention to one on June 23 of 1986, and 3 I believe you testified on direct examination as to meeting with 4 Mr. Kitchin at the Four Seasons Hotel.

5 A. Yes. I thought that was the 25th.

6 Q. Let me show you Government's Exhibit 7, I believe it's H.

7 A. The 25th.

8 Q. 25th? I'm sorry.

9 And did you, in fact, have a meeting with Lou Kitchin
10 at the Four Seasons on that date?

11 A. Yes, I did.

12 Q. And as you testified on direct examination, he was talking
13 about Shirley Wiseman; is that correct?

14 A. That's correct.

15 Q. Now just so it's clear --

16 A. He was talking about Lance Wilson was the primary focus, and 17 then it got into Ms. Wiseman.

18 Q. Now this is a year after Ms. Wiseman has left HUD, isn't
19 that true?

20 A. No, I think she was still there.

21 Q. In June of 1986?

22 A. I believe she was still there, because I remember that we 23 were talking in such a way that I was saying, "well, I like 24 Shirley, and Shirley likes me, and I don't see any problem." I 25 don't know why I would have had that conversation if she had been

3118

1 gone. I may be incorrect, but I remember the conversation.

2 Q. Who was the acting assistant secretary for Housing in June
3 of 86? Do you recall whether it was Silvio DeBartolomeis?

4 A. In '86? Yes.

5 Q. And he replaced Janet Hale?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And she replaced Shirley Wiseman?

8 A. Yes, but Ms. Wiseman may have been head of the Home

9 Builders. I just remember that the conversation was about

10 Mr. Wilson and Ms. Wiseman.

11 Q. Isn't it true that the purpose of the conversation was to 12 establish a relationship with Lou Kitchin since he was a 13 political heavyweight?

14 A. For me to establish?

15 Q. Yes.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

16 A. No. He requested the meeting about the fact that he had 17 supported I Shirley wiseman and that he thought that I somehow 18 disliked him for that, and I had to tell him I didn't know who he 19 was

20 Q. Now did there come a point in time when he asked you to 21 intercede » on his behalf on certain clients of his?

22 A. There were times that he sent me things and asked me to give 23 them to the right people and have them done, yes.

24 Q-Did he ask you to do that on Plateau Insurance Company?

25 A. Yes.

Q. And how about Woodcrest Retirement Center?

2 A. Yes. And both times I sent them to the appropriate staff,
3 and the appropriate staff responded.

4 Q. Am I correct that there came a point in time when he
5 approached you about sending 200 mod rehab units to Atlanta?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Do you recall his testimony that he did, in fact, ask you
8 for that?

9 A. No, I think that he said he couldn't remember.

10 Q. Ms. Dean, let me show you Government's Exhibit 181 already 11 in evidence. Let me put it on the visual presenter so the jury
12 can see it since it is in evidence.

13 And I'd ask you, Ms. Dean, does this appear to be a 14 handwritten list concerning mod rehab units?

15 A. Yes. This is -- it was written on a yellow pad, and it was 16 in the folder that I believe I testified that I kept behind my 17 desk on the credenza that said "Mod Rehab" on it, and these were 18 projects that had already been approved in September, and as the 19 letters would come in or as they would be, you know, they were 20 ready to go downstairs, I would add them. That's why they're in 21 all different handwritings. It's all my handwriting; it's just 22 that they're, it all came in at different times.

23 Q. The question was, Ms. Dean, is this a list concerning mod
24 rehab units?

25 A. Yes, it is.

3120

1 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, that is your handwriting, correct?

2 A. Yes.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

Q. Now I'd ask you to read the first entry to the Ladies and Gentlemen of the Jury.

A. "City of Atlanta, Georgia, 200 two bedrooms,"and then it originally was going to the Atlanta Public Housing Authority, and I crossed that out and put "Department of Community Development."

Q. And you've stipulated that that is, in fact, your handwriting?

10 A. Yes. And I also testified that those units went down as a 11 result of Senator Mack Mattingly's campaign in Georgia. And I am 12 not saying that it is not possible that Mr. Kitchin and I did not 13 have a conversation about that, because that is possible, just 14 that he did not come to me and say, "I want 200 units for 15 Atlanta, Georgia." That did not happen.

16 However, I might have told him that we had 200 units
17 going down there. That is a definite possibility.

18 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, once again, I move to strike the
19 answer.

20 THE COURT: All right, I'll strike the answer. The 2 question just simply asked about what the document said on its

2 face.

2 BY MR. O'NEILL:

2 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, I show you the document once more,
2 Government's Exhibit 181 --

3121

A. Yes.

Q. -- and ask you do you have a message at the bottom to T.D?

A. Yes, Tom Demery.

Q. Is that Tom Demery?

A. Yes, it is.

Q. And would you read your message to Tom Demery to the jury,
please?

8 A. "Let me know when in action so I can call the Office of 9 Management and Budget. Very important! D."

10 Q. And is that at the very beginning of Mr. Demery's tenure at 11 HUD as assistant secretary?

12 A. Yes, and it was before the apportionment and before 13 the -- which is why I was calling OMB, to let them know that we 14 were going to spend money before the apportionment, which was 15 also right before the election.

16 MR. O'NEILL: Again, Your Honor, I'd move to strike the 17 parts that were not responsive to the question.

18 THE COURT: All right, I'll grant the motion to strike.

19 Just answer the question. Answer others in redirect if you need
20 to explain.

21 THE WITNESS: Sorry.

22 BY MR. O'NEILL:

23 Q. Ms. Dean, I would show you Government's Exhibit 179 in 24 evidence. Directing your attention to Government's Exhibit 179, 25 is this a letter from Robert Sutnbry of the City of Atlanta to the

3122

1 regional HUD office requesting units?

2 A. Yes.

Q. Did you ever see this letter prior to the --

A. Can you put it back on the screen?

Q. Yes.

A. Can you put it toward the bottom and over to the right? I mean, can I see the other side of it?

Q. What would you like to see?

A. I'd like to see whether or not it came from my files, because if it did, it would be Bates stamped.

11 Q. Why don't I ask the question again, Ms. Dean.

12 MR. WEHNER: Judge --

13 THE COURT: wait, why don't you just show her the whole document and let her look at it so she can recall. There are a lot of documents in this case.

16 BY MR. O'NEILL:

17 Q. Ms. Dean, I'll show you Government's Exhibit 179, and I'll ask did you see that, have you ever seen that document?

19 A. It did not come from my files, and so the only time I would have seen it is when you gave it to us.

2 Q. Do you recall whether Lou Kitchin ever gave you this document?

2 A. No, he did not.

2 Q. Now at this time, I'd show you Government's Exhibit 183. Do you recognize this document, Ms. Dean?

3123

1 A. Well, it's a rapid reply, and I don't see where it's going, so I -- I can't make it out.

Q. Is it fair to say the date on the rapid reply is October 30, 1986?

5 >A. Yes. Well, Mr. Cushing's signature, if you can go down further, it will tell you when it was -- Mr. Demery signed it on the 31st.

8 Q. Of October 1986?

9 A. Yes. Well -- yeah.

10 Q. And Ms. Zagame signs it on October 30 of 1986?

11 A. I can't make that out.

12 Q. Is it fair to say that that document is for 1,227 units? Can you see that?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. I'd direct your attention to the backup documentation for the rapid reply, and does that indicate that 200 units went to the City of Atlanta, Region IV?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, that rapid reply was signed on October 30, 1986. Do you recall Lou Kitchin signing his name to a telegram in support of your becoming assistant secretary for Community

2 Planning and Development on November 4, 1986?

2 A. I know that Mr. Shelby put that telegram together, and I believe he called each of the regional directors and had -- and got their okay to put it on there. I don't think anyone was

3124

1 required to sign it. Mr. Shelby just put it together and had it
2 sent.

3 Q. Ms. Dean, do you recall whether Lou Kitchin's name was on 4 that telegram?

5 A. Yes, it was. He was the southern regional political
6 director.

7 Q. Now did there come a time when Mr. Kitchin requested that 8 you send 203 units to Miami?

9 A. Never.

10 Q. Now did you hear Mr. Kitchin testify at this trial that he 11 approached you about the 203 units to Miami?

12 A. He said that he didn't have any independent recollection of 13 it, that he probably talked to anybody he could.

14 Q. Ms. Dean, I'll show you Government's Exhibit 202. Again, I
15 would direct your attention to the visual monitor, and I'd ask
16 you does this exhibit, Government's Exhibit 202, contain a list
17 of mod rehab funding in your handwriting?

18 A. Yes. That's the list that I prepared before the meeting to 19 go over with Secretary Pierce.

20 Q. And is it your handwriting on this document?

2 A. And it's all my handwriting.

2 Q. And did you stipulate that it was, in fact, your
2 handwriting?

2 A. It is my handwriting.

2 Q. Now I direct your attention to the center of the page, where

1 it says "Metro Dade, 203," and then on the side, it says "153 one

2 bedroom, 48 two bedroom, 2 zero bedroom, letter."

3 reading of what's contained in that document?

4 A. Yes.

Q. And is that your handwriting?

A. Yes, it is.

Q. Two boxes below is "P.G. County"?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And "88 two-bedroom units."

10 And was that for Eastern Avenue?

11 A. I'm sorry?

12 Q. Was that for Eastern Avenue?

Is that a fair

13 A. It was the project Mr. Shelby talked to me about. I don't 14 ever recall him saying Eastern Avenue.

15 Q. Now the 203 units went to Miami from the April 7, 1987
16 funding round; is that correct?

17 A. That's correct.

18 Q. Now is it fair to say that during this period of time that 19 you were executive assistant to the secretary at HUD, a large
20 number of units proportionately went to Miami?

2 A. Yes. Miami and Puerto Rico especially and Colorado.

2 Q. Now do you recall meeting with Mr. Kitchin on April 8, 1987,
2 a day after the funding round?

2 A. Yes.

2 Q. We covered a lot on that $4,000 check that you received from

3126

1 Mr. Kitchin. Did you ever put that into a separate business
2 account?

A. No.

4 Q. Did you use that check to pay any personal matters?

5 A. Yes. Once I had the $4,000, I just basically stuck it in 6 the bank and used it and sort of reimbursed myself for the 520 or 7 $540 that he owed me, and then part of it I considered to be part
8 of my fee. So I would just put all the money in there and use it
9 when I needed to, as long as I kept a running record of what I
10 needed to use for him.

11 Q. Ms. Dean, is it fair to say that you did not have sufficient
12 funds in your checking account until approximately September 30
13 of that year, when you would have had funds in excess of $4,000?

14 A. I don't know the exact date, but that would -- I mean, I
15 know that I got a check in July or I had money coming to me in 16 July when I left the government payroll, either my retirement or 17 my annual leave, something like that, which was a large check,
18 and I got some, some other monies in from different places.
19 My mother gave me money on occasions, and --if you say
20 September, I know that, whatever that one little checkbook says,
21 I know it has it in there.

22 Q. Let me --

23 A. If that ran through September.

24 Q. It's Government's Exhibit 533 for identification. This is 25 your June statement. Does your June statement reflect any 3127

1 balance in excess of $4,000?

2 A. No. No, very far short of it, actually.

3 Q. How about your July statement up until August 10?

4 A. I don't even see August 10 on here -- oh, up to the last
5 day. No, it says I have $1,800.

6 Q. And how about August 10 through September 9?

7 A. No, now I only have $62.

8 Q. How about September 10 through September 28?

9 A. $1,100.

10 Q. Okay. And how about September 28 to October 9? Does the 11 balance reflect on September 30 a balance in excess of $4,000?

12 A. Yes, 5,560.

13 Q. And this big check that you're referring to, could that have 14 been in October of 1986 you received a credit for $6,000?

15 A. It seems, it seems funny that I'd get exactly $6,000. It

16 doesn't seem normal. That was probably $6,000 that my mother

17 gave me.

18 Q. And that was in October of 1986?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Now is it your testimony that you did not discuss mod rehab
2 with Lou Kitchin?

2 A. No.

2 Q. You did discuss mod rehab with Lou Kitchin?

2 A. No, I'm sorry. No, I did not discuss mod rehab with Lou
2 Kitchin.

3128

1 Q. Okay. Did you hear the testimony of Sherrill
2 Nettles-Hawkins that Lou Kitchin would call you about mod rehab?
3 A. Yes, I did.

4 Q. And she communicated an answer from you to Mr. Kitchin?

5 A. Yes. She said that Mr. Kitchin called and said, "Where are 6 my units?"

7 Q. Was she mistaken about that?

8 A. Well, first of all, Sherrill Nettles-Hawkins would never lie
9 about anything. She could never do that. Either Mr. Kitchin was 10 calling about some Republican thing, in other words, "Are units

11 coming down to Florida for the campaign?" or units going here? I
12 can't imagine that anybody that was a consultant or developer
13 would ever call and say, "Where are my units?" That just doesn't 14 make any sense.

15 I think that either it was something that -- I mean,
16 she didn't, Ms. Hawkins would not lie, but it doesn't mean that 17 Mr. Lou Kitchin called and said, "Where are my units for Atlanta" 18 or Florida? I never discussed it with him, so he wouldn't have 19 made that phone call.

20 He may have called for political units. For instance,
21 if the President was going to be someplace and he knew money was 22 coming down, he could call and say, "Where are the units? We 23 want to announce them." That could be possible.

24 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, move to strike after "he may have 25 called" as speculation.

3129

1 MR. WEHNER: Judge, I think that was responsive.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 THE COURT: All right, I'll strike it after the, what
3 may have happened. The answer was that she explained it before
4 she got to that he may have called at the end of the answer
5 there.
6 BY MR. O'NEILL:
7 Q. Ms. Dean, I'd like to direct your attention to the project
8 Baltimore Uplift. Are you familiar with an individual by the 9 name of Lynn Nofziger who used to work
10 A. Yes, I am.
11 Q. At the time, did you know that he

13 A. No.
14 Q. How about Robert Tuttle, a lawyer
15 Mr. Nofziger?
16 A. No.

was a developer on the associated with

17 Q. Now let me direct your attention to Government's Exhibit 533
18 for identification.
19 Q. And I'd ask you did you have both Mr. Nofziger and 20 Mr. Tuttle's numbers on your Rolodex?
21 A. Yes, I did.
22 Q. Did you ever have any discussions with them in any way about 23 Baltimore uplift?
24 A. No. I would give you a broader answer, but you don't want
25 to] hear -

3130

1 THE COURT: Just answer the question.
2 THE WITNESS: All right. I never had a discussion with 3 Mr. Nofziger or Mr. Tuttle about Baltimore Uplift One.
4 BY MR. O'NEILL:
5 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, do you recall testifying on cross examination
6 that I don't approve of special assistants of the secretary of 7 HUD leaving HUD and cashing in on their former positions?
8 A. Yes, and I believe that.
9 Q. Do you recall testifying on cross examination that you did
10 not become a consultant after leaving HUD?
11 A. I became a lobbyist, not a consultant, and I never called 12 Secretary Pierce for anything, and I never did anything that was 13 influence peddling.
14 Q. Ms. Dean, let me show you what has been marked Government's 15 Exhibit 556 for identification.
16 MR. WEHNER: Judge, could we approach?
17 (Bench conference on the record.)
18 THE COURT: Okay. What's the objection to this?
19 MR. WEHNER: The objection is, Judge, he's now getting 20 into areas that we discussed previously at side bar regarding 2 Dean & Associates and her work subsequent to HUD, and the 2 argument is it's irrelevant, and it's also inadmissible pursuant
2 to Rule 403, because she did make considerable sums in the 2 consultant business after she left HUD, but it is not relevant to 2 the charges in the indictment.

3131

THE COURT: I'll overrule it as relevant to her
2 impeachment, but he doesn't need to go into fees she was getting 3 paid.
4 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, as long as we're up here -
5 THE COURT: I'm sorry.
6 MR. O'NEILL: -- I wanted to correct that she was, in 7 fact, a consultant, but there are a number of other matters where 8 she said, you know, consulting, and it would tie back into the 9 Horns.
10 Going back over the transcript, the government feels 11 she was less than candid with her role as a consultant. There 12 were indications that she was made $1,000 per unit on a deal with 13 Lance Wilson regarding the Gentle Pines in South Carolina.
14 MR. WEHNER: Judge, that didn't happen, and if we're 15 going to hear that testimony, I ask that we take it outside the 16 presence of the jury first and then you make a determination of 17 its admissibility in front of the jury, because I do not believe 18 that she ever got paid $1,000 a unit for anything. She didn't do
19 mod rehab after she left.
20 MR. O'NEILL: Section 8 certificates, Your Honor, which 21 became the project after mod rehab went out.
22 MR. WEHNER: See, that's the problem, Judge. If you
23 get into the general area of what she did in consulting, the 24 amounts of money that are going to be thrown around make it
25 appear as if she had benefited greatly from the consulting

3132

1 business, and that's being used by Bob as an inference that
2 somehow she was corrupt in her actions when she was at HUD, and 3 they haven't charged that in the indictment.
4 THE COURT: Okay. I don't want to spend a lot of time
5 and get into all sorts of collateral matters of impeachment.
6 This is really basically for impeachment purposes, and I think
7 that unless it really isn't, you know, mod rehab but something 8 different, I think he should be allowed to ask questions, because 9 she's testified she wasn't a consultant. I don't know why she's 10 making that distinction, but she did.
11 And she's also left the impression she didn't do HUD
12 involved-work. So I think he has a right to inquire into the 13 nature of the work and consulting agreements.
14 Before you get into the money, we can either take it
15 out of presence of the jury, or I can review the documents or 16 whatever. For instance, the $20,000 fee to Horns was listed as 17 accounts receivable, and I don't know if you have any evidence
18 she really did get the money. She said no about five times.
19 MR. O'NEILL: We have no check for 20,000; that's 20 right, Judge.
21 THE COURT: Yes. And she said the project didn't get 22 funded, so she didn't get her money.
23 MR. O'NEILL: Let me just do this, Judge, if I may: I
24 just noted it was 10 after twelve; I thought it was 10 to twelve.
25 If you want to, truly you've heard this from Mr. Wehner and 3133

1 myself, I know, Judge, but at most it's about 20 more minutes, so
2 if you want, I could reassess those questions in light of your

3 ruling, and if you want to break now, we'll finished very
4 quickly.

5 THE COURT: All right. I'm not going to stop you from 6 asking if she was a consultant, but if we get more involved in 7 the money, if she said, "No, I never got that," and you left the 8 impression that she did when there is no basis for that, that's a
9 problem.

10 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, my recollection of the 11 testimony is that she specifically said she was never a 12 $1,000-a-unit consultant, and the certificate program, as 13 Mr. O'Neill indicated, was the successor to the Mod Rehab
14 Program. It was within section 8. It's a closely related
15 program.

16 So just that Your Honor is not left with the impression
17 that it's somehow unrelated to Mod Rehab.

18 THE COURT: All right. Well, we won't go into it right
19 now. We'll just go ahead.

20 You want to break now?

2 MR. O'NEILL: I think that may be easier, Judge.

2 THE COURT: All right. We'll come back at 1:30 then.

2 (End of bench conference.)

2 THE COURT: All right, Ladies and Gentlemen, we may be
2 able to speed this along, so we're going to take our luncheon

3134

1 recess and let you all out of here, and then we can see where
2 we're going to go. I expect we'll finish Ms. Dean's examination
3 this afternoon in the early part, and then we'll move ahead.

4 I'm going to give you a luncheon recess now, so

5 remember the admonitions over lunch. It's a lovely day. I hope
6 you take a break and get outside for a while and take a good
7 walk. We'll see you back here at 1:30, please. Remember the 8 admonitions about not talking about the case with anyone or among 9 yourselves, please. See you back at 1:30.

10 (Jury out.)

11 THE COURT: You can step down, Ms. Dean.

12 Counsel, just let me ask you about something else. My 13 courtroom deputy gave me a note that -- and this case is so old,
14 this is not on the computer apparently -- that Judge Gesell had 15 made a ruling that the indictment would not be submitted to the 16 jury. You all may not historically have a memory of that. I
17 don't know if there's anyone in the office that does.

18 THE DEFENDANT: I do.

19 MR. O'NEILL: Steve remembers.

20 MR. WEHNER: I do, Judge.

2 THE COURT: It's a note on what they call the control
2 card or his docket entries in his office. I don't know if that's 2 been preserved anywhere or not, and I don't know what the 2 rationale was.

2 Mr. Wehner, do you remember anything about that?

3135

1 MR. WEHNER: It was during a discussion regarding some
2 of the more political aspects of the charges in the indictment,
3 and Judge Gesell had stated that the indictment without
4 redactions would not be submitted to the jury, but he'd not said
5 that the indictment would not be submitted. My recollection is 6 that, as is unusual in a case when you have 72 pages, there would 7 be some discussion as to what went, what redactions were made and 8 which ones weren't.

9 THE COURT: All right.

10 MR. WEHNER: That's my recollection.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
11 THE COURT: All right. Well, I wanted to raise that.
12 I can find the date that that was stated in case there was a 13 record made of it. I don't know if there was or not.
14 MR. O'NEILL: That would be helpful, Your Honor,
15 because I believe records were made.
16 THE COURT: Was there a date on that card?
17 MR. WEHNER: We have some transcripts from that time,
18 too, Judge.
19 THE COURT: Well, that's what I meant. If you can go
20 back and find the transcript, you know approximately when that
2 was put on the card in the context with other things on the card.
2 All right, Ms. Whyte will look at it and try to get you all a
2 date and see what his ruling was.
2 All right, we'll be back then at 1:30, please.
2 (Recess from 12:10 p.m. to 1:30 p.m.)

3136

AFTERNOON SESSION

2 (1:35 p.m.)
3 (Defendant present, Jury out.)
4 MR. WEHNER: Judge, one small matter before we get 5 started.
6 THE COURT: All right.
7 MR. WEHNER: Our next witness and last witness, I took 8 the liberty of letting him go back to his office.
9 THE COURT: Fine.
10 MR. WEHNER: He's about 15 minutes away, and he's on 11 call for us.
12 THE COURT: That's fine.
13 All right, bring the jury in, please.
14 THE DEPUTY MARSHAL: Yes, Your Honor.
15 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, I thought before we brought 16 the jury in, we were going to address the issue of the 17 -permissible evidence on cross examination.
18 THE COURT: I thought you resolved that. Where are you

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
19 now on those documents and materials?

20 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, we've taken the liberty of 21 just drafting up a short memo that describes the documents and

22 the extent of the cross examination that, that we wish to pursue.

23 we haven't had time to copy the exhibits, so I'll just have to 24 hand them up to Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: That's fine.

1 MR. WEHNER: Where are the attachments?

2 MS. SWEENEY: We have to share those.

3 Your Honor?

4 THE COURT: Yes.

5 MS. SWEENEY: We would object to Ms. Dean reading the 6 memo, since it concerns the cross examination and the purpose of
7 it.

8 MR. WEHNER: You know, Judge, they can't do that.

9 THE COURT: All right, overruled. I think if it's a
10 memo you filed in open court, the client has got a right to read
11 it.

12 where is the, Ms. Sweeney, the information on the 13 retainer on Murphy's situation and the per unit fee agreement in 14 the exhibits at least I've been given? I see the letter from 15 Mr. Leeper about collecting money for Gentle Pines. I don't see 16 a fee set forth. I see the consulting agreement of $1,000 per 17 month.

18 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, let me just put some exhibit
19 numbers on these documents, and I'll pass up some additional 20 documents marked as exhibits for ID purposes.

21 THE COURT: And the per unit charge?

22 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, would it be -- may we 23 approach?

24 THE COURT: Sure.

25 MS. SWEENEY: We only have the one set of the 3138

documents.

2 (Bench conference on the record.)

3 MS. SWEENEY: May I see the exhibits, Your Honor, just 4 for a moment?

5 THE COURT: Sure.

6 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, the agreements are structured
7 for consulting services. We have been informed by the clients
8 that the fees were structured on a per unit basis.

9 THE COURT: Do you have anything in that exhibit or 10 anything?

11 MS. SWEENEY: No, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Okay. What about the defendant's position
13 on motion for reconsideration to allow them to go into the,
14 besides the documentation that she worked as a consultant for

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
15 various people and to actual monies paid to Ms. Dean for her
16 work, including her work as a consultant here?
17 MR. WEHNER: Can I have a second to look at these 18 exhibits, Judge, please?
19 THE COURT: Sure.
20 MR. WEHNER: Where is the per unit reference?
21 MS. SWEENEY: As I just said to the Court, the 22 reference is to a certain fee.
23 MR. WEHNER: Right.
24 MS. SWEENEY: We have been informed by Ms. Dean's 25 client in this particular matter, Michael Levitt, that it was a

3139

1 per unit arrangement.
2 MR. WEHNER: Judge, my objection remains the same, but 3 in reviewing the exhibits, I don't think that the, that the 4 exhibits support what's stated in the memo. I'm looking at DBH
5 Trust Document, which is Exhibit 560.
6 MS. SWEENEY: Um-hum.
7 MR. WEHNER: That's when she was still assistant to the 8 secretary. That doesn't have anything to do with post-consulting
9 efforts.
10 The Benton Mortgage exhibit, it's 557, does not have 11 any reflection of any project-based $1,000 per unit consulting 12 whatsoever. It shows hours worked at a hourly rate. A letter to 13 Mr. Levitt does not reflect any $1,000 per unit reference
14 whatsoever. The Dean & Associates project-based Section 8
15 exhibit doesn't say anything about fee structure. The consultant
16 agreement, which is 556, provides for a thousand dollars per 17 month, which is hardly a project-based matter.
18 The checks, I suppose, are consistent to that. I
19 haven't looked at any of them. Are there any checks in here on a 20 project-based fee?
2 THE COURT: The checks are a $2,500 retainer per month
2 to Lynda Murphy in her office.
2 MS. SWEENEY: Right, Your Honor. The checks go more to 2 the amount of money involved and the suggestion that Ms. Dean has 2 left with the jury that she was paid only a small amount of 3140

1 money.
2 MR. WEHNER: I don't think that's a fair recollection
3 of the testimony, either. She testified these were in relation
4 to DBH, which there was a $20,000 accounts receivable, and there
5 was no evidence she ever received $20,000.
6 THE COURT: We're going to do this to move this along:
7 I want Ms. Dean to take the stand out of the presence of the 8 jury, and I want her to answer a couple of questions on this. It
9 seems to me we've spent an awful lot of time on somewhat

10 collateral matters, but I'll ask her a couple questions to be 11 sure what we're doing here.
12 DEBORAH GORE DEAN, DEFENDANT'S WITNESS, RESUMED
13 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION
14 BY THE COURT:
15 Q. Ms. Dean, there have been questions asked to you earlier
16 about the payment of funds after you left the office, and they 17 had asked you earlier, the Independent Counsel, wasn't it true
18 you had gotten paid $20,000, and you said, "No, I had only gotten
Page 1741

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
19 small amounts of money from them."
20 A. Right.
2 Q. The government has an accounts receivable list listing DBH

2 Trust as owing you $20,000.
2 A. Those weren't really accounts receivable. That was a list
2 of figures that were put together when there was a law firm that 2 was looking into buying my company and merging, as taking part of 3141

1 it and merging it into a law firm, and they asked, you know,
2 basically over a year or two years, how much money could we
3 expect to bring in from different sources, and -- but I didn't
4 have -- I never got 20,000 from them.
5 Q. From the DBH Trust as well as from the Horns, you never got 6 20,000?

A. No.

Q. What was that list of receivables for? Was that work that you were doing but did not come to fruition for them?
10 A. Well, it was work that I could have, could have done if the 11 law firm wanted to get into those things, but it wasn't work
12 that -- it's sort of an odd thing. We had certainly been 13 i approached many times about doing different things, and I didn't 14 jwant to do all that stuff by myself, and that was what, that was 15 money that that entity of the law firm could expect to bring in 16 if we entered into those agreements.

17 Q. All right. You did get onto a retainer relationship with 18 Lynda Murphy?

19 A. Yes, for six months.

20 Q. For six months.

21 And that involved HUD-related-type work?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. All right. And the Benton Mortgage relationship that you
24 had, you had a consulting-type agreement with them, including 25 financing of rental housing rehabilitation?

3142

A. No.

Q. Was there an arrangement with them besides a retainer to get more money, depending on what you did?

A. No. Originally, I'd worked for one of the owners of Benton Mortgage Company, and I had a specific -- I worked on specific things for that owner. Then the entire Benton Mortgage Company paid me -- or hired me and retained me -- I think that was $10,000 a month -- to work on their audit that had been done by the inspector general. And I prepared their original response
10 back to the department on the audit, and they wanted to pay it
11 iover time, so they paid it 10,000 a month.

12 I think there were some expenses that were added onto

13 I that as well.

14 jQ. When was that audit? When was that work done, do you know?

15 Do you recall at all?

16 A. No, I'm afraid I don't.

17 Q. Well, there's an invoice of 11-88 that says "Project-Based 18 Section 8 Mod Rehab Program" on it.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
19 A. Well, on one of the -- one of the owners of the, of the 20 company would ask me when it was possible, he would give me a 21 list of all the mod rehab units that were going out, and he would 22 ask me if I knew any of the recipients of those, because they 23 wanted to do the coinsurance work, so they were asking me to help 24 them broker their services to any of the recipients of those
25 units.

3143

1 And in -- I mean, in essence, it basically said does
2 anyone know where these are going, and anybody who unfortunately
3 knew Tom Demery basically could tell you where they were going,
4 and I would just pass that information along.
5 Q. But the $10,000 a month was for another kind of work?
6 A. Yes.

Q. That was not part of the original retainer?
8 A. No. One was I worked for one owner of Benton Mortgage
Company. The other one was work on their audit.
10 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.
11 i END OF VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

i

I
12 j THE COURT: All right, the government has filed a 13 j motion to reconsider my limiting the government in questioning of 14 j the witness/defendant on cross examination beyond her documents
15 that reflect her consultant status, which I said the government
16 could do. I asked the government not to go into the financial 17 arrangements. I was of the opinion at that time it was not so
18 relevant that it would add anything to the case as to her 19 credibility or not and get into perhaps prejudicial areas with 20 which she was not charged.
21 Defendant had testified she did not make a lot of money
22 from the Horns references that she had and that she did not go
23 out and become a $1,000-a-unit consultant. The government has 24 alleged it has information that she did, although no
25 documentation, and that she attempted to collect money owed her for work done on this one, I believe, General Pines project as well as her Benton Mortgage Company, the government alleged, must have been for units, for being paid per unit work. I don't see any evidence of either of those two, hard evidence.

The Court is going to deny the request of the special

6 Independent Counsel to go into per unit payments without any other indications than supposition the government has and a statement from a client that's not before us. I haven't seen it in writing, any hard evidence that that was the situation. Based

10 upon the balancing of the probative value versus the prejudicial
11 impact of this type of evidence, I don't think the government

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

12 really has it.

13 I I will allow the government to go into the consulting,

1 . . . * . " . *

i

14 quote, arrangements she had with Benton, as I said earlier, with 15 Benton Mortgage, with the documents relating to that. With the 16 documents relating to Lynda Murphy, working with that, since she 17 had been mentioned earlier here as an expert in mod rehab and 18 that's the work she had been in, I think it is relevant to her
19 involvement or not and as it goes to her credibility from her 20 prior testimony getting involved in this type of work after she 21 left HUD, and I think that that is fair cross examination on 22 those areas, and the government has evidence as to those in their 23 possession.

24 The $20,000 for the Horns has been explained. She 25 explained it several times in cross already. I don't think there is any evidence that there is, other than her statement that's already been gone into by the government, that she was owed 20,000, and there's been plenty of testimony about that. I don't see where it gets, making any further inquiries into that.

3145

5 So I'll allow the Benton and Murphy examinations to go
6 forward, all right?

7 All right, you can go back up.

8 (Jury in.)

9 THE COURT: All right, Ladies and Gentlemen, we're

10 ready to go forward now with this afternoon's session.

H i MR. O'NEILL: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Mr. O'Neill.

13 CROSS EXAMINATION (Cont'd.)

14 | BY MR. O'NEILL:

15 Q. Ms. Dean, right before the break, I was going to show you

16 Government's Exhibit 556 for purposes of identification. I'd 17 show it to you at this time and ask you if that refreshes your

18 recollection that you did, in fact, become a consultant after

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

19 leaving HUD?

20 A. Well, this is a consulting agreement, but all of my 21 contracts said "Consulting Agreement." I'm going by your 22 definition of this trial as to what a consultant is.

23 MR. O'NEILL: Again, Your Honor, I'd move to strike any 24 reference to what my definition might be as to this trial.

25 THE COURT: All right, I'll sustain it. Strike out

3146

1 reference to what you say consulting is.

2 BY MR. O'NEILL:

Q. And did they hire you, you being Dean & Associates, to obtain the consulting services of you in connection with HUD programmatic policy, land development, and financing of rental housing rehabilitation?

7 A. Can I see that again?

Q. Sure.

A. I think it's probably a standard one. I just want to make

10 certain it's -- yes, this was our standard contract.

11 !Q. NOW, MS. Dean, after leaving the Department of Housing and 12 Urban Development, did you also enter into a consulting

13 I arrangement with Lynda Murphy?

14 1A. Yes, I did.

15 Q. And were you on a monthly retainer by Ms. Murphy?

16 A. Yes. She was having her baby then, and she asked me if I

17 would take on some of her work for her.

18 Q. Ms. Dean, when you did leave HUD and became a, set up your

19 company called Dean & Associates, did you set it up in the same

20 office space as John Mitchell had Global Research?

2 A. Yes. I set it up down the hall. I testified earlier that I

2 was a little concerned about him and I wanted to stay near him.

2 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, directing your attention to your confirmation

2 hearing, is it fair to say that prior to your confirmation

2 hearing on August 6, 1987, that you had a practice session to

3147

1 prepare yourself for the questions that might be asked?

2 A. Yes.

Q. And was Lynda Murphy one of the people that were present for this practice session?

5 A. I don't recall, but she might well have been.

6 ;Q. And did the people who were helping you ask you questions about the Moderate Rehabilitation Program?

A. All I recall is it really didn't go off the way it was supposed to. You know, we had done things like that at the 10 Department of Energy, where people asked very, very specific,
11 Shard questions, and each person represented a different senator
12 and their interests, and this just sort of dissolved into 13 everyone just asking me all sorts of weird questions, and I don't 14 ;really recall anything except that it wasn't helpful, and I
15 disbanded it after about 30 minutes.

16 Q. You were aware at that time, Ms. Dean, that the Senate was 17 investigating allegations as to whether you had used your 18 influence to give units to people you knew?

19 A. No, I wasn't. I was totally unaware that I'd be asked any 20 questions like that.

21 Q. If I may, Ms. Dean, let me show you Government's Exhibit 559
22 for purposes of identification.

23 Ms. Dean, let me show you Government's Exhibit 559 for 24 identification. Since it's not in evidence, don't read it.

25 First, I'd like to ask you are those your notes?

3148

A. Yes.

2 Q. Were they taken before or after your confirmation hearing?

3 A. Before.

Q. Let me direct your attention to the second page, if I may, paragraph 5, and I'd ask you if that refreshes your recollection as to whether you were aware that they were looking into allegations that you were giving mod rehab units to friends?

A. No, this doesn't have anything to do with the Senate confirmation hearings.

10 Q. Prior to testifying at the Senate confirmation hearings,
11 were you aware that the FBI was looking into those allegations?

12 A. I, I know that they had spoken to Secretary Pierce, which is 13 what those notes were, were his, their conversation with him, and 14 jthey asked him whether -- what my role was in the Mod Rehab
15 Program and the UDAG program, and he described it for them, and 16 they cleared me, and I went on to my Senate confirmation.

17 Q. And were those questions asked by FBI agents in reference to 18 the background check for the assistant secretary position?

19 A. Yes. And as I said, I was cleared of all of those 20 allegations, and my nomination was sent forward.

21 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, after you testified before the Senate on 22 August 6, 1987, did you have an opportunity to review your
23 testimony?

24 A. Yes, I did.

25 Q. And make whatever corrections you wanted?

3149

1 A. Yes, I did.

2 Q. Ms. Dean, finally I'd like to ask you do you ever recall
3 telling The Washinaton Post that I don't have a single friend
4 who ever got something from HUD?

5 A. No, I can't -

I don't recall ever giving an interview to 6 The Washinaton Post. Well, I remember giving one interview to 7 The Washinaton Post, but only one.

8 Q. Let me show you a document which I would mark as -

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

9 MR. WEHNER: May we approach?
10 THE WITNESS: I don't mind answering the question.
11 THE COURT: wait a minute.
12 (Bench conference on the record.)
13 THE COURT: Yes?
14 MR. WEHNER: I had understood you were only allowing 15 cross examination with regard to newspaper articles relating to 16 any statements made by the defendant after the indictment.
17 THE COURT: That was the one example I was shown.
18 MR. WEHNER: Oh, okay.
19 MR. O'NEILL: That's the computerized version, Your
20 Honor.
2 THE COURT: Sure.
2 MR. O'NEILL: Here's the copy.
2 THE COURT: Is this the article here?
2 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Judge.
2 THE COURT: Let me see how it comes out in the article.

3150

1 That's a direct quote from her to apparently a
2 reporter, reading the whole article, who was present at the scene
3 and heard her make those comments. I think that's fair
4 impeachment.
5 MR. WEHNER: All right, Your Honor.
6 (End of bench conference.)

THE COURT: All right, go ahead, sir.
BY MR. O'NEILL:

Q. Ms. Dean, let me show you a document that's been marked as 10 Government's Exhibit 567 as identification.
11 1A. Urn-hum.
12 Q. And I ask you, does that refresh your recollection as to 13 whether you ever told The Washington Post reporter, "I don't 14 have a single personal friend who ever got something from HUD"?
15 A. Yes, and I would stand by that today. And I certainly don't 16 mean people I became friendly with once I was at HUD; that would 17 have been absurd, but I'm talking about no one, friend of mine
18 came running in to get into the HUD business because I went to 19 work at HUD. That's what I meant.
20 Q. And would that include John Mitchell, Louie Nunn, Jack
2 Brennan, Rick Shelby, Tom Broussard, Andy Sankin, Lou Kitchin,

2 Phil Winn, and Lance Wilson?
2 A. Okay, let's just go person by person.
2 Q. John Mitchell.
2 A. All right. When that article came out, even I did not know

3151

1 that John Mitchell had ever made any money from HUD.
2 Next person?
3 Q. Louie Nunn.
4 A. I did not know that Mr. Nunn was making consulting fees out
5 of HUD that way, and Mr. Nunn isn't a personal friend.
6 Go ahead.
7 Q. Jack Brennan?
8 A. Jack Brennan isn't a personal friend. I didn't know he was 9 making that kind of money and still don't know why he did.

10 Q. So so far, Mitchell did not tell you he was making any money
11 on this?

12 A. That's right.

13 Q. Brennan did not tell you he was making any money on this?

14 A. That's right.

15 Q. Louie Nunn did not tell you he was making that kind of money
16 on this?

17 A. And also Mr. Nunn and Mr. Brennan aren't personal friends.

18 Keep going.

19 Q. Richard Shelby.

20 A. Richard Shelby was a personal friend after I went to HUD.

2 He became a friend. He did not rush into HUD because I had

2 gotten a job there.

2 Q. And he did not tell you he was making money on the other
2 projects?

2 A. I assumed he was making a decent, normal amount of money. I did not think he was making some horrible amounts of money, huge, gross amounts of money. No, I never knew that.

3152

Q. Thomas Broussard?

A. Thomas Broussard is not a friend of mine today and wasn't a 5 I friend of mine. I met him at HUD because Mr. Wilson asked me to have a meeting with him.
Go ahead.

8 Q. So he is not a friend?

9 A. Mr. Broussard, no, I think I've met Tom Broussard twice in 10 my life.

11 Q. Andrew Sankin?

12 A. Andrew Sankin was not a friend of mine before I went to HUD.

13 Q. Louis Kitchin?

14 A. Louis Kitchin I met at HUD and was not a personal friend of 15 mine before I went to HUD.

16 Q. Philip Winn?

17 A. I did not know Mr. Winn before I went to HUD.

18 Q. Lance Wilson?

19 A. I did not know Lance Wilson -- well, I met Lance Wilson once
20 before I went to HUD and the few times that I interviewed with 21 him for a job. He certainly wasn't a personal friend of mine
22 before I went to HUD.

23 Q. Those individuals became personal friends of yours once you
24 began at HUD?

25 A. Not all of them. Several of them became friends. Lance

3153

1 Wilson is my friend today.

2 MR. O'NEILL: No further questions. Thank you, Your
3 Honor.

4 THE COURT: Thank you.

5 Are you ready to go?

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

6 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.

7 THE COURT: All right. We'll have redirect examination
8 at this point, Ladies and Gentlemen, of Ms. Dean.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

10 BY MR. WEHNER:

11 Q. Ms. Dean, I'm going to show on the video presenter

12 Government's Exhibit 198, which has already been introduced into

13 evidence. It's an exhibit that Mr. O'Neill showed you. Would 14 you look at the upper right-hand corner of that letter?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Can you read the upper right-hand corner?

17 A. It says -- this is the one on the project in Florida for 18 Mr. Kitchin, right?

19 Q. I'll show you the whole letter and then go back to the right

20 hand.

2 A. All right. It's addressed to Secretary Pierce, and does it
2 have any courtesy copies? I don't think it does, no. So it's
2 addressed to Secretary Pierce, which meant it would have gone
2 through the normal system, and it says on the top "mod rehab
2 file," "Lou," and "file," and "funded."

3154

1 Q. Now is any of that in your handwriting?

2 A. None.

Q. Do you recognize any of the handwriting?

A. It did not come from my files.

5 j Q- Do you recognize any of the handwriting?

6 A. I recognize Mr. Demery's handwriting.

Q. Where?

A. Where it says "funded," and I recognize the handwriting on the very top where it says "mod rehab."

10 Q. Whose handwriting is that?

11 A. Well, it's on all of Mr. Demery's correspondence that's 12 about mod rehab.

13 Q. Now directing your attention to October 29 of 1986 --or 14 late October 1986, I should say, do you have any recollection of 15 President Ronald Reagan being in Florida on a campaign swing

16 during that time?

17 A. No.

18 Q. I'm going to show you what I've marked for identification as 19 Dean Exhibit 319 and ask you if that refreshes your recollection
20 as to whether President Reagan was, in fact, there at that time?

21 A. Well, it doesn't, doesn't remind me that Mr. Reagan was in 22 Florida, but it reminds me that he was campaigning for Senator
23 Mattingly in Atlanta, Georgia.

24 Q. I'm sorry, I thought I said Georgia. Did I say Florida?

25 A. Yeah.

3155

1 Q. Pardon me, I meant Georgia.

2 Does it refresh your recollection that he was
3 campaigning in Georgia?

4 A. Yes. It says that he was in Georgia with Senator Mattingly
5 campaigning.

6 Q. Do you recall what units were funded to Atlanta, Georgia, at 7 or about that time?

8 A. Yes, the 200 units to Atlanta, Georgia, and I remember that 9 they were for Senator Mattingly.

10 Q. Ms. Dean, Mr. O'Neill showed you a, an exhibit on his cross
11 examination in which certain attachments were missing.

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. I'm going to show you what I've marked for identification as 14 Dean Exhibit 635. I'm going to show you what I've marked as Dean
15 Exhibit 635 and ask if you can identify that as attachments to a 16 specific document you were shown on cross?

17 A. Yes. When Mr. O'Neill showed me the letter from Lynda
18 Murphy that said, "Thank you for your help on the Churchill 19 project," and Sherrill Nettles-Hawkins said "spoken to Lynda" and 20 "20 units," and Mr. O'Neill and I had a discourse back and forth
21 about that I remembered it was a wage rate dispute, and he asked
22 me, "wasn't it mod rehab?" and I said, "No. It had been funded,"
23 and I said that there were attachments that were attached to it,
24 and these are the attachments attached to it, and it is, in fact,
25 a letter regarding that project, and it is a wage rate dispute,

3156

1 and it does talk about the fact that, that amendment funds need
2 to be sent.

3 And I do believe that I did attempt to tell Mr. O'Neill
4 that I believed that loan management set aside or flexible
5 subsidy was what those units would have been and not mod rehab,
6 and this is the attachment.

MR. WEHNER: I move the admission of Dean Exhibit 635.

8 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, just mainly objection on it
9 doesn't say anything -

10 MR. WEHNER: It was produced to you pursuant to 11 subpoena, because those are the Bates stamp numbers.

12 MR. O'NEILL: That's true.

13 MR. WEHNER: The witness testified it was the 14 attachment.

15 THE COURT: All right, I'll admit it. She's testified
16 to it and identified it as her document.

17 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.

18 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 635 was
19 received in evidence.)

20 BY MR. WEHNER:

21 Q. Ms. Dean, there was a significant amount of testimony on 22 cross examination regarding lunches and dinners -

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. '-- and individuals picking up lunches and dinners for you.

25 A. Yes.

Q. I'm going to show you a series of credit card receipts that have previously been furnished to the government, and the first one I'll show you has been marked for identification as Dean Exhibit 645. Do you have a recollection as to what the purpose of that credit card receipt was -- I'm sorry, what the purpose of that purchase was?

A. Well, I know I made notes on it this morning for you, so as far as I can remember, I know this one was, it was a brunch that I took the special assistants to the secretary on. It was 10 Mr. Casey's birthday, and I picked up the check.

11 Q. Okay. How many special assistants were there?

12 A. I think there were four, five, six of them.

13 Q. Okay. What's the amount of the check, and what's the date?

14 A. Well, it's $348.46 and $26.33.

15 Q. Now that's charged on your HUD credit card, is it not?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Now who paid the bill for that?

18 A. I did, of course.

19 Q. Out of your pocket?

20 A. Yes, out of my salary check.

21 Q. Not out of government funds?

22 A. No.

23 Q. You were not reimbursed for that?

24 A. No.

25 Q. I'm going to show you the remainder of these, Ms. Dean, and

3158

1 ask you just quickly would you give the amounts, the dates, and
2 the individuals?

3 A. All right. I don't think these make me look very

4 intelligent. This one is for $229.60. It was Janice Golec's

5 birthday. She was a special assistant to the secretary. She

6 might have been a deputy assistant secretary at that time.

7 There were HUD consultants there. I believe Mr. Sankin

8 was there and Loury Gay and a few other people, and I didn't want

9 one of them to pick up the tab, so I picked it up instead.

10 Here is a lunch that I had with Lance Wilson at $33.42.

11 Here is a dinner that I paid for Mr. Kitchin, and I

12 believe that the man I was dating, Mr. Giegengack, was also 13 present, and I paid for dinner so that Mr. Giegengack would not

14 have to. That is $148.85.

15 Here is a lunch with Mr. Shelby that's for $16 and some 16 cents.

17 Here is another dinner for Mr. Kitchin -- actually, it

18 wasn't dinner; it was a, it was a Republican event, and there

19 were some other HUD employees there, and Mr. Kitchin had ordered

20 a bottle of champagne, and I did not want them to be in the

2 position of having to accept something from Mr. Kitchin, so I

2 paid for the champagne instead.

2 And so it was $108.56, and then I believe I had a

2 cocktail, and so did he, and that was $19.04.

2 Q. Now on each of these occurrences, where did the money, the

3159

1 dollars come from to pay for these?

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

2 A. Either my HUD salary or from my mother and on occasion when 3 I was short of cash, I borrowed money from the man that I was 4 dating, who was making a very good salary.

5 Q. Directing your attention to the funds that you received on 6 occasion from your mother, did you on occasion receive
7 significant funds from your mother?

8 A. Yes. I know that at a certain point, I wanted to buy my own
9 condominium, and she helped me with that, and she helped me with 10 some of the expenses that were incurred there.

11 I know that my mother made it possible for me to go to 12 Oxford University in England when I was asked to make a
13 presentation there on American civil rights legislation, and it
14 was real important for me to go, and we didn't want the 15 government to have to pay that expense, so my mother gave me the 16 money to enable me to go there.

17 And whenever I would do things like pick up the check
18 on something that I couldn't afford, my mother would very often 19 give me the money for it and be very generous. We did not have a 20 lot of money when I was young, and later on in life, because my
2 mother had very stubbornly refused to sell some stock from a
2 company my father had started, she held onto it for 20-some 2 years, never made a penny, then all of a sudden it just went
2 through the roof, and all of a sudden we went from having no
2 money to having a lot of money, and my mother was very generous

1 with me and has been to this day.

2 Q. Directing your attention to several references on cross
3 examination to various newspaper interviews, did you have 4 occasion to be interviewed by the Wall Street Journal on or 5 about May 25 of 1989?

6 A. Yes. When the, when the HUD I.G. audit first came out, the 7 Wall Street Journal. I believe, was the first newspaper to 8 cover -- to carry a story on it, and I think it was the second
9 story they carried, and Mr. Pound got me on the telephone, and I
10 gave him a short interview.

11 Q. Did you have occasion to tell the Wall Street Journal
12 that -

13 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: All right. Why you come up.

15 (Bench conference on the record.)

16 THE COURT: What theory do you use this one under?

17 MR. WEHNER: Rehabilitation, Judge. The second two 18 sentences and then the first sentence on the next page.

19 MR. O'NEILL: My objection wouldn't be to the content, 20 Your Honor. It wouldn't be to the content. It's just whether 2 it's legally admissible or not. That's what Steve and I were 2 joking about.

2 MR. WEHNER: I think it's a prior consistent statement

2 THE COURT: It only can be offered as something to
2 rebut a fabrication. She was crossed earlier about her program.

3161

1 I don't know, what does it come in with? What is it consistent
2 with? Is it a past consistent statement?

3 MR. WEHNER: It's consistent with her testimony on 4 direct that it was run as a political program. I simply want the 5 record to be clear that she's been stating that from the 6 beginning, and that's inconsistent with the, the position the 7 government's taking, which is that she concealed the political 8 nature of the program from the American public and from Congress.
9 MS. SWEENEY: It's --

10 THE COURT: I'll sustain the objection.
11 (End of bench conference.)
12 BY MR. WEHNER:
13 Q. Ms. Dean, I'm going to show you what I've marked for 14 identification as Dean Exhibit 650 just to refresh your 15 recollection, and after you've had a chance to look at it, I'll 16 ask you did you have a conversation or ever tell Mr. Demery that 17 he should be careful in certain respects --
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. --in relationship to the Moderate Rehabilitation Program?
20 A. Yes.
2 Q. what did you say to him?

2 A. I said, "Be careful."
2 Q. And why did you tell him to be careful?
2 A. well, can I have --
2 Q. Sure. I don't want you to testify from it, because it's not in evidence.

2 A. All right.
3 Q. You can testify as to what you said to him.
4 A. well, I told him to be careful regarding a memorandum that 5 he had received from someone else that was telling him that he
6 had done some things that were not appropriate.
7 Q. And what were those things?
8 A. He was funding mod rehab projects without even having an 9 applicatxon in house, and that was wrong.
10 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, there's been certain testimony on your cross 11 examination regarding political plans you may have had.
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. Running for Congress -
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. -
et cetera.
16 Did you ever express a desire to run for Congress to 17 any person?
18 A. Never, never. There are certain things that you must do in 19 order to run for Congress, and I could -- I don't have the 20 ability to do them. I don't have the desire to do them. It
21 takes years to set up a base to do things like that and attend
22 meetings and raise money, and it requires having to be in the 23 public eye, where people, you know, can say anything about you
24 they want to, and I just, that's just not the kind of life I
25 would want to lead.

3163

1 And I don't know who came up with this idea that I had
2 all these great political plans, but they --it just is not the 3 case. It never was the case.
4 Q. Directing your attention to testimony regarding Mr. Andrew
5 Sankin on cross examination, did he attend a real estate closing
6 for you?
7 A. He -
yes.
8 Q. what was his, what was his role there?
9 A. He didn't have a role there. The real estate closing was on 10 New Year's Eve, I remember, the last day of the year, and he had 11 dropped by, and I said, "I can't talk to you now. I'm running 12 off to do a closing. I'm going to buy my apartment today."
13 And he goes, "Oh, let me come along. I'll go with you, 14 and then we'll all go out and celebrate afterward."

15 I said, "Okay."

16 I don't even believe that he came into the room.

17 Q. Directing your attention to cross examination regarding a 18 condominium fee dispute -19

A. Yes.

20 Q. -- did Mr. Sankin handle that for you at no charge?

2 A. Oh, I don't know if it was for no charge or not. I asked
2 him to look into a condominium fee dispute I was having, because 2 he was already on the payroll of my family taking care of real
2 estate matters, so I just added that as to one of the things I
2 thought he ought to do.

3164

1 Q. Ms. Dean, there was significant cross examination on you
2 regarding benefits that your family -- and for purposes of this
3 question, we'll consider John Mitchell family just for purposes
4 of this question -- that benefits went from your family to 5 Mr. Mitchell. What benefits went from HUD to your family and 6 Mr. Mitchell while you were employed at HUD?

7 A. Well, I mean -- I don't understand. I mean, no, no benefits
8 went to Mr. Mitchell. I mean, if Mr. Mitchell was paid for 9 something that he did to do with HUD, I didn't know about it, and 10 nobody in my family knew about it.

11 Q. What benefits was your family providing to Mr. Mitchell?

12 A. Well, he lived in my mother's house, and my mother paid a 13 lot of the bills and the taxes and everything according to the 14 house, because my mother and I and everybody else in our family
15 was under the impression that Mr. Mitchell had absolutely no
16 income to speak of, and we provided him with a family, people
17 around him, and tried to make his last years good years.

18 Q. Directing your attention to Mr. Sankin, what benefits were 19 flowing from your family to Mr. Sankin during the appropriate
20 time period?

2 A. Well, he was being paid to manage Stanley Arms. That's it
2 that I know of.

2 Q. Okay. Directing your attention to cross examination, cross
2 examination concerning your relationship with your secretary -

2 A. Yes.

3165

1 Q. -

Sherrill Nettles-Hawkins, would you describe your 2 relationship with her, please? Just in general terms.

3 A. Well, we were very good friends, and Sherrill and I were the 4 same age, and we had the same attitudes about a lot of things,
5 and we spent a lot of time together, and I don't think that 6 there's anything about me or my family or my life that she 7 doesn't know, and I think there's very little about her life and 8 her family that I don't know, and I know her family and she knows
9 my family, and she's one of the nicest people I have ever known,
10 and she was, she's a terrific person to work with.

11 we got along. We were really good friends. And we had 12 lunch together, and we did stuff for each other, and we liked
13 each other. We were -

14 Q. Did, did you do things for her of a personal nature?

15 A. Oh, I picked her up lunch if I was going down to the 16 cafeteria. She did the same for me.

17 I remember one time, I went off on a trip, and when I
18 came back, I had let her have my car in case she needed it while 19 I was gone, and when I came back, she had, you know, taken it

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
20 down and got it inspected, you know, a D.C. inspection and 21 everything. I thought that was really sweet, because she had the 22 time to do it and she did it one day.
23 She just was a really decent person. I didn't ask her
24 to do it. She just did things all the time that were really nice
25 and very thoughtful.

3166

1 Q. And did you do things for her that were, as you say, nice
2 and thoughtful on occasion?
3 A. Yeah. She had her wedding reception at my house, and I took 4 her to a lot of events that I had been invited to, she and her
5 husband. If -- you know, the realtors convention or whatever, if 6 it was in town or they had a banquet or whatever and they asked
7 me if I wanted tickets, I always tried to get tickets for 8 Sherrill and her husband so that she would share in what it was 9 that I was doing, and she would, you know, understand, you know,

10 the people and see them and get to hear the secretary speak and 11 things like that. I enjoyed her company.

12 Q. Directing your attention to April, the April 8, I believe it
13 was 1986, it might have been 1987 meeting with Mr. Kitchin --

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. -- did you know why Mr. Kitchin was in town on that date?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. How do you know that?

18 A. Well, I've seen the Independent Counsel documents and 19 Mr. Demery's calendars and Mr. Demery's correspondence, and he 20 wasn't in town on April 8 to meet with me. He just dropped by my 2 office. He was in town to attend a dinner that Lynda Murphy was

2 giving for her clients at the Georgetown Club for which -- and 2 they were honoring Mr. Demery. And as good a friend as I am of 2 Lynda Murphy's, I wasn't invited, but Mr. Kitchin was.

2 Q. Okay. Ms. Dean, you testified regarding the hearing for 3167

1 your confirmation in front of Senator William Proxmire.

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. I'll show you what I've marked for identification as Dean
4 Exhibit 797 and ask you if you can identify that?

5 A. Yes. It's a letter -

6 Q. What is it?

7 A. It's a letter to Senator Proxmire from the other members of 8 the committee saying that, that they want to take action on the 9 Deborah Dean nomination, vote it up or down, and it was signed by 10 Senator D'Amato, Senator Dodd, Senator Sasser, Senator Heinz,
11 Senator Carnes, Senator Chaffee, Senator Dixon, Senator 12 Armstrong, Senator Cranston, Senator Hecht, Senator Shelby, and 13 Senator Worth.

14 Q. Okay. And I'll direct your attention to Dean Exhibit 632
15 and ask you if Dean Exhibit 632 was kept in the regular course of 16 business of HUD and was it in the regular course of business of 17 HUD to keep that document?

18 A. Yes, it was. And I also saw the original signed version of 19 this that Secretary Pierce showed me.

20 Q. And was it prepared, to your knowledge, on or about the date
2 reflected on the document?

2 A. Yes.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

2 Q. And would that same answer be true for what I've marked for 2 identification as Dean Exhibit 404, the same three answers be
2 true?

3168

1 A. Hold on a second, let me see.
2 This was kept in the normal course -- I'm sorry, ask me
3 the question.
4 Q. Is it in the normal course of business of HUD to keep that 5 document?

A. Yes.

7 Q. And it was kept in the normal course of business?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And prepared on or about the date on the face of the 10 document?

11 A. I would think so, yes.

12 Q. Now, Ms. Dean, what was HUD's mission while you were special 13 assistant, executive assistant, and head of the executive
14 secretariat?

15 A. Well, it was three-fold: to provide whatever assistance we 16 could in the urban development area, which is infrastructure,
17 sewers, sidewalks, jobs, new housing and new construction, UDAGs.
18 Then there were the housing programs, which were the 19 Section 8 housing, and it was whether or not subsidies went to 20 landlords, subsidies went to tenants, or subsidies were a mix of 21 those. Lots of different programs: insurance programs for 22 mortgages, FHA.

23 Then there was a third prong of, of the department,
24 which was legislation on things that affected all aspects of 25 urban development and housing, whether that was overseeing Fannie

3169

1 Mae, whether that was Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act, whether
2 it was the, arguing with the White House or the Justice
3 Department on the way they put interpretations on the regulations
4 that went out for HUD programs, which is a lot more important
5 than most people might think.

6 what you can and cannot do with federal monies is 7 probably the most important policy that, policy job that you can
8 have at HUD. whether or not you can use community development
9 block grants to change the way cities and mayors and governors

10 react to certain situations in this country is important, and 11 they do that by regulation, and those regulations have to go
12 through the White House and through the Justice Department, and 13 they take on different slants, depending on the kind of people
14 who look at those things. So it's important to fight those

15 areas.

16 So you've got policy, you've got housing, and then you
17 have the urban development areas.

18 Q. Now in connection with these three missions of HUD during 19 the entire time period you were at HUD from 1982 through the end
20 of 1987, did you answer -- how many questions did you answer
2 concerning all of these areas?

2 A. When?
2 Q. For the entire time period.
2 A. The whole time I was at HUD?
2 Q. Yes.

A. A million.
2 Q. And they were questions from the inspector general?
3 A. Yes.
Q. From the Federal Bureau of Investigation?
A. Oh, you mean investigative questions?
Q. No, questions.
A. Yes. I've been asked questions by everybody, yes.
Q. People --
A. Senators, congressmen, interest groups, mayors, governors,
10 people that just would come in the office and have a question,
11 citizens groups.
12 Q. Consultants?
13 A. Consultants, lawyers, lawyer/consultants -- I can't even 14 tell the difference anymore -- consultants who actually know
15 something to consult about and consultants who don't know
16 anything. Yes. I mean, just lots and lots and lots and lots of 17 questions all the time.
18 Q. You've given testimony under oath about certain programs at 19 HUD, correct?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q To the Senate?
22 A Yes.
23 Q To the House?
24 A Yes -- no, not to the House
25 Q I'm sorry. To the Senate?

3171

1 A. Yes. To the press. To -
2 Q. And when you've been asked those questions, as well as the 3 questions here, have you tried to answer the questions as 4 honestly as you can?
5 A. Yes. I, the one thing that is the saddest part and the 6 worst part of this whole mess is that people from the very 7 beginning just didn't tell the truth. If people had just gotten 8 up and said what they did and take responsibility for it and tell 9 the truth of exactly what was going on and exactly who was in 10 charge of what and who was making the decisions and how 11 everything was being run, none of this stuff would have happened.
12 So when people started getting up and lying in front of 13 Congress and lying to the press and trying to blame everything on 14 everybody else is when all of this happened.
15 And that's why I wanted to come here today. I've 16 waited all these years to get someplace where you can tell the 17 whole story and let normal people decide, not congressmen and 18 journalists and independent counsels.
19 MR. WEHNER: I have nothing further, Your Honor.
20 THE COURT: All right.
2 MR. O'NEILL: Nothing, Judge.
2 THE COURT: Thank you.
2 All right, you can step down, Ms. Dean.
2 (Witness excused.)
2 THE COURT: Do you need a break to get your next 3172

1 witness here?

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

2 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.
3 THE COURT: Okay. All right, Ladies and Gentlemen,
4 we're going to take an early recess. We have a witness coming,
5 he should be here in about 15 or 20 minutes. Hopefully, your 6 snack will get up here so you can get that, too.
7 All right, remember the admonition of the Court now.
8 You don't talk about this case or anything about it during the 9 break. We'll take about a 15- to 20-minute recess, all right?
10 (Jury out.)
11 THE COURT: Is that the only witness you're going to be § 12 calling?
13 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir, that's the last witness I have,
14 and we have the documents to go through.
15 THE COURT: Okay, we have to go through those. We have 16 a lot of those marked.
17 MR. O'NEILL: For the record, Your Honor, I was dying
18 to say something about being normal, and the record will reflect 19 that I didn't say anything, Judge.
20 THE COURT: Thank you. What -2
MR. O'NEILL: It was tough.
2 THE COURT: What do you have on rebuttal?
2 MR. O'NEILL: A couple short witnesses, Judge. It will
2 be, I expect we can put them on today if, depending on what
2 happens with, how long the documents take. It would be special

3173

1 Agent Al Cain of HUD, I expect his direct would be five minutes;
2 Specific Agent David Bowie, B-o-w-i-e, of FBI, who likewise
3 interviewed Ms. Dean, I expect his would be five minutes.
4 I've asked Mr. Wehner, and we just haven't gotten a
5 chance to talk yet, if Susan Withington would be a witness we 6 would call, depending on the contract. Steve just intimated we 7 would have to put her on. I assume the direct of her would be 8 very quick.
9 MR. WEHNER: So would cross, Judge.
10 THE COURT: All right.
11 MR. WEHNER: If we need it.
12 THE COURT: Have you all had a chance to look at all
13 these documents the defendant marked but didn't go through?
14 MR. O'NEILL: Not yet, Judge.
15 THE COURT: He just marked about 50 of these things.
16 You might want to take a chance now during the break. All right,
17 we'll stand in recess.
18 Anything else?
19 MS. SWEENEY: We have a few other rebuttal witnesses,
20 Your Honor. Mr. O'Neill wasn't finished with our short list.
2 THE COURT: All right.
2 MR. O'NEILL: Ronald Reynolds, who was the HUD driver.
2 THE COURT: All right.
2 MR. O'NEILL: And Joann Harris, from the Independent
2 Counsel, who spoke with Ms. Dean when she told the Independent

CO

1 Counsel the story about the $4,000. She's now with the 2 Department of Justice. We expect she will testify as well.
3 MR. WEHNER: Judge, that's, that's inadmissible
4 pursuant to the Federal Rules of Evidence.
5 THE COURT: Well, I'll have to hear who it is, more
6 about it.
7 MR. WEHNER: We can argue it today if you want to.
8 THE COURT: All right, we'll take a break then. We'll 9 be back when the witness is here.

3 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.

4 THE COURT: All right.

5 (Jury present)

6 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, we're ready

9 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 Your Honor, Miss Dean calls J. Michael Dorsey

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 (J. MICHAEL DORSEY, WITNESS FOR DEFENDANT, SWORN)

13 DIRECT EXAMINATION

14 BY MR. WEHNER:

15 Q Mr. Dorsey, you're an attorney?

16 A Yes.

17 Q And directing your attention to the time period
18 1987 to 1989, you were the Assistant Secretary for 19 Public and Indian Housing at the Department of Housing
20 and Urban Development?

2 A Actually from '87 to '89 I was General Counsel of

2 the U.S. Department of Housing.

2 Q Prior to that were you the Assistant Secretary for 2 Public and Indian Housing?

2 A Yes, from August of '86 to March of 1987 I was 3176

1 Assistant secretary for Public and Indian Housing.

2 Q Directing your attention to the date of the early

3 spring, or spring of 1987, do you recall being involved

4 in the selection process for Moderate Rehabilitation

5 units?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Do you recall sitting in a discussion with Mr.

8 Tom Demery and Miss Deborah Gore Dean regarding Moderate

9 Rehabilitation funding?

10 A Yes.

11 Q Directing your attention to that meeting, do you

12 recall any discussion regarding a funding of 200 units

13 to Metro-Dade Florida?

14 A I recall that there was an allocation of units to 15 Metro-Dade and I asked Mr. Demery why we were funding

16 Metro-Dade because as Assistant Secretary for Public
17 Housing I was aware that there was a grand jury
18 investigation of Metro-Dade Housing Authority and also 19 that the Executive Director of this Housing Authority
20 had been fired. Mr. Demery's response was that he had
2 looked into this. He was aware of the problems that

2 Metro-Dade had had, but he was also aware that they had 2 an ability to do development or do development units and
2 also that they had a great need because of refugees
2 coming from Cuba and other parts of Latin America.

3177

1 Q Do you recall Miss Dean saying anything about that

2 allocation of units?

3 A I don't have any recollection of her saying

4 anything, no.

5 Q Now, Mr. Dorsey, directing your attention to your

6 personal tenure at HUD, when you became General Counsel,

7 would you describe, please, your understanding of what

8 the rules and regulations were when you became General

9 Counsel, concerning the allocation process for Moderate
10 Rehabilitation units?

11 A When I became General Counsel I really didn't have 12 much of an understanding of the program. I didn't have 13 an occasion to do any legal work on the program at that 14 time. My sole involvement was as a member of this 15 Committee that reviewed the selection process. I was 16 told in preparation for serving on these committees that 17 there was a selection process and there were 18 applications. It was actually a discussion specifically 19 about the 202 program which is a different program, but 20 my understanding was that there was an application
2 submitted to the field and then that there was a review

2 and that there was a headquarters' reserve and that the 2 Mod Rehab program differed from the 202 in that the 2 applications came directly to Headquarters but that they
2 were treated the same as the Headquarters' reserve in

3178

1 the 202 program.

