Dear Steve:

As good leaven is to bread, so is a good host to any visit. Your marks in the host department have fractured the scale. I've never in my life had a fishing camp experience like the one you arranged. The weather, the moon, the company, the facilities, and the friendship have made an indelible impression on my memory, for which I would like to thank you. And, if being a host wasn't enough, the 400 pounds of seafood you sent me home with is borderline excess (note I said "borderline")!

I look forward to my next visit to New Orleans when we will get around to shooting some pool and that card game that we ran out of time for. In the meantime, you have my best wishes for continued prosperity and my deepest thanks for all of the arrangements while in New Orleans.

Hope to see you soon.

Sincerely yours,

Thomas I. Demery
