Dear Dave:

Thank you very much for arranging yesterday's opportunity to meet with Jack Hiler. While going back to the office, I was thinking how fortunate I am to have met you and to have developed a relationship way beyond business. I just wanted to say thanks because often times I think thanks more than I say it.

As always, I expect much fruit to come to bear as a result of the meetings you arrange.

Sincerely yours,

Thomas T. Demery