2 After I had been there for awhile I was asked

3 later to look into legal issues regarding the selection

4 process and had Bob Kenison, who was an Associate

5 General Counsel at HUD, look at that. He made a

6 determination that the selection process that was being

7 followed did not comply with the requirements of the Mod

8 Rehab, regulation and we changed that process. That

9 would have been sometime in the fall or early winter of 10 '87, the spring of '88.
11 Q Okay. who was the in-charge official at the time
12 you made the study?
13 A Tom Demery.
14 Q You said that the Mod Rehab program had been 15 handled prior to that time as reserve units for the 202
16 program had been handled?
17 A My understanding was that it was handled as a
18 Headquarters1 reserve program.
19 Q How or what is a Headquarters' reserve program?
20 A The programs during the Reagan Administration, the 2 number of units were substantially reduced in the

2 Section Eight programs. There were three Section Eight
2 project based programs, Section Eight New Construction,
2 Section Eight Substantial Rehabilitation, and Section
2 Eight Moderate Rehabilitation, and those programs had

3179

1 around 100,000 units each in allocation each year. And
2 under the Reagan Administration, the New Construction
3 and the Substantial Rehab were zeroed out. There was 4 no, no more funding for those two programs. And the Mod
5 Rehab program was reduced to about 5000 units per year.
6 Under the previous Administration and in the 7 early years of the Reagan Administration they had a
8 reserve of 15 percent of the total number of units and 9 the rest of the units were what is called fair share to 10 each of the field offices on a formula basis. And that 11 15 percent was then the Headquarters1 reserve and was 12 allocated on a special set of criteria. They had to 13 qualify under the regular criteria but then there was a 14 separate set of criteria for Headquarters' reserve

15 units.

16 Q What was that separate criteria?

17 A It's in the regulation. I don't know.

18 Q With respect to Mod Rehab?

19 A Again, I don't really -- I have no specific 20 recollection of what they are. I know that they're in 21 the regulation for the Mod Rehab program.

22 Q Directing your attention to the time period when
23 you finally became involved in the Moderate
24 Rehabilitation process, and that was in early 1987.

25 A Yes.

3180

1 Q How did the process selection work at that point or
2 when you first became involved?

3 A I don't know how it worked when I first became
4 involved.

5 Q When you first attended a meeting, how did the 6 meeting work?

7 A How did the meeting work? Tom Demery came with a
8 list of -- as I recall, a list of cities with a number
9 of units and we went through that list. Deborah Dean 10 had comments about some of them. Basically who had

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
11 called her or somebody who was interested in those 12 specific projects. And we just went down the list.
13 Q That was while you were going down the list you had 14 a specific question about 200 units to Metro-Dade?
15 A Yes, about the allocation to Metro-Dade.
16 MR. WEHNER: I have nothing further.
17 THE COURT: All right. Cross, Miss Sweeney?
18 MS. SWEENEY: Thank you, Your Honor.
19 CROSS-EXAMINATION
20 BY MS. SWEENEY:
2 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Dorsey.
2 Now, Mr. Dorsey, you and I have met before,
2 haven't we?
2 A Yes, we have.
2 Q As a matter of fact, we've met on two or three 3181

1 occasions and we talked about some of the topics that
2 you've testified about here this afternoon?
3 A Correct.
4 Q Is that right?
5 A Yes.
6 Q As a matter of fact, we also talked quite recently,
7 about a month ago, about some of these same topics?
8 A That's correct.
9 Q I'd like to talk about your -- ask you some

10 questions about your role in the Mod Rehab selection
11 process in the spring of 1987. During that time when 12 you first became involved in the Mod Rehab selection
13 process, isn't it true that the defendant complained to 14 you about receiving a lot of telephone calls about 15 getting Mod Rehab?
16 A She told me -- I don't recall that she complained 17 about it. She did say that she received a number of 18 phone calls.
19 Q While you were on the Mod Rehab Committee you never 20 got phone calls from developers, did you?
21 A No, I never got any phone calls from anybody.
22 Q And you never got -- you said you never got any 23 phone calls from anybody, that would include
24 consultants?
25 A Yes.

3182

1 Q Did you regard your role on the Mod Rehab Committee
2 as a minor one?
3 A Yes.
4 Q And who had the major roles on that Committee?
5 A I perceived that Tom Demery had the major role. It
Page 1763

6 was his program. He was the Assistant Secretary.

7 Q Is it fair to say that during the Mod Rehab meeting

8 the defendant identified people behind the Mod Rehab

9 projects?

10 A No, I think what she did was identify people who 11 had contacted her about specific projects.

12 Q So as the list was read she identified a number of 13 individuals associated with particular projects, is that 14 right?

15 A Yes.

16 Q During the meetings she did not tell you that 17 Secretary Pierce had conveyed an interest in any 18 specific projects, is that right?

19 A I don't recall any instance of this.

20 Q The names that Miss Dean mentioned included names
2 that you did not recognize, is that right?

2 A Yes.

2 Q You don't recall at the present time which
2 particular projects she identified names for, is that
2 right?

3183

1 A No, I don't.

2 Q You worked with Secretary Pierce for a number of

3 years, from what, the summer of 1986 through --

4 A February -- well, January of '89 when he left.

5 Q January of '89. Isn't it true that the Secretary

6 was a very hands-off manager?

7 A Yes, in the sense that -- that he didn't -- he

8 didn't manage the Department in the way that you would

9 think of a major corporation being managed. He was more

10 like a senior partner in a law firm, from my 11 experience. He expected the Assistant Secretaries to 12 do -- perform their tasks, but didn't have any kind of a

13 process for a reporting system from the Assistant
14 Secretaries to the Secretary's office other than a 15 principal staff meeting once a week where he would go

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
16 around the room and ask people if they had any – if 17 they had any comments or questions or anything that they 18 wanted to report.
19 Q while you worked with Secretary Pierce you never 20 saw any evidence that Secretary Pierce was involved in
2 funding decisions on individual projects, isn't that

2 true?
2 A We're talking specifically about the Mod Rehab
2 program?
2 Q well, let's start with the Mod Rehab program.

3184

1 A No, I never saw him involved in the Mod Rehab
2 program.

3 Q During your three years at HUD, would it be fair to 4 say that Secretary Pierce was not involved in making
5 individual funding decisions?

6 A well, he was involved in some of the programs
7 because he didn't have – he hadn't delegated. For 8 example, the Secretary's discretionary fund, the UDAG

9 funding program, those programs were directly involved
10 with the Secretary because he hadn't delegated the 11 responsibility to anybody else.

12 Q But in the Mod Rehab program you saw no evidence
13 that he was involved in making individual funding
14 decisions on individual projects?

15 A That's correct.

16 Q while Miss Dean served as Executive Assistant, you
17 had quite frequent contact with her in the performance
18 of your duties, is that right?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Did you see her as often as two or three times a
2 day?

2 A Yes.

2 Q Isn't it fair to say that you thought that as
2 Executive Assistant that she was very jealous of her
2 power?

3185

1 A I'm not sure what you mean by jealous.

2 Q Do you recall telling me when we last met that Dean

3 was very jealous of her power?

4 A Maybe in the context that she was aware of her

5 responsibilities as Executive Assistant and she guarded

6 those powers, yes.

7 Q She controlled access to Secretary Pierce, isn't

8 that right?

9 A That's correct.

10 Q While she was Executive Assistant you had somewhat

11 limited contact with him, isn't that correct?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And after she left as Executive Assistant you then

14 had greater access to Secretary Pierce, isn't that true?

15 A I had contact with him more often, yes.

16 Q Now, in your dealings with the defendant, would it

17 be fair to say that you found her attitude to be one of 18 let's get around these legal requirements?

19 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I don't know that

20 attitudes are the proper role to play in a criminal case

21 in forming the questions. I object.

2 THE COURT: All right, I'll overrule the

2 objection.

2 You go ahead and answer it.

2 MS. SWEENEY: You may answer.

3186

1 A I'm sorry. No, I wouldn't say that she tried to

2 get around legal requirements. She pushed for a legal

3 analysis, but given a legal response she didn't try to 4 get around it.

5 Q would you say that she pushed the legal response to 6 the limit?

7 A She pushed for a legal response and asked for 8 clarification and tried to get an answer, but she 9 didn't -- she didn't try to get around the requirements.
10 Q Would it be fair to say that she pushed for the 11 projects that she was interested in?
12 A In what context?
13 Q Did she push for the things that she wanted?
14 A Yes.
15 Q Now, on direct examination you testified that at a 16 certain point in time there came a point in time when 17 you did take a look at the legal requirements
18 surrounding the Mod Rehab program, is that right?
19 A Well, I had somebody on my staff do it, yes.
20 Q You had one of your deputies and that would have
2 been Mr. Robert Kenison, you asked him to take a look at

2 it?
2 A That's correct.
2 Q And he came back and reported to you that in his
2 view HUD regulations require that PHA applications be 3187

1 rated and ranked, do you recall that?
2 A I don't recall that but I think that's probably
3 right.
4 Q Do you recall that at the time that Mr. Kenison
5 came back after taking a look at the program that you
6 became aware that the Mod Rehab program had been 7 operated for years contrary to HUD regulations?

8 A Yes.
9 Q You indicated during your direct examination that 10 changes were made in the Mod Rehab program once you
11 became more significantly involved, is that right?
12 A Changes were made after the legal analysis was done
13 that determined that they were not -- that it was not 14 being operated -- that the regulations weren't being 15 followed, and changes were made to conform to the 16 regulations.
17 Q And those changes were made after Miss Dean was no

18 longer Executive Assistant, isn't that correct?
19 A That's correct.
20 Q Are you aware of what the defendant did for a job
2 after she left HUD?

2 A She had a consulting firm.
2 Q Do you know if John Mitchell was working with her
2 in the consulting firm?
2 A Not that I'm aware of.

3188

1 Q Do you recall an occasion after Miss Dean left HUD
2 when Mr. Mitchell came to talk to you about a matter
3 that Miss Dean was working on?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Based on that meeting, do you have a recollection
6 as to whether John Mitchell was working with Miss Dean
7 in her consulting firm?

8 A Well, I know that he came to meet with me because 9 she was prohibited from meeting with HUD officials. It
10 was during the period of time when she was precluded
11 from meeting with HUD officials.

12 Q But this was a matter on which she was working as 13 well, isn't that right?

14 A That's right.

15 MS. SWEENEY: No further questions at this
16 time, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: All right. Thank you,
18 Miss Sweeney.

19 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

20 BY MR. WEHNER:

2 Q Mr. Dorsey, you were the General Counsel during the 2 time that this meeting took place? April 7, 1987?

2 A I was General Counsel in April, yes.

2 Q And so during that selection process you were the 2 chief legal advisor for the Department of Housing and 3189

1 Urban Development, isn't that right?
2 A Yes, sir.
3 MR. WEHNER: Nothing further.
4 MS. SWEENEY: No further questions, Your
5 Honor.
6 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Dorsey. You may
7 step down.
8 Why don't you come up a second so I can 9 schedule our witnesses •
10 (Bench conference)
11 THE COURT: That's all your witnesses?
12 MR. WEHNER: We have documents to introduce.
13 THE COURT: Have you got some witnesses here?
14 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Judge, we have two that we 15 can put on today.
16 THE COURT: Do you want to do those and do the 17 documents afterwards?
18 MR. WEHNER: I don't mind. I don't need to 19 show them to the jury.
20 THE COURT: I'll let you reopen.
2 MR. WEHNER: Yes.
2 MR. O'NEILL: I guess the agreement
2 previously, Judge, was that he could always put 2 Miss Dean back on the stand if there were predicate
2 questions.

1 THE COURT: Yes, if he needed more
2 information.
3 MR. WEHNER: I would intend to just let
4 Mr. O'Neill take custody of the stack of exhibits this 5 evening, if he will, or we can look at them in the 6 courtroom before the Court today.
7 THE COURT: If he's got two witnesses I might 8 take them this afternoon so we get them done and that 9 won't preclude you from making a motion at the end of 10 case.
11 MR. WEHNER: Yes.
12 (Bench conference concluded)
13 THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen,
14 the defendant has certain documents that have been 15 marked but need to be reviewed before we consider them
16 further. There's a series of documents that we need to 17 review with counsel before they get admitted into 18 evidence. That will take some time. So rather than do
19 that now, we're going to go ahead with some other
20 witnesses.
2 The Government has some witnesses here. Let
2 me explain to you what that means. That means that the 2 defendant would normally be resting her case now after
2 putting in the documents and the Government has a brief
2 opportunity for rebuttal evidence to put in because the 3191

1 Government has the burden, as I instructed you at the 2 beginning of the case, to prove the defendant guilty of 3 each and every element of the offense that's charged

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

4 beyond a reasonable doubt, and to do that they're 5 allowed to have certain rebuttal evidence if they wish.
6 They have a couple of witnesses now and I'm
7 going to break into the rest of the defendant's case,
8 the document phase, and get these witnesses on for the 9 Government's behalf right now.
10 We'll probably have a couple of them tomorrow
11 morning but I think we can finish up the testimony
12 tomorrow. So we're going to switch right now into the 13 Government's rebuttal phase of this case. The witness
14 will be called by the Government, not by the defendant.
15 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, the Government will

16 call David Bowie.
17 (DAVID BOWIE, WITNESS FOR GOVERNMENT, SWORN)
18 MR. O'NEILL: May I inquire, Your Honor?
19 THE COURT: Yes, sir, go right ahead.
20 DIRECT EXAMINATION
21 BY MR. O'NEILL:
22 Q Agent Bowie, can you please state your name for the 23 record, spelling your last name for the Court reporter?
24 A My first name is David, the last name is Bowie,
25 spelled B-o-w-i-e.

3192

1 Q Agent Bowie, I'm going to ask you a series of
2 questions and I'd ask you to speak in a loud voice so
3 the jury can hear you.
4 sir, by whom are you currently employed?
5 A I'm currently employed by the Federal Bureau of 6 Investigation.
7 Q In what capacity are you so employed?
8 A For the past 13 years, Supervisory Special Agent,

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
9 for the last 21 years a Special Agent.

10 Q when you say you're a supervisory Special Agent,
11 what does that entail? where are you currently assigned?
12 A I'm currently assigned to the Northern Virginia
13 R.A. which handles all white collar investigations for 14 the Metropolitan area.
15 Q what was your experience before becoming an FBI
16 Agent?
17 A Immediately prior to the FBI I spent six years as a 18 public school teacher. Prior to that, 30 years in the 19 U.S. Army, left as a Captain, more years that I care to 20 remember, but a Vietnam veteran, et cetera.
2 Q Agent Bowie, I would direct your attention to the

2 date March 10, 1987 and ask you if you had an
2 opportunity to conduct an interview of a person on this
2 date?
2 A Yes, I did.

3193

1 Q who did you interview?

2 A I did have the occasion to interview Mrs. Debbie
3 Dean.

4 Q Do you see her in the courtroom?

5 A Yes, she is.

6 Q would you just point her out, for the record?

7 A She's sitting at the table there.

8 MR. O'NEILL: Indicating the defendant, Your

9 Honor.

10 THE COURT: Yes.

11 BY MR. O'NEILL:

12 Q During that interview, Agent Bowie, did Miss Dean
13 have an occasion to mention an allotment of 600 Mod
14 Rehab units going to Puerto Rico?

15 A Yes, she did. To the best of my recollection, she 16 cited an instance I think wherein, according to her, I
17 think Mr. Lance Wilson had made an allocation of 600 Mod
18 Rehab units to the Municipality of Puerto Rico and this 19 was done by I think she said Mr. Lance Wilson who was 20 formerly the Executive Secretary of HUD.

2 Q And what did Miss Dean say about Mr. Wilson's

2 decision to send 600 units to Puerto Rico?
2 A Well, she pointed out during the course of that
2 interview, to the best of my recollection, I think only
2 like 6000 or 7000 units were actually available for that

3194

1 entire year for the entire United States, and she noted
2 that the allocation, I think made to Mr. Joe Strauss,
3 was actually a tidbit more than a tenth of that entire 4 allocation for the nation.
5 She definitely disagreed with that decision
6 and in fact told me that she had, I think, taken that
7 matter up with the Secretary and, in fact, had the units
8 recalled.

9 Q Now, during that interview did Miss Dean mention
10 anything about consultants in the Mod Rehab unit
11 process?
12 A Well, we talked in -- well, in several veins about 13 the issue of consultants. In fact, the purpose of my 14 going to her dealt with Mr. Strauss himself and in his 15 capacity as a consultant. She at that point in time did 16 tell me of course that she had heard a lot of rumors to 17 the extent that he had used his contacts at HUD in order
18 to set up a business that was known as the Phoenix
19 Associates. She didn't have any -- if memory served me,
20 she did tell me that she did not have any direct
2 knowledge of consultants coming into HUD, using their

2 influence to gets units awarded but she did tell me that
2 she had heard a number of rumors for that extent.
2 Q Agent Bowie, you stated that the primary focus of 2 this interview was about Mr. Joseph Strauss?

3195

1 A That is correct.
2 Q At that time, just so it is clear, Miss Dean was

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
3 not under investigation by the FBI, is that correct?

4 A Not at that time.

5 MR. O'NEILL: Nothing further, thank you.

6 THE COURT: All right, thank you.

7 MR. WEHNER: I have no questions, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Agent

9 Bowie. You may step down, sir.

10 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, the Government would

11 call Special Agent Alvin Cain.

12 THE COURT: All right.

13 (SPECIAL AGENT ALVIN CAIN, WITNESS FOR GOVERNMENT, 14 SWORN)

15 DIRECT EXAMINATION

16 BY MR. O'NEILL:

17 Q Agent Cain, I would ask you to speak in a loud and 18 clear voice so that everyone can hear you, and so that 19 there's no misunderstanding. Sir, would you please

20 state your name for the record, spelling your last name?

2 A My name is Alvin R. Cain, Jr. The last name is

2 spelled C-a-i-n.

2 Q Agent Cain, by whom are you employed?

2 A I'm currently employed with the Office of the 2 Inspector General at the U.S. Department of Housing and 3196

1 Urban Development here in Washington.

2 Q And in what capacity are you so employed?

3 A I serve as a Supervisory Special Agent.

4 Q What exactly does a Supervisory Special Agent do?

5 A I supervise a variety of investigative efforts that
6 are focused toward protecting the integrity of the HUD
7 programs. Our primary mission is -- we're concerned 8 with fraud, waste, abuse and mismanagement within those 9 programs of HUD.

10 Q Where are you currently assigned, sir?

11 A At -- I'm currently working at the Office of the 12 Independent Counsel.

13 Q And how long have you been assigned there?

14 A Since June of 1990.

15 Q Agent Cain, did you have any other previous law
16 enforcement experience prior to joining HUD as a Special
17 Agent?

18 A Yes, prior to HUD I was on active duty with the 19 United States Air Force for 22 years, 20 of which was 20 spent with the Air Force Office of Special
2 Investigations.

2 Q Agent Cain, did there come a point in time when you

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 were involved in a HUD I.G. Report?
2 A Yes.
2 Q And did there come a point in time, as you recall,

3197

1 that it was published?
2 A Yes.
3 Q And do you recall when approximately that was?
4 A The Section Eight Mod Rehab investigative report
5 was published April 17, 1989.
6 Q At or about the time that was published, do you
7 recall having a conversation with the defendant Deborah
8 Gore Dean?
9 A A telephone conversation.
10 Q And can you recount for the ladies and gentlemen of 11 the jury what if anything was said during that telephone
12 conversation?
13 A As I recall, Miss Dean telephoned me with an 14 inquiry relative to how she could obtain a copy of the 15 investigative report. I related to her that the report
16 was available under the provisions of the Freedom of 17 Information Act. I also explained to her the cost that 18 was associated with obtaining a copy of the report.
19 Basically we had two versions that were being 20 sold under FOIA. The report itself totalled 50 some 2 dollars and the report plus the audit report was 60 some 2 dollars.
2 Q Did she express an interest in either report?
2 A Yes, she did. Miss Dean indicated that she would
2 like to have a copy. I explained to her that she could 3198

1 send in a written request which we would honor and 2 process or she could come to my office, pay for the 3 report and sign a receipt for the same, and that would 4 be the quickest way to obtain it.
5 Q And, Agent Cain, what if anything did she say to
6 you?
7 A What if anything did -
8 Q Did she say to you.
9 A She told me that she would send Marty over with a
10 check.
11 Q Did you know who Marty was at that time?
12 A I was not entirely clear. I assume Marty was a 13 reference to Marty Mitchell.
14 Q Did there come a point in time when Marty Mitchell
15 came to pay you for the copy of the report?
16 A As I recall, it was the same day.
17 Q What if anything happened?
18 A Marty came into the office. I had placed a copy of 19 the report with a receipt to be signed with my secretary
20 just in case if I was away from the office.
2 Ms. Mitchell came in, gave the check, signed the 2 receipt, took the report and left.
2 Q At or about that date, do you recall any
2 conversation with the defendant Deborah Gore Dean in 2 which she was quite upset with you about the contents of 3199

1 the report?
2 A No, I do not.
3 Q Do you recall her mentioning John Mitchell to you

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
4 and the fact that he made money as a consultant being
5 information within the report?
6 A No, I do not.
7 Q Do you recall her telling you that she was going to 8 hold a press conference to denounce what was in the 9 report?
10 A Absolutely not.
11 MR. O'NEILL: No further questions.
12 Thank you, sir.
13 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead and cross.
14 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.
15 CROSS-EXAMINATION
16 BY MR. WEHNER:
17 Q Agent Cain, do you recall the name of a project
18 known as Castle Square?
19 A Castle Square?
20 Q Yes.
2 MR. O'NEILL: Just for the record, Your Honor,
2 I would object to the scope of this question.
2 THE COURT: All right, we'll see where it
2 goes.
2 BY MR. WEHNER:

3200

1 Q Do you recall that Miss Dean came to see you with a
2 complaint on that particular project?

3 A Not at this point. Maybe if you give me some more
4 detail.

5 Q After she had left HUD do you recall that she came 6 to see you and said that certain subsidies were being 7 misused in a certain project?

8 A Castle Square. Is that a project in Boston?

9 Q It's in Pennsylvania.

10 A In Pennsylvania?

11 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, again, for the record, I
12 would object to this.

13 THE COURT: All right. Where are we going in 14 this, in relation to the direct?

15 MR. WEHNER: Very briefly, Your Honor, I'm 16 going to cover some items that may bear on his 17 credibility regarding his last statement.

18 THE COURT: All right.

19 BY MR. WEHNER:

20 Q It's in Boston.

2 A It's in Boston. I'll say project sponsored, and

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 when I say project sponsored, my reference is that this
2 is the individual who brings the project before the 2 Department. Oftentimes it's synonymous with ownership
2 and development. We refer to them as project

3201

1 sponsored. Now -

2 Q Do you recall Miss Dean coming to see you with

3 regard to something by that name?

4 A I'll still trying to identify the project. Is the 5 project sponsored a gentleman by the name of Winn?

6 Q Yes.

7 A Arthur Winn. I remember -- what I remember about

8 that project is we had an investigation into some

9 matters surrounding the funding of that project and if I
10 recall correctly I may have interviewed Miss Dean in 11 connection with that.

12 Q Did she come to see you? Did she come to your 13 office to see you?

14 A As far as a particular interview?

15 Q No, as far as the investigation, sir.

16 A Well, when I interviewed her I don't recall if it
17 was in my office or at her office.

18 Q Have you ever been in the Beverly Wilshire Hotel?

19 MR. O'NEILL: Again beyond the scope of the 20 inquiry, Your Honor.

21 MR. WEHNER: Credibility, Your Honor.

22 BY MR. WEHNER:

23 Q Have you ever been in the Beverly Wilshire?

24 A Where is the Beverly Wilshire?

25 Q In Los Angeles, California.

1 A I believe so.

2 Q And have you been there in the company of
3 Miss Dean?

4 A That's very possible. I think I can recall going
5 to - is that Los Angeles?

6 Q Yes.

7 A I can recall at least one, possibly two trips with 8 Secretary Pierce to Los Angeles and I think that's the

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

9 hotel we utilized.

10 Q And do you recall a party you attended in a place
11 called Fernando's Hideaway?

12 A No.

13 Q Do you recall receiving a Secretary's award from 14 the Secretary at the Beverly Wilshire Hotel for you and 15 your partner -for you and your partner?

16 A No. I can recall that Secretary Pierce awarded 17 myself and Special Agent Day the Secretary's award for 18 excellence I think is the title, but as I recall,
19 Mr. Day may have received those awards for both of us.

20 Q Do you recall attending a party at that hotel paid
2 for by Miss Dean in celebration of those awards?

2 A No.

2 MR. WEHNER: Nothing further, Your Honor.

2 MR. O'NEILL: Just briefly, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Sure.

3203

1 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

2 BY MR. O'NEILL:

3 Q Mr. Cain, as a part of your duties and

4 responsibilities would you be on the traveling

5 protection detail for Secretary Pierce?

6 A That was one of the responsibilities that I

7 supervised at HUD.

8 MR. O'NEILL: No further questions.

9 THE COURT: Thank you, Agent. You may step

10 down.

11 That's all you have now.

12 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 Ladies and gentlemen, I'm going to release you 15 for this evening. We've got some things to do here on 16 legal matters. I expect tomorrow's program will 17 probably not take the entire day in testimony. I don't 18 know that. I suspect tomorrow we'll get finished by 19 lunch? I don't know how long cross will be. If that 20 happens then what we'll do, ladies and gentlemen, I've
2 talked to counsel, I expect we'll give you the afternoon

2 off while we take up various legal matters and maybe
2 Wednesday -- I'm not sure, I've got to talk to counsel
2 on how much work we have to do to get ready for the

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 closing arguments and instructions to you in the final

3204

1 phase of this case which we're approaching.

2 we'll have a regular day tomorrow in the 3 morning and then we'll see where we're going in the 4 afternoon, but you may have the afternoon off, and then

5 we'll see about wednesday after I talk with counsel

6 tonight. But we will finish the case this week, the 7 evidentiary phase of the case, and it will be to you for

8 deliberation sometime later this week.

9 All right, this overnight recess again,
10 remember the admonitions, please, about not talking
11 about the case, reading, watching or listening to the 12 case that's carried in the media in any fashion.
13 I'd like you at 9:45 tomorrow, 9:30 is a
14 little early, 9:45 to get you here. I've got a couple 15 of other hearings in the morning on other matters. So,

16 9:45 so you don't have to wait. Okay? So, 9:45
17 tomorrow morning. Thank you.

18 (Jury dismissed)

19 THE COURT: All right, let me look at some 20 timing with counsel for a minute. We've got these 2 documents which counsel can look at this evening, the
2 instructions which I thought I had them ready but I
2 think they'll be ready in the morning, and then the few
2 witnesses tomorrow.

2 What's your feelings on timing? We can either

3205

1 meet tomorrow to try to work out instructions or if you
2 don't have enough time to review them, wednesday
3 morning. I'd rather get all the arguments in on one
4 day. I assume we can do that. I'm not sure also we can
5 get the instructions in on the same day. I don't know
6 how long counsel is looking at for closing.

7 MR. O'NEILL: The Government -if it's up to

8 the Government, Judge, we ask an hour -- we do prefer to 9 close on wednesday and we just never know with a long

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
10 trial how much longer with jurors and the like, and so
11 that would be our concern, and in terms of closing I
12 would imagine the Government would take between an hour,
13 hour and a half on direct closing and then reserve a
14 half hour of time for rebuttal.
15 THE COURT: You'd like at least two hours. I
16 would say two, two and a half hours.
17 MR. O'NEILL: That would be about right. I
18 hadn't thought in terms of an exact timeframe.
19 THE COURT: Yes, but somewhere in that 20 period.
2 Do you want -
2 MR. WEHNER: If Mr. O'Neill is going to be two

2 and 15 minutes.
2 THE COURT: So we may be able to instruct them

3206

1 the same day as hearing arguments. I thought you would
2 be longer. That's fine.
3 All right. we'll be ready for wednesday. I
4 wish I had the instructions in hand now. I've got a
5 draft copy but I haven't gone through them since they've

9 added a couple of things in the perjury, standardized
10 instructions, and I winnowed out a little bit on to try
11 to make it a little more concise.
12 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, we may have one or 13 two just additional instructions that we're going to 14 request on a supplemental basis, but we'll have those 15 ready tomorrow.
16 THE COURT: All right. One thing I can take 17 out here. We have a certain numbers of stipulations.
18 Generally in a simple case I recite the stipulations. I
19 think here I'll probably just state that there were 20 stipulations and counsel can tell the jury in closing
2 about whatever stipulations they need to rely upon they
2 can take them back to the jury room, in any event,
2 rather than go through the stipulation in detail.
2 All right. Tomorrow morning I think we'll

PROCEEDING S

2 (In chambers, Defendant and counsel present.)

3 THE COURT: Okay, what's your concern?

4 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, we requested the conference to discuss the Independent Counsel's case on rebuttal. Mr. O'Neill kindly told us yesterday the witnesses that he intended to call on rebuttal in addition to the ones that were called yesterday, and one of those was Ms. Withington. I do not object to her being recalled or being called on the case in rebuttal by the 10 Independent Counsel.

11 The second one was an individual by the name of Joann

12 Harris. Ms. Harris was the, at one point the lead counsel for 13 the Independent Prosecutor's case, and we had several discussions

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

14 with her, including plea negotiations with Ms. Harris.
15 If Your Honor recalls, Ms. Harris was also the 16 prosecutor who made the representation to Judge Gesell with 17 regard to the Brady information that Your Honor subsequently 18 found was Brady. although it had been denied, Ms. Harris had 19 denied knowledge of that Brady two years prior.
20 I understand that the purpose of the introduction of 21 that testimony is to rebut a statement made by Ms. Dean during 22 her cross, I think -
23 MR. O'NEILL: Right.
24 MR. WEHNER: --in which the Independent Counsel -
and
25 I don't have, I don't recall specifically, but I'll do the best I can to accurately describe it -- in which Ms. Dean stated that she had made an effort to tell her story regarding the $4,000 Lou Kitchin check to the Independent Counsel previously and that they had turned down her, her offer to do that. My understanding is that the Independent Counsel wishes to call

3213

Ms. Harris to rebut that statement.
I think in terms of Rule 11 dealing with the inadmissibility of plea negotiations, that that statement is not properly admissible under Rule 11, because to the extent that 10 Ms. Harris testifies, her testimony will have to include 11 statements made during plea negotiations. No. 2, I think it's 12 collateral at best and in that regard is not proper rebuttal to 13 Ms. Dean's testimony on cross examination.
14 The other two witnesses I'm aware of that the 15 Independent Counsel wishes to call are, one was the driver who,
16 if Your Honor recalls -
17 THE COURT: Right.
18 MR. WEHNER: --we stipulated to certain testimony
19 regarding him.
20 I don't know, I don't see a necessity to call the 21 driver, because, A, we stipulated to it, the testimony. We 22 didn't stipulate to the fact that it occurred. We stipulated to 23 his testimony, and I think there's a distinction to be made in 24 terms of the cross examination of Ms. Dean, No. 1. No. 2, it 25 could have been offered in the case in chief of the government if

3214

1 they would have chosen not to stipulate, and I think it's not
2 fair rebuttal testimony.
3 In terms of the fourth --or fifth, I guess, witness
4 they intend to call, Ms. Pamela Patenaude, and Ms. Patenaude was 5 a coworker at HUD during the same time period that Ms. Dean was 6 at HUD, and she in terms of her Jencks material and her Brady
7 material has testimony regarding Ms. Dean's relationship with the 8 Baltimore project, which Your Honor has heard testimony about
9 Baltimore Uplift One.
10 She has testimony with regards to Ms. Dean's 11 relationship to Secretary Pierce. She has testimony with regard
12 to her own activities vis-a-vis the Mod Rehab Program and her
13 knowledge of what, the way Mr. Barksdale ran it, the way
14 Mr. Demery ran it, and her testimony, as I understand it, as I 15 see in the Jencks, is the testimony that also could have been 16 introduced in the government's case in chief in terms of her
17 testimony concerning the involvement of Ms. Dean in mod rehab
18 funding decisions.
19 My concern with regard to Ms. Patenaude is that if she 20 testifies, our --we then --it throws into play a surrebuttal on
2 her specific statements about Ms. Dean's involvement, and there
2 are two witnesses that we would intend to call if Ms. Patenaude

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 testifies. One would be Hunter Cushing, who was at HUD at the 2 same time that Ms. Dean and Ms. Patenaude were there, and 2 Mr. Cushing would testify directly contradictory to some of the 3215

1 statements made by Ms. Patenaude regarding the involvement of 2 others in the Mod Rehab Program, and the other witness -- if he
3 testifies at all, because I can't represent to the Court that he
4 would voluntarily appear. There may be a fifth amendment issue
5 with Mr. Cushing; I don't know that.
6 And the second individual we would call would be Abbie
7 Wiest, who was also an employee at the same time at HUD, and I do
8 know that she would testify contradictory to what Ms. Patenaude
9 said.
10 And my concern is, Judge, I think we've gotten to the 11 point in this case where the government's had their shot and 12 we've had our shot, and we're starting to drift into collateral
13 issues or issues that have already been tried in the case, and I
14 do not see the necessity, with the exception of Ms. Withington,
15 which I think is, is clearly appropriate rebuttal, of throwing
16 this into who-has-the-last-witness syndrome, which some trials
17 disintegrate into, and I wanted to place on the record my 18 objections to the calling of those additional witnesses as being 19 witnesses that should have been called in the case in chief,
20 could have been called in the case in chief, and are not proper
2 rebuttal because they are collateral, they go to collateral
2 matters and are irrelevant.
2 THE COURT: Okay. Well, withington is not a problem.
2 The first one I want to talk about, it seems to the Court, before
2 we get to this general objection is the Harris objection. What are you going to call Harris for?

3216

MR. O'NEILL: First, Judge, for Ms. Withington, we were only going to offer the contract and the settlement.
4 THE COURT: To show on April 20 it settled?
5 MS. SWEENEY: April 10.
6 THE COURT: The sale signed that day?
7 MR. O'NEILL: I asked Mr. Wehner if he would stipulate to that, and for reasons, he wouldn't. So we would have a need to call her.
10 As to Joann Harris, we weren't intending to call Joann
11 Harris until it came out on the stand Ms. Dean said she tried to 12 explain the $4,000 to the Independent Counsel and they wouldn't 13 listen.
14 THE COURT: wouldn't listen to her.
15 MR. O'NEILL: The problem -- and I agree with 16 Mr. Wehner about Rule 11, of course. It's been waived in that 17 the defendant has affirmatively made a statement that Ms. Harris
18 would say is untrue on the record.
19 The government was thinking about it overnight since I
20 talked to Mr. Wehner briefly about that yesterday, and the 21 government would not be adverse to working out some sort of 22 arrangement if we could, but our concern would be that if that 23 stays on the record, it appears, in fact, that Ms. Dean did try 24 to explain to the Independent Counsel about those $4,000, and 25 Ms. Harris is going to say that did not occur, there was no

3217

1 conversation -- I wasn't present, Judge. I wasn't in the office
2 at that time.
3 MS. SWEENEY: I'm the only other witness, Your Honor,

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
4 and obviously I can't be a witness in the case, but I can tell,
5 tell Your Honor what happened and why we feel that it would be 6 appropriate to call Ms. Harris.
7 Ms. Dean attended a meeting with us on one occasion,
8 and Ms. Harris and I were the two individuals who were present.
9 THE COURT: You had no agents around?
10 MS. SWEENEY: There were no agents, Your Honor.
11 THE COURT: Counsel was there?
12 MS. SWEENEY: Yes. Oh, yes, Mr. Wehner and 13 Mr. Santarelli.
14 THE COURT: Okay.
15 MR. WEHNER: That's correct.
16 THE COURT: So it was in the context of a meeting to 17 talk about a plea, or is it in a context to answer questions?
18 MS. SWEENEY: It was to talk about the charges. And we 19 went over at that point in time with Ms. Dean, we basically laid 20 out the Mitchell evidence. The meeting was held really in 2 response to a request from Ms. Dean's counsel that wouldn't we
2 lay out some of our evidence and try to show her a little more
2 about our case, and it was between the original indictment and 2 the superseding indictment, and basically out of professional
2 courtesy and because we felt it was the fair thing to do, we 3218

1 agreed to do that, and we showed documents that have been
2 exhibits in the case, laid out our theory.
3 Ms. Dean tried to speak at the meeting, and her counsel
4 instructed her not to speak and, in fact, took her out in the 5 hallway and apparently repeated that instruction out there.
6 Prior to beginning the meeting, we did ask Ms. Dean and 7 her counsel to execute an agreement, and the agreement does
8 specify that if she, that the meeting was to be treated in a 9 confidential fashion, that if she were to breach that 10 confidentiality, that the agreement would then be off, and that 11 in that case -- I have a copy of the agreement in the courtroom,
12 and I can certainly give that to Your Honor if that's necessary,
13 but perhaps Mr. Wehner will remember it as well.
14 That in that case, that -
15 MR. WEHNER: I agree there was an agreement signed. I
16 don't recall the particulars of it. It was probably a typical 17 off-the-record type of agreement that we can't talk about what 18 you said and you can't talk about what she said.
19 MS. SWEENEY: Unless she talks about it, in which case
20 it could be used as evidence.
2 And I guess I should say one other thing. There were a
2 couple of occasions, one or more occasion when Mr. Wehner said to 2 me that he felt that they had very good defenses on the $4,000,
2 and I said back to him, "Tell us. We're open to listen. We're
2 willing to listen."

1 And he basically said, "why should I help you out? I'm
2 not going to help you where I figure we have the best defenses
3 and help you tailor your indictment and get my client, so I don't 4 feel it's in our interests to let you know our defenses on the 5 $4,000."
6 Given that background, Your Honor, we feel the 7 defendant's testimony is extremely, just unfair as well as 8 inaccurate.
9 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, I guess the real concern,
10 obviously, and Mr. Wehner has voiced some of this, is, you
11 know -- and I can see the Court's problem calling the prosecutor
12 as a witness, but our concern would be that -- and obviously, I 13 don't know what Mr. Wehner is going to argue in closing, nor he

14 I.

15 THE COURT: Sure.

16 MR. O'NEILL: Our concern would be that that state
17 ment -- and probably it's lost on the jury amongst, you know, 18 they get the big picture, a particular statement. The government
19 would agree not to call Ms. Harris if we could work out something 20 where it's either stricken from the record, because according to
2 Ms. Harris, and I don't know if that's in dispute, it factually
2 did not happen, and if Mr. Wehner would not refer to it in 2 closing, I think we can bypass that.
2 But we're just concerned that something that factually
2 didn't happen was stated on the stand and then might be used and

3220

1 we don't have a chance to do anything about it.

2 THE DEFENDANT: Excuse me. I know I'm probably not
3 supposed to say anything.

4 THE COURT: You can ask your counsel.

5 THE DEFENDANT: Can I talk to Mr. Wehner for a moment?

6 Because my understanding of what was said -7

MR. WEHNER: Excuse me.

8 THE COURT: That's the best thing to do.

9 (Discussion off the record.)

10 THE DEFENDANT: Mr. Wehner says the lights are on

11 so . . .

12 MR. WEHNER: Judge, I believe that during the cross
13 examination of Ms. Harris, she would testify as to additional 14 conversations that she and I had regarding the plea negotiations 15 in which the subject of the $4,000 was raised and in which the 16 discussion involved whether we could trade information about that 17 charge in such a way that would not be harmful either to the 18 Independent Counsel or to our client.

19 Now I recall those conversations, and they are typical 20 lawyer-government conversations, where I had many --or several
2 telephone conversations with Ms. Harris. I believe she's going
2 to recall those, because Ms. Harris generally and specifically is
2 an honorable lawyer. She's a very good lawyer, as Your Honor
2 probably is aware of her and her reputation.
2 So our -- let me put it this way: The meeting that 3221

1 Ms. Sweeney refers to I believe she characterized accurately, and 2 I personally -

3 MS. SWEENEY: That's a first, Steve. Thank you.

4 MR. WEHNER: There's a reason for that, Paula. I, in 5 fact, took Ms. Dean out in the hallway and told her not to talk,
6 and I thought it was in her best interests not to talk for a
7 variety of reasons.

8 But that is not the meeting in which we're referring to 9 in terms of our efforts to reach some kind of arrangement whereby 10 Ms. Dean could give an explanation for the $4,000 check under 11 circumstances that were appropriate for her protection and for 12 the protection of the Independent Counsel.

13 Now I can state -

14 THE COURT: It seems to me we should have some kind of 15 stipulation or an agreement that it remains or it is a, I don't 16 mean strike it officially from the record, but that it's not 17 going to be referred to in closing arguments if there was not 18 actually a meeting where Ms. Dean, with her counsel, volunteered 19 to say, "Here is the rationale why we're doing this," and 20 Independent Counsel says, "I don't want to talk about it."

2 I can understand where there was a dance going on, how
2 you properly worked out the situation.

2 MR. WEHNER: That's a better word for it.

2 THE COURT: But it never came to fruition. And I think
2 that maybe Ms. Dean's feelings may be very justified that she 3222

1 felt that she wanted to tell people and they wouldn't let her
2 talk.

3 MR. WEHNER: Yeah, that's probably a very accurate
4 characterization.

5 THE COURT: But it seems to me you could work out some 6 way to resolve it without calling Ms. Harris, because my concern
7 with calling Harris is not so much that she's a prosecutor, which 8 is unfortunate to put her in the position, because then you've 9 got the credibility of cross examination going on about her
10 doings in the case, but if she was going to have to be crossed 11 about what was said to you on the telephone about this $4,000 or 12 not and then if she says something different from your 13 recollection, then we end up with a quagmire, and there's no way
14 to get out of it.

15 MR. WEHNER: I agree.

16 MS. SWEENEY: I can proffer to Your Honor that her 17 recollection is more in line with my recollection, that we 18 invited Steve to tell us and he didn't. On the other hand, 19 Ms. Dean's testimony at the trial was about what she did, not 20 about what Mr. wehner did.

2 THE COURT: Yes, okay.

2 MR. WEHNER: That's fair, too.

2 THE COURT: All right. well, I think that it should be
2 looked at to see if we can't resolve it through some type of a
2 stipulation.

3223

1 MR. WEHNER: Could I have a second with my client, Your
2 Honor?

3 THE COURT: All right.

4 (Discussion off the record.)

5 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, we will stipulate that I will 6 not raise that statement in closing.

7 THE COURT: All right. And what I'll do is for the 8 record I'll strike it, and if for some reason the jury can see a 9 transcript or something -

10 MR. WEHNER: It may have already been stricken,
11 actually.

12 MR. O'NEILL: It actually wasn't.

13 MS. SWEENEY: It's at pages 2762, 2719. That will make 14 it easier.

15 THE COURT: 2762.

16 MS. SWEENEY: There are discussions of it in two 17 places.

18 THE COURT: All right, let me go to the next one then.

19 The driver, the gentleman who, that the stipulation was if he 20 testified, he would have testified that he had taken Ms. Dean
2 several times to lunch that she told him were with Mr. Mitchell,
2 as I recall the content, you want to call him back to say that
2 again basically?

2 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Judge.

2 THE COURT: Since Ms. Dean said on the stand she 3224

1 stipulated to the testimony but not that it was true is what she
2 said.

3 MR. O'NEILL: And that both Mr. wehner and I agree that 4 he was a weird guy and couldn't be believed.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
5 THE COURT: That's right. Everybody believed that no
6 one would believe him.
7 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.
8 THE COURT: And that's because of memory problems or 9 something? Is that the reference?
10 MR. WEHNER: It was because some statements in his 11 Jencks material are so obviously untrue that he appears to be an 12 unreliable person generally, and I don't mean to characterize him
13 in such a way that Mr. O'Neill would disagree, but, for example,
14 he testifies as to Ms. Dean's use of car phones, and there
15 weren't any car phones in the cars at the time.
16 I mean, he was clearly recalling information that he 17 had heard from other sources or read in the newspaper and 18 suggesting he had personal knowledge of it, and it was certainly 19 not in my interest to have that testimony in front of the jury.
20 THE COURT: So if he's called on the stand and 21 testifies he recalls her telling him that she was going to have 22 lunch with Mr. Mitchell sometimes, that then he's going to be 23 subject to these Jencks materials on cross, I guess.
24 well, I think it's fair rebuttal. I'm going to allow 25 him to be called. I think Ms. Dean could have said she didn't stipulate to the truth of that, that this is what he would have said, but whether it's true for the jury to decide, her recollection is she did not talk to him about it. She also said that everybody agreed he was unbelievable.

3225

MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, for the record, it seems to me that the point of a stipulation and consistent with the instruction that Your Honor has given to the jury about the 8 purpose of stipulations is that it will not be disputed, so I'm 9 at a loss -
10 THE COURT: No, there are two different stipulations.
11 One is a stipulation of facts. If you stipulate to facts, I
12 think you establish those as true, and I don't think you can 13 defeat that, but if you stipulate to testimony, that's just 14 saying so-and-so would have testified to such. It's up to them
15 to say whether that fits into that he would have testified that 16 the sun wouldn't rise. You can stipulate to that. That's their 17 position.
18 MS. SWEENEY: Okay.
19 THE COURT: If they said a stipulation as to fact, I
20 think that's different, and they couldn't back out of it.
21 Patenaude, did we get into a lot of other matters? Is 22 she necessary? I don't know.
23 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, I will tell you that when we 24 originally scheduled Ms. Patenaude as a rebuttal witness, we 25 regarded her simply as a rebuttal character witness.

3226

1 THE COURT: That's right.
2 MS. SWEENEY: As you will recall, Ms. Dean called two
3 character witnesses: Mr. Holmes and Mr. Baugh.
4 THE COURT: The real estate fellow.
5 MS. SWEENEY: Oh, Mr. Clinton, Mr. Clinton and 6 Mr. Baugh. Your Honor's right.
7 THE DEFENDANT: Mr. Clinton and Mr. Holmes.
8 MS. SWEENEY: Mr. Clinton and Mr. Holmes, okay. Two 9 out of those three were character witnesses.
10 In the interim, we have considered putting on 11 Ms. Patenaude on three very, very, very narrow, limited matters 12 that we believe were raised by Ms. Dean during cross examination,
Page 1791

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
13 although that was not our, our, as I say, our original intent
14 when we scheduled her, and that is, on Ms. Dean's, a conversation
15 she had with Ms. Dean about Mr. Shelby, the fact that the driver, 16 Ron Reynolds, drove both Ms. Dean and Ms. Patenaude when they 17 were together on numerous occasions.
18 Ms. Dean on cross examination testified that 19 Ms. Dean -- she couldn't even recall if Mr. Reynolds had driven
20 her. I believe that was what she said.
2 THE DEFENDANT: I didn't say that. I said he wasn't a
2 special driver for me.
2 MS. SWEENEY: I think that's, those are the -
2 THE COURT: Is there anything about Baltimore Uplift?
2 MS. SWEENEY: I was not intending to ask questions

3227

1 about Baltimore Uplift, Your Honor.
2 THE COURT: So about the driver and about Shelby?
3 MS. SWEENEY: About Shelby and -
4 THE COURT: You had three, I thought you said.
5 MS. SWEENEY: And about the mod rehab meeting, the 6 September meeting that Ms. Zagame testified about.
7 THE COURT: well, does Hunter Cushing get into this
8 then if it goes into these limited areas?
9 MR. WEHNER: It's into Shelby and Zagame, because they
10 were all colleagues. Judge, in terms of Shelby and Zagame, I 11 don't think that's rebuttal. She could have testified to those,
12 to those matters in the case in chief.
13 THE COURT: well, I don't know what it's going to mean
14 about Shelby. what is it -
15 MS. SWEENEY: As I recall Ms. Dean's testimony about 16 Shelby, it is that she was unaware that he was a consultant on 17 particular projects and that he only asked for her help on one.
18 Ms. Patenaude would say that Ms. Dean on many occasions mentioned
19 Richard Shelby and said she was taking care of him or asked 20 Ms. Patenaude to help him out. That's the nature of the
2 testimony.
2 I did recall the third thing, Your Honor: The third
2 thing that she would rebut, would be Ms. Dean's testimony that she
2 was not interested in electoral office in Maryland and had no
2 such political ambitions. Again, that's a matter of one question and one answer.

3228

2 THE COURT: But the only concern I have is you're just
3 reopening the whole case again for further witnesses.
4 MS. SWEENEY: well, as I say, Your Honor, that was 5 definitely not our intent.
6 THE COURT: I think the driver is logical and the 7 office in Maryland is logical. That's sort of new, not raised
8 before. To go back through the meetings in the Mod Rehab
9 Program, I'm kind of leery to hear any more about that, having 10 heard a lot.
11 I think a reference to Shelby, if it goes to she didn't 12 say, "I want Mr. Shelby --" or whatever, "I want to help him out 13 in this particular project," would be appropriate. I'll allow 14 it, but I want you to try to limit it so we do not reopen the 15 whole case again, and then I'll hear if the defendant thinks he's 16 got to call someone else because of the testimony.
17 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, sir.
18 THE COURT: So I'll overrule the defendant's objections

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
19 as we discussed. The plea negotiation issue in Harris will be 20 stipulated out. The driver can testify, subject to cross,
21 because I think there was a stipulation as to what his testimony
22 would have been, not that it was true or not.
23 And then as to Patenaude, I've limited areas. I think
24 the government has got to try to limit her so she doesn't reopen
25 the case again. If she does reopen the case in her testimony,

3229

1 we'll see where we go on the defense side with additional
2 witnesses.
3 MR. WEHNER: With Patenaude, Your Honor, the driver is,
4 the, the testimony regarding the driver is admissible?
5 THE COURT: Yes.
6 MR. WEHNER: I just want to be sure I understand.
7 THE COURT: Yes, it's admissible, the driver; the 8 election-to-office-in-Maryland desires by Ms. Dean -9
MR. WEHNER: Right.
10 THE COURT: -- and the Shelby area.
11 MR. WEHNER: Okay.
12 THE COURT: Shelby about, you know, projects or 13 something that he was working on there, and I'm going to let the 14 government see how much further they want to go. If they want to 15 go somewhere else, they can try it, and then if it's a problem,
16 you may be able to call other witnesses.
17 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, we're going to make every 18 effort to limit ourselves.
19 THE COURT: I was just trying to wrap it up this
20 morning.
21 MR. WEHNER: Is there anything else?
22 MR. O'NEILL: No. The only thing, Judge, Susan
23 Withington we expected to be here this morning. She was not here
24 yet when we got here and they called her office, the case agent,
25 and apparently she's at a house closing. She's supposed to call

3230

1 in at 11:00 for messages, so I have a message saying the Judge
2 wants to see her at 11:05.
3 THE COURT: All right. Try to get her in here as soon
4 as possible.
5 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, before we leave the rebuttal
6 case, perhaps I should mention that the government is intending 7 to offer perhaps another two documents on our rebuttal case.
8 THE COURT: Did you review the documents offered by the 9 defendant?
10 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, we did, Judge.
11 THE COURT: Are you ready to take a position on those?
12 I'll go back in open court and discuss those.
13 MR. O'NEILL: Sure.
14 THE COURT: Are there some stipulated to or some not?
15 MR. WEHNER: The vast majority have been stipulated as 16 to admissibility, Judge. I'd say there are 25, 30, that are 17 subject to dispute.
18 MR. O'NEILL: And a lot of those are in areas, general
19 areas that you'll make a decision that will cover the great
20 majority of them, Judge.
21 THE COURT: Okay. Well, I can hear those when we take 22 a break. I've got the jury in now.
23 In the instructions, let me tell you what I did. I
24 asked my clerks after we had reviewed them all and they typed
25 them up a bunch of times to try to give you highlighting where I

3231

1 changed the government's instructions and where I added
2 defendant's instructions, and they said I'd made so many changes,
3 that wasn't possible. I didn't think I had done that.
4 what I've done is essentially this: We have 5 standardized instructions. I adopted the format of the 6 government's approach to the conspiracy and other counts in the 7 indictment just on how they laid it out. I reduced greatly the 8 recitation of the charges and, in the conspiracy area and 9 summarized them much more succinctly, without a lot of 10 description that had been done.
11 I added in the areas you may want to be concerned
12 about, as to substantive areas more than anything else, there's a 13 couple of questions asked for by the defendant, in reading the 14 government's objections to defendant's instructions, I used what 15 I assume was an agreement by the government as to what was 16 appropriate as to evidently concerns at the end of the general
17 introduction conspiracy statement as to what the government
18 alleges or not.
19 The government -- I did put in the program was 20 discretionary, that is, by Congress moving to fair share, but it
2 was controlled still by HUD regulations and ethical standards of 2 conduct.
2 The rest falls within the formats that would generally
2 follow. I don't want to mislead you. I did make changes here
2 and there. I changed certain style of language that was used

3232

1 which I just didn't write that way, the way I write, and some of 2 the esoteric language, like, "Indeed, you don't even have to find
3 this to find Ms. Dean guilty." I took out "indeed" and other
4 expressions just used automatically in writing to make it a
5 neutral language, I believe, throughout the thing.
6 I researched rather carefully in the legal gratuity,
7 because I thought there might have been a conflict between the 8 way the statute and the elements were defined and the instruction
9 as to Item 3 in the elements. That's page 27. That says that a 10 gratuity was received by the defendant for or because of an 11 official act or acts already performed or to be performed by her
12 in the future, in discussing that element, which is back on 33 -
13 I'm sorry, no, it's back on - wait a second, I think we skipped
14 something. Off the record.
15 (Discussion off the record.)
16 THE COURT: All right, it's 28, intent defined. There
17 it says that the government need not prove the defendant actually 18 did something specifically in exchange for the gratuity, not that 19 the gratuity was received by the defendant in any way that caused 20 her to perform some act, need not demonstrate she received it,
2 that she altered it in any way to do her normal business.
2 But there's recent case law, I have it printed out
2 here, a brand new case that says that. Even though the element
2 says that she had to take it for some act, the decision law says
2 it doesn't have to be for any specific act; it can be for 3233

1 anything, like a tip or such is what it can be, a tip for doing a
2 good job. So I think it's appropriate the way it's expressed.
3 Perjury I changed somewhat. You'll have to look at the 4 changes from your original versions submitted by the government.
5 And I used ones from Clair George's case that was tried here
6 recently, from some other cases in our circuit that they've 7 looked at.
8 One thing in perjury I have not put in any further

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
9 discussion of is the state of mind of proof of the defendant.
10 That's the fourth element on page 33. There's a long instruction
11 that can be given as to the state of mind evidence as to,
12 specifically as to perjury. It's in Modern Federal Jury
13 Instructions; that's Sand and Siffert. I think I've appended a 14 copy of it that you can all look at to see if you think it's 15 appropriate.
16 We have a brief discussion of what "to willfully and 17 contrary" testify means. The Siffert and Sand instruction is 18 much longer and more involved. It goes into general
19 considerations about proof and intent, and we have that covered
20 somewhat in the beginning instructions.
2 I have added -- I put in on the exhibits, and I don't
2 know how counsel are going to handle this, that they should ask
2 for the exhibits. I wasn't sending them all back, because there
2 are so many. I'm not opposed to packing them all up, but I don't
2 know how that will affect the jury if they walk back to four or

3234

1 five boxes in the jury room when they start to deliberate. Or if
2 you want to have lists of exhibits sent down as I've done in 3 other cases, the clerk will send in a list, and then they can 4 check off the list what they want to see.
5 I'm not opposed to sending them all back and just 6 boxing them all up, but you have to think what would be best for 7 the jury's consideration.
8 I've also added an instruction as to partial verdict,
9 that they can return a verdict at any time.
10 THE DEFENDANT: Is it possible to ask the jury if they 11 would like to have them?
12 THE COURT: well, that's what the instruction I have 13 now says, that if you want the exhibits, ask for them, but I'm 14 not sending them all back originally. They can have all the 15 exhibits they want.
16 All right, you'll have to look through those and let me
17 know how you feel about those later.
18 We'll go in and take up the ones that are here, and 19 then we'll find out where Ms. Withington is.
20 THE CLERK: Judge, do you want to ask about Judge
2 Gesell's ruling?
2 THE COURT: Yes, thank you.
2 MR. O'NEILL: We found the transcript, Judge. It's 2 better just to give it to you. We have it in the courtroom. He
2 says it in passing, but it's difficult to divine whether he's

3235

1 saying whether it's an order. I guess it was never reflected in 2 a written order.
3 THE COURT: No, it's not. I've looked.
4 MR. O'NEILL: You can look at it.
5 THE COURT: All right, I'll just look at it and see.
6 MR. O'NEILL: He talks about the political nature of 7 the indictment of certain matters that he doesn't want to go to 8 the jury, but he doesn't define what he's referring to.
9 THE COURT: Okay. All right, I'll look at that.
10 MR. O'NEILL: Okay.
11 THE COURT: Because generally I send the indictment
12 back for the jury. So I'll take a look at it and see what it
13 looks like.
14 All right. well, let's go out and take up the people
15 we've got there and see where we can go.
16 MS. SWEENEY: The Judge Gesell comment was made during 17 colloquy on the severance motion, and then he, of course, did
18 deny the motion, so I guess we just never thought further about
Page 1795

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

19 the colloquy.

20 THE COURT: All right. The only reason I knew about it
2 was on some docket card somewhere saying the indictment is to not
2 go back to the jury but didn't explain it.

2 MS. SWEENEY: It's during his colloquy.

2 THE COURT: Thank you.

2 (Recess from 10:45 a.m. to 10:58 a.m.)

3236

1 (Open court, Defendant present, Jury out.)

2 THE CLERK: Criminal No. 92-181, United States of
3 America v. Deborah Gore Dean. We have Robert O'Neill and Paula
4 Sweeney for the government, Stephen Wehner for Ms. Dean.

5 THE COURT: All right, just for the record, we had some 6 preliminary discussions on evidentiary issues in chambers which 7 are recorded as part of the transcript in this case, and based 8 upon those rulings, we're ready to proceed with some additional 9 witnesses for the government.

10 You can bring the jury in.

11 (Jury in.)

12 THE COURT: All right, Ladies and Gentlemen, good
13 morning.

14 THE JURORS: Good morning.

15 THE COURT: We're ready to proceed. We took care of 16 some evidentiary matters and legal matters with counsel this 17 morning, and I think we're ready to move along with the testimony
18 at this time.

19 As you'll recall from yesterday's session when we 20 ended, we're in the rebuttal phase of the government's case.

2 They have this brief opportunity to call witnesses, and we're
2 going to continue with those witnesses and hopefully finish with 2 them soon. There's one witness we're still waiting to get here,
2 but we'll see as time goes on when that witness can be here.

2 All right, Mr. O'Neill, are you ready for the next one,

3237

1 or Ms. Sweeney?

2 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Your Honor. The government will 3 call Ronald Reynolds.

4 THE COURT: All right.

5 RONALD LEE REYNOLDS, GOVERNMENT'S WITNESS, SWORN
6 DIRECT EXAMINATION

7 BY MR. O'NEILL:

8 Q. Mr. Reynolds, I will be asking you a series of questions.

9 I'd ask you to speak loudly so everyone can hear you. Will you
10 please state your name for the record, spelling your last name
11 for the court reporter?

12 A. Ronald Lee Reynolds, R-e-y-n-o-l-d-s.

13 Q. Mr. Reynolds, how are you employed, sir?

14 A. I work for Housing and Urban Development.

15 Q. In what capacity?

16 A. I'm the branch chief of the HUD motor pool.

17 Q. And what does that mean?

18 A. I'm in charge of a department that has a group of 19 automobiles that service political appointees. We take them from 20 Point A to Point B. And there's roughly 50, 60 passengers that 2 we service.

2 Q. And how long have you been employed at HUD?

2 A. Going on 14 years.

2 Q. Mr. Reynolds, I would direct your attention to the years
2 1984 through 1987. What was your position at HUD at that time?

3238

A. I was a driver and acting occasionally as the dispatcher.

Q. Do you know the defendant, Deborah Gore Dean?

A. Yes, I do.

Q. Do you see her in the courtroom today, sir?

A. No. You're in the way.

Q. Okay, sorry.

A. Yes, I do.

MR. O'NEILL: He indicated the defendant for the record.

10 THE COURT: All right, so noted.

11 BY MR. O'NEILL:

12 Q. Now, Mr. Reynolds, did there ever come a point in time or an 13 occasion where you would drive Ms. Dean in the car while she was 14 employed at HUD?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And how often did that occur?

17 A. On a guesstimate, it would be, like, two out of three trips,
18 and the reason why I always wound up with her was because Debbie

19 was notoriously late on her pickups, and the other drivers didn't

20 want to sit around for 45 minutes waiting for her to come out.

21 So it didn't matter to me if I get paid sitting or driving, so I

22 would just go.

23 MR. WEHNER: Objection. Move to strike.

24 THE COURT: All right.

25 MR. WEHNER: Nonre spons ive.

1 THE COURT: I'll sustain the objection as given now.

2 You can ask another question.

3 BY MR. O'NEILL:

4 Q. Okay. Mr. Reynolds, you said a guesstimate. How often did
5 you drive her?

6 A. Oh, I'd say two out of every three -- two out of five,

7 sorry.

8 Q. When you say two out of five, what are you referring to?

9 A. Trips from Point A to Point B. I would drive her to the 10 Hill or somewhere else, wherever she was assigned to go.

11 Q. Okay. Let's use it in our normal terminology. On a weekly
12 basis, how often would you drive her?

13 A. On a weekly basis, I'd say about ten times.

14 Q. Now, Mr. Reynolds, did there come a point in time when you 15 would drive her to, to luncheon meetings that she would have?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And how often did that happen?

18 A. Oh, two, three times a week.

19 Q. Do you recall any particular restaurants?

20 A. 209-1/2 Pennsylvania Avenue was one that she went to.

2 Hay-Adams was another one she went to. Occasionally at the Palm

2 Restaurant. Fairfax Hotel, that was one.

2 Q. Do you know if she ever met John Mitchell for lunch?

2 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay. And how do you know that, sir?

3240

1 A. She told me that she was meeting him.

2 Q. How often did she tell you she met John Mitchell for lunch?

3 A. To my memory, at least about two or three occasions, at

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

4 least, a minimum of two.

5 Q. What, if anything, did she say to you about those luncheon
6 meetings with John Mitchell?

7 A. Just that she had met with her stepdad, or her dad, they had 8 had lunch.

9 MR. O'NEILL: Thank you, sir.

10 THE COURT: All right. Cross exam?

11 CROSS EXAMINATION

12 BY MR. WEHNER:

13 Q. Mr. Reynolds, you testified that you drove Ms. Dean
14 approximately ten times a week?

15 A. About that.

16 Q. And that was two out of five trips?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. So two out of five trips, and it is ten, what would 19 that be, that she took 50 trips a week?

20 A. It's quite possible.

21 Q. And she took 50 trips a week, that's ten a day?

22 A. It's possible.

23 Q. Okay. So she traveled ten times a day for three years?

24 A. I wouldn't say on a weekly, weekly basis.

25 Q. Whew. Okay.

3241

1 THE COURT: Let's not comment.

2 BY MR. WEHNER:

3 Q. I would like you to point out Ms. Dean's mother.

4 A. I can't point her out.

5 Q. Didn't you tell the Independent Counsel that you knew that 6 John Mitchell, Ms. Dean, and her mother had had lunch together?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 MR. WEHNER: May the record reflect that Ms. Dean's 9 mother is present in the courtroom, Your Honor?

10 THE COURT: All right.

11 BY MR. WEHNER:

12 Q. Your testimony today is that Ms. Dean had lunch with 13 Attorney -

with John Mitchell maybe twice throughout the entire 14 time you drove her?

15 A. It was probably more than twice, but I remember twice
16 distinctly.

17 Q. Okay. You remember twice distinctly.

18 How many months did you work at HUD during the time
19 that Ms. Dean worked at HUD and you had occasion to drive her?

20 A. How many months?

21 Q. Or years.

22 A. I would say six, seven.

23 Q. Years or months?

24 A. Years.

25 Q. Okay. Didn't you previously tell the Independent Counsel

1 that you'd driven Ms. Dean to lunch with John Mitchell once a

2 month?

3 A. Probably, yes, on an average.

4 Q. So that's 12 months in a year times 6 years is 72. So you

5 previously told them that you drove Ms. Dean to lunch with John 6 Mitchell 72 times.

7 Did you also testify and tell the Independent Counsel

8 that you occasionally drove or went to see Lynda Murphy at her
9 horse farm in Manassas, Virginia?

10 MR. O'NEILL: Objection, Your Honor. He never said
11 that.
12 THE COURT: He didn't testify to that.
13 MR. WEHNER: Yes, he did.

14 . THE COURT: Oh, wait, wait, wait.
15 MR. O'NEILL: He did not say that, Your Honor.
16 THE COURT: Rephrase the question then. He didn't 17 testify to that.
18 MR. WEHNER: Oh, no, sir.
19 THE COURT: You can ask him if he made a prior 20 statement.
2 BY MR. WEHNER:
2 Q. Didn't you say previously that you were often invited out to 2 Lynda Murphy's horse farm in Manassas, Virginia?
2 A. I was invited out there, yes.
2 Q. And isn't it true that Lynda Murphy doesn't have a horse

3243

1 farm in Manassas, Virginia?
2 A. Well, at the time, she told me she had some horses in 3 Manassas, I should go out riding.
4 Q. Isn't it true that she doesn't have a horse farm in 5 Manassas, Virginia?
6 A. That I don't know.
7 Q. Now you kept a record of every trip that you took while at 8 HUD; is that correct?
9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. Do you have the records with you showing where you took 11 Ms. Dean?
12 A. No, sir.
13 MR. WEHNER: Nothing further.
14 REDIRECT EXAMINATION
15 BY MR. O'NEILL:
16 Q. Mr. Reynolds, how do you know that the defendant, Deborah 17 Gore Dean, met Mr. Mitchell and her mother for lunch?
18 A. I had taken her to the Fairfax Hotel, and when she came out,
19 I had been outside waiting, and since she had said that she had 20 met with her dad, her stepdad and her mother.
2 Q. Had you ever personally met John Mitchell?

2 A. No, never.
2 Q. Had you ever personally met the defendant's mother?
2 A. Never.
2 Q. Mr. Wehner ask you about records. How long are the records

3244

1 kept at the HUD motor pool?
2 A. We only keep them three years, sir.
3 Q. Are there any records in existence now for the period 1984
4 to 1987?

5 A. No.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

6 MR. O'NEILL: No further questions.
7 THE COURT: Thank you, sir. You can step down.
8 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, the government calls
9 Ms.]Pamela Patenaude -- Mrs. Pamela Patenaude.

10 THE COURT: All right.

11 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, we have one more question for 12 this gentleman.
13 THE COURT: Pardon me?
14 MR. WEHNER: One more question for this gentleman on 15 recross examination.

16 THE COURT: Ask him to stay a second. Come up here and 17 tell me what it is. Why don't you come up here a second. Let me
18 hear it.
19 (Bench conference on the record.)
20 MR. WEHNER: I believe he testified that he had driven
2 her, Ms. Dean with --or driven Ms. Dean to lunch with

2 Mr. Mitchell at the Fairfax Hotel.

2 MR. O'NEILL : He said -- I don't remember what hotel.
2 THE COURT: Pardon me?
2 MR. O'NEILL : I don't remember what hotel.

3245

MR. WEHNER: Fairfax Hotel.
2 THE COURT: I had notes he said he took her to various 3 places, 209-1/2, Hay-Adams, Palm, and Fairfax. I don't know if 4 he said John Mitchell was at the Fairfax specifically. I think
5 he said at Hay-Adams he was there.
6 MR. WEHNER: The question is the Fairfax Hotel hasn't 7 been called Fairfax Hotel for 15 years.
8 THE COURT: Pardon me?
9 MR. WEHNER: The question is is he aware that the 10 Fairfax Hotel has not been called the Fairfax Hotel for 15 years.
11 THE COURT: You mean it was not known as the Fairfax
12 Hotel in '84, '85, '86, '87?
13 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.
14 THE COURT: It was called the Ritz-Carlton, or whatever
15 it's called?
16 MR. WEHNER: Yep.
17 MR. O'NEILL: I just don't see how it's relevant to 18 anything, Judge. Beyond the scope. Then, of course, I would 19 re-redirect to say, "Are you from the area? Do you know it as 20 the Fairfax Hotel?"
21 THE COURT: Okay, I'll sustain the objection. I just 22 think it's collateral areas. It's not necessary. All right, he 23 can go. He can go.
24 (Witness excused.)
25 THE COURT: All right, we'll call Ms. Patenaude, 3246

1 please.

2 THE DEPUTY MARSHAL: Yes, Your Honor.

3 PAMELA HUGHES PATENAUDE, GOVERNMENT'S WITNESS, SWORN

4 DIRECT EXAMINATION

5 BY MS. SWEENEY:

6 Q. Mrs. Patenaude, I'm going to be asking you a series of 7 questions, and I'd ask you to keep your voice up so the members
8 of the jury can hear your answers. Would you state your complete
9 name for the record, spelling your last name for the court

10 reporter?

11 A. My name is Pamela Hughes Patenaude, P-a-t-e-n-a-u-d-e.

12 Q. Ms. Patenaude, are you presently employed?

13 A. Yes, I am. I'm the mother of three young children, and I'm 14 a licensed real estate broker.

15 Q. Are you working part time?

16 A. Yes, I am.

17 Q. Was there an occasion when you worked at HUD, the Department
18 of Housing and Urban Development?

19 A. I was an intern in the fall of 1982, and I returned in the 2 Q. When did you meet the defendant?

2 A. In April of 1984.

3247

1 Q. What was the nature of your relationship with her, if you
2 could describe that for the members of the jury?

3 A. In the spring of 1984, we became friends. I worked in the 4 Office of Multi-Family Housing. The following year, I went to 5 work for Secretary Pierce and reported to Deborah Dean and had a
6 working relationship with her.

7 THE COURT: Can you speak up a little bit? I can't 8 hear you. Lean into the mike a little bit, and speak up a little 9 bit. Thank you. Try again.

10 THE WITNESS: In the spring of 1984, we were personal 11 friends when I was working in the Office of Multi-Family. In the 12 summer of the following year, I went to work in the office of the 13 secretary and reported to Deborah and worked for her for about a 14 year and a half.

15 BY MS. SWEENEY:

16 Q. When you say friends, could you elaborate a little bit? Did
17 you socialize together? What types of activities were you
18 engaged in with her?

19 A. Oh, we socialized after work. We went to the beach on 20 weekends. The summer of '84, I was single. She came to my 2 wedding in the fall of 1984, and we stayed friendly until 2 sometime in 1986, when I left her office.

2 Q. When you left her office, did you continue to work at HUD?

2 A. Yes, I did.

2 Q. And what did you do when you left the office of the 3248

1 secretary and Ms. Dean's office? Where did you work after that
2 point in time?

3 A. I went to work for the deputy assistant secretary in Multi-

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

4 Family, who was Hunter Cushing, for about a year and a half, and 5 then I went to work for Tim Coyle, who was the deputy 6 undersecretary, for the last year and a half.
7 Q. During the course of -- having known Ms. Dean since 1984,
8 are you familiar with her reputation for truthfulness and 9 veracity?

10 A. Yes, I was.

11 Q. And can you tell the members of the jury what that 12 reputation is?

13 A. She was not known as a truthful person at HUD.

14 Q. Did Ms. Dean ever have any conversations with you about her
15 interest, her future interests in the State of Maryland?

16 A. She was interested in running for future office in Maryland.

17 Q. And did she tell you that, Ms. Patenaude?

18 A. Yes, she did.

19 Q. Is that how you know that?

20 Are you familiar with an individual named Richard

2 Shelby?

2 A. Yes, I am.

2 Q. And do you know what Mr. Shelby, what type of work

2 Mr. Shelby was doing in the period 1985 through 1987?

2 A. He was a consultant that was involved with HUD business.

3249

1 Q. Did you ever have any conversations with the defendant or
2 did she ever mention to you the name Richard Shelby?

3 A. When I first went to work for her, she introduced me to Rick
4 Shelby. She brought him into my office and told me to take good
5 care of him. And then in 1986, during a funding round, his name
6 came up, and it was made clear that he was to be taken care of.

7 Q. Are you familiar with the HUD motor pool, Mrs. Patenaude?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Were you an employee who was permitted to use the motor 10 pool?

11 A. I don't believe I was on the list that was allowed to. I
12 may have been when I was a staff assistant to the secretary, but 13 I only used the motor pool with a senior HUD official.

14 Q. Did you ever have occasion to use the motor pool with the 15 defendant in this case?

16 A. Yes, I did.

17 Q. Do you recall any of the drivers who drove you when you and 18 she used the motor pool together?

19 A. Most of the time, Ron was the driver.

20 Q. And when you say Ron -

2 A. Ron Reynolds.

2 Q. Did you happen to see him earlier this morning as he was
2 leaving the courtroom?

2 A. Yes, I did.

2 Q. And did you recognize him as the individual who had driven

3250

1 you?

2 A. Yes.

3 MS. SWEENEY: No further questions at this time, Your

4 Honor.

5 CROSS EXAMINATION

6 BY MR. WEHNER:

7 Q. Ms. Patenaude, did Ms. Dean use the motor pool 50 times per 8 week?

9 A. No, I don't believe so.

10 Q. Did she travel -11

A. I'm sorry, did you say 50 times?

12 Q. Five-zero.

13 A. I don't believe so.

14 Q. Did Ms. Dean direct you to work on the Alameda Towers
15 project for Mr. Richard Shelby?

16 A. I'm sorry, could you repeat the name of the project?

17 Q-Alameda Towers.

18 A. I'm not familiar with that project.

19 Q. Okay. And you have no information regarding that project?

20 A. Not that project with that name.

21 Q. Directing your attention to the fall of 1984, is that 22 approximately when you, when you got married?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And at that time, Ms. Dean sponsored a shower for you, did
25 she not?

3251

1 A. She had a luncheon at the Jockey Club.

2 Q. For you?

3 A. Um-hum, yes.

4 Q. Okay. And other HUD members were there?

5 A. Only HUD employees, with the exception of maybe one person.

6 Q. And she paid for that reception out of her own pocket, did
7 she not?

8 A. I believe she did.

9 Q. Pardon me?

10 A. Yes, to my knowledge. I was gone when the bill was paid.

11 Q. Your understanding is that she paid for that out of her own
12 pocket?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. When you went to work at HUD as an intern, where did you
15 work?

16 A. I worked for John Kennedy in the Office of General Counsel.

17 Q-Okay.

18 A. And for Chris Greer in the Inspector General's Office.

19 Q. Okay. Was that in the Inspector General's Office, the 20 General Counsel's Office, or where was that?

21 A. I'm sorry, can you repeat the question?

22 Q. What office did you work in?

23 A. Where did I physically sit?

24 Q. No, who was your supervisor?

25 A. John Kennedy and Chris Greer.

Q. And what was his title?

#

A. John Kennedy was the assistant general counsel.

Q. Okay. So it was in the General Counsel's Office, correct?

A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. When you went back -- what did you do from the time
6 you left as an intern and then went back to HUD? What did you do
7 during that intervening period?

8 A. I went back to college for second semester, graduated in 9 May.

10 Q. Okay.

11 A. Went to work in New Hampshire.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

- 12 Q. what did you do in New Hampshire?
13 A. Worked for the New Hampshire Housing Finance Authority.
14 Q. Then you came back to HUD?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. what position did you take at that point?
17 A. Executive assistant to Silvio DeBartolomeis.
18 Q. And what was his title?
19 A. Deputy assistant secretary for Multi-Family Housing.
20 Q. Okay. And how long did you work there?
21 A. Approximately a year and a half.
22 Q. And then where did you go?
23 A. I became a staff assistant to Secretary Pierce.
24 Q. Okay.
25 A. And was the white House liaison for a year and a half.

1 Q. And as white House liaison, were you in charge of personnel

2 matters in terms of political appointments in HUD and things of 3 that nature?

4 A. Yes, I was.

5 Q. Okay. what year was that, approximately?

6 A. '86 -- fall of '85 into '86.

7 Q. Okay. And then where did you go from there?

8 A. I went back to Multi-Family as executive assistant to Hunter Cushing, who was the deputy assistant secretary for Multi-Family.

10 Q. Okay. And where did you go from - what time period was 11 that, approximately?

12 A. End of 1986 into '87.

13 Q. Okay. And then after that, where did you go?

14 A. I went to work for Timothy Coyle, who was the deputy undersecretary for Field Coordination, for approximately a year and a half.

17 Q. And what time period was that?

18 A. Summer of '87 until the summer of '88.

19 Q. Okay. And did you leave HUD after that?

20 A. Yes, I did.

21 Q. Where did you go, back to New Hampshire?

22 A. I went to New Orleans to work on the convention.

23 Q-On the political convention?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q-when Bush was - when President Bush was nominated?

A. Yes.

2 Q. And then you went back to New Hampshire?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. When you worked as staff assistant to the secretary, was that when you worked for Ms. Dean?

6 A. Yes.

Q. That was from '86 to '88?

A. No. That was --

Q. Tell me, please.

10 A. When I worked for Deborah, I was staff assistant to the secretary.

12 Q. Right.

13 A. And that was in '86-'87.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

14 Q. '86 and '87.
15 And then you were demoted and worked in Mr. Cushing's
16 office; is that correct?
17 A. No, I was not demoted.
18 Q. You were not demoted?
19 A. I resigned from my position.
20 Q. You resigned?
21 A. Yes. I resigned from my position as staff assistant to the 22 secretary, went back to Multi-Family in the executive assistant
23 capacity.
24 Q. To Mr. Cushing?
25 A. Yes, at the same pay level, the same GS schedule.

3255

1 Q. Working for Mr. Cushing and working for the secretary are
2 two different positions, are they not?
3 A. They are two different positions.
4 Q. And the secretary is clearly a superior authority to 5 Mr. Cushing; isn't that correct?
6 A. That's correct.
7 Q. And a staff assistant to the secretary has much more
8 authority than a staff assistant to Mr. Cushing?
9 A. No. I did not have program responsibility with the 10 secretary, and I did in Multi-Family.
11 Q. Okay. So when you were an assistant to the secretary, you
12 had no line authority, no program authority?
13 A. None. I was a staff assistant to the secretary.
14 Q. All right. You couldn't order that certain programs be 15 funded; is that right?
16 A. Right.
17 Q. It was up to the secretary, correct?
18 A. No, it was up to the assistant secretary for that.
19 Q. Okay. What office did you work for in, for Mr. Cushing?
20 A. I worked in his front office.
21 Q. And what were your responsibilities?
22 A. I had oversight of all correspondence that came through his 23 Office for Multi-Family Housing, and I specialized in the housing
24 voucher program.
25 Q. Okay. At some points, you moved to the housing voucher

3256

1 program; isn't that correct?
2 A. Yes, I did.
3 Q. Okay. And the housing voucher program, was that different
4 than being a staff assistant to Mr. Cushing?
5 A. On paper my title was the same, but -6
6 Q. In terms of responsibilities.
7 A. Oh, my responsibility was much more specialized in housing
8 vouchers.
9 Q. Okay. And how long were you there?
10 A. Six months.
11 Q. '87 to '88, in that time frame?
12 A. No, '87 to '88, I was with Tim Coyle as executive assistant.
13 Q. Okay, I'm sorry. '86 to '87?
14 A. Maybe half of that time was with, in a --
15 Q. In vouchers?
16 A. In housing vouchers.
17 Q. Okay. Do you know an individual by the name of Thomas
18 Demery?
19 A. Yes, I do.
20 Q. And did you have occasion to give reports to Mr. Demery 21 about Mr. Cushing's performance while you were working for 22 Mr. Cushing?

23 A. Yes, I did.
24 MR. WEHNER: Nothing further.

3257

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MS. SWEENEY:

3 Q. Ms. Patenaude, the jury is familiar with the term "Schedule
4 C." was there a time when you were a Schedule C employee at HUD?
5 A. From 1984 until 1988, I was a Schedule C.
6 Q. Now on cross examination, Mr. Wehner asked you about the 7 change you made when you left the secretary's office and moved to 8 the assistant, the deputy assistant secretary for Multi-Family
9 Office. Was there a reason that you decided to leave the 10 secretary's office?

11 A. I was tired of putting up with threats and demands, and 12 there was unethical behavior in the secretary's office, and my 13 husband encouraged me to resign from that position.

14 Q. Now you referred to threats and demands. Who, who made the 15 threats and demands?

16 MR. WEHNER: Objection. I move to strike. Beyond the 17 scope of cross examination and irrelevant, in addition to not 18 being true.

19 THE COURT: All right.

20 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, may we approach?

21 THE COURT: Yes, sure.

22 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, I'd ask you to instruct 23 counsel about his comments.

24 THE COURT: All right.

25 (Bench conference on the record.)

3258

MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, Ms. Patenaude will testify-that she left the secretary's office because of Ms. Dean's behavior, and I believe that in light of the fact that Mr. Wehner opened up this demotion question on cross, during cross examination, that this is fair redirect.

THE COURT: All right. And what does it go into, just so I know? I mean, I don't want to open up some kind Pandora's box for the jury that is going to have to be stricken or something. Is it some personal matters, or does it go into 10 threats about sign this or fund or whatever? I mean, I don't 11 know what you're talking about.

12 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, I was only intending to 13 elicit that it was Ms. Dean who made the threats and demands and 14 stop at that point.

15 MR. WEHNER: Judge, that's the objection exactly. You 16 can't leave something like that hanging on the record. It's 17 severely prejudicial.

18 THE COURT: Yes. I think it's either got to be fleshed
19 out what you're talking about or not gone into at all. I mean, I
20 don't know what the jury is going to speculate as to what threats
21 and demands are, some personal demands upon her or threats to 22 kill her, I don't know, that kind of thing, up in the air like
23 that. It has to be controlled.

24 So I think either you don't get into that or -- and 25 I'll strike it or have her develop what she thinks her problems

3259

1 are if they're work-related problems, that she was very
2 demanding, wanted her to be there, work extra hours or whatever.
3 I mean, I don't know what we're talking about here, what 4 allegation.

5 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, it would go to Ms. Dean's 6 misuse of the motor pool, her misuse of what she saw about the 7 Mod Rehab Program, that type of things. Perhaps I could rephrase
8 it and ask if, ask her to describe if there was something about 9 Ms. Dean's behavior that caused her to leave the office.

10 THE COURT: well, I think you should do this: I think
11 I'll let you lead her and ask her and I'll strike the threats
12 language, I'll let you lead and ask her, "Did you leave because 13 of your problems of working for Ms. Dean and with Ms. Dean in the 14 office as your supervisor?"

15 I think you can leave it like that, as opposed to -
16 because I think the only thing to deal with threats and demands
17 is to go into that, and you're going to open up several more 18 witnesses, obviously, if you get into it, her personal views of 19 the situation.

20 MS. SWEENEY: Okay. Your Honor, in that case, may I
2 suggest that I would ask her if she left because of 2 dissatisfaction with Ms. Dean as a supervisor?

2 THE COURT: Sure. I mean, I think that's fair. See
2 whether she has a conflict with it. I think that's fine. I
2 think that's fair. Thank you.

1 (End of bench conference.)

2 THE COURT: All right, Ladies and Gentlemen, we're
3 going to rephrase the question -- strike the last question about
4 threats and demands, rephrase the question, and have the witness
5 answer it.

6 BY MS. SWEENEY:

7 Q. Ms. Patenaude, at the time that you left the secretary's
8 office and went to Multi-Family Housing, were you dissatisfied
9 with Ms. Dean's behavior as a supervisor? Did that play a role
10 in causing you to leave?

11 A. Yes, it did.

12 Q. You were also asked on cross examination about the use of 13 the motor pool. Do you recall that particular inquiry?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. When you used the motor pool with Ms. Dean, could you give 16 us some examples of the places that you went with her?

17 A. On one occasion, we went to The Guards for lunch. On 18 another occasion, we went to the Shoreham for a political 19 function. I went to Baltimore on one occasion for a political 20 function.

2

3261

1 Q At this point in time can you recall any other
2 destinations, any other times that you used the motor
3 pool with her?

4 A No, I can't.

5 MS. SWEENEY: No further questions at this

6 time, Your Honor.
7 THE COURT: All right.
8 MR. WEHNER: A few questions, Judge.
9 THE COURT: I'll allow a couple on those
10 areas.
11 RECROSS EXAMINATION
12 BY MR. WEHNER:
13 Q In 1989, Ma'am, you worked with Mr. Demery, did you
14 not?
15 A No.
16 Q In an effort to prevent Miss Dean from being
17 confirmed as Assistant Secretary?
18 A I did not work at HUD in 1989.
19 Q Isn't it true that you spoke to Mr. Demery at least 20 ten or 15 times in terms of an effort to try to prevent 21 her from being confirmed?
22 A No, I did not work with Assistant Secretary Demery.
23 Q Did you talk to him?
24 A In 1989 I was no longer at HUD.
25 Q I know. Did you talk to Mr. Demery is the 3262

1 question.
2 A It's my understanding that Deborah was not even up
3 for confirmation in 1989.
4 Q Did you talk to Mr. Demery about Miss Dean's
5 confirmation?
6 A Not in 1989.
7 Q Ever? j
8 A If I recall, her confirmation was in 1987 and I was 9 not close to Mr. Demery -10
Q Did you talk to Mr. Demery about Miss Dean's
11 confirmation process?
12 A Not that I can recall.
13 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, two more very brief
14 questions.
15 THE COURT: All right.
16 FURTHER REDIRECT EXAMINATION
17 BY MS. SWEENEY:
18 Q Mrs. Patenaude, Mr. Wehner on cross-examination
19 asked you questions about the confirmation process.
20 Were you contacted by anyone during Miss Dean's 21 nomination and confirmation process?
2 A I was contacted by Jan Maxfield of Senator Garn's
2 office, I believe in 1987.
2 Q Can you tell the members of the jury who Senator
2 Garn was?

1 A Senator Garn was the ranking Republican on the
2 Committee.
3 Q And at that time, did you tell Miss Maxfield the 4 things that you've told the members of the jury here
5 today?
6 A Some of them were mentioned.
7 MS. SWEENEY: No further questions, Your
8 Honor.
9 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. You may
10 step down.
11 You don't know about the other witness yet?
12 We haven't heard anything.
13 MR. O'NEILL: No, Your Honor.
14 THE COURT: Okay.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

15 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, she's here.
16 THE COURT: Do you want a break before you
17 start?
18 MR. O'NEILL: Whatever is convenient to the
19 Court.
20 THE COURT: All right. If she's ready to go,
2 call her.
2 MR. O'NEILL: Yes. That solves it, Judge.
2 Judge, the Government would call
2 Susan Withington.
2 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

3264

1 (SUSAN WITHINGTON, WITNESS FOR GOVERNMENT, SWORN)
2 DIRECT EXAMINATION
3 BY MR. O'NEILL:
4 Q Though we know your name, Mrs. Withington, would 5 you please state your name for the record, spelling your 6 last name?
7 A Susan Withington, w-i-t-h-i-n-g-t-o-n.
8 Q Mrs. Withington, I would show you three documents
9 that have been marked as Government's Exhibits 555 for 10 identification, 556 for identification and 557 for 11 identification and I ask you, Ma'am, if you recognize 12 those documents?
13 A Yes.
14 Q And what do you recognize those documents to be?
15 A They were - one is a contract of sale for Gordon
16 Dean's apartment at Watergate South and the other two 17 are -are the settlement sheets for the same property.
18 Q And are those records kept in the normal course of 19 business?
20 A Yes.
2 Q Is it the normal course of your business to keep
2 such records?
2 A Yes.
2 Q Are they made at or about the time of the date
2 indicated thereon? In other words, this Government's

3265

1 Exhibit 556 that bears the date April 20, 1987, was that
2 made at or about the time April 20th, 1987?
3 A The other agent involved in the transaction would
4 have written the contract on April the 20th and then
5 Gordon Dean would have signed it on April the 24th.
6 Q Now, Miss Withington, where were these documents?
7 A Where were they?
8 Q Yes.
9 A When you contacted me last week?
10 Q Yes.
11 A They were in a storage box with other files of 12 transactions that took place that year.
13 Q And when were you contacted last week, do you
14 recall?
15 A I can't remember which day it was.
16 Q Do you recall who contacted you, Ma'am?
17 A Mr. Batts.
18 Q Special Agent Batts?
19 A Yes.
20 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, at this time I'd
2 move into evidence Government's Exhibits 555, 556 and
Page 1809

2 557.
2 MR. WEHNER: No objection, Your Honor.
2 THE COURT: All right, 555, 556, 557 are
2 admitted subject to cross.

3266

1 (Government's Exhibits 555, 556 &
2 557 received into Evidence).
3 MR. O'NEILL: I have no further questions.
4 Thank you.
5 THE COURT: All right, thank you. j
6 CROSS EXAMINATION j
7 BY MR . WEHNER:
8 Q Hi. It's good to see you again.
9 A Hi.
10 Q Miss withington, the agreement was made on what, j
11 April 20th, 1987?
12 A Correct.
13 Q Backing up from that time period into April and j 14 March , was Mr. Kitchin interested in purchasing the 15 apartment at that time ? \
16 A Yes.
17 Q Did you continue to show it to other people during j
18 that time?
19 A We did, when the contract came -- do you want me to 20 elaborate on this?
2 Q Please.
2 A When Gordon contacted me and told me that Deborah j
2 Dean, his sister, had someone interested in purchasing :
2 it, Gordon said it's -
you know, you can consider it ;
2 sold, but it's not my practice to, to just take i

3267

1 something off the market until we have a contract in
2 hand. So during a three-week or maybe four-week period
3 I kept contacting their agent, Janet Whitman, to see if 4 she had a contract and she kept telling me that 5 Mr. Kitchin was sending it to us, but it just never 6 materialized.
7 Q And you continued to show it?
8 A Yes.
9 Q And ultimately the Cranes purchased it?
10 A Yes.
11 Q And are they the individuals you showed it to 12 during the same time period that Mr. Kitchin was 13 interested in buying?
14 A Yes.
15 MR. WEHNER: Nothing further.
16 MR. O'NEILL: No redirect, Your Honor.
17 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.
18 Miss withington, you may step down. You're 19 free to go.
20 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, we did have a couple
2 of additional exhibits.
2 THE COURT: Have they been reviewed by
2 counsel?
2 MS. SWEENEY: No, Your Honor.
2 THE COURT: All right. Let me take a morning

I

3268

1 break for a second. we'll look at those documents.

2 Ladies and gentlemen, I told you yesterday

3 we're winding down the witnesses. I have to talk to 4 counsel about some documents and see whatever else we

5 have as possible witnesses or not, and it may be, as I

6 said yesterday, we're going to spend the afternoon on

7 legal issues and instructions and so you wouldn't be

8 sitting this afternoon, but we're going to take a break

9 now and find out where we're going.

10 You all have your morning recess. Remember
11 the admonition during the break, remember not to talk
12 about the case among yourselves or with anyone else.

13 (Jury dismissed)

14 THE COURT: Do you need to look at those for a 15 few minutes?

16 MR. WEHNER: Yes, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: All right. I'll take a short
18 break and when you're ready I'll come back and we'll 19 take those up and we'll take up the matter whether we 20 need the jury or not, and then we'll let the jury go.

2 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, for the record, I

2 would intend to put Miss Dean on for a few questions in 2 surrebuttal.

2 THE COURT: Tell me what it's about when I
2 come back.

3269

1 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.

2 (Recess, 11:40 a.m. to 11:55 a.m.)

3 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, there's three documents
4 that Mr. Wehner has not objected to and we'll admit
5 those into evidence.

6 THE COURT: All right. And then should we let 7 the jury go and look at our other documents and resolve
8 those? You all need sometime to read over these 9 instructions and come back and comment and seek 10 additions and changes as well.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
11 I did read through Judge Gesell's comments and 12 I appreciate the Independent Counsel supplying the 13 information to the Court rather quickly. I'll read it 14 again. It's clear to me he didn't want the entire 15 indictment sent in. His concern was more as a reading
16 of an overall indictment versus a hub and spoke theory,
17 but I think I'll have to look at the indictment to see 18 what I'll do about that. I've not reviewed the 19 indictment as to that aspect at all.
20 Let me have the jury in then to do those
2 documents. Do you want to put in the ones you agreed to 2 now in front of the jury?
2 MR. WEHNER: No, sir. I don't want to show
2 them to the jury at this point. I want them to be
2 available to go back and use certain of them for closing

3270

1 but I think that would be a waste of my time.
2 THE COURT: All right. That's fine. Then I
3 can tell the jury we're finished with the evidentiary
4 phase of this case after these documents come in, as far
5 as we're concerned.
6 MR. WEHNER: I did want to put Miss Dean back
7 on.
8 THE COURT: And that was to go into Patenaude
9 or what?
10 MR. WEHNER: The testimony would be that 11 Reynolds was not her regular driver, that she never met
12 Mr. Mitchell at the Fairfax Hotel, Mrs. Patenaude did 13 not resign but was dismissed, forced to go, to take the 14 demotion she took. That she provided substantial 15 information to Senator Proxmire. That Miss Dean paid an 16 extensive bill along with Secretary Pierce for Mr. Cain
17 at the Beverly Wilshire when he was provided with an 18 award for some kind of superior performance. And a 19 brief explanation as to what Castle Square was.
20 THE COURT: As to what was?
2 MR. WEHNER: Castle Square? It was a
2 Pennsylvania development that came up during the
2 cross-examination. I'm sorry, Boston development,
2 excuse me. It's a rebuttal to their rebuttal. Those
2 are the areas.

3271

1 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, the Government would
2 strenuously object to Miss Dean resuming the stand.
3 Miss Dean was on direct examination if I recall
4 correctly, perhaps understated, for what, six days?
5 Your Honor, I just don't know in what circumstances a
6 surrebuttal case would be appropriate. This is not a
Page 1812

7 briefing situation and they had their opportunity to

8 cross-examine Miss Patenaude. The Government was very

9 limited in the rebuttal case that we offered to meet
10 Miss Dean's case.

11 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to sustain
12 the objection of the Government. I don't think that 13 Miss Dean has a right to retake the stand in this 14 typical rebuttal type testimony in the areas that were 15 gone into on cross-examination.

16 The other area about the Boston development
17 where there was some cross-examination about it by the 18 special witness Cain, I believe it was, and the Beverly 19 Wilshire matter, he was asked about it at that time. I 20 don't see it appropriate as coming in on some kind of 21 surrebuttal about some new areas, it's unfair, that have 22 been raised by the Government for the first time.
23 Typical rebuttal is challenging one or two statements of 24 certain witnesses to certain areas that are limited.
25 So I'll deny Miss Dean retaking the stand.

3272

1 All right, bring in the jury.

2 (Jury present)

3 THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen,

4 we're ready to proceed with just a couple of matters. I

5 believe there are some documents the Government intends

6 to offer as part of the rebuttal case, and that should

7 conclude the evidentiary part of this case.

8 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, without objection

9 from the defense, the Government is introducing at this 10 time into evidence Government's Exhibit 522, 523 and 11 544. And that does conclude the rebuttal case.

12 THE COURT: Just for the record, would you
13 give the title of those documents?

14 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Your Honor. Government
15 Exhibit 522 is a letter to the defendant from Linda
16 Murphy. Government's Exhibit 523 is likewise a letter
17 from Linda Murphy to the defendant. And Government's 18 Exhibit 554 is a yellow phonebook called the Federal 19 Yellow Book, spring 1987.

20 THE COURT: All right. Then 522, 523 and 554

2 are admitted.

2 (Government's Exhibits 522, 523 & 554

2 received into Evidence)

2 THE COURT: Let me have counsel up here on

2 timing because so we need to find out when we need to 3273

1 get you back.

2 (Bench conference)

3 THE COURT: We need to look at your documents

4 sometime soon and hear motions and then review the

5 instructions. Can we get ready by tomorrow or not for

6 closing arguments?

7 MR. O'NEILL: Steve and I have gone over the 8 documents this morning. I think that will take very

9 little time. Don't you think, Steve?

10 MR. WEHNER: Yes.

11 THE COURT: I want you to read the 12 instructions and come back and inform me whether they

13 should be changed or not.

14 MS. SWEENEY: AS I said, Your Honor, we have a

15 few additional supplemental instructions and I'll try to 16 supply those to the Court within an hour or so, if I

17 may?

18 THE COURT: I'll hear some motions this

19 afternoon.

20 Now, are the motions anything new or are there

21 other legal motions you're going to bring up beside the 22 judgment of acquittal that you argued earlier?

23 MR. WEHNER: There are additional grounds in 24 terms of the statute of limitations, Your Honor, with 25 regard to the Kitchin matters. And those are the new

3274

1 grounds. We've reargued -- we re-raise the ground we

2 raised at the close of the Government's case with more

3 emphasis on the Moore matter, the Moore case, and I'm 4 analyzing it from that light but I think Your Honor has 5 pretty much for purposes of the 29 (b) considered those
6 arguments. But in terms of the statute of limitations
7 that's a new ground. We've got a brief.

8 THE COURT: It will be coming in soon, so I
9 can look at it?

10 MR. WEHNER: It should be here right now,
11 Judge, actually.
12 MS. SWEENEY: Would you be able to give us a 13 copy of that?
14 MR. WEHNER: I'll do the same thing you've 15 been doing for the last two weeks, Paula. When I give 16 it to the Court, I'll give it to you. No problem.
17 THE COURT: On the timing, bring the jury in 18 tomorrow morning for closings at ten o'clock and give us
19 an hour ahead of time to finalize the instructions. We 20 can talk about it later this afternoon about any changes
2 based upon whatever we decide.

2 MS. SWEENEY: Was Your Honor planning to get
2 together at some point this afternoon?
2 THE COURT: Yes.
2 MR. O'NEILL: That sounds good, Judge.

3275

1 THE COURT: All right. Let me do this, I can
2 have you - I'll have the jury go. I'll have you admit
3 the instructions on which there's no dispute right away
4 and I'll hear you briefly as to what the other ones are 5 about before lunch and then after lunch you'll have your 6 materials for the MJOA together.
7 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.
8 THE COURT: All right. Why don't I give you a
9 long lunch so you can look at these MJOA materials and I
10 can look at those and then we'll do some brief review of 11 those instructions and I'll be back later this afternoon
12 after lunch. If we can get you out of here by 12:30 and 13 get you back at 2:30, which will give you a couple of 14 hours to talk about it.
15 I'll let the jury go until tomorrow morning.
16 MR. WEHNER: If the closings go as we 17 preliminarily thought, do you intend to charge
18 tomorrow?
19 THE COURT: I will try, if it's not late. I
20 won't instruct them if it's after four or 4:30. If it's
2 after 4:30 I definitely will not instruct them. I
2 prefer to instruct the same time of the arguments. I'll

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 definitely get all the arguments in tomorrow. We'll see
2 how we're doing tomorrow afternoon.
2 MR. O'NEILL: Okay.

3276

1 (Bench conference concluded)
2 THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen,
3 after talking to counsel the schedule will be as follows
4 for this matter. We're going to let you go for the day,
5 have you back tomorrow.
6 Tomorrow, what's going to happen is we get our 7 work done, this afternoon ought to do it, this evening, 8 we will be ready for closing arguments or summation to t
9 you. |
I
10 If you remember, at the beginning of this case
11 I told you about opening statements of counsel. They i
!
12 were going to lay out the case, what they alleged in the!
13 case, et cetera, and then at the end of the case we
i
i
14 would have closing arguments or summation of the case to\ 15 you by each side. That's where each side will lay out, |
i
16 now that you've heard the evidence in the case, the case \
17 from their point of view and they'll summarize it, and ;
18 these closing arguments are very important. They're ;
19 meant to help you understand the positions each side has
i
20 in this case.
2 Now, the closing arguments are just that, and
2 I'll instruct you tomorrow about that. They're i
2 arguments. They're trying to convince you of something. !
2 The closing argument is not evidence in the case. What
2 the lawyer says unless it's a stipulation of fact agreed;

3277

1 to by the parties, it's not evidence in the case. The 2 evidence, as I'll instruct you about it, as I have
3 throughout the trial, is what you find the facts to be 4 from the testimony of the witnesses and the documents
5 and all exhibits that have been admitted into evidence.
6 But the closing arguments are very important and so
7 we're going to spend the day on those closing arguments,

8 I suspect, and on my instructions to you that will guide
9 you during the deliberations.
10 The instructions are also very important.
11 They explain to you the law that you must follow during 12 your deliberations. They give you guidance on the 13 believability of witnesses, they give you guidance on 14 the evidence. They give you the legal definitions of 15 the offenses charged. And, again, you need to listen to 16 the instructions very carefully.
17 If we have time, I'll do the instructions
18 tomorrow as well as the closing arguments. If the 19 closing arguments take a long time and we're tired, 20 we'll do the instructions Thursday morning. That's the 2 lay out for right now.

2 After we do the instructions and we're
2 completed with the open Court part of the case, then
2 that's when you retire and begin your deliberations and
2 you do that in private in the jury room.

3278

1 All right. So, ladies and gentlemen, you're j
i
2 going to be excused for the day. You will come back jI
3 tomorrow. The case is still ongoing. I'm going to have 4 you back tomorrow. I'm going to have you come at ten :
5 o'clock so we'll have a chance in the morning to make
6 sure we're ready to go. So I'll have you back at ten j
7 o'clock tomorrow morning for the final phase of this I
i
8 case.
j
i
9 It's important to remember the instructions of j
i
10 the Court. The case is not completed yet. You haven't I
11 heard the closing arguments, you haven't heard my 12 instructions which control your deliberations. So it's 13 not proper to talk to anyone or among yourselves about 14 the case, or read or listen to it in the media.
15 I hope you have a pleasant evening and see you
16 back tomorrow morning at ten a.m. We'll be here all day
17 tomorrow.
18 (Jury dismissed)
19 THE COURT: All right, we need to look at the 20 documents that are stipulated -stipulated
to. At
2 least documents not objected to by the Government that
2 the defendant had marked for evidence in the defendant's
2 case that we withheld ruling on until they've had a
2 chance to be reviewed. That was on October 14th.
2 There's probably about 100 or some documents marked.

3279

1 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, I think Steve will hand
2 them to me, I'll hand them to Gloria, and in this way -
3 THE COURT: All right. Make sure you've seen
4 each one of those and read the number off.
5 MR. WEHNER: 319 is withdrawn. 797 is a
6 letter to Senator Proxmire from the 12, I guess 12 other
Page 1817

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
7 Senators on the Committee asking for quick action on 8 Miss Dean's nomination. Mr. O'Neill objects to that.
9 Do you want to hear them one at a time,
10 Judge?
11 THE COURT: well, let me just hear these 12 objected ones.
13 You object to the letter from Senator Proxmire
14 to all the other Senators, right?
15 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Your Honor.
16 THE COURT: I'm going to sustain that 17 objection. I don't think the defendant can introduce 18 that letter from someone else with respect to her
19 confirmation.
20 MR. WEHNER: 634 has been withdrawn.
21 THE COURT: Okay.
22 MR. WEHNER: 637, 636 are admitted.
23 THE COURT: All right. No objection to 636
24 and 637.
25 MR. O'NEILL: That's correct.

3280 !

1 THE COURT: All right. j
2 (Defendant's Exhibits 636 and j
3 637 received into Evidence) j
4 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, 632 is a letter dated t
5 January 12, 1987 to Secretary Pierce from Hunter
6 Cushing. It is a document that was kept -it
7 was a
8 business record of HUD. It bears the stamps of the 9 Independent Counsel's microfiche system, and we move its 10 admission pursuant to the business records exception of 11 the hearsay rule and I believe Mr. O'Neill objects.
12 THE COURT: This is an internal document from
13 HUD?
14 MR. O'NEILL: It appears to be, Judge. It's 15 on Department of Housing letterhead and it's addressed
16 to Dear Mr. Secretary. The Government's objection to 17 this document would be that it's unsigned.
18 THE COURT: Let me see it, Gloria.
19 The issue is whether or not this was really
20 sent, I guess is what you're saying.
21 MR. O'NEILL: That's correct, Your Honor.
22 MR. WEHNER: Is there any evidence at all
23 about this -it's 24 on the stationery of HUD. I'm not at 25 all concerned that it's prepared in the ordinary course of business. It's with regard to rehab matters.
2 MR. WEHNER: My recollection is the testimony

3281

1 of Miss Dean is that it was sent but I cannot recall
2 that specifically, but it is not inadmissible if it was
3 sent or not sent because, Your Honor, it is a business
4 record and identified as a business record, number one,
5 and, number two, we're not alleging that it was received
6 by Mr. Pierce. That's not the relevance of it. The 7 relevance of it is that that is what occurred and that
8 Hunter Cushing is making a business record of the events
9 that surrounded certain matters that Miss Dean testified 10 about that was kept in the regular course of business at

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
11 HUD. I frankly don't care if Secretary Pierce ever 12 received it or not. It's relevant in terms of 13 corroborating Miss Dean's testimony.
14 Finally, Judge, presumably the signed copy
15 would be in Secretary Pierce's files which we of course
16 were not provided in discovery. That makes it a little 17 difficult to find.
18 THE COURT: With reference to all the 19 materials we've had I don't see listed this particular
20 exhibit being discussed by Miss Dean, but it could have j
21 been. i
22 MR. WEHNER: Judge, it may just have been
23 identified as a business record.
24 Your Honor, Miss Dean recalls that, and she 25 refreshes my recollection, that she testified that she

3282

1 saw the signed copy when Secretary Pierce showed her the 2 letter. That's the letter she's referring to, that was 3 shown to her by Secretary Pierce.
4 THE COURT: All right.
5 Well, on the basis of the objection that it's 6 an unsigned copy I will overrule that objection and 7 admit it. 632 will be admitted.
8 (Defendant's Exhibit 632 received
9 into Evidence)
10 MR. WEHNER: 404 is admitted without
11 objection.
12 THE COURT: All right, 404 will be admitted.
13 (Defendant's Exhibit 404 received
14 into Evidence)
15 MR. WEHNER: One is withdrawn. Two is 16 admitted without objection.
17 THE COURT: Two is admitted.
18 (Defendant's Exhibit Two received
19 into Evidence)
20 MR. WEHNER: 638 is admitted without
2 objection.
2 THE COURT: 638 is admitted.
2 (Defendant's Exhibit 638 received
2 into Evidence)
2 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, 648 and 649 are the 3283

1 plea agreements and indictments for Mr. Demery and I
2 move their admission, and Mr. O'Neill objects.
3 THE COURT: They weren't identified by him?
4 MR. O'NEILL: No, Your Honor. It really isn't
5 on identification as much as I just don't see how 6 they're admissible. The Government's objection would be

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
7 as to any foundation.

8 THE COURT: well, obviously I think he could

9 have been crossed with those and they were shown to him

10 and he could have identified them and he could have said

i

11 that here's my agreement and here's what I said and they!
12 might have gotten in that way, but they weren't j

i

13 previously, as I understand it. In fact, I don't recall !

i

14 anyone being crossed on their plea agreement. j

15 MR. WEHNER: Judge, I didn't cross them with 16 the paper. I crossed them with the substance of the 17 agreement.

18 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to sustain
19 the objection to that plea agreement and the indictment
2 0 of Mr. Demery.

2 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, that doesn't limit

2 the closing argument?

2 THE COURT: No, he admitted he pled guilty to

2 a felony. You can certainly use that against him all

2 you want. I have an instruction on that.

3284

1 MR. WEHNER: 575 and 576 are admitted without

2 objection.

3 THE COURT: All right, 575 and 576 are

4 admitted.

5 (Defendant's Exhibits 575 and 576

6 received into Evidence)

7 MR. WEHNER: Three through nine are admitted

8 without objection.

9 THE COURT: Three through nine will be
10 admitted without objection, three, four, five, six,
11 seven, eight and nine.

12 MR. O'NEILL: That's correct, Your Honor.

13 (Defendant's Exhibits Three through 14 Nine received into Evidence)

15 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, ten is a letter to 16 Mr. Silvio DeBartolomeis at Housing and Urban 17 Development from Richard Carver, Mayor of Peoria,
18 Illinois. Mr. O'Neill objects to that for reasons he's 19 previously stated. In my judgment, Your Honor has not 20 sustained that objection for Mr. O'Neill and we offer it
2 on that same business records exception basis. j

2 MR. O'NEILL: That is correct, Your Honor, the 2 Government is objecting on the basis that the letter is
2 coming from the city of Peoria and no proper foundation
2 has been laid, and you have ruled against me previously.

3285

1 THE COURT: Is this one that Miss Dean has
2 identified at all or one from the files?

3 MR. WEHNER: We went through these documents
4 during the Government's case in chief, Your Honor, with 5 Miss Hastings. >

6 THE COURT: All right, I'll overrule the
7 objection and allow it in.

8 (Defendant's Exhibit Ten received
9 into Evidence)

10 MR. WEHNER : 11 is admitted without
11 objection.

12 THE COURT: All right, 11 is admitted.
13 (Defendant's Exhibit 11 received

14 into Evidence)

15 MR. WEHNER : 16 and 17 are objected to by 16 Mr. O'Neil 1.

17 MR. O'NEILL : The same basis as before, Your
18 Honor.

19 THE COURT: Who are these from?

20 MR. O'NEILL : They're from the local PHA in 2 Miami to - one of them is to a Mr. George Perez, the 2 other one is to Martin Fine.

2 THE COURT: Fine?

2 MR. O'NEILL : Yes.

2 THE COURT: He's not part of HUD.

3286

1 MR. O'NEILL: No.

2 MR. WEHNER: No, sir, but they were kept as
Page 1821

3 part of HUD's records.

4 THE COURT: One is to the HUD Regional Office

5 from the Housing Office of Miami. All right, I'm going

6 to overrule the objection and let them in on the basis

7 the Court has allowed these documents in besides the 8 business records exception, recognizing the Government's!

9 objections. It's within the courts purview to admit
10 evidence that would otherwise be time consuming and

11 occupy the Court's and the jury's time for many more
12 days than necessary, and these are the type of documents
13 I have in mind. These could be admitted by calling some 14 of these individuals and I don't think that's 15 necessary.

16 (Defendant's Exhibit 16 and
17 17 received into Evidence)

18 MR. WEHNER: 18 and 19 are admitted without
19 objection, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: All right, 18 and 19 are
21 admitted.

22 (Defendant's Exhibits 18 and 19

2 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, 52, and your ruling

3 on this will affect the ruling on many additional

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

4 documents that are categorized, 52 is a letter to Samuel

5 Pierce from John Heinz, United States Senator, in

6 support of a specific Moderate Rehabilitation project.

7 We identified these for admissibility purposes as

8 authentic and business records kept in the regular

9 course of business at HUD. But more importantly than 10 the foundational basis is the fact that the perjury
11 counts in this case charge in essence that Miss Dean
12 attempted to conceal certain attributes of the process
13 by which Mod Rehab funds were awarded from the Senate,
14 and we believe that the letters to Miss Dean and to 15 Secretary Pierce, to the Federal Housing Commissioner
16 and other individuals at HUD that came from HUD's files
17 are directly relevant to Miss Dean's defense that she 18 could not have intended to mislead during her Senate
19 testimony, not that they were not, in fact, misled,
20 because I understand the case law that suggests that
2 that's not a defense; but in terms of her intent she

2 clearly knew that political considerations were at play
2 in terms of the Moderate Rehab Unit, and she knew that 2 the Senators knew that. So I think clearly it goes to 2 her intent.

3289

1 And we have introduced in addition to 52 an
2 additional stack of maybe about 500 of such letters -3
250, for the relevant time period that we've simply 4 tagged as Dean Exhibit 943. Dean Exhibit 943.

5 THE COURT: That's all the Congressional
6 inquiries you're talking about?

7 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.

8 THE COURT: Have you had a chance to look at 9 those?

10 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, sir. The Government's 11 objection would be the same as it was before, Your 12 Honor. These do come from HUD files. However, they're 13 Senate letters and it would be basically a foundational 14 argument once again.

15 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to overrule
16 the objection. I think, again, as I expressed, I think 17 that I can control the evidence as such under the 18 federal rules. Where there's no claim to authenticity,
19 or the documents are not what they say to be, you don't 20 need to call the 250 authors of these documents to allow 2 their existence. So I'm going to allow those in.

2 (Defendant's Exhibits 52 & 943
2 received into Evidence)

2 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, based on your
2 ruling, just in terms of keeping it safe, I'm sure

3290

1 Mr. wehner is not going to go through all those
2 documents because it would take him forever, but if
3 there's any handwritten notations on something that 4 comes from outside, if he wants to use that, we would
5 ask that that be restricted, but I'm sure that's not 6 even coming up.

7 MR. WEHNER: I would not do that, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: We had that earlier in several 9 documents and we had that removed.

10 MR. WEHNER: I would not -- yes, sir. 54, 55,
11 56 and 57 I believe were admitted without objection.

12 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, the Government has no
13 objection to the documents. There's a little 14 handwriting again on 56 and 57.

15 THE COURT: Well, 54 and 55 will be admitted.
16 56 and 57 need to be identified a little further.
17 (Defendant's Exhibits 54 and 55
18 received into Evidence)

19 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, on Dean Exhibit 56, 20 the only "fund 200" handwriting at the bottom was 21 identified by Miss Dean. She recalls that as being that 22 of Mr. Demery's. And with regard to 57, the letter from 23 Alvin Moore to Jim Chaplin, her recollection is that 24 that handwriting is from the Metro-Dade office and is 25 identified as coming from the Metro-Dade office by

3291

1 Miss Hastings. I'm sorry. Miss Sharifi.

2 THE COURT: The Government objects to this
3 handwritten material on here? I'll have to look at my 4 notes on 56 if it was identified as Demery's writing or 5 not. The other one, I don't know who wrote that. I'll 6 sustain the objection to admitting 57. 56, I'll sustain
7 the objection unless I can find where it's been 8 identified as Mr. Demery's handwriting.

9 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, 58 is a letter from 10 Claude Pepper to Miss Dean. Mr. O'Neill had the same 11 objection regarding Senatorial documents on that.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

12 THE COURT: Is it in the same context as the 13 other ones that are admitted, or is it different?
14 MR. O'NEILL: He's speaking about specific 15 projects, Your Honor. This one was identified by 16 Miss Dean.
17 THE COURT: It was testified to.
18 MR. O'NEILL: Yes.
19 THE COURT: And then I'll overrule the 20 objection of the Government.
21 (Defendant's Exhibit 58 received into
22 Evidence)
23 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, Dean Exhibits 66
24 through 73 are admitted without objection, I believe.
25 THE COURT: Mr. O'Neill?

1 MR. O'NEILL: That's correct, Your Honor.
2 THE COURT: All right, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71,
3 72, 73 are admitted.
4 (Defendant's Exhibits 66 through 73

6 MR. WEHNER: Dean Exhibits 85, 88, 91, 93,

9 believe are admitted without objection.
10 MR. O'NEILL: That's correct, Your Honor.
11 THE COURT: All right, then I'll admit those 12 since they're agreed to by counsel.
13 (Defendant's Exhibits 85, 88, 91,
14 93-96, 108, 112, 117, 124-125, 119,

18 THE COURT: Do you have a whole other stack?
19 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.
20 THE COURT: I think we have to take a break.
2 MR. O'NEILL: We went faster this morning for
2 some reason, Judge. I don't know. We seemed to move -2
THE COURT: I'll review those at 2:30 and come
2 back and have the other conference this afternoon. Do
2 you have copies of your motion here?

3293

MR. WEHNER: I don't see it yet, Judge. I'll see where it is.
THE COURT: When it comes in, will you drop it
by chambers?
MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.
THE COURT: All right. we'll take a recess
until 2:30.

AFTERNOO N SESSIO N

2 (Defendant present, Jury out.)

3 THE COURT: All right, can we finish up with these 4 documents, do you think, somewhat quickly and then get to the 5 motions?

6 MR. WEHNER: Okay. 186 is withdrawn, Your Honor.
7 189, 190, 192, 193, 19- -- I'm sorry, 189, 190, 192, and 193 are
8 admitted without objection.

9 MR. O'NEILL: That's correct, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: All right, they're admitted then.

11 (Defendant's Exhibit Nos. 189, 190, 192,
12 193 were received in evidence.)

13 MR. WEHNER: 194 through 199, 200 -- 194 through 207
14 are letters written in support of Ms. Dean for her position as 15 assistant secretary for Community Planning and Development. They 16 are written to Senator Proxmire. They are from various private/17 public individuals.

18 Ms. Dean testified during her direct examination that 19 she had received copies of these letters, thus authenticating
20 them. They are relevant because they show the political nature
21 of the process vis-a-vis the committee hearings.

22 Mr. O'Neill objects to their admission.

23 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: I'm going to sustain the objection on the 25 basis that I did earlier to the others.

3295

1 MR. WEHNER: 208, 209, 210, 213, 214 are admitted
2 without objection.

3 THE COURT: 208, 209, 210, 213, and 214?

4 MR. O'NEILL: That's correct, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right, those are admitted.
6 (Defendant's Exhibit Nos. 208, 209, 210,
7 213, and 214 were received in
8 evidence.)

9 MR. WEHNER: 247 is a letter to Secretary Pierce from 10 Arlen Specter in support of the Pennrose Properties, Regent
11 Street project. Mr. O'Neill objects to the admission on, I
12 think, on previously stated grounds.

13 THE COURT: I think that was testified to by a couple
14 different people that it had support from Specter. All right,
15 I'll allow it under my earlier rulings, 247 admitted.
16 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 247 was
17 received in evidence.)

18 MR. WEHNER: 255, 256, 268, 270, 272, 277, 278, are 19 admitted without objection, I think.

20 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, that's correct, with the exception
2 on 278, there is some handwriting that we've agreed to delete.

2 THE COURT: All right, 278 will be deleted. The rest
2 will be admitted, 255, 256, 268, 276, 272, 277, and 278 as

2 redacted.
2 THE CLERK: Was 276 in here?

3296

1 MR. WEHNER: No, ma'am.
2 THE COURT: I misspoke. 270 it was. I was looking at 3 my handwriting. It's 270.
4 (Defendant's Exhibit Nos. 255, 256, 268,
5 272, 277, and 278 were received in
6 evidence.)
7 MR. WEHNER: 392, 393, 394, 395, 396, 397, and 398 are
8 admitted without objection.
9 MR. O'NEILL: That's correct, Your Honor.
10 THE COURT: All right, 392 through 398 are admitted.
11 (Defendant's Exhibit Nos. 392 thru
12 398 were received in evidence.)
13 MR. WEHNER: 409 is admitted without objection.
14 MR. O'NEILL: Correct, Your Honor.
15 THE COURT: All right, 409 is admitted.
16 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 409 was
17 received in evidence.)
18 MR. WEHNER: 410, 411, 412, and 413 are three letters
19 to Ms. Dean and one letter to Secretary Pierce with regard to the 20 Cleveland moderate rehabilitation units that were testified to.
2 THE COURT: I'm sorry, as to what?
2 MR. WEHNER: The Cleveland, if Your Honor remembers,
2 there was some testimony regarding the, some nuns and some Sister
2 Schulte letters, et cetera, et cetera. These are letters that,
2 to Ms. Dean dealing with the Travelodge public housing, Moderate

3297

1 Rehabilitation Project, and I think Mr. O'Neill objects to those.
2 THE COURT: Well, I remember a discussion Ms. Dean had
3 some testimony about that. What was the relevance of that again?
4 Was it Pierce's individual involvement in projects?
5 MR. WEHNER: Project specific.
6 THE COURT: And again, the objection is on the 7 foundational grounds that these are not really mod rehab
8 documents, but supplied by people outside the process?
9 MR. O'NEILL: Correct, Your Honor. 410, for instance,
10 we don't know who it's really from. 411 comes from the City of 11 Cleveland. 412 appears to come from the nuns on that project,
12 and 413 also comes from the nuns.
13 MR. WEHNER: Judge, these are all letters to Ms. Dean
14 and to the secretary. I mean, it's clear that they came from the 15 records of HUD.
16 THE COURT: Well, I know, and I understand
17 Mr. O'Neill's concern about them, because I have been rather open 18 on how these were brought in for reasons I've expressed. I think 19 that 410 is unidentified, you said?
20 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Your Honor. It's only the first
2 page of a letter. It's clear there's more to it.
2 THE COURT: I don't know how 410 can be admitted unless
2 we have the letter and who it's from. All right, 410 is out.
2 I'll admit 411 through 413.

(Defendant's Exhibit Nos. 411 thru 413
were received in evidence.)

3 MR. WEHNER: 417, 418, 420, 421, 422, 423, 424, 425, I
4 believe, are admitted without objection.
5 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Your Honor. That's correct.
6 THE COURT: All right, 417, 418, 420, 421, 422, 423,
7 424, and 425 are admitted.
8 (Defendant's Exhibit Nos. 417, 418, and
9 420 thru 425 were received in
10 evidence.)
11 MR. WEHNER: 501, 517, 519, 523, 535, 538, 552, 527,

13 564, 566, and 568 are admitted without objection.
14 THE COURT: Did you get those numbers?
15 MR. O'NEILL: That is correct, Your Honor.
16 THE COURT: All right, my courtroom deputy clerk is 17 taking those numbers down again through the court reporter to 18 make sure we have them right. So that 500 series will be 19 admitted just reviewed.
20 (Defendant's Exhibit Nos. 501, 517, 519,
21 523, 527 thru 530, 532 thru 535, 538,
22 545, 552, 557, 558, 560 thru 564, 566,

25 588, 589 are admitted without objection, I believe.

3299

1 MR. O'NEILL: That is correct, Your Honor.
2 THE COURT: All right, 569, -70, -73, -74, -81, -82,
3 -84, -85, -88, -89 in the 500 series will be admitted.
4 (Defendant's Exhibit Nos. 569, 570, 573,

13 896, 898, and 899, I believe, are admitted without objection.
14 MR. O'NEILL: That is correct, Your Honor.
15 THE COURT: All right, those numbers, I'll recite them,
16 but I may have missed some, the court reporter has them. 598,
17 606, -07, -08, -09, -11, -12, -13, -14, -15, -16, -18, -19, 622,

21 MR. WEHNER : I believe it was 896, Your Honor, instead
22 of 897.
23 THE COURT: All right, 896.
24 MR. WEHNER : Yes.
25 THE COURT: And 899 will be admitted.

7 MR. WEHNER: Now, Your Honor, there are -- those are 8 the ones that are admitted without objection, and I've culled out
Page 1829

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
9 the ones that there are remaining objections to.
10 THE COURT: All right.
11 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, 621 is a letter to Secretary
12 Pierce from Senator Laxalt with a project-specific request. 620
13 is a letter from Robert K. Dornan, U.S. Congressman, for moderate
14 rehabilitation units. 590 is a letter from Senator J. Bennett
15 Johnston, with a specific project-specific request for moderate
16 rehabilitation units. 580 is a letter from James G. Watt to 17 Secretary Pierce, thanking him for 312 units of Section 8
18 moderate rehabilitation housing.
19 THE COURT: what's the date of that one?
20 MR. O'NEILL: June 6, 1986, Your Honor.
21 THE COURT: Oh, it's in '86.
22 MR. WEHNER: 571 is a letter dated August 1, 1985, from 23 Jacob Javitz, former United States senator, to Sam Pierce, 24 thanking him for Puerto Rican units. 559 is a letter to 25 Secretary Pierce from Kathy Ebright, project manager of Community

3301

1 Housing Developers, regarding the Santa Clara moderate
2 rehabilitation allocation, which Your Honor may remember was for 3 an abused women's shelter, and there was testimony and 4 correspondence back and forth regarding the project-specific 5 nature of that.
6 And 419 is a letter dated August 6, 1984, to Deborah
7 Dean from William R. Ballou, B-a-l-l-o-u, of the Housing
8 Authority of City of Columbia, South Carolina, with regard to 600
9 units.
10 I believe that Dean Exhibits 602 and 603 have already 11 been admitted. At least that looks -
12 THE CLERK: Yes, 602 and 603 are admitted.
13 MR. WEHNER: 602 and 603 were already admitted, Your
14 Honor.
15 THE COURT: All right.
16 MR. WEHNER: 572 is a letter to Samuel Pierce from 17 Ramon Luis Rivera regarding the 180 residential units in Puerto 18 Rico. 426 is a memorandum for Samuel R. Pierce from Thomas
19 Evans, Jr., with regard to the 303 moderate rehabilitation units
20 for Project Dignity in St. Louis, Missouri.
2 THE COURT: And Evans was a former congressman from
2 there, lobbyist?
2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.
2 MR. O'NEILL: As a lawyer-lobbyist.
2 MR. WEHNER: Former congressman, then lobbyist.

3302

THE COURT: That's to Pierce?
2 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Judge.
3 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir, August 30, 1984.
4 864 is a letter to Philip Abrams dated September 16,
5 1983, from John Ritchie, Jr., executive director of the Virginia
6 Housing Development Authority, requesting 378 units for the 7 Jefferson Park Apartments, Midlothian Turnpike, Richmond,
8 Virginia.
9 THE COURT: Mr. Abrams is writing the developer to the 10 local housing authority?
11 MR. WEHNER: Mr. Abrams is writing to -- from -- I'm 12 sorry, to Mr. Abrams from the executive director of the housing
13 authority.
14 THE COURT: Oh, I see.
15 MR. WEHNER: It's directed to Mr. Abrams as general
16 deputy assistant secretary, federal housing commissioner.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

17 THE COURT: Oh, it's to Mr. Abrams. I thought this was 18 when he was out.
19 MR. WEHNER: No, sir.
20 THE COURT: This was when he was at HUD?
21 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.
22 THE COURT: All right.
23 MR. WEHNER: 868 is a letter to Samuel R. Pierce, Jr.,
24 from the government of Puerto Rico, Puerto Rico Housing Finance
25 Administration, from the general counsel and assistant secretary,

3303

1 regarding their approval of the 599 units for specific projects
2 listed in their -- in the attachments.
3 And, Judge, I'd like to revisit 410, which Your Honor
4 had previously sustained an objection to.
5 THE COURT: That's the one that was one page without 6 the second page or signature?
7 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir. I had mistakenly pulled in only
8 the first page, and it is a two-page letter of November 12, 1984,
9 written to Deborah Dean from Sister Donna Hawk and Raymond
10 Pianka, P-i-a-n-k-a, requesting 50 units for the Travelodge
11 Redevelopment in Cleveland. If Your Honor recalls, there was 12 testimony regarding that Travelodge Development, Secretary
13 Pierce's instructions that he'd like -- there's a memo that he 14 would like to help them if he could to Ms. Dean.
15 MR. O'NEILL: And, Your Honor, the government's 16 objections would be once again foundational, that none of these 17 are written from HUD. They're going the opposite way.
18 THE COURT: These are not internal documents generated
19 in HUD in the normal course of business. These are things
20 received from the outside.
21 MR. O'NEILL: Right. And the government also would 22 reserve its objections that these have nothing to do with the 23 projects named in the indictment, but of course understanding 24 Mr. Wehner's argument that the whole process was political and 25 therefore he feels these are relevant to a defense.

3304

1 THE COURT: All right. Based upon my earlier rulings,
2 I'll allow these in over objection and both on foundation and
3 relevancy. That would be 620, -21, 590, 580, 571, 559, 419, 572,
4 426, 864, 868, and 410.
5 (Defendant's Exhibit Nos. 410, 419, 426,
6 559, 571, 572, 580, 590, 620, 621, 864,
7 and 868 were received in evidence.)
8 MR. WEHNER: And, Judge, there are very few more that I
9 think are without objection. 635, without objection.
10 MR. O'NEILL: That's correct, Your Honor.
11 THE COURT: All right, 635 is admitted.
12 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 635 was
13 received in evidence.)
14 MR. WEHNER: 642, 644, 641, 645, and 206 are without
15 objection.
16 MR. O'NEILL: That's correct, Your Honor.
17 THE COURT: All right, thank you. Those will be 18 admitted then.
19 (Defendant's Exhibit Nos. 206, 641, 642,
20 644, and 645 were received in
21 evidence.)
22 MR. WEHNER: And, Your Honor, I would offer into 23 evidence but not for the purpose of going to the jury the 24 Inspector General's audit of April 17, 1989.
25 MR. O'NEILL: Again, Your Honor, the government would 3305

1 object.

2 THE COURT: All right, I'll sustain the objection to
3 that. I think that an outside audit -- that an audit done
4 internally, I don't see a foundation that it can come into here
5 in evidence or be held before me outside the jury's presence. I
6 don't see the basis of that, so I'll sustain the objection to the 7 audit.

8 That's all of the defendant's documents?

9 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.

10 THE COURT: All right. Did the government receive this 11 rather lengthy memo from the defendant over lunch hour?

12 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, we received it when Your 13 Honor received it.

14 THE COURT: Right. All right.

15 MS. SWEENEY: My Evelyn Wood, I guess, speed reading is 16 not what it used to be. I confess to having read most of it. I
17 haven't looked at the cases, Your Honor.

18 If there are particular portions that Your Honor has 19 trouble with, we'd be more than glad to try to brief those over 20 night.

2 THE COURT: well, two areas I'd just like to discuss to
2 make sure that we have the facts down correctly, and then I think
2 that we can see how else we want to handle the rest.

2 One is the argument on the statute of limitations as to
2 Count 3 and Count 4 now on two grounds, the way I read it. One

3306

1 is the grounds that the $4,000 check was written earlier than
2 alleged, and it's not certain when it was received and that it
3 was not timely, and then secondly, with the superseding
4 indictment in July broadening and expanding the charges and 5 changing the charges, that the superseding indictment is not 6 saved under the savings clause of the statute and violates the 7 statute of limitations. That's a brief summary, as I understand
8 from reading through it quickly.

9 what I wanted to know was what was the evidence, the 10 state of the evidence as to the check's making and delivery and 11 deposit? I believe the deposit was without question on May 6.

12 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, I believe that the evidence 13 shows that the check was deposited on May 6 and entered on the 14 bank statement -

I mean, deposited on May 5. That's the date of 15 the deposit ticket.

16 THE COURT: But not credited until May 6.

17 MS. SWEENEY: And it's shown -- it's reflected on the 18 bank statement, which is an exhibit, on May 6.

19 The government's argument would be that the time that 20 would control would be when the check is, the earliest time would 2 be when the check is deposited. The later time would be when the 2 check is actually paid by the paying bank, and that, of course,
2 for an out-of-state would be five to seven or ten days later,
2 whenever the banking practice is of NS&T.

2 THE COURT: So that it doesn't make any difference when it would have been written; it would be more when she received

3307

it?

MS. SWEENEY: when she received it.

4 Your Honor, the funds are not available until they -- I

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
5 mean, for example, if Mr. Kitchin's check was drawn, had 6 insufficient funds, I mean, the funds would not be available to 7 the individual to be used unless they are actually negotiated
8 through the bank.
9 THE COURT: what about any substantial alteration or 10 broadening the charge in the second indictment, as opposed to the 11 first indictment; I mean, it then may not be a proper second
12 indictment as to these charges?
13 MS. SWEENEY: well, Your Honor, to the extent that that 14 argument is premised on the fact that certain paragraphs are 15 realleged and incorporated, we believe that that motion is not 16 timely at this point in time. That would have been based on the 17 face of the superseding indictment, and that motion should have 18 been brought under Rule 12(b)(2), we believe. It's a defect that 19 would have been on the face of the indictment. It doesn't come
20 within the exceptions that are specified within 12(b)(2).
21 In any event, Your Honor, the conspiracy allegations
22 were not realleged in Count 4. To the extent that the, that 23 there's reliance on the use of co-conspirator 5, we have already 24 received the permission of the Court to use the names of the 25 individuals, and if the court believes that it would be better in

3308

1 Count 4, Count 3 and Count 4 to use Kitchin, Louis Kitchin
2 instead of co-conspirator Kitchin, we're more than willing to 3 make that change. We just don't think it's terribly significant,
4 Your Honor.
5 Moreover, we do not believe the charges are broadened
6 within the guidance of the case as set forth at page 5, but 7 that's something, Your Honor, that we would have to brief --at 8 page 5 of your brief.
9 THE COURT: Right.
10 MS. SWEENEY: That's something that we would have to -11
THE COURT: That's the only one I really wanted to ask
12 a little about. You may want to look at that, and I can hold
13 that now and go ahead with the case.
14 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, the specific paragraphs,
15 although we do believe that it's not timely, the specific 16 paragraphs that they're talking about, paragraphs 1 through 17,
17 that's the introductory paragraphs. We believe that those are 18 descriptive paragraphs, not charges.
19 THE COURT: All right. I think the issue really is 20 whether it's substantially changing or broadening the charges. I
21 had written a little bit about that in the Weinberger case, 22 where I dismissed a superseding indictment, one charge, where in 23 the first indictment in Weinberger, because of a rather unusual
24 decision from the United States v. Poindexter case about a 1505
25 violation, I said it didn't correctly allege it.

3309

1 what happened was it made the indictment -
when
2 Poindexter came down, I think our circuit was really unique in 3 how they interpreted the law, that caused the first indictment in 4 my case, one of the counts to be dismissed, and then when they
5 re-pled it, they pled a different offense, although basically
6 closely the same conduct but a little bit different. I held it
7 was barred.
8 So I'm familiar with this case, because I wrote a short
9 memo on it. It's a memorandum and order, Pretrial Order No. 12
10 on Caspar Weinberger. 92-416. It was issued in December of 11 '92.
12 MS. SWEENEY: I take it that was on a Rule 12 motion,
13 Your Honor?

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

14 THE COURT: Yes. I was just going to say now you may 15 want to raise the issue of the preservation of this at or by the 16 defendant. This was filed immediately after the indictment had 17 come down, the superseding indictment.
18 MS. SWEENEY: And what was the number of that, Pretrial
19 Order No. 12, and the docket?
20 THE COURT: It's Docket 92-416, United States v.
2 Caspar Weinberger.
2 MS. SWEENEY: Okay.
2 THE COURT: I just said that I see it brought a broader
2 charge that had been not brought originally, when they could have 2 brought it, and that that was barred by the statute at this 3310

1 point.
2 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, while of course we'd be more
3 than glad to address it in a brief if Your Honor feels that that 4 would be appropriate, the gratuity charge remains as it was. The 5 conspiracy charge, the check is merely an overt act.
6 THE COURT: Overt act. Right, exactly.
7 MS. SWEENEY: So without looking at Your Honor's
8 earlier discussion, I just don't know -
9 THE COURT: I had a different charge in Weinberger.
10 They brought a different charge. It's somewhat similar conduct 11 involved, actually, but it was a different charge. One was lying 12 to Congress and obstruction of investigation.
13 Yes, I understand that, that here what's complained
14 about is a little bit different. In other words, you have the 15 same illegal gratuity charge in the superseding indictment and in 16 the original indictment.
17 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor.
18 THE COURT: You added the conspiracy charge.
19 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor.
20 THE COURT: Mr. Kitchin was not identified in the 2 original indictment as a co-conspirator.
2 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor.
2 THE COURT: In the second indictment, they called him a
2 co-conspirator.
2 And the conspiracy vis-a-vis the statute of limitations

3311

1 is a different theory applies to that, right?
2 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor.
3 THE COURT: I mean, that's the ongoing violation theory
4 that these continued payments of these contracts, once they were 5 let out, renewed the wrongdoing for statute of limitations
6 purposes.
7 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor.
8 THE COURT: Okay. Well, I haven't had a chance to look 9 at it enough. I will. I don't want to send you back to the 10 writing desk all night. I don't know if that's necessary. I'm 11 not going to rule on it right this minute, because I do want to 12 read it through, but I'm -
13 MS. SWEENEY: I appreciate that, Your Honor, although 14 we do feel that if Your Honor feels that there are serious
15 questions presented, that we'd avail ourselves of the opportunity
16 to go back to the writing desk.
17 THE COURT: I understand.
18 Well, I'm going to do something else you may want to 19 include in that. I am somewhat concerned -- and I'll let the 20 defendant address it again briefly if you'd like to -- on the 2 argument on the, now in about a 40-page memo, on the conspiracy

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 arguments as to the circumstantial evidence of Ms. Dean's
2 involvement and agreeing to be a co-conspirator and working
2 towards the aims and the goals of the conspiracy with references
2 to the record the defendant has made, and I wondered if it

3312

1 wouldn't be best to have the Independent Counsel give some
2 response to that, pointing out where the inferences can be made
3 from the evidence as to the knowledge of and the association of 4 the conspiracy by Ms. Dean with the various three conspiracies we 5 have, and that this case differs from other conspiracy cases
6 where there was found not to be sufficient evidence to go to a 7 jury, where there's shown an agreement with illegal purposes and 8 these overt acts.
9 I'm not too sure about, I'm concerned about the overt
10 acts, but I definitely am concerned about the reference to 11 Ms. Dean as to a co-conspirator relationship with these others
12 and the alleged actions that were taken to further the aims of 13 the conspiracy.
14 It may be just on the chart that you have, you can
15 point out to me the evidence. I believe Mr. O'Neill said
16 originally it was substantially, if not all, circumstantial as to 17 this conspiracy and how she conspired with these other
18 individuals.
19 what I was concerned about now that the case is 20 completed is what testimony we have linking Ms. Dean and showing 2 her knowledge of what was going on by any co-conspirators, or if 2 it's simply enough to say that there's a series of lunches and 2 meetings and memos concerning these projects to infer this
2 relationship existed.
2 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, did - was Your Honor's

3313

1 intention to have Mr. Wehner make that argument and then the
2 government respond?
3 THE COURT: Yes. I just want to try to show where my 4 concerns are to try to narrow it down a little bit, and I'm just 5 reflecting on my reading over the lunch hour what occasioned the 6 Court's concerns.
7 Mr. Wehner, let me ask you a couple questions then.
8 Thank you, Ms. Sweeney.
9 Let me just see if I can clear up the statute of 10 limitations. If she received the monies after the 29th of April 11 and assuming there's no amending, superseding indictment, just so 12 we have this indictment charging illegal gratuities, wouldn't 13 that be sufficient at that point to proceed if she received the 14 monies after the 29th of April, deposited a check thereafter
15 reflecting receipt, acceptance of the check?
16 MR. WEHNER: No, because the issue, as Justice White 17 said in the Supreme Court case, is when the statute begins to 18 run, when it starts to run, and it does not continue
19 indefinitely. In other words, if an individual seeks a payment, 20 the statute begins to run upon the completion of the offense. If 2 20 years later that individual deposits the check that they
2 sought at the first instance, the deposit of the check does not
2 bring the seeking within the statute of limitations.
2 So I think Your Honor needs to look at it from the
2 angle of when the statute begins to run, and it starts to run

3314

1 when the offense is complete. It doesn't start to run at the
2 last possible time that an individual could be charged. And I
3 think Justice Bork makes that position clear in his case in the 4 Court of Appeals.
5 I think Your Honor has to look at the statute and make 6 a decision as to when the five-year statute begins to run. The 7 definition is the statute begins to run when Ms. Dean sought the 8 $4,000. The Independent Counsel has charged her several times
9 with seeking the $4,000 and is on record as saying it was in 10 early April, it was in April. The only evidence that it was 11 before April 28 -- or, I'm sorry, it was after April 28 is based 12 on a misreading of the check, in my judgment, in terms of the 13 date and the receipt.
14 I think the cases out of the Third Circuit are clear,
15 especially in terms of the contribution statutes, political 16 contribution statutes, that when a check is deposited is not the 17 determinative date as to when the offense of basically smurfing/
18 campaign contributions takes place.
19 So I think yes, I think Your Honor's statement has some 20 surface appeal, because the statute itself is written in the 2 alternative, and one could take the position that any act that 2 falls within the statute would make the, would make the 2 indictment timely.
2 However, if you look at the statute in terms of when
2 the statute of limitations begins to run, it has to run when the

3315

1 offense is first completed. Otherwise, the statute of
2 limitations may never, may never run, as in the Selective Service
3 cases. A failure to register every year for 20 years doesn't
4 bring you within the statute. The offense is complete the day
5 you turn 18.
6 So I admit to the Court that your position has some 7 logical appeal, but it's not consistent with the case law and the 8 Supreme Court or the D.C. Circuit's approach to statute of 9 limitations provisions.
10 THE COURT: Well, it seems to me that if she was mailed
11 a check and then didn't cash it, but kept it and mailed it back
12 eventually, I'm not sure that there's a completed offense in
13 that -
14 MR. WEHNER: Oh, I imagine -
15 THE COURT: -
16 unless they're saying that just -
17 unless there is evidence she demanded it.
18 But here the evidence, I mean, what we have before us
19 is a check that arguably different dates can appear on the front
20 of the check, but there's no question Ms. Dean has testified
2 herself that she received the check and it was deposited on or
2 about May 5 and credited to her account on May 6, 1987, and it
2 seems to me that it's separate whether or not she demanded or 2 sought it earlier. Once she accepted it, I think that is the 2 offense at that point if it's an illegal acceptance. The -
2 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I -

3316

1 THE COURT: All right.
2 MR. WEHNER: I would urge the Court to look at the 3 cases that are cited in terms of that interpretation -

4 THE COURT: All right.

5 MR. WEHNER: -

because I think that, frankly, was my 6 interpretation when I first looked at it, and I don't think
7 that's what the cases say when you have a statute that is phrased
8 in the alternative, and I'd point the Court to the fact that the 9 Independent Counsel, in fact, charged Ms. Dean in the charging 10 language of the indictment with seeking.

11 In other words, they charged her with each of the 12 alternatives.

13 THE COURT: Right.

14 MR. WEHNER: So some, there is some place when one of 15 those alternatives was accomplished that the offense is complete.
16 I think the case law is clear that it is not when the check is 17 deposited.

18 THE COURT: All right. I'm just looking at your cites
19 here, all right. I'll go back and get those then.

20 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir!

2 THE COURT: All right, tell me about the second theory
2 you have on the broadening or substantially changing the charge
2 so that this would not relate back to the original filing of the 2 first indictment.

2 MR. WEHNER: With regards to the attempt, with regard

3317

1 to the gratuity count in the indictment, the Independent Counsel
2 realleged all of the introductory counts, or introductory 3 paragraphs that they put in the conspiracy count, and that,
4 frankly, is a broadening of the initial charge.

5 I don't know how you can avoid that simply by saying,
6 well, it's just introductory language. In fact, it broadened the 7 charges under any reasonable understanding of the case law as to 8 what broadening means.

9 The reason it's a broadening is because it forces

10 Ms. Dean to defend herself against activities that were not 11 timely prosecuted. It's not a question of whether the language
12 is necessary or unnecessary or superfluous or not. It's a 13 question of notice to Ms. Dean in terms of what she had to 14 defend.

15 Secondly, with regard to the conspiracy count, that is 16 clearly a broadening of the, of the charges for which she was 17 initially indicted, but in addition to that, the conspiracy count
18 contains no other overt acts in furtherance of the conspiracy.
19 In addition to the $4,000 check, that would bring that conspiracy
20 charge within the statute of limitations.

2 Now it's not to say that they're not charged in the 2 indictment, Judge, because there are overt acts charged in the 2 indictment, but those overt acts, there is either not evidence as 2 to those overt acts, or they are not in furtherance of a
2 conspiracy in which Ms. Dean joined. Therefore, that count would be barred by the statute of limitations.

3318

And many of the overt acts don't fall within the
,atute of limitations. For example, they go back to 1984, 1985,
4 1986. They're very, very late projects.

5 If you look at the overt acts that do fall within the 6 statute of limitations, the most recent one, I believe, is the 7 statement that in June of 1992, a public housing authority
8 received some payments. Well, Judge, there's no evidence of 9 that, No. 1, that I can find in the record.

10 No. 2, I don't know and I believe that the, that the 11 government is required to show that they're overt acts whether 12 charged in the indictment or not, were in furtherance of the

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
13 conspiracy as alleged, and I do not believe that the government
14 has proven that a payment from a housing authority to the 15 developer or from HUD to the public housing authority in 16 relationship to the Cutlerwood/Springwood project specifically is 17 in furtherance of the conspiracy with which they've charged
18 Ms. Dean.
19 I would like to point out to the Court the 12(b)(2)
20 argument of Ms. Sweeney.
21 THE COURT: Yes.
22 MR. WEHNER: And I'd refer the Court to Exhibit A.
23 THE COURT: Is that your earlier motion you filed?
24 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir. The first paragraph reads,
25 "Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 12(b)(2), Deborah

3319

1 Gore Dean respectfully moves this Court to dismiss the
2 superseding indictment." That was filed on September 29, 1992,
3 and five separate grounds were raised there specifically in that
4 motion accusing the statute of limitations argument.
5 And specifically at footnote 1, we explain why we were 6 filing at that time, specifically to preserve the Court's
7 jurisdiction so as to prevent such an argument being made
8 earlier. And of course, there was -- simply to show it wasn't 9 form only, there was a six-page memorandum of law attached to 10 that, Judge, setting out the arguments in terms of the statute of 11 limitations.
12 THE COURT: They were never taken up by Judge Gesell?
13 MR. WEHNER: Judge Gesell stated -
14 and this was not a
15 ruling, Judge, and I don't, it's much like his statement about 16 the -
17 THE COURT: The indictment.
18 MR. WEHNER: -
19 the indictment.
20 He said, my recollection is -- and there's a
21 transcript, so if I'm wrong, it can certainly be corrected--
22 that he said something like, "well, I'm not going to consider 23 these," or, "I can't consider these until after the evidence is 24 in." That's my recollection of what he said. And my 25 recollection further is that we agreed with that.
2 So -
3 THE COURT: All right.

3320

1 MR. WEHNER: -
2 that's where -- there is a transcript
3 of that that could deal with that issue.
4 THE COURT: All right. Tell me about the conspiracy
5 and this knowledge as to Ms. Dean as to each of these 6 conspiracies and evidence that you're alleging the government
7 failed to show the requisite intent. They did have testimonies
8 from various individuals as to Ms. Dean's, and including some of 9 the alleged co-conspirators, as to Ms. Dean's meetings with 10 individuals and then making inquiries about the progress of their 11 projects and eventually up through until late '86 anyway
12 apparently recommending their projects for approval, and then 13 starting in '87, there's varying testimony about how this 14 committee worked, but there's at least testimony from 15 DeBartolomeis and Demery as to Ms. Dean's involvement and 16 approval of some of these projects after meeting with the various 17 consultants, I guess you'd say, and sometimes with the developers 18 about these projects ahead of time and then getting them on the 19 list to be approved or writing memos regarding the request for 20 action on these matters at times.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

20 I mean, what else does the government have to show to 2 get an inference there was some understanding that Ms. Dean had
2 that the result was to advance their causes, whether her motives
2 were political or not, just to work with them to help them
2 advance their causes while they were making large sums of money
2 that the government alleges would eventually enure to her benefit

3321

1 because of her political desires, which I guess there's
2 Ms. Patenaude's rebuttal evidence about that?
3 MR. WEHNER: Could Your Honor repeat your inquiry to 4 me? I want to make sure I'm responding to your question.
5 THE COURT: It's impossible to repeat my musings. What
6 I was asking essentially was point out to me where the government
7 has failed. It's sort of a double negative. Tell me where the 8 government has failed if you look at the evidence in the light
9 most favorable to the government, particularly with the insider
10 testimony, DeBartolomeis and Demery's testimony as to what 11 actions Ms. Dean was engaged in either prior to '87 or from '87
12 on, when they had this committee, about her activities, ordering 13 them to sign some of these documents, et cetera, that type of 14 thing -15

MR. WEHNER: Okay.

16 THE COURT: -- each favoring their own group of people
17 they wanted favored.

18 MR. WEHNER: Judge, in terms of the insiders'
19 testimony --by that I would refer to Mr. Barksdale, Mr. Demery, 20 the federal housing commissioners -- there is no testimony from 2 those individuals on the inside that what Ms. Dean undertook was
2 wrong or unlawful or contrary to the established practice at HUD.
2 The testimony that they gave as to how these moderate
2 rehabilitation units was awarded -- excuse me, were awarded may 2 have been haphazard, and it may have been somewhat non

3322

1 functional, but the testimony they gave is as consistent with
2 Ms. Dean doing her job and Barksdale and Demery doing their jobs
3 in terms of assigning these units as it is with any inference
4 that they, that they were doing anything unlawful.
5 And I don't think you can take -I'm sorry, Judge.

6 THE COURT: Go ahead, that's all right.

7 MR. WEHNER: I don't think you can take what appears to 8 be a bad system of government and say this is a crime, this is a
9 conspiracy to defraud.

10 The -- with the exception of Mr. Demery, I believe that 11 Mr. Barksdale, for example -- and I may be wrong on that. I'm 12 not sure I want to say that. I can't recall if it was Mr. Barks13 dale or one of the other federal housing commissioners -- no, it 14 was Mr. Barksdale that testified that Deborah Dean, for example, 15 had never asked him to fund a moderate rehabilitation project.
16 It was Mr. Barksdale.

17 Now if the federal housing commissioner says that 18 Ms. Dean never asked him to fund the project, how somehow can 19 that be a, can she be involved in a criminal conspiracy to fund
20 projects at HUD? And he certainly --he testified that he didn't
2 know why the projects were being funded, but he was sure they
2 were being funded legitimately.

2 Mr. Demery, of course, is somewhat, is somewhat
2 different. I think there's conflicting testimony, but what
2 Mr. Demery's bottom-line testimony, taken in the light most 3323

1 favorable to the government, and I don't concede this for 2 purposes of argument, is that Deborah Dean told him what units to 3 fund.
4 There is no, nothing wrong inately or suspect inately
5 or immoral or illegal or unlawful about the secretary's
6 administrative executive assistant telling the federal housing
7 commissioner, "I want you, Mr. Demery, to fund Florida projects."
8 That is a common, everyday occurrence in government. That alone 9 doesn't make it legal, but charging it in an indictment doesn't 10 make it illegal.
11 These political decisions that are made are made day in 12 and day out, and if they are political in the sense that, that 13 somehow they are political in the sense that these units are 14 being rewarded to someone or awarded to someone to have the 15 maximum benefit politically, it's hard for me to conceive how 16 that can be a criminal conspiracy.
17 In this case, that would have to include the President
18 of the United States, for example, because there's evidence to 19 show that he directed on occasion -- directed --he announced the 20 funding of some of these units.
2 But that strays from my main argument, Judge. That's 2 where I think the insider testimony goes. At best, it shows in 2 the light most favorable to the government, the insider testimony
2 shows that it was a system that really had no rules and had no
2 boundaries. It went on for a very long time.

3324

1 Now in terms of the outsider testimony, there is no
2 testimony from any of the consultants or the developers that
3 Ms. Dean ever told them that she would help them get mod rehab
4 units. The one exception to that is a co-conspirator -- no, I'm 5 sorry, there are no exceptions to that that I recall. I was 6 thinking about the $4,000 check and Mr. Jennings and his 7 co-conspirator statements from Mr. Kitchin on the other count.
8 Mr. Shelby testified consistent with Ms. Dean's, with a 9 position of innocence for Ms. Dean, that he didn't ask her and 10 she didn't help him. He testified that she didn't know about 11 John Mitchell's involvement.
12 Jack Brennan testified on direct as to what Ms. Dean
13 said to him when he went to see her directly, and the evidence is 14 clear in terms of what Ms. Dean did, for example, with Jack
15 Brennan's request. She sent it down to Housing.
16 It's kind of the dirty window, dirty lenses theory. I
17 can imagine a scenario where you could add these together and 18 come up with a criminal conspiracy if you put the worst possible
19 inference on every act that occurred, but if you look at it
20 fairly, you cannot come up to the conclusion, even taken in the 2 light most favorable to the government, that Ms. Dean had the 2 criminal intent to knowingly and willfully enter into the
2 conspiracy.
2 It's interesting, Judge, because of all the immunized
2 witnesses and all of the lunches, nobody could remember

3325

1 discussing a specific project and getting a specific commitment
2 or a specific reward or a specific quid pro quo. No one
3 testified to that. No one testified that Deborah Dean said she'd 4 give me the units and she did, and then I went out and I helped
5 her get her nomination to be HUD assistant secretary.
6 And with the parade of immunized witnesses we've seen,
7 one would think that if that testimony existed in fact, that it
8 would have been elicited.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

9 Instead, you had witnesses such as Governor Nunn, who 10 testified that he never dealt with Deborah Dean. You had 11 testimony of Mr. Martinez, who testified that while he was making 12 political contributions up on the Hill in an effort to get these 13 mod rehab units, he didn't even know who Deborah Gore Dean was.
14 And yet you have Ms. Dean charged as the central figure in a 15 criminal conspiracy in which there is no evidence that she 16 joined.
17 Now if you take it backwards - and this is one way to 18 look at the evidence, and I'd be remiss if I didn't tell Your 19 Honor this --if you look at this backwards and you start with 20 the fact that these projects were funded and that millions of 2 dollars went out of the public treasury to these developers and 2 you go back and back in terms of the time frames to try to 2 determine how this could have happened and you take these 2 isolated incidents and who had lunch with whom and who called
2 whom and what memo was sent to whom, that you come up with a

3326

1 plausible scenario in which you might be able to get a conviction
2 from a jury, but you don't come up in the light, taken in the 3 light most favorable to the government, with evidence that shows
4 that Ms. Dean willfully and knowingly joined the conspiracy.
5 And I hate to argue about what the government's case
6 lacks, because I think that's generally unpersuasive. I think in 7 this case it's what the government's case shows. It's the 8 testimony of their case in chief, it's the testimony of their 9 case in chief that the Court needs to look at in terms of what 10 was affirmatively stated, because it's not a case where they 11 didn't prove this and they didn't prove that and they didn't 12 prove this. It's what they did prove occurred does not rise to 13 the level of criminal culpability on the part of Ms. Dean.
14 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Sweeney, do you have
15 anything else?
16 I'll hear from Ms. Sweeney again for a minute.
17 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, Mr. Wehner seems to be 18 arguing that it's impermissible to infer participation in a 19 conspiracy from circumstantial evidence. That's one thread that 20 seems to go through his argument. He also seems to be arguing
2 and in his motion papers that the government hasn't proved its
2 case beyond a reasonable doubt, which is really a post-conviction
2 standard.
2 The evidence that he cites, or -- in his motion papers
2 are lots of statements that Ms. Dean did not acknowledge to other

3327

1 people that she was doing wrong or that some of the 2 co-conspirators didn't know what other co-conspirators were 3 doing, but, Your Honor, we don't read the conspiracy cases to 4 require us to be able to put forward that type of evidence, and 5 Your Honor's charges on the conspiracy are consistent with the 6 case law that indicate that we're not required to show that.
7 Now in terms of the evidence that the government has 8 shown, Mr. Barksdale testified, for example, that he received an 9 inquiry from the secretary's office on the Arama project. He 10 recalled he received an inquiry from the secretary's office. He 11 knew it wasn't Secretary Pierce, he knew it wasn't the 12 undersecretary, and he couldn't recall if it was Ms. Dean, but he 13 knew that he'd received an inquiry from someone in that office.
14 That's not, of course, the only evidence on Arama. The 15 evidence clearly shows that Ms. Dean knew John Mitchell was a 16 consultant. She attempted to deny it, but on cross, I believe 17 that it was established that she understood that he was a

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
18 consultant. She had worked with him.
19 Mr. Dorsey testified yesterday -
20 THE COURT: You mean a consultant, quote, in anything?
2 MS. SWEENEY: A consultant in anything. But
2 Mr. Dorsey -
2 THE COURT: Not consultant with mod rehab work, yeah.
2 MS. SWEENEY: But Mr. Dorsey, who was called by the
2 defense yesterday, testified that when Ms. Dean was out doing

3328

1 consulting business on HUD matters, John Mitchell was the 2 individual she sent to the department to meet. She was aware
3 that Mr. Mitchell was pursuing Governor Nunn's interests. She 4 admitted that. She was aware that Martinez was Nunn's client.
5 We have the "Dear Daddy" letters, the assurance to Nunn on Arama
6 that the project will be funded.
7 As to Mr. Brennan -- I'll try to go through a few of 8 the witnesses, Your Honor, especially ones that Mr. Wehner has,
9 has mentioned. On South Florida, Mr. Brennan testified that he 10 went to see Ms. Dean. Ms. Zagame testified about the meeting in 11 September of '86 where South Florida was funded. She testified
12 that Ms. Dean dictated the list that included that particular 13 award.
14 Now, Your Honor, the charts that we have submitted to 15 Your Honor and to the defendant as well show the circumstantial
16 connections that can be made from the documents. They, they do
17 not make any attempt to summarize the testimony, and we believe 18 that there is substantial oral testimony in addition to the 19 connections that we believe, the circumstantial connections that 20 the charts very clearly show, and the charts do show the 2 thank-you letters that individuals sent to Ms. Dean after meeting
2 with her and receiving the benefits that they had raised at those
2 specific meetings. That would include Mr. Rosenthal, Mr. Shelby.
2 Now Mr. Wehner points out that Mr. Shelby,
2 Mr. Shelby -- that Ms. Dean does not admit that she was doing

3329

1 things for Mr. Shelby. On the other hand, Ms. Patenaude
2 testified this morning, testified that Ms. Dean made a statement
3 to her, "I'm taking care of Rick Shelby," and mentioned his name
4 at one of these meetings during which she would dictate the 5 projects that would be funded and the individuals who were behind
6 those projects.
7 Now Jack Jennings, who testified, went through the 8 Kitchin, the Kitchin projects, said that Kitchin told him that he 9 was going to Washington to seek mod rehab units from Dean, that 10 when he returned, he told him that she'd agreed to give these 11 units, that when he had the 185s, the funding documents, he told 12 Mr. Jennings, if I'm not mistaken, that he had obtained those 13 from Ms. Dean.
14 Mr. Rubi testified that Broussard told him that the 15 units had been assigned to him by Dean, and of course, there's 16 evidence that Ms. Dean met with Mr. Broussard. She herself said
17 that she tried to get him interested in units in Puerto Rico.
18 Now Mr. Rubi also testified that he believed he got 150
19 of the units through Senator D'Amato. That doesn't mean that the 20 150 that he got through Ms. Dean and Mr. Broussard and Mr. Sankin
2 are not the appropriate subject of charges. The fact that other
2 people were doing wrong or other people were engaging in a
2 political process, Your Honor, just doesn't bear on the charges
2 in this case.
2 The problem with what Ms. Dean did is that Ms. Dean

3330

1 made decisions in circumstances where she personally benefited
2 either through payments to her father, payments to herself,
3 lunches, dinners, gifts, as well as the promise of future
4 political support.
5 So, Your Honor, we do believe that there has been 6 sufficient evidence elicited on the government's case to 7 demonstrate that Ms. Dean was a knowing participant.
8 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Ms. Sweeney.
9 The Court would be, I think, remiss in not going
10 through this motion that's very lengthy more carefully than it
11 has had a chance to over the lunch hour -- it's 46 pages
12 approximately -- and to consider some of the case law suggested,
13 maybe revisiting what it looked at earlier at the time the motion
14 was originally made, but I think in fairness, I should review it
15 all.
16 So I'm not going to rule at this time. I'll take the 17 Rule 29 motions under advisement as well as the statute of 18 limitations motion to dismiss and examine those a bit further.
19 All right.
20 We need to discuss a little bit as well a couple other
2 matters, some immediate reactions you might have on instructions,
2 and then if you haven't had enough of a chance, we can do some 2 more later, I've got a pretrial, either then, afterwards, or we 2 can do it tomorrow morning early, and secondly, the state of the 2 indictment and what's to be done about that, if anything.

3331

1 Judge Gesell's remarks - and I appreciate it again, I
2 can return these transcripts to Independent Counsel --in 3 November of this past year did reflect a concern that he would 4 not let the indictment go to the jury because of the political 5 allegations and everything else in it. I think he was referring 6 to some of the other remarks he had discussed with counsel in 7 that hearing about the overall conspiracy language. So I think 8 that's going to have to be examined as to how we handle the 9 indictment before it goes back to the jury.
10 And secondly, on the instructions, the government was 11 going to give me a couple of new ones later today, I think.
12 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, I have them with me, and I do
13 also have a sample verdict sheet.
14 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Ms. Sweeney.
15 MS. SWEENEY: We have not at this time, Your Honor,
16 included any special verdicts, and we do not propose to do so.
17 THE COURT: Does the jury have to find any particular
18 overt act that's been proven or anything? Do they have to go
19 through and list those or not, to say what's proven or unproven?
20 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, if my recollection serves me
2 correctly, the charge is that they have to find at least one of 2 the overt acts is proved.

3332

1 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I'm sorry.
2 THE COURT: Yes.
3 MR. WEHNER: With regard to the indictment,
Page 1843

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
4 the problem with the indictment in sending it back to 5 the jury in its present form is that it contains 6 allegations and overt acts specifically that were never 7 proved - that were not the subject of testimony, were 8 not the subject of evidence.
9 THE COURT: You want that stricken. There are 10 some that have not been testified to. I think we can 11 redact them as well.
12 MR. WEHNER: Strangely, if the redactions are 13 made for those for which there is no evidence, I think
14 it's fine to send the indictment back, but if there's no
15 evidence I don't think those assertions should be 16 included at this point.
17 THE COURT: All right. The Government
18 submitted three additional instructions, the credibility
19 of the defendant, an instruction as to prior statements,
20 reputational concerns. I'm not sure I had a reputation
2 instruction. I'll think about it. I'll look at these.
2 These come from the Federal Pattern Instructions.
2 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor, and for
2 supplemental instruction number three we cited a D.C.
2 Circuit case from 1972 that we believe is still the law.

3333

1 THE COURT: I think I was referring to the
2 new - I don't have my large book out here. The new 3 D.C. Pattern Jury Instructions.
4 All right. Do you have any particular
5 comments you want to bring up right now on the 6 instructions or do you want to wait until tomorrow
7 morning? Recognizing I'll have to get them retyped if 8 they're changed somewhat during the closing arguments.
9 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, I have a limited
10 number of comments.
11 THE COURT: Sure. Why don't we listen to some 12 of your comments now if you're ready. I'd like to hear j
13 them. I
i
14 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, our comments are all j
15 the in the form of proposed minor additions. I
16 The first one is on page three of the Court's
17 proposed charge and we would propose adding the sentence
18 in the paragraph immediately above statements of 19 counsel.
20 THE COURT: That's the additional paragraph I
2 inserted about matters that have been raised in the 2 defendant's instructions.
2 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, we would propose
2 adding a sentence that would go as follows. Nor is the 2 fact that others at HUD may have been committing crimes

3334

1 any defense to the charges in this indictment.
2 THE COURT: The language to the effect nor is
3 the fact that others at HUD may have been acting
4 improperly, you're saying, or committing crimes any
5 defense of the charges against Deborah Gore Dean.
I
6 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor. I
7 THE COURT: All right. what's next? j

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

i

8 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, on page 17 it deals !
9 with the Court's proposal regarding the discretionary !
10 nature of the program. •

i

11 THE COURT: All right. i

12 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor may recall that j

i

13 Mr. Dorsey yesterday, who was the General Counsel, |
14 testified that the program, if I – I believe I'm I
15 correct, testified on direct that the program was not 16 discretionary but was subject to regulations. On cross j
17 he testified that the particular regulation was a rating ;

I

18 and ranking regulation. We believe that a better way to

i

19 perhaps structure that last sentence would be to say j
20 something like after Congress' decision to remove the !
21 fair share restrictions on the Mod Rehab program the 22 program was no longer subject to distribution by 23 geographic formula.

24 THE COURT: Was Mr. Dorsey talking about from ;

25 the time period '87 on, or any particular time period ;

3335

1 when he made these comments about the ranking and rating
2 thing or did that come out when they did an 3 investigation and realized there was something wrong for 4 the last several years?

5 MS. SWEENEY: My recollection of his
6 testimony, Your Honor, was that he was asked about 7 whether the program was discretionary, but he 8 participated in the funding rounds at the time he took 9 over as General Counsel, which would have been the 10 beginning of '87. He then testified that he asked one 11 of his deputies to look into the legal requirements and 12 the deputy came back and said to him that the rating and 13 ranking regulations were not waived and that remained in 14 effect and it was then that he realized that the 15 regulations had not been followed for a long period of

16 time.

17 We also wanted to point out to the Court that 18 Congress' decision was not that fair share could not be 19 used or that the program was discretionary, but Congress
20 removed a restriction, and that's why we believe the 21 Government's proposed language is a little bit better.

2 THE COURT: All right. Let me look at that.

2 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, at page 20, we would 2 propose adding a clause to the first sentence in the 2 last paragraph. The sentence as presently stands is the 3336

1 Government has not alleged that there was any monetary

2 loss to the Government as a result of the defendant's

3 activities. And, this is our proposal, and as I

4 instructed you earlier, the Government need not prove

5 that the Government sustained any monetary loss.

6 THE COURT: All right. Again, that was a

7 sentence suggested by the instructions submitted by the 8 defendant. All right. I'll put that there for now.

9 MS. SWEENEY: Then, Your Honor, I -- just on 10 page 34 Your Honor has an instruction on the unanimity
11 of the jury on the statements that the Government has 12 alleged were perjurious, and I would just point out
13 there that we have not included that in the special
14 verdict form and just raise that as a question,
15 something that might be considered.
16 Your Honor, we don't believe that a special
17 verdict form, as I said earlier, would be necessary on 18 the overt acts because the court's instruction really 19 instructs the jury as to what to do about that, but I'm 20 not aware that special verdict forms deal with overt
2 acts.

2 THE COURT: I just had in mind when I said
2 that the R Street Crew that we tried here, but that's a
2 different statute, obviously. We must have listed a
2 hundred overt acts and the jury had to prove or not

3337

1 prove each one. They only found one or two.

2 MS. SWEENEY: We don't think that's

3 appropriate in this case, Your Honor.

4 On page 41, the Government would request that

5 the exhibits be sent back during deliberation ab initio.

6 THE COURT: I'm not opposed to that. I think

7 they need to have some organization so they know how to

8 go about what they want to find in these exhibits,

9 rather than give them two or three big boxes of 10 exhibits. I'm not opposed to sending back the 11 exhibits. I said I wasn't going to send them back

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
12 originally, but they can see them all. They can ask for 13 them. I'm not opposed to sending back all of the 14 exhibits, saying I'm sending back all of the exhibits
15 that are admitted. I think I would say, I'll rephrase
16 it a little bit, we will send back the exhibits once
17 Miss whyte has checked with both sides to make sure the 18 list is accurate. Now, Miss whyte has things written on 19 it that would be improper for the jury to see.
20 Sometimes a document is described differently or 2 something. But once we get the list prepared of all the

2 documents they get a list, so they would have something
2 to index them, unless they want to go through boxes on 2 their own.
2 I'm not opposed to sending them all back. I

3338

1 just want to make sure they get organized without
2 suddenly taking documents out of boxes and passing them
3 around.

4 MS. SWEENEY: We share your concerns, Your 5 Honor. That's why we proposed the charts to which Your •
6 Honor has objected. ;

7 THE COURT: I don't mind saying I'm sending j
8 back the exhibits. I think I need some guidance on that 9 to suggest that they will be given eventually, when 10 they're ready, a list of the exhibits they can use to 11 help them retrieve any documents or exhibits they may {

j

12 find helpful in their deliberations. I'll do that. | 13 There's one thing I did want to ask about. I j

j

14 didn't have it here. It's just a mechanical thing and I
15 that is if they want to hear the tape of her testimony j
16 again. Either we can agree that if they want to hear ;

i

17 the tape we can have the Marshal take a tape recorder !

i

18 and play it for them or they can come out here and 19 listen to it and you can make sure that the tape is j
20 played properly, there's no problems with it. :
2 Usually if it's an undercover tape recording ;
2 of a drug agent or something, I have them come out here

i

2 to make sure they're not listening to the wrong part of \

2 the tape or it doesn't get somehow erased or anything.

2 But if this is a copy of the original which is I think j

j

3339

1 what we have --

2 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, this is the original
3 tape that belongs to the reporting service.

4 THE COURT: We don't have a copy made.

5 MS. SWEENEY: We don't have a copy. |

6 Your Honor, I don't think this is like the 7 circumstance of a drug trial. In this particular case

8 they have a transcript which is actually in evidence. |

9 THE COURT: They may or may not want to hear

10 the tape, but I have no idea. I was just thinking a !

11 loud if they want to hear the tape we can make

12 arrangements. They can come in the courtroom where

13 you're present or send a Marshal back there. I'll have

14 the Marshal stay there with the door open and tell the 15 jury they're not to deliberate, and then send the 16 Marshal out and they can continue to deliberate.

17 Maybe we'll cross that bridge when we come to 18 it. They may want to listen to the tape, and we'll send 19 in the tape.

20 MR. WEHNER: As far as we're concerned, the

2 Marshal can play the tape. There's nothing on there

2 except the words that are on the transcript.

2 THE COURT: well, the mechanics. I want to

2 make sure there's no complaints about it.

2 All right. what about the - 3340

1 MS. SWEENEY: Actually, Your Honor, I had two

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 others brief comments. We.
3 would ask that the Court not give the partial
4 verdict -5
THE COURT: I was just going to raise that.
6 MS. SWEENEY: - charge at the beginning.
7 THE COURT: You'd rather hold that.
8 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, yes, Your Honor, and we 9 would prefer that Your Honor give the charge from Sand,
10 from Judge Sand. j
11 THE COURT: Yes, Model Federal Jury j
I
12 Instructions. I
13 MS. SWEENEY: That Your Honor supplied to us j
j
14 this morning, just in the form of a xerox, in the j
15 treatise.
i
16 THE COURT: All right,, that's a little longer;
i
17 than the one that I have. If you go to my perjury !
18 instruction that I drafted, that's why I suggested j
19 counsel may want to review it. I believe it's about page; 20 33, the fourth element, this one gives more detail to
2 that fourth element, it gives a rather complete review
2 of what they can consider about the defendant's intent
2 as to committing perjury.
2 Now, does the defendant have a position on :
2 that? Have you read that through? It's a rather I

3341

1 fullsome discussion.
2 MR. WEHNER: In terms of Your Honor's draft
3 perjury instructions?
4 THE COURT: Yes, where I discuss the fourth
5 element we would say that we would use most of that 6 fourth element discussion that we have, whether the 7 defendant acted knowingly and willfully making the 8 statements, regarding a decision about her state of 9 mind, and then we discussed that in the beginning in a
10 general instruction and this goes into much more detail
11 about the perjury, proof of state of mind.
12 The meaning of a particular act may depend
13 upon the circumstances surrounding it.
14 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, my reaction is I
15 don't like this instruction in terms of the perjury
16 counts. I think it relates more, frankly, to the 17 conspiracy counts than it does to perjury. I don't 18 like - and I want to make sure we're looking at 19 instruction 48-13, manner of proof.
20 THE COURT: 48-13, right.
21 MR. WEHNER: Especially in a case like this 22 where - I don't know. Particularly in a case like this 23 where the second paragraph, for example, of that jury
24 instruction deals with or could be misinterpreted by the 25 jury to suggest that over the five years that Miss Dean

3342

1 was at HUD anything that she did that was inconsistent

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 with her testimony could be defined to mean that she

3 knowingly and willfully misled or knowingly and

4 willfully lied.

5 In a case like this we're talking about a four

6 or five year period in which programs were ongoing.

7 I think it's that second paragraph of that

8 instruction broadens the basis upon which the jury could

9 convict beyond that which the general perjury
10 instruction states.

11 THE COURT: Her state of mind at the time
12 she's giving these statements, you're afraid they'll 13 look at other matters beyond that.

14 MR. WEHNER: what occurred at HUD as to what 15 she testified to as opposed to what her state of mind
16 was at the time she gave the testimony, and I don't 17 think in this case we're talking about a continuing 18 event. That it's fair to allow them to take something 19 that happened in 1982 and use it to prove what she 20 testified to in 1987, especially when from our position
2 the question was expressed in terms of 1987.
2 So I frankly don't have any problem with the
2 rest of that, but actions speak louder or more clearly
2 than spoken or written words. I really don't like that 2 in terms of a jury instruction in this case. I think

3343

1 that because there is so much evidence that's not

2 necessarily attributable to Miss Dean as to how the

3 program is run, I think that opens the door for them to

4 get into a lot of collateral issues in terms of judging

5 her state of mind. That one really bothers me.

6 The rest of it doesn't bother me too much. I

7 think the rest of it is fairly standard, but in this

8 case I don't like the second paragraph.

9 Judge, I also lodge an objection to the

10 remaining instructions suggested by the Government and I
11 think it's a general objection because I think it
12 invites the jury to impose a different set of 13 credibility tests upon the defendant for her testimony
14 than with other witnesses and, frankly, I think the 15 tests are precisely the same for all witnesses, whether !
16 it's a defendant or others, and I have no objection to
17 the Court pointing that out to the jury, but when you
18 add language that suggests a stake in the matter,
19 specifically as to the defendant, that's the same
20 language that goes to immunized witnesses, for example.
2 I don't think you need to state it twice. I

2 think you need to state it once as to all witnesses
2 because I think when the Court particularly gives what
2 appears to be different instruction for scrutinizing the
2 credibility of the defendant, that it draws the

3343

1 that because there is so much evidence that's not

2 necessarily attributable to Miss Dean as to how the

3 program is run, I think that opens the door for them to

4 get into a lot of collateral issues in terms of judging

5 her state of mind. That one really bothers me.

6 The rest of it doesn't bother me too much. I

7 think the rest of it is fairly standard, but in this

8 case I don't like the second paragraph.

9 Judge, I also lodge an objection to the

10 remaining instructions suggested by the Government and I
11 think it's a general objection because I think it
12 invites the jury to impose a different set of 13 credibility tests upon the defendant for her testimony
14 than with other witnesses and, frankly, I think the 15 tests are precisely the same for all witnesses, whether 16 it's a defendant or others, and I have no objection to 17 the Court pointing that out to the jury, but when you

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
18 add language that suggests a stake in the matter,
19 specifically as to the defendant, that's the same
20 language that goes to immunized witnesses, for example.
2 I don't think you need to state it twice. I
2 think you need to state it once as to all witnesses
2 because I think when the Court particularly gives what
2 appears to be different instruction for scrutinizing the
2 credibility of the defendant, that it draws the

3344

1 appearance that the Court questions the credibility of
2 the defendant in a different fashion than the Court
3 questions the credibility of the other witnesses and I
4 think generally the Court questions the credibility of 5 the other witnesses not at all. The Court is just 6 neutral as to whether those witnesses are truthful or 7 not, but I think when the Court gives a different set of 8 instructions regarding the defense testimony it tends to j
9 make the jury look more at the instructions in a
10 different way towards the defendant.
11 THE COURT: All right. I'll check those. As 12 I said, there may have been some changes lately in the 13 standardized instructions. The original instruction
14 from the D.C. Instruction manual is very simple, more
15 simply suggested there than the one we used to use. It
16 simply says that the testimony of a defendant shall not 17 be believed or disbelieved because the defendant - you
18 may consider the fact that the defendant has a vital
19 interest in the outcome of this case but you should give 20 his testimony such weight and judgment as is fairly
2 entitled to receive. It's a rather straightforward
2 statement.
2 There are cases in this Circuit that suggest !
2 maybe you shouldn't give it, but there are many others j
2 that in turn say you should give it. I'll look at it.

3345

1 MR. WEHNER: With regard to the fact that
2 other people at HUD may have committed a criminal 3 offense is not a defense to the charges in this
4 indictment, I think that's clearly uncalled for in this 5 case. I don't think anyone suggested that.
6 One, the fact that someone else committed a
7 crime at HUD is some kind of a defense in this case, i
8 think that clearly would be improper and frankly would 9 impugn upon the defense arguments regarding the practice
10 at HUD and would suggest that the Court somehow had made
11 some finding that the practices at HUD were criminal 12 when in fact certain witnesses testified they committed 13 crimes but the fact - I think if I were to argue the 14 fact that Tom Demery or someone had pled guilty to a 15 crime at HUD was somehow a defense to what Miss Dean had 16 done, probably Mr. O'Neill would be jumping up and down
17 and you would sustain his objection. And I can't argue
18 it, nor is it fair to point it out to the jury.
19 With regard to the need not prove any monetary
20 loss, I think our instruction more properly -I think
2 Your Honor's instruction is fine. I think adding 2 another -stating the same instruction twice, that the

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 Independent Counsel need not prove a monetary loss is 2 sufficient.
2 And, Your Honor, I object to the instruction

3346

1 in terms of the Congressional removal of the fair share
2 requirements and I think that the Independent Counsel is 3 trying to get the Court to make an affirmative statement
4 as to what Congress intended or what Congress did that 5 is not supported by the record.

6 THE COURT: well, was it Mr. Dorsey who
7 testified that it was supposed to be discretionary or 8 not? In fact, I have a note to myself all during this

9 trial that I didn't know if Mr. Dorsey had some reason
10 why he was not going to be called as a witness. I kept 11 waiting to hear from him or somebody from the General
12 Counsel's office about what was his legal opinion that 13 was discussed by some witnesses that they had 14 discretionary funding authority, and we never heard that 15 from either side.

16 MR. WEHNER: Judge, that's an interesting
17 question that I think both Mr. O'Neill and I would have 18 liked to have had a witness that would have testified to 19 the existence of, or the lack thereof, of such an 20 opinion.
2 The testimony on the Hill and the testimony at 2 HUD is mixed. There's some indication - let me put it

2 this way, our position is that the various Federal
2 Housing Commissioners legitimately relied on the legal 2 opinion that said that the funding was discretionary and

3347

1 that remained in effect until Mr. Dorsey, J. Michael 2 Dorsey researched it and made changes from 1987
3 forward.
4 I believe that the Housing Commissioners
5 testified, for example, Maurice Barksdale, that he could
i
6 send those units anywhere he wanted to, if he had the 7 nerve. And his testimony was that that was based on a
8 legal opinion that he received from the General Counsel.

9 That wasn't Mr. Dorsey.
10 So I think the testimony at the trial is that 11 they were discretionary. That's corroborated by the 12 fact that Congress removed the fair share requirements.
13 Finally, Judge, I would request that you
14 instruct the jury, and this is one that we did not 15 submit and frankly I forgot to submit it, I would like
16 you to instruct the jury that Miss Dean is not charged 17 with nor is it a criminal offense to violate the 18 standards of conduct of the Office of Housing and Urban 19 Development. That's my thought. I don't know whether 20 that's the appropriate language, but I had forgotten to
2 put that in my charge.
2 I think there's been a lot of mention of those
2 and I would like that to be clear that she's not charged
2 in this case with violation of the standards.
2 THE COURT: what about as to the gratuity?

3348

1 MR. WEHNER: I think the gratuity clearly you
2 covered that in your charge, Judge, but that's a
3 criminal statute. That's not a violation of the 4 standards of conduct. For example, avoiding incidents
5 that may be appear to be improper or impropriety.
6 THE COURT: I think the Government has alleged 7 maybe - I believe it alleges the violation of the codes
8 of conduct and a criminal offense.
9 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor, the case law

10 under rule 371 is virtually analogous to the same
11 standards that happened to have been incorporated into 12 the standards of conduct. If you look at the cases that 13 were cited under 371, Gorman and others, and then 14 compare that with the standards of conduct, they're 15 virtually analogous types of conduct.
16 MR. WEHNER: Judge, I think that may well be 17 true except that, standing alone, a violation of the 18 standards of conduct does not equate with a criminal
19 offense. It may be evidence in support of a conspiracy,
20 but it's not a criminal offense. That's the point I
2 wish to make.
2 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, the only thing I
2 wish to ask is that I ask that Your Honor to review the 2 testimony of Mr. Dorsey before deciding on the change
2 the Government suggested on page 17.

3349

1 THE COURT: All right. I will do that. Is
2 there a way that you think the defendant's suggestion
3 could be properly phrased at all about the standard of 4 conduct and any violation, standing alone, without more,
5 is not - well, it seems to me that's a problem because

6 I think that the violation of the standards of conduct
7 you say is evidence of criminal wrongdoing, if the other
8 factors are all there under the offense.

9 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: I'm not sure about that requested

11 instruction of the defendant. I'll look at it. I'll 12 ask that Mr. Dorsey's testimony be brought in to me and 13 then I'll consider these suggested changes and the 14 credibility instructions as to the defendant's
15 testimony.
16 I've got the pattern jury instructions and the 17 others here and I'll see about adding these ones on the 18 proof of the state of mind for a perjury conviction. I
19 think that instruction may be appropriate. Maybe we can 20 adjust the language to avoid any difficulties.
21 The defendant says he's not worried about the

22 indictment, as I understand it, except for unproven
23 overt acts, am I correct in that, as opposed to the j
24 general language in the indictment? Judge Gesell
25 expressed some concern about that.

1 MR. WEHNER: Given the way the trial has gone, I
i

2 Judge, I think that's all in front of the jury, so I j
3 don't think that matters. Not that it's been j
I
4 overstated. That it exists. I
i
5|

THE COURT: Are there unproven overt acts? I

6 MS. SWEENEY: Not that I'm aware of, Your \
7 Honor. Perhaps Mr. Wehner can help me out.

8 THE COURT: what about the $7 0,000
9 overpayment? That was just a payment of one of the 10 projects, one of the checks or something that was tossed
11 in.

12 MS. SWEENEY: I will take a look at it.

13 THE COURT: It's the last one listed, as I
14 recall it, in the overt act section of the indictment.

15 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, in terms of 16 reprinting the indictment with naming the 17 co-conspirators and eliminating count five, if Your 18 Honor would like to give us some guidance as to whether 19 or not we should deal with Louis Kitchin as Louis
20 Kitchin and not co-conspirator Kitchin, that might be
2 helpful, or we could just have it available both ways,
2 both versions.

2 THE COURT: I haven't looked at it as to how
2 you expressed Mr. Kitchin's existence or not and, as I

2 said, I want to read through the motions anyway a little

3351

1 bit more as to the broadening of the conspiracy charge
2 as a problem or not.

3 I don't know how fast your printing machines
4 go or not on this 72-page indictment, but if you want it
5 prepared both ways, that's fine.

6 I don't know what overt acts may or may not 7 have been proven. I just have a recollection of that 8 one existed. I remember reading it and wondering about
9 it.

10 All right. I'm going to work on these 11 instructions. I've got a pretrial now. Later on. And 12 then if you want to come in tomorrow morning we'll have 13 them ready for you fairly early and I will go on the 14 bench at 9:30 and make some final rulings for you on the 15 record and then we'll -- I'm not too worried about the 16 indictment immediately, if it's ready, fine, but the 17 jury won't start deliberations until tomorrow night at 18 the earliest, if not Thursday morning.

19 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor.

20 Did Your Honor want to give us any guidance on 21 whether we should do some briefing?

22 THE COURT: On the -- well, the defendant
23 asserted he's preserved his motion -- her motion for -- 24 to dismiss because allegedly he has this motion that was 25 filed quite sometime ago before Judge Gesell who didn't

3352

1 act on it, apparently.

2 MR. WEHNER: September, '92.

3 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, I believe that that

4 may preserve the statute of limitations as to questions

5 that evidence would bear on, evidence that would be

6 produced, but I'm not sure that it goes to the

7 circumstance where the defect is available on the face

8 of the indictment, but we'd have to take a look at that

9 and see what the case law is.

10 THE COURT: It would help the Court, I think,
11 in looking at these overall conspiracies and then on 12 that issue of the indictment, whether it's preserved or 13 broadened, whether it's been impermissably broadened, to

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

14 have a brief summary from the point of view of the 15 Government and the evidence pertaining to it as concise
16 as possible. I don't want you to sit all night long 17 working on that. I think you should concentrate on the 18 closing arguments.
19 I'm going to hold this under advisement right
20 now and not rule on these issues and go ahead on the 2 closing argument and instructions, but I think that the 2 Government should file a response to this motion that's
2 rather lengthy with a lot of citations of testimony of a
2 few people, to briefly summarize the Government's side
2 of the case and the evidence most favorable to it,

3353

1 showing her willing participation and knowledge of this
2 conspiracy. I can then make a ruling upon it.
3 MS. SWEENEY: Is there a particular time, Your
4 Honor, by which we should try to submit it?
5 THE COURT: I think Thursday would be fine.
6 You do it Thursday. Sometime Thursday would be all
7 right.
8 MS. SWEENEY: Thank you, Your Honor.
9 THE COURT: I'm sure if we go to the jury it
10 would be wednesday night or Thursday morning and I
11 expect they will be deliberating for sometime.
12 MS. SWEENEY: Thank you, Your Honor.
13 THE COURT: But that's our schedule.
14 MS. SWEENEY: Whenever it's convenient for the
15 Court.
16 THE COURT: If that's impossible, I don't mind
17 Friday. I'd just like to get it done.
18 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor.
19 THE COURT: All right.
20 Thank you. we'll stand in recess until 9:30
2 in the morning.
2 (Proceedings recessed at 4:30 p.m. to resume
2 October 20, 1993 at 9:30 a.m.)

PROCEEDINGS !

2 (Defendant present, Jury out.) j
3 THE CLERK: Criminal No. 92-181, United States of
4 America v. Deborah Gore Dean. We have Robert O'Neill and Paula
5 Sweeney for the government, Stephen Wehner for Ms. Dean.
6 MR. O'NEILL: Good morning, Judge.
7 THE COURT: All right. Good morning, counsel. As soon
8 as we get organized here -- Juror 7 is late. I'm having Xeroxed,
9 as soon as Mr. Wehner gets in here, a copy of the instructions

10 for you all. I had made a couple of changes after our 11 discussions yesterday.
12 All right, counsel is here now. We are having Xeroxed
13 copies of the instructions. I'll just inform counsel of the 14 changes after the requests of yesterday and discussions we had 15 that have been made, and you'll get your copies in a minute as 16 soon as we can finish Xeroxing, and items that we still need to 17 do.
18 All right, the government had raised an issue about the 19 discretionary nature of the Mod Rehab Program, which was on page
20 3 of the draft they submitted yesterday. That's been amended
21 to -- no, that's not, that was as to the, not the discretionary 22 nature; that was as to others committing crimes at HUD and that 23 being a defense or not.
24 The paragraph on page 3 above "Statements of Counsel"
25 reads, "Evidence has been introduced in this case about other

3358

1 individuals improperly administering HUD programs in matters
2 unrelated to this case. This evidence of other illegal activity
3 at HUD may not be used against defendant Deborah Gore Dean." I
4 have added, "Nor is the fact that others at HUD may have been 5 committing crimes any defense to the charges alleged against
6 defendant Deborah Gore Dean."
7 The government had asked for instructions as to 8 defendant being impeached and giving inconsistent statements,
9 defendant's character and reputational evidence that they had put 10 on, and defendant as a witness. I have amended the instructions
11 and added in page 7 the following two instructions:
12 One, defendant as witness. I have used the standardized D.C.
13 jury instruction for that from the new book that reads, "The 14 defendant has a right to become a witness in her own behalf. Her 15 testimony should not be disbelieved merely because she is the 16 defendant. In weighing her testimony, however, you may consider

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
17 the fact that the defendant has a vital interest in the outcome
18 of this trial. As with the testimony of any other witness, you 19 should give the defendant's testimony such weight as in your 20 judgment it is fairly entitled to receive." That is the 2 standardized instruction.
2 Secondly, I've added a character and reputation
2 instruction, because both sides have introduced some evidence on 2 the reputation for truthfulness and veracity of the defendant,
2 and it reads as follows:

1 "The defendant has introduced testimony that the 2 defendant is a truthful and honest person. Such evidence may 3 indicate to you that it is unlikely that a truthful and honest
4 person would commit the crime charged or testify untruthfully.
5 The government has introduced evidence that the defendant has a
6 bad reputation for truth and veracity. You should consider all 7 this evidence along with other evidence in the case in 8 determining the guilt or innocence of the defendant and should 9 give it such weight as in your judgment it is fairly entitled to 10 receive."
11 There is a second part to the standardized D.C.
12 instruction that I did not put in that says that, discusses that 13 you should not find the defendant not guilty merely on the basis
14 of her reputational evidence, but you can consider it along with 15 other factors, and if you're not convinced beyond a reasonable
16 doubt the defendant is guilty, then you must return a not guilty
17 verdict. It is a rather confusing phrase the way they've phrased
18 it, and I did not put it in.
19 I did not put in separately an instruction of the 20 defendant and inconsistent statements. That, I think, is covered
2 in the next, with inconsistent statements in the general
2 instruction about any witness that we've already had in the 2 indictment.
2 I need to get eventually from the government the names
2 of people who would fit in the category of immunized witnesses or

3360

1 accomplice witnesses to add to the instructions.
2 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, in that regard, I would ask
3 that Your Honor delete the accomplice instruction, because I do
4 not believe that there are any witnesses that fall into that 5 category.
6 THE COURT: You don't think that Mr. Demery and others
7 who testified that have made plea agreements didn't testify as -
8 I see, you're saying he didn't testify as an accomplice as in her
9 actions, I guess, as opposed to others?
10 MR. WEHNER: Precisely.
11 THE COURT: I see.
12 MR. WEHNER: I think accomplice --
13 THE COURT: How about a cooperating witness' testimony?
14 I mean, there should be some instruction as to people who have 15 testified as the result of a plea agreement and how you'd judge
16 their testimony. You would hope to provide a benefit to the 17 government and to themselves by their cooperation.

18 MR. WEHNER: It's the word "accomplice" that I object

19 to, Judge.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

20 THE COURT: I understand. All right.

2 MR. WEHNER: If you want to change that to -- I would

2 object specifically to the first two sentences on page 9 of

2 accomplice testimony. I'm looking at the old draft.

2 THE COURT: Yes.

2 MR. WEHNER: And I would ask that in the third

3361

1 sentence, that "accomplices" be stricken and "witnesses" -

2 THE COURT: The third sentence you'd like to read,

3 "Some of the witnesses who testified in this case have agreements

4 with the government whereby they may receive a lesser penalty at 5 sentencing if they provide substantial assistance"?

6 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.

7 THE COURT: I don't know if you brought that out in

8 cross. Certainly they admitted they had pled guilty to various 9 crimes.

10 MR. WEHNER: I'm referring -- the example I can recall

11 doing it on, Judge, was the individual who is going to be

12 sentenced October 15, and I can't remember who that was, but you

13 will recall there was a series of questions regarding who was

14 going to determine whether or not he had cooperated with the 15 government as a part of his plea agreement.

16 Mr. O'Neill kindly reminded me that was

17 Mr. DeBartolomeis.

18 THE COURT: All right. Well, let me have the 19 government look at that, too, and I'll talk back with them in a

20 minute whether or not it's appropriate to amend that to just read

2 "cooperating witness' testimony," and then it would begin with

2 the third full sentence, "Some of the witnesses who testified in

2 this case have agreements with the government whereby they may

2 receive a lesser penalty at sentencing if they provide

2 substantial assistance," et cetera, and that would have to amend

3362

1 the last sentence of that instruction on the following page, at 2 least on my draft now. It would have to be deleted. All right,

3 I'll come back to that one then.

4 We have immunized witness testimony next, and the other

5 ones are standard that we've already reviewed until we get to

6 just before -- on my new draft 15, I don't have the page of my

7 old draft, just before we started talking about conspiracy, I put

8 in a standard instruction, I just missed before, and that is that

9 there are multiple counts and that each one is a separate offense

10 and you have to consider each one separately and return a

11 separate verdict for each. It's a standard instruction.

CO

I 12 All right, then as we get to the conspiracy

13 instructions, after Count 3, the discussion of Count 3 and

14 conspiracy and just before the statute is set forth, the 15 government had requested a review by the Court of whether or not

16 the fair share restrictions being removed was appropriately

17 phrased.

18 I've changed it somewhat as follows: "Congress'

19 decision to remove the fair share restrictions on the Mod Rehab

20 Program made the program more discretionary. However, the Mod

2 Rehab Program continued to be governed by HUD rules, regulations,

2 and standards of conduct." I think that satisfies the concerns

2 on each side.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

2 I believe the others were no changes in, except I have
2 added in the perjury fourth element, which is roughly around page

3363

1 33, 34, the standard, the instruction suggested by the 2 Modern Federal Jury Instructions. Siffert and Sand, that we
3 discussed yesterday, and I've left it as it reads over objection
4 of the defendant as to the second paragraph concerning the 5 circumstantial evidence and the circumstances shown by the 6 evidence to infer the defendant's state of mind. But I have put 7 that entire instruction in.

8 Finally, I've changed the exhibit instruction. It
9 simply reads, "I am sending all the exhibits which have been 10 received in evidence as you retire for your deliberations." It
11 has a typo. It should read, "I am sending back all the exhibits 12 which have been received in evidence with you as you retire for 13 your deliberations. You may examine any and all of the exhibits
14 during your deliberations. This includes a tape recording that 15 was played. If you wish to listen to the tape recording, please 16 advise the marshal."

17 And I have stricken the partial verdict instruction.

18 All right. Either Ms. Sweeney or Mr. O'Neill, have you
19 looked at this accomplice's instruction? I think the defendant
20 may be right on that. I'm not sure we had anyone that came along
2 directly as an accomplice, unless you referred to those
2 cooperating witnesses who had immunity, but they, they didn't
2 plead to anything or anything, the immunized witnesses.

2 I think you may be right, it may be there would be just
2 some witnesses who have received plea agreements, and you can

3364

1 weigh what effect that may or may not have on their testimony.
2 And I don't know how many had plea agreements that testified. I
3 know DeBartolomeis and -- wasn't it three?

4 MS. SWEENEY: DeBartolomeis, Winn, Demery, those were 5 the three, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Yes. All right, I'm going to correct to 7 reflect the change on that accomplice testimony in fairness to 8 the defendant on that one.

9 Is Juror 7 here?

10 THE DEPUTY MARSHAL: Yes, Your Honor.

11 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, may I be heard on just one
12 matter?

13 THE COURT: Ms. Sweeney, sure.

14 All right, let me instruct counsel my clerk pointed out
15 and I had forgotten I had also amended under conspiracy to 16 defraud the United States, it's my new 21. It's under the first 17 element, after a general approach in the conspiracy instructions, 18 an important phrase. Under "Conspiracy to Defraud the United 19 States," if you go to the second full paragraph concerning the 20 term "defrauded," it begins with, "Rather, for the United States
2 to be defrauded, it is not necessary that the government be 2 subjected to the loss of money or property; it is enough that the 2 conspirators agreed to defeat the government's legitimate
2 official action and purpose by deceit, craft, trickery, or means
2 that are dishonest."

3365

1 I added, "It is not enough, however, that guidelines
2 regulations, or standards of conduct may not have been followed.
3 The government must prove beyond a reasonable doubt that there
4 was a dishonest, deceitful, or fraudulent purpose." And then I

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
5 added, "The government has not alleged that there was any
6 monetary loss to the government as a result of the defendant's
7 activities. There are no allegations that the projects that 8 received funding were improper or contrary to HUD regulations."
9 we discussed that yesterday, and the government wanted
10 to add in again it's not necessary that the government be subject
11 to the loss of money or property. I just said that about 12 three -- two sentences prior to that, so I didn't put it back in 13 again.
14 But I did want to put in that was a request that we had 15 earlier about the guidelines or the standards of conduct. They 16 can be evidence, obviously, of misconduct of a criminal nature,
17 but not solely you'd have to have criminal intent.
18 All right, Ms. Sweeney, let me get back to you.
19 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, if I understood Your Honor
20 correctly, you have decided not to give the three supplemental
2 instructions we asked for on the credibility of the defendant?
2 THE COURT: I gave two out of the three in somewhat
2 different language.
2 MS. SWEENEY: The one paragraph that I was concerned
2 about and that I wanted to bring to Your Honor's attention -

3366

1 THE COURT: All right.
2 MS. SWEENEY: -
was the second paragraph on page 2 of 3 the supplemental instructions that we, that we requested
4 yesterday, submitted yesterday: "If a person is shown knowingly
5 to have testified falsely concerning any important or material
6 matter, you obviously have a right to distrust the testimony of 7 such an individual concerning other matters."
8 THE COURT: That's the false in one, false in all
9 instruction?
10 MS. SWEENEY: Yes. I know that there's some latin,
11 Your Honor, but I wasn't going to attempt it.
12 THE COURT: I know it's falses in uno is what it's 13 called. All right. The falses in uno in the earlier Criminal 14 Standard Jury Instructions of D.C., Instruction 2.12, reads, "If 15 you believe that any witness - here you're saying the 16 defendant -
has willfully testified falsely with respect to any 17 material fact about which the witness could not reasonably be 18 mistaken, then you may, if you deem it fit to do so, disregard
19 all or any part of the testimony of that witness, or you may 20 accept such portion of his testimony as you find worthy of 2 belief."
2 Let me check the new book. The old book has a comment
2 that this entire instruction is in brackets because it no longer
2 can be given in the Superior Court of the District of Columbia as 2 it being improper. There's a Superior Court of Appeals case on 3367

1 that. "Even in the United States District Court, this
2 instruction, in the committee's view, should be given only within 3 the considered discretion of the trial judge; it clearly is not
4 mandated. And then they have listed some cases that have called 5 it into question, but other cases have not.
6 All right, the new version, called the Criminal Jury

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
7 Instructions for the District of Columbia. Fourth Edition, that 8 was just published, has deleted any instruction, also indicating 9 its use is now questioned by the United States Court of Appeals
10 in the D.C. Circuit.
11 I will not give that additional instruction. I've 12 already put in the defendant as a witness and the character and 13 reputation evidence of the defendant.
14 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor. And just for the 15 record, we would continue to note our objection to the 16 discretionary language.
17 THE COURT: All right. I think I hopefully have 18 modified that so it reads correctly our understanding as to the 19 evidence. All right.
20 Mr. O'Neill, are you going to go first, or Ms. Sweeney?
2 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Your Honor.
2 THE COURT: You're going to argue? All right.
2 How do you want to do the timing? If Mr. O'Neill takes
2 until noon or shortly after noon, do you want to break for lunch,
2 or do you want to come right back and start your closing?

1 MR. O'NEILL: We had just discussed that.
2 THE COURT: All right.
3 MR. WEHNER: We had just discussed that, Judge. I'd 4 rather break for lunch, because I don't want to split my closing,
5 and then come back and do my closing and Mr. O'Neill's rebuttal.
6 THE COURT: All right. We may end up instructing
7 tomorrow morning then. We're starting a little late this morning
8 because our juror was late. All right.
9 MR. WEHNER: Judge, can I inquire one more matter
10 before the jury comes in?
11 THE COURT: Yes, certainly.
12 MR. WEHNER: I take it from the fact that Your Honor is 13 going forward that you're deferring ruling on the -
14 THE COURT: I said I had taken those under advisement
15 yesterday, and the government is going to file a responsive
16 pleading on all issues, the statute of limitations and the 17 motions under Rule 29 for judgment of acquittal.
18 MR. WEHNER: Okay. If that's the case, then just to be 19 sure that I'm not waiving anything pursuant to the jury
20 instructions, I would ask that Your Honor add one line, that the 2 jury must find that, however the Court wants to phrase it, the
2 Kitchin transaction or whatever, occurred prior to April 28,
2 1987, which was the date the initial indictment was returned,
2 because if they would find, for example, that the check fell
2 outside the statute and that that completed the transaction, I think that that would compel -- as an affirmative defense, would compel a not guilty finding, and I don't want to be in a position

3 where the jury has not considered that factual dispute during 4 their deliberations.
5 I realize it's a two-edged sword, frankly, but . . .
6 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Sweeney?
7 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, I understand what Mr. Wehner
8 is arguing, but I do believe that that would be a legal matter as 9 to whether or not it's sufficient that the government has said
10 "sought or accepted or received or demanded," that the time that 35
12 is going to be controlled is going to be a legal matter for Your Honor, and the same with whether or not the date that controls is

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
13 the deposit of the check, the payment of the check by the bank on 14 which it's drawn.
15 THE COURT: Right, exactly. That's what we discussed
16
17
18 19 20 yesterday -MS.

SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: -

whether it's the receipt or it has to be the actions of just writing the check, when it was written.

MS. SWEENEY: Yes.

2
2

THE COURT: All right. I'm going to deny the defendant's request for a specific factual finding by the jury by a special interrogatory. I think that's what the defendant is asking for, a special verdict as to when this check was written or action occurred at the time of the indictment of April 28,

3370

1 19-

of April 28. I do think it's a legal issue for the Court.

2 There's no question as to, in the factual scenario and Ms. Dean's
3 own testimony, as to when the check was negotiated.

4 All right, I'm going to amend the accomplice testimony-

5 instruction to read "the cooperating witnesses," and we'll name
6 those. Do we have the names of the immunized witnesses so that I
7 can just, when I have this retyped this morning, I can put this 8 in that have testified? Do you recall those?

9 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, I have a list. I just wanted

10 to double-check it against the record before I gave it to the 11 clerk perhaps at lunchtime.

12 THE COURT: You can just give it informally to the 13 clerk. That's no problem. All right, thank you.

14 All right, you can bring the jury in then.

15 THE DEPUTY MARSHAL: Yes, Your Honor.

16 (Jury in.)

17 THE COURT: All right, Ladies and Gentlemen, we're
18 ready to proceed. Good morning.

19 THE JURORS: Good morning.

20 THE COURT: I'm glad you got here.

2 Ladies and Gentlemen, as I mentioned to you yesterday,
2 we're at the stage of the case now for summation, or closing
2 argument by counsel. This is a very important stage of the case.
2 While what counsel say to you is not evidence in the case unless
2 they refer to a stipulation by the parties, what they say to you

3371

1 today in argument is very important, and you should pay close
2 attention to it.

3 The argument will proceed as follows: The government
4 will argue first, Mr. O'Neill. His argument will take a while, I
5 suspect to lunchtime, and then we'll probably take a break for 6 lunch rather than go right forward with the closing arguments of
7 Mr. Wehner.

8 After the government's closing argument, then

9 Mr. Wehner will argue to you on behalf of Ms. Dean, and after he

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
10 has completed his argument, the government has an opportunity for 11 a short rebuttal argument. The government goes first and 12 finishes last because they have the burden of proof beyond a 13 reasonable doubt of all the elements of each of the offenses
14 charged.
15 So, Ladies and Gentlemen, with that in mind, I'm going
16 to now defer to Mr. O'Neill for his closing argument.
17 MR. O'NEILL: Thank you, Your Honor.
18 CLOSING ARGUMENT
19 BY MR. O'NEILL:
20 AS I said in opening statement, Ladies and Gentlemen,
21 this case is about power and how it can corrupt. It is about a
22 public official using her public office for her private gain. It
23 is about looking out for yourself and not others.
24 Instead of looking out for the interests of people who 25 needed public housing, of families with low income, defendant

3372

1 looked out for her own family and her own interests, and then
2 when confronted with what had happened, when it was going to be
3 revealed, she lied about it.
4 May it please the Court, Judge Hogan, counsel, Ladies
5 and Gentlemen of the Jury. AS I told you in opening statements,
6 there are only two times when I can speak to you. One was 7 opening statement; one is closing argument, so this is the second
8 time. I'd now like to say good morning.
9 THE JURORS: Good morning.
10 MR. O'NEILL: I'd like to thank you, Ladies and 11 Gentlemen, for your attention you've shown throughout the course
12 of this trial, and I'd like to thank you on behalf of the defense
13 and for the Court. We recognize that it was a long trial. It's 14 a lengthy trial. Sometimes there's delays, lots of documents,
15 which sometimes are very hard to follow, and they make for a
16 long, long trial. You've been attentive, and we've appreciated
17 that, because it's very important that you listen to the evidence
18 and that you render a verdict dispassionately based on that
19 evidence.
20 The government made certain statements in opening
2 statement to you, and you remember that a few weeks back. The 2 government has proven each and every statement that was made in 2 that opening statement.
2 I'd like to bring your attention back to a chart that
2 we used, and we used that very early on during the opening

3373

1 statement. And you'll recall that as I pull it out, it was a
2 breakdown of the various charges in this case. And there are 3 twelve charges in this case of which the defendant is accused,
4 and we went over those, and the evidence that was brought forth
5 by the government was to detail these charges, and you'll see 6 what they are.
7 Count 1 was a conspiracy. It's an unlawful agreement.
8 His Honor will instruct you on the law after myself and 9 Mr. Wehner have a chance to argue what this case is about, and we 10 will tell you a conspiracy is an unlawful agreement. That is 11 what it is. It's a partnership in crime.
CO
3 12 You'll notice there are three separate conspiracies,
13 and you'll recall what those were. Conspiracy 1, that's where 14 the defendant was dealing with John Mitchell, someone she 15 considered very close to her, almost like a father; Louie Nunn;
16 Jack Brennan,- Richard Shelby. Count 2, conspiracy, she's dealing 17 with Andrew Sankin, Thomas Broussard, once again Richard Shelby.
18 Count 3, Louis Kitchin.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

19 And remember, that was the natural lead-in to Count 4, 20 the $4,000 check that we'll talk very much about. That's an 2 illegal payment, or what's called a gratuity. His Honor will 2 instruct you on that.
2 And then the rest are the various perjury and
2 concealment charges, the lies, the cover-up. Remember, Counts 5
2 and 6, that the information on funding decisions goes solely on

3374

1 information provided by the assistant secretary for Housing.
2 We've proven that's false. "I have never given or approved or 3 pushed or coerced anyone to help any developer. It's a
4 tremendous waste of time." Again, we've proven it is false.
5 Baltimore Uplift: "I've never heard of Baltimore
6 Uplift One." I'm sorry if you can't see it. "But I've never 7 heard of Baltimore Uplift One."
8 And then finally, "As a matter of fact, no moderate
9 rehabilitation units that I know of, unless they were sent 10 directly by the secretary, have ever gone to my home state of 11 Maryland simply for that reason -- that I sat on the panel."
12 Again, that was false.
13 And I will go charge by charge, Ladies and Gentlemen,
14 but that is what the government proved in this case, and you
15 heard from an assortment of witnesses about what the government
16 proved.
17 The defendant has also presented evidence in this case
18 You heard from the defendant herself, and she testified for 19 several days. There are two completely different stories that 20 you heard, the government's on one side and the defendant's on 2 the other, and this is a kind of case where the two can't be 2 reconciled. It's one or the other. They are totally 2 inconsistent.
2 You are the judges of the facts. His Honor will 2 instruct you on that. It is your determination which story is 3375

1 credible, is believable. His Honor tells you the law. You take
2 that law and apply it to the facts that you've heard at this 3 trial, during this trial. As the evidence in this case has 4 shown, only one version can be credible. Only one you will find 5 believable.
6 You might remember during the opening statement I said
7 what a jury brings more than anything else to this courtroom is 8 your common sense and your good judgment. Each of you are 9 regular people, who live everyday lives, deal with everything
10 that goes on in regular lives. You know how to assess the 11 credibility of witnesses. You know how to listen to the 12 evidence. You know when someone's telling you the truth, and you 13 know when someone's not telling you the truth. That's as you sit 14 there.
15 And they also say about a jury each person has their 16 own individual experiences in their lives, but together the 17 twelve jurors, the collective whole is greater than each part,
18 because all of your experiences then are put together during your 19 deliberations, and through them, the jury makes its decisions,
20 and that's why it's important that you work together in a team
2 concept and decide what the facts are in a particular case.

1 And I think a great example of that would be
2 Government's Exhibit 28, and you might recall that's a letter
3 from the defendant to John Mitchell --to Louie Nunn, excuse me,
4 at John Mitchell's place of business. And you might recall it's 5 dated July 5, 1984, and the importance of this -- and remember,
6 you admit what you can't deny; you deny what you can't admit.
7 She has to tell you she wrote this letter. She cannot deny that.
8 It's here. You'll see it.
9 But instead -- and she writes in this, "This confirms 10 my conversation with General Mitchell," again, that she spoke to 11 him about the project - and that let me assure you that all the 12 units will go to Arama.
13 She has to admit that. It's in black-and-white, as I
14 said during opening. But how does she deny it? Because that 15 document in and of itself shows she's dealing with John Mitchell
16 on Arama. She's assuring a set number of units. So how do you
17 deny that?
18 You say, "well, I got that information from someone
19 else." So you go outside of the document. You say, "Maurice 20 Barksdale told me that."
2 Now Maurice Barksdale didn't testify here that he told
2 her that, but that's what you say. You go around it, because you
2 cannot deny what's in black-and-white, what's on these documents,
2 written before this trial ever started. And in fact, it's
2 written in 1984.

3377

1 The government's case was built brick by brick. It's
2 like a house. You've got to start with a strong foundation, so
3 what do you do? You put the witnesses on from HUD. You explain
4 what the program is, the Moderate Rehabilitation Program. People
5 very early on, people like Chris Greer and Madeline Hastings,
6 they came on, they explained what this case was. They explained
7 what moderate rehabilitation was all about.
8 Then you heard from the people on the inside, the 9 assistant secretaries, Maurice Barksdale, Janet Hale. You heard
10 from people who worked with them like Susan Zagame.
11 All of those witnesses told a story. And they told you
3)
3 12 what transpired at the Department of Housing and Urban 13 Development from the years 1984 through 1987.
14 That's the evidence that was presented brick by brick,
15 and that's how you build a case. You must make it strong so that 16 it withstands scrutiny, so that it withstands your scrutiny, so
17 that it makes sense, that it passes your judgment.
18 defendant's case is not built the same way. It the problem, Ladies and Gentlemen.

3378

1 How do you believe it?
2 You remember during opening statement, I said this is a
3 white collar crime, and in that respect, it's very different than 4 what we encounter in our day-to-day lives. We all know about 5 street crime. And it's just the emphasis is different.
6 You have a burglar. How does somebody get caught under 7 burglary? well, somebody might see him, you call the cops, the 8 cops respond, the person is arrested. Well, if there is a trial,
9 there are eyewitnesses. It's that person who saw it who says,
10 "Yes, that's the person I saw coming out of that apartment."
11 That's how you prove it.
12 The same with car-jacking. Somebody sees somebody take 13 the car, they have a gun, they call in. The police arrest him,
14 they identify him, the eyewitness testifies.
15 In a white collar case, it's very different, because it
16 depends on the position of the person. What renders it
17 different, it's a person who has a position of authority, a 18 position of trust, such as this, executive assistant at the 19 Department of Housing and Urban Development, and abuses that 20 trust, misuses that position.
2 How do you show that? well, we did have witnesses, but
2 the problem with witnesses is you're never quite sure very often
2 totally what they're saying, so you use documents, and the 2 documents are made back in 1984, '85, '86, and '87, and those
2 documents established what was going on. The documents keep

3379

1 people honest. It's very difficult to go somewhere different
2 with your story when the documents are there.
3 This is a classic case of a government not working for 4 all of us. Our government is to be we the people, by the people,
5 for the people, not for certain people, not for prominent,
6 powerful people, but for all of us.
7 And the problem in a white collar crime is when you
8 have the public official not working for all of us, it undermines
9 our faith in our government, and we see what really happens
10 sometimes, not the way it's supposed to operate, and we see a 11 public official working to help certain people, friends and 12 family, because it benefits that public official, not helping all 13 of us, and as you heard from Melvin Adams, the ex-director of the 14 Dade County Housing Authority, what happens is the local 15 priorities get pushed under, because you do whatever you can to 16 get those units, and in this case, the units would only go to 17 people who knew the defendant.
18 A public official cannot serve two masters. There is 19 no way to do that. If you work for the United States government, 20 you must have, the undivided loyalty of that employee must be
2 devoted to the United States. There is no other way. That 2 person works for all of us. We pay that person's salary. They 2 must work on all of your behalf, not just the people that they
2 want to work for.
2 What is the government's case, Ladies and Gentlemen?

3380

1 what has the government proved here? I would like to show you
2 charts and utilize those charts to show you exactly what the 3 government has proved, and I hope everyone can see it from where 4 they're seated, and if not, please let me know.
5 Count 1 -
let me move it down just a little. Count 1, 6 what has the government proved in Count 1? You remember this was 7 very early on in the trial. We started in Miami with a developer

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
8 by the name of Aristides Martinez. Mr. Martinez wanted to get 9 mod rehab units, and he was asked, "why didn't you just get them
10 from the public housing authority?" and he told you you can't get 11 what they don't have. They couldn't give it to him.

n
35

3 12 As Sherrill Nettles-Hawkins told you, the PHAs became a 13 ghost entity. They were no longer involved in the equation that 14 we talked about where a developer would go to a local public 15 housing authority, the local public housing authority would go to 16 the area office, the region, the headquarters, and the money
17 would filter down. The reason it was set up that way, as 18 Madeline Hastings testified, who designed the program, was 19 because of the need to set priorities in an area.
20 Every area has those. Is there a problem? Is there a
2 crack street you want to close up? Is there a particular
2 apartment building that's really troublesome, and if you
2 rehabilitate that apartment building, the entire street or
2 neighborhood will benefit?
2 None of those things could happen anymore, because the 3381

1 developers, wherever their property was, would hire prominent,
2 powerful people, and they displaced the local public housing
3 authority.
4 How could a smaller developer hire these powerful
5 people? How could they pay that amount of money? Because as 6 you'll get into on Arama, Mr. Martinez paid $425,000 just to hire
7 a consultant to get him the mod rehab units. How could a small 8 developer do that?
9 You'll remember what Mr. Mel Adams said: "There were 10 lots of things that we tried to do: encourage minority
11 developers to associate with them, encourage the local priorities
12 to be set and followed, but you can't do that if these monies
13 have to be paid and you have to know certain people."
14 So we have Arama. We have Art Martinez using Louie
15 Nunn, the ex-governor of the State of Kentucky. And remember his 16 testimony, Ladies and Gentlemen? Do you remember how hard he had 17 and what a difficult time he had explaining what he got paid for?
18 He kept saying, "I was hired to advise and to ensure there were 19 no problems."
20 "well, were there any problems?"
2 "No, I don't remember any problems."
2 He couldn't even explain to you what he had done for 2 that money other than to contact John Mitchell, who then
2 contacted someone in headquarters.
2 And then again on South Florida the same way: He 3382

1 contacts Jack Brennan, who then contacts someone in HUD
2 headquarters.
3 Mr. Martinez paid 425,000. Now we'll go into it again
4 later on, but you've heard a lot about, well, local politicians
5 backed these projects, and that's what it was. It was political.
6 well, if a local politician backed it, why didn't 7 Martinez get him to write a letter and save $425,000 that he had 8 to shell out? Because of course, local politicians send letters.
9 They do that all the time. The question is are they worth
10 anything? Mr. Martinez apparently didn't think so. He had to 11 pay $425,000 in order to get it.

CO

3 12 And how was that money split up? Well, we know 75,000
13 of it went to John Mitchell. What did John Mitchell do? He 14 spoke with the defendant, Deborah Gore Dean, as we saw in that

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

15 letter. That's what happened.
16 Arama gets funded. We've seen the letter. The letter
17 is dated July 5, 1984, and Ms. Dean unequivocally states in that 18 letter, she writes, "I've spoken with General Mitchell about the 19 Arama partnership."
20 You heard her on the stand try to fall back from that,
2 but how can you change that? She spoke to him. She writes it.
2 These documents, Ladies and Gentlemen, come from HUD.
2 We can't make them up out of whole cloth. We subpoena them, we
2 get those. It's in her handwriting. She stipulated that's her
2 signature at the bottom of it. It's her document.

3383

The purpose of this gives you a sort of timetable, chronology of what transpires on the various projects. And 3 'you'll note how Martinez contacts Nunn at Mitchell's business

4 address. Again, you see that on the letter. We know Ms. Dean
5 iworked at Global Research. She knows what that business is. She 6 iuses it as a reference, and she worked there. She worked for
7 |Mr. Mitchell for a while. She knows what that is.

You see a consulting contract between Martinez and

9 'Nunn, and you've seen all of that go into evidence, the hundreds 10 -of thousands of dollars, all of the checks going back and forth.
11 ' Martinez asks Nunn to get 293 units. We showed you the 12 notes from John Mitchell. Eventually the fee is increased. It's 13 ;increased an additional $50,000. You were able to see those 14 >documents as they went into evidence.

15 And here we go to that letter, July 5 of 1984. She 16 tells Nunn at Mitchell's business address that Arama will 17 definitely get the units. She assures him and then says, "I hope 18 your partnership will be a viable venture." Could it be any 19 clearer that she's dealing with John Mitchell?
20 On the very next day, you might recall Governor Nunn
21 writes a letter back, and he writes a letter to Art Martinez and 22 said, "It has been read to me from my Washington office that we 23 will definitely get 293 units." Mr. Martinez wants to know that.
24 He shelled out $425,000. He wants to get going. He told you
25 about that, about being a developer with joint ventures, you have

3384

1 to lock in certain things. $425,000.
2 Do you think for a moment he would have spent that
3 money if he wasn't going to get those units? Think about what
4 would happen if he doesn't get those units. He just lost
5 $425,000 for nothing. Obviously, he's paid $425,000 to hire
6 somebody with influence, somebody with connections in Washington,
7 somebody who knows the right people, an ex-governor and an 8 ex-attorney general of the United States, and they know the 9 defendant, Deborah Gore Dean.
10 You will hear testimony that other people might have 11 been involved in this. The government doesn't have a problem 12 with that. There might be other people. We already know that

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

13 Mr. Philip Wynn, who testified, had done illegal things. He's 14 pled guilty. We know Silvio DeBartolomeis did illegal things.
15 He's pled guilty. We know Thomas Demery did illegal things. He 16 pled guilty.
17 We know there were other people committing crimes at 18 HUD during this time frame, but that's not what this case about, 19 and that should not be your focus. This case is whether the 20 defendant, Deborah Gore Dean, committed the crimes listed on 2 Chart No. 1 over there for which she is charged. That is your
2 focus in this particular case.
2 And it goes on. You'll note the 16th, a rapid reply
2 for 293 units to Metro Dade. All the witnesses told you that's
2 the first funding document. It doesn't get signed for another

3385

1 eleven days, and who signs it? Mr. Barksdale. He told you he
2 had no idea John Mitchell was involved in this project. He 3 didn't even know John Mitchell, never met John Mitchell, and 4 ultimately he left Washington because he was tired of putting up
5 with what was going on there.
6 And this is a very interesting date, July 18. You saw
7 that document as well. Deborah Dean has a document
8 hand-delivered to Global Research. It is found in John 9 Mitchell's documents after his death, and it's a hand delivery, a 10 request for special service. I'm sure you'll remember that.
11 And the reason for that, the importance of that is 12 she's taken the time to have a HUD messenger or some messenger
13 service deliver this at HUD expense to John Mitchell. He has 14 asked for that. Why else would she be sending it to him?
15 They're communicating, he's asking about Arama. He wants to know
16 what's going on, because he stands to make $75,000 on it. He's 17 interested. That's what's going on in Arama.
18 Look at this: The HUD Atlanta office on the 27th of 19 July is notified that 293 units are going to Metro Dade. That's 20 over 20 days after Deborah Dean personally notifies Louie Nunn
2 that they will get them units. Is that the way our government is 2 supposed to operate, Ladies and Gentlemen?
2 You heard Maurice Barksdale talk about that. He'd 2 never seen that happen before. That was a very odd letter. He 2 doesn't know how that letter could have been written unless

3386

1 somebody knew something that he didn't know.
2 Now you start to see what was being paid. John
3 Mitchell received a little over $8,000. And when you see
4 Mitchell meeting Nunn, those are the calendar entries. You'll 5 have the opportunity when you deliberate on this case to go
6 through the documents. You can look at John Mitchell's calendar,
7 Deborah Dean's calendar, and they're in evidence, and they will
8 show what we've been saying with the various people.
9 Again, scheduled to meet, scheduled to meet. Martinez
10 puts 275,000 in escrow for Louie Nunn, $275,000. And Nunn pays 11 Mitchell $75,000 for Arama. He gets paid. We've seen the 12 checks. They've been placed in evidence.
13 Louie Nunn, John Mitchell, influence peddlers, people
14 who make their living selling influence to buyers, but they can't 15 sell that influence unless they have somebody on the inside,
16 because they don't have a product unless there is someone abusing
17 their position of trust within the United States government,
18 doing what these people are requesting, and that's the defendant.
19 South Florida I, again, as we saw with so many of these 20 documents, they just change slightly. South Florida I, you hear
2 from an individual by the name of Jack Brennan, John Mitchell's
2 business partner. He goes to see the defendant, Deborah Gore

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 Dean, on this project. He goes to see her at HUD. Now he
2 explains, "well, she's the only person I knew."
2 Louie Nunn later explains to you John Mitchell was out of the country. Does that make a little more sense to you,

3387

2 Ladies and Gentlemen, that John Mitchell is out of the country,
3 they want to get moving on South Florida I, so Jack Brennan goes
4 over there?
5 And we saw a government exhibit in which Art Martinez
6 writes a letter to Governor Nunn that 219 units should be sent,
7 and they carbon-copied Jack Brennan. In fact, Ms. Dean told you
8 he brought that letter when he went to see her.
9 Do you remember what we talked about earlier about 10 coded references? 219. Previously he's asked for 293; now he's 11 asking for 219. why the exact numbers? Because he's paying
CO
3 12 $425,000 the first time. He's paying 219,000 the second time.
13 If 275 units come down for another project, he's in hot water.
14 He's lost a lot of money.
15 He wants to make sure that he's getting those units,
16 and he wants to avoid any confusion as to whose proposal wins.
17 It's a given. There's no doubt who's going to get those units.
18 You've heard from the local PHA. Do you remember
19 Patricia Sharifi testified that Miami's got problems? Miami is a 20 city with a big, big influx from South America and Central 21 America. So they've got problems. They need units. They can't 22 get them on their own. They explained that, Mr. Adams explained
23 that and Ms. Sharifi.
24 So they were willing to play ball, they were willing to 25 go along with it. why? They wanted the units, and if the 3388

1 developers told them, "we can get the units if you do it our
2 way," "Hey, we'll do it."
3 That's what they told you. They were not impeached on 4 that. Nobody said that's not what's happened in Miami.
5 So when Art Martinez asked for 219 units and they're 6 funded, they're coming to him. So there is no gamble that he's 7 paying out $219,000 on this project on an off chance he's not
8 going to get them. It's definite. He's getting those units.
9 They're going to him. That's not a project-specific award? It's 10 going right to his project.
11 And you'll see on South Florida, as this shows what 12 happened. The defendant Deborah Gore Dean's own calendar
13 schedules a meeting with Brennan. You heard from Brennan. He 14 went to see her. The meeting took a couple minutes, he told you.
15 And another thing about influence peddling consultants:
16 we talk about consultants. There's nothing wrong with 17 consultants, you'll hear that. I expect even the Judge will 18 charge on that. we're not saying there's something wrong with a 19 consultant when they can, if somebody has a small business, maybe 20 they don't know how to do the bookkeeping, so you bring in a
2 consultant, he tells you how to do this, learn how to do this,
2 save you some time.
2 These aren't consultants that know anything about mod
2 rehab or housing. Jack Brennan told you he didn't know anything
2 about it, yet he stands to make $109,000 by simply meeting with

3389

1 the defendant once or twice. It's influence peddling. It's not
2 having some expertise that Mr. Martinez needed. The only thing

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

3 Mr. Martinez needed was someone at Washington to get him the 4 units, because he couldn't do it out of the local PHA up here on 5 the line that just disappeared, when he brings that letter, what
6 does Ms. Dean write on it? "Send to Housing." She stipulated
7 it's her handwriting.
8 She will tell you she just put it through normal
9 channels, but we know what normal channels were at that time.
10 She was the one making the decisions. She was the decision
11 maker. We'll know it from the handwritten list later. Of 12 course, it went through normal channels. She granted 219 units
13 to South Florida.
14 Martinez calls Nunn. Susan Zagame, remember she 15 testifies, she specifically writes on her handwritten notes which 16 are in evidence, which you'll have, "219 units," right next to it
17 and there's two allocations to South Florida, both 96 and 219,
18 it's written in, "Need letter."
19 They don't even have a letter yet from the local public
20 housing authority. Miami hasn't even asked for units yet,
2 because Miami is out of it. What's going on is it's these people
2 who know each other going around the process, going right up to
2 headquarters.
2 So what happens? Miami sends the letter, because as
2 Patricia Sharifi told you, the developer would say, "Hey, we need

3390

1 a letter. Send it up there quick." That's what they did.
2 You'll see on the 18th the defendant calls the HUD
3 funding control office, says, "No more changes to mod rehab," her
4 word on it, not Secretary Pierce's. We'll get into that later.
5 Mitchell's partner, Brennan, calls Nunn. Mitchell
6 schedules lunch with Dean. You'll see John Mitchell, Deborah 7 Dean, there's a couple entries on her calendar where they have 8 lunch together.
9 Martinez calls Nunn, checking on the status of the 10 project. You see that continues up until the time Nunn bills
11 Martinez for $219,000. That's what he's getting, $1,000 a unit.
12 Do you remember that testimony? You've heard it time and time
13 again. That's what they charged, $1,000 per unit. It's a pretty 14 important piece of commodity.
15 You see it goes down, Nunn sends $109,000 to Global 16 Research. We put those checks in evidence. You saw them. They 17 have had $109,000 for a couple-minute meeting with the defendant,
18 Deborah Gore Dean.
19 Mitchell gets $10,000 from Global two weeks later.
20 Right below that, you'll see Mitchell and Brennan each receive
2 $50,000 from Global Research for consulting.
2 Interestingly, you'll recall these phone conversations.
2 Shortly thereafter, the defendant, Deborah Gore Dean, calls
2 Governor Nunn. Why is she calling Nunn? Because at this stage,
2 she's up for the assistant secretary for Community Planning and 3391

1 Development, and she needs some help. She wants people to back
2 her.
3 So who does she reach out for? She reaches out for the 4 people she's helped, prominent, powerful people, people who's
5 word is a big deal here in Washington, D.C. politics, and now
6 it's the payback time. Now she calls on him. He will support
7 her.
8 And that is the connection between Louie Nunn, John 9 Mitchell, and defendant Deborah Gore Dean. All arrows lead to 10 her. She is the one controlling, directing the awarding of the
Page 1874

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

11 mod rehab unit. what does Governor Nunn make? $502,169 -
12 excuse me, $502,169.86. And he couldn't even explain to you what 13 he did. You'll remember his testimony on that. He couldn't tell
14 you anything.
15 Now you still have Park Towers, and Park Towers is 16 interesting, because that, too, is Miami, and you'll remember he 17 testified a long time ago, Martin Fine, the developer. Mr. Fine
18 is a prominent attorney in Miami and also well known in the 19 housing field, did many things in housing.
20 Mr. Fine puts an application in to local public housing
2 authority in mod rehab. He's not going anywhere with it. He's 2 not getting anything. why isn't he getting anything? Because 2 the local public housing authority has no power. Finally, Mel
2 Adams tells him that.
2 Even Mr. Fine, a prominent lawyer down there with a big 3392

1 housing background, can't get anything. He, too, must hire a
2 consultant. So he hires Eli Feinberg, somebody he knows. Well,
3 Feinberg is local. He needs somebody in D.C., so they hire
4 Richard Shelby.
5 Again, are they hiring a consultant on housing matters,
6 a guy familiar with housing and the housing industry and what the 7 Mod Rehab Program is? No, they're hiring a political consultant.
8 They're hiring an influence peddler, a guy who can go to the 9 right place, knock on the right doors, and get the right answers.
10 And why will they listen to him? Because he can do
11 something for them. It's a big you-scratch-my-back-I'll-scratch12 yours. That's what this is about. It's a little club, and if 13 you're not a member of the club, you're out of luck.
14 what happens? Shelby meets Mitchell for lunch. A 15 contract is put in, 150,000. what happens with that contract?
16 Does it stay at 150,000? No, we heard testimony it went up to 17 225,000. It's a valuable commodity. what's it for? It's for 18 142 units. Now the price has gone up. It's no longer $1,000 an 19 unit; it's closer to $2,000 an unit.
20 what do we see during this time? We have the defendant
2 congratulating Shelby on his new job. We have her scheduling
2 lunch with Shelby, actually meeting him for lunch, because 2 sometimes there was a lot of talk about whether it was actually
2 meeting for lunch or not.
2 well, the calendars can only tell you what was going to

3393

1 happen. We have the backup documentation such as on this one,
2 where it's an expense account with her name on it. Then we show
3 she actually met for lunch. who meets for lunch this time?
4 Shelby and Mitchell. The three of them are now meeting.
5 The very next day, he sends her information on Park
6 Towers. It's in evidence. Again, it's in black and white. It
7 can't be disputed. The defendant is saying, "I didn't know he 8 was working on these projects. He didn't ask me for anything."
9 It's in black and white. This is back in 1984, way before she 10 says he spoke with her.
11 And it goes on. Dean schedules a briefing with Shelby.
3)
3 12 Dean schedules a meeting with Shelby. She's constantly meeting
13 with him.
14 And you'll see a HUD rapid reply for 266 units. You
15 might remember that gets fax'd almost immediately to Mr. Fine
16 down in Miami. why? Because the contract called for a $45,000
17 payment to go out. That's what this case is about -- money,
18 Ladies and Gentlemen, and what people will do with money.
19 HUD Atlanta is notified 266 units. This is after Rick

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
20 Shelby knows. This is after Martin Fine has found out. The HUD
2 people don't learn until days later. That's how the system has 2 been perverted by these individuals, prominent people in this
2 little circle.
2 Again we see another luncheon date and payment of 2 $45,000.

3394

1 MR. O'NEILL: Again, this correspondence going
2 back and forth. Dean, Shelby, all of this coming back
3 and forth at this timeframe. Shelby's employer paid him
4 $10,000. He gets some up-front money already. We're
5 going to find out he gets $50,000 on Park Towers.
6 Mr. Shelby said he got nothing on Park Towers.
7 Absolutely nothing. Yet he gets 50,000. Why, ladies
8 and gentlemen? It's for access to the defendant Deborah
9 Gore Dean.

10 And you'll see how it keeps going. Continuing 11 meetings on the Park Towers project, and I won't even 12 comment, you'll see there's just a lot of entries.
13 Mitchell meeting with Rick Shelby. Again, Dean, Shelby
14 scheduled to have lunch. Once again they're going to 15 have a meeting.
16 Now, you'll see, Shelby send a telegram. You
17 saw that telegram. When the defendant wants something 18 she reaches out to Richard Shelby, to Louie Nunn, to 19 Louis Kitchin. Because she's reaching out to people
20 that can help her now. She's helped them. They'll help
2 her. They'll get her her job as Assistant Secretary.
2 They sent something to the white House. Can
2 an average person do this, send something to the white
2 House and it will be listened to? It's got to be
2 prominent people, people that the white House will

3395

1 listen to.

2 You heard Jack Brennan. On his own he called

3 up some individual named Ken Duberstein to find out

4 what's going on with the nomination. They can call the 5 white House. They can find out what's going on.

6 They're important people.

7 Again, all the meetings back and forth.

8 Shelby thanking Dean for the time we spent over the last

9 few years.

10 Then you have Fine paying $250,000 to Shelby.
11 And Richard Shelby, Eli Feinberg and the Keefe Company
12 getting $175,000 for one project, and John Mitchell on 13 the projects with Mr. Martinez and the project with 14 Martin Fine made $242,000 and some odd amount of money
15 and all because they knew the defendant Deborah Gore
16 Dean.

17 what does she get out of this? John Mitchell
18 is like a father to her. He is as close as he comes.
19 Later on, in her testimony she says, well, I didn't
20 really become close to him until after I left HUD.
2 Ask yourselves, ladies and gentlemen, when you

2 go over that, is that credible? When she's writing
2 letters to him in 1983 saying Dear Daddy? Would you be
2 calling somebody Daddy if you're not close to him?
2 She told you that he was her mentor. He was 3396

1 her brother's mentor.

2 But the story keeps changing. It changes on

3 what question you ask. But there is no doubt in these

4 documents, documents written in 1983, that's her dad,

5 and that's what she's calling him.

6 Later on when confronted on the stand, I

7 wasn't close to him at that time.

8 That's what she's getting out of this. John

9 Mitchell, who is very close in a family relationship to 10 her practically, is making money and, as she told you,

11 he was not doing all that well. He had problems. He was 12 financially in very bad shape. Well, that $242,000, I
13 think he was doing pretty good. That's what count one 14 is.

15 Count one is the situation in which these 16 individuals made a lot of money through their 17 relationship with the defendant Deborah Gore Dean, lots,
18 lots of money.

19 I'd like to go on to two count.

20 Count two, ladies and gentlemen. What do we
2 have on count two?

2 Again, the scenario is almost exactly the

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 same. Names change, projects change, but what occurred
2 is almost exactly the same.
2 Now you have a different individual, Andrew

3397

1 Sankin.
2 You heard the defendant describe that Andrew
3 Sankin was not like a friend to her. That he really 4 didn't do too much with her. Well, that's belied by the 5 documents, the repeated entries in her calendars. The 6 fact that he was working for her on Stanley Arms. The 7 fact that she stated on the witness stand he was on the 8 family payroll.
9 That's why she asked him to do one legal

10 matter. Do you remember that? She said I figured as 11 long as he was on the family payroll I might as well ask 12 him to do that. Well, if he's on the family payroll how 13 is she directing projects towards him? That is self 14 dealing. They aren't interested in these projects. And 15 you didn't hear any of these people, going back to count
16 one for a second, that went down and checked out where 17 Park Towers was, where South Florida One was, where 18 Arama was. Who that was benefiting? How that was 19 helping the neighborhood? There was no testimony as to 20 that, because it didn't exist. They had never seen
2 these projects, Jack Brennan said. He never went down
2 to Florida. He had no idea where these projects were.
2 He was interested in making money on his connections and
2 then getting out of it.
2 This one starts, as you recall, with John

3398

1 Rosenthal. John Rosenthal was the developer from 2 Pennsylvania. John Rosenthal was looking to get
3 exception rents for the Necho Allen hotel.
4 what did he do? He applied to HUD. You'll 5 see that in the documents. What happened when he
6 applied to HUD? He was turned down. Turned down. So
7 what does he do? He applies again. He's turned down
8 again. Twice Mr. Rosenthal is turned down.
9 why is he turned down? HUD made a decision.

10 So what does he do? He hires Andrew Sankin.
11 He hires a consultant. A person connected to the 12 defendant Deborah Gore Dean. He agrees to pay him
13 10,000 if he can get the exception rents. And a meeting
14 is set up.
15 Again, you remember from the testimony,
16 Miss Dean admits there's a meeting. She must. It's in 17 black and white again. She says, well, there were other 18 people there. Other people were involved.
19 well, John Rosenthal didn't get this meeting
20 before he hired Andrew Sankin. And you'll hear again
2 with John Rosenthal that Senators in Pennsylvania wrote
2 letters saying hey, it would be nice if Mod Rehab units

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 go for this particular project. Well, some of those
2 letters are written way before Andrew Sankin gets in the 2 picture. He didn't get the Mod Rehab units until he 3399

1 hired someone who had the influence, the ability to get
2 to the defendant Deborah Gore Dean.
3 And remember, Andrew Sankin, that guy just got 4 out of school. Just gets out of school. And look at 5 the kind of money he's making.
6 And you remember, when he testified, Miss Dean
7 made much of the fact that he must have drank six
8 gallons of water. Did he look nervous to you up there?
9 He kept drinking and drinking. He asked Joe to get him

10 another drink of water. The guy kept drinking. He was 11 so nervous up there.
12 How does he justify getting out of school and 13 making $229,000 for doing nothing?
14 And you heard people like Tom Broussard saying 15 they've got to cover for this guy. He's talking to 16 developers on their plane rides. He doesn't know what 17 he's doing. And he's making this kind of cash. It's 18 really unbelievable.
19 So what happens? Andy Sankin gets
20 John Rosenthal in to see Deborah Dean. Bang. Exception
2 rents. They'll say Secretary Pierce signed off on them.
2 Secretary Pierce didn't sign off on them. The autopen
2 was used. Again, you only have her word that Secretary
2 Pierce authorized the signature. It was not his
2 signature. It's an autopen.

3400

1 Regent Street. What happens on Regent
2 Street? John Rosenthal wants 26 units. He gets 13 and

3 13. How does he go about that? The documents with 4 regard to John Rosenthal couldn't speak any louder, no
5 matter what would happen. On this project he writes to 6 Andrew Sankin. What does he say to him? I want 26
7 units. "I would very much appreciate the opportunity to 8 meet with Deborah and get a feeling for the lay of the 9 land and get her advice as to what specifically we 10 should be doing in this connection." Is there any doubt 11 who John Rosenthal is dealing with, and who is the 12 consultant that he's using? It's Andrew Sankin.
13 Is there any doubt that Deborah Dean knows
14 that he's dealing with Andrew Sankin? This is on Necho 15 Allen. "Dear Deborah, Andrew has informed me of the very 16 good news." He's talking about Andrew Sankin. That's 17 what he's doing. He's hired somebody, someone with 18 influence to get him what he needs as a developer. He 19 can't get it on his own.
20 The Secretary - Senators might be writing all
21 the letters they want, it's not helping him. He needs
22 to get into the door. He has to pay someone to get into 23 the door.

24 That's not the way our Government is supposed
25 to operate. It's supposed to be for all of us.

3401

1 Look at the defendant, she is writing back to 2 John Rosenthal, "Please excuse the tardy reply. I was
3 under the impression that we had resolved your question
4 when we last met. I know that on several occasions Andy
5 Sankin has broached the subject of Mod Rehab units for 6 Pennrose Properties with the Department." How does she 7 know that unless he talked to her?
8 On the stand you've got a different story,
9 totally different story, but not in black and white, not 10 in the documents. They speak for themselves.

11 He's dealing with her. That's how he's making
12 his money.
13 And does John Rosenthal get his units? Yes,
14 he does for Regent Street. Does Andy Sankin make 15 money? Absolutely. And still, as I said in opening, 16 he's still making small amounts. He got $10,000 for 17 Necho Allen. He gets $11,000 for Regent Street.
18 Now we get to Alameda Towers, and Alameda
19 Towers, as I told you in the opening statement, is when 20 it really starts to change.
21 Andy Sankin and Tom Broussard tell you that 22 they get 150 units and then they go shop around for 23 these 150 units. They look for a buyer. And probably 24 the most honest person that's testified at this trial
25 was a Mr. James Wilson. And you might remember, he was 3402

1 a very brief witness, but he's the guy who Broussard
2 came to and said I've got 150 units for you. Actually
3 he told him 300 units. And he wants a joint venture.
4 Not only does he want to be paid $1000 per unit, he
5 wants 50 percent of the development that Mr. Wilson
6 has.
7 Mr. Wilson, a big businessman, says, well, I
8 want to know the deal. Where did you get those, how did
9 you get those? And he says it's none of your business,

10 and Mr. Wilson says, hey, if I'm going to do business
11 with you I want to know how you get them. And Broussard
12 doesn't tell him. He said he's just got an in. What 13 does that say? He knows he's got a valuable commodity.
14 He's trying to find a buyer for his project. That's 15 what that is. And Mr. Wilson wants to know if he's 16 going to be giving him hundreds of thousands of dollars
17 he wants to know, hey, Jack, what's the deal? Where are 18 you coming from? I want to know what's going on.
19 Mr. Broussard doesn't want to tell him because 20 he knows he's not supposed to have those units. He's 21 got them in hand.
22 And the defendant tells you on the stand a

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 different story. She says Sam Pierce told her, even
2 though she doesn't know anybody, go out and find people
2 to get those units. Does that make sense? Go out and 3403

1 find people for those units, otherwise they'll be
2 recaptured.
3 You've got the local Public Housing Authority
4 in Puerto Rico. I've never been to Puerto Rico, but I
5 can guarantee you Puerto Rico needs housing units, it's 6 like anyplace in this country or any Commonwealth, you
7 need units. They have poor people, they have rich
8 people, they have middleclass people. The local Public
9 Housing Authority could have easily taken care of these 10 300 units. They didn't need Tom Broussard, an 11 international lawyer from Los Angeles, as he told 12 Mr. Wilson, to come down and find a buyer for these
13 units.
14 What about Cleofe Rubi? Remember him? He was 15 the developer on that project. The man who came in, had 16 a very heavy Spanish accent. The big talk with him, he 17 had some 50-odd foot boat and he said it's a very big 18 boat. I guess a 50-something foot boat is very big.
19 Mr. Rubi is a successful businessman in Puerto 20 Rico. He paid Tom Broussard $150,000, and do you
2 remember what he said? I bought the units from him. He

2 wasn't my attorney. I didn't use him for anything else.
2 He had the units and I had to buy them. Do you think a
2 person like Cleofe Rubi would pay $150,000 if he didn't
2 have to? why did he pay that money? He's a successful

3404

1 businessman. Being a successful businessman, he's
2 probably a smart businessman.
3 You had a chance to judge his credibility and 4 see what he's like. would he pay that unless he had 5 to? He had no other way of getting those units, and in 6 fact, in fact, he had worked the other side. He had

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
7 gone through the Senators like D'Amato and the person
8 you heard of, Joe Monticciolo, up in the region covering
9 New York and Puerto Rico, and he thought he had his own

10 150 but he couldn't get that other 150 he absolutely
11 needed unless he paid money, and Broussard and Sankin
12 were holding that.
13 And who did they deal with? They dealt with 14 the defendant Deborah Gore Dean, although she denies it
15 at this time. The documents speak for themselves. They 16 tell you, and on visual presenter you'll see that, the 17 documents, one after the other, showing a chronological
18 order of how this went, the funding documents, the 19 meeting with Broussard, the meetings with Sankin.
20 And don't forget all through this timeframe
2 he's managing the Stanley Arms apartment. The defendant
2 would have you believe she did him a big favor. Maybe
2 he did make some money. But so did she and her family.
2 He's managing an apartment building for her while she's
2 doing HUD business. Could you think of a more egregious

3405

1 example of self dealing? She's benefiting herself.
2 He told you Bill Morgan, who she knew, who she
3 admitted on the stand knowing, was one of his employees.
4 He would give him a bonus every time he got money on Mod
5 Rehab because it allowed him to do so. That's where 6 he's making his money. $230,000.
7 Now, interestingly, how did Broussard and 8 Sankin hook up? well, Sankin calls him out of the 9 blue. Broussard said he doesn't know him. What does

10 Broussard do? He calls the defendant Deborah Gore Dean
11 because Andrew Sankin has told him I know the defendant
12 Deborah Gore Dean. Broussard then talks to the 13 defendant in this case. He speaks with her and checks
14 out whether Sankin is a good enough guy to work with and 15 she says, yes, he's a good enough guy to work with.
16 where is she coming with this? why is she involved with 17 who is picking who? And the important thing about that 18 is she even admits to putting together Shelby and 19 Sankin.
20 She's working for HUD, ladies and gentlemen.
2 You can't serve two masters. She's working for the 2 United States Government, for we the people. Not for 2 Richard Shelby, not for Andrew Sankin, not for Tom
2 Broussard. She's working for all of us.
2 And what happens on Eastern Avenue? And 3406

1 Foxglenn? Those are two projects in Maryland. Both in 2 Maryland. Both Mr. Shelby and Mr. Sankin tell you that 3 they deal with the defendant on Eastern Avenue. They 4 deal with her on Foxglenn. Foxglenn is before Eastern
5 Avenue and comes first in time.
6 You'll hear from the defendant when she

7 testified she didn't know Shelby wanted anything on any 8 of the projects until Eastern Avenue. That's not true.
9 Both of them told you on Foxglenn they were dealing with 10 her. He's meeting with her. Her calendars are replete

11 with entries, meeting with Richard Shelby during this 12 period of time. They're not talking about what he's 13 interested in?
14 They weren't friends before her position as 15 Executive Assistant to HUD. You will hear from her
16 they're not friends any longer. They're only friends
17 when she's Executive Assistant. Ask yourself does that 18 make sense that they're not talking about Mod Rehab,
19 about these projects while she's Executive Assistant and 20 having lunch with him on a very frequent basis as she 2 says?
2 what does she tell both of them? She tells
2 them she's very interested in Maryland. Not like she
2 told the Senators at the confirmation hearing, I
2 wouldn't do anything with Maryland. She tells them

3407

1 she's very interested with Maryland. why? Because she
2 want to run for public office some day. And you heard
3 from another witness, from Pamela Patenaude yesterday,
4 another witness to whom she said that she was looking
5 for higher office. She was looking for bigger things.
6 And that is why she allowed herself to be corrupted at 7 HUD, to misuse her position and not care about the 8 people that she was supposed to be taking care of, but 9 taking care of herself.

10 And that's what this case is about. Count
11 two. It is once again about favoring certain people,
12 people with influence, people who could sell that 13 influence by having a connection in the Government.
14 Someone who would listen to them and do their bidding,
15 and in return what does she get?
16 well, we see what she gets. Family
17 enrichment. He's running Stanley Arms. In her own 18 words, as she said, he's on the family payroll. The 19 building turns from a loss to a profit under his 20 management. He does what's called, you heard about it,
2 the rent increase. He does this document. He states to 2 you in his testimony it's probably got a market value of 2 about $20,000. He never charges her. He asks for 2 payment. She doesn't give him anything. He doesn't
2 want to kill the goose that laid the golden egg. He 3408

1 doesn't say anything. That's why.

2 Mr. Sankin takes her out to lunch, out to

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
3 dinner. You heard a lot of testimony that his receipts

4 were fabricated, that they're lies. Well, as you go

5 through them you'll see one receipt goes right on

6 point.

7 And isn't it coincidental that all of his

8 receipts are lies, all the Lance Wilson receipts are

9 lies? Lance Wilson is actually a very good friend. All

10 of Linda Murphy's receipts are lies? Remember Linda

11 Murphy, one of her closest friends? I showed you that 12 on an affidavit. And she said one of her closest

13 friends. All of Russell Cartwright's receipts are 14 lies. All of these people.

15 Look through her calendars. She's meeting

16 with them for lunch all the time, but yet they're all

17 lies, all attempts to deduct business expenses and 18 commit crimes.

19 Count three, ladies and gentlemen -

20 UNKNOWN PERSON: Excuse me, could you tell me

21 if this Courtroom is where I --

2 THE COURT: You're interrupting a Court

2 proceeding. You ask the Marshal your question.

2 All right, Mr. O'Neill.

2 MR. O'NEILL: Count three. Again, the names

3409

1 change, the projects change, but the scenario is exactly

2 the same.

3 The new influence peddler is Louis Kitchin.

4 The new person with connections to the defendant is

5 Louis Kitchin and, again, he knows nothing about Mod

6 Rehab. He's not a housing consultant. He's a guy that

7 runs political campaigns but he's a big shot here in

8 Washington or at least he thinks he's a big shot and

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
9 other people think he's a big shot and he can get things

10 done.
11 But what does he do? Ladies and gentlemen,
12 count three, Louis Kitchin. He's the next influence 13 peddler. He's the next one we see with access to the 14 defendant Deborah Gore Dean, and you'll see from the 15 documents in evidence, although it's not on here, it
16 begins with a developer by the name of Jack Jennings,
17 who has a retirement center in San Diego, California.
18 What does Jack Jennings need? He wants some 19 assurance. The only way to do this is a HUD assured 20 program. He must get that in order to build his
2 retirement center. So he applies to the L.A. Office.

2 It's denied. He applies to the Regional Office. It's 2 denied. He applies to headquarters. It's denied. He
2 appeals headquarters. It's denied.
2 Then Louis Kitchin goes and he talks to the 3410

1 defendant Deborah Gore Dean, and you'll see from the
2 documents she then asked Tom Demery look into this, see
3 if an independent analysis isn't warranted, and what 4 happens? HUD reverses its position. That's not even 5 Mod Rehab. It has nothing to do with Mod Rehab, but it
6 shows what happens.
7 Here's a man who can't get anything done. He 8 gets denied everywhere but when he has Lou Kitchin in 9 his corner, things start to change.

10 Then you go - even before this $203,000 for 11 Metro-Dade you go to Atlanta. And Mr. Kitchin asks the 12 defendant for 200 units for Atlanta. You remember
13 Nicholas Bazan, another very short witness, a developer
14 from Atlanta. Mr. Kitchin told him, I can get units.
15 I know the defendant Deborah Gore Dean and I can get 16 units from her. So Mr. Bazan agrees that if he gets the 17 units to Atlanta he will take them. He will buy them.
18 Mr. Kitchin says I'm going up to meet with 19 Dean in a couple of days. I need a letter from the 20 Housing Authority very quickly. Please get it for me.
2 Bazan has his employee, you might remember David
2 Westcott, he testified for maybe ten minutes, he went,
2 got the letter, brought it back, brought it to Kitchin's
2 office. Kitchin brings it up with him. He asks for 200
2 units for Atlanta.

3411

1 A couple of days later, just a couple of days
2 later, as that will show, the units come down. The 3 letter is dated the 27th. On the 30th, three days
4 later, the rapid reply for 200 units to Atlanta.
5 And the documentation for that is in the 6 defendant's own handwriting. You might remember when 7 she was testifying -- it's a handwritten list, it's her 8 handwriting. She admitted to it. She stipulated to

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
9 it. She wrote that out, 200 units.

10 They go down to Atlanta. They're down in 11 Atlanta. Mr. Bazan agrees not to pay a cent unless they 12 go to him. You might remember what he said. He didn't 13 think he had the political influence to be assured that 14 they were coming to him. Luckily, he didn't pay because 15 the City of Atlanta found a better developer. They 16 didn't give it to Mr. Bazan. So we don't have it on 17 this chart.
18 What does Mr. Kitchin do? He goes to Miami.
19 In Miami he knows the local PHA. So he goes there and 20 he finds Claude Dorsy and Jim Mitchell, developers on a
21 project, Springwood and Cutlerwood, and he tells them
22 again I can get units for your projects. They agree to 23 pay him money. He goes up.
24 He told you he met with the defendant Deborah 25 Gore Dean. He asks for the units. The units were sent

3412

1 down. Again, we have a handwritten list by Miss Dean in
2 which it says 203 units to Miami.

3 Now, you'll again remember what I said, admit

4 what you can't deny, deny what you can't admit. We have

5 the handwritten list that says 203 units to Miami. It's

6 in her handwriting. She stipulated to it. But she

7 said, well, Tom Demery was telling me what to write and

8 I wrote it down. Ask yourself is that credible or is

9 that just a way to deny what's in your own hand? The 10 units were awarded. $203,000 go to Lou Kitchin.

11 Count four, ladies and gentlemen. $4000.

12 You've heard a lot of testimony about the $4000. The 13 $4000 can be nothing but what the Government has claimed

14 it is. You've seen the check. It's dated April 29,
15 1987. It was put into Ms. Dean's account. It written,
16 the endorsement, right on the back of the check.

17 In early May the check clears into her
18 account. We went over lots of details about that. That 19 check was given to her by Mr. Kitchin and it was 20 endorsed right on it as a loan.

2 As we showed, Miss Dean was in tremendous

2 financial problems at that time. She had taken out
2 several loans. She owed money on a Diner's credit
2 card. She was in very, very bad financial straits.

2 You've seen her checking accounts. She was getting

3413

1 insufficient funds charges all the time. Her balance

2 was always very low. She needed money. She asked

3 Mr. Kitchin for that money and he gave it to her. She

4 had bought a piano just days before.

5 As the documents on the visual renter will

6 show, she received that $4000 in between the time that a

7 meeting was held on the Cutlerwood-Springwood project

8 for 203 units to the time that the 185 was signed by

9 Thomas Demery, the then Assistant Secretary for

10 Housing.

11 That $4000 was a gratuity for and because of 12 the official acts that the defendant performed on behalf
13 of Louis Kitchin. There can be no other explanation for
14 that.

15 Now, the rest of the counts I'll go into later
16 on because they involve lies and attempts to conceal
17 and, as I said very quickly at the beginning, the 18 Government has proved that.

19 What about the defendant's case? What has the 20 defendant shown to you in this trial? Her entire case
2 rests on her credibility, her believability.

2 The first thing you must ask yourselves,
2 ladies and gentlemen, is, is the defendant a credible
2 witness? Did she tell you the truth?

2 And His Honor will instruct you on the law and 3414

1 you must decide whether a person is credible or not.

2 How do you do that? As I said in opening statement,
3 just as you would judge somebody in a day-to-day life
4 experience. Does that testimony square with your common
5 sense? Does it make sense to you? Does it pass your 6 good judgment?

7 Let's start with the $4000. Did she tell you
8 the truth about the $4000 when she said she was going to 9 use that money because it was coming to her to decorate

10 Mr. Kitchin's apartment?
11 Mr. Kitchin, first of all, never owned an 12 apartment. Second of all, the check, the defense will 13 dispute the date on the check, but you look at the check
14 and see if it doesn't say to you 4-29-87. That check
15 was written after the apartment was sold. The apartment
16 was sold on I believe it was April 20th, 1987. Before
17 that check was ever written. And regardless of how you 18 read that date, and when I look at it, it looks like the 19 29th, but it's up to you, you determine, that check was 20 written after it was sold.
2 And more important, ladies and gentlemen, do
2 you remember on direct examination before we had a
2 chance to cross-examine Miss Dean she stated on June
2 15th she had a complete definitive recall of what had 2 happened. She was driving with Hunter Cushing and 3415

1 Lou Kitchin to pick up a car and on the way back she's 2 with Mr. Kitchin. She remembered exactly where she was
3 and what building was there. What the conversation
4 was. That her brother was antsy about selling the 5 apartment. He wanted her to find out what was going on 6 with the apartment, her exact words, my brother was 7 antsy. Someone else was living in his apartment by June
8 15th. The closing was on June 10th.

11 :make-any-sense-?---&an- yjQU_sieesLhie.:.r as_being
12 a
13 Mr. Kitchin did go to look at Gordon Dean's 14 apartment. That's not in dispute. In fact, he went 15 there in January of 1987.
16 But remember the way Miss Dean put forth the 17 evidence to establish that the $4000 was to decorate an 18 apartment? She called Susan Withington, the woman who 19 testified yesterday. Why was Miss Withington called?
20 To say that she was the broker who held that apartment,
2 and so she was the realtor you'd have to go through.
2 For Gordon's apartment, not any other apartment. For
2 Gordon's apartment.
2 They never told you that the apartment had
2 been sold. That there was a contract. That there was a

3416

1 closing. It wasn't until Special Agent Batts called up
2 Miss Withington and she said yeah, it was sold already
3 and there was a contract for sale and a closing. It
4 wasn't until Special Agent Batts found this out that we 5 brought forth this information to this jury. She never 6 testified to that on direct examination on the defense
7 case. That information was not given to you.
8 why not, ladies and gentlemen? Because it
9 would have blown that whole theory out of the water. It
10 wouldn't have made any sense. It was a lie. It didn't 11 make sense.
12 The other thing is when I started

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
13 cross-examining Miss Dean with that, she's a very bright
14 person, .Mieiii^iiii^lfii;^^
15 niSlillifj^^ not what she
16 told you. She told you Lou Kitchin wanted to take the 17 closet and make it a wet bar or a dry bar or something
18 because he wanted it to be an office, and he didn't like 19 the color in the kitchen. It was a loud color. So that 20 was going to be painted.
2 And if she's supposed to be a decorator,
2 wouldn't each apartment be different? I'm no decorator,
2 but if you're going to decorate an apartment and be paid
2 for it, aren't you going to look at what the color in 2 the kitchen is? If it's a particularly loud color

3417

1 you're going to have to decorate it a certain way or 2 repaint it. It only makes sense. And if you're going
3 to put that dry bar in, that's what she was being paid
4 for.

5 m^i'g^fftT^ie0^^^Smd^"lSi

8 And remember, what was the going on at that 9 time? what was happening? we're talking April of 10 1987. She was under investigation, an investigation she 11 asked for to be Assistant Secretary for Community
12 Planning and Development. They were looking into her 13 background. She needed that money to make sure that she 14 was not having these insufficient funds. That she had 15 enough money to pay her bills. aaJEBgte*5aptT«fay
16
17 And don't forget the testimony of Jack
18 Jennings. You might recall him. He was the lawyer from 19 Atlanta who when Mr. Kitchin first told him that he was 20 thinking of lending her money he thought he was crazy.
2 He said you don't do that. He didn't believe that
2 Mr. Kitchin would do such a thing and even Mr. Kitchin
2 told him, well, I'll rip up the check. He said, well,
2 that doesn't do any good because they have other ones on 2 file at the bank.

!jj -ww-C*

"jk ' 3418

1 Mr. Jennings' testimony is very important on
2 that point because it corroborates what happened.
3 Mr. Kitchin loaned her money. She had bought things
4 such as the piano and needed money. But she told you a
5 completely different story.

11 But why do we keep going? why do we keep 12 asking questions? Because it was filtered with lies.
13 Her entire testimony just kept changing.
14 I'd like to go over some of them now to show
15 you where she said one thing once and then another thing 16 later on.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

17 She had no Moderate Rehabilitation dealings
18 with Lou Kitchin. Period. Unequivocal. That's what he 19 said to you. Do you recall that? Mrs. Sherrill
20 Nettles-Hawkins told you quite something different. She 2 told you that she heard her on the phone after
2 Mr. Kitchin had said, hey, where is my Mod Rehab units,
2 she asked the defendant, and the defendant said tell him
2 they're coming, or something to that effect
2 Mrs. Hawkins told you correctly on that. That's a lie,

3419

1 ladies and gentlemen. Both sides can't be right. And 2 Miss Dean has told you Mrs. Hawkins wouldn't lie. So,
3 therefore, Miss Hawkins is telling the truth on that.
4 Then Miss Dean lied.
5 No idea John Mitchell was a consultant. That 6 was his occupation. He was in Global Research
7 International. That's what they did for a living. She 8 put on that he was a consultant. I had to prod her on 9 that and pry, and it's not easy to just keep asking

10 questions, going into this stuff, but when you're not 11 getting a truthful answer you have to pry, and finally 12 she admits, yes, he's a consultant, which I won't 13 even -- I might as well. She wouldn't even admit being 14 a consultant until I showed her a consulting agreement 15 that she had signed and she said, well, if you want to 16 say what that is. I don't testify here, ladies and 17 gentlemen. It's what the defendant testifies. She was 18 a consultant when she left. She did what she complained 19 everybody else was doing. They left HUD and became 20 consultants. That's what she did when she didn't get
2 the job she wanted.
2 Shocked that John Mitchell made any money.
2 Remember, she went into great length about that. That
2 she was absolutely shocked. And the day the I.G. Report
2 came out she called Special Agent Alvin Cain, who was at 3420

1 HUD at the time, and said I'm shocked. I can't believe
2 it. I thought you were my friend. You should have told
3 me John Mitchell was making money. You'd better be able 4 to defend what you said and if you can't I'm going to 5 hold a press conference and I'm going to do something,
6 I'm going to rant and rave. That's exactly what she 7 told you.

8 So we had to call in Special Agent Alvin Cain

9 for two minutes' of testimony. And you heard Mr. Cain.
10 It didn't happen. It didn't happen like that. And he
11 remembered Marty Mitchell picking up the report,
12 bringing the money, but it didn't happen. Then they 13 asked him a bunch of questions about the Wilshire Hotel,
14 and you could see Mr. Cain had no idea what they were 15 talking about. We had to bring him in just to show that 16 she lied about that.
17 Lance Wilson. She said Lance Wilson gave 600
18 units to Joe Strauss for Puerto Rico. That's her
19 friend. I asked her questions about that. She denied 20 it. Then she said, well, I'm saying Lance Wilson gave
2 600 units. I don't know who Lance Wilson is, but it

2 doesn't matter if I do or not. That is not the 2 testimony. It must come from her.
2 So we had to call in Special Agent David
2 Bowie, and remember Special Agent Bowie? He's been 22

3421

1 years with the FBI, before that six years as a
2 schoolteacher, before that with the United States
3 military in Vietnam. Mr. Bowie says that's what she 4 told me. She fingered Lance Wilson, her friend, who was 5 giving the 600 units to Joe Strauss.
6 Now, it might seem like a small point, ladies
7 and gentlemen, but she denies it on the stand. She lies
8 when it benefits her. When it's a benefit. When she 9 can say I didn't know John Mitchell was a paid
10 consultant, she lies about that. We have to show if 11 she's going to lie on that will she lie on anything
12 else?
13 I mentioned earlier, not close to John 14 Mitchell until after she left HUD. All the letters were 15 written Dear Daddy. Five years earlier. Come on,
16 ladies and gentlemen. Does that square with your common
17 sense? Does that make any sense at all? She's trying 18 to talk her way out of it.
19 She denied that the HUD driver had driven her
20 to lunch with John Mitchell. There was a stipulation
21 that Mr. Reynolds, if called, would testify. So then 22 she said, well, no, that didn't happen. Besides,
23 Mr. O'Neills you,
24 so we have to call Mr. Reynolds. Mr. Reynolds
25 comes in. He's got long hair. Good thing I got a

3422

1 haircut, otherwise I guess I'd be a weird guy. He gets 2 up there and he testifies and he says very clearly I
3 remember two specific occasions. Does that sound like a
4 man who is making things up out of whole cloth? He said
5 there were other times, but I remember two specific
6 occasions. Mr. Wehner cross-examined him about, well,
7 didn't you say once a month. And he said yeah.
8 wouldn't that be 12 times a year times X-number of

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
9 years? But the guy said two specific occasions.

10 why would she lie about a HUD driver not
11 taking her there? well, the reason is very clear,
12 ladies and gentlemen. The reason it's so clear why she 13 would lie that Mr. Reynolds did not drive her to lunch
14 with John Mitchell, and there are two particular 15 reasons. The first is, as you heard through her 16 cross-examination, she admonished Hunter Cushing for 17 doing that. And she said taking his girlfriend in a 18 car, you can't do that. You can't use a HUD car, a 19 Government car, for personal reasons. So she's not 20 going to admit that she did it and she had gotten
2 somebody in trouble for doing it.
2 And what does she say? You heard the tape and 2 you'll have the transcript and you can hear the tape
2 again. She was asked by Senator William Proxmire at her
2 hearing, the hearing she requested to get this job: The

1 chairman: "Okay, Miss Dean, HUD motor pool records show
2 that you commonly used HUD chauffeurs to drive you to
3 restaurants. During one two-week period in October you
4 were dropped off at the Old Post Office twice, the 5 Hay-Adams, a Connecticut Avenue restaurant, several 6 restaurants on Capitol Hill. Our staffers have spoken
7 to HUD employees who say they have firsthand knowledge
8 that you have used the HUD motor pool for private trips
9 to restaurants. Could you comment on that?"
10 Miss Dean: "First of all, that is absolutely not true.
11 Any time I have ever used a HUD car, it was for official 12 business. There are a lot of people in this city that 13 have official business meetings over lunch. It is 14 always their idea. If that is the time they can meet
15 with me, I take them up on that. I have never taken a 16 car to do anything personal."
17 Then it can only be one of two things. She 18 either met with John Mitchell because it was personal 19 and she lied to Senator Proxmire or it was business, she 20 was dealing with John Mitchell on this HUD business, and 2 she lied to you. It can only -- logically it can only
2 be one way or the other.
2 ^^^^s^jyi^^she_doesn ' t want to a<
2 evidence et a chance to look at it. Let me

3424

1 show you something on the visual presenter for a
2 second. There are several pages in the middle of 3 various, various HUD drivers and the name Ron, as you'll 4 see runs, throughout. There are a number of different
5 pages. There are approximately, I don't know, several 6 pages. Look through it. See how many times Ron's name
7 comes up.
8 But she told us when I cross-examined her
9 about it that there are many drivers. I don't know who 10 Ron is. Well, Pam Patenaude had no problem remembering 11 that she took trips with her when Ron was driving. But 12 you she didn't want to admit to it, ladies and 13 gentlemen, because she was in a trick bag here. Either
14 it's personal, and she lied to Senator Proxmire, or it's 15 business, and she lied to you. Either way it's a lie.
16 It can't be anything else.

17 Do you remember when I asked her whether 18 John Mitchell had the FBI agent who was investigating
19 her investigated because she didn't like what was going 20 on and she said oh, no, no, no, and then when shown
2 documents she said oh yes, he called the Director of the 2 FBI. He calls the top man in the FBI and the agent is 2 then investigated for doing her background check that
2 she requested. I wouldn't blame her for not admitting
2 to that at the beginning.

3425

1 Louie Nunn. She told you she did not meet
2 Louie Nunn until after she left HUD. She also said it's
3 possible, as Mr. Nunn said, she met him at Lance
4 Wilson's going away party, can't be sure. Very specific 5 about that. And yet when cross-examined she admits that 6 she told the reporter for the Louisville newspaper that 7 she's known Mr. Nunn since she was a young girl. And 8 then she equivocates and said I might have been 9 mistaken. I shouldn't have said that. But she said it.
10 She keeps changing her story.
11 She said she only worked at Global Research to 12 plan a party, during her direct examination. You 13 remember that. She worked there two months. All she 14 did was run a party and then she left. * So I said to 15 her, well, didn't you write on your resume you were 16 director of public relations for that place? And her
17 answer was, well, yes, I shouldn't have done it but, you
18 know, John Mitchell said I could. well, that's false.
19 That's a lie. She wasn't the director of public 20 relations at Global Research any more than I was. She 2 lied about that.
2 She stated as a reference she used Rick Shelby
2 and she stated she knew him for five years. She talked
2 to him once over the phone but didn't know him. She
2 admitted on the stand that she shouldn't have said

3426

1 that. I was just another lie.
2 Denied knowing that Andrew Sankin was a
3 consultant. Well, we saw those letters. To believe
4 that you'd have to disbelieve Mr. Sankin, Mr. Shelby,
5 Mr. Broussard, Mr. Altman, Mr. Rosenthal. All saying
6 she knew he was a consultant.
7 Beryl Altman, another very short witness, he 8 had lunch with her, he's a developer out of Maryland.
9 And dinner. The lunch was set up by Andrew Sankin.
10 Sankin thought it would be a good idea if they met.
11 She told you, you remember, about
12 John Rosenthal, that he asked her about hiring Sankin
13 and she said it would be preposterous to hire Sankin.
14 Mr. Rosenthal didn't testify as to that. She had an 15 opportunity to cross-examine him about that phone call.
16 That never came out. All you have is her word about 17 this phone call.
18 what we have, ladies and gentlemen, is a 19 person who lied on the 4000 and continued to lie to
2 0 you.
2 You might wonder why we took so long to
2 cross-examine. As I said earlier, after the initial lie
2 you should be able to say that's it. But we wanted to 2 show you that that wasn't the only time. Her entire
2 testimony is fraught with lies and deception. It cannot 3427

1 be believed.
2 And probably the biggest lie of all is what
3 she says about Secretary Pierce. That Secretary Pierce
4 was responsible for all the actions she took. That 5 Secretary Pierce was the person who was behind the 6 funding of all these awards. That it wasn't her. That 7 she was merely some sort of messenger. To believe that,
8 you will have to disbelieve almost everyone.
9 Maurice Barksdale told you Secretary Pierce
10 was very laid back. Hands off. He delegated authority
11 to people and let them run the show.
12 Philip Winn, who had been FHA Commissioner
13 before Deborah Dean even got there, said the same
14 thing.
15 Silvio DeBartolomeis told you that. Susan
16 Zagame. Janet Hale. Tom Demery.
17 In fact, not one witness told you anything
18 different.
19 Secretary Pierce, a prominent New York
20 attorney, comes down and is nominated by President
2 Reagan to be the chief of all of HUD, he's in charge of 2 thousands of employees.
2 Remember Maurice Barksdale saying how at the
2 beginning he tried to clear his desk every night but it
2 got impossible and he had to start giving it up. He was 3428

1 only Assistant Secretary for Housing, the FHA
2 Commissioner. Samuel Pierce was in charge of everybody.
3 Even Miss Dean admitted, stating in previous testimony,
4 that he would have had to have worked 40 hours a day in 5 order to keep up with all the work. So he relied on 6 other people. He relied on people to do his work and he 7 relied on the defendant Deborah Gore Dean.
8 She would have you believe that she brought 9 out that there's this adjoining door between his office
10 and her office, so therefore -- and I have no problem
11 that there's a door separating their offices, but 12 somehow he would sneak in, tell her things, sneak out,
13 and nobody else would see it, and that's why everybody
14 else is mistaken and they all think Sam Pierce is not 15 hands on, but he really was.
16 well, you heard he also had a very busy travel 17 schedule. The man traveled all over the place. He 18 wasn't there all the time.
19 Can you believe what she says about 20 Sam Pierce?
2 We are not talking about the entire Mod Rehab
2 program. There are lots of projects. You saw during
2 Miss Dean's direct examination there were literally tens
2 and tens and tens, maybe hundreds of projects that they
2 mentioned as to being funded, and you can bet there were

3429

1 many more that you've not heard about that were funded.
2 We're talking about specific projects named in 3 this indictment, Arama, South Florida, Park Towers, for 4 count one. For count two, Regent Street, Foxglenn,
5 Eastern Avenue and Alameda Towers. And for count three,
6 the Atlanta projects and the Springwood-Cutlerwood
7 project in Miami. We're talking about these specific 8 projects because these specific projects were ones in 9 which Miss Dean had a hidden interest. Ones in which 10 she cared about herself, not others. We are not talking

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
11 about a project in Santa Clara for battered women where 12 Sam Pierce says they need 19 units. If you can, please 13 do so. We know that document is in there. It has 14 nothing to do with this case. Look for documents that 15 have to do with this case, with these exact projects
16 when Miss Dean had a hidden interest.
17 Just as she's deceived you or attempted to do
18 so, ladies and gentlemen, through a series of lies and 19 deceptions she misled Samuel Pierce and didn't tell him
20 of her hidden interest because if this man who she said
2 is such a fine man and prominent attorney, would he have
2 allowed her to do this where she would have had a hidden
2 interest on these projects? Does that make sense? Does
2 that square with your common sense and good judgment?
2 Ask yourselves about that, ladies and gentlemen.

3430

1 The best defense is always a good offense.
2 You turn the tables. I'm a little reluctant talking
3 about offense and defense since we all know His Honor
4 likes the Redskins so much, but there's no question that 5 the best defense is a good offense. You take the 6 offensive. And that's what she did.
7 She came in and told you a story. It doesn't
8 matter that it wasn't true, but she told you a story. A
9 story that at first blush sounded believable. It
10 sounded credible. Until you started seeing the holes.
11 No hole bigger than the absolute lie about the apartment
12 and the fact that it was sold way before this check –
13 this conversation on June 15th and, as I said, her 14 brother could not -- if he was antsy on June 15th it was 15 how to – excuse me, it would be how to get rid of the 16 profits they made on selling it. Not on something
17 else. Other people were in his apartment at that time.
18 It's always someone out to get the defendant.
19 You remember, on the background check the 20 reason why the background check was almost up, there was
2 a weird FBI agent who kept changing his hair color, one
2 day he's a swat team leader, The next day he's the 2 driver for J. Edgar Hoover, who came up earlier because 2 he was against her family.
2 She didn't get the Assistant Secretary

3431

1 position because Senator Proxmire was out to get her.
2 And then, finally, the reason she is here is 3 because Independent Counsel is against her and they're
4 made up of not normal people. Now, that might be true
5 for me, but Miss Sweeney and Mr. Batts look perfectly –
6 normal to me.
7 It doesn't make sense. She has taken the 8 initiative from the get-go. She has lied to this Court,
9 to this jury. Do not believe what she says. It's 10 always someone else's fault.
11 In order to believe her you have to believe 12 that John Mitchell is lying. That's what she said. He 13 lied to her. Jack Brennan lied to her. Rick Shelby
14 lied to her. Maurice Barksdale is mistaken. Janet Hale
15 is mistaken. Andrew Sankin, lied. Lance Wilson, lied.
16 Linda Murphy, lied. Silvio DeBartolomeis, lied. Philip
17 Winn, mistaken. Susan Zagame, mistaken. Thomas Demery,
18 lied. Sherrill Nettles-Hawkins, mistaken. Everybody
19 else lied or was mistaken, but not her.
20 But she's the only one we know who
21 definitively did lie. Her story is built on a rotten
22 foundation. It is rotten to the core. It doesn't

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
23 square with common sense. It is lies piled upon lies.
24 It crumbles to pieces the minute you look at it.
25 Now, I know I've run a long time. I apologize

3432

1 for that. But in representing the Government I do need
2 to bring out all the facts. I'd ask you when Mr. Wehner
3 gives his closing argument to be as attentive to him as 4 you were to me and I will have an opportunity to talk to 5 you again, but throughout that listen and wonder why she 6 lied to you throughout her testimony.
7 Thank you.
8 THE COURT: All right. Can I see counsel one
9 minute on timing, please?
10 (Bench conference).
11 THE COURT: You didn't go into the last count
12 on perjury.
13 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, sir.
14 THE COURT: You're going to do that on 15 rebuttal? He may object to that.
16 MR. O'NEILL: I went into them at the 17 beginning, if you recall, and I went over them. They're 18 all just lies.
19 THE COURT: I just wanted to make sure that 20 you didn't in the excitement overlook it.
21 MR. WEHNER: I would like Mr. O'Neill not to 22 be able to argue the perjury counts in his reply.
23 THE COURT: It depends on what you say.
24 MR. WEHNER: I agree.
25 THE COURT: That's the only reason I brought 3433

1 it out.
2 MR. WEHNER: That's right.
3 MR. O'NEILL: Just for the record, the 4 beginning of the closing will show that I went over
5 them.
6 THE COURT: Okay. 1:30 okay?
7 MR. O'NEILL: Whatever.
8 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.
9 (Bench conference concluded)
10 THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen,
11 remember this now, please, the case is still ongoing.
12 It's not the time to talk about it, to discuss with each 13 other or with anyone else about the case or any of the 14 closing arguments you've just heard. It would be 15 improper to make comments with each other whatsoever.
16 Right now you haven't heard my instructions on 17 the law. You haven't heard the defendant's closing
18 argument. You haven't heard the rebuttal closing
19 argument. And until you have my instructions on the law
20 and understand the law and how you go about your 21 deliberation it's not proper to discuss the case. It's 22 still an ongoing trial.
23 Keep in mind during this recess, in a regular 24 case not so long as this we generally get the argument
25 in without a break, but we're going to take a break

3434

now. we'll take our luncheon recess.
Again, you're not to talk with anybody about it anybody talk about it or in your presence. Remember that admonition.
I'll have you back at 1:30 and we'll be ready

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
to go with the closing arguments at that time. 1:30.
(Jury dismissed)
THE COURT: All right, 1:30. Thank you

AFTERNOON SESSION

2 (1:45 p.m.)
3 (Defendant present, Jury out.)
4 THE COURT: All right, are we ready?
5 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.
6 THE COURT: Okay.
7 (Jury in.)
8 THE COURT: All right, Ladies and Gentlemen, good
9 afternoon. We're ready to proceed now. As I told you at the 10 break, we'll now proceed with Mr. Wehner on behalf of Ms. Dean.
11 After he finishes, then there will be a short rebuttal by the 12 government, and we'll wait until then to see what our timing is 13 as to giving the instructions to you today or tomorrow.
14 All right, the Court is going to recognize Stephen
15 Wehner on behalf of Ms. Dean at this time.
16 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.
17 CLOSING ARGUMENT
18 BY MR. WEHNER:
19 Ladies and Gentlemen of the Jury: The evidence in this 20 case does not support what Mr. O'Neill has said. I thought about 21 becoming more loud, passionate regarding some of the more
22 outrageous statements that Mr. O'Neill said during his closing,
23 and I may do that before I'm finished, but I'm going to keep my 24 passion and my temper under control for now, because I think it's 25 important to figure out who's lying and who's telling big lies

3436

1 and who's lying on purpose and who's mistaken, who
2 unintentionally said something and then corrected it.
3 And before I go into some detail in terms of who's 4 lying, I'd like to just give you one example that steps out in my 5 mind throughout this six- or eight-week trial, and I ask you to 6 recall the testimony of Mr. Sankin, and I ask you to recall
7 Mr. O'Neill made light of Mr. Sankin's testimony, which was a 8 smart move, except this is not a light-hearted subject. This is 9 not a light-hearted time.
10 And Mr. Sankin testified that his credit card receipts
11 were inaccurate, that they didn't reflect what the Independent 12 Counsel wanted you to believe they reflected. And then almost 13 unbelievably, Mr. Sankin told you that he told the Independent

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

14 Counsel that, and yet they went ahead and they tried to introduce 15 more credit card receipts, and they were still incorrect, and 16 Mr. Sankin admitted they were incorrect.
17 That's not a laughing matter. That's not funny. It's 18 not funny when the fate of Deborah Gore Dean rests in your hands
19 and the Independent Counsel wants to ridicule their own witness.
20 Now there are lies and there are lies and there are big
2 lies, and the Independent Counsel wants you to believe the big
2 lie. When Mr. O'Neill began his opening statement, I asked you
2 to pay close attention to it, because I told you the Independent
2 Counsel wasn't going to be able to prove what they said they were 2 going to be able to prove.

3437

1 I'd like to review a couple of things that were said in 2 the opening statement and talk to you about how some of the 3 government's own witnesses have said this is not true; this 4 didn't happen. I'll start with Mr. O'Neill's statement in his
5 opening regarding code. If you'll recall, Mr. O'Neill said
6 regarding units in the Arama project that 293 was a coded way of 7 knowing whether you would get the units or not.
8 Now the first or second witness out of the box was 9 examined for about two hours by Mr. O'Neill, and he was an expert
10 witness, their expert on HUD, and a question that I asked him,
11 having never talked to him before, and violating the cardinal
12 rule of cross examination, don't ask a question if you don't know 13 the answer, I asked him, "A specific project." What about "as 14 specific as 2020 Fish Street --do you remember the reference to 15 Fish Street - for example?"
16 The answer was, "I don't believe it's that specific. I 17 believe it's the numbers of units."
18 Now you'll recall that Mr. O'Neill said that the number 19 of units at HUD was a code. My question was, "Oh, is this the 20 code? I've heard something about a code for numbers of units.
2 Is that a code?"
2 Answer from Mr. Greer, Independent Counsel's own
2 expert, "No, sir." No.
2 "No, no, numbers of units, is that a code for
2 something?"

^0/93

1 "Answer: I'm not following you.
2 "Question: Is it a code? Does it mean something other
3 than numbers of units?"

"Answer: Not to me.

5 "Question: Well, you audited HUD's programs for 27
6 years. It doesn't mean it's a code to you?
7 "Answer: HUD funds in numbers of units, if that's what 8 you mean, yes."
9 There's no evidence, zero, zip evidence in this case
10 that Deborah Gore Dean or, for that matter, anybody else at HUD
11 was using numbers of units as a code for anything. It wasn't a 12 code. The Independent Counsel's own witness tells you that it
13 wasn't a code, that that's the way the system operates.
14 This is one of those rare cases where there are so many 15 documents, and the reason there are so many documents is because 16 the documents are prepared by a government that's top-heavy in 17 documents, millions and millions prepared every day. There are 18 writings here; there are writings there. There are letters back
19 and forth. There are memos that are written. In this case, 20 there are probably half-a-million documents total that have been

21 looked at.

22 One of the things that you need to look at when you're 23 considering both the Independent Counsel's evidence and 24 Ms. Dean's evidence is that much of the evidence that proves her 25 innocence was introduced by the Independent Counsel. The 3439

1 difference is, the difference is is that the Independent Counsel
2 is trying to give you the big lie, the big lie being twofold:
3 One, there's a fundamental principle of law at work in 4 a criminal case that His Honor will instruct you on extensively,
5 and that fundamental principle of law is reasonable doubt, and 6 that means that you have to be convinced in your own mind of 7 Ms. Dean's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt before you can vote
8 individually to return a verdict of guilty. If you're not 9 convinced beyond a reasonable doubt, you have a duty under the 10 law to return a verdict of innocent or not guilty.
11 Now I'm not going to tell you what the law is. The 12 Judge will tell you what the law is. But that's my summation,
13 and I believe you'll hear that in his instructions.
14 Mr. O'Neill and the Independent Counsel know that they 15 haven't proven their case as a result of their witnesses and 16 their documents, so he spent the entire closing argument
17 attacking the credibility of the defendant, who testified to you
18 for over a week, who looked you in the eyes, who talked to you,
19 who corrected herself when she made mistakes, who told you, as we 20 said in our opening statement, what she did, when she did it, and 2 what she knew.
2 And there's not one piece of paper that looked at 2 fairly proves beyond a reasonable doubt that what Ms. Dean told
2 you was not true.
2 I will come back to you in my closing, but first I want

3440

1 to show you the misinformation, the bad information that the 2 Independent Counsel wants you to rely upon in trying to convince
3 you that Ms. Dean committed some offense. I'm going to start
4 with some of their own charts. I'm not going to go through 5 these, each chart and each event, because that would take 6 probably about eight hours, and I don't intend to do that.
7 Let's start with Alameda Towers. Now if you start with 8 Alameda Towers -
9 THE COURT: Mr. Wehner, I'm sorry, I've got to 10 interrupt for a second. A juror doesn't feel well.
11 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.
12 THE COURT: Sorry.
13 (Juror No. 7 out.)
14 THE COURT: All right, Ladies and Gentlemen, we'll just 15 take a break for a minute here, wait in the courtroom to see how 16 she's feeling.
17 We'll just take a short break, I apologize, in the 18 middle of your argument. She's apparently indisposed for a 19 minute. So we'll take a short break for all the jurors.
20 Ladies and Gentlemen, we're going to take a short
2 break. Please don't talk about the case during the recess. If
2 you want to step out for a minute, we'll let Juror No. 7 relax
2 for a minute, please.
2 (Jury out.)
2 (Recess from 2:00 p.m. to 2:17 p.m.)

3441

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

1 THE COURT: All right, Mr. Wehner, do you want to come
2 to the bench and Mr. O'Neill and Ms. Sweeney?
3 MR. WEHNER: Yes.
4 (Bench conference on the record.)
5 THE COURT: Okay. For the record, Ms. Proctor, Juror
6 No. 7, became ill during Mr. Wehner's early parts of his closing
7 argument and had to leave the courtroom. I had her checked by my 8 courtroom deputy as well as taken to the nurse's station. She 9 was vomiting physically and not just didn't feel well, but 10 actually threw up, and believes that it was some lasagna she ate
11 in our cafeteria.
12 MR. O'NEILL: Ms. Sweeney figured that out, Judge.
13 THE COURT: And Alternate No. 1 indicated to the staff 14 that she had had some of that and also did not feel well but is 15 not sick yet.
16 Ms. Proctor has stated to the nurse through my deputy 17 courtroom clerk she feels fine. I'll have her out here if you'd 18 like and make sure if she feels --we still have alternates
19 available. If she can't continue, if she can't, I would replace 20 her. Through my staff, she says she feels well, but I'd be happy
2 to talk to her.
2 MR. WEHNER: Judge, I don't think you need to call her
2 and talk to her, but here's my problem: I don't want to give 2 closing argument to a juror that's not paying attention, that's
2 more worried about being sick. Frankly, that concerns me

3442

1 greatly. If she's vomiting in the ladies' room, she's not going
2 to be concentrating on the closing argument.
3 And if the alternate is afraid that she is not feeling
4 well, who ate the lasagna, as well as the court reporter, I would 5 prefer to wait 18 hours and then close or wait an hour and see if 6 they're okay. But this is not -
7 THE COURT: well, what I'll do is it's 2:20 now, and 8 they've been out about 15 minutes. I'll take a little bit more
9 of a recess for another 15 minutes or so and see how they feel,
10 and I'll ask if anyone is bothered about it and see how they're 11 doing at that point, and if there's a concern that they're upset
12 or don't feel good because of the food they think they've had,
13 I'll see if they can recess or not. I'd rather not recess and 14 get it in today, and then I'll just do the instructions tomorrow.
15 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, as long as we're at the 16 bench -
17 THE COURT: Sure.
18 MS. SWEENEY: -
I mentioned to Mr. Wehner just 19 before -
during the break, during the luncheon break that we've 20 taken a little bit of a look at the special verdict issue, and
2 there is a Supreme Court case, Griffin v. United States, Judge
2 Blackman's concurrence talks about, suggests that it might be
2 appropriate in this circumstance.
2 I'm having some language typed up now, Your Honor, and
2 Mr. Wehner and I were hoping that perhaps we could agree on it

3443

1 and bring that to the Court's attention after the closings today,
2 though. But I just wanted, as long as we had the opportunity to 3 come up -
4 THE COURT: Did you have any case cite in mind?
5 MS. SWEENEY: It's Griffin v. U.S. It's Judge
6 Blackman's concurrence, and it's December 3, 1991. I don't have 7 the reporter's cite -- reported cite.
8 THE COURT: I won't say anything on Justice Blackman's

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
9 concurrence until I read it. I would like to see it, so when 10 it's ready, we'll talk about it and look at it.
11 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor. We believe it applies 12 to the four counts: the perjury count, where you've given the 13 unanimity charge, and then to the multiple object conspiracies.
14 Those would be the ones where this question comes up.
15 THE COURT: Okay.
16 MS. SWEENEY: Okay? We are doing some further 17 research. If I find something further, we'll call it to your 18 attention.
19 THE COURT: All right, thank you.
20 All right, I'll just take a continued recess and advise
2 the marshal to tell the jury we'll take another 15 minutes or so,
2 and then I'll see how they feel.
2 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.
2 THE COURT: Okay.
2 (End of bench conference.)

3444

1 THE COURT: All right, the Court is going to take
2 another 15-minute recess to make sure the juror is feeling well
3 enough to continue, and then we'll see at that point how she 4 feels. All right, 15 minutes more.
5 (Recess from 2:20 p.m. to 2:40 p.m.)
6 THE COURT: All right, I've inquired of the jury again
7 through staff and have been informed that Ms. Potter, who was 8 ill, feels all right to continue and believes she can not be 9 distracted, and Alternate 1, who said she didn't feel well, says
10 she feels fine now.
11 I believe we could continue with security -feeling
12 secure that they are in an appropriate mettle condition to pay
13 attention to the arguments and follow them.
14 I would be happy if counsel for defense would like to 15 have Ms. Potter out -- Ms. Proctor, I'm sorry, out to question 16 her a little bit further, but she has indicated in response to 17 the questions of the staff and the nurses that she's fine at this 18 time and would like to finish with the case.
19 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I don't want her to be brought 20 out for questioning.
2 THE COURT: I understand. You'd rather feel, you would
2 not like to subject her to special scrutiny.
2 MR. WEHNER: Exactly. And I think she probably
2 already -2
THE COURT: Feels embarrassed enough.

3445

MR. WEHNER: Yes.

2 THE COURT: well, I have had them asked and told them
3 that if they needed more time or if they -I've suggested that
4 we could have more time if they need it, and they both said no,
5 they would like to go back and get going with it.
6 MR. WEHNER: My concern is this, Judge: If I talk, I
1 don't know that I'll finish, and I want to finish in one discrete 8 period of time, and at the point where I was broken up, I feel 9 like I almost, with this kind of break, I have to go back and 10 re-cover certain ground.
11 THE COURT: That's fine. You need a couple hours, you

12 think?

13 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir. And I don't want to break my 14 argument up, and I will have to do that, because really I'm 15 starting again at a quarter of three, and consistent with my 16 original timing, I'm going to be longer than that, and I don't 17 think it's fair to make me split it three ways.

18 THE COURT: Do you mean you want to recess?

19 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: You don't think you could finish by five or 21 so?

22 MR. WEHNER: I'm not sure that I can, Judge. I mean,
23 I'm just not sure. It's too late in the day for me to start,
24 frankly, in my judgment.

25 THE COURT: well, my concern was that you would have 3446

1 wanted to argue today, as opposed to wanting to argue tomorrow.

2 MR. WEHNER: I did.

3 THE COURT: And I think, you know, we've got two hours,
4 two and a half. The only thing that would happen is then
5 rebuttal would have to go over until tomorrow, which you may not 6 want, but you know, I don't, I don't want to make you and 7 Ms. Dean uncomfortable, that you feel that somehow the argument
8 has been interfered with and that you haven't gotten a fair shot
9 at it, but at the same time, my feeling was that you would prefer
10 to do it today as opposed to tomorrow.

11 MR. WEHNER: well, Judge, here's -12

THE COURT: It leaves the government's argument there
13 with them for a day.

14 "MR. WEHNER: I think that's fair, Judge, and I also 15 think that it would be even, it would be worse and more unfair if 16 they were left with the government's rebuttal case or rebuttal
17 argument without my argument fresh in their minds.

18 THE COURT: All right.

19 MR. WEHNER: I mean, I've -20

THE COURT: I just hate to lose the time.

2 Mr. O'Neill, do you have any response to the 2 defendant's request to continue their argument until tomorrow
2 morning?

2 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Judge. We've only lost one hour. I
2 believe originally I said I would be between an hour and an hour and a half. Mr. wehner said he would be half of that. And then

3447

2 I said approximately a half-hour rebuttal. If those time frames
3 are still right, we'd be finished this afternoon with no problem.

4 THE COURT: well, we'd finish probably about 5:30 or
5 6:00, something like that, I would think. I think Mr. Wehner
6 said he's going to be two hours.

7 MR. O'NEILL: Oh. That's a change from the original,
8 Judge.

9 THE COURT: Yes, it is a little longer estimate than he 10 gave yesterday by a half an hour or so.

11 MR. O'NEILL: I won't be longer than a half-hour, Your
12 Honor.

13 THE COURT: Yes.

14 MR. O'NEILL: I'd have no problem -

15 THE COURT: well, let me suggest this: I think in 16 fairness to both sides, let me have the jury come out in toto,
17 all of them come out, and I'm going to ask them this question
18 about whether they feel they would like to stay today or not.
19 (Jury in.)

20 THE COURT: Ladies and Gentlemen, let me talk to you
21 for a minute about our timing. Ordinarily, because of the short
22 delays we've had, to finish this evening would probably take us
23 to the 5:30-6:00 range on the closing arguments and rebuttal
24 arguments, and then we'd do the instructions tomorrow. Another
25 way to handle it would be to recess for today, come back and do

3448

1 the closing arguments tomorrow and the instructions tomorrow.
2 I really need to know how you all feel and how you're 3 feeling about staying for three more hours or not today and how 4 your comfort level is, particularly those who haven't felt well.
5 would you just take a short recess and discuss that? And then
6 come back. If there's a consensus, we'll see what you feel like 7 doing.
8 It would be nice to be able to complete the argument
9 today if we can, but I want to make sure you all are attentive
10 and are listening carefully to the arguments, all right? So
11 we'll take a short break.
12 (Jury out.)
13 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.
14 THE COURT: You may get a hung jury whether or not they 15 want to go home.
16 (Short recess.)
17 (Jury in.)
18 THE COURT: Let me just ask Juror No. 1, so I don't
19 focus on any particular juror for any particular reason, did you
20 all have an idea if you'd like to stay today and finish this or 21 come back tomorrow? How do people feel? Do you know what the 22 jury has as a whole decided?
23 JUROR PHILLIPS: Some of them have class, some have to 24 pick the kids up, so -
25 THE COURT: They don't feel they could stay today,

3449

1 you're saying, later, until 5:30 to 6:00?
2 JUROR PHILLIPS: They said they'd rather come back
3 tomorrow.
4 THE COURT: All right. All right, Ladies and
5 Gentlemen, I'll do that. It's unfortunate, because we wanted to 6 finish it up today, but in fairness, because of the unavoidable
7 delays, and hopefully we'll be in a position to complete it
8 tomorrow then, I will go ahead and recess it now.
9 Because of this unusual break, you're going to have to 10 be very careful in your consideration of this matter over the 11 recess, and that is, you're just going to have to not talk about 12 it, not think about it in the sense that you're trying to make 13 some decisions. You haven't heard the other parts of the case 14 yet, the other arguments that are going to come, the closing of 15 the defendant, the rebuttal of the government.
16 More particularly, you haven't heard my instructions on 17 the law that will apply, and you're going to have to listen
18 carefully to the law, because you have to follow the instructions
19 on the law, and I'm going to also give you some guidance on your 20 deliberation about credibility of witnesses, lots of things, what 21 the evidence is in the case.
22 So please don't talk about it, obviously, on the way
23 home with each other if you go home together or see each other,
24 and just do something else this evening. Don't worry about this 25 case.

3450

1 we're going to have you back tomorrow morning fresh and
2 ready to go, and we'll finish the case. What will happen is then
3 we'll do the closing arguments in the morning and probably get to 4 the instructions early afternoon. We may be able to get them all
5 done in the morning. We'll see how our timing is.
6 Ladies and Gentlemen, we'll do it at 9:30 then tomorrow
7 morning, all right? If you don't feel well or anything, please
8 let the Court know as soon as possible so we know what we're 9 doing in the morning.
10 It's a very delicate stage of the case. Remember the 11 overnight admonitions again. You don't talk about this case,
12 again, among yourselves or with anyone else on the way home,
13 don't let anyone talk to you about it at home or anywhere. If 14 it's carried in the newspaper or the television or the radio,
15 don't read about it, watch, or listen to anything about this case
16 whatsoever.
17 So have a pleasant evening. Come back refreshed, and 18 we're going to then complete the case tomorrow morning. It will 19 probably be to you for deliberations sometime tomorrow afternoon, 20 all right? Okay, you're excused. 9:30 tomorrow morning, please.
2 (Jury out.)
2 THE COURT: All right, counsel, I apologize that we
2 couldn't get it done. It's no one's fault, but I feel badly that
2 it's not put to bed today. I think everyone would be much
2 happier if it was, but I see no alternative, with the jury's

3451

1 request and the situation of the illness of that one juror
2 interrupting the argument.
3 Then, Ms. Sweeney, maybe we could hear later on today
4 or tomorrow morning?
5 MS. SWEENEY: With the special verdict form, Your
6 Honor?
7 THE COURT: Or any advice you wanted to submit as to 8 language involving the overt acts or the statute of limitations
9 question apparently you said that you're looking at.
10 MS. SWEENEY: Oh, our brief, Your Honor?
11 THE COURT: No, I didn't mean your brief.
75
3)
3 12 MS. SWEENEY: Okay.
13 THE COURT: The verdict form.
14 MS. SWEENEY: Oh, the verdict form.
15 THE COURT: You said you were looking at some 16 particular language you were thinking about.
17 MS. SWEENEY: Yes, Your Honor. I will send that down
18 and send a copy to Mr. Wehner as well.
19 THE COURT: Okay.
20 MS. SWEENEY: I didn't know if Your Honor had a
2 practice from his past cases of using special verdicts -
2 THE COURT: No.
2 MS. SWEENEY: -
in multiple object conspiracies.
2 THE COURT: No. The only thing I have done and I have
2 a couple examples of ones where we had certain acts had to be

3452

1 proved as part of a RICO pattern, practice, they had to find two 2 prior acts, things like that. I have listed those, and in the 3 last case I did, we listed many, but that the only example I

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

4 thought of.

5 In this case, I had concluded, I thought, that we 6 didn't need to list which overt act, if any, they found, but if 7 your review indicates it's necessary -

8 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, we would not be preparing to 9 list the overt acts, but in the multiple object conspiracies, if 10 there was a need to use a special verdict -- special
11 interrogatory for those on each of the objects if there is not 12 unanimity on all of them.

13 THE COURT: Okay. We'll look at that then when you
14 bring it in.

15 All right, 9:30 in the morning then.

16 MR. O'NEILL: Thank you, Your Honor.

1 PROCEEDING S

2 (Defendant present, Jury out.)

3 THE CLERK: Criminal No. 92-181, United States of

4 America v. Deborah Gore Dean. We have Robert O'Neill and Paula

5 Sweeney for the government, Stephen Wehner for Ms. Dean.

6 THE COURT: All right. Good morning, counsel.

7 MR. O'NEILL: Good morning.

8 MR. WEHNER: Good morning, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All the jurors are here and say they're in 10 good health. we'll see how we'll proceed with that.

11 Did counsel want to just go into arguments, or did you

12 want to talk about the suggestion of the verdict form for a 13 minute? I mean, what's your preference? I don't want to hold

14 the case up.

15 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, whatever. It would be

16 Mr. Wehner's preference.

17 MR. WEHNER: I'm ready to argue, but if Your Honor

18 wants to resolve that -19

THE COURT: well, why don't we do the argument so you

20 aren't distracted, and then we can get to that after lunch or

2 something and resolve any questions. I read Justice Blackmun's

2 concurrence and suggestions.

2 MR. WEHNER: Yeah. I don't think that's a major

2 problem.

2 THE COURT: So we can take that up, all right.

3456

1 Then we're going to begin the arguments over -- the

2 defendant's argument over again. we'll start the time running
3 over again. All right.
4 (Jury in.)
5 THE COURT: All right, good morning.
6 THE JURORS: Good morning.
7 THE COURT: Thank you for getting in. We trust you're 8 all well and ready to go.
9 Ladies and Gentlemen, as you recall, yesterday we had 10 to break unavoidably, so we're going to be beginning again, start
11 the closing arguments with the defendant going first, and then 12 there will be rebuttal argument by the government. So I'm going 13 to recognize Mr. Wehner again, who will begin again with his 14 closing argument on behalf of Ms. Dean, and again I ask you to 15 pay close attention to these arguments.
16 All right, Mr. Wehner.
17 CLOSING ARGUMENT
18 BY MR. WEHNER:
19 Good morning.
20 THE JURORS: Good morning.
2 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.
2 Ladies and Gentlemen of the Jury, when His Honor closes
2 the case and puts it in your hands, he's going to give you a
2 series of instructions. One of the things he's going to tell you
2 is that what I'm saying to you and what Mr. O'Neill is saying to 3457

1 you is not evidence, and there's a very good reason for that, and 2 that's because sometimes in argument lawyers say things that
3 aren't true. Sometimes when a lawyer closes and uses words like 4 "garbage," he tries to bring your attention to something that is 5 a complete misimpression and misstatement of the evidence.
6 I would like to quote for you what Mr. O'Neill said to 7 you yesterday out of the official record: "The defendant's story
8 just doesn't make sense. This is not credible. It is not 9 believable. It is what you often see about admitting what you
10 can't deny, denying what you can't admit."
11 "We -- that's the evidence that was presented brick by 12 brick. It's how you build a case. You make it strong -- this is 13 Mr. O'Neill -
so it withstands scrutiny. The defendant's case
14 is not built the same way. It's on a very shaky foundation.
15 That foundation is her credibility. Everything she told you
16 rests on her word, on what she says. The problem with that is 17 her story is like a house of cards with a very rotten foundation.
18 She lied to you, and if she lied to you, how can you believe the 19 rest of what she says?"
20 "She lied to you, Ladies and Gentlemen. She lied in 2 this court before you. Having done that, does anything else make
2 any sense?"
2 "It was a lie, Ladies and Gentlemen, out and out, right
2 in front of you."
2 "Based on her lies, you should throw out her entire

3458

1 testimony. Her six days of testimony is worth nothing. You can
2 throw it out the window into a garbage pail for what it's worth
3 for having lied to you."
4 Now I'm going to read to you the testimony from 5 Ms. Dean upon which the Independent Counsel rested his entire 6 personal attack on Ms. Dean. It didn't have anything to do with 7 the evidence; it had to do with the personal attack, and I'm 8 going to read to you what Ms. Dean said, and the reason I'm going

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
9 to read to you what Ms. Dean said is because my statement is not 10 evidence and Mr. O'Neill's statement is not evidence, and you
11 need to look at what the transcript says, and I'm going to read
12 that to you word for word.
13 Mr. O'Neill, page 2818, "Question: Now I believe you 14 testified on direct examination that you were quite upset when 15 Mr. Kitchin told you he would not be buying the apartment."
16 Answer by Ms. Dean: "well, yes. I mean, he had put a 17 lot of people out, and a lot of people had done a lot of work."
18 "Question: By 'a lot of people,' would you be 19 referring to Janet Whitman, Gordon, your brother?
20 "Answer: well, I think Gordon had sort of mentally
2 moved on by this point, and we were then discussing whether or 2 not if he didn't get Gordon's apartment, he was going to get
2 another one in the Watergate, but I think he had put Ms. Whitman
2 out, and I think he had put Mrs. Withington out, and he certainly 2 put my brother out in the first part of the year, and he

3459

1 certainly put me out. I mean, I did a lot of work for him.
2 "Question: what were you referring to when you said
3 Gordon mentally moved on?
4 "Answer: well, I think that -- I know that they had a
5 lot of conversations in February or March, and then at some 6 point, I knew Mrs. Withington decided to keep showing the 7 apartment to other people because Mr. Kitchin hadn't returned a
8 signed contract, and so I think my brother was, 'well, he either
9 buys or doesn't buy it, I don't much care, but if I get another
10 contract, I'm going to take it.1
11 "And at that point, Mr. Kitchin said, 'well, even if we 12 don't get Gordon's apartment, I'll get another one at the 13 Watergate.'"
14 Question, 2819: "And how about Gordon? Did you tell
15 Gordon that Kitchin was not buying the apartment?"
16 "You know, I don't remember having a conversation with 17 Gordon, either, because he might have already moved on and
18 already decided to sell his apartment to someone else at that 19 point. I really don't know. I don't have a recollection of 20 that. I just have a recollection of being very displeased with
2 Mr. Kitchin at that day."
2 Now, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Jury, when you
2 contrast the testimony with regard to the Watergate apartment and
2 with regard to Louis Kitchin and Ms. Dean's testimony about Louis
2 Kitchin, when she was asked the exact questions that I've read to 3460

1 you and the exact responses that she gave, it doesn't match the 2 closing argument. If you want to talk about something that is 3 built on crumbling bricks, it's the closing.
4 Let me give you another example: the evidence.
5 Mr. O'Neill puts up on a visual presenter this piece of evidence.
6 This is going back to the jury room with you. This piece of 7 evidence happens to be some logs of trips taken by people at HUD.
8 Do you recall his reference to that? And he invited you to look 9 at it and see how many times Ron had driven Ms. Dean. How many 10 times Ron drove Ms. Dean according to this log book? Once.
11 This case is about the evidence, Ladies and Gentlemen.
12 It's not about garbage pails.
13 I'm going to talk to you about the evidence, as opposed
14 to about character assassination and ridicule, because that's 15 what I want you to base your verdict on, the evidence, not what I 16 think of someone or what my personal opinion is. One of the

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

17 reasons you have a jury in a criminal case is because what the 18 government thinks and what the defense thinks are two opposite
19 things. So for me to stand up here and tell you that all
20 Mr. O'Neill's witnesses are liars and should be in the garbage
2 isn't helpful. I may think that, but it's not helpful.
2 So let's talk about the evidence for a few minutes, and
2 let's talk about the evidence in terms of the way the government
2 presented it, and I'd like to use some of the government's own
2 charts.

3461

1 Now if you remember, there was testimony in this case
2 that the FBI went to Los Angeles and they found a lot of John
3 Mitchell's notes and they took them out of a locker from Marti
4 Mitchell and they brought them back and the FBI went through them
5 and they took a look at them and they decided what they were 6 going to present to you as evidence.
7 Well, let's look at the notes regarding Arama. Now
8 this is a chart the government wants you to use to summarize 9 their -- used to summarize their argument. It's a blown-up
10 chart. And let's look at the March 20 entry: "Martinez asked
11 Nunn to get 293 units ASAP."
12 Now let's look at the notes that the FBI brought back
13 that Mr. O'Neill didn't show you, what the FBI didn't tell you
14 about, that we had to bring to your attention, that takes that 15 chart from being something upon which you can rely to being 16 something upon which you cannot.
17 When you go back to the jury room, look at Exhibit 638,
18 six-three-eight. This is a blow-up of the Exhibit 638. It is a 19 phone message identified by the FBI on cross examination as being 20 for Mr. Mitchell, from Lance Wilson, Returned your call, and what
2 does it say in the bottom right-hand corner? It says, "300
2 units. Talking to Barksdale."
2 Now who would - you look at that exhibit back in the 2 jury room and see if I'm telling you the truth that that's what
2 it says, because you're going to look at it, and that's going to

3462

1 be exactly what it says. It doesn't say, "Talking to Deborah 2 Gore Dean." It says, "Talking to Barksdale." And who was 3 Barksdale? He was a federal housing commissioner.
4 Now why is that not on the chart? why? It came from 5 the same place the rest of the evidence came from. Why isn't it
6 there? It's not there because the basis of their case is to talk
7 about garbage pails and credibility, and it's not on the 8 evidence. That's why it's not there. They're not interested in 9 fairness and justice any more than Senator Proxmire's interested
10 in fairness and justice.
11 When Ms. Dean testified on that stand, who was it that 12 told you what the documents said and what the documents meant and 13 what was attached to what and who did what to whom and what 14 politicians were behind what projects? When you saw Mr. Barks15 dale testify, he couldn't remember squat. When you saw Janet 16 Hale testify, she couldn't remember anything. When you saw the 17 other presidential appointees testify, they couldn't remember
18 anything. They don't remember. My goodness, they're not 19 responsible for this.
20 How do you think this town works? when you go back to
2 the jury room, you are going to see at least 200 individual
2 letters from U.S. senators, from congressmen, from developers,
2 from consultants, from all over the United States asking for

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 moderate rehabilitation units, and I'm sorry, Ladies and 2 Gentlemen, but it is wrong for the government to say that this young lady, at 28 years old, because she had two lunches with someone she considered her father, is responsible for the way that system operated.

3463

when Ted Kennedy writes you a letter, when Senator
Proxmire writes you a letter, when Senator Rockefeller writes you 6 a letter, when Ronald Reagan announces that units are going to be awarded on a Tarmac at an airplane field and you have to award them, what is she supposed to do? what would you have her do as a good public servant? The best she can.
10 And what is the best she can do? The best she can do
11 is say, "Mr. Secretary, this is the information. What do we do?"
12 and let Sam Pierce make that decision.
13 The government would have you characterize Sam Pierce
14 in this case as a victim. He's no victim. He's as innocent as 15 she is. It's the way the system operated.
16 And I'm going to come back to this at the end of my 17 closing, but let me tell you this, Ladies and Gentlemen: There
18 is something deadly wrong in this country when an office of 19 Independent Counsel can decide, ""we're going to indict Ms. Dean.
20 Yes, sirree, she had lunches. Now what we're going to do is 21 we're going to take those lunches, and we're going to take her
22 friends, and we're going to call it a conspiracy, and then we're 23 going to back up, and we're going to see what happened in a 24 government department, and then we're going to charge her with a 25 crime of criminal conspiracy because she had some lunches."

3464

1 There's something very wrong when you do it backwards.
2 Mr. O'Neill wanted to talk to you, "This is not like a
3 burglary." You're darn right this is not like a burglary, 4 because no one came in and said, "Hey, a crime has been 5 committed." There's no burglary. They started with lunches and 6 dinners and breakfasts and moved backwards.
7 The only thing that happened in this case, the only
8 thing they can put on the stand to testify that Deborah Gore Dean
9 was not telling the truth was a driver, someone who had been 10 demoted in every position she had at HUD as to her reputation, 11 and an FBI agent who somehow had saved the day because he went to 12 the watergate and found a contract for the sale of an apartment
13 on June 15.
14 And as I read you her testimony, which you have the 15 right to see -- and don't let anybody fool you, you have the 16 right to see the evidence in this case, it's coming back with 17 you, and you have the right to see transcripts, and you have the 18 right to go to the page numbers, and you have the right to see 19 what was said, and I beg of you to look at it, because it's the 20 evidence that matters.
2 Let's talk about some of the additional evidence. What
2 is the evidence, the evidence in the case about the use of 2 consultants? Now this exhibit is going to come back to you, and 2 it's evidence, not argument. It's evidence. I would ask you to 2 examine it carefully, because when Mr. O'Neill talks about these

3465

1 hundreds of thousands of dollars and 250,000 here and Deborah
2 Gore Dean here and $500,000 there and tries to get you to think
3 that this case is about money, as if she got any of it, as if she 4 got any of it, because she was sending these units someplace, I

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

5 want you to read this memo.

6 And here's what this memo says: "HUD --" let's back up
7 for a second. Let's back up. It's for David White, general
8 counsel; it's from Betty Park, acting assistant general counsel,
9 the lawyers, the government lawyers, the very same government
10 that paid Mr. O'Neill's check, the very same government that pays
11 these individuals' checks, the same government that pays Senator
12 Proxmire's checks.

13 The second paragraph -- and I know it's hard to read,
14 but it's so important, I'm going to read to you, and I'll let you 15 follow it so I don't make any mistakes, and I ask you to look at 16 it when you get back into the jury room. Notice it's Dean
17 Exhibit 13. It doesn't show up on any of the charts. "HUD does 18 not regulate the amount or terms of contracts between a 19 prospective section 8 property owner and his consultant."

20 Now you can read -- I want you to read the whole thing
2 when you go back there, because what this says, even though it's 2 broad and it's written by lawyers, what it says is that there's 2 nothing we can do about consultants. We can't regulate them. We 2 can't stop them. We don't like them, but there's nothing we can
2 do, and these are the HUD lawyers saying that.

3466

Now this memo is dated in 1988. Now the reason it's important is because in 1988, after all this had blown up, they're still coming to the same opinion, and it's the same opinion that Ms. Dean testified to: We can't do anything about consultants.

Look at the last paragraph: "Subsequently, provided that the consultant fee is not included in the costs which are 8 used to calculate the contract rent, the owner is free to enter
9 any agreement that he desires with his consultant."

10 Now it doesn't get any better than that. It doesn't 11 get any clearer than that, that there's not one darn thing that 12 Deborah Gore Dean or Sam Pierce could do about consultants. They 13 could not stop developers from entering into whatever contract
14 they wanted to. It wasn't in their control. They don't do it.
15 Their own lawyer said so.

16 Now why is that important? The reason that's important
17 is because you've got to find that Ms. Dean willingly and 18 knowingly entered a conspiracy, a criminal conspiracy with the 19 developers and the consultants. That's what they've charged her 20 with. How can they charge her with that when she can't do
21 anything about it?

22 Now we didn't manufacture that memo. You know, I
23 didn't make it up. Ms. Dean doesn't even show up on it. It's 24 HUD policy. What would you have her do? How can she avoid it?
25 You know how she can avoid it. She can avoid it very 3467

1 carefully. All she has to do is cut off relationships with John
2 Mitchell, not become friends with Richard Shelby, not talk to 3 Mr. Brennan when he comes by the office, ignore the person who
4 has a close relationship with her mother, not see Mr. Kitchin,
5 who's an important political person, and otherwise, what she
6 could do is not do her job.

7 And the reason I say that to you is if you will look at 8 her job description when you go back into the jury room and read
9 it -

and that's another exhibit that's not on the chart, what 10 was Deborah Dean supposed to be doing -- it says in that job
11 description that part of her job is to talk to all these private 12 individuals and private groups.

13 Now that's what she's supposed to do, because Secretary

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
14 Pierce can't do it all. He can't talk to all of them. So he 15 relies on Deborah Dean to tell him what they're saying.
16 And you know what would have happened if somebody as 17 prominent as, say, Ronald Reagan had announced that units were 18 going to be awarded someplace and Ms. Dean and HUD hadn't done
19 anything about it? They would have all been fired. Of course
20 they would have been fired.
2 Do you know what would have happened if Deborah Gore
2 Dean had ever, had ever violated her duty to Secretary Samuel
2 Pierce? She would have been fired. And why? Because the most
2 important characteristic in an executive assistant is loyalty,
2 and you've got to be loyal. You've "got to do what your boss

3468 wants.

2 Now Deborah Dean didn't stand on this stand and say,
3 "Okay, okay, Secretary Pierce did it, Secretary Pierce did it,
4 Secretary Pierce did it, Secretary Pierce did it." No, she 5 didn't. She knew what Janet Hale said, which was, "Deborah Dean
6 did it, Deborah Dean did it." She told you what she told 7 Secretary Pierce when she told Secretary Pierce and what she 8 didn't tell Secretary Pierce.
9 Now she also told you there was a door between their 10 two offices. I don't remember her testifying that he was running 11 and whispering to her on a regular basis as to what she should 12 do. That's not fair. what Mr. O'Neill says isn't fair. She 13 didn't say that.
14 But when you look at the exhibits, the exhibits, not 15 the government exhibits, not the ones that are on their chart,
16 but when you look at the evidence, you're going to see several 17 instances of Samuel Pierce saying, "See me on this." "Take care
18 of this." "Get back to me on this."
19 One good one is, "I would like to fund this if we can."
20 Do you remember the battered women's shelter out in Seattle?
21 "See what you can do about it." It got funded, about as project
22 specific as you can get, by the way. A battered women's shelter
23 in Seattle certainly deserved consideration to get funded, and 24 they saw what they could do it about it, and they helped them.
25 The point being that when you look at the credibility

3469

1 of witnesses, you've got to look at what they said and the
2 questions that were asked, as opposed to a personal attack,
3 because the case revolves around evidence, not around harassment
4 or heckling or ridicule.
5 what else does the evidence, the evidence show with 6 regard to Arama? well, Mr. O'Neill says in his opening, page
7 3353, "Mitchell goes to the defendant, goes to Ms. Dean.
8 Mitchell spoke with the defendant about Arama, and she agreed to 9 send 293 units to Arama."
10 well, take another look at this, 638. Who is Mitchell
11 talking about 300 units to Florida? He talked to Maurice
12 Barksdale.
13 Now you might say, well, okay, I mean, yeah, there's 14 one telephone message. I mean, what's that? well, one telephone
15 message maybe, Mr. Wehner, may not be too much.
16 You go to another telephone message, 637, about the 17 same time, John Mitchell talking to Lance Wilson, all of these at 18 or about the time this project is being funded.
19 Now what's not fair about this is that John Mitchell
20 isn't here. He's dead. I'm sorry, I would like for him to have 2 been here to testify, because I think it would have been

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 fascinating to hear what he would have said, but what you've got
2 to do is look at the evidence and figure out in your own mind
2 your best estimate as to what happened, and once you figure out
2 your best estimate as to what happened, whether it's guilt or

3470

1 innocence, determine whether the government has proven beyond a
2 reasonable doubt based on the evidence that there was some crime
3 committed.
4 Now how can you take the evidence, the evidence and 5 reach that conclusion that John Mitchell got these units from 6 Deborah Gore Dean? It's not illogical, but it's not proven.
7 It's hardly proven, because how can you prove what John Mitchell
8 said or did?
9 well, one way the government can prove what John
10 Mitchell said or did is they can put some witnesses on the stand 11 and they could say, "Mr. Mitchell told me he got these units from 12 Deborah Gore Dean."
13 well, they tried, and who did they put up there? They 14 put up Governor Nunn of Kentucky, who testified - and look in 15 the transcript -
who testified that John Mitchell didn't tell 16 him he was going to see anybody at HUD, much less Ms. Dean, and 17 then the government puts on Jack Brennan, and they try to get 18 Mr. Brennan to say - well, they tried to get Mr. Brennan to say,
19 they tried to infer from what Mr. Brennan said that Ms. Dean knew 20 that John Mitchell was involved.
2 Instead, what does Jack Brennan say on cross
2 examination? "When Deborah Dean found out that John Mitchell had 2 been involved in any of this, she was shocked and aghast."
2 That's the government witness. It's not somebody the defense
2 called. That's evidence. That's evidence.

3471

Now, so what does the government rely upon? what they rely upon is absolutely fascinating that your government could do this, your government could do this. It just fascinates me.
what they rely on is a letter. Here's the letter.
It's dated July 6, 1984. And you'll have this letter back there.
Look at the letter. And a letter dated July 5, 1984, okay?
Now the government's theory is, their theory and what they want you to believe is that this July 6 letter was written as a result of this July 5 letter.
10 Now let's look at the July 6 letter. "There has been 11 read to me from my Washington office a letter signed by the 12 assistant secretary of HUD."
13 Now last time I checked, Deborah Gore Dean was never 14 the assistant secretary at HUD. There's no evidence that she 15 was. In fact, she wasn't. And more significantly, this is from 16 an executive assistant to the secretary. Now there's a huge
17 difference.
18 But, you know, maybe they could have, maybe they didn't 19 hear right on the phone. I mean, the testimony, there was 20 testimony that this letter was read. Maybe they weren't -
well,
21 maybe so. I guess that's a reasonable explanation at this point.
22 The letter confirmed approval of the above-named
23 project of the 293 units.
24 well, this letter doesn't say anything about 293 units.
25 It doesn't appear in here. This is the evidence, not what

3472

1 somebody wants you to believe.
2 But the clincher based on the evidence is where this
3 letter says, "Let me assure you that all the necessary paperwork
4 for the units will be transmitted by the end of this week."
5 This letter says, "... should be sent to Atlanta
6 within the next three working days."
7 Now when you go back in the jury room, what I want you
8 to do is look at the July 1984 calendar, which you will have back
9 there, because the government -
10 if I can find 1984, and you look
11 and see what day July 4 and July 6 were, and you're going to see 12 that there's absolutely no way those two letters have the 13 relationship Mr. O'Neill and Ms. Sweeney would suggest to you 14 that they have.
15 Now that's evidence. That's the story. It might be a
16 different story if -- I don't know, I guess it might be a
17 different story if the Independent Counsel would have shown you
18 the two letters side by side and asked you to look at them.
19 what else could the government have done to show you
20 that Deborah Dean was involved with John Mitchell? Well, what 21 they could have done, I suppose, is they could have asked more
22 questions about Jack Brennan, and they could have asked
23 Mr. Brennan, "well, when you went to see Deborah Dean, 24 Mr. Brennan, of course, you told Ms. Dean that John Mitchell was 25 involved in this project."
26 Now -
27 and remember that this was the same Jack Brennan

3473

1 the government puts on the stand. You remember Mr. Brennan's
2 testimony. What he said was, "Later -- Mr. Mitchell --he said,
3 'Yeah, Debbie works there. I can't get involved.1"
4 Now if you look at the testimony of Jack Brennan and 5 he's saying John Mitchell is saying to him, "Debbie works there;
6 I can't get involved," what does that tell you about the 7 relationship between John Mitchell and Deborah Gore Dean? What 8 it tells you is is that John Mitchell wasn't going to go to 9 Deborah Gore Dean on that project. It also tells you that he 10 didn't want Deborah to know that he was involved in HUD.
11 Now this might be suspect if Jack Brennan had been the 12 witness that the defense called, but I submit to you it's much 13 less suspect when the government puts witnesses on the stand who 14 testify to that effect.
15 Count 1 also includes a project by the name of Park
16 Towers. The Park Towers project, the Independent Counsel would 17 have you believe based on their argument that their chart gives 18 you this solid foundation upon which to find Ms. Dean guilty.
19 well, I'd like to talk" to you a little bit about Park
20 Towers, and what I'd like to tell you about is what the 21 government leaves out of their chart, and what they leave out is 22 what their own witness testified to.
23 Their own witness was a witness by the name of Richard 24 Shelby, who testified to you for an extensive period of time, and 25 he testified that he was working with Silvio DeBartolomeis and that when he asked Silvio to help him with something, Silvio said he'd try and help him, and when he asked Ms. Dean for something, that she would not say anything. She never told him she would

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
help him, she never said she'd do one thing for him.

5 i Now which person do you think is responsible for the

I
6 moderate rehabilitation units being funded as a result of Shelby's intervention?
8 Or do you think that Deborah Gore Dean liked
Mr. Shelby, respected Mr. Shelby, and had lunch with Mr. Shelby
10 four times in four years, sometimes paying, sometimes not paying?
11 And theirs was a social relationship.
12 And you have to separate in your own mind what the 13 evidence shows the relationship between Ms. Dean and Richard 14 Shelby was, and one of the things that you need to look at is 15 what Mr. Shelby did with regards to mod rehab or was he working 16 on something else?

17 Now Government's Exhibit 74 is an exhibit that 18 Mr. O'Neill pounded and pounded and pounded Ms. Dean on when she 19 was on the stand, and he tried and he tried and he tried to get
20 Ms. Dean to say that this was a thank-you note for all the mod
21 rehab units she had sent to Shelby. This is the way that 22 Mr. O'Neill and your government would have you interpret this

23 letter.
24 Now I'd like you to look at the letter, and I want you
25 to look at it when you're back in the jury room, because that's the evidence, and I want you to look at this and see what it says. It says, "It was wonderful to have an opportunity to get to know you better, and I especially appreciated your advice and counsel relative to certain areas that we should focus our attention on over the course of the next few months. In fact, at your convenience, I would very much like to take advantage of your kind offer to sit down with certain of your technical people in order to learn more about the coinsurance program."

3475
Now how in the world does that relate to mod rehab?
10 That letter tells you what they discussed at lunch. They 11 discussed something called coinsurance that has obviously nothing
12 to do with mod rehab or he would have said "mod rehab." It has 13 something to do with a technical program. She's giving him
14 information about some technical program, and he wants to come in 15 and get a briefing from his government.
16 well, okay, but what does it have to do with this case?
17 what does it prove? It proves that they were with best wishes
18 and kindest regards. It doesn't prove that any money went from 19 Richard Shelby to Deborah Gore Dean. It doesn't prove that she 20 was corrupt. It doesn't prove she entered into a criminal
21 conspiracy.
22 And do you know how far this goes? They talk about 23 meetings and lunches and dinners, and they even tell you that on 24 Christmas Eve, she was criminally conspiring with Richard Shelby,
25 because she had a lunch scheduled with him on December 24.

3476
Now I'm sorry, but sometimes good friends get together around Christmas. Sometimes friends buy lunch for another friend on Christmas Eve. A pretty strange time to have a meeting in a criminal conspiracy.

It doesn't wash, and the reason it doesn't wash is because it's the evidence that counts in this case, the evidence that counts in this case, not what someone characterizes as garbage. To argue that a meeting on Christmas evening with a close friend is somehow part of a criminal conspiracy is 10 staggering. What kind of government calls it garbage and wants 11 you to believe a Christmas Eve lunch is part of a criminal 12 conspiracy?
13 Is she the devil incarnate? Is she? Is she worth so 14 little in her six days on the witness stand that it's garbage?
15 It would probably bore you, I know it would bore you, 16 it would certainly bore me if I go through all these charts one 17 by one and showed you how each entry on the government's charts 18 is subject to different interpretations based upon the evidence. 19 Unfortunately, that's a task that falls to you.
20 We've had the chance to argue to you about what the 21 evidence shows. You have to review the evidence, and you have to 22 review the testimony to determine what the facts are. And I 23 don't intend to go through every one of these charts, but please 24 don't take that to mean that there aren't any more inaccuracies 25 in any of these charts, and just to show that to you, I'm going to point out some additional ones just so you know that you can't rely on what you're hearing from your government. Let's talk about Foxglenn. Let's go to the Foxglenn chart, and specifically, let's talk about a couple dates the government puts on that chart as showing a criminal conspiracy. Let's talk about August 5 and August 7.

Now what I'd like you to do is to take the government's evidence and go back and find out whether Ms. Dean had lunch with Mr. Shelby on those days as part of a criminal conspiracy, 10 because if you recall, that's when Ms. Dean was home with I think 11 it was meningitis, but you can look in the testimony and see. 12 You can look at the calendars.
13 And yet you say -- and yet the government says that 14 that's a part of a criminal conspiracy to have that lunch with 15 Rick Shelby.
16 Now what's significant about that? What's significant 17 about that is it is not only did not Richard Shelby testify, but not 18 one other person testified in this case that during any of these 19 lunches they talked about a criminal conspiracy. Not one of the 20 government's witnesses said, "Yes, I'm a co-conspirator. Yes, 21 Ms. Dean's a conspirator. Yes, we broke the law."
22 They all sat up there and told you, "We didn't think we 23 were doing anything wrong. We weren't doing anything wrong."
24 They didn't know why they were named co-conspirators.
25 These were the government's witnesses that make them, that give them immunity, they're saying, "We're not going to charge you with what we're charging Ms. Dean with. We're not going to charge you with making hundreds of thousands of dollars."

But they got on the witness stand, and Richard Shelby said, "I wasn't doing anything wrong." Do you know why he said he wasn't doing anything wrong? Maybe he had a crush on Ms. Dean. Maybe they enjoyed each other's company. I don't know. But they certainly weren't having lunch as a part of a 10 criminal conspiracy, because that's what he testified to.
11 Now isn't that what Mr. Shelby said? Didn't he say 12 that he wasn't doing anything wrong?
13 Speaking of Shelby, it's probably a very good time at

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

14 this point to talk to you about this theory that the government
15 has that somehow Ms. Dean was personally benefiting from what was 16 going on with these consultants, and, you know, the theory is it
17 may have some initial attractiveness, but here's the problem with
18 it:

19 These consultants were making hundreds of thousands of 20 dollars. I mean, they were cleaning up. Now if anybody was ever
21 in a position to demand $50,000, $100,000, $20,000, a
22 quarter-million dollars from John Mitchell, from Richard Shelby,
23 from Lou Kitchin, from John Rosenthal, from Andy Sankin, if there 24 was ever anybody that was in a position to be corrupt, it would 25 have been Deborah Dean and Samuel Pierce, because given some of the people that testified for the government, I imagine that if they would have given the slightest indication, either Deborah Dean or Samuel Pierce, that they would have taken a kickback, it probably would have been offered.

3479

And you know as well as I do that with the millions of dollars that had been put into this case by the Independent Counsel, the flying to California by the FBI, the witnesses they brought in from New Hampshire, from California, from all across the country, that if there were one small penny going from John 10 Mitchell's financial records, from his bank accounts, from his 11 will, from his estate, from his pocket to Deborah Gore Dean or 12 her mother or her family or her aunt or her uncle or her brother
13 or anybody else remotely connected to the Dean family, you would 14 have seen the evidence. It's not there.

15 And don't you think if there were a criminal conspiracy
16 involving John Mitchell and Deborah Gore Dean and her mother, 17 that money would be a part of it, that the money would have 18 flowed from John Mitchell to Mrs. Dean? Not to Deborah, but to 19 Mrs. Dean?

20 No. Instead what does the evidence show? The evidence 21 shows that Mr. Mitchell had an apartment or a house and was 22 living in it that was owned by Ms. Dean's mother. Now who's 23 getting the benefit? John Mitchell is getting the benefit from 24 the Dean family. He's not even paying the rent for the house.
25 He's not giving them a free house; they're giving it to him.

3480

It's backwards.

The whole theory is backwards, because there's no evidence of the kickback. Where's the corruption? Where's the money? Where's the money from Mr. Shelby to Ms. Dean? Not there. Four lunches, some of which Deborah Gore Dean paid for and which Mr. Shelby paid for, but where's the money?

Mr. Sankin, where's the money? Is it -- do Independent 8 Counsel truly want you to believe that somehow Mr. Sankin, who is managing the Stanley Arms for Ms. Dean, was really giving 10 Ms. Dean something in return for moderate rehabilitation units?
11 The money was all going from Ms. Dean out. It wasn't coming
12 back. Look at the evidence.

13 And speaking of Mr. Sankin, that's another good
14 example. In the government's opening, when they opened to you
15 and they started talking to you about this case, Mr. O'Neill told 16 you about Mr. Sankin, and I'll be darned, I reread this last 17 night, and Mr. Sankin, he describes his testimony and talks about 18 the amount of money Mr. Sankin received on all these projects and 19 all these commissions, and he talks about how somehow Mr. Sankin
20 performing these free services for Ms. Dean, but you know 21 something? He never tells you in his opening that Sankin was

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

22 getting paid. He doesn't tell you that Sankin was getting paid
23 4-1/2 percent of the gross rents, which was later increased to 6
24 percent. He didn't tell you that.
25 Now I'm telling you that, but that doesn't matter,

3481

1 because what I'm saying isn't evidence, but it's testimony, which
2 is evidence, that Sankin was getting money. He was getting paid
3 for his efforts.

How can you turn that into a criminal conspiracy, a corrupt Deborah Dean? Is she truly the devil incarnate? I don't think so. Or does the evidence show you that she had social friends, she had people that worked for her family, she talked to them, she had lunch with them, she went out and had a drink with them, she met with them in her office, they came to see her, she 10 went to see them?

11 And what did she do? No, she didn't refuse to see
12 them. No, she didn't become a hermit. What she did was she did 13 her job, as I told you in my opinion, as best she could, and the 14 way she did her job as best as she could was to not to lie, not 15 to cheat, not to steal.

16 And how did she do it? She did it by when somebody
17 bought her lunch, she'd buy them lunch, by spending her own money
18 on entertainment. She did it by telling her boss, Samuel Pierce, 19 who was involved in projects. She did it by making sure that 20 Samuel Pierce knew when 600 units went to Puerto Rico and Joe
2 Strauss was behind them, they got pulled back because it made
2 Samuel Pierce look bad.

2 She tells Samuel Pierce that she's friends with some of 2 these people who are getting mod rehab units, and what's his
2 response? It's a very wise response, frankly: "You can't not do your job."

3482

I mean, part of good government, Ladies and Gentlemen, is doing your job in full disclosure, and if your boss knows what your relationships are, how can you be corrupt if your boss is making the decisions? How does that work?

Now probably one of the most troublesome areas in this case in terms of the evidence is Deborah Dean's relationship to Louis Kitchin. I think if there's anything that Deborah Dean ever did in her entire life that she would like to have not done
10 is taken that $4,000 check. It looks bad.

11 She didn't deny that she took it, and she explained to 12 you the circumstances about which she took it. And 13 notwithstanding Mr. O'Neill's frantic efforts, frankly, to toss 14 it in the garbage can, her testimony fits the facts, and the 15 reason it fits the facts is because Mr. O'Neill would have you 16 believe that Ms. Dean made absolutely no effort to pay back those 17 funds when she discovered that Lou Kitchin was no longer
18 interested in finding a condominium or an apartment in 19 Washington.

20 Now one of the exhibits that's going to come back to 21 you in the jury room is going to be the checkbook from which that 22 check was written, and you're going to be able to look at that 23 checkbook, and you're going to be able to look at the check stub, 24 and it's going to say that the check was written in the amount of 25 $4,250 to Lou Kitchin.

1 Now you can decide on your own if that was somehow made
2 up or false or if Ms. Dean is just making up this story just to 3 try to explain what she did, but when you do that and you look at 4 that check, well, figure, look at the check, and I challenge
5 Mr. O'Neill to tell you why it's phony. He cross-examined her.
6 It's not phony. It's evidence she wrote the check. It's not 7 phony.
8 The FBI, with all its resources, who had the check to 9 examine the check and tell if you it's phony, they'll tell you if 10 the ink came from a year that it couldn't have been written, the 11 best they can do is say she didn't have sufficient funds in her
12 account.
13 well, of course she didn't have sufficient funds in her
14 account. She'd taken the money from Mr. Kitchin, she'd spent it,
15 and she had to get the money back to him. So she wrote him a
16 check, and then she goes out the next day, and she applies for a 17 loan for $10,000. Now Mr. O'Neill would have you ignore that.
18 She went out and she applied for a loan.
19 Now does that truly mean that Ms. Dean is guilty of 20 taking a bribe? I submit to you that it doesn't on the evidence.
2 she made a mistake, and she tried to correct it.
2 Another exhibit that you'll see that the government has 2 introduced when you go back to deliberate will be a handwritten
2 list, and on tha*t handwritten list in Ms. Dean's handwriting
2 there's going to be a list. I'm going to hold up part of it

3484

1 here. I'll put it on the presenter.
2 You can't see it very well from this, but I just want
3 you to remember what you're looking at when you go back. You'll 4 see a list that looks something like this, with boxes around it,
5 and you remember testimony as to that list?
6 well, one of the reasons that I want you to look at 7 that list is because that is in Ms. Dean's handwriting, as she 8 testified to, and it contains the, the very project, Metro Dade,
9 that the government claims is a part and parcel of this alleged 10 Kitchin-Dean gratuity/bribe/corruptness.
11 And the reason it's important to look at that list is 12 because when you look at it with the rest of the evidence in the 13 case, you will find that the person who truly caused that project
14 to go to Metro Dade was not one Deborah Dean,- it was one Thomas
15 Demery.
16 Now I want --if you would just concentrate, please, I
17 know I've been talking a long time, on this for a minute, because 18 I want you to remember this evidence when you're deliberating.
19 The general counsel of HUD testified as to a defense
20 witness. His name was Dorsey, J. Michael Dorsey. He testified
2 to the April 7 funding round, when the decision was made to fund
2 Metro Dade. He testified that he was a member of the committee
2 that actually made the decision, and what he said was that he
2 asked Tom Demery about the Metro Dade project and that Tom Demery
2 says that they'll be funded, because they've got severe problems.

3485

Now this is a defense witness. Assume he was lying for a minute, because garbage. You know why it wasn't garbage?
Because he also testified as to why he remembered it, and the reason he remembered it was because that housing authority was having some real problems. Do you remember he testified the executive director had been fired?

1 MR. WEHNER: And that he knew he should ask
2 questions about that because he wanted to make sure they
3 could administer the program. So he asks Tom Demery and 4 Demery asks him why did he fund it? Now, why is that
5 important? It's important because he doesn't remember
6 Deborah Gore Dean saying should be funded, should be 7 funded, should be funded. And when he asked the 8 question why should it be funded, Deborah Dean didn't 9 say fund it. Tom Demery said fund it. Reason one she's

10 telling the truth about those Kitchin transactions.
11 Reason two. When you look at the list that 12 I've put up on the monitor, there are four projects that 13 are in squares on that list. Miss Dean put the squares
14 on the list. She testified to that. Why did the 15 squares get on the list? She told you why they got on 16 the list, because she hadn't discussed them with
17 Secretary Pierce.
18 why did she have to discuss that Metro-Dade
19 project with Secretary Pierce? Because she had a 20 relationship with Lou Kitchin.
2 what did she tell him? The same conversation
2 I've been talking to you about previously. What do I
2 do? This is the situation between Mr. Kitchin and 2 myself. What do I do? She says she can't move. What 2 does she do? She goes to the meeting. And who 3487

1 testifies that he wanted the project funded? Demery.
2 And the testimony, the evidence is, there is no evidence
3 that Deborah Dean said a word.
4 Now, what corroborates Miss Dean's story? Her
5 own testimony, the testimony of Michael Dorsey. And one
6 of them, a very nice, very critical piece of evidence
7 that the Government didn't show you but that we found in 8 their documents and what it is, ladies and gentlemen,
9 it's a letter -- I'll put my hand on it. I'm trying to 10 keep all this organized, and you've seen throughout this 11 trial sometimes I've had a problem with organization.

12 But it's Dean Exhibit 147 and Government Exhibit 580.
13 Well, now, where did this come from? It came 14 out of Tom Demery's file. It didn't come from Deborah 15 Dean. The writing is not in her handwriting. Lou and 16 file. Funded. Mod Rehab file. Nope. What 17 corroborates her story, what corroborates her
18 testimony? The evidence. Not garbage. The evidence.
19 And that, ladies and gentlemen, is how you
20 start backwards. You decide you're going to indict
2 Miss Dean, you decide she's committed a crime, and you
2 back up and you pick and choose pieces of paper and you
2 pick and choose testimony and you pick and choose
2 witnesses until you can put something colorable,
2 politically colorable, and get a charge.

3488

1 And when I talked in my opening about level
2 playing fields, that's exactly what I meant. Because 3 you're the level playing field. There's not a chance of 4 survival of this young lady or her family or any part of 5 her until she comes in here, gets on the witness stand
6 for six or seven days and talks to you. You're the only 7 chance she's got. Because you don't come from the 8 Government. You don't come from the Senate.

9 You remember the tape recording we played?
10 The tape recording? The venom from Proxmire? Listen to 11 it again back in the jury room. He was out to get her.
12 What about the Diners Club card? What about loans from 13 subordinates? Well, you were a bartender. Well, excuse
14 me. Senator D'Amato was a janitor. What does that have 15 to do with anything? Nothing, nothing, nothing.
16 The Government, it's like she's going into a
17 threshing mill. They're going to chew her up and spit 18 her out. And it all starts in the same place. And it's 19 all the same Government. It's all the same Government
20 that we know doesn't work, that doesn't empower anyone,
2 that doesn't help anyone, and it's chewing her up. And

2 they want you to throw her out as part of the garbage.
2 She doesn't deserve it.
2 Your Honor, could I have a few minutes break,
2 please?

3489

1 THE COURT: All right.

2 Have you got a couple of more minutes to go?

3 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir, I do, but I'm losing my

4 throat here for a minute, so I'd like to --

5 THE COURT: All right, I'll give you a short

6 recess.

7 MR. WEHNER: Thank you.

8 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, we'll take a

9 short recess, five minutes, and come right back and 10 finish up.

11 Remember the admonitions again, still do not
12 talk about the case among yourselves or with anyone else
13 during our short break. All right?

14 (Jury dismissed)

15 THE COURT: All right.

16 (Recess 10:50 a.m. to 11:25 a.m.)

17 THE COURT: I just want to note for the record
18 that juror number four says she's not feeling well. I
19 thought maybe Mr. Wehner perceived that when he asked
20 for the recess. But she was checked at the nurse's
2 station. She's feeling better but apparently there's a

2 stomach flu that may be circulating among our jurors.

2 But she says she's fine and ready to go back.

2 (Jury present)

2 THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen,

3490

1 we're ready to proceed now with the completion of the

2 closing argument on behalf of Miss Dean.

3 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 Ladies and gentlemen, one thing that

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

5 Mr. O'Neill didn't or barely mentioned in his closing
6 argument were the charges regarding perjury and false
7 statements. I would like to spend a few of my remaining
8 minutes on those issues and tell you what the evidence
9 shows on those issues.
10 The evidence on those issues, and you will

11 have the transcript, so don't take my word for it, but 12 this document which is entitled hearing will be back in 13 the jury room with you, and as well as the tape
14 recording which has been entered into evidence and I
15 believe His Honor will instruct you that if you wish to 16 listen to the tape recording he will make arrangements
17 for someone to play it for you, to provide a tape

18 machine.
19 But the evidence in the case is what you need
20 to rely on with regard to the perjury counts as well as 2 the other counts in the case and I would like to read to
2 you just a portion and I'm not going to read the whole
2 thing, you needn't have to look at the whole thing, but
2 I just want to highlight a couple of areas.
2 First of all, the Chairman, who is Senator

3491

1 Proxmire, you remember his voice from the tape,
2 says, "Now, Miss Dean, we have received a number of 3 complaints that in 1987," in 1987, "this year, there has 4 been no notification of funds availability at regional 5 offices." He then goes on, and there's a discussion
6 between the Chairman of the Committee and Miss Dean in 7 which Miss Dean says, "Senator, have you switched
8 programs? Are you still on the Secretary's
9 discretionary fund?" He says, "I'm sorry, will you -

10 you're speaking clearly, but I think a little too fast
11 for my slow mind." Miss Dean said he talked too fast, 12 and there's some laughter. Miss Dean asked if he 13 switched programs and he said, "Well, all right, I'll go
14 slower, too." And he repeats the question.
15 So there's no doubt about what he's asking.
16 Let's not have any doubt about it. There's no doubt
17 about what the Senator is asking about. There's no
18 doubt that Miss Dean knows what he's asking about, and 19 the Senator repeats the question. "All right, I'll go
20 slower, too.
21 we received a number of complaints that in
22 1987, this year, there's been no notification of funds
23 availability to regional offices," and then he goes on 24 and he continues his question. Please read the whole
25 thing in the back. The point I want to make without 3492

1 going over every word is that Miss Dean responds to the 2 question and the question in his own words which he
3 repeats twice is limited to 1987 and how the Moderate
4 Rehabilitation Program is working in 1987. He says it
5 twice. He goes slower. She responds to it.
6 Now, why is Miss Dean's answer truthful? It's 7 truthful because when you read it she is talking about
8 1987. She's talking about the time period when Thomas
9 Demery was the Federal Housing Commissioner. That was,
10 according to the evidence, that's when Mr. Demery was a

11 Federal Housing Commissioner, in 1987.
12 Now, what does Mr. Demery have to say, the 13 Government's own witness? We didn't call him, they 14 called him. What does Mr. Demery have to say about the 15 way the program operated in 1987? There's an exhibit.
16 There's evidence about what Mr. Demery has to say. And 17 that is in exhibit 190, and this is a blow-up of what 18 you're going to have back in the jury room that is 19 evidence for you to consider, and a part of his 20 testimony is, this is him responding to the following
2 allegation, he says, "As you will recall, in January,

2 1987," that same year, "you directed me," and let me
2 remind you, you can look at it in the jury room, it's a
2 memorandum from Demery to Secretary Pierce, "you,"
2 Secretary Pierce, "directed me," Tom Demery. Now, where 3493

1 did you hear that testimony before to set up the
2 Committee? You heard it from Deborah Dean. "To chair a 3 Mod Rehab Selection Committee comprised of your

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
4 Executive Assistant, Deborah Dean, and the

5 Undersecretary J. Michael Dorsey," who you heard

6 testimony from, "the Committee reviewed the PHA, Public

7 Housing Authority, letter requests for funding

8 consideration and made their selections. Mr. Adams,"

9 that's the person who gave the other information to the 10 Secretary, "is well aware of this process. For him," 11 Mr. Adams, "to allege that I personally controlled the 12 Mod Rehabilitation Project allocation process is a 13 misstatement. In all cases, each funding action
14 occurred as a result of specific written or verbal
15 communications with Public Housing Authorities, elected
16 public officials, and regional or area HUD personnel.
17 It was my job to coordinate the various requests and 18 present them to the Selection Committee. The Committee, 19 not Tom Demery, decided and approved the allocation of 20 Mod Rehab units."

2 Now, when you compare what the Government's

2 own witness said about the selection of Moderate
2 Rehabilitation units in 1987 with what Miss Dean said
2 about the selection of Moderate Rehabilitation units in 2 1987 you can't find one false statement.

3494

1 That's the evidence. It's the evidence of the 2 way it was run in 1987. Not the it was run in 1986 or 3 1985 or 1984 or 1983 or 1982 or 1960.
4 Now, the Government would have you believe
5 that her testimony is contrary to all the other evidence
6 they've put in, and that's about as fair as the rest of 7 their arguments. It's about as fair as the rest of the 8 arguments, and that's why we played the tape for you.
9 That's why the tape is in evidence. That's why the 10 whole thing, the whole kit and caboodle is for your 11 consideration. All of the evidence.

12 And it's not our witness that put this in 13 black and white and wrote it down in a memo to Secretary
14 Samuel Pierce.
15 Not wanting to make misstatements to you
16 regarding any of the evidence, and I was refreshing
17 myself during the short break we had, i wondered if I
18 had said to you that Miss Dean had lunch with Mr. Shelby
19 four times, and if I said that, what I meant to say is 20 it was four times a year. So, please, don't hold that 2 against me if that's what I said, because that was a
2 mistake. I didn't intentionally lie to you. But I
2 wanted you to know that I think it was four times a
2 year, not four times.
2 Now, with regard to the Lou Kitchin check, I'd 3495

1 like you to consider when you go back to the jury room
2 the unimpeached testimony of Miss Dean regarding why she
3 took the check. And that goes to two areas.
4 One is the testimony of Jack Jennings. Do you
5 remember Jack Jennings testified that he was a partner
6 of Lou Kitchin, and he further testified that 7 Mr. Kitchin had told him that the money was for 8 furniture. Now, that was a Government's witness that 9 was saying that the money was for furniture. It wasn't 10 something that we came up with. It came out of the 11 Government's witness' mouth. Now, where do you put 12 furniture? You put furniture -- out of the mouth of 13 Ms. Deborah Gore Dean, that the purpose of the money was 14 to furnish Lou Kitchin's apartment.
15 Now I think I satisfactorily rebutted for you
16 the Government's theory as to why Miss Dean should be 17 thrown in the garbage as a result of her testimony
18 regarding that. But if I haven't, I want you to think 19 about the furniture and what Mr. Jennings said about the 20 furniture.
2 The second thing I want you to think about is

2 the fact that Miss Dean does run an antique store and
2 that is true, that is a fact, and that's evidence, and,
2 in fact, antiques are furnishings. She's always had an
2 interest in that and that's what she does on the side.

3496

1 Now, there are probably 200,000 other specific
2 statements I could make to you, specific arguments about
3 the evidence in this case, about other things that
4 happened, about what the witnesses testified to, and I'm 5 not going to do that. And it's not because I can't.
6 It's because there comes a point in every trial where 7 it's up to you to look at the evidence and make your 8 decision and I can point out to you those pieces of 9 evidence and the evidence that supports the conclusions

10 that I desperately want you to draw but what I can't do
11 is I can't go back in the jury room and I can't say to 12 you when you look at a particular piece of evidence, no,
13 but remember that this piece of evidence says something

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
14 else, or, no, but remember that this witness said this.
15 I can't deliberate with you any more than Mr. O'Neill
16 can deliberate with you.
17 And one of the issues that arises from time to 18 time when you're a defense attorney is the fact that you
19 don't get to talk to the jury for the last time. I'm 20 not going to talk to you after I finish. The last word
2 in a criminal case always comes from the Government.
2 And that's one of the key reasons that I went through
2 what Mr. O'Neill had previously told you in his opening
2 and what he previously told you in his closing. And I
2 went back to refer you to the evidence in the case as 3497

1 opposed to what Mr. O'Neill says about the evidence in 2 the case. Because it's the evidence that governs.
3 And I would like you to give Mr. O'Neill's
4 rebuttal argument the credibility it deserves. You
5 figure out what credibility it deserves based on the
6 evidence.
7 Now, why are we here? We're here, ladies and 8 gentlemen, because Miss Dean, as His Honor will instruct 9 you, is presumed innocent. As we sit here today, she's 10 innocent. We're here because many many years ago a 11 young lady took a job with the Secretary of Housing and 12 Urban Development. We're here because she was nominated
13 for further advancement. She went through a Committee
14 process. She didn't get confirmed.
15 We're here because here's what Secretary
16 Fierce thinks of Miss Dean, and this is not something 17 that I made up, this is in the evidence. Page 28 of the 18 transcript of the evidence. And this is something
19 that -- I don't know, Mr. O'Neill wants to call
20 Secretary Pierce a victim. He doesn't sound like a
2 victim to me. "Again, Deborah Dean, in an outstanding
2 performance as my Executive Assistant during the past 12
2 months. Her dedication," this is Sam Pierce now,
2 Secretary Pierce, excuse me, "her dedication and skill
2 were dramatically exemplified during the negotiations

3498

1 earlier this year, with the National Association of 2 Realtors on the administration's Fair Housing Initiative
3 Program. Largely through her untiring efforts, the NAR
4 relaxed its longstanding opposition to testing as an
5 instrument for combating discrimination in housing
6 throughout the Nation." Does that sound like a victim?
7 Or does it sound like somebody that thought very highly
8 of his Executive Assistant and thought that she had done
9 a darn good job in what he wanted her to do.
10 Why are we here? Miss Dean could have taken 11 the route of a Janet Hale. She could have taken the 12 route of a Thomas Demery. She could have entered guilty
13 pleas. Could have done what this case is all about and 14 agreed to go on the witness stand to testify, agreed to 15 talk about Secretary Pierce. She didn't do that.
16 Instead she puts her fate in your hands.
17 We submit to you, the evidence shows the 18 reason she chose to put her fate into your hands is 19 because she's innocent. Because she got on the witness
20 stand and she explained to you everything she did, why
2 she did it, when she did it, and what she meant.

2 And I submit to you that Miss Dean's life has 2 really come full circle. The reason it's come full
2 circle is because she told you about her real father.
2 Her real father who died, when she was age three, in a

3499

1 plane crash. And her real father, who was a prosecutor
2 in the Nuremberg trials. You remember the Nuremberg
3 trials were about Nazi war crimes. And he received the 4 Medal of Freedom for his work there. A colleague of 5 his, a person by the name of Justice Jackson, and 6 Justice Jackson ended up on the Supreme Court, one day

7 in 1940, 53 years ago, Justice Jackson said this, "With 8 the law books filled with a great assortment of crimes,
9 a prosecutor stands a fair chance of finding at least a 10 technical violation of some act on the part of almost 11 anyone. It is not a question of discovering the 12 commission of a crime. It is a question of picking the 13 man," in this case, a woman, "and then pinning some 14 offense on him. It is in this realm that the greatest 15 danger of abuse of prosecuting power lies. It is here
16 that law enforcement becomes personal." And I submit to 17 you that in this case what her father's colleague said
18 over 43 years ago came true. Law enforcement has become 19 personal. About as personal as you can get, to ask a 20 jury to throw you out like garbage.
2 And I ask you, I beg of you and I plead with 2 you, decide this case on the evidence in the case, to
2 look and think, and if this country has a true justice
2 system and we're not ending up where Justice Jackson
2 said we were ending up, then you will return after your

3500

1 deliberations with a verdict of not guilty and tell
2 Deborah Dean that our justice system is not personal.
3 Thank you, Your Honor.
4 THE COURT: All right.
5 Mr. O'Neill, do you think you'll be very
6 long?
7 MR. O'NEILL: I don't think so, Your Honor.
8 THE COURT: All right.
9 MR. O'NEILL: I just have to pull one chart.

10 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, we'll have 11 the rebuttal argument now by the Government and we'll 12 take our luncheon break and argue the instructions after 13 lunch.
14 MR. O'NEILL: what did I tell you, ladies and 15 gentlemen? Someone else's fault. It's always someone
16 else's fault. Now it's my fault, it's Miss Sweeney's
17 fault. It's now the prosecutors. That's why we're
Page 1929

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
18 here. Not the evidence that was brought forth. It's 19 now a personal attack brought by us. You would think 20 you would get mad about your integrity being attacked
21 when you just presented the evidence, because you might

2 remember in opening statement I told you what a
2 prosecutor does is present the evidence. We're merely
2 vehicles by which questions are asked, witnesses take
2 the stand, documents are introduced. Both Miss Sweeney

3501

1 and myself.
2 But the problem is desperate times call for
3 desperate measures. When your back's against the wall,
4 when it's obvious the Government has put forth all this 5 evidence, the only thing you can do is lie. And when 6 that doesn't work, when the lies are shown to the jury,
7 it becomes a personal attack. And that's what it is.
8 Nothing more, nothing less.
9 You can't argue the facts of the case. So you

10 argue that someone is out to get you. That the 11 prosecution now is out to get you. Much like the FBI
12 was out to get you on that background check when you
13 asked for that background check because you wanted that 14 job. Much like a United States Senator from the United 15 States Senate was out to get Miss Dean because he didn't 16 want her for some reason to get the job that she was 17 seeking.
18 I told you during closing argument that 19 Miss Dean lied to you very clearly and that she lied to 20 you a series of times thereafter and, I repeat, you can 21 take her testimony and throw it in the garbage where it
22 belongs because someone --
23 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I object to that 24 continued characterization.
25 THE COURT: That's overruled. It's closing

3502

1 argument. It's not facts, it's argument.
2 MR. O'NEILL: Since Mr. wehner kept saying
3 that it was not garbage, that I should not have said
4 that, I'm saying that's where it belongs, in the 5 garbage. Because it was a lie, ladies and gentlemen.
6 And then you must -- as I said earlier, there

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

7 are two, two conflicting stories here, totally

8 different. Irreconcilable. One or the other is

9 correct. You must base it on what all the witnesses

10 said on one hand or Miss Dean's credibility on the 11 other, and that's what her whole case hinges upon, her 12 veracity, her honesty, her credibility. But she lied to
13 you.

14 And I'd like to show you at this time since it
15 was put into evidence and never shown to you, the 16 documents that show that, and judge for yourself, ladies
17 and gentlemen. This is a contract of sale for the 18 Watergate apartment owned by Gordon Dean and it is dated
19 April 20th, 1987, nine days before Lou Kitchin writes a 20 check to Miss Dean for $4000. This is Government's
2 Exhibit 556. And you'll see it bears Gordon Dean's

2 signature, dated April 24th, 1987. Then what we have
2 here is the purchaser's settlement statement dated June
2 10th, 1987. It's a closing. They move in after the 2 closing. And you'll see the purchase price, 135,000.

3503

1 All the necessary signatures. And here's the seller's

2 settlement statement that the seller gets at the time,

3 likewise dated June 10thf 1987. Unequivocal proof that

4 Miss Dean lied to you.

5 Mr. Wehner read certain parts of the 6 transcript to you during his closing argument, and what

7 did he read to you, ladies and gentlemen? He read to

8 you a passage in which on cross-examination Miss Dean

9 said, well, Gordon had mentally moved away before that 10 at that time and maybe there was going to be another

11 apartment, and you remember he read that at the very 12 beginning of his closing arguments today. Well, that's

13 fine. But that was on cross-examination when I started

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
14 pressing her on the issue about the apartment, what's 15 going on with the apartment. He didn't read to you what 16 she said on direct examination. Let me read that to you
17 at this time, and you'll remember the direct examination
18 when Janet Whitman testified, when Miss Withington
19 testified the first time, and they never asked her about 20 when it was sold or anything like that.
2 Let's read that testimony. And this is from

2 Mr. Wehner to Miss Dean.
2 "Question: When you received – subsequent to
2 that date when you received the check, did you discover
2 Mr. Kitchin was not going to buy an apartment?"

3504

1 "Answer: Before he gave me the check?"

2 "Question: No, after, subsequent."

3 "Answer: Oh, after. Well, at a certain

4 point, in June of that year, he had, he and I had plans

5 to have dinner, I think, and he came to my office a

6 couple of hours early, and I said, well, I can't leave

7 right now, because I have to pick up my car, and I've

8 already made arrangements to do that.

9 And he said, well, I'll come with you to pick

10 up your car.

11 I said, well, it's out in Rockville, but if

12 you want to, come along.

13 And so he came with me. And I remember Hunter

14 Cushing had agreed to give me a ride out there after 15 work. So Mr. Kitchin got in the car with us, and we

16 went out, picked up my car. And we were driving down

17 Wisconsin Avenue," she remembered very precisely, "and I

18 was discussing with him basically where -- what I had

19 bought and what we were doing and the fact that my

20 brother was getting antsy about, you know, had he signed

2 a contract.

2 And I was like, you know, you are so slow

2 about this. Are you going to do it, or are you not

2 going to do it or whatever?

2 And he said, Deborah, I talked to mu wife

3505

1 about it and she's decided that we really don't need to
2 by an apartment in Washington. Maybe we'll do it next
3 year.

4 And I remember exactly where the car was when
5 he said that. It was, we were driving down Wisconsin
6 Avenue, and it's just where Tenley Circle, the Tenley
7 Theatres are, we were right there. And I pulled the car
8 over to the side lane, and I said, I can't believe this.

9 I mean, I was pretty upset with him because he had 10 yanked me all over Washington, D. C., and I had done all 11 this work for him, and now he's telling me that he had 12 finally discussed it with his wife and that she decided
13 he wasn't going to do it this year.
14 And I pulled the car over, and I said, well, I 15 said, I'm going to give you the money back that you gave

16 me."

17 And then it goes on for another page.
18 Well, what does she say? She says the fact 19 that my brother was getting antsy about, you know, had 20 he signed a contract, and she told you, ladies and
2 gentlemen, that was on June 15th, 1987, that was a lie.
2 That was an attempt to get you to believe her story, but
2 it couldn't be true. On June 15th Mr. and Mrs. Crane
2 are living in that apartment. They signed a contract
2 for that two months earlier, on April 20th. Nine days

3506

1 before the loan to Lou Kitchin.
2 And then I went over a series of things the 3 other day, yesterday, you might recall. A series of additional mistruths that she told on the witness stand

5 about no Mod Rehab dealings with Kitchin. Never had 6 it. Sherrill Nettles-Hawkins said they did have.
7 No idea Mitchell was a consultant. But that
8 was his occupation.
9 Shocked that Mitchell made any money. Al Cain

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
10 told you, the Special Agent from HUD, that conversation
11 never ever happened.
12 She denies that Lance Wilson sent the 600 to 13 Joe Strauss in Puerto Rico. Special agent Bowie had to 14 come in here and say that's exactly what she told me.
15 Not close to Mitchell until after she left
16 HUD. In fact, the record shows she was calling him
17 Daddy five years earlier.
18 Denied the HUD driver ever drove her to 19 lunch. The records show that he did.
20 Again, the reason she would lie about that,
2 she was in a trick bag. Either she lied to the Senate
2 about using it for personal reasons or she lied to you
2 about Mitchell doing business with her.
2 She said she didn't know Nunn until she left
2 HUD. Yet told other people she knew him as a young

3507

1 girl.
2 Only work at Global to run a party when in
3 fact she wrote Director of Public Relations.
4 Only knew Shelby for five years -- excuse me,
5 stated she didn't know Shelby until her time at HUD.
6 when in fact she had said she had known him for five
7 years.
8 It goes on, ladies and gentlemen. One after 9 the other -10
MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I object to the 11 mischaracterization, and the continuing
12 mischaracterization, of the testimony of Miss Dean.
13 THE COURT: All right. It's overruled. It's 14 closing argument. The jury's recollection will control.
15 MR. O'NEILL: And I'll keep going, ladies and 16 gentlemen, because I won't miss a step with objections.
17 This is something I've done for quite sometime and I'll 18 be able to continue.
19 They were lies, ladies and gentlemen. Lies,
20 blatant attempts to cover up what had occurred, to sway
2 you.
2 You've heard several times about the
2 Government's witnesses. Mr. Wehner says it's the 2 Government's witness, the Government called this
2 person. Let's make no mistake about this. Andrew

3508

1 Sankin is not my friend. Richard Shelby is not my 2 friend. These are people who were called by the 3 Government because they worked at HUD at that time, who 4 were colleagues of Miss Dean or were friends of 5 Miss Dean. They're not people that I know. The 6 Government calls who is available at that time. We go
7 back, just like the documents, you cull through the 8 documents, Mr. Sankin is not in my calendars. You will 9 get the calendar entries that are in evidence. You will 10 see it's Miss Dean's calendars in which Mr. Sankin 11 appears, in which Mr. Shelby appears, Mr. Broussard and 12 a host of other people that you've heard about, not 13 mine.
14 I don't vouch for the credibility of these

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
15 witnesses, nor does Mr. wehner. It is you, the jury,
16 that determines what is believable, what is credible,
17 whether the defendant is guilty as charged or not. That 18 is your function, ladies and gentlemen. And His Honor, 19 when he instructs you on the credibility of the 20 witnesses, will tell you, you judge whether that person
2 was credible, whether they've made misstatements and if
2 those misstatements were made, do you think -we all
2 misstate, I misstate quite often when I go to speak and
2 maybe speak too fast and the words come out wrong,
2 that's one thing, but when someone purposely misstates

3509

1 what they're saying, such as my brother is antsy on June
2 15th, when there is no more apartment, and all the other
3 misstatements that I've just gone through, if those are 4 purposeful, you will hear, you can just disregard her
5 entire testimony based on what His Honor reads you on 6 the law. That is the state of the law. If you find a 7 witness incredible you do not have to believe a single 8 thing that witness says.

9 So you as the jury can throw her testimony in 10 the garbage. That is up to you. It's what you decide.
11 You again are the judges of the facts.
12 Mr. wehner has talked about reasonable doubt.
13 I won't go into that because it's a concept that His 14 Honor must instruct you on, and that's the applicable
15 law in this case and every criminal case in this 16 country, in every courtroom throughout these 50 States.
17 That is the rule of law that applies in each and every 18 criminal case; it's the Government must prove the 19 defendant guilty beyond a reasonable doubt and in this 20 case, ladies and gentlemen, the Government has proved it
2 beyond all doubt.

2 You've heard the evidence. The evidence that
2 the Government produced through all the witnesses,
2 through all the documents, and on the other side you
2 have a series of misstatements, of falsehoods, of lies.

3510

1 They don't balance up. They're not even close, ladies
2 and gentlemen. They can't be.
3 Yesterday when Mr. wehner started on his

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
4 closing argument he talked about the fact that we said
5 there was a code, a coded reference to a number of units
6 and that we weren't able to prove that. Well, ladies
7 and gentlemen, we cited Mr. Greer's testimony, that 8 Mr. Greer knew nothing about a code.
9 I'd like to show you Government's Exhibit 39

10 just briefly and show you if you don't believe that 11 there was a code, and you might remember what I said
12 yesterday about why would a person like Mr. Martinez pay
13 425,000 on Arama and 219,000 on South Florida unless he 14 couldn't be assured of the units. Look what he's 15 saying, "Please note that while we submitted 219 units
16 which is as close as we could come to the 200 number,
17 there are eight different buildings, this should present
18 no problem because when the funds are set aside in the 19 HUD Central Office in Washington, since they do not know
20 the exact bedroom mix of the units, the funds are set
2 based on all the apartment being two bedrooms. Our mix
2 is 24 efficiencies, 153 one bedroom, and 42 two
2 bedrooms, therefore, there is ample room to support this
2 proposal.
2 Notwithstanding the above, if we could get

3511

1 that the fund availability is for 219 units it would be
2 much better, since then there would be no confusion as 3 to whose proposal it is."
4 Of course it's a code. He has to know the 5 exact amount. He's going to shell out $129,000 and if 6 he's paying that, he's going to make sure he gets those
7 units.
8 Mr. Wehner also began with yesterday saying
9 there's not one piece of evidence, not one document to 10 show Miss Dean did not tell the truth, that she lied, as 11 the Government said. You'll have the opportunity, like 12 with all the other documents, look at these closing 13 April papers. Look at the dates on them. They 14 unequivocally show that she lied to you, ladies and 15 gentlemen, on that stand, under oath.

16 Mr. Wehner is in a very tough position, ladies
17 and gentlemen. Because he cast in his opening statement
18 to get a level playing field, and that's what happened
19 here. We picked a jury. You recall it took a lot of 20 time to pick a jury. We picked a jury that could be 21 fair to both sides, had nothing to do with this case and 22 could listen dispassionately, but it wasn't this jury
23 that hasn't provided a level playing field, and I
24 believe that you will to both sides, it's his client by 25 telling you falsehoods you're in a position where you

3512

1 can't believe a word she said. And that prevents you

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 from listening to them, and as His Honor will instruct
3 you the law is clear on that, if you don't believe them
4 you can discount that testimony.
5 That's what creates an uneven playing field.
6 The evidence creates it. The playing field is even when
7 the trial begins. It always is. You've heard no
8 evidence. But as the evidence stacks up on one side and 9 not the other over time as you continually hear one 10 witness after the other and then you hear a totally 11 incredible story on the other side, of course you're 12 going to come for some determination once you
13 deliberate. That's the whole jury process.
14 We talked about consultants again this 15 morning. No one has ever said that the use of 16 consultants is illegal, and I might be beating a dead
17 horse at this point but the problem is I just want to 18 make sure on this point, consultants are legal. They're 19 used in a variety of different businesses. They're even 20 used in the housing field.
2 what's wrong in this case is that these people
2 were influence peddlers who had no knowledge whatsoever
2 of the housing industry, and by themselves they can do
2 nothing. They need a corrupt public official on the 2 inside to give them what they want. Without that person

3513

1 they're powerless. That's what this case is about.
2 It's not about going to lunch and talking with
3 friends. It's about directing awards of Government
4 monies, of taxpayers' monies to those friends simply 5 because they can benefit you and the whole system will 6 benefit you and your family and your friends. That's 7 what the case is about. Not about having lunch.
8 Mr. wehner mentioned the 19 units for a

9 battered women's shelter, as I did, during closing
10 argument, and you will remember and you'll see it in

11 evidence, there's a note from Sam Pierce saying if we 12 can, please do so. He's not directing anybody. He's 13 not telling anybody. He's putting his input in.
14 when you go through the evidence look and see 15 if there's any notes like that on the projects in this 16 indictment for which Miss Dean is being charged. You're 17 not going to see those notes. Those notes don't exist.
18 You heard six days of testimony about all of 19 those other projects being funded. All around the 20 country. All their political backing. It is a 21 non-issue. It has nothing to do with this case.
22 In this case there are several distinct
23 projects that I listed yesterday and for brevity's sake
24 I won't go over them again. Those are the specific 25 ones. Look through the documents, and remember in your

3514

1 recollections through the course of this testimony have
2 you heard anything or seen anything to suggest that
3 Sam Pierce asked for those to be funded?
4 And furthermore, Miss Dean will tell you and 5 has told you on the witness stand she didn't tell
6 Sam Pierce about John Mitchell's involvement with these 7 other people because she didn't know it. So Sam Pierce,
8 also, he's not involved in this case. It's what she 9 did.

10 You recall he ran the honor system. He relied 11 on other people to work and do their jobs properly and 12 when people do not do their jobs properly that's when 13 you have a problem here. When you have a public
14 official who uses a public office for private gain.
15 Mr. wehner talked about the perjury counts.
16 And you'll see I've listed them, counts five through 12
17 in the indictment, and you'll get a copy of the 18 indictment and what those words are.
19 Mr. wehner talked about 1987 and "that goes
20 solely on information provided by Secretary for 21 Housing." That's not true, ladies and gentlemen,
22 because once again we have that handwritten list,
23 Government's Exhibit 202. That's in Miss Dean's 24 handwriting, and you heard, just like we saw at the very 25 beginning of my closing argument yesterday, the 3515

1 Government's exhibit 28, the letter to Louie Nunn at 2 Global Research, referencing a conversation with John
3 Mitchell. The defendant had to admit that that letter

4 existed because we had it, but she denied being involved
5 in that, saying Maurice Barksdale gave me that 6 information. Just like this. This is a handwritten 7 list of the various projects, the amounts funded, and in 8 fact on Metro-Dade, the exact bedroom configuration.

9 It's in her handwriting.
10 So she says to you, well, yes, this is mine,
11 this is my handwriting, but Thomas Demery is the one who 12 told me this and I wrote it down very quickly.
13 well, you remember Michael Dorsey's testimony,
14 a witness testifying for the defense. He said that 15 Miss Dean did speak during that meeting and was saying
16 who was behind the project.
17 In her own handwriting she has the bedroom
18 configurations and the number of bedrooms, and then it
19 says "letter. They are funding 203 units to Metro-Dade
20 before Metro-Dade even asks for them." Is that the way
2 this program was supposed to operate? Is that the way

2 it's supposed to run?
2 There are four separate counts of perjury,
2 four separate counts of concealment. There is no sense
2 going into all of them because the Government contends

3516

1 that each of those was a lie and a misstatement in much
2 the manner as you've seen during the course of this 3 trial. The defendant's statements change as they
4 benefit her. If she would lie on such trivial little
5 matter as to how long she knew Rick Shelby, what do you
6 think she'll do when faced with serious criminal
7 charges? And you've seen what she did.
8 There is no doubt, as we said, about that 9 $4000.
10 I'd like to talk about the message to Lance
11 Wilson from John Mitchell. The Government has never 12 said that other people didn't write to John Mitchell.
13 First of all, we don't know what project we're talking
14 about here. Arama is not mentioned and, of course,
15 Maurice Barksdale is the Assistant Secretary at the 16 time. We know that. Mr. Barksdale testified.
17 But you might recall Government's Exhibit 18,
18 and this is the document that says - has a little 19 handwritten note on top of Miss Dean's letterhead and it
20 says to Daddy.
2 And there's a memo from Philip Abrams, and you
2 recall she identified the handwriting on the upper 2 lefthand corner as being that of Lance Wilson. So Lance
2 Wilson is helping her out here, giving her information.
2 She's passing it on to John Mitchell.

3517

1 Is that a defense to this charge? No, ladies
2 and gentlemen. Because count one has three projects.
3 Arama being the first, South Florida, the second, Park
4 Towers, the third. Lance Wilson isn't even in the 5 Department of Housing and Urban Development at any time
6 when those three projects are funded.
7 Again, politicians. Mr. Wehner said you can
8 see hundreds of pieces of paper in which politicians
9 back projects. And that's true. You will see that.
10 But what does that have to do with this case? What do
11 these politicians -- that is not what this case is 12 about.
13 You've heard the consultants were being paid
14 big money by the developers. If all they needed was a 15 politician, and they're a constituent of that 16 politician, to write a letter and that would have had an 17 effect, don't you think they would have done that and 18 saved hundreds of thousands of dollars on each project?
19 That doesn't make sense. It is not credible
20 to believe that just because someone sent a letter, it
2 got funded.
2 President Reagan, a lot was talked about some
2 project in which President Reagan announced the awarding
2 of units, I believe it was in New Jersey, and I don't
2 remember the State any more. Andrew Sankin is not

3518

1 President Reagan. Andrew Sankin was, as we said, this
2 guy out of school just recently, who made $250,000 and
Page 1940

3 in Deborah Dean's own words he was on the family
4 payroll. That's why he received those units. It's not
5 Ronald Reagan we're talking about in these charges.
6 Other projects are non-issues. We're talking
7 about these specific ones. Much like if there was a
8 $50,000 kickback, Mr. Wehner said you'll hear evidence
9 of it. If there was a $50,000 kickback she'd be charged
10 with it. That is not one of the charges. It's a 11 non-issue. There are 12 charges that you the jury must 12 determine the guilt or non-guilt of the defendant. Not 13 everything in God's creation.

14 And the Government has never called the 15 defendant the devil incarnate. We are simply saying she 16 misused her position. She misused the public trust in 17 her time at HUD and then when it was discovered, when it
18 was detected, she lied about it. That is what's at 19 issue here. Not everything else. The devil incarnate?
20 It's a non-issue.
2 I just would like to mention Mr. Wehner said

2 things might have been different if the Government's
2 exhibits 27, 28, 29, that were shown at the same time,
2 well, you might recall they were shown to Governor Nunn
2 at exactly the same time, and you might also note since

3519

1 they're numbered 27, 28 and 29, when you get them they
2 will be one right after other, that's exactly how we 3 showed them. That's the order they're in.
4 Mr. Wehner mentioned something about the 5 conspiracies and saying, well, some of the people said
6 they didn't know certain things. Jack Brennan didn't

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
7 know that John Mitchell was involved in Arama. Well,

8 isn't that the hallmark of conspiracy? Secrecy? Where

9 people don't know it?

10 Remember Martin Fine, the developer for Park
11 Towers? He said he did not know John Mitchell was 12 involved. The consultant he hired, Eli Feinberg, he did 13 not know Mr. Mitchell was involved. And both of those 14 testimonies were unimpeached. Nobody ever contended
15 that they did know. So the evidence is neither 16 individual knew, and Mr. Fine paid $225,000, 50,000 of 17 which went directly to John Mitchell, and he didn't even 18 know he was involved. His role was secret. That's what 19 conspiracies are about.
20 Mr. Wehner talked about the $4000. And the
2 fact that he has shown that that is really what happened

2 because they have a bank stub. Well, to believe this
2 you'd have to believe that Mr. Kitchin gave her $4000 to 2 decorate an apartment he never owned, aside from the 2 fact that we found these documents later on to 3520

1 absolutely disprove the claim that she was trying to

2 sell it as of June 15th. So she'd have to prove that

3 the apartment that he never owned he was going to have

4 decorated and that this $4000 check was written when she

5 has no funds whatsoever to pay it with.

6 And he told you that the FBI had time to 7 analyze this and they would have shown that it was

8 false. Well, that's not in evidence. There's no

9 evidence here that the FBI had time to analyze that 10 check stub. Or that they looked and made sure that the 11 ink was two years old or three years old or whatever.

12 That is not in evidence. It's the evidence on which you
13 must base your decision, ladies and gentlemen.

14 And don't forget that $4000 and the antique 15 store. No evidence yet of an antique store in 1987. In 16 fact, she couldn't remember exactly when she got it.

17 But it wasn't in 1987. But in 1987 we do know that only 18 12 days before the check from Lou Kitchin she bought a

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
19 piano for $4500, and that, too didn't come out on direct
20 examination. That only came out on cross-examination.
2 Ladies and gentlemen, during his opening
2 statement Mr. Wehner told you that the Government is all
2 fouled up. All fouled up. That's exactly what he said.
2 He's wrong about that. The Government's not all fouled
2 up. Private individuals, certain individuals might be

3521

1 when they don't do their job as they should. When they
2 don't properly perform a public function. When they
3 corruptly favor certain people. That's when Government
4 gets fouled up. Not all Government. Not everyone.
5 And he kept saying your Government, and that's 6 right. It is your Government. It's all our 7 Government. Not for a select few, not for certain
8 insiders who have access to high ranking public
9 officials like Mr. Shelby who Mr. Wehner mentioned who

10 said I didn't do anything wrong, and you might recall
11 that I had to go back at him in redirect and say didn't
12 you tell the grand jury, and this time I got that right,
13 you told the grand jury several years ago, didn't you,
14 that you were wrong, and he admitted that, yes, in fact
15 he had. He, too, was trying to tell you he had done
16 nothing wrong but he told the grand jury he had done
17 something wrong. That's what Mr. Shelby testified to.
18 He knew he had done something wrong. He knew he had 19 access to high ranking public officials.

20 Ladies and gentlemen, in the name of the 2 United States of America, I will be asking you to find

2 the defendant guilty as to each and every charge in the 2 indictment. All 12 of them.
2 In the Government's view the Government has
2 proven its case beyond all reasonable doubt, beyond any 3522

1 and all doubt. There could be no doubt that the 2 defendant conspired with the people in counts one, two 3 and three, accepted that illegal gratuity or loan in 4 count four, and then lied and covered up and concealed
5 what she had done so she wouldn't be known for what she 6 had done. So people wouldn't -- it wouldn't become

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
7 public. Because she didn't want people to know how she

8 was using her office, using a public office for private

9 gain.

10 And by your verdict tell her no more. You
11 won't put up with corrupt public officials, people who 12 use their office, public office, for private gain, who 13 work for a select few and not for all of us, because it
14 is as Mr. Wehner said your Government, our Government.
15 She was a public official entrusted with 16 millions of dollars of taxpayers' money, for what 17 purpose? To provide housing for the poor. Is that the 18 way it worked? Did local priorities play any role in 19 this? No, ladies and gentlemen. It just depended on 20 who you knew and how it worked out. And I say millions
2 of dollars, Arama alone, the evidence shows, was over

2 $28,000,000 and that's still being paid to this day.

2 They're 15-year contracts.

2 Think of the amount of money that went for

2 housing, and did it work the way it should have? The 3523

1 way Mel Adams told you it could have if priorities

2 played a role? No. It worked the way a select few

3 wanted it to work.

4 when you are paid by the United States you

5 work for all of us. As Mr. Wehner said, it's your

6 Government.

7 Mr. Wehner asked you what would you have

8 Miss Dean do in the performance of her duty? What would

9 you ask of her? Honesty. Faithfulness. Undivided

10 loyalty. Remember what I said, it is we the people, by 11 the people, for the people. We, the people. It is all

12 of us. It is not if your prominent and powerful and you

13 belong to a select few. It is for all of us.

14 And, ladies and gentlemen. Miss Dean did not

15 work for all of us. She worked for herself, for her

16 family, for her own enrichment, and because of that she

17 is guilty. Not because of lunches and other matters.

18 It's because of her corrupt actions as a corrupt public

19 official.

20 Thank you.

2 THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen,

2 what we're going to do is have a luncheon recess at this

2 time.

2 Again, the case is not submitted to you yet

2 for decision. You're not to discuss it or talk about it

3524

1 when you go to lunch with each other, or anyone else

2 obviously, or let anyone talk to you about it or speak

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

3 about it in your presence. Say nothing about this case
4 to each other. You're not ready for deliberations. You
5 have not heard the final instructions in this case which 6 you have to follow in those deliberations. We'll do
7 that after lunch.

8 It will take an hour or an hour and a half to 9 read those after lunch and then I will also be sending 10 you written copies of the instructions back to aid you

11 in your deliberations, because they're rather complex.
12 So, ladies and gentlemen, have a pleasant
13 lunch. Remember the admonitions. And I release you now
14 until 1:30.

15 (Jury dismissed)

16 THE COURT: There's an argument made on both
17 sides as to reviewing the transcripts in the case. I
18 anticipate we may get a request from the jury to read
19 some transcripts. That goes on a very slippery slope.
20 The problem is -- or at least suggestions were made
2 about the transcripts being available, and that parts of

2 the transcripts were read to the jury.
2 I can anticipate the jury asking to see
2 certain portions of certain witnesses. I can also
2 understand counsel legitimately saying, well, then you

3525

1 have to read X, Y and Z's testimony, and I can see
2 dumping the whole transcript back there as a result. I
3 don't like to do that, and I don't do that. I'll just 4 going to announce now I'm going to resist giving them
5 any transcript, unless absolutely necessary in some 6 particular area, that the parties can agree upon; but 7 I'm going to tell them in preliminary remarks before I
8 give them the formal instructions that it's their

9 recollection that is going to control. I'm not going to 10 send transcripts back to them.
11 Additionally, there's suggested by the 12 Government in the case United States versus Griffin,
13 rather versus U.S., a Supreme Court Reporter cite, 112
14 Supreme Court, 466, Justice Blackmun's concurring
15 opinion as to whether there should be special 16 interrogatories to the jury regarding the objects of the 17 conspiracy or not. I've looked through the instruction
18 again that we have drafted and we do tell them that they 19 have to unanimously agree as to the object that they 20 find proved beyond a reasonable doubt, and they're laid
2 out fairly clearly, I believe. They're not in the 2 presently constructed verdict form separately set out.

2 I'll listen to counsel on what they would wish
2 to do about it. It seems to me this wouldn't be taken
2 out of count three. You would have to put the special

3526

1 interrogatory to counts one and two, either defraud, or
2 to commit a subsequent offense against the Government.
3 And then I guess the argument will continue saying what
4 about the overt acts and listing all of those. I think
5 again it's probably not necessary to do that.
6 We also on the overt acts tell them they have 7 to unanimously agree that the overt act that they find,
8 has been done by one of the co-conspirators.
9 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, we're satisfied with 10 the general verdict form. We just wanted to bring that 11 issue to Your Honor's attention.
12 THE COURT: I see.
(I 13 Mr. Wehner, are you satisfied on that?
14 MR. WEHNER: Yes.
15 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. I did read
16 through the case carefully and determined that I do not 17 think it's necessary in this case.
18 All right, the Court will be back then at 19 1:30.
20 We can give you copies of these instructions
2 now. The only thing I've done is we had added instead
2 on an accomplice testimony, cooperating witness
2 testimony, and I add at the end that we have a verdict
2 form for their convenience to decide it and fill it in 2 if they reached unanimous verdicts. I'll have those

3527

1 available for you in a few minutes, xeroxed copies of
2 those.
3 All right, we'll stand in recess until 1:30.
4 MR. WEHNER: Could I see you on an unrelated
5 matter?
6 (Bench conference)
7 MR. WEHNER: I had to write a letter to a
8 District Court Judge in New Jersey concerning my 9 availability on Monday and I gave him your name and

AFTERNOO N SESSIO N

2 (1:50 p.m.)

3 (Defendant present, Jury out.)

4 THE COURT: All right, Juror No. 4 has informed my 5 courtroom deputy that she's not feeling well and that she will 6 try to stay for the instructions but will raise her hand if she 7 thinks she's going to be sick again, but feels that she is not 8 feeling as well as she'd like to.

9 It may be best that we don't have deliberations this 10 afternoon, that we have instructions and then wait to see if 11 she's going to be available tomorrow or not, because if I send 12 them to deliberations today and she's out right away, then we're 13 facing a concern of going with eleven or not.

14 If we still have the alternates, I can keep the 15 alternates until tomorrow and then see if she comes in tomorrow
16 feeling well and ready to deliberate at that point. I'd rather 17 have deliberations today, though. We'll finish these by 3:30, I
18 think.

19 But I'll make an inquiry of the jury before I make any 20 final decisions or take any final steps in that area, and after I
21 finish the final instructions, I'll see how Ms. Hardy is and what 22 she'd like to do. It may be best to hold off and start
23 deliberations tomorrow and tell the alternates that's why they're 24 here and we want to keep them around for another morning at 25 least. Shades of the Denny trial.

3529

1 All right, if you'd bring the jury in, I'm ready to go
2 on the instructions. Copies have all been given out to counsel.
3 Once we start the instructions, for people who are in 4 the courtroom, I don't let those get interrupted, so if you want
5 to go out now, you should probably go out, because it will take 6 about an hour and a half. You may not all want to sit there that 7 long.

8 (Jury in.)

9 THE COURT: All right, Ladies and Gentlemen, we're
10 going to go forward with the instructions at this time, and if 11 you all need a break, just raise your hand or something, and 12 we'll give you a break as I go through these. I want you to 13 listen to these carefully, please, all of you, and then as I
14 indicated before, depending on how we are, how long it takes to 15 do these, we'll see about retiring to deliberate this afternoon
16 or tomorrow morning.

17 I want to make a couple of preliminary remarks that 18 will not be in my written jury instructions to you. First,
19 obviously, it's been a fairly long trial, and we all appreciate
20 the time and efforts you have spent in the case.

2 Secondly, there's been some references to transcripts,
2 that is, the typewritten portion of the testimony of some of the 2 witnesses that's been made up by the court reporter. I want you
2 to understand it's your collective recollection that controls as 2 to what the evidence is in the case, and I'm not going to be, as

3530

1 a general rule, providing you copies of transcripts of the 2 testimony of all the witnesses. That would be thousands and
3 thousands of pages. That would take you days and days to read
4 them all.

5 It could be a problem if you asked for a transcript of 6 one particular witness phrase at one point, because then there
7 may be several other witnesses who have testified about that as

8 well. Then we'd have to get those transcripts out to make it
9 fair.

10 If there's a particular problem that comes up, we'll 11 consider a request for a particular transcript, but I want to 12 encourage you to use your collective recollection as much as 13 possible and not think you're going to get to read the entire 14 trial transcript in this case, even if it's all available.
15 Ladies and Gentlemen, with that short preamble, I'm 16 going to begin the formal jury instructions at this time. They 17 are generally divided in three areas. One, the first area will 18 be about our functions as jurors and the Judge in this case and 19 the conduct of the case and of counsel, about credibility or 20 believability of witnesses and how you gauge that, matters of 2 evidence and what you consider to be the evidence in the case,
2 and then we'll go into the elements of the offenses charged, and 2 there's a rather detailed description of an analysis for you of 2 what the charges are and legally what they mean and what you have
2 to be considering when you consider the evidence in this case.

3531

1 And then the final phase is the instructions to you on
2 the management of your deliberations, you know, that you elect a 3 foreperson, you do various things. It will be in those 4 categories that we'll be covering in these instructions.
5 First, I'm going to inform you of the function of the 6 Court. It's my function to conduct this trial in an orderly,
7 fair, and efficient manner, to rule upon questions of law, and to 8 instruct you in the law that applies to this case, and it's your 9 duty to accept the law as I state it to you. You should consider 10 all the instructions as a whole. You may not ignore any 11 instruction or question the wisdom of any rule of law.
12 The function of the jury. Your function as the jury is 13 to determine what the facts are in this case. You are the sole 14 judges of the facts. You alone decide what weight to give to the 15 evidence presented during the trial. You decide the value of the 16 evidence and the believability of the witnesses.
17 You should determine the facts without prejudice,
18 without fear, sympathy, or favoritism. You should not be 19 improperly influenced by anyone's race, ethnic origin, or gender.
20 Decide the case solely from a fair consideration of the evidence.
2 Now you may not take anything I may have said or done
2 as indicating how I think you should decide this case. If you
2 believe that I have expressed or indicated any opinion as to the 2 facts, you should ignore it. It is your sole and exclusive duty
2 to decide the verdict in this case.

3532

1 If any reference by the Court or the attorneys to 2 evidence does not coincide with your own recollection of the 3 evidence, it is your recollection that should control during your 4 deliberations.
5 And again, I'm going to depart very briefly from the 6 written instructions. For instance, in closing argument, if one
7 of the counsel mentioned a witness's name and they may have been 8 mistaken as to that name, that type of thing, it's your 9 recollection that will control during your deliberations.
10 During your deliberations, you may consider only the 11 evidence properly admitted in this trial. The evidence in this 12 case consists of the sworn testimony of each of the witnesses, 13 the exhibits that have been admitted - were admitted into
14 evidence by any of the parties, and all the facts and testimony
15 stipulated to by the parties.
16 During the trial, you were told the parties had

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

17 stipulated, that is, agreed to certain facts. Any stipulation of 18 fact is undisputed evidence, and you may consider it undisputed
19 evidence.

20 During the trial, you were told the parties had
2 stipulated, that is, agreed to what testimony a particular
2 witness would have given if she or he had testified in this case.
2 You may consider this testimony as exactly what this witness
2 would have said had either she or he testified.
2 When you consider the evidence, you are permitted to 3533

1 draw from the facts which you find have been proven such 2 reasonable inferences as you feel are justified in the light of 3 your experience.
4 You are to consider only the evidence in this case, but 5 in your consideration of the evidence, you are not limited to the 6 statements of the witnesses. In other words, you are not limited
7 solely to what you see and hear as the witnesses testify. You
8 are permitted to draw from the facts which you find have been 9 proved such reasonable inferences as you feel are justified in 10 the light of experience.
11 Evidence has been introduced in this case about other
12 individuals improperly administering HUD programs in matters
13 unrelated to this case. This evidence of other illegal activity
14 at HUD may not be used against the defendant, Deborah Gore Dean.
15 Nor is the fact that others at HUD may have been committing
16 crimes any defense to the charges alleged against the defendant,
17 Deborah Gore Dean.
18 The statements and arguments of the lawyers are not
19 evidence unless the lawyer is referring to a stipulation.
20 Otherwise, the statements of counsel are only intended to assist
2 you in the understanding of the evidence.
2 Sometimes a lawyer's question suggests that something
2 is a fact. Whether or not something is a fact depends upon the 2 witness' answer, not the lawyer's question. A lawyer's question
2 is not evidence.

3534

1 Now the indictment is not evidence. That is, the
2 indictment is merely the formal way of accusing a person of a
3 crime to bring her to trial. You must not consider the 4 indictment as evidence of any kind. You may not consider it as 5 evidence of the defendant's guilt or draw any inference of guilt
6 from it.
7 Now as to inadmissible and stricken evidence. The 8 lawyers in this case sometimes objected when the other side asked 9 a question or made an argument or offered evidence that the 10 objecting lawyer believed was not proper. You must not be 11 prejudiced against the lawyer who made the objections. It is the 12 lawyers' responsibility to object to evidence which they believe 13 is not admissible.
14 If during the course of trial I sustained an objection
15 to a lawyer's question, you should disregard the question, and 16 you must not speculate as to what the answer would have been.
17 If after a witness answered a lawyer's question I ruled
18 the answer should be stricken, you should disregard both the 19 question and the answer in your deliberations.
20 Likewise, exhibits as to which I have sustained an
2 objection or which I ordered stricken are not evidence, and you
2 must not consider them in your deliberations.
2 Now, Ladies and Gentlemen, there are two types of 2 evidence from which you may find the truth as to the facts of a
2 case — direct evidence and circumstantial evidence. When a

3535

1 witness asserts actual knowledge of a fact, such as an
2 eyewitness, that witness's testimony is direct evidence.
3 A chain of facts and circumstances indicating the guilt
4 or innocence of a defendant is circumstantial evidence. The law
5 makes no distinction between the weight you should give to either
6 kind of evidence, nor does circumstantial evidence require a
7 greater degree of certainty than direct evidence. In reaching a
8 verdict in this case, you should weigh all the evidence
9 presented, both direct and circumstantial.
10 Ladies and Gentlemen, I'm going to give you an 11 instruction now as to credibility of witnesses. Another word for 12 credibility is believability.
13 In determining whether the government has established a
14 charge or charges against the defendant beyond a reasonable 15 doubt, you must consider and weigh the testimony of all the 16 witnesses who have appeared before you.
17 You are the sole judge of the credibility of the 18 witnesses. In other words, you alone are to determine whether to 19 believe any witness and the extent to which any witness should be 20 believed.
2 In reaching a conclusion as to the credibility of a
2 witness, you may consider any matter that may have a bearing on 2 the subject. You may consider the demeanor and the behavior of 2 the witness on the witness stand; the witness' manner of 2 testifying; whether the witness impresses you as a truthful

3536

1 person; whether the witness impresses you as having an accurate
2 memory and recollection; whether the witness has any motive for 3 not telling the truth; whether the witness had a full opportunity
4 to observe the matters about which he or she has testified;
5 whether the witness has any interest in the outcome of this case,
6 or friendship or hostility toward other persons -- other people
7 concerned with this case.
8 Inconsistencies or discrepancies in the testimony of a 9 witness or between the testimony of different witnesses may or 10 may not cause you to discredit such testimony. Two or more
11 persons witnessing an incident or a transaction may see or hear 12 it differently; an innocent misrecollection, like a failure of 13 recollection, is not an uncommon experience. In weighing the 14 effect of the inconsistency or discrepancy, always consider
15 whether it pertains to a matter of important or unimportant
16 detail and whether the inconsistency or discrepancy results from 17 innocent error or intentional falsehood.
18 You may consider the reasonableness or 19 unreasonableness, the probability or improbability of the 20 testimony of a witness in determining whether to accept it as 2 true and accurate. You may consider whether the witness has been
2 contradicted or corroborated by other credible evidence.
2 If you believe that any witness has shown him or 2 herself to be biased or prejudiced for or against either side in 2 this case -- in this trial, you may consider and determine

3537

1 whether such bias or prejudice has colored the testimony of the 2 witness so as to affect the desire and the capability of that
3 witness to tell the truth.
4 You should give the testimony of each witness such
5 weight as in your judgment it is fairly entitled to receive.
6 Now, Ladies and Gentlemen, the defendant has a right to 7 become a witness in her own behalf. Her testimony should not be

8 disbelieved merely because she is the defendant. In weighing her
9 testimony, however, you may consider the fact that the defendant
10 has a vital interest in the outcome of this trial. As with the 11 testimony of any other witness, you should give the defendant's
12 testimony such weight as in your judgment it is fairly entitled 13 to receive.
14 The defendant has introduced testimony that she is a
15 truthful and honest person. Such evidence may indicate to you
16 that it is unlikely that a truthful and honest person would 17 commit the crimes charged or testify untruthfully. The 18 government has introduced evidence the defendant has a bad
19 reputation for truth and veracity. You should consider all this 20 evidence along with other evidence in the case in determining the 21 guilt or innocence of the defendant, and you should give it such 22 weight as in your judgment it is fairly entitled to receive.
23 And again continuing with the general instruction of 24 believability, I'm going to instruct you on the evaluation of 25 prior statements of a witness, first as to inconsistent

3538 statements.

2 A witness' testimony may be discredited or impeached by 3 showing that the witness has previously made statements which are 4 inconsistent with his or her present testimony. Such prior 5 statements are admitted into evidence solely for you to consider
6 in deciding whether to believe the witness' present testimony.
7 This means that if you find the previous statements are 8 inconsistent with the witness' present testimony in this court,
9 then you may consider the previous statements when you are 10 deciding whether the witness' present testimony is truthful. But 11 you must not use the earlier statements as proof of any fact or 12 facts contained in those statements.
13 When the testimony of a witness at trial is 14 inconsistent with a statement previously made by the witness and 15 that previous statement was given under oath, subject to the 16 penalty of perjury at another trial or at a hearing, a deposition
17 or other proceeding, you may consider the earlier statement both 18 in deciding whether to believe the witness' present testimony and 19 as proof of any fact or facts contained in the earlier statement.
20 This means if you find the previous statement of this type is 21 inconsistent with the witness' present testimony, you may use it
22 for two purposes:
23 First, you may consider the earlier statement in 24 deciding whether to believe the witness' present testimony.
25 Second, if you find the previous statement truthful, you may 3539

1 consider any fact or facts contained in the previous statement as
2 evidence in this case.
3 Now as to consistent statements. The credibility or 4 believability of a witness may be rehabilitated or supported by 5 showing the witness has previously made statements which are 6 consistent with his or her present testimony. The earlier 7 statements are admitted into evidence for you to consider both in 8 deciding whether to believe the witness' present testimony and as 9 evidence in this case. This means if you find the earlier
10 statements are consistent with the witness' present testimony in 11 this court, you may consider those statements both in deciding 12 whether to believe the witness' present testimony and as evidence
13 in the case.
14 The number of witnesses. The weight of the evidence is 15 not necessarily determined by the number of witnesses testifying

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

16 on either side. Rather, you should consider all the facts and 17 circumstances in evidence to determine which of the witnesses you 18 believe. You may find the testimony of a smaller number of 19 witnesses on one side is more believable than the testimony of a 20 greater number of witnesses on the other side.
2 Now, Ladies and Gentlemen, one of the questions you
2 were asked when we were selecting this jury was whether the 2 nature of the charge or charges would affect your ability to 2 render a fair and impartial verdict. There was a reason for that
2 question. You must not allow the nature of the charge or charges

3540

1 to affect your verdict. You must consider only the evidence that
2 has been presented in this case in rendering a fair and impartial
3 verdict.
4 The question of possible punishment of the defendant in 5 the event of conviction is no concern of yours and should not
6 enter into or influence your deliberations in any way. The duty
7 of imposing sentence in the event of conviction rests exclusively 8 with me. You should weigh the evidence in this case and 9 determine the guilt or the innocence of the defendant solely upon 10 the basis of such evidence, without any consideration of the 11 matter of punishment.
12 Now, Ladies and Gentlemen, we're going to continue with 13 a couple more instructions on the believability of witnesses.
14 First as to testimony of cooperating witnesses.
15 You have heard testimony that Silvio DeBartolomeis,
16 Thomas Demery, and Philip Winn have plea agreements with the 17 government whereby they may receive a lesser penalty at 18 sentencing if they provide substantial assistance to the 19 government in the prosecution of the defendant and, in some 20 instances, other persons.
2 The testimony of these witnesses should be examined
2 with greater caution than the testimony of an ordinary witness.
2 You should consider whether what these persons may receive from 2 the government has motivated them to testify falsely or 2 truthfully in order to further their own interests. You should 3541

1 give the testimony of such persons such weight as in your
2 judgment it is fairly entitled to receive.
3 Now as to the testimony of immunized witnesses. You
4 have heard evidence that Jack Brennan, Thomas Broussard, Louis
5 Kitchin --or Louie Kitchin -
6 no, it's Louis Kitchin, Louie B.
7 Nunn, Cleofe Rubi, Andrew Sankin, and Richard Shelby have 8 received immunity. What this means is that the testimony of 9 these witnesses may not be used against them in any criminal
10 case.
11 You should consider whether such testimony may be 12 colored in any way as to further the witness's own interests, for 13 witnesses who realize that they may obtain their own freedom by 14 incriminating another have a motive to lie. However, you may 15 also consider that the witnesses are under the same obligation to 16 tell the truth as are any other witnesses, because the grant of 17 immunity does not protect them against a prosecution for perjury
18 or false statement should they lie under oath.
19 The testimony of a witness as to whom immunity has been 20 granted should be received with caution and scrutinized with 2 care. You should give the testimony such weight as in your
2 judgment it is fairly entitled to receive.
2 Tape recordings and transcripts of the testimony of the 2 defendant before the Senate Committee on Banking, Housing and
2 Urban Affairs as identified by the witnesses have been received

2 in evidence. Both the tapes and the transcripts are evidence in this case.

3542

2 All right, now, Ladies and Gentlemen, I'm going to get
3 to some of the definitions of some of the factors that you must
4 consider in this case and the elements of the offenses that you
5 must consider. Those are fairly lengthy.
6 First as to the burden of proof and presumptions of 7 innocence. Every defendant in a criminal case is presumed to be 8 innocent. This presumption of innocence remains with the 9 defendant throughout the trial unless and until she is proven
10 guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.
11 The burden is on the government to prove the defendant
12 guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. This burden of proof never 13 shifts throughout the trial. The law does not require a 14 defendant to prove her innocence or to produce any evidence. If 15 you find that the government has proven beyond a reasonable doubt
16 every element of the offense with which the defendant is charged,
17 it is your duty to find her guilty. On the other hand, if you
18 find the government has failed to prove any element of the 19 offense beyond a reasonable doubt, you must find the defendant
20 not guilty.
21 The definition of reasonable doubt. Reasonable doubt,
22 as the name implies, is a doubt based on reason, a doubt for 23 which you can give a reason. It is a doubt as would cause a 24 juror, after careful and candid and impartial consideration of 25 all of the evidence, to be so undecided that he or she cannot say

3543

1 that he or she has an abiding conviction of the defendant's
2 guilt. It is such a doubt as would cause a reasonable person to 3 hesitate or pause in the graver or more important transactions of 4 life.
5 However, it is not a fanciful doubt, nor a whimsical
6 doubt, nor a doubt based upon conjecture. It is a doubt which is 7 based on reason. The government is not required to establish 8 guilt beyond all doubt or to a mathematical certainty or to a 9 scientific certainty. Its burden is to establish guilt beyond a
10 reasonable doubt.
11 Now as to proof of the state of mind. Someone's intent
12 or knowledge ordinarily cannot be proved, ordinarily cannot be 13 proved directly, because there is no way of directly looking into 14 the workings of the human mind, but you may infer the defendant's
15 intent or knowledge from the surrounding circumstances. You may 16 consider any statement made or acts done or omitted by the 17 defendant and all other facts and circumstances received in 18 evidence which indicate or that indicate the defendant's intent
19 or knowledge.
20 You may infer but are not required to infer that a
2 person intends the natural and probable consequences of acts
2 knowingly done or omitted. It is entirely up to you, however, to 2 decide what facts to find from the evidence received during this
2 trial. You should consider all the circumstances in evidence
2 that you think are relevant in determining whether the government

3544

1 has proved beyond a reasonable doubt the defendant acted with the

2 necessary state of mind.
3 An act is done knowingly if done voluntarily and 4 purposely, not because of mistake, inadvertence, or accident.
5 You may find the defendant guilty of the crime charged
6 in the indictment without finding that she personally committed
7 each of the acts constituting the offense or was personally
8 present at the commission of the offense. A defendant is 9 responsible for an act which she willfully causes to be done if 10 the act would be criminal if performed by her directly or 11 another. To cause an act to be done means to bring it about.
12 You may convict the defendant of the offense charged if you find 13 that the government has proved beyond a reasonable doubt each
14 essential element of the offense and that the defendant willfully 15 caused such an act to be done, with the intent to commit the 16 crime.
17 Ladies and Gentlemen, you will note that the indictment
18 charges the offenses were committed on or about certain dates.
19 The proof need not establish with certainty the exact date of the 20 alleged offenses. It is sufficient if the evidence in the case
2 establishes beyond a reasonable doubt the offenses were committed
2 on a date reasonably near the date alleged.
2 Ladies and Gentlemen, you will recall I explained to 2 you at the beginning of the trial that the defendant, Deborah
2 Gore Dean, had been charged with twelve different crimes:

3545

1 participation in three separate conspiracies, illegal receipt of
2 a payment, four separate acts of perjury, and four separate acts
3 of falsifying or concealing by trick or device. Each of these is 4 a separate crime, and you should consider each one separately and 5 return a separate verdict for each.
6 Now, Ladies and Gentlemen, I'm going to describe to you
7 the elements of the offenses in this case. First we'll start out
8 with the conspiracy charges. Count 1 of the indictment charges
9 the defendant, Deborah Gore Dean, with conspiring to defraud the 10 United States and to commit an offense against the United States,
11 in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 371.
12 The indictment charges that the purpose of the illegal
13 conspiracy alleged in Count 1 of the indictment was for the 14 defendant, Deborah Gore Dean, to use her official position to 15 facilitate the award of funds and units of the Moderate
16 Rehabilitation Program, known as the Mod Rehab Program, of the 17 U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, known as HUD,
18 for the benefit of herself and of her co-conspirators, John 19 Mitchell, Louie B. Nunn, Richard Shelby, and Jack Brennan.
20 Count 1 charges the defendant conspired to defraud the 2 United States by depriving HUD and the citizens of the United
2 States, one, of defendant Deborah Gore Dean's loyal and 2 conscientious services in the performance of her official duties;
2 and two, of their right to have HUD's business and affairs
2 conducted in an honest and impartial way.

3546

1 Specifically, Count 1 alleges that the defendant,
2 Deborah Gore Dean, improperly facilitated the award of mod rehab
3 funding to a number of projects for the benefit of her
4 co-conspirators: to the Arama project and the South Florida I
5 project for the benefit of co-conspirators Mitchell and Nunn, and 6 to the Park Towers project for the benefit of co-conspirators
7 Mitchell and Shelby. Additionally, Count 1 alleges that the 8 defendant conspired to commit offenses against the United States
9 by falsifying and covering up material facts in matters within 10 the jurisdiction of a department or agency of the United States.
11 Now Count 2, conspiracy. Count 2 of the indictment

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

12 charges the defendant, Deborah Gore Dean, with a second and 13 separate conspiracy to defraud the United States and to commit an 14 offense against the United States, in violation again of Title
15 18, United States Code, Section 371.
16 The indictment alleges the purpose of the illegal
17 conspiracy charged in Count 2 was for the defendant, Deborah Gore
18 Dean, to use her official position to facilitate the award of 19 funds and units of the Mod Rehab Program for the benefit of 20 co-conspirators Richard Shelby, Andrew C. Sankin, and Thomas
2 Broussard.
2 Count 2 of the indictment charges the defendant,
2 Deborah Gore Dean, conspired to defraud the United States by 2 depriving HUD and the citizens of the United States, one, of 2 defendant Deborah Gore Dean's loyal and conscientious services in 3547

1 the performance of her official duties; and two, of their right
2 to have HUD's business and affairs conducted in an honest and
3 impartial way.
4 Specifically, Count 2 alleges that defendant Deborah 5 Gore Dean facilitated the approval of exception rents for the 6 Necho Allen Hotel and the award of mod rehab units to the Regent
7 Street project, the Alameda Towers Apartments project, the 8 Foxglenn Apartments project, and the Eastern Avenue project, all
9 in furtherance of the conspiracy to unlawfully enrich and benefit
10 herself, her family, and her co-conspirators.
11 Additionally, Count 2 charges that the defendant
12 conspired to commit offenses against the United States by 13 falsifying and covering up material facts in matters within the 14 jurisdiction of a department or agency of the United States.
15 And now as to Count 3, the final conspiracy count.
16 Count 3 of the indictment charges the defendant, Deborah Gore
17 Dean, with a third separate conspiracy to defraud the United 18 States and to commit offenses against the United States, in 19 violation of Title 18, U.S.C., Section 371.
20 The indictment alleges the purpose of the illegal
2 conspiracy charged in Count 3 was for the defendant, Deborah Gore
2 Dean, to use her official position to facilitate the award of mod
2 rehab funds and units for the benefit of co-conspirator Louis L.
2 Kitchin.
2 Specifically, Count 3 of the indictment charges the 3548

1 defendant, Deborah Gore Dean, conspired to defraud the United
2 States by depriving HUD and the citizens of the United States of
3 defendant Deborah Gore Dean's loyal and conscientious services in 4 the performance of her official duties, and of their right to 5 have HUD's business and affairs conducted in an honest and 6 impartial way.
7 Count 3 of the indictment also charges that it was a
8 further goal of the conspiracy that defendant Deborah Gore Dean
9 conspired with Kitchin to commit two separate offenses against 10 the United States. First, that the defendant unlawfully agreed
11 to demand, seek, or receive an illegal gratuity, that is, $4,000
12 for and because of official acts performed and to be performed by 13 her. Second, in matters within the jurisdiction of a department
14 or agency of the United States, the defendant, Deborah Gore Dean, 15 conspired to falsely conceal and cover up material facts and to 16 make false and fraudulent statements and representations
17 concerning the manner in which HUD funding decisions were 18 actually made in order to hide the existence and nature of the 19 unlawful conspiracy.
20 The indictment does not charge and the government has 2 not argued that it is illegal for developers to hire consultants

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 to help them get funding from HUD for their projects.
2 Congressl decision to remove the fair share
2 restrictions on the Mod Rehab Program made the program more
2 discretionary. However, the Mod Rehab Program continued to be

3549

1 governed by HUD rules, regulations, and standards of conduct.
2 Now, Ladies and Gentlemen, I'm going to explain to you
3 the elements of the offense of conspiracy that will apply to the 4 three counts I've just reviewed with you. First, the statute
5 involved. In relevant part, Section 371 of Title 18 of the 6 United States Code provides: "If two or more persons conspire
7 either to commit any offense against the United States or to 8 defraud the United States or any agency thereof in any manner or 9 for any purpose, and one or more of such persons do any act to 10 effect the object of the conspiracy, ..." then each shall be

11 guilty of the offense of conspiracy.
12 Now the elements of this offense. The essential
13 elements of the offense of conspiracy, each of which the 14 government must prove beyond a reasonable doubt, are:

15 1. That two or more persons formed an agreement either 16 to defraud the United States or to commit an offense against the 17 United States;
18 2. That the defendant knowingly participated in this 19 conspiracy with the intent to defraud the United States or to 20 commit an offense against the United States; and
2 3. That during the existence of the conspiracy, at 2 least one overt act was committed by one or more of the members
2 of the conspiracy in furtherance of the common scheme.
2 Now, Ladies and Gentlemen, I'm going to give you some 2 general principles discussing conspiracy, the general approach I

3550

1 suggest you take in considering these charges, and then the
2 definitions in some more detail of the elements of the offense of 3 conspiracy.

4 First, a conspiracy is a combination of two or more
5 persons to accomplish an unlawful purpose or to accomplish a
6 lawful purpose by unlawful means. It is a partnership in crime.
7 While the essence of the offense is a combination or agreement to 8 violate the law, it is not necessary the conspirators have met 9 together and entered into an express or formal agreement. Nor is 10 it necessary the conspirators have stated in words or in writing
11 what the scheme was or how it was to be accomplished.
12 On the other hand, a mere similarity of conduct among 13 various persons or the fact that they may have associated with 14 each other or may have assembled together and discussed common
15 aims is not a sufficient basis to demonstrate the existence of a
16 conspiracy.

17 It is sufficient to prove that they came to a mutual 18 understanding, either spoken or unspoken, to accomplish an 19 unlawful purpose or a lawful purpose by unlawful means. Such an 20 agreement may be shown by direct evidence. It also may be shown
2 by circumstantial evidence, that is, from the circumstances and 2 conduct of the parties. This is so because ordinarily a

2 conspiracy is characterized by secrecy both in its origin and 2 execution.
2 Now, Ladies and Gentlemen, as to your approach to 3551

1 consider these charges of conspiracy, under the law, you should
2 approach each of the conspiracy counts charged in this indictment
3 in the same general way:
4 First, you should determine whether or not you are 5 convinced beyond a reasonable doubt that a conspiracy existed as 6 alleged in the indictment.
7 Second, if you conclude the conspiracy as alleged in 8 the indictment did exist, then you should proceed to the next
9 step to determine whether or not the defendant, Deborah Gore
10 Dean, knowingly became a member of the conspiracy.
11 And third, if you find beyond a reasonable doubt from 12 the evidence the conspiracy alleged in the indictment was formed
13 and that the defendant, Deborah Gore Dean, knowingly became a 14 member of the conspiracy either at the beginning of the 15 conspiracy or afterwards, you should then determine whether one
16 or more of the conspirators knowingly committed one or more overt
17 acts in furtherance of the purpose of the conspiracy.
18 Now I'm going to give you the elements again in more 19 detail. The crime of conspiracy consists of three elements. The 20 first element is the requirement that the government prove beyond
2 a reasonable doubt that there were two or more persons -- that
2 two or more persons conspired either to defraud the United States
2 or to commit an offense against the states.
2 First as to conspiracy to defraud the United States.
2 Conspiracy to defraud the United States encompasses any

3552

1 agreement, the purpose or effect of which is to obstruct,
2 interfere, impair, impede, or defeat the lawful functions of any
3 instrumentality of the government, including the United States
4 Department of Housing and Urban Development, by means of deceit
5 or craft or trickery or by means that are dishonest. Conspiracy
6 to defraud the United States includes an agreement to interfere
7 or undermine -- I'm sorry, to interfere with or undermine the 8 lawful functions of a particular government instrumentality. And 9 it includes a scheme to deprive the United States of the honest
10 and loyal services of a public official.
11 You are further instructed that while the term
12 "defraud" is often understood to mean injuring someone 13 financially by deception, that is, to cheat someone out of money, 14 that understanding is not the only meaning of the term. Rather,
15 for the United States to be defrauded, it is not necessary the 16 government be subjected to the loss of money or property; it is 17 enough that the conspirators agreed to defeat the government's 18 legitimate official action and purpose by deceit, craft,
19 trickery, or means that are dishonest. It is not enough, 20 however, that the guidelines, regulations, or standards of 2 conduct may not have been followed. The government must prove
2 beyond a reasonable doubt that there was a dishonest, deceitful,
2 or fraudulent purpose.
2 The government has not alleged that there was any
2 monetary loss to the government as a result of the defendant's

3553

1 activities. There are no allegations the projects that received

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

2 funding were improper or contrary to HUD regulations.
3 Now as to the second part of the first element of the 4 conspiracy, conspiracy to commit an offense against the United
5 States. The first element of conspiracy can also be established
6 by proof beyond a reasonable doubt that two or more persons
7 conspired to commit an offense against the United States. Counts
8 1 through 3 charge that the defendant, Deborah Gore Dean,
9 conspired to commit a substantive offense against the United 10 States by agreeing to falsify and conceal material facts within
11 the jurisdiction of a department or agency of the United States
12 by means of trickery and deceit so as to conceal the manner in 13 which the, in which HUD funding decisions were actually made.
14 Additionally, Count 3 alleges the defendant agreed to demand,
15 seek, or receive an illegal gratuity of $4,000 for and because of 16 official acts performed and to be performed by her.
17 Later in these instructions, I will define the elements
18 of the offense of falsifying and concealing material facts in a 19 matter within the jurisdiction of a department or agency of the 20 United States which, if proved beyond a reasonable doubt,
2 constitutes a separate substantive crime. I will also define the 2 elements of the offense of acceptance of an illegal public
2 payment by a public official. I instruct you now that the 2 elements of these offenses have the same meaning in this count as 2 they do in the later counts.

3554

1 You should bear in mind that a conspiracy to commit a
2 crime is an entirely separate and distinct offense from the 3 substantive crime that is charged to be the object of the 4 conspiracy. Thus, if you find that the elements of conspiracy as 5 I have explained them to you are satisfied, you may find the 6 defendant, Deborah Gore Dean, guilty of the crime of conspiracy
7 to commit an offense against the United States even though the 8 substantive crime that was the object of the conspiracy was not 9 actually accomplished or committed. In other words, the crime of 10 conspiracy to commit an offense against the United States is an 11 independent offense.
12 Now I'm going to the second element of the three 13 elements. The second element of the offense of conspiracy, which 14 the government also must prove beyond a reasonable doubt, is the 15 defendant, Deborah Gore Dean, knowingly participated in the 16 conspiracy with the intent to defraud the United States or to 17 commit the other offense charged. If you have found that the 18 conspiracy existed, it is then necessary for you to take this 19 next step to determine whether Deborah Gore Dean was knowingly a 20 member of that conspiracy, with the intent to commit at least one
2 of the objects that the conspiracy contemplated.
2 To be a member of a conspiracy, the defendant -- or a
2 defendant need not know the identities or the precise number of
2 all of the other members. Likewise, the defendant need not know
2 the entire scope of the conspiracy or all of the details of the 3555

1 conspiracy or the means by which the objects or the purpose of
2 the conspiracy are to be accomplished.
3 It is also not necessary in order to convict a
4 defendant on a charge of conspiracy that she be a member of the 5 conspiracy from its very beginning. Different persons may become 6 members of the conspiracy at different times.
7 Finally, the extent of the defendant's participation in 8 the alleged conspiracy is not determinative of her guilt or 9 non-guilt. A defendant may be convicted as a conspirator even 10 though she played a minor role in the conspiracy. Each member of 11 the conspiracy may perform separate and distinct acts.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

12 It is necessary, however, that the government prove 13 beyond a reasonable doubt the defendant was aware of a common 14 purpose of the conspiracy and was a willing participant with the 15 intent to commit at least one of the objects of the conspiracy - 16 excuse me, at least one of the objects contemplated by the 17 conspiracy. While one may become a member of a conspiracy
18 without full knowledge of all the details, a person who has no
19 knowledge of the conspiracy itself, but who just happens
20 unknowingly to act in a way that furthers some object or purpose
2 of the conspiracy, does not thereby become a co-conspirator -
or
2 a conspirator.
2 Thus, before you may find the defendant or any other
2 person has become a member of the conspiracy, the evidence must
2 prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the conspiracy was formed

3556

1 and that the defendant or any other person knowingly participated
2 in the unlawful plan with the intent to further one or more of 3 the objects of the conspiracy. An act is knowingly done if done
4 voluntarily and purposely, and not because of mistake,
5 inadvertence, or accident.
6 It is not necessary the government prove that the 7 defendant joined the conspiracy to accomplish all of the objects
8 of the conspiracy. It is sufficient if you find beyond a
9 reasonable doubt the defendant, Deborah Gore Dean, became a
10 willing and knowing participant in the unlawful scheme as to one 11 of the objects of the conspiracy. Should you determine the 12 defendant, Deborah Gore Dean, was a member of the conspiracy but 13 that she agreed to participate only with respect to one of the 14 alleged objects, you must agree upon which of the objects that 15 the defendant, Deborah Gore Dean, conspired to achieve. Your 16 verdict must be unanimous as to the crime charged -- I'm sorry, 17 your verdict must be unanimous as to the charged object or 18 objects as to which the defendant, Deborah Gore Dean, conspired.
19 The acts or declarations of any other member of the 20 conspiracy, done in furtherance of the purpose of the conspiracy
2 and during its existence, may be considered as evidence against 2 the defendant, whether done in or out of her presence. When 2 persons enter into an agreement for an unlawful purpose, they
2 become agents for each other, so that the act of one conspirator
2 is considered the act of all of the other conspirators and is 3557

1 evidence against all. However, statements of any conspirator
2 that are not in furtherance of the conspiracy or that are made
3 before its existence or after its determination - after its
4 termination, may be considered as evidence only against the 5 person making them.
6 Now, Ladies and Gentlemen, that gets me to the third
7 element, and after that, then we'll go to the other offenses in 8 the indictment and then to the concluding instructions.
9 The third element. This brings us to a discussion of 10 the third element of conspiracy, the requirement that the 11 government prove beyond a reasonable doubt that during the 12 existence of a conspiracy, at least one overt act was committed 13 in furtherance of the conspiracy by one or more of its members.
14 An overt act is any act committed by one or more of the 15 conspirators to accomplish a purpose of the conspiracy. It need
16 not be in violation of law, and the other conspirators need not 17 join in it or even know about it. It may be an entirely innocent

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

18 act as long as it furthers the purpose of the conspiracy.
19 It is not necessary the purpose or purposes of the 20 conspiracy have been accomplished or that a substantive offense
2 that was an object of the conspiracy have been committed. Nor 2 must the government prove the United States suffered a financial
2 loss of money or property as a result of the conspiracy.
2 Furthermore, it is not necessary that all of the overt
2 acts charged in the indictment be proved; one overt act is 3558

1 sufficient. Nor is it necessary that each member of the 2 conspiracy have performed an overt act; an overt act of one
3 conspirator is attributable to all of the co-conspirators. As I
4 stated before, however, you must all agree as to which overt act
5 was committed by the defendant or one of the co-conspirators.
6 If you find a conspiracy existed, it is not essential
7 that the government prove that it began or ended on a specific 8 date. It is sufficient if you find in fact a conspiracy was 9 formed and existed for some time within the period set forth in 10 the indictment and at least one overt act was committed in 11 furtherance of the conspiracy within that period.
12 As I previously have mentioned, counts of the 13 indictment charge separate and distinct offenses. For that 14 reason, you must deliberate and return verdicts on each count of 15 the indictment. You are to consider each count and the evidence
16 applicable thereto separately. That you may find the defendant
17 guilty or not guilty on any of the offenses charged in the 18 indictment should not control your verdict with respect to any 19 other offense charged.
20 Now, Ladies and Gentlemen, I'm going to go through the 2 remaining counts in the indictment and the elements applicable to 2 those counts. First, as to Count 4, illegal receipt of payment
2 to a public official, Count 4 of the indictment charges the 2 defendant, Deborah Gore Dean, with demanding, accepting, or 2 receiving an illegal gratuity, in violation of Title 18, U.S.

3559

1 Code, Section 201(c)(1)(B). Specifically, Count. 4 alleges that
2 while a public official, and otherwise than as provided by law
3 for proper discharge of official duty, defendant Deborah Gore
4 Dean demanded, sought, received, accepted, and agreed to accept a
5 thing of value, namely, $4,000, for and because of official acts
6 performed or to be performed by her, including official acts
7 relating to allocations of funds under HUD's Mod Rehab Program.
8 And now the statute, the law. Section 201(c)(1)(B) of 9 Title 18 of the United States Code provides in relevant part that 10 whoever . . . being a public official . . . otherwise than as 11 provided by law for the proper discharge of official duty, 12 directly or indirectly demands, seeks, receives, accepts, or 13 agrees to receive or accept anything of value personally for or 14 because of any official act performed or to be performed by such 15 official or person, shall be guilty of an offense against the 16 United States.
17 Now the elements of this illegal gratuity charge, Count
18 4. For you to find the defendant, Deborah Gore Dean, guilty of 19 this crime, you must be convinced that the government has proved 20 each of the following elements beyond a reasonable doubt:
2 First, the defendant was a government official at the
2 time of the alleged offense;
2 Second, that the defendant demanded, sought, accepted
2 or received, or agreed to accept or to receive directly or 2 indirectly a gratuity, that is, anything of value, namely,

3560

1 $4,000, that is not authorized by law;
2 Third, that the gratuity was received by the defendant
3 for or because of an official act or acts already performed or to 4 be performed by her in the future.
5 The phrase "anything of value" means any item, whether 6 tangible or intangible, that the person giving or offering or the 7 person demanding or receiving considers to be worth something.
8 The phrase "anything of value" includes a sum of money, favorable
9 treatment, a loan with favorable interest or repayment terms, a
10 job, or other special consideration.
11 The term "official act" means any decision or action on 12 any question or matter which may at any time be pending or which 13 may by law be brought before any public official in such 14 official's official capacity or in such official's place of 15 profit or trust.
16 Public official defined. The term "public official"
17 means an officer or employee or person acting for or on behalf of 18 the United States or any department, agency, or branch of 19 government thereof in any official function, under or by 20 authority of any such department, agency, or branch of
2 government.
2 The term "public official" includes any employee of the 2 United States government, as well as any person who is performing
2 work on behalf of the United States government. Thus, the term
2 "public official" includes the executive assistant to the 3561

1 secretary of the Department of Housing and Urban Development.
2 Now as to intent. Under the intent element of this 3 statute, it is sufficient for the government to prove that the 4 illegal gratuity was demanded, sought, accepted, or received
5 knowingly and purposefully, and not through accident,
6 misunderstanding, inadvertence, or other innocent reason.
7 However, the government need not prove that the 8 defendant actually did anything specifically in exchange for the 9 gratuity. In other words, the government need not prove the 10 gratuity allegedly demanded, sought, accepted, or received by the 11 defendant while she was a public official in any way caused her
12 to perform some specific identifiable act.
13 The government need not demonstrate that because she 14 received or agreed to receive the alleged gratuity, the defendant
15 altered in any manner --in any way, rather, the manner in which 16 she conducted or planned to conduct her official business. An 17 illegal gratuity can be given for an official act already 18 performed or to be performed in the future.
19 Finally, it is not a defense that the official act or 20 acts in question would have been performed in any event.
2 Government officials are not permitted to receive gifts for acts
2 that they would have done anyway.
2 Now, Ladies and Gentlemen, I'm going to go to the 2 remaining counts, and they're going to be in two groups. Counts
2 5, 7, 9, and 11 are what are known as the perjury counts, and

3562

1 I'll treat those together, and then the remaining counts I'll
2 explain to you together.
3 Counts 5, 7, 9, and 11 charge that the defendant,
4 Deborah Gore Dean, having taken an oath that she would testify

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

5 truthfully before the Senate Banking Committee, knowingly and 6 willfully testified falsely concerning material matters, in
7 violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1621.
8 Count 5 charges that on or about August 6, 1987, having 9 taken an oath that she would testify truthfully before the Senate
10 Banking Committee, defendant Deborah Gore Dean made material
11 false statements concerning the manner in which mod rehab funding
12 decisions were made at HUD, specifically, that a panel of HUD
13 officials, of which defendant Deborah Gore Dean was a member,
14 would make mod rehab funding decisions based "solely on 15 information provided by the assistant secretary for Housing."
16 Likewise, Count 7 charges that on or about that same
17 date, August 6, 1987, while under oath before the Senate Banking
18 Committee, defendant Deborah Gore Dean knowingly and willfully
19 made material false statements when she stated that I have never 20 given or approved or pushed or coerced anyone to help any
2 developer and when she asserted, "It's a tremendous waste of time
2 for developers to come to HUD."
2 Count 9 charges that on or about August 6, 1987,
2 defendant Deborah Gore Dean knowingly and willfully testified
2 falsely in sworn testimony before the Senate Banking Committee by

3563

1 stating twice that she had never heard of Baltimore Uplift One.
2 Finally, Count 11 of the indictment charges on or about
3 August 6, 1987, defendant Deborah Gore Dean knowingly and 4 willfully committed perjury by testifying falsely under oath
5 before the Senate Banking Committee to the effect that as a
6 matter of fact, no moderate rehabilitation units that I know of,
7 unless they were sent directly by the secretary, have ever gone
8 to my home state of Maryland, simply for that reason -- that I
9 sat on the panel.
10 Now the statute in these counts. Section 1621 of Title
11 18 of the United States Code provides in relevant part: "Whoever 12 . . . having taken an oath before a competent tribunal, . . . in 13 any case in which a law of the United States authorizes an oath
14 to be administered, that he will testify, declare, depose, or 15 certify truly . . . willfully and contrary to such oath states
16 . . . any material matter which he does not believe to be true
17 . . . is guilty of perjury . . ."
18 Now the elements of the charges of perjury in this 19 case. The elements will be the same for all four counts. What 20 will be different in each count is the allegation of what the 2 defendant said under oath.
2 In order to prove the perjury charges against the
2 defendant, Deborah Gore Dean, that are contained in Counts 5, 7,
2 9, and 11 of the indictment, the government must prove the
2 following elements beyond a reasonable doubt:

3564

1 First, the defendant took an oath to testify truly
2 before the Senate Banking Committee, a body authorized by law to
3 administer oaths;
4 Second, that the defendant made false statements as to 5 matters about which the defendant testified under oath as set
6 forth in the indictment;
7 Third, the matters to which -- as to which it is 8 charged the defendant made false statements were material to the 9 issues under inquiry by the Senate Banking Committee, - and 10 Fourth, that the false statements were willfully made 11 in that at the time the defendant made these statements to the 12 Senate Banking Committee, the defendant knew them to be false.
13 Now, Ladies and Gentlemen, there is no issue as to the 14 first and third elements of the offense; that is, in

15 consideration of the perjury, there is no issue as to the first 16 and third elements of the perjury offenses.
17 With respect to the first element - that the
18 defendant, Deborah Gore Dean, took an oath to testify truly -
19 the government and the defense have stipulated and thus there is 20 no dispute that on August 6, 1987, the defendant, Deborah Gore
2 Dean, took an oath to testify truthfully before the Senate
2 Banking Committee. In addition, there is no dispute that the 2 Senate Banking Committee is a body authorized by law to
2 administer oaths.
2 With respect to the third element, that the statements

3565

1 that defendant Deborah Gore Dean made to the Senate Banking
2 Committee were material to the inquiry that the committee was 3 conducting, the Court instructs you that the questions asked of 4 the defendant, Deborah Gore Dean, as alleged in the indictment,
5 constituted material matters in the proceedings before the Senate
6 Banking Committee.
7 Therefore, the only issues that you have to decide are 8 whether, issues you have to decide are whether defendant Deborah 9 Gore Dean made false statements when she testified before the 10 Senate Banking Committee, as alleged in the indictment, and 11 whether she made such false statements knowingly and willfully.
12 Now as to the second element, you must determine
13 whether any part of the testimony given by the defendant, Deborah 14 Gore Dean, as set forth in the indictment, was false. An answer
15 to a question is false when it is contrary to the facts --to 16 fact, that is, when it is not true. The truth or falsity of an 17 answer must be determined by the facts existing at the time the 18 answer was given.
19 In reviewing the testimony which is alleged to have 20 been false, you should consider such testimony in the context of 2 the sequence of questions asked and answers given. The words
2 used should be given their common and ordinary meaning unless the 2 context clearly shows that a different meaning was understood by
2 both the questioner and the witness.
2 If you should find that a particular question was 3566

1 ambiguous, that is, subject to more than one interpretation, and
2 that the defendant truthfully answered one reasonable
3 interpretation of the question under the circumstances presented,
4 then such answer would not be false. Similarly, if you should 5 find the question was clear but the answer was ambiguous and one
6 reasonable interpretation of such answer would be truthful, then
7 such answer would not be false.
8 In deciding whether the defendant's answers are false,
9 the answers must be given their natural meaning in the context in 10 which the words were used. If you find that an answer given by 11 the defendant was literally true, but unresponsive to the 12 question asked, you may not find that answer false or convict the 13 defendant because of it. As long as a statement, or a reasonable
14 interpretation of a statement, is narrowly or literally true,
15 there can be no conviction for perjury. This is so even if you
16 find that the answer was intentionally misleading.
17 The burden is upon the government to establish beyond a 18 reasonable doubt that the answers made by the defendant were, in 19 fact, false.
20 Now the fourth element of perjury. If you determine
2 that any of the answers the defendant, Deborah Gore Dean, gave
2 were false, then you must decide whether the defendant, Deborah 2 Gore Dean, gave those answers knowingly and willfully. To

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 testify willfully and contrary to such oath, as provided in the 2 statute, means to give false testimony voluntarily and 3567

1 deliberately, with the intent to avoid the known legal duty to
2 testify truthfully. In order for the statements to be 3 perjurious, they must have been made consciously and in the 4 exercise of the defendant's free will. Thus, you must find
5 beyond a reasonable doubt the defendant, Deborah Gore Dean, both 6 knew that her answers were false and intentionally gave those 7 false answers.
8 Your decision whether defendant Deborah Gore Dean acted 9 knowingly and willfully in making any statements you find to be 10 false involves a decision about the defendant's state of mind at 11 the time the statements were made. It is obviously impossible to 12 ascertain or prove directly what the operation of the defendant's
13 mind was. You cannot look into a person's mind to see what her
14 state of mind is or was. But a wise and intelligent 15 consideration of all the facts and circumstances shown by the 16 evidence and the exhibits in the case may enable you to infer
17 with a reasonable degree of accuracy what the defendant's state
18 of mind was.
19 In our everyday affairs, we are continuously called 20 upon to decide from the actions of others what their state of
2 mind is. Experience has taught us that frequently actions speak
2 louder than words. You may well rely in part on circumstantial
2 evidence in determining the defendant's state of mind.
2 Proof of circumstances surrounding the defendant's
2 actions can supply an adequate basis for a finding the defendant

3568

1 acted knowingly and willfully. The actions of an individual must
2 be set in their time and place. The meaning of a particular act
3 may depend upon the circumstances surrounding it. Thus, you may 4 consider evidence which you recall and believe about the 5 defendant's actual knowledge of certain facts and their 6 occurrences, as compared to the testimony she gave about these 7 facts and occurrences; the extent to which statements were made
8 to conceal facts or events; and in general the manner in which 9 certain actions were undertaken by the defendant and by others
10 with her knowledge.
11 You may consider whether the defendant has a motive to 12 lie or to conceal facts. The government is not required to prove 13 the existence of such a motive, let alone exactly what the motive
14 was. The government's failure to prove a motive does not 15 establish innocence, but if you find evidence of a motive, that 16 may help you decide what the defendant's state of mind was.
17 Therefore, you should ask yourselves whether the defendant stood 18 to gain any personal benefit from concealing the truth or whether 19 she stood to avoid any personal liability.
20 Now, Ladies and Gentlemen, as to Count 7 of the 2 indictment, it charges the defendant, Deborah Gore Dean,
2 committed perjury in connection with two statements that she made
2 under oath before the Senate Banking Committee. In considering
2 Count 7, you should bear in mind the government is not required
2 to prove that both of the statements or representations alleged

3569

1 in that particular count were perjurious. The government
2 satisfies its burden of proving falsity if it proves beyond a
3 reasonable doubt that either of the statements recited in Count 7
4 is false.

5 However -- and this is important - you may not find
6 the defendant guilty unless all of you agree unanimously that one
7 particular statement is false. That is, you cannot find the 8 defendant guilty if some of you think that only statement A is 9 false and the rest of you think that only statement B is false.
10 There must be at least one specific statement that all of you
11 believe is false in order to convict the defendant.
12 Now, Ladies and Gentlemen, as to rules of evidence in a
13 perjury case, while the government must establish beyond a 14 reasonable doubt that the statements of the defendant, Deborah 15 Gore Dean, to the Senate Banking Committee were false, the law
16 has a special rule for the amount of proof required to show that 17 the defendant's statements were false.
18 In order to convict the defendant of perjury, the 19 government must establish the falsity of the defendant's
20 statements, that is, the falsity of the facts the defendant
2 stated. The government can do this in one of two ways: one, by 2 the testimony of two witnesses whose testimony you believe to be
2 true, or two, by the testimony of one such witness whose
2 testimony is corroborated or confirmed by other independent
2 evidence such as documentary evidence that you believe and you

3570

1 find to be trustworthy and to substantiate the testimony of that
2 one witness. "Independent" means something other than and in 3 addition to the testimony of one witness --of the one witness.
4 where the government relies upon the testimony of one
5 witness and other independent evidence that corroborates or 6 confirms the witness1 testimony in order to prove the defendant's
7 statements were false, the corroborating evidence presented by 8 the government need not itself prove guilt. However, it is 9 sufficient if there is direct testimony from one witness and 10 additional independent evidence so corroborative of this direct
11 testimony that the two, when considered together, are sufficient 12 to establish the falsity of the defendant's statements beyond a
13 reasonable doubt.
14 In other words, the government is required to produce
15 in evidence something more than one witness. Thus, if defendant
16 testifies under oath as to certain facts and at a later date
17 another person testifies to the contrary, the testimony of that 18 second individual alone, without any other corroborating
19 evidence, would not be sufficient to convict the defendant of 20 perjury. To support a conviction, the government must produce
2 either a second witness or independent witness that corroborates
2 a single witness1 testimony concerning the falsity of defendant's
2 statements.
2 Now, Ladies and Gentlemen, we have a few more pages of 2 instructions. I will give you the instructions on Counts 6, 8,

3571

10, and 12, which is falsifying or concealing by trick or device,
2 and then the final instructions on deliberations that govern your
3 deliberations.
4 First, as to Counts 6, 8, 10, and 12, they charge the 5 defendant, Deborah Gore Dean, knowingly and willfully falsified,
6 concealed, or covered up by a trick, scheme, or device certain
7 material facts that she had a duty to disclose concerning matters
8 within the jurisdiction of the Senate Banking Committee, in 9 violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1001.
10 Count 6 charges that on or about August 6, 1987, in 11 connection with her testimony under oath before the Senate
12 Banking Committee, defendant Deborah Gore Dean knowingly and 13 willfully falsified, concealed, or covered up material facts that

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

14 she had a duty to disclose concerning the manner in which HUD's
15 mod rehab funding decisions were actually made and her role in 16 those funding decisions; specifically, by testifying that HUD
17 field offices rated and ranked mod rehab applications from public
18 housing authorities and that a panel of HUD officials, of which 19 the defendant, Deborah Gore Dean, was a member, would make mod
20 rehab funding decisions based solely on information provided to 21 the panel by HUD's assistant secretary of Housing.
22 Likewise, Count 8 charges that on or about August 6,
23 1987, Deborah Gore Dean knowingly and willfully falsified,
24 concealed, or covered up material facts that she had a duty to 25 disclose by testifying before the Senate Banking Committee, that

3572

1 she had never given or approved or pushed or coerced anyone to 2 help any developer, and when she asserted that developers'
3 meetings with HUD officials were a tremendous waste of time.
4 Count 10 charges on or about August 6, 1987, in
5 connection with her testimony under oath, before the Senate
6 Banking Committee, defendant Deborah Gore Dean knowingly and
7 willfully falsified, concealed, or covered up material facts that
8 she had a duty to disclose by willfully failing to disclose her
9 knowledge of the HUD project known as Baltimore Uplift One.
10 And finally, Count 12 charges on or about August 6,
11 1987, defendant Deborah Gore Dean knowingly and willfully
12 falsified, concealed, or covered up material facts from the 13 Senate Banking Committee when she testified under oath before the 14 Senate Banking Committee concerning her lack of knowledge of the 15 award of mod rehab units to projects in the State of Maryland.
16 Now, Ladies and Gentlemen, as to the statute under 17 which these charges arise, Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United 18 States Code provides in relevant part that: Whoever, in any 19 matter within the jurisdiction of any department or agency of the 20 United States knowingly and willfully falsifies, conceals or 21 covers up by any trick, scheme, or device a material fact . . .
22 shall be guilty of an offense against the United States.
23 Elements of the offense. In order to establish that
24 defendant Deborah Gore Dean is guilty of knowingly and willfully
25 falsifying or concealing by trick or scheme a material fact that she had a duty to disclose, as charged in Counts 6, 8, 10, and 12

3573

2 of the indictment, the government must prove each of the
3 following elements beyond a reasonable doubt:
4 First, the defendant falsified or concealed or covered
5 up a material fact;
6 Second, that she did so by trick, scheme, or device;
7 Third, that she acted knowingly and willfully; and 8 Fourth, that the falsification, concealment or cover-up
9 was with respect to a matter within the jurisdiction of a
10 department or agency of the United States.
11 The first element that the government must prove beyond
12 a reasonable doubt is the defendant, Deborah Gore Dean,
13 falsified, concealed, or covered up a material fact. The Court
14 has already determined that the government has established that 15 the facts at issue in each of the Counts 6, 8, 10, and 12 were 16 material. Therefore, you should not be concerned with this 17 aspect of the first element of the offense.
18 The second element of the offense the government must 19 prove beyond a reasonable doubt is that the defendant, Deborah 20 Gore Dean, falsified or concealed or covered up by trick, scheme, 21 or device. A scheme is a plan for the accomplishment of an 22 objective. A trick or device is a deceptive act or strategy
23 calculated to deceive persons.

24 To falsify means to make a statement that is untrue at 25 the time it is made and that the person making the statement

3574

1 knows to be untrue at the time it is made. To conceal means to
2 withhold from another. It requires some act to prevent detection
3 of some fact the defendant was required to reveal. To cover up
4 means to hide from another.
5 whether the defendant Deborah Gore Dean's behavior
6 amounted to a trick, a scheme, or a device is a question for you
7 as finders of the facts to decide. It is the government's burden
8 with respect to this element to prove beyond a reasonable doubt
9 that the defendant falsified or concealed or covered up a 10 material fact by trick, scheme, or device.
11 The third element. If you decide the defendant,
12 Deborah Gore Dean, did, in fact, falsify or cover up a material
13 fact by trick, scheme, or device, as charged in each of Counts 6, 14 8, 10, and 12 of the indictment, you must then decide whether she 15 acted knowingly and willfully.
16 An act is done knowingly if it is done purposely and 17 voluntarily, as opposed to mistakenly or accidentally.
18 An act is done willfully if it's done with an intention 19 to do something the law forbids, a bad purpose to disobey the 20 law, or with specific intent to fail to do something the law
2 requires to be done.
2 And as to the final element, the fourth element, you
2 are instructed the material facts charged in Counts 6, 8, 10, and
2 12 are matters within the jurisdiction of the Senate Banking
2 Committee and are thus matters within the jurisdiction of a department or agency within the United States.

3575

Now, Ladies and Gentlemen, my final instructions are as follows to you: First, you may notice that in some of the counts of the indictment, the word "and" is used between various charging words. For instance, Count 4 charges the defendant, Deborah Gore Dean, demanded, sought, received, and accepted a thing of value. You are specifically instructed that it is sufficient for the government to prove the defendant, Deborah Gore Dean, did one of the alternative acts so charged. Thus, in 10 the example given regarding Count 4, it's sufficient for the 11 government to prove the defendant demanded or sought or received 12 or accepted a thing of value, provided the other elements of that 13 offense are also satisfied.
14 Now, Ladies and Gentlemen, as to your deliberations,
15 when you return to the jury room, you should first select one
16 from among your members to be your foreperson. The foreperson
17 should preside over your deliberations and will be your 18 spokesperson here in open court.
19 Unanimity. The verdicts you render must represent the 20 considered judgment of each juror. In order to return verdicts, 21 each juror must agree to the verdicts. Your verdict as to the 22 defendant must be unanimous.
23 As to the exhibits, I am sending back to the jury room
24 all the exhibits which have been received in evidence as you
25 retire for your deliberations. You may examine any and all of 3576

1 the exhibits during your deliberations. This includes the tape
2 recording that was played. If you wish to listen to the tape
3 recording, please advise the marshal.
4 Let me depart for one minute and tell you if we go

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

5 ahead with the deliberations this evening, I will not get those 6 exhibits back to you tonight. We have to sort them all out and 7 organize them. But they will eventually get back to you.
8 Now communications between the court and jury during 9 deliberations. If it becomes necessary during your deliberations
10 to communicate with me, you may send a note by the clerk or 11 marshal, signed by your foreperson or by any one or more members
12 of the jury. No member of this jury should ever try to 13 communicate with me by any means other than a signed note, and I
14 will never communicate with any member of this jury on any matter
15 touching the merits of this case except in writing or orally here
16 in open court.
17 Again, let me depart a minute from my written
18 instructions. I don't mean by that if you want more ice water, 19 you need to send me a formal written request and wait for the 20 marshal to find me and bring it to me to sign it. I'm talking
2 about things dealing with the merits of the case, please.
2 Because I frequently get requests for more ice water.
2 You can ask the marshal, and he'll get it for you. He'll be
2 outside your door at all times, making sure no one disturbs you
2 in your deliberations. If you need to take a smoke break, you

3577

1 can ask the marshal to take a smoke break. But I'm talking about
2 matters dealing with the case.
3 Now, Ladies and Gentlemen, back to the written
4 instructions. Bear in mind also that you are never under any 5 circumstances to reveal to any person -
6 not the clerk, the 6 marshal, or to me -
how the jury stands on the question of the 7 defendant's guilt or innocence until after you have reached a
8 unanimous verdict. This means, for example, that you never 9 should state to the court that the jury is divided six to six,
10 seven to five, eleven to one, or in any other fashion, whether 11 for conviction or acquittal.
12 And again, as an aside, let me tell you that would 13 cause severe complications in the case and maybe a mistrial, so
14 you're never to tell anyone how you stand unless and until you 15 reach a unanimous verdict, and then you simply tell us you've 16 reached a verdict.
17 Now, Ladies and Gentlemen, I'm going to provide you, I
18 am providing you with a copy of the instructions. During your 19 deliberations, you may if you want refer to these instructions.
20 while you may refer to any particular portion of the 2 instructions, you are to consider the instructions as a whole,
2 and you may not follow some and ignore others. The fact that you
2 have been provided a copy of my instructions should not
2 discourage you from making an inquiry regarding the meaning of 2 these instructions if necessary. Please return the instructions

3578

1 to me when your verdict is rendered.
2 Finally, Ladies and Gentlemen, a form for the verdicts
3 has been prepared for your convenience. If you reach a unanimous
4 agreement as to your verdicts, you will have your foreperson
5 write your verdicts, date and sign the form, and then return with 6 your verdicts to the courtroom.
7 Again, the verdict form - again departing from my
8 written instructions, because that completes them -- I'm holding 9 it up just so you can get an idea of what it is. It's a simple

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
10 form that says "Verdict Form" on it. It says "Count 1," it
11 describes the count, it says how do you find as to that count, 12 guilty or not guilty, and it goes through each of the charges in 13 that fashion, and then it ends with a signatures line for the 14 foreperson and a date.
15 Now, Ladies and Gentlemen, I need to do two things.
16 One, I don't want you to deliberate now right this instant, all
17 right? what I'd like you to do is just wait in your seats for a
18 minute, and I'd like to ask Ms. Hardy if she would prefer to come
19 back tomorrow and begin deliberations rather than start today,
20 because once you begin deliberations, we let the alternates go,
2 and then I can't replace you.
2 JUROR HARDY: Okay. Can we come back tomorrow?
2 THE COURT: You'd like to come back tomorrow morning?
2 Pardon me?
2 JUROR HARDY: I'll be all right in a couple hours,

3579

1 THE COURT: I couldn't hear the last part, I'm sorry.
2 JUROR HARDY: I said I'll be all right in a couple
3 hours. Can we come back tomorrow?
4 THE COURT: All right, we'll do that tomorrow morning,
5 because I don't want to start tonight in case you don't feel good
6 tomorrow. Then we've lost the alternates, and we've got a
7 problem; we don't have enough jurors any longer.
8 JUROR HARDY: I'll be all right tomorrow. No, it only
9 lasts a couple hours.
10 THE COURT: All right, that's fine then. I appreciate
11 your attention this afternoon.
12 All right, Ladies and Gentlemen, let me talk to counsel
13 before we recess for a few minutes, please, at the bench, and 14 then we'll be getting back to you. Stay right where you are,
15 please.
16 (Bench conference on the record.)
17 THE COURT: All right, let me start with the government
18 on any exceptions or corrections to make besides some typos I saw 19 in here. Anything else?
20 MR. O'NEILL: No, Your Honor.
2 THE COURT: All right. Do we have from the defendant
2 any particular exceptions beyond which you earlier indicated?
2 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir. Page 40.
2 THE COURT: All right.
2 MR. WEHNER: The first full paragraph, Count 12, Count

1 12 charges.
2 THE COURT: Okay.
3 MR. WEHNER: I would ask that the Court add at the end
4 of the sentence the words "unless sent directly by the 5 secretary." I think Your Honor's charge describes it a little 6 overbroadly.
7 MR. O'NEILL: Your Honor, would you like, maybe the 8 best thing would be to read exactly what she said, if you want a
9 copy.
10 THE COURT: I don't want to see that to become a
11 problem.
12 MR. WEHNER: That's fine
13 MR. O'NEILL: Yeah, I think Steve has a good point.
14 THE COURT: Let me just see, I did try to, as I said,
15 cut the instructions down -
16 MR. O'NEILL: Right.
17 THE COURT: -
and try to organize things, and if I cut
18 too much out, let me just see what I have in this indictment. I 19 don't want to be misleading at all.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

20 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: All right, Count 12 does have the same
2 language as the perjury count, and it has the exclusion for the 2 "unless sent directly by the secretary." what I'll do is go back
2 and then read that again to them on page 40 then and add that 2 language -

3581

MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: -
that you wish.

3 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.

4 THE COURT: All right, I'll add "unless sent by the 5 secretary. I think that's appropriate.

6 MR. WEHNER: The second is simply for the record, I
7 think that the affirmative defense of the statute of limitations
8 should have been mentioned on pages 14, 27, and 43.

9 THE COURT: Okay. I'll take that as an exception on 10 the arguments.

11 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir.

12 THE COURT: Okay. I'll do that, and then I'm going to 13 dismiss them and have them come back in the morning, because 14 Ms. Hardy doesn't feel well.

15 Yes?

16 MS. SWEENEY: Your Honor, we do have the new copies of 17 the indictment. I gave Mr. Wehner one right when we started the 18 lunch break.

19 THE COURT: All right, thank you. Ms. Whyte can get a 20 copy. Thank you.

21 (End of bench conference.)

22 THE COURT: All right, Ladies and Gentlemen, I want to 23 make one correction. I left out a line in one part of an 24 instruction. Let me go back to that for a minute, and then we'll 25 wrap it up.

3582

1 In the counts concerning the alleged falsifying or
2 concealing by trick or device, Count 12 of that series of charges
3 charges that on or about August 6, 1987, defendant Deborah Gore
4 Dean knowingly and willfully falsified, concealed, or covered up
5 material facts from the Senate Banking Committee when she
6 testified under oath before the Senate Banking Committee
7 concerning her lack of knowledge of the award of mod rehab units
8 to projects in the State of Maryland, unless sent directly by the 9 secretary, and I had left that last phrase out, and so it's 10 amended to reflect that. It will be in the written instructions
11 you will get as to that Count 12 offense.

12 Now, Ladies and Gentlemen, we'll recess now then 13 instead of having you begin your immediate deliberations. What 14 that means is two things: One, you cannot start to deliberate.
15 Even though you've heard the instructions and you're ready, you
16 cannot do that on your way home together. Two of you cannot talk
17 about the case together.

18 Secondly, it means that I'm going to still have back
19 tomorrow morning the two alternates. There's a good chance you
20 could be used if someone is ill and can't come tomorrow, and then
2 we'd have to replace that juror. If all twelve jurors show up
2 and are feeling well tomorrow, you will be let go at that point,
2 all right? But I need you back tomorrow morning. It's essential
2 in case we have problems overnight.

2 Ladies and Gentlemen, when I say you can't deliberate

3583

1 at this point, I not only mean that; I mean that there are no
2 deliberations, meaning talking about this case, outside the jury
3 room. When all twelve of you who are the deliberating jury are 4 present, and that means when you're in the room behind my 5 courtroom here, that's the only time you talk about it, and not 6 when ten of you are there, eleven are there, but twelve. When 7 all twelve are there, then you may deliberate.
8 what I'd like you to do tomorrow morning is come in 9 here and check in and see when you're here. Leave the door open,
10 and don't talk about the case even if all twelve show up. Wait
11 until we make sure everybody is here, the marshal and I make sure 12 everybody is here, and then when we're satisfied everybody is 13 here -- and the alternates can sit in there with you; just don't 14 talk about the case in the morning -- then when everybody is here
15 and everybody feels in good shape, we can go ahead and begin
16 deliberations and release the alternates. But don't on your own
17 start to deliberate even though you're all in that room.
18 But once you start your deliberations, you can only 19 deliberate in that room with the door closed, when all twelve of 20 you are there. If you need to take breaks during your
2 deliberations, you're tired, it's stuffy in there, open the door
2 and take a walk, that's fine, but then the others don't talk
2 while anybody is out of that room. Only when twelve are all
2 together deliberating together can you function as a jury.
2 Now, Ladies and Gentlemen, in the overnight recess,

3584

1 it's a very sensitive part of the case. You have not started
2 your deliberations yet. You cannot advance any opinion about
3 this case to anyone. You can't talk to anyone about it, read,
4 watch, or listen to it in the newspapers or television or radio.
5 People were in here listening to the arguments. People
6 were in here listening to what has gone on lately, and maybe
7 people want to talk about the case. You cannot do that. It
8 would be totally improper. So don't do that.
9 Just have a relaxing evening. You can watch the last 10 of the world series games, I think, if you want, although I had 11 the other side, and after that, you can come back and be ready to 12 go tomorrow morning.
13 I'm going to let you have a little later reporting
14 tomorrow morning for the convenience of some jurors. So I'm 15 going to have you come in at 10:00 instead of 9:30, all right?
16 You're welcome to bring with you to the jury room donuts and 17 coffee, whatever you'd like in the morning to be comfortable. If 18 you bring a newspaper, make sure there's nothing about this case
19 in it, but you're welcome to bring reading materials, too.
20 But in any event, we'll be ready to deliberate by
2 10:00. we'll have everybody here and ready to go by 10:00. I'll
2 ascertain that you all feel well and are ready to go ahead. If 2 you all are here, then we'll go ahead, but I'll tell you when to I 2 do that, and then we'll talk to the alternates, all right? So I
2 need both alternates back tomorrow morning, too. 10:00, please.

3585

1 All right, you're excused for the evening. Have a
2 pleasant evening. we'll see you back tomorrow morning at 10:00
3 a.m.
4 (Jury out.)
5 THE COURT: A couple matters: One is I would like the 6 exhibits gone over to make sure they're in order and correct and

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
7 that something didn't get in by accident or is admitted by 8 accident and that any kind of index or list that goes back so the 9 jury can look down and find what exhibit they'd like is neutral
10 in its description and that both parties have examined those 11 lists, and make sure they're in agreement with my court clerk as 12 to what's in evidence and that it's accurately portrayed. It may 13 mean you're going to have to not get the exhibits organized until 14 sometime tomorrow, but I need that done in fairness to both 15 sides.
16 Secondly, you don't have to be in the courtroom. You
17 should be nearby on call, wherever that would be. I don't know
18 where you all hang out.
19 Your office is up on Capitol Hill?
20 MR. WEHNER: Yes, Your Honor. I'm real close to 21 Independent Counsel's office, actually, so we're both within a
22 10-minute walk.
23 THE COURT: Ten minutes? Within 15 minutes is my rule.
24 That's okay. Please don't be in some other community, but within 25 15 minutes is fine. If you're going to be somewhere else in this 3586 courthouse or something for some period of time, please tell

2 Ms. Whyte -- she'll be the contact person for you -
3 where you'll
4 be so she can reach you by phone if needed and get you back here
5 if we have to, and we can proceed on that basis.
6 All right, you can be here tomorrow morning if you
7 want. You don't have to be -
8 well, that's not true. You'd
9 better be here tomorrow morning, because I may have to replace a
10 juror. So you'd better be here in the morning in case Ms. Hardy
11 doesn't come back for some reason or says that she can't sit and 12 we have to reach a decision how to handle that. So you'd better
13 be here tomorrow morning then at 10:00 a.m. to take up that issue
14 then.
15 All right. We have copies of the indictment for the 16 jury and the verdict form and copies of the instructions.
17 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, the only thing with the indictment
18 would be, and we brought the actual signed last page, if you
19 think the one we've turned up, it doesn't seem to matter.
20 THE COURT: No, I don't think we need that.
21 MR. O'NEILL: Okay.
22 THE COURT: That's fine. Thank you.
23 All right, then we'll recess until 10:00 in this case
24 and have you back at that time, and then after that, just let us
25 know where you'll be, please.
26 MR. O'NEILL: Thank you, Your Honor.
27 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, all.

3587

1 PROCEEDING S
2 (Defendant present, Jury out.)
3 THE COURT: Good morning, counsel.
4 THE CLERK: Criminal No. 92-181, United States of
5 America v. Deborah Gore Dean. We have Robert O'Neill and Paula
6 Sweeney for the government, Stephen Wehner for Ms. Dean.
7 THE COURT: The jury is all back, and Juror No. 4 has 8 indicated to the staff that she feels better and is fine and 9 ready to proceed.
10 I had another matter that I wanted to discuss briefly
11 with counsel, and before I have the jury deliberate, I think I'll 12 let counsel look at these case law and see if there's any 13 response to it.
14 Closing argument got very much into the prosecutor's
15 attack on Ms. Dean as a liar based upon her testimony, and it's 16 certainly appropriate to comment on her testimony as a defendant,
17 but as to the methodology used by counsel for the government, I
18 had some concerns, and it occurred to me last night, did not 19 occur to me during the argument, but last night, we had a case on 20 this in this circuit that I found this morning in doing some
2 research by Circuit Judge Burger at that time, a 1968 case,
2 402 F.2d 656, Harris v. U.S.
2 That was followed by several subsequent cases, one
2 being a civil case, per curiam, again Burger on the opinion,
2 referencing the Harris case, as holding it's improper conduct

3590

1 to characterize a person as a liar, a witness as a liar, that is,
2 personal comment by counsel, and that merits reversal at times.
3 I wonder if we should not give an instruction to the 4 jury about that.
5 MR. O'NEILL: Well, Your Honor, I am familiar -6
THE COURT: I mean, it's a perjury case, and you're 7 going to have to make comments upon her credibility. I
8 understand that, and that's one reason I did not stop it,
9 obviously, but I had known about this rule, because I had been 10 subject to it myself in closing argument in this circuit for a
11 long time, and I went back and read it again, and I thought
12 perhaps I should have let the jury know at least that what 13 counsel says, obviously, as we said in instructions, about a 14 matter is not evidence in the case, and it's their personal 15 opinion. In the context of a criminal case, I didn't want to see 16 any concerns raised in that.
17 Let me let you all look at these cases. I think you
18 probably have seen them.
19 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Your Honor. Also, as a possibility, 20 you might want to, since you have to call them in anyway to let
2 them deliberate, say, "Don't forget your testimony has to be
2 based on the evidence. What counsel for either side says is not
2 evidence."
2 THE COURT: That's what I'm talking about, an
2 ameliorating instruction before they begin to deliberate, but

3591

1 maybe a little more pointedly, but something like that. But you
2 both can look at this. The first one you want to look at is 3 Harris. 402. That's the criminal one. This is a civil case
4 that follows Harris.
5 I'm just going to take a short break so you can look at

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
6 those cases for a minute. There are some other ones I just 7 didn't pull. There are about seven or eight in this circuit
8 following that line of reasoning.
9 we'll take a short break.
10 (Recess from 10:25 a.m. to 10:45 a.m.)
11 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, could I have a minute to speak
i 12 to Ms. Whyte?
13 THE COURT: Sure.
14 Are you all right?
15 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir. I think we've got the 16 exhibits -17
THE CLERK: Not quite.
18 THE COURT: All right. Let me ask counsel if they've 19 had a chance to briefly look at the cases I've pulled and have 20 any comment about an ameliorating instruction or not to the jury.
21 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, from the government's point of 22 view, the government would have no problem with Your Honor,
23 before sending them out once again, just stating, you know, "It's 24 your recollection of the evidence that controls. What counsel
25 for each side says is not evidence. As I told you at the 3592

1 beginning of the case and as I told you again before closing
2 argument, it's your determination that controls. You're the 3 judges of the facts."
4 THE COURT: Mr. Wehner, do you have any comment?
5 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I don't think Mr. O'Neill's
6 suggested instruction addresses the point with regard to 7 substituting his personal opinion with regard to Ms. Dean's 8 veracity as taking her testimony and throwing it out in the 9 garbage. If Your Honor will recall, I did not object to that 10 during his opening. I did object to it during his rebuttal.
11 THE COURT: Right, eventually in rebuttal.
12 MR. WEHNER: Yes, sir. And I was overruled as to that
13 objection.
14 THE COURT: well, the objection was that it was a
15 mischaracterization of her testimony, as opposed to improper
16 argument.
17 MR. WEHNER: Fair enough. Whatever it says, Judge.
18 THE COURT: I'm going to give an ameliorating
19 instruction about what is for the jury to decide is the issues
20 and it's not the opinion of counsel that is appropriate in the 2 case, because I think the case law in our circuit, referring to
2 Harris v. United States, 402 F.2d 656, is fairly clear as well
2 as subsequent expressions of that, although the latest case I
2 have is 424 F.2d 769, a civil case, Olenin v. Curtin &
2 Johnson. Inc.

3593

1 THE COURT: All right, I'll have the jury in. They're
2 ready to go. They'd like to get going, I'm sure, in the 3 deliberations. And I'll let the alternates go.
4 If you all wish, you may speak to the alternates, but 5 I'm going to advise them, obviously, they can't talk to anybody
6 else about this case.
7 (Jury in.)
8 THE COURT: All right, good morning.
9 THE JURORS: Good morning.
10 THE COURT: I'm glad you're all here. I take it you're 11 feeling well and ready to proceed? You have no concerns?
12 All right. What we're going to do now, Ladies and Gentlemen,
13 I have a couple of matters. One, I'm going to give a very brief
14 instruction to you concerning the arguments you heard yesterday
15 before you begin your deliberations, remind you of some things
16 that were said earlier, in essence, and then secondly, we're 17 going to be saying good-bye to Ms. Lea and Ms. Chisolm in a

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

18 minute.

19 Let me ask Ms. Lea and Ms. Chisolm, do you have 20 anything in the jury room back here, coats and belongings, books,
2 papers, purses, anything like that?
2 ALTERNATE JUROR LEA: No.
2 ALTERNATE JUROR CHISOLM: No.
2 THE COURT: Okay. All right, Ladies and Gentlemen,
2 first as to the arguments you heard yesterday and the day before,

3594

1 I take it, but particularly as to yesterday and the day before,
2 the closing arguments and more particularly as to the 3 prosecutor's closing arguments, there were comments made as to 4 using the word "liar" or "lying" and the like, and it is,
5 obviously, the issue is for you as the jury to make a decision
6 keeping in mind the evidence in the case, and it is not the 7 opinion of counsel, that is, whatever their personal belief is,
8 that is appropriate, so that an argument to you that someone is 9 lying is really an expression of personal opinion by the 10 attorney, as opposed to pointing you to the evidence and saying 11 it's for you to make up your mind whether or not someone is i 12 telling the truth. I want you to keep that in mind.
13 It's the evidence you have to focus on and not the 14 statements of counsel, which I informed you previously are not 15 evidence in the case.
16 The Court will be sending back to you shortly the 17 exhibits in the case, and as I said previously, then you review
18 the exhibits along with your recollection jointly of what the 19 evidence is in the case, the testimony of the witnesses, and in 20 following my instructions, you deliberate on that basis. And 2 you're not to be influenced by any personal expressions of 2 whether someone is worthy of belief or not by counsel in the
2 case,
2 Now, Ladies and Gentlemen, with that advice to you, I'm
2 going to ask you to go back and begin your deliberations. A copy

3595

1 of the instructions will be sent back to you, the exhibits, as 2 soon as they're finished being prepared, will be sent back to 3 you, and you should now begin your deliberations.
4 That means you keep in mind my instructions and proceed
5 to follow them in your deliberations. You're now free of the 6 admonition we've had for six weeks about not talking about the 7 case among yourselves. You only still talk about it among 8 yourselves when all twelve of you are together in this room at 9 one time.
10 If you need to take breaks, that's fine. If you take a 11 break and somebody wants to walk outside, go down the hall and 12 smoke or something, that's fine. I'd ask you not to smoke in the 13 jury room, for those people who don't smoke. But once someone 14 takes a smoke break, remember the others no longer continue with 15 deliberations. You wait until they're back.
16 All right, so you can be excused now.
17 I would like Ms. Lea and Ms. Chisolm to stay for one
18 minute so we could talk to them.
19 (Jury out.)
20 THE COURT: All right, Ms. Lea and Ms. Chisolm, you've
2 been with us since early September. As you note, we had to use
2 two alternates, and up until a few minutes ago, we may have had
2 to use one or both of you with the jurors who are not feeling
2 well, but they say they're ready to go, and now that they're
2 going to begin their deliberations, it's necessary to release you

3596

1 all.
2 I want to point out to you we could not have gone
3 forward with the case unless we had jurors available to take the 4 place of someone who had become ill during the trial or otherwise
5 unavailable, and we'd have to start the trial over again, so it's 6 necessary and you served a very important purpose in the case.
7 It's a little frustrating you don't get to go back and 8 deliberate, I'm sure, after this long trial, and you have your 9 own feelings and opinions about the case you'd like to discuss 10 with others and be able to finish your work, but that's not the 11 way the system works in the criminal cases.
12 In our civil cases today, we do have a system now where 13 all the alternates go back and deliberate as well as the regular 14 jury, but we don't do that in a criminal.
15 What I would like you to do is a couple things for me.
16 One, I'd like you, if you have become friendly with any of the 17 sitting jurors, not to talk with them at all about the case at 18 this time. If you ride home with them or see them on the weekend
19 or something like that, please don't discuss this case whatsoever
20 if they are still in deliberations. It would be improper to do
2 so.
2 Once you hear that they render a verdict -- and you can
2 call the Court and ask if a verdict has come down -- you can then
2 talk with them if you wish, but not until then. It would be 2 improper to talk to them at all about the case during their

3597

1 deliberations. It could cause a mistrial. So please don't do
2 that.
3 If you wish, you may talk to counsel about the case. I
4 don't object to that. I don't want you talking about anything
5 that may impinge upon the other jurors or anything about the 6 other jurors personally at all, but if you want to talk about 7 your own impressions about the case or about counsel with them,
8 you're welcome to do so, but you don't have to.
9 Other than that, I'm going to thank you again for your 10 time and effort with us. It's a sacrifice to be away from a 11 family and friends and work for such a long time, but we 12 appreciate it, and it's the best system that I think we've been 13 able to devise so far for trying cases fairly is to have citizens
14 of the community act as the jury.
15 A long time ago, they used to have the judges only do
16 it, and in England, well, almost 800 years ago now, when King
17 John and the barons met and wrote what they call the Magna Carta
18 was the first time they incorporated something like a jury trial
19 in our English system that we adopted here, and it's done well
20 for that many years.
2 we'll have you released then. You can go to the jury
2 lounge and tell them you're finished in this case. You'll get
2 credit for being here today and get your check for being here
2 today as well.
2 And again, we appreciate your time and efforts with us.

3598

1 If you have any other questions, Ms. Whyte can answer anything
2 for you, our courtroom clerk, all right?
3 All right, would you please go out the front door then
4 so you don't bother the people in the back? Thank you very much.
5 (Alternate jurors excused.)
6 THE COURT: All right, I'm going to stand in recess,
7 and you tell Ms. Whyte where you are.
8 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, can I just make one reference for

9 the record?

10 THE COURT: Sure.

11 MR. O'NEILL: I guess it was my misunderstanding, Your § 12 Honor, but I didn't realize you would direct your final comments
13 directly to the prosecutor's opinion, so I would just cite the 14 Court to page 3508 of the transcript, where I state that it is 15 not for me to determine the credibility of the witnesses, but it
16 is clearly the function of the jury, after charged by the Judge,
17 who will instruct them on what's credible and what's not.

18 THE COURT: Okay. No, I know you had done that. It's 19 one reason I didn't interrupt the argument yesterday, because you
20 had laid the foundation, but it got repeated so much, the lying 2 and the garbage can, I felt that an ameliorating instruction was
2 probably appropriate.

2 All right, we'll take a recess until return of court.

2 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, what's your schedule today?

2 When do you intend to let the jury go this evening? Are you

3599

1 going to keep them late?

2 THE COURT: I'll keep them until 4:45, somewhere in 3 that range.

4 MR. WEHNER: Thank you, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right. And I'll be here in court all
6 afternoon in another case, so I'll be here.

7 (Recess at 11:00 a.m.)

PROCEEDING S

2 (Defendant absent, Jury out.)

3 THE COURT: All right, good morning, counsel.

4 THE CLERK: Criminal No. 92-181, United States of

5 America v. Deborah Gore Dean. We have Robert O'Neill and Paula

6 Sweeney for the government, Stephen Wehner for Ms. Dean.

7 THE COURT: All right, we've got a note from the jury,

8 signed by Milton Phillips, the foreperson, he's Juror No. 1 -- at 9 least that's how he identifies himself -- a while ago, and it

10 said, "Can we have a transcript of Louis Kitchin's testimony on 11 Count 3?" That inquiry is exactly as I was afraid of, they would 12 make inquiries about transcripts of testimony.

13 So they are asking to see Louis Kitchin's testimony on 14 Count 3. My feeling is -- and I'll hear from counsel -- that if

15 they had asked about a specific reference, did Mr. Kitchin say it

16 was Tuesday when he did this, had this meeting, that might be

17 something we could answer and give them something, but to start

18 giving parts of testimony when there's other testimony, also,

19 that may affect that issue, without giving all the transcribed

20 testimony, I have concerns.

21 Mr. O'Neill or Ms. Sweeney, do you have anything on 22 this?

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

23 MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Your Honor. The government is in 24 agreement with the Court. I've never seen transcripts go back, 25 first of all, so that would be highly unusual, and generally, if

3602

1 they have a specific inquiry, the court reporter could read back
2 a specific piece.

3 THE COURT: Right, exactly.

4 MR. O'NEILL: Perhaps an overall cautionary instruction
5 again telling them, "It's your recollection of the evidence that 6 controls, all of you. We don't want to highlight one particular 7 part of the evidence. There -a great many witnesses testified

8 and a great many documents, and if you have one specific 9 question --as this Court has already indicated --we could 10 address that particular inquiry."

11 THE COURT: All right.

i 12 (Defendant present.)

13 THE COURT: Mr. Wehner, as to this request for the 14 transcript of Mr. Kitchin's testimony as it relates to Count 3?
15 Ms. Dean just got here. Do you want to talk to her for a minute
16 about the note?

17 MR. WEHNER: If I could just have a few seconds?

18 THE COURT: Sure.

19 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor, I don't -I agree with the 20 Court. I don't agree with Mr. O'Neill in terms of the need to

2 give them an extended additional instruction. I would prefer
2 something brief along the lines of, "It is your recollection of 2 the testimony that governs," period.

2 THE COURT: All right. I will have the jury brought in 2 and briefly instruct them. I will say a little bit more than

3603

1 counsel's request for the defendant, but I will give them a brief
2 instruction they're going to have to rely upon their collective 3 recollection as to the testimony, that there were a lot of 4 witnesses, and supplying a transcript of part of the testimony of 5 one witness in relation to the other witnesses' testimony, fall
6 into dangers of highlighting particular testimony.

7 All right, we'll have them in, and I'll talk to them
8 briefly. Is the marshal out there?

9 They're going to go to lunch in about 20 minutes.

10 THE CLERK: 12:15.

11 THE COURT: About 12:15, they're going to lunch.

12 They started at about 9:30, right, Gloria?

13 THE CLERK: It was about 9:45.

14 THE COURT: About 9:45.

15 (Jury in.)

16 THE COURT: All right. Ladies and Gentlemen, good
17 morning.

18 THE JURORS: Good morning.

19 THE COURT: Thank you for waiting for us until we got 20 everybody organized here and could answer your question. The

2 question came from the jury, and I'll read it again just so you
2 can keep it in your minds, and then I'll respond to it, and we
2 have consulted with counsel on this matter: "Can we have a
2 transcript of Louis Kitchin's testimony on Count 3?" Signed by 2 Milton Phillips.

3604

1 The short answer to that is no. Let me explain that to

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
2 you. It's not an arbitrary decision at all. The concern the 3 Court has is that it's your collective recollection of all the 4 witnesses' testimony that you have to rely upon, and to highlight
5 one part of one person's testimony by giving you the transcript
6 of that as compared to all the other witnesses that may have 7 testified about the subject may be unfair, so that I'm going to 8 have to have you rely upon your collective recollection of the 9 testimony that was given in this case.
10 The only exception to that would be if there was a
11 specific question about did somebody say Tuesday or somebody say
12 Wednesday, some particular issue that we could, factual that's 13 not at dispute, basically, issue we could ask the court reporter
14 to look through the testimony about, but otherwise, as I
15 mentioned in my final instructions in the general charge to you,
16 that we're not going to be sending back all the transcripts of 17 all the testimony of the witnesses to you, because it's really
2 18 your recollection that has to control.
i
19 All right. Thank you again for your attention to this 20 matter, and I'm going to release you now. You can continue 21 deliberations. I think lunch is about 12:15. You'll be taken to 2 lunch. All right?
2 (Jury out.)
2 THE COURT: All right, we'll be back whenever there's
2 any other word from the jury. We stand in recess.

1 (Recess from 11:55 a.m. to 1:57 p.m.)
2 (Defendant present, Jury out.)
3 THE COURT: All right, the jury --do you need to call
4 the case again?
5 THE CLERK: No. No, sir.
6 THE COURT: The jury has come back with a follow-up
7 note, as might have been expected from the instruction. For the 8 record, it reads, "we would like to know the date or very close
9 time frame of Sherrill -- they spelled it -- Needles-Hawkins'
10 testimony on when Lou Kitchin called and asked, 'where are my 11 (his) units?'"
12 I'll listen to counsel's remarks about that, what they 13 recall from the testimony what they're addressing in this note.
14 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, the only --I believe there were 15 two references during Ms. Nettles-Hawkins' testimony as to 16 conversations with Lou Kitchin. I know one occurred on direct 17 testimony at page 1551 of the transcript. I have digested much 18 of the testimony, so that's how I can do that.
19 The redirect, I believe the other notation was on 20 redirect, and I don't have a notation as to that, just an 21 independent recollection.
22 THE COURT: And what was the testimony about?
23 MR. O'NEILL: On the -- as to page 1551, it was that 24 Mr. Kitchin was calling about the status of his units, and 25 Ms. Dean said something to the effect -- and I'm quoting my 3606

1 notes -- something to the effect that tell him they're coming.
2 THE COURT: The question was about a date or a time
3 frame when that telephone message had come in.
4 MR. O'NEILL: Oh.
5 THE COURT: Was it a telephone message they were 6 referring to?
7 MR. O'NEILL: Yes.
8 THE COURT: It was an actual message in evidence?
9 MR. O'NEILL: No. It's a telephone message through 10 oral testimony.

allbinders as word for experiment.txt

11 THE COURT: Through oral testimony.
i 12 MR. O'NEILL: There is no corresponding written 13 memoranda reflecting that.
14 THE COURT: Was there a time frame given for this?
15 MR. O'NEILL: No. In terms of the date, yeah, I wasn't 16 sure when Gloria first read the message whether they mean the 17 date she testified, but now as you're asking -18
THE COURT: It said, "We would like to know the date -19
I think --or very close time frame of the Hawkins," well, it 20 says, "testimony on when Lou Kitchin called." I guess they're 2 asking if she testified when he called her.
2 MR. O'NEILL: Yeah.
2 THE COURT: They're asking simply, as I understand it,
2 when this alleged telephone call take place.
2 MR. O'NEILL: If that is their inquiry, Your Honor, I

10/93

1 don't believe there was any testimony as to when it occurred.
2 That would be my recollection.
3 THE COURT: Let me give everybody the note so you can
4 look at the note again. Everybody can look at the note to make
5 sure I'm reading it correctly.
6 MR. WEHNER: Your Honor?
7 THE COURT: Yes, Mr. Wehner.
8 MR. WEHNER: My recollection is that there is no, as 9 Mr. O'Neill said, there is no testimony as to when that alleged 10 telephone conversation took place.

11 THE COURT: Looking at my own notes about the trial, I
12 don't see any particular reference to a time frame.
13 when did she testify in your notes? Do you know the 14 day?
15 MR. O'NEILL: I don't go by dates, Your Honor.

I 16 THE COURT: Do you know the order of her testimony?
! 17 MR. O'NEILL: Yes. Immediately preceding Philip Winn, i 18 immediately after Jack Jennings.

>-19 THE COURT: I've got it. I see. She testified
20 September 28.

LU

Q.
2 MS. SWEENEY: And, Your Honor, if it would be helpful,
2 our recollection as to the second conversation that she testified
2 about regarding Mr. Kitchin was about whether he could have a

2 project-specific letter. Again, that's from my recollection.
2 THE COURT: She spent a lot of time identifying entries

1 in the calendar. My notes don't reflect any particular language
2 of the telephone conversation about Mr. Kitchin's call, and I
3 certainly don't reflect any date from my own notes. I haven't
4 gone through the transcript.

5 Would it be safe to tell the jury that there was no
6 testimony as to the date or the time frame when this telephone
7 call they've referred to occurred?

8 MR. WEHNER: I would prefer that Your Honor's response
9 not assume that that telephone conversation took place -10

THE COURT: Occurred, yes.

11 MR. WEHNER: -

but with that exception, I have no
12 problem with that type of answer.

13 MR. O'NEILL: Judge, I don't know how you cannot refer
14 to the conversation, since it's at page 1551 of the transcript,
15 but I have no notes as to any date being mentioned, so I can't 16 tell you that any was mentioned.

17 THE COURT: Yes, I do have a note about Mr. Kitchin's
18 phone call, that she testified he kept pestering her and he asked 19 her where the units were. She said they were coming. That's the 20 shorthand version of it. I don't see any date on it.

21 Can I have the note back, please?

22 All right, we'll have the jury in. I'll respond that 23 we don't know when this alleged phone call took place. That's 24 all.

25 (Jury in.)

3609

1 THE COURT: All right, Ladies and Gentlemen, thank you
2 for coming in promptly.

3 We got this note over lunch. It took a while to get
4 everybody back together then. The question was, "We would like
5 to know the date or very close time frame of Sherrill Needles
6 Hawkins' testimony on when Lou Kitchin called and asked, 'where 7 are my (his) units?'"

8 I think it's Sherrill "Nettles."

9 But in any event, discussions with counsel and a review
10 of the record does not indicate there was any date or close time
11 frames given as to any alleged phone call that may have gone
12 forward. There was no such testimony as to any time frame.
13 So that's all we can tell you about it. You have to go
14 back to continue in your deliberations.

15 (Jury out.)

16 THE COURT: All right, we'll recess until return of
17 court.

18 (Recess at 2:08 p.m.)

17 been no other communications from her as of this time.

7 THE CLERK: The jury has been polled, Your Honor.
8 THE COURT: All right. The verdict will be entered on
9 the record.
10 Ladies and Gentlemen, that finishes your work in this 11 case. It's been a lengthy case, and we thank you for your time s 12 and efforts in this matter. You started with us in September,
s
13 and now it's towards the end of October, and I know that it's 14 been a sacrifice for many of you from your families and work.
15 I'd like you to please take your personal belongings
16 from the jury room. Leave all the materials dealing with the 17 case there, however, all the exhibits and notes, et cetera,
18 instructions and the like, and please just take your personal 19 belongings from the jury room, and then you can check out through 20 the jury lounge, let them know you've finished your service, and 2 they won't expect you back again for a while.
2 I'd like you to also just be counseled by me that I'm
2 not telling you you can't talk about the case, but it would not
2 be appropriate to talk about internal deliberations that you had
2 during your deliberations in the jury room. If you wish to speak

3617

1 to counsel about the conduct of the trial in general or about
2 your own personal viewpoint, that's one matter, but the 3 deliberations are secret. And that goes also talking to press.
4 All right, Ladies and Gentlemen, we're going to excuse
5 you at this time. If you'd go out the back way, please.
6 (Jury excused.)
7 THE COURT: All right, that note will be made part of 8 the record in the case. That's the jury's note.
9 All right, I have still under advisement the motion for 10 judgment of acquittal. I'm going to ask the government to

allbinders as word for experiment.txt
11 supplement their response to the motion for judgment of acquittal
12 not as to the statute of limitations issue, but as to the 13 sufficiency of the evidence issue on the conspiracy and perjury
14 counts, with references to the record.
15 The defendant filed one with specific reference to 16 testimony, indicating a lack of any evidence to go to the jury as 17 to whether or not Ms. Dean had the requisite intent to knowingly 18 enter into a conspiracy, the three different conspiracies, and 19 the testimony that went to that, I believe, area, and I'd like to 20 see some record evidence as to what the Court can consider in 2 regards to that on behalf of the government. Today is the 26th.
2 I would think we could have that in by Friday, the 29th.
2 All right, Ms. Dean, I'm going to release you on your
2 own recognizance pending sentencing at this time. I'm going to 2 set a sentencing date at this time as well. It takes about 70 to

3618

80 days to get a presentence report done, which will be November,

2 December, to January.
3 January, I don't know
4 available, we can put
5 Wednesday, 9:30 a.m.
6 All right,
7 then, January 19, at 8 report prepared ahead
9 opportunity to review
10 Mr. Wehner?
11 MR. WEHNER:

Either the second or third week of what's good for counsel. If counsel are it in on the 19th of January, on a

we'll schedule the sentencing Wednesday

9:30 a.m., and there will be a presentence of time that counsel can have the and comment on it along with the defendant.
Your Honor, can I have until Friday a week

I 12 to file final dispositive motions with regard to posttrial?

13 THE COURT: You mean new trial motions -14

MR. WEHNER: Yes.

15 THE COURT: --or renewed -16

MR. WEHNER: New trial.

17 THE COURT: -- judgment of acquittal motion as well?

18 MR. WEHNER: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Under the rule, you've got what?

20 MR. WEHNER: Ten, I believe.

2 THE COURT: Ten days? Today is the 26th. I think the
2 5th would be the 10th day in any event, it looks like to me, so
2 you can have until November 5.

2 All right, we'll allow that to be filed November 5, any
2 additional posttrial motions by the defendant.

3619

1 All right, counsel, I appreciate the work on both
2 sides. I know it was a lot of work in this case, lots of 3 documents and a long trial, and I thank you for all the efforts
4 and hard work.

5 All right, we stand in recess.
